Suferinţa este o dramă a conştiinţei care antagonizează integritatea individuală cu ambiţia lumească. Am devenit prizonierul propriilor mele intrigi, într-un joc care încă o dată îmi pune nervii la încercare, ceea ce-mi consumă orice firimitură de speranţă legată de o perspectivă a bucuriei vieţii. Mă simt obligat, încercând o plăcere deosebit de intensă, să-mi acord mie însumi prilejul de a mă ridica încă o dată la înălţimea pericolului şi a suspansului mai presus de orice, ca manifestare machiavelică a vanităţii. De care îmi este imposibil să mă îndepărtez.

A început lupta cu gândurile care mă separă de oricare alte preocupări exterioare. Şi oricât de neverosimilă ar părea această îndepărtare de vechea mea identitate, de seninătatea pe care am ţinut-o întotdeauna strânsă în mine, ea este totuşi purtătoarea unei esenţe a cărei revelare gradată face obiectul iniţiativelor mele viitoare. Medierii oricăror conflicte şi divergenţe de natură lăuntrică.

Leadership: Lumea care te transformă într-o persoană nouă este dublată de o estetică a imaginii ce transformă tristeţea din spatele manifestărilor tale într-o adâncă şi solitară existenţă?

Nu pot descrie războiul cu armata de gânduri care mă asaltează derutant şi stăruitor. Într-o oarecare măsură, am pus deoparte ceea ce am tratat dintotdeauna cu bunăvoinţă şi respect. Până în acest moment. Când seria aceasta de bombardamente care parcă nu se mai sfârşeşte, mi-a adus conştiinţa într-o stare de neoperativitate. Existenţa mea nu mai variază după natura idelor câştigate despre libertate, iubire şi fericire, în spiritul unor idealuri morale înalte, ci doar după natura unei depăşiri a limitelor de corectitudine în numele unei autorităţi care nu admite contraziceri.

Sunt înzestrat cu singurele cunoştinţe trebuincioase unui salt deasupra pericolului, în vastele pagini ale urmărilor unei experienţe extraordinare, suspendate la înălţimea unor exigenţe morale atipice, care mă fac apt să devin protagonistul unei opere scrise de Stephen King. Protagonistul unei poveşti de viaţă pe care mulţi nici nu şi-o pot imagina, dar pe care nu o doresc nici celui mai mare duşman al meu.

Ceva pustnic există în fiinţa mea, izolarea voluntară, renunţarea la lume, un fel de fanatism care mă distorsionează complet de raţiune, alimentând inepuizabil dăruirea mea spre ceva ce e mai presus de mine. O voinţă formidabilă de a nu ţine seama de Dumnezeu, nici de bunătate. Căci fibrele-mi de simţire adăpostesc încă sentimente ale timpului trecut, ce păstrează încă gustul amar al nedreptăţii şi injustiţiei sociale.

De fapt, personalitatea mea străluceşte printr-o singură forţă: speranţa de a-mi dezlănţui răzbunarea asupra celor care se fac vinovaţi de moartea soţiei mele. Însă ceea ce mă arde în întregime sub impulsul unui sentiment amar de recunoştinţă, combinat cu imaginile unei experienţe copleşitoare, este faptul că i-am promis demult soţiei mele că voi uita totul, că voi lăsa în urma amărăciunea şi resentimentul. Nu pot face asta.

Leadership: Te pui în ipostaza de "victimă" sau "beneficiar" al unei nedreptăţi trecute ce îţi obscurizează identitatea, sub aspectul predispoziţiei de a te angaja într-un dialog cu ruşinea de a te lepăda de tine?

Tendinţa ta de a fi neîncrezător in tot ceea ce face obiectul unei realităţi care te obligă sa i te supui, întreţinută de sentimentul de a trăi în "inconştienţă" sau în necunoştinţă de cauză şi vizând consecinţele pe termen lung ale unei răvrătiri, îţi oferă doar o speranţă sufocantă şi obositoare - aceea de a te îndepărta de lume.

Ceea ce nu face altceva decât să-ţi sporească peste măsură ruşinea faţă de laşitatea de care dai dovadă în relaţia: Tu-Ego-Adevăr-Realitate , inducându-ţi un impuls secundar de comandă în timpul perioadei tale de refacere şi redobândire a puterii de a răzbate în viaţă.

Astfel ajungi să te poziţionezi în ipostaza de "victimă" sau "beneficiar" al unei nedreptăţi trecute ce îţi obscurizează identitatea. În loc să înaintezi cu încredere către desăvârşire, te separi de fiinţa ta reală, devii prizonierul propriilor tale intrigi, într-un joc care mai mult îţi pune nervii la încercare. Punând deoparte ceea ce ai tratat dintotdeauna cu bunăvoinţă şi respect, îţi aduci conştiinţa într-o stare de neoperativitate – fiindcă frumuseţea ta morală a fost atinsă de trăsnetul egoismului, razbunării, urii sau al respingerii de sine.

Leadershipul este o chestiune de asumare a condiţiei de underground a fiinţei tale care influenţează stabilitatea unei situaţii avantajoase pentru evoluţia cursului unor valori de referinţă.

În leadership se ramarcă mai mult oamenii care calcă pedala de frână şi nu acceleraţia. Ceea ce îl eliberează pe om de robia patimilor, redându-i starea sufletească de echilibru şi seninătate, începe cu negarea unei valori de tip NULL.

Această valoare reprezentând suma tuturor experienţelor trecute de-a lungul timpului prin filtrul conştiinţei şi sensibilităţii, suma tuturor lucrurilor care ar fi putut fi evitate, poate să fie convertită într-o valoare validă dacă omul reuşeşte să facă distincţie între ceea ce îl animă prin exteriorizarea trăirilor şi ceea ce se pierde în intensitatea trăirilor.

Într-adevăr, lumea de dincolo de leadership cuprinde nenumărate opţiuni şi culori, capitole noi de viaţă pe care trebuie să le parcurgi cu ochii, cu sufletul, cu gândul, cu îngerii şi demonii tăi. Înseamna să te găseşti şi să te pierzi în acelaşi timp, pentru ca în final să te cunoşti mai bine. După cum muzica slujeşte sufletului, tot astfel alternanţa dintre stările de cald şi rece slujeşte la dezvoltarea omului, întărindu-l sau doborându-l, prin nenumăratele sale intervenţii şi delimitări pe care le imprimă singur în conştiinţa lui.

A te angaja într-un dialog cu ruşinea de a te lepăda de tine, înseamnă să faci apel la o autoritate mai înaltă de decizie investită cu puterea de a schimba lucrurile pe care universul tău lăuntric nu le poate accepta ca fiind definitorii în procesul desfăşurării evenimentelor pe care le gestionezi.

În luptă cu Mephistopheles (II) evidenţiază acel aspect existenţial care dă senzaţia de disconfort, care macină omul ducându-l în starea de imposibilitate de a se împotrivi propriei sale condiţionări negative. Căci abia în acest punct se poate deschide temporar o amplă privelişte asupra dimensiunii identităţii sale reale.

În luptă cu Mephistopheles (I)

Găseşte esenţa care face obiectul iniţiativelor tale viitoare, fără să-ţi alimentezi excesiv starea de funcţionare cu ceva care este mai presus de tine.

Am ezitat pentru întâia dată să mă folosesc de prilejul pe care soarta, umilă şi chinuitoare, sau poate chiar însuşi Dumnezeu prin nenumăratele sale accepţiuni, intervenţii şi delimitări, mi l-a scos în cale. Aş fi putut să mă strecor de îndată în camera diamantelor. N-am îndrăznit. Dar refuz cu tărie să cred că palma puternică dată obrazului meu, sporindu-mi peste măsură ruşinea faţă de laşitatea de care am dat dovadă, îmi va pricinui durere şi lacrimi.

Dimpotrivă, abia în acel moment zbuciumat am simţit că sunt beneficiarul unei ştiinţe oculte, a unei profesiuni independente, exclusiviste, dar care, pentru a ajunge la desăvârşire, avea nevoie de un studiu minuţios şi îndelungat. Trebuia să mă cunosc îndeajuns de bine, înainte de a face pasul spre iad.

Perspectiva psihologică asupra interpretării comportamentelor umane avea finalitate în ceea ce priveşte alegerea unui plan de acţiune care să mă surprindă într-o ipostază în care să mă simt răbunat pentru suferinţele şi nedreptăţile trecutului. Subtila presiune exercitată asupra duşmanilor mei, care mă ajuta să găsesc ceva intrigant de pus în scenă, o mare lovitură, îmi refăcea viaţa în ampla şi integrala ei realitate.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi asumi destinul unei fiinţe care nu se manifestă în străfundul sufletului decât sub formă de imagini ale unui trecut care continua să bântuie prezentul unei lumi care nu-i aparţine, dar pe care o statuează la nivel de judecată supremă?

Trecutul m-a transformat într-un om răzbunător, în scopul de a deturna fonduri importante ale băncii. Da, ei, bancherii mi-au ucis soţia şi vor plăti serios pentru asta. Să mă cunosc şi să accept ceea ce am devenit, un protagonist al mişcării celor ce luptă pentru înfăptuirea dreptăţii ca virtute socială, percepând sensul vieţii mele în fiecare fenomen de risc asumat, era doar o trăsătură esenţială a abordării flexibile a conceptului de forţă şi reacţiune. Ceea ce instituia prezumţii de culpa şi de cauzalitate între faptă şi prejudiciu.

Dar în acest caz se cuvine să mă las pradă nebuniei, să atribui această iniţiativă şi reuşita ei în exclusivitate lui Mephistopheles. Căci numai El face ca ispita să fie o cursă, numai El face minuni prin nedreptate, numai El face să se împlinească prin fapta ilegală durerea pe care am îndurat-o atâta timp. Diamantele erau doar o unealtă a răzbunării, un aspect esenţial pentru o corectă dezlegare a cauzei pentru care o slujeam. Iar eu eram doar un martir al acestei cauzei !

Eu, Hobbs, n-am fost pregătit să accept adevărul acestei şarade şi urmările sale. Umanul individual ar fi palpitat intens în personajul în care m-aş fi putut transforma prin încălcarea unei obligaţii morale, prin lipsa de recunoştinţă pe care o aveam faţă de sursa care m-a direcţionat totdeauna în viaţă: binele. Dar totuşi, am riscat ! *

Leadership: Cum te manifeşti în nevoia Egoului de a rămâne stabil în contextul presiunilor pe care le suporţi, poziţionându-te în mintea unui artist care ţine seama doar de condiţia intrinsecă a artei, şi anume trăirea şi înţelegerea suferinţei prin gestionarea „evenimentelor surprinzătoare"?

Te simţi urmărit de o imagine care te chinuieşte groaznic? Capitulezi în faţa aspectelor negative care înlocuiesc partea bună din tine? Trăieşti cu anxietatea provocată de gândul că ai căzut în robia propriilor patimi? Ai devenit prizonierul propriilor tale intrigi, într-un joc care îţi pune nervii la încercare?

Omul se poate elibera de sub tutela unei gândiri iraţionale, îşi poate impune voinţa de se împotrivi propriei sale condiţionări negative, care-l fac să se simtă mic şi nesigur pe sine, doar dacă natura sa reală este bine înrădăcinată în sine. Adică, distingând pe cont propriu deosebirea dintre bine şi rău, cunoscând acea generozitate venită din reciclarea tuturor trăirilor care-l fac nefericit.

El nu se poate manifesta ca un merit social în nevoia Egoului de a rămâne stabil în contextul presiunilor pe care le suportă prin prisma experienţelor trecutului. Însă se poate manifesta ca un factor modelator al prezentului prin găsirea unor elemente de compensare a contradicţiilor generate de imperfecţiunile mediului în care trăieşte. Sau se poate manifesta prin intermediul puterii de a-şi accepta limitele şi condiţia de fiinţă fragilă.

Dacă frumuseţea paradisului ar rezulta din comparaţia cu infernul şi purgatoriul, atunci putem spune că împăcarea omului cu sine însuşi în diversele planuri ale existenţei este o combinaţie între starea psihismului care a pierdut lupta cu "monştrii" realităţii şi ultima "faptă" cerută de exigenţele unei instanţe morale înalte de a fi accesibilă în aria evoluţiei care marchează un nou model de funcţionare. Un asemenea model ar fi Contele de Monte-Cristo", a cărui imbold pentru realizarea dreptăţii l-a constituit răzbunarea.

Puterea care face cinste leadershipului este consecinţa acelei evoluţii prin care omul parcurge învăţăturile dure ale vieţii pe fundalul unor imagini (care nu seamănă între ele) despre un rezultat al adevărului pe care îl detestă, dar care spune totul despre el însuşi.

Atributul principal al unui Ego matur, dârz şi responsabil, este că rămâne stabil în contextul presiunilor pe care le suporta. Astfel, omul se defineşte ca un demers specific care permite structurarea metodică a unei realităţi viitoare, ca un răspuns nociv şi nedorit determinat de o cauză nedreaptă, ca un context cognitiv-comportamental structurat de valori, credinţe şi idei care converg spre un final neaşteptat. Dar pentru a-ţi întări Egoul trebuie să ai îndrăzneala de a risca asemenea unui pion care poate fi însă convertit în regină la final...

Spre a cunoaşte leadershipul în adevărata lui valoare, omul trebuie să se confrunte cu sine însuşi, simplificându-şi modelul de "a fi", ducându-şi funcţionalitatea la un nivel mai avansat de rafinament în abordarea diferitelor provocări pe care viaţa i le aşterne în cale. Lămurirea acelei dileme existențiale, cu o profundă semnificaţie şi evaluând rezultatele, implică anumite responsabilităţi de asumat. Dar poate constitui totodată şi o trambulină în alegerea obiectivelor, în condiţii grele de "bruiaj şi interferenţe".

În loc să slujeşti egoismului de a cuceri mereu o mică bucăţică din marele teritoriu al incertitudinii, mai degrabă continuă să accepţi ceea ce ai susţinut dintotdeauna – binele, partea bună din tine, ca astfel să te eliberezi din robia patimilor, a întunericului care bântuie în lumea propriei tale minţi.

A trăi şi a înţelege suferinţa prin gestionarea „evenimentelor surprinzătoare" înseamnă să nu exprimi nicio remuşcare faţă de o acţiune pe care o gândeşti drept un efect al răzbunării, ceea ce te împiedică să fii fragil şi sensibil faţă de toate cele frumoase ale unei lumi ...deşarte.

În luptă cu Mephistopheles aduce în prim plan teama resimţită în faţa propriului tău Eu, atunci când anumite aspecte ale vieţii, în deplina lor complexitate, pun pe jar autoritatea ta morală.

În loc să-ţi încalci obligaţiile morale faţă de felul în care tinzi să te manifeşti în situaţii limită, în loc să faci pasul înspre iad, în loc să atribui neputinţa ta de a te schimba (în simţire, în gând sau faptă) acelei entităţi care poate fi asociată cu răul, încearcă mai degrabă să te dedici unui studiu minuţios şi îndelungat al propriei tale fiinţe.

Găseşte esenţa care face obiectul iniţiativelor tale viitoare, fără să-ţi alimentezi excesiv starea de funcţionare cu ceva care este mai presus de tine.

În numele adevărului te abandonez

Susţine întotdeauna exemplaritatea leadershipului tău, imprimând oamenilor o scară a valorilor bine definită care să nu le permită nicio abatere de la codul profesional stabilit de tine.

Bill Parrish, fondatorul şi preşedintele corporaţiei Parrish Communications îl invită la petrecerea lui aniversară pe Drew, mâna lui dreaptă, care se dovedise a fi un impostor - „omul din umbră” care, mişeleşte, lucrase pe la spatele tuturor ca să îl înlăture de la conducerea companiei, şi să înlesnească vânzarea ei în favoarea unui mare investitor.

Dacă ai urmărit filmul „Meet Joe Black (1998)”, atunci sigur îţi aminteşti finalul. Bill Parrish, cu autoritatea omului inteligent şi lucid care era, împreună cu Joe Black, îi întinde o cursă lui Drew pentru a-l determina să se demaşte singur în faţa membrilor comitetului director al companiei.

Ca urmare a planului de deconspirare bine ticluit, Drew a reacţionat, chiar dacă numai instinctiv, în modul cel mai elocvent cu putinţă, exact după cum s-au aşteptat Bill şi Joe. El a căzut în capcana lor, dezvăluind comitetului director adevăratele sale intenţii şi mârşăviile pe care le-a comis pentru a-l înlătura pe Bill din funcţia de manager, ca astfel să poată vinde compania.

Leadership: Care este viziunea ta asupra afacerii pe care o conduci, luând seama la modul de a te proteja de o realitate care aproape îţi "fuge de sub picioare", dar care te provoacă doar pentru a-ţi testa valorile pe care nu le apreciezi destul la tine?

Drew, deşi era de mulţi ani omul de încredere al lui Bill Parrish, nu şi-a păstrat în bună măsură trăsătura care i-a unit pe amândoi într-o anumită perioada a activităţii lor: respectul pentru Parrish şi pentru calitatea leadershipului său.

Leadershipul este ca un fel de chemare la ordine şi corectitudine, la adevăr şi virtute, şi trebuie să fie un model de integritate şi exigenţă profesională, care are o singură măsură: cea personală. Iar tot ceea ce te reprezintă, toate trăsăturile, toate calităţile tale, dacă nu sunt acordate la un nivel maxim de integritate şi încredere se răsfrâng direct asupra leadershipului tău tot aşa cum poluarea se răsfrânge direct asupra creierului.

Se spune că minciuna are picioare scurte şi că adevărul totdeauna iese la iveală, ceea ce înseamnă că şi duplicitatea şi disimularea adevărului despre sine vor fi mai devreme sau mai târziu aflate. Vai de cel care şi-a ascuns trecutul, care şi-a ascuns defectele şi eventualele fapte reprobabile. Odată aflate, încrederea oamenilor va dispărea şi el va fi înlăturat, ulterior căzând în prăpastia uitării.

Cu toate acestea, caracterul înşelător a lui Drew a fost tot timpul la vedere, fiindcă el nu punea deloc preţ nici măcar pe relaţia cu fiica cea mică a lui Bill Parrish. Iar Bill nu a sesizat caracterul precar al lui Drew dintr-un singur motiv: lăsa totul la vedere, nu se sinchisea de amănunte, nu se sinchisea de știința lui, încât de multe ori i se părea că adevăratul vizionar din companie era Drew (cel ce făcea cu atâta șiretenie pe omul responsabil).

De fapt, greşeala cea mare a lui Parrish era următoarea: părea că nici nu observă lumea din jur, ajunsese la o bătrâneţe care nu-i mai trezea curiozitatea sau avântul, o bătrâneţe care s-a înstrăinat de el însuşi fără speranţă.

Viziunea este calitatea liderului de a se supune unei realităţi pe care oamenii o văd diferit. Dar aceeaşi viziune trebuie să meargă dincolo de ceea ce este imediat realizabil, dincolo de ceea ce s-au obişnuit oamenii să numească: "a face totul fără vedere".

Ceea ce ai distrus în timp cu propriul „eu" şi ascunzi în faţa celorlalţi, nu mai poate fi reparat. Renaşterea, aidoma păsării Phoenix, din propria cenuşă se petrece foarte rar cu un lider, şi, şi mai rar este acceptată. Prin urmare, fii cinstit şi corect cu oamenii, nu-i minţi în legătură cu trecutul tău şi poate ţi se vor găsi circumstanţe atenuante. O conştiinţă curată şi dreaptă îţi împinge leadershipul la un nivel ridicat, în timp ce un caracter care respectă un cod al onoarei te împiedică să-ţi destabilizezi calitatea morală.

La proba sportivă de rezistenţă nu câştigă cel care ajunge cu un metru înainte de linia de final, ci acela care trece linia. Aşa e şi cu integritatea, numai cel care e cinstit până la capăt câştigă marea bătălie cu sine însuşi, cu slăbiciunile şi viciile sale, şi doar aşa îşi va putea vădi calitatea personală şi va câştiga un ascendent asupra celorlalţi.

Ca om cheie într-o companie trebuie să fii o personalitate proeminentă şi unanim apreciată de ceilalţi, nu una contrastantă, cu accente care nu întregesc calităţile şi abilităţile căutate şi apreciate de ceilalţi. Totul într-o companie se sprijină pe substratul moral, deciziile şi acţiunile tale nu trebuie să ducă la deprecierea ta morală, căci altfel vei fi discreditat, dispreţuit, iar imaginea ta va fi compromisă.

Susţine întotdeauna exemplaritatea leadershipului tău, imprimând oamenilor o scară a valorilor bine definită care să nu le permită nicio abatere de la codul profesional stabilit de tine. Nu uita că valorile pe care nu le apreciezi destul la tine (precum corectitudinea, sinceritatea, buna intenţie) sunt valorile de care se pot folosi ceilalţi oameni în detrimentul tău, doar ca să-şi ascundă hoţiile.

Leadershipul este o realitate care îţi poate "fuge de sub picioare" dacă calitatea ta morală nu este în acord cu o viziune pe care toţi o susţin, cu toate resursele.

Cu alte cuvinte, nu te înarma cu o viziune pe care "cifrele" o susţin, ci cu o viziune ce se poate explica astfel: „Acesta e timpul în care orice orice om trage linia bilanţului după un an de zile."

În numele adevărului te abandonez reprezintă momentul în care dispare orice acord între tine şi ceilalţi, acord care nu s-a bazat strict pe reciprocitate şi interese comun. Acest moment apare când una dintre părţi nu ţine seama de interesele celeilalte, când nu contribuie la impunerea unui model de leadership eficient, şi nu dă un randament garantat.

Integritatea nu va înceta niciodată să reprezinte unul dintre punctele de referinţă în leadership. Şi nu este greu să descifrezi leadershipul superficial al cuiva, ce aparţine acelei personalităţi care evoluează pe traiectorii diferite, adeseori divergente de ale tale, şi care nu are nimic în comun cu etica.

Concluzie: În leadership este greu de apreciat de partea cui este adevărul, dar în momentul în care apar divergenţe, opinii diferite, în momentul în care dispare comuniunea de interese, se poate spune că s-a zis cu leadershipul în ciuda intenţiilor bune iniţiale.

În numele tatălui

Cu cât ştii mai multe despre leadership, cu atât mai uşor îţi va fi să recunoşti talentul unui lider.

În ciuda strădaniilor evidente pe care le depusese, Tus nu se ridicase deloc la înălţimea aşteptărilor tatălui său, Sharaman, care era regele Persiei. În taină, el nutrea speranţa că va reuşi să ajungă rege, întocmai ca tatăl său, convins de faptul că deciziile pe care le luase fuseseră cele mai iscusite.

Era momentul ca Tus să dea explicaţii pentru asedierea oraşului sfânt Alamut. Regele, căruia i se putea citi dezamăgirea pe chip, îl privi cu severitate pe fiul său şi îi spuse pe un ton autoritar de reproş:

- Această... aventură a ta nu va fi pe placul aliaţilor noştri. Dar bănuiesc că nu te-ai gândit şi la asta...

Tus rămase năucit la reproşul regelui, nu ştia cum să-şi justifice deciziile. Totala şi patetica lui aspiraţie către mărire, şi mai ales nerăbdarea, se dovediră a fi nefaste. Era nesigur pe sine însuşi. Nu înceta să-i arunce priviri îngrijorate unchiului său, care era de faţă, ca şi cum ar fi dorit ca acesta să-i ia apărarea.

Regele Sharaman, graţie cunoştinţelor şi înţelepciunii sale extraordinare, cuplate cu instinctul său infailibil de a detecta calităţile şi defectele care erau prezente în oameni, dar mai ales în fiul său, îi spuse cu blândeţe în glas:

- Ştiu că abia aştepţi să porţi coroana, dar crede-mă, nu eşti încă pregătit !

Leadership: Conştientizezi semnificaţia ascensiunii care dă unicitate propriilor decizii, cumpănind ceea ce este rău de ceea ce este bine într-o atitudine care îţi reflectă dependenţa de a fi în prim plan?

Parafrazându-l pe diplomatul spaniol Diego Saavedra Fajardo (1584-1648), aş spune că leadershipul este mai curând o sarcină decât o cinste - precum grijile unui tată împovărat de copii. Este foarte important pentru un lider să cunoască pornirile neobişnuite ale inimii "copiilor" săi. Şi mai ales să deosebească firile firave de cele orgolioase, ambiţioase şi dornice de afirmare - dar superficiale, şi de cele cu adevărat rezistente şi puternice care sunt capabile să ia decizii chibzuite şi să manevreze puterea în mod intuitiv şi sigur.

Regele Sharaman din filmul "Prince of Persia – The sands of time (2010)" nu l-a numit pe Tus succesorul său, pentru simplul motiv că nu a văzut în el calităţile unui conducător iscusit. Datoria lui ca tată era să-i insufle fiului său dragostea de virtute, să-l inspire în a dobândi înţelepciunea. Dar acesta nu a dat ascultare sfaturilor şi îndemnurilor lui, ci, plin de ambiţie şi de înclinaţie spre strălucire, a pornit un război inutil, folosindu-se mai mult de un pretext decât de dovezi clare.

Încercarea lui Tus de a-şi dovedi talentul de lider s-a dovedit dezastruoasă. Prestaţia lui era să-l coste pe tatăl său onoarea şi faima faţă de popoarele aliate. Ruşinea ar fi fost pentru regele Sharaman un simţământ catastrofal - la vârsta lui ar fi îndurat cu greu dispreţul şi ura îndreptate împotriva sa.

Leadership: Includerea ta personală într-o fază mai avansată de evaluare îţi confirmă opţiunea de retragere din prim-planul valorii?

Celui ce nu urmăreşte dimensiunea afectivă a leadershipului, în diferite puncte ale traseului parcurs spre includerea personală într-o fază mai avansată de evaluare, nu i se vor putea niciodată recunoaşte meritele şi raţionamentul în scopul generării unor noi competenţe. Acest lucru accentuează de fapt tendinţa liderului de a supune totul propriilor sale dorinţe, risipindu-şi puterea de a se depăşi pe ei însuşi, neluând în calcul însemnătatea zonei de lipsuri.

Evaluarea personală dinaintea ascensiunii, pe o linie discontinuă de exercitare a puterii în condiţii de asigurare a eforturilor de slujire a unei trebuinţe de autorealizare, contribuie la câştigarea meritului de a fi raţional, flexibil şi adaptabil în orice situaţie.

Această evaluare cuprinde toate acele aspecte care te impulsionează şi te determină să te comporţi într-un anumit fel sau să tinzi spre a atinge un anumit scop. Dar mai ales are ca prim rol o câştigare a garanţiei de a-ţi menţine angajamentul înaintea oricărui sentiment.

Dovezile cele mai grăitoare ale eficienţei iniţiativei particulare sunt aproape în totalitate extrase din procesul "mărturisirilor şi justificărilor", care convin numai prin asumarea răspunderii şi prin îndeplinirea cu conştiinciozitate a îndatoririlor. În timp ce căderile de putere, din ecuaţia performanţei, denotă acea ruptură dintre universul trăirilor şi lumea ambiţiilor de mărire, care intră într-o nouă structură de supraveghere şi control, odată cu acţiunile izolate ce dispar în sfera lipsită de sens a accidentalului.

Leadership: Îţi cântăreşti potenţialul de lider în funcţie de criteriile de timp şi de loc în care te simţi pregătit să discerni între convingerile tale absolute şi suspiciunile altcuiva?

Unui lider nu i se va prezenta în mod susţinut confirmarea, în succesiunea etapelor sale reale de evoluţie din cadrul unui amplu proces de transformări la nivel de Mindset sau Mastery Orientation , decât dacă reuşeşte un salt puternic peste toate erorile de raţionament ce pot interveni în chestiunile care nu se încadrează în sfera de aplicare a onestităţii, probităţii profesionale şi a stăpânirii de sine.

De aceea consolidarea autorităţii şi a poziţiei de rezistenţă în faţa unui întreg set de condiţii cumulative (cum ar fi preţul pe care îl ai de plătit pentru lipsa de viziune, disponibilitatea de a renunţa la scopurile şi principiile dăunătoare, disponibilitatea de a accepta valoarea adevărului), sunt cele mai importante lecţii pe care le înveţi în etapa de sens a unei evoluţii care se poate dovedi plină de incertitudini.

În opinia regelui, raţionamentul fiului său nu a fost decât cel al unui novice. Numai gândul că fiul său aştepta cu nespusă ardoare să-i ia locul, deşi nu era pregătit pentru a face faţă responsabilităţilor unui rege, îi sporea şi mai tare durerea. Şi, în consecinţă, decizia de a nu-l numi succesor la tron a fost una corectă. Căci pentru un rege, şi respectiv pentru un părinte, cea mai aspră dintre toate pedepsele este să-şi vadă fiul (de care trebuie să fie atât de mândru) un ratat.

Numai un om înţelept ia decizii înţelepte. Regele Sharaman, care era neîntrecut în înţelepciune şi avea un suflet mare, era conştient că liderii se aleg în funcţie de competenţele lor. Şi el ştia foarte bine cum arăta un potenţial lider bun. Ca urmare, cântărind talentele celor trei fii ai săi, a găsit că cel mai destoinic ar fi nimeni altul decât Dastan, fiul său adoptiv, care în final a ajuns "Prince of Persia".

Leadershipul este impresia pe care o faci în condiţiile respectării unei sarcini colosale: să fii hotărâtor în luarea unei decizii care nu poate fi respinsă de nicio contestaţie.

Vine un moment în viaţa liderului când trebuie sa predea ştafeta altuia, dar nu oricui. Posedând maturitate în gândire şi experienţă, trebuie să discearnă atent între adevăr şi fals, alegând pe cineva cu realmente calităţi de lider şi care să fie recunoscut pentru aceste calităţi de către restul echipei. A alege arbitrar în această situaţie, poate deveni o catastrofă ireparabilă. Prin urmare cu cât cunoaşte mai bine leadershipul, cu atât alegerea va fi mai uşoară şi mai corectă.

În numele tatălui trebuie să te comporţi ca un fiu demn de încrederea şi respectul unui popor întreg.

Liderul este ca un părinte care are grijă de copiii lui. El este ca un tată iubitor care nu încetează să vegheze asupra a tot ce este pozitiv şi eficient în educaţia copiilor lui, să le vorbească, să-i povăţuiască şi să-i îndrume pe calea cea bună, şi să-i mustre atunci când ajung din propria lor vină pe marginea prăpastiei.

"Copiii" trebuie să fie deschişi la sugestiile părintelui lor, care având experienţă mai multă nu-i poate povăţui greşit. Dar mai presus de toate ei trebuie să conştientizeze faptul că ori de cate ori iau o decizie sau pornesc o acţiune, acestea se iau în numele lor, dar se repercutează inevitabil asupra reputaţiei părintelui lor.

În numele trandafirului

Încearcă să controlezi cursul unui joc de rol care oferă securitatea proprie jocului.

Nu vă lăsaţi înşelaţi: trandafirul ascunde un mare secret, îngăduie schimbarea, esenţa care te menţine în viaţă, un semn de la Dumnezeu că ţi-ai primit binecuvântarea, menţinând o stare interioară de mare luminozitate. Este emblema unui om obsedat de cuvinte, de jocurile înţelesurilor care dau chip lucrurilor, trucuri născocite aievea, băgând aşteptare în acea constantă a operei denumită viziune, din unghiul unor fenomene miraculoase. Eşti imobilizat acolo pentru totdeauna, între parfumul unei stări schimbătoare, ca soarele între nori, şi spinii ascuţiţi ai năzuinţelor de modificare a formei imaginii timpului şi spaţiului, alcătuind formula magică a lumii vii.

Dintr-un celebru roman de spionaj al lui David Morell, am aflat că în mitologia greacă, zeul dragostei i-a oferit odată un trandafir zeului tăcerii, ca mită, pentru a-l împiedica pe acel zeu să dezvăluie slăbiciunile celorlalţi zei. Cu timpul, trandafirul a devenit un simbol al tăcerii şi al tainei. În Evul Mediu, se obişnuia să se agaţe un trandafir de tavanul unei săli de consiliu. Membrii consiliului jurau să nu dezvăluie ceea ce discutau în încăpere, sub rosa , în numele trandafirului.

Când veţi veni să mă vizitaţi, aşa cum actorii se reîntorc întotdeauna pe scenă, căci numai acolo se desfăşoară cu adevărat spectacolul, am să vă arăt un trandafir special, o specie nouă: "Crosswords", plin de toate culorile unei producţii de tip divergent, cerând integrarea unor elemente disparate, pe cât de concrete, pe atât de abstracte.

Aş putea oricând să-i dau un nume nou acestui trandafir, dar mă gândesc la el în termenii de rezultat al muncii cu mine însumi, al transformării mele, încât e aproape imposibil de redat sentimentului onorabilităţii pe care îl pretind şi îl invoc, pe care profesionalismul meu îl impune. Trandafirul este rezultatul unui joc de cuvinte care creează un spaţiu imaginar, fascinant, în care dorim să pătrundem cu toţii, format dintr-o referinţă la un subiect care a stârnit un interes deosebit şi dintr-o metaforă care sugerează în mod profund ideea de renaştere şi glorie dintr-o perspectivă estetică.

Îmi place dublul lui înţeles, dar dumneavoastră îl veţi pricepe doar pe acela care este nepăzit, şi care vi se potriveşte. În meseria mea, este nevoie de frumuseţe - cea pe care trebuie să o recepţionaţi dumneavoastră, nu neapărat cea care mă defineşte pe mine.

Leadership: Încerci să-i introduci pe ceilalţi într-un joc plin de înţelesuri, folosind variaţia proprietăţilor lui sugestive?

Acest trandafir, provenit din soiuri diferitele, pentru care toate vocile sufletului îşi găsesc rezonanţele în zone inspiraţionale, este unul neobişnuit, cu totul aparte de cel din anii trecuţi, ca să nu vi se pară că intraţi într-un joc fără să înţelegeţi proprietăţile lui sugestive. Treaba pe care o face el are rolul de a apăra o idee atacată din toate părţile, ca un fel de hoţ de peisaj înglobând senzaţiile şi trăirile intense. Încercaţi să lămuriţi misterul acestui trandafir, întoarceţi-vă la teorie. Nu încercaţi să-l ţineţi în mână, căci va spori misterul şi curiozitatea.

Aşa cum vă daţi seama, am început să vă induc o anumită imagine, o anumită interpretare, poate chiar în eroare. Numai un plăsmuitor de imagini poate să asigure cel mai bine această stare de sugestie, pe tot parcursul leadershipului, care te face să te întrebi de unde vine. Uneori nu poţi explica această stare, dar o simţi în totala sa deplinătate, că eşti purtat printr-un şir de experienţe surprinzătoare, ce îți trezesc mai multe întrebări, interesul de a afla cât mai multe.

Leadershipul își trage toate caracteristicile din miezul unui trandafir care nu se ofileşte, meritând a fi exagerat prin expunere, încât să continue să fascineze și să surprindă. Ceea te însoţeşte mereu pe tărâmul ideilor eterne, ţine de modul de abordare a unei teme având în centrul ei „Culegerea și oferirea Trandafirului" - ca rezultat al transformării tale. Locul acestuia în contextul perpetuării unei anumite înţelegeri, trebuie să-l ia conceptul unei sugestivităţi maxime și unitare care să circule larg.

Privit ca mijloc de afirmare a unei puternice identităţi a ideii, prin căutarea și descoperirea unei sugestivităţi unice sau polivalente, trandafirul are o semnificație creatoare aparte – mai întâi fiindcă te situezi în prezența unei stări de spirit active, adăpostind încrederea într-un fel de victorie asupra reprezentării realităţii.

Apoi, fiindcă se naște în tine acea calitate de a controla cursul unui joc de rol, care oferă securitatea proprie jocului. Tu decizi asupra a ceea ce inserezi în mintea celorlalți, dar ceea ce inserezi trebuie să fie direct proporţional cu ceea ce sunt dispuşi ei să vadă şi să accepte.

Sugestivitatea cu care continui să evidenţiezi părţile unor înţelegeri tăinuite este similară cu aroma cuceritoare a trandafirului: te îmbie la visare, ca o incursiune în lumea strălucitoare a esteticii, dar în acelaşi timp te duce înapoi în timp, evocând amintiri pe care poate le credeai pierdute.

Revelaţia care confirmă impactul leadershipului distribuit sub forma unor experienţe surprinzătoare este o imagine extinsă dincolo de frumuseţea unor structuri conceptuale exprimate prin metoda comparaţiilor directe.

În numele trandafirului trebuie să fie întotdeauna solidar acel plăsmuitor de imagini care vrea să facă din cunoaştere, din transformarea lui proprie, un adevărat spectacol, un leadership veritabil, apelând la descoperirea unei sugestivităţi unice sau polivalente.

Unui asemenea om îi revine sarcina de a ţine secretă identitatea unei idei pe care ceilalţi trebuie să o regăsească sub un unghi diferit. Asta face din el un lider fiindcă reuşeşte să se afle mereu în umbra unui joc, al cărui centru îl constituie acea interpretare prin care se încearcă susţinerea unei idei sau teorii.

Trandafirii iau ochii lumii nu cu nişte preţuri mari, ci datorită elementelor de relevanţă pe care le prezintă însuşirile lor. Te regăseşti în ele? Te poţi inspira din ele? Poţi să conduci în funcţie de acestea?

Înainte ca ochiul să-şi fi terminat privirea

On Ianuarie 28, 2020

Pe primul plan al artei trebuie să se situeze redarea sentimentului de apartenenţă la un alt univers.

Trandafirul, Double Delight. Când îl priveşti vara, în lumina soarelui, rămâi cu o deschidere spre artă, spre frumos, spre gingăşie. Sunt aproape de sufletul lui, mereu contemplându-i frumuseţea, iar el pare mereu a fi încântat de ce se întâmplă în lumea mea. La rândul lui, acest organ sensibil la atenţie, la orice formă de artă, mă priveşte aşa cum îşi priveşte artistul creaţia ani de-a rândul: ca un fel de imagine a unei lumi înnoite, recreate, inovatoare la nivel spiritual.

Nu sunt doar un arbust oarecare. Sunt singurul organism de evaluare a esteticii abordat din prisma unui continuum al experienţelor de cunoaştere, care generează o stare de deschidere către natura divină din centrul unei fiinţe superioare. Străbătut de afecţiune şi de dorinţa de a căuta semnificaţia trăirii, devin mai expresiv atunci când palpit în fiecare urmă de pensulă. Ataşat de realul poetic-artistic, întinerit de binecuvântarea unei atingeri delicate, simt parcă sufletul stăpânului meu şoptindu-mi cuvinte de mângâiere în fiecare demers creator, cu fiecare aplicare a culorii pe straturile unei profunde cosmogonii care parcă dezvăluie o parte din triumful imaginaţiei asupra inteligenţei.

Îmi înţelegeţi fericirea, nu-i aşa?

Adesea, am văzut în stăpânul meu o parte din întruchiparea nemuririi, factorul determinant al nenumăratelor mele transformări de-a lungul timpului. El nu este doar un creator desăvârşit, ci este însăşi desăvârşirea creaţiei care începe cu Lorconsulhis (absolutul ascuns în puterea inimii) şi se continuă cu Trekanandhis (esenţa virtuţilor vieţii divine), pentru care orice motivaţie spirituală reprezintă un roşu curat şi plin de vitalitate. În artă, trebuie să faci mereu o trimitere la Creator prin intermediul credinţei în Înviere: renaştere, revigorare, trezirea naturii.

Ani de-a rândul am crezut că voi fi diferit, că mă voi simţi altfel. Voiam să cresc şi să ajung perfect asemenea unei picturi care nu-şi pierde caracterul monumental, care nu-şi pierde din conţinutul simbolic. Şi s-a întâmplat să fiu tot ceea ce am dorit să fiu, chiar dacă nu la momentul dorit de mine, şi în calitate de aspirant la o nobilă menire: de a mă ridica deasupra ignoranţei lumii prin însăşi viziunea artistului care merge mult mai departe decât şi-a putea imagina cineva, prin combinaţia miraculoasă dintre trup şi suflet, dintre natură şi har.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi imaginezi opera de artă ca pe o extensie a unei realităţi trăită dintotdeauna, în cazul manifestării unei personalităţi care traversează spaţiul şi timpul prin identificarea unei mereu alte vieţi posibile?

Precum personajele lui Nabokov, mă pierd uneori în faţa unui timp liber pe care nu ştiu cum să-l umplu cu ceva util, pentru că nu m-am preocupat niciodată de asta, fiind acaparat doar de frumuseţea mea. Expresivitatea contează mai mult ca utilul. Un trandafir nu e admirat decât atunci când se ştie nespus de frumos, splendid în nobleţea cu care îşi etalează farmecul, plin de culoare în orice cadru s-ar afla.

Totodată, imaginea mea trebuie să emane acea expresivitate a afirmării sinelui şi a acordului acestuia cu lumea, ca atunci când trebuie să-ţi arăţi calităţile artistice în faţa cuiva care nu te cunoaşte prea bine. Alteori, mă regăsesc în cuvintele lui Alexandru Vlahuţă: „Din marele lui peisaj, Dumnezeu a luat o floare fragedă şi, dându-i trup şi grai omenesc, i-a trimis-o pe-o rază de soare artistului, ca tovarăş al unei vieţi trăite într-o împlinire totală."

Aici am vrut să ajung, şi credeţi-mă că ajungerea aceasta într-un puzzle specific picturii expresioniste, dintr-o perspectivă aflată în corespondenţă cu elanul spiritual, creează întotdeauna o imagine expresivă. Dacă puteţi, încercaţi să-mi înălţaţi sufletul într-un orizont care merge dincolo de cel al vieţii, ca şi cum m-aţi compara cu un titan al tranziţiei dintre mai multe lumi, şi vedeţi dacă reuşiţi să-mi daţi o formă apropiată de cea a îngerului care a învins moartea.

Doar astfel mă veţi putea înţelege dincolo de cuvinte, dincolo de sentimente, dincolo de căderea de acord cu alţii, doar prin comparaţie cu viziunea unui Creator Universal.

Leadership: Poţi face din tine o cunoaştere individualizatoare în scopul formării şi manifestării unei inteligenţe înzestrate cu mare putere de sensibilitate care îşi dispută importanţa în viaţă discretă a naturii?

Numai stăpânul meu ştie să integreze în imagini plastice diverse forme din natură. Nu sunt o excepţie. Orice element al naturii este într-un fel eternizat, fiind tratat datorită eforturilor făcute pe cale spirituală de o fiinţă discretă şi duioasă, care ştie să ocrotească un corp plin de nuanţe şi culoare, să-l păstreze pururea tânăr, vesel şi sănătos. Într-un fel, dominanţele esteticii sale, relevate prin prisma stilului creaţiilor pe care le-a oferit lumii, stabilesc un fel de paralelism cu orientările artistice ale lui Joel Cunningham, din opera lui Mary Balogh, care mărturisea la un moment dat:

"Când pictez pe viu, mintea mea e prea prinsă de redarea corectă a oricărui detaliu neînsemnat, şi spiritul meu e redus la tăcere. Iar subiectul devine ţeapăn şi încremenit, pentru că îşi menţine aceeaşi poziţie şi aceeaşi expresie. Voi schiţa ceea ce văd acum cât pot de repede şi apoi voi picta în atelierul meu."

Fără a avea pretenţia de a fi spus tot ce putea fi spus, fiindcă un trandafir este un univers nemărginit, mereu cu o altă poveste, mereu cerând altceva de la artă, mă voi alătura asemănării cu acel teritoriu privilegiat de manifestare a cunoaşterii individualizatoare, de care face dovadă stăpânul meu, din care am cules următoarea piatra de temelie: „ A face o artă din ştiinţă este ca şi când ai pune în vibraţie sufletul uman cu ajutorul unei pensule care se mişcă singură."

Mai departe, vă las sarcina să-mi creionaţi un portret în care sufletul meu, prins într-un dialog cu Creatorul Universal, se umple de gânduri care nu se pot descrie în cuvinte sau în imagini, ci numai în sentiment, în picătura de divin din voi.

Leadershipul care însoţeşte cunoaşterea artistică are ca premisă menirea pe care ţi-o asumi în perimetrul creaţiei, din prisma unei deschideri către natura divină, conformându-se unui singur argument: „Ceea ce creezi este ceea ce eşti când te consideri cineva mai presus de tine."

Înainte ca ochiul să-şi fi terminat privirea are ca şi considerent de bază următoarea experienţă creatoare: „Să simţi ceea ce se trăieşte numai prin asemănare, încât să fii parte din natura celui ce se trăieşte pe sine la nivel de univers nelimitat".

Cufundându-te într-un labirint al simbolurilor, metaforelor şi al alterităţii, trebuie să-ţi recunoşti personalitatea ca fiind imaginea unui Creator Universal care transcende timpul, spaţiul, visul şi realitatea, în scopul găsirii unei mereu alte înfăţişări uşor de încadrat în sfera estetică şi filosofică a artei.

Înaltele culmi ale aprecierii în artă

Vino cu idei precise asupra operei căreia intenţionezi să-i dai viaţă, în sensul găsirii celei mai expresive forme de unicitate.

Serghei Eisenstein porneşte la filmare cu idei precise asupra operei pe care o va realiza cu o clară viziune. Este primul său film sonor şi doreşte, pară-se, să aplice aici roadele întregii meditaţii teoretice din ultimii ani. Deşi porneşte fără echipament de sunet – acesta trebuia să apară abia la Harkov – filmează tot timpul ţinând seama de soluţiile sonore ale fiecărei scene.

Le explică colaboratorilor: „La masa de montaj acest episod va fi tratat în acelaşi fel în care lucrează un compozitor la o fugă pe pentru voci. Materialul pe care îl filmăm acum este doar una din aceste voci. Cea mai mare parte va fi folosit pentru retroproiecţii şi transparenţe, în timp ce prim-planurile vor crea o a doua voce în primul plan… A treia şi a patra voce (sau temă, sau motiv) sunt în sunet – sunet şi vorbă."

Întreaga construcţie audio-vizuală a filmului - şi fiecare filmare urmăreşte aceasta – are ca intenţie realizarea unui film sonor devenit expresie a formei artistice specifice şi a expresiei psihologice a realităţii. În acelaşi sens, al găsirii formei celei mai expresive, sunt construite şi decorurile: uneori în linii de perspectivă exagerate, alteori stilizate cu intenţii metaforice. ***

Leadership: Porneşti la realizarea unui „setup de update" cu nişte elemente subiective care conferă originalitate modului de tratare a compoziţiei de referinţă?

Conţinutul artei se extinde nu datorită a ceea ce rezultă din amestecul sau unirea mai multor forme de creaţie, ci datorită a ceea gândirea are de oferit mai original, în raport cu o axă a rezultantei de forţe care acţionează simultan: o forţă de structură, una de prefacere, una de continuitate şi una de valorizare. Iar valorificarea potenţialului artistic nu este doar o formă aferentă obiectivităţii care oferă certitudini, ci este şi o formă derivată din subiectivitatea a ceea ce înseamnă „semnificativ", din activarea a ceea ce poate fi redat în altă formă şi din acceptarea a ceea ce numim proiecţii ale imaginarului.

Arta totală, menită să îmbine noi contraste ale formei de expresie care admit o abordare liniară a raporturilor dintre concepte şi noţiuni, sub efectul unor inspiraţii paralele care se intersectează în punctul de reper stabil al creaţiei, pretinde o anumită libertate a spiritului - sprijinit într-un fel de căutarea absolutului. Pretinde, mai ales, o anumită independenţă în faţa unei realităţi care nu aude şi nu vorbeşte, dar care se deschide mereu mai departe, împotriva aparenţelor (care deteriorează percepţia despre ce înseamnă „îmbunătăţire") înainte de a deveni permanente.

În acest caz, „setup-ul de update" reprezintă o accentuare a tendinţei de asociere a elementelor de noutate, care împinge mai departe graniţele a ceea ce poţi realiza prin intermediul ştiinţei, uneori prin exagerarea perspectivei de a privi lucrurile – între intuitiv şi logic. Acest setup defineşte şi conturează opera ta de creaţie, contribuind la generarea de anticipări şi predicţii ale elementelor de expresivitate prin adăugarea unui mixt de inovaţii care facilitează descoperirea legilor, corelaţiilor, raporturilor dintre sensuri şi forme, riguros concepute.

Creaţia ce devine o expresie psihologică a realităţi decurge din faptul că elementele separate puse în relaţie amorsează spaţiul inerent formării unei imagini care încearcă să răspundă la întrebarea: "Cum s-a ajuns aici?"

A porni la realizarea unui „setup de update” cu nişte elemente subiective care conferă originalitate modului de tratare a compoziţiei de referinţă, înseamnă de fapt să încerci să exprimi o idee ajustând suita efectelor ei, efectuând cercetări asupra modului în care ea poate fi amplificată şi exploatată la maxim. Pe scurt, înseamnă să adaugi facil plus valoare creaţiei tale datorită rarităţii şi unicităţii asigurate de gândirea care se caută pe sine, care se autoanalizează, formulând mereu noi constatări şi interpretări.

Găsirea formei de exprimare a identităţii personale, prin intermediul ideii care leagă în mod productiv două lumi distincte ale artei – a viziunii şi a interpretării – prin explorarea deliberată a tendinţelor teoretice, începe de acolo de unde intenţia se manifestă nu doar ca o conexiune pierdută între gânduri şi întrebări, ci ca esenţă şi structură a unei creaţii care se cere a fi investigată înainte de a fi împărtăşită.

Aprecierea care ţi se cuvine este un plus de respect pentru ceea reprezintă esenţa ta autentică în exercitarea actului de creaţie, chiar şi în lipsa elementelor definitorii ale "formei" finale a lucrării.

Înaltele culmi ale aprecierii în artă domină tot ceea ce încerci să proiectezi asupra celorlalţi, tot ceea ce încerci sa transmiţi prin intermediul creaţiei, în vederea îndeplinirii criteriilor de performanţă autoimpuse, clar definite şi recunoscute. Aprecierea este o formă de respect pentru ceea ce faci raportat la ceea ce eşti.

Înălțimile succesului

Privirea îndreptată către un orizont mai vast dezvăluie un nou sens al victoriei personale.

Mi-am dorit întotdeauna să fiu un învingător, iar sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, a reușit să atingă acest scop în locul meu. Fiecare pas alert, fiecare efort susținut al Oanei pe cărările montane devine un "Nexoris Temporal Eternix" – un punct de convergență între efortul personal și impactul colectiv, încât orice stăruință, orice provocare devine o oportunitate de a-şi etala identitatea spirituală, lăsând să se întrevadă determinarea unui adevărat campion.

Privind-o cum aleargă, aşa cum artistul mânuiește penelul pentru a crea o capodoperă, îmi amintesc de cuvintele lui Saint-Exupéry: „Dacă vrei să construiești un vapor, nu începe să aduni oameni ca să taie lemne și să împartă sarcini, ci trezește în ei dorința pentru marea vastă și nesfârșită."

În lumina acestei înțelepciuni, observ cum fiecare semimaraton câștigat de Oana devine mai mult decât o victorie personală transpusă în inspirație colectivă. Mai degrabă ajunge sa fie un simbol al posibilității de a transcende limitele umane, prin corespondența cu dorința de autodepășire. Pentru că măreția unui campion se reflectă în cât de mult poate ridica pe ceilalți alături de el.

Leadership: Pot victoriile obținute să contribuie la redefinirea măreției tale, confirmând că liniștea interioară este o forță mai puternică decât orice demonstrație de putere fizică?

Cu spiritul unei războinice redutabile, ea transformă fiecare cursă într-o lecție despre depășirea limitelor și inspirarea celorlalți, la fel cum un pictor transformă emoția în artă, redând o capodoperă în tușe neobosite. Nemaivorbind de stilul ei impecabil de alergare – l'arte di superare i limiti – care face ca orice victorie să devină expresia propriei creații, o celebrare a depășirii barierelor interioare.

Din acest motiv, cred că este nevoie de unitate, după deviza „toți pentru unul și unul pentru toți", pentru a înțelege că, de fapt, Oana, privind dincolo de rezultatele sportive, trăiește un soi de revelație continuă, un fel de chemare spirituală către împlinire colectivă. Da, aşa este. Transformarea unei simple curse în inspirație colectivă este un act de creație spirituală.

Leadership: În ce măsură reușești să transformi succesul personal într-un catalizator pentru evoluția celorlalți, făcând din victoria ta o manifestare a voinței de a-ți stăpâni limitele?

Prin fiecare victorie personală, spiritul neobosit al campionului aprinde scânteia transformării în sufletele celor din jur. Iar spațiul sacru al competiției, acest teatro dell'autotrascendenza, loc unde vizibilitatea și controlul se împletesc cu energia colectivă, devine martorul tăcut al acestei transformări. Asemenea unui tablou de Joseph Mallord Turner, unde lumina străpunge ceața pentru a revela esența peisajului, fiecare cursă dezvăluie adevărata natură a victoriei, dar mai mult decât atât, oferă o notă de transcendență artei de a depăși limitele ordinare, pe care creația singulară a Oanei o transformă în inspirație colectivă.

În ce constă creația Oanei? În capacitatea de a transforma fiecare pas într-o mărturie vie a puterii spiritului ei vibrant, unde efortul personal devine catalizator pentru evoluția întregii comunități sportive din România. Deci, este vital să înțelegem că succesul autentic transcende simpla măsurare a timpului sau distanței. Totdeauna, privind spre piscurile ce ne înconjoară, noi, toți alergătorii, realizăm că în acest spațiu sacru al naturii s-a născut ceva mai valoros decât orice trofeu al campionului: înțelegerea faptului că „adevărata măreție stă în capacitatea de a ridica pe alții odată cu tine."

Acest tablou este cu atât mai interesant cu cât ideea lui a pornit de la Napoleon însuși. Se spune că David a vrut să-l picteze ca pe un erou cu sabia în mână, pe câmpul de luptă. Bonaparte, însă, a rostit cuvintele memorabile: „Nu! Cu sabia nu se câștigă bătăliile. Vreau să fiu pictat liniștit, pe un cal nărăvaș."

Leadership: Efortul tău poate fi perceput ca o creație figurativă care valorifică mărturia unei vieți trăite cu autenticitate, devenind astfel o reprezentare vizuală a măreției expresive?

Măreția nu se află în bătăliile câștigate, ci în liniștea cu care îți stăpânești limitele, transformând provocările în momente de grație care ridică pe cei din jur. Mai bine zis, numai atunci când ești martorul unei măreții autentice, descoperi că adevărata putere nu stă în victoriile personale, ci în capacitatea de a stăpâni calmul în fața provocărilor și de a-i inspira pe ceilalți.

Oare nu cumva Oana face cinste spiritului exemplului dat de Napoleon, prin faptul că a înțeles esența măreției: că nu demonstrațiile de forță creează eroi, ci puterea de a rămâne stăpân pe sine în fața provocărilor, și de a-i ridica pe alții prin exemplul ei de a transforma fiecare încercare într-o lecție valoroasă pentru ceilalți ?

Așa cum liniștea unui conducător pe un cal agitat vorbește mai tare decât orice discurs triumfal, alergătorul montan inspiră lumea nu prin zgomotul victoriei, ci prin modestia și calmul cu care înfruntă traseul. Munții devin martorii unei lupte interioare care, odată câștigată, se reflectă asupra comunității sportive. În acest sens, măreția devine un act de creație colectivă. Fie că stăpânești forța unui animal nărăvaș sau propriile frici, impactul asupra celorlalți este cel care contează. Și, ca un lider adevărat, alergătorul lasă o moștenire care transcende timpul sau podiumurile.

Adevărata măreție nu se măsoară în victorii zgomotoase, ci în liniștea cu care domini situațiile dificile, recunoscându-te astfel drept învățător al propriei tale căi.

Înălțimile succesului se măsoară în ecourile schimbărilor pe care le inspiri. Mai ales dacă iau în considerare toate realizările remarcabile ale Oanei, am ajuns la concluzia că determinarea ei reflectă o voință neclintită, prin corelare cu impactul pozitiv asupra celorlalți alergători, încât tot ceea ce întreprinde devine un exemplu de excelență și inspirație. Totdeauna, puterea unei viziuni unitare depășește valoarea unei realizări individuale.

Ochii care urmăresc un alergător montan văd mai mult decât mișcare – văd o poveste, chiar mai mult decât atât, o celebrare a spiritului neînfrânt și a conexiunii cu natura. Iar pe mine mă emoționează sincer ecoul pe care îl stârnește în sufletul alergătorilor prestația surorii mele, și încă mai cred că puterea exemplului ei va schimba în continuare multe destine.

În acest spațiu de întâlnire între individual și colectiv, între performanță și inspirație, Oana demonstrează de fiecare dată că victoria autentică are ecouri mult dincolo de linia de sosire. Mereu, fiecare cursă devine o poveste despre transcendență și transformare, unde rezultatul măsurabil se împletește cu impactul nemăsurabil asupra comunității de alergători din România.

Încântă-mi privirea cu ceva care reflectă armonia naturii (II)

Un artist trăieşte mai mult în opera lui, decât în propria lui viaţă.

Chiar acum mă aflu pe o insulă din Grecia, o bucăţică de pământ luminată tot timpul de soare, care nu se scufundă decât dacă ochii mei o văd scufundându-se. Sigur, am făcut din ea obiectul unei vederi care nu-și înșeală ochii, la care se ajunge doar prin legile artei. Iar prima lege a artei este reușita, îngăduind vederii să ia în considerare distincția între caracterul perspectivei estetice și coerența interioară a creației.

Insula această unică, plăcută privirii încă de departe, înconjurată de marea albastră şi limpede, are destul de multe dealuri şi doar o plajă cu un nisip extrem de fin şi alb, trecut prin degete ca mărgăritarele fine.

Vă întrebaţi probabil ce este coerenţa interioară a creaţiei, în contextul unui peisaj artistic sau al unei reprezentări vizuale a insulei. Înseamnă că toate elementele care compun insula (nisipul, marea, scoicile, stâncile, dealurile, plantele şi vieţuitoarele, vederile, atmosfera) sunt armonios organizate și interconectate pentru a reda frumusețea, atmosfera și caracteristicile distinctive ale unui tablou care reflectă spiritul artistului, liber şi îndrăgostit de munca sa.

Insula însăşi are ca subiect principal acel Athelisariis Cynosarios Thaeillis Ohinakest, împlinirea spirituală a artei, locul unde se întâlnește arta cu credința. Uneori, aș vrea să îmi iau nemărginita libertate de a privi o imagine în absența unui proces artistic, să nu reprezint propriu-zis o cunoaștere, cât o presimțire difuză a unei perspective misterioase, înfăţişată în mod sugestiv. Dar, până şi asta este tot o creaţie a superbei mele minţi.

Leadership: Arta ta poate să devină o expresie sacră și sublimă a sinelui tău intim, producând permanenţa unei imagini care se vrea eternă prin explorarea unei teme atemporale?

Spun asta fiindcă ochiul nu surprinde decât realitatea imediată, spre deosebire de fotografie care imortalizează totul în timp. Iar o insulă nu-și pune problema ce surprinde ochiul sau fotografia, nu se închipuie fiind o imagine revelatoare care explică multipla interpretabilitate a operei de artă și nu caută să redea, să facă să trăiască opera așa cum vrea artistul.

O insulă trezește interesul unei vederi artistice doar atunci când o privești de departe ca un punct într-o curgere istorică, un punct de referință pentru o largă panoramă, sau atunci când se scufundă, încetul cu încetul, cu acea disperare pustie și absurdă a celor care nu mai știu de ce au trăit, în ce au crezut. Iar artistul nu se închină la imaginea în sine, nu încearcă neapărat să-i redea permanența, ci o folosește ca pe un instrument de intrare într-o lume virtuală, ca pe un punct de plecare pentru a o transcende și a înțelege necesitatea peremptorie a unei legi importante: "un subiect viu, sensibil și creativ, este un eveniment neașteptat ce generează un zbucium emoțional."

Da. Fiecare om este o insulă, lucrurile sunt o insulă, iar artistul tot o insulă este, cu excepția faptului că el face să trăiască opera așa cum vrea el, privind-o într-o dublă direcție: spre experiența artistică și spre conținuturile spirituale. Pentru prima oară, insula aceasta, aşa cum mi-o închipuisem, ca fiind locul de odihnă pentru un erou legendar şi locul de inspirație al unui artist talentat, mi-a redat forţa privirii de care are nevoie ochiul ca să vadă dincolo de limitele spaţiului şi timpului.

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o conexiune profundă între artă și sufletul celor care îţi experimentează creația, încât ei să se ridice la înălțimile experienței artistice pe care o trăieşti tu?

Mica Sirenă încercând să găsească o stâncă de care să-şi sprijine visele, o întrebă la un moment dat pe Bătrâna Regină a mării: oare aş putea vreodată să capăt un suflet nemuritor? Iar regina mării, în timp ce se răcorea în valuri, îi răspunse:

- Doar dacă un muritor te-ar iubi mai mult decât pe tatăl şi pe mama sa, şi dacă toate gândurile şi dragostea sa ar fi îndreptate către tine, iar preotul v-ar uni mâinile, şi el ţi-ar jura credinţă veşnică. Abia atunci sufletul lui ar intra în trupul tău, iar tu ai obţine o părticică din fericirea muritorilor. El ţi-ar da un suflet, păstrându-şi-l pe al său. Dar lucrul acesta nu se va întâmpla niciodată. Coada ta de peşte, pe care noi o consideram atât de frumoasă, cei de pe uscat o vor găsi urâtă. Atâta pot ei să gândească şi cred că, pentru a fi arătos, trebuie să ai două beţe tari, pe care ei le numesc picioare.

- Mica Sirenă oftă şi se uita tristă la coada ei de peşte.

- Hai mai bine să fim fericite, spuse bătrâna regină, şi să zburdăm şi să dansăm de-a lungul celor trei sute de ani de viaţă ! Avem timp îndeajuns să facem asta. După aceea, ne putem odihni.

În reflecţia acestei poveşti se dezvăluie taina unei voci pe care mulţi ar putea s-o considere surprinzătoare. Este vocea artistului care, căutând liniștea insulelor pentru a-și cultiva imaginația și pentru a-și aduce la viață creațiile, reuşeşte să scoată ecouri peste valuri, valurile reprezentând publicul și impactul pe care lucrările sale îl au asupra celorlalți oameni.

Asemenea ecourilor care se aud peste valurile mării, se răspândeşte o voce cu putere emoţională profundă care, depăşind graniţele timpului şi spaţiului, îmbrățișează sufletul ascultător și îl poartă într-o călătorie magică prin adâncurile și înălțimile experienței artistice.

În fiecare etapă a procesului de creație, liderul servește drept compas pentru sufletul ascultătorului, ghidându-l și inspirându-l. El creează o conexiune profundă între artă și sufletul celui care îi experimentează creația, deschizând uși către noi perspective și trăiri inedite.

Mica Sirenă nu este doar o creaţie care se foloseşte de o povestire pentru a exprima altceva, ci este o voce care se susţine şi se completează cu fiecare notă, fiecare cuvânt și fiecare nuanță, alcătuind o armonie desăvârșită, precum toate elementele care contribuie la conturarea unui spaţiu unic și inconfundabil.

Încântă-mi privirea ochilor cu ceva care reflectă armonia naturii şi poate astfel te vei apropia de splendoarea unei viziuni care implică asocierea cu aproape orice formă de artă, mai ales cu arta de a plăsmui un subiect viu care niciodată nu îmbătrâneşte, rămânând mereu proaspăt și interesant, fiind o sursă nesecată de inspirație și creativitate.

Insula încă îmi face cu ochiul. Sau, poate este doar cineva de pe insulă care mă priveşte neîncetat cu uimirea pictorului care transformă banalul în extraordinar, pictând dincolo de aparenţe. Dar oare mă vede cu adevărat, sau doar transpune sentimente pe pânză?

Încântă-mi privirea cu ceva care reflectă armonia naturii (I)

On Iulie 10, 2023

Pentru a modela o realitate autentică trebuie să fii atent la ceea ce observi și să ai o perspectivă clară asupra imaginii căreia îi dai suflet.

Sunt la plajă, undeva pe litoralul Greciei. Soarele își descoperă chipul în strălucirea unui tablou de vară, fermecător şi emoţionant la prima vedere, adâncit în vibraţiile culorilor, pictat de un artist care aspiră la ceva măreţ, ceva ticluit din materia propriilor dorinţe şi vise, ceva care să nu se şteargă cu buretele ca şi când nu s-ar fi întâmplat.

Ca niște pârghii naturale care se mișcă în ritmul vântului, valurile încântă privirea oricărui privitor prin prisma unui sentiment de deja-vu de tipul "am mai trăit acest sentiment de admirație în fața unei opere de artă", care mă face să visez la o zi în care să mă reîntâlnesc cu acest spaţiu şi cu sinele meu autentic, ca doi regizori în căutarea scenei perfecte.

Poate că marea, aşa cum o privesc cu ochi plini de uimire, este un fel de metaforă a percepției vieții, o etapă din viaţă dedicată unui vis înalt, simbol al fiinţei infinite, care se tot repetă în chip de vedere destinată să amplifice simţirea autentică. Este limpede că deasupra artei de susținere a unei estetici remarcabile se află un studiu dedicat subiectului pictural: "Țărm înconjurat de mare în lumina soarelui", argumentat în favoarea importanței obiectelor incluse în câmpul vederii înaintate, de perspectivă, extatice.

Leadership: Cum îți interpretezi percepțiile și cum le integrezi în propria viziune aşa încât să obţii efectul de infinit al unei imagini fără sfârşit?

Așadar ochiul își restrânge aria vederii la obiectul și la percepția estetică până la un punct similar cu acela al viziunii, autoritate ce poate fi conturată prin intermediul unei picturi, recunoscând totuși că studierea entităților sau conceptelor din lumea reală nu epuizează nicidecum interesele generale ale esteticii. Frumosul rămâne frumos ori de câte ori îţi reîntorci privirea asupra lui.

Și ce este estetica, în acest caz? Este viziunea obținută de mine prin modelarea imaginarului pictural cu ajutorul unor fragmente împrăștiate din realitate, încât să surprind unitatea dintre natural şi ideal, ca doi poeți în căutarea metaforei perfecte, pe fondul unei curiozități ce reprezintă adevăratul punct de atracţie pentru un vizionar.

Aşa stau lucrurile în artă, Espreuhara Aryanyphica Intis Ixir Ashenellat, frumusețea răspunde ecourilor divine ale naturii, căci ele sunt amplificate prin surprinderea miraculosului în chip de vedere care iluminează perspective neașteptate. Prin urmare, condiția însăși a producerii și receptării artei, ca valorizare a vizibilității, este strâns legată de ideea că viziunea, constituind totodată o poetică a imaginarului aflat în contact direct cu realitatea, nu este o îndepărtare a prezentului, ci dimpotrivă, o îmbogățire și o consolidare firească a acestuia.

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o viziune pornind de la demersul artistului de a crea permanență într-o scenă de sine stătătoare, fără să te rezumi la specificul timpului și locului tău în ea?

Da, vederea este întotdeauna particulară la fel ca și pictura, fapt ce presupune că modul specific în care ea trebuie utilizată, cu finețe, cu atenţie la detalii, în toate împrejurările în care ceva este făcut cu artă, trebuie perceput ca un act de concentrare a celorlalte activități într-una singură. Însăși pictura, fiind în principal opera vederii, este hrănită de mediul în care artistul trăiește, revărsând în ea ca intuiție-expresie, prin încercări repetate de a capta esența și frumusețea pe pânză, demersul artistului fiind acela de a crea permanență într-o scenă de sine stătătoare. În ce mă priveşte nu sunt doar vizionar, ci un vrăjitor care modelează lucrurile cu talentul său în artă.

Dar vederea rămâne o taină dacă nu iau în considerare cuvintele lui Andersen, dintr-o celebră poveste:

"Într-o cămăruţă a castelului se afla cea mai bogată comoară a pământului: cartea adevărului. Înţeleptul o citea filă cu filă. Era o carte pe care orice om o putea citi, dar numai în parte: în ochii unora scrisul părea că tremură, astfel că ei nu erau în stare să descifreze cuvintele. Pe unele pagini scrisul arăta atât de şters, aproape invizibil, încât ţi se părea că ai în faţă o foaie nescrisă. Un lucru era cert: cu cât erai mai înţelept, cu atât mai multe puteai citi, iar cel mai înţelept citea cel mai mult."

Ori de câte ori privesc valurile cum se lovesc de stânci, dispersate în jerbe de spumă, trăiesc aceeaşi atmosferă de relaxare și mister care mă învăluie atunci când citesc o carte captivantă. Este ca și cum valurile ar povesti secretele adâncurilor și soarele ar arunca lumină asupra cuvintelor ascunse în pagini, fapt ce creează o experiență fascinantă și intrigantă, pe care mi-ar plăcea să o imortalizez într-o imagine care-mi va aminti de bucuria ce mi-a scăldat sufletul.

O viziune poate să prindă contur numai atunci când realitatea tangibilă devine o oglindă care reflectă lumina interioară și te inspiră să trăieşti cu adevărat în prezent, chiar dacă te orientezi către viitor.

Iar leadershipul este cu atât mai stabil cu cât viziunea se aseamănă cu o operă de artă desăvârșită, în care fiecare element din peisaj se îmbină armonios, asemenea culorilor și formelor dintr-un tablou bine compus.

Încântă-mi privirea cu ceva care reflectă armonia naturii dacă vrei să mă inspir dintr-o imagine menită să reflecte invizibilul unui moment care se reîntoarce în profunzimea mea cu aceeași intensitate, naturaleţe și familiaritate.

Iar marea, la auzul cuvintelor mele, îmi mângâie sufletul cu o adiere blândă, o binecuvântare înviorătoare care sterge lacrimi, care smulge zambet, şi aduce speranţă...

Încântă-mi privirea cu ceva ce face vizibil nevăzutul

On August 15, 2023

Priveşte mai departe de ceea ce vezi, și vei descoperi povestea ascunsă dincolo de aparențe.

Mă plimb pe nisipul plajei, pe una din insulele Ionice ale Greciei. Nu-i aşa că privirea înlocuieşte taina oricărui răspuns la întrebarea "Ce sunt lucrurile"? Fiind înţeleasă ca identitate dintre planul Eului şi cel al misterului din substanţa creaţiei, privirea se întemeiază pe un proces de simbolizare a realităţii în care sunt cuprinse lucrurile specifice zonei în care mă aflu: scoici, fosile de melci, alge aduse la ţărm, bucăţele de sticlă pe care nisipul mării le şlefuieşte în timp, şezlonguri și umbrele, vânzători ambulanți, activități nautice.

În acest caz, ce este substanţa creaţiei? Este o formă de materie filtrată de ochi și prelucrată de suflet în imagini memorabile.

Ba mai mult. Fiecare lucru devine un simbol pentru ochii de artist care ştiu să perceapă informaţia asociată cu nuanţele esteticii, ei înşişi, ochii cercetători, plini de povești nespuse, oglindind întregul univers al culorilor și emoțiilor, devin un simbol pentru lucrurile măsurate şi simbolizate de artist printr-un desen, prin câteva cuvinte, sau printr-un mesaj demn de a fi memorat: Iiburbys Aa Sterhoss Amesim Lek Olocynne.

Adică, tradus printr-un exerciţiu de reinterpretare vizuală, Trăieşte momentul pentru necunoscutele simbolice ale unei realităţi recognoscibile, mesajul ochilor transmit un fel de comunicare tăcută, dar expresivă, un subiect de factură emoţională, un transfer de informație între un emițător și un receptor, în urma căruia, informația transmisă și captată este înțeleasă și interpretată ca un efect de transformare artistică. De exemplu, metamorfoza unui ciob de sticlă găsit pe nisip într-o bijuterie unică, subliniind frumusețea ascunsă în lucrurile simple, reprezintă o figură de stil ce evidenţiază modul în care arta poate da viață şi sens imaginaţiei (de-a dreptul divină).

Leadership: Imaginea la care te raportezi poate să inspire un dialog inedit între operele a doi artişti excepţionali: unul care ştie să creeze un univers propriu al lucrurilor, şi unul care aduce în lumină însemnătatea ascunsă a lucrurilor?

Iar dacă în fiecare pensulă, în fiecare linie trasată pe pânză, artistul își mărturisește trăirile, menirea creatoare, adevărurile privirii sale, pentru un univers dinăuntrul căruia a ieşit şi pe care sufleteşte nu-l va părăsi niciodată, cu siguranţă există o viziune clară asupra lucrurilor, esenţa unei dinamici a viului, clocotind de energie și vitalitate, născută în sufletul lui şi oglindită în exterior.

Insula este o privelişte uimitoare de la care nu pot să-mi iau privirile. Tot privind lucrurile în contextul obiectelor de pe plajă ce ar putea fi metamorfozate, tot astfel ele mă privesc ca pe un substitut al lor, fiindcă în paleta mea se regăsesc culorile tuturor lucrurilor și treptata lor pierdere în nuanțe. Şi, invers, în privirea mea se conturează lumea lor, redefinită prin paleta culorilor și contururilor artistice. Aici, este vorba despre un dialog inedit între operele a doi artişti excepţionali: unul care ştie să creeze un univers propriu al lucrurilor, şi unul care aduce în lumină însemnătatea ascunsă a lucrurilor.

În acest moment al regăsirii în artei în totalitatea lucrurilor ieşite la lumina unei după-amiezi târzii, în urma unei priviri mai atente, fără a avea un alt scop decât arta în sine, se produce emanciparea unei noi caracteristici a artistului din mine. Şi anume, eliberarea de acea angoasă care mă cuprinde atunci când trăiesc într-o realitate străină, aflată sub semnul impermanenţei, unde nu cunosc toate sensurile cuvintelor străpunse de zefirul uitării. Stai să vezi când lucrurile încep să comunice între ele în altă limbă decât cea vorbită de mine, iar simbolurile-metaforă, supuse unui "dincolo de ce-a fost rostit" încep să coboare arta la nivelul unei slujnice a filozofiei.

Leadership: Eşti apt să extragi esenţa unei imagini provenite din real şi să-i adaugi certe conotaţii de tipul "spectacol de improvizație", unde aparenţele jonglează cu fantezia într-un dans captivant și imprevizibil?

Totul este plăcut ochilor pe această insulă, mai ales felul cum natura se arată în toată splendoarea ei, într-un loc unde relaxarea și confortul sunt duse pe cele mai înalte culmi. Aşadar, frumosul şi plăcerea vizuală sunt date de armonia liniştii, dăruită de această minune a naturii, sculptată în peisajul său desăvârșit, numită plajă paradisiacă. Dar chiar şi un ochi exersat se înşeală uneori, dacă iau ca exemplu un fragment dintr-un celebru roman al lui John Fowles:

"A fost odată un prinţ care credea în toate lucrurile în afară de trei. Nu credea în prinţese, nu credea în insule, nu credea în Dumnezeu. Împăratul, tatăl său, îi spusese că aceste lucruri nu există. Dar într-o zi, prinţul fugi în împărăţia vecină, o destinație plină de culoare, plină insule liniștite și sălbatice unde văzu nişte fiinţe străinii şi tulburătoare, cărora nu îndrăzni să le dea un nume. Tot acolo întâlni un bărbat îmbrăcat în haine de seară, cu mânecile suflecate. Acesta din urmă îi spuse că de fapt, tatăl său nu este un împărat, ci doar magician. Prinţul se întoarse rapid acasă, gânditor.

- Tata, este adevărat că nu eşti împărat, ci doar un magician?

Împăratul zâmbi, şi îşi suflecă mânecile.

- Da, fiule, sunt magician.

- Atunci bărbatul de pe mal era Dumnezeu, iar fiinţele acelea tulburătoare erau prinţese.

- Bărbatul de pe mal era doar un alt magician, iar fiinţele alea nu erau deloc reale.

- Trebuie să cunosc adevărul adevărat, adevărul de dincolo de magie. Altfel am să mă omor.

- Nu există adevăr dincolo de magie, răspunse împăratul. Şi, prin farmecele sale, chemă moartea să vină. Moartea apăru în uşă şi îi făcut semn prinţului să vină cu ea. Prinţul se înfioră. Îşi aminti de insulele frumoase, frumoase dar ireale şi de prinţesele ireale, ireale dar frumoase.

- Prea bine, zise prinţul. Voi putea îndura totul.

- Vezi, fiule, zise împăratul. Acum eşti şi tu magician."

A fi un creator desăvârşit înseamnă să-ţi aprofundezi cunoaşterea apelând, mai întâi, la perspicacitatea artistului de a extrage esența fiecărui detaliu și de a o transforma într-o poveste vizuală captivantă; apoi la abilitatea magicianului de a învălui realitatea în iluzii fascinante, amestecând limitele dintre ceea ce este perceput și ceea ce este creat.

Artistul este, de fapt intermediarul dintre lucruri și misterul lor divin. Pe când magicianul, cu puterea lui de a preface lucrurile, încearcă să-l îndrume pe artist către înțelegerea temeinică că totul este interconectat, că el însuși este o parte din această minunată rețea a existenței lucrurilor. S-ar spune că în mijlocul acestei insule fermecate, artistul și magicianul își desăvârșeau cunoașterea, unul prin creație și celălalt prin iluzie.

Încântă-mi privirea cu ceva ce face vizibil nevăzutul, unde vizibilul reprezintă lucrurile pe care ochii tăi le pot cuprinde într-o clipă de privire. Dar adevărata bogăție se ascunde dincolo de aparențe, acolo unde nevăzutul dezvăluie povestea completă a realității. Numai dacă știi să privești nevăzutul poți să dezvălui tainele ascunse ale realității.

Pentru a înţelege leadershipul nu este de ajuns să vezi frumusețea și semnificația lucrurilor din jur, dezvoltându-ţi propriul mod de a privi lumea. Mai trebuie să ai abilitatea creatorului de a deveni "un singur trup" din două perspective aparent opuse, sculptând în realitatea vederii tale o nouă dimensiune a înțelegerii și interpretării.

Privind mai departe de ceea ce vezi, apelând la viziunea unui artist și la abilitățile unui magician, vei putea să depășești aparențele și să explorezi în profunzime orizontul. Caută înțelesuri mai adânci și încearcă să înțelegi contextul sau semnificațiile subtile ale fiecărui detaliu, care pot să nu fie imediat evidente, dar pot fi descoperite prin răbdare și perspicacitate.

Încântarea privirii provenită din direcţia luminii stelare

Un ochi clarvăzător nu este întotdeauna un ochi care fuge, ci unul care vede de departe ceea ce este destul de aproape.

Tocmai mă plimbam alene pe bulevard, când, deodată, câţiva dintre prietenii mei din grupul de Atletism Iaşi mi-au ieşit în cale. Era antrenamentul "after the sunset", căci se spune că azi este o noapte specială. Noaptea perseidelor. Într-adevăr, regret că nu am putut fi împreună, uniţi prin disciplina sportivă pe care o îndrăgim atât de mult, dar mi-am zis că o variantă la fel de bună este o pauză binevenită după atâtea semi-maratoane la care am participat în ultimele săptămâni.

Este în continuare o noapte specială. Nu am văzut stele căzătoare, dar am văzut nişte luminiţe mici care formau un fel de filamente întrerupte vag de spaţiul dintre două secunde pe care le calculezi din mers, în timp ce eşti depăşit de inevitabilul unei dinamici familiare. Şi chiar dacă aş fi văzut stelele căzătoare, desprinse dintr-o legendă a elenilor care venerau tot ce venea din universul zeilor, acestea tot n-ar fi avut atâta forţă şi intensitate ca luminiţele de basm care mi-au luminat calea.

Logic. Am crescut printre luminiţe, care din punct de vedere al mesajului simbolic pe care-l sugerează, mă direcţionează spre adoptarea unei estetici cât mai naturale a lumii înconjuratoare. Este o artă să alergi, la fel cum este o minune să străluceşti, dar marea provocare este să fii una din luminiţele acelea care deschid calea spre o altă galaxie, nemuritoare şi fascinantă, numită în mod figurat: "egalitate armonioasă". O complexă şi tainică egalitate armonioasă.

Leadership: Poţi să defineşti un reper al autenticităţii imaginii pe care o imortalizezi în cele mai frumoase cadre, aşa încât să scoţi în evidenţă o nouă abordare a artei?

Cred că o valoare importantă a vieţii pe care trebuie să ştim s-o preţuim, la fel de mult ca proiecţia unor stele cu noroc care apar în umbra celor mai înalţi munţi din lume, dar şi în umbra celor mai singuratice văi, unul din lucrurile acelea care dă valoare dorinţei de a străluci dincolo de circumstanţele vieţii, este EGALITATEA.

Nimeni nu străluceşte mai mult decât celălalt într-o galaxie plină de stele. Fiecare străluceşte atât cât trebuie, într-un fel anume, aşa încât din anumite unghiuri fiecare poate să creeze un vis sau o viziune. O emoţie, o poveste, o amintire...

Ridicaţi-vă ochii spre cer, şi priviţi cu ochii stelelor spre pământ ! Acesta este un reper al autenticităţii imaginii pe care voi încerca de acum înainte să o imortalizez în cele mai frumoase cadre, punând în prim plan o realitate care nu trebuie exprimată neapărat în concepte, ci o realitate care trezeşte puterea de a da viaţă unei imagini, menţinând în viaţă flacăra unei inepuizabile pasiuni pentru artă.

Dacă fericirea se naşte din dragoste, privirea îndreptată spre stele se naşte din dorinţa ochilor de a se adapta la întuneric. Iar dacă opera artistică se naşte ca improvizare a unor poveşti până la mici scene ce investighează raportul dintre lucruri şi oameni, şi dacă ea trăieşte şi se dezvoltă în timpul execuţiei sale, această natură îi asigură deplinătatea rigorii expresive tocmai pentru că privirea îndreptată spre frumos este luminată de aceeaşi strălucire firească ca a unei stele din infinitul spaţiului.

Aşa este. În această noapte caldă, plină de pace, nu am alergat printre luminiţele care se aprind suflate de vânt în dinamica unei sesiuni de running, dar am prins o frântură din realitatea care se arată ochiului sub forma unui mănunchi de raze, strânse într-un punct care se numește "punct de fugă". Cu cât un obiect este mai aproape cu atât va părea mai mare în comparaţie cu un obiect îndepărtat.

Leadershipul tău se ghidează după impactul vizual al unei imaginii pe care cauţi să o înlocuieşti cu o alta, prin intermediul proprietății extraordinare a sufletului de a privi dincolo de realitatea imediată?

Iată de ce antrenamentul prietenilor mei a căpătat o strălucire aparte, mai ceva ca o întâlnire cu aştrii, fiindcă alergarea lor de noapte a stârnit în mine ceva ce nu am mai simțit demult: dorința fantastică de a mă constitui, de pildă, într-un fenomen de reflexie a unor fluxuri luminoase de aceeaşi intensitate ca a stelelor. Deci, să abandonăm egoismul, privirea îndreptată spre noi înşine, şi să ne îndreptăm privirea spre acele stele care ne pot sluji drept indicatoare, aducându-ne aminte că lumina străpunge întotdeauna întunericul.

De ce spun asta? Fiindcă runningul alături de prieteni este precum licărirea unei stele ce se aprinde undeva departe, a cărui imagine fotografică este punctuală ca a unei stele, dar a cărui natură nu este neapărat stelară, ci acţionează cu intensitate asupra muncii unui artist, ca o provocare, ca o activitate ludică - ideală pentru dezvoltarea creativităţii.

Fiindcă orice pas în alergare, direct proporţional cu magnitudinea aparentă a unei stele care se deplasează faţa de Pământ, poate lumina pe cerul nopţii, ca şi înăuntrul meu, o împărăţie de fericire, o poveste de neuitat la stadiul nemuririi. Să priveşti o alergare nocturnă înseamna să te specializezi într-o tehnică aparte de observare şi analiză a amintirilor care niciodată nu se "sting".

Nu uita că o imagine cu alergători are puterea de a te încărca cu dorința arzătoare de a triumfa mereu, trezind îndeosebi puterea mentalului colectiv al celor care îmbrăţişează idealurile de unitate, solidaritate, dar și armonia între "fond" şi "formă".

A privi dincolo de realitatea imediată înseamnă să vezi de departe, într-o lumină complet diferită, ceea ce poate explica numai prin conlucrarea dintre "un far călăuzitor prin negura necunoscutului" şi "proiecţia unei viziuni artistice".

Încântarea privirii provenită din direcţia luminii stelare se poate desluşi lesne pe chipul unui artist entuziast care se priveşte pe sine cu aceeaşi adoraţie şi încântare cu care priveşte o stea a cărei lumină continuă să strălucească pe veci în sistemul solar.

Aceeaşi stea va continua să strălucească pe veci în inima artistului, în amintirile sale, în creaţiile sale, ori de câte ori el va privi dincolo de exteriorul oamenilor, căutând valorile lor reale, intrinseci. Nu uitaţi că un ochi clarvăzător nu este întotdeauna un ochi care fuge, ci unul care vede de departe ceea ce este destul de aproape.

Încearcă să vezi ceea ce simţurile îţi arată

Găseşte-ţi forța de a elibera simțul gustului care te cucereşte și a-l duce să acționeze cu referire la însuşirile simbolice ale unei forme vizuale distincte care se potriveşte cu înţelesul creaţiei tale.

Guma de mestecat Orbit mă ajută să-mi mențin sănătatea dinților, să diminuez cheltuielile dentare, şi în acelaşi timp îmi crește starea de bine în momentele de epuizare fizică (după antrenamentele de running). Totodată, mă delectez cu gustul ei fresh, dulce, cu o aromă intensă de mentă, şi în momentele când încerc să fac apel la aspectul exterior al unei figuri, determinată de limitele unei lucrări de artă care, chiar şi neavând o puternică încărcătură emoţională, îmi captează toată atenţia şi mă face să mă simt ca un artist.

Şi nu ca orice fel de artist. Ci ca un artist ce trăieşte intens o viaţă lăuntrică, frământat de diferiţi stimuli şi sentimente, de variatele manifestări ale atracţiei pentru tot ceea ce se prezintă ca fiind curat şi îngrijit. El nu rămâne un simplu observator, doar un simplu consumator de gusturi rafinate, ci trăieşte intens experienţa asumată de a surprinde o senzaţie de înviorare, neconsumată, ca şi când s-ar afla în faţa unui "model viu de conduită".

În această parte, conştiinţa personajului fictiv Humbert Humbert, din romanul lui Vladimir Nabokov, este revelatoare pentru experienţa unică a gustului fin, de neuitat, pe care îl dă senzaţia de confundare a artei cu viaţa: "Fiindcă există culori şi nuanţe care par să se veselească atunci când se află în companie bună. Mi-am dat seama numaidecât că toate acestea aparţin unei naturi unice, şi că din ele transpare limpede o autenticitate nouă, inconfundabilă, o poezie cu foarte variate imagini poetice."

De fapt, asta înseamnă să mesteci guma Orbit prin savurarea aromelor şi amplificarea gustului unic: să încerci să sensibilizezi o activitate cu caracter de permanenţă, printr-o infuzie a senzaţiilor de plăcere şi a percepţiilor legate de o experienţă subiectivă, conferind gustului un statut exclusivist, acela de simbol al unei lumi în care orice culoare se evaporă în cele din urmă, şi rămâne doar albul tulbure al unui obiect rămas în repaus.

Leadership: Eşti gata să foloseşti un proces de reprezentare vizuală care reproduce lucrurile prin imagini, în paralel cu satisfacerea unor simţuri care pot evolua spre redimensionarea unui şablon de interpretare a creaţiei tale?

Neîntârziat, gumei de mestecat Orbit i se acordă un statut de curent artistic caracterizat printr-un colorit slab, dar în acelaşi timp o putem vedea ca pe un obiect al cunoaşterii ce rezultă în urma unui proces care acceptă şi implică eroarea şi imperfecţiunea. Un proces de autocunoaștere senzitivă, urmat la final de procesul de reprezentare vizuală a unui obiect rămas fără simţuri, dar care are abilitatea de a evoca amintiri şi chiar emoţii. În esenţă, Orbit necesită o focusare mult mai complexă asupra unei imagini stimulatoare, prezentându-se ca pe un obiect viu, tangibil, low-cost.

Prin calitatea sa de a aborda arta, guma de mestecat Orbit (al cărei gust este conectat la memorie și păstrat în subconștient) îmi transmite acea atmosferă stimulatoare de care are nevoie un artist pentru o cât mai bună reuşită în redarea unui mesaj sugestiv: să vezi ceea ce simţurile îţi arată. De fapt, ceea ce simţurile revelează adesea poate să existe ca argument al unei hermeneutici a metaforei şi simbolului.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să vezi partea opusă a fiinţei tale, reconfigurând tiparul unui obiect rămas fără o poziţie reprezentativă pe tabloul principal al creaţiei tale?

Mă simt mai artist ca niciodată, şi spun asta deoarece simţirea artistului găsește o diversitate de modele pentru gusturile cele mai rafinate. Mai ales, gustul gumei de mestecat Orbit este inconfundabil, la fel cum este stilul artistului de a surprinde o trăire intensă în fiecare pânză, folosindu-se de real şi de fantastic în egală măsură, desfăşurând o activitate fără promisiunea unei recompense materiale, ci pe baza atingerii inefabilului simţirii poetice ce străbate „simbolul universal al prospeţimii şi al bunei dispoziţii".

Data viitoare când voi cumpăra un pachet de gume Orbit, voi fi puţin mai atent la forma pe care o ia fiecare gumă după ce şi-a pierdut gustul, devenind useless. Voi constata, mai mult ca oricând, tiparul unui obiect rămas fără o poziţie reprezentativă pe tabloul principal al creaţiei mele. Şi dacă obiectul acesta, rămas fără vreo latură tolerantă, ar avea ceva de spus, căci orice formă neregulată ar poate fi totuşi concretizată într-o imagine grafică, picturală, prin elemente şi mijloace specifice, atunci mi-ar spune doar atât: "sunt ceea ce tu m-ai făcut să devin prin arta transformării".

Abia acum îmi dau seama cât de dăunător formei este să încerci să sporeşti simţul gustului. Fără precedent, mă simt ca un distrugător de artă. Într-un fel am reuşit să stric forma iniţială a gumei Orbit, doar din nevoia de a-mi asocia imaginea printr-un simbol al aprecierii personale sau a unui moment cu adevărat special, ce poartă amprenta dulce a unicităţii şi a rafinamentului. It's nice to see the opposite side of you once in a while...

Leadershipul poate fi evaluat prin prisma percepţiei cu care te alegi despre tine însuţi atunci când ceea ce încerci să modelezi prin creaţie devine egal cu formarea unui simţ care nu te face să pari lipsit de sentimente.

Încearcă să vezi ceea ce simţurile îţi arată ori de câte ori urmezi dorinţa sinelui de a-şi construi o imagine favorabilă, într-un context în care obiectele sunt apreciate doar prin criteriul aderării lor la o funcţie de aliniere pe palierul abstractului.

Pe această cale, ţin să adaug un lucru important: înţelesul creaţiei mele este acela de exagerare a unei stări de fapt care, prin natura sa, îmi dă posibilitatea să-mi reprezint în mod corect consecinţele unei alegeri deliberate.

Încearcă să vezi leadershipul în felul următor (2)

Conferă leadershipului tău acea notă de armonie de care are nevoie ca să poată convinge.

Celebrul actor american Henry Fonda a spus odată: "Una din marile descoperiri pe care le face un om, una din marile surprize, este să constate că poate face ceea ce credea că nu poate" . Ca să te ridici la nivelul aşteptărilor tale trebuie să descoperi modul în care poţi cultiva o orientare spre performanţă şi progres, adică să conferi leadershipului tău acea unitate, acea notă de armonie de care are nevoie ca să poată convinge.

Efortul de a reda în chip adecvat dovada cea mai firească a unei continuităţi în activităţile de creaţie (care pot să contribuie la creşterea capacităţii tale profesionale), se poate transforma în eşec dacă nu constaţi o intensificare a interesului tău spre deprinderea originalităţii şi inovaţiei. Căci liderul trebuie să fie un artist care şi-a format deprinderea unor raţionamente pe care le consideră relevante în actul de creaţie, încât ceea ce este făcut de el să capete caracterul unei arte distinse.

Autoevaluarea ca şi evaluarea făcută de alţi specialişti nu te ajută să afli în ce moment al evoluţiei te afli şi ce trebuie să faci în continuare pentru a atinge performanţa visată, ce căi trebuie să urmezi, ce lacune trebuie să umpli şi unde trebuie să insişti pentru aţi spori valoarea. De aceea, nu te baza niciodată pe recomandările specialiştilor, şi nu apela la sfaturi din partea celor care nu îţi apreciază munca.

Armonia este modalitatea în care îţi place să studiezi şi să te dezvolţi personal, încât să te poţi concentra pe crearea conţinutului pe care ţi-l doreşti a fi transmis în coordonatele unei arte ce pune în valoare atuurile personalităţii tale.

Sfat: Acceptă drumul adevărului, detaşează-te de acea mentalitate care nu-ţi permite să priveşti mai profund în tine însuţi, care te împiedică să efectuezi o autoevaluare mai amănunţită a calităţilor şi defectelor proprii. Obţinerea performanţelor are în vedere armonizarea cu cerinţele impuse de ceilalţi oameni (prin reglementări şi legi) - de aceea este vital să recunoşti importanţa activităţilor pe care le îndeplineşti pentru a satisface aceste cerinţe.

Iarăşi spun. Trăsăturile tale caracteristice se manifestă în performanţele tale. Aceste trăsături vădesc o atât de strânsă legătură cu acţiunile şi deciziile care stau la baza îndeplinirii atribuţiilor pe care le ai de îndeplinit conform funcţiei de conducere în care ai fost nominalizat.

Deci, trăsăturile nu pot fi independente de leadershipul tău. Ele redau şi armonizează pe deplin interesele şi eforturile tale, relaţiile dintre tine şi ceilalţi oameni, contribuind prin funcţionalitatea, calitatea, prin tenta lor pozitivă la creşterea capacităţii tale profesionale. Aşa cum arta plastică se exprimă prin desen şi prin culoare, performanţele se exprimă prin raportul dintre tine şi ceilalţi oameni. Ele sunt oglinda propriilor virtuţi şi sunt optimizate prin alocarea celor mai potrivite evaluări şi autoevaluări.

Leadership: După ce criterii trebuie să te ghidezi astfel încât să te poţi hotărî asupra unui model de creştere a performanţelor capabile să îndeplinească cerinţele rezultatelor obţinute în urma efortului de a te considera "singurul om de pe pământ" ?

Dacă trăsăturile tale pozitive nu sunt puse în evidenţă sau nu sunt direct observabile, dacă nu coincid cu valorile şi aşteptările celor din jur, dacă ele nu se leagă într-un tot coerent, efectul se va dovedi sub aşteptările tale. Acest lucru poate duce la un alt rezultat decât cel aşteptat. O proastă identificare sau o configurare greşită a propriilor resurse şi calităţi poate avea urmări neaşteptate.

Eşti victima unei erori de interpretare a realităţii? Eu am învăţat de la viaţă că toţi oamenii vor să fie recunoscuţi şi acceptaţi complet pentru cine sunt în interiorul lor, dar foarte puţini sunt capabili să-şi măiestreasca interiorul în aşa fel încât să poată conştientiza viaţa. Foarte puţini îmbrăţişează arta, creaţia şi spiritualitatea. Deci, încearcă să găseşti calea spre excelenţa în arta conducerii, fără să îngădui convingerilor să se alinieze unei false realităţi.

De exemplu, dacă apelezi un număr greşit, îţi va răspunde întotdeauna altcineva decât cine te aştepţi, nu-i aşa? Aproape în acelaşi fel, când nu îţi măsori corect valoarea şi priceperea, performanţele tale vor urma un alt traseu decât cel stabilit iniţial. În loc să reuşeşti să creezi relaţii de durată prin creşterea performanţelor proprii, rişti să stabileşti o conexiune greşită printr-o autoevaluare incorectă sau incompletă. Astfel devii victima unei erori de interpretare a realităţii – adică ajungi să-ţi supraestimezi valoarea atunci când de fapt ea este mult mai mică.

De aceea este necesară conştientizarea a ceea ce eşti şi stabilirea priorităţilor de dezvoltare. Bine a remarcat cineva: "Conştientizarea este primul pas către preluarea frâielor vieţii în propriile mâini. Te ajută să te înţelegi şi să îi înţelegi mai bine pe cei din jurul tău. Te învaţă să simţi, te învaţă treptat să devenii creator – adică un călător conştient al propriului drum, nu un simplu pasager sau figurant în propria ta viaţă."

Ca să dai valoare persoanei tale trebuie să-ţi deschizi singur orizonturile, manifestându-ţi pe deplin ataşamentul faţă de interesul şi disponibilitatea de a-ţi îmbunătăţi performanţele.

Încearcă să vezi leadershipul în felul următor: tot ceea ce faci în viaţă este la fel cu ceea ce ai în interiorul tău: convingeri, emoții. Iar ceea ce nu găsești în interiorul tău nu vei găsi niciunde în altă parte. Și dacă îți dorești cu adevărat ceva și nu găsești acel ceva în tine, atunci degeaba îl cauţi în altă parte.

Totodată, leadershipul are în primul rând nevoie de măreţia care se naşte din singurătatea cu care ai legat pe parcursul vieţii relații cu universul artistic şi cu natura înconjurătoare.

Aşa cum orice acţiune morală are ca scop fericirea internă, tot aşa recunoaşterea propriilor capacităţi şi dezvoltarea lor permanentă contribuie la optimizarea performanţelor tale personale şi profesionale. Niciodată să nu ţi se pară ceva cu neputinţă. Numai cei slabi văd totul ca printr-o pânză neagră. Pe măsura trecerii timpului, perspectiva sub care vei privi lucrurile se va modifica. Dacă tinzi spre excelenţă atunci vei depune toate eforturile ca să te distanţezi de acea realitate care este distorsionată de percepţiile limitatoare ale celor care îţi stau în cale.

De multe ori, singurul tău duşman eşti chiar tu însuţi.

Încearcă să vezi leadershipul în felul următor (1)

On Martie 04, 2009

Încearcă să găseşti calea spre excelenţa în leadership, fără să îngădui convingerilor tale să se alinieze unei false realităţi.

Realizarea sculpturilor decorând teatrul des Champs Elysees se datorează în mare măsură întâlnirii în creaţia lui Bourdelle a sculpturii cu arta dansului. După ce ani în şir Beethoven îl incitase să mediteze asupra muzicii, din 1909 dansul Isadorei Duncan venea să-i ofere o sursă inepuizabilă de sugestii prin ritm şi compoziţie. Complet absorbit de decorarea teatrului, Bourdelle şi-a dat seama de la prima privire că a întâlnit modelul ideal: *"Mi s-a părut că datorită ei văd cum se animă o admirabilă friză sau o divină frescă, devenind pe nesimţite realitate umană." **

Ce concluzie tragem de aici? Drumul spre adevărata performanţă este în strânsă corelaţie cu capacitatea liderului de a pătrunde esenţa lucrurilor, inclusiv esenţa personalităţii umane, sesizând ceea ce nu merge, ceea ce nu se potriveşte cu analiza obiectivă a cauzelor şi efectelor interacţiunilor în care este implicat.

Din acest motiv este necesar să amintesc că momentul optim pentru a începe măsurarea performanţelor proprii se consideră a fi atunci când culegi rezultatele muncii tale, atunci când efectele pozitive ale deciziilor şi acţiunilor încep să se resimtă. Adevărul pe care Bourdelle voia să-l exprime prin cuvintele sale este acela că pentru a ajunge la acel grad de perfecţiune care nu mai poate fi întrecut, trebuie să dai viaţă unei arte superioare, să promovezi o ideologie proprie, pură, care să nu promoveze un mesaj eronat.

Leadership: Poţi să îţi împingi performanţa la limita imposibilului, dezvoltându-ţi un sistem viabil de "finisare" a trăsăturilor proprii care să-ţi sprijine dezvoltarea?

Aşa cum am mai spus la seminariile mele, progresul leadershipului tău este evaluat după gradul şi natura influenţei tale – care are la bază caracterul şi mentalitatea ta, care la rândul lor întreţin şi sunt întreţinute de ideologia ta.

Celebrul scriitor de origine indiană, Salman Rushdie a spus că adevăratele riscuri la care se expune un artist sunt acelea de a împinge opera la limita imposibilului, în încercarea de a spori numărul lucrurilor la care se poate gândi cineva. În mod asemănător stau lucrurile şi când vine vorba despre ştiinţa conducerii, la baza căreia există o riguroasă selectare a eforturilor depuse de lider spre a obţine o cât mai profundă şi cuprinzătoare exprimare a artei sale.

Adevăratul risc la care se expune un lider este de a-şi împinge performanţa la limita imposibilului, în încercarea de a atinge perfecţiunea. Relaţia dintre elementele care conferă echilibru leadershipului său, definindu-i conţinutul şi determinându-i limitele, devine tot mai ştearsă, inexpresivă. Nu uita că oamenilor le vine greu să-şi îmbunătăţească performanţele, dacă liderul nu continuă să-şi sporească performanţele.

Cum poţi să suplineşti lipsa identificării tale cu acele aspecte care îţi pot influenţa în mod semnificativ leadershipul, încât să te consideri în poziţia de a afirma că ceea ce ţi se întâmplă este în controlul tău?

În leadership "valoarea creată" trebuie să se materializeze şi să crească performanţa celor pe care îi conduci. Atâta timp cât valoarea creată este pur teoretică, rămâne pur şi simplu o piesă de muzeu care poate persista "în memoriam", dar nu îmbunătăţeşte starea materială şi viaţa nimănui.

Felul în care îţi defineşti performanţele dezvăluie calitatea leadershipului tău. Iar rezultatele pe care le-ai obţinut sunt direct proporţionale cu "doza" de eficienţă pe care ai atribuit-o fiecărui element din infrastructura leadershipul tău. De aceea nu mi se pare deloc justă tendinţa de a reduce acele elemente de valoare, esenţiale, capabile de a-ţi creşte potenţialul. Aceste elemente reunesc numai acţiunile şi resursele care au drept obiectiv consolidarea aptitudinilor tale, dar şi orientarea acestora spre identificarea şi exploatarea oportunităţilor de a-ţi îmbunătăţi eficienţa şi ştiinţa conducerii.

Aşa cum biblia cuprinde un ansamblu de adevăruri pe care proba timpului şi dezvoltarea ştiinţei nu au fost în stare să-l anuleze - tot aşa lipsa identificării acelor aspecte care pot influenţa în mod semnificativ ştiinţa conducerii îţi poate anula orice şansă de a atinge excelenţa.

Numai rezultatele pe care le obţii decid valoarea ta. Vestea tristă este că rezultate palpabile nu vei obţine peste noapte, deci nu te aştepta să dai gata lumea dintr-o dată. Dar oricum ar fi, dacă vrei cu adevărat să-ţi perfecţionezi leadershipul va fi necesar să-ţi testezi periodic aptitudinile şi competenţele, iar în funcţie de rezultatele evaluărilor vei putea să stabileşti nivelul la care te situezi.

Leadership: Poţi să îţi conturezi viziunea astfel încât ea să dea un sens mai larg existenţei tale, fără să ai experienţa necesară pentru a desfăşura o activitate "extra" în condiţii subiective de reprezentare a cunoaşterii?

O încântare pentru ochi, un atât de puternic apel spre excelenţă. Un privitor în faţa unor tablouri este prins de o senzaţie vizuală atât de puternică încât, fără să-şi dea seama, ea se complică, se transformă în idei, radiază, se asociază altor idei şi sfârşeşte prin a-i umple sufletul de o bucurie fără seamăn.

Acelaşi sentiment sublim, de apropriere faţă de natura leadershipului (vorbind la modul general) îl are şi un lider atunci când reuşeşte să-şi contureze viziunea şi să dea un sens mai larg existenţei sale şi performanțelor profesionale individuale. Numai că spre deosebire de un privitor sau admirator al artei plastice, convingerile liderului referitoare la el însuşi, la rolul său, la competenţele sale, la modul în care acţionează nu pot fi separate de el însuşi întrucât sunt expresia unor idei adânc implementate în sistemul său psihic. Acele convingeri sunt rezultatul teoriilor sale asupra leadershipului.

Aşa cum un privitor evaluează în subconştient valoarea unui tablou în funcţie de impresia pe care o stârneşte acel tablou asupra simţurilor sale, tot aşa un lider îşi poate evalua performanţa în funcţie de rezultatele obţinute şi recunoscute de alţii. Aceste rezultate sunt proporţionale cu abilităţile, cunoştinţele şi capacitatea lui de a le pune în aplicare, trecând de la stadiul de idee la iniţiativă şi apoi la concretizarea lor practică.

Din orice unghi ai privi, evaluarea performanţelor proprii prin măsurarea eficienţei proprii reprezintă un câştig pentru tine. Dacă ai atitudinea mentală potrivită, dacă reuşeşti să-ţi valorifici calităţile, să-ţi exploatezi întregul potenţial printr-o evaluare detaliată şi prin optimizarea abilităţilor de conducere, poţi transforma cunoaşterea personală într-un punct de plecare spre ascensiunea ta în carieră.

Leadershipul se referă la modul cum acţionezi în acele situaţii în care Egoul te afectează, îţi spune că NU ai asimilat suficiente de la viaţă ca să-ţi formezi voinţa proprie, dar tu nu îi laşi această libertate de acţiune, repetându-ţi mereu: "Voi fi mult mai mult decât am fost."

Încearcă să vezi leadershipul în felul următor: toată știința lumii se raportează la trei mari indicatori de rezultate: experiment, creație și descoperire. Şi niciodată să nu apeşi prea tare pedala de acceleraţie, altfel rişti să ajungi prea repede într-un loc care nu-şi găseşte sensul.

Începutul oricărei schimbări este Prima Cauză

Încearcă să validezi o decizie asumată dintr-o perspectivă inedită a fenomenului de "rezonanţă circumstanţială", în încercarea de a recunoaşte în tine sursa unei noi forme de conştiinţă.

Am văzut o pisică care traversa trecerea de pietoni, şi n-am putut s-o studiez decât cu ochi de piatră, mai puţin s-o supraveghez cu neîncetata chemare a milei divine. Părea o decizie asumată dintr-o perspectivă inedită a fenomenului nebuniei: micuţa egoistă înfumurată îşi asuma prelungirea stării în care judecăţile ivite din simţuri nici nu îşi corespund deloc. Maşinile se opreau, altele o ocoleau, nici una nu conta prea mult în acel moment de cumpănă. Animalul păşea încet, agale, fără să ştie ce este riscul sau pericolul, cumva închipuindu-se drept clipă de neuitat într-un spațiu al nesfârșirii, drept erou al unei aventuri fără egal.

Fapt sigur este curajul nebun, lipsit de mustrări de conştiinţă, inconştienţa în faţa morţii implacabile. Pisica ar fi putut la fel de bine să aştepte la semafor, dar ea a vrut să fie prima care traversează un orizont de evenimente ce pot fi văzute doar în filmele de la Hollywood, experimentând parcă acea tendinţă a Eului omenesc de a fi năstruşnic, de a fi un creator de lumi noi, un TIME-TRAVELLER. Numaidecât, trebuie luat în calcul faptul că pisica este doar un prădător solitar ce atacă prin surprindere şoricei şi vrăbiuţe, fără să se gândească o clipă c-ar putea fi în pericol traversând două benzi de circulaţie.

Evident, pisica nu a aşteptat culoarea verde, nu a dorit să-şi reconsidere decizia, ci părea a se juca de-a regele într-o poziţie de siguranţă absolută pe o tablă de şah ce răspunde întocmai îndrumărilor date de o exuberanţă iraţională. Pentru că, aşa cum spunea cineva: "A aştepta înseamnă a adăuga clipe clipelor, a le strânge pentru ca spaţiul-timp să se comprime, să rămână în sinele profund iluzia dilatării lui în scurtul răgaz împreună cu o iluzie uneori atât de reală."

Leadership: Rezultatul deciziei pe care o iei poate fi interpretat ca o desfăşurare necruţătoare a lumii exterioare, analizată de o interioritate derutată?

La vederea acestei scene pline de suspans mă simţeam ca un prizonier încolţit într-o capcană a timpului hotărât de un destin al transcendenţei (trăit involuntar), prins într-un cerc mişcător cu rază orbitoare dusă în punctul cauzal al unei decizii luate sub presiune, conjunctural şi fără perspectivă. Cert este că nu puteam să anulez efectul unui analgezic apărut din diferenţa dintre dorinţă şi realitate. Acolo intervenea corespondenţa dintre un vis negru, trăit cu ochii deschişi, şi trăitul unei vieţi fără limite exprimată printr-o mobilizare dusă la extrem, printr-o strădanie a clipei de a depăși timpul și spațiul dimensiunii numite "superfactor al personalităţii".

Pentru această prezenţă solitară în mijlocul străzii viața însemna "să fiu eu pe primul loc", nu oamenii. În niciun caz n-o durea sufletul pentru ceea ce încerca să facă. Dar dacă animalului i se neagă în general raţionalitatea, negar el papel que tiene en el proceso de conocer la realidad , şi mai ales pentru că el nu ia în calcul sentimentul de a fi o victimă, atunci omului i se poate ierta păcatul de a-şi uita menirea de fiinţă raţională în cazul când îşi manifestă voinţa de a traversa drumul cu un singur sens de circulaţie: sensul finalităţii apropiat de acela al cauzei finale.

În orice caz, cu toţii suntem pisici la un moment dat când traversăm strada. Dar trebuie să ne dăm seama de valoarea acelui "ceva ieşit din comun" ca să ne explicăm adevărata semnificaţie a vieţii pe care o trăim: găsirea unui motiv de a nu deveni victima propriilor imprudențe şi exagerări. Asta, bineînţeles, în intenția implicită de a nu deveni o ţintă a momentelor de mai intensitate, de a nu ne considera ca fiind o anexă pentru cultivarea conştientă a efemerului într-o lume a îndoielii şi a nesiguranţei.

Leadership: Îţi poţi asuma răspunderea unei identităţi care adună în ea trăitul unei vieţi din altă viaţă, în încercarea de a redescoperi „negativul" ființei care se întrupează într-un joc al dedublării?

Cu siguranţă, negativul meu s-a întrupat într-un joc al dedublării, atunci când am simţit că fac parte din viaţa altei fiinţe prevăzută cu altă configuraţie genetică. Negativul indică confruntarea cu acea latură a interiorităţii neexprimată prin cuvinte sau prin viu grai. Am amuţit instantaneu. Şi, atunci, înfrânarea năzuinţelor subiective, eliminarea lor de pe făgaşul unei normalităţi relative, a fost începutul căderii mele într-o stare de paranoia în care am uitat să-mi analizez propriile greșeli, propriile motivaţii, propriile trăiri, şi să le observ numai pe ale altora.

Era o stare de neclintire, pierdere a speranţei, o apăsare demobilizatoare ca în faţa morţii inevitabile, sindromul fiind urmat de un sentiment de culpabilitate. Cei ce vor să ştie exact ce se petrecea în sufletul meu, pot studia povestirea "Îngropat de viu", scrisă de Edgar Allan Poe, mai ales momentul când are loc măcinarea lăuntrică a personajului principal ca o desfăşurare necruţătoare a lumii exterioare:

"Am încercat să strig. Dar în strădania mea, buzele şi limba-mi uscată se mişcau convulsiv şi niciun glas nu ieşea din pieptul meu cavernos care, apăsat parcă de greutatea unui munte prăbuşit deasupra-i, gâfâia şi palpita o dată cu inima mea, la fiece respiraţie trudnică şi greoaie. În strădania aceasta de a scoate un strigăt, vrând să deschid gura, am băgat de seamă că fălcile îmi sunt legate, cum se obişnuieşte la morţi..."

Pentru a înţelege mai bine ce este "rezonanţa circumstanţială" trebuie să iei în calcul acea „depăşire" a interiorităţii prin coincidenţa ei cu exterioritatea. Fiindcă ceea ce trăieşti prin sentimentul temporar de dedublare poate fi trecut prin filtrul unei experienţe de viaţă trăită la limita dintre ceea ce este destinat să se întâmple și ceea ce este posibil, dar nu neapărat.

Dimensiunea mai largă a identităţii mele, din ipostaza unei psihologii a dedublării, este echivalentă cu trăitul unei vieţi din spatele altei vieţi care îşi pierde uneori busola pentru a o regăsi sub forma unei predispoziţii afective capabilă să amplifice sau să micşoreze conlucrarea dintre hazard şi liberul arbitru.

Aşa am ajuns să mă consider un învins, subiectul principal al unei gândiri defectuoase, căci m-am resemnat în faţa unei situaţii dificile crezând că trebuie să mă obişnuiesc să trăiesc cu ea. Deci, numai prin simpla desfăşurare a unui eveniment care mi-a stârnit din plin interesul, numai prin recunoaşterea unei dimensiuni profetice a sincronismului conjunctural, am fost la un pas de a-mi schimba cursul vieţii - printr-o resemnare în faţa destinului care oricum face ce vrea, printr-o renunţare la voinţă, prin acceptarea de a fi ceea ce îmi dictează exteriorul să fiu.

Or, a recunoaşte în mine sursa unei noi forme de conştiinţă înseamnă să analizez fiecare experienţă de viaţă ca pe o pavăză împotriva incursiunii nerușinate a exteriorului asupra intimității interiorului. Această conştiinţă se explică parţial prin percepţia unei discrepanţe dintre ceea ce consider că pot face în locul altcuiva şi ceea ce pot face pentru a depăşi o mentalitate orientată - spre sine.

Începutul oricărei schimbări este Prima Cauză atunci când "prima cauză" evidenţiază situaţia în care Sinele Superior (sau mentalitatea subiectivă) s-a separat de mine şi s-a reîncarnat în alt vehicul însufleţitor, în altă fiinţă, în altă realitate. Dacă aţi observat bine, înainte ca eu să mă schimb, a intervenit o schimbare în linia curentă a evenimentelor, schimbare pe care am perceput-o ca pe o responsabilitate extrem de importantă faţă de o fiinţă grabită şi emancipată, asemănătoare mie, dar mult mai capabilă să-mi predea lecţii de viaţă.

Închisoarea îngerilor

Pentru ca percepţia oamenilor despre tine să fie corectă, ei trebuie să simtă vibraţia ta lăuntrică.

O greşeală. De atât era nevoie pentru ca Vivian Ward, frumoasa damă de companie, să-l părăsească pe controversatul om de afaceri, Edward Lewis. După o scurtă ceartă, dar dureroasă, Vivian îi spune:

- N-a mai fost nimeni în viaţa mea care să mă facă să mă simt aşa de înjosită, cum ai făcut-o tu astăzi. Dacă tot ai vrut să spui la toată lumea că sunt o paraşută, de ce nu m-ai lăsat să-mi port ţoalele mele? Îmi pare rău că te-am întâlnit. Îmi pare rău că am intrat în maşina ta stupidă ! Vreau banii mei. Şi vreau să dispar de aici !

După ce rosti aceste cuvinte, Vivian ieşi plângând din cameră, dar fără să ia banii. Se opri în faţa liftului care parcă nu mai venea. În gândul ei parcă îşi spunea: "Oh, prietenul meu, iubitul meu, eşti mai în vârstă, mai bogat, dar nu mai înţelept."

Leadership: Introduci în mijlocul lumii un fel subiectiv de a avea acces la temeiurile ei ultime, potrivit experienţei trăite la diferite nivele ale fiinţei tale?

Vivian avea senzaţia că pierduse jumătate din propria fiinţă. Vreme de câteva zile fusese legată de Lewis printr-un fir invizibil. Dar vraja se rupsese. El reuşise să-i umple cu bucurie întreaga existenţă, acum exclusese din ea orice altceva. Totuşi, slaba consolare pe care o simţea acum îi întări hotărârea. Trebuia să plece, trebuia să-şi ia rămas bun de la visul ei de a-şi împlini iubirea, de a-şi găsi acea bogăţie sufletească la care numai inimile cele mai alese râvnesc.

A traversat oceanul de durere şi a ajuns pe celălalt mal. Lewis merse după ea. Tăcu o clipă străduindu-se din greu să găsească răspunsul. L-a uitat? L-a intuit? Apoi îi spuse cu acea sinceră cordialitate ce cucereşte toate inimile, de parcă s-ar fi concentrat asupra aurei ei, folosindu-se de această putere ca să-i vină în întâmpinarea dorinţelor ei:

- Iartă-mă. N-am vrut. Nu vreau să pleci.

Aceste cuvinte au avut darul de a o linişti dintr-o dată pe Vivian, de parcă nu mai trebuia să ducă acea povară de una singură. Era ca şi cum ea i-ar fi citit gândurile, ghicind adevăratele lui sentimente.

- M-ai rănit. Să n-o mai faci.

A introduce în mijlocul lumii un fel subiectiv de a avea acces la temeiurile ei ultime, înseamnă să-ţi extinzi puterea personală la nivelul instinctului de a judeca evenimentele şi a faptele care lezează demnitatea altora, prin prisma propriilor neîmpliniri, temeri, resentimente sau frustrări.

Unul din temeiurile ultime al lumii este starea de bine obţinută prin tranșarea conflictului dintre imaginea pe care ţi-o faci în mod arbitrar despre oameni şi realitatea pe care o experimentezi in momentul în care renunţi la tine, la egoism şi la orice alt sentiment negativ.

Leadership: Te plasezi în faţa unei schimbări de sens în viaţa altora, fără a fi sigur de direcţia pe care trebuie să mergi tu?

După cum o singură picătură de sânge deţine întregul cod genetic al unei fiinţe, tot astfel coeficientul tău emoţional dă continuitate tuturor celorlalte elemente constitutive ale leadershipului tău. Leadershipul este ca o operă de artă care nu poate fi completă dacă elementul constitutiv al expresiei totale lipseşte, sau nu este pe deplin realizat.

Prin intermediul leadershipului îţi dezvălui ceva din natura propriilor tale simţăminte. Conduci după felul în care simţi, după felul în care te raportezi la oameni, după felul în care te preocupi de trăirile lor sufleteşti şi elanuri interioare.

Leadershipul tău poate fi paradis sau o închisoare, depinde de felul cum te percep ceilalţi oameni, şi depinde cum îţi percepi tu propria fiinţă. Odată ce ţi-ai câştigat statutul de lider, te legi de oameni printr-un fir invizibil. Însă vraja care controlează motivaţia lor se rupe rapid dacă ei simt absenţa parţială sau totală a sentimentelor tale.

Leadership: Poţi să traduci în termeni vizuali tot ceea ce ajungi să cunoşti prin intermediul simţurilor şi trăirilor?

Direcţia în care mergi se poate distinge prin imaginea pe care o duci cu tine şi care se reflectă în ceea ce accepți sau nu de la cei din jur. A cultiva o imagine înseamnă să sugerezi un model de a privi, de a percepe și de a exprima omul și lumea, înainte să trimiți un mesaj de confirmare a propriilor dorințe.

Şi, ca să parafrazez ce spunea scriitorul român, Cornel Ailincăii: "A privi nu este doar un simplu act de înregistrare monocromă a împrejurimii şi nici o uluire întreruptă în pragul revelării unui sens, ci o pătrundere într-o infinitate de tăinuiri şi omisiuni care compun o poveste pe care o livrezi odată cu confirmarea propriilor temelii lăuntrice."

Dacă vrei să te situezi pe o poziţie solidă în sufletul oamenilor trebuie să-ţi ierarhizezi valorile după ordinea importanţei lor, dar mai întâi trebuie să intuieşti, trebuie să te strădui să găseşti răspunsul privitor la ingredientul principal care se impune încorporat în temelia care îţi conturează imaginea. Răspunsul tău poate să le umple oamenilor cu bucurie întreaga existenţă, sau poate să excludă din ea orice altceva.

Leadership: Blochezi orice cale de evadare din spaţiul imperiului tău interior?

Când mă gândesc la procesul de stabilire şi de îmbunătăţire a relaţiilor, îmi amintesc de un personaj dintr-un roman celebru care se juca cu o buburuză. O punea pe birou şi clădea din cărţi bariere în jurul ei. Dacă insecta găsea o cale de evadare, imediat el mişca una din cărţi ca s-o blocheze.

În postura buburuzei s-a pus singur şi multimiliardarul Edward Lewis, din filmul " Pretty Woman (1990) ". El a înălţat bariere şi ziduri în propriul lui suflet, fiind insensibil faţă de sentimentele sale şi ale celorlalţi oameni. Singur s-a baricadat într-un spaţiu în care nu exista nimic mai important decât propria lui persoană. Se transformase într-un prizonier prin puterea banilor care îi influenţau emoţionalul din el şi îi dictau viaţa.

Leadershipul este imaginea pe construieşti despre tine din actul privirii asupra lucrurilor particulare care participă la formarea realităţii celorlalţi oameni.

Închisoarea îngerilor simbolizează tenta negativă a leadershipului tău, ce apare ca urmare a dezacordului dintre adevăratele tale sentimente şi acele aspecte negative care îţi diminuează substanţial credibilitatea. Este un mijloc de ispăşire a pedepsei pentru încălcarea emoţionalului din tine, şi durează până ce îţi corectezi propriile valori şi orientări.

"Evadarea" lui Edward Lewis din mica închisoare pe care singur şi-o construise, s-a produs atunci când a învăţat să pătrundă tainele naturii umane, atunci când a ales să-şi asculte glasul inimii, atunci când pentru prima oară în viaţa lui cineva i-a dovedit că banii nu-l făceau un model de urmat şi nici de lăudat, dimpotrivă, îi umbreau toate calităţile.

În postura ta de lider trebuie să judeci şi cu sufletul, nu numai cu mintea. Profită de orice oportunitate şi lasă larg deschise "portiţele sufletului" pentru a nu ajunge în "închisoarea îngerilor".

Vivian a servit drept model de simţire şi de gândire. Ea a simţit vibraţia lăuntrică a lui Edward, a perceput corect şi într-un mod pozitiv adevărata lui natură, l-a iertat şi s-a întors la el. Ea a constituit un îndreptar, un jucător de mare calibru în viaţa lui, scoţându-l din poziţia de "offside" pe care el n-a luat-o niciodată în seamă.

Tu ai puterea să semnalizezi poziţia de offside pe care ceilalţi n-o iau în seamă?

Închisoarea şi eliberarea sufletului meu

Trebuie să ai maturitatea de a accepta o înfrângere personală că să conştientizezi faptul că dorinţa ta de a fi superior restului lumii nu face decât să te ţină captiv într-o colivie.

Este vorba despre o discuţie purtată cu un prieten pe pista de alergat, la sfârşitul antrenamentului de azi. Şi tot ce-am vorbit în acele câteva minute, care au trecut parcă atât de repede, mi-a amintit de un film emoţionant, cu un final şi mai emoţionant. Filmul se intitulează Flawless (2007). Desigur, nu este vorba despre o discuţie oarecare, nici despre o discuţie purtată pe tema vreunui "specific" psihologic al prieteniei, ci despre şansa de a mă maturiza, de a mă lăsa purtat de valul posibilităţii de a accepta un alt punct de vedere asupra naturii umane.

Şi el mi-a repetat, încă o dată, şi încă o dată: „Nicu, lasă trecutul în urmă, şi nu te mai întrece cu nimeni. Şi nu lăsa ca trecutul să te întreacă, doar pentru faptul că prezentul nu fuge alături de mândria ta de a nu-ţi uita acea fărâmă de avânt, de mare vibraţie care, altădată, te-a determinat să mergi înainte…şi să nu te mai opreşti."

La fel şi în filmul Flawless (2007), se distingea în cazul o parte din simţirea omului care nu-şi poate uita trecutul, şi nu poate scăpa de el nicicum, chiar dacă ar fi vrut să găsească în el însuşi o evadare din închisoarea excepţională a minţii şi a sufletului, entităţi de control ale umanului pus la grea încercare.

În mod asemănător, finalul filmului este o parte din mine, fiindcă totul din mine rezonează cu acea parte sensibilă, dar nevăzută, a sufletului unui om care şi-a învins destinul, dar n-a putut uita cu niciun chip acea mică iluzie, nisip mişcător, care se numeşte… prezent.

Leadershipul este o consecinţă a afinităţii tale faţă de superioritatea spiritului, într-un moment în care se proclamă decăderea mai mult ca sigură a imaginii pe care ţi-ai construit-o în timp.

Şi fiindcă prietenul meu m-a sfătuit să las în urmă trecutul, şi să încerc să nu mai pun pe primul loc spiritul competitiv, am intrat dintr-o dată în spaţiul filmului, când la final eroina îşi descarcă toate sentimentele ascunse, multe dintre ele trecute mult timp sub protecţia anonimatului.

Cumva, la un pas de a nu se mai ascunde de trecut, eroina alege să se arate așa cum era cu adevărat, destăinuindu-şi liber sentimentele. Şi cuvintele ei atât de emoţionante, pline de simplitate, cu care se încheie filmul, sunt poate memoriile simţirii pe care cugetul meu n-o poate nicidecum părăsi:

"I never intended this to happen, but the new game of life sent me in a different direction. I discovered the world and through it, I discovered myself. And just today…today I gave away the last penny of my fortune. I'm free at last.

Except… except for that jewel that you held in your hand. That I've been saving for a rainy day.

Or perhaps…or perhaps it's the last little piece of vanity that I have left."

Leadership: O credință exagerată în propriile abilități exprimă preocuparea pentru imaginea pe care o proiectezi în exterior, dar poate ea să conteste perspectiva experienţei de a trăi cu limitări şi blocaje?

Şi în acel scurt moment de reflecţie, când cineva mi-a vorbit la fel ca unui frate, el fiind un călător întârziat care bate la poarta sufletului omenesc, m-am simţit eliberat din închisoarea mândriei de a fi diferit în încercarea de a arăta asta lumii întregi. Nimic nu e mai înşelător decât dorinţa de a fi unic, şi ştiu că asta venea foarte natural la mine, atât din punct de vedere obiectiv cât şi subiectiv.

La fel cum Papillon, după nenumărate încercări de evadare din închisoarea din Cayenne, a reușit într-un final să părăsească închisoarea şi, odată ajuns în Franța a făcut publice condițiile și tratamentul draconic la care a fost supus, tot aşa eu după nenumărate tentative de a mă perfecţiona şi de a ajunge la cel mai înalt nivel de competenţă, conform meritelor şi pregătirii mele foarte riguroase, am ajuns într-o singură clipă să înţeleg că de fapt nu toţi aplică aceeaşi regulă în relaţiile interumane şi că, probabil, de la mine se aşteaptă altceva. Am simţit că trebuia să-mi anunţ schimbarea, înainte să ca lumea să mă schimbe.

Trebuia să am maturitatea de a accepta o înfrângere personală că să conştientizez faptul că dorinţa mea de a fi superior restului lumii nu făcea decât să mă ţină captiv într-o colivie, într-o stare de revoltă.

În prietenie nu trebuie să existe rivalitate sau gândire competiţională. De multe ori, motivul căderii omului în dizgraţie poate fi refuzul acestuia de a accepta o toleranță mai mare faţă de normalul unanim de "strălucire" acceptat de majoritate. În leadership, normalitatea este o stare favorabilă pe termen lung, în timp ce superioritatea poate fi o opţiune favorabilă pe termen scurt, dar care nu îţi poate garanta că lucrurile nu se vor schimba la partenerii tăi, sau că ei vor rămâne alături de tine.

De fapt, nu ştii niciodată cu care personalitate stai de vorbă când vorbeşti cu un profesionist. Pentru că la un moment dat profesionistul îşi dă seama că statutul lui privilegiat nu este chiar ceea ce îşi doreşte, şi se răzgândeşte. Ajunge chiar să fugă de propria lui umbră, de un trecut care îl împovărează și îi pune piedici în evoluția personală pe plan social. Aici intervine o altă etapă în devenirea fiinţei sale în care se stârneşte nostalgia şi începe să trăiască din „parfumul vetust al altor vremi, începe să-şi poarte tot mai greu singurătatea experienţei de a fi diferit de ceilalţi. Şi abia aici înţelege el leadershipul.

Leadershipul trainic ia în calcul perspectiva experienţei de a trăi prin corespondenţă cu fiinţa din modelul suportiv emoţional cerut de realităţile specifice umanităţii, deci pune pe locul doi pe experienţa de a trăi prin modelul de reuşită la care aspiră un performer.

Închisoarea şi eliberarea sufletului meu depind de modul în care reuşesc să îmbin performanţa şi superioritatea cu lecţiile de omenie şi de viaţă pe care, adesea, le-am învăţat prea târziu.

Leadershipul este un exerciţiu de dezvoltare a acceptării de sine şi a stimei de sine în accepţiunea unei majorităţi semnificative, în accepţiunea unei lumi în care recompensa socială nu este o ofertă a valorii personale, ci o consecinţă a afinităţii tale faţă de superioritatea spiritului, într-un moment în care se proclamă decăderea mai mult ca sigură a imaginii pe care ţi-ai construit-o în timp.

Include-mă în iertarea ta

Gestionează-ţi cu grijă resursele emoţionale, astfel încât să dobândeşti şi să-ţi păstrezi un loc de cinste în sufletul oamenilor.

Annie, Peter şi tatăl lor, Royce Garrett, se balansau suspendaţi pe o funie de versantul abrupt al muntelui, la circa 450 de metri înălţime. Niciunul dintre ei nu prevăzuse consecinţele acelei escaladări. În acel moment de aşteptare înspăimântătoare, Annie face o ultimă încercare de a ajunge la zidul de piatră, dar pitonul care îi susţinea se mişcă din loc. Funia nu îi mai putea ţine mult timp pe toţi trei.

Royce devine neclintit, ca o statuie la care doar buzele aveau viaţă. Cu un tremur în glas îi spune fiului său:

- Peter, vreau să scoţi cuţitul. Nu ai prea mult timp la dispoziţie. Trebuie să faci ceva în locul meu, bine? Taie funia. Suntem prea grei, un piton nu o să ne ţină pe toţi trei.

- Nu ! Nu ! Nu ! ţipă Annie. Nu fă asta, Peter ! Dar lacrimile care începeau să-i umple ochii nu puteau tăia glasul tatălui ei, care deveni tot mai aspru:

Leadership: Merită să lupţi pentru a merge mai departe atunci când ceea ce te leagă de un anumit om este mai puternic decât ceea ce te separă de experienţele unei vieţi trăite la limită?

- Taci Annie ! .. Ascultă ce spun, Peter ! Dacă nu faci asta, sora ta o să moară ! exclamă tatăl lor cu emoţia încordată, cu acea sfârşeală a omului care ştie că nu are rost să mai lupte împotriva destinului. Apoi, cu o expresie plină de convingere, îşi întări şi mai tare hotărârea: Taie funia ! Taie odată ! Nu contează ce se întâmplă cu mine ! Taie-o ! Nu mai avem timp ! Taie-o !

Poţi să asiguri salvarea prin sacrificiu? Ceva se schimbă brusc în Peter. Cuvintele rostite cu o înverşunare responsabilă de tatăl lui – mărturia supremă a dragostei împărtăşite prin sacrificiu, au făcut să se reverse asupra întregii lui fiinţe, ca o ploaie torenţială, impetuoasă, acele sentimente de nelinişte - dând nastere la acea de formă de curaj, la acea fermitate care îi dădu puterea de a-şi depăşi limitele.

Cheia înţelegerii leadershipului de azi şi a perspectivelor lui de viitor nu stă în ceea ce fac sau cred liderii. Ea stă în descifrarea şi anticiparea noilor circumstanţe emoţionale în care sunt plasaţi. Ca orice alţi oameni, liderii sunt şi ei antrenaţi într-un val de modificări emoţionale – doar că la un alt nivel, mai profund, împărtăşindu-şi într-un mod diferit trăirile.

Personalitatea ta va evolua liniar şi previzibil pe traiectoriile stabilite de încărcătura ta emoţională, în concordanţă cu principiile pe care se întemeiază leadershipul tău, în concordanţă cu felul tău de-a fi, cu ataşamentul tău, în funcţie de grija pe care o acorzi celorlalţi oameni - deci va evolua în funcţie de cum îţi direcţionezi resursele proprii.

Leadership: Practici virtutea de a crede în tine însuţi într-un moment de cotitură când viziunea şi valorile tale nu se potrivesc cu condiţia de om moral?

Mă reîntorc la filmul „ Vertical Limit (2000) ", pentru a stabili exact ideea ce doresc a o transmite. Peter a tăiat funia, salvând viaţa surorii sale şi a lui – şi provocând moartea tatălui lor. Dar gestul său a fost condamnabil. I-a produs nefericirea cea mai mare lui Annie, făcând să ţâşnească în sufletul ei, ca o lavă, sentimente dureroase, pline de amărăciune şi ură.

În finalul filmului, Peter reuşeşte s-o salveze pe Annie, cu riscul de a-şi pune în pericol propria lui viaţă. El a coordonat şi a participat la misiunea de salvare a lui Annie din munţii Himalaya, după ce, în urma unei avalanşe, ea a rămas izolată sub un perete de gheaţă.

Annie îl priveşte pe fratele ei cu o expresie plină de dragoste, ca şi cum întreaga ei fiinţă ar fi fost readusă la viaţă. Toate sentimentele ei de ură dispăruseră. Fapta lui curajoasă dezgheţase inima ei împietrită. Chipul ei, plin de bucuria unor sentimente foarte adânci, oglindea un singur gând:

- Te iert, Peter. Te iert fiindcă aş fi putut fi eu în locul tău. Te iert, fiindcă tu ai avut a doua oară curajul pe care eu nu l-am avut niciodată. Ai făcut un lucru minunat acolo. Oricine altcineva ar fi renunţat. Tata ar fi fost mândru de tine.

Capacitatea cea mai de seamă a unui lider se deduce dintr-un fapt îndrăzneţ: să adopţi o cale de acţiune care să garanteze că nu vei ajunge în locul sau în pozitia pe care nu ţi-ai propus-o.

Cea mai semnificativă influenţă pe care un lider o are - este cea care trezeşte emoţiile şi sentimentele cele profunde. Dacă nu eşti în stare să elimini acele aspecte negative care contravin trăirilor şi convingerilor tale, nu vei putea să faci niciodată saltul spre adevărata măreţie. A fi măreţ înseamnă să-i cunoşti pe oameni, să-i ierţi, şi să le dai şansa să crească în faţa ochilor tăi dovedindu-şi necontenit ataşamentul faţă de sentimentele şi valorile tale.

Aşa cum organismul uman se imunizează activ faţă de factorii negativi care îi pot pune în pericol buna funcţionare - tot aşa şi tu, combătând în mod inteligent toate aspectele negative ale leadershipului, vei putea să te imunizezi faţă de vibraţiile şi stările interioare nocive. Vei debloca energiile fizice şi psihice din fiinţa ta care te împiedică să-ţi manifeşti potenţialul la maximum. Acele aspecte negative ale leadershipului tău nu sunt altceva decât rezultatul acordului pe care l-ai pecetluit cu Eul tău, în primul rând, apoi cu tot ceea ce ştii şi cu raţiunea ta.

Poţi să clădeşti castele în aer? Atunci când îi tratezi pe oameni cu ură sau cu dezinteres, ca şi când ei nu ar avea valoare, este ca şi cum ai clădi un castel în aer - influenţa ta este din ce în ce mai mică asupra lor - nu poţi dezvolta sentimentul de încredere fiindcă leadershipul tău nu are o fundaţie corespunzătoare şi stabilă care să-ţi asigure dezvoltarea şi performanţa.

Leadershipul este ca un tot indestructibil care uneşte sentimentele tale de sentimentele celorlalţi oamenilor, păstrând şi unificând caracteristicile şi calităţile comune. Se poate dărâma dacă nu e întreţinut cu răbdare şi afecţiune.

Poziţia care niciodată nu te avantajează ca lider are ca indicator de referinţă parcurgerea unui drum care duce înspre necunoscutul situaţiilor în care se înfruntă trăirile şi conştiinţa pe fondul imboldului de a pleda pentru o cauză onorabilă: renunţarea deliberată.

Include-mă în iertarea ta scoate în evidenţă voinţa unui lider de a nu renunţa la toate formele de manifestare a propriei sale naturi: la valorile, emoţiile, trăirile, convingerile sale – aceasta fiind singura cale de a dobândi un loc de cinste în inima oamenilor şi de a inocula în conştiinţa lor adevăratele sale idealuri, gânduri şi nevoi sufleteşti.

Încotro vezi tu, privire?

Fiecare act de creație artistică reprezintă o nouă viață trăită în planul spiritual al lumii, cu condiţia să transcendă limitele egoului și să atingă universalul.

Scribul tace şi notează într-o formă profundă şi evocatoare, dar gândeşte în sinea lui: "În lumea asta în care se moştenesc averi fără măsură, rostul omului, a faptelor sale, este o introducere imperfectă în opera lui Dumnezeu".

În fond, cele scrise de mine, punând pe hârtie viaţa aşa cum m-am priceput, într-o manieră şi aşa nedesăvârşită, sunt gândurile celor pe care i-am văzut, devenite mai apoi şi gândurile mele. Ca o fereastră transparentă prin care apare o parte din lumea vizibilă a experienţelor sufleteşti, paginile mele reflectă deschiderea și receptivitatea la influențele venite din exterior.

În căutarea sensului existenței, omul oscilează între banalitatea cotidiană și aspirația către divin, găsindu-și nemurirea în creația artistică și în povestea unică a vieții sale. Cel puţin aşa cred. Prin urmare, înainte de a închide cartea, ultima și cea dintâi idee, mai trebuie să vorbesc despre ceva anume, ceva care mă face să cred că cele amintite de mine nu aparțin cărților obișnuite, ci cărților de suflet. Dacă ştii să priveşti în jur, ochiul îţi spune multe, îţi iartă chiar faptul de a sacrifica picturii şi gloriosul viitor al artei. Şi îmi spune mereu acelaşi lucru: să mă aşez la lumină, să strălucesc de dorul celor ce s-au pierdut în întuneric.

Totul se repetă, chiar și ochii care își revăd lacrimile. De multe ori am privit bătrânii stând pe bancă, plictisiți, repetând aceleași gesturi zilnice cu o constanță ce frizează absurdul. Se uită pe telefon, mai aruncă un ochi pe stradă, urmărind trecătorii cu o curiozitate lâncedă. Dar rămân ancoraţi în acelaşi loc, într-un prezent al trecutului, indiferent de vreme sau anotimp, ca niște santinele ale propriei lor rutine. Probabil se simt lipsiţi de cel mai valoros bun: speranţa nesfârşitului. Banca a devenit o extensie a ființei lor, un altar al monotoniei. Un fel de "Azenthopia Illiersebre", o stare de acceptare pasivă a existenței, ţinându-i captivi într-o realitate măruntă a cărei acceptare şi înţelegere îl ancorează într-un spaţiu vid. Întotdeauna confortul obișnuinței înlocuiește aventura necunoscutului.

Leadership: Crezi că egalitatea cu divinul în actul creației poate deveni un imperativ al formării ce transformă efemerul în etern, conferind astfel o valoare unică fiecărei expresii artistice în fluxul vieții tale?

"La vie est ailleurs," ar spune Rimbaud, iar acești bătrâni, preluând tiparul unor îndepărtări de lume, par să fi uitat acest adevăr fundamental. Un refugiu, sau o închisoare? Nu, deloc. Ei nu vizitează țări străine, nu-și expandează orizonturile, nimic nu le mai încearcă sufletul. Duminica îi găsește ori la biserică, ori la cimitir, perpetuând ritualuri ancestrale - un cozonac copt, o pomană dată. Își așteaptă sfârșitul printre morminte şi icoane, inevitabil, ca și cum viața ar fi doar un preambul al morții. Nu mai au nimic de pierdut. Aşteaptă să închidă ochii, definitiv, fără să-şi fi terminat tabloul, fără să ştie că numai capodoperele sunt punți între uman și divin.

Deja se gândesc la viaţa veşnică? Ce să faci în Rai? Să continui să stai pe o bancă, să tragi cu ochiul la trecători sau în curtea vecinilor? De fapt, în locul acela misterios, dar atât de senin, nu cred că există cimitire, nici biserici, nici icoane, nici cerşetori, ci doar o senzaţie de bucurie imensă, o eliberare de orice constrângeri. Atunci, care este esența paradisului? Nu cumva acesta este locul unde povestea omului atinge apogeul creativ?

Lumea artei nu este o lume idealizată, ci mereu o altă lume, distinctă de cea proprie plăcerii ochiului.

Până la urmă, singurul mod de a fi nemuritor este să trăiești, succesiv, alte vieți, mai splendide decât celelalte. Dar cum poți realiza acest lucru într-o existență aparent limitată, într-un cadru finit?

Prin intermediul picturii, Michelangelo a arătat că este egalul lui Dumnezeu, că degetul lui Dumnezeu, întins la maximum, atât de apropiat de degetul muritorului Adam, este ceea desparte talentul uman de perfecţiunea divină. La rândul lui, Beethoven a demonstrat că "Sonata Lunii" este mai strălucitoare decât soarele și că, chiar surd fiind, poți crea capodopere. Talentul sublim frizează divinitatea. Artiştii sunt traducători ai limbajului divin. De aceea, viaţa lor este o poveste nemuritoare.

Leadership: Modul prin care îți conturezi existența în lume poate fi o transfigurare interioară ce scoate la iveală adevărul din tine, dezvăluind astfel culisele unui suflet ce transcende individualitatea?

Aidoma destinului, scribul şi-a acoperit ochii: am încercat să uit trecutul şi tot ce am ştiut că va urma, păstrând doar pentru mine adevărul prezentului. Da, ştiu că nu voi deveni niciodată bătrân atâta timp cât scrisul meu, conservat în cărțile mele, va fi învelit într-o poveste veșnică, protejând biata mea inimă încărcată de atâta anticipare. Mai mult decât atât, trebuie să continui să caut, să sper, să perseverez, până când scopul meu devine parcursul lui Dumnezeu.

Dar, în monotonia cotidiană, sufletul riscă să-și piardă conexiunea cu divinul și cu potențialul său creator.

Încă mă întreb, ce folos are omul din toată truda pe care şi-o dă sub soare? De aceea scriu, ca să reflectez, în tăcere îmi reculeg esenţa gândurilor, ca să găsesc rezolvarea marelui puzzle, ieşirea din labirintul existenţei comune. Nu degeaba, între mine şi scribul lui Mika Waltari pare să fie o strânsă apropiere:

"Fiindcă eu, Sinuhe, sunt doar un om, am trăit în fiecare om care a trăit înainte de mine şi voi trăi în fiecare om care va trăi după mine. Voi trăi în plânsul şi în bucuria fiecărui om, voi trăi în bunătatea şi în răutatea fiecărui om, voi trăi în dreptatea şi în nedreptatea omului, voi trăi în slăbiciunea şi în puterea lui. Nu vreau ca numele meu să fie nemuritor, fiindcă eu, un simplu copist care reia pe o foaie ceea ce este scris pe o alta, voi trăi etern în fiecare om care mă citeşte."

Leadership: Înțelegi că actul de a vedea prin imaginație artistică poate fi o justificare a existenței spiritului divin, transformând fiecare viziune într-o sursă de spontaneitate a sensibilității creatoare?

Arta devine astfel mijlocul de creație al unui univers sacru, o cale de a transcende limitele umanului. În starea de "artheosia" - fuziunea dintre artă și teofanie - artistul devine un creator de lumi. Iar aceste lumi succesive nu sunt ceea ce noi numim "subiecte", ci mai curând reprezintă mijloace de cucerire, prin metamorfozare, a unei dimensiuni transcendente. Acceptăm să fim fermecați de lumea spectacolului, ori de chemarea vreunui talent unic la completarea infinitului univers?

Şi cine este, de fapt, acest spirit numit Dumnezeu? Nu cumva El trăiește prin noi, oamenii, prin povestea noastră? Nu cumva El are nevoie de noi, tocmai ca să existe în veci, prin fiecare din noi? Cu toate acestea, nu orice narațiune îl poate întruchipa - trebuie să fie o poveste aparte, nu una plictisitoare. La urma urmei, cred că acesta este singurul secret, şi cel mai bine păstrat dintre toate. L-am aflat. A vedea înseamnă, pentru Dumnezeu, a imagina sub formă de artă. Lumea artei nu este o lume idealizată, ci mereu o altă lume, distinctă de cea proprie plăcerii ochiului.

Dumnezeu trăiește veșnic, fiindcă are un fel aparte de a nu se plictisi: El trăiește prin fiecare om, o altă poveste. Iar dintre toate poveștile, le retrăiește doar pe cele uimitoare. De aceea anumite lucruri par că se repetă, iar anumiți oameni par să revină mereu în diferite ipostaze. Abia când simțim că Dumnezeu are mari așteptări de la noi, avem sentimentul unui rost adevărat, al unei misiuni, un "Ankh Onnubbal", o chemare al cărei ecou reverberează în eternitate. Bineînţeles, fericirea vine în urma îndeplinirii scopului. Avem opțiunea de a alege să credem că există ceva ce merită a fi împlinit dincolo de lupta noastră zilnică. În această alegere stă puterea noastră de a transcende banalul și de a ne înscrie în eternitate prin arta vieții noastre.

Întruchiparea lui Dumnezeu prin narațiuni aparte poate reprezenta o exaltare a luptei continue pentru sens și semnificație, culminând într-o revelație ce face din viața artistului o expresie a divinului.

Încotro vezi tu, privire? Vezi spre trecutul care te modelează, sau spre viitorul care renaște prin ceea ce numai tu îmi poți dărui? La acestea se adaugă ideea celebrului roman "Egipteanul", scris de Mika Waltari, în care scribul, cuprins de acea taină a divinului pe care n-o vom ghici niciodată, îşi exprimă intenţia de a transmite înțelepciunea sa generațiilor viitoare:

"Păstrez cu grijă aceste cincisprezece cărţi şi Muti a cusut pentru fiecare carte câte o învelitoare trainică din fibre de palmier. Toate cărţile acestea vor fi puse într-o lădiţă de argint, lădiţa de argint va fi pusă într-o ladă de lemn tare, lada de lemn tare într-o ladă de aramă, aşa cum odinioară cărţile zeului Thot au fost ferecate pentru a se păstra şi au fost aruncate în Nil. Nu le va găsi nimeni, niciodată. Dar într-o bună zi, mă voi întoarce. Şi le voi rescrie, fără ca nimeni să mă recunoască. Cel ce-am fost odată, reprezintă doar o umbră a celui ce voi deveni."

Încrederea într-un capăt uitat de lume

On Decembrie 10, 2015

Evoluează conform convenţiei dintre a fi limitat şi a fi superior, căutând în tine tot ceea ce crezi că ai putea găsi în afara ta.

Nu-mi amintesc prea bine cine eram. Un om destul de fragil, din păcate, vizavi de forma pe care o luau falezele de gânduri prăbuşite în marea iluziilor de sine. Căci simţeam zvâcnind în pieptul meu pulsul iraţionalului, ca atunci când te arunci în ceva care te depăşeşte, propulsându-te spre un altfel de descoperire - a unei identităţi neconştientizate. Asta se întâmplă când te dai drept călăuză într-un nesfârşit deşert, fără să ştii unde se află oazele de civilizaţie.

Cel mai probabil existam într-un timp şi într-un spaţiu nedefinit, în ceea ce fugar numim moarte, o moarte a individualităţii raţionale, o deviere de la calea cea dreaptă a convingerilor de auto-cunoaştere, oricând posibile pe spirala tăcerii, în care nu mă puteam exprima în niciun fel. Chiar şi acum sunt curios să aflu cum am ajuns astfel, străin de tot ceea ce credeam că ştiu despre mine.

Mai mult ca sigur, acestei etape a vieţii mele i se potrivea foarte bine modul cum scriitorul Andrei Ionescu caracteriza opera lui Jorge Luis Borges:

"Borges a rămas credincios temelor care îi definesc universul: ficţiunea, moartea, dublul, căutarea identităţii, limbajul, visul, metamorfoza, erudiţia. Un univers ale cărui coordonate rămân şi acum: spaţiul labirintic şi timpul circular. Un spaţiu labirintic structurat de simetriile abstracte şi vertiginoase ale răsfrângerilor în oglinzi, cu imagini antonomice care se înlocuiesc reciproc: moartea şi nemurirea, partea şi întregul, finitul şi infinitul, ce îl conduc la necesitatea imperioasă a postulării eternei reîntoarceri. Iar timpul este ca o poveste menită să înglobeze o serie de fiinţe, lucruri, imagini sau evenimente care se repetă la un anumit ciclu de ani."

Leadership: Eşti dispus să identifici perspectivele de interpretare a unei realităţi trăite prin visare sau prin conştientizare a unei "absenţe de sens", încât să te înnoieşti cu o imagine de sine modelată după scenariul unui destin enigmatic?

Săvârşirea unei abateri grave de la principiile sănătoase care cereau ca viaţa să fie trăită şi nu visată se aplică în condiţiile imposibilităţii de a identifica unde începe povestea și unde se termină realitatea. Consecinţele întâlnirii cu obiecte însufleţite sau nu, dar cu siguranţă atrase activ în aceleaşi vârtejuri contradictorii ale simbolurilor tainelor pierdute, cufundate între fragilitatea clipei transfigurate la infinit şi subtila relativizare a unor cunoştinţe uitate, se resimţeau tot mai mult.

Învrednicit de sentimentul înălţător că la cuvenita vreme voi trage folos din această diversiune a identităţii, ce trebuia numaidecât demascată, de sentimentul acela ciudat, ireal, ce te însoţeşte când recunoşti o altă parte a lumii, mă înarmam cu o viziune tot mai largă, născută parcă din scânteia unui astru numit: „Încrederea într-un capăt uitat de lume”. Lucru care din capul locului îndeamnă la un soi de îngăduinţă faţă de neputinţa de a accepta realul.

Căutătorul unei metafizici subtile a clipei, uitând pentru totdeauna de timpul care îl desparte de vechile presupoziţii cu privire la permanenţa lucrurilor, exprimând involuntar universul în nesfârşirea lui, era străbătut de o singură rază de lumină în întuneric: "The most perfect silence is when there is no need to explain." Imaginea de sine a acestui căutător părea modelată după scenariul unui destin enigmatic, fiindcă el reuşea să distingă realitatea de imaginaţie, dar prefera să facă din imaginaţie un model nou de a trăi şi de a deveni altcineva.

Leadership: Îndrăzneşti să te arunci în ceva care te depăşeşte, propulsându-te spre descoperirea unei identităţi neconştientizate acolo unde nici nu crezi că te afli ?

Prima caracteristică a ştiinţei de a fi imaginea unei alte persoane, pe care pentru aceasta o numim „cadru fundal", decorează dimensiunea matricei originalităţii rezultată din relaţia cu tine însuţi într-un război pe care-l vei câştiga doar atunci când vei avea curajul să fii oglinda care reflectă imaginea inversată a unei realităţi constante. Ea constă în faptul de a recunoaşte că exişti în afara ta. În postura unui alt personaj, captiv într-o altă lume în care autenticitatea devine un soi de oglindă în care se reflectă imaginea aspiraţiilor secrete.

Leadershipul, preferat unui „Eu însumi", dar cu nişte dimensiuni ce convin convenţiei dintre a fi ponderat şi a fi superior, la deprinderea unei anumite priceperi în ale preschimbării, nu poate fi priceput în esenţa lui ca ştiinţă a stărilor de fapt. De fapt, leadershipul poate avea caracteristicile unei ieşiri din Matrix, dintr-o lume complet dirijată în care tot ce auzi, ce vezi, ce atingi este doar o rutină, numai atunci când îţi construieşti personalitatea într-o ficţiune pe care nu o revendica nimeni.

Iar cine caută să existe într-un timp şi într-un spaţiu nedefinit, un străin ce pătrunde în anumite niveluri ale realităţii construite în interacţiune cu un Alter-Ego (constituind o negaţie sau o totalitate), va accepta uşor ideea de evadare din statutul de prizonier al stării de moment într-o lume care se destramă.

O identitate neconştientizată este un Neo, un erou adevărat tocmai pentru că nu a încercat niciodată să fie unul, un tip cât se poate de obişnuit, dar care devine tot mai puternic pe măsură ce trece prin experienţe ciudate, riscante şi chiar decisive, din pragul unui vis în care se vede pe el însuşi altcineva.

Eşti într-adevăr dispus să te descoperi, acolo unde nici nu crezi că te afli? Ai curajul să te transpui într-o nouă realitate în care vei descoperi adevărul, în loc de iluzie?

Încrederea într-un capăt uitat de lume sugerează trecerea omului spre partea unui personaj care îi trădează autenticitatea. Cel ce îndrăzneşte să se arunce în ceva care îl depăşeşte, propulsându-se spre descoperea unei identităţi neconştientizate, îşi confirmă de fapt statutul de om al cunoaşterii profunde, bazate pe dualitatea dintre aparenţă şi esență, dintre concret şi transcendental.

În leadership acest lucru se traduce prin „lupta faţă în faţă cu tine". Iese câştigător numai cine reuşeşte să se desprindă de real, să se conecteze cât mai mult la timp la acel Alter-Ego complementar lui, cu care să creeze un cuplu magic.

Incursiune în adâncurile cunoaşterii de sine

Gestionează atent resursele profunzimii tale, în aşa fel încât să-ţi poţi reevalua propria individualitate în scenariul unei realităţi pe care o reprezinţi sub fascinaţia unui film artistic.

În lupta cu setea de a-mi lărgi perspectiva de înţelegere a naturii umane, în uriaşele sforţări de coordonare a unei lucide curiozităţi strict raţionale, m-am folosit de nesfârşite mijloace de exprimare a gândurilor şi sentimentelor proprii. Cu timpul, am început să exprim în scris ceea ce simţeam. Eforturile mele erau orientate spre stabilizarea unor noi trăsături de personalitate şi spre profilarea unui model de abordare a exigenţelor materiei pure care ar fi putut stimula mai bine imaginaţia şi raţiunea totodată.

Asemenea unui personaj dintr-un film regizat de Hitchcock ajunsesem să trăiesc prin revelaţii, viziuni sau vise, care mă ajutau necontenit să înţeleg mai bine ce se întâmplă în mine, ce mă reprezintă în contrast cu ceea ce îi defineşte pe ceilalţi oameni din jurul meu. Un bărbat este vânat de-a lungul şi de-a latul ţării de către spioni, care-l cred agent dublu, şi de către poliţie, care-l consideră asasin. El trebuie să convingă întreaga lume, dar mai ales pe sine însuşi, de existenţa unei realităţi diferite de cea dată.

Să descriu în cuvinte cât mai convingătoare sentimentele pe care le poate stârni o pasiune debordantă, o obsesie arzătoare, o obligaţie morală, o întâmplare mai puţin obişnuită sau o persoană prinsă într-o ipostază confuză, asigurându-mă că nimeni nu poate ignora ceea ce încercam să prezint cu multă claritate, devenise un îndelungat şi încăpăţânat efort care s-a întins pe câţiva ani. Un plus de conţinut care a alimentat enorm de mult capacităţile înscrise în profunzimea fiinţei mele.

Leadership: Eşti persoana potrivită care poate beneficia de efectele propriei sale atitudini culpabile de a nu ţine evidenţa "costurilor" de reprezentare a realităţii, conform convingerii că lucrurile se rezolvă pur şi simplu şi de la sine?

O singură filosofie rămâne în picioare, nedesfiinţată de virulenţa şi luciditatea lui Hitchcock: scrisul nu reprezintă nicio urmă de teamă, ci doar o senzaţie de dedublare într-un joc fără reguli în care artistul îşi contemplă existenţa trecută prin clarobscurul unui fascinant scenariu creat de dragul de a accentua o stare de spirit sau o idee.

Costul de reprezentare a realităţii era direct corelat cu emoţiile pe care nu reuşeam să le exprim poetic într-un story enigmatic care să captiveze în aceeaşi măsură în care lămureşte ceea ce pare nelămurit. În scris, ca în în decorul unui film de suspans, totul se rezolvă pur şi simplu de la şine dacă ştii cum să priveşti realitatea, dacă ştii cum să îţi foloseşti fantezia ca unealtă de confirmare a ceva ce nu poţi să explici.

Emoţiile făceau şi ele parte din primul contact cu ficţiunea, când trebuia să transmit un mesaj plin de suspans, dar decisiv în favoarea intrigii menite să declanşeze o reacţie în lanţ. Era ca şi cum aş fi folosit lasere pentru a descoperi o nouă formă a materiei extrasă dintr-un film Star Wars. Nu aveam nicio certitudine asupra a ceea ce doream să exprim şi să transmit, căci în procesul de creaţie a unor noi valori sufleteşti interveneau nişte constante arbitrare integrate într-un anumit şablon de stil mult prea subiectiv, antrenat de un val de îndoială.

Ori de câte ori mă focalizam cu putere asupra a ceea ce doream să reliefez, puterile creatoare ale subconştientului răspundeau imediat cererii mele de acces la ceea ce vechii filosofi numeau: causa efficiens . O sinteză deplină asupra fenomenelor psihice interne care îmi guvernau existenţa. Ele dovedindu-se a avea un mare impact pentru reevaluarea propriei mele individualităţi în "industria" de dezvoltare a leadershipului pe care o reprezentam.

Leadership: Poţi să susţii maniera de sugestionare a unei realităţi inexistente cu ajutorul "autorităţii" tale de interpretare a ceea ce simţi şi percepi, prin folosirea justă a raţiunii celei de-a două feţe a adevărului din personajului pe care îl promovezi?

Adevărul pe care trebuie să-l reprezinţi într-o operă plină de suspans are două feţe. Prima faţă a adevărului, care surprinde calitatea ascunsă a omului, trebuie să suporte o reamintire şi arătare a faptului că siguranţa lui este destul de fragilă în contact cu realitatea. Ea trebuie să umple orice gol și să accesibilizeze orice trăire interioară, de la frică şi îndoială, la fericire şi plăcere.

A doua faţă a adevărului, având ca sorginte fantezia pornită din impulsurile emoţionale, are loc atunci când omul nu-şi mai recunoaşte propria moarte în faţa eternităţii, deci atunci când el intră într-un joc al supraviețuirii disperat și plin de suspans, un joc al aparenţelor cu o surprinzătoare evoluţie. De exemplu, atunci când l-au prins oamenii legii, el pândea ascuns după o scară, prezentând pericolul unei forme de nebunie care ar fi percepută ca punctul extrem al defectelor sale de caracter.

În afară de adevărul propriei tale judecăţi trebuie să fii pregătit să faci faţă situaţiei în care, focalizându-te asupra a ceea ce doreşti să constaţi la ceilalţi oameni, prin analize şi investigaţii profunde asupra "specificului uman", neglijezi tocmai exploatarea propriei tale experienţe de viaţă şi a propriului tău potenţial creator.

Personalitatea care face cinste leadershipului trebuie să găsească mijloacele artistice de sugerare a unei imagini care nu există în realitate, dar care la fel de bine poate provoca emoţii puternice ca în faţa realităţii.

Incursiune în adâncurile cunoaşterii de sine evidenţiază acea analiză profundă a propriilor tale valori şi a propriului potenţial de promovare a unui leadership performant, bazat pe un tip de personalitate adaptabil la "nou", dar şi la "neprevăzut", prin intermediul unei realităţi diferite. În viziunea unui regizor ca Hitchcock, cunoaşterea de sine trebuie să prezinte aceeaşi premisă de bază de la care porneşte denumirea scenariului: "Filmul bate viaţa".

Structura personalităţii liderului include activitățile de conştientizare a propriei valori, însumate în cadrul procesului de autocunoaştere de sine ce capătă o mare amploare prin susţinerea potenţialului creator şi maximizarea lui în cadrul unei realităţi diferite.

Incursiune în spaţiul unui vis numit Viitor

On Aprilie 27, 2016

Fii atât cât poţi să fii peste limitele unanim acceptate ale normalităţii, încercând să percepi adevărul ce se impune existenţei tale ca o experiență a gândirii imaginative.

Oricât ar suna de straniu, dar aveam impresia ieşită din comun, în anumită măsură liniştitoare, că sunt rezultatul unui vis care nu încetează să meargă mai departe, o emanaţie a unei instanţe transcendente ce rostea sugestiv aventura unei fiinţe dezvoltată pe cont propriu. Totul se desfăşura neconvenţional, depăşind spaţiul strict al unei înţelegeri plauzibile, ca acţiune de intrare într-o sferă magică a cărei funcţie de undă consta în dobândirea cunoştinţelor luminatoare despre o realitate care ameninţa să se destrame.

Iar unda aceasta, o vibraţie propagată fulgerător de-a lungul unei plăsmuiri a minţii, îndrăzneam să sper că o voi controla (cu preţul unei încununări a nebuniei) într-o obligaţie de sine stătătoare, în contextul experienţelor de imaginaţie. O clipă, simţeam că fac parte dintr-un episod Counterpart. Când eroul principal, Howard Silk, află că organizația din care face parte a descoperit secretul trecerii într-o dimensiune paralelă, el este aruncat într-o lume plină de intrigi, pericol și trădări, din care nu poate scăpa decât punându-şi întrebarea: "Cum ar fi dacă viața mea ar fi diferită?"

Într-un anumit fel, speram că dacă mă voi cufunda în altă realitate, surprinsă imagistic, golită de orice sprijin uman, aş fi putut să inaugurez cu ochii minţii un spaţiu simbolic de orientare a sufletului meu spre găsirea unui temei de admiraţie a unui Alter-Ego care, cu riscul de a-mi substitui întreaga fiinţă, avea puterea să se revolte faţă de atitudinea de acceptare a unei situaţii de viaţă fără ieşire, fără perspective. Poate că viaţa mea, trăită prin dezinteres faţă de cele trecătoare, fără urmări care să ispitească la păcat, adică la uitare de Dumnezeu, nu mai prezenta nicio atracţie pentru un spirit al amplitudinii, al timpului, al jocului fără frontiere. Eram liber să o schimb cu toate atributele unei ficţiuni cinematografice.

Leadership: Actul de interpretare a propriei creații își are sursa de noutate în experiența de viață autentică a unui autor de mare perspectivă care este capabil să surprindă esența unei noi forme de subiectivitate prin ceea ce este în stare să pândească neîncetat?

Aș vrea ca gura să cuteze să spună ceea ce gândurile descoperiseră, în amurgul înțepenit al unui rod al imaginaţiei, cuprinzând o fărâmă din nemărginirea universului. Aș vrea să-mi reneg misiunea de a da sens visului care mă întreba mereu: Unde te ascunzi? Era atât de palpitant să rămân acolo. Creatorul nu-și părăseşte niciodată nebunia care îl pândeşte neîncetat, această dorinţă nestăvilită de se vedea trăind într-un spaţiu cinematografic, virtuos şi înţelept, proiectat în infinitatea spaţiului şi a timpului, în infinitatea sentimentului că poate trăi din sufletul altcuiva "o nelimitare a actului de creaţie".

Mă transpuneam când în rolul contelui de Monte Cristo în mantie neagră, pe fondul unor vremuri negre, când în rolul lui Isaac Newton orbit de perfecţiunea formulelor de interpolare, pe fondul unei munci de mare amploare al cărei rezultat era nesigur. Mi-am asumat chiar şi calităţile inerente a lui Charles Chaplin într-un rol dublu. Dar imboldul de a continua întinsa istorie a trăirilor de dincolo de tactil, acest proces de umplere de amprentele revelaţiilor onirice, această serie de experienţe ale transcenderi timpului şi spaţiului, numai puţin adevărate, s-ar fi putut transforma într-o deziluzie.

Nu spunea oare fizicianul francez Loup Verlet, cu referire la Freud şi visele sale, că iscoditorul obnubilat de formulele sale şi orbit de perfecţiunea lor internă, riscă întotdeauna să ia lucrurile pe care le-a creat prin gândire, în imaginaţie, drept ceea ce există în mod real şi să se depărteze de lumea reală?

Leadership: Te reorientezi către memoria unei stări anterioare, ca acţiune de intrare într-o sesiune de recuperare a esenţei care te întregeşte?

În adevăr, asupra evoluţiei omului văzută dintr-o perspectivă mai amplă planează două mari forţe, una a înţelegerii desfăşurate dincolo de realitatea imediată, alta a înţelegerii proiectată în conștiință printr-un proces imaginativ. Aceste forţe, depăşind fără nicio ezitare prejudecăţile frontierelor existenței, de la o etapă la alta, sunt concluzii ale experienţelor revelatoare obţinute prin angajarea omului în raport cu sinele ce își face resimţită utilitatea într-o plăsmuire mai mult decât creativă.

Așa cum un estetician nu poate să dea noi valenţe artei fără să coboare în concretul însuși al faptului artistic, care înseamnă mobilitate, transformare, devenire, la fel nici omul care încearcă să-și dezvolte sinele nu poate să dea noi valenţe identităţii sale dacă nu își stimulează memoria, trecută dincolo de timp, cu noi idei şi perspective.

A te reorienta către memoria unei stări anterioare, ca acţiune de intrare într-o sesiune de recuperare a esenţei care te întregeşte, înseamnă să te imortalizezi în acel cadru al propriei minți, conţinând în el altceva, mai valoros decât toate celelalte. Anume, concepţia unei perspective, unui subiect particular și să continui să exişti împreună cu el. E o nebunie, dar totodată o mare înțelepciune, singura modalitate de a accede la o cunoaştere avansată.

Omul rezumă în sine și sintetizează esenţialitatea unei autoevaluări datorate atingerii unui anumit stadiu de acceptare, care rezidă din concordanţa ce se stabileşte între creație și ideaţie, între plăsmuire și existența prin ea. Memoria de care trebuie să faci uz spre a-ţi lărgi orizonturile, funcţionând totodată ca determinant al creaţiei artistice, poate fi folosită cu referire la copia unei realităţi mai largi, imaginată ca o reprezentare bidimensională, încât să te ducă imediat cu gândul la un film, la o fotografie, la un tablou, la un roman de Zimmer Bradley, la o plimbare în altă lume.

În viitor, când tehnologia va avansa şi omul va putea să comunice cu alte lumi doar cu puterea minţii, leadershipul își va schimba criteriile de impact și de dezvoltare. Alexandre Dumas și Victor Hugo au înserat deseori în operele lor acest adevăr.

Leadershipul va începe să prindă contur odată cu ceea ce omul va reprezenta în imperiul plăsmuirilor sale, printr-o condiţie de tipul „ fii atât cât poţi să fii peste limitele unanim acceptate ale normalităţii”.

Astfel, pentru ca omul să se cunoască mai bine, va fi necesar ca în sfera sa de existenţă să fie prezente două forţe asemănătoare, contopindu-se într-o singură esenţă: facultatea de a se metamorfoza în altă fiinţă şi puternicul sentiment al Eului care îl va face să se simtă separat de restul lumii.

Evoluţia, sub semnul leadershipului care contribuie la demersul de transformare a personalităţii, prin dezvoltarea abilităţii de a înţelege esenţa a ceea ești, cuprinde noi înţelegeri și perspective în contextul experienței de a te redescoperi drept o entitate a universului, organizându-se în funcție de ceea ce mintea plăsmuieşte.

Incursiune în spaţiul unui vis numit Viitor s-ar putea să schimbe semnificativ percepţia în legătură cu potenţialul cerebral de care dispune omul, prin care se atestă calitatea lui de a se transpune în alt loc, în alt timp, în alt personaj, în altă realitate.

Evoluţia unui om autentic are loc atunci când el începe să perceapă adevărul ce se impune existenţei ca o experiență a gândirii imaginative, asociative și cu implicare afectivă.

Vei înțelege mai ușor noţiunea de strânsă interdependenţă a exteriorului cu lăuntricul dacă ții cont de faptul că dincolo de realitatea imediată se află o lume plină de mister care așteaptă să fie consultată.

Îndemnul viu al speranţelor uitate

On Octombrie 10, 2010

Caută elementul cel mai durabil al relaţiei tale cu ceilalţi oameni, ajutându-i să se schimbe ei înşişi într-un fel în care să se simtă confortabili pe plan emoţional.

Filmul Pretty Woman. Într-o lojă centrală, înaintea începerii spectacolul cu opera “ Madame Butterfly ”, controversatul om de afaceri Edward Lewis, sesizând starea de nelinişte şi de agitaţie a damei lui de companie, Vivian Ward, făcu o observaţie:

- Reacţiile oamenilor când văd merg prima oară la operă, sunt foarte dramatice. Ori o iubesc, ori o urăsc. Dacă este să o iubească, o vor iubi întotdeauna. Dacă nu, poate vor învăţa s-o aprecieze, dar nu va deveni niciodată o parte a sufletului lor.

Leadership: La tine sunt evidente urmele unei modelări referitoare la o concepţie de tipul "Stare Finală" care să stabilească o legătură strânsă între rațiunea practică și intenția deterministă?

Edward Lewis a căutat să fixeze nişte aspecte stabile în relaţia lui cu Vivian, străduindu-se să înţeleagă adevăratele ei convingeri şi aspiraţii. El a desluşit arhitectura ei emoţională nativă, evaluând starea ei afectivă, sesizând marea diferenţă între temerile şi aspiraţiile ei, între slăbiciunile şi părţile ei puternice. Intenţia lui a fost una deterministă, nu doar fiindcă a reuşit s-o convingă pe Vivian de beneficiile unui nou statut, ci fiindcă a argumentat cauzele virtuţii sale de a dărui bunătate. Pe deasupra, Vivian trăda necesitatea obscură a unui nou început.

La Vivian s-a văzut aproape imediat schimbarea, urmele modelarii ei cu perspectiva unui alt orizont fiind în directă concordanţă cu acea stare de spirit care persită mult chiar şi după ce amintirile se estompează. Aceeaşi stare de spirit ne cuprinde pe toți când înțelegem că iubirea nu poate rămâne veșnic năvalnică, dar măcar ştim că ea ne-a folosit la ceva.

Cumva, lui Vivian i s-a favorizat figurarea unui alt orizont socio-uman, dinspre care nu ai cum să nu priveşti confuz, fiindcă rareori se întâmplă să treci brusc de la deprimare la extaz. Ei bine, nu poţi să influenţezi un om dacă nu găseşti acea parte sensibilă, pozitivă din el, pe care să poţi s-o modelezi în voie, după principiile şi convingerile tale cele mai preţioase. Tu eşti capabil să evaluezi tot ce are omul mai profund în el, mai definitiv şi mai constant în viaţa lui, astfel încât să-i oferi o nouă orientare?

Leadership: Eşti capabil să înlături efectele negative care s-au adâncit în sufletul celorlalţi oameni, şi în funcţie de structura lor emoţională să-i redirecţionezi chibzuit în acelaşi sens cu tine, în aşa fel încât ei să te cunoască mai bine şi cunoscându-te, să te facă şi altora cunoscut?

Aşa cum un sculptor iscusit studiază piatra iniţială cu defectele ei naturale pentru a căuta aspectul cel mai durabil al formelor viitoare – tot aşa şi tu, ca lider, trebuie să fii capabil să scoţi la iveală frumuseţea interioară a oamenilor din jurul tău, şi în funcţie de structura lor emoţională să-i redirecţionezi chibzuit în acelaşi sens cu tine, în aşa fel încât să înlături acele efecte naturale negative care s-au adâncit în sufletul lor. Caută elementul cel mai durabil al relaţiei tale cu ceilalţi oameni, ajutându-i să se schimbe ei înşişi într-un fel în care să se simtă confortabili pe plan emoţional.

Cel mai bun mod de a merge alături de cineva este să-l înţelegi pe acel cineva, să acţionezi asupra “formei” lui de a se manifesta în împrejurările în care îl pune viaţa, într-o măsură cât mai mare; să-ţi pui amprenta asupra fiinţei lui interioare, să urmăreşti pasionat meandrele vieţii lui şi esenţialul său. Pentru asta trebuie să intri în competiţie cu valorile şi convingerile sale, şi să-i impui propriile tale concepţii prin care să determini tiparul ideal către care el să tindă în continuare.

Aţi observat că de când Vivian a început să iasă cu Edward Lewis, ea fiind complet schimbată, lumea lui a început să se deschidă mai mult către lumea celorlalţi? El însuşi a început să fie privit cu alţi ochi de ceilalţi oameni, ceva îi inducea un fel de trezire spirituală atunci când este privit.

Leadership: Felul cum te manifeşti în prezenţa unui om fără mari posibilităţi de a-şi câştiga existenţa te ajută să te înţelegi mai bine şi să îţi formezi acele convingeri de care ai nevoie ca să acţionezi prin acele argumente de conştiinţă ce vorbesc sufletului tău?

Aşa cum un sculptor izbuteşte să transmită viaţă operelor sale modelându-le în forme semnificative, tot astfel influenţa ta, ca să fie luată în seamă de ceilalţi oameni, ea trebuie să fie pozitivă şi pe măsură convingerilor lor – iar pentru asta trebuie să izbuteşti să-ţi transmiţi eficient gândurile şi sentimentele, astfel încât să realizezi o modelare în structura lor emoţională, ca ei să conştientizeze profund calităţile de care dispun.

Ca lider trebuie să-ţi dezvolţi abilitatea de a desluşi adevăratul caracter al oamenilor, să-i scapi de acel gol interior care nu le dă pace, şi cu o fineţe de ceasornicar iscusit să le stimulezi punctele forte, pentru a creşte calitatea muncii lor şi dorinţa de a fi performanţi. Nu uita că singurele argumente de conştiinţă ce vorbesc sufletului tău sunt următoarele: vederea de dincolo de aparențe, vederea de dincolo de cuvinte, vederea de dincolo de raţiune, vederea de dincolo de suprafaţa lucrurilor, vederea de dincolo de limitele tale, vederea de dincolo de abordările convenționale ale unor situații bulversante şi vedea de dincolo de confuzii și contradicții (către un viitor pe care alții încă nu îl pot vedea).

Reala lor atitudine faţă de activitatea profesională proprie, faţă de munca în echipă nu poate fi cunoscută decât de acei lideri care şi-au dezvoltat capacitatea de observare, de analiză şi abilităţi de buni psihologi şi care găsesc metodele adecvate şi puterea de a schimba în bine oamenii. Desigur şi-n leadership se aplică regula ceasornicarului care se poate traduce astfel: nu intra în sufletul oamenilor cu nicovala căci nu trebuie să repari nimic cu ciocanul.

Leadershipul vizează acele experienţe decizionale în care îţi poţi manifesta aprecierea faţă de iniţiativele capabile să asigure o creştere durabilă a oamenilor, încât să devii prezent tot timpul în sufletul lor.

Îndemnul viu al speranţelor uitate consfinţeşte, de fapt, o realitate: cu toţii putem fi un factor de schimbare în viaţa celorlalţi oameni, fiecare dintre noi are puterea să schimbe radical caracterul lor; fiecare din noi are puterea să trezească în inimile celorlalţi dorinţa, creând un “story” după placul inimii lor, să le întărească forţele sufleteşti şi să le lumineze viitorul – tot aşa cum un scriitor are capacitatea să creeze lumii mitice transmiţând ceea ce simte.

Îndeplinirea unui deziderat istoric, dincolo de formula cinematografică

O creație autentică poate deveni o unealtă de cunoaștere integrată, redând vitalitatea emoțională gândirii, dacă este în acord cu nevoia istorică a sintezei dintre emoție și rațiune.

Traiectoria imagine-sentiment-teză era, deci, posibilă. Regizorul rus, Serghei Eisenstein vedea în aceasta, dincolo de o formulă cinematografică, îndeplinirea unui deziderat istoric. În timpurile străvechi ale magiei, spunea el, știința era, totodată, un element al emoției și unul al cunoașterii colective. Odată cu dualismul, adăuga el, lucrurile s-au separat în filozofia speculativă: abstracția pură, pe de o parte, și, de cealaltă, elementul emoțional pur. Ceea ce se cerea făcut în acel moment, conchidea el, era o nouă sinteză, analoagă celei primare, a elementului emoțional cu cel intelectual. Și numai filmul poate opera această sinteză, redând elementului intelectual sursele sale vitale, emoționale.

Leadership: În ce fel rezonează traiectoria imagine-sentiment-teză din creația ta cu natura sintezei primordiale dintre emoție și cunoaștere, reflectând asupra continuității dintre magie și știință?

În viziunea lui Eisenstein, traiectoria imagine-sentiment-teză din film reprezintă o cale posibilă pentru realizarea unei sinteze necesare, așa cum și psihologia cognitivă recunoaște importanța integrării emoției și rațiunii. El vede în această traiectorie nu doar o formulă cinematografică, ci și îndeplinirea unei nevoi istorice. În timpurile străvechi, în era magiei, știința era un element colectiv, îmbinând emoția și cunoașterea. Odată cu dezvoltarea filozofiei speculative, acestea s-au separat: de-o parte, abstracția rațională, de cealaltă, emoția pură.

Ceea ce se cere acum, conchide Eisenstein, este o nouă sinteză, asemănătoare celei primordiale, care să reunească elementele emoționale și intelectuale. Arta cinematografică devine astfel un mijloc unic de cunoaștere, redând dimensiunii intelectuale vitalitatea emoțională. În acest mod, filmul devine o unealtă de cunoaștere integrată, în care gândirea și simțirea sunt din nou unite, formând o nouă percepție colectivă.

În reacțiile cinematografice, elementele separate ale imaginii și sentimentului se reunesc sub acțiunea filmului-catalizator pentru a forma o teză nouă și vitală. Procesul implică atât transformări la nivel emoțional, cât și schimburi intelectuale complexe, depășind dualismul speculativ al filozofiei clasice. Asemenea unui catalizator chimic, arta filmului facilitează această sinteză străveche fără a-și pierde esența, permițând fuziunea dintre abstract și pur emoțional, care altfel ar rămâne separate. Această metodă de reunificare cinematografică reprezintă o evoluție față de cunoașterea colectivă primordială, unde magia și știința coexistau natural. Filmul operează, astfel, ca un agent catalitic în procesul de transformare a elementelor separate ale experienței umane, redând vitalitate emoțională abstractului intelectual și profunzime cognitivă trăirii pure.

Leadershipul facilitează convergența dintre dimensiunile intelectuale și emoționale ale experienței de creație, promovând o înțelegere holistică în conexiune cu dinamica schimbărilor sociale.

Îndeplinirea unui deziderat istoric, dincolo de formula cinematografică, se realizează prin îmbinarea organică a emoției cu rațiunea, astfel încât gândirea abstractă să recâștige o dimensiune vie și accesibilă publicului larg. Eisenstein a subliniat importanța sintezei dintre aceste două dimensiuni fundamentale ale existenței umane, considerând că arta cinematografică are o capacitate unică de a recrea această unitate pierdută. Consecința acestui fapt este că filmul devine nu doar un mijloc artistic, ci și un instrument de cunoaștere profundă a lumii și a sinelui.

Indicatorul general al performanţei

On Aprilie 09, 2009

Când devii capabil să-ţi gestionezi reacţiile, gândurile şi atitudinea, atunci eşti pregătit să-i abordezi într-un mod eficace pe ceilalţi.

Un banc pe care mi l-a spus un prieten de-al meu sună astfel:

Un locatar urla la administrator:

- Veniţi repede, se aruncă soacra-mea pe geam !

- Şi de ce aveţi nevoie de mine?

- Nu poate să deschidă geamul.

Leadership: Consideri că tocmai procesul de captare a emoţiei simţite în momentul luării unei decizii este factorul princinpal care te ajută să vezi situaţia din alt unghi, chiar dacă asta înseamnă să-ţi suporţi ignoranţa şi propria vină?

Ca să te poziţionezi cât mai bine în relaţia cu oamenii, trebuie să te îndrepţi spre acea zonă fezabilă din punct de vedere al rezultatelor pe care le obţii atunci când relaţionezi cu ei. Ceea ce diferenţiază un lider excelent de unul mediocru este tocmai disponibilitatea de a se ridica la nivelul de competenţă în ceea ce priveşte procesul de coordonare a emoţiilor sale, spre a întări acele lanţuri care îl ţin legat de ceilalţi oameni.

Unii lideri, însă, sunt precum acel locatar – le vine greu să realizeze o punte de legătură cu oamenii care nu le sunt pe plac, şi strică şi mai mult o situaţie deja complicată atrăgând şi pe alţii în demersul lor. Ei îşi pun leadershipul într-o postură nefavorabilă prin faptul că se poziţionează într-o zonă în care calităţile şi valorile lor negative sunt expuse direct. Astfel de lideri nu pornesc niciodată de la întrebarea: "cum te poţi asigura că nu te separi de ceilalţi oameni?" înainte de a-şi pune în funcţiune capacitatea de a-şi ridica nivelul de excelenţă.

Aşa cum un model de aparat foto poate deţine avantajul în faţa celorlalte modele de pe piaţă datorită celor mai bune şi mai constante performanţe măsurabile pe toată plaja ISO - tot astfel modelul leadershipului tău poate deţine avantajul în faţa modelului generat de ceilalţi lideri datorită celor mai bune şi mai constante performanţe măsurabile în relaţiile cu oamenii.

Leadership: Poţi fi tu însuţi în antiteză cu ceea ce gândesc ceilalţi, cu condiţia să crezi că ceea ce îţi propui să faci nu are nevoie de nicio obligaţie sau modificare ulterioară?

A fi tu însuţi în antiteză cu ceea ce gândesc ceilalţi oameni înseamnă să-ţi evaluezi viaţa şi deciziile în funcţie de desfăşurarea evenimentelor despre care crezi că se derulează într-un anumit fel, nu să-i convingi pe ei de justeţea argumentelor tale privind necesitatea formulării unei noi idei despre realitate.

Modelul tău de leadership se poate traduce prin modul în care te raportezi la cei din jurul tău. Acest model nu-ţi aduce niciun beneficiu dacă nu-ţi împlineşti potenţialul prin intermediul

lor. A-ţi limita potenţialul de lider prin nerespectarea unui cod etic, prin îngrădirea acelor percepţii şi gândiri sănătoase care îi afectează pozitiv pe oameni - e ca şi cum te-ai duce la un meci de şah cu bâta de baseball. Însă nu vei putea câştiga niciun "meci" pentru simplul fapt că nici măcar nu vei fi primit în concurs.

Leadershipul e un concurs în care miza o constituie oamenii - îi poţi câştiga de partea ta dacă îi transformi în parteneri de joc, nu în adversari. În leadership singurul adversar eşti tu. Te poţi declara singur învins dacă oamenii se îndepărtează de tine. Când devii capabil să-ţi gestionezi reacţiile, gândurile şi atitudinea, atunci eşti pregătit să-i abordezi într-un mod eficace pe ceilalţi. Tu te limitezi la tabla de şah sau la bâta de baseball?

Leadershipul este legat de felul cum te cunoşti atunci când eşti influenţat de deciziile altora, în condiţiile în care ceea ce te face mai puternic este capacitatea ta de a îndruma comportamentul altor persoane.

Indicatorul general al performanţei este dat de colaborarea ta cât mai strânsă cu oamenii. Este dat de acea combinaţie de valori şi principii după care te ghidezi pentru a-i accepta aşa cum sunt, şi de a-i apropia cât mai mult de tine. Modelul tău de leadership este un magnet pentru ceilalţi oameni? Sau o bâtă de baseball la o partidă de şah? Trebuie cumva să-ţi revizuieşti modelul?

Concluzie: Indicatorul general al performanţei unui lider se reflectă în feedback-ul primit din partea echipei, în ceea ce priveşte calitatea muncii, colaborarea şi întrajutorarea reciprocă cât şi prin alinierea la standardele impuse.

Indicatorul spre Lent sau spre Rapid

Oamenii îşi vor reconsidera atitudinea faţă de leadershipul tău, dacă tu îţi vei reconsidera atitudinea faţă de valorile lor.

Niciodată oamenii nu te vor urma dacă nu te împaci destul de bine cu ei, dacă nu exerciţi o influenţă pozitivă asupra lor. Iar avantajul de a fi in frunte se poate transforma într-un mare dezavantaj dacă nu preîntâmpini eventualele reacţii nefavorabile care pot apărea ca rezultat a unei nemulţumiri generale datorate acţiunilor sau deciziilor tale ineficiente.

Locotenentul Waters din filmul „ Tears of the sun (2003) " a uitat pentru o vreme că leadershipul începe şi se termină cu cine conduce, iar cine neglijează valorile oamenilor va fi dipreţuit. Misiunea lui de a o duce in siguranţă pe doctorita Kendricks de la Crucea Roşie Internaţională la zona de retragere Alpha s-a complicat atunci când, la insistenţele ei, a acceptat să ia cu el mai mulţi refugiaţi nigerieni. Trupele de elită ale generalului Mustafa Yakubu erau pe urmele lor, la o distanţă de numai câţiva km, iar aceşti refugiaţi reprezentau o "încărcătură prea grea" pentru el şi ceilalţi membri ai echipei Swat.

Între refugiaţi şi Waters exista neîncredere şi reticenţă încă de la început, atitudinea lor faţă de el fiind una închisă şi ostilă. Între sufletul lor şi sufletului lui părea să nu existe nicio punte de legătură.

Leadership: Partea cea mai dificilă a nevoii de a fi acceptat este "angajamentul paradoxal" de a renunţa la tine în folosul sensului pe care-l dai experienţei de a fi mai prejos de oricine altcineva?

Totul s-a schimbat atunci când unul dintre refugiaţi i-a salvat viaţa locotenentul Waters. Mai mult decat atât, pe parcursul drumului sinos prin munţi, Waters a realizat că dispreţul pe care îl manifestase faţă de ei le înteţise acestora sentimentul de deznădejde şi amărăciune. Iar tocmai din această cauză ei nu-i ascultau cu sfinţenie ordinele şi cerinţele.

Aşa că, pentru a-şi spori puterea de influenţă, el şi-a schimbat abordarea. A adoptat o atitudine pozitivă faţă de valorile lor - respectul, aprecierea, solidaritatea, răbdarea, onoarea, demnitatea – la care ei ţineau foarte mult. Ţie ce îţi indică atitudinea celorlalţi oameni?

Într-un scurt moment de luciditate, Waters nu s-a mai privit ca o "stâncă" plasată deasupra oamenilor, ci ca un supus al cauzei pe care ei o slujeau: egalitatea. Toţi erau angrenaţi în aceeaşi luptă, pentru că împreună creau o majoritate care vrea să impună legea majorităţii. El a gustat din experienţa de a fi mai prejos de refugiaţi abia atunci când a realizat cât de mult datorează faptului că a fost salvat, cât de mic a fost în faţa unui posibil deznodământ fatal şi că de fiecare din ei depinde însăşi viaţa lui !

Leadership: Valoarea imaginii tale este dată de necesitatea construirii unui ataşament autentic faţă de răspunsul căutării propriei meniri în conştiinţa unei adversităţi totale între Instinct şi Raţiune?

Nu schimba tot sistemul, ci dă-i puţină viaţă ! Instinctul e ceva animalic, bazându-se pe un set de reguli genetic prestabilite prin adaptarea evolutivă, adică pe nevoia de a supravieţui. Raţiunea, ceea ce deosebeşte omul de animal, este o forţă care tinde spre unitate, şi bazându-se pe experienta sensibilă intervine să corecteze greşelile simţurilor.

Waters nu i-a mai tratat pe refugiaţi ca pe niste „pachete” care îi incurcau planurile şi de care oricând se putea dispensa, ci ca pe nişte fiinţe umane, ca pe niste parteneri de încredere, ca pe egali, prieteni, luându-şi angajamentul că va avea grijă de ei şi va face tot posibilul să-i ducă în siguranţă pe toţi la destinaţie. La rândul lor, ei şi-au schimbat atitudinea – au colaborat cu el şi cu ceilalţi membri ai echipei Swat, au devenit mai activi, mai sociabili şi mai implicaţi.

Trebuie să te schimbi, cum ii spunea Calipso lui Telemac, dacă vrei ca leadershipul tău să capete un sens pozitiv.

Pentru ca forma concretă în care se va realiza leadershipul să fie uşor de modelat, astfel încât el să pună bine în valoare elementele tale definitorii, mai ales capacitatea de a reacţiona la gândurile şi sentimentele celorlalţi în situaţii spontane, trebuie să-ţi remediezi capacitatea de a reacţiona la stimuli precum disconfortul interior, durerea, suferinţa, dezamăgirea - pe care îi resimţi cât se poate de puternic în anumite împrejurări. Sunt semnale care te descurajează să execuţi acele comportamente generatoare de incertitudini şi eşecuri.

Poziţia pe care ţi-o asumi în mijlocul unor evenimente potrivnice este o încercare de a surprinde imaginea unei identităţi care se simte frecvent implicată emoţional în comportamentul unei persoane suferinde.

Nu asigurarea confirmării poziţiei tale este importantă în procesul de consolidare a leadershipului, ci comunicarea curajoasă, echitatea, simpla răsucire a cheii către inimile oamenilor - lăsată la dispoziţia autorităţii tale. Obligativitatea pe care ţi-o impui tu însuţi. Conştientizarea şi lustruirea acelei supreme forţe interioare, în jurul căreia gravitează o raţiune, o sensibilitate, o mare deschidere - concentrate împotriva tuturor formelor de rezistenţă acumulate de firea ta în circumstanţe limitative, dure, dăunătoare, apăsătoare. Un strigăt de război, o chemare sugestivă spre slujire, orientate spre găsirea acelor părţi din tine, sustenabile şi prietenoase, demult apuse.

Orizontul aşteptărilor cu care priveşti viitorul carierei tale profesionale este asemenea unui calculator căruia îi trebuie puţină revigorare ca să funcţioneze la un nivel optim. Pentru supravieţuirea ta profesională nu trebuie să schimbi tot "sistemul" (format din cele două procese care comunică constant: motivaţia şi performanţa), ci doar să îi dai puţină viaţă ! Să ai instalate corect toate "driverele" şi actualizate la zi - conştiinţa, valorile, atitudinea şi comportamentul.

Ca lider va trebui să-i duci la destinaţie şi pe aceia care îţi plac mai puţin !

Ca lider îţi asumi o îndatorire deloc uşoară. De multe ori va trebui să-i duci la destinaţie în siguranţă şi pe cei care îţi plac mai puţin, pe aceia care îţi încetinesc ritmul şi avântul spre atingerea obiectivelor. N-ai de ales dacă eşti un om cu un suflet nobil, a cărui sentimente faţă de ceilalţi oameni au rămas pure şi puternice.

Vrei tot timpul să-i schimbi pe oameni după voia ta? Să-i faci să fie dupa tiparul tău? Ei sunt aşa cum sunt. Niste individualităţi. Nu sunt nişte copii, nişte scalvi sau nişte marionete pe care să le manipulezi cum doreşti tu, după pofta inimii, după propriile tale criterii şi reguli. Sunt ei înşişi, nişte indivizi cu convingeri proprii, bine înrădăcinate pe care numai cu tact, cu iscusinţă şi calm le vei putea schimba. Îi vei putea influenţa doar dacă îţi reconsideri atitudinea faţă de valorile lor.

Dacă nu realizezi o punte de legătură cu oamenii din jurul tău, aceştia vor fi refractari la punctele tale de vedere, la orice acord şi la orice sugestie. Iar drumul tău se va îngreuna.

Îndatorirea ta ca lider este de a-ţi recunoaşte propriul nivel de "supravieţuire" într-o zonă în care oamenii nu se încumetă să te judece, dar te fac să înţelegi unde greşeşti.

Indicatorul spre Lent sau spre Rapid îţi oferă posibilitatea să alegi calea cea mai bună pentru reuşita ta profesională. Ca lider, poţi să te grăbeşti să-ţi atingi scopurile neglijând valorile, principiile, idealurile şi crezurile celor care te urmează, sau poţi sa faci un ocol acceptabil şi să întârzii puţin procesul de atingere a obiectivelor reconsiderându-ţi atitudinea faţă de valorile lor.

Dacă alegi "Rapid", înseamnă că intenţia ta este să-i conduci pe oameni în ciuda propriei lor voinţe, fără să le dai prilejul să se conecteze la tine şi să se raporteze în mod spontan la leadershipul tău. Ei vor trăi într-o stare de totală nelinişte, se vor arata destul de îngrijoraţi. Nu vor fi prea convinşi de abilităţile tale de a-i conduce.

Dacă alegi "Lent" îţi vei putea exercita mai uşor influenţa asupra lor. Îi vei trata cu consideraţie, cu admiraţie şi respect - ceea ce va întări legătura ta cu ei. Nu vei uita niciodată de simţămintele lor, şi nu îţi vei neglija rolul.

Concluzie: Liderul are rolul de a contribui la dezvoltarea unei culturi organizaţionale adecvate. Ritmul adoptat de lider depinde în mare măsură de oamenii din colectiv şi de nivelul culturii organizaţionale existent, de profesionalismul şi competenţele oamenilor.

A porni în ritm alert şi pe „căi scurte" s-ar putea să se soldeze cu un eşec dacă colectivul nu „corespunde" acestei modalităţi de acţiune. De aceea un lider trebuie să ştie, în funcţie de oamenii pe care-i conduce, ce tactici sa abordeze, ce ritm şi ce căi să urmeze.

Un lider trebuie să cunoască bine „resursele umane" de care dispune.

Îndurare pentru gândurile unei minţi neliniştite (II)

Impune-ţi cu hotărâre şi raţional voinţa, fără să te transformi într-un sclav al slăbiciunilor tale.

Un fel de nelinişte sufletească, o forţă usturătoare şi inhibitoare persista asupra întregii ei fiinţe, semnul unor multiple incertitudini, atunci când şi-a făcut apariţia domnul Hobbs. Măsurători ale intensităţii activităţii ei cerebrale, făcute cu o precizie superioară, ar nedumeri orice om de ştiinţă, căci sigur ar evidenţia o activitate anormală şi o tendinţă nefirească spre un comportament agresiv.

Cum să nu fii intrigată la maximum, când ştii că ai fost complice la spargerea băncii, dar nu ai ghicit dedesubturile întregii acţiuni?

Gândurile învălmăşite ale Laurei abia aşteaptă să se revolte, zbătându-se anapoda în subconştient. Simte cu instinctul ei neînduplecat că Hobbs, complicele ei conştiincios, aliatul ei de nădejde, pune ceva important la cale. Dar ce? O dorinţă ascunsă, un plan ţinut secret trece direct prin ispititoarele cărări întortocheate ale prezentului nemilos pe care ea nu le înţelege şi nu le poate da de urmă.

Instinctiv, cu disperarea îndârjită a unei leoaice, Laura se luptă cu infernul în care alunecase în furia sa. Infernul viu a cărui scenariu a fost asigurat de însuşi regizorul Hobbs, cu montarea unui cadru de acţiune după repere numai de el ştiute, lansând prin aceasta un atac dur la persoana ei. Ruşinea de a nu fi ştiut totul, de a fi înşelată, trădată şi minţită, o ţintuieşte locului pe biata femeie, ca un om năucit care nu-şi dă seama ce se petrece în jurul său.

Iar într-un astfel de moment dezorientarea Laurei se accentuează, haosul din mintea ei îi permite să se revolte faţă de Hobbs, care o minţise: " Ce ai făcut? Ai spus că vei fura doar atâtea diamante cât să încapă într-un termos, nu să goleşti în întregime toată încăperea ! "

Leadership: Netezeşti calea de receptare a mesajelor ascunse ale creaţiei tale, dincolo de vulnerabilitatea ta la acţiunea celorlalţi de explorare a lumii tale lăuntrice?

În marea unitate a fiinţei ei, unică într-un univers care nu ar putea fi înţeles decât de minţile cele mai lucide, iată că cele mai preţioase virtuţi, cele mai înalte idealuri, crezul dintotdeauna în bine, capătă dintr-o dată tente violente. Golind realitatea de conţinut. Nevoia ei placidă pentru aflarea adevărului creşte considerabil odată cu sporirea misterului. Gândurile i se învârt în jurul a două întrebări care nu-i dau pace : " Cum? De ce? "

Iar prin acest mister greu de pătruns, dependenţa Laurei faţă de Hobbs creşte, căci Eu-l ei are nevoie de alte înţelesuri, de alte explicaţii, mai uşor de acceptat, de alte căi de receptare a mesajelor ascunse, dincolo de rezistenţa timpului scurt pe care îl are la dispoziţie pentru a face un pas înainte spre normalitate. Creaţia ei cea mai de preţ este chiar motivul amânării deciziei care îi atestă acordul de voinţă la renunţarea căutărilor sale în vederea aflării adevărului.

Integrarea dimensiunii tale spirituale într-o direcţie mai presus de cea în care eşti dispus să ajungi, spre acea măreţie apreciabilă a performerilor, devine o încercare aproape imposibilă. Asta dacă permiţi celorlalţi oameni să te trateze ca pe un factor uşor de indus în eroare, într-un cadru de modelare revizuit de acea conştiinţă care nu se preocupă numai de bine sau de rău, ci se afla în afara acestor două calităţi prin obiectivare.

Leadership: Cântăreşti bine argumentele care obţin concluzia din negarea unei anumite atașări față de acțiunile și gândurile ascunse, fără să rămâi în acea suferinţă lipsită de posibilitatea trecerii în altceva?

Influenţa celorlalţi are ca punct de referinţă examinarea ta în condiţii de stres şi nesiguranţă. Iar măsurarea constantă a gradului de deviaţie de la normalul acceptat la care eşti expus, poate fi o activitate experimentală de tip „ Post-Test " al cărei scop este obţinerea unor avantaje de natură profesională.

Cineva spunea la un moment dat: "Acceptarea ta de către ce din jur nu este o reflectare a persoanei tale, ci a felului în care se proiectează ceilalţi asupra ta" . Eroarea relativă a unei măsurări individuale este raportul dintre eroarea absolută a acelei măsurări şi valoarea mărimii măsurate.

Această mărime măsurată de ceilalţi oameni este reprezentată prin Ego-ul tău supus cauzalităţilor care alimentează blocajele şi limitările, acţionând prin compararea situaţiilor de viaţă în care eşti expus direct sau indirect. O comandă de deviere a Ego-ului, trimisă anonim din partea unei puteri de convingere străine, este de ajuns pentru a te învălui într-un nor gros de fum, într-un simţământ de însingurare, dând un sens "Null" vieţii.

Leadershipul la nivel identitar, se dezvăluie prin cunoaşterea de sine, extrem de preţioasă, care îţi permite răspunsuri proactive la provocările persuasive fundamente pe excluderea ta din propria subiectivitate, prin uzarea şi destabilizarea etalonului "trăirii".

Leadership: Poţi să trăieşti ca şi cum nimic nu s-a întâmplat, sub impresia unei întâmplări de viaţă reale care nu se doreşte neapărat o justificare a gesturilor tale de nesupunere în numele conştiinţei?

Opţiunea prin care îţi dai indirect acceptul de a primi mesaje ascunse, cu rol intimidant şi confuz, concretizată printr-o reducere a utilizării tuturor potenţialităţilor de care dispui, este de fapt o componentă a unei forme de pierdere a controlului mental şi emoţional. Întrucât capacitatea de a-ţi conştientiza şi a-ţi asuma stările psihologice şi trebuinţele definitorii este oarecum limitată. Şi se reduce pe măsura infirmării elementelor inalienabile proprii, pe măsură ce încerci să îi mulţumeşti pe cei din jur.

A netezi calea de receptare a mesajelor ascunse primite din partea unor personalităţi autonome, independente, sau a mesajelor provenite din înţelegerea greşită a unor situaţii, obstacole, evenimente sau activităţi, înseamnă să atribui actului de a conduce o proprietate de tip "Down", care evidenţiază incapacitatea ta de a crea o diferenţa de stătut şi de potenţial.

Ceea ce înseamnă că nu eşti suficient de abil să creezi o structură de putere legitimă care să asigure evidenţa relevantă a fiinţei tale subiective. Iar subiectivismul propriu este direct proporţional cu afinităţile de caracter care te pot recomanda ca un om superior, dacă nu te expui la eventuale eşecuri de ordin profesional sau personal.

Leadershipul axat pe latura definitorie a demnităţii şi spiritualităţii omului tratează capacitatea de apărare împotriva factorilor agresivi externi, împotriva influentelor de tip "Drag You Down". Această capacitate se obţine prin activarea straturilor profunde ale conştiinţei, acolo unde sunt păstrate toate versiunile de adevăr care te ajută să te cunoşti şi să înţelegi toate frământările, durerile şi rătăcirile. Important este să te ridici deasupra lor, concentrându-te în mod deosebit asupra a ceea ce poţi să realizezi fără să depinzi de ceilalţi.

Un lider adevărat acceptă să judece un anumit moment din viaţa unui om, izolându-l de trecutul său, privindu-l dintr-o perspectivă exterioară anilor anteriori, dar fără să-şi extindă influenţa asupra a ceea ce se întâmplă înăuntrul lui.

Îndurare pentru gândurile unei minţi nelinişTite scoate în evidenţă acea slăbiciune interioară a omului, care atunci când este descoperită de cei din jur devine o şansă de a profita şi de a pretinde tot mai multe drepturi asupra lui. Dacă nu vrei să cazi în capcana unei false dileme de loialitate, impune-ţi cu hotărâre şi raţional voinţa, fără să te transformi într-un sclav al slăbiciunilor tale.

Îndurare pentru gândurile unei minţi neliniştite (I)

Probează caracterul definitiv al acelor stări sufleteşti prin care devii conştient de tine însuţi, aplicând un auto-update care să-ţi mărească cota de imunitate la ceea ce ţi se întâmplă.

Incandescente, teama, neliniştea şi înverşunarea se unesc şi se întrupează în această femeie, transformându-se apoi brusc într-o curiozitate nelimitată spre a cunoaşte cât mai multe amănunte din fatalitatea clipei care-i clătină întreaga lume, destabilizându-i toate elementele structurii funcţionale.

Laura Quinn nu mai este stăpâna minţii şi a inimii ei, ci doar o persona non grata, o parte neînsemnată dintr-un cerc al reacţiunii şi nemulţumirii, în care se învârte continuu şi fără încetare, materializat într-un proces al declinului, prin experimentarea cele mai profunde stări.

Un astfel de om ce se raportează la sferă îngustă a acceptabilului, încercând să netezească marginile unei realităţi imposibil de îndurat, nu poate decât să rămână la baza piramidei propriei singularităţi. Numai în rare cazuri el se poate manifesta ca o entitate fermă, ca o emisie de forţe prielnice dezvoltării care răspândindu-se cu viteză în tot sistemul său de funcţionare să echilibreze disfuncţia între gândire şi interpretare, dintre cele două ramuri existenţiale: " a fi " şi " a nu fi ".

Dacă am găsi un cuvânt, doar unul, cu care să i-l adresăm ei înseşi în acest stânjenitor episod al vieţii, un cuvânt simplu, cordial, cu adevărat salvator, probabil acesta ar fi: " eliberare ". Da, Laura ar fi fost eliberată de ea însăşi, învăluită în atmosfera inocentă a unei libertăţi care nu neagă sub nici o formă evoluţia, care nu neagă existenţa unui sâmbure de adevăr în această stare de incertitudine deplină.

O floare ajunge în grădina infernului, care-i împrăştie petalele cu iz de normalitate. Ea îşi cedează polenul – toată emoţia şi sensibilitatea de care dispune, doar pentru a se acomoda cu aerul de mister ce o înconjoară. Dar, astfel, îi este foarte dificil să se împace cu sine însăşi.

Leadership: Incluzi în marea unitate a fiinţei tale cele mai preţioase virtuţi pentru a crea o valoare adăugată potenţialului tău de reglare a emoţiilor care îţi stăpânesc viaţa?

O uşurare usturătoare şi inhibitoare persistă asupra întregii tale fiinţe? Personalitatea ta este expusă unei tendinţe nefireşti spre un comportament agresiv? Cele mai preţioase virtuţi, cele mai înalte idealuri, pălesc în faţa a ceea ce ai devenit? Gândurile ţi se învârt în jurul a două întrebări care nu-ţi dau pace : " Cum? De ce? " Poţi fi mereu stăpânul minţii şi a inimii tale?

Când nevoia omului de a afla adevărul creşte considerabil, când el caută să găsească acea sursă credibilă în vederea întreţinerii propriului Eu, în acel moment incertitudinea începe să predomine asupra lui. Şi, asemenea unui examen lucid al conştiinţei, această incertitudine îi sporeşte sau îi eliberează gândurile pro sau contra, vizavi de propriul potenţial, setând priorităţile de construcţie a identităţii sale.

Trăind mereu cu intensitate această clipă a " saltului spre adevăr ", când are de ales: a nega sau a ignora prezenţa implicită a propriei totalităţi, omul îşi răsfrânge asupra celorlalţi din jur toată puterea, toată autoritatea, pentru ca, indirect, să stabilească valoarea pe care el însuşi o are, prin felul în care se raportează la ceea ce gândeşte referitor la ceea ce nu cunoaşte.

Cele mai preţioase virtuţi ale omului sunt: puterea de a accepta realitatea, tăria morală şi refuzul capitulării în faţa neputinţei de a se reinventa.

Leadership: Poţi să rămâi centrul de referinţă al necesitaţii de a pune la îndoială "acceptabilul", în funcţie de care îşi dezvăluie sensul devenirea întregii tale fiinţe între reperele de întrebare şi răspuns?

Prin felul în care omul îşi creează înalta cunoaştere despre sine, pus în acea pluralitate de gânduri, trăiri, de întrebări încuietoare şi răspunsuri neclare, erupând în strigăte de mânie, apare ca necesară modelarea lui prin intermediul sincerităţii şi a aplecării spre autoobservare.

Practic necunoscutul, teama, incertitudinea - din experienţele de viaţă prin care trece, îl învaţă să se cunoască mai bine, să se cuprindă şi să se descrie pe sine prin identificarea acelor elemente ce declanșează motivația, prin identificarea acelor factori care îi menţin evoluţia. Reperele de întrebare şi răspuns se alocă în cazul determinismului care stabilește necesitatea acțiunilor omului și spulberă povestea absurdă a liberului arbitru, fără a exclude câtuşi de puțin nici rațiunea, nici conștiința omului și nici aprecierea acțiunilor lui.

Pentru a "vedea" drumul pe care îl urmează liderul, citeşte-i gândurile, dacă poţi ! Acesta este singurul fel în care îi poţi măsura adevărata valoare. Şi cel mai dificil. Mai ales în cazul în care el însuşi se luptă cu propriile gânduri.

Dacă în marea unitate a fiinţei tale - cele mai preţioase virtuţi, cele mai înalte idealuri, crezul dintotdeauna în bine, pălesc în faţa a ceea ce ai devenit, atunci tot leadershipul va fi şi el golit de conţinut. Căci Eu-l liderului are nevoie mereu de alte înţelesuri, de alte explicaţii, mai uşor de acceptat, de alte posibilităţi de receptare a mesajelor ascunse, dincolo de rezistenţa timpului scurt pe care îl are la dispoziţie pentru a se adapta.

Leadership: Cât timp poţi să stăpâneşti fiinţa nevăzută din tine fără a-ţi compromite imaginea care se reflectă în situaţiile neprevăzute?

Stăpânirea de sine este una din piesele fundamentale ale reuşitei - care alături de adevăr, libertate şi bine trebuie echilibrat în existenţa omului cu idealuri înalte. Ea poate fi îmbunătăţită personalizând substanţial acel spaţiu dintre gândurile, stimulii şi reacţiile omului supus schimbării. Deci, prin repurtarea unei victorii asupra spaţiului şi timpului în care gândurile, conectându-se unul la celălalt, se rotesc în jurul nemulţumirilor, a frustrărilor, a stărilor tensionate, a dezamăgirilor.

Costul dezvoltării personale este o controversă asupra necesităţii de a-şi păstra intactă identitatea, să ridici garda sau nu în faţa necesităţii de a fi flexibil în maniera de a acţiona sau a gândi. O îndelungată rătăcire în realcătuireа elementelor de " a fi ". Acestea pot conduce de multe ori la rezolvarea, cu sinceritate şi îndrăzneală, a conflictului cu sine.

Ca să-ţi asumi puterea de a stăpâni fiinţa nevăzută din tine, ca să-ţi depăşeşti propriile limite, ceva trebuie să erupă din tine. Trebuie să elimini din tine însuţi teama, neliniştea şi înverşunarea. Şi numai prin intrarea în zona imprevizibilului şi a necunoscutului, echilibrând disfuncţia între gândire şi interpretare, dintre cele două ramuri existenţiale: " a fi " şi " a nu fi " vei putea, mai bine ca oricare altul, să-ţi temperezi tendinţele de "redecorare calitativă a interiorului".

Valoarea care confirmă aprecierea sau deprecierea leadershipului este dată de acea experienţă de viaţă care te maturizează şi îţi aminteşte să trăieşti nu ca şi cum ai privi tot timpul în oglindă retrovizoare, ci ca şi cum totul ar fi un miracol.

Îndurare pentru gândurile unei minţi nelinişte scoate în evidenţă caracterul definitiv al acelor stări sufleteşti prin care omul devine conştient de el însuşi – felul cum se întregeşte printr-un auto-update – în mijlocul acelor situaţii când teama, neliniştea, incertitudinea îl supun unei nemărginite presiuni.

Cele mai complexe şi mai adânci efecte pe care le produce leadershipul asupra omului sunt rezultatul transformării. Când este stăpânit de acea curiozitate nelimitată de a cunoaşte cât mai multe amănunte despre el însuşi, cu îndrăzneala care-i caracterizează întreaga trăire. De aceea, autocunoaşterea, educaţia propriei tale gândiri, reprezintă partea esenţială a leadershipului.

Dacă nu vrei să te transformi într-un sclav al slăbiciunilor tale, să rătăceşti într-un labirint de stări precum incertitudinea, teama şi neliniştea, atunci impune-ţi cu hotărâre şi raţional voinţa de nu coborî stacheta sau de a abandona idea de integritate. Astfel, în imensa construcţie a leadershipului, în grandioasa lui arhitectură, nu se va produce nicio fisură, nicio eroziune, niciun fel de degradare.

Înfăptuirile cu adevărat creatoare rămân exclusiv în grija omului creator

Numai suma tuturor obstacolelor biruite de un om dă adevărată şi justa măsură a unei fapte, precum şi aceluia care a împlinit-o.

Dacă mi-ar fi teamă de faptul că cineva m-ar putea declasa în ierarhia ştiinţei fondate pe tehnologie, atunci cu certitudine nu mi-ar fi teamă de toţi oamenii aceia îmbrăcaţi la patru ace, plini de bani, maşini şi bijuterii, sau cu funcţii înalte. Ăştia sunt doar pe post de decor. Nişte obosiţi fără chef de muncă şi fără vreun talent excepţional, iar orice faptă glorioasă îi va ocoli fără nicio urmă de regret.

Am tot întâlnit oameni din aceştia, de o falsitate a cărei detectare nu cere prea mult fler, punct de fugă spre care converge nepăsarea sinceră, arătând inexistentul de parcă ar exista, oferind ideea că imposibilul este posibil. Şi tot de atâtea ori oamenii aceştia mi-au produs o dezamăgire totală, acea stare în care cunoşti un lucru aşa cum este el de fapt, dezgolit de toate calităţile lui închipuite.

Însă mi-ar fi cumplită teamă de acel atlet singuratic care aleargă în fiecare zi de iarnă, la -8 grade, încălţat cu o pereche de adidaşi second-hand. Numai dacă ar face ceva pentru ştiinţă, cu acelaşi zel cu care a decis să înfrunte frigul şi vremea capricioasă.

În aceeaşi măsură, dacă mi s-ar cere să descriu acest atlet în angrenajul lui interior, printr-un Ixalagenthis (obişnuinţa unei vederi interioare care preceda vederea exterioară), aşa cum este el în totalitatea lui, constant, străbătut de fiorii credinţei adevărate, atunci i-aş multiplica valenţele de severitate - pregnante în cazul efortului de a duce la bun sfârşit o sarcină importantă.

Leadership: Viziunea cu care răspunzi provocărilor destinului tău se organizează în direcţia evocării unui moment din istoria lumii care cuprinde suma tuturor faptelor tale însemnate?

Pe vremuri navigatorii iscusiţi plecau în căutarea unui târam iluzoriu, a unui nou eden care să scoată umanitatea dintr-o fundătură istorică. Dar îndeplinirea unui asemenea ţel presupunea tot felul de tărăgăneli şi piedici. Nu-i de mirare că istoria îşi aminteşte doar de vreo câţiva mari navigatori, din miile de sobresaliente , acei soldaţi anonimi care se pomenesc pe neaşteptate în faţa unei misiuni uriaşe.

Şi în ziua de azi, asemenea sobresaliente îşi încordează muşchii cu duritatea unui arc de oţel, fiind zdruncinaţi în toate direcţiile de o mare povară: să găsească un mijloc de a se face cunoscuţi. Ei nu mai trebuie să găsească un continent că America sau Africa, ci trebuie să-şi aducă contribuţia la o invenţie cu potenţial uriaş într-un anumit domeniu. De exemplu cei ce au descoperit internetul, aceia care au dezvoltat limbajele de programare, toţi aceştia (puţini la număr) au cucerit toată lumea, nu doar o părticică din ea.

Pe această cale, să nu uităm cuvintele lui Ştefan Zweig: "În realitate, tocmai omul acela neînsemnat şi de prisos va deveni reprezentatul cel mai de seamă al unei orientări noi şi revoluţionare. Iar o faptă istorică nu este niciodată împlinită, adică definitiv încheiată în momentul realizării sale, ci abia atunci când ea este trecută posterităţii. Ceea ce numim istorie nu reprezintă nicidecum suma tuturor faptelor însemnate care s-au întâmplat cândva în timp şi spaţiu, ea cuprinde numai acele mici fragmente luminoase care au fost scoase la iveală de operele creatorilor".

Leadership: Poţi să te situezi într-o poziţie intermediară, cu un orizont nici a tot cuprinzător care te identifice cu conceptul "un întreg al viitorului locuind prezentul", dar nici prea restrâns, încât să coincidă cu particularul unei experienţe competiţionale?

O singură descoperire poate cuceri lumea. Reţineţi că tehnologia este prezentul şi viitorul. Internetul este prima oglindă a universului, o vastă biblioteca de gândire. Toate minţile sunt conectate la o reţea globală. Şi mai departe? Mai rămâne ca fiecare om să inventeze câte ceva, să adauge ceva la această reţea globală. Ceva unic, sau idei alternative. Căutătorii de cursă lungă vor descoperi ceva revoluţionar.

Viitorul se va schimba în aşa fel încât fiecare om va avea de câştigat în funcţie de cât de multe idei noi va adăuga pe internet, de la cea mai mică temă de gândire până la cea mai grea. Vor exista două feluri de descoperitori: cei care rezolvă problemele şi cei care ştiu "cum să pună problema".

După cum bine ştiţi, zilnic în lume sunt scanate milioane de cărţi, cine nu-şi găseşte cartea pe internet este ca şi când nu a scris-o. Cine nu are afacerea pe internet, este ca şi când n-ar avea o afacere. Cine nu se promovează pe internet, nu are nici cea mai mică şansă să reziste pe piaţă.

Leadership: Opera cea mai mare a vieţii tale este lupta eroică dusă contra rezistenţei pe care materia pământească o opune, prin ea însăşi, oricărei întreprinderi care se înalţă deasupra măsurii obişnuite?

Să mă reîntorc la alergătorul de la început. Mi-aş dori ca acest alergător să facă o mică incursiune în interiorul procesului său de gândire, să încerce o mică flotare logică de gândire şi practice sportul minţii, care nu este şahul, ci capacitatea de creaţie. Este vorba despre realizarea unei asemănări cu o lume infinită prin care el trebuie să izbăvească lumea de flăcările mândriei pricinuitoare de toată căderea. Să nu uităm că mândria de a fi bun doar într-o direcţie poate fi justificată doar în cazul în care aduce avantaje evoluţiei ştiinţifice. În acest caz, toţi învingătorii trebuie să aibă în minte cuvintele lui Ştefan Zweig:

"Întotdeauna înfăptuirile cu adevărat creatoare rămân exclusiv în grija omului creator care va trebui să le ducă până la capăt. Şi într-adevăr, omul creator nu lasă nimic în grijă altuia, nici chiar lucrul cel mai mărunt: ci îşi pregăteşte singur opera cea mare a vieţii sale. Este eroică lupta a unui singur om pe mai multe fronturi: contra lui însuşi, contra adversarilor din exterior şi contra rezistenţei pe care materia pământească o opune, prin ea însăşi, oricărei întreprinderi care se înalţă deasupra măsurii obişnuite. Întotdeauna însă, numai suma tuturor obstacolelor biruite de un om dă adevărată şi justa măsură a unei fapte, precum şi aceluia care a împlinit-o."

Un fragment important din ce înseamnă leadershipul poate fi surprins tot în cuvintele lui Ştefan Zweig, cu privire la marele navigator şi descoperitor Fernando Magellan:

"Şi abia acum, când dificultăţile ascunse sub planul său grandios ies la iveală una după alta, se vădeşte măreţia sufletească a acestui om care a stat atâta vreme în umbră. Şi el trebuie să prevadă singur toate posibilităţile de neprevăzut, să lupte necurmat, să-şi impună voinţa, împresurat de cele mai neaşteptate primejdii şi obstacole."

Înfăptuirile cu adevărat creatoare rămân exclusiv în grija omului creator, mai ales dacă luăm în considerare marile opere de creaţie. Să nu uităm că de la Michelangelo până la Tesla, şi de la Galileo Galilei până la Tim Berners-Lee nu este decât o mică diferenţă de perspectivă. Fiecare cu viziunea lui.

Dar un singur lucru este cert. Omul viitorului va fi jumătate atlet + jumătate descoperitor.

Infinitul domnului Hobbs

Condu realitatea ta şi a celorlalţi în direcţia dorită, fără să funcţionezi ca o victimă veşnică a conştiinţei.

Domnul Hobbs. Era un simplu office cleaner , dar lucra la una din cele mai mari corporaţii ale lumii, condusă de cei mai abili magnaţi ai lumii, care îşi desfăşurau afacerile în colosala industrie a diamantelor. Soarta nu i-a fost deloc binevoitoare. Trecutul îl urmărea peste tot. Cu toate acestea, conştiinţa lui nu putea nega că, deşi bătrân, privea curajos înainte - dar privea cu mândria acelui spirit dur şi răzbunător, a acelui Mefisto ferm şi nezdruncinat. Îngerul s-a transformat în demon?

Un ochi pătrunzător poate observa foarte uşor, urmărind existenţa ordonată, dar tulburătoare a acestui bătrân - ca parte a unei analize ştiinţifice dusă până la extrem - numeroasele convulsiuni în circuitul său intern, puncte de maximă tensiune care se îndepărtează tot mai mult de adevărata lui natură, valori ale unor elemente care nasc frecuşuri stranii.

Care este adevărata lui motivaţie? Care este natura acestor electroni care se ciocnesc intermitent între ei, în forul său lăuntric?

Bine montat în stativul existenţei sale, fiecare senzor generează un alt tip de curent, indică mereu o altă tensiune, tot mai anormală, care evoluează ca un tot unitar, ca un răspuns coordonat al unei mari varietăţi de inconveniente emoţionale, oscilând anapoda între două valori: "plus" şi "minus" - care se pot aloca unei singure variabile: Răzbunarea !

Leadership: Eşti capabil să-ţi elaborezi o atitudine de superioritate faţă de ce ţi se întâmplă în timp ce mergi pe drumul vieţii, prin proiectarea unui orizont desprins din nemărginirea unui sentiment atârnat de un fir gros numit "Răsplată meritată" ?

Şi cum vei face asta? Trebuia să fie o operaţiune solo, dar s-a transformat într-un duet rar întâlnit, o unitate compactă cu mai multă forţă. Asemenea unui braconier pornit la vânătoare, domnul Hobbs se trezeşte alături de o leoaică rănită, o îngrijeşte, îşi fixează amândoi aceeaşi ţintă şi pornesc împreună la atac. Răsplata demersului lor, dacă se lăsa cu o victorie, însemna dobândirea unei bogăţii fără margini.

Altfel spus, dorinţa lui de răzbunare îndreptată împotriva managerilor din corporaţie, este dublată de Laura Quinn – şi ea tot atât de măcinată de regrete, dureri şi oboseli, şi mânată de aceeaşi dorinţă impetuoasă ca a lui. Amândoi vor să supună dragonii la acest tratament, dezvoltându-şi o tehnică specială pentru a pregăti terenul de luptă, stimulându-şi intelectul dincolo de tot ce se poate imagina.

- Vrei să intri în seiful corporaţiei şi să furi diamantele? Doar nu vorbeşti serios ! Cum vei face asta?

- Numai eu pot şti…şi îndrăzni, răspunde domnul Hobbs, citându-l parcă pe ambiţiosul Eugène de Rastignac, din opera lui Balzac.

- Şi cum plănuieşti să afli combinaţia seifului?

- Aici intervii dumneata, doamnă Quinn.

Ambiţia lor este întărită de încercarea la care îşi supun concomitent propria putere şi voinţă. În cele din urmă, planul lor îşi nimereşte ţinta. Răzbunarea amândurora îşi face efectul de la prima aplicare.

Dar mereu ne va rămâne întipărit în memorie dialogul între domnul Hobbs şi Laura Quinn, din finalul filmul " Flawless (2007)". Acest ansamblu de forţe unite, a căror traiectorii, intersectându-se, le-a pus la grea încercare caracterul:

- Crezi că a meritat să faci toate acestea pentru cauza ta, domnule Hobbs?

- O, da ! Şi pentru cauza mea aş petrece şi o sută de vieţi în închisoare. Poate într-o bună zi veţi înţelege, doamnă Quinn.

Leadership: Poţi să te constitui ca şi cale de facilitare a unui proces decizional complex, astfel încât să redai perfect începutul unei lumi noi din perspectiva a ceea ce urmează să se întâmple?

Eşti un vânător care se vânează pe sine? Priveşti înainte cu mândria unui spirit dur şi războinic? Care sunt punctele de maximă tensiune care te îndepărtează tot mai mult de adevărata ta natură? Care este adevărata ta motivaţie şi ce efect produce ea asupra celorlalţi? Care este natura acelor electroni care se ciocnesc intermitent între ei, în forul tău lăuntric?

Locul leadershipului, asumarea şi valorificarea lui în cadrul lumii de mâine, prin prisma propriei tale gândiri, a propriului tău sistem de funcţiune, implică o preferinţă sau o anumită apreciere lăuntrică în contextul creşterii gradului de toleranţă la acţiunile vătămătoare, la frustrări şi incertitudini, la ambiguitate şi la risc.

Frecuşuri, poate justificate, dar extrem de dure uneori, cu impact de anvergură în existenţa ta, putând a degenera în rupturi devenite vizibile abia atunci când temuta "maladie" s-a dezvoltat atât de mult încât cu greu mai poate fi vindecată.

Această maladie nu este altceva decât manifestarea unei realităţi, pe care nu ţi-ai dorit-o cu adevărat. Acea manifestare de voinţă prin care singur te obligi să devii un prototip nesigur de leadership, un device care nu promite prea mult, care urmăreşte doar accelerarea tensiunii - creşterea pulsului propriu, şi destabilizarea completă a pulsului celorlalţi.

Ca doi electroni care se ciocnesc intermitent între ei, în forul tău lăuntric, aceste două pulsaţii oferă mai degrabă indicii cu privire la slăbiciunea ta, o limită a propriei neputinţe, o sărăcire a propriei tale firi - care conduc, sub influenţa legilor proprii, la o depreciere puternică a capacităţii de a înfăptui o schimbare pozitivă în propria-ţi conştiinţă. Devii propriul tău urmăritor, un vânător care se vânează pe sine, un braconier care cade în propria lui capcană.

Leadership: Cât de întunecat este infinitul pe care îl porţi în tine din perspectiva unui proiect aparent imposibil de infaptuit care are un mesaj social foarte puternic: "Ridică-te și vorbește despre cele nespuse" ?

Domnul Hobbs a reuşit să o salveze pe Laura Quinn de la o epuizare fizică şi emoţională, dar cu un preţ - antrenând-o spre o sumbră aventură, spre un risc enorm, spre o regresie în alte planuri ale personalităţii.

Dar, să ne întrebăm cu oarecare îngrijorare, domnul Hobbs a reuşit să se salveze pe el însuşi? Sau doar şi-a alinat sentimentul de răzbunare? Căci el a funcţionat ca o victimă veşnică a conştiinţei – prin invocarea repetată a trecutului, percepând totul prin împlinirea unui scop care continuu îl devora în interior.

În spatele acestei întrebări putem desluşi limita propriului său mod de a fi, a noului său statut în societate – o cauzalitate condiţionată. El trăieşte mai departe cu conştiinţa poruncii sale morale – eliberatoare sau distrugătoare?

Scriitorul francez, Victor Hugo, remarca cu mâhnire: " Cât de întunecat este acest infinit pe care omul îl poartă în el şi pe care cu deznădejde încearcă să-l măsoare cu voinţa fiinţei lui şi cu faptele vieţii sale ! "

Leadershipul este solicitant şi complex. Convingerea mea este că vei putea să îmbrăţişezi această ştiinţă doar dacă vei reuşi să-ţi asumi responsabilitatea pentru acest "infinit" pe care îl porţi în tine, care îşi poate răsfrânge efectele şi asupra celorlalţi din jurul tău.

Măsoară-ţi voinţa şi faptele, condu realitatea ta şi a celorlalţi în direcţia dorită, fără să funcţionezi ca o victimă veşnică a acestui infinit ambiguu şi revers - "conştiinţa", care poate provoca mai mult rău decât bine, mai multe nelinişti decât bucurii - ţie şi celorlalţi.

"Ridică-te și vorbește despre cele nespuse" este mesajul pe care îl poţi desprinde din spatele unei vieţi împlinite prin eliberarea de durerea pricinuită de o lume care s-a arătat tot mai apăsătoare.

Cele nespuse sunt firimiturile de suflet care nu sunt ciugulite de ignoranţă şi de veşnicul "Nimic nou sub soare", ci acelea care se culisează în exterior printr-o maximă empatie cu năzuinţele sau durerile altora, impresionând prin entitatea superioară a unei trăiri care s-a găsit modul ideal de materializare într-o viziune fără frontiere.

Infinitul domnului Hobbs simbolizează credinţa, speranţa, flacăra sentimentelor care pot fi cu greu ţinute în frâu de această constantă, a devenirii sau a degenerării, numită conştiinţă.

Infinitul unei lumi ascunse

Fii tu însuţi, sporindu-ţi capacitatea de a face vizibile efectele unei imagini tot mai complete care eliberează și totodată se impune prin puterea ei de sugestie.

Gândirea mea a urmat dezvoltarea firească a vârstei, punând capăt oricărei interacţiuni cu elementele unei realităţi prozaice, pe măsura creării unei vieţi pline de sens. Toate sunt în continuare scrise cu literă de artist, dar în ordinea unei emancipări individuale valorizatoare, a gândirii interpretate prin prisma capacităţii de a face vizibile efectele unei imagini tot mai complete, care eliberează și totodată se impune prin puterea ei de sugestie.

Păstrez multe din pretenţiile acestei dezvoltări, cuvenite unei extraordinare intensităţi a gândirii-cinema, prin imagini care se şterg ori de câte ori doresc eu, prin perfecţionarea cadrelor de origine într-o scenă "Future Heroes" şi dedicată exclusiv unei lumi chibzuite după bunul meu plac. Artistul este un creator de scenarii reunite într-o artă a reprezentării tridimensionale a imaginilor, într-un timp al cuvintelor preţioase, astfel devenind un manipulator al lumilor ficţionale, din considerentele gândirii imaginative.

Fireşte, trăiesc prezenţe şi absenţe cu acea extraordinară intensitate spre care tind numai gândirea şi acţiunea umană în expresia lor cea mai înaltă, memoria, limbajul, dar şi alte procese psihice precum afecţiunea, voinţa, motivaţia, atenţia. Imaginea artistului este în strânsă legătură cu o categorie de gândire ce se situează între concret şi abstract, între real şi ideal, între sensibil şi inteligibil, încât imaginii să i se aducă meritul de a fi absolută, adică prin asemănare cu experienţa Creatorului de a-şi descătuşa fantezia printr-o eliberare deplină de constrângeri şi convenţii.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi identifici imaginea personală cu cea a unui Creator care se reinventează în permanenţă printr-o gândire vizuală excelentă, în accepţiunea că o imagine trebuie să fie aportul unui act artistic la surprinderea unui nou orizont de aşteptare?

Scriu pentru că ştiu să fac din scris expresia idealismului unui creator care a uitat pur și simplu de cadrul descurajator al vieții pe care o trăieşte și s-a ridicat deasupra tuturor prin cunoaştere. Capacitatea de a scrie prin intermediul unui idealism al cunoaşterii, apropiat de cadrul calităţii vieţii mele, îmi conferă o anumită prestanţă, o valoare mare înaintea tuturor celorlalte valori pe care le ia în considerare lumea, fără să fiu nevoit să fac din creaţie expresia grandomaniei sau egocentrismului.

Însă nu toţi sunt mişcaţi înainte de urmările unei evoluţii lăuntrice şi de perspectivă, cum este înclinaţia scrisului spre crearea unei imagini pozitive a brandului personal. Spun asta în timp ce urmăresc prezentările trainerilor/speakerilor români susţinute la un eveniment recent. Constat cu surprindere, pe lângă faptul că majoritatea nu ştiu ce este un LEAD şi, deci, nu ştiu nici cum să-l utilizeze, că mai au şi altceva în comun:

Aproape toţi fac parte din echipa "John Maxwell".

Şi stau şi mă întreb: trebuie să faci parte dintr-o echipă sau alta ca să ai realmente ceva important de spus? Nu te-ai gândit niciodată că ai putea să fii infinit mai valoros decât o echipă întreagă?

Când ai să gândeşti astfel, abia atunci vei fi cu adevărat valoros şi nu vei mai vinde imaginea unui străin ! Vei începe să promovezi imaginea ta şi a României ! Vei începe să fii un lider !

Fii român, nu australian, nu american, nu francez, nu rus, nu reprezentantul altei naţii. Fii mai bun decât toţi ! Şi, mai întâi de toate, fii rodul dezvoltării tale individuale !

Leadership: Iei în considerare perspectiva unei emancipări individuale valorizatoare care ridică actul de creaţie la rang de imagine după care te poţi orienta când îţi alegi stilul de interpretare a propriei alternative de a fi inovator?

Poţi să asiguri situarea centrată a zonelor existenţiale într-un motto "fii mai bun decât toţi", doar dacă scrisul tău este dovada unei atitudini hotărâte şi a unei gândiri profunde ce se poate detaşa de prezent pentru a străbate secole de istorie pline de abordări ale vieţii şi ale creaţiei.

Rămâne veşnic adevărul exprimat de bătrânul preot Menes, cel mai bun cunoscător din Egipt al stelelor şi totodată meşter iscusit, din romanul "Fararonul" de Boleslaw Prus:

"Toate acestea sunt lucruri mărunte. Faraonii cei mai tineri îmbătrânesc, iar poporul a mai avut nu o dată ziua a şaptea pentru odihnă, a avut şi pământ. Ah, de s-ar fi schimbat numai asta ! Dar câte dinastii şi câţi preoţi nu s-au perindat de trei mii de ani încoace în Egipt, câte oraşe şi câte temple nu s-au prefăcut în ruine, câte petice noi de pământ nu s-au ivit !

Toate lucrurile s-au schimbat, afară de unul singur: că doi şi cu doi fac patru, că triunghiul este jumătatea dreptunghiului, că luna poate acoperi lumina soarelui şi că apa care fierbe poate arunca o piatră în aer.

În lumea asta pieritoare, ceea ce ţine şi rămâne e numai înţelepciunea. Vai de acela care, pentru lucruri trecătoare ca norii, părăseşte ceea ce e veşnic ! Inima lui nu-şi va găsi nicicând liniştea, iar cugetul lui se va legăna ca luntrea în mijlocul vijeliei."

Înţelepciunea, distingându-se prin atitudinea cu care întâmpini gândirea inovativă, este suma tuturor lucrurilor mărunte cărora le ridici valoarea la rang de lege care rezistă veşniciei.

Ceea ce înveţi de la viață, prelucrând și dezvoltând cadrul unei logici a armoniei, a plenitudinii, a materializării imaginative, este la fel de important ca ceea ce înveţi de la alţii, cu menţiunea că relația dintre tine și ei - care confirmă progresele cunoaşterii prin luarea în considerare a finalităţilor - nu răspunde la întrebarea: „Ce a fost mai întâi, oul sau găina?"

Depinzi de ceilalți oameni, sau ceilalți oameni depind de tine? Căci sunt două feluri de oameni: cei care se remarcă învăţând din propria lor experiență (cei autentici), și cei care se remarcă extrăgând învăţăminte din experiența altora (cei care își slăbesc individualitatea). Cei ce luminează datorită unei cercetări de sine, şi cei ce luminează datorită focului aprins de alţii.

Oscilăm permanent între tendinţa de a fi noi înșine și tendinţa de a fi ca ceilalți, oricât de dificile ar fi eforturile de delimitare a ariei de cuprindere a ştiinţei. Dar ceea ce se impune ca premiză indispensabilă a analizării și evaluării personale, în contrast cu ceea ce gândesc ceilalți, fără a epuiza abordarea de tip experienţial a scopului propus, este capacitatea de a face vizibile efectele unei imagini tot mai complete, care eliberează și totodată se impune prin puterea ei de sugestie.

Iar deseori această imagine, ce corespunde unei evoluţii bazate pe înțelepciune, reprezintă efectul următoarei expresii: „nu părăsi ceea ce e veșnic pentru lucruri trecătoare”.

Veșnicia este forța umană cognitivă valorizatoare, evidenţiindu-se pe fondul acceptării diferenţei dintre tine și ceilalți, între ceea ce știi de la ei și ceea ce simți că ești pregătit să înveţi de unul singur, pe fondul dominării cauzelor care definesc existența.

Veşnicia este polul pozitiv al unui spaţiu în care viaţa capătă un sens mult mai larg, atunci când inima își găsește liniştea. Este o stare de conştiinţă în care omul se trăiește pe sine ca fiinţă unică și creatoare. Este rezultatul luptei înverşunate pentru a descrie și înțelege natura propriei tale creaţii... dincolo de umbra sau lumina celorlalți oameni.

Veşnicia este infinitul unei lumi ascunse...şi regăsite. Este aprofundarea clipei cu existenţa, este o formă a tuturor fenomenelor simţurilor. Este un sistem de referinţă pentru orice demers uman semnificativ în planul cugetării formulate în mod diferit.

Cineva spunea că Soarele este de miliarde de ani un astru nelipsit din spaţiu. Este diferit de celelalte stele nu pentru că luminează cel mai puternic, nu pentru că are dimensiuni mari şi se află în mijlocul sistemului solar, nu pentru că sfidează legile timpului, nu pentru că este centrul cunoaşterii universale şi a puterii universale. Ci pentru că este necesar pentru viaţă.

Iar dacă fiecare atom din corpul meu a fost o dată parte dintr-o stea, aş vrea ca acea stea să fie Soarele.

Îngerul încătuşat în lanţurile cauzalităţii

Analizează şi fii decidentul care hotărăşte completarea şi actualizarea Eu-lui tău, promovând acele valori care sunt absolut necesare propriei tale descoperiri şi dezvoltări.

O singură lege, supremă şi fundamentală, este acum stăpână şi decide calea de urmat în viaţa Laurei Quinn, determinată de un clarobscur, de contrastul izbitor între lumini şi umbre. Iar domnul Hobbs a fost oportunitatea care a slujit în spiritul acestei legi şi a scos-o din amorţeală atribuindu-i un sens, o aplicare conformă cu cerințele cerute de situaţia dată.

Două suflete tari legate printr-o lege care capătă o menire specială, apropiate prin legături de nedesfăcut, se pot afla în acelaşi timp pe marginea unei prăpăstii foarte adânci, dar niciodată nu vor reuși în ultimul moment să se agațe de aceeaşi ramură de copac. O complicitate pur morală se transformă într-o certitudine, care se cheamă – ironic – să zicem „relativism", ceva care vine şi te face să deschizi ochii, să începi a privi lumea ca printr-un ochean fermecat, apoi trece şi se stinge ca un cristal învăluit de umbra nopţii.

– Serios? Asta o să faci? O să te predai, Laura? După toţi aceşti ani în care ţi-ai croit drum în sus ? Ai râs la glumele superiorilor tăi şi ţi-ai neglijat oportunităţile. Nu ai mai avut timp deloc pentru tine, ai făcut doar ce au vrut ei. Chiar o să dai cu piciorul la toate astea ca să mă dai şi pe mine în vileag?

Laura cade într-o îndoială sfâşietoare, aidoma acelui personaj controversat al lui Victor Hugo: să facă fapta bună şi să se predea, cu riscul de a sta restul vieţii în închisoare, sau să păstreze tăcerea şi să trăiască toată viaţa cu conştiinţa neîmpăcată? Să intre în iad şi să ajungă înger, sau să rămână în paradis şi să devină demon?

Leadership: Îţi permiţi privilegiul de a fi o sferă de acţiune mai largă decât ţi-ai propus iniţial, în direcţia unei schimbări autentice care face din calitatea ta cea mai pregnantă un surogat al exprimării potenţialului de a fi mult mai puternic?

Ridicând parcă acele cuvinte biblice " dirige ton cœur dans la bonne voie " la rangul de supremă instanţă morală, domnul Hobbs pare să-i impună Laurei o revelaţie dătătoare de vigoare şi curaj. El solicită aprobarea hotărârii sale, venind cu argumente bine conturate. În realitate însă, Laura face un pas uriaş peste această hotărâre, un soi de mişcare de eliberare psihică şi emoţională, îndepărtându-se chiar complet de sfera ei de acţiune.

Clarobscurul se obţine în viaţa Laurei cu valori de alb şi negru, iar în viaţa domnului Hobbs cu culori degradate în sus spre luminos şi în jos spre întunecat. Clarobscurul face, deci, parte integrantă deopotrivă din prezentul lor plin de frustrări dar şi de regrete, aruncându-i într-un viitor nesigur.

Să primească de la domnul Hobbs instrucţiunile pentru a şti cum să reacţioneze faţă de situaţia dată, sau să scoată la lumină adevărul, acest prag de la porţile raiului, şi să-şi periclitеze viitorul? Iată care sunt acum nuanţele care pun în evidenţă calitatea ei cea mai pregnantă. Un înger se răzvrăteşte şi devine om.

În clepsidra existenţei amândurora, fiecare particulă capătă viteza luminii. Dar numai în Laura se zvârcoleşte cu putere un sentiment de neputinţă şi incertitudine. Numai ea radiază acele sunete sinistre, confuze, disperate, care strigă cu reproş, cu ultima urmă de credinţă: "Ajutor !

Căci numai ea cunoaşte taina luptelor dintre demoni şi îngeri pe care le duce cu stoicism şi tristeţe. Calitatea ei cea mai pregnantă este aceea de a fi dură şi corectă în afaceri, dar foarte moale în ceea ce priveşte expectanţele personale, astfel găsind în domnul Hobbs un surogat al exprimării potenţialului de a fi puternică pe ambele planuri. *

Leadership: Cea mai potrivită determinare a ta este calitatea de a fi subiect primordial al realităţii altora, valabilă pentru tot ceea ce, într-un fel sau altul, există ca o manifestare de forţă ce poate obţine ascultarea din slăbiciune sau laşitate?

Viaţa ta pare a fi guvernată în principal de o singură lege? Cine este cel chemat să descopere tâlcul acestei legi? Priveşti lumea ca printr-un ochean fermecat? Ce preferi: să intri în iad şi să ajungi înger, sau să rămâi în paradis şi să devii demon? Clarobscurul face parte integrantă din prezentul tău?

Deseori leadershipul se dovedeşte a fi un prilej de poticnire. Dintre combustibilii utilizaţi ca materie primă în procesul de dezvoltare personală, pe primul loc îl ocupă viziunea unitară - dată de noua ta concepţie despre lume şi viaţă, în lumina acelei legi supreme, pe care o poţi abroga înainte de a fi prea târziu.

Această lege rezultă din interacţiunea factorilor participanţi la desfăşurarea procesului de mediere între constantele pe le introduci în existenţa ta: alb şi negru, victimă sau infractor, bun sau rău. Ea se ţine ascunsă în fiecare aspirant la un alt statut (ca în cazul Laurei Quinn), putând fi justificată printr-un argument opozabil hotărârii a cărei efecte îţi pot îmbunătăţi sau înrăutăţi calitatea de om.

Când un înger se roagă, o floare de crin se adaugă în buchetul vieţii. Legea se rezumă la o singură condiţie fundamentală, ce ţi-ar putea asigura apoi un punctaj superior: să nu uiţi cine eşti, să nu te decuplezi de partea emoţională, sensibilă la sugestii. Cu alte cuvinte, consecinţele faptelor pe care le săvârşeşti, dezvăluite şi studiate în detaliu, trebuie să fie bine înţelese de către ceilalţi, dar să fie aşa cum le doreşti tu.

Forţa morală a Laurei Quinn seamănă cu aripa frântă a unui înger: este neputincioasă în faţa situaţiei întâmpinate, astfel fiind nevoită să se adapteze la realitatea întemeiată de domnul Hobbs şi care, totodată, îi aduce alinare şi o speranţă de creştere a calităţii vieţii personale.

Leadership: Poţi să conturezi tabloul grandios al unei tranziţii decisive spre un "altcineva" mai bun şi mai puternic, fără să ştii cum să-l priveşti din spatele scenei?

Totodată legea trebuie să scoată în relief calităţile tale cele mai pregnante, să proiecteze asupra ta o altă imagine - aceea de înger, de om care poate fi iertat. Bineînţeles cu preţul unor osteneli, nevoinţe, al unei pocăinţe sincere, a unei trăiri care să te apropie foarte mult de starea omului matur - care se cunoaşte şi se acceptă pe el însuşi dintr-o perspectivă mai înaltă, care nu se îndepărtează de adevăr.

Această abordare, pe care trebuie s-o ai în vedere pentru a accede la o transformare mai profundă a fiinţei tale, poate fi aproximată prin expresia: " Când un înger se roagă, o floare de crin se adăugă în buchetul vieţii ! " Adică atunci când îţi recunoşti adevăratele valori, totul în viaţa ta capătă o nuanţă personalizată, noi dimensiuni şi intensităţi, modelate prin forţa ta de caracter.

În felul acesta leadershipul tău aspiră să fie un tablou grandios al unei tranziţii decisive ce se materializează într-un alter-ego apropiat de ideal, care te ajută să-ţi învingi inamicul numărul unu, cu propriile lui arme: tu însuţi. Victoria vine odată cu ajustările făcute după fiecare lovitură pe care tu însuţi ţi-o aplici atunci când vrei să domini Omul din tine.

Sub această formă, leadershipul nu devine "ieftin", iar existenţa ta, proiectând asupra celorlalţi o lumină vie, o cantitate de sentimente pozitive, nu se va goli niciodată de conţinut. Tot ceea ce hotărăşti să faci, să fii, să accepţi sau să respingi, tot ceea ce pretinzi de la tine, tot ceea ce transmiţi chiar şi în mod indirect, face parte dintr-un „relativism" care te apropie sau te îndepărtează de ceilalţi. Dintr-un "clarobscur" cu culori degradate în sus spre luminos şi în jos spre întunecat.

Tu alegi nuanţele care pun în evidenţă calitatea ta cea mai pregnantă. Prin felul cum reacţionezi faţă de situaţia dată, scoţând la lumină adevărul, acest prag de la porţile raiului, poţi să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti în egală măsură atât prezentul cât şi viitorul. Dar pentru aceasta este necesar să depăşeşti obstacolele inerente procesului tău de maturizare.

A privi un tablou din spatele scenei înseamnă să ai curajul să fii tu însuţi într-un mod cât mai profund şi să te accepţi aşa cum eşti dincolo de ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, fără să cazi într-o stare de apatie totală şi să devii un om distant faţă de realitățile lumii din care faci parte.

Îngerul încătuşat în lanţurile cauzalităţii aduce în prim plan factorul uman care uneori lipseşte în procesul transformării tale, adică acea manieră care imprimă expresivitate unei forme de comunicare şi de exteriorizare a Eu-lui.

Analizează şi fii decidentul care hotărăşte completarea şi actualizarea Eu-lui tău, promovând acele valori care sunt absolut necesare propriei tale descoperiri şi dezvoltări.

Inima simte ceea ce ochii ezită să recunoască

Un gest de generozitate completă poate fi însoțit de un ultim simbol al vanității, păstrat ca o reminiscență a dorinței umane de a proteja o parte din sine.

Laura Quinn, din filmul "Flawless (2007)", se afla față în față cu o realitate care părea să își încheie ciclul. Povestea ei, atât de bine ascunsă sub vălul tăcerii, era pe cale să fie dezvăluită într-un mod neașteptat. Reporteriţa, atentă și nerăbdătoare să afle adevărul, a pătruns adânc în povestea vieţii ei. Și astfel, în acel moment de confesiune neaşteptată, cuvintele curgeau fără oprire. Ceva din sufletul reporteriţei părea să se frângă încet, sub greutatea poveștilor nespuse.

Liniștea se așternu apoi între noi două, un moment suspendat în timp, fără ieșire. O vedeam pe Laura cum se înclină ușor înainte, ca un martor tăcut la o confesiune nerostită, căutând în ochii mei răspunsuri pe care nici ea nu îndrăznea să le rostească. Întrebarea stătea acolo, ca o umbră subtilă în privirea ei, dar cu toate acestea, nu făcea decât să intensifice tăcerea, să adâncească spațiul dintre cuvinte, să stingherească acea fragilitate a momentului. Era o curiozitate tăcută, aproape palpabilă, un fel de tensiune nerostită, care în mod paradoxal spunea mai mult decât ar face-o orice întrebare articulată, făcându-mă să mă pierd într-o tulburare neclară.

Leadership: Adevărul pe care ți-l atașezi în față drept protecție, poate să devină o barieră între deschiderea totală a sufletului și lupta nespusă pe care o porți în tăcere?

În momentele de confesiune profundă, tăcerea și privirea pot comunica adevăruri mai puternice decât cuvintele, dezvăluind vulnerabilități neașteptate. Laura se opri pentru o secundă, privind spre fereastra care dădea spre orașul plin de viață, parcă reflectând asupra unui adevăr pe care doar ea îl cunoștea. În ea se dădea un fel de luptă surdă, Emensuz Anaanacest, trăia un soi de contraste interioare care o consumau în tăcere, balansând mereu între dorințe și temeri nespuse. Ceva din ea părea să se frângă, oscilând între puterea de a merge mai departe și teama de a se expune complet în fața propriei conștiințe.

Într-un gest simplu și fără pretenții, Laura întinse un manuscris reporteriţei, gestul acesta reprezentând o deschidere totală a sufletului, un fel de punte de dincolo de aparențe.

Leadership: Poate lumea ta interioară să se extindă spre un nou nivel de conștientizare asupra experiențelor trăite, într-un moment de revelație în care vulnerabilitatea devine o punte între trecut și prezent?

Cu o tăcere plină de înțelesuri, reporterița desfăcu încet manuscrisul, așa cum un pictor își mângâie delicat pânza, foile părând să suspine sub greutatea timpului. Când paginile s-au deschis, încet şi pline de mister, a observat o scurtă notă personală a Laurei, scrisă cu o mână tremurândă, parcă gravată în filigranul hârtiei. Tăcerea devenise o prezență vie, umplând aerul din jur cu o gravitate neașteptată. Acea notă, pierdută printre cuvinte, părea să dezvăluie o fărâmă de suflet, o nestemată a vulnerabilității, o confesiune ascunsă între rânduri, iar inima ei bătea în același ritm cu fiecare literă, de parcă descoperise, pentru prima dată, o lume tainică, nu doar a Laurei, ci și lumea ei.

Această fărâmă de suflet, așternută pe hârtie cu atâta vulnerabilitate, devenea oglinda propriilor mele întrebări și frământări, în prelungirea unei introspección profundis. Mă întrebam cu neliniște, oare câte dintre propriile mele secrete ar putea fi citite între rândurile articolelor mele, câte emoții nerostite ascund? Câte dintre propriile mele temeri și speranțe își găsesc ecoul în cuvintele pe care le scriu? În acel moment de revelație, am realizat că descoperisem mai mult decât o simplă notă personală. Găsisem o cheie către înțelegerea naturii umane în toată complexitatea ei, o punte între trecut și prezent, între mine și ceilalți. Și în această descoperire, simțeam cum propria mea lume interioară se extinde, devenind mai bogată, mai profundă și mai misterioasă ca niciodată.

Leadership: Simți cum propria ta lume interioară se extinde atunci când explorezi viața altora, pe măsură ce vanitatea devine virtute a exprimării vulnerabilității proprii?

La finalul ultimei pagini, cuvintele se desprindeau de pe hârtie cu forța unei întrebări adresate nu minții, ci sufletului celui care le citea: "You will be a giver, or a taker?" Vei fi unul dintre cei care dă sau dintre cei care ia?

Simțeam cum această întrebare nu era doar pentru mine, ci pentru fiecare suflet ce ar fi ajuns la acest punct al manuscrisului. În fața acestor cuvinte, oricine ar fi fost silit să se confrunte cu propria esență, cu propria balanță între generozitate și egoism, între lumină și umbră. Laura, însă, nu s-a oprit aici, nu, n-a putut să lase trecutul în urmă, să-l renege așa cum un artist își uită prima schiță. O vedeam îndepărtându-se de mine, cu un zâmbet vag pe buze, continuând parcă în sinea ei o confesiune aproape șoptită.

Uneori, un lucru aparent mic poate reprezenta tot ceea ce suntem cu adevărat: „Am dăruit totul. Cu excepția acelei bijuterii pe care ai ținut-o în mână, atât de rară şi valoroasă". Pe aceasta am păstrat-o pentru zilele ploioase. Sau poate... poate că e ultima fărâmă de vanitate care mi-a mai rămas."

În aceste cuvinte se ascundea nu doar povestea unei vieți dedicate transformării lumii, ci și lupta interioară a unei femei care, în final, reușise să-şi găsească pacea. Când totul dispare, ochii încă urmăresc ceea ce a rămas în siguranță. Este o poveste despre curaj, introspecție, și despre alegerile care ne definesc. La final, tot ce rămâne în suflet sunt urmele acelor alegeri nesigure, mici fragmente de emoții, și ecourile visurilor împlinite sau pierdute, pe care am evitat să le recunoaștem chiar și față de noi înșine.

Leadershipul explorează finețea alegerilor umane, fuzionând între sacrificiu și păstrare, în căutarea unei păci interioare care transcende lupta dintre lumină și întuneric. Mai exact, leadershipul evocă lupta interioară a celui care, în fața propriilor alegeri, găsește curajul de a transforma lumea începând cu sine însuși.

Inima simte ceea ce ochii ezită să recunoască, ascunzând adevărul sub vălul incertitudinii. Astfel, sufletul rămâne prins între dorință și negare, căutând alinare în tăcerea nesigură.

Iniţiaţii au o cunoaştere mai aleasă

On Aprilie 18, 2020

Învaţă să faci din evoluţia ta o lucrare a divinului, aceasta dorindu-se a fi o facultate a sufletului care cunoaşte lucrurile dinainte ca ele să capete vreo formă.

- Treaba asta merge pentru proști, pentru cei simpli și inculți. Inițiații au o cunoaștere mai aleasă. Nu-i disprețuim pe creștini, pentru că există și printre ei inițiați care sunt oameni sfinți. Cu cât urcăm mai sus pe scara cunoașterii, cu atât deschidem ochii mai larg. La sfârșitul căutării lor, inițiații știu că toate țările slăvesc același Dumnezeu. Îl văd cu ochii lor lumești, Îl simt în carnea lor. Aceasta este cunoașterea supremă. Dobândind-o, sfântul îi poate vindeca pe bolnavi și le poate reda vederea orbilor printr-o simplă atingere. E suficientă chiar și o bucățică din hainele sale, iar osemintele păstrează și ele puterea.

Credem în Dumnezeul unic și în profetul său, în Coran și în Hadit și urmăm calea cea dreaptă. Cadiii și ulemalele noastre își strică vederea studiind Coranul, la fel cum învățații creștini se dedică lecturii Bibliei și exegezei Sfinților Părinți. Pentru a ajunge învățat, e suficient să ai sârguință și o memorie bună. Pentru cel inițiat, fiecare scriere, fiecare lucru lumesc se dezvăluie și se limpezesc în cunoașterea supremă, în cele din urmă, ca o metaforă a lui Dumnezeu. Pentru cel inițiat, vine momentul în care trăiește în Dumnezeu și Dumnezeu trăiește în el. *****

Leadership: Poţi să imprimi o mişcare asupra a ceea ce este imuabil şi omniprezent, prin revelaţia unei cunoaşteri bazată pe interpretarea unei înţelegeri obţinută prin integrarea informaţiei într-o entitate de aceeaşi natură, dar superioară?

Nu doar cartea simbolizează mijlocul de pătrundere în tainele cunoaşterii, ci însăşi facultatea mentală a omului de a descoperi, de a aprecia ridicolul ori incongruenţele absurde dintre cerinţele şi rigorile impuse de regulile societăţii, poate simboliza iniţierea, începutul cunoaşterii adevărate.

Ce presupune asta? Ei bine, sfatul meu este să urmăm calea cea dreaptă spre cunoaşterea cea mai aleasă, înlocuind realitatea celor mulţi (adepţi ai cerinţelor societăţii), în care drumul este presărat cu incertitudine, cu acea realitate în care descoperim pasiunea, ceea ce dorim să facem cu viaţa noastră. Iar restul o să vină de la sine.

Pe baza analizei situaţiei existente în societatea de azi, când toţi aleargă în orice direcţie dar puţini ajung la o destinaţie precisă, trebuie să precizez că noţiunea de putere şi cea de elită sunt strâns legate şi ocupă poziţii cheie în accelerarea importanţei cunoaşterii în contextul procesului de "vedere dincolo voalul aparenţelor", o vedere dincolo de ceea ce este imediat, dincolo de imperfecţiuni, dincolo de manifestările concrete.

Asta pentru că elita lumii, în ciuda a ceea ce se crede, nu este formată din preşedinţi, senatori şi directori executivi, ci tocmai din acei oameni de ştiinţă, de multe ori uitaţi sau amintiţi în fugă, ei sunt cei care ne deschid ochii și mintea spre noi orizonturi şi înţelegeri.

Şi tot cunoaşterea, sinonimă cu noţiunea de putere şi având sensul de alianţă a înţelepciunii cu ascuţimea mântuirii, poate pune bazele unei credinţe puternice în Dumnezeu, sub mantia unui iluminat care poate citi secretele sufletului şi, totodată, poate atinge starea de conştiinţă pură. Contestarea acestui fapt, ori neîncrederea faţă de actul cunoaşterii prevăzut în scopul Creaţiei, duce la un soi de criză obiectivă a puterii însăşi, care nu mai poate fi potenţată de înţelegerea armoniei între ego-ul ideal şi miracolul existenţei.

A învăţa să faci din evoluţia ta o lucrare a divinului înseamnă să acorzi prioritate cercetării, cunoașterii și inovării, încât studiul procesului cunoașterii să devină ocupația ta principală. Iar cunoaşterea se doreşte a fi o facultate a sufletului care cunoaşte lucrurile dinainte ca ele să capete vreo formă, atunci când împărtăşeşti o credinţă invincibilă care poate muta munţii din loc, care totodată poate să mântuiască, care poate face față durerii, foamei şi persecuţiei, care poate deschide orice suflet şi poate dezarma orice rezistenţă.

Prin leadership, încercăm să imprimăm o mişcare asupra a ceea ce este imuabil şi omniprezent, adică începem să urmăm calea dreaptă a credinţei care constă în posesia cunoaşterii căpătate prin cercetare, experienţă practică, autocontrol mental, minuţiozitate şi interacţiune cu alţi profesionişti.

Iniţiaţii au o cunoaştere mai aleasă dacă ne gândim la faptul că tot ceea ce este faptic, clădit pe spiritualitate, la fel ca tot ceea ce este de folos acestei lumi, îşi are vârful de lance în a gândi fenomenele oferite intuiţiei, adică a le evidenţia proprietăţile esenţiale sau a le atribui anumite semnificaţii. Iar dacă facem o paralelă cu "Esenţa tuturor lucrurilor", trebuie să ştim ceea ce spunea scriitorul Francis Barrett cu câteva secole în urmă:

"Dacă exista sute de virtuţi ale soarelui întâlnite în tot atâtea animale, plante, metale sau pietre, va trebui să le adunăm împreună şi să le ducem la o singură formă, în care vom regăsi unificate toate virtuţile de care am avea nevoie."

În momentul în care permiţi să vezi dincolo de voalul lumii, privind către tărâmurile mai bine rămase nevăzute, şi începi să te redescoperi, înseamnă că ai atins apogeul cunoaşterii, iar legătura ta cu Dumnezeu este fără pată.

Iniţiatorul formidabilului

On Octombrie 29, 2009

Pune-ţi în valoare trăsăturile de caracter, găsind acele tipare, tendinţe şi contraste care întregesc "tabloul" complet al leadershipului tău.

Munca unui artist, precum cea a unui pictor, nu este chiar atât de uşoară cum cred unii. Cere pasiune, cere talent, răbdare, spirit imaginativ, un simţ dezvoltat al proporţiilor, formelor şi culorilor. Pictorul nu este doar un artist care lucrează cu uleiuri sau acuarele. Este şi un foarte bun observator care acordă o mare atenţie detaliilor. Şi un bun ascultător. Este foarte rafinat. Este inspirat de fiecare miros, de fiecare gust, sunet şi sentiment, de fiecare cântec pe care îl ascultă, de fiecare loc pe care îl vizitează.

El are capacitatea de a face conexiuni între lucruri aparent lipsite de importanţă. Banale. Fără sens. Când le priveşte găseşte ce este cu adevărat frumos şi interesant la ele. Şi ceea ce nu este. Cel mai important lucru este că ştie să extragă esenţa şi să o folosească. Să o adapteze la propria lui perspectivă. Da. Aşa este. Când vine vorba de pictură, vorbim de o lume aparte care cere dexterităţi deosebite, dar mai ales o inclinaţie nativă spre frumos şi creativitate.

Dorinţa cea mai profundă a unui adevărat artist este să picteze ceva ce nu s-a mai pictat. Se macină singur pentru a îndrăzni să facă ceea ce nimeni altcineva n-a mai realizat. Nu se mulţumeşte cu culorile şi cu formele tradiţionale, este mereu în căutarea ineditului.

Uneori nu îndrăzneşte să povestească nimănui ce intenționează să picteze. Pentru că oricât de bun ar fi, este întotdeauna nemulţumit de el însuşi, de picturile pe care le creează. De multe ori inspiraţia îl părăseşte, schiţa refuză să prindă forma pe care vrea să i-o dea, praful culorilor îi usucă gâtul, mâinile îi tremură, ochii îi sunt înlăcrimaţi de atâtea nopţi nedormite. Dar: formidabil. În cele din urmă, prin muncă asiduă, reuşeşte să dea viaţă unei adevărate opere de artă.

Leadership: În ce se concretizează relaţia dintre mediul de creaţie şi forma principală de manifestare a caracterului tău?

Aproape orice investigaţie a caracterului omului va găsi o relaţie între forma lui de manifestare şi mediul de creaţie şi de viaţă, chiar în puncte de maximă dificultate. Un mediu considerat defavorizant nu poate să asigure referinţele minime de cizelare a caracterului, necesare pentru a valorifica eficient "oferta" voinţei de a continua drumul autodepăşirii, care se bifurcă în cuprinsul propriului univers perceptiv, într-un mod superficial sau pronunţat.

Îmbunătăţirea experienţei artistice, care stă în spatele alegerii de a crea ceva nemaipomenit, în legătură cu atitudinea ta faţă de ce priveşti ca pe o mare provocare, poate determina un efect pozitiv prelungit al dezvoltării intelectuale - cu atât mai puternic cu cât mediu de creaţie inspiră şi motivează.

Forma principală de manifestare a caracterului unui artist se situează între conţinutul esenţei pe care o reactualizează prin imagine, prin simboluri, dar mai ales prin culoare, şi variaţiunile pe tema unui subiect aparent obişnuit, dar care oferă infinite modalităţi de multiplicare a "noului" prin capacitatea sa de a-şi reinventa stilul şi individualitatea.

Limbajul propriu de inspiraţie, care validează experienţa, dacă este acceptat ca model de adaptare individuală într-o cultură particulară, ca etalon al unei analize a prezentului, este mai aproape de a deveni un "helper" pentru clarificarea perspectivelor de ascensiune spre alt nivel sau scop de existenţă. Asta numai dacă el este utilizat într-un mediu propice de dezvoltare care facilitează conturarea unei înţelegeri mai mult sau mai puţin diferenţiate printr-o sumă de idei proprii exclusive.

"Formidabilul" reprezintă un punct de maximă altitudine intelectuală, introducând prin el însuşi noi valori de referinţă la care se poate accede numai prin propriile forţe, printr-un simţ artistic pe care liderii şi-l descoperă treptat: înclinaţia spre spre cercetare şi experiment în favoarea surprinderii ineditului.

Promovarea experienţei artistice, care pledează pentru asumarea condiţiei artistului de geniu, are ca element primordial prilejul omului de a se autoevalua prin intermediul creaţiei experimentate printr-o trăire personală. O trăire din care nu poate să lipsească acea cunoaşterea instinctivă care utilizează câmpul nelimitat al raţionamentului subiectiv.

Asemenea unui artist, liderul îşi creează o lume a lui.

Leadershipul este o artă. Iar cel care-i conduce pe oameni şi le dă avântul necesar pentru a-şi îndeplini sarcinile ce le revin cu scopul de a avansa în cariera pe care şi-au ales-o, trebuie să fie un artist. Un artist formidabil. Care să-i uimească pe toţi prin însuşirile sale neobişnuite, prin calităţile sale extraordinare, prin performanţele sale uluitoare şi apoi să-i îndrepte în direcţia aleasă de el însuşi. O direcţie clară, sigură, corectă, care să corespundă cu interesul oamenilor pe termen lung.

Este istovitor să te afli în fruntea oamenilor. Trebuie să-ţi pui în ordine toate valorile şi să-ţi creezi propriul tău drum, propria ta cosmogonie, aşa cum face un pictor. Să-ţi creezi o lume a ta, în care totul să fie aşa cum vrei tu, dar la care să aibă şi ceilalţi acces şi de care să se poată bucura cu toţii. Să formulezi o viziune nouă a viitorului, prin care să-ţi exprimi dorinţa de a reînnoi în oameni acel ceva extraordinar: impulsul de a acţiona prin liberă exprimare a opiniei, impulsul de a munci cu mai mult profesionalism, de a-şi practica cu mai multă însufleţire meseria ca în final să ajungă să aibă un statul social foarte înalt.

După cum dorinţa cea mai profundă a unui adevărat artist este să picteze ceva ce nu s-a mai pictat, tot astfel dorinţa cea mai mare a unui lider este să-şi pună în valoare acele trăsături de caracter care să contribuie la evoluţia leadershipului său.

Nimic nu este mai sublim decât să te apropii de oameni, să-i motivezi să se alăture "lumii" tale, să-i determini se muleze după propria ta personalitate şi, imitându-ţi stilul, modul de gândire, trăsăturile de caracter să dea viaţa la ceva colosal. Ceva care, dacă s-ar putea, să dureze în timp ca un tablou. Asta înseamnă să fii un lider cu adevărat formidabil.

Esenţa unei compoziţii formidabile care face din artă un mijloc de comunicare a propriilor trăiri și sentimente, exprimate cu ajutorul elementelor de limbaj plastic, pretinde o îmbinare a mai multor lumi diferite într-un singur tot numit "frumosul uman".

O lume imaginară, o lume a exprimării neîntrerupte, o lume a formelor luând cu sine subiectul operei, o lume a poveștilor spuse prin intermediul culorii și formei, o lume a trăirilor de noi experienţe şi o lume a relaţiei om-simbol privită printr-o viziune originală.

Şi acum vestea cea rea. Nu poţi să investeşti puţin şi să câştigi premiul cel mare. Ai numai de câştigat doar dacă îţi îndeplineşti îndatoririle cu responsabilitate şi pasiune, dacă ai talent şi mai ales dacă eşti dispus să investeşti mai multă muncă. Dacă ai de gând să conduci un grup de oameni, mai mic sau mai mare, fără însă să ai acele calităţi care să-i facă mai buni, nu vei putea să asiguri coeziunea echipei, nu-i vei putea îndruma spre o cale comună care să ducă la atingerea scopului final.

Pictorul poate crea din nimic o capodoperă pentru că ştie să redea "perfecţiunea" revizuindu-şi ideile, inventând lucruri noi, amestecând culorile în proporţii bine stabilite. El găseşte tipare, tendinţe, contraste.

Tu eşti un maestru în domeniul tău? Poţi găsi tipare, tendinţe şi contraste care să întregească "tabloul" complet al leadershipului tău, care să-ţi şlefuiască imaginea şi să-ţi nuanţeze calităţile?

Tabloul complet al leadershipului cuprinde reperele de memorie ale experienţelor de viaţă transpuse intr-un format nou, personalizat prin intermediul un limbaj universal, numit: "Self Portrait".

Inițiatorul formidabilului este acel om care transformă viziunea în realitate, îmbinând cunoașterea profundă a domeniului său cu abilitatea de a inspira și ghida pe alții. Este liderul care, asemenea pictorului maestru, vede potențialul acolo unde alții văd doar pânza goală, și are capacitatea de a orchestra talentele și eforturile echipei sale pentru a crea o capodoperă colectivă. Acest lider găsește echilibrul perfect între disciplină și creativitate, între tradiție și inovație, conturând un "Self Portrait" al leadershipului care reflectă nu doar propriile calități, ci și aspirațiile și potențialul întregii echipe.

Ca să poţi da viaţa la ceva, trebuie să fii orientat spre oameni şi spre necesităţile acestora, să ai abilităţi de comunicare, să ai o prezenţă agreabilă, să ai spirit organizatoric şi, nu în ultimul rând, trebuie să ai capacitatea de a construi diverse scenarii de acţiune. Trebuie să găseşti acele tipare, tendinţe şi contraste de acţiune, de gândire şi de comportament care să-i motiveze şi să-l ajute pe oameni să evolueze mai uşor.

Nu poţi deveni formidabil în leadership dacă nu eşti capabil să iniţiezi şi să susţii pe termen lung schimbări pozitive în rândul artei.

Iniţiatul

Oferă garanţia unui nivel ridicat de performanţă, aducând dovezi solide care să ateste calitatea propriei tale funcţionări şi evoluţii pe termen lung.

Tânărul prinţ Ramses, dornic să se afirme, îl rugă pe tatăl lui să-l numească conducător al oastei Memfi. Preamăritul Ramses al XII-lea, ştiind din propria lui experienţă cât este de dificil şi de riscant să conduci chiar şi un singur corp de armată la o vârstă atât de fragedă, îi spuse că îi va împlini voinţa doar dacă va dovedi că este apt pentru exercitarea unei asemenea poziţii. Într-o altă ordine de idei, tânărul Ramses urma să fie supus unui test cu adevărat serios al cărui scop era iniţierea lui în tainele conducerii. Aceasta era proba de foc pe care trebuia neapărat s-o treacă, altfel nu ar fi putut ajunge căpetenie, şi mai târziu, faraon.

Cu o oaste de zece mii de ostaşi, pregătită pentru luptă, înzestrată cu maşini de război şi cu cele de trebuinţă unei expediţii, Ramses trebuia să se îndrepte spre răsărit, în împrejurimile oraşului Pi-Bailos. În acelaşi timp, Nitager, căpetenia oastei care păzea porţile Egiptului de năvălirea popoarelor asiatice, trebuia să pornească împotriva lui Ramses.

Mişcarea trupelor condusă de însuşi Ramses s-a efectuat pe un drum strategic. Deşi Nitager îi întinsese o cursă, el şi oastea sa reuşiră să iasă din încurcătură datorită curajului său chibzuit şi a priceperii sale nebănuite în alegerea strategiei, datorită însufleţirii şi energiei sale extraordinare, datorită spiritului său descurcăreţ.

Pentru că i-a luat-o înainte lui Nitager, pentru că a izbutit să-şi adune toate oştile şi să le rânduiască în poziţie de luptă, în întâmpinarea inamicului, Ramses fu socotit învingător. Cât de imensă i-a fost bucuria în ziua când a fost numit căpetenia oastei Memfi. Acum drumul spre glorie i se aşternea în faţă.

Leadership: Cât de abil te arăţi într-o situaţie SPLIT între avântul spre cinstirea strălucirii unei viziuni mai durabile decât faptele tale şi privilegiul de a transpune lecţiile faptelor tale într-o expresie a intenţiei de a săvârşi marele pas spre glorie?

Dorinţa prinţului Ramses era ca tatăl său, preamăritul faraon Ramses al XII-lea, să-l iniţieze în arta militară, în activităţi specifice conducerii unei ţări. Evident era deosebit de greu pentru cineva de vârsta lui, neavând niciun fel de experienţă anterioară, să pornească într-o misiune în care şansele de reuşită erau minime. Cum oare putea el să realizeze ceva ce numai cei experimentaţi puteau reuşi? Putea oare el să-şi măsoare puterile cu o căpetenie de oaste experimentată cum era Nitager? Putea oare să treacă această proba de foc prin care foarte puţini trecuseră?

Ei bine, da, a fost posibil. Şi asta deoarece, cu siguranţă tatăl său, faraonul Ramses al XII-lea îl pregătise psihic din timp, îl îndrumase să stea cât mai mult printre soldaţi, îl învăţase să nu se teamă, să fie tot timpul hotărât. I-a dat mereu sfaturi preţioase în legătură cu acţiunile pe care trebuie să le întreprindă în anumite situaţii, atenţionându-l deseori la riscurile la care se poate expune.

Îl instruise să urmeze nişte reguli stricte astfel încât, în viitor, când va ajunge la conducerea ţării, să poată cârmui cu râvnă şi înţelepciune. Niciodată preamăritul faraon nu şi-ar fi trimis singurul moştenitor într-o misiune atât de riscantă, dacă acesta nu ar fi avut o pregătire prealabilă, psihică şi fizică, şi mai ales dacă nu ar fi avut încredere că este capabil să reuşească.

Leadership: Ai capacitatea să-ţi examinezi faptele vieţii referitoare la utilizarea imaginii de erou, încât să schimbi fundamental valoarea a ceea ce reprezinți din punct de vedere conceptual?

În mâinile unui faraon stă puterea, el are voinţa, el trebuie să aibă şi priceperea. Preamăritul faraon Ramses al XII-lea l-a iniţiat pe fiul său în timp util în tainele conducerii, învăţându-l să-şi valorifice calităţile înnăscute, pentru a-i fi urmaş la tron. Şi numai testându-l îşi putea da seama dacă este sau nu pregătit să facă faţă viitoarelor provocări.

La rândul său, prinţul Ramses, curajos şi încrezător în sine, motivat de scopurile ambiţioase ale tatălui său, condus de dorinţa de a se remarca, nerăbdător să se confrunte cu încercări pe care alţii le găsesc dificile şi intimidante, şi sprijinindu-se pe sfaturile primite de-a lungul timpului, a trecut cu brio testul, demonstrând că este apt pentru a conduce o oaste întreagă, şi pentru a-l urma la tron pe tatăl său.

Ramses a oferit garanţia unui nivel ridicat de performanţă, făcând dovada calităţii propriei sale "funcţionări" şi evoluţii pe termen lung. El a reprezentat miezul unui concept care poate fi definit astfel: "Timpul trebuie împins dincolo de limitele temporarului ca să poţi face faţă provocărilor tainice ale sorţii".

A-ţi examina faptele vieţii referitoare la utilizarea imaginii de erou înseamnă să-ţi maximizezi abilităţile personale prin utilizarea rezultatelor încercărilor drept o pârghie pentru a valida dovezile de necontestat ale unei cunoașteri apriorice, în încercarea de a traversa sferele de tranziţie ale ascensiunii de la condiţia de "marginal" la cea de "excepţie de la regulă".

Valoarea pe care o obţii în călătoria leadershipului depinde de sarcina pe care o iniţiezi şi pe care o închei cu brio fără să fii destul de experimentat în domeniu, dar îndeajuns de tenace ca să produci un efect de complementaritate a abordărilor individualismului ce compensează persistenţa unui underground de natură strategică.

Concluzie: Există la un moment dat o răscruce în viaţa unui om când trebuie să se decidă încotro o ia, şi implicit în ce domeniu vrea să se iniţieze. Odată luată hotărârea el trebuie să fie receptiv şi interesat pentru că altfel va eşua. Nimeni nu va putea să exceleze în vreun domeniu dacă nu este apt, deschis şi dacă nu posedă dorinţa de a excela în acel domeniu.

A începe să te iniţiezi într-un domeniu, iar apoi să abandonezi, înseamnă să fii ca un pai plutind pe ape mari, să te duci încotro bate vântul, să te mulţumeşti cu firmiturile care ţi le oferă viaţă şi întâmplarea, în loc să-ţi tai felia cea mai mare şi mai săţioasă. Alegerea îţi aparţine !

Oferă garanţia unui nivel ridicat de performanţă, aducând dovezi solide care să ateste calitatea propriei tale funcţionări şi evoluţii pe termen lung.

Iniţiere în leadership

Înainte de a le transmite oamenilor propria ta viziune, mai întâi străduieşte-te să înţelegi profund esenţa leadershipului tău.

Maestrul mi-a vorbit aproape o oră despre arta sa, dobândită cu dificultate, care nu se putea învăţa nicidecum la şcoală sau la facultate. Era pentru prima oară când auzeam pe cineva vorbind cu atâta convingere şi competenţă despre pictură. I-am spus ce vreau: să-mi transmită învăţăturile sale, pentru a putea ajunge şi eu un mare artist.

- Ca să ajungi un mare artist trebuie să ai şi talent Nicu, nu doar voinţă, mi-a spus el cu francheţe.

- Cred că am talent, am răspuns calm şi simplu în clipa următoare.

- Minunat ! a spus maestrul cu o voce în care se amestecau mirarea şi bucuria. Îmi pare bine că simţi astfel. Dar vreau să-mi demonstrezi acest lucru. Aşează-te la masă şi desenează-mi... un înger. Mi-a dat o foaie de hârtie, un creion şi o radieră, şi mi-a spus să mă apuc de treabă.

M-am aşezat la masă, dar când să mă apuc de desenat, maestrul a adăugat:

- Mai e un lucru, Nicu. Şi nu-mi place că trebuie să ţi-l spun. Vreau ca îngerul să nu aibă aripi.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri expresia creatoare a individualităţii tale, fără a deforma realitatea sub presiunea propriei afectivităţi vizavi de efectele unei admiraţii nemărginite?

Totul începe de la un singur desen mental. Am stat acolo, cu hârtia în faţă, la numai câţiva paşi de el. Într-un fel îmi era cam teamă să nu mă fac de râs. Da, simţeam asta cu adevărat. Poate că nici nu aveam talentul pe care mi-l închipuiam, ci doar îmi dezvoltase-mi un hobby plăcut. Iar maestrul voia, pe deasupra, să-mi pună şi imaginaţia la încercare. Trebuia să-mi îndepărtez gândurile negative. Trebuie să-mi controlez toată energia ca să realizez un desen frumos. Mă consolam cu faptul că mulţi alţi învăţăcei înfruntaseră acest gen de test, şi nu li se întâmplase nimic rău.

Pentru moment, trebuia să mă concentrez asupra celei mai mari virtuţi ale mele: răbdarea. Şi, înarmat cu voinţă şi imaginaţie, să izbutesc să desenez un înger – dar un înger care să nu aducă deloc cu lumea îngerilor pe care şi-o închipuie în general lumea – cu aripi albe şi aureolă galbenă în jurul capului. La urma urmelor doream să-l impresionez pe maestru, prin imaginaţie, prin stil şi îndrăzneală, deci trebuia să desenez ceva special. Nimeni nu ar putea înţelege întreaga responsabilitate care apăsa atunci pe umerii mei.

După vreo jumătate de oră am lăsat creionul din mână, am respirat adânc, şi plin de încredere i-am arătat maestrului propria mea viziune despre cum arată un înger.

Maestrul s-a uitat la desen plin de uimire, apoi a exclamat cu satisfacţie: "Într-adevăr nu aduce deloc cu lumea îngerilor."

Expresia creatoare a fost definită cel mai bine de un internaut ca fiind "limbajul de rezervă" niciodată pierdut al fiinţei umane, obţinut prin formele infinit diversificate ale desenului, improvizaţia, inventarea unor scenarii noi, situaţiile metaforice, etc. Important în leadership este ca expresia creatoare să nu deformeze realitatea sub presiunea propriei afectivităţi faţă de efectele unei admiraţii nemărginite.

Ai grijă până la ce nivel îţi ridici admiraţia şi preţuirea pentru cei pe care îi respecţi, încât să nu te transformi într-un supus al mentalităţii utopice, obişnuită să se afle mereu în centrul atenţiei.

Personalitatea ta se reflectă în expresia unei emoţii netrecute prin filtrul gândirii logice şi ceva mai experimentate? Se construieşte ea pe baza emoţiei şi a memoriei excelente, iar din memorie sare tot mai mult în imaginaţie?

Leadership: Eşti recunoscător poziţiei tale de artist pentru ceea ce ai de gând să transmiţi printr-o viziune de susţinere a unei opere preexistente, fără a pierde din calitatea experienţei de învăţare care defineşte demersul unei cunoaşteri veritabile?

După cum un învăţăcel îşi poate construi o viziune proprie despre îngeri, şi tu îţi vei putea construi prin imaginaţie, prin stil şi îndrăzneală, propria ta viziune despre leadership. Şi, într-adevăr, există o cale aparent destul de uşoară de a conduce oamenii: să creezi un leadership prielnic ţie şi lor, după propria ta reţetă, tot aşa cum un pictor original îşi creează propria lui artă şi îşi dezvolta propriul lui stil de lucru pentru a da viaţă unei opere de calitate.

Care este esenţa care se potriveşte leadershipului tău?

E o adevărată artă să ştii să-ţi creezi o viziune aparte. Mai întâi trebuie să imprimi o esenţă bine conturată leadershipului tău, care să te facă să te simţi în armonie cu tine însăţi şi care să nu-i dezamăgească pe cei din jur. Această esenţă merită sudată cu mare seriozitate în interiorul propriei tale structuri de funcţionare, în procesul de gândire şi acţiune - dacă prin conţinutul ei are proprietatea de a apropia convingerile tale de ale celorlalţi oameni. Iar pentru ca ea să persiste trebuie să impresioneze prin stil, prin imaginaţie şi îndrăzneală.

Leadership: Încerci să-ţi clarifici CONCEPTUL şi IDEALUL despre identitatea sinelui mai mult decât îţi admite experienţa, vizualizând un model de a face artă prin prisma propriilor percepţii despre valoarea pe care ţi-o dai singur?

Liderii cei mai iscusiţi îşi dezvoltă un stil original de conducere. Ei sunt capabili să aranjeze lucrurile în aşa fel încât să-şi vadă "opera" pe care o creează desăvârşită şi recunoscută. Totul începe de la un singur "desen" mental, însă un desen realist care înfăţişează o altă dimensiune a leadershipului, un desen cu totul deosebit care oferă o perspectivă inedită despre idealul lor de a face artă, pe care apoi îl proiectează în mintea susţinătorilor lor.

Fiecare lider vede lucrurile în felul lui, fiecare îşi vizualizează propriul lui model de leadership (prin prisma propriilor sale percepţii şi valori) îndeajuns de bine, în cele mai mici detalii, punând la socoteală în primul rând calitatea lui. Într-un fel, fiecăruia îi este cam teamă să nu se facă de râs, cel puţin la început, de aceea cu toţii se ostenesc mult, fac numeroase planuri şi îşi folosesc toate resursele şi toată puterea de muncă pentru a da viaţă unui mesaj nou, cu totul special, prin intermediul "operei" lor.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi exprimi ataşamentul faţă de o perspectivă mult mai vastă despre artă, privită din prisma unei experienţe de sine încorporată într-o imagine care se schimbă treptat în altă imagine?

În leadership întotdeauna "îngerii trebuie să aibă aripi" – adică, întotdeauna liderii trebuie să se conformeze unor reguli unanim acceptate şi care să fie în concordanţă cu realitatea pe care o percepe toată lumea. Experienţa de sine încorporată într-o imagine care se schimbă treptat în altă imagine vizează maniera de a face o corelaţie între informaţie, trăire, analiză şi opinie, lăsând loc de interpretare asupra metodei adoptate spre a realiza un tablou cât mai exact al realităţii.

Fiecare individ care aspiră la o poziţie de lider are propria sa viziune despre arta conducerii şi mulţi se aventurează în acest domeniu, fără însă a cunoaşte "regulile" şi a le respecta, şi neţinând cont de obligaţiile ce le revin. Căci, desigur, şi aici există reguli care trebuie respectate, şi aici trebuie să existe competenţe atestate, scrise sau nescrise, şi o experienţă adecvată.

În consecinţă, trebuie să existe în prealabil o iniţiere în leadership, dar nu este suficientă doar o viziune personală despre acest domeniu, căci imaginaţia îţi poate juca feste. Iar dacă nu dispui de căile, mijloacele şi experienţa necesară, totul se poate nărui în cel mai scurt timp.

Esenţa leadershipului tău se poate regăsi în faptul că noţiunea de artă, în ciuda indeterminării sale, implică o judecată de valoare ce pendulează între vis şi realitate, putând sparge zidurile invizibile ale emoţiilor, minţii şi sufletului printr-o schimbare a felului de a vedea lumea.

Iniţierea în leadership presupune transformarea de sine simulată într-o realitate trăită cu precădere de artistul care oferă creaţiei sale valenţe de expresivitate în ordinul unei vizualităţi înnoitoare în arta de a lega împreună autoritatea şi libertatea de a gândi diferit, de a depăși convenționalul, de a găsi direcții noi de îmbogăţire a viziunii despre lume, despre frumos sau urât, despre bine sau rău.

Inițiere în misterele și înțelepciunea lui Atum-Ra

Drumul spre măreție este semănat cu încercări ce forjează spiritul, pregătindu-l pentru moștenirea unei înțelepciuni ancestrale.

- Zeul Snefru, mi-a dat întreaga putere ca să te pregătesc pentru tainele noastre şi să te inițiez în misterele și înțelepciunea lui Atum-Ra. Înainte de a-ţi dezvălui primele taine ale Fenixului, te voi face să cunoşti câteva adevăruri ce rămân străine majorităţii muritorilor, dar pe care trebuie să le ştie un fiu de rege, destinat unor funcții înalte în stat, poate chiar să ocupe tronul celor Două Regate.

Deşi putea să-l facă să întrezărească momente dificile, această introducere fu plăcută pentru Neferu, căci îi înfățișa un viitor radios.

Leadership: Cum crezi că inteligența ta, o părticică din inteligența universală, se reflectă în simetria și armonia care marchează separarea dintre realitate și interpretarea ei subiectivă?

- Începe prin a te convinge că înţelepciunea ideală, înţelepciunea perfectă constă în tăcere. O tăcere exterioară, care te obligă să te întorci spre sine, să te cufunzi în propria inimă, unde se află comori ascunse atât de adânc, încât cei mai mulţi oameni nu le întrezăresc niciodată. Căci trebuie să ştii că zeul se află în noi, că inteligenţa noastră este inteligenţa Lui sau, mai exact, o părticică din inteligenţa Lui. Numai prin ea ajungem la înţelegerea zeului, la înțelegerea universală care guvernează lumea. Dar această inteligență nu constă doar într-un şir de raționamente asupra naturii esenței divinității.

Căci această natură şi această esență nu pot fi direct percepute prin simple raționamente, prin simple eforturi ale inteligenţei ce se află în noi. Are nevoie, mai întâi, de ajutorul celorlalți, de ajutorul celor vârstnici, care transmit o ştiinţă primordială de la om la om, o cunoaştere divină la care nu se poate ajunge decât prin iniţiere.

Pentru orice inițiere se cere o pregătire a sufletului mai mult sau mai puţin lungă și, în același timp, o asceză a corpului, datorită căreia sufletul se desprinde de un corp smuls de sub dominația pasiunilor şi a bunurilor pământeşti. Dar această inițiere nu poate fi o finalitate în sine şi nu ne poate permite să ajungem să cunoaştem totul decât dacă este împlinită, desăvârșită printr-o iluminare interioară, acea iluminare venită de la un zeu care face dintr-un inițiat un akh, un spirit luminos, o viziune a ceea ce va fi sufletul inițiatului după ce va trece poarta morții.

Leadership: Te comporţi atent față de conținutul pe care îl elaborează propriul spirit, încât să nu devii un autor dramatic care prezintă şi expune pe "scenă" persoane străine?

Conţinutul substanţial al vieţii tale se poate oricând sparge, izolând la unul din poli subiectul și la celălalt obiectul. La un pol - cunoaşterea divină, la celălalt - sinele, la unul - forma, la celălalt - spiritul, la unul - semnificaţia, la celălalt - angajamentul. Aceste momente de luciditate, care se presupun reciproc, chiar dacă apar ca fiind opuse unul altuia, înstrăinate, fără să bănuiască măcar înrudirea lor intimă, sunt importante pentru a recunoaşte clar un adevăr spiritual: "Tot ceea ce te inspiră, în acelaşi timp te schimbă şi te domină".

Fără severitate, dar cu determinare, sensul universal al interconexiunii dintre tine şi divin se poate pierde cu desăvârşire, legătura dintre înţelepciune şi iluminare devenind nesemnificativă, contradictorie, echivocă, dacă nu reuşeşti să găseşti cheia care deschide porțile către lumea sufletului tău.

De aceea, aş spune eu, un vizionar deosebit se comportă atent faţă de conținutul pe care îl elaborează propriul lui spirit, încât să nu devină un autor dramatic care prezintă şi expune pe "scenă" persoane străine, alte persoane. Fără îndoială, el introduce geniul său în operă printr-un soi de asceză a finalităţii cu sine, împletind în ea din propriul său material spiritual, dar numai ceea ce este particular, nu ce este accidental său general.

Dintr-o perspectivă mistică, trebuie să ne raportăm la procesului de iluminare spirituală. De-a lungul călătoriei sale spirituale, omul se confruntă cu o serie de provocări și teste care îl pot zdruncina din temelii. Această deconstrucție a sinelui este necesară pentru a face loc unei noi identități, mai profunde și mai autentice, conectată la divinitate.

Înțelepciunea împlinește drumul spre măreție, semănându-l cu încercări ce forjează spiritul, pregătindu-l pentru moștenirea unei înțelepciuni ancestrale.

Inițierea în misterele și înțelepciunea lui Atum-Ra reprezintă un proces de iluminare spirituală realizat prin înțelegerea tăcută a adevărurilor profunde. Și ce este tăcerea, altceva decât o formă de meditație în care liniștea devine un portal către conștientizarea profundă a sinelui și a universului înconjurător?

Indiferent de interpretarea specifică pe care o dăm înțelepciunii, prin relația cu divinitatea, dar și asupra modului în care ne trăim viața, trebuie să ne regăsim în tăcere. Cât de consecvenți suntem în valorile noastre? Cât de mult ne permitem să fim autentici? Cât de mult ne sacrificăm integritatea în "pursuit of spiritual fulfillment" ? Fiecare individ are propriul drum de parcurs în relația cu divinitatea, iar răspunsurile nu sunt niciodată simple sau definitive.

Innuendo (II)

Apelează la noi forme de exprimare artistice prin contactul dintre creaţie, manifestări, teorii, experimente, astfel încât să validezi în mod eficient imaginea finală a ceea ce ai ajuns să fii.

Îngândurez înţelegeri tot mai pregnante ale separării mele de lume, neobosit, pradă diversităţii de creaţii, manifestări, teorii, experimente - întâi şi'ntâi pe cele care se armonizează cu specificul unei taine pure, produse sub acţiunea forţelor de oscilaţie ale minţii care nu poate trăi în prezent, ci fuge tot timpul înainte şi înapoi, ca o fracţiune din universalitate. Într-un fel, imaginea vieţii mele seamănă cu descrierea unui tablou reprezentat de o armonie dată prin culori aprinse, nuanţele, tonurile fiind perfect armonizate, ce pune în evidenţă latura sensibilă a unui artist care ştie un lucru: creativitatea este peste tot.

Este ceea îmi mişcă curiozitatea de-a lungul conturului invizibil al unei "superstition, false religion". Încet-încet, mintea-mi intră în prizonieratul unei convenţii posesive cu un duh necurat, între dansuri, ritmuri rupte, sincopate, şi piese cu tempo-uri antrenante. Punctul de plecare al unei noi gândiri artistice ţine de descrierea pe care o dau formelor mele de manifestare: imaginația, intelectul și intuiția de a obţine structuri de tipul "perpetuum mobile" ca expresie a întregurilor, încât să dau o notă de certitudine evenimentelor traite la un moment dat și la o anume intensitate.

Dar astfel se naşte senzaţia actului de trăire suprem, a cărui legi de toleranţă, ticluite în felul în care artistul stă conectat la elementele gata aranjate de natură, fac obiectul unor note precise rânduite într-un acord vijelios: "You can be anything you want to be / Just turn yourself into anything you think that you could ever be." Cine îndrăzneşte să-mi fredoneze delirul?

Leadership: Poţi să te reinventezi pe parcursul experienţei de receptare şi analiză a dimensiunii artistice, aşa încât să obţii prin argumente subtile un substitut pentru definiţia măreţiei "de a fi una cu totul" ?

Aş compara izolarea geniului cu un adânc etern unde se scufundă fără zgomot şi fără urmă toate sentimentele cu care este întâmpinat de o lume fragilă în faţa neştiutului. Sau, mai bine zis, cu un ocean adânc ce acoperă pământul nimănui. Permanent, există în jurul lui o răceală, dar în acelaşi timp o formă aparte de validare a regulii: "Show yourself - destroy your fears - release your mask". Se mişcă ceva în mine când cercetez amănunţit ceea ce nu ştiu despre acest spirit artistic, în raport cu împrejurările unei cauze specifice.

Încă o dată, Freddie Mercury încântă printr-un alt atribut al creaţiei, ce nu este chiar la îndemâna oricui: capacitatea uimitoare de a se reinventa printr-o nouă viziune, printr-o gamă nouă de perspective, abundenţa de culoare, costume de scenă, improvizaţii de pantomimă pe teme date, cu rolul de a permite explorarea şi cultivarea fanteziei unui artist care ştie să ceară elementelor de decor şi de mişcare scenică să i se conformeze.

Dimensiunea artistică a personalităţii sale îşi găseşte corespondent într-un plan al profunzimii de spirit, al profunzimii de penetrare a lumii printr-o asociaţie de idei care generează continuu energie, avânt, uimiri tot mai accentuate, noi tendinţe, dezbateri şi curente de opinie. Măreţia lui "de a deveni una cu totul" este principalul atu al genialităţii care nu poate fi oprită de absolut nimic.

Meritoriu, la acest purtător complex de posibilităţi plastice în interpretarea emoţiilor, mişcarea atrage întâi atenţia, abia apoi te gândeşti la ce se mişcă într-un tempo furioso, de sute de ori imprevizibil. Dovedindu-se mai presus de Newton care căuta să descopere operaţiunile naturii, Freddie Mercury este el însuşi natura lumii, un sistem energetic revoluţionar care leagă toate spiritele libere, un mic univers câştigat prin raţionamentul înaripat cu fiecare gând, cu fiecare dans, între acorduri minore şi septacorduri dominante.

Dar supremei arte nu-i este trebuincioasă doar îmbinarea imaginaţiei cu diferite sunete, într-o vastă arcadă a acordurilor muzicale, ca să se transforme într-o săgeată universală care străbate infinitul. Ea se construieşte vivace, într-o rotaţie elementară a cadrelor, atunci când omul timpului trece brusc la o altă scenă, substituindu-se instantaneu oricărui fenomen de cultură: portrete, peisaje, obiecte, însufleţite sau nu. Iar ele produc prin contagiune forţele de atracţie şi tendinţele favorabile care articulează lumea exterioară vizibilă, redată prin microscopie moralizatoare.

Actorul care se remarcă pe scenă ca un strălucit talent este imaginea unei lumi care nu încetează să se lărgească, uimind prin tendinţa ei constantă de a evolua spre o dependenţă de sfera fabulosului.

Redarea unei forme de exprimare artistice prin contactul dintre creaţii, manifestări, teorii, experimente, comprimate la extrem în fracţiunile unui volum de gânduri care aduce anumite emoţii, trăiri, sentimente, nu doar că modifică realitatea ta temporară, dar conduce la cu totul alt rezultat imaginea finală a ceea ce ai ajuns să fii.

Arta de a te lăsa purtat de valul gândurilor, al libertăţii de creaţie şi exprimare prin raportare la limitele unei autonomii care te înstrăinează de lume, de pe poziţiile unei filosofii care reflectă complexitatea funcţiei de creator, constituie o invitaţie la subtilitatea unui joc de culise, de nivel înalt, care nu cuprinde acceptul veridic al leadershipului: de a te întoarce de unde ai plecat.

Prin izolare geniul, spiritul liber, ajunge să cuprindă în câmpul său perceptiv implicaţiile unor fenomene de cultură care găsesc scurtătura spre modelarea ideilor prin puterea de a se înnoi sub impactul evenimentelor. Beneficiind de o abordare nouă şi neaşteptată, ele obligă la „orientarea armei cu tăişul către propriul corp”. Adică la un deficit de valori, la scăderea credibilităţii, la anularea acelor credinţe care îl feresc de pericolul de a se autoînvălui radical în magia ficţiunilor create de el însuşi.

Leadership: Poţi să conturezi o nouă perspectivă asupra artei care însă admite existenţa fenomenului de tip: „Nu atinge vârful acela înalt, mereu ascuns în nori”?

Pentru ca leadershipul să devină un act de substituţie pentru procesul de manifestare a unei autorităţi, a unei forţe individuale, trebuie conturată o nouă perspectivă asupra artei, care însă admite existenţa fenomenului de tip: „ Nu atinge vârful acela înalt, mereu ascuns în nori ”.

Şi aceasta nu numai datorită faptului că o mulţime de viziuni şi obiective fantastice sunt comprimate într-o succesiune de forme care duc spre confuzie. Ci pentru că incluziunea omului în altă direcţie de dezvoltare a ştiinţei înrădăcinează convenţia că specificul unei evoluţii nu se rezumă propagandistic, condensat, la elemente şi personaje care devin emblematice prin exploatarea unei noi forme de expresie, de cultură, de filosofare sau de cunoaştere.

Evoluţia poate avea ca element constitutiv călătoria imaginaţiei spre culmi de glorie încă neatinse de nimeni, care devine un act iniţiatic în vederea formării tale ca om de creaţie. Dar imaginaţia trebuie consumată nu doar prin împuternicire intrinsecă, ci mai curând împărtăşire şi relaţionare în confruntarea cu realitate.

Cea mai nobilă formă a artei, de a uimi şi de a surprinde, este viziunea plină de simbolism pe care o aduci la construcţia unei lumi a cărei singură realitate eşti tu.

Innuendo este o formă de a te autodepăşi prin intermediul practicării creaţiei, întrunind criteriile imaginaţiei şi ingeniozităţii, care nu este evidentă la prima vedere decât prin încercarea de a sugera o nouă perspectivă asupra lumii, inclusiv prin prisma cunoaşterii de sine. Dar care afectează modul în care te simţi în legătură cu ideea de a fi tu însuţi un câmp de luptă pentru câţiva adversari teribili: morala, identitatea, locul tău în societate, convenienţele general acceptate, trăirile sugerate şi dreptul de a fi înţeles şi apreciat.

Încearcă să faci din leadership un substitut pentru magia punerii în scenă a unei realităţi interioare prin intermediul analogiilor exterioare.

Exista o latură a vieţii mele traversată de adâncurile unei vrăji nemaivăzute. Un spaţiu ambiguu format din multe fluxuri de expresii cultivate în emisfera simţurilor tăiate global de circuitele plăsmuirilor, intrând în contradicţie cu concepţia marqueziană despre lume, viaţă şi timp. Cumva, formulele de calcul ale acestor elemente de individualitate, prestabilite de inversarea polilor constitutivi ai frământărilor interioare, în încleştarea memoriei cu starea de spirit, dădeau valori duble evenimentelor realităţii căreia nimic nu-i scăpa. "While I rule by blind madness and pure greed."

Cumva, începeam să mă poziţionez în raport cu realitatea înconjurătoare, mulându-mă pe ideea că viaţa este o artă prin care frumosul se exprimă cu ajutorul amuletei timpului, o artă prin care actul creaţiei trezeşte pasiuni pentru a satisface şi a cultiva, a delecta şi a corija spiritul de cercetător liber. Antrenante, idealurile supreme, enigme ale timpului, nu se modifică odată cu modul în care percepi şi experimentezi o explozie de energie şi bună-dispoziţie, ci odată cu vraja nepătrunsului, cu manifestarea umbrei din spatele luminii. „Through the eons, and on and on”.

Strădania vieţii lăuntrice a unui om care îşi asumă deschis apartenenţa la un fenomen de interogare a lumii contemporane, pe care numai ficţiunea o poate reconfigura poetic, se îndreaptă spre compunerea unei imagini unitare a unei evoluţii în timp prin orice mijloace ale operei de artă capabile să-i anuleze dezamăgirea zilelor trăite sub deviza ” scopul scuză mijloacele”.

Filosoful german Heidegger considera că gândirea acţionează asupra lucrului pe care omul îl are în faţă, descompunându-l şi recompunându-l mereu. Nici pentru mine expresia lucrului nu lua forma obişnuită, căci mă aruncam cu stoicism în faţa inadmisibilului cu instinctul extraordinar al unui căutător de lumi imposibile. Spaţiul propriei mele lumi interioare constituia de fapt începutul unei călătorii spre diversitate, spre transcendent, spre stările de creaţie specifice aristului care îşi imaginează lumea ca un ecou al divinităţii şi al lucrurilor frumoase, al armoniei şi al structurii indisolubile a materiei.

Forţa imaginaţiei cu care geniul îşi ocupă mintea în mod constant constă în provocarea de a reuşi să contureze imaginea unitară a unei fiinţe creatoare de profunzime care îşi propune să-şi desluşească existenţa, să îşi exprime emoţiile şi punctele de vedere prin analogii exterioare.

Geniul absolut ştie să iasă din adâncul lui însuşi, asemenea unui derviş dintr-o parohie săracă, şi ajuns în lumea unei noi cunoaşteri, a unei noi ordini, se transformă încet în toate lucrurile pe care le imaginează. El este înconjurat de un permanent conflict între color şi negru, pe marginea unei trilogii a spectacolului, în mişcările pline de energie ale unor saltimbanci, pe fundalul imaginilor istorice, în paginile ilustrate inedit ale cărţilor citite pe nerăsuflate, între un toboşar, o piramidă, mingi şi foc, între salturi, măşti şi aplauze, într-un crescendo al cărui punct culminant nu se mai consumă. "Surrender your ego - be free, be free to yourself."

În afară de dragostea pentru cele mai nobile arte şi ştiinţe, în bezna de nepătruns a unui special "Gateway Time", individualitatea mea nu avea decât o singură zgârietură, cu atât mai mult cu cât extremele spectrului meu de acţiune nu se puteau ghici. O leziune elementară ce consta din îmbinarea credinţei cu lăcomia de a fi proprietarul altor tărâmuri ale realităţii, de sute de ori mai primejdioasă decât suma curenţilor de înaltă frecvenţă ale insistenţei de a fi perfect. "Don't take offence at my innuendo."

Din izbucnirea unui eu căruia nu-i lipseşte veridicul, dintr-o descărcare a imaginaţiei care ar sta să-l distrugă, în paradisul artei grafice şi audio desenat cu sângele viziunii întortocheate, se declanşează metamorfozările realităţii, aducând libertatea culorilor, a viselor şi a exprimării fără graniţe. Omul cunoştinţelor enciclopedice în ştiinţele omenescului dă un alt înţeles lumii exterioare, iar spiritul lui creativ, multiplicat la infinit prin coridoarele unui labirint livresc, devine un fel de sinteză a universului. „Oh yes we'll keep on tryin' / We'll tread that fine line / Till the end of time."

Leadership: Poţi să pui semn de egalitate între dinamismul devenirii şi universul ascuns al operei de artă, situându-te la extrema comunicării unei experienţe care se îmbogăţeşte permanent?

Videoclipul Innuendo este triumful unei arte a povestirii, trecute prin filtrul ironiei şi al umorului, a naturalismului de viziune şi a spiritului ludic. Care face din leadership un substitut pentru magia punerii în scenă a unei realităţi interioare încărcate cu elemente existenţiale de tip: "Carpe Diem" sau "Simte-te în libertatea ta".

Leadershipul se datorează nu atât contrastului artistic dintre apetitul exprimat intelectiv şi apetitul exprimat prin forţa expresiei şi a sugestiei, ci mai curând, ocupând cât mai mult loc de înmagazinare a manifestărilor şi însuşirilor omeneşti, urmăreşte intrarea în limitele cauzalităţii şi ieşirea din ele. Conform fizicianului Max Born, cauzalitatea este o lege care presupune existenţa unei entităţi „efect" care depinde de existenţa unei entităţi „cauză", prin entitate înţelegând obiect fizic, fenomen, situaţie sau eveniment.

Practic, dacă încerci să surprinzi întreaga arie pe care o percepe câmpul vizionar al unui lider-artist, toate năzdrăvăniile minţii sale exprimate vivante, te cuprinde o senzaţie nebănuită de autodizolvare în nedeterminat, care trimite la o pulverizare haotică plină de culoare, o contopire cu un echilibru instabil. Rotind cadrul cu 180 de grade, fluxul creaţiei care te străbate este minim, dar are curajul să deschidă poarta Through the sorrow all through our splendor la întrebarea "Care este destinaţia noastră?"

Mai cu seamă, întrebarea la care trebuie să răspunzi este următoarea: Cum pot toate aceste entităţi să contribuie la creşterea libertăţii de exprimare şi de acţiune, a libertăţii de a te gândi la tine în raport cu realitatea înconjurătoare?

Dacă reuşeşti să răspunzi la această întrebare vei putea să pui semn de egalitate între dinamismul devenirii şi universul ascuns al operei de artă, situându-te la extrema comunicării unei experienţe care se îmbogăţeşte permanent prin lucruri, fapte, situaţii, rostiri, gesturi, atitudini, limbaj, pe care le iubeşti sau nu le iubeşti. Dar care cultivă libertatea de crea şi experimenta în funcţie de ceea ce te inspiră, în funcţie de formele şi tipul de viziune artistică pe care îl preferi. Fii ferm în cerinţele şi aşteptările tale.

Un aspirant la statutul de artist, analizând câteva din consecinţele practice deosebit de importante ale elaborării esteticii compoziţionale, încearcă mai întâi să facă diferenţa între cunoaşterea lucrurilor din apropierea lui, văzute adesea subiectiv, şi cunoaşterea care rezidă din relaţia lor cu existenţa obiectivă.

Amândouă cunoaşterile progresează prin acumulare de informaţii de tip „Ştiaţi că" şi aspectele de mediu cu impact semnificativ, ce urmează să fie incluse într-un reper orientativ, fiind predestinate unor certitudini abstracte. Aceste certitudini reprezintă beneficiile platformei creatoare pentru inovare şi identificarea posibilităţilor de îmbunătăţire a eficienţei produsului final: arta pe care o promovezi.

În psihologia creativităţii, analogiile exterioare sunt termene de comparaţie între „ce este" şi „ce ar trebui să fie" o lume guvernată de emoţii, a căror criteriu de departajare îl reprezintă măiestria artei de a transpune în realitate imaginea perfectă a unei relaţii complete şi autentice cu ceea ce se numeşte "Genialitatea".

Innuendo reprezintă o sesizare indirectă cu privire la o persoană sau un lucru, având ca temei imperativul libertăţii de a fi autentic în relaţie cu ceea ce se numeşte creaţie, chiar dacă riscul de a fi pus într-o lumină defavorabilă creşte semnificativ. Important este să construieşti ceva relevant pentru propria dezvoltare, firesc, printr-o inspiraţie care constituie un raţionament înaripat.

Inovaţia de răsunet a creatorului de artă

Caută o nouă abordare a conceptului de autoritate, sprijinindu-te pe o formă solidă de demonstraţie a ceea ce ştiinţa ta poate oferi lumii.

Inovaţiile regizorului Eisenstein, realizate în pelicula "Vechiul şi Noul" nu se opresc la imaginea vizuală şi cea auditivă, care nu au mai fost până atunci niciodată realizate. Nu le vom înşira acum, dar trebuie oricum amintită desăvârşirea descoperirii, a cărei denumire i-a dat-o el, a montajului în cadru: mizancadru. Compoziţia în adâncime – cadru în care atât primul plan al acţiunii cât şi celelalte în adâncime sunt clare şi joacă simultan şi coordonat roluri dramatice – este pusă la punct în "Vechiul şi Noul".

Necesitatea apariţiei unei asemenea mişcări în cadru se naşte din esenţa montajului armonic. Sursele emotive însă le găsim în acele impresii din copilărie în legătură cu Poe, în dragostea sa pentru Degas, în lecturi ale lui Puşkin, Gogol, Dostoievski. Toate convergeau spre nevoia şi posibilitatea de a ţine sub focul observaţiei, simultan, diferitele planuri ale evenimentului.

În "Vechiul şi Noul" aceasta capătă o formă precisă, ideea este exploatată şi va fi dusă mai departe în filmul mexican şi mai cu seamă în "Ivan". Dar trebuie precizat încă o dată că inovaţia de răsunet în mijloacele de expresie artistică, folosite peste un deceniu şi jumătate de Wyler şi apoi de Orson Welles, o întâlnim mult mai înainte în creaţia şi scrierile teoretice ale lui Eisenstein. *****

Descoperirile ştiinţei tale au rolul de a creşte rezistenţa leadershipului în condiţiile unei limitări a calităţii rezultatelor obţinute prin intermediul imaginii vizuale?

Orice abordare a conceptului de autoritate, sprijinindu-se pe o formă solidă de demonstraţie a ceea ce ştiinţa poate oferi lumii, amplifică experienţa creaţiei şi aşează liderul-artist în mijlocul cadrului de obţinere a unei noi valori prin accesarea modelelor şi formulelor de multiplicare a "noului". De aceea descoperirile ştiinţei sale, tot mai consistente, au rolul de a creşte rezistenţa leadershipului în condiţiile unei limitări a calităţii rezultatelor.

Valoarea emblematică care oferă adâncime compoziţiei operei tale este dată de modalitatea în care descrii un eveniment deja petrecut, astfel încât imaginea pe care o prezinţi lumii să adune toate posibilele lui consecinţe asupra unei noi teorii a cunoaşterii, asupra unei noi teme cu pregnanţă estetică sau asupra unei noi realităţi.

Iar calitatea rezultatelor obţinute prin intermediul imaginii vizuale se regăseşte în focul evenimentului, atunci când trebuie să surprinzi o nouă ipostază a creativităţii tale artistice, una coordonată de roluri de tip “featuring” menite să vină în sprijinul promovării viziunii unei lumi convenabile.

A descoperi este un proces de creaţie care începe cu ceea ce a fost înţeles ca un ansamblu de evenimente separate, şi se termină în surprindere, precum o expresie a trăirilor artistice care, puse împreună, modelează caracterele şi deschide apetitul pentru artă.

În leadership, desăvârşirea descoperirii, în mijlocul unei mulţimi de măsuri şi acţiuni de realizare a unei capodopere de artă, nu se opreşte la mijloacele de creaţie transpuse în practică, care nu au mai fost poate niciodată realizate de altcineva.

Desăvârşirea stabileşte un raport de egalitate între trei valori, folosind proporţiile cerinţelor unui nou rol şi a unei noi autorităţi în domeniu: o valoare care se obţine la un anumit procent din totalul a ceea ce transmiţi, o valoare care se încadrează într-un interval de incertitudine extinsă a previziunilor şi o valoare care se pierde la apelarea unei proceduri de aplicare a ceea ce dezvăluie ştiinţa pe care ţi-ai însuşit-o.

Dacă ideea de autoritate este exploatată şi dusă mai departe prin intermediul ştiinţei, atunci creaţia personală va avea o formă mai bine definită şi mai accesibil de aplicat într-un domeniu precum leadershipul. Iar pentru realizarea unui leadership de calitate care să permită constituirea autorităţii proprii, respectând proporţia elementelor de formare a unui nou stil, e necesar ca inovaţia să asigure un grad de control pentru întreaga dimensiune a complexităţii ştiinţifice.

Rezistenţa leadershipului este dată de imaginea vizuală şi de sursele emoţionale care contribuie la realizarea unei creaţii care nu încetează să uimească prin diversitate, prin tehnologia inovatoare, prin limbajul artistic, prin anvergura sa, prin puterea de a prezenta viaţa în complexitatea ei, dar mai ales prin profunzimea ei ascunsă.

Inovaţia de răsunet a creatorului de artă evidenţiază acea modalitate de îmbunătăţire a performanţei, prin optimizarea campaniei de aplicare a descoperirilor din domeniul conducerii. Abordarea individualizată a inovaţiilor în rândul producţiunilor de artă, care combină puterea de creaţie cu atracţia pentru tot ce înseamnă "construcţii speciale", este absolut necesară pentru a da continuitate relaţiei dintre viziune, compoziţie, improvizaţie, interpretare şi efect.

Însămânţări artificiale

Devino beneficiar al unor adevăruri care pot da însemnătate identităţii gândirii tale, prelucrând şi valorificând învăţăturile extrase din experienţele trăite.

Mi se părea că recunosc adevărata filosofie a viitorului, în faza de deschidere a unei explorări răspândite din sfera creaţiei în cea a timpului absolut. Ca urmare a unei suite de viziuni născute una din alta, într-un flux imaginar abundent, dar totodată înşelător, plin de reprezentari ale unui peisaj unic, transcendent, m-am lăsat cuprins de vraja unor simţiri stranii, neştiind exact în ce m-am aventurat. Iar fluxul acesta interfera cu numeroase conexiuni între informaţii cheie, într-un imens val de noi reprezentări, amplificat într-un mix energetic de imagini din spaţiul evoluat al universalităţii.

Povestea pe care o relatează scriitorul este arta pe care o creează pictorul. Imaginea în care mă vedeam era dialogul dintre artă şi vis, un mod de expunere a gândurilor şi sentimentelor unui personaj misterios care străbate timpul, un act de reconstituire a unei poetici difuze supusă sentimentului de întregire a unei lumi care se clatină.

La rândul lor, plăsmuirile pe care le împingeam către perfecţiune, din spaţiul potrivit unei picturi futuriste, marcau de fapt începutul unui nou mod de abordare a temelor ancorate într-o realitate inalterabilă, o trecere dorită de la pictură realist-naturalistă către pictura abstract-figurativă.

Ceea ce încerci să exprimi într-un mod misterios, dar totodată veridic, depinde în primul rând de modul creator de abordare a temelor de actualitate, prin punerea în valoare a posibilităţilor şi resurselor de transfigurare ale imaginii zugrăvite în stil suprarealist sau futurist.

Debitul fluidului de reglare a vibraţiilor de gândire şi sentiment, care treceau printr-o suprafaţă discontinuă de valori ce scăpau conştiinţei, se mărea odată cu înaintarea într-un alt nivel de control al realităţii. Prin acumulare, el risca să devină irelevant pentru ceea ce încercam să demonstrez. Dar era singura cale de a deveni beneficiar al unor adevăruri care puteau da însemnătate identităţii gândirii mele, asumate printr-un soi de lege a fizicii: atunci când foloseşti energie de orice fel, asişti de fapt la transformarea energiei dintr-o formă în altă formă.

Misterul înţelesului atribuit artei de a scrie, la răscrucea întrebărilor despre rostul existenţei şi al propriei fiinţe într-o realitate mai complexă, seamăna cu pictura unei intense imersii în trăirile subconştiente ale unei personalităţi tumultuoase. Imaginile pe care le prezentam într-un chip metaforic, plin de înţelesuri, vizau deci trăirile unei vieţi zbuciumate, care mă conduceau departe de realitate, dintr-un spirit de aventură care întrecea cu mult faptele în sine.

Mă aflam oare într-un spaţiu al logicii, premergător oricărui demers ştiinţific? Insistent, eram parcă condus de acea forţă a spiritului, pe care grecii o numesc Daemon, învăluit de impresia ciudată că mă teleportam constant dintr-o zonă a Universului, în alta aflată la o distanţă de neatins, pierzându-mă în deliciile unei disperări provocatoare în modul impetuos şi neobosit al unui Stephen Hawking, Nikola Tesla sau Albert Einstein.

Nu voiam să mă obişnuiesc cu ideea suspendării în ireal, cu reprezentarea intelectuală a unei controverse neîncheiate, între nelămurit şi temporar. Trebuia să împiedic experienţele normale să se extindă până la utopie. Dar asta ar fi însemnat o renegare a conştiinţei de infailibilitate.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi găseşti o identitate a gândirii prin practicarea Clar-Obscurului, prin intermediul viziunii artistice de a te recunoaşte dependent de o realitate unică, supremă si exclusivistă?

Spaţiul de autenticitate faţă de tine însuţi, în acord cu ceea ce înfăptuieşti prin intermediul experienţei de redare a unei noi dimensiuni a viitorului, prin intermediul viziunii şi a procesării fluxului de informaţii din mediul extern, începe întotdeauna cu puţin „clar-obscur". Clar-Obscurul, care denotă excesul de imaginaţie, cu efecte nemaiîntâlnite, se realizează prin descompunerea succesivă a cantităţii de informaţie subiectivă transmisă de un şir sau combinaţie de reprezentări, stocate intr-un soi de deja-vu.

În corespondenţă cu viziunea artistică care poate fi negreşit asumată de un pictor, clar-obscurul are totodată rolul de a exprima într-un mod atipic, dar foarte expresiv, chemarea la pluralitate, nemărginirea în simţiri, legătura dintre ceea ce nu se vede şi ceea ce se vede, ceea ce este prezent şi ceea ce este absent.

Imaginează-ţi acest clar-obscur ca pe o poveste pe care o poţi modifica şi revizui oricând doreşti, una pe care nu o trăieşti decât tu însuţi într-o viaţă fără de sfârşit, dar care totodată impresionează pe toată lumea care află de ea.

Clar-Obscurul este reflecţia realităţii în care te vezi cu totul altfel, dar una pe care nimeni nu o poate garanta sută la sută ca fiind reală. Iar un artist trăieşte în picturile sale sentimentul de ieşire din afara timpului, reuşind să denote că ar exista ceva misterios în asta.

Practic, o imagine în alb-negru, mai complicat de realizat decât una color, reprezintă varianta unei lumi debusolate, care încă nu este pe deplin actuală, a unei lumii îndepărtate, care încă trăieşte în negare, care nu şi-a găsit calea şi identitatea.

O persoană înţeleaptă remarca odată: „ Mintea este ca o umbrelă. Este de folos numai dacă este deschisă. " Tu reuşeşti să te distanţezi decisiv de tiparele unei singure realităţi, acceptate unanim ca fiind cea mai plauzibilă, şi să te apropii tot mai mult de o realitate situată în experiența detaliată a vieții de zi cu zi? Clar-Obscurul se poate practica numai prin „însămânţări artificiale" în evoluţia existenţială, deci prin punerea la un loc a informaţiilor, prin creşterea lor exponenţială, din care să rezulte o mare mişcare de idei, invenţii şi descoperiri.

Leadershipul se distinge prin prisma experienţelor trăite care îmbogăţesc sfera înţelegerii altor aspecte, puncte de vedere şi modele de gândire. În viitor se va pune tot mai mult accentul pe „ trecerea de la multiplu la unu ". Comasarea datelor şi informaţiilor care descriu realitatea din jur într-un singur întreg menit să oglindească o altă realitate.

Artiştii cei mai buni urmează direcţia din care vine ecoul lucrurilor pe care nu le cunosc, desprinzându-se de ecoul lucrurilor pe care omul de rând este obişnuit să le înţeleagă.

Însămânţările artificiale se referă în special la acea exaltare a gândirii manifestată odată cu înaintarea într-un alt nivel de control al realităţii, printr-un flux de informaţii care nu se termină niciodată. Dar din care trebuie să încerci să extragi doar ceea ce consideri că este util redefinirii tale, putând totodată reprezenta un suport pentru maximizarea experienţei de transformare a celorlalţi oameni.

Instantaneul magiei în universul lui Dumnezeu

Dacă vrei să fii mai mult decât un artist, atunci trebuie să devii invizibil şi omniprezent pentru lumea obişnuită cu desuetudinea lucrurilor efemere.

Aş mai avea ceva de spus despre Freddie Mercury, referitor la videoclipul "A kind of magic", prin prisma faptului că aş putea imagina personalitatea lui ca o prezenţă stranie, puternică, privilegiată, contopită cu sacrul unei gândiri de neegalat. O gândire plină de răsturnări de situaţie, plină de contradicţii, plină de inspiraţie. Un asemenea făuritor de efecte şi jocuri de lumini integrate ciclic într-un setting de scenă impresionant, a hotărât să-şi întărească domnia asupra împărăţiei umbrelor cu ajutorul unei divinităţi acceptate drept supremă: "Eu sunt cel care există în spatele necunoscutului."

Investit de puterea astrală cu sacrul unei structuri emoţionale specifice sensibilităţii artiştilor de geniu care fac din orice o magie, Freddie pare a fi rezultatul instaurării definitive a punctului de vedere mistic, a direcţiilor spaţiale din lumea fenomenelor optice. Un factor mai puternic decât lumina. Mai degrabă, un loc unde lumina nu ajunge în mod direct, ci doar prin subterfugiul de "evadare" din faţa unui reality-check, prin subterfugiul de a crea o aparenţă mai somptuoasă nu numai atunci când se ridică de la pământ, îmbinând supranaturalul cu naturalul, ci aducându-şi spiritul la perfectă armonie în relaţia cu elementele din jur.

Un foc mistuitor, un soare şi un scut. Un singur duh şi o singură iluzie. Întrupat de regele judecător, de prezicător ori de poetul inspirat de muzele unei lumi stoarse de sensibilitate, Freddie îşi joacă rolul cu cea mai mare pasiune pentru fals, dar un fals care poate fi concentrat într-un într-o nouă direcţie de proiecţie a fiinţei iluminate, atrase spre centrul gravitaţiei inefabile.

Leadership: Creaţia în care te regăseşti ca fiind o deschidere spre adâncimile lumii eterne, îţi oferă plăcuta experienţă de a te simţi mai aproape de un statut "divin" dezvăluit mereu în altă ipostază şi în alt loc?

Iluzia este o necunoscută pe care crezi că nu o poţi afla, fiindcă eşti condus de o imagine care nu suportă nicio reflexie, nicio imagine suprapusă, poate doar o proiectie pe ecranul mental al unui Ego care strigă: "Sunt mai mult decât am devenit ! " În ochii magicianului, arzând ca două candele în întuneric, de atâtea ori camuflaţi sub altă mască, se oglindeşte deschiderea spre adancimile lumii eterne. O lume atât de fascinantă, încât niciodată nu te poţi plictisi de ea.

Bine spunea un scriitor român pe nume Cornel Ailincăi: "Ochiul este organul cunoaşterii slavei, lăcaşul prin care patrunde spiritul în lume, locul în care sufletul este petrecut spre speranţa mântuirii." Dar nimeni nu ştie să citească ochii plini de culoare, plini de vise, plini de „praf de teatru" ai unui magician. Magicianul îmi spune: "Întoarce-te spre mine cu un ochi plin de propria privire."

Arta de a fi magician este sfinţită de graţie divină, sufletul plin de viaţă este atras către Dumnezeu de o forţă de neoprit, o explozie de clar-obscur, ce antrenează după ea şi trupul, până la levitaţie şi teleportare, toate fiind în stare să contureze o aură unică de mister, percepută doar atemporal. În mintea şi în sufletul magicianului, de atâtea ori neînţelese, se asamblează o lume mai bună prin îndrăzneală, prin sacrificiu, prin spiritul de bun organizator, prin spiritul de creaţie. Asta nu ia nimeni în calcul.

Freddie Mercury este un Dumnezeu pentru că magia lui este nemuritoare, pentru că mecanica magiei lui este invizibilă celor care nu înţeleg limbajul şi grandoarea artei de a fi punctul de comunicaţie între real şi posibil, sub forma materializării imaginarului. Acesta este mesajul videoclipului "A kind of magic".

Leadership: Contribui la edificarea unei cunoaşteri izvorâte din triumful asupra efectelor de imagine care relevă o conştiinţă avidă de autenticitate, pe considerentul că valoarea unei creaţii este linkul experienţei care te singularizează?

Mi-am făcut un secret din arta magiei: de a fi eu însumi un secret, pe care vi-l pun acum la dispoziţie. Dar nu sunteţi atenţi la cuvintele mele, şi deja aţi pierdut din vedere esenţa. Lumea mea este o altă lume, într-o metafizică a spiritului. Adevărata magie este să furi cât mai mult din atenţia privitorilor, dar să le laşi la dispoziţie un indiciu despre adevăr, tot aşa cum pictorii mari lasă o semnătură minoră într-un colţ al tabloului.

Cred că Freddie Mercury este o lume magică, pe care aş putea s-o descriu prin magia unei lumi care se vrea superioară tuturor celorlalte. Lumea lui interioară se reflectă în direcţia a ceea ce se cristalizează prin procesul aderării la un concept de tipul: "Un muritor nu-şi poate câştiga măreţia decât printr-un mod unic de manifestare a cunoaşterii artistice".

Reprezentarea acestei lumi, categoric atinsă de idealul grandorii eterne, pentru care orice muritor ar pleca capul cu deosebit respect, este asemenea crucii lui Iisus: trebuie suportată prin expresii artistice, prin figuri de stil, printr-o suită de ipostaze simbolice.

Ceea ce face din el însuşi un creator formidabil, maestrul neîntrecut al spectacolului, un artist care naşte măiestrie din efectele produse de o interpretare a Eului evaluat în funcţie de diferitele conceptualizări ale ştiinţei, este capacitatea de a capta sensul autentic al superiorităţii sale în vibraţia unui sunet al trezirii într-o altă viaţă, acordat la versul "This rage that lasts a thousand years".

Sunetul muzicii sale trezeşte la viaţă spiritul amorţit, neîmplinit, îl conduce spre libertate şi îi redă spiritualitatea, experienţa de a se regenera prin mişcare şi vioiciune. Totul e magie. Vă rog să mă credeţi, eu nu sunt Freddy Mercury, el n-ar putea niciodată să ma descrie aşa cum pot să-l descriu eu printr-un proces de alteritate. Un suflet mare îşi recunoaste măreţia doar în faţa unui dublu al său.

Marea Cunoaştere definitorie personalităţii artistului este personalizarea experienţei de a te întâlni pe tine însuţi în varianta unei manifestări a creaţiei trăită într-un rol dual, ca revelaţie a absolutului.

Instantaneul magiei în universul lui Dumnezeu se configurează ca un fel de moment artistic de mare excepţie, de care nu te porţi despărţi fiindcă începi să faci parte dintr-o lume alternativă, mai amplă şi mai spectaculoasă: o dată ce eşti prins în ea, vrei şi tu să fii un magician, un fenomen supranatural.

Acest moment artistic a fost, chiar acum, pus în scenă de un regizor al cărui nume îl trec sub tăcere...

Insulele pustii ale înţelegerii

Asigură evoluţia leadershipului tău spre noi orizonturi, fără să-ţi direcţionezi puterea de înţelegere a ştiinţei spre extreme care depăşesc limitele de normalitate unanim acceptate.

Am văzut o mulţime de insule, mărturisea un erou al lui Jules Verne, semănate parcă de o mână capricioasă, mari sau mici, majoritatea abia ivindu-se din ape şi atât de joase că, uneori, cea mai mică înălţare a apelor era de-ajuns pentru a le acoperi cu totul.

Insulele reprezentau simbolul unei diversităţi de repere bine trasate pe harta viziunilor şi idealurilor mele, între punctele de control ale cunoaşterii depline, mai presus de orice înţelegere. Aceste suprafeţe de contact mici şi mari în raport cu dimensiunea sinelui meu, indicatori ai unei staţionări în zona profundă a unor experienţe idealistice, exprimau legătura dintre mai multe procese care se menţineau constante, prezentând maximum de stabilitate faţă de factorii perturbatori generatori de gânduri stranii.

Gânduri care parcă se repetau la nesfârşit într-un adevărat jurnal vizual al vremurilor de mult timp apuse. Gânduri care mă ridicau mai presus de obişnuit şi mă introduceau în zone de proiecţii care alterau percepţiile general acceptate legate de spaţiu şi timp.

Teritoriul sufletesc al unei fiinţe este un exerciţiu de invadare a unei insule mai puţin cunoscute. Eram în căutarea unui semn, susţinut de o mulţime infinită de adevăruri mai mult sau mai puţin relative, care ar fi putut stabili o legătură între răspunsuri şi întrebări. Dar apele tulburi în care mă scăldam la acea vreme, poate cea mai marcantă experienţă din viaţa mea, nu puteau fi acoperite decât de straturile cele mai înalte ale psihicului în relaţie cu ştiinţa.

Leadership: Sensul vieţii tale echivalează cu o neîncetată explorare a orizontului cuprins între dobândirea unei noi conştiinţe de sine şi experienţa de gestionare a cunoaşterii orientată spre modificarea percepţiilor despre ce retrăieşti odată cu amintirile tale?

Practic toată forţa mea intelectuală, în condiţii de maximă eficienţă, se măcina sau se inactiva după câteva cicluri de utilizare, asemenea unei reacţii chimice donatoare de energie care determină procese de transport în sens antientropic. Sistemul meu de gândire nu mai prezenta o comportare ideală. Insulele păreau să se întindă spre extremităţi care depăşeau dimensiunile mele de acceptare, creând un efect de reacţie negativă în cascadă.

Mă aflam în faţa unei redescoperiri a esenţei mele de a fi, aşa cum nu o cunoscusem vreodată. Nu puteam să nu remarc totuşi că inovaţiile radicale pe care le generam, şi mai ales inaccesibilul la care mă raportam, produceau o anumită distorsiune în analiza sau interpretarea combinațiilor de idei haotice și absurde. Trebuia să scormonesc prin haosul deplasărilor gândurilor mele spre noi destinaţii, în căutarea unei licăriri de sinceră lămurire. Unde mă aflam în relaţie cu mine însumi?

Insulele trebuiau să se interfereze cu aspiraţia de adevăr, care excludea orice interpretare. Iar aceasta implica doar un singur lucru: să nu mai continui să mă îndoiesc de caracterul arbitrar al experienţei mele de viaţă în relaţie cu înţelegerea structurii gândirii mele. Trebuia să găsesc o logică în tot ceea ce făceam, oricât de ascunsă ar fi ea. Şi o cursivitate în mintea mea, în gânduri şi idei. Altfel situaţia în sine ar fi devenit inacceptabilă.

Amintirile mele încă se leagă de aceste insule care îmi modelează percepţiile despre ceea ce contează să aflu nou despre mine în faţa unei realităţi diferite, una care există dincolo de ceea ce cred că sunt în stare să recunosc la prima vedere. Ştiinţa de care mă simt în stare să o înţeleg, determinarea existenţială a cunoaşterii de care încă sunt legate interpretările unei vieţi literare, se poate câştiga prin apropierea de o idee care să conecteze lumea întreagă la mine.

Leadership: Te opreşti la porţile unei cetăţi necucerite sau continui să oferi noi interpretări experienţelor tale de viaţă în dreptul unor repere care se plasează în zone mai puţin accesibile?

Gândurile te ridică mai presus de obişnuit? Eşti în căutarea unui semn, susţinut de o mulţime infinită de adevăruri mai mult sau mai puţin relative? Apele tulburi în care te scalzi nu pot fi acoperite decât de straturile cele mai înalte ale psihicului în relaţie cu ştiinţa?

Pe planul ştiinţei şi al vieţii, ce pot deveni superflue în faţa acţiunilor al căror protagonist permanent eşti tu, câştigul pe care îl poţi obţine din contribuţia la acestor două provocări, abordate cu pragmatism şi responsabilitate, menite să-ţi determine o bună funcţionalitate, nu trebuie să se prezinte ca un obiect menit să înlocuiască leadershipul adevărat. Ci ca un produs al gândirii mai presus de tiparele tradiţionale, care reușește înfăptuirea unei concepţii vizionare asupra evoluţiei relaţiei dintre leadership şi rezultatele imprevizibile ale cunoaşterii, în raport cu sinele tău.

A te opri la porţile unei cetăţi necucerite, dar de o însemnătate colosală, înseamnă să contrazici verosimilul, realitatea imediată, perceptibilă, prin determinarea unei probabilităţi foarte mici de asigurare a unei noi imagini despre sine.

În condiţiile absenţei chiar şi celor mă firave înnoiri de perspective care pot spori şansele de creştere a câştigului pe care îl poţi obţine de pe urma "accesibilităţii" tale, vei parcurge drumul spre excelenţă în sens invers. Repere bine trasate pe harta viziunilor şi idealurilor tale, comportându-se impredictibil, se vor extinde treptat până la limita în care ar putea deveni incontrolabile.

Iar atunci leadershipul va ceda, sau va înregistra un minim de stabilitate faţă de factorii perturbatori ai unei aprovizionări necorespunzătoare cu abordări care nu aduc rezultate aşteptate.

Leadership: Poţi să extinzi interpretările pe care le dai realităţii prin conştientizarea acceptării de sine şi a dreptului de a exista aşa cum eşti în faţa unui orizont necunoscut?

Un orizont necunoscut este o insulă pe care nu ai aprofundat-o, dar care merită toată atenţia, fiind situată probabil în vecinătatea acelei laturi a ştiinţei de a fi deţinător de adevăruri despre natura esenţială a lucrurilor şi fenomenelor. Asta înseamnă să fii avantajat de posibilitatea de a te elibera de conformismul societății și de a funcţiona dincolo de prejudecăți.

Două mutări intermediare cu perspective nesigure pot conduce la o modificare sau invalidare a configuraţiei sistemului tău funcţional. Prima, înfăptuirea unei atracţii şi unificări între gândire şi cunoaştere, în sensul unei ascensiuni spre forme superioare de înţelegere a leadershipului, printr-o încadrare mai bună a reperelor pe harta viziunilor şi idealurilor proprii. A doua, crearea unei legături între punctele de control ale cunoaşterii depline, raportată la forţa opusă a oricărei posibilităţi de afirmare de sine.

Aceste două mutări pot bloca sau debloca căile de acces spre porţile cetăţii necucerite ale ştiinţei, care îşi are din totdeauna locul în vârful leadershipului. Porţile deschid şi sporesc capacităţile de inovare, interferate de aspiraţia spre înălţime şi spre perfecţiune, denaturând uşor adevărul pe care nu-l cunoşti despre tine şi care nu se poate alinia întotdeauna deschiderii spre schimbare.

Aşa cum conversaţia de calitate presupune un echilibru între a asculta şi a vorbi, tot astfel legătura dintre procesul tău de evoluţie şi percepţiile despre tine însuţi pe toată durata producerii de noi abordări şi transformări de idei, trebuie să se menţină constante. Altfel forţa ta intelectuală, în condiţii de maximă eficienţă, se va măcina sau se va inactiva după câteva cicluri de utilizare.

Limitele de normalitate unanim acceptate sunt date de acele aspecte ale realităţii care pot fi văzute şi nu vor putea înlocui aspecte ale irealităţii.

Să asiguri evoluţia leadershipului spre noi orizonturi înseamnă să îmbogăţeşti cu noi interpretări ale experienţele tale de viaţă şi de învăţare, filtrate prin prisma putinţei de înţelegere a realităţii pe care alţii nu ştiu s-o exploateze şi să extragă din ea ce e de valoare.

Insulele pustii ale înţelegerii sunt acele zone insuficient cunoscute şi cercetate a căror explorare este îngreunată sau limitată de cunoaşterea actuală. Persistenţa în aceste zone duce la stagnare în leadership şi la îndepărtarea de punctul terminus propus iniţial. Şi în cele din urmă la decăderea leadershipului.

Întâmplătorul din cadrul apropiat al evoluţiei

Efectuează constant operaţiuni de interceptare şi monitorizare a fenomenelor de tip "aleator", pentru găsirea surselor de "venit" suplimentar în sfera ştiinţei şi inovării.

Marele regizor era tot timpul concentrat asupra muncii sale concrete. Într-o zi însă, în timpul unei repetiţii în foaier, surprinse întâmplător cu privirea obrazul rumen şi rotofei al unui băieţel de şapte ani, fiul unei plasatoare. Puştiul obişnuia să vină la repetiţii şi nimeni nu-i dădea atenţie. Eisenstein fu izbit în acel moment de faptul că obrazul băieţelului reflecta ca o oglindă tot ce vedea: nu numai mimica şi gesturile fiecărui personaj, ci totul în ansamblu, simultan. Pe Eisenstein îl surprinse la început tocmai această simultaneitate.

În drum spre casă - mergea pe jos, tramvaiele nu funcţionau la vremea aceea - el începu să mediteze asupra naturii fenomenului pe care-l observase. Drumul până acasă era lung şi meditarea aceasta în mers se putea desfăşura în voie. Îl încântase totdeauna eleganţa paradoxului lui W James: nu plângem pentru că suntem trişti, ci suntem trişti pentru că plângem. Îi plăcea şi gândul că din reproducerea corectă a unei expresii poţi da naştere emoţiei corespunzătoare. Dar, medita Eisenstein, dacă lucrurile stau astfel, mimând comportamentul exterior al personajelor, puştiul trebuie să retrăiască ceea ce simt actorii pe scenă sau ceea ce încearcă măcar să redea. *

Leadership: Meditezi asupra naturii fenomenelor pe care le observi cu totul întâmplător în cadrul unei munci care te clasează drept un model de autoritate intelectuală bine şlefuită de formele de exprimare ale artei?

Capacitatea de a găsi o legătură între elementele surprinse întâmplător şi comportamentul exterior al unor indivizi care acţionează separate, ţine de gândirea unui regizor care are toate datele să facă un film memorabil. Antrenamentul mental, în special cochetarea cu întâmplătorul şi neobişnuitul, căutate acolo unde există echilibrul dintre "recunoaştere" şi "diferenţiere" a elementelor de noutate, ca urmare a experienţei de mobilitate, este o necesitate absolută pentru conştientizarea şi găsirea surselor de "venit" suplimentar în sfera ştiinţei şi inovării.

Un regizor talentat ştie că acolo unde există sentimente persistente se poate vorbi de un comportament care caută atenţia celor din jur, iar aici ştiinţa de care el trebuie să facă uz poate să afirme convingerea că orice se întâmplă în lume este consecinţa unei atitudini de largă generalizare a caracteristicilor definitorii ale omului. Înţelegerea deplină a evoluţiei ştiinţei, a recunoaşterii însemnătăţii şi semnificaţiei legilor ei, dar şi asumarea consecinţelor ce decurg din conţinutul ei, nu se poate realiza fără efectuarea constantă a unor operaţiuni de interceptare şi monitorizare a fenomenelor de tip "aleator".

Ştiinţa la care trebuie să ne raportăm de această dată se concentrează asupra unei creaţii confirmată ca fiind mai mult un început al efortului de definire a conceptului de "eveniment fugitiv", fiindcă atunci când totul se petrece "pe repede-nainte" abia atunci omul îşi trăieşte viaţa la intensitate maximă.

Un regizor care vrea să introducă un fir narativ de excepţie în pelicula lui trebuie să ia seama la următorul aspect: "Una e când totul se petrece repede și nu știi ce ai văzut, și alta când ești pus în fața faptului și nu ai unde să te ascunzi." Momentul cheie al unui film se petrece atunci când personajul principal nu mai are timp să se întoarcă înapoi spre secvenţa anterioară, fiind determinat să-şi exprime emoţiile în voie, în mod natural, în faţa unora care refuză să fie la fel ca el.

Antrenamentul mental este, aşadar, o componentă importantă dintr-un program care foloseşte observarea sistematică ca modalitate de dobândire a experienţei profesionale. El trebuie aplicat în aşa fel încât, imaginându-ne pe noi într-o anumită situaţie, să adaugăm activitatea factorilor externi la o nouă sursă de inspiraţie care să permită reorganizarea tuturor direcţiilor de control a cunoaşterii.

Antrenamentul mental ne ajută să vedem mai uşor oportunităţile de integrare a elementelor aleatoare într-un ansamblu de tehnici şi metode, aplicabile în leadership în funcţie de un anumit sistem de referinţă.

Leadership: Poţi realiza simultaneitatea complexă a perceperii sensurilor care evidenţiază o realitate ignorată iniţial?

Un lider care pune ştiinţa pe primul plan al preocupărilor sale reflectează constant asupra combinaţiilor de percepţii, reprezentări, impresii, valori şi referinţe, din împrejurările imediate, căutând să realizeze acea simultaneitate complexă a perceperii sensurilor care evidenţiază o realitate ignorată iniţial. Dar mai ales diferenţele de impact între diferite modele de reprezentare a relaţiilor cauzale dintre întâmplările probabile, importanţa şi implicaţiile lor, şi factorii care influenţează favorabil procesul de producţie şi organizare elementelor componente ale creaţiei.

Această reflectare în exterior, asupra unui nou cadru de entităţi de tip " start-up " în procesul de dezvoltare şi aplicare a ştiinţei, constituie condiţia existenţei leadershipului ca artă "savantă", dar şi o depăşire a limitelor proprii de înţelegere şi percepţie a unor aspecte, teme sau obiective abordate. În permanenţă, redirecţionarea gândirii are nevoie de o nouă structură de conţinut, în încercarea de a înţelege modul în care se transformă ştiinţa în componente reproductive ce pot fi influenţate sau schimbate de om.

Formele de exprimare ale artei regizorale, care totodată pot fi integrate în leadership, sunt acestea: marcarea evenimentelor importante din viaţa şi activitatea modelului de inspiraţie, trecerea de la un peisaj existent la unul imaginar şi invers, înţelegerea conceptului de "eveniment fugitiv" şi "deja vu", manifestarea unei atitudini responsabile faţă de un personaj care susţine examenul acţiunilor sale în condiţiile libertăţii totale.

În acest caz, sarcina regizorului va fi aceea de a explica prin intermediul unui personaj o suită de evenimente a căror unică desfăşurare se unesc într-un singur eveniment masiv menit să reprezinte tocmai pretextul descoperirii unei noi versiuni ale aceluiaşi personaj.

Simultaneitatea în leadership, ca şi în ceea ce priveşte munca de regie, vizează producerea mai multor acțiuni în același timp, de tip "coincidenţe", care au scopul de a evidenţia o altă latură a evenimentelor şi o altă versiune a personalităţii celui prins între amintiri şi prezent, între trecător şi etern.

Întâmplătorul din cadrul apropiat al evoluţiei se referă la acele momente de cotitură din evoluţia unui lider care apar aleatoriu, sub influenţa unor factori neprevăzuţi, care pot modifica percepţia despre traseul urmat în perfecţionarea ştiinţei şi chiar a propriei personalităţi.

Înţelepciunea unei vieţi trecute de cotitura vieţii

Omul care caută să obţină o acceptare a propriei vieţi, eliberându-se de dorinţa de a fi fost altfel, este un om care se trăieşte pe sine, nu se fantasmează pe sine.

Am cunoscut un om care ştia mai multe ca mine despre viaţă, şi dacă n-ar fi fost prieten bun cu mine, probabil nu i-aş fi recunoscut atributul de ştiinţă pe care a ştiut să-l exercite cu dibăcie în domeniul său de activitate. Plin de inspiraţie, cu nuanţă lăuntrică, am încercat să interpretez unele din experienţele sale de viaţă ca şi când ele l-ar fi schimbat şi l-ar fi condus în direcţia unei uşi care se înţepeneşte, şi se înţepeneşte ori de câte ori încerci să o deschizi spre realitatea din spatele visurilor, unde mintea deţine puteri nelimitate.

Şi omul acesta deosebit, chiar dacă ştia despre modalităţile variate de interpretare a realităţii într-o multitudine infinită de posibilităţi, legături şi relaţii, şi-a pus viaţa într-un vas de sticlă care şi acum stă prăfuit într-un colţ al casei, şi totuşi lui îi umple casa de lumină, fiindcă acolo sunt strânse ultimele rămăşiţe de suveranitate ale mândriei de a rămâne el însuşi. Şi chiar dacă praful dorinţei de a rămâne fidel lui însuşi se adună în vasul de sticlă, acumulându-se într-un filtru de aer improvizat, numit prefăcătorie, alteori indignare, el rămâne pasibil în faţa cuvintelor nemuritoare: "caută şi nu cerceta".

Şi uite aşa, când eram mici, eram cu totul altfel, ziua amândoi ne întreceam la sport, seara ne închipuiam învingători. Fără să ştim că timpul suferă de boala schimbării. Pe unii realitatea vieţii îi trezeşte, pe alţii îi adoarme, şi nu-i mai trezeşte din letargie. Fiindcă realitatea este o chestiune asupra materiei, dar în acelaşi timp este o oglindă a minţii celui de pe urmă, o boală a minţii ce nu-i loveşte decât pe cei trândavi şi nepăsători.

Iar timpul încă îşi aminteşte de două umbre care se credeau raze de soare, şi care ar fi putut să risipească cu a lor lumină vioaie orice umbră de întristare, de dezamăgire, de descurajare.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi construieşti o imagine favorabilă despre tine care să surprindă realitatea în momentul petrecerii acesteia, înainte să te concentrezi asupra ideii de „scurtă durată a sufletului individual" ?

Dacă sursa vitală din care organismul îşi procură energia vieţii este consumată, atunci mişcările se îngreunează şi mintea se insinuează într-un vacuum al speranţelor infinite, într-un spaţiu necuvântător, ornamentat cu o simbolistică ruinată cu ajutorul vicleniei, subspecie a inteligenţei, aducându-l pe om la statutul de retro, retrograd.

Da, am cunoscut un om care ştia multe despre viaţă, dar viaţa l-a învins prin mişcările cauzalităţii interne, a unei voinţe niciodată dispusă să încerce noi experienţe, dar dispusă să-şi vândă demnitatea pentru vreo doi arginţi câştigaţi rapid. Poate ar fi avut nevoie de un erou de talia lui Ulise care să îi elibereze acea aură neagră a sufletului prins în închisoarea vieţii care trece, se stinge, urlă a durere, şi căreia nimeni nu-i sesizează zvâcnetul de nestăpânit, când tot echilibrul fiinţial s-a distrus. Un erou din acest soi, un alter-ego al super-eroului, ar fi întors lucrurile la realitatea pe care prietenul meu era chemat să o îmbunătățească.

Şi, totuşi, mi-am dat seama că omul acesta este foarte bine dispus atunci când este singur. Simte, realizează că numai aşa, departe de lume, ar putea să fie ceva mai mult decât ce-a devenit. Probabil, starea în care te complaci este o lecţie în cadrul acestui demers de învăţare al vieţii, o lecţie pe care timpul o îngroapă de la sine în uitare, şi pe care invincibila fortăreaţă a puterii de a rămâne acelaşi, neschimbat, te va transforma în praf și pulbere...drag prieten.

Într-un vas de sticlă, închis şi prăfuit, se află mândria de a nu lăsa pe nimeni să pătrundă în inima ta, mândria de-a nu mai avea idei, ci numai clocot, obsesii şi nebunie.

Poate avea dreptate cine spunea: „Dacă sinele este închis într-un vas (trupul), atunci individul trebuie să depășească limitele acestui vas pentru a realiza unitatea primordială a sufletului individual cu plenitudinea Fiinţei care este Absolutul."

Leadershipul este o manifestare a voinţei de a nu te lăsa învins de timp în scurtul popas al vieţii făcut într-un context neaşteptat în care eşti constrâns să-ţi privești personalitatea din unghiul mort al mândriei de a rămâne acelaşi.

Înţelepciunea unei vieţi trecută de cotitura vieţii se datorează experienţei de a trăi ca un învăţat faţă de sine care îşi spune mereu: „sunt mult mai mult decât am fost şi mult mai mult decât am devenit ! "

Iar scurta durată a sufletului individual se referă la eliminarea celor lucruri sau obiceiuri care nu dau consistenţă vieţii tale. Trebuie să-ţi alimentezi nevoia de a aparţine unei singure realităţi bazate pe unitate, pe solidaritate, pe viziune, nu prin ataşarea de aparenţe sau de false motivaţii.

Sau cum bine spunea cineva pe web: „Cel mai frumos lucru din lume este să ştii cum să aparţii propriei persoane, nu cisumstanţelor exterioare."

Inteligenţa Spirituală

On Ianuarie 29, 2017

Încearcă să dai vieții un sens mai înalt, acţionând în conformitate cu trăirea unui prezent care își decide viitorul prin voia unei puteri nemărginite.

Caderousse își pierdea puterile văzând cu ochii. Ticălosul ăla de Benedetto, care m-a rănit de moarte, el o să scape totuși, gemu el cu ultimele puteri.

- N-o să scape nimeni, ți-o spun eu. Ca şi tine, Benedetto își va primi și el pedeapsa. Ca și tine, el poartă în adâncul fiinţei sale germenul trădării, la fel cum şarpele îşi ţine în el veninul.

- Atunci, veți fi pedepsit și dumneavoastră, spuse Caderousse. Fiindcă nu v-ați făcut datoria de preot. Ar fi trebuit să-l împiedicaţi pe Benedetto să mă ucidă.

- Eu? spuse Monte-Cristo cu un zâmbet care îl îngrozi pe muribund. Eu să-l împiedic pe Benedetto să te ucidă, în clipa când tu frânseseşi cuțitul în zalele care-mi acopereau pieptul? Da, poate că dacă te-aș fi găsit umil și pocăit, nu l-aș fi lăsat pe Benedetto să te ucidă. Dar te-am văzut trufaş și sângeros, și am lăsat să se împlinească voia Domnului.

Leadership: Ce deprinderi trebuie să câştigăm noi înşine, sau trebuie să facem pe alţii să câştige, încât însemnătatea pe care o dăm propriei vieţi să capete trecere înainte lui Dumnezeu?

- Nu cred în Dumnezeu ! - urlă Caderousse. Și nici tu nu crezi. Minţi... Minți ! Nu mă pocăiesc. Nu există Dumnezeu, nu există providenţă, nu există decât întâmplare !

- Există o providenţă, există un Dumnezeu, spuse Monte-Cristo umbrit de mantia preoţească care-i ascundea adevărata identitate. Și dovada este că tu te afli aici, zăcând deznădăjduit, renegându-L. Pe câtă vreme eu, neatins de răul pe care ai vrut să mi-l faci, mă aflu în picioare dinainte ta bogat, fericit, nevătămat și împreunându-mi mâinile în faţa Dumnezeului acestuia în care tu încerci să nu crezi, crezând totuși, în fundul sufletului tău.

- Cine ești tu, cu adevărat, părinte? Mi se pare că te-am cunoscut, pe vremuri... De ce mă lași să mor?

- Fiindcă nimic nu te mai poate salva, Caderousse, fiindcă ești rănit de moarte. Dacă ai fi putut fi salvat, aș fi văzut în asta o ultimă milostivire a Domnului și, îți jur pe mormântul tatălui meu că tot aș mai fi încercat să-ți redau viața și căinţa. *

Leadership: Tratezi realitatea în funcție de modul unic de a privi lucrurile practicat printr-o formă de asociere cu ceea ce nu cunoști, sau prin prisma a ceea ce deja cunoști?

Întotdeauna omul care își propune să reveleze adevărurile care îi alcătuiesc existenţa se vede pus în relație cu cele necunoscute, de care încă nu este conștient, dar la care au contribuit experienţe multiple şi variate. Şi doar unele dintre acestea sunt fundamentale devenirii sale. Şi poate de aceea, însemnătatea acestor adevăruri pe care se bazează caracterul omului, adevăruri precum "nu eu sunt Dumnezeu" sau "orice rău se pedepseşte", au ca marjă de apreciere tăria de a rezista în faţa ispitelor, în faţa responsabilităţilor şi încercărilor adiacente circumstanţelor descurajatoare care te-a împiedicat deseori să te ridici la înălţimea potenţialului de om bun, sufletist, neprihănit.

Prima necunoscută este Dumnezeu, pe care nu-l vedem, deci am putea crede că nu există. O altă necunoscută este cumpătarea, de care nu ţinem cont decât poate atunci când dăm de necaz. O altă necunoscută este recunoştinţa sau remuşcarea, cărora nu le dăm interpretarea corectă din cauza lipsei de valori, a lipsei de cugetare, a lipsei de progres spiritual. Multe din aceste necunoscute, alături de nesfârşitele întrebări care își caută răspunsurile, reprezintă niște potențiale „nefericite" ale unor experiențe relative din trecut, expresii ale unor stări care au venit și au plecat după vreo clipă de deznădejde sau de rătăcire, care te-au izolat sau te-au făcut să te simți singur pe moment.

Dar alte necunoscute, impuse de varietatea unor factori protectivi și providenţiali ce au condiţionat apariţia unor situații de viață excepționale, pe care altfel nu le-ai fi trăit, ți se relevă în ipostaza omului care aparent nu înseamnă mare lucru în cursul general al lucrurilor, dar care din punct de vedere intelectual are capacitatea de a pătrunde până la capătul universului. Unde ești tu în povestea asta?

Capacitatea de a te ridica deasupra a ceea ce nu cunoști, ivită din tendinţa de a te supune unor înlănţuiri care duc în final spre acea stare nouă, privilegiată, numită de unii "Înviorare Spirituală", se alimentează din experiența unei trăiri care e simultan luminare și întunecare.

Dacă tratezi realitatea în funcție de modul unic de a privi lucrurile practicat printr-o formă de asociere cu ceea ce nu cunoști, în situații provocate de hazard, cu potențial revelator, atunci vei beneficia de experiența ieşirii din normalul acceptat de convingerile care te însoțesc. Şi vei experimenta o nouă raţiune: de a exista ca ecou al unui sens mai înalt al vieții. În caz contrar, te vei percepe ca o victimă a circumstanţelor vieţii.

Una din facultăţile de bază ale liderului este cea a inteligenţei spirituale prin care acţionează și se armonizează toate evenimente (aparent haotice, absurde) în jurul unei algebre Universale. Îl percepem aici pe Dumnezeu ca fiind salvatorul unei lumi imperfecte, deci supusă constant greşelilor, iar acest Dumnezeu ne lasă la îndemână liberul arbitru pentru a ne hotărî singuri soarta, însă cel căruia îi lipseşte credinţa se va pierde cu siguranţă într-un labirint numit "Haos", căci nimic din viaţa lui nu va căpăta coerenţa unui destin capabil să sfideze efemerul inerent.

Această facultate rezidă din acea continuitate a experienţei sugerată de credință, nu de cunoaştere și nu de „recomandările" clipei, deci a experienţei care sprijină intervenţia unei raţiuni pusă mai presus de propriile convingeri într-un context existenţial-lumesc, unde toate își au plata și răsplata, cauzele și efectele.

Leadershipul vizează în mare măsură controlul asupra deprinderilor pe care le dezvolţi în lipsa unei intervenţii divine în viaţa ta, adică prin exercitarea liberului arbitru la nivel de ceea ce înseamnă să fii adevăratul "tu însuţi" în circumstanţele unei ascensiuni neaşteptate.

Inteligenţa Spirituală, în conformitate cu trăirea unui prezent care își decide viitorul prin voia unei puteri nemărginite, i se atribuie liderului care evoluează ca un slujitor al providenţei, care a făcut din credinţă piatra de temelie a existenței și a menirii sale. Un asemenea om va conduce el însuși „întâmplarea" prin acceptarea fără rezerve a forţei unei intervenţii superioare nelimitată.

Interacţiuni şi relaţii interumane

Dezvoltă-ţi mai mult viziunea emoţională, făcând din tine însuţi un exemplu de credinţă în raport cu preţul vieţii.

Demult, un alpinist a fost dat dispărut în munţii Bucegi, în luna februarie. Atunci zăpada avea un strat subţire, creând condiții optime pentru desfășurarea activităţilor montane în condiţii de maximă securitate. Nimeni nu ştia unde a dispărut. Nu putea fi localizat. Căutările celorlalţi alpinişti nu au dus la niciun rezultat. Unde este omul?

"Cred că el este în viaţă, abia aştept să-l găsim. Le mulţumesc tuturor celor care ne ajută în continuare" - a precizat şeful echipei montane de salvamont.

Şi, dintr-o dată, ceva iese la iveală. O dovadă. O mănuşă de culoare roşie fixată într-un băţ de ski. Era de fapt un semn care a dus în final la descoperirea alpinistului. Acesta se afundase într-o groapă căscată de o alunecare de teren. În ultimul moment, ştiind că se va cufunda, a avut inspiraţia să înfigă băţul de ski într-un muşchi de pământ.

Leadership: Poţi să scoţi la suprafaţă tot ce este mai bun în tine pe fondul unei ameninţări neaşteptate, transformând o situaţie de cumpănă într-un spaţiu al clarviziunii?

Leadershipul reuneşte acele acţiuni şi resurse lăuntrice, orientate către dimensiunea emoţională a celorlalţi oameni, fapt care conduce la creşterea potenţialului tău de performanţă în a dărui adevărata cunoaştere a binelui. Binele pe care îl poţi înfăptui prin forţele proprii şi prin originalitate, adică prin exemplul personal de supravieţuire.

A-i convinge pe oameni că "eşti în viaţă" înseamnă să dai tonul procesului tău de transformare personală, înseamnă că eşti dispus să fii exemplu altora prin însăşi experienţele tale reuşite, prin gândirea ta, prin puterea ta emoţională, prin faptele tale – prin ceea ce ai reuşit să devii după ce te-ai luptat pentru a fi un exemplu de credinţă, cu preţul vieţii.

Evoluţia ta, ca şi lider, poate fi întârziată dacă leadershipul tău nu permite o evidenţiere optimă a calităţilor deosebite. După cum copiile sau reproducerile unor tablouri indică situaţii când te afli în faţa unor obiecte ce nu pot fi confundate cu realitatea artistică - tot aşa optimizarea unei relaţii, care presupune o cât mai profundă cunoaştere a propriei tale fiinţe şi care se maturizează odată cu nenumăratele transformări ale vieţii tale, indică o mai bună competenţă relaţională, fapt ce determină o probabilitate mai mare de atingere a succesului în bătălia pentru optimizarea performanţelor.

Întreaga viaţă a omului este dominată de interacţiuni şi relaţii interumane. Rolul liderului este acela de a optimiza aceste relaţii, de a le orienta în direcţia obţinerii unor performanţe deosebite şi de a atinge un ţel comun în beneficiul tuturor.

Cât timp, sau ce-ţi trebuie ca să poţi pricepe adevărata natură a unui om? Construirea şi menţinerea unei relaţii este o artă care îmbină ştiinţa de a te raporta la starea spirituală a oamenilor, influenţându-le acţiunile şi deciziile, încercând să intuieşti viitorul lor - cu capacitatea ta de a le pune în valoarea calităţile, de a le dezvolta şi stimula în mod susţinut potenţialul. Aceasta este, într-un cuvânt, clarviziunea.

Leadership: Poţi găsi echilibrul între ceea ce eşti în ochii celorlalţi oameni şi ceea ce defineşte o situaţie din care ai vrea să evadezi, dar nu te poţi abate de la firul evenimentelor?

Depăşirea unui impas relaţional sau optimizarea unei relaţii presupune, desigur, o cât mai profundă cunoaştere de sine, capacitatea de a conştientiza ce se întâmplă cu tine, cu ceilalţi, care este contextul în care se desfăşoară o relaţie. Dar după cunoaştere, pasul următor este schimbarea. Trebuie să fii dispus să dai exemplu altora prin viaţa ta.

Folosirea tuturor sentimentelor, valorilor şi convingerilor pe care se clădeşte fiinţa ta, pentru a le reinventa, sau pentru a le reface structura emoţională şi psihică, pentru a trăi altfel, în acord cu ei înşişi, cu ceea ce sunt şi cu ceea ce iubesc. Schimbarea este, deci, una personală şi se bazează pe puterea ta de a influenţa emoţionalul din oameni. Ca lider, îţi revine sarcina de a găsi echilibrul între ceea ce sunt şi ceea ce îi poate defini pe ceilalţi oameni.

Un lider trebuie să aibă capacitatea de a scoate la suprafaţă ce este mai bun în oameni, prin propria lui forţă carismatică. Acest lucru îl consider o trăsătură pozitivă în dezvoltarea puterii de influenţă. Cred că una din calităţile care stimulează progresul calitativ al leadershipului este viziunea emoţională, componenta esenţială a mecanismului de ghidare a oamenilor spre un anumit punct.

Cum scoţi la suprafaţă ce este mai bun în oameni? Simplu, părăsindu-i o vreme şi lăsând în urma ta un indiciu despre tine, fără a te abate de la firul evenimentelor, cu rare excepții și numai pentru a da explicații sau înțeles mai larg ideilor începute.

Este viziunea emoţională componentă esenţială a leadershipului tău? Eşti capabil să desfăşori o muncă de conducere de înaltă ţinută morală?

Ia în calcul mereu această posibilitate, altfel rişti să-ţi îngrădeşti potenţialul de a-ţi mări dimensiunea leadershipului tău. O parte importantă a artei de a conduce presupune alcătuirea acestei viziuni. Foarte mulţi lideri uită să facă acest lucru pentru că se angrenează în management, ocupându-se mai mult de "întreţinere", fiind inclinaţi să se bazeze pe sisteme şi comenzi.

Leadership: Concordanţa dintre Ego-ul tău şi natura sufletească a celorlalţi oameni este de 100% pe fondul unui eveniment care nu îşi schimba conturul, ci perspectiva din care îl priveşti?

Într-unul din articolele mele de pe site-ul personal făceam următoarea precizare: "Ca să-ţi ridici leadershipul la rang de artă trebuie să întreţii această strălucire a oamenilor ţintind mai mult spre caracterul care îi defineşte, cercetând cu o sensibilitate de artist sentimentele lor, stabilind "compoziţia" lor de calităţi sufleteşti – precum compasiunea, mărinimia şi conştiinţa curată.

Dacă vrei să schimbi convingerile oamenilor trebuie să recurgi la un modelaj mai delicat, pe mai multe planuri (pe plan emoţional şi mental, nu doar profesional) şi trebuie să oferi o sursă inepuizabilă de stimuli care să se încadreze perfect în sistemul lor emoţional şi cognitiv. Aşadar, concordanţa dintre Ego-ul tău şi natura sufletească a celorlalţi oameni trebuie să fie de 100%.

Ai fi dispus să închei orice relaţie cu oamenii ca să simţi cu adevărat o mulţumire sufletească?

Dacă leadershipul tău este prea "sărăcit" de conţinut, el nu va avea niciodată randament. Educându-ţi sinele în spiritul unui leadership care nu promovează beneficii emoţionale puternice, care nu aduce surse importante de motivare, care nu se pliază dorinţelor şi aşteptărilor oamenilor, vei elimina unitatea elementară pe care se bazează consolidarea relaţiilor.

Este ca şi cum ai înlătura pe cineva drag de lângă tine şi ai încheia orice relaţie cu el ca să simţi cu adevărat împlinirea, fericirea şi mulţumirea sufletească. Iar acest lucru va crea o perspectivă negativă asupra calităţilor tale emoţionale, vei fi tratat fără consideraţie de cei din jur.

Şi trebuie să menţionez că, din nefericire, lumea e plină de astfel de cazuri de lideri lipsiţi de căldură sufletească, care şi-au pierdut orice autoritate emoţională în faţa oamenilor – ei fiind urmaţi mai mult din obligaţie decât din plăcere. Vorba aia, suflete flămânde după faimă şi putere nu ştiu unde să caute şi cu ce să aline durerile celorlalţi, trec prin viaţă mânaţi de instinctul progresului şi bunăstării lor materiale, în loc să obţină o bunăstare sufletească.

Leadership: Te preocupi mai mult de prestigiul tău decât de starea spirituală care se creează atunci când ultimul episod din desfăşurarea evenimentelor devine mai mult decât dramatică?

Aşa cum excesul de oxigen arde mai eficient grăsimile, tot aşa şi tu aducându-ţi contribuţia la îmbunătăţirea calităţii leadershipului tău, printr-o ajustare mai bine dozată a laturii tale emoţionale, vei arde mai eficient orice "rău", orice factor negativ din interiorul tău.

Modul în care îţi exerciţi calităţile, în special puterea de influenţă, reflectă acea parte din tine, acel impuls negativ sau pozitiv pe care ţi-l impui atunci când vrei să obţii schimbarea celorlalţi. În consecinţă, preocupă-te mai mult de natura fiinţei tale, de interesul pe care îl acorzi oamenilor, mai mult de starea lor spirituală decât de prestigiul tău. Optimizarea relaţiilor presupune o cât mai profundă autocunoaştere, capacitatea de a conştientiza ce se întâmplă cu tine, dar şi cu ceilalţi, asigurând "contextul" în care se desfăşoară o relaţie. Contextul este dat de deciziile pe care le iei pentru ca colaborarea să fie cât mai strânsă.

Cum îţi aduci contribuţia la îmbunătăţirea calităţii leadershipului tău? Modul în care îţi exerciţi calităţile reflectă partea pozitivă din tine? Eşti dispus să faci sacrificii personale pentru a spori natura ta emoţională? Cum ţi-ai propus să înfăptuieşti lucruri măreţe?

A fi în viaţă = a raţiona + a relaţiona

A fi în viaţă înseamnă a raţiona şi a relaţiona cu ceilalţi, înseamnă a-i cunoaşte pe ei şi a te cunoaşte pe tine însuţi. "Bine ar fi fost să putem cunoaşte toate lucrurile doar prin instinct şi prin sentiment. Dar natura ne-a refuzat acest bine şi dimpotrivă ea nu ne-a dat decât puţine cunoştinţe de acest fel, toate celelalte putând fi dobândite numai prin raţionament", spunea Blaise Pascal.

Leadershipul este momentul când te recunoşti învins de o situaţie care se anunţă catastrofală, conştientizând că salvarea ta o constituie răspunsul oamenilor cu privire la disponibilitatea ta de a risca pe termen scurt, în perspectiva unor performanţe mai mari pe termen lung.

Interacţiunile şi relaţiile interumane cele mai strânse se creează atunci când evenimentele devin dramatice. Ai grijă ce îţi dictează vocea sinelui în asemenea momente !

Interiorizarea unei experienţe de creaţie

On Septembrie 25, 2020

Trebuie totdeauna să ai în vedere o anumită linearitate intrinsecă a vizualului înainte de a explora spiritualitatea propriei naturi într-un spaţiu al creaţiei.

Creaţia este rezultatul unei munci din care ai de câştigat stări de spirit ale locurilor şi elementelor imortalizate, sau este ca o mânecă lungă pe care o tragi mereu până la cot ca să obţii un alt look. Creaţia este o clepsidră în care pui nisip şi cineva trebuie să o întoarcă mereu, însă la timp, ca să nu-şi piardă corpul simbolic. Bineînţeles, ca să ajungi să înţelegi toate astea trebuie să ştii să priveşti în direcţia care trebuie, iar acest lucru este ca şi cum ai vedea zburând pe cer o pasăre rară, ea zboară şi totul pare creat de un arhitect, ca şi cum cineva ar fi îndemnat-o să plutească între cer şi pământ.

Da, creaţia şi Dumnezeu întrunesc toate calităţile unei fiinţe a cărei dimensiune sensibilizantă este mereu activă, definită prin puritate, candoare şi lumină, iar criticile în această direcţie sunt când ascuţite, când conştiincioase. Nu putem face o ierarhie despre asta, ar trebui să fim ori aspri, ori clarvăzători. Ceea ce preferăm să ştim despre creaţie este ca o derulare a anotimpurilor sufleteşti. Mişcarea fizică este o expresie elementară a vieţii, din ea rezultă un dinamism lăuntric ca o captare a vieţii sănătoase.

Creaţia tace înainte de a deveni faimoasă, uneori tace fiindcă nimeni nu-i sesizează valoarea. Toate tăcerile au ceva în comun, sunt un fel de răscoală a imaginilor care deşi nu vrem ne apar mereu în minte…unele tăceri anulează, altele sugerează, iar altele ne fac să trăim o viaţă poetică.

Da, tăcerea este o carte nescrisă, însă amanetată, iar creaţia îşi aşteaptă şi ea poezia, aşa cum poetul îşi caută cuvintele cele mai sublime pentru a descrie lumea în care s-a retras. Observăm că în toate tablourile pictate există o exuberanţă prununţaţă, simţitoare, duioasă, plină de mister şi de metafore, ca o poezie, câteodată sugrumă gusturile fine, alteori produce frenezie. Tot aici se remarcă o domolire a vieţii, ca o purificare a liniilor de forţă ale limbajului poetic care câştigă în eleganţă printr-o fineţe a gustului pentru scrisul artistic, din care rezultă FRUMOSUL. Bineînţeles, creatorul nu este o marionetă din care curg cuvinte, e mai degrabă ca un geam prin care azi vezi ceva şi mâine nimic.

Leadership: Experienţa ta de creaţie îţi dă certitudinea că locul care îţi conţine gradul de spiritualitate determină organizarea percepţiei cu privire la reflexia personalităţii tale în alte personalităţi?

De la creaţie se poate ajunge mai departe, la perfecţiune, aceasta din urmă fiind ca un bilet valoric trimis alb: depinde cine te valorizează, cât e de hotărât şi eficace. Dar, mai adesea, creaţia se poate manifesta ca o culoare care îţi sare în ochi numai dacă este executată tehnic şi dacă constituie o interpretare frumoasă şi modernă a tendinţelor viitoare în artă. Iar perfecţiunea la care se ajunge este doar o descriere însuflețită a lungimii şi consistenței culorii, uneori este stare reală a îndrăgitului artist, alteori e greu de crezut, toate ţin de situaţii în timpuri diferite.

Aminteşte-ţi de celebrul pictor englez William Blake. El s-a manifestat încă de copil ca o fire visătoare şi vizionară: a văzut, odată, un copac plin de îngeri; mai târziu, în catedrala Westminster, i-au apărut vechii regi ai Angliei, şi până la bătrâneţe a fost înconjurat de făpturi din lumea imaginaţiei, într-o mistică iluzie. El nu a fost privat de şansa de a învăţa din propria experienţă picturală, şi a învăţat că tot ceea ce se poate vedea în spaţiul de creaţie este o reflexie a personalităţii sale în alte personalităţi, ceea ce în artă se poate cristaliza ca un fel de găsire a corespondenţelor dintre Sine şi SupraEu, sau dintre Materie şi Spirit.

În opinia mea nu este nicio îndoială că Dumnezeu nu ar exista fără artă şi creaţie, eu admit acest aspect ca pe o bază destul de solidă. Am simţit de multe ori că cineva sau ceva m-a luat de la soare şi mi-a asigurat un loc la umbră, fiind astfel pus în ipostaza unui artist care lucrează după aşa-numita intuiţie - el ştie cât de subit şi de neaşteptat o formă inventată de el îi devine antipatică, cum spunea Kandinsky.

Da, trăim cuprinşi în braţe de Dumnezeu dacă îl avem în noi şi nu e greu să acceptăm empatia, bunătatea, credinţa, acceptarea, legile nescrise - chiar şi în condiţii de umbră, toate ne potenţează ca oameni dacă simţim artisticul din natură, şi sufletul cald al lui Dumnezeu în razele soarelui.

În ceea ce priveşte spiritualitatea, personalitatea mea de scriitor poate deveni reflexia unei alte personalităţi atunci când sinele meu este dezvoltat sau aspiră să se dezvolte la nivelul unui artist care se hrăneşte cu euforia creaţiei şi reuşeşte să facă din creaţia sa expresia unei voinţe divine.

A fi tu însăţi un artist nu ţine de îndrăzneală şi nici de curaj. Ştii cât de diferit se pot comporta oamenii în situaţii diferite de viaţă? Nimic în artă nu e dur cu nimeni, oamenii trăiesc, reuşesc în viaţă, doar morţii şi prostii nu se schimbă. Arta este mereu dusă la un alt nivel, în timp ce creaţia se descoperă ca o cuvântare coerentă a lui Dumnezeu cu oamenii. Aşadar, omul este o bijuterie cu piatră preţioasă dacă ajunge în mâinile cui trebuie, dacă este finisată cu uneltele care trebuie.

Nu este mai puţin adevărat că orice creaţie se explică totdeauna prin linii şi culori, prin imaginaţie şi originalitate. Ce sens are să îmi spui mie că te vezi în ipostaza de artist şi că, oarecum, îţi lipseşte arta? E problema ta cum te vezi în faţa şevaletului. Poate că nu faci decât să trăieşti, iar viaţa ţi se pare uneori că este o epistolă nedeschisă..

Interiorizarea unei experienţe de creaţie este o consecinţă a capacităţii omului de a-şi folosi o parte din simţuri, din trăiri, din gânduri, pentru a contribui la armona universală şi a ajunge la acea exaltare a ideii de perfecţiune umană. Arta înseamnă creaţie, omul înseamnă interioritate, şi orice creaţie se manifestă prin interioritatea cu care avem de-a face în contextul corespondenţei dintre Sine şi SupraEu, sau dintre Materie şi Spirit.

Din toate acestea am vrut să scot în evidenţă FRUMOSUL, dar nu orice frumos, ci acel frumos al fictivului, al sentimentului că fac parte dintr-o altă existenţă, mult mai fastuoasă şi mai provocatoare decât şi-o poate imagina un om normal.

Interiorizarea unei experienţe de natură spirituală

Un artist în folosirea reprezentărilor simbolice are nevoie de o trăire de dincolo de lume pentru ca visele sale distincte să poată fi explorate şi înţelese în termeni aproape divini.

Dacă cineva mi-ar fi spus, într-un vis de inspiraţie divină, că într-o bună zi voi îmbrăţişa cunoaşterea cea mai înaltă, santa conoscenza d'altri tempi , chiar în momentul posesiei unui secret care dă sens vieţii mele, poate m-aş fi gândit la mine ca la un sfânt. Şi dacă acelaşi cineva s-ar fi transpus într-un trandafir care vorbeşte, simbolizând atributul în care este revelat Creatorul, atunci poate că perpetua mea devenire ar fi fost scrisă în genul celor 1001 de nopţi: cu acea continuitate a firelor de nisip care reorganizează constant arhitectura dunelor unei poveşti orientale.

Acum sunt sigur că aceasta a fost mâna hazardului, la care este de ajuns să mă raportez prin scris sau prin pictură, cu stiloul sau cu pensula, ca şi când aş încerca să văd efectele Florii Vieţii desenate în comparaţie cu simbolul printat al Omului Vitruvian. Totul s-a dezvăluit în vis celui a cărui lumină avea să treacă nedeviată, prin UNITATE, în narațiunea mistică a aventurii unui suflet în drumul lui spre întregirea unui tablou de ansamblu al realităţii fenomenale. Iar acest suflet este sensibil la tendinţele dominante şi novatoare ale artei, fiindcă a obţinut toată aprecierea Creatorului încă dinainte de a intra în această lume.

Ştiinţa este rezultatul întâlnirii dintre obiectul artistic şi artist, sub mantia sfinţirii unei picturi devenită emblematică.

Admit uşor acest lucru. Ca orice visător care s-a izbit de pasiunea pentru artă, cred că port în mine spiritul unui alt visător care încurajează pasiunea pentru ştiinţe. Nu-i de mirare că originea cuvintelor scrise de mine cu un stilou fermecat se regăseşte într-unul din punctele temei "El Por Siempre Ahora" pe care artistul le etalează prin proporţii, volume şi colorit, pentru a contura un portret sugestiv al sfinţilor proveniţi din disciplinarea sensibilităţii şi imaginaţiei de către raţiune.

Leadership: Ce exprimă creaţia ta de la înălţimea unei priviri care îşi îngăduie exigenţa de a dezvălui anumite laturi ale realităţii în spiritul unei perspective de tipul „simbiotic"?

Dacă pensula artistului nu va lega aceste puncte cu o culoare deschisă, atunci cuvintele scriitorului vor avea goliciune spirituală şi vor furniza înţelesuri negative, iar viziunea scriitoricească se va pierde în van. Aşadar, stiloul şi pensula sunt complementare unei tematici de revitalizare a artei cu noi teme de exprimare, dar numai dacă au o origine comună: "Mâna nevăzută care controlează hazardul".

De ce sunt atât de sigur că aceasta este adevărata înţelegere a sensului meu de a fi în mijlocul avangardei artistice a momentului prezent? Fiindcă cine priveşte cu atenţie scrisul meu, aşa cum numai pensula îi poate cuprinde coeficientul de valoare, aspectul dinamic şi caracterul autentic, va putea surprinde măsura unei creaţii de excepţie întinsă peste secole ca o perpetuă devenire a fenomenului artistic. Şevaletul se mândreşte cu arta mea, la fel cum eu mă mândresc cu Harul lui Dumnezeu de a pătrunde acțiunea Sa într-un Univers întreg.

În cazul unui şevalet ajustabil, cuprinzător de trăiri, întins cu măsura picturii clasice, atât de necesar redării unei arte a vieţii de vis, într-o cosmografia del minor mondo , consider că orice pensulă care îl cuprinde de la un capăt la celălalt pleacă din vârful unui stilou fermecat, plin de șoapte tainice traduse în mistere verbale, care scrie în altă dimensiune.

Da, visul mi-a profeţit victoria ştiinţelor, In nomine Patris et Filii, Spiritus Sancti , obţinută mai întâi prin forţa cuvântului pur, adânc purtător de sens, puternic rostit, aşezat în spaţiul frumosului sub forma unei viziuni a naturii și a omului de o mare frumusețe și noblețe plastică. Nu-i de mirare că a mea creaţie exprimă acea stare relativă de concordanţă între experimentarea şi trăirea unei uniri a sufletului cu Dumnezeu prin intermediul harului artistic polivalent.

Leadership: Cunoaşterea care favorizează evoluţia artei tale se manifestă vizibil în sensul în care, prin trăirea unei experienţe directe a tainei lui Dumnezeu, omul se recunoaşte pe sine drept imaginea unei realităţi distincte?

Motivul pentru care stiloul meu respinge anumite părţi din literatură şi aprobă altele din arta picturii, este de a clarifica şi de a atrage atenţia asupra faptului că orice pensulă, atingând şevaletul cu măiestrie divină, se regăseşte în chip de Axis Mundi, mijlocind contactul cu Cerul şi cu viaţa eternă. Mai ales pensula, guvernând şi influenţând cu tărie domeniul artistic, poate impregna în memoria timpului o concepţie şi o gândire nouă, la fel cum reuşeşte stiloul în literatură.

În cazul scrisului, pasiunea mă conduce către scrisul lui Mesa Selimovic, construit în cinstea unei experienţe de poveste, în aşa fel încât simt că mă pierd în gândurile tânărului derviş Ahmed Nurudin, într-un moment de rătăcire:

"M-am aruncat orbeşte, cu desfătare şi patimă, în combaterea misticii lui Ibn-Areba, dându-mi seama, poate pentru prima dată, că cerurile şi tainele universului, tainele morţii şi ale fiinţei sunt domeniul cel mai potrivit în care te poţi refugia de grijile pământeşti. Dacă ele n-ar exista, ar trebui născocite, ca adăpost. Or, în versetele lui Ibn-Areba se spune că numai celor aleşi, numai celor puţini le este dat să cunoască înţelepciunea divină."

Şi mie ce-mi rămâne, citind acestea? Îmi rămâne să cunosc ceea ce pot cuprinde cu pensula pe şevalet, conversând mai mult cu pensula, la fel ca şi cu şevaletul, pe aceeaşi temă: extragerea cuvintelor şi expresiilor din tehnica picturilor pe care le am în lucru. Dată fiind acţiunea conjugată a mai multor agenţi dintre care "ritmul rapid al execuţiei", este necesar să extind în mod vizibil înţelegerea semnificaţiei simbolurilor folosind ca instrument de decodificare un stilou a cărui proprietate este de a purifica ideile, de a consolida, captura și introduce energia Absolutului în aura unui artist desăvârşit.

Pensula se deschide şi ea în faţa avântului sufletesc al stiloului, surprinzând în culori, cu discreţie, acea clipă de trăire pe care aş vrea să o păstrez veşnic, aducând în atenţie tehnica de geometrizare a unui chip divin. Ştiu că nici eu nu pot fi surprins în vreo imagine de către cineva, pe care poate aţi dori s-o căutaţi în lume, dar aşa stau lucrurile cu un mare artist în ale scrisului: oferă numai stiloului său şansa de a construi o imagine reală, din gânduri, din cuvinte, din tăceri, şi din modul lor paradoxal de se alătura ulterior Tatălui în actul divin de a mai produce şi alţi Fii.

Un om care se recunoaşte pe sine drept imaginea unei realităţi distincte este un artist care îşi asociază elementele de exprimare vizuală (punctul, linia, culoarea, forma, planul) cu trăirea unei experienţe directe a tainei lui Dumnezeu, din care a deprins virtutea de a uni „o existenţă cu o esenţă".

Interiorizarea unei experienţe de natură spirituală se concentrează pe aspectul de unicitate reprezentat de legătura ce se formează între o activitate cognitivă, elementară, ce creează simboluri, şi intensitatea conexiunii sufleteşti dintre două lumi: o lume a scrisului şi o lume a infinitelor posibilități și modalități de exprimare artistică.

Intermediarul meu predominant pe lângă Dumnezeu

Defineşte şi dezvoltă unitatea fiinţei tale, asumându-ţi totodată răspunderea faţă de învinuitul din tine.

Doamne ! Dacă exişti ca putere de decizie, acum, printre aceste gânduri persistente care-mi strigă vrute şi nevrute încingându-mi creierul, dacă exişti ca mecanism de manifestare a trăirilor nimicitoare care mă frământă tot mai tare provocându-mi insomnii, revenind şi iar revenind, creându-mi o puternică tensiune internă, te rog stăruie să mă salvezi !

Oh, Doamne ! Dacă prin mine te-ai incarnat în trup de fiinţă omenească, te rog, te implor, îţi poruncesc, căci da, acum tu eşti eu, iar eu sunt tu, să smulgi din mine fără durere acest chin amarnic şi greu, care în aparenţă este dulce, şi care se numeşte " înverşunare ". Îţi cer să mă eliberezi de acest fior năprasnic de ură şi duşmănie care fierbe în mine şi-mi stoarce toată vlaga ! Scapă-mă de păcat, ajută-mă să ies din supliciul acestei fortăreţe care este: răzbunarea !

M-am acuzat. Acum vinovatul trebuie să răspundă în faţa judecătorului, în faţa marii instanţe a conştiinţei curate. Ascultă-ţi, deci, sentinţa ! Dar nu se întâmplă nimic. Lovitura de ciocan a judecăţii, gongul prevestitor de rele care mă va înspăimânta cumplit şi mă va prăbuşi definitiv în ruinele vieţii, n-a trezit nimic în mine deocamdată.

În felul în care inima alege binele sau răul, bucăţi din tot ceea ce sunt eu acum, există ceva care mă deranjează şi nu dispare. Determinându-mă să mă îndepărtez de posibil şi să mă apropii de absurd. Ezit să rostesc, fie şi numai în gând, adevăratul nume a omului atât de bun a cărui prezenţă stăruie încă în mine şi nu mă lasă să-mi ducă la bun sfârşit planul.

Un sentiment inechitabil şi prejudicios faţă de mine, o potenţială rezistenţă faţă de impulsul de a face rău mă împiedică să recunosc ceea ce am devenit. Însă, sentimentul de puritate, de cinste, bine înrădăcinat în fiinţa mea, cu care am fost dintotdeauna deprins în existenţa mea cumpătată, s-a scârbit de atâta suferinţă. De aceea, numai înfiinţarea unei direcţii centrate pe răzbunare mă face acum să mă simt mai bine.

Leadership: Poţi realiza tranziţia în spaţiul intermediar dintre o imagine grandioasă şi o imagine care se identifică ideii de înfrângere, căutând să schimbi modul originar de manifestare a rezistenţei în faţa realităţii cu care te confrunţi?

În tot acest moment de imensă neînţelegere şi neclaritate prin care trece, domnul Hobbs este în acelaşi timp spectator, judecător, dar mai ales actor ce-şi joacă duşmănos rolul in spectacolul vieţii altora. Curajos, el încă speră să mai tragă o dată lozul câştigător, dar de această dată mizează mai puţin pe noroc, ci mai mult pe Laura Quinn, complicele lui.

Mai fierbinte ca oricând pulsează într-însul gândul de răzbunare, în mijlocul nenumăratelor contradicţii şi multiplicităţi, contraste, nonsensuri şi perspective, care-l fac şi mai confuz. Punându-l în situaţia de a stârni riposte, de a provoca certuri şi de a isca observaţii şi critici chiar din partea lui însuşi.

Te întrebi dacă nu cumva propriul său Eu îi joacă feste. Dar nu, căci tocmai atunci când Eu-l îi spune să închidă poziţiile de atac, tocmai atunci el deschide altele noi. Şi abia în acest moment de presiune excesivă, când tot sistemul său de valori se destructurează, când în el creşte temperatura de fierbere, când nervii se încordează până la stadiul de maximă suportabilitate, abia acum apare omul întreg în care se creează noi impresii. Abia acum apare imaginea lui nedeformată de o interpretare sau alta. În care Eu-l, supus unei judecăţi aspre, este găsit duplicitar şi mai ales vinovat.

Hobbs trăieşte în balanţă cu Eu-l său. Judecătorul din el abdică de la legile scrise şi nescrise lăsând loc infractorului activ, care de această dată este pus într-adevăr pe fapte mari, să servească propriului adevăr părtinitor. Dar acest adevăr, supraîncărcat de negativism şi răzbunare, este fals, în discordanţă cu adevărul unanim acceptat.

Sentimentul de corectitudine este izbit vijelios de unda pătimaşă a Eu-lui justiţiar. Din ideile sale despre viaţă, cinste, iertare, grijă faţă de cine este, Hobbs îşi plăsmuieşte o nouă viziune despre sine.

Raţiunea, ştiinţa, credinţa sunt concentrate simultan în noul lui Eu, mult iubit şi acceptat ca pe un prieten şi reformator al propriei sale creaţii: răzbunarea, singura călăuză ce-l mai poate conduce către acceptarea fiinţei sale trecute prin experienţa devastatoare a suferinţei.

Leadership: Paznicul propriei tale creaţii încercă să te gonească din zona ta liberă de manifestare, asociind realitatea pe care o experimentezi cu o imagine de sine construită printr-un răspuns la solicitările unei slăbiciuni de moment?

Există ceva care te deranjează şi nu dispare, determinându-te să te îndepărtezi de posibil şi să te apropii de absurd? Un sentiment inechitabil, care-ţi aduce prejudiciu, te împiedică să recunoşti ceea ce ai devenit? Numai înfiinţarea unei direcţii centrate pe răzbunare te face să te simţi mai bine?

Studiul ştiinţific al raportului bine - rău , întotdeauna imprecis delimitat în mediul natural de evoluţie, constituie obiectul analizei noastre. Investigarea acestui mediu în condiţiile unei alte variante de " a fi ", exploatarea fără menajamente a omului care răspunde în faţa propriei conştiinţe, este o cerinţă esenţială în atingerea excelenţei în leadership.

Argumentele pro şi contra căderii omului în plasa unei vieţi riscante, sau ridicării omului la o viaţă demnă, se obţin cu dificultate, mai ales când valorile acestuia nu se contopesc şi nu se anulează în niciun punct. Obligând, deci, la o vastă investigaţie care abordează mai degrabă contextul şi pretextul în care el a fost pus pe "minus".

Aruncă o privire spre omul viu din tine, către executivul central, spre Eu-l care te cunoaşte şi care-ţi şopteşte neîncetat gânduri negative, încercând să te convingă că vei reuşi să te ridici deasupra propriilor neajunsuri şi suferinţe numai prin provocarea suferinţei altora. În acest caz Eu-l devine paznicul propriei tale creaţii de răzbunare, încercând să te gonească din zona ta liberă de manifestare în care se reflectă adevăratele preferinţe pentru viaţă.

Poţi urmări modul de manifestare a unui fenomen psihic prin compararea unei atitudini care îţi accentuează propria centralitate în mijlocul evenimentelor cu răspunderea faţă de schimbările din circumnstanţele care nu îţi sunt favorabile, dar corespund cu percepţia despre tine însuţi.

În condiţiile sumbre ale existenţei omului, nemulţumit de ceea ce a devenit urmărindu-şi doar interesele meschine, leadershipul se usucă, devine tot mai tern, alunecând spre delăsare, spre înapoi. Îndepărtându-se de realitatea obiectivă, leadershipul se transformă într-o iluzie inconsistentă, dintre cele mai triste, anume că poate menţine sub control totul, chiar dacă trăirile îl fac pe om să clocotească în interior.

Iar aşa cum spunea romancierul scoţian John Buchan, " Misiunea leadershipului nu este de a pune măreția în oameni, ci de a o provoca, pentru că măreția este deja acolo ".

Contestând orice posibilităţi de " a fi " ale omului în perioada lui de tranziţie spre auto-guvernare, ca modalitate de înţelegere a evoluţiei sale posibile, propunem în schimb ca soluţie optimă luarea unor măsuri categorice pentru ieşirea de sub o dominaţie totalitară şi incertă. Măreţia poate fi esenţa unei noi doctrine, a unui nou crez, un element care să îl identifice pe lider ca o singură personalitate, neaflată în dualitate cu ea însăşi.

Dacă domnul Hobbs, din filmul " Flawless (2007) ", şi-a făurit idealul său de judecată, Dumnezeul său, prin antiteza faţă de el însuşi, reducându-se la un simplu negativ al imaginii sale reale, - tu, ca lider, ai datoria să-ţi înfrumuseţezi personalitatea în corelaţie strânsă cu factorii de mediu, cu obiectivele pe care ţi le impui, cu necesităţile existente la un moment dat, sporindu-ţi gradul de autocunoaştere şi imaginea de sine.

Leadership: Îţi poţi închipui toate încuietorile vieţii doar sub forma de validare a unui model de om exemplar, trecând prin marea aventură a eliberării tale din contextul care te împovărează?

Omul acesta din tine care te pregăteşte sufleteşte pentru înţeleapta trăire a vieţii, Eu-l acesta care te conduce instinctiv spre anumite decizii și alegeri, autoritatea ta definitorie, este singurul care are întotdeauna putere asupra ta. Eşti în mâna lui de îndată ce află de delictul pe care l-ai săvârşit.

Deci, putem spune că eşti un fel de învinuit, bănuit oricând de interese obscure şi de inconştienţă privind situaţia în care te afli. Practic interpretezi rolul acelui personaj care preia atitudinea indicată de propriul său Eu și o menţine cum vrea el, neutră, pozitivă sau negativă, fermă sau şovăielnică, pe tot parcursul piesei în care decorul se schimbă în fiecare moment. Şi în care confuzia morală trece pe primul loc.

Comparându-te cu ceea ce ai devenit, manifestându-ţi răspunderea necesară faţă de învinuitul din tine, vei putea să-ţi defineşti mai bine identitatea, prin faptul că eşti pro sau contra reacţiilor extreme. Totodată vei putea să-ţi dezvolţi unitatea fiinţei în aşa fel încât să corespundă cerinţelor leadershipului de calitate.

Măreţia unui om stă în felul cum îşi instruieşte Egoul să răspundă cu "DA" la orice schimbare care nu poate fi evitată, dar care poate oricând servi la o mai bună cunoaştere a atuurilor şi calităţilor care decid formula unui rezultat sublim de creaţie.

Un rezultat sublim de creaţie se obţine prin nevoia de a te abate de la orice influenţe străine de conţinutul valoric al personalităţii tale, printr-o desfăşurare grandioasă de la un „început" de reflecţie asupra semnificaţiei existenţei - până la o finalitate a modului în care te adaptezi la cerinţele unei realităţi care te bântuie.

Intermediarul meu predominant pe lângă Dumnezeu scoate în evidenţă Eu-l care creează necontenit o anumită presiune asupra omului, modelându-i, deformându-i, redimensionându-i personalitatea în raport cu viaţa care devine nedreaptă în anumite momente.

Ai nevoie de un semn, de o rază de lumină în care să vezi adevărul în toată splendoarea lui? Care este adevărata ta identitate: una supusă Eu-lui aspru, care nu mai este încorsetat în principii şi valori sănătoase, sau una supusă Eu-lui care se identifică cu binele, cu adevărul şi cu desăvârşirea? Nu te străfulgeră dintr-o dată un morman de întrebări, o durere ascuţită, o viziune cu sensuri mai adânci ce curg confuze?

Defineşte şi dezvoltă unitatea fiinţei tale, asumându-ţi totodată răspunderea faţă de învinuitul din tine.

Interogatoriul riguros al domnului Finch

Maximizează atributele forte ale personalităţii tale, păstrându-ţi poziţia fermă în spaţiul de control în care încearcă să pătrundă şi să domine o altă autoritate.

După ce a avut loc furtul diamantelor, corporaţia London Diamond apelează la serviciile domnului Gavin Finch, a cărui instinct de câine de vânătoare sesizează imediat o mare inadvertenţă între ce este real şi ireal în depoziţiile martorilor.

Expertul strânge probe, întocmeşte rapid o listă de suspecţi şi porneşte la descoperirea adevărului. Radical, el începe războiul, un capricios perpetuum mobile al stoarcerii de informaţii, într-un cerc vicios al cererii şi ofertei. Dar cererea nu este deloc blândă, iar oferta se lăsă aşteptată.

Mici dâre de îndoială, minuscule indicii, duc la un singur numitor comun în toată această ecuaţie cu multe necunoscute: domnul Hobbs. Singura legătură cu acest simplu office cleaner , poate fi explicată în mai multe moduri, dar toate în funcţie de o singură variabilă: timpul. Jaful s-a produs în timpul lui de lucru.

Este necesar să intrăm într-un laborator de cercetare sau într-un cabinet de fizică pentru a observa modul în care se desfăşoară existenţa domnului Hobbs, cu toate adaosurile ei de alb şi negru, urmând legi pe care savanţii n-au izbutit să le studieze şi să le formuleze. Tot ceea ce se petrece în acest complex laborator, îşi găseşte explicaţia în trecutul lui dureros, sfâşietor din anumite puncte de vedere.

Demult, un experiment a dat greş, o reacţie neaşteptată a eliberat fără precedent o anumită cantitate de energie negativă. De atunci, domnul Hobbs nu s-a mai putut redresa, o schimbare de ansamblu s-a produs în el însuşi, în comportamentul normal al constituenţilor care îi asigurau suportul material a funcţionării sale. Totul în el pare învechit, împietrit, un fals care nu poate fi înţeles de nicio putere raţională. Şi totuşi ceva îl ţine în viaţă !

Leadership: Îţi poţi personaliza experienţa de interpretare a rolului unui om care nu crede în forţa dramei sale reale, în contextul unei influenţe care se alătură evenimentelor decisive ale unei duble alegeri?

Câinele îşi începe lătratul. Interogatoriul capătă o nuanţă uniformă, apoi din ce în ce mai închisă. Pe un ton de interogare ironică, pe care îl adoptă de obicei un procuror la tribunal, domnul Finch se năpusteşte asupra suspectului, pe alocuri fără nici un fel de scrupul, intenţionând să obţină dovada certă a vinovăţiei sale. E destul ca inculpatului să-i dea târcoale o scăpare, cât de mică, pentru ca ipoteza lui Finch să se transforme în dovadă certă.

Dar - absolut surprinzător - nimic nu se încordează în domnul Hobbs, nimic nu îl frământă, în timp ce vârtejul tendenţios îl impresoară ameninţător. O clipă bietul om lasă impresia unui învins definitiv, asta până ce găseşte o scăpare - o reacţie secundară la stimulii negativ-explozivi produşi constant de rigidul investigator. O energie negativă este transformată în alta pozitivă. La nivel de personalitate pisica se dovedeşte mai tare decât câinele.

Domnul Hobbs are de ales între a-şi da la iveală planul, cu riscul de a-şi compromite total viitorul, sau de a-şi păstra o poziţie neutră şi corectă faţă de evenimentele petrecute recent.

Dacă în conductoarele liniare rezistivitatea depinde liniar de temperatură, la domnul Hobbs singura cale de a scăpa cu basma curată depinde de rezistenţa materialului din care el însuşi este croit. Doar mintea lui ageră reuşeşte să-l slobozească de sub interogatoriul dus până aproape de extrem. Încrederea, tactul, calmul, iscusinţa de a comunica, tăria de caracter, prudenţa, capacitatea de reacţie rapidă, devin puncte de prim ajutor, cu rol stabilizare în cazul unei eventuale căderi.

Totul e incert la orizontul ce pare că se amână. Singuratic, în amurgul înserării, un om reuşeşte să-şi gonească sfârşitul, să înlăture orice îndoială ce planează asupra lui. Neînfricat, el îşi păstrează poziţia fermă în spaţiul propriu de control în care încearcă să pătrundă şi să domine o altă autoritate, cea a domnului Finch. *

Leadership: Cum faci faţă unei probe surpriză în cadrul procesului tău de evoluţie în special când trebuie să depui efortul de a te rupe de greşelile din trecut care nu trebuiesc judecate printr-o hotărâre definitivă?

Eşti împresurat de vârtejul tendenţios al unui verdict incriminatoriu? Care sunt puncte tale de prim ajutor, cu rol stabilizare în cazul unei eventuale căderi? La nivel de personalitate te dovedeşti mai tare decât orice tip de autoritate străină? Cum poţi face dovada certă a nevinovăţiei tale? Eşti un "fals" care nu poate fi înţeles de nicio putere raţională?

Aplicarea leadershipului în funcţie de nivelul tău de gândire şi de reacţie în faţa evenimentelor inopinate, cu trudă şi cu aplecare asupra adevărului care le sprijină acţiunile şi principiile tale, ajunge să valoreze o nimica toată dacă cele mai trainice caracteristici personale nu contribuie la consolidarea relaţiilor.

Iată o modalitate de a aduce contribuţii serioase leadershipului. Prin "interogatoriu", printr-o probă surpriză în cadrul procesului tău de evoluţie, printr-un test de evaluare a capacităţilor tale, care să determine sublinierea acelor constante şi esenţe generale pe care te poţi baza, şi de care ceilalţi să fie conştienţi înainte să te urmeze.

Leadershipul are nevoie de o structură de forţe, de o simetrie firească, de o armonie deplină între alternativele care te pot ajuta să concepi un tablou, o imagine pertinentă asupra unor situaţii incomode.

Propunerea şi încuviinţarea interogatoriului se face după regulile nescrise ale leadershipului, uneori direct, alteori indirect, printr-o formă sau alta de testare a „sistemelor tale de control", a performanţelor şi a aptitudinilor tale, prin intermediul unei autorităţi străine neştiute şi greu de influenţat.

Până la urmă, cred că leadershipul testat pe "suspecţi" nu se îndepărtează nicidecum de menirea lui, iar rezultatele anchetei, suportând pe alocuri o formă limitată de rigurozitate, poate evidenţia cu mai multă claritate adevăratul caracter al liderului şi adevăratul conţinut al mentalităţii sale.

Leadership: Eşti dominat de simţul responsabilităţii care dă verdictul "Vinovat" sau "Nevinovat" în cazul abordării unei imagini de sine care trebuie să reziste în faţa unui impact emoţional puternic?

Cine are cel mai mult de suferit? Cu siguranţă acela care nu îşi poate permite explorarea propriilor resurse şi experienţe. E vorba de acea teamă de a merge în explorarea propriilor dificultăţi mai departe de suprafaţa lor. Şi în aceste condiţii leadershipul devine mai greu de manevrat, mai greu de folosit, mai greu de înţeles, mai greu de acceptat.

Când cineva se năpusteşte asupra ta intenţionând să obţină dovada certă a capacităţilor tale, singura cale de a scăpa cu basma curată depinde de rezistenţa materialului din care tu însuţi eşti croit. Doar mintea ta ageră reuşeşte să te salveze. Încrederea, tactul, calmul, iscusinţa de a comunica, tăria de caracter, prudenţa, capacitatea de reacţie rapidă, sunt principalele puncte de ajutor, cu rol stabilizare în cazul unei eventuale căderi. O foarte mică variaţie a acestor puncte constante ale personalităţii tale poate arunca în aer tot ce-ai construit, tot ce-ai asimilat de-a lungul timpului.

"Vinovat" sau "Nevinovat", aceşti factori de diferenţiere a unui sine autonom sau temător, care antrenează mecanisme defensive sau ofensive, constituie un mijloc de probă incriminatoriu sau dezincriminatoriu. Impactul emoţional puternic pe care îl resimte domnul Hobbs nu este dat de statutul de "vinovat", ci de statutul de jucător al unui meci de şah în care el continuă să aibă un as în mânecă, fără să aştepte mutarea adversarului. Practic, el se află într-o permanentă stare de calm şi euforie, în timp ce adversarul său se într-o permanentă stare de tensiune şi de rivalitate.

A aborda o imagine de sine menită să reziste în faţa unui impact emoţional puternic înseamnă să te ridici la înălţimea aşteptărilor pe care le implică autoritatea capacităţii tale de a-ţi păstra calmul în situaţiile când intruziunea altor oameni în viaţa ta (sau în sferele tale de activitate) este majoră.

Interogatoriul riguros al domnului Finch desemnează acea etapă din cadrul procesului de evoluţie, care te împiedică să treci la un alt nivel. Desemnează acel fenomen ciudat, foarte incitant şi misterios, prin care ajungi la un complex de trăiri care îţi demască adevărata identitate.

Dar pentru a analiza cu adevărat personalitatea ta, este nevoie ca altcineva să păşească în propriul tău laborator de cercetare. Tot ceea ce se petrece în acest complex laborator, reflectă modul în care se desfăşoară existenţa ta, cu toate adaosurile ei de alb şi negru care te definesc.

Dacă un experiment dă greş, o reacţie neaşteptată va elibera fără precedent o anumită cantitate de energie negativă care îţi va afecta personalitatea. Totul în tine va părea învechit, împietrit, şi în acest caz rişti să decazi într-un complex psihologic de vinovăţie, şi să nu-ţi mai poţi susţine propriile convingeri şi valori.

Interpretul divinului

Deschide calea spre împlinirea rolului tău, conectându-te la sufletul oamenilor prin intermediul propriei tale percepţii despre leadership.

În acea zi splendidă de vară maestrul m-a primit la el în atelier cu nespusă bucurie. Îşi pusese în gând să realizeze o lucrare deosebit de frumoasă şi, odată cu ea, să-şi îmbunătăţească imaginea în ochii celor mai rafinaţi iubitori ai penelului, şi să-şi ridice arta pe culmile cele mai înalte.

Purtând în adâncul său imaginea ideală a frumuseţii, maestrul dorea să realizeze, de acea dată, o pictură numită "Nimfa de la Fontainebleau" , care să întruchipeze frumuseţea celor trei zeiţe - Ceres, Diana şi Erigona în acelaşi timp. Se inspirase din celebra sculptura a lui Benvenuto Cellini, cu acelaşi titlu, dar voia să redea în viziunea şi în maniera sa personală idealul de frumuseţe feminină.

Observându-l cu câtă fineţe şi cu câtă iscusinţă cizela fiecare detaliu în parte, l-am întrebat de ce era atât de importantă acea lucrare pentru el – căci, era evident, vădea o pasiune nefirească, un entuziasm ce atingea aproape frenezia, lucra cu o înflăcărare excesivă ca şi cum ar fi fost conectat la un generator de energie care-i grăbea pulsul şi-i accelera simţurile. Mi-a spus în dulcele şi vigurosul său grai:

- Nicu, ceea ce mă însufleţeşte şi mă oţeleşte este tocmai chemarea mea spre artă, spre desăvârşirea operei mele. Dorinţa mea cea mai mare este ca prin opera ce-o creez să împlinesc ceea ce simt că este destinul meu.

Leadership: Simţi chemarea spre o formă ideală de artă care îţi permite să experimentezi ceea ce se răsfrânge în plăsmuirea destinului?

Maestrul s-a conectat la mine prin intermediul propriei sale percepţii despre arta în care credea, plantând în sufletul meu acel ceva unic şi frumos, acel sentiment de admiraţie şi de apropiere faţă de ideile sale, faţă de atitudinea sa, faţă de aşteptările sale, acel respect deosebit, sincer, deschis, prietenesc pentru lucrul bine făcut, pentru modul în care îşi folosea talentul. Tu cum te conectezi la cei din jurul tău?

Un om care a învăţat meşteşugul leadershipului simte chemarea spre o formă ideală de artă, înălţătoare, asociată în principal cu un anumit mod de a vedea, de a crea şi construi o relaţie între om şi suportul artei - a privi, a înţelege şi a crea realităţi. El îşi orientează spiritul şi toate forţele spre o nouă viziune, spre o nouă percepţie a lumii, a lucrurilor, a vieţii, exprimându-şi deschiderea spre o gândire originală şi creativă – care este calitatea cea mai de preţ specifică unui artist adevărat - şi conştient, cu admirabila forţă a spiritului, se dedică cu tot sufletul şi cu toată mintea muncii pe care o prestează, depunând permanente eforturi pentru a fi aproape de perfecţiune.

O artă înălţătoare este un drum al regăsirii de sine, al răspunsurilor, al cauzelor nobile, al căutărilor de sens şi al dorinţei de a experimenta ceea ce de obicei este invizibil ochiului comun. Ea îţi permite să experimentezi ceea ce se răsfrânge în plăsmuirea destinului, modul în care decurge viaţa ta în fiecare moment de inspiraţie şi angajament, atunci când contribui la distingerea dintre valoarea autentică a creaţiei tale şi caracterul tău de profunzime.

Destinul unui om este asemenea artei plăsmuită de un pictor: are un folos în lumea asta atâta timp cât îţi dăruieşte o mulţumire sufletească puternică şi atâta timp cât cineva îşi aminteşte de tine.

Leadership: Arta ta se simte bine doar atunci când opera ta e desăvârşită?

Liderul, aidoma unui pictor, îşi pune arta în practică, ţinând mereu cont de datoria lui: să facă ceea ce este corect şi bine, ca astfel "opera" lui să fie desăvârşită. El se conectează la sufletul oamenilor prin intermediul "operei" sale, prin intermediul artei sale care izvorăşte din interiorul său, şi care insuflă respect şi încredere.

Nu interesele personale îl îndeamnă pe lider să împlinească ceea ce aşteaptă oamenii de la el, ci faptul că este adânc conştient că trăieşte pentru o cauză nobilă care va fi salutată de oameni, nutrind, fără nicio îndoială, convingerea nestrămutată că tot ceea ce face el e unic, că nimeni nu poate face lucrurile mai profund şi mai eficient decât el.

Leadershipul este totul, artă şi creaţie. Înseamnă să te contopeşti cu sufletul lumii prin intermediul "operei" tale. Dar e alunecos, e al naibii de alunecos. Căci, parafrazându-l pe celebrul scriitor Stephen King, arta vine dintr-o imaginaţie creativă care munceşte din greu şi se simte bine doar atunci când opera ta e desăvârşită. Dar pentru că "opera" ta să poată căpăta formă, pentru ca intenţiile tale să se materializeze, trebuie să rânduieşti în chip uimitor, în detaliu, înaripat de inspiraţie, tot ceea ce ţine de priceperea ta.

Adică, în cuvinte mai simple, să faci adevărate minuni prin iscusinţa mâinilor tale, prin intermediul imaginaţiei creatoare, prin gândirea, sentimentele sau acţiunile tale. Trebuie să redai splendoarea "operei" tale cu atâta exactitate şi atâta graţie, încât oamenii să nu se poată opri să nu-şi arate satisfacţia. Deci, socoteşte-ţi mintea şi sufletul în vederea atingerii unui ideal înalt de manifestare artistică.

Marea Operă căreia trebuie să-i găseşti desăvârşirea este o creştere a valorii autentice a lucrurilor care te înconjoară printr-o abordare care trece dincolo de prezent şi de granițele realităţii.

Interpretul divinului este cel care, punându-şi arta în practică, reuşeşte să dea glas prin intermediul "operei sale" propriului său suflet, propriilor sentimente pe care le trăieşte, propriilor idei, viziuni şi concepţii.

De multe ori liderul interpretează rolul unui artist care, folosindu-se de dibăcia cu care a fost înzestrat, stăpânit de o adâncă şi puternică pasiune pentru leadership, sesizează necesitatea perfecţionării, dedicându-se atingerii ei cu întreg sufletul.

Asta este cea mai înaltă şi reală forţă a unui lider.

Intervenţia regizorală

On Decembrie 30, 2015

Învaţă să exprimi existența din „miezul realului", subliniind toate acele caracteristici ce pot servi drept argument pentru o abordare diferită a temei cercetate.

"Greva" urma să fie un inel al unui lanţ, unul din filmele seriei "Spre dictatură". Seria trebuia să cuprindă opt filme, începând cu tema introducerii literaturii ilegale peste graniţă şi până la cea a deportărilor şi apoi a evadărilor. Greva trebuia să fie tema celui de-al cincilea film.

S-a început totuşi cu aceasta turnare a seriei, la propunerea lui Serghei Eisenstein, deoarece era cea mai de masă şi mai înrâuritoare. De la bun început s-au decis cele trei caracteristici ale viitorului film: să prezinte imaginea generalizată a unei greve şi nu o anumită greva istorică. Să nu aibă eroi individuali, ci să conţină confruntarea colectivului de muncitori cu grupul de capitalişti şi cu slugile lor. Să fie un film compus după metoda montajului de atracţii. *

Leadership: Poți să prezinți lumii opera finisată a unei realităţi aparte prin intermediul unui tablou care se extinde dincolo de cadrul de analiză şi evaluare a conţinutului de expresivitate al personajului pe care îl redai în mod unic?

Regizorul, omul de creație, cunoscând bine condiţiile deosebit de prielnice dezvoltării culturii și artei, se concentrează îndeosebi asupra anumitor aspecte din viaţa reală ce țin ori de partea ascunsă a lumii, ori de partea ei reprezentativă. Dar înainte de a-şi etala realizările într-un fel nou de a face film, pentru ca lumea să îi poată cunoaşte şi aprecia profunzimea și harul de a face din orice imagine una memorabilă, el se opreşte şi priveşte în urmă la ce a realizat.

Opera finisată a unei realităţi aparte este de fapt un act de conştientă conservare a amintirii unui eveniment trecut pe care regizorul îl trăieşte ca pe o reflecţie vie ce îi caracterizează cunoaşterea, preluând în acest fel rolul eroului-narator al poveştii sale. Dozarea adecvată a conţinutului de idei la expresivitatea imaginii face ca personajul pe care îl redă în mod unic să capete semnificaţia unei năzuinţe de împlinire mult aşteptate: de a fi el însuşi un factor de decizie într-o lume unde limita este dată doar de imaginație.

Ce exprimă de fapt existența din „miezul realului" pe care l-a redat integral în montajul său? Fără grabă, cu o reală dorinţă reformatoare, el verifică dacă a înţeles cu adevărat mesajul şi dacă a subliniat în consecinţă toate acele viziuni, lucruri speciale, motive, caracteristici, ce pot servi drept argument pentru o abordare diferită a temei cercetate. Este oare necesară o eventuală revizuire şi reactualizare a argumentului respectiv?

Ceea ce justifică hotărârea, pretenția la dreptul de intervenție în cazul realizării filmului, sunt descrierile vii pe care regizorul le înserează și condensează periodic în scenariu, apoi în montaj. Ele sunt folosite pentru a defini traiectoria compoziţională în ceea ce privește credibilitatea pe care o acordă surselor de informații pe care se fundamentează valoarea a ceea ce încearcă să scoată în evidenţă.

Conţinutul de expresivitate al personajului pe care regizorul îl redă în mod unic defineşte traiectoria unui eveniment trăit ca pe o experienţă personală ce trebuie împărtăşită şi orientată în direcţia unei noi filosofii artistice, cea care produce efecte de lungă durată în conştiinţa lumii pe care şi-o imaginează ca fiind a lui.

Intervenţia regizorală se exercită doar la nivelul identificării unor sensuri încă nespuse sau nefinalizate scenic, extrase din suportul de informaţii suplimentare culese pe parcursul tuturor paşilor realizării operei - oferind o anumită imagine asupra raportului dintre timp, fapte, lume, loc si realitatea înconjurătoare.

Leadershipul este un efect al unui context de receptare. A prezenta imaginea unei lumi prin intermediul un tablou care se extinde dincolo de cadrul de analiză, înseamnă de fapt să repui informațiile de care dispui într-un context cu prioritate modificată în care oamenii să regăsească o familiaritate şi un sentiment de apartenenţă faţă de un spaţiu pe care şi l-au însuşit şi din care par a face parte dintotdeauna.

Intimitatea sufletească care transpare în scena cinematografică

Leadershipul artistic în cinematografie implică abilitatea de a naviga între forțele duale ale binelui și răului, transformând aceste lupte interioare într-o narațiune vizuală complexă și profundă, capabilă să rezoneze cu publicul.

"Încercând să mă transpun în cursul numeroaselor repetiții și filmări ale penibilelor emoții ale lui Ivan, nu mă puteam elibera de senzația de neplăcere fizică, care mă indispunea în cel mai înalt grad."

Dar, mergând mai departe, reținem o altă afirmație a regizorului Serghei Eisenstein, care ne dezvăluie din nou o intimitate sufletească ce transpare, care este exprimată prin această scenă. Perceperea "binelui" și a "răului" a avut o mare importanță în copilăria sa și a dus ulterior, în forme evident mult mai complexe, mai alambicate, la cumplite lupte interioare. Iar acum, aici: "aceste două lecturi decurg pe un antifon, pe două voci... Ca text, ele par a se continua una pe cealaltă, dar cu toată asemănarea exterioară dintre ton și tempo, dintre maniera de a citi și ritm, orientarea dramatică a celor două lecturi este diametral opusă. Nu întâmplător una dintre ele este rostită de cel mai aprig dușman... iar cealaltă de cel mai devotat prieten."

Această luptă lăuntrică a celor două lecturi reprezintă parcă lupta interioară "pentru suflet", iar una dintre ele, una din lecturi, îndeamnă sufletul țarului la disperare, beznă și moarte, iar cealaltă, spre acțiune și viață. Și, legată de aceasta, există și în "Ivan cel Groaznic", ca și în celelalte filme ale lui Eisenstein, tema permanentă a răzbunării, care revine mereu cu aceeași obsesivă regularitate, străbătându-i creația de la filmele "Greva" și "Potemkin", prin "Que viva Mexico", până la "Ivan cel Groaznic".

Un lider vizionar în cinematografie știe să orchestreze "voci" contradictorii în narațiune, creând o tensiune dramatică care reflectă conflictele interioare profunde.

Unul dintre conceptele fundamentale în cinematografie, la care este important să reflectăm, este înțelegerea luptei interioare a eroilor, adică a personajelor. Aceasta implică studierea emoțiilor și a percepțiilor lor asupra binelui și răului, care pot fi influențate de experiențele din parcursul vieții, la care filmul nu ne dă decât indicații pe scurt, mici fragmente. Astfel, regizorii folosesc adesea analize psihologice și concepții filosofice minuțioase pentru a explora diferitele aspecte ale personalității și pentru a evalua interacțiunile acestora, similar modului în care Eisenstein explorează complexitatea emoțiilor în filmele sale, cum ar fi "Ivan cel Groaznic".

Variabilitatea tonului și a tempo-ului răspunsurilor emoționale este crucială pentru a asigura o caracterizare eficientă a personajelor. Din acest motiv, Eisenstein manipula foarte bine tonul și tempo-ul scenelor pentru a crea un efect dramatic. În procesul de montaj, se folosesc adesea tehnici paralele pentru a compara diferite scenarii și pentru a facilita dezvoltarea unui plan de reflectare a realității pe care se construiește viața personajelor. Această abordare permite înțelegerea profundă a luptei interioare a personajelor, reflectată de asemenea în creația lui Eisenstein, precum cazul lui Ivan, unde sunt prezentate cu o obsesivă regularitate emoțiile cele mai puternice, dar și în filmele precum "Greva" și "Potemkin", până la "Que viva Mexico".

Stilul regizoral unic se manifestă prin abilitatea de a exprima intimități sufletești în scene cinematografice, transformând experiențele personale în artă universală.

Formarea emoțiilor în procesul creativ este un fenomen complex care implică interacțiuni psihologice și artistice în condiții variate de transpunere și percepție. Senzațiile se pot cristaliza prin precipitarea ideilor din subconștient sau transformarea altor impresii artistice. Structura internă a creației este determinată de aranjamentul temelor și motivelor, care influențează proprietățile dramatice și estetice ale operei.

Studiul intimității sufletești a creatorului oferă informații cruciale despre istoria sa personală și procesele care i-au modelat viziunea artistică. Criticii utilizează diverse tehnici, inclusiv analiza temelor recurente și interpretarea simbolurilor, pentru a examina compoziția și structura operei. În acest context, lupta lăuntrică dintre bine și rău, asemenea interacțiunilor chimice în formarea mineralelor, creează tensiuni dramatice care modelează narațiunea.

Obsesia tematică, precum cea a răzbunării în opera lui Eisenstein, poate fi văzută ca o structură cristalină recurentă în întreaga sa creație, reflectând presiunile interioare și condițiile 'geologice' ale experienței sale de viață. Această regularitate tematică, asemănătoare cu formațiunile mineralogice repetitive, oferă o cheie pentru înțelegerea profunzimii și complexității viziunii artistice a creatorului.

Firul conducător care străbate întreaga creație a artistului, care îndeamnă simultan la acțiune și viață, trebuie să sublinieze legătura profundă dintre emoțiile personale și mesajul artistic.

Intimitatea sufletească care transpare în scena cinematografică se referă la luptele interioare ale protagonistului, deoarece aceste conflicte sunt esențiale pentru înțelegerea motivațiilor personajului, pe principiul că drama interioară este sursa autentică a acțiunilor exterioare. Spun asta în ideea că dezvăluirea emoțiilor profunde creează o conexiune puternică cu spectatorii, din care decurge impactul emoțional al operei asupra publicului.

Întoarce-te la Tine

Învaţă să cuprinzi acceptul de a te afla în faţa a nenumărate uşi, pe care nicio cheie nu ar şti să le deschidă.

Trebuia să găsesc o explicaţie plauzibilă în privinţa acestui drum lung, ajungere incertă, ce nu ducea decât spre mine însumi, pe cât de concret, pe atât de abstract. Când, unde, de ce, pentru ce se întâmplă ceea ce observam în depărtările unei mări întinse şi subit ivite în imaginaţie, între un sfârşit şi alt început, ştiind că trebuie să mă întorc acolo, undeva în timp şi în spaţiu, cât mai departe de restul lumii? Să văd de mă regăsesc în ceea ce-am fost odată?

Între lucrul plănuit şi lucrul înfăptuit există o trecere de la închis la deschis, care nu se știe cât durează, un fel de înaintare şi scufundare concomitentă într-un timp despre care simţi nevoia să crezi că există un soi de apropiere veridică. Dar timpul, pentru ca limbajul lui să fie coerent, este indispensabil să se asocieze şi să se lege de gândirea intuitivă şi analogică.

Tu, asemenea unui astru sclipind tot mai puternic pe măsură ce iscodeşti tot ce-ţi stimulează imaginaţia, prin magica unitate a dubiilor, ambiguităţilor şi obscurităţilor crestate în trupul unei materii veşnice, pe care singur o oblojeşti şi neaflat de nimeni. Când crezi că te poţi pune de-a curmezişul lucrurilor care există aievea în jur, deşi conturul lor este neclar, în misticismul unei lumi recreate la modul livresc, tu să încerci a renunţa la tot, la absolut tot, numai spre a defini pentru mai puţin de o secundă ceea ce este vizibil doar cu ochiul unei filosofii oculte?

Leadership: Poţi să înlocuieşti valoarea obţinută într-una din ecuaţiile necesare în definirea individualităţii, încât să obţii a doua necunoscută a propriei matematici existenţiale?

Ecuaţia cea mai importantă în definirea individualităţii mele era destul de complexă: mai întâi trebuia să capăt o anumită experienţă de viaţă pe care îmi era imposibil să o susţin fără intervenţia unei cunoaşteri abolute a Universului, apoi trebuia să mă folosesc de toate treptele vieţii spre a ajunge într-o poziţie de putere de la care nu poate urca mai mult. Bineînţeles, cu riscul de a rămâne singur într-un internet holografic în care toate creierele umane sunt conectate la un computer central capabil să alimenteze aceeaşi realitate colectivă.

Ioannis Anghelos, ultimul descendent al dinastiei bizantine a Anghelizilor, încerca să înțeleagă raţionamentul doctorului Nicolaus Cusanus: "Dacă într-un punct de pe cerc se construieşte o dreaptă tangentă, iar raza cercului creşte din ce în ce mai mult până ce devine infinită, perimetrul cercului se va confunda cu dreapta. Deci infinitul, nemărginirea lui se întâlneşte cu finitul, în cazul nostru, cercul cu perimetrul mărginit, şi se confundă."

Fără să-mi dau seama, am ajuns în situaţia exercitată de o fascinaţie excesivă care trebuia pusă la locul cuvenit, printre intestinele unui monstru – asociat cu gândirea matematică, întruchipând înţelepciunea şi inteligenţa nemărginită, pentru care toate minunile lumii îşi găsesc o anumită expresie în repetatele propuneri ale gândurilor, în forma lor brută, în valoarea presiunii parţiale a unei cantităţi din sângele arterial al unei pulsaţii cosmice primare. Universul încerca să-mi spună ceva?

Paralel cu lumea ştiinţei, o forţă superioară părea să vorbească prin mine, fără să realizez că toată puterea pe care credeam că o deţin, era iluzorie. Eram prea mic ca să cuprind acceptul de a mă afla în faţa a nenumărate uşi, pe care nicio cheie nu ar şti să le deschidă. Prima necunoscută a matematicii mele existentiale se referea la prezenţa unui context de gândire care să servească doar unei conceptii limitate: "Trebuia să știu dacă păstrez secretele privind locația unei chei care-i aparține numai lui Dumnezeu"

Marea provocare a ştiinţei pe care o îmbrăţişează leadershipul este să cuprinzi o învăţătură foarte înaltă cu mintea unei alte persoane, în viziunea unui plăsmuitor de lumi care se confundă cu Dumnezeu.

Finitul unei clipe de luciditate, dilatate la exces de halucinanta febră a iniţiativelor de aflare a răspunsurilor la marile întrebări ale trecerii mele prin lume, nu putea întâlni infinitul. A doua necunoscută a matematicii mele existenţiale se referă la modul de a aduna toate indiciile din mărturisirile mele de pe blog, scrise cu avântul unui artist al lumii trecătoare pentru răspândirea cunoaşterii suprasensibile, astfel încât să răspund unei idei nebuneşti: că pot deveni oricând o opțiune alternativă la viziunea tradiţională asupra universului.

Pentru a integra leadershipul în conceptele care au puterea să schimbe vieți, trebuie să fii deschis către o gândire independentă şi capabilă să îţi susţină, într-un anume sens de convergenţă, către o limită a unei extreme a dimensiunii de raţionalitate într-un orizont lărgit. Leadershipul înseamnă să-ţi trasezi ferm înaintarea spre o orânduire nouă a ceea ce încerci să crezi în relație cu tot ceea ce te înconjoară, cu tot ceea ce înseamnă să fii parte a unei ecuații mai mari.

A obţine a doua necunoscută a propriei matematici existenţiale este similar cu apariţia unor spaţii noi de confruntare cu tine însuți, între un sfârşit şi alt început, ştiind că trebuie să te întorci acolo, undeva în timp şi în spaţiu, cât mai departe de restul lumii, și să vezi dacă poți să te regăseşti în aceea ce-ai fost odată.

Dacă reușești să te regăseşti neschimbat faţă de cum ești acum, în misticismul unei lumi recreate la modul livresc, când simți că o forţă superioară pare să vorbească prin tine, abia atunci te poți considera apt de a fi receptat ca punct de plecare pentru o foarte necesară recuperare a rostului adevăratei arte de a conduce: aceea de a sugera un nou început, un fel de receptare intuitivă a totului care explică cel mai adânc posibil viața, lumea, natura umană și chiar universul.

Capacitatea de a sugera un nou început de gândire într-o manieră de a vorbi despre univers în planul existenţei depinde de modul cum îţi valorizezi cunoaşterea într-un context de tipul: "convince yourself to believe in a Creator that's part of who you are".

Întoarce-te la tine este drumul parcurs către o iniţiere în tainele propriei fiinţe, încât să găseşti o explicaţie plauzibilă a modului în care trebuie să te transformi în altcineva mai puternic pentru a întruchipa înţelepciunea şi inteligenţa nemărginită.

Întoarce-te spre mine cu un ochi plin de propria privire

Magia este consecinţa modului cum imaginezi o lume fantastică şi cum o transfigurezi într-o creaţie raportată la logica lui Dumnezeu.

Am vrut să fiu un magician, un creator al efectelor de clarobscur, un promotor al unicităţii, un artist deosebit pe care însăşi Dumnezeu l-ar recomanda drept model al unei arte care nu dispare niciodată, care nu se învecheşte, ci îşi efectuează manifestarea de anvergură în relaţia fizică dintre refracţie şi reflecţie. Ceream prea mult de la un simplu visător? Mă bucuram de o închipuire care se refuză concretului?

Poate că, totuşi, mă încredeam prea mult în altcineva diferit de mine, cu mai multe calităţi, mai îndrăzneţ şi mai captivant, dar asemănător mie prin forma de imaginaţie pe care mi-o furniza mândria. Mândria de a nu fi ultimul din istoria acestei omeniri, cinstea de a fi primul într-un top al minţilor strălucite, al marilor zei ai omenirii.

A înţelege magia este o artă, un proces de trăire asemănător cu posibilitatea de a gusta dintr-un fruct oprit: trebuie să te laşi în voia unei senzaţii de pericol iminent, în ciuda unei senzaţii accentuate de fragilitate. Minunea, intrarea într-o altă situaţie, mai primejdioasă, într-un câmp al percepţiilor metafizice, mă binedispunea, mă fascina ca pe ceva ce îmi depășea cele mai îndrăznețe visuri. Arta este magia de a scrie cu cerneală invizibilă cuvântul „Surprinzător" pe o singură idee despre mine însumi.

De asemenea, am ajuns să cred că arta este rodul unei relaţii de simbioză între trei parteneri: unul care se vrea Dumnezeu, celălalt care îl lasă pe Dumnezeu să conducă lumea, iar ultimul este întruchiparea lui Dumnezeu în chip de om. Oare mă puteţi privi concomitent în trei direcţii, la fel cum aţi privi un magician?

Spectatorul nu poate vedea decât una din feţele lucrurilor, cealaltă este ascunsă de însăşi atitudinea sa faţă de fenomenele socotite iraţionale.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi demonstrezi convertirea la ceva mai presus de tine, încât să faci parte din realitatea celorlalţi la nivel de autoritate asupra unei creaţii a cărei perfecţiune întrece imaginaţia?

Eu sunt un mare magician, îşi zice Dumnezeu, chiar dacă magicianul arată ca un om care se dă drept Dumnezeu şi pe care Dumnezeu nu-l recunoaşte ca fiind egalul Său.

Iar oamenii care văd un magician se întâlnesc întotdeauna cu Dumnezeu prin prisma unui act de creaţie care se distinge prin forţa de sugestie, în faţa unui Creator care se reinventează în permanenţă, ştiind că ceea ce se vede cu ochiul liber este imaginea unei evadări într-o altă lume, privită şi simţită mai intens.

Presupun că acumularea unei experienţe de acest fel este o relaţie geometrică între sentimentele de teamă şi delicateţe, sporite misterios de o doză de superstiţie creată după toate aparenţele unei povestiri realiste. În planul formei artistice și totodată al iluziei, trebuia să mă încadrez în câmpul unei existenţe care se voia a fi un ghid pentru o altfel de formulare a realismului metafizic, Shakespearian, filtrat prin multiple grile imaginare. Aici, fiecare personaj de pe scenă îşi prezintă un chip diferit de al celorlalte.

Dumnezeu m-a întrebat de ce vreau să fiu un mare magician, fiindcă oricum nu-mi va acorda vreodată şansa să ajung ca El, la acelaşi nivel de superioritate. I-am spus că dacă nu-mi este dat să ajung un mare magician, nu voi putea niciodată să arăt tot ce pot, iar astfel slava şi puterea Lui nu se vor afla niciodată în mine. Ar însemna că Dumnezeu nu există, că magia nu există, iar eu nu pot fi un magician. Şi, probabil, celebra vorbă: "Omul a fost făcut după chipul şi asemănarea lui Dumnezeu", este falsă.

N-am primit niciun răspuns. Şi, astfel, am învăţat ce înseamnă puterea: să nu dai nicio explicaţie referitor la cine eşti, ci să continui să pui lumea în dificultate când vine vorba de adevăr. Asta e magia. Iar eu sunt un magician fiindcă, desigur, nimeni nu crede eu sunt Dumnezeu şi că exist în fiecare din voi, că fac parte din realitatea voastră, chiar acum.

Leadership: Poţi să pui semn de egalitate între două entităţi de putere, de natură diferită, prin intermediul unui act de creaţie care implică criteriul asemănării cu un fenomen de receptare a unei imagini veridice asupra realităţii neobservabile?

Concomitent cu magia se dezvoltă şi pătrunderea în alte universuri. Dacă m-am deghizat într-un magician care îşi ascunde dumnezeirea, cu grijă şi atenţie, este pentru că trebuia să-mi adaug o sursă suplimentară de promovare a imaginii mele în formula alterităţii: "Mergi spre un altul pentru a obţine ceea ce tu nu ai." Dacă, în acest sens, aş face o trimitere la personajul lui John Fowles, iată ce mi s-ar aduce la cunoştinţă:

"Nicholas, dacă vrem să încercăm să reproducem fie şi numai parţial câte ceva despre legile misterioase care guvernează existenţa atunci trebuie să ştim să depăşim unele din convenţiile pe care omul le-a inventat pentru a ţine în frâu aceste scopuri fundamentale. Asta nu înseamnă că în vieţile noastre obişnuite asemenea convenţii trebuie ignorate. Nicidecum, ele sunt ficţiuni necesare, dar în jocul de-a Dumnezeu noi am pornit de la premiza că în realitate totul este ficţiune şi totuşi nicio ficţiune nu este necesară."

Sub ce formă mă vedeţi acum, când ştiţi că sunt totodată Nicholas Urfe, Neculai Fântânaru şi John Fowles, într-un joc de-a Dumnezeu, sub auspiciile magice şi dătătoare de putere ale trinităţii metafizice? Probabil, vă închipuiţi că mă aflu la mijloc de lumi: o întâlnire aparte între personaj şi scriitor, în negociere cu o moarte ce-şi aşteaptă învierea. Nu este o ficţiune, ci doar o realitate care trece de la o stare la alta, de la un punct la altul, într-un cerc magic care se rostogoleşte în interiorul altui cerc.

Chiar asta este magia: o formulare a realismului propriu, extins, ca cel din lumea visului, cuprins între ceea ce eşti de fapt şi ceea ce vrei să fii.

Leadership: Îţi acorzi şansa să te gândeşti la tine ca la un teritoriu al cunoaşterii ştiinţifice care se interpune între o realitate mai înaltă şi o creaţie a cărei forţă devine imaginea unei entităţi omnisciente?

Superioritatea devine dominantă în leadership, aşa cum magia devine factor dominant pentru elanul spiritual, fiind explorabilă prin intermediul a ceea ce manifeşti prin descoperire şi prin suscitarea curiozităţii, prin unirea puterii de creaţie cu rezonanţa acelor curenţi de energie care intră în structura unei noi realităţi de a fi.

Ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce izbuteşti să realizezi este o consecinţă a manifestării interiorizării cu ajutorul proceselor de creaţie, având ca rezultat atributele: inspiraţie, viziune şi revelaţie. Aşadar, experienţa care individualizează un artist este procesul realizării une creaţii văzută ca o proiecţie a Eului într-un plan mai înalt de realitate, impus de o ordine superioară de cunoaştere şi de spiritualitate.

Iar spiritualitatea este ştiinţa din spatele unui truc ingenios: uimitorul mijloc de a face să dispară realitatea.

Hocus Pocus, am dispărut. Nu-i aşa că nu mă vedeţi? Nu-i aşa că nu mă înţelegeţi? Cu toate astea, ştiţi că sunt deja în mintea voastră şi că mintea voastră citeşte mai departe, chiar dacă nu ştie ce urmează, fiindcă excepţionala putere a unei minţi geniale şi a unui suflet mare îşi armonizează aspiraţiile prin acea stare de spectacol, de surpriză şi detaşare de cotidian.

Trag concluzia că liderul-artist este o consecinţă a puterii de modelare a unei lumi interioare mai vaste, în perimetrul dimensiunii unei cunoaşteri care combină teorii şi practici inovative, ce au la rândul lor ca activ motivaţiile, observabile sau nu.

Acestea îl impulsionează către individualizare, dându-i curajul de a se dedica total excepţionalităţii în câmpul extrem de larg al efectelor obţinute prin însăşi darul Creaţiei, evidenţiind marea lucrare a oricărui artist: capacitatea de a fi total prezent în orice situație și de a o schimba pur și simplu prin puterea a fi o entitate diferită, o entitate omniscientă condusă de legi eterne, necunoscute încă.

Leadershipul este realitatea din care îţi fabrici imaginea de Superioritate, în aşa fel încât imaginea primită de vederea lumii să nu afecteze modul în care te transpui într-un alt TU.

Întoarce-te spre mine cu un ochi plin de propria privire dacă vrei să înţelegi imaginea unui magician care este un iniţiat în marile mistere şi, în acelaşi timp, este o realitate vie menită să sugestioneze relaţia unei Entităţi Superioare cu o lume în care totul se vede dintr-o singură direcţie.

Este direcţia în care caracterul personal şi libertatea de exprimare te fac să te simţi un altul.

Întoarce-ţi vederea spre triumful ochilor

Ceea ce vezi este forma pe care o capătă lucrurile atunci când sunt integrate într-o imagine de sine idealizată, pe care o recunoşti ca fiind „o oglindă a trăirilor autentice".

Chiar acum încerc să mut un generator de curent care, greu fiind, îmi cam solicită coloana vertebrală. De fapt, mai mult îl privesc decât îl mişc, cu deosebirea că ceea ce văd prin ochelarii părerilor obişnuite nu are potenţial de mişcare a lucrurilor, fiindcă ochii gestionează o structură supusă transformării prin care gândirea integrează obiectul ca întreg, adică îl asimilează sub forma cunoașterii.

Asta dă naştere la o dimensiune în plus a percepţiei vizuale, fiindcă ceea ce văd este forma unei imagini statice, stricte, înregistrate în memorie, dar afişate în interfaţa unei perspective de integrare a artei în cotidian.

Chiar și percepţia deplasării obiectelor are un rol important în mecanismul atât de complex al vederii, fiindcă prin mișcare, adică prin eliberare de potențial sensibilizator, ele se disting mai ușor prin culoare, formă şi senzaţie, pe o anumită suprafață de teren. În acest caz, arta nu mai este doar o imagine statică la care mă uit și merg mai departe, ci devine o poveste "live" care se dezvoltă prin contribuţia vederii la recunoaşterea mecanismului de pârghie emoţională pe care îl produce semnificaţia pe care o dau valorii "realism", din mediul exterior.

Leadership: Vederea ta contribuie la recunoaşterea mecanismului de pârghie emoţională pe care îl produce semnificaţia pe care o dai valorii de "realism", din mediul exterior?

Obiectele şi evenimentele la care se referă simbolurile aparţin trăirilor care se exclud reciproc, ca un soi de abstractizare a realităţii, în sensul că anumite proprietăţi şi caracteristici ale obiectelor reale sunt ignorate doar ca să facă loc unei tensiuni de ordin confesional. Din acest considerent spun ce simt, pentru că îmi îngădui să promovez o activitate a sufletului care percepe sau cunoaşte lucrurile materiale. Şi o spun în felul în care pictorul îşi alege modelul reprezentativ din faţa lui (un colţ de natură sau un grup de obiecte) şi-l reproduce apoi prin formă, culoare şi efecte.

Să mă pot vedea aşa cum mă văd lucrurile, acesta este dezideratul care ar trebui să mă însoţească pe tot parcursul ascensiunii artei abstracte, învăţătura necesară unei creaţii desăvârşite care începe cu văzul, simţul dominant, l'immagine proiettata sulla retina, şi se continuă cu senzaţia de orânduială, când totul este la locul său. Poate că ar fi trebuit mai bine să mă gândesc la un decor neutru, pe care să-l înnobilez cu accente clasice, nu la un generator electric, încât arta pe care încerc s-o evidenţiez să fie mai exactă în "găsirea formei perfecte", decât în accentuarea simbolismului prin conţinut (nu prin formă).

Ochii criticului de artă, Ion Frunzetti, păreau să fi reţinut ceva dintr-o realitate identică cu a mea atunci când făcea referire la pictorul francez Paul Cezanne:

"Odată cu văzul, conştiinţa întreagă încearcă să cuprindă realitatea totală a obiectului; obiectul rămânând continuu străin însă, şi conştiinţa din ce în ce mai amară, din ce în ce mai sărăcită de elanuri şi încrederi. Practic, ocupându-se prea mult de obiect şi prea puţin de el, Cezanne face greşeala de a răsfăţa prea mult realitatea."

Leadership: Poţi să fixezi în "tablou" momentul de mare impact care te plasează în mijlocul unui decor neobișnuit în care realitatea depinde numai de observatorul direct?

Încă mă întreb de ce simţirea se accentuează pe măsură ce sporeşte înţelegerea realităţii obiective. Oricum, în artă trebuie mereu pus un semn de egalitate între văz şi simţire, pe planul unei realităţi care se cere descrisă fără nicio umbră de disimulare. Se înţelege de aici că atributul esenţial al simţirii unice, prin condiţionarea vederii, este de a fi o călăuză spre cunoaştere şi de a chema fiinţa la propria ei lume - o lume a semnificaţiilor în care funcţionează realitatea duală: examinarea vizuală directă şi senzaţia de mister.

Exact ca în romanul Agathei Christie, celebrul "Zece negri mititei". Este vorba de 10 persoane care au fost invitate pe o insulă. Uşor uşor oamenii încep să moară, dar de fiecare dată când moare unul, dispare şi una din cele 10 statuete din porțelan aflate pe masa din salon. Şi tot de fiecare dată când dispărea o statuetă, se mai pierdea o bătălie împotriva unui adversar de nevăzut. Aşa că setul de statuete, singurul complice al criminalului, devine singura grijă a celor rămaşi în viaţă, singura lor realitate, singura lor prevenţie împotriva planului criminal. Aşadar, nişte lucruri banale devin singura lor lume, în afara ei nu mai există nimic.

Nu-i de mirare că nu vă vine a crede. Dar, să ştiţi că vederea are la bază simţirea realităţii statice sau dinamice, ce adânc sufletul îl deşteaptă. Numaidecât, arta vine de la simţire, ca facultate a sufletului de a se manifesta dinlăuntru în afară, prin sesizarea lucrurilor sau aspectelor sensibile care te preocupă cel mai mult. Şi orice lucru are sensibilitatea lui dacă ştii să-l priveşti aşa cum a-i privi un tablou: prin temă şi dimensiuni, printr-un stil realist care, în acelaşi timp, întreţine misterul.

O primă călăuză a leadershipului spre dimensiunea artei o constituie imperativul "îţi vine a crede?" de care trebuie să ţii seama atunci când experimentezi senzaţia de control a realităţii care antrenează sporirea sensibilităţii vizuale.

Întoarce-ţi vederea spre triumful ochilor ca să descoperi realitatea cuprinsă în acest interval: "Gândul îţi poate da doar minimul; simţirea îţi poate da maximul." Spun asta, ştiind că direcţia vizuală a ochilor mei are ca şi călăuză de bază senzaţia de mister, iar asta se întâmplă fără ca arta să-şi piardă curiozitatea de a înţelege egalitatea dintre realitatea descrisă în amănunt şi semnificaţia amănuntelor care pot să oglindească o nouă realitate.

Şi, încă mă întreb: oare o reprezentare a întregului ochi (bogat în manifestări izolate ale vederii), poate să fixeze într-un tablou momentul de mare impact care îl plasează pe om în mijlocul unui decor neobișnuit în care realitatea depinde numai de observatorul direct?

Întoarcerea în timp până la începuturi

Defineşte-ţi existenţa în funcţie de convingerile care te motivează să mergi înainte, fără să te ancorezi în umbra a ceea ce ai fost.

" Clarice Starling era tulburată, pustiită împotriva voinţei sale. Unele din lucrurile pe care Lecter le spusese despre ea erau adevărate, altele doar cu aparenţă de adevăr. Câteva secunde simţi cum o conştiinţă total străină îi umbla alandala prin creier, trântind lucrurile de pe rafturi, ca un urs într-o tabără de corturi. "

Era evident că în mintea ei se derulau cu repeziciune aspectele vieţii până la începuturi, către o ţintă precisă, către o taină profundă. Ce nu putea fi dezvăluită decât de umbra a ceea ce a fost, sub acţiunea forţei de tracţiune continue a conştiinţei, activată şi configurată în condiţii reale de stres, presiune şi nesiguranţă. Consecinţa a fost în final inacceptarea. Punerea în mişcare a mecanismului de reparaţie şi control care să înlocuiască vechea structură de gândire şi compromisurile poluante ce afectaseră în mod grav dezvoltarea ei.

Forţa schimbării, bine susţinută de propriile ei convingeri şi aspiraţii, prelua în mod automat energia recuperată prin frânare, prin stoparea oricăror intervenii de natură externă. Dar şi prin eliminarea treptată a vocii lăuntrice care acţiona într-o manieră anchilozantă asupra moralului ei, având un efect dezamăgitor. Hannibal Lecter îi dăduse de înţeles că firea ei atât de slabă nu va putea face faţă situaţiei, sau cel puţin aşa îşi închipuia ea sub aspectul unei triste concepţii de viaţă, despre lume, despre menirea ei într-un joc poliţist fără ieşire şi fără sfârşit.

Leadership: Voinţa ta de a te rupe de tot ce vrei să laşi în urmă îţi oferă posibilitatea de a simţi satisfacţia unei identităţi necontrafacute de relevanţa îndoielnică a meseriei pe care o profesezi?

Clarice simte satisfacţia unei identităţi necontrafăcute de relevanţa îndoielnică a meseriei pe care o profesează, simte că este în stare să traverseze acel munte al prejudecăţilor care îi solicită un conformism faţă de convenţiile sociale, dar se consumă în contemplarea pasivă a stărilor ei sufleteşti de durere de care nu poate să se detaşeze. Influenţa lui Hannibal Lecter răstoarnă ordinea lucrurilor, este ca o umbră care te urmăreşte toată viaţa.

Eşti pregătit să-ţi răsplăteşti reuşitele profesionale în contextul unei influenţe care se alătură evenimentelor regulate?

Puterea de redresare a încrederii şi a siguranţei de sine era dată de relaţia trecut-viitor , prezentul fiind în acel moment destul de incert. În vreme ce energia potenţială a punctului de focalizare spre o zonă existenţială diferită, spre rezultate şi performanţă, extinsă în jurul unui pivot central de obiective bine întreţinute în câmpul consecutiv de forţe de natură pozitivă, creştea cantitativ în momentele dificile de rătăcire.

O influenţă apăsătoare care se alătură evenimentelor regulate este cartea poveştii unui erou exemplar care figurează în posibilul rezumat al unui destin neîmplinit de gloria pe care o promite reuşita vieţii.

Totul se reducea la şansa de a fugi departe, de a evada din infernul torentului de zgomote din întunericul minţii. The sound of the lambs screaming in her mind . Voia să fie tare. Voia să-şi întărească controlul asupra capacităţilor ei ascunse. Voia să-şi câştige libertatea, să se îndepărteze de zona zero a neliniştii, să scape de pedeapsa dureroasă a păcatului de a se supune propriei sale firi esenţiale, sensibile şi neputincioase.

Însă tocmai această deranjantă limitare a determinat-o pe nevinovata fiinţă, supusă de timpuriu efectelor forţelor de ordin interior, să-şi regândească opţiunile. Nu exista niciun reper, niciun indiciu, ci doar un singur pas de făcut. Întemeiat. De parcă s-ar fi efectuat asupra ei un experiment menit să-i testeze simțul de orientare. Iar acestui experiment a putut să-i reziste cu dârzenie.

Forţa ei de rezistenţă a acţionat prompt asupra suprafeţelor de control pe care se disputau cu regularitate duelurile minţii, imprimând o accelerare înaintării sale spre un orizont luminos, lărgit de gândire şi acţiune.

Leadership: Îţi măsori valoarea îndoielnică pe care o acorzi statutului de "apărător al unui destin de excepţie" printr-o energie consumată în reflecţii care însă e pierdută pentru acţiune?

Clarice staţionează într-un act de gândire profundă care îi lâncezeşte şi mai tare sufletul, îi amorţeşte dorinţa de a se implica în conturarea unui altfel de viitor.

Putem vorbi în prezent despre un leadership activ din perspectiva factorilor de natură obiectivă, atunci când în stabilirea termenelor de eliminare a "pasivului" sau de creştere a "activului" în existenţa individului, respectivele solicitări de încărcare cu prea multă confuzie sau incertitudine nu sunt în baza garanţiei oferite de idealurile la care el se raportează şi aspiră.

Aşa cum vina necesită întotdeauna o pedeapsă, tot astfel o situaţie de criză necesită întotdeauna o poziţie activă şi strict realistă din partea individului, mai ales dacă raportarea lui la idealurile pe care caută să le împlinească capătă, pe alocuri, nuanțe mai reci şi mai închise. Adică, atunci când este tulburat, pustiit împotriva voinţei sale şi nu poate să înlăture tot ceea ce este aparenţă de adevăr.

Importanţa pe care o acorzi evenimentelor vieţii se alimentează din conjunctura în care suferi transformări de ordin identitar adiacente predispoziţiei spre gesturi extreme şi imprevizibilităţi comportamentale.

Ajungem astfel la condiţiile de divizibilitate ale leadershipului, introduse în ceea ce este în esenţă un proces de tranziţie al cărui rezultat este concretizat în dezvoltarea sau regresul individului. Este vorba de un caz particular de împărţire a personalităţii individului în două părţi egale ca pondere şi efect: slăbirea moralului şi puterea de redresare a încrederii, date de relaţia trecut-viitor, prezentul fiind în acest punct destul de incert.

Clarice a fost la un moment dat pe punctul să clacheze, a fost la un pas de o rătăcire demonică numită nebunie, fiindcă i se părea că nu este de-ajuns de puternică pentru a schimba regulile unui joc psihologic intens condus de Hannibal. Practic, ea s-a abandonat cu totul în paradisul unei gândiri savante care depăşea cu mult înţelegerea ei şi a devenit dependentă de acest traseu alunecos, dar incitant totodată. Paralel cu această realitate a "rătăcirii", în lumina căreia omul încearcă să-şi formuleze de obicei alternativele şi să-şi analizeze direcţiile de acţiune, intervine însă şi problema unui leadership redus la o unitate psihologică.

Înainte să conduci, reechilibrează-ți personalitatea, diminuează sau elimină acele simptome de tensiune sau angoase care conduc la căderea sistemului tău funcţional. Fă tot posibilul să ieşi de sub acţiunea forţei de tracţiune continue a conştiinţei, activată şi configurata în condiţii reale de stres, presiune şi nesiguranţă.

Voinţa de a te rupe de tot ce lași în urma ta și a îmbrățișa necunoscutul unei gândiri avansate presupune să îţi reconstruieşti sistemul de valori cu care mergi la drum după regula: "fiecare are dreptul la un judecător".

Valori precum onestitatea, integritatea, respectul, generozitatea, compasiunea, implicarea, proactivitatea, sârguinţa, te pot salva din împrejurări dificile, dar în acelaşi timp te pot condamna la o rătăcire în bezna unei vieţi incerte.

Întoarcerea în timp până la începuturi evidenţiază acel studiu retrospectiv pe care trebuie să-l faci pentru a-ţi evalua capacităţile şi mai ales viitorul. Raportul dintre amintiri şi vise trebuie să fie cât mai aproape de valoarea 1, ceea ce înseamnă că ai evoluat în concordanţă cu obiectivele pe care le-ai fixat în diferite momente ale vieţii. Dacă valoarea este mai mare de 1, înseamnă că ai stagnat şi te-ai mulţumit doar cu amintiri. Iar dacă valoarea este sub 1, înseamnă că te-ai autodepăşit.

Rezultatul acestui raport influenţează şi exprimă toate beneficiile de orice natură, inclusiv cele materiale pe care le-ai obţinut efectiv datorită muncii, perseverenţei şi abilităţilor tale.

Întotdeauna vederea are parte de recunoştinţa ochilor

Ceea ce te însufleţeşte este ceea ce observi la tine atunci când ţinta ta este expansiunea realităţii spre validarea unei creaţii remarcabile.

Şi de data aceasta vremea a fost total nefavorabilă: ploaie şi lapoviţă. Abandonul era o alternativă plauzibilă, era un fel de acoperire necesară retragerii din faţa răspunderii pe care mi-o asumasem înaintea semi-maratonului, unde am vrut să mă clasez pe o poziţie fruntaşă. Nuanţele cele mai subtile ale stărilor sufleteşti care mă încercau în acel moment, mai ales starea de cugetare a sinelui care încerca parcă să migreze într-un tablou cu un aspect fabulos şi real, îşi proiectau puterea de afirmare într-un univers bizar şi neliniştitor, făcându-mă să mă simt la fel de dezorientat precum eroul unui roman scris de G. Wells:

"Eram doar o jucărie în voia întâmplării. Aveam, în sinea mea, certitudinea absolută că eram implicat într-un proces de maturizare provocat de cea mai profundă cunoaştere de sine pe care mi-o permitea propulsarea creației mele într-un nou orizont. M-a cuprins o stranie convingere că, în afară de grotescul legilor, formelor şi fenomenelor neregulate ale naturii, aveam în faţa mea întreaga balanţă a vieţii omeneşti în miniatură, întreg jocul de instincte, raţiune şi destin în cea mai simplă formă a sa."

Într-adevâr. Ceea ce am experimentat în timpul semi-maratonului, pe o vreme nasoală, era creaţia unui artist care se întrece cu el însuşi. N-o să spun c-am fost demoralizat atât cât a durat această întorsătură a situaţiei, n-o să spun c-am pierdut din mine acea calitate a artistului de a vedea o lume în culori dincolo de temporalitatea obscurităţii, în lumina palidă a unei dinamici, a unei transformări permanente care dezvăluia parcă finalul cusut cu aţă albă a neverosimilului. O să spun doar atât: dispoziţia sufletească a alergătorului din mine a fost reacţia pictorului în faţa unei opere de artă, numită abstract: "o întoarcere spre mine însumi într-o lume anapoda".

Leadership: Contextul în care te afli încearcă să-ţi spună ceva despre o creaţie aflată la limita interiorului cu exteriorul, în măsura în care trebuie să recuperezi paşii făcuţi într-o direcţie greşită?

Îmi spuneam că totul o să fie în regulă, că totul vine şi trece, până şi cel mai mic sentiment de amărăciune putându-se transforma într-un joc de culori şi forme pe care artistul genial le aranjează într-un mozaic menit a spori expresivitatea imaginilor care-l reprezintă, care-l fură și îl țin captiv în povestea lor, de partea cealaltă a ploii torenţiale. Ceea ce nu era deloc amuzant pe vremea aia cenuşie. Da, ştiu asta, ştiu bine că însăşi contextul în care mă aflam încerca să-mi spună ceva despre o pictură care invită la o activitate de creaţie, făcându-mă să mă simt ca şi când aş fi împărţit un desen în zeci, sute de alte desene mai mici. Dar la fel de bine ştiam că pictura se află la limita interiorului cu exteriorul.

Nu doar atât. Încercând să recuperez nenumăraţi paşi făcuţi într-o direcţie greşită, cu toate însuşirile unei simţiri trecute printr-un Sartanopmys Sytlucsas Amhes, o simţire care mă făcea să privesc cu alţi ochi ceea ce este în jur, am realizat cât de mult contează să las totul în urmă, aşa cum a fost. Şi să mă concentrez doar asupra prezentului cenuşiu, plin de incertitudine, aruncându-mă mai degrabă într-o agitaţie neobosită unde sufletul nestingherit părea desprins dintr-un ecou al faptului că orice aspect al lumii reale distruge totul în afară de un tablou în care culorile se contopesc pe toată suprafaţa.

Un tablou care nu este echilibrat creează un sentiment de nelinişte, nu-i aşa? Şi tocmai în acest tablou mi-am integrat existenţa pentru a imortaliza un moment extras din eternitatea unui univers lăuntric ascuns, pentru care și o singură clipă înseamnă un Nesfârșit. Era ca un fel de experiment mental, fiindcă tabloul nu gestiona organizarea vizibilului într-un imaginar capabil să mă ajute constant în momente dificile, şi în acest caz singura mea ieşire dintr-un decor plin de noroi, hopuri şi băltoace, era să mă las în voia gândurilor.

Leadership: Poţi să te observi în ipostaza unui artist care luptă pentru realizarea unui decor plin de sens, încât să schimbi designul integral al unui tablou abstract mai mare?

Secunde, minute inabordabile, preţioase, din timpul meu omenesc, care se împuţinau văzând cu ochii, mă făceau să simt culoarea din interiorul unei pensule care acoperă toate tipurile de pictură. De vină era vremea ploioasă care m-a determinat să accelerez doar pe coborâre, nu şi pe urcare. În mod evident, confundasem ecourile propriei mele respiraţii sacadate, anapoda, reci, cu amestecul de vapori proveniţi dintr-un amestec de vopsele şi lacuri pe care natura parcă le ilustra într-un tablou viu, cu precădere într-o imagine artistică ce traducea, poate, un fel de luptă interioară de care nu poţi să scapi cu una, cu două.

Desigur, niciun observator n-a ajuns până acum atât de departe încât să observe un alergător ca mine în ipostaza unui artist care luptă pentru realizarea unui decor plin de sens, imaginativ, generos, încât să schimbe designul integral al unui tablou abstract mai mare. Nu degeaba mi-a trecut prin minte posibilitatea renunţării, trădarea propriei mele credinţe într-o ameninţare constantă: abandonul.

Oare abandonul unui univers în expansiune ar fi putut să provoace o dilatare supărătoare a lumii mele imaginare? Fiindcă în artă, la fel ca în running, există o lege constantă: "ceea ce te însufleţeşte este ceea ce observi la tine atunci când ţinta ta este expansiunea realităţii spre validarea unei creaţii remarcabile".

Are sens, nu-i aşa? Stilul în care mi-am pictat parcursul până la linia de final este destul abstract, îndeosebi fiindcă am imaginat şi am creat sub puterea impresiilor de moment, a stărilor prin care treceam, lăsând culorile şi decorul să transmită ceva din imaginea personalităţii unui alergător de excepţie care ştie să-şi evalueze sensibilitatea înainte să-şi demonstreze unicitatea valorilor atletice.

Dacă doreşti să te inspiri exclusiv din artă trebuie să faci față provocării de a decide în ce direcție trebuie să te îndrepţi, încât imaginea care te reprezintă să-ţi fie aproape de suflet.

Întotdeauna vederea are parte de recunoştinţa ochilor dacă ţin cont de faptul că imaginea pe care sufletul meu a derulat-o pe tot parcursul semi-maratonului este rezultatul viziunii unui artist excepţional, şi la fel de bun sportiv, care ştie să înfăţişeze în fiecare împrejurare frumosul etern, frumosul îmbrăţişat de trăirile bine ascunse în interior.

De fapt, aşa stau lucrurile în artă: emoţia naturală, stârnită de o anumită împrejurare, nu trece în operă ca atare decât dacă se află sub imboldul provocării de a dărui o experienţă de neuitat.

Întrebări Despre Leadership

On Mai 10, 2010

Tu eşti primul răspunzător pentru găsirea modelului bun de leadership?

- Cum te poziţionezi faţă de schimbare?

- Cum stabileşti legături cu ceilalţi oameni?

- Întâmpini dificultăţi în a te raporta la oameni?

- Sistemul de valori pe care ţi l-ai creat conferă o aură deosebită leadershipului tău?

- Tu cum îţi pregăteşti liderii pentru viitorul companiei tale? Dar tu cum te pregăteşti?

- Care sunt primele trei principii solide pe care le-ai formulat, care să-i inspire pe oameni şi să-i ghideze către leadershipul tău?

- Cum arăţi că ai înţeles pe deplin sensul sublim al misiunii tale?

- Cum îi transformi pe ceilalți oameni în lideri, şi cum îi transformi pe lideri în modele de urmat?

- Cum dezvolţi relaţii personale cu cei pe care intenţionezi să îi înzestrezi cu o personalitate magnetică şi impunătoare? Nu uita că orice relaţii bune dintre tine şi ceilalţi viitori lideri, încep cu o legătură personală. Trebuie să fiţi buni prieteni, şi nu doar colaboratori.

- Care crezi că sunt aspectele pe care oamenii nu le ştiu (sau nu le observă) la leadershipul tău? Ce influenţă crezi că ar avea aceste aspecte asupra impactului tău? Pe măsură ce oamenii încep să te cunoască şi să te placă, acceptă tot mai mult orientarea ta şi doresc să înveţe tot mai mult de la tine?

- Cunoşti priceperile şi slăbiciunile viitorilor lideri? Ce temperament au? Ştii care sunt ţelurile lor? Ce anume îi motivează?

- Ai încercat să-i vezi pe potenţialii lideri în afara lumii afacerilor? Nu uita că la serviciu, cu toţii încercăm să fim aşa cum vor ceilalţi să ne vadă. Acest lucru e valabil peste tot, la orice persoană.

- Impactul tău este unul de suprafaţă sau unul de profunzime?

- Poţi excela în vremuri de tranziţie? Te dezvolţi în aşa fel încât să devii un lider eficient, chiar şi în timpuri grele? Faci în aşa fel încât ţelurile tale să fie realizabile? Care este modelul de gândire care te poate ajuta cel mai mult în situaţii dificile?

- Cum îţi răsplăteşti progresele proprii?

- Ai puterea să trăieşti cu experienţa eşecului, fără să te desparţi de vechile deprinderi sau de vechile metehne?

- Ce înseamnă pentru tine "leadershipul nesănătos"?

- Care sunt primii trei factori care crezi că ar putea încetini sau chiar opri procesul de înzestrare al viitorilor lideri?

- Schimbarea pe care o impui este una de suprafaţă sau de esenţă?

- Cum modifici modul de gândire şi de acţiune al celor din jur? Le împărtăşeşti scopul tău şi îi ajuţi să îl atingă pe al lor? Cum îi faci părtaşi la visul tău? Ai dorinţa să faci ceva mai mult pentru ei decât pentru tine?

- Care este acea mare calitate a ta, care o admiră ceilalţi din jur (şi care le permite să devină lideri de succes?)?

- Le spui oamenilor ce înseamnă cu adevărat să fii un lider? Foarte important de subliniat aici: Ştiu ei oare cât îi va costa să devină lideri?

- Ce înseamnă pentru ei interesul tău sincer pe care li-l arăţi?

- Simţi că trăieşti degeaba, sau ţi-ai pus toată viaţa în slujba oamenilor?

- La ce valori trebuie să apelezi ca să poţi avansa mult la un nivel mai înalt de influenţă?

- Ce preţ are progresul tău? Oamenii sunt oare dispuşi să plătească acest preţ? Îţi controlezi aşteptările?

- Leadershipul tău constituie o oportunitate cu risc scăzut, dar cu posibilităţi mari de câştig pentru oameni? Deciziile tale răspund aşteptărilor oamenilor, sau sunt împotriva naturii umane?

- Parcurgi toate nivelele leadershipului alături de cei care te urmează?

- Poţi să înscrii un gol dintr-un unghi închis?

- Eşti dispus să-ţi dovedeşti ţie însuţi că poţi ajunge singur la un nivel înalt?

- Tu ce atitudine adopţi faţă de relaţiile umane?

- Respingi orice formă de a te raporta la oameni? Ataci orice gândire care nu corespunde cu a ta, îngrădind orice iniţiativă individuală sau colectivă de a interveni în leadershipul tău?

- Aperi şi încurajezi evoluţia lor prin acţiuni concentrate constante de dezvoltare a resurselor oamenilor? Ca să treci de la "amatorism" la "profesionalism" trebuie să-ţi dezvolţi pasiunea pentru dezvoltarea umană, să construieşti relaţii eficiente de colaborare.

- Eşti productiv şi ajuţi şi alţi oameni să se dezvolte? Cum "navighezi" pe parcursul procesului lor de dezvoltare?

- Pentru tine, leadershipul reprezintă o destinaţie sau un proces?

- Ai fi dispus să o iei de la capăt în cazul în care ai da greş în demersurile tale?

- La ce nivel de afli în relaţie cu oamenii din jurul tău?

- Cum determină influenţa ta modul în care îi conduci pe oameni? Îi conduci pe toţi oamenii la fel? Te afli la acelaşi nivel cu fiecare dintre ei?

- Ai capacitatea de a recunoaşte potenţialul fiecărui om de a trece la un nivel înalt de leadership?

- Accepţi provocarea de a fi tu însuţi împotriva tuturor?

- Care este modalitatea cea mai potrivită prin care îţi poţi amplifica impactul pozitiv asupra celorlalţi?

- Tu eşti primul răspunzător pentru găsirea modelului bun de leadership?

- Ai tendinţa de a fi mai mult independent?

- Sădeşti în conştiinţa oamenilor interesul tău viu faţă de valorile lor?

- De unde începe leadershipul la tine?

- Cum privilegiezi schimbarea celor de lângă tine?

- Tu poţi să asiguri stabilitate propriei tale existenţe? Cum?

- Care este scara valorilor pe care le preţuieşti în existenţa ta?

- Leadershipul tău evoluează datorită valorilor pe care le adopţi şi pe care le promovezi?

- Influenţa ta se datorează funcţie de responsabilităţile specifice funcţiei tale şi de nivelul ierarhic pe care îl ocupi?

- Care este lucrul care te face să te simţi continuu împlinit? Îţi petreci 80% din timp făcând lucrul care îţi solicită cea mai mare pricepere?

- Ce anume poate face din tine liderul dorit de ceilalţi oameni? Nu uita ce spunea odată expertul în materie de conducere, John Maxwell: "Oricât de grozav este jucătorul, dacă nu poate face un joc de echipă, el nu va ajuta niciodată organizaţia".

- Ce impact are leadershipului tău asupra celorlalţi oameni?

- Cum maximizezi valoarea celor din jurul tău?

- Cum îţi pui în valoare calităţile?

- Oamenii te urmează prin prisma a ceea ce faci pentru ei?

- Oamenii te urmează pentru ceea ce eşti şi reprezinţi?

- Eşti capabil să le transmiţi oamenilor un îndemn spre unire?

- Cum îi încurajezi pe oameni să se implice în viaţa comunităţii?

- Te concentrezi numai asupra slăbiciunilor supărătoare ale oamenilor?

- Stimulezi mediocritatea în care "rătăcesc" oamenii, sau stimulezi creşterea lor? Cum anume?

- Cum avansezi pe scara leadershipului? Trebuie să oferi mai mult ca să ajungi la un nivel superior? Cum îţi reglementezi moral şi emoţional relaţia cu oamenii din jurul tău?

- Care crezi că este factorul care ar putea diminua considerabil valoarea propriului tău fel de a fi?

- Îţi onorezi obligaţiile astfel încât trăsăturile tale de caracter să nu fie puse la îndoială?

- Acţionezi deschis, ferm, la tot ceea ce este cu adevărat important pentru ceilalţi oameni?

- Care sunt adevăratele valori pe care se întemeiază leadershipul tău?

- Este "resuscitarea interesului pentru avangardă" cea mai importantă trăsătura a leadershipului tău?

- Ai dorinţa şi abilitatea de a-ţi creşte potenţialul de lider? Porţi discuţii cu oamenii pentru a afla răspunsul la problemele care îi frământă?

- Care sunt capacităţile evidente (sau ascunse) ale persoanei pe care vrei s-o selectezi pentru schimbare?

- Poţi să efectuezi acea resuscitare a speranţei de a transcende un sistem anchilozat?

- Cum îţi exteriorizezi sentimentele în faţa oamenilor?

- Care este calitatea unică, necesară unui lider, care te caracterizează?

- Eşti perceput ca un partener de lungă durată?

- Cu cât avansezi mai mult, cu atât mai sigur este leadershipul tău?

- Poţi lua decizii chiar dacă ceilalţi nu sunt de acord cu tine, mergi până în pânzele albe pentru o cauză dreaptă?

- Cum te faci vizibil pentru ceilalţi, ai prezenţă de spirit? Poţi lua decizii în ciuda incertitudinilor şi a presiunilor?

- Îţi sprijini eforturile şi iniţiativele pe puterea ta de a empatiza cu ceilalţi?

- Crezi că oamenii din jurul tău îţi pot fi profesori în anumite momente? (Ce ai învăţat până acum de la ei?)

- Crezi că este posibil să-i conduci pe oameni fără să te cunoşti pe tine însuţi?

- Cu cât avansezi mai mult în carieră, cu atât mai nesigur este leadershipul tău?

- Te abaţi de la normele morale şi de deontologie profesională?

- Cum ţi-ai propus să atingi fericirea prin leadership?

- Care crezi că este factorul care îţi poate stopa elanul şi te poate demotiva să urci mai sus în ierarhie?

- Cum îţi afectează emoţiile şi sentimentele performanţa?

- Poate leadershipul tău să producă confuzie?

- Exista tendinţa spontană a oamenilor de a accepta un leadership bazat pe o resuscitare a "reuşitei" ?

- Este posibil să influenţezi în bine masa oamenilor pe care-i conduci?

- Cum poţi avea o influenţă mai mare asupra celorlalţi?

- Care este primul pas pe care trebuie să-l faci pentru ca leadershipul tău să beneficieze de o mare eficienţă?

- Reuşeşti să oferi celorlalţi o imagine clară a leadershipului tău?

- Lucrezi într-un domeniu în care prea mult bun-simţ şi atitudine strică?

- Leadershipul tău este în "cădere liberă" sau se menţine la cote înalte?

- Tu adopţi o atitudine constructivă atunci când îţi este pus la grea încercare caracterul?

- Leadershipul reprezintă un proces sau o funcţie?

- Tu adopţi o atitudine constructivă atunci când îţi este pus la grea încercare caracterul?

- Implică leadershipul tău oamenii aflaţi în continuă schimbare? Demarezi schimbarea lor şi le facilitezi dezvoltarea?

- Subliniezi prin intermediul leadershipului tău individualitatea caracterului deosebit a celorlalţi oameni? Oamenii care nu fac parte din domeniul tău, te caută să-ţi ceară sfaturi pe probleme de leadership?

- Ţi-ai dezvoltat o atitudine de conştientizare a dificultăţilor?

- Eşti eficient în zonele pe care ai nevoie să le înzestrezi?

- Cum ţi-ai defini atitudinea în momentele dificile? Cum va funcţiona atunci performanţa ta?

- Atitudinea te ajută să-ţi pui în valoare cel mai bine abilităţile şi calităţile?

- Cum testezi şi cum îţi dovedeşti performanţa?

- Recurgi la schimbarea atitudinii tale sau îţi păstrezi într-un colţişor ultimele forţe, hrănindu-te doar cu speranţa?

- Care crezi că este punctul de vedere al oamenilor despre leadershipul tău? Sunt ei de acord că eşti potrivit pentru poziţia de conducere pe care o ocupi?

- Consideri că poziţia pe care o ocupi este o oportunitate de a-ţi câştiga locul la masa liderilor, sau un privilegiu de care să te foloseşti pentru avansarea personală?

- Ai încredere în oameni, la fel de mult cum au ei încredere în tine? Te-ai angajat să îi ajuţi să aibă succes la locul de muncă? Ei s-au angajat să se implice în procesul propriei tale evoluţii?

- Cum ţi-ai propus să începi drumul spre performanţă?

- Ce acţiuni întreprinzi ca să excelezi în relaţia cu ceilalţi oamenii?

- Cât de mult ţi-ai dezvoltat capacitatea de a accepta erorile sau, după caz, deficienţele propriei activităţi?

- Cum îţi testezi limitele propriei performanţe profesionale? (Îţi împingi limitele propriei fiinţe, atât fizice cât şi psihice, către un nivel superior de profesionalism şi eficienţă - făcând sacrificii, acceptând compromisuri în situaţiile delicate?

- Îţi vei continua drumul spre performanţă atunci când nu vei reuşi să "conduci" excelent?

- Faci dovada calităţilor tale deosebite integrându-te cât mai bine în rolul tău (în orice fel de situaţie)?

- Cum te raportezi la oamenii din jurul tău?

- Performanţa ta creşte nivelul lor de performanţă? Oamenii îţi respectă abilităţile şi calităţile profesionale? Devin ei mai productivi graţie influenţei tale?

- Eşti atât de prins în activitatea ta de lider încât să nu mai vezi importanţa "pătratului şi a albului orbitor"?

- Cum contribui la realizarea şi consolidarea relaţiei dintre aceste două elemente?

- Percepi tabloul întreg, imaginea de ansamblu a lucrurilor cu adevărat importante înainte de a te raporta la practicile şi accentele leadershipului tău? Cum te poţi folosi de aceste două elemente pentru a oferi adepţilor tăi un climat de siguranţă în care să poată creşte şi să se poată forma?

- Poţi folosi aceste două elemente ca să te întreci pe tine însuţi, să intri pe un teren nou şi să reuşeşti o mare transformare?

- Cum contribui la viziunea şi scopul oamenilor din jur?

- Eşti de-acord ca oamenii să contribuie la viziunea şi scopurile tale?

- Tu cum te transformi într-un agent al schimbării?

- Tu eşti capabil să percepi schimbarea înainte ca ea să se producă?

- Viziunea ta se bazează pe elemente concrete?

- Ai capacitatea de a te proiecta în viitor şi de a vizualiza ceea ce îţi pregăteşte acesta? Îţi conturezi viziunea astfel încât drumul pe care îl parcurgi spre performanţă să aibă particularitatea de a fi excelent?

- Tu eşti capabil să inspiri o viziune, sau o idee revoluţionară în evoluţia gândirii celorlalţi oameni?

- Îţi poţi personaliza viziunea în funcţie de semnificaţia pe care oamenii o acordă vieţii lor?

- Viziunea ta îţi înalţă aşteptările, sau te trage în jos?

- Adaugi semnificaţie vieţii tale acţionând în virtutea viziunii tale? Simţi că datorită viziunii faci ceva folositor, ceva care contează cu adevărat?

- Viziunea ta îi determină pe oameni să fie părtaşi la o activitate folositoare? Ce urmăreşti prin impunerea viziunii tale? Te înarmezi cu acel spirit de autoevaluare obiectiv şi corect înainte de a-ţi clarifica şi dezvolta viziunea?

- Singura influenţă pe care o ai asupra oamenilor este cea care îţi însoţeşte funcţia? Cu alte cuvinte, te foloseşti de poziţia pe care o ai ca să-i faci pe oameni să te urmeze? Sau îţi pui la bătaie cea mai preţioasă armă: carisma?

- Oamenii te urmează fiindcă aşa trebuie, sau fiindcă aşa vor?

- Cât de bine te cunosc oamenii?

- Viziunea are la bază convingerile pe care ţi le-ai însuşit pe parcurs?

- Cât de bine te cunoşti pe tine însuţi?

- Ce distanţă te desparte de ceilalţi oameni şi în ce constă această distanţă?

- Prin ce anume se remarcă această distanţă, ce indică ea? Indică oare neputinţa ta de a vedea orizontul de la distanţă şi incapacitatea ta de a indica direcţia cea mai bună? Această distanţă indică modul deficitar în care te conectezi la oameni?

- Atitudinea ta te ajută să acţionezi în virtutea a ceea ce simţi, a ceea ce crezi, sau este una de resemnare, care evident va avea o turnură negativă?

- În virtutea căror convingeri îţi construieşti şi îţi impui influenţa?

- Cum creşti motivaţia oamenilor de a contribui la dezvoltarea unei relaţii de calitate?

- Devii mai bun datorită funcţiei pe care o deţii, sau le conferi celorlalţi posibilitatea de a-ţi evolua potenţialul?

- Poţi lua decizii dificile, care vor face o diferenţă în lumea din jurul tău?

- Eşti tentat să te opreşti într-un anumit punct? Sau continui să-ţi măreşti puterea de influenţă? Dacă da, cum?

- Moralul oamenilor se îmbunătăţeşte atunci când te afli în mijlocul lor?

- Încotro se îndreaptă leadershipul tău?

- Ţi-ai creat şi structurat un sistem de sprijinire a tuturor celor aflaţi în preajma ta?

- Faci apel la emoţii pentru a le însufleţi oamenilor existenţa?

- Reuşeşti sau eşuezi în canalizarea emoţiilor oamenilor în direcţia potrivită?

- Inspiri sentimente pozitive în cei pe care îi conduci?

- Îţi judeci în mod obiectiv propriile convingeri înainte de a le cere celorlalţi să te urmeze?

- În funcţie de ce calităţi îţi creionezi orizontul?

- Îţi îndeplineşti bine rolul de ghid emoţional?

- Dispoziţia ta afectivă şi tonul pe care îl foloseşti în relaţia cu ceilalţi oameni, ce impact are asupra lor?

- Tu cum îţi demonstrezi măreţia?

- Îţi reglezi potenţialul în funcţie de capacitatea ta de a înţelege şi controla sentimentele celorlalţi?

- Oferi oamenilor sentimentul clarităţii şi direcţiei? Reuşeşti să creezi un climat emoţional care încurajează şi cultivă loialitatea şi încrederea?

- Cum îţi percepi propria fiinţă prin prisma a ceea ce te limitează?

- Care sunt primele trei lucruri, ascunse, care ar ieşi la iveală despre tine?

- Eşti un mentor pentru oameni şi îi ajuţi să treacă printr-un proces de dezvoltare în urma căruia să devii tu însuţi un lider mai bun?

- Cum contribuie leadershipul tău la consolidarea relaţiilor interpersonale?

- Tu îţi dai silinţa să creezi un climat propice cultivării viziunii tale? (adică un climat călduros şi pozitiv, plin de încredere, ce are la bază valorile fundamentale pe care se sprijină leadershipul tău?)

- Este momentul să te apleci mai atent asupra felului în care îi poţi modela pe oameni? Acest lucru presupune să utilizezi acele calităţi care transmit energie şi un suflu nou de speranţă care să contribuie la înnoirea, la schimbarea mentalităţii oamenilor. Aceste calităţi îţi pot asigura excelenţa, iar ele nu pot fi materializate fără pasiune, cunoaştere, curaj, şi stăpânirea artei de a lucra cu oamenii.

- Cum îţi foloseşti calităţile pentru a oferi un nou orizont oamenilor? Aaceastă întrebare trebuie să scoată în evidenţă procesul de autoobservare, prin care îţi analizezi convingerile şi trăsăturile pe care le reliefează aceste convingeri.

- Oamenii îţi sunt loiali şi îţi acordă tot timpul sprijin, pornind de la premisele corecte?

- Poţi menţiona cel puţin o cauză care ar putea împiedica progresul calitativ al leadershipului tău?

- Care sunt primii trei factori care ţi-ar putea afecta credibilitatea?

- Ştii cât te costă ca să ajungi un lider?

- Care sunt acele calităţi şi trăsături care îţi conferă un plus de valoare?

- Te preocupi de înzestrarea leadershipului tău cu acele particularităţi benefice celorlalţi?

- Leadershipul tău se sprijină pe principii sănătoase? Condimentezi viaţa oamenilor cu un adaos cât mai mare de căldură sufletească?

- Cum îţi modelezi gândirea, astfel încât leadershipul tău să fie unanim acceptat?

- Cum poţi să modelezi "materialul brut" din care este construit omul?

- Cum te impui în procesul de schimbare a lucrurilor?

- Oamenii îţi respectă experienţa?

- Devii mult mai productiv graţie influenţei tale?

- Oamenii recunosc faptul că au devenit mai productivi datorită leadershipului tău?

- Eşti de-acord cu zicala "succesul vine dintr-o dată"? Dacă da, atunci e foarte probabil ca al tău caracter să nu fie încă destul de bine definit?

- Crezi că există succes fără angajare? Angajarea este acea mare calitate a ta, mai presus de toate celelalte, care îţi permite să devii un lider de succes?

- Cât de ieftin ţi-ai putea vinde credibilitatea, şi în ce circumstanţe?

- Cum abordezi o problemă de interes comun?

- Care sunt acele "bucăţele" care influenţează evoluţia ta şi a celorlalţi oameni?

- Cum încerci să dobândeşti o cunoaştere mai amănunţită a omului? Această cunoaştere te ajută să te cunoşti mai bine şi să înţelegi încotro te îndrepţi?

- Care este motivaţia ta pentru cunoaşterea naturii umane?

- Relaţiile dintre tine şi ceilalţi oameni are la baza studiul lor amănunţit?

- Eşti capabil să-i aduci pe oameni în faza în care să le predai ştafeta?

- Eşti un "formator de oameni"? Poţi să "pui în ordine" oamenii, modelându-i după propriile tale principii şi idealuri?

- Ţi-ai descoperit valorile, propriul sine, înainte de a fi ajuns în fruntea oamenilor?

- Tu generezi erori de claritate în gândire şi acţiune? Sunt oamenii nemulţumiţi de felul cum îţi exprimi convingerile şi felul cum îţi etalezi calităţile? Blochezi orice punte de comunicare cu oamenii, anulând orice punct de vedere al lor?

- Trebuie să obţii mai întâi permisiunea oamenilor de a-i conduce, sau te pui singur în fruntea lor?

- Excluzi orice chestiune de interes comun, care ar putea să-ţi afecteze şi ţie şi lor dezvoltarea?

- Întâmpini dificultăţi în a le transmite oamenilor propriile tale coordonate de acţiune şi de dezvoltare?

- Tu generezi erori de claritate în gândire şi acţiune?

- Conţinutul de valori al leadershipului tău zădărniceşte orice tentativă de a păstra intactă relaţia cu ei?

- Exemplul tău personal ajută la dezvoltarea şi formarea celorlalţi oameni?

- Poţi să-ţi educi propriul sine? Cum?

- Te foloseşti cu înţelepciune de esenţa leadershipului?

- Încerci să combaţi constant imperfecţiunile leadershipului tău?

- Manifeşti un interes crescut faţă de statusul lor emoţional şi moral al oamenilor pe care îi conduci?

- Tu îţi împingi performanţa la limita imposibilului?

- Ţi-ai dezvoltat un sistem viabil de "finisare" a trăsăturilor proprii care să-ţi sprijine dezvoltarea? Nu uita că oamenilor le vine greu să-şi îmbunătăţească performanţele, dacă liderul nu continuă să-şi sporească performanţele.

- Cum evaluezi evoluţia trăirilor oamenilor din jurul tău?

- Care sunt elementele ce compun lumea lor şi cum se comportă aceste elemente faţă de altele?

- Ce anume trebuie să faci pentru ca oamenii să-şi păstreze farmecul propriei lor frumuseţi morale şi emoţionale?

- Poţi să diminuezi sau să faci să dispară acele trăiri negative care dezumanizează, care denaturează esenţa fiinţei umane?

- Ceasul cu alarmă al leadershipului tău funcţionează perfect şi poate să producă la timp acel declic pozitiv în existenţa oamenilor?

- Este leadershipul tău întemeiat pe o structură obiectivă?

- Cum şi cât de bine interpretezi modalităţile de exteriorizare a celorlalţi oameni?

- Tu ce rol interpretezi: de facilitator al schimbării, arătând oamenilor încă de la început necesitatea dezvoltării lor printr-o reorientare a viziunii, a motivaţiei şi a mijloacelor de a-şi stimula dezvoltarea? Sau doar un rol estetic, care, din nepricepere sau neştiinţă, ar putea dezactiva dorinţa oamenilor de a fi mai buni?

- Îi asişti pe cei care lucrează pentru tine? Cei din afara departamentului tău sau a zonei tale de responsabilitate îţi respectă opiniile şi îţi cer frecvent sfatul?

- Cei care lucrează alături de tine au o părere foarte bună despre tine aproape tot timpul?

- Îţi îndeplineşti în mod constant ţintele şi scopurile profesionale? Oamenii te consideră un expert în domeniul tău şi caută să înveţe mereu ceva de la tine? Performanţa ta duce adesea echipă la un nivel mai înalt?

- Ţi-ai dezvoltat relaţii solide cu toţi cei care lucrează pentru tine?

- Eşti în măsură să dai singur valoare leadershipului tău?

- Cum îţi dovedeşti adevărata ta valoare?

- Cum faci dovada evoluţiei tale?

- Relaţiile tale cu ceilalţi oameni sunt întemeiate pe o cunoaştere concretă? Te simţi confortabil vizavi de ideea că toţi ceilalţi îţi urmează exemplul? Este leadershipul tău unul de substanţă? Ai sisteme şi rutine care te ajută să performezi la nivel înalt?

- Personalizezi modul în care îi instruieşti şi îi dezvolţi pe oameni? Eşti un mentor pentru ceilalţi lideri? Îi ajuţi pe oameni să descopere ce li se potriveşte? Oferi tot timpul un feedback oamenilor?

- Te înarmezi cu tot ceea ce ai nevoie pentru a te ridica la nivelul propriilor tale aşteptări? (în materie de leadership)

- Cum îţi aduci contribuţia la îmbunătăţirea calităţii leadershipului tău?

- Modul în care îţi exerciţi calităţile reflectă partea pozitivă din tine?

- Eşti dispus să faci sacrificii personale pentru a spori natura ta emoţională?

- Cum ţi-ai propus să înfăptuieşti lucruri măreţe?

- Ţii evidenţa performanţelor tale totale?

- Ai fi dispus să închei orice relaţie cu oamenii ca să simţi cu adevărat o mulţumire sufletească?

- Ai curajul să te "amendezi" pentru fiecare decizie sau acţiune care nu contribuie la sporirea valorii personale?

- Cum interacţionezi cu ceilalţi oameni din jurul tău care parcurg călătoria de leadership?

- Eşti în continuare în fruntea lor, chiar şi atunci când impactul tău nu este foarte puternic?

- Ai o influenţă mare asupra lor şi în afara companiei? Îţi foloseşti influenţa şi resursele pentru cauze mai ample decât propria ta persoană sau compania din care faci parte?

- Poţi numi cel puţin o persoană care ar fi capabilă să-ţi ia locul dacă ai decide să pleci de pe poziţia actuală?

- Tu cum contribui la dezvoltarea leadershipului tău?

- Ai sinceritatea şi curajul de a-ţi recunoaşte greşelile şi de a-ţi asuma consecinţele lor?

- Ţi-ai ales drumul pe care trebuie să-l parcurgi pentru a-ţi desăvârşi măiestria?

- Acest drum are particularitatea de a fi "excelent"?

- Eşti în stare să te întreci pe tine însuţi şi să intri pe un teren nou care nu-ţi garantează 100% obţinerea unui nivel înalt de excelenţă?

Întunericul este doar absenţa luminii

Poți utiliza clarviziunea ta pentru a explora relația dintre lumea vizibilă și cea invizibilă, creând ceva cu adevărat nou pornind de la nimic?

- Keops, zise atunci Ibebi, te felicit pentru clarviziunea ta. Este foarte adevărat că această creație prin cuvânt, pornind de la nimic, este absurdă, exceptând cazul în care am admite că acest cuvânt în sine deține o putere magică de creare a formelor.

- De ce aş admite asta? replică Keops. N-am văzut niciodată un om care să poată crea ceva doar deschizând gura și emițând sunete.

- Poate că nu un om, dar de ce nu un zeu?

- Un zeu poate acționa împotriva legilor lui Maat, care spune că nimic nu se naște din nimic?

- Bine gândit ! Aş mai putea spune: doar dacă nu cumva zeul, nu prin simpla putere a cuvântului, ci mai curând pornind de la propria substanţă, a creat lumea vizibilă şi invizibilă, spiritele luminoase pe care le numim "ahu" şi materia care ia în ochii noștri formele ce ne-au devenit familiare şi sunt cele ale munților care domină Egiptul, cât şi plantele care cresc în vale, atât animalele care îl populează, cât şi oamenii care îl locuiesc. Dar despre asta vom vorbi mai târziu, căci teologii din Memphis par să ignore că lumea este mult mai complexă decât cred ei şi că un simplu sunet nu poate crea lumea pornind de la Nimic, chiar dacă este emis de un zeu.

Leadership: Ai meditat vreodată la modul în care "haosul primordial" se reflectă în structura compozițională a operei tale, încât să ţi se reveleze un adevăr ce stă în spatele unor descrieri de fapte?

- În ceea ce priveşte creaţia, după spusele clerului de la Heliopolis, continuă Keops, m-am aplecat doar asupra problemei lumini şi a întunericului. Mi se pare că preoții lui Ra au primit de la strămoşii îndepărtați tradiția creării lumii de către Atum, pornind de la materia primordială, Nun. Dar ei înșiși sunt moştenitorii cultului lui Ra manifestat în soare, sursa oricărei lumini. Dificultatea pe care n-au putut să o rezolve este aceea că, dacă Atum nu este altul decât Ra, adică soarele, lumina nu a putut precede întunericul haosului primordial. Căci, în acest caz, nu putea să existe în întuneric și nu putea să existe prin ea însăși, deoarece lumina îi este anterioară şi, din acest fapt, ar fi existat o adversitate chiar mai înainte ca întunericul să vină pe lume.

Leadership: Contemplând asupra învăţăturii transmise de alţii, cum te folosești de claritatea și directitatea viziunii tale pentru a evidenția aspecte adesea ignorate ale realității înconjurătoare?

- Ai judecat bine încă o dată, fiule. Căci, contrar învăţăturii care se transmite în general, adică doctrinei populare, întunericul nu are realitate proprie, nu are substanță, ceea ce este uşor de constatat când ne înconjoară; este doar absenţa luminii. Ni-l imaginăm doar prin referința la noapte, dar chiar şi în noaptea înstelată există pe cer o lumină difuză. Întunericul, negrul absolut, este doar o creaţie artificială: dacă suflu în aceste lămpi, ne vom pomeni în întuneric, dar acest întuneric nu are nicio existență reală, căci este de-ajuns să reaprind aceste lămpi, ca să fie risipit. Este foarte adevărat că identificarea lui Nun cu întunericul primordial este o eroare de apreciere, şi această aporie face să ne apară cosmologia helopolitanilor la fel de absurdă precum cea a memphiţilor, care pretind că lumea a fost creată prin cuvânt de zeu, pornind de la nimic, de la neant.

Ibebi tăcu. Între ei se instală tăcerea, abia tulburată de suflul respirației. Apoi Ibebi zise:

- Acum, spune-mi ce ştii despre crearea lumii după învăţătura din acest templu al lui Thot.

- Încă o dată, nu pot să-ţi spun decât ceea ce am citit în prima carte a lui Thot, răspunse Keops. La origine, totul se afla în Thot, el se confundă cu cele opt divinităţi misterioase primordiale.

Tot ceea ce emană leadershipul ţine de identificarea viziunii cu care îți însufleţeşți creația ta, încât să o ghidezi spre adâncimea unei învățături autentice despre viața spirituală extrasă dintr-o realitate în continuă schimbare.

"Întunericul este doar absența luminii" sugerează că tot ceea ce percepem se poate interpreta la nivel dual, și că tot ceea ce ne imaginăm, dacă este să își găsească loc în propria noastră creație, reprezintă de fapt o manifestare a inclinației noastre spre divin. Iar când vine vorba de divin, trebuie să recunoaştem că fiecare aspect al vieţii noastre poate deveni o manifestare a dualităţii şi a tendinţei noastre umane de a căuta sau de a crea lumina şi înţelegere în mijlocul incertitudinii.

Învaţă cum să te faci remarcat

On Ianuarie 26, 2009

Fă dovada calităţilor tale excepţionale într-un proces de generare a valorii nou adăugate.

Este de necrezut ! Este excepţional ! Şi da, este adevărat ! Ceea ce am observat astăzi în drum spre casă a fost cea mai importantă lecţie de afaceri pe care am învăţat-o vreodată, care nu se prezintă la nici un curs şi pe care trebuie neapărat să o reţii şi tu.

Eram pe bulevardul Ştefan cel Mare şi mă îndreptam spre casă, când deodată, ceva mi-a atras privirea. La numai cinci metri în faţa mea un pitbull fără lesă mergea alături de stăpânul său. După atâtea accidente care s-au întâmplat şi despre care s-a tot vorbit la televizor şi în presă, am crezut că aceşti câini feroce trebuie să meargă însoţiţi de stăpânul lor doar în lesă şi mai ales cu botniţă. Dar azi mi-am schimbat părerea. Pitbullul acesta arată la fel ca orice alt câine - doar că nu avea urme de lovituri, era curat şi îngrijit, spălat şi foarte bine dresat. Totodată avea şi botniţă, dar sunt convins că nu avea nevoie de ea.

Mai bine de zece minute am mers alături de pitbull şi stăpânul său. Şi în tot acest timp, deşi se afla foarte multă lume pe bulevard, câinele n-a sărit la nimeni. Era mereu lângă stăpânul său. Uneori ocolea oamenii, dar tot timpul revenea lângă stăpânul său. Nu şi-a făcut nevoile pe trotuar, nu s-a scărpinat de purici, n-a sărit la nici un trecător dintre atâţia care mergeau pe trotuar şi nimeni nu l-a ocolit, deşi era de talie de mare. Mai mult decât atât trebuie să vă spun că toată lumea, absolut toată lumea a întors capul după acest pitbull extraordinar de bine dresat şi bine îngrijit.

Leadership: Eşti capabil să-ţi generezi un plus de valoare provenit din totalitatea unor forme de rezultate ce pot fi validate din unghiul percepţiei pe care o laşi celor ce te privesc?

Însă nu pitbullul este cheia acestei întâmplări, ci stăpânul său, care într-adevăr era dresor de meserie. Priveşte un om care a ştiut să se facă remarcat în mulţime. Sunt convins că în fiecare zi el atrăgea noi clienţi, noi oameni dornici să-şi vadă câinele de acasă la fel de bine dresat. Personal, dacă aş dori să-mi dau câinele la dresat, fii sigur că la acest dresor m-aş duce, pentru că mi-a inspirat foarte multă încredere. Felul în care s-a comportat pitbullul în mulţime m-a asigurat că dresorul este un bun profesionist care ştie să se afirme într-un mod spectaculos, care ştie să-şi pună în valoare calităţile practice pe care le are.

Cu adevărat uimitor este faptul că aceşti oameni, care ştiu să-şi facă atât de bine cunoscute serviciile şi produsele pentru a atrage clienţii, nu-i întâlnim oricând şi pe toate drumurile. Dar atunci când se află în preajma noastră nu se poate să nu-i observăm. Şi de aceea merită să vorbim întotdeauna despre ei, pentru că sunt remarcabili, sunt unici, iar serviciile pe care le oferă sunt de calitate şi de un înalt profesionalism.

Tu poţi să-ţi exprimi unicitatea prin asocierea cu imaginea unui om care stăpâneşte o anumită artă? Atitudinea este cea care dă tonul propriului tău „brand"? Care sunt priceperile tale excelente? Care crezi că este calitatea esenţială care îţi lipseşte pentru a fi remarcabil? Manifeşti o grijă autentică faţă de potenţialul tău de a face lucrurile să funcţioneze? Sprijini hotărârea de a avea o interacţiune pozitivă cu ceilalţi oameni?

Rezultate ce le obţii printr-o demonstraţie de artă şi prin etalarea unei anumite stări de spirit care cuprinde atitudine şi determinare, pot fi validate ca o practică a perspectivei de relaţionare din unghiul percepţiei pe care o laşi celor ce te privesc.

Leadership: Poţi face dovada calităților tale excepționale apelând la un atribuit al imaginii care face obiectul încercării de a maximiza o anumită măsură de feedback, care poate fi utilizată în mod independent sau în construcția unei noi caracteristici personale?

Ceea ce proiectezi în ochii celorlalţi are ca resort nevoia de a evidenţia un set relevant de calităţi care dezvăluie experienţa ta singulară, a self-confirming potenţial, ceva ce poate fi parcurs cu privirea, dar înţeles numai prin funcţiunea însuşirilor tale dacă reusesti să demonstrezi utilitatea unei anumite cereri, a unei cauze sau a unei abordări.

Pentru a putea atrage atenţia celor din jur, pentru a reuşi să te faci remarcat, trebuie să înveţi să îţi promovezi produsele şi serviciile excelente pe care le oferi. Obiectivul tău este să îţi creezi o imagine unică, bine poziţionată în mintea celorlalţi oameni, respectiv a clienţilor.

Seth Godin, autorul celebrei lucrări „ Vaca Mov " avea mare dreptate: " Cu cât mai intransigentă este piaţa, cu cât este mai aglomerată, cu cât sunt mai ocupaţi clienţii tăi, cu atât mai mult ai nevoie de o idee remarcabilă. Lucrurile făcute pe jumătate vor da greş. "

Este, deci, destul de clar cine vor ieşi în faţă - oamenii, respectiv firmele care au curajul să îşi facă cunoscute serviciile de înaltă performanţă, care ştiu să-şi mărească numărul de clienţi şi care înţeleg ideea de a fi remarcabil.

A fi remarcabil înseamnă să-ţi defineşti o formă de singularitate pe care numai un performer să o poată aduce în mod specific în arta sa, fără să te gândești la onorariul care trebuie achitat de partea interesată.

O valoare nou adăugată este o idee remarcabilă prezentată ca pe un bun care nu-şi epuizează resursele, fiind necesar de păstrat ca pe un dar de suflet.

Tot ceea ce poate da mai bun un om din el însuşi nu trebuie epuizat, ci valorificat la maximum. Valoarea unui individ înzestrat cu acele calităţi şi particularităţi ideale care îi permit să-şi asigure un rol de referinţă în palmaresul de invidiat al carierei sale - se aseamănă cu un sistem de operare proiectat să funcţioneze la fel, atât pe desktop, cât şi pe telefon sau tabletă.

Fiecare astfel de individ este înzestrat cu un "sistem de operare" care facilitează mai bine progresul propriei evoluţii, prin aprovizionarea permanentă a fluxului comunicării între trăsăturile, competenţele şi motivaţia sa – cele trei elemente principale care, conectându-se concomitent, îi optimizează valoarea.

Ai auzit vreodată de Thomas Edison? Sigur că da. Ai auzit vreodată de Bill Gates? Sigur că da. Ai auzit vreodată de Elvis Presley? Dar de Michael Jordan? Sigur că da. Cu toţii am auzit de ei, pentru că ei au ştiut să se facă remarcaţi.

Cel mai mare avantaj performerilor este că ştiu să se facă remarcaţi şi ştiu să se afirme sub propria lor firmă ÎN AVANS, adică înainte de a câştiga ceva de pe urma importanţei pe care şi-o relevă în ochii opiniei publice.

Leadershipul se află între două valenţe de forţe aproximativ egale: mai întâi câştigi experienţă prin pasiunea pe care ţi-o cultivi singur, apoi câştigi notorietate prin imaginea pe care ţi-o construieşti cu ceea ce adaugi la "favorite" în preferinţele celorlalţi.

Învaţă-mă să mor fără chinuri

Îndrăzneşte să te priveşti aşa cum eşti, fără să te laşi înrobit de simţămintele consumatoare de energie.

Orice lucru poartă în el sămânţa unui alt lucru, bun sau rău, la fel cum orice sentiment poartă într-însul ceva indispensabil, din paradis sau din infern, rezultând o mulţime de combinaţii posibile. Astfel, tot ceea ce îţi este transmis, indus, insinuat prin mesaje subtile, neavând puterea de a le contesta veridicitatea, interpretându-le după multele tale gânduri şi convingeri, reacţionează constant cu propria ta minte, putând a da naştere unei tensiuni psihice nefavorabile.

După orele de program, în plin moment de reflecţie, Laura Quinn, plină de indignare, de supărare, de păreri de rău, de mâhnire, de presimţiri, este brusc tulburată de apariţia domnului Hobbs, the office cleaner . Asistăm la o scenă decupată parcă din opera lui Baum, când micuţa Dorothy se trezeşte ca prin minune ridicată în vârful vârtejului şi purtată kilometri întregi mai departe, într-un întuneric total, trăind cel mai negru coşmar.

" Cum era zicala aceea? Cel din urmă va fi cel dintâi, şi cel dintâi va fi cel din urmă. O grămadă de prostii. Norocul îi favorizează doar pe cei îndrăzneţi. " – i se adresează cu voce blajină domnul Hobbs. În mijlocul unui ciclon, aerul este de obicei mai liniştit, aşadar Laura se poate refugia într-o realitate paralelă mai puţin sumbră, cel puţin asta încearcă el să o convingă.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să creezi premisele unui proces decizional transparent în condiţiile unei responsabilităţi individuale, exprimându-te categoric împotriva tendinţei de a alege o recompensă sufletească mai mare tardivă în locul uneia imediate?

Fără voie, Laurei îi scăpă un surâs imprudent, trufaş. Simţurile ei, aceşti trandafiri vestejiţi de amar şi supărare, mai păstrează încă un ideal de gingăşie. Iar când gingăşia atât de irezistibilă se întruneşte cu caracterul ei blajin, se poate ghici acea imperceptibilă formă de energie pozitivă existentă încă în ea, realizarea spontană a unei reacţii chimice care încă mai produce căldură, asigurând la limită stimulii necesari vieţuirii.

Dar în acelaşi timp realitatea resimţită ca ostilă, o consumă pe de-a-ntregul. Fiecare particulă din făptura ei se activează, numărul total de molecule care îşi exercită total dominarea asupra Omului din ea se ciocnesc simultan şi reacţionează anormal. Energia rezultantă este canalizată spre un scop bizar, antagonic celui iniţial, pierzându-se treptat, consecinţele fiind antisociale.

Gândurile ei gri, atât de subtile încât cu greu am putea să le descifrăm, par să intre prin minusculele porți lacrimogene: " Decât să-mi aminteşti ceea ce sunt, ceea ce-am ajuns fără voia mea, decât să intensific acele simţăminte negre, apăsătoare, ce mă consumă şi mă înlănţuie în braţele neputinţei, mai bine învaţă-mă să mor fără chinuri. Mi-a ajuns ! "

Astfel de gânduri care nu se destăinuiesc în faţa celorlalte fiinţe indică răstimpul dintre două momente cruciale şi ale căror semnificaţii, complet diferite, sunt descifrate doar de către îngeri. Torente de energie asemănătoare cu lumina, dar de altă natură, necesare involuţiei, creează intermitenţe în funcţionarea ei. Lăsând prin – şi numai prin interceptarea şi interpretarea lor – o înţelegere profundă a Omului din ea, o verificare şi validare concretă a emoţiilor ei în paralel cu a celorlalţi.

Biata femeie abia mai rosteşte câte-un cuvânt, mai degrabă din complezenţă, în timp ce un freamăt de spaimă îi îngheaţă sângele în vene, sărăcindu-l de oxigen. Tot ceea ce-o mai ţine în viaţă, o inspiră şi o animă să meargă mai departe, se desfăşoară sub cupola prezentului, umplută doar cu puţin praf de speranţă.

Domnul Hobbs părăseşte încăperea. Abia acum sălbatica rândunică rănită se trezeşte din amorţire, complet responsabilă pentru evoluţia ei. Abia acum îşi dă seama cât de tulbure se priveşte pe sine. *

Leadership: Realitatea pe care ţi-o procuri din cursul constant al detaliilor zilnice este potrivită efectului de importanţă maximă al existenţei experimentată prin revelarea Sinelui, în aşa fel încât să fie dovedită eficacitatea faptei individuale care nu poate fi ştearsă sau anulată?

Ai puterea de contesta veridicitatea punctelor de vedere ale celorlalţi? Realitatea resimţită ca ostilă, te consumă pe de-a-ntregul? Simţurile tale mai păstrează încă un ideal de gingăşie? Te simţi complet responsabil de evoluţia ta? Realizezi cât de tulbure te priveşti pe tine însuţi?

Fiecare individ trece prin momentul numit "Blacklight" , consumator de energie din circuitul secundar al existenţei sale. Apoi într-o stare de semi-anestezie, un fel de insatisfacţie vastă şi mohorâtă, o încetinire a gândurilor. Şi, în final, poate ajunge la apatie, la somnolenţă. Întreruperea bruscă a clarităţii minţii, a imaginii proprii, determinând o indecizie în privinţa acţiunilor.

O luptă dintre destin şi Omul din tine, a cărui final nu se vede imediat, ci se lasă aşteptat, şi a cărui ecou răsună în momentul când ajungi în ultima rundă: atunci când transferi momentului prezent acea intensitate a trăirii, acea agonie ameţitoare a suspansului: „ să merg mai departe, sau să cedez? "

Când Laura îşi cerceta inima şi mintea în căutarea motivaţiilor făptuitorului care poate crea viziuni puternic angajatoare şi motivatoare, care poate exercita efecte importante asupra evoluţiei destinului personal, îşi punea mereu întrebarea: "Faptele mele pot fi şterse sau anulate din registrul propriei mele exasperări?"

Vedem inclus aici leadershipul ca factor de protecţie a fiinţei pusă în situaţii de viaţă bulversante, sub imperiul necesităţii absolute de a fi integrată într-un "update" existenţial, în loc de a fi un actor de prim rang în dinamica unor cauzalităţi interne cumulative. Victima unor factori obiectivi de care în mod sigur ea se face responsabilă, poate crea un rezultat total neinspirat care determină izolarea, sucombarea emoţională şi morală, combinaţiile dintre ele putând lua o formă diagonală, adică o înclinaţie aparte spre dramatizarea propriei vieţi.

Înainte de a afla unde greşeşti ca lider trebuie să afli unde greşeşti ca om, atunci când coloana vertebrală a însăşi existenţei tale este poziţionată incorect. Aşadar, leadershipul intră în scenă atunci când permiţi rezultatelor acestor stări sufleteşti să te înveţe ce anume trebuie să corectezi la tine încât să te apropii de graniţa cu normalul.

Ca să-ţi atingi potenţialul de lider nu lăsa ca aceste divagaţii existenţiale să se agraveze, ci încearcă să-ţi demonstrezi vitalitatea. Îndrăzneşte să te priveşti aşa cum eşti, fără să te laşi înrobit de simţămintele consumatoare de energie.

Leadership: Poţi să controlezi tensiunea sensibilităţii fine a faptelor tale astfel încât să treci peste efectele imediate ale unei atitudini culpabile şi să creezi premisele unor beneficii viitoare de ordin revelator?

Complexul factorilor “meteo” din viaţa ta activează când căldura, când ploaia, când seceta. Bucurii, deznădejdii trecătoare sau tristeţi vecine cu depresia. Componente omogene şi constante, sau componente instabile şi fluctuante, de natură sufletească, care nu acţionează în măsură egală pentru prevenirea apariţiei oricăror situaţii limită.

Această variaţie de factori care afectează zona ta funcţională determină corectarea orientării tale, respectiv apariţia unui nou tip de gadget existenţial. O psihologie care comunică strâns cu leadershipul prin care poţi vedea cât eşti de pregătit şi de rezistent la condiţiile dure cu care vei avea de-a face în marea probă a evoluţiei tale.

Elementele tale constitutive, starea de spirit şi capacitatea de socializare, vor varia în raport cu “schimbările vremii”, exercitându-se cu mari rezultate asupra leadershipului, a cărui curba evolutivă se bazează pe trecerea ta de la zona umbrită la cea luminată.

Diferenţierea factorilor buni de cei nocivi este dificilă prin faptul că depinde de hotărârile pe care le iei atunci când furtuna se dezlănţuie în tine însuţi. Te poţi smulge din ea, sau te poţi lăsa înghiţit de ea, purtat kilometri întregi mai departe, într-un întuneric total, trăind cel mai negru coşmar.

Un beneficiu de ordin revelator reprezintă avantajul obţinut pe seama unei concepţii noi despre viaţă, izvorâtă din bucurii şi tristeţi, care îţi poate aduce şansa de a te provoca pe tine însuţi să accepţi o realitate care se încăpăţânează să reacţioneze după regulile altora.

Învaţă-mă să mor fără chinuri scoate în evidenţă realitatea resimţită ca ostilă, ce te consumă pe de-a-ntregul, creând intermitenţe în funcţionarea ta, fiind resimţită ca un sfârşit existenţial chinuitor. Este absolut necesar să fii vigilent şi să preîntâmpini asemenea momente, luând măsuri adecvate faţă de tine însuţi, pentru ca viaţa ta în continuare să nu fie chinuitoare.

Ori de câte ori treci printr-un moment greu, când simţi că eşti la capăt de drum, nu renunţa nicio clipă la acel ideal de gingăşie care te alimentează, căci este singurul mobil care îţi poate reda bucuria vieţii şi care te poate sprijini în ascensiune.

Învăţaţi să vedeţi

On Ianuarie 07, 2009

Ca să fii foarte sigur pe ceea ce ştii, mai întâi trebuie să conştientizezi ceea ce nu ştii.

- Locotenente, ai observat ceva neobişnuit la aceşti călăreţi? întreabă colonelul Diego pe unul din ofiţerii din preajma lui.

- Nu, domnule.

- De aceea nu eşti colonel. Dacă ai fi fost un bun observator, ai fi sesizat faptul că niciunul din caii lor nu avea ataşat bidonul cu apă. Cum poate cnieva să străbată desertul pe o vreme aşa fierbinte, fără să aibă la el un bidon cu apă?

Acest dialog extras din filmul „ Guns of the Magnificent Seven (1969)" , reprezintă esenţa articolului de faţă. Iar întrebarea "Ai observat ceva neobişnuit?" este bine să v-o întipăriţi bine în minte, pentru că peste tot o să vă întâlniţi cu ea.

Nu vei reuşi niciodată să obţii rezultate mai bune, în niciun domeniu, dacă nu-ţi antrenezi mintea să vadă dincolo de aparenţe. Nu contează cât de talentat eşti în ceea ce faci, în mod cert, dacă nu înveţi să vezi lucrurile pe care toţi ceilalţi din jurul tău nu le observă, cu siguranţă nu vei putea să avansezi niciodată într-o funcţie importantă de conducere.

Una din căile singure de a te forma ca lider, de a te desăvârşi profesional este să sesizezi acele detalii minore, acele lucruri esenţiale care vin în sprijinul tău, tot aşa cum un pictor iscusit reuşeşte să sesizeze diferenţele subtile legate de calitatea unei opere de artă, deosebind falsul de original. Aducând în sprijinul tău acele argumente şi soluţii care îţi pun în evidenţă calităţile şi competenţele, te vei putea propulsa mai uşor în direcţia succesului.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi stabileşti o viziune care se concretizează într-o structură de evaluare a punctelor de reper ce pot fi identificate ca atribute ale unor contexte de conştientizare a aspectelor care nu ies în evidenţă?

Peste tot în jurul nostru există numeroase oportunităţi care ne pot propulsa în carieră, dar pe care de cele mai multe ori nu le vedem. De ce? Pentru că nu am învăţat să le vedem, fiindcă nu ne-am exersat niciodată mintea să recunoască lucrurile "invizibile". Nu filtrăm în mod potrivit informaţia pe care ne-o oferă ochii noştri deoarece ne-am obişnuit să vedem lucrurile aşa cum sunt, în loc să le vedem aşa cum pot ele deveni.

Şansa ta de a-ţi demonstra valoarea şi de a te promova în companie, în cel mai eficient mod posibil, se găseşte acolo unde uiţi să o cauţi?

Această şansă de a te schimba, de a-ţi depăşi limitele, de a ajunde cât mai sus în ierarhia companiei, este ca o pietricică fermecată cu puteri magice, ce se găseşte undeva în pustiul deşertului. Ai curajul să pariezi pe tine însuţi că o vei descoperi?

Capacitatea de a vedea îţi permite să vezi lucrurile de departe, nu numai de aproape, cele ascunse nu numai cele care se află la vedere. Ca lider trebuie să înveţi să priveşti lucrurile cu mai mult interes şi, în acelaşi timp, să le priveşti spre viitor, pentru a sesiza oportunităţile pe care ţi le oferă acesta.

Fii flexibil, schimbă-ţi modul de gândire, modul în care abordezi lucrurile în general. Obişnuieşte-te să nu mai întorci privirea atât de rapid de la un punct de interes la altul, ci priveşte totul cu mai multă atenţie, analizează orice situaţie, orice lucru, din mai multe unghiuri şi perspective.

Leadership: Intenţionezi să oferi o imagine de fundal asupra înţelesului unei viziuni, prin felul cum gândeşti viitorul din perspectiva unei evaluări pe termen lung a efectului de tip "vizibilul intangibil"?

Acum mai bine de trei ani, Donald Trump, unul din cei mai bogaţi oameni din lume, lansa pe piaţă un produs nou despre care sunt sigur că ai auzit. Este vorba de filmul „ The Apprentice" ("Ucenicul"). Brusc, la numai cinci zile de la lansare, toate ziarele au început să vorbească despre ideea măreaţă a miliardarului, în timp ce în toate magazinele de specialitate se înregistrau vânzări record. La scurtă vreme toate televiziunile din lume au început să difuzeze la ore de maximă audienţă serialul.

Donald Trump a câştigat sume fabuloase de pe urma vânzării acestui serial. Dar te întreb, de ce nu i-a venit această idee unui alt om de afaceri? De ce nu a realizat altcineva acest serial extraordinar?

Răspunsul este următorul. Nimeni în afară de Donald Trump nu a ştiut să vadă această mare oportunitate. Nimănui în afară de Donald Trump nu i-a trecut prin cap să realizeze un astfel de serial de negociere şi vânzări. Se poate spune deci, că Donald Trump a văzut o ocazie acolo unde toţi ceilalţi oameni de afaceri n-au văzut nimic. Aceasta este capacitatea de „a vedea" de care îţi spuneam mai devreme.

El a gândit viitorul unei noi idei de afaceri din perspectiva evaluării pe termen lung a efectului de tip "vizibilul intangibil". Adică, ceea ce vezi poate fi perceput drept o ocazie de tatonare a unui concept de business doar prin aprofundarea unei anumite teme de interes asupra unei zone prioritare care nu a mai fost explorată în termeni de valoare adăugată.

Leadershipul este o ocazie de a demonstra accesul la noi zone de interes analizate din perspectiva a ceea ce poţi să observi neobişnuit acolo unde alţii nu se uită sau acolo unde alţii pun punct.

Prieteni, în ziua de azi nu mai există alchimişti, ci numai întreprinzători. Adică oameni care ştiu să vadă în orice lucru pe care îl ating sau îl observă o idee măreaţă de pe urma cărora pot face chiar averi. Iar partea bună este că "a vedea" este o abilitate care poate fi învăţată, dar pentru asta trebuie să exersezi şi să tot exersezi.

Priveşte în jur şi cercetează fiecare lucru ca pe un eveniment separat. Priveşte fiecare lucru în parte din mai multe perspective. Uită-te atent. Ce lucru minor îţi scapă? Vezi ceva neobişnuit?

Optimizează-ţi calităţile şi performanţele, exersând capacitatea de „a vedea".

Invizibilul, pe care spiritul comun nu îl poate percepe

On Noiembrie 1, 2010

Poţi schimba modul în care percepi lumea și realitatea doar dacă înțelegi că tot ceea ce te înconjoară, inclusiv materia ce pare inertă, este însuflețit de divinitate.

- Dacă ţi-am priceput bine gândirea, vrei să mă faci să înțeleg că nu numai zeii sunt emanaţii ale zeului primordial, fiind manifestări sub diferite forme ale creatorului de lumi, ci întreg universul, tot ce ne înconjoară, însăşi materia inertă, toate sunt divine, sunt părticele de divinitate?

- Întocmai. Dar află că nimic nu este inert, nici măcar materia, căci este doar o aparenţă. Aceste elemente care ne înconjoară şi sunt părțile constitutive ale lumii vizibile - pământul, apa, aerul, stelele fixe şi aştrii mobili, luna şi soarele, a căror natură ni se pare aceeaşi cu cea a focului, toate aceste elemente sunt însuflețite de o viaţă internă, de o mișcare pe care nu o putem percepe, dar care este reală. Cât priveşte zeii care se manifestă ochilor noștri sub forme umane sau animale sau, mai curând, pe care îi reprezentăm sub aceste forme deosebite, ei sunt doar nişte simboluri reprezentative ale unei realități ultime a lucrurilor, o realitate care rămâne invizibilă privirilor noastre, ascunzându-se atât percepțiilor noastre fizice, cât şi minţii noastre.

Leadership: Îți poți imagina cum ar arăta o viață trăită cu conștientizarea că dincolo de realitatea materială există un fond divin invizibil și etern, încât să-ți extinzi realitatea asupra propriei conștiințe?

În asta constau realităţile ultime care simbolizează numele lui Amon, cel ascuns, Invizibilul, pe care spiritul comun nu îl poate percepe. Iată de ce acest "naos" plasat în fundul acestei săli, reprezentare mistică a lumii, este gol.

- Vrei să spui că este gol pentru că zeul, cel Ascuns, nu se poate manifesta privirilor noastre?

- El este esenţa invizibilă a lucrurilor, în timp ce Thot, sub cele două aspecte ale sale, pe care le poţi descoperi în dreapta şi în stânga ta, simbolizează manifestarea sensibilă a zeului infinit şi etern.

- Cum poate zeul să fie infinit şi etern din moment ce m-ai făcut bine să înţeleg că timpul și spațiul sunt doar niște iluzii, cărora experiența noastră de fiinţe vii şi muritoare îi împrumută o realitate falsă? Noi, ca fiinţe vii, avem doar o existență precară într-o lume care, prin mișcările sale diverse şi convergente, nocturne, diurne şi anuale, formează un fel de iţe ce constituie țesătura timpului. Căci asta am înţeles din explicațiile tale.

Leadership: Poţi să captezi esența acelor realități care scapă înțelegerii comune, așa cum sunt infinitul și eternul, oferind astfel o perspectivă asupra lumii dincolo de limitele percepției umane?

- Ai înţeles bine şi concluziile tale sunt îndreptățite. Acesta este motivul pentru care atunci când folosesc termenii infinit şi etern, ca atribute ale zeului, tu nu le poţi aprecia adevărata măsură, trebuie să îi iei, ca pe nişte termeni ezoterici, al căror sens real scapă înţelegerii noastre. Nu sunt lucruri care se transmit de la maestru la discipol, ci realităţi misterioase, care nu pot niciodată să fie sesizate decât de spirit, de acea iluminare interioară ce face din noi niște ahu, acele ființe necorporale, atemporale şi luminoase în care ne transformăm după ce am trecut porțile morții, ultimele limite ale oricărei inițieri.

Dar în privinţa asta trebuie să tac, căci nu ai primit cunoaşterea indispensabilă care să-ți permită să treci acest prag misterios. Deocamdată îţi ajung cunoştinţele dobândite în compania mea şi pe care le vei putea aprofunda prin citirea cărții a doua a lui Thot, pe care ţi-o voi încredința acum. Vei rămâne împreună cu ea încă o lună în acest templu, două luni dacă dorești, iar dacă simți nevoia, și mai mult, ca să meditezi și să aprofundezi învățăturile pe care le-ai primit la Heliopolis şi aici.

Tu însuți vei putea să te percepi ca "manifestare sensibilă", doar explorând modurile prin care divinul se reflectă în lumea materială. Numai un mesager al credinţei poate să faciliteze o asemenea cunoaștere profundă și să ofere o fereastră spre dimensiunile ascunse ale existenței, depășind limitele înțelegerii umane.

Invizibilul, pe care spiritul comun nu îl poate percepe, evidenţiază realitatea ultimă a existenței care transcende percepțiile noastre limitate, îndemnându-ne la o explorare continuă a misterelor vieții. Important este să explorăm modurile prin care divinul se reflectă în lumea materială, chiar dacă înţelegerea profundă a divinității necesită recunoașterea că esența sa nu se limitează la ceea ce poate fi perceput direct.

Încearcă să faci loc inspiraţiei tale să se manifeste liber la îndemnul motivaţiei de a înţelege sensul vieţii suspendat între nevoia sufletească a unei apetenţe intelectuale neistovite şi experienţele unei realităţi care transcende ceea ce e trecător.

Trebuie să-ţi spun Nicu, aşa cum deseori îmi place să mă pronunţ asupra anumitor lucruri pe care le cunosc prea bine, că totul este relativ. Însăşi relativitatea aparţine principiilor fizice care reprezintă fundamentul creării acestei lumi. Ştiinţa e ca o clădire cu etaje separate, sau ca şi cum aş spune că un corp e în mişcare dacă are reper pe un altul... altfel totul este static pe lumea asta. De aceea, trebuie să suporţi uneori aparenţele unor vieţi perfecte, aparenţele unor mari adevăruri generate de ficţiune, sau aparenţele unor realităţi ştiinţifice cum este evoluţia.

Toţi trăim o mirare ca pe un fapt deosebit atunci când citim cărţi, vedem enunţuri date de ştiinţa asta de care tot vorbeşti tu, şi tot mai găsim alternative în răspunsurile aparent logice. În matematică trei înălţimi se întâlnesc într-un punct, dar deşi într-un triunghi nu erau evidente orice îndoială pare exclusă, uneori axiomele trebuie acceptate fără demonstraţie. Iată, deci, că lumea în care trăim este o treaptă mai înaltă a ştiinţei percepută doar de acela care observă numai ceea ce e construit, dar care nu observă existenţa terminată pe o treaptă a urcuşului ceresc.

În această lume trebuie să facem loc inspiraţiei şi inteligenţei să se manifeste liber. O minte sănătoasă într-un corp sănătos, de aici rezultă ceva armonios, nu toţi posedă cele două în acelaşi timp. Tu doar poţi să presupui anumite lucruri despre viaţă şi despre lume, de ştiut nu ştii nici când ştii, şi când ştii este important să ştii ce nu ştii...Ştii cât contează asta?

Bine spunea Marie Curie: "În viață nimic nu trebuie să fie de temut, ci doar de înțeles. Este timpul să înțelegem mai mult astfel încât să ne temem mai puțin." Poate ai vrea şi tu să te încadrezi în categoria "unicat", însă mulţi le au pe ambele, mulţi nu. E bine că e bine, altfel era rău. În lumea asta cu cât citești mai mult, cu atât mai mult înțelegi oamenii, firea lor. Ai toate răspunsurile despre ei și îți apar înaintea ta la timpul potrivit.

Un sfat pe viitor. Fii mereu sincer, nu juca teatru, nu te preface şi nu minți niciodată un trandafir. El va simți și va ști totul, pentru că a văzut mai multe ca oricine. Și semnele, el știe să le citească mai bine ca oricine.

Leadership: Miezul fiinţei tale se formează în locul unde găseşti tot ceea ce ai nevoie pentru a transforma orice eveniment din viaţa ta într-o poveste care oscilează între amintire şi uitare?

Lumea este o viaţă pe care o trăieşti cu capul în jos şi cu fruntea în sus. Uneori totul este înşelător chiar dacă ţi se pare că vezi totul foarte clar. Crezi că ştii adevărul, dar de fapt spui numai minciuni fiindcă mereu se descoperă ceva nou care să-ţi pună în dificultate ipotezele. Și nu fă niciodată ce nu ţi-ar plăcea să ţi se facă. Aici este Dumnezeu. În fraza asta îl vei găsi pe El. Atât ştiu.

Ştii...îmi place să vorbim...însă îmi spun că poate într o zi vei dispărea...spun asta să accept uşor când se va întâmpla. Mie mi-ar plăcea ca tu să dispari? Nu cred că ţi-ar plăcea. Fiindcă omul ce dispare este ca foile de hârtie pe care le şterge timpul: poţi considera aceasta drept un fapt involuntar, dar în lumea spirituală omul trebuie să creeze el însuşi o situaţie în care nu există vreun feeling trecător.

Iar viaţa se trăieşte la fel cum citeşti cărţi: încerci să reacţionezi la diverse provocări şi de fapt constaţi că nu eşti decât un personaj care se plimbă într-un baston, neputându-şi controla propria poveste. Speri să apuci să mai citeşti din ea până când nu apare o copertă nouă care te face să o uiţi. Din acest motiv, cred că miezul existenţei tale se formează în locul unde găseşti tot ceea ce ai nevoie pentru a transforma orice eveniment într-o poveste care oscilează între amintire şi uitare. Acest loc este, de fapt, un rezumat al trăirilor pe care doreşti să le experimentezi și să le oglindeşti într-o lume aflată într-o continuă schimbare.

Eu cred că cele mai adevărate cărţi se scriu din convorbiri reale. Şi poate zici că nu vei dispărea pentru că nu îţi place nici ţie să dispar eu. Adică să fim oneşti. Doi oameni fac aceleaşi lucruri când sunt în aceeaşi trăire. Apoi fiecare se trage fără să ştie, puţin în stânga...puţin în dreapta şi, astfel, creşte distanţa dintre ei. Însă nu poţi pleca de la ceva care îţi place. În care te regăseşti şi te completezi. Oricât de nebun ai fi. Şi, bineînţeles, toate cărţile sunt interesante, dar sunt unele desebite despre viață. Cum sunt cărțile scrise de Mika Waltari, Ştefan Zweig, Alexandre Dumas sau Victor Hugo. L-am preferat pe Zweig. De la el, din cele peste 20 cărţi, romane excelente, am învăţat despre oameni. Foarte multe.

Ştii, citind tot mai mult simţi că trăieşti poveşti de viaţă reale şi înveţi să fii un personaj care se "reconstruieşte" la o vârstă târzie. Nimeni nu are timp să înveţe doar din experienţa proprie, ar dura prea mult. Chiar şi comunicarea cu diverse persoane se încadrează la capitolul experienţe de viaţă. Vei înțelege omul. Oamenii. Femeile. Obsesiile. Frumusețea. Şi sufletul. Bărbații. Dorințele lor. De exemplu, "Secret Arzător" este o carte de o profunzime rară. Îmi place să cred că ştiu multe. Nu totul. Însă nu prea sunt întrebări pe care să nu mi le explic dacă singură mi le pun. Citește-o. Atât. Are un scris artistic. Și cea mai profundă gândire. Şi multe secrete...arzătoare. Ale oamenilor. Sufletele lor, mintea lor, ascund atâtea.

Leadership: Cum abordezi o revelaţie despre tine însuţi prin prisma unei realităţi care există numai într-o proză care pune în mişcare întreagă lume a unei alte fiinţe într-un tablou de suflet personalizat?

Şi tu spui atâtea...despre urât și frumos. Eu doar trebuie să intuiesc adevărul. Să îl intuieşti? Parcă eu sunt nisipul, iar tu sita care cerne. Intuieşte. Îţi dai seama cum adevărul este atunci când intuieşti ce vrea celălalt. Ce simte. Ce îl surprinde. Şi multe altele. Mi se revelează totul...oricine mă poate minți. Asta e ușor de făcut. Dar pe "Cel de Sus" nu îl poţi minți.

Îmi place cum te întorci la câte ceva vorbit seara. Şi revii cu precizări ziua următoare. Noaptea e un sfetnic bun. Nu așa se spune? E ca şi cum eu am plecat cu un tren dintr-o gară şi tu ai rămas acolo încă. Aşa că sunt nevoită să mă întorc. În gară. Cu puţin noroc o să scriu ceva azi cu sensul ăsta. Să ştii că e pentru tine. Când citeşti astea e ca la contabilitate: tragi o linie involuntar şi faci inventarul (ce stări îţi lipsesc, ce ai, ce ai mai vrea). Îmi trimiţi un text cu faţa. Alt text mi-l trimiţi invers. Altul pe lungime într-o dungă de telepatie, şi imprimată pe spaţiu, timp, existenţă şi infinit. M-ai ameţit. Telefonul e de vină, capteaza prost imaginile. Dar e bine și așa. Ca să fiu sigur că citești. Atunci când te îndoieşti că citeşti, te rog să mă pui să scot ideile principale. Ai fi în stare? Citesc zilnic când mă trezesc. O oră, două. Foarte frumos. Tu oricum vei face o poezie despre toate astea.

Îţi spun un secret. Când vorbim. Vrei acum să-ţi zic? Așa... Acum mai mult timp vorbeam cu cineva. Eu nu eram doritoare să postez ce scriu. Îi dădeam lui şi punea la el. Era fericit. Deşi nu erau ale lui. De la un timp îmi zicea că nu mai are niciuna. Trăia prin cuvintele și emoțiile tale. I-am zis că acum le păstrez. Vreau să impresionez pe cineva. Da. Trăia. Ca într-o altă lume. Într-un timp mă supărase. Ştiu. A murit tipul. Ba nu. L-am şters. A rugat o cunoştinţă să îl deblochez. Apoi a început să îşi pună şi poza. Era înnebunit câte aprecieri avea. Voia să fiu soția lui? Nu ştiu, poate m-ar fi iubit nebunește. Zicea că uneori mă invidiază că nu poate scrie aşa. Scriu cu sufletul meu, nu cu sufletul altuia. Pentru tine scriu. La mine nici eu nu aş pune ce ai scris tu. Aici iar ne potrivim. Eu admir ce scrii tu. Eu scriu ce pot.

Mi se părea aşa de real totul că nu mai ştiam când există iluzie şi când e proză. Este interesant ce citeşti şi are legătură cu realitatea. Adevărata atingere sufletească este cea fizică, dorința...emoția. Restul doar cuvinte...care trec...se uită. Şi asta e adevărat. Nu uiţi ce te face cineva să simţi. Da. Şi eu am vrut să spun. E bine că scrii pentru cineva. Ești îndrăgostită. Ba nu, scriu pentru tine...

Un tablou personalizat cu Eul unei alte fiinţe surprinde acea acea nemărginire de simțiri, de patimi de doruri nespuse, gânduri măreţe, toate acestea îngrămădite într-o viaţă (de poveste) care nu mai este experienţă, ci este numai stare de spirit.

Ioana Sarah este, într-un fel, alter-egoul meu într-o lume plină de gânduri, ce se confundă cu povestea unui om obișnuit ce îşi pune în scenă propriile scrieri şi poziţiile pe care le adoptă faţă de cea mai concretă actualitate, sau a unui om care întâlnește mai multe persoane într-una singură şi, astfel, reuşeşte să devină altcineva.

Fii mai receptiv şi mai atent la tot ce ţi se întâmplă, încât Egoul tău să nu rămână blocat într-o realitate care depăşeşte capacitatea ta de evaluare a potenţialului ei de a captiva atenţia.

Am terminat cartea. A mea a fost romantică, despre oameni care se caută şi se găsesc. Concluzii. Impresii. Rezumat. Să fac eu ? Păi tu ai citit-o… Spune-mi ce ţi-a plăcut, cum s-a încheiat…Ceva care să mă facă interesat de conţinutul cărţii tale. Curios mai eşti. Dar uite, pe scurt. Doi tineri s-au întâlnit întâmplător, fiecare avea o poveste tristă, amintiri greu de cuprins de mintea unui singur om. Se simţeau completţi unul cu altul ca indivizi, iar după nişte încercări şi cântăriri au rămas împreună. Fiecare credea că nu este destul de bun pentru celălalt. A fost chestia aia când întâlneşti pe cineva pe care îl aşteptai.

Da, o carte romantică, despre sentimente, trăiri, aşteptări. Parcă e ceva luat din realitate. Exact. După aşteptări şi aşteptări şi aşteptări, trebuie să ai şi noroc… Să găseşti pe cine îţi trebuie. Doar atunci trăieşti cu adevărat. Vreţi aceleaşi lucruri. Faceţi aceleaşi lucruri. Aveţi aceleaşi pasiuni. Staţi în tăcere, unul lângă altul şi e de ajuns. Acum trebuie să plec, fac geanta. De multe ori astfel de oameni rar trăiesc împreună. Se întâlnesc doar sporadic. Momente trecătoare. Ore pline de amintiri. Poate este ceva pe viaţă, nu şţiu sigur. Da, iar cine mai are chef şi răbdare să mai caute…atunci să caute.

Tu zici că ai găsit pe cineva aproape de sufletul tău şi eşti încântat. Tot e bine şi acum. Sper. Numai să nu se schimbe. În timp amândoi se schimbă. Rar se atrag continuu. Se vor strădui amândoi…doar unul nu va fi de ajuns. E vorba de tine acum. E vorba despre oameni. Despre noi doi. Da, desigur, mulţumesc pentru rezumat, cartea cred că e minunată.

N-am mai vorbit despre carte. I-am spus că marea ştiinţă a scrisului se dezvoltă în spiritul cuvântului pe care îl laşi să preia controlul asupra vieţii tale, fără să faci din el o cruce sau o sursă de îmbogăţire. Da, dar şi scrisul, la fel ca marile descoperiri ale ştiinţei, a aparţinut unor oameni modeşti de pe urma cărora s-au îmbogăţit alţii. Marile teorii nu sunt traduse întotdeauna adecvat în practică, odată la mulţi ani eşuăm cu toţii pentru a renaşte apoi.

Leadership: Poţi să deblochezi potenţialul de vibraţie al unei fiinţe care trăieşte totul prin fluxul conştiinţei, şi în acelaşi timp să creşti potenţialul de sens al unei experienţe de percepţie-simţire care să o împlinească?

Eu spun cum e simţirea scriitorului, e o continuare, nu acceptare. E un fel de a merge pe sârmă în paralel…acel om care pică nu simte viaţa, pulsul ei, plăcerile ei, şi mersul nu se reia. Apare o disfuncţionalitate. Ceva se rupe… Cu riscul de a mă repeta îţi spun. Când este să fie, atunci este. Fără ocolişuri. De aia nu-mi mai fac planuri. Când e prea sinuos drumul se alege praful, mai exact. Eu spun din ce am trăit, din ce-am văzut, sau din ce mi s-a povestit. Adică dacă placi pe cineva şi te place, atunci asta se vede. Când aştepţi prea mult, atunci înseamnă că ceva scârţâie. Când scârţâie se rupe. Când s-a rupt înseamnă că relaţia nu se baza pe temeinicie. Erau doar speranţe prin vise. Da, aşa este. Viaţa e simplă. Oamenii o complică de fiecare dată.

Aş fi vrut să fi putut să mă răzbun puţin pe tine, aşa cât să mă simt mai bine. Iar vei spune ceva împotriva voinţei mele….câtă răutate ! Da, sigur, că tu tare bun eşti. Cică m-ai şters demult de pe lista de prieteni doar ca să te răzbuni. Ba nu, tu m-ai forţat atunci să te şterg…te certai cu mine. Sunt în drum spre casă acum…şi aici sunt lumini, totul e luminat în această noapte. Bine, îţi urez noapte bună ! Vise frumoase ! Dar unde sunt oamenii? Eşti cam singur...Singur eşti şi printre oameni. De la mine pentru tine, uite un sărut strălucitor, mai luminos ca luminiţele tale din noapte. Cât va dura sărutul? Toată viaţa mea sau toată viaţa ta?

Trag o concluzie, până aici. Cred că potenţialul de vibraţie al unei fiinţe care trăieşte totul prin fluxul conştiinţei este foarte asemănător cu acea depăşire a atitudinii de subestimare şi depreciere - asociată cu o etapă de viaţă în care vrei să vezi cine eşti cu adevărat (nu să ţi se spună din exterior), dar cu toate astea nu îţi găseşti singur drumul corect pentru tine.

O asemenea fiinţă este vulnerabilă prin prisma slăbiciunii ei de a se transpune într-o realitate virtuală ce poate fi experimentată prin intermediul unor ochelari cu lentile speciale, numiţi: "AlterEgo".

A creşte potenţialul de sens al unei experienţe de percepţie-simţire care să împlinească o fiinţă plină de sensibilitate, înseamnă să îi dai acestei fiinţe acceptul de a se vedea pe sine ca fiind protagonista unei poveşti memorabile de viaţă, capabilă să te facă pe tine însuţi mai bun.

Nuuuu ! Vreau să ştiu cât ţine doar starea asta a ta. Nu, nu sunt tristă. Deloc. Mă gândesc că dacă ne împrietenim iar, când îţi e lumea mai dragă, atunci te voi şterge eu din lista de prieteni. E rândul meu să fac asta. Marile secrete se dezvăluie numai celor ce apreciază lucrurile simple şi accesibile ce ne înconjoară în viaţa de zi cu zi. Marile secrete sunt despre noi doi, într-o noapte în care numai un sărut ne poate lumina calea. În opinia mea apar pe etape aceste secrete, despre simţire şi despre obiectele simţirii, despre logica afectivă şi despre închipuirea minţii.

Despre una ar fi când te laşi transpus în realitate fără multe analize prealabile şi simţi cum e să te iluzionezi, îţi faci iluzii pentru toată viaţa... A doua apare cam atunci când ştii secretele şi ai impresia că e la tine cheia pentru înţelegerea lor: ori fugi, pentru că te simţi atoateştiutor, ori aştepţi derularea evenimentelor ca şi cum revezi un film. A treia etapă e simplă, orice secret te ia pe nepregătite şi dacă nu mai ai ce pierde nu pierzi nimic urmărind derularea simplităţii în viaţă. Este ca o toamnă în care culmea, chiar şi în realitate pică aici o frunză şi colo o alta, într-o armonie perfectă.

Cine nu crede să urmărească, deşi un copac are multe frunze, nu cad două în acelaşi timp şi în acelaşi loc...

Nicu, dacă eşti un scriitor bun, te rog să scrii despre o întâmplare pe care ai trăit-o tu sau cineva cunoscut, dar din punctul de vedere al cuiva care nu are nicio legătură directă cu acţiunea propriu-zisă. Nu încerca să te gândeşti la mine, nu încerca să-ţi aminteşti conversaţiile noastre. Uită-mă şi atât, iar dacă nu mă poţi uita, cel puţin încearcă să nu te pui în locul meu. Dacă aş fi fost eu scriitoare, cum eşti tu, mi-aş da singură acest sfat: "Fii ceea ce eşti şi lasă pe fiecare să fie ceea ce este".

Potenţialul Egoului de a capta atenţia se evidenţiază prin lărgirea poziţiei faţă de acea realitate a dorinţei de recunoaştere afectivă, prin raportare la o viaţă care se trăieşte prin "lecţia" suferinţei exprimată prin mărturisirea unor oscilaţii sufleteşti.

Din această nouă conversaţie cu Ioana Sarah am învăţat că omul care spune ceea ce simte este omul care simte ceea ce crede. Şi că omul care caută să obţină o acceptare a propriei vieți, eliberându-se de dorința de a fi fost altfel, este un om care se trăiește pe sine, nu se fantasmează pe sine.

Am mai învăţat că nu trebuie să apăs niciodată prea tare pedala de acceleraţie: risc să ajung prea repede într-un loc care nu-şi găseşte locul. Sunt locuri din anumite cărţi care ne caută când noi suntem plecaţi în căutarea altor locuri. Este şi un scris anume care anunţă felul cum este scriitorul: simţitor sau avar după glorie, ori darnic şi dispus oricând compromisurilor.

Modul de manifestare al unui om sociabil depinde de felul lui de a se exprima ca şi când ar fi manifestarea sublimă a alegerii de a experimenta viaţa ca într-o oglindă cu două faţete.

Ce fantezii ai scris tu aici...horror. Păi îmi distrăgeai atenţia, cum era să îmi folosesc imaginaţia dacă mă tot suni? Hai, scrie mai departe, acuşica ajung acasă. Am scris, dar dacă nu mă anunţă facebook-ul atunci când postezi, eu ce să fac? Nu sunt rudă cu ăştia de la facebook. Şi nu am scris pentru tine în mod special. Asta ca să ştii. Sunt puţin nervoasă deci, nu voi mai comenta nimic. Am dat like. Sunt ok rândurile. Mulţumesc. Să fii sănătos.

Nu uita că o carte nu se scrie doar din cuvinte, ci uneori chiar din lipsa de prezenţă a personajului în viaţa reală a scriitorului.

Râzi aiurea. Sigur, păi tu mă faci să râd. Te gâdil, de razi aşa? Da, îmi gâdili sentimentele. Mă abţin să spun mai multe. Nu mai citi mai departe. Vreau să fiu altcineva complet schimbată, diferită, asemenea unui personaj care ar fi influenţat opera lui Andersen, care prin natura lui te duce cu gândul la fragilitatea şi inocenţa unui copil. Adică, cum anume vrei să fii? Ce nu-ţi place la tine? Îmi place tot la mine. Da, aşa multe îţi plac la tine...că vrei să te schimbi. Câteodată îmi încerc personalitatea. Mă schimb numai în relaţie cu altcineva care aş fi putut fi, dar nu mai sunt. Nu pe mine mă încerci, te pui singură în faţa oglinzi, altfel nu văd cum de poţi vedea pe altcineva în locul tău.

Oglinda îţi răspunde: "Arăţi Minunat". Hai, glumesc. Ar trebui să încerci în realitate să te vezi cu ochi de scriitor, cred că ţi-ar plăcea să fii personajul cel mai iubit dintre pământeni. Ţi-am spus deja. Sunt puţin nervoasă. Vorbesc diferit în asemenea momente, aşa că nu lua tot ce spun la propriu. O carte se scrie din imagini ale unei minţi care îşi îmbunătăţeşte veşnic rostirile iniţiale, care îşi joacă singură feste pentru a evita o grozăvie. Este însăși natura unei minți care nu este trează pentru a descoperi ceea ce este adevărat. Cartea mea este natura omului surprins într-o imagine, ca o jucărie fantastică, ce reflectă detaliile unei realităţi care se schimbă şi devine pe neaşteptate, dezvăluindu-se numai unui suflet de copil.

Leadership: Felul cum funcţionează mintea ta este o sinteză amplă a celor mai reuşite explicaţii ale vieţii care au fost propuse în planul unui schimb de idei şi informaţii care sprijină adevărul despre ceea ce urmează să experimentezi ca expresie a unei trăiri adânci?

Mă privesc continuu în oglindă şi mă întreb dacă oamenii care iubesc sunt mereu frumoşi? Poţi scrie acolo asta, în paginile tale, dacă vrei. Poţi face orice. Deja nu îmi mai pasă. Poţi comenta ce vrei despre atitudinea mea. Deci să scriu sau să nu scriu despre felul tău de a te vedea? Asta e întrebarea. Poate iar mă văd şters din faţa ochilor tăi. Poţi. Nu, nu te şterg nici din memoria mea chiar dacă mă văd numai pe mine uneori, şi uit de tine adesea. O să scriu mâine despre tine, acum nu mai am şansa să pricep multe. Nu îmi foloseşte la nimic să te şterg, dacă ţi-ar fi folosit...ai fi făcut-o? Nu ştiu. Ţine de stare. Numai la folos se gândesc unii... nimic spiritual?

Se pare că eu sunt oglinda ta, căci îmi împărtăşeşti tot timpul viziunea ta, şi nu doar viziunea te apropie de măsura dimensiunii mele ideatice, spirituale, însufleţitoare, ci şi faptul că poţi fi reflexia mea în orice fac, în orice gândesc, în orice trăiesc, într-o oglindă a timpului care mă determină să-mi placă ceea ce văd în ea.

Bine că nu eşti lângă mine acum. Nu...nu te-aş săruta nici dacă te vedeam. Mare noroc ai. Ţi-a plăcut ce ţi-am scris la tine pe facebook? Sunt pe drum, mă voi uita mâine la tine. Te chinuiesc cred cu ale mele comentarii. Am citit ceva, dar fugitiv. Stai că citesc acuma mai bine. Da, am citit, îmi amintesc ce-ai scris. Ţi-am spus că ai un dar fain de a dezvolta şi a compune idei despre viaţă, chiar şi ideea asta cu matematica, felul cum ai inserat matematica în subiectul meu, asta mi-a plăcut cel mai mult.

Ai un orizont mai vast, nu te limitezi doar la ceva static. Ţi-am spus, şi repet. Tu eşti perfectă ca şi coechipier, la scris. Bineînţeles, nici nu cred că te-ai băga la ceva mai amplu, să scrii un roman sau vreun scenariu de film, dar dacă ai avea susţinere şi ai avea pe cineva lângă tine, cred că ai scoate chestii super faine. Şi eu cred asta. Să ştii că simt multe, şi cred că şi eu mă pricep la scris. De altfel, pe unde merg, acolo unde sunt mai multe persoane, toţi căscă ochii la mine. Arăt şi bine, pe deasupra. Deci sunt şi frumoasă, şi deşteaptă.

Trăirile cele mai adânci ale unui om se constată atunci când el reuşeşte să-şi personalizeze starea de spirit în cadrul experienţei de a fi diferit, mărturisindu-şi deosebirea dintre a fi unic şi înţelegerea faptului "de a fi în lume" ca orizont al autenticității.

Asta spun fără modestie. Acesta e adevărul. În sfârşit ai învăţat că nu e bine să fii modest, în general. Ori eşti bun, ori nu eşti. Asta clar. Timpul şi oamenii arată adevărul. Să ştii că îmi place asta. Oriunde merg nu mă plictisesc. Eram odată la o pensiune. Noi, prietenii, alături de cei ce aveau pensiunea. Şi era printre ei un tip cam de vârsta ta. Începusem nişte discuţii. Soţul meu a plecat între timp. Noi stăteam la discuţie la distanţă. A fost amuzant. Ce să zic...era de vârsta mea... Da, cam ca tine. Dar era pus pe discuţie. Soţia lui cred că se panicase. Era în living. Combinaţii... Vorbeam de la distanţă. Mă refer că nu avea vârsta mea. Îţi mai zic ceva? Zi Mai stau 5 min. Nu mai zic. Fugi la nani. Eşti obosit. Spune noapte bună, şi fugi. Te las. Să nu întrebi mâine cât am stat...

SAT 09:38. Bună dimineaţa. O zi colorată ! Am citit ce mi-ai scris aseară. Mulţumesc. Şi, ce ai înţeles din ce ţi-am trimis? Poţi dezvolta puţin? Da. Sunt la sală acuma, am erminat antrenamentul de azi. Fac duş şi îţi spun după. Poţi comenta ce vrei la poezii. Le-am scris pentru tine. Altfel scriu rar. Textul este despre legătura puternică dintre ei. Nu mai poate fi respingere. Este atracţie necondiţionată. Aşa simt cu tine, tu eşti aici, nu? De când vorbim nu mă pot supăra pe tine. Bine, am citit. Deşi mă supăr degeaba uneori, dar comentez doar la poeziile tale. La ele, la altele nu mă bag. Da ce vrei, păi ieri am comentat. Mai scrie...ca să am la ce să comentez. Sau cum vrei tu să-mi scrii numai atunci când îţi este dor de mine. Cu adevărat !

Leadershipul sprijină adevărul despre ceea ce experimentezi într-un dialog care permite asocierea ta spirituală cu o altă persoană, prin compărea a ceea ce simţi într-un moment de maximă sinceritate - cu ceea ce simţi atunci când eşti superconvins că lumea este reflectarea unei atitudini mentale, repetabile din punct de vedere al unei alterităţi consubstanţiale, neconflictuale.

Ioana Sarah mi-a amintit şi de această dată, în aceste rânduri, ca într-o supremă încercare de înţelegere a unui "dincolo de mine", că tot ceea ce mă face să mă simt autentic într-un spaţiu al mărturisirilor de sine, este faptul de a mă privi într-o oglindă şi de a mă surprinde constant cu noutăţi şi veşti bune.

Cum spunea cineva pe un site web: "Ne-am înţeles reciproc, s-a stabilit o legătură, ne-am privit ca într-o oglindă, cu adevărat în enigma existenţelor noastre."

Esenţa unei compoziţii figurative valabile şi durabile în toate zilele vieţii tale, reprezintă întoarcerea la aprofundarea artei adevărate.

Trebuie doar să ajungi în punctul în care îţi sare în ajutor un alt punct. Două puncte care se unesc creează o explicaţie. Acesta este un imperativ. De exemplu, dacă ne-am născut, eu chiar nu înţeleg de ce murim. Poate că trebuia să avem un nume sau să facem ceva pe lumea asta. Bineînţeles, de explicaţii nimeni nu mai are nevoie, fiindcă nici acestea nu sunt necesare, nu le mai cere nimeni. Oamenii pleacă, mai nou mergând pe vârfuri, unii tânjind după viaţa altora, alţii purtând poverile lor. Mie mi-e greu să fac asta, aşa că mai bine vorbesc de minunile din viaţa mea, şi de care sunt dator să vorbesc. Mai rămâne doar să mă privesc în perspectiva directă pe latura mai apropiată de un desenator…

La un moment dat spuneai că trăsnetul şi focul sunt ca pictura şi pensula: trebuie să ştii să le mânuieşti şi ce să ceri de la ele. Sunt de acord, doar cu o singură precizare, pe care te rog să mă laşi să o fac. Este o simplitate aproape logică între trăsnet şi foc. Însă pictura este o naturaleţe care loveşte un om, dacă cumva s-a inventat născându-se de câteva ori. Realitatea este exactă, iar ca să pictezi trebuie să te limitezi la totalitatea fenomenelor încă neconfirmate. Poate de aceea se mai nasc pictori cu aripi de înger. Când două forţe mari se unesc, abia atunci se descoperă: "Tăria lui Dumnezeu în Hristos".

Despre asta ar trebui să vorbim în şoaptă. Dumnezeu nu este ceva ce poate fi definit, nu putem susţine nimic despre asta ca şi cum am descrie nişte culori, spre exemplu roşu sau albastru. Poate că Dumnezeu este sensul prin care ne justificăm viaţa între două puncte: între moarte şi nemurire, între materie şi spirit. Iar dacă cerul tolerează pământul este pentru că pământul şi cerul există prin lumină, sau pentru că pământul se hrăneşte cu lumina cerului. Şi tu trebuie să tolerezi oamenii, pentru că, şi tu eşti om. Şi toţi oamenii se găsesc sub acelaşi cer şi trăiesc pe aceeaşi planetă: Pământ.

Leadership: Ai devenit subiectul unei investigaţii permanente, prin repetarea unor momente-teme, a unor variate unităţi de glasuri, emoţii şi adevăr, care devin parte componentă a unui mesaj psihologic?

Ai dreptate, dialogul nostru nu-şi epuizează tema, ci doar o extinde printre gânduri, emoţii şi cuvinte, sub forma unui mesaj psihologic: că ființele ce se aseamănă au mai multe în comun decât cele care se diferențiază. Suntem ca două voci care se aud, se completează şi se armonizează, chiar dacă dau senzația de confuzie. În acest caz, asistăm la un adevărat dialog între cele două voci care se axează fiecare pe câte un material tematic propriu. Exact ca în articolul lui Tudor Cătineanu, care parcă contura cel mai bine raportul dintre noi doi:

Aici intră în dialog două voci, care se intersectează continuu: Una zice: "Trei paşi la stânga binişor / Şi doar un pas la dreapta lor", în timp ce a doua cântă şi descântă ferm: „Trei paşi la dreapta binişor / Şi nici un pas la stânga lor". Rezultatul final este sau o mişcare împleticită în cerc, sau o stare pe loc în aşteptarea unei statui.

Există legea firii: Iubim pe alţii, uităm de noi, trecem prin ploi, regretăm apoi. Facem din dor un fel de cor, cântăm străini de noi înşine. Vai ce pasiuni avem şi noi. Iar ne-am trezit, nici n-am iubit cu-adevărat. Of, ce păcat ! Da, Nicu, iubirea şi pasiunea ce-o avem în noi este melodia cântată de corul dorului de noi înşine, este steaua de pe cer care luminează pământul. Numai soarele poate fi văzut, şi atunci când luminează cerul şi atunci când luminează pământul. Şi numai cine face un pas decisiv înainte, cu mult curaj, spre crearea unei muzici valabile şi durabile, se va putea întoarce la aprofundarea artei adevărate. Şi va fi ajutat de Dumnezeu.

Până la urmă, cred că toţi tindem spre realizarea unei muzici cu bilet către evadarea din propria umbră, o evadare din propria conștiință parcă sufocată de vise, idealuri și dorințe care se îndeplinesc prea greu. Poate că, totuşi, muzica care place minţii nu este un bilet către popularitate, ci punctul în care sufletul tânjeşte dupa ceva ce nu primeşte. Ce perspectivă arată un punct de fugă?

Leadership: Poţi să conferi culoare şi dinamism unor cadre plastice inevitabil statice, având în vedere intrarea unei a două voci înainte ca prima să-și fi epuizat tema?

Iar pozele pe care le faci cu tine nu schimbă nimic, Ioana. Și-o să plângi. Și-o să-ți fie dor. Și-o să regreți. Și-o să pierzi. Și-o să pleci. Și-o să te doară. Și-o să înveți. O să înveți să trăiești cu toate. O să înveți să privești oamenii în ochi și să le înfrunți cuvintele nedrepte. O să înveți să mergi drept și sigură pe tine. O să înveți să lași oameni în spate și să-ți continui drumul. O să înveți să fii puternică.

Mişcarea ta în poze nu este aceeaşi imagine muzicală care îţi înconjoară sinele în viaţa reală, ci reprezintă o nouă dimensiune a ființei tale apropiată de o nouă realitate colectivă, generând o oarecare performanţă. Performanţa de a fi autentică în orice rol ai aborda, indiferent că eşti sau nu atrasă de vreun aspect al vieţii tale. Dar nici nu este vorba despre un fenomen bazat pe tehnici de iluzie care să creeze vreo nouă artă, cum ar fi arta filmului, ce se bazează pe dinamismul unor cadre plastice inevitabil statice capabile să genereze metafizica propriei individualităţi asupra experienţei de viaţă.

Imaginea ta mai întâi a fost o tehnică de compoziție, specifică muzicii baroce, care are în vedere intrarea unei a două voci înainte ca prima să-și fi epuizat tema. Apoi, tehnica compunerii imaginilor şi a creării iluziei mişcării imaginilor, care face din viaţa ta o filosofie în care doi oameni menţin contactul vizual prin cuvinte şi dialoguri. Sau, mai degrabă este ca în problema aia de fizică Doi oameni se straduiesc să audă sunetele emise de un tren care se apropie. Unul din ei a apropiat urechea de sine, iar altul nu....

Leadershipul este o imagine a vieţii în care totul poate fi calculat cu precizie la nivelul poziţiilor pe care le adoptă oamenii asemănători: o poziţie de compromis asumat când fiecare încearcă să întoarcă palma celuilalt într-o poziţie de supunere.

Ioana Sarah scoate în evidenţă legătura dintre doi oameni a căror vieţi se întrepătrund prin mesajul: "suntem la fel, deci îmi este dor de tine". Din dorinţa de a-l înţelege pe celălalt cu adevărat, fiecare a încercat să-i studieze felul de a fi, aşa cum şi l-a păstrat în câteva fotografii, sau în câteva momente de viaţă reală, unde muzica improvizată a unei stări sufleteşti şi a unei concepţii de viaţă se întâlnește oarecum cu telenovela printr-o îngrămădire de şoapte, taine şi aşteptări diferite.

Dialogul dintre ei oferă privitorului o imagine în care totul – vorbele, emoţiile, simţirea, conştiinţa nu ar sugera o atitudine de luptă, ci intenţia descătuşării unor energii nebănuite: energia lor este insuficientă pentru a sesiza concordanţa, armonia şi durabilul, dar este totuşi un început de bun augur.

Sau, cum bine spunea cineva: "se cere timp, dedicaţie şi atenţie pentru a sesiza subtilităţile acestei picturi şi a înţelege în întregime intenţionalitatea artistului".

Învaţă să-ţi observi propria minte în situații obișnuite de viață, iar apoi în situații în care sinele receptează şi structurează conţinuturile informaţionale despre sine şi lume.

Nicu, tu mergi la petrecerile dansatorilor în fiecare weekend, am văzut imaginile cu voi pe Instagram. Totuşi, mie genul ăsta de distracţie nu îmi place....dacă îţi place ţie, asta contează ! Ce contează ce ne place nouă, ci important este că ceva mişcă lucrurile într-o direcție. Nu stau pe loc aşa cum stau stâncile, nici nu merg înapoi ca racii. Mă bucur pentru tine. Mie astfel de activităţi nu îmi plac, dacă ţie îţi place, nu pot decât să mă bucur. Eu am fost azi din parcul Herăstrău...a fost o zi superbă. Eu, până în aprilie nu o să ies prin parc, încă este întuneric la ora 19:00. Păi ziua este mare. Ziua mai ai treabă. Da, este şi asta o variantă...

M-ai înnebunit. Nu mă pasionează genul ăsta de distracţie. Înţeleg că îţi place, însă mie nu îmi place, Învăţ ce vreau. Mergi tu acolo şi fii fericit. Eu nu ador locurile unde te calci pe picioare şi urlă unii la alţii. Am înţeles că îţi place, mie nu îmi place. Totuşî, Ioana, să ştii ca trece iarna mai uşor astfel. Nu trebuie să treacă uşor. Fiecare îşi petrece timpul cum doreşte. Nu ţine de anotimp. Poţi face atâtea şi iarna. Dacă ai cu cine. Cred că nu înţelegi. Nu mă interesează aceste filmuleţe sau poze pe care le faci la petreceri. Nu mi le trimite mie. Bucură-te singur de ele. Știu, am pus mai devreme. S-au încărcat mai greu. Nu mă deranjează să le văd.

Însă pentru mine viaţa este în doi. Nu la grămadă. Şi aici sunt câte doi. Eu ziceam doi singuri. Nu uitându-se unii la alţii. Dacă vreau mişcare merg la sală. Nu îmi plac adunări de oameni care se maimuţăresc. Dar, să ştii Ioana, dansul este tot un sport. Perfect, dar eu prefer adunări unde vorbeşti, te priveşti, te surprinzi. Nu urlătură şi corpuri care emană dorinţe. Eu sunt altfel construită. Senzualitatea. Asta îți lipsește, Nicu. Nu rezonez la asta. Senzualitate arăt cui vreau eu. Nu mulţimii vide. Nu îmi lipseşte nimic. Sunt întreagă. Plăcută. Iubită. Eu doar aleg unde şi cu cine şi mai ales când. Nu te mai grăbi cu păreri. Nu mă cunoşti.

Leadership: Conştientizezi lucrurile care merg bine şi să încerci să reechilibrezi puţin balanţa negativ-pozitiv, astfel încât să modifici planul deciziilor tale în funcţie de alte evenimente livrate sensibilităţii care "vede şi aude prea mult" ?

Acum sunt prin oraş, mă plimb de una singură. Tu? Eu sunt la laptop, sunt prins cu nişte proiecte până la petrecerea de la ora 21:00. Trebuia să spui tu de petrecere. Ce înseamnă petrecere? Muzică de sparge timpanul? Femei şi bărbaţi care mimează starea de bine? Este vreunul fericit realmente acolo? Petrecerile sunt faine, altfel nu mergeam. Numai că îmi cam strică somnul. N-am fost în ultimele 2 săptămâni. Or fi faine, bravo ţie. Stau până la 23:30, cam aşa ceva. Să stai cât vrei. Mie adunătura la întâmplare şi zgomot nu îmi place. Ție îți place să stai singură. Sunt la momentul la care îmi place să fiu doar eu şi cu cel care îmi place. Nu mai vreau mult zgomot pentru nimic. Mai stai așa singură, anunță-mă când ești pregătită să schimbi ceva. Să îi fiu de ajuns unuia şi el să îmi fie mie. Cred că lupți tare mult să fii lângă el...

Nu lupt mult să fiu lângă el dacă nu îşi doreşte şi el, nu lupt pentru nimeni, dacă lupt nu se merită. Eu îmi doresc să facem paşi egali unul către altul şi să luptăm amândoi să ne păstrăm unul pe altul. Atunci este ce trebuie. Am mai văzut asta, am mai auzit asta. Doar vorbe. Este ce îmi doresc eu. La ce aspir. Cât este, aşa îl accept. Când nu mai este, atunci plec. Da, eşti o visătoare. Peste tot aceeași poveste. Nu sunt visătoare. Sunt într-o poveste sinceră,frumoasă cu cineva. Toți se văd într-o poveste. Nu mă văd, chiar sunt. Eu nu bat câmpii.

Ai dreptate. Ţi-am spus aşa. Nu contează ce crezi. Atunci, dacă nu contează, de ce îmi spui? Ce crezi tu nici nu mă ajută şi nici nu mă încurcă. Ţi-am spus adevărul, dacă nu crezi nu contează. Culmea este că eu nu visez aiurea. Prefer mereu realitatea, faptele, nu vorbele.

Sunt oameni care fix de noi au nevoie. Dacă îi găsim, suntem norocoşi. Iniţial ne atrage un chip, apoi descoperim restul, suflet, gândire, dacă este ce vrem rămânem, dacă nu, doar un chip nu este de ajuns. Mie îmi place şi omul şi sufletul în cazul acesta. Şi chipul. Nu ştiu cât va dura, însă cât va dura voi vedea. Sper să găseşti şi tu la petrecere pe cineva pe sufletul tău. Tot timpul te rezumi la tine. Ce îți place, ce preferi, cum ești...etc.

Leadership: Poţi să te priveşti prin expresia unei sensibilităţi care nu se poate virtualiza în obiecte, conform unei realităţi care lasă o discrepanţă prea mare între luciditate, visare şi autosugestie?

La cealaltă persoană te gândești? Mă gândesc şi la cealaltă persoană, altfel nu ar merge mecanismul. Să ştii că te invidiez. Da, mare lucru şi invidia asta, de parcă îţi scapă din mâini ceva şi nu ştii ce, fiindcă te confuzi cu fiinţa mea, cu atitudinea mea, te confunzi cu preţul cuprins între stima de sine şi calitatea vieţii intime. Este absolut periculos să te confunzi aşa de des cu un rol pe care-l joci, fiindcă poate să devină o obsesie și ulterior va semăna cu schizofrenia realităţii şi a existenţei care lasă o discrepanţă prea mare între luciditate, visare şi autosugestie.

Nu pricepi că eu nu rezonez cu petrecerile astea? Pentru mine este zero barat. Nu mă pasionează astfel de întâlniri. Ce este aşa impresionant acolo? Sigur îţi lipseşte ce trebuie. Dar măcar nu stau singur acasă. Asta este adevărat. Chiar îmi cer scuze pentru ce am spus. Mă bucur că eşti acolo. Ai şi tu dreptate. Stai calmă, nu se creează cupluri aici. Doar trece altfel timpul. Atât. Înţeleg. E amuzant. Eu de 8 martie aveam 2 alegeri. Una era sa predau nişte ore la şcoală şi celaltă variantă era sa ies cu o prietenă. Nu cred că aleg nimic. O să mai văd. Eu n-am ce să aleg. Tu nu, dar eu am de ales. Şi nu aleg. Aștept să plec săptămânal din oraș, dar să se încălzească puțin. Chiar urăsc zăpada și frigul.

În cazul meu, mai am de stat vreo lună la cursurile de dans. Când se încălzește afara mă opresc. E şi dansul un sport, încă ce sport, solicită toţi muşchii, deşi unii nu realizează. E şi cardio. Crezi? Eu sunt de altă părere. Dansul nu prea solicită fizicul, doar psihicul. Pe timp de iarnă. Da, trece iarna uşor, cam atât. Mai bine puneai mâna pe telefon și mă sunai, era mai bine decât să mă tot întrebi de ce merg la dans. Bine, data viitoare te sun. Acum este cam târziu.

Leadershipul este limbajul pe care îl foloseşti într-un moment al existenţei care scoate în evidenţă luciditatea cu care îţi observi experienta interioară, aşa încât ceea ce te înconjoară să nu reprezinte o furie îndreptată asupra sinelui.

Ioana Sarah mi-a adus la cunoştinţă următorul lucru important: caută caracterul omului şi vei găsi capacitatea lui de a-şi deschide brusc sufletul prin folosirea celui mai banal limbaj al cuvintelor. Bine spunea cineva pe o pagină web:

"Nu e mare greutate să găseşti partea rea din om; dificultatea este să găseşti partea bună din el. Şi atunci le recomandăm oamenilor să facă un efort conştient de a se uita şi la lucrurile care merg bine, la activităţile pe care încă le fac cu plăcere, la oamenii care îi înconjoară şi îi susţin. Analizăm frecvent împreună aceste părţi. Facem acest lucru pentru a-i ajuta să resimtă emoţii pozitive, să conştientizeze şi lucrurile care merg bine şi să încercăm să reechilibram puţin balanţa negativ-pozitiv."

Ascultă-mi vorbele grele şi cumpăneşte bine înainte să reţii ideea din spatele lor, sensul lor de artă, de vis, de neuitat, de privire concretă asupra lumii. Uneori sunt vorbe de o linişte deplină, alteori ele sunt scoase din iadul disperării. Realitatea este făcută de oameni şi uneori serveşte la satisfacerea nevoilor resimţite pentru alinarea durerilor. Acest lucru nu trebuie uitat dacă vrem să înţelegem mişcările spirituale şi dezvoltarea lor. Corectează-mă, încă nu am trecut pe curat, pe o tablă neagră se scrie doar cu alb. Era o vorbă...dacă vrei să echilibrăm situaţia eu zic să împărţim realitatea şi visarea, îţi las ţie visarea şi apoi facem schimb, să privim din ambele perspective.

Simţirea în realitate şi nostalgia visului sunt impulsuri ale aspiraţiilor omeneşti şi uneori ale realizărilor. Oricât de înălţătoare ar fi acestea din urmă tot ce punem în leagănul gândirii şi trăirii ne aduce la cele mai profunde simţăminte. Adesea, punem gândurile noastre în sacul cu amintiri nefireşti, simţămintele lovite de zbucium le turnăm într-un cazan plin cu smoală, iar simţirea oricât de înălţătoare ne trimite înapoi la leagănul tuturor realizărilor, împlinirilor şi satisfacţiilor sufleteşti care ne-au dat mare bătaie de cap. Nostalgia trăirii întru scris poate să mângâie aspiraţiile de absolut ale sufletului uman, reprezentând de multe ori legătura visului cu realitatea, ca o măsurare a impulsului de voinţă pentru o perioadă de timp, acel impuls de a acționa instinctual care capătă sensul de atitudine practică, ba mai mult, se concretizează într-un plan bine pus la punct.

Există oare un moment determinant pentru transformarea realităţii unui om? Răspund tot eu: există în măsura în care poţi stabili un punct determinant al timpului pentru transformare. Simţirea în realitate şi nostalgia visului sunt impulsuri ale aspiraţiilor omeneşti şi uneori ale realizărilor, oricât de înălţătoare ar fi acestea din urmă tot ce punem în leagănul gândirii şi trăirii ne aduce la cele mai înalte simţăminte...

Uneori, transformarea este o chestiune de citate, realizându-se prin intermediul unei terapii pentru suflet. Poezia nu e o lucrare ştiinţifică, este o reflecţie a cuvântului în ce priveşte sufletul, cred că există o întrebare mereu nepusă: de ce scrie omul poezie? Trăirile ne sunt date uneori de cursivitatea" versurilor prin rimă ...(aştept următoarea poezie). Intenţia de a scrie e ca o particulă în mişcare liberă într-un anumit moment al timpului...speranţa e o situaţie reală cu două particule diferite în acţiune.

Încrederea nu vine din teorie, iar teoria nu are voie să contrazică faptele existenţei. Destinul e un fel de simultaneitate a evenimentelor depărtate între ele, un fel de acţiune la distanţă.

Existenţa este în strânsă legătură cu evenimentele lumii, cu destinul omenirii. Deci, existenţa este totalitatea însuşirilor atribuite unei noţiuni intelectuale posibile. Orice noţiune devine subiect dacă este o realitate vie. Mulţi sunt dispuşi să creadă că ea corespunde problemelor lumii. Schimbarea subiectului apare în mod obiectiv când apar neîncrederi sau opoziţii la care nu putem răspunde, putem doar să ne apărăm.

Dacă am fi putut refuza timpul de la început, într-un fel sau altul nu ne-am fi născut, timpul este ca o carte lipsită de profunzime ce se răsfoieşte cum vrea. Probabilitatea e parte din viaţă mai mult decât există în matematică. Viaţa e mereu probabilă, niciodată sigură.

Să-ţi mai spun ceva. Autocontrolul ţi-l asigură o remarcabilă vedere clară, o siguranţă de sine şi intuirea unei substanţe proprii ce nu poate fi alterată, sau mai corect, chiar acestea ţi-l asigură. Deci ca să înţelegi viaţa, trebuie să ai autocontrolul de a rămâne într-o stare de pace tot timpul, de a accepta anumite situaţii inopinate şi de a face faţă provocărilor şi ameninţărilor cognitive.

Lipsa de sinceritate duce la stângăcie, care poate îmbrăca diferite forme. Uneori este fluturată pentru justificarea neroziilor şi atunci gesturile devin imperfecte şi stângace.Iar planificarea asiduă duce la nebunie şi atunci nebunii se cred înţelepţi. Este un fel de înţelepciune care ne scuteşte de aplauze...problemele oricum în general sunt insolubile...

Mai am puţin şi râd, vezi că vine toamna, se vor colora frunzele în mii de culori, sau cum ai spune tu vor fi falsificate...

Atunci omul este cel mai puţin căutat, deşi este cel mai preţios...în momente neprevăzute omul este nestăpânit, îngrozit de nedumeriri de parcă ar intra în război cu toată lumea. O lume care are chipul familiar al cotidianului.

Să scrii mult dacă scrisul este un efect practic de îmbunătăţire a ştiinţei, dacă faci posibilă inventarea unor lucruri care îmbogăţesc viaţa. Cărţile sunt rezultatul gândirii, ele sunt certe şi necesare, unele vorbesc despre ce se întâmplă în natură, aşa cum vede observatorul, altele vorbesc despre acţiunea asupra spiritului uman, despre nesiguranţa omului în faţa lui însuşi. Fiecare generaţie îmbunătăţeşte tezaurul cunoaşterii şi înţelegerii scriind... zic şi eu ca să nu stau degeaba.

Leadership: Felul cum percepi realitatea poate să pornească de la felul cum îţi percepi propria existenţă prinsă între un moment de neuitat al transformării de sine şi un reper de referinţă culturală?

Scriem pentru că undeva în adâncul fiinţei noastre sperăm că cineva va călători prin mintea noastră. Noi avem nevoie de ceilalţi, ceilalţi se regăsesc în noi...unii năvălesc în scrierile noastre ca într-o junglă, alţii caută întâmplări netrăite, unii sunt debusolaţi, totul primim şi totul e de dăruit, acesta e farmecul vieţii.

Un tip din lista ta de prieteni, pe nume Vasile Nemeș spunea la un moment dat: "Inspiraţia nu ne vine de la cineva asemănător cu noi. Când ai ochi doar pentru tine, te adapi dintr-un lac. Când explorezi, bei dintr-un proaspăt izvor."

Doar ce nu este ca noi înşine ne completează până la a deveni întregi, nimeni nu îşi adaugă încă o mână pe lângă ale sale, însă o atingere plăcută ne conduce spre visare.

Ştiinţa valorifică lucrurile despre care altfel am fi ştiut doar că există, este ca un creion pus în mâna unora şi nu a altora, pentru că indiferent de domeniul ştiinţific, ştiinţa nu este la îndemâna oricui. Fiecare om este o sensibilitate, o emotivitate dramatică, uneori pătimaşă, limpede şi ponderată câteodată, omul este o ştiinţă în care încape toată lumea exterioară. Aceasta rezultă din vederea remarcabilă şi extrem de clară dată substanţei fiecărui individ care apare în decorul ştiinţei.

Un reper de referinţă culturală poate să rezoneze cu popularizarea propriei versiuni de A FI, transpusă (prin emoţii, prin senzaţii, prin gândire) într-o poveste plină de artă care scoate în evidenţă faptul că tot ceea ce trăieşti face parte dintr-o ascensiune spirituală treptată.

Se duc bătrânii şi se duc şi tinerii. Ceea ce este în afara conştiinţei nu este neapărat dedesubtul ei. În fiecare om zace un pictor care n-a deschis niciodată o expoziţie. Iar o exprimare fără metafore este ca un teren arid, indiferent dacă este vorba despre pictură sau despre scris. Felul cum te exprimi este felul unei culori de a surprinde sufletul omului, proprietatea unei culori de a fi mai caldă sau mai rece în funcţie de caracterul şi felul omului de a fi, indiferent ce scenă îşi alege el să surprindă în viaţă. Orice scenă de improvizaţie se naşte pe loc, în faţa ta, în oglinda sufletului tău. Participi în mod direct. Poţi da şi altora sugestii.

Viaţa este un fel de ştiinţă în care mai întâi existăm, este un fel de piesă de teatru în care nu contează că am jucat bine sau prost, contează doar că am debutat. A mai spus cineva asta, dar cu alte cuvinte. Important este ca aceste cuvinte să existe în ştiinţa vieţii tale, permiţându-ţi o dezvoltare armonioasă, atât pe plan fizic, cât şi psihic şi spirituală. Nu-i bine să fii actor fără cauză, fără scenă şi public, fără artă. Dar e bine să trăieşti o viaţă de actor prin intermediul poveştii unui actor care impresionează la fiecare apariție.

Să păstrăm ceva din caracterul unui Robinson Crusoe, să nu lăsăm niciodată să se stingă focul spiritual, ci să-l întreţinem, să lăsăm mereu să ne ardă un foc interior de nestins.

Leadershipul denotă felul îţi exprimi personalitatea, caracterul, inteligenţa emoţională, aşa încât ceea ce laşi în urma ta, ca într-o poveste de mare impact, să fie demn de un Robinson Crusoe care trece printr-o mulţime de aventuri care îl maturizează, îl fac puternic, şi îl învaţă să se autoeduce.

Ioana Sarah este numele unei simple anonime care mi-a devenit prietenă într-un moment când nu aveam niciun prieten. Gândurile ei, atât de profunde, simţitoare, libere, m-au traspus într-un adevărat miraj din care nu-mi doream să mai ies vreodată, până în punctul când mirajul şi-a adus contribuţia la construcţia unei poveşti din care cred că nici acum nu mai am scăpare.

Povestea se numeşte: "Povestea noastră".

Îşi păstrează bine averea numai cel care a dobândit-o cu sudoarea frunţii

Priveşte dincolo de "graniţele pământului" pentru a-ţi descoperi măreţia interioară, luând ca reper de autosugestionare experienţa de transformare a materiei prin înnoirea minţii.

"Nu sunt pentru moşteniri prea mari, spusese odată Alfred Nobel în cercul fraţilor şi nepoţilor săi. Viaţa ne arată că cei care au moştenit averi mari n-au ştiut niciodată să se folosească bine de ele. Au dus o viaţă lenevoasă, au căzut în destrăbălare şi au ajuns la degenerare, ruină şi moarte. Averile mari, câştigate prin moştenire nu prin muncă, sunt dezastruoase pentru cei ce le moştenesc. Ei îşi pierd orice energie, orice putere de viaţă, orice îndemn la străduinţe şi la creaţie.

Puterea noastră, noi, oamenii, am dobândit-o luptând din greu împotriva naturii duşmănoase. Nici sărăcia nu e bună, ea slăbeşte pe om, îl umileşte şi-l lăsa pradă tuturor bolilor şi păcatelor. Urmaşilor ar trebui să li se lase numai o mică parte din averea părintească, atât cât e nevoie ca să înceapă a se strădui ei înşişi, de a-şi croi singuri drumul în viaţă. Îşi păstrează bine averea numai cel care a dobândit-o cu sudoarea frunţii.

Avea numai 63 de ani. La deschiderea testamentului se văzu că savantul depăşise gândului lui întâi: de a lăsa un premiu care să fie dăruit, o dată la cinci ani, drept răsplată pentru lucrarea cea mai umanitară. El lăsase uriaşă lui avere de peste 30 de milioane coroane de aur pentru binele întregii omeniri. El se gândise nu numai la stârpirea războaielor dintre popoare, dar şi la progresul ei tehnic, ştiinţific. În timpul vieţii mărturisise adesea credinţa că pricină tuturor războaielor trebuie căutată în suferinţele şi mizeria a prea multe milioane de oameni. Înlăturând lipsa, se înlătură pricina cea mai de seamă a neînţelegerilor dintre oameni. Iar sărăcia nu poate fi înlăturată decât prin progresul tehnicii şi răspândirii ştiinţei."

Leadership: Poţi să ajungi la o dimensiune spirituală maximală prin valorificarea potenţialului ştiinţific pe care-l reprezintă "transformarea materiei în spirit", încât să produci o dezvăluire a ceva necunoscut înainte?

Ceea ce aş dori să spun în cele ce urmează s-ar putea numi comentarii filozofice pe marginea observaţiei realiste a marelui savant Alfred Nobel. Le voi alătura şi câteva observaţii personale pentru a face pregnantă ideea că cine deţine o avere, fără să fi avut reuşite pe planul descoperirii şi creaţiei, nu se va putea numi niciodată savant, deci nu va reuşi să facă trecerea de la etapa naivă a cunoaşterii la dimensiunea ştiinţific-revelatoare în care înțelegerea apare ca rezultat al unui proces de dezvăluire a ceva necunoscut înainte.

Banii nu te vor ajuta să înveţi o cultură sau să-ţi imaginezi transformarea materiei în spirit şi a spiritului în energie creatoare.

Omul de ştiinţă îşi arată forţa în împrejurările unei vieţi grele, de multe ori tumultoase, unde profunzimea şi dimensiunea potenţialului ştiinţific apar ca un fel de compromis între confort şi off-road, un compromis între diferitele interese și principii. Ei acordă prioritate unora în defavoarea celorlalte. A venit momentul să ne gândim că, deocamdată, la chestiuni tehnice, puţini reuşesc să facă diferenţa dintre a fi bun şi a fi strălucit, mai ales dacă luăm în calcul numeroasele eşecuri prin care trebuie să treacă cineva înainte de a deveni savant.

Priviţi în jur, majoritatea oamenilor urmăresc să obţină stabilitatea financiară, încercând să-şi asigure banii de pensie. Alţii, chipurile mai înalţi în drepturi, îşi etalează cu mândrie accentul de pură opulenţă si exuberanţă magică, şi încă cu ce bun gust: maşini scumpe, vacanţe exotice scumpe, plăceri de moment scumpe. Dar oare se ascunde în sufletul lor vreuna din acele descoperiri incredibile, invenţii geniale, care vor schimba lumea?

A produce o dezvăluire a ceva necunoscut înainte, poate însemna să dai forma unei idei aproape paradoxale: o combinaţie reuşită între rigoarea unei abordări care surprinde un transcendental comun şi rodul unei gândiri mistice.

De fapt, ştiinţa este o experienţă de transformare a materiei prin înnoirea minţii. Este o experienţă vie de împlinire spirituală efectivă, tradusă prin menţiunea biblică: "Nu vă strângeți comori pe pământ, unde le mănâncă moliile și rugina și unde le sapă și le fură hoții; ci strângeți-vă comori în cer, unde nu le mănâncă moliile și rugina și unde hoții nu le sapă, nici nu le fură. Pentru că unde este comoara voastră, acolo va fi și inima voastră."

Singurele "comori în cer" nu sunt aurul sau pietrele preţioase, pe care le adăposteşte pământul. Acestea din pământ sunt, doar pe pământ sunt întrebuinţate şi tot în pămant sfârşesc, într-o formă sau alta.

Însă adevăratele comori din cer sunt rezultatul acţiunii minţii: creaţie, descoperire şi inventică. Nu degeaba crucea biblică este rezultatul interacţiunii minţii, sufletului, mediului şi fiinţei noastre biologice, în proporţii individual diferite.

Aşadar, ca şi concluzie, voi lăsa cuvintele lui James Allen să spună totul: "Numai gândirea cutezătoare, când se aliază cu hotărârea, devine forţă creatoare. Chiar şi cel mai slab suflet care îşi cunoaşte slăbiciunea, dacă el va crede în adevărul că puterea poate fi dezvoltată numai prin efort şi exerciţiu, şi dacă îşi va începe strădaniile imediat, şi dacă va adăuga efort peste efort, răbdare peste răbdare, atunci el se va dezvolta continuu şi în cele din urmă va capăta o forţă divină."

A produce o experienţă vie de împlinire spirituală efectivă înseamnă să duci actul de creaţie la nivelul de descoperire, nu un act impus, ci un act constituit în prezenţa acelui puternic imbold dat numai şi numai de pasiune.

Îşi păstrează bine averea numai cel care a dobândit-o cu sudoarea frunţii, mai ales dacă luăm în considerare zicala că omul care nu-L cunoaște pe Dumnezeu este un eșec în ciuda tuturor succeselor lui.

Deci, să considerăm că numai cine îmbrăţişează ştiinţa (actul de creaţie, procesul de descoperire şi pasiunea pentru inventică) va putea dobândi acea experienţă vie de împlinire spirituală efectivă, chiar şi cu preţul eșecurilor nenumărate date de Dumnezeu ca să-i testeze credinţa.

Istovitoarea odisee a omului care îşi grăbeşte transformarea

Menţine-ţi poziţia fermă faţă de "pretenţiile" propriei tale transformări, fără să-ţi abaţi atenţia de la efectele ei.

Un fel de asprime serioasă şi aproape alienantă mă cuprindea în anumite ceasuri, şi era neobişnuit de frustrant să mă împac cu ideea că aşa va fi mereu. Urma oare să fiu pedepsit de propriile-mi strădanii, atât de deschise şi intense, îndreptate mereu înspre alte căutări?

Ce spaimă ! Întunericul, apoi brusca aprindere a unei lumini artificiale în locul în care îmi puneam tot felul de întrebări, îmi îngreunau considerabil viziunea asupra propriei mele fiinţe. Uneori, credeam că dacă mă încarc cu nenumărate forme de gândire, cu care viaţa îmi intersecta toate convingerile, strădaniile şi valorile, cel puţin în aparenţa cu care trebuia să răspund lamentărilor şi cererilor repetate de a formula un punct de vedere individual vizavi de orice situaţie în care eram implicat, voi putea să-mi definesc o nouă direcţie de acţiune.

Pledam în favoarea existenţei unei separări absolute, trecerea forţată de la o formă de cunoaştere medie înspre alta, mult superioară, marcând etapa finală a maturizării mele, care se producea subtil, aproape fără să-mi dau seama. Mă implicam într-o continuă activitate de învăţare şi însuşire a celor mai avansate şi eficiente particularităţi, mecanisme ale cunoaşterii. Ajustări fine, dar complicate, impuse de schimbările ce surveneau în propria-mi fiinţă.

Ca un vehicul capabil să-şi sporească de cinci, de zece ori viteza cunoscută şi acceptată de ştiinţă, speram să ajung fulgerător la destinaţia dorită, acolo unde totul se accelera pe măsură ce apăsam pedala de ambreiaj a transformării mele, prin dezvoltarea controlată a ştiinţei pe care mi-o însuşeam.

Acolo unde întrebările fără răspuns încetau a se repeta la nesfârşit. În locul lor făcându-şi debutul acele idei grandioase care nu ruginesc prin praful timpului. Dar care, ca valurile din timpul şi de după furtună, se spărgeau furioase de latura neclară a fiinţei mele, cauzând mai multă confuzie.

Leadership: Poziţia ta faţă de realitatea complexă a vieţii este aceea a observatorului care vede de la distanţă mare amănuntul piesei diferenţiatoare menit să indice o nouă direcţie de cunoaştere?

Un observator care m-ar fi studiat cu atenţie, ar fi văzut desprinzându-se din mine, de dincolo de această limită a cunoaşterii nepermise care mă încerca stăruitor, a gândirii care trebuia să se menţină ancorată în realitate – neînvinsa tendinţă spre perfecţiune. Rampa mea spre succes, nevoia puternică de a fi mai mult decât un simplu om, mai mult decât un număr fără soţ al destinului.

Spre a deveni liber, puternic, o mărturie peste timp, demn de a intra în rândul marilor iluştri în ale alchimiei, ca Bötger, Philaletes, Trevisan sau Paracelsus.

Dar pentru asta trebuie să activez acel modus operandi , să mă deplasez într-un mediu diferit, să risc să mă scufund în altă realitate, printr-o revizuire a consecinţelor şi efectelor cauzate de transformarea mea. Fără să ştiu că alchimia nu este o criptografie de descifrat, ci un dar de la Dumnezeu, un lucru infinit de complex care nu se limitează la a învăţa, ci la a transforma ceea ce ţi-ai însuşit prin învăţare.

Era evident, de altfel, că nu puteam sta cu mâinile în sân, încercând, prin toate mijloacele, să-mi asigur înălţătoarea transformare. Trebuia să-mi menţin poziţia fermă faţă de „pretenţiile" propriei mele transformări. Să văd focul limitării stingându-se atât de iute, şi succesul înlocuindu-l, fără nicio negare. Probabil, singura piesă diferenţiatoare care îmi putea indica o nouă direcţie de cunoaştere, încât să dau o semnificaţie accentuat pozitivă asupra vieţii, era tendinţa de a mă poziţiona, în general, la un nivel mult superior celor ce se petreceau în jurul meu.

Leadership: Îţi asiguri înălţătoarea transformare personală privind viaţa din unghiul a ceea ce se pierde prin profunzime, sau din perspectiva a ceea ce se dezvoltă prin generalizare?

Dezvoltarea leadershipului implică transformare, une renaissance dans la vérité , fiind un proces spontan, dar şi controlat al acelor componente care te ajută să atingi maturitatea, şi să eviţi situaţiile critice. Dar acest proces de transformare te poate trage în jos, ca pe o epavă la fundul oceanului, dacă nu înţelegi sensul lui, dacă nu te dedici cu dăruire propriei tale "treziri".

Aşa cum la şah, calul poate să sară două careuri deodată şi chiar în două direcţii opuse, dar nu poate înainta de două ori în acelaşi timp, tot astfel înfrângerea oricăror limite, oricăror automatisme de gândire care nu-ţi sunt favorabile, sau care nu duc nicăieri, inhibându-te sau blocându-te în dezvoltare, poate să producă "un salt de două trepte" peste plafonare.

Dar acest salt spre marea performanţă nu se poate produce decât o singură dată, vital şi hotărâtor. Căci omul care nu se sprijină pe ambele aripi ale transformării sale, nu va putea niciodată zbura spre noi destinaţii, în cel mai bun caz va sosi cu întârziere în locul în care dorinţa de a fi altcineva nu îl mai poate favoriza.

Această dezvoltare care îţi poate accelera sau paraliza transformarea, poate fi privită ca o reîntoarcere la propria-ţi identitate, adică spre a te regăsi în final pe tine însuţi. Este o posibilitate de recepţionare a situaţiilor care nu corespund aşteptărilor tale, sau care nu sunt înţelese în totalitate, spre a nu îngreuna mecanismele și complexitățile noii tale deveniri.

A privi viaţa din unghiul a ceea ce se pierde prin profunzime înseamnă să uiţi de ceea ce te apasă şi te frământă, legat de totul din jur, şi să te întorci la ceea ce ai lăsat în urmă înainte de a interveni schimbarea. Pe de altă parte, a privi viaţa din perspectiva a ceea ce se dezvoltă prin generalizare înseamnă să vezi un singur eveniment negativ ca un model nesfârșit de izbândă. Poţi?

Transformarea în leadership se realizează sub semnul intelectului, a conştiinţei şi a valorilor personale ce rezultă din interacţiunea cu totul din jur pe care nu-l poţi schimba, dar îi poţi surprinde înţelesurile ştiind că ele se pot pierde uneori, neputând ajunge în mod desăvârşit la oricine.

Istovitoarea odisee a omului care îşi grăbeşte transformarea evidenţiază lipsa capacităţii omului de a-şi dirija voluntar resursele şi acţiunile într-o direcţie folositoare lui, care să aducă coerenţă existenţei sale şi, în acelaşi timp, excelenţa în leadership.

Îţi dezvolţi controlat ştiinţa pe care ţi-o însuşeşti? Strădaniile tale de a-ţi grăbi transformarea sunt îndreptate mereu înspre alte căutări? Care sunt întrebările cu care te confrunţi pe parcursul transformării tale? Îţi cauzează ele multă confuzie? Îţi menţii gândirea ancorată în realitate? Te împaci cu ideea că aşa va fi mereu?

Menţine-ţi poziţia fermă faţă de pretenţiile tale privind propriile transformări, fără să-ţi abaţi atenţia de la efectele ei.

Îţi făgăduiesc să nu mă omor, dar nu-ţi făgăduiesc că n-am să mor

Repararea trecutului necesită dedicare față de propriile acțiuni și alegeri, pentru a întoarce roata destinului spre bine.

- Christiane, continuă Julius cu un ton grav şi aproape solemn. Ai spus adineauri că din pricina tăcerii tale prea îndelungate Frederique şi Lothario sunt acum despărţiţi. Ei bine, este datoria ta acum de a acţiona pentru a-i reuni şi, în loc să te opui la ceea ce voi întreprinde eu în acest scop, trebuie să-mi sprijini proiectele, să mă ajuţi să-mi îndeplinesc planul, oricare ar fi. Să reparăm răul pe care l-am făcut şi, dacă vom suferi după aceea, măcar să ne fi făcut datoria.

- Sunt gata, zise ea, resemnată.

- Iată ce trebuie să faci. Frederique este la Eberbach. Te vei duce acolo, o vei aduce în secret la Paris, astfel încât Samuel să nu bănuiască nimic. Ea este probabil neliniştită. O vei informa. Aici, va locui la tine, o vei proteja, vei fi mama ei. Nimeni nu va şti că eşti la Paris şi că eşti împreună cu ea. Eu, în acest timp, îmi voi continua planul.

- Ce plan?

- Nu mă întreba.

Leadership: Cum ai putea să îmbini contrastul dintre greșelile trecute și acțiunile de acum pentru a contura o perspectivă a vieții tale în care simetria și armonia devin principii fundamentale?

- Oh ! izbucni ea, e ceva îngrozitor, de vreme ce n-ai curajul să-mi spui, eu care ţi-am dezvăluit lucruri atât de cumplite !

- Prima condiţie ca să reuşesc, zise Julius, este un secret absolut. Dacă pereţii ar şti ceea ce vreau să fac, s-ar prăbuşi totul. Trebuie ca Samuel să se cufunde într-o linişte adâncă. Să nu se teamă de nimic, să creadă că mă trage pe sfoară ca şi în trecut.

- Ceea ce vreau să fac, nu ştiu decât eu şi încerc să mă gândesc cât mai puţin la lucrul acesta, de teamă ca nicio vagă intenţie să nu mi se citească pe chip. Când va sosi clipa, totul va izbucni deodată din inima mea, ca leul din vizuină, şi vai de cel ce va simţi gheară în gât.

Leadership: Ai simțit vreodată că echilibrul subtil al deciziilor tale modelează destinul celor din jur, în momente în care sinele tău se confruntă cu dileme existențiale?

În efortul de a repara greșelile trecutului, asumarea responsabilității și colaborarea devin piloni esențiali pentru îndreptarea situațiilor create de propriile acțiuni, evidențiind puterea vindecătoare a solidarității și a sacrificiului personal în numele binelui comun.

Contele von Eberbach se opri, parcă regretând că vorbise prea mult.

- E de ajuns să ştii, reluă el, că planul meu este dublu: îmi voi sluji familia şi patria. Tu, care mă iubeşti, n-ai vrea, nu-i aşa, să-mi alungi suprema consolare de a realiza astfel de scopuri cu mâinile mele deja reci? Haide, fii generoasă, fii inteligentă, fii deasupra măruntelor interese care preferă realitatea în locul bucuriilor sufleteşti, şi să-mi consimţământul tău. Spune-mi că-mi îngădui să mor şi că-mi făgăduieşti să trăieşti.

- Îţi făgăduiesc să nu mă omor, zise Christine, dar nu-ţi făgăduiesc că n-am să mor.

În leadership, singurul învăţător de nădejde este conştiinţa de a alege un mod de acţiune care combină intenţia clară a scopului propus cu îndreptarea situaţiilor în care nu te simţi văzut pentru ceea ce faci.

Îţi făgăduiesc să nu mă omor, dar nu-ţi făgăduiesc că n-am să mor, sunt cuvintele unui om care ar vrea să îndrepte greşelile trecutului prin intermediul sacrificiului personal. Dar repararea trecutului necesită curaj și dedicare față de propriile acțiuni și alegeri, pentru a întoarce roata destinului spre bine. Uneori, echilibrul fragil dintre dorința de răzbunare și consecințele sale te face să te simți divizat între valorile cu care te identifici și sentimentele de vinovăție care te împiedică să fii fericit.

Îţi voi dezvălui acum o parte din natura Fenixului

On Aprilie 05, 2010

Înțelepciunea adevărată începe când recunoaștem faptul că realitatea vizibilă este doar o iluzie înșelătoare.

Marele Prezicător intră pe uşa situată în dreapta.

- Află, îi zise el lui Keops, în timp ce mergeau, că fiecare dintre aceste galerii duce la săli înguste sau la răscruci, la care se ajunge printr-o ușă. Or, fiecare prezintă şapte uşi dominate de şapte entități spirituale, numite divinități sau demoni, nu are importanţă. Şi fiecare dintre aceste uşi duce la alte zece uşi. Îţi poţi da astfel seama de complexitatea și de felul complicat în care se întretaie aceste galerii, care se pot închide în dreptul fiecăreia dintre aceste uși. Căci mai trebuie să ştii că aceste locuri sunt imaginea lui Duat, așa cum îl străbat sufletele morților înainte de a ajunge în faţa judecății lui Osiris. Dar vei putea, treptat, să descoperi că acestea sunt doar nişte viziuni care nu prezintă realitatea, căci realitatea este contrariul aparenţelor.

- Vrei să spui că ceea ce vedem, ceea ce auzim nu este realitatea, că este doar o iluzie?

- Keops, îți admir perspicacitatea şi rapiditatea reflecţie. Ai înţeles corect, ceea ce mă bucură, căci am sentimentul că nu-ţi va fi greu să urmezi învăţătura pe care încep să ţi-o transmit din această zi.

Ajunseră la o sală de mici dimensiuni, din care se deschideau trei galerii. Benu îl invită pe Keops să se aşeze.

Leadership: Cum te raportezi la ideea că fiecare realitate personală este doar o fractură dintr-o imagine mult mai vastă, completată de un orizont care transcende percepția individuală?

- Îţi voi dezvălui acum o parte din natura Fenixului. Să nu pierzi din vedere că acest templu, în interiorul căruia tocmai pătrundem, este locuinţa lui, locul manifestării sale. Se spune că locuiește în Țara Zeului, care se află la miazăzi de Egipt. Unii spun că această Ţară a Zeului nu este altceva decât acele ținuturi imense situate de cealaltă parte a Mării Orientale, care ne mărgineşte coastele, locuite de triburi nomade. În sudul acestei ţări, către regiunile numite de noi Punt, acolo ar trăi Fenixul, care s-ar hrăni cu tămâie şi cu smirnă. S-ar naște din el însuși, astfel că este propriul său fiu și în acelaşi timp tatăl său.

Când tatăl moare, este închis într-un sicriu făcut din smirnă, în formă de ou, şi dus în templul în care ne aflăm. Deoarece aceste funeralii se repetă numai la fiecare cinci sute de ani, nu am avut niciodată ocazia să verific realitatea acestor spuse. ŞI nici versiunea păstrată în cărțile templului nostru, care spune că Fenixul, după ce a trăit cinci sute de ani, își face un culcuş din nard, din smirnă gălbuie și scorţişoară, îi dă foc şi se întinde deasupra ca să fie mistuit pe acest rug funebru, ca apoi să renască din propria cenuşă. Acest nou Fenix ar zbura atunci până aici, căci acest templu este locul de unde a ieșit din negura timpului.

Leadership: Poate devenirea eternă să fie o reflectare a naturii tale personale, dezvăluită în lumile exterioare prin intermediul unei imagini care transcende granițele timpului și spațiului?

- Povestea aceasta se află scrisă într-o carte? întrebă Keops.

- Aşa mi-a spus Marele Prezicător dinaintea mea, dar nu am văzut niciodată această carte care, după câte se spune, ar putea să se afle într-o ascunzătoare secretă din templul lui Thot de la Hermopolis. Dar această poveste conţine adevăruri mai profunde. În realitate, Pământul Zeului, de unde vine Fenixul, se află, nimeni nu ştie unde, la marginea lumii sau la marginea universului. Căci Fenixul care renaşte din propria-i cenușă este simbolul omului ce renaşte în alt corp de lumină.

De aceea este el sufletul lui Ra, ieșit din materia primordială. Este devenirea eternă și Eternitatea însăşi şi mai este Infinitul, iar Eternitatea e ziua și Infinitul e noaptea, căci infinitul este strâns legat de eternitate, unul nu poate fără celălalt, aşa cum ziua nu poate să existe fără noapte, fiecare fiind una dintre feţele ascunse ale universului, unirea lor formând Totul, Unu, Eternul şi Infinitul. De aceea, îți dezvălui deja o parte din vălul lui Isis: află că în inima labirintului se află Fenixul.

Dar esența sa, natura sa nu o vei descoperi cu adevărat decât după ce vei fi trecut de toate uşile lumii interioare și vei fi ajuns la acea sală a Misterului revelat. Astăzi ai trecut de prima ușă. Acum, haide să ne întoarcem spre lumină vizibilă a soarelui, care este doar reflectarea adevăratei lumini a lui Atum-Ra, ca să poți medita la tot ce ţi-a fost dezvăluit.

Învățătura este o călătorie care începe sub îndrumarea celor care pot dezvălui secretele cele mai adânc îngropate. Iar depășirea iluziilor recunoscute de realitate ne pregătește pentru întâlnirea cu esența adevărului.

Îţi voi dezvălui acum o parte din natura Fenixului: ceea ce pare a fi realitatea este doar o umbră a adevărului ascuns în spatele aparențelor. Iar drumul spre adevăr este pavat cu uși ale percepției care trebuie deschise cu cheia cunoașterii. Mai ales că, adesea, căutarea cunoașterii spirituale este o călătorie prin straturi multiple de simbolism și înțelesuri ascunse, care necesită trecerea prin multe etape de revelație.

It's A Sin

Testează-ţi nivelul de credință, acționând sub imboldul căutării adevărului și optimizării acestuia într-un context particular.

Trebuia să-mi asum responsabilitatea păcatului de a-mi îngădui o depășire a limitelor de a înțelege „adevărul" până la nivelul sacrificiului de sine, în contextul filozofiei valorii acordate fiecărui rezultat posibil al unei acțiuni, dar care era, fără îndoială, antagonistă Bibliei. Această filosofie unică, apelul suprem al criteriului unei raționalități critice şi erudite care dezvoltă teorii ermetice, părea derivată din algoritmul unui parcurs existențial exprimat în nicio limbă inteligibilă, numit adesea destin, un amestec intensiv între a cădea în timp și a fi în afara timpului.

Era un sacrificiu consubstanțial cu exteriorizarea înfrângerii, îndoielii, dispreţului faţă de ceea ce era permanent, solid, stabil şi în general „învechit", forever with a sense of shame , lăsându-mă parcă hipnotizat de ceea ce mă stârnea şi mă întărâta mai aprig: violarea legăturii cu divinul. „Father you fought me 'cause I didn't care and I still don't understand."

Să cred ceea ce nu se poate vedea, să-mi închipui ceea ce poate să nu fie adevărat, sub puterea unei vinovății care-mi conduce destinul ca într-o incantație magică, adică fiind surprins de un repetabil simțământ de ruşine, într-un exerciţiu de inutilitate şi deznădejde pe care nu izbuteam să-l controlez, era în congruenţă cu obiectul obsesiei mele pentru punerea în valoare a descoperirilor misterioase și uluitoare.

Descoperirile pline de îndoială, dependente de necunoscutul unor legi invariabile, erau făcute prin intermediul clauzelor contractuale de finanțare a călătoriei într-o realitate enigmatică, simbolică, poate neîntâmplătoare. Iar răsplata acestei fapte cutezătoare era să probez ce n-am crezut niciodată că o să văd: o altă faţă a învăţării Ştiințelor Vieţii în conformitate cu o altă faţă a lui Dumnezeu. „Father forgive me, I tried not to do it."

Leadership: Formele tale de protest la adresa „inadmisibilului admis de raţiune" răspund la apelul suprem al unui criteriu unic: adevărul nu poate fi posedat, ci doar exprimat?

Dostoievski îşi concepea personajele din sensibilităţi şi ataşamente faţă de ceva considerat sfânt, care izbucneau într-o clipă una din alta, pe care însă le compensa cu nişte calităţi deosebite. De exemplu Prinţul Mişkin, sufletul lui nu cunoştea răul fiindcă nu-l putea concepe. Atunci când era obligat să ia act de prezenţa ofensivă a răului şi să-i atribuie o vină, îi găsea argumente şi explicații legitime, gata să se convingă a-l accepta ca pe o fatalitate. La nivelul sublim de trăire şi cunoaştere, binele şi răul atingeau faza definitivă de coincidentia oppositorum.

Firele şubrede care mă legau de-un simţământ al propriei importanţe izvorât din asimilarea ştiinţei la nivel superior, un exil apropiat de centrul universului, legat de simţirea care stăpâneşte orice subiect al cunoaşterii şi al înţelegerii, for whatever I wanted to do , dădeau coerenţă confruntării dintre bine şi rău. Astfel, schimbarea se manifesta din nou şi din nou ca într-o carte deschisă, fără să setez asocierile cu paginile unei puteri renegate şi necunoscute.

Binele şi răul, suportabile doar dacă le întrevedeam raţiunea de a exista, dacă aveau un ţel prin care să merite osteneala de a le trăi efectele, îmi validau obsesia pentru semnificaţiile întâmplărilor care aveau loc în viaţa mea independent de voinţa şi intervenţia mea. Puţini dintre noi iau în calcul factorul hazardului. „It's a, It's a sin."

Everything I've ever done, Everything I ever do, Every place I've ever been, Everywhere I'm going to, It's a sin. Pentru că însăşi forţa sufletului, trăirile şi convingerile care ies din garanţie pe parcursul derulării evenimentelor, tulburate de prezența gândurilor adunate peste zi, implică regretul de a nu fi tălmăcit vederea celor de din afară, voinţa lui Dumnezeu, singurătăţile unui filosof fără de milă într-un univers al posibilităţilor nelimitate.

Păcatul de care se face vinovat un căutător de adevăruri este acela de a reflecta la lucruri şi situaţii de care vrea să se debaraseze, fără să încerce să le folosească spre desăvârşirea personală întru nădejdea slavei lui Dumnezeu.

Atâtea piedici în calea investigării unor fapte de natură necunoscută pe care doream să le accesez prin prisma unui punct fix, when I look back upon my life , ca zborul vulturului care nu lasă nicio urmă, se puteau concretiza într-o creaţie artistică care doreşte să spună mult prea multe, însă nu reuşeşte să facă acest lucru datorită complexităţii parcursului non-liniar şi a contradicţiilor vieţii. Şi mai ales datorită proiecţiei agresive a unei lumi imperfecte, determinată de apariţia unei conştiinţe tragice sau ostile.

Un sentiment foarte dureros determinat de credinţa că ceva este în neregulă cu mine, acest lucru făcându-mă demn de deșertăciunea care îmbracă golul unei prăpăstii, ca o sentinţă necruţătoare emisă asupra unei lumii imaginare care se anunţă cu pretenţiile stranii de a pune în discuţie rânduielile consacrate unei autorităţi supreme, determina anihilarea mea simbolică într-un spaţiu al captivităţii fără ieşire.

Astfel, am ajuns să mă transform într-un prizonier al unei terifiante limitări, ceea ce avea drept consecinţă asumarea unui spor de pedeapsă, no matter when or where has one thing in common too : efortul de a înţelege viaţa, de a-i atinge enigma şi – în grad incomparabil mai mare – de neputinţa de a o prinde în menghinele unei forţe implacabile.

Trăirea prin credință este o manifestare a nevoii tale de a se apropia mai mult de cele ce nu se văd, dar care se cer a fi cercetate și cântărite în funcție de gradul de valorificare a darurilor unice cu care ai fost înzestrat.

Caută şi vei găsi. Bate și uşa ţi se va deschide. Cere şi ți se va da. Cu o singură condiţie: să crezi în ceva care nu poate fi văzut, nici demonstrat, nici infirmat.

Adevărul care te va face să trăieşti în lumea ta, nu a celorlalți, poate fi optimizat numai într-un context de evoluţie care îți permite să testezi experienţele unui bine care face rău, sau a unui rău care face bine, cu un alt mod de a le înţelege.

It's A Sin ori de câte ori încerci să înţelegi ceva mai presus de omenire, mai presus de raporturile ei pământeşti, mai presus de toate interesele vieţii trecătoare, fiindcă pierzi din vedere frumuseţea clipei ce trebuie numaidecât trăită sub semnul iminenței.

Aici rămâne valabilă zicala: „Păcatul te costă mai mult decât vrei să plătești, dar te poate duce mai departe decât ai vrea şi te ţine mai mult decât vroiai să rămâi."

It's Probably Me

Încearcă să înțelegi cine eşti atunci când te pierzi în altcineva.

M-am adaptat la o realitate rămasă la nivel de bănuială, pe care de altfel nu am vrut niciodată să o recunosc, deşi am fost avertizat de mecanismele cunoaşterii, ale intuiției și ale nevoii de adevăr care se întind dincolo de experienţă, parcă cu rostul de a deturna firescul către altceva mai pretenţios. Traversare a absurdului? Ficţiune reală?

Trecutul meu retrăit într-un prezent determinat de forţele magnetice ale creaţiei supusă unui sens ce o depăşeşte şi care, la limită, o face posibilă între potenţialitate şi act, între subiect şi realizare, refuzând aproape o teoretizare adâncită, nu îşi mai găseşte locul, aflându-se ca un corp străin ce declanşează o reacţie uriaşă în sufletul meu.

I ask myself, who'd watch for me? Uitând de rostul clipei care moare, să înţeleg esenţa dincolo de aparenţă devine o trezire spirituală a celui ce experimentează vulnerabilităţile ascunsului spre a ajunge la desfăşurări deductive ale cunoaşterii sapienţiale, dorite dar anevoioase, care încearcă o restabilire a credinţei corecte alături de înviorarea iniţiativei particulare de revizuire a temei numită: Dumnezeu.

Aşteptare dinamică? Explorare a limitelor de înţelegere a unor iluzii? Unele lucruri nu pot fi prinse în cuvinte, ci doar în materia constituentă a imaterialului. Fără imaginaţie dusă prea departe şi deci pierdere în decor şi idei, încă o treaptă fără de care nu mă pot căţăra mai departe, în pragul unei împliniri redusă la abstract, niciodată satisfăcută, semăn cu Don Quijote crezându-se învins, neputincios în faţa lipsei de roade a faptelor sale.

Leadership: Atribui valori de probabilitate unor lămuriri menite să-ţi ofere însemnătate, evaluându-ţi inexact capacităţile în raport cu momentele de incertitudine pe care le înfrunţi?

A solitary voice to speak out and set me free. I hate to say it, I hate to say it, but it's probably me. Căci, asemenea unei întrebări la care nu primeşti niciun răspuns, mă simt angajat într-o tentativă pseudoştiinţifică de a justifica o eventuală intervenţie străină căruia i se aplică mărimea de măsurat: pluralitatea.

Ceva care mă întreabă doar despre ce se ascunde, ceva care îmi răspunde doar despre ceea ce se cunoaşte, o compatibilitate a combinaţiilor dintre viziune şi atitudinea critică anulând caracterul a ceea ce este concret. Uf, încă o parabolă a dez-înstrăinării, o continuare a întoarcerii la mine din „altceva-ul în care mă pierdusem cu totul. O experiență subiectivă de care nu mă satur să o compar cu o creaţie supusă paradoxurilor într-o relaţie de alăturare a contrariilor dintre sine și Alter-Ego.

Deseori ne găsim în faţa unor situaţii susţinute de fundament ştiinţific pe care nu ştim să le parcurgem, să le înţelegem şi să le canalizăm către diferite căi de acţiune pe care singuri, prinşi în paradigma noastră, nu le-am putea vedea.

Ordinea şi potrivirea unor conjuncturi pentru a ajunge la îndeplinirea unui rezultat propus reprezintă doar o critică a fundamentelor ştiinţei raportată la o realitate rezultată din confruntarea de sensuri care condiţionează funcţionarea relaţiei cu cele neştiute din cadrul unei experienţe de sine stătătoare. O experienţă integrată în conceptul generos "just an ordinary guy". If you wake the morning in a stranger's coat, no one would you see.

An ordinary guy este un Don Quijote care se bate cu morile de vânt, neacceptând să-şi drămuiască pasiunile, pentru ca la finalul căutării de sine să se elibereze din marasmul conformismului şi al cuminţeniei „înţelepte”. El reprezintă un simbol al unei etici active, momentul limită al unei aspiraţii salutare spre perfecţiune pe care nu o va atinge decât prin revelarea sinelui.

Lămuririle menite să-ţi ofere însemnătate vin din partea obiectivității cu care îți judeci autenticitatea pe baza profilului de personalitate obținut prin intermediul unui Alter-Ego niciodată mulțumit, născut din frământări, incertitudini și contraste, din aspiraţii supuse permanent analizei lucide.

O extindere a experienței de sine este o răsturnare a vechilor constrângeri care te limitează, sub rezerva intenţionalităţii de a aprecia „altceva-ul” acolo unde este prezent, creând în mod constant contexte de interpretare a realităţii.

Cu o amplificată sensibilitate faţă de conţinutul artei (perceput ca obiect al ştiinţei), încerc să mă cufund în căutarea de răspunsuri la toate dilemele care-mi aleargă prin minte. Că dincolo de tot ce mă frământă, contrastând cu năzuințele cele mai profunde, dincolo de interpretările subiective ale experienţelor personale şi negarea adevărurilor sfinte, stă un fel de nebunie a luptei cu mine însumi.

O neacceptare a convențiilor unanim acceptate. O depăşire a limitelor. O exagerare, fie că e vorba de pasiunea pentru o idee, pentru o cauză, pentru o misiune, pentru descoperire.

Scriitorul român, Tudor Vianu, credea că din moment ce Sancho Panza s-a quijotizat pe deplin, este normal ca el să devină un Don Quijote în locul celuilalt.

When the world's gone crazy and it makes no sense, there's only one voice that comes to your defense: that voice of the stranger in you. Pentru că nu mă recunosc acelaşi ca înainte, derizoriu în tot ce mă ajuta să fiu eu însumi, ceva vrednic de o imaginaţie dusă pe o culme a confuziei unde nu există limită de timp, ci doar un strigăt în pustiu adresat unui Dumnezeu nevăzut.

Deci, pierdere de sine într-un joc care generează parcă o utopie a eului și neantului ce caracterizează un cold cold ground . Eu şi cu mine însumi în labirintului singurătăţii, prea bine aşezat ca să se descuie curând, înconjurat de ştiinţa ce îşi aşteaptă încă răspunsul. You're not the easiest person I ever got to know, and it's hard for us both to let our feelings show.

Adevărata miză a redefinirii personale este acceptarea a tot ce simți în legătură cu misterul viu al vieţii disimulat între două persoane: un idealist care nu se lasă bătut şi un răzvrătit a cărui sminteală este „o formă de superioară înţelepciune”.

It's Probably Me ori de câte ori încerc să înțeleg cine sunt atunci când mă pierd în altcineva.

Când te afli faţă în faţă cu tine, simţi că eşti un alt om? Evoluţia ta spirituală se realizează prin analizarea şi asumarea propriilor calităţi şi defecte atunci când gândești prin creierul lui Don Quijote?

Izolarea cercetătorului în cursa lungă a leadershipului

Asigură ştiinţei tale un loc de bază în asistenţa leadershipului, astfel încât ea să poată fi inclusă în contextul amplu de reconstruire a gândirii celorlalţi oameni.

Nu puteam să fug de obligaţia de a găsi noi variante de răspuns la întrebările aparent fără răspuns. Scanam mulţimea de variabile pe care le cunoşteam sau nu, făcând posibilă găsirea altor răspunsuri, într-o formă fin divizată, prin intermediul unei abordări sistematice. Asta îmi aducea, mai mult decât orice altceva, o anumită pace, o trăire deosebită, senzaţia aceea minunată, Evrika, când afli ceva nou, exclusiv, cu impact major.

Interpretarea pe care o dădeam necunoscutelor care gravitau în jurul unui singur punct de vedere era extrem de profundă, ca o taină de nepătruns sub formă de metaforă care încapsula un adevăr incontestabil. Trebuia să fiu mereu atent la apariţia jocurilor de semnificaţii care admiteau o descifrare de adâncime, combinându-se şi grupându-se apoi într-o nouă creaţie, într-un limbaj multiplu, plin de subtilităţi care trebuiau prelucrate, interpretate, apoi transmise într-un stil convenţional.

O transformare a originalului într-o nouă creaţie, pusă într-un alt context. Nu voiam să ratez ocazia de a îmbogăţi structura limbajului cu noi simboluri, adăugate în amestecul de reacţie iniţial, filtrat în concentraţii mici la nivelul conceptelor abstracte.

Trăirea cea mai stimulatoare pe care o încerci în faţa ştiinţei are ca fundament nuanţa pozitivă a unei lumi înţelese prin subtilitatea interpretărilor ei.

Leadershipul, încercarea de exteriorizare a ceea ce eram cu adevărat în mijlocul unei cunoaşteri care se înfăptuieşte esenţialmente pe calea creaţiei, trebuia să fie sursa unei relaţii de tip cauză-efect între folosirea cuvintelor ca ancore pentru experienţa de învăţare şi folosirea unor criterii de comparare şi clasificare a diferitelor interpretări ale noţiunilor matematice pentru descoperirea unor proprietăţi sau reguli de multiplicitate a sensurilor scrierilor mele.

În prima schemă de răspuns generalizat, evidenţiind apropierea între două sensuri îndepărtate, se forma o combinaţie intermediară instabilă între catalizatorul X şi unul din reactanţi. Prin reacţia combinaţiei intermediare cu celălalt reactant se forma produsul de reacţie şi se regenera catalizatorul. Iar acest catalizator, în condiţii speciale, crea un strat nou de înţelesuri profunde. Pe care de multe ori le pierdeam din vedere.

Leadership: Atunci când Creaţia ta dobândeşte posibilitatea de a deveni asemenea Creatorului, tu rişti să devii o fiinţă distinctă, separată de El?

După cum o poveste capătă un sens special în funcţie de interpretarea personală a elementelor ei de bază, tot astfel cunoaşterea pe care o obţineam în urma metodelor inductive căpăta conotaţii speciale atunci când luam în considerare ambiguităţile şi contradicţiile pe care nu le puteam explica.

Întreaga mea creaţie se focusa asupra răspunsurilor pe care le-aş fi putut obţine în urma lansării întrebării: "Cât de aproape sunt de împărăţia lui Dumnezeu?" Deodamdată înţelegeam că sunt mai aproape de lucruri decât de Dumnezeu, de zidire decât de Ziditor, de cunoaştere decât de înţelepciune (care este mai mult o formă de manifestare a lui Dumnezeu în plan emoţional, comportamental, intelectual).

Cu ajutorul ştiinţei trasam graniţele dintre real şi ireal într-un spaţiu fără coordonate. Practic regândeam lumea şi o aşezam într-un sistem gândit special, astfel încât să optimizez la maxim procesul de construcţie al unor idealuri înalte de cunoaştere. Sensurile degenerau într-un ansamblu de simboluri arbitrare care îndepărtau profanii de adevărul ce sălăşluia înăuntrul limbajului, conceput şi transmis mai mult ca o filosofie.

Eram încă departe de Dumnezeu, căci chiar dacă acumulasem multă cunoaştere şi multă dorinţă de creativitate, încă nu reuşeam să comunic cu El, cu universul, nu reuşeam să transform materia în energie vitală (asemenea acelui fizician care a reuşit să transforme raza soarelui în energie electrică). În spatele creaţiei există o întreagă filosofie, aşa cum în spatele cunoaşterii trebuie să existe încercarea intelectului de a se pune pe sine fundament al lumii.

În ceea ce mă priveşte, exista o anumită "pudoare" legată de limbajul dezvoltat, care mă împiedica să construiesc şi să multiplic semnificaţiile în contexte noi. Fiindcă mă temeam că acestea ar putea declanşa invidia în rândul experţilor şi controverse în rândul misticilor. Ca să fie general acceptat, compoziţia limbajului trebuia să se uniformizeze şi să se lege într-un tot unitar, garantând formarea unei perspective mai complexe, bine înţelese asupra realităţilor neştiute.

Leadership: Controlul tău asupra elementelor de creaţie duce la acumularea unor experienţe care îţi oferă un anumit grad de înţelepciune în relaţia cu ceea ce te face să simţi că trăieşti din înaltul unei auto-proclamări de atotcunoscător?

Păream a fi stăpânit de un sentiment covârşitor. Căci pentru a demonstra argumentele şi teoriile potrivite, extrăgând asemănările şi deosebirile din toate punctele de vedere legate de tot ceea ce ţine de desluşirea "ambiguului", trebuia ca semnificaţiile cu aceeaşi importantă, dar şi aparent în contradicţie cu realitatea cunoscută, să se întrupeze la rândul lor într-o viziune a limbajului prezent în creaţia mea.

Celebrul scriitor Umberto Eco îşi începe romanul "Pendulul lui Foucault" cu nişte cuvinte extrase din "De oculta philosophia", care parcă pune la încercare autoritatea ştiinţei şi a tehnicilor bazate pe suportul cunoaşterii cele mai înalte:

"Numai pentru voi, fii ai doctrinei și ai învățăturii, am scris această operă. Cercetați atent cartea, concentrați-vă asupra acelei intenții pe care am presărat-o și am strecurat-o în mai multe locuri. Ceea ce am lăsat să rămână ascuns într-un loc am arătat în alt loc, ca să poată fi înțeles de înțelepciunea voastră."

Eu însumi ocupam un loc central în creaţia mea. Iar viziunea mea trebuia să se exteriorizeze printr-un limbaj adecvat, perfect înţeles. Înţelepciunea mea se putea defini în acord cu întărirea convingerii că tot ceea ce reuşesc să asimilez prin procesele cunoaşterii poate duce la un grad ridicat de acceptare şi tolerare a necesităţii de a fi pragmatic în ce priveşte costul eşecului, de a fi sincer cu mine însumi în momentul când creaţia nu se mai supune creatorului şi îl ia în stăpânire.

Ştiinţa este materialul gândirii, este felul în care îl poţi înţelege pe Dumnezeu care a făcut cerul şi pământul (cu toate legile care îl susţin), este muniţie de luptă împotriva oricărei ameninţări asupra idealurilor sale. Ştiinţa este rodul unei creaţii ascunse de ochii curioşi, dar îşi face intrarea din când în când în sufletul oamenilor care sunt pregătiţi să înţeleagă semnificaţia şi miracolul ei.

Leadershipul este munca atât de costisitoare pe care depui în folosul interpretării unei lumi care se distinge printr-o descoperire ştiinţifică rară şi se uneşte cu Dumnezeu prin învăţătura culeasă din filosofia experienţei pe care o dăruieşti celorlalţi oameni.

Izolarea cercetătorului în cursa lungă a leadershipului apare atunci când există o neconcordanţă între gândirea avansată a unui lider şi capacitatea de înţelegere a maselor de oameni care fie că au un nivel educativ deficitar, fie comunicarea prin intermediul limbajului este precar.

În ambele situaţii eşecul va apărea la orizont. Iar liderul va rămâne izolat în propriul "castel de fildeş" în care nimeni nu va cuteza să pătrundă.

Jocul actorului şi subtilitatea regizorală

Rămâi fidel viziuni tale, edificând creaţia care domină întreaga experienţă generată din interacţiunile cu accentele de creaţie concentrate asupra unui prezent care se repetă.

Diversele sale poziţii sunt redate brusc, una după alta, fără trecerile dintre o atitudine şi cea următoare, adică aproape la fel cum s-ar prezenta o serie de personaje separate, de sine stătătoare, alese de aparatul de filmat – nu după criteriile prezenţei fizice şi spaţiale, ci după gradul de creştere a emoţiei în cursul aceleiaşi acţiuni. Această construcţie de contrapunct domină întreaga scenă şi o supune legilor ei. De aceea regizorul Serghei Eisenstein socoate că lucrul cel mai important este ca totul, începând cu jocul actorului şi terminând cu jocul faldurilor veşmintelor lui, să fie pătruns în egală măsură de acea unică şi determinantă emoţie ce stă la baza polifoniei întregii compoziţii multilaterale.

Aşa apare scena în viziunea lui Eisenstein. În momentul filmării singura sa preocupare este să o stăpânească, să rămână fidel acestei viziuni. „În acel moment personajul Ivan pare a fi absolut singur cu soarta. Nu se întâmplă nimic. Teribilele aparate de filmat îi înregistrează fiecare mişcare, fiecare urmă de emoţie de pe obraz. Din toate colţurile platoului îl urmăresc ochi care veghează ca nu cumva să iasă din câmpul obiectivului, din zona de claritate a obiectivului, din suprafaţa atât de laborios iluminată sau să nu-şi ridice vocea peste nivelul stabilit de operatorul de sunet."

O preocupare exclusiv tehnică aşadar, realizatorul urmăreşte cu obstinaţie ca visul lui să devină realitate. Este dictatorial cu interpretul tocmai pentru a nu lăsa să se strecoare nici măcar o nuanţă care nu s-ar încadra acestei orchestraţii minuţioase. *****

Leadershipul tău se materializează într-o operaţiune profund creatoare, cu extraordinare valenţe de multi-rol, din care radiază emoţia dinaintea unei viziuni care se transmite până în faptă?

Pornind de stadiul actual al cunoaşterii într-un domeniu şi continuând cu stadiul aplicării unor proceduri de ajustare a gândirii, poţi pune în circulaţie anumite puncte de vedere, extrem de specializate, care au puterea să împingă oamenii la noi feluri de a se comporta şi reacţiona conformându-se întru totul instrucţiunilor de montaj.

Important este ca viziunea cu care tratezi un subiect să empatizeze cu sensibilitatea spirituală, cu povestea de viaţă a celor care nu renunţă niciodată şi care îşi decid singuri soarta.

În ceea ce priveşte filmul, montajul se referă la faza finală în tehnica de lucru, care cuprinde selectarea scenelor, stabilirea ordinii și lungimii definitive a secvențelor, mixajul cu acompaniamentul sonor, în conformitate cu succesiunea indicată de scenariu și cu viziunea artistică a regizorului. În leadership montajul are rolul de a maximiza impactul pe care îl poţi avea asupra fiecărei experienţe de viaţă, prin amplificarea eficienţei în actul de creaţie, aşa încât să stimulezi la maxim motivaţia oamenilor de a-şi făuri un destin glorios.

Montajul reprezintă o operaţiune profund creatoare, cu extraordinare valenţe de multi-rol, având potenţialul de a induce subiecţilor nu doar stări şi sentimente, ci şi anumite conduite fără ca aceştia să fie conştienţi de un asemenea fapt sau fără să se poată împotrivi. Concomitent, liderul îndeplineşte rolul de regizor, de observator, de tehnician, de supervizor care „retuşează" din când în când comportamentele celor care vor să joace un rol important într-o poveste de viaţă cu adevărat impresionantă.

Putem să concluzionăm că leadershipul practicat de un lider-regizor are rol de „generator de tensiune" sau de „stabilizator de tensiune", în funcţie de cât de mult apelează el la cei din jur şi în funcţie de cât de deschişi se arată oamenii în a-i asculta ordinele şi dispoziţiile. Cei care urmează un lider trebuie, deci, să îndeplinească două roluri: cel de protagonist al unei poveşti de film, deci protagonist al unui act de eroism devenit legendar, şi cel de martor al unei realităţi ilustrate de ideea atotputerniciei destinului pus în faţa unui Creator nevăzut care a uitat pur și simplu de cadrul descurajator al vieții.

Leadership: Te foloseşti de funcţia „master" pentru a verifica dacă te poziţionezi în zona de claritate a unei lumi demult uitate, într-un efort deliberat de însuşire a idealismului unui creator care se considera standardul absolut al adevărului?

În loc să-şi concentreze atenţia strict asupra acelor factori generatori de performanţe deosebite, ce pot deveni vitale pentru construcţia aşteptărilor sale, un lider cu valenţe de regizor aleargă tot timpul, ca printr-un nesfârşit labirint abstract, în jurul întrebărilor: „ Pot încadra o anumită situaţie sau o persoană într-un alt plan de referinţă decât cel comun? " Într-un fel, el este urmărit de presimţirea că de aici se i va trage eşecul sau succesul plăsmuirii unei realităţi veridice.

Dacă nu eşti capabil să sesizezi ce n-ai făcut, aduci singur dovada nepriceperii tale, şi implicit recunoşti că nu te ridici la înălţimea funcţiei cu care ai fost investit. Din acest motiv liderii sunt deseori dictatoriali cu „interpreţii operei lor" tocmai pentru a nu lăsa să se strecoare nici măcar o nuanţă nepotrivită în minuţioasa lor orchestraţie. Leadership înseamnă să domini de aproape întreaga scenă de transformări şi să o supui legilor tale, adevărurilor tale.

Idealismul unui creator care se consideră standardul absolut al adevărului ţine de nuanţele unei realităţi istorice concrete care poate avea ca şi corespondent simbolul transparent al unui prezent continuu, niciodată încheiat.

Când întorci faptele pe-o parte şi alta, adăugând mici detalii, eliminând sau nuanţând altele, totul capătă noi valenţe, o altă dimensiune, o altă logică. Toate aceste reproduc la scara liderului aspiraţia spre ceva înalt, setea de a se impune şi de a se regăsi pe cele mai înalte cote ale ierarhiei profesionale, apropiindu-se de acea raţiune care justifică orice decizie din perspectiva obiectivului principal urmărit.

Pentru orice regizor, istoria este un prezent care se repetă.

Funcţia „master" verifică dacă te poziţionezi în zona de claritate a unei lumi uitate, a unei istorii trecute cu vederea, şi se referă în principal la existenţa unor restrângeri şi constrângeri impuse de dinamica tot mai accelerată a procesului de creaţie. Poţi edifica o creaţie care să domine întreaga experienţă generată din interacţiunile cu cei din jur numai dacă rămâi fidel viziuni tale şi o înglobezi la nivel de key-actions şi key-results , chiar cu riscul unei opoziţii.

Leadershipul este priceperea de a prezenta viziunea unei realităţi palpabile ce îşi trăieşte veşnicia în favoarea existenţei unui Creator care a uitat pur și simplu de cadrul descurajator al vieții.

Jocul actorului şi subtilitatea regizorală evidenţiază două entităţi opuse prin natura lor şi care totuşi nu există una fără cealaltă. Prima îngăduie să se expună la orice factor declanşator de reacţii de opoziţie, în urma unei analize minuţioase, însoţite de retuşări ferme şi adecvate. A doua instanţă încurajează dezvoltarea profesională, sub imperiul unei monitorizări stricte şi a unei presiuni neobişnuite, dar de efect, care respectă proporţia între nivelul de competenţă, responsabilitate şi performanţa individuală.

Jocul celor două cuvinte

Apără-ţi onoarea în caz de eşec, renunţând la orice gând negativ care te distrage de la valorile tale cele mai profunde.

În 2008 Barack Obama, actualul preşedinte al Americii, a obţinut 52 la sută din scrutinul popular, echivalentul a 338 de voturi electorale, faţă de cele 163 ale contracandidatului său republican, John McCain. A fost o victorie apreciată de toţi ca un prim pas către un leadership mai performant bazat pe onestitate, etică şi competenţă.

Dar cel mai mult şi mai mult mi-a plăcut reacţia celui învins.

Republicanul John McCain şi-a recunoscut înfrângerea la scurt timp după ce televiziunile îl anunţaseră drept câştigător pe Obama, şi a avut un discurs considerat „elegant" de către analişti, în care i-a îndemnat pe americani să-l susţină pe Barack şi şi-a asumat integral eşecul.

Leadership: Te abaţi de la valorile care au stat la baza ascensiunii tale până la verdictul final?

Dacă o victorie răsunătoare te poate propulsa spre culmile succesului, atunci eşecul, spre nefericirea ta, te poate împinge înapoi. Cel puţin aceasta ar fi părerea unora. Dar, aşa cum am văzut, nu este un adevăr general valabil.

Fără îndoială, în cazul republicanului John McCain înfrângerea a fost doar o altă etapă prin care a trebuit să treacă, o etapă pe care a depăşit-o cu demnitate, cu onoare, adoptând acea atitudine morală specifică liderilor, pe care eu o consider indispensabilă – o atitudine care denotă în mod limpede respectul faţă de adversar, echitatea şi asumarea responsabilităţii pentru eşecul suferit.

Înfrângerea este o mare răspundere pe care trebuie să ţi-o asumi cu fruntea sus, nu cu capul plecat. Trebuie să fii capabil să profiţi de acest moment pentru a te ridica în mijlocul celorlalţi şi a-ţi pune în valoare acele resurse interioare care îţi susţin personalitatea, care îţi definesc leadershipul. Este momentul în care adevăratul tău Eu iese la iveală, când îţi este pusă la încercare tăria de a accepta rezultatul, oricare ar fi el, împlinit sufleteşte că ai făcut tot ce ţi-a stat în putere să învingi, dar analizând în acelaşi timp cauzele care au dus la eşec.

Secretul putintei unei ascensiuni care pune leadershipul în slujba unui ideal mai înalt decât victoria mult aşteptată este dat de întărirea puterii de a fi superior celui care ai fost ieri prin comparaţie cu ceea ce vrei să creşti în tine.

Aşa cum un plămân sănătos şi activ compensează foarte bine pierderea celuilalt plămân – tot aşa un mesaj bine gândit şi împărtăşit cu o convingere absolută, cu o doză de responsabilitate şi cu un sentiment de onoare compensează foarte bine o înfrângere amară.

Când pierzi nu mai ai posibilitatea să schimbi scenariul sau să schimbi cursul lucrurilor, dar poţi să ieşi învingător în confruntarea cu tine însuţi. Şi poţi chiar să îţi creşti uluitor de mult influenţa dacă abordezi eşecul în maniera cea mai eficientă şi mai favorabilă ţie care să transmită un sentiment onest şi un mesaj clar: „Încă nu am fost pregătit să înving".

Leadership: Stăpâneşti arta de a şti să practici trecutul, prezentul şi viitorul, în acelaşi timp, prin forţa dobândită din înţelesurile sădite de adevărurile imprimate de gloria maximei: „ în toate treburile, să iei în seamă sfârşitul " ?

Leadershipul este un „joc" cu diferite niveluri de abilitate şi competenţă, în care numai două cuvinte, două repere îţi pun la încercare trăsăturile de caracter: „ victoria " şi „ eşecul ". Este un joc în care trebuie să fii stăpân pe tine însuţi şi să-ţi înfrânezi emoţiile, un joc din care poţi ieşi învingător sau învins.

Nicio înfrângere nu poate fi frumoasă, dar oamenii cu adevărat valoroşi, înzestraţi cu talent de lider, ştiu să exploateze acele situaţii nefavorabile tocmai pentru a-şi propulsa imaginea şi reputaţia în topul preferinţelor celorlalţi.

Aşa cum un diamant trebuie şlefuit pentru a străluci – tot aşa şi tu trebuie să dai la o parte straturile care îţi umbresc „strălucirea" şi să scoţi la iveală acea latură profundă, luminoasă, care îţi caracterizează personalitatea de om care adoptă fair-play-ul în orice situaţie.

Fair-play-ul se clădeşte pe libertatea de crede în puterea de adevăr a unui ideal suprem, fără ca demersurile tale de punere în valoare a personalităţii să dobândească nişte dimensiuni mai mari decât ceea ce ai de câştigat.

Concluzie: Un mare gânditor spunea că victoria nu trebuie să te îmbete iar eşecul nu trebuie să te dărâme. Este un îndemn spre un comportament temperat în ambele situaţii. Azi o „ victorie " te poate împinge spre eşecul de mâine, după cum un „ eşec " de azi se poate transforma în victoria de mâine.

În ambele situaţii trebuie să dovedeşti fair-play, să recunoşti calităţile adversarului are au dus la victoria sa şi să-ţi recunoşti înfrângerea ieşind din confruntare cu fruntea sus, cu demnitate, fără a te abate de la valorile tale cele mai profunde – acele valori care au stat la baza ascensiunii tale până la verdictul final. Învingător sau Învins.

Leadershipul este un fair-play din care trebuie să câştige versiunea finală a unui Sine mai înalt.

Jocul magicianului

Accelerează progresul influenţei tale, găsind acea manieră cu totul aparte de a trezi în oameni sentimentele cele mai nobile.

Contele de Monte Cristo îi făgădui prietenului său Maximilien că îl va face cel mai fericit om din lume dacă va avea tăria să aştepte o lună de zile. Însă Maximilien era ferm convins că iubita lui, Valentine, murise. Timpul se scurse iar el îşi pierduse orice speranţă de a o mai revedea. Nimeni nu-i mai putea reda fericirea, nici chiar contele. Din această pricină voia să-şi pună capăt zilelor. Spera măcar ca Monte Cristo să-i facă moartea mai uşoară.

- Ascultaţi-mă, conte, cum e ascultat un om care vorbeşte cu degetul întins spre pământ şi cu ochii înălţaţi spre cer: am venit aici să mor în braţele unui prieten. Dumneavoastră, conte, care mi-aţi dat cuvântul dumneavoastră, mă veţi conduce cu blândeţe şi cu duioşie, nu-i aşa, până la porţile morţii. Mă simt la capătul drumului. Şi n-am să merg mai departe. Mi-aţi spus să aştept şi să nădăjduiesc... Ştiţi ce-aţi făcut, nefericit înţelept ce sunteţi? Am aşteptat o lună, adică am suferit o lună ! Am avut încredere în dumneavoastră. Am nădăjduit ! Am nădăjduit, ce? Nu ştiu. Ceva necunoscut, absurd, nesăbuit ! O minune... Care? Da, am aşteptat. Dar degeaba. Doar ca să-mi prelungiţi agonia.

Maximilien rosti aceste cuvinte cu o izbucnire de energie care-l făcu pe conte să tresară. Monte Cristo se ridică, scoase dintr-un dulap încuiat cu grijă un mic cufăraş de argint, în care se afla o substanţă unsuroasă şi pe jumătate solidă. Apoi cu o linguriţă de argint scoase o picătură din substanţa aceea verzuie şi i-o oferi lui Maximilien.

Leadership: Poţi să demonstrezi legătura evidentă între existența formelor de credinţă şi formele de protest la adresa „inadmisibilului", oferind posibilitatea de a deschide o cale către tot ce se manifestă în alte moduri de raportare la realitate?

Încet, fără şovăială, Maximilien înghiţi misterioasa substanţă dăruită de Monte-Cristo. O durere nesfârşită îl cuprinsese. Simţea că moare. Se răsturna în fotoliu. O moleşeală catifelată i se strecura în vine. Ochii moleşiţi i se închiseră fără voie: şi totuşi, în dosul pleoapelor se frământa o imagine pe care o recunoscu, deşi se credea învăluit în beznă.

O apariţie senzaţională şi explozivă. Contele deschise o uşă. Îndată o lumină imensă se răspândi în cameră. Atunci Maximilien văzu în pragul încăperii o femeie nespus de frumoasă. Ca un înger, ea înaintă spre el cu mâinile împreunate şi cu surâsul pe buze. Era Valentine.

Apoi contele, vădit surprins de bucuria lor, le-a spus:

- Fără mine, aţi fi murit amândoi. Va redau unul altuia. De acum înainte nu mai trebuie să vă mai despărţiţi cât veţi trăi. Fie ca Domnul să ţină seama de aceste două vieţi pe care le-am salvat.

Leadership: Reuşeşti să demonstrezi un efect imposibil, condiţionând însăşi constituirea unei situaţii-sugestie?

O situaţie-sugestie, care înlesneşte producerea unui răspuns la solicitările ficţiunii, se fondează pe condiţia determinării unei schimbări de abordare a realităţii într-o experienţă care devine de neuitat.

Un magician adevărat izbuteşte, în mod paradoxal, prin puterea lui de vrajă, să emoţioneze oamenii până în străfundul fiinţei lor. El izbuteşte să trezească în ei, printr-o manieră cu totul aparte, puternice sentimente de bucurie şi fericire. Izbuteşte să producă nişte efecte benefice, neprevăzute asupra lor.

Ca să devii un lider desăvârşit este necesar să dai impresia că eşti un magician, să devii o persoană care are puterea să realizeze imposibilul, o persoană care, cu o subtilitate artistică remarcabilă, cu o subtilitate regizorală de mare efect, demnă de un mare psiholog, reuşeşte să demonstreze un efect imposibil. Ca apoi oamenii să simtă un sentiment de eliberare, o eliberare adevărată şi înălţătoare.

Ca lider trebuie să fii gata să îi eliberezi pe oameni de orice povară, să-i luminezi, să le alini orice durere, să le vindeci dacă se poate orice rană. Trebuie să fii interesat de fiecare, şi să le transmiţi o speranţă nemaipomenită. Iar sentimentele lor de fericire vor fi cu atât mai profunde cu cât efectul pe care l-ai produs asupra lor este mai surprinzător, extraordinar realizat.

De fiecare data când un magician creează o iluzie, el aduce spectacolul până în punctul culminant, pentru ca, mai apoi, oamenii să se dovedească impresionaţi cu totul. El este capabil să stârnească în oameni un vârtej de sentimente - nota caracteristică a unui magician, să-i seducă prin a-i determina să-i acorde o valoare incredibilă, făcându-şi astfel un titlul de glorie.

Leadership: Alături de un tine lucrurile încep să prindă viaţă, convins că viaţa are valoare doar dacă slujeşti o cauză mare?

Un lider joacă întotdeauna un rol mare. De multe ori joacă rolul magicianului, care trebuie să-şi demonstreze puterea şi să-şi accentueze toate calităţile apelând la efecte uimitoare, miraculoase. Dar mai ales trebuie să demonstreze că, urmându-l pe el, orice este posibil şi că prezenţa lui e necesară - căci are o influenţă benefică.

Alături de un lider lucrurile încep să prindă viaţă. Şi tu poţi fi un "Monte Cristo", să le redai oamenilor într-un mod cu totul aparte starea de bucurie, să îi ajuţi să trăiască din plin sentimente pozitive, înălţătoare, iar ei, drept răsplată, convinşi de abilităţile tale, de superioritatea ta, şi simţind dragostea pe care le-o împărtăşeşti, să-şi înalţe inima spre tine.

Aidoma unui magician, un lider, prin stilul ori maniera sa de rezolvare a problemelor, va putea să trezească în oameni puternice sentimentele cele mai nobile.

O cauză mare pe care o slujeşti trebuie privită mai curând ca rezervor al cunoştinţelor acumulate, fiindcă îţi îngăduie să refaci cu exactitate secvenţele trecutului şi să le foloseşti în situaţii limită.

Jocul magicianului, care se desfăşoară pe un plan superior, te inspiră, te face să trăieşti. În jocul pe care magicianul îl creează se poate observa talentul pe care îl are şi cât de mult suflet pune în ceea ce face.

"Jocul" unui lider se aseamănă mult cu cel al unui magician. Se bazează pe încredere şi forţă emoţională, dar şi pe strategie. Iar strategiile nu se lasă la voia întâmplării, căci vor cauza derută şi nedumerire.

Jocul sufletului

Străduieşte-te să pătrunzi în interiorul teritoriului care îţi poate permite să-ţi exprimi latura "artistică", ca să stabileşti un nivel de rezonanţă comun cu ceilalţi oameni din jur.

Mare dreptate a avut regele Franţei, Francisc I, când a spus că femeile se schimbă adesea. Dar el nu a menţionat şi faptul că, pentru ca o femeie să se schimbe, ea trebuie să cunoască un om minunat care să-i facă un bine, care să-i învioreze mintea şi care, mai presus de toate, să aibă puterea şi dorinţa de a-i atinge sufletul.

Aş vrea în cele ce urmează să îţi vorbesc despre o scenă din filmul " Pretty Woman (1990) " care, pe lângă importanţa pe care o are din prisma leadershipului, întăreşte şi adevărul vorbelor mele.

Sunt sigur că ai văzut filmul, şi ştii povestea. Pe scurt, controversatul om de afaceri, Edward Lewis, angajează o prostituată, Vivian Ward, pe post de damă de companie. Timp de o săptămână ea şi-a îndeplinit acest rol locuind împreună cu el într-un apartament de lux şi însoţindu-l la reuniunile sale de afaceri.

În dimineaţa celei de-a şaptea zi, la micul dejun, Edward îi aminteşte lui Vivian că relaţia lor trebuie să se încheie ziua următoare. Şi, pentru că au petrecut o săptămână minunată împreună, el a aranjat ca ea să aibă o locuinţă, o maşină şi tot ce mai avea nevoie pentru ca să nu se mai prostitueze.

Leadership: Încerci să te detaşezi de starea în care accepţi ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, prin abordarea unei creaţii proprii în care nimeni nu poate pătrunde?

Vreau basmul ! Urmă o clipă de tăcere mută şi dureroasă, în care inima fetei se umplu de duioşie, dar şi de tristeţe. Privirea ei, care era pur şi simplu magică, exprima atâta seninătate, dar şi dezamăgire. Cu un glas în care era uşor să observi o adâncă tulburare, un glas plin de emoţii, de îngrijorare şi de sensibilitate, Vivian îi spune lui Edward, lăsând parcă să se stingă ultima urmă de speranţă pe care o mai avea în suflet:

- Când eram mică, mama mă încuia în pod atunci când eram obraznică, ceea ce se întâmpla destul de des. Şi mă prefăceam...mă prefăceam că sunt o prinţesă închisă într-un turn de o regină rea... Şi apoi, dintr-o dată, un cavaler, cu un cal alb, venea în galop scoţându-şi sabia. Iar eu îi făceam cu mâna. Şi el urca în turn şi mă salva.

Apoi camera este îndreptată asupra lui Edward, care o privea cu nespusă milă pe fata ajunsă în culmea deznădejdii ei. Privirea lui cuprindea toate cuvintele pe care buzele ei nu le mai putea rosti. Focul privirii ei, măreţia destăinuirii visului ei, avură un efect deosebit asupra lui. Se simţea precum acel doctor care, încercând să-şi vindece pacientul, aproape că l-a omorât.

Singura creaţie personală în care nimeni nu poate pătrunde este viziunea unei vieţi încărcată cu regrete, căreia îi trebuie doar un rost pentru a fi împlinită.

Studiul mentalităţilor care stau la baza funcţionarii leadershipului, deci acelor mentalităţi care au cel mai mare impact în comportament şi implicit în relaţia cu ceilalţi oameni, îşi ia tot mai mult avânt. Contribuţii importante ale liderilor la dezvoltarea unei gândiri şi a unei empatii solide, care pot modela caracterul şi personalitatea oamenilor din jur, salvându-i de la o "damnare sufletească", încep să se afirme din ce în ce mai mult.

Tot mai multe surse par să indice faptul că elita artiştilor în modelarea oamenilor, aflată într-o continuă formare şi reformare, reuşeşte să spargă acea carapace a gândirii materialiste şi dure care nu se mai poate ridica spre nici un orizont spiritual.

Gestionând cu grijă resursele de valori de care dispun pentru a contracara o erodare masivă a încrederii de care se bucură, această elită, deschizătoare de drumuri, găseşte noi ocazii de a merge pe urmele excelenţei şi de a se simţi la înălţime, reevaluându-şi poziţia, atitudinea, modul de abordare, ideile, comportamentele, vorbele şi faptele care pot însufleţi oamenii din jur.

Niciodată câmpurile nu vor rodi cât trebuie dacă nu vor avea suficientă apă. Învaţă din greşelile propriilor tale gânduri şi convingeri limitative, pentru a remedia orice defecte de caracter. Aceasta este singura cale către împăcarea cu tine însuţi şi către asigurarea unei calităţi maxime a leadershipului.

Esti un artist care poate să scoată frumosul din sufletul oamenilor? Străduieşte-te să pătrunzi în interiorul teritoriului care îţi poate permite să-ţi exprimi latura "artistică" - care operează numai cu frumosul din tine şi cu frumosul din ceilalţi oameni. Exprimă-ţi sentimentele. Dezvaţă-te de obiceiul de a purta mănuşi în cadrul relaţiilor cu ceilalţi oameni.

Modelează-ţi personalitatea şi gândirea frumos, aducând un flux constant de vibraţii pozitive în instalaţia de întreţinere a leadershipului. Scoate la suprafaţă acea parte din tine pe care ceilalţi nu o cunosc, ca să ajungi la un nivel mai înalt de existenţă, şi pentru că leadershipul tău să se ridice la un nivel mai înalt de evoluţie.

Leadership: Te detaşezi încetul cu încetul de acea psihologie a aşteptării şi a confirmării propriei valori, pentru a considera imaginea cel de lângă tine o creaţie exprimând sensibilitatea particulară a unui creator de lumi noi?

Un lider pătrunde în lumea celor din jurul lui, făcând apel la partea bună a sufletului lor. Un vers dintr-o melodie foarte cunoscută a formaţiei suedeze de muzică pop, Roxette, sună cam aşa: " Ascultă-ţi inima, înainte să spui Good bye".

Acesta a fost şi mesajul pe care Vivian i l-a transmis indirect lui Edward, clarificându-i adevăratele sentimente faţă de el. Ea a fost mai convingătoare, mai sinceră în sentimentele ce trebuiau doar simulate şi nu trăite efectiv.

Aşa cum marele pictor al "realităţii", Millet, i-a conferit copacului înflorit un loc destul de modest în picturile sale – acela de element al unei compoziţii cu semnificaţii literare mai vaste, tot aşa Edward i-a conferit lui Vivian un loc destul de modest în viaţa sa – acela de "element" de companie pentru întâlnirile sale de afaceri.

Dar totul a luat brusc o altă turnură în momentul în care Vivian i-a destăinuit lui Edward, pe un ton natural, prietenesc, marea taină a inimii ei. Prin al ei scurt discurs înduioşător, ea a schimbat totul; a pătruns în sufletul lui şi a reuşit să scoată ceva frumos din el: dragostea şi ataşamentul.

Un om e zgârcit cu sentimentele lui, dar când le dăruieşte o dată, apoi le dăruieşte pentru totdeauna. Pătruns de blândeţea privirii ei, de farmecul ei aparte, de gingăşia cu care s-a purtat, de sinceritatea ei atât de copilăroasă, şi totuşi serioasă, Edward şi-a ascultat acordurile interioare, şi nu a mai părăsit-o pe Vivian.

" O să fie minunat. O să fie exact aşa cum am visat întotdeauna că va fi. Ca într-un basm, nu-i aşa? " Iar basmul i s-a împlinit lui Vivian, fiindcă şi-a focalizat antenele sufletului ei, spre profunzimile lui interioare. Aceasta este una din cele mai importante chei ale leadershipului.

Niciun alt om nu mai avusese o rezonanţă atât de mare în viaţa ei. Niciun alt om nu mai avusese sentimente atât de profunde faţă de ea.

Visul îşi are proiecţia în imaginarea unei realităţi care nu există decât atunci când citeşti poveşti, dar care a fost în mod intenţionat gândită de Dumnezeu pentru o anumită fază din desfășurarea planului Său.

În Jocul sufletului nu te întreci cu nimeni, dar trebuie să salvezi pe cineva. Mai întâi pe tine însuţi, de la un eşec lent, dar dezastruos. Apoi pe aceia care dovedesc o empatie deosebită faţă de tine şi care sunt capabili să scoată ceva frumos din sufletul tău.

Sufletul omului este un tărâm necunoscut şi destul de fragil, cu care nu-i este permis liderului să se joace. Un lider deosebit, care doreşte să rămână lider, trebuie să fie atent cu sentimentele, respectiv cu sufletul oamenilor cu care lucrează.

Trebuie să ai disponibilitatea şi un talent deosebit ca să reliefezi "frumosul" din sufletul oamenilor, pentru ca aceştia să intre în rezonanţă cu tine. Deci, ai grijă la sufletul oamenilor cu care lucrezi.

Transformă-ţi viaţa într-un joc din care să dobândeşti înţelepciune şi experienţă, rescriind legile pe care ea se construieşte.

Visul unui copil: „ Aş vrea să pot să mă joc la nesfârşit, orice fel de joc, numai să mă joc ". Jocurile ne eliberează de stres, ne energizează, ne fac să ne simţim speciali, mai tineri, deseori mai visători şi mai încrezători în viitorul pe care ni-l plăsmuim cu propriile noastre mâini. Ce s-ar face copiii fără jocuri? Ce s-ar face adulţii fără jocuri?

Cu toţii, chiar dacă nu o recunoaştem deschis, îndrăgim jocurile, distracţia, voia bună. Vedem un film de acţiune – un joc tensionat de-a şoarecele şi pisica. Vedem o comedie – jocul comic pe care îl fac actorii. Şi vorba aia: toată lumea joacă teatru. Voluntar sau involuntar toţi suntem părtaşi la jocul vieţii, fie că respectăm sau nu regulile. Două întrebări nu pot fi însă eludate: Care este miza? şi Oare vom fi câştigători?

Cu ani în urmă, în timpul facultăţii, obişnuiam să mă întâlnesc deseori cu colegii şi prietenii mei cei mai buni la sfârşit de săptămână. Dacă afară era cald şi frumos jucam tenis de masă, tenis de câmp sau fotbal, dacă era rece şi urât, stăteam în casă şi jucam cărţi sau Monopoly.

Odată, în timp ce jucam, nepoţica prietenului meu se uita cu atenţie la noi din fotoliul din stânga camerei, fără să se mişte. Avea o carte deschisă în braţe, groasă, cartonată, de culoare maro închis. La o privire mai atentă se putea desluşi autorul şi titlul operei: "Jules Verne – Ţara Blănurilor" . Dar nu citea deloc. Nu se putea concentra din cauza noastră. Căci cum poţi să citeşti o carte când în preajma ta se află un grup de persoane care se distrează cu un joc interesant şi interactiv? Ca orice alt copil voia şi ea să ia parte la joc, nu sa se simtă ca într-o colivie, neinclusă în spectacolul jocului.

Ne privea cu mare atenţie: fiecare mutare pe care o făceam, cum dădeam cu zarul, cum mutam pionii, cum împărţeam banii, cum împărţeam jetoanele, ce vorbeam, ce spuneam, cum ne amuzam. Pe faţa ei se putea citi uimirea precum şi o bucurie de nedescris ca atunci când aştepţi la rând la îngheţată, însă în sufletul ei cred că era tristă. Ea nu era băgată în seamă de nimeni. Ar fi dorit să se joace şi ea cu noi, să arunce zarurile, să încaseze banii.

În ochii ei verzi albăstrui se puteau citi cu uşurinţă cuvintele: „ Aş vrea şi eu să mă joc cu voi, vă rog să mă chemaţi şi pe mine să mă joc. Vă rog, vă rog, vă rog… "

Leadership: Te comporţi contrar compromisului de a supune unei judecăţi aspre ceea ce se consideră a fi efectul unei disproporţii durabile între valoarea dobândită prin captarea atenţiei şi rezultatul experienţei de ascultare?

Aşa cum un părinte trebuie să-şi educe întotdeauna copilul din lecţiile pe care el însuşi le-a învăţat, cunoaşterea trecând astfel din generaţie în generaţie şi devenim tot mai înţelepţi – tot astfel liderul trebuie să-şi disciplineze eficient emoţiile, gândirea şi practicile din lecţiile învăţate de la ceilalţi, şi cu cât îşi va exersa capacitatea de înţelegere cu atât îşi va modela mai frumos caracterul şi cu atât valoarea leadershipului său va creşte.

Fiecare dintre noi poate exercita o influenţă mai mică sau mai mare asupra celorlalţi. Uneori nu ne dăm seama cât de important este ceea ce facem, modul în care ne distrăm sau cum ne desfăşurăm activităţile. Dar lumea ne priveşte, ne studiază curioasă, de aproape sau de la distanţă, voluntar sau involuntar.

Oamenii sunt convinşi sau impresionaţi de „jocul” tău? Dacă da, îi încurajezi să participe şi ei? Ştii să evaluezi sentimentele şi dorinţele lor? Te concentrezi în special pe furnizarea de indici care să-ţi care să-ţi dezvolte continuu evoluţia? Atitudinea ta este factorul cheie ce îi face pe oameni să se alăture jocului tău? Crezi că este necesar să-ţi regândeşti orientarea către oameni? Care crezi că e primul pas pe care trebuie să-l faci în acest sens?

A capta atenţia cuiva este începutul procesului de însufleţire, în timp ce rezultatul experienţei de ascultare este asociat cu apariţia unei forme de răspuns la satisfacerea unei nevoi emoționale.

A te comporta contrar compromisului de a supune unei judecăţi aspre ceea ce se consideră a fi efectul unei disproporţii durabile între valoarea dobândită prin captarea atenţiei şi rezultatul experienţei de ascultare, înseamnă să-ţi înregistrezi prezenţa în viaţa oamenilor fără să te convingi de rostul tău printre ei.

Leadership: Încerci să produci însufleţire şi entuziasm prin tot ceea ce faci, când nu ştii ce decizie să iei in contextul transferului de cunoaştere?

Acasă, la locul de muncă, pe terenul de fotbal, în oraş la plimbare, peste tot sau aproape peste tot în jurul nostru se află ochi care ne privesc fiecare mişcare cu mult interes. Dacă maniera în care ne desfăşurăm activităţile este interactivă, utilă şi dinamică, dacă inspiră încredere, seriozitate, bucurie şi entuziasm, toţi cei din jurul nostru, vor dori să ni se alăture, să ia parte la „jocul” nostru.

Prin urmare dacă dorim să avem un impact pozitiv asupra vieţilor altora, atunci trebuie să ne străduim să producem însufleţire şi entuziasm prin tot ceea ce facem, prin pasiunile pe care le avem, prin dăruirea şi strădaniile noastre faţă de domeniul în care activăm; să căutăm să emanăm cât mai multă bucurie şi fericire în jurul nostru.

Ca lider trebuie să ai capacitatea de a inspira încredere şi de a însufleţi pe toată lumea din jurul tău. Nu vei putea să conduci o echipă, să o îndrumi pentru îndeplinirea unor scopuri clare şi precise dacă nu eşti capabil să-i stimulezi pe membrii ei, să-i entuziasmezi, să le dai avântul de care au neapărată nevoie în realizarea planurilor tale.

Prin transferul de cunoaştere şi înţelepciune mai ales către tânăra generaţie, care este un dat esenţial al învăţării, ca şi al exercitării oricăreia dintre funcţiile intelectului, se poate ajunge la un fel de inversare de roluri care creează o confortabilă stare de bună dispoziţie. Cel care ascultă devine un pol de informaţii, iar cunoscătorul devine efectul unei stări de graţie şi de reflecţie asupra fiinţei interioare.

A nu şti ce decizie să iei în contextul transferului de cunoaştere este similar cu a fi un explorator de oceane care nu şi-a terminat niciodată călătoria. Decizia de a promova o înţelegere nu este acelaşi lucru cu înţelegerea pe care o capătă omul asupra lumii sale interioare. Această înţelegere îi permite omului să nu se mai teamă de ceea ce simte în el? Îi dovedeşte lipsa de realitate a unor convingeri despre el, care îl fac să sufere?

Însufleţirea pe care o produci trebuie să fie la fel de stabilă precum cea a promovării cunoaşterii care te descoperă pe tine în ceilalţi oameni.

Concluzie: Viaţa e un joc care te face uneori să surâzi, alteori te întristează, are reguli scrise şi nescrise pe care ai datoria să le cercetezi, să le accepţi, să le upgradezi sau chiar să le schimbi dacă nu ţi se potrivesc. E un joc în care participarea este obligatorie dacă nu vrei să fii catalogat ca anormal şi băgat într-o lume paralelă, ca aceea a bolnavilor. E un joc din care din când în când câştigi sau pierzi dar din care dobândeşti înţelepciune şi experienţă - acestea fiind marile beneficii ale jocului vieţii.

Jurnalul unei călătorii astrale

Transformă-ţi realitatea într-o formă de artă, fiind unicul reper al unei presupuse unităţi vizuale despre cum trebuie gândită o viaţă care a învins timpul.

Am realizat cu mare drag lucrări ce au făcut înconjurul lumii, de-a lungul unui timp proiectat adesea în fantastic, în care încă vibrează nostalgia unei vieţi trăită secole de-a rândul ca o culoare roşu-intens aruncată în nemurirea unei clipe de glorie. Viaţa mea, desfăşurată spre ideea de autonomie estetică, reprezentând ideea de echilibru și armonie între părțile care compun un întreg, în afara noţiunii de kistch, este o operă care nu vibrează decât sub puterea amintirilor pe care le însufleţeşte privirile artistului, ca un fel de încercare de a străpunge întunericul unei lumi plastice printr-o suflare de gust ilustru.

În mod original, am scris mii de pagini ca să înţeleg viaţa din perspectiva creatorului care încearcă să modeleze o nouă realitate prin simpla reproducere mecanică a trăsăturilor cuiva etern, etalon al perfecţiunii, în freamătul unei aşteptări crescânde a ceva ce este iminent, numai ca să mă înţeleg pe mine în ansamblul resorturilor adânci ale unei opere care se vrea, măcar în intenţie, dezvoltată pe numeroase paliere stilistice. Nu mi-am închipuit că voi trăi mai mult decât numărul paginilor mele.

Frumuseţea pe care am creat-o ca promisiune a alterităţii, de suspendare între plauzibil şi ireal, între firesc şi misterios, rezidă din acea discreţie a imaginii pe care lumea o formează într-un univers infinit care, din perspectiva conștiinței ultime, este doar un vis. Forma vie a acestei frumuseţi am extras-o din tratatele de pictură ale lui Leonardo Da Vinci, legat de faptul că sufletul artistului trebuie să fie oglinda care reflectă în mod obiectiv natura aşa cum e ea, ca rezultantă timp-spaţiu a patru factori cosmici: invariabilitate şi rectitudine, perfecţiune şi unitate.

Totul se poate întâmpla şi totul poate fi narat şi acceptat. N-am izbutit decât să mă izolez într-o lume a altor dimensiuni, a marginilor, în care credeam că ceea ce este normal nu-i altceva decât o excepţie aparentă de la regulă, un amestec ciudat între realitatea enigmatică în care fiecare lucru este însuşi contrariul său şi dialogul aprins cu un Dumnezeu ce-şi închipuie că poate fi văzut oriunde şi în orice. Singurul punct de plecare al unei opere bogate, stimulat de o cauză vitală, este viziunea unui drum fabulos fără întoarcere.

Leadership: Una din direcțiile tale de evoluţie este de a aborda o operă de artă dintr-o perspectivă estetică marcată de credinţa într-o realitate supremă?

Credinţa în ceva mai înalt este puternic legată de curajul de a nu renunţa la ceea ce eşti şi crezi, transpus într-o operă desăvârşită, o ţesătură fină de trasee liniare care acoperă întreaga suprafaţă a timpului. Opera zidindu-se în tine, de parcă timpul a făcut o buclă ori s-a prins în nodul unei corzi stelare dizolvate într-o acuarelă vivantă, o simplă problemă de gust față de o altă formă artistică, marcată printr-o perfectă simetrie bilaterală între certitudine şi enigmă, trimite dincolo de imaginea lumii vizibile, spre meleagurile spiritualităţii pure şi a trăirilor mistice.

Iar dacă o asemenea operă încă uimeşte prin prezenţa vie a unei istorii care transcende timpul, în care începutul albului luminii absolute ţese tremurat aparenţele lumii fenomenale, nu-mi rămâne decât să mă opresc o clipă la Holofernes, generalul lui Nabucodonosor care a fost deosebit de crud cu evreii. A fost sedus şi ucis de frumoasa Judith, spre a-şi răzbuna poporul asuprit. Judith Slaying Holofernes.

Aici mă vindec de durerea a cărei greutate o simt apăsând pe imaginea coerenţei mele, a propriei poveşti, cuprins de sentimentul că sunt la egal cu talentul pictorului Artemisia Gentileschi prin natura minţii cu care trebuie să obţin o înţelegere cu timpul, aceeaşi înzestrare cu care este hărăzită fiinţa divină într-o reprezentare a lui Dumnezeu uitându-se în oglindă.

Suprema realitate care m-a format ca om este dialogul desfăşurat între un artist bine pornit pe drumul consacrării şi parcurgerea unui timp şi spaţiu nemărginit, manifestându-se activ prin rememorarea sau plăsmuirea unor imagini care captează momentul trecător în favoarea unor imagini din viaţa de zi cu zi.

Leadership: Imaginea care te inspiră spre a face artă se formează din alegerea pe care o faci o faci în cazul unei duble direcţii?

Abordarea artei, ca mesaj transparent al unei realităţi mai cuprinzătoare, păstrând taina inspiraţiei mereu la limita dezvăluirilor, trădează ceva din conştiinţa unui om care îşi creează tiparele de scop din revelarea unor conexiuni la distanţă cu lumile posibile ale teoriilor artei, în concepţia referenţialităţii imaginii vizuale care implică asemănarea cu modelul unor personaje sau evenimente ce au schimbat crucial istoria.

În viaţă, ca şi în artă, culoarea personalităţii păleşte tot mai mult în faţa acelor conştiinţe creatoare ce îşi fac un rost din înţelegerea responsabilă a faptului că spaţiul de observaţie trebuie colonizat de adevărurile sau aparenţele trecutului. Sângele materiei din care e făcută arta se prelinge dincolo de împlinirea unei nevoi universale, spre o cauză vitală: transformarea omului într-un destin care nu se pierde în negura veacurilor.

Aşadar, imaginea care m-a inspirat să fac artă, în ansamblul resorturilor adânci ale gândiri ce invită la respectul expresiei aplicată în orice convenţie, s-a format din alegerea pe care am făcut-o în cazul unei duble direcţii: reproducerea trecutului dintr-o perspectivă diferită şi redarea perfectă a realităţii dintr-o perspectivă creatoare de semnificaţii general-umane.

Artistul intotdeauna alege culorile tabloului din care păstrează 2-3 mostre ca amintire a începutului de drum. Mi-am continuat călătoria spre o destinaţie necunoscută într-un destin de cuvinte care îşi schimbă forma şi se leagă între ele după anumite reguli, în căutarea înţelegerii adânci a întregului din care cândva am făcut parte. Nu-mi este suficient doar să fi existat, trebuie să-mi fie şi dor de mine. Roşul şi albastrul au rămas tot timpul în inima mea.

Totul se poate relua oricând, de oricâte ori. Promisiunea universului este transpunerea dreaptă a cuvintelor din cartea vieţii mele într-o lume a artei, într-o expresie a timpului dintr-un continuum al nemuririi: "Mă voi regăsi atunci când mă voi întoarce".

Leadershipul este imaginea pe care ţi-o construieşti din transformarea ta într-un destin care nu se pierde în negura veacurilor.

Jurnalul unei călătorii astrale surprinde triumful în posteritate al artistului care ştie să exprime foarte bine absolut tot ce ştie toată lumea, dar pe care lumea nu o poate face.

La intersecţia dintre intenţie, stare de spirit şi proces

On Aprilie 12, 2009

Urcă pe o treaptă superioară a evoluţiei tale, administrând corect rezultatele pe care oamenii le aşteaptă de la tine.

În cartea „ Leadership de aur ", fondatorul EQUIP, John Maxwell, îl citează pe Stuard Briscoe, amintind de următoarea întâmplare:

Un pastor tânăr oficia o slujbă la înmormântarea unui veteran de război. Prietenii militarului decedat vroiau să facă ceva semnificativ în timpul ceremoniei, aşa că i-au cerut pastorului să îi conducă spre coşciug, să păstreze un moment de reculegere şi să îi conducă afară pe uşa laterală.

Tânărul pastor a făcut întocmai. Însă a apărut o problemă: a ales uşa greşită. Cu „precizie militară", i-a condus pe bărbaţi într-o debara. Întregul grup a fost nevoit să se confrunte cu o retragere grăbită şi zăpăcită, sub ochii tuturor celor care participau.

Leadership: Consideri că tocmai procesul de captare a atenţiei simţite în momentul iniţierii unei acţiuni este cel care defineşte în autenticitatea ta obtinrea unui control de durată asupra a ceea ce se întâmplă?

Picioarele te îndreaptă întotdeauna încotro ţi-s gândurile. A te îndrepta într-o direcţie greşită înseamnă să bâjbâi dintr-un loc în altul ca un orb, iar acest "privilegiu" nu-ţi este permis ţie, ca şi lider. Tu eşti obligat să te concentrezi la ceea ce faci, fără ca gândurile s-o ia razna, căci picioarele te urmează întotdeauna încotro ţi-s gândurile. Leadershipul nu este un fel de hoinăreală, nu este un fel de anulare a raţiunii, nu îţi poţi permite luxul de a-ţi desconsidera datoria.

E ca şi cum ai momi lumea să te urmeze într-o direcţie opusă celei pe care o aşteaptă ei, ceea ce este contrar principiilor de conducere. Un singur pas greşit poate atrage dezaprobarea oamenilor. Puţin câte puţin ei vor începe să se simtă că se îndepărtează de la intenţiile lor iniţiale. După ce se vor urca în „barca" ta" se vor întreba dacă nu cumva au făcut o greşeală să te urmeze.

În leadership va exista mereu o forţă centrifugă cu care vei avea de luptat, o forţă care te va putea îndepărta de la scopul comun care face legătura cu ceilalţi oameni. E mult mai bine ca ei să creadă că toţi paşii tăi au, de fapt, un scop precis, care se vrea a fi atins şi spre care se îndreaptă toate eforturile şi mijloacele tale, altfel rişti să atragi antipatia lor şi să pierzi susţinerea lor. Dacă intenţionezi să urci pe o treaptă superioară a evoluţiei tale, administrează corect rezultatele pe care oamenii le aşteaptă de la tine.

Leadership: Încerci să faci trecerea de la o situaţie la alta considerând că acest lucru va fi cu uşurinţă asociat unei multiplicități de momente care dezvăluie cea mai înaltă trăsătură a percepţiei unei persoane asupra lumii exterioare?

Cea mai înaltă trăsătură a percepţiei unei persoane asupra lumii exterioare este eterogenitatea, adică o activitate care pune în relație elemente diferite prin însăși natura lor, o determinare complexă care pune în relaţie multiple lanţuri cauzale şi variabile intermediare. Pe când leadershipul este caracterizat de uniformitate, lipsa de variaţii în ceea ce priveşte planificarea şi desfăşurarea acţiunilor.

Leadershipul nu este o simplă schimbare de locaţie. Odată ce faci o greşeală, nu-i poţi întoarce pe oameni din drum şi să-i conduci pe altul fără ca ei să nu-şi piardă, măcar un moment, încrederea în tine. Ai curajul să-ţi asumi rolul de lider nepăsător şi iresponsabil?

În caz că vrei să ştii dacă un lider are succes şi este eficient, uită-te în ce direcţie îi conduce pe oameni. Un lider răspunde de oameni, aşa cum răspunde de sine însuşi şi de faptele sale.

Înaintează încetişor, puţin câte puţin, făcând câte o pauză, apoi punându-te din nou în mişcare, pe urmă oprindu-te încă puţin, de parcă fiecare pas trebuie cumpănit şi măsurat înainte de a te mişca. Şi acţionează atât de sincer, încât între tine şi ceilalţi să nu poate fi nici îndoieli, nici bănuieli.

Leadershipul este încercarea de a face faţă unei situaţii din care scăparea poate fi dificilă (sau jenantă) sau în care ajutorul poate să nu fie accesibil, dar cu un singur preţ: de a nu te vedea total alături de tine, cel fără nicio direcţie, de la care n-ai nimic de învăţat.

La intersecţia dintre intenţie, stare de spirit şi proces se află acea acţiune care produce un rezultat menit să încurajeze aceeiaşi acţiune, producând o caracteristică numită dezvoltare.

Nu-i vei putea ţine mult timp pe oameni lângă tine doar dacă ai intenţii nobile, dacă ai o stare de spirit puternică şi dacă te simţi sigur pe tine şi capabil să preiei frâiele unei acţiuni. Leadershipul este mai degrabă un proces de anticipare a traiectoriei pe care alegi să o urmezi. Ca să administrezi corect relaţia cu ceilalţi oameni trebuie să te concentrezi pe găsirea celui mai bun drum.

Aşa cum un arheolog examinează cu mare atenţie un fragment dintr-o ruină, tot aşa tu trebuie să examinezi cu mare atenţie paşii pe care îi propui spre a fi urmaţi, şi în acelaşi timp să urmăreşti reacţiile celorlalţi vizavi de prestaţia ta.

Concluzie: Degeaba ai intenţii bune şi gânduri măreţe. Dacă vorbele tale nu sunt susţinute şi de fapte pe măsura lor, vei bâjbâi pe drumuri întortocheate şi-n acelaşi timp nesigure, vei pierde încrederea şi susţinerea oamenilor rămânând singur să găseşti ieşirea din labirintul pe care singur l-ai creat.

Labirintul întunericului

Adu-ţi contribuţia la dezvoltarea caracterului oamenilor, impulsionând exteriorizarea fiinţei lor lăuntrice.

Îţi aminteşti de această scenă emoţionantă din filmul " Meet Joe Black (1998) "? Susan îl conduce pe Joe în biblioteca tatălui ei. Îi spune, arătând cu mâna spre un ceas mai vechi:

- Când eram mică, mama îmi spunea că ai putea să-ţi potriveşti inima după ceasul acela."

- Şi poţi? întreabă el.

- Nu am încercat niciodată... Până acum.

Joe îi zâmbi cu simpatie. Avea impresia că înţelege ce era în sufletul ei, dar, literalmente, nu bănuia nici pe jumătate. Simţea că emoţiile îi sporesc. Preţ de câteva secunde o examină în tăcere. Nu mai fusese niciodată până atunci atât de izolat de ceea ce cunoştea, nu fusese niciodată confruntat cu un asemenea impact al sentimentelor necunoscute. În mintea lui sălăşluia un întuneric de nepătruns.

La rândul ei, Susan nu avea niciun punct de reper, nimic care să o ajute să deosebească realitatea de iluzie, care să o ajute să perceapă sentimentele din sufletul lui. Era ciudat, enigmatic, înfricoşător, dar într-un fel care stârnea emoţie, nu într-unul care s-o facă să se simtă ameninţată în vreun fel. Efectul întunericului asupra simţului ei de "orientare" deveni de o importanţă secundară.

Nu avea nevoie să înţeleagă totul despre esenţa lui. Simplul impact al acestui pas fundamental - apropierea de el, dorinţa de a i se dărui în ciuda faptului că nu putea să pătrundă necunoscutul din el - era suficient pentru a-i stârni interesul. Îl privi cu acea speranţă, bucurie, credinţă, mulţumire sufletească pe care o cunoaşte numai o inimă pură.

Susan părea să-i citească gândurile lui Joe: " Nu cunosc viaţa, nu cunosc simţământul acela care îţi dă fiori extraordinari, care se numeşte iubire. " Dar în acelaşi timp părea să-i spună: "Nu-ţi fă griji în privinţa asta. Într-o zi, vei înţelege."

Leadership: Destinul tău este predeterminat de exprimarea mulţumirii sufleteşti căreia trebuie să i se asigure o cît mai mare libertate de interpretare?

Dacă spunem că leadershipul implică o anumită modelare a experienţei relaţiilor interpersonale, atunci facem aluzie la o multiplicare a mijloacelor de transmitere direct şi subiectiv a sentimentelor de apreciere, recunoaştere, apropiere, ataşare, mulţumire şi încredere. Aceste mici sisteme de alimentare cu energie pozitivă, dar şi cu o anumită doză de atractivitate, care anulează orice posibilitate de compromitere a credibilităţii, pot fi divers multiplicate.

Ne putem gândi, de pildă, nu numai la impulsurile de transfer a valorii personale, generate de modelul de viaţă şi spiritualitate, ci şi la iniţierea experienţelor de natură spirituală în care destinul este predeterminat de mulţumirea sufletească. Un bagaj considerabil de asemenea experienţe devine disponibil alegerii individuale a unor noi stări de viaţă, trăite în bucurie şi recunoştinţă.

Omul care vrea să contribuie la asigurarea unui leadership durabil nu se refugiază într-un univers închis, unde nu există probabilitatea de a se angaja în relaţii interpersonale, bazate pe fidelitate şi înţelegere. Ci ceva mai mult decât atât. El devine o combinaţie de atitudini şi ipostaze de manifestare a nevoii şi solidarităţii umane, a simţirii şi inteligenţei care-i dă forţa de transmitere, înţelegere şi preluare a emoţiilor – toate dozate cu exactitate, în funcţie de experienţa de viaţă, după un scenariu aleator.

Înainte de a oferi o libertate de interpretare mulţumirii sufleteşti, cel puţin confortabilă, trebuie să găseşti o legătură directă între ceea ce ţi se întâmplă şi cauzele care au provocat evenimentele care te-au marcat.

Sau, ne putem gândi, de exemplu, la stimularea modelată a factorului uman, sondarea în zăcăminte vaste, încă neexplorate ale celor care participă direct la procesul de formare şi dezvoltare a identităţii ce se desfăşoară într-o dinamică continuă pe întreg parcursul vieţii.

Liderii sunt foarte apropiaţi de acest fel de experienţe. Ei întotdeauna se îndreaptă spre acest orizont al înţelegerii şi împlinirilor sufleteşti, plini de interes şi de avânt pentru combaterea oricărei forme de „opoziţie". Ei nu schimbă direcţia şi nu se orientează către o direcţie în care oamenii fără încărcătură emoţională abandonează, dorind să sfârşească odată cu toată această încercare de formare a unei realităţi cât mai convenabile, susţinute de fineţe, sinceritate şi afecţiune.

Leadership: Fugi de ceva ce nu cunoşti în speranţa de a te elibera de vechile metehne care te-au consacrat unei vocaţii la care se ajunge prin împingerea sinelui dincolo de limitele acceptate de conştiinţă?

Cine fuge de ceva ce nu cunoaşte nu va putea niciodată să se ridice la standardele de motivaţie şi mulţumire sufletească impuse de o stare de moment care trece foarte repede.

Sufletul unui om este făcut din bucăţele de sentimente, din gânduri, dorinţe, emoţii şi valori. Iar îndatorirea ta, ca şi lider cu o mare putere de înţelegere, este să uneşti toate aceste fragmente pentru a scoate la iveală tiparul pur al fiecăruia. Dar pentru asta trebuie să cauţi principiul după care se realizează conectarea lor. Asta se află la îndemâna ta.

Aşa cum vitamina D este produsă în corp prin acţiunea luminii solare asupra pielii, tot astfel vei putea să creşti efectul de rezonanţă al leadershipului tău în funcţie de capacitatea ta de asamblare a stărilor sufleteşti, prin conectarea la acel comutator care aprinde în oameni lumina schimbării şi a devenirii, a revitalizării vieţii lor.

Vei putea să insufli mai uşor încrederea oamenilor în tine dacă pui accentul pe conţinutul lor sufletesc, dacă îi ajuţi să desluşească ceea ce sunt cu adevărat. Pentru asta trebuie să surprinzi aspectele cele mai în măsură să suscite interesul lor, să priveşti în adâncul fiinţei lor, în special din unghiul contribuţiei tale la "refacerea" lor.

Motivaţia unei transformări imprevizibile este ceea ce te surprinde într-un scurt moment de îndoială şi te ademeneşte să o apuci pe drumuri pe care de nu le înţelegi, dar care te schimbă fundamental pentru că le trăieşti prin felul cum le împărtăşeşti.

Pe ce pui accentul în leadership? Fugi de ceva ce nu cunoşti la oameni? Îţi lipseşte acea dorinţă de a străbate întregul lor labirint sufletesc în căutarea adevăratei lor identităţi? Poţi să-ţi potriveşti inima după ceasul propriilor lor emoţii şi, implicit după întregul lor fel de a fi? Există vreun aspect foarte important în relaţia ta cu oamenii pe care îl treci cu vederea?

Labirintul întunericului este şansa ta de a te conecta la ceilalţi oameni, de a te integra în lumea lor.

Adevăratul caracter al omului este ca un labirint întunecos, umbrit de numeroase sentimente şi emoţii - trebuie să pătrunzi în el, să alungi orice îndoieli, apoi să alegi şi să călăuzeşti sentimentele pozitive spre o sursă de lumină. Cu cât ştii mai multe despre fiinţa lui, cu cât îi înţelegi mai bine adevăratul conţinut sufletesc, cu atât vei găsi mai repede traseul cel mai bun.

Concluzie: În leadership lucrezi cu oamenii şi pentru oameni. Aceştia sunt diferiţi ca educaţie, cultură, caracter şi comportament şi în acelaşi timp sunt diferiţi prin modalităţile de exteriorizare a sentimentelor lor.

Pentru a-i face aliaţii tăi trebuie să ştii să-i cunoşti inclusiv pe cei ascunşi " în interiorul unei carapace de nepătruns. " Pornind de la observarea lor atentă şi până la cunoaşterea adevăratului lor caracter, ai de parcurs un labirint întunecos. Dar înarmat cu răbdare, perseverenţă, mijloace de comunicare adecvate vei ajunge să cunoşti sentimentele şi idealurile lor, vei reuşi să-i mobilizezi în vederea realizării ţelului comun care este luminiţa de la capătul labirintului.

Lasă-mă să dau glas privirii tale

Privirea îndreptată asupra ta este privirea pe care o arunci într-o oglindă care spune o altă poveste despre tine.

Aceasta este natura fiinţei mele: uma ampla realidade afetiva trecută prin filtrul unei priviri orientate spre opera unui artist care cere sprijinul tuturor forţelor naturii angajate în emanciparea vieţii (individuale şi cosmice), pentru a se putea adresa sufletului celest. Aceeaşi privire trebuie să se potrivească cu acea "descătuşare" absolută a impresioniştilor, care nu poate fi trăită decât în natură. Altfel spus, natura fiinţei mele este natura unei memorii universale chemată să recunoască coeziunea întregului spaţiu pictural în toate straturile unei spiritualităţi desăvârşite, mai vechi, dar mai actuale ca niciodată.

Iată de ce continui să-mi pun experienţa trăitului suprarealist sub incidenţa unui şevalet plin de culoare, în condiţiile de excepţionalitate a elaborării unei picturi numite Altforisthesses , sau "Puterea de reprezentare a naturii prin artă". Fiindcă şi eu sunt o pictură şi trebuie să mă păstrez viu, pentru totdeauna, în memoria unei imagini expresiv percepută, suficient de complexă pentru a nu-şi mai justifica dublura în lumea reală. Oglinda în care mă privesc chiar acum este însăşi privirea artistului în care se citeşte simţul proporţiei, al culorii, al echilibrului între frumuseţe, formă şi expresivitate.

Cât de desăvârşit am ajuns să mă privesc cu mijloacele de expresie ale unei picturi de mare calitate...

Însăşi lucrarea mea pare un soi de pătrundere într-o realitate sfinţită cu puterea de a da viaţă spaţiului pictural surprins într-o poveste a naturii. Cred că aici îmi caut şi estetica existenţei mele, prin intermediul privirii ochiului care urmărește o imagine reflectată în oglinda unui colţ din natură, pătrunsă numai de durata de viaţă a unei pensule magice, curate şi delicate, care e destul de asemănătoare cu o bijuterie de culoarea smaraldului menit să îndeplinească toate dorinţele.

Leadership: Importanţa pe care o acorzi căutării în artă a unui conţinut simbolic permite înţelegerea propriei fiinţe prin apartenenţa la o existenţă care excede percepţia asupra realităţii lumii într-o experienţă subiectivă?

Cu răbdare, încerc să colorez cu roşu suprafaţa dorită de pe pânza şevaletului. Apoi, cu pensula udă încerc să întind culoarea sângerie pe fundalul unei realităţi care, fără a o fi ignorat prin suprapunerea unei unde luminoase, aş fi preferat să se păstreze într-o pasivitate filozofică până în momentul înălţării spiritului meu la rang de virtute.

Aşadar, ai grijă la compoziţia pe care o prezinţi. Ochiul artistului poate descrie concis și într-o manieră inedită arta de a da coerenţă viziunii unei persoane purtată spre înălţimi mai mari de conştiinţă, de exprimare, de gestionare a emoţiilor, prin mijloace alternative limbajului sacru al lui Dumnezeu: prin culoare, cuvânt, forme, mişcare.

O clipă, încearcă să te pui în locul meu. Caută atingerea privirii mele într-un vis de inspiraţie divină, caută printr-un fond de culori calde, vii, sau intense, şi numai căutând cu însufleţire provocarea ascunsă într-un frumos corp al naturii vei reuşi să te descoperi tu însuţi drept o expresie fabuloasă, devenind misterios. Pictura însăşi este privirea dinspre veghe aruncată într-un vis care te deconectează de la monotonia unei existenţe prea puţin împlinite.

Sau, asemenea unei priviri neîntrerupte, aruncate înaintea unei mări care separă viaţa de ideea de aventură aflată pe celălalt mal, unduindu-şi valurile într-un stil de acuarelă, cu o mişcare universală, folosind o perie moale pentru a obţine un aspect definitoriu al suprarealismului într-o experienţă subiectivă, încearcă să te regăseşti ca dat al libertăţii de sine într-o poveste cu tâlc, intitulată Admionsferhis , desemnând înflorirea harică a unui destin ce și-a urmat neșovăielnic vocația Dumnezeiască de călăuză pe cărările artei.

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate reproduce imaginea în oglindă a unui suflet de artist ilustrat prin evidențierea apropierii între orizontul unei lumi vaste şi aspiraţia unei transpuneri a realităţii în monumental?

Doi ochi blânzi strâng în brațe o privire artistică care își caută destinul într-o memorie a realităţii prinsă în mrejele unui timp şi spaţiu deja ignorat de restul lumii. Două entităţi de procesare a imaginii unei conştiinţe puternic ortodoxe, o viziune neaşteptată a naturii şi creatorul petalelor unei roze de flăcări, amândouă fiind oglinzi ale divinului, îşi unesc realitatea în faţa unui şevalet ajustabil.

Efectele acestei duble potriviri spirituale se constituie într-o splendidă filosofie a frumosului şi o nemaiîntâlnită ştiinţă a artei, subtilă şi rafinată.

Niciodată nu am crezut că sunt în stare să posed o exemplară mărturie a unei relaţii dintre mine şi Dumnezeu, dintre doi ochi care îşi suprapun perfect înţelesurile, până la cele mai mici detalii, asemenea unei picturi care rămâne o mărturie a efortului de a avea priză la public, făcută din plăcerea unei aventuri riscante în jurul culorilor şi al formelor de expresie.

Aici, pe undeva, se regăseşte împăcarea mea cu esenţa şi consolarea metafizică, credinţa mea faţă de opera unui plăsmuitor de lumi, considerate ca măsurare a raportului dintre imaginea unei inspiraţii naturale şi aspiraţia unei transpuneri a realităţii în monumental. Iar dacă m-aţi întreba ce este monumentalul, prin intermediul unei picturi care se înscrie în universul sufletului meu nesubjugat, blajin, cuprinzător, atunci v-aş răspunde simplu:

Monumentalul este rezultatul unei dorinţe proiectate asupra unor reprezentări imaginare, cu privire la existenţa unei evocări a lui Dumnezeu în cadrul artei figurative, realiste.

Am mai spus-o demult, şi repet. Arta este mijlocul creatorului de a se constitui într-o viziune pe care ochiul o numeşte "comparaţie". Ea este accesibilă numai cu mijloacele şi tehnicile unei picturi care oscilează între frumuseţea unei linişti profunde, măreţia naturii (inclusiv cromatica ei) şi exerciţiul de rememorare a unei clipe astrale surprinsă într-un motiv de triumf al Eului liric, apărut în ipostaza de Alter-Ego al divinităţii.

Ochii și privirea ajung la un acord asupra sensului pe care îl pune înainte orizontul unei lumi mai vaste, aferente unei alegorii a vieţii aflată sub îndrumarea artistului, situându-l în orizontul unei disperate conştientizări a vocaţiei divine. Când privirea este aruncată ferm înainte, cu nobleţe, cu o abilitate deosebită de înţelegere, asta presupune că ochii sunt conștienți de vastitatea orizontului pe care îl comunică profunzimea unei revelații: "Eu sunt mai mult decât rezultatul reprezentării unei percepţii exterioare şi a unei imagini conştiente, intenţionate."

Întrebarea pe care trebuie să o ridice ochii este deja amintită de privire: "până unde se întinde orizontul?"

O privire îndreptată asupra artei presupune să ştii să deosebeşti realitatea de ceea ce nu este decât imaginea răsfrântă de o oglindă, trăgând o linie netă, despărţitoare, între lumea lăuntrică şi cea din jurul tău.

Lasă-mă să dau glas privirii tale dacă vrei să te imortalizez într-un tablou a cărui tematică, pe lângă cea spirituală, şochează prin ineditul unei asocieri ieşite din comun, în cazul meu, asocierea cu un povestitor care îşi începe povestea cu imaginea sa reflectată într-o oglindă. O oglindă a reinventărilor unui artist complet.

Latura artistică a firii mele

On Octombrie 29, 2018

Optimizează-ţi energiile creatoare printr-o reînnoire permanentă a imaginii omului de lângă tine.

Voiam să pictez la fel cum mă privea ea, ca un purtător de imagini adânc legate de viaţa cea mai largă, în aşa fel încât să-mi recunosc menirea în misterul unei poveşti vechi de multe secole. Mi se părea că mă invidiază. Înţelegea totul dintr-o privire a spiritului artistic, simţindu-se parcă concurentă la un alt moment al vieţii considerat ca înlocuindu-l pe cel anterior, asemenea unui străin ajuns într-o lume confuză, încercând să pătrundă misterul adânc al unei opere de artă hrănită din preaplinul unei imaginaţii necontrolate.

Ca să te simţi împlinit trebuie să imortalizezi imediatul clipei tradus la imaginarul perspectivei, de la ipotetic la posibil, având grijă de pasiunea sufletului dispusă în planul simbolistic al punctelor, liniilor, formelor şi culorilor.

Ea era prezenţa miraculoasă ce anunţa înfăţişarea exterioară a lucrurilor, conturul, forma sau densitatea lor materială. Era firea tăinuită a unei realităţi imposibil de a fi supusă prin spirit şi voinţă. Eu păream să fiu suflul vital ce anima toată imaginaţia ei, materia din jur, lumea pe care şi-o crease singură. Căci, la urma urmei, ce ne-au învăţat romanele de dragoste, altceva decât faptul că e bine să crezi în poetica unei înclinaţii spre imaginaţie şi reverie?

Într-un anumit sens, experienţa de creaţie îşi spunea şi aici cuvântul înaintea talentului, anume că în anumite împrejurări, când cineva îţi soarbe din priviri răspunsul la toate întrebările, când ţi se pare că faci parte dintr-un întreg mişcător care se produce numai în materie de culori, nuanţe şi proiectări în imaginar, abia atunci recunoşti că ceea ce-ţi lipseşte cu adevărat este capacitatea de a face pe cineva să te memoreze într-un spaţiu fără margini.

Înţelesul unei tinere ambiţioase, aducător de rezultat palpabil în câmpul unei arte fără cusur, este corespunzător dorinţei de a face o comparaţie între ceea ce ţi se spune că eşti şi ceea ce poţi oferi în materie de frumuseţe.

Leadership: Poţi pune în prim planul privitorului arta ca spaţiu de creaţie al unei poveşti de care nu te poţi despărţi, etalând interpretări ale unei părţi din realitate care transmit emoţii pline de taine metafizice?

Iertaţi-mi îndrăzneala, frumoasă domnişoară, căutaţi probabil firescul din care se hrăneşte existenţa sinceră a sentimentelor mele, povestea din spatele picturilor mele, acele firimituri de îngrijorări şi speranţă care se sustrag cuprinderii definitive a artei, la acestea adăugându-se trăirea intensă ce v-o poate oferi participarea estetică la cadrul unei lumi noi.

Promit să nu vă dezamăgesc aşteptările, în termeni expresionişti, căci nu voi provoca exagerarea unor elemente formale precum culoarea, suprafața și patina, pentru a exprima narațiunile emoționale în imaginile unei naturi ce aşteaptă semnul despărţirii realului de ireal. Arta mea este o plămădeală a imaginaţiei şi a dorinţelor ascunse pe care prefer să nu le reproduc într-un tablou de-o frumuseţe de basm, cu toate că mă tentează.

Vederea întreagă a unei tinereţi feminine este legată strâns de sensul vieţii ce lucrează cu puterile întăritoare ale artistului doritor a-şi prelungi înţelegerea despre artă punând condiţii exagerate despre constituirea unei identităţii vizuale marcante, evocând numai sentimente de admiraţie faţă de puritatea frumosului. Sensibilitatea ei pare să aparţină unei lumi imaginate dintr-o insistentă preocupare artistică, o lume care încearcă să te convingă că nu există moarte, ci doar o continuare a viselor.

Altfel spus, fiinţa aceasta care inspiră iubire şi admiraţie se vrea mai mult decât o modelare anticipată a particularităţii trăirii de mare intensitate în care se imaginează omul atunci când dobândeşte ceva peste aşteptări. Predominant, ea te invită la o viziune adolescentină a trăirii într-o zodie ce aboleşte timpul şi te poartă în lumile absolutului, trădând pe această cale o intenţie de exteriorizare frapantă a stărilor sufleteşti conştient controlate. Tot mai mult, ea trădează acea putere de emoţionare a poeziei liniilor sau a senzualităţii cromatice, pe care un artist trebuie să ştie să le folosească în scopul surprinderii unei licăriri de expresie într-un portret inedit.

Leadership: Eşti traversat de preocuparea de a te reinventa într-o nouă dimensiune estetică, încât să descifrezi prin intuiţie o lectură ascunsă pe fondul unei inteligenţe care a întâlnit la timpul potrivit şcoala gândirii - sortită exprimării prin limbaj vizual?

Un artist talentat intră totdeauna în vibraţie cu pregnanţa imaginii care îl răscoleşte, fără să-şi permită o altă inspiraţie din afara muzei sale. Din acest punct de vedere, cred că mă asemăn foarte mult cu domnul Cunningham stând de vorbă cu domnişoara Westcott, dintr-un roman al scriitoarei Mary Balogh.

"Permiteţi-mi să vă explic oarecum procesul de creaţie. Vorbesc numai cu persoana pe care vreau să o pictez, o observ şi o ascult. Ajung să o cunosc cât se poate de bine. Fac schiţe în timp ce vorbim şi după aceea îmi aleg tematica prin apelul la o realitate pe jumătate simbolică, încât să cultiv misterul pe care ea să-l urmărească cu sufletul la gură. În cele din urmă, când mă simt pregătit, fac o schiţă finală şi pictez portretul după ea. E un proces lent, care ia mult timp. Nu poate fi grăbit. Sau variat. E puţin haotic, poate, dar aşa lucrez eu.

Într-adevăr, în procesul creator nu există nimic ordonat. Poţi să îi dăruieşti timp, efort şi disciplină, dar dincolo de asta nu prea ai control asupra artei care vine din suflet. Nu sunt sigur că acesta este cuvântul corect, dar nu am fost niciodată capabil să mă gândesc la altul mai corect, fiindcă arta mea nu pare să vină dintr-o parte conştientă a minţii."

Leadership: După tot ce ai trăit într-o clipă de inspiraţie, continui să-ţi pui întrebări asupra realităţii pe care o percepi prin amplificarea misterului existenţial şi a rolului imaginarului în conturarea acesteia?

Ea pare învinsă de o anumită neclaritate în aprecierea corectă a imaginii de ansamblu, într-un apriori al facerii unei valenţe de cugetare asupra unui lucru de care mulţi se feresc să-l recunoască. Negreşit, simpla ei prezenţă este un semn de reverenţă şi neuitare a artistului care parcă acţionează în sensul unei gândiri iluzioniste, nepermiţându-şi luxul de a prezenta o lucrare finală impecabilă fără a ţine cont de ce-şi doreşte să vadă cineva mai puţin experimentat în privinţa fenomenului expresionist.

Dialogul cromatic dintre roşul pal al buzelor tale şi aspectul transparent al privirii pierdută puţin în visare, relevă sensibilitatea unei îndrăgostiri de frumosul unui poem izvorât din veşnicie. Admirabil, eşti asemenea celui ce mai întâi îşi imaginează o întâmplare, până ce o acceptă ca pe o realitate, apoi o pune în stare de vis. Eu fug de realitate, fug dar mă întorc tot timpul la ea şi o aştern pe hârtie într-un desen ce pare a fi răspunsul la toate enigmele lumii.

De aceea, nici n-aş îndrăzni să te conving de plasticitatea şi dispoziţia eidetică a celui care mângâie cuvintele cu şarmul artistului desăvârşit, cu acea tuşă plină de înţelesurile unei poveşti fără sfârşit. Ci aş face în aşa fel încât totul să pară că vine de la tine, cu toate dorinţele inimii tale de a se elibera cât mai repede de penibila anxietate instalată în faţa orizontului necunoscut ce urmează să fie revelat prin creaţie.

Nici până acum nu m-am hotărât în ce mod ar trebui să te înţeleg, fără a ignora confuzia voită ce face parte din colajul suprarealist al unei vieţi plină de visare, imaginată ca o extindere a dorinței de a explora potențialul unei priviri sincere care se ridică curioasă spre înaltul unei alte lumi. A aceleia pe care, într-un anumit fel, ai părăsit-o.

Nu degeaba, concepţia pe care mi-o fac despre artă este asemănătoare cu privirea curioasă a nou-intratului într-o lume fără ieşire, ca o modelare anticipată a particularităţii trăirii în care se imaginează cosmogonia unei prietenii suspendate în alternanţa de tonuri roşu-amurg şi cafeniu-gălbui.

Leadershipul poate reprezenta farmecul pe care îl găseşti într-o creaţie a cărei putere de persuasiune depinde exclusiv de folosirea eficace a perspectivei (de esenţă comunicativă) dintre ceea ce poți realiza prin reperul "Forever" şi ceea ce este ascuns dincolo de o presupusă aparenţă numită "Doza de ficţiune".

Latura artistică a firii mele o poate înţelege numai domnişoara aia tânără şi frumoasă, cea care a adunat atâtea date despre mine, atât în favoarea mea, cât şi în favoarea artei, plonjând în gândurile mele cu elanul unui vis care devine realitate. Ea a ştiut să aplice cu pensula sincerităţii culoarea vibraţiilor sale lirice pe pânza unui tablou care încă este la mine pe perete.

Latura ascunsă a leadershipului

On Ianuarie 26, 2017

Examinează-ţi viaţa printr-o selecţie subtilă a întâmplărilor semnificative, la deschiderea către ceea ce deseori zguduie conștiința și percepţia despre adevărurile profunde ale fiinţei tale.

- Va să zică dumneavoastră credeți în Dumnezeu? întrebă Caderousse, grav rănit. Pentru mine, Dumnezeu nu există !

- Dacă aș fi avut nenorocirea să nu cred până acum, răspunde Monte Cristo, aș crede acum, uitându-mă la tine cum suferi de moarte !

Ascultă, îi spuse mai departe abatele, întinzându-şi mâna spre rănit ca și cum ar fi vrut să-i poruncească credință: iată ce a făcut El pentru tine. Dumnezeul acesta pe care refuzi să-l recunoști în clipa cea de pe urmă a vieții tale: ți-a dat sănătate, putere, o muncă sigură, și chiar prieteni. În sfârșit, ți-a dat viața așa cum trebuie s-o aibă omul ca să fie blând, cu liniștea și conștiința îndeplinirii dorinţelor lui fireşti. În loc să folosești darurile Domnului, atât de rar hărăzite de el pe deplin, tu iată ce ai făcut: te-ai lăsat pradă trândăviei, invidiei, trufiei, beţiei, și în beţie ți-ai trădat unul din cei mai buni prieteni.

- Ce preot ciudat sunteți dumneavoastră, care-i deznădăjduiţi pe muribunzi în loc să-i consolaţi !

- Ascultă - continuă Monte Cristo - când ți-ai trădat prietenul, Dumnezeu a început, nu să te lovească, ci să te prevină !

O a doua bogăție nesperată a coborât din cer asupra ta, ți-ai regăsit din nou banii și liniștea, puteai să reîncepi să trăiești viața la care ai visat. Și atunci, nelegiuitule, atunci ai început să-l mânii din nou pe Dumnezeu. Ai devenit și mai lacom, și mai trufaş, și mai egoist, și mai lipsit de duh. „N-am destul", îți spuneai, când aveai mai mult decât avuseseşi vreodată, și ai săvârşit o a treia nelegiuire, fără rost, fără scuză. Iar Dumnezeu nu te-a mai răbdat și te-a pedepsit. *

Leadership: Ești nevoit să generezi o înțelegere superioară din interiorul cauzei stărilor tale de „orbire" și nu din afara unor condiţionări secundare, pentru a te recunoaşte apropiat de natura lui Dumnezeu?

Omul care își examinează viaţa printr-o selecţie subtilă a întâmplărilor semnificative, la deschiderea către ceea ce deseori zguduie conștiința și percepţia despre adevărurile profunde ale fiinţei sale, nu are ca suport de autoevaluare darul unei viziuni mai clare, nici darul unei minți extrem de intuitivă, înclinată spre cercetare. Poate că întreaga poveste a vieţii trebuie examinată ca o selecţie semnificativă de fapte şi întâmplări subtile, de care conştiinţa omului opune sau nu rezistenţă, printr-o deschidere a sufletului spre cele înalte și luminoase care vin de la Dumnezeu, dar omul deseori nu lasă loc adevărurilor dureroase despre el însuşi să iasă la lumină. Astfel, el se face vinovat de ipocrizie.

Completând tabloul unei vieţi care îşi finalizează experienţele şi îşi încheie zbuciumul unei stări de veghe sau de revoltă din înfruntarea tuturor provocărilor, omul acesta se vede constrâns să-şi proiecteze complexitatea spirituală asupra a ceea ce formează obiectul unei judecăţi de fond, universale. Din care nu lipseşte, bineinţeles, frica de pedeapsă, conştiinţa păcatelor săvârşite. Iar conştiinţa, numaidecât, înseamnă să accepţi inevitabilul unei confruntări fata în faţă cu dreptatea lui Dumnezeu.

Întotdeauna omul care își propune să reveleze adevărurile care îl alcătuiesc, se vede pus în relație cu ceea ce vine din exterior, cu ceea ce i se aduce la cunoștință, cu ceea ce i se amintește în momentele de cumpănă, pentru a deveni protagonistul unui nou început sau al unui final tulburător. A te recunoaşte apropiat de natura lui Dumnezeu înseamnă să accepţi că tot ceea ce faci cu tot ceea ce ţi se întâmplă este un test al propriei tării lăuntrice, al propriei credibilităţi, al propriului suflet, în faţa unui destin care impune mai întâi suferinţa, apoi bucuria.

Leadership: Evenimentele la care iei parte reprezintă interacțiuni ale unui Egou supradimensionat cu o formă trăire excepţională a vieţii, măsurate independent dintr-o conştiinţă care pleacă din potenţialitatea unui fenomen de profunzime?

Iar una din trăsăturile realismului unui om care își sondează adevărurile rezidă din suma celor două instanţe ale modelului de tranziţie spre o nouă realitate:

O instanţă numită „ Călăuză ", provenită din conjunctura evenimentelor cu gust de remuşcări, care îl ajută să epuizeze posibilităţile propuse de integrarea într-un scenariu trist. Și o instanță numită „ Navigator " care conține o referinţă despre ceea ce trebuie să se întâmple ca omul să înțeleagă adevărata valoare a ceea ce se dorește corectat prin experiența directă și imediată.

Valabilitatea puterii tale de a-ţi construi o viață semnificativă, care preîntâmpină posibilele dizarmonii în formarea personalităţii, se conturează din necesitatea de a-ţi însuşi propriile experienţe în forma unei recapitulări. Şi, mai departe, putem vorbi despre un fenomen de porofunzime sesizabil la nivel de latură vulnerabilă a personalităţii în cazul în care tot ceea face un om are ca efect o îndepărtare de la comuniunea cu Dumnezeu sau chiar o rupere a acestei comuniuni.

La fel cum proceda Napoleon Bonaparte, obişnuieşte-te să recapitulezi la sfârșitul zilei evenimentele importante, şi gândeşte-te ce anume a constituit o excepție de la regulă, o coincidenţă, o intervenție divină, o avertizare sau o presimțire ! Poţi să găsești o corespondenţă plină de sens între toate acestea?

Ei bine, Napoleon nu a luat în considerare niciun semn, Egoul său fiind supradimensionat de un orgoliu parşiv, de corsican, şi a ajuns să recunoască la finalul vieţii, prin durerea suferită în singurătate, că există un Dumnezeu care nu iartă abaterile de la legile sacre.

Leadership: Rezonezi cu ceea ce se numeşte "trăirea vinei" care îţi permite o atitudine de respect a valorii care depinde de acordul credinţei într-o Putere Superioară, sau eşti mărginit la idei precum "oblonul tras nu lasă lumina să pătrundă înlăuntru" ?

Acest gen de explorare de sine, provocată de contradicţiile dintre cele bune și cele rele, care străbat întinderile infinite ale unor secvenţe existenţiale semnificative din trecut, pune în funcţiune acea libertate a spiritului care îl împinge pe om într-o anumită conjunctură. Și îl face apt de a se constitui ca temei pentru angajarea răspunderii sale în condiţiile exclusive ale unor năzuinţe de înălţare peste trăirea zilnică cuprinsă în marginile strâmte ale nevoilor și grijilor.

Tot așa cum alergiile trec, dar nu se vindecă total, tot astfel anii trec, dar sentimentul oarecum neliniştitor al unei fapte de mult întâmplate se reîntoarce. Însăşi Ego-ul nu iartă faptele şi fundamentele care le-au generat.

Trăirea vinei, a lipsei de temei a vieţii, a resentimentului, apăsarea inimaginabilă a abandonării, iată câteva din semnalele că te raportezi la o experiență care s-a întâmplat să cuprindă proverbul: „Dă-i omului mintea de pe urmă, adică înțelepciunea finală înainte de a se întâmpla ceva."

Omul care se apropie de desăvârşire este cel care experimentează „trăirea în trezire". Aşadar, încearcă să înțelegi motivele care stau la baza faptelor tale, chiar dacă nu eşti pregătit să înfrunţi adevărurile despre tine însuţi. Cel de Sus veghează, şi nu iartă.

Latura ascunsă a leadershipului privește forma propriei tale existenţe care se întoarce împotriva fondului pe care te-ai clădit. Fă un pas înainte spre întărirea puterii de a se comporta ca un om responsabil, nu ca o oaie care nu se împotriveşte celui ce o tunde.

Latura umană a leadershipului

Înfrânează-ţi sentimentul de profundă tristeţe pe care îl resimți în fața conştiinţei, nu te lăsa condus de el !

Mă numesc Cella Serghi. Va trebui să vorbesc şi despre mine, cu detaşarea pe care mi-o dau anii care au trecut de atunci. Se spune acum că eram tulburător de frumoasă. Cred că se exagerează. N-am crezut niciodată că sunt frumoasă. Şi tocmai fiindcă eram nesigură de fizicul meu, nemulţumită, eram atât de cochetă, de preocupată să plac. Şi reuşeam, fiindcă eram vie, neliniştită, vibrând ca o frunză la cea mai uşoară adiere, permeabilă la tot ce e viaţa.

Preocupată să plac, dorind o mare iubire împărtăşită, dar viaţa mi-a refuzat tocmai ce căutam. Aveam neliniştea cenuşăresei care şi-a pierdut pantoful. Poate că îmi căutam pantoful vrăjit, poate copilăria, poate pe mine, poate un alt destin decât cel pe care în mod obişnuit femeile îl acceptă. Poate că nu semănam cu nimeni, fiindcă mi se părea că trebuie să iau mereu totul de la început şi totul să înceapă cu mine.

Nu ştiu cum am înţeles, sau am simţit, că numai săvârşind ceva neobişnuit voi fi eu însămi. Dar căutam, mă căutam... Era o căutare ce mă ţinea într-o permanentă stare de veghe, într-o nelinişte pe care o transmiteam, parcă mă opream şi întrebam pe cei dimprejur pe unde s-o iau şi fiecare simţea că ar fi un ghid posibil şi se apropia. Dar eu, ca în jocul în care cineva te îndrumă ca să găseşti obiectul ascuns, spunând doar "rece", "călduţ", "cald", "fierbinte" (după cum te apropiii sau te îndepărtezi), eu căutam "focul".

Leadership: Poţi să zdrobeşti angrenajul timpului fără aparentă esenţă în care ai devenit doar o simplă rotiţă, având în permanenţă asupra ta o anumită perspectivă: tu însuţi în interiorul unei lumi care se neagă şi se afirmă în acelaşi timp?

Ai curajul să lupţi contra acelui factor care te înţepeneşte într-o stare de negare a micilor şi marilor bucurii? Te simţi abandonat într-o lume plină de aşteptări ireale sau mult prea înalte în raport cu şansele tale de a le satisface? Eşti cuprins de simţăminte sărmane şi sumbre care te stăpânesc în întregime? Care este natura legăturilor care se stabilesc între elementele tale definitorii? Abandonezi valorile cele mai de preţ, tot ceea ce consideri ca fiind raţiunea unor noi alegeri? Care este unicul component din sistemul care te defineşte ca om, ce poate reacţiona într-o unitate de timp, pe un anumit traseu?

Marele magnat american Warren Edward Buffett spunea: "Preţul este ceea ce plăteşti. Valoarea este ceea ce capeţi." Aceste cuvinte cuprind o bogăţie de semnificaţii, însă şi un înţeles care acoperă toată esenţa existenţei noastre.

O lume care se neagă şi se afirmă în acelaşi timp este o enciclopedie a deşertăciunii care spulberă existenţa tuturor celor ce locuiesc pe tărâmul unei povești greu de acceptat, cu care poate nu te vei mai întâlni niciodată, dar o vei regăsi de nenumărate ori în amintiri. Adu-ţi aminte că într-unul din visele tale, în care ţi-ai întemeiat o nouă lume cu rol simbolic de alungare a oricăror regrete şi dureri, a apărut un personaj pe care nu l-ai recunoscut imediat, dar care te-a marcat pentru faptul că ţi-ai dat seama că i-ai distrus posibilităţile de a deveni un înlocuitor definitiv al realităţii.

Iar un timp fără aparentă esenţă este o întrerupere a vieţii pline de idealuri. La un moment dat, în visul tău, în care ţi-ai întemeiat o adevărată împărăţie a gloriei, o strălucire fără măsură, ţi-a apărut un bătrân gârbovit, împovărat de ani, care încerca să se dea adolescent. Bătrânul acesta părea că şi-a asumat de ani buni rolul de a-i întâmpina pe străini, fiind cu atât mai trist cu cât era mai înflăcărat să fie observat.

Simţirea pe care o experimentezi în tăcerea unei priviri retrospective asupra vieţii poate fi o dovadă a virtuţii de a crede în tine însuţi, sau o consecinţă a tendinţei de a te resemna. Trăind iluzia complexă a unei realităţi ce intră în şoc frecvent, care te înconjoară şi te ţine prizonier într-o stare de incertitudine, zvârlindu-te în abisul insondabil al deznădejdii, vei ignora esenţa vieţii şi scopul primordial al egoului (de a creşte percepţia valorii personale).

Acesta este de regulă preţul pe care îl plăteşti cu vârf şi îndesat, consecinţa stabilirii unor legături cu alţi indivizi, de o altă speţă, care nu au avut conţinutul corespunzător propriilor tale aspiraţii.

Un om înzestrat cu virtutea respectului de sine îşi biruieşte neputinţa de a reacţiona în faţa dezamăgirilor de orice fel, prin exerciţiul confruntării cu imaginea unei lumi care se relevă doar în anumite condiţii de observaţie a lecţiilor de viaţă care îl motivează să-şi înţeleagă mai bine traseul de urmat.

Valoarea personală, care de multe ori are ca rezultat o totală neconcordanţă între preţul cerut şi cost (ceea ce vrei să obţii de la viaţă şi ce eşti dispus să plăteşti în schimb), se reflectă în alte indicative, în nivelul de performanţe profesionale pe care le înregistrezi - în raport cu nivelul tău de implicare în viaţa personală. Această valoare atinge pragul zero dacă raportul nu este de continuitate, ci de ruptură.

Oamenii cei mai încercaţi de viaţă nu-şi găsesc strălucirea acolo unde luminează soarele, ci acolo unde domneşte întunericul nopţi, când se aprind şi se admiră stelele pe cer - ele indică drumul spre adevărata înţelegere de sine.

Ca şi Cella Serghi, oamenii înzestraţi cu virtutea de a se întrema după o încercare grea pun pe primul loc esenţa existenţei lor. Dacă nu vrei să cazi în deznădejde şi să înţepeneşti într-o negare a realităţii, dacă nu vrei să te transformi într-un roboţel lipsit de direcţie, dacă nu vrei să cazi într-o extremă compromiţătoare şi lamentabilă, dacă nu vrei să fii chinuit de tendinţa de a te închide în tine, atunci străduieşte-te să zdrobeşti angrenajul timpului fără aparentă esenţă în care ai devenit doar o simplă rotiţă.

Străduieşte-te să înlături, să te eliberezi, să previi acele circumstanţe în care neajunsurile, aspiraţiile îşi dau arama de faţă. Rupe legăturile care te ţin în captivitate, care te-ar putea descalifica definitiv din cursa spre marele premiu: deplinătatea. Cea mai importantă lecţie de viaţă pe care o ai de învăţat chiar de la tine însuţi este următoarea: "caută să îţi înţelegi nevoile personale, fără să te adânceşti în neliniştea Cenuşăresei care şi-a pierdut pantoful."

Leadership: Îţi aloci timp pentru dezvoltarea ta personală într-o relaţie de unu-la-unu dintre lumea interioară şi lupta cu lumea exterioară, fără să-ţi asumi privilegiul de a locui într-un spaţiu care adăposteşte doar trecutul unei iluzii?

Importanţa drumului pe care îl parcurgi spre atingerea excelenţei, cu toate adaosurile ei de rigoare, precum capacitatea de a te automotiva sau de a te identifica cu acel ceva care te captivează şi te face special, este în strânsă legătură cu relaţiile pe care le stabileşti cu ceilalţi oameni, mai ales pe plan profesional.

Rolul importanţei acestor relaţii nu este deloc de neglijat, fiindcă ele determină experienţele prin care treci. Conflictele interioare reprezentând un hăţiş de nesiguranţă, partea cea mai sensibilă din întregul tău proces de funcţionare şi existenţă.

Un spaţiu care adaposteşte doar trecutul unei iluzii poate fi reprezentat de o atracţie care îţi limitează libertăţile personale sau de fidelitatea faţă de un crez care nu-ţi mai este de folos. Situaţia în care te afli prizonier, activ, ca un factor de nesiguranţă pe plan personal, îşi accelerează expansiunea până la limită, găsindu-şi deznodământul în marele val al schimbării. Totul ţine de percepţia ta asupra a ceea ce înseamnă viaţa, asupra a ceea ce înseamnă asimilarea unui mod de a fi, solid şi sănătos.

Relaţia de unu-la-unu între lumea interioară şi lupta cu lumea exterioară este dată de comanda simultană a "frecvenţelor tale de acord", adică de modul în care îţi structurezi sensul vieţii în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni. Aceste frecvenţe de tip pulsator care te pun în contact cu tine însuţi, transmit mesaje cu rol de atenţionare asupra oricăror modificări sau schimbări de personalitate datorate celorlalţi.

Susţii o schimbare pe plan profesional care îţi afectează viaţa personală? Care sunt argumentele pro şi contra, pe care frecvenţele de acord ţi le comandă să le iei în considerare?

Leadershipul este deschiderea către o viaţă plenar spirituală care începe cu: "Va trebui să vorbesc despre mine, cu detaşarea pe care mi-o dau anii care au trecut de atunci" şi se continuă cu căutarea unui ideal de esenţializare a trăirii clipei prezente, menit să te ţină într-o permanentă stare de veghe faţă de fluxul schimbător al lumii.

Latura umană a leadershipului surprinde aşteptările unei lumi care se loveşte de nostalgia unei resemnări de ordin spiritual sau emoţional, surdă şi revoltată în acelaşi timp din pricina unor rosturi ale vieţii care nu vor mai fi niciodată aceleaşi.

Condiţia primordială a omului preocupat de Ego-ul şi reputaţia sa nu este aceea de a se accepta înfrânt de limitele propriei puteri sau perspective, ci de a-şi suporta exagerarea cu care îşi urmează tendinţa de a se izola de toţi şi de toate.

Laureatul medaliei de onoare

Pune în evidenţă consistenţa solidă a caracterului tău, adoptând atitudinea firească a "Omului" care respectă standardele de excelenţă impuse de ceilalţi.

Filmul "Uncommon Valor (1983)" prezintă povestea unui grup de veterani ai războiului din Vietnam care se reunesc pentru a salva un fost camarad luat prizonier, care era totodată fiul colonelului în retragere, Cal Rhodes, care sprijinise întreaga operaţiune. Înainte de începerea misiunii, ei se instalează într-o bază unde încep antrenamentele. Antrenamentele zilnice, care erau foarte dure şi foarte complexe, erau supervizate de către Kevin Scott, fost ofiţer din Marina Militară Americană, care cunoştea cele mai recente tehnici de pregătire şi era un adevărat pasionat şi cunoscător al armelor.

Zi după zi, voinţa, hotărârea şi speranţa micului grup slăbea. Kevin Scott cerea mult prea mult de la ei. Situaţia devenise foarte încordată, iar el nu bănuia că mai devreme sau mai târziu energia oamenilor se va risipi.

Leadership: Îţi este tolerată "negarea" cu care încerci să umpli golul dintre ceea ce eşti deja capabil să faci şi ceea ce încă nu eşti pregătit să realizezi singur?

Ce se întâmplă când nu creezi un sentiment de unitate în cadrul echipei?

La un moment dat, în timp ce cărau nişte buşteni groşi, unul dintre ei, maiorul Johnson, a cedat. Nu trebuia să se întâmple aşa. Nu în modul ăsta. Nu când mai aveau doar câteva zile până la începerea operaţiunii. Dezolarea lui era exprimată în întreaga sa atitudine. Nu mai putea face faţă antrenamentelor. Privirea lui intensă, îndreptată spre Kevin, era însă pătrunsă de o ură teribilă.

Ca să dea un exemplu bun celorlalţi, Kevin apucă buşteanul şi încercă să-l duca el mai departe. Dar în acel moment se întâmplă neprevăzutul. Cel mai impunător şi mai masiv dintre camarazi, Sailor, plin şi el de o ură fără margini, dornic să-şi verse tot amarul, se năpusti dintr-o dată asupra lui Kevin şi-l bătu măr.

Sailor nu simţea niciun fel de durere, niciun regret sau ruşine, niciun sentiment de vină pentru lecţia ce i-o dăduse lui Kevin. O voce din interior părea că-i spunea, în timp ce-şi privea "liderul" căzut la pământ: "Nu simt nimic pentru el, în vreun sens sau altul, cu excepţia faptului că nu mai vreau să am niciodată de-a face cu el".

Negarea pe care o implică o funcţie de conducere se poate explica prin refuzul de a admite ceva ce se află în dezacord cu opiniile tale, maximizând suma erorilor care apar prin recompensarea lipsei de disciplină sau printr-o condiţionare necorespunzătoare a regulilor ce trebuie respectate.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi exprimi personalitatea în măsura în care acţiunile şi deciziile tale coincid cu exploatarea liniei de acţiune aferentă unei datorii compromise?

Schimbă-te sau vei fi schimbat. Nimic nu inspiră oamenilor mai multă încredere şi siguranţă ca un lider ce ştie să-şi schimbe atitudinea.

După acea altercaţie violentă, după acea lecţie severă primită cu o intensă răceală, Kevin şi-a schimbat întregul concept de leadership. A devenit un alt om, unul care a înţeles de două ori: a înţeles din atitudinea şi din comportamentul oamenilor care sunt intenţiile, gândurile şi opiniile lor, care sunt limitele şi principiile lor, şi până unde poate forţa nota. A înţeles care sunt resursele şi căile cele mai eficiente pentru a-i motiva pe oameni şi cum să păstreze un echilibru între interesul său şi interesul lor.

Oamenii văd implicarea ta în activităţile comune ca un lucru foarte important. Ca lider, tu eşti conducta lor sigură spre o resursă inepuizabilă de energie proaspătă şi plină de viaţă. Foloseşte-ţi toate pârghiile, găseşte un mod eficient de a-i face pe oameni să acţioneze cum doreşti, dar fără să-i forţezi să-şi depăşească limitele.

Ce limite? Aş zice că asta depinde de fiecare. Dacă eşti genul de lider care, foarte sigur de el, îşi spune mereu fără să intuiască care este starea de spirit a oamenilor: "O să-i pun la treabă serios şi-o să vadă ei" , şi dacă vei lua măsuri drastice necugetate, atunci motivarea venită din partea ta va fi destul de slabă. O răceală, rezultată din dubii şi dintr-o neputinţă combinată cu frica, va începe să pătrundă treptat în miezul sentimentelor oamenii, şi în cele din urmă vei fi părăsit cu cea mai desăvârşită nepăsare.

O datorie compromisă este o recunoaştere pe care nu o meriţi pe deplin, datorată în principal eforturilor greşite de a obţine un acord de înţelegere printr-o lipsă a controlului în raport cu felul în care îi tratezi pe oameni. Acţiunile lor neavând impact asupra a ceea ce li se întâmplă, drept pentru care se simt neajutoraţi, deprimaţi şi apatici – sau, mai rău, încep să se pună pe fapte de ură şi răzbunare.

Leadership: Uneori eşti dator să te porţi nu după cum ţi-e felul, ci după cum te silesc alţii?

Dacă eşti o fire aprigă, gata să ia foc în orice clipă, a cărui purtare este lipsită de orice noimă, nu vei putea simţi niciodată emoţia oamenilor exprimată prin limbajul şi comportamentul lor care vădesc: înţelegere, respect, colaborare, toleranţă, solidaritate.

Dacă eşti un asemenea om eşti dator să te porţi nu după cum ţi-e felul, nu după cum crezi tu că e cel mai bine, ci după cum te silesc ceilalţi din jurul tău. Ca atare este necesar să adopţi atitudinea firească a unui lider care îşi respectă nespus de mult subalternii, să faci totul cu multă bunătate şi să nu te porţi cu ei aşa cum te-ai purta cu cei mai nemernici dintre oameni; să-ţi păstrezi neatins simţul onoarei, întotdeauna să arăţi tuturor respect şi dragoste, dar fără să renunţi la datorie.

Una este pentru oameni să asculte ordinele, şi alta este să-ţi urmeze exemplul. Nu uita că liderul este un fel de diamant în minele din inima oamenilor.

Leadership: Poţi să-i aduci pe oameni la pragul apropierii de ceea ce te singularizează, fără să le modifici tiparul de gândire?

Puterea ta de a te schimba va induce schimbarea comportamentului şi mentalităţii celorlalţi, benefică de ambele părţi pentru o conducere eficientă şi o colaborare fructuoasă. Dacă adopţi o atitudine rigidă, dacă impui anumite performanţe ce depăşesc capacitatea echipei, vei stârni ura, neputinţa şi sentimente de inutilitate şi chiar de răzbunare.

Atunci când simţi apariţia acestor sentimente, când pricepi că capacitatea echipei este depăşită de cerinţele pe care le-ai impus trebuie să "schimbi macazul" imediat, căci altfel vei avea numai de pierdut. Cea mai eficientă cale de a-i motiva pe oameni să te urmeze este să-ţi schimbi atitudinea faţă de ei.

Nu uita nicio clipă că eşti un om printre alţi oameni. Un om care ghidează oamenii într-o anumită direcţie, dar care la rândul său este ghidat de ei. Deci, se impune să fii un om de calitate, nu un om de nimic. Eşti "validat" ca lider în funcţie de plusurile sau minusurile acordate de ceilalţi, numai dacă reuşeşti să atingi standardele de excelenţă impuse de ei.

Să-i aduci pe oameni la pragul apropierii de ceea ce te singularizează, fără să le modifici tiparul de gândire, presupune să te reconsideri continuu, să îţi revezi continuu atitudinile de orice fel, interioare sau exterioare, să-ţi evaluezi limitele, percepţiile, valorile şi să afli cine eşti cu adevărat prin experienţa de a nu putea lua o decizie de unul singur, fără acordul lor.

Nu vei putea niciodată să-ţi marchezi prezenţa în viaţa oamenilor, fără să calci pe drumurile bătătorite de ei.

Medalia de onoare este un simbol al respectului oamenilor faţă de tine. Este un simbol al aprecierii lor, care are consecinţe practice în activităţile tale din viitor. Este poate cea mai înaltă dovadă a recunoştinţei lor pentru eficienţa ta, pentru calităţile tale de lider - un lider care are puterea să-şi schimbe gândurile şi atitudinea ori de câte ori a luat-o pe căi aberante.

Laureatul medaliei de onoare poţi fi chiar şi tu.

Leadership Adaptiv

On Martie 25, 2015

Transformă-te într-un om care se pune pe sine însuşi ca temei a toate, definindu-ţi un mod propriu de a te raporta la spaţiul unei instanţe superioare.

- Am ceva mai bun decât ţeava pistolului sau vârful pumnalului, ca să-mi vindec durerea. Am însăşi durerea care mă va ucide, spuse Maximilien.

- Prietene - îi răspunse Monte Cristo cu o tristeţe la fel de adâncă - ascultă-mă:

Odată, într-o clipă de deznădejde la fel de mare ca a ta, fiindcă mă împingea la o hotărâre asemănătoare, am vrut şi eu, ca şi tine, să-mi curm zilele. Odată, tatăl tău, la fel de deznădăjduit, a vrut şi el să-şi ia viaţa.

Dacă i s-ar fi spus tatălui tău în clipa când îşi îndrepta ţeava pistolului spre frunte. Dacă mi s-ar fi spus mie în clipa când îndepărtam de lângă pat pâinea de deţinut, pe care n-o mai atinsesem de trei zile. Dacă ni s-ar fi spus la amândoi, în clipa aceea supremă:

*Maximilien, acordă-ţi răbdarea de-a împlini această dificilă sarcină - aşteaptă şi trăieşte - iar eu îţi făgăduiesc că cerul îţi va trimite darul său ! **

Leadership: Urmezi un eventual profil de lider determinat de înălţimea unei „superiorităţi" temporale implicate în resetarea parametrilor tăi de stare?

Experimentul de tip „durere", prin intermediul unor constrângeri de ordin temporal sau prin intermediul unei delimitări într-un alt capitol al vieţii, într-un joc de puzzle în care ai la dispoziţie o singură piesă - aşteptarea - pentru a-ţi reface echilibrul moral şi sufletesc, reprezintă primul moment în care supremaţia egoului personal este pusă la îndoială şi în care te confrunţi cu adevărata ta calitate.

Iar deseori calitatea, cărând în mod constant datoria unui scop înalt, precede creşterii interesului în ceea ce priveşte aspectele referitoare la criteriile de claritate, previzibilitate şi predictibilitate, într-o imagine a nevoii sufleteşti cu totul diferită şi specială.

Profilul reprezentativ al omului care se pune pe sine însuşi ca temei a toate, prin adoptarea conduitei de a fi informat despre eventualele schimbări care pot să-l marcheze sau care conduc spre împlinire, aducându-l mai aproape de idealul imaginat, după ordinea întregului său conţinut sufletesc, se poate adapta la forma unei clepsidre fine care măsoară scurgerea timpului în favoarea a ceea ce el este în stare să făgăduiască şi să ducă la bun sfârşit.

Profilul poate fi perceput, tratat ca şi link cât mai des posibil în relaţia dintre realitate, aşteptări, timp şi experienţele de viaţă, în baza unei cunoaşteri atât interioare cât şi exterioare. Profilul acestui tip de om este dictat de capacitatea lui de a se raporta la un punct de vedere extern, la o autoritate edificatoare care îşi exercită puterea în aplicarea unei presiuni înrudite cu aceeaşi matrice a probabilităţilor de tranziţie spre nou, spre mai bine, spre un nou model de a fi.

Leadership: Ai nevoie să te clarifici asupra valorilor pe care ţi le adjudeci de pe poziţia unui nivel de referinţă optimal care stabileşte relaţia dintre conţinutul unei realităţi care se refuză etern comprehensiunii umane şi conţinutul unei credinţe trăită printr-o consecinţă a deznădejdii?

Important pentru a face un rol mare în cursul evenimentelor este să fii receptat de către o entitate superioară de gândire, înţelepciune, control, supraveghere, şi să fii identificat drept un om cheie, drept cauză principală a unei schimbări mai ample în cadrul unui plan de extindere a leadershipului.

Pentru a-ţi putea proba caracterul, pentru a urca treptele într-o devenire care va fi de bun augur în măsura în care vei recunoaşte cu adevărat importanţa „superiorităţii" în viaţa ta, trebuie să te conectezi la o sursă alternativă de validare - care să susţină şi să promoveze calitatea ta de garant al sprijinului în realizarea unor scopuri măreţe.

Valoarea cea mai importantă pe care ţi-o poţi adjudeca de pe poziţia unui nivel de referinţă optimal, care te indică drept autoritate impunătoare în TOT, vizează recunoaşterea capacităţii tale de a face compromisuri în ceea ce priveşte modul în care transformi viaţa celor din jur în faţa unui destin care chiar dacă impune o suferinţă, nu suportă nicio jerftă.

Compromisul cel mai mare pe care trebuie să-l suporţi ca lider este să devii tu însuţi o oglindă în care să se reflecte viaţa celorlalţi, într-o veşnică confruntare cu regretele sau bucuriile pe care le stârneşte amintirea ta.

Leadership-ul Adaptiv se referă la procesul prin care are loc integrarea dintre propriul sine şi o entitate superioară de gândire, producând un efect care poate avea sau nu valenţe pozitive. Ia în seama starea ta. Poţi să resimţi influenţa „supremaţiei" doar dacă îi dai cuiva acceptul să se plieze pe starea ta, într-un mod sau altul, şi să producă o resetare totală.

Dacă vrei să înţelegi puterea leadershipul şi să te transformi într-un om care se pune pe sine însuşi ca temei a toate, mai întâi defineşte-ţi un mod propriu de a te raporta la spaţiul unei entităţi superioare de control.

Simte şi învaţă să gândeşti sub formula altuia mai presus decât tine.

Leadership Autentic

On Februarie 14, 2014

Experimentează o nouă abordare a cunoaşterii ştiinţifice, încât să asiguri premisele unei ample direcţii de evoluţie a leadershipului.

În timpul muncii la montaj, munca se dovedeşte trudnică. Regizorul rus, Serghei Eisenstein, are numeroase probleme. Când nu se poate rezolva bine o secvenţă, pare că apelează la propria sa experienţă trecută pentru a descoperi „secretul" creaţiei sale anterioare, pentru a analiza soluţii artistice găsite cu alt prilej. Pentru aceasta revede de câteva ori secvenţa scărilor din Odessa, din filmul „Crucişătorul Potemkin".

Chiar şi ideea folosirii culorii într-un film alb-negru revine aici: în secvenţa „separatorul" şi în aceea a „nunţii taurului", Eisenstein introduce fragmente scurte de peliculă fără imagine, vopsite în diferite culori. Prin acest procedeu el încearcă „să patetizeze expunerea". *

Leadership: Poţi să apelezi la aspectele experienţei tale trecute în care să argumentezi dacă realizarea unei creaţii valoroase implică sau nu un efort de durată, prin prisma a ceea ce eşti dispus să modifici la o imagine care se comercializează?

Evaluarea corectă a performanţelor individuale, prin generoasa unificare a ştiinţei cu leadershipul şi cu arta care se naşte din acţiunea lor combinată, depinde de persistenţa şi amploarea cu care se manifestă acea cunoaştere instantanee care te îmbogăţeşte, uneori pentru toată viaţa. Astfel, modalitatea de te împlini prin fundamentarea unei cunoaşteri profunde, asumate existenţial, poate avea caracter de principiu, exprimat printr-o condiţie fizică: „Un impuls scurt la intrare generează un impuls de valoare determinat la ieşire."

În cazul de faţă „impulsul scurt la intrare" evidenţiază acea pătrundere în domeniul ştiinţific în timpul muncii de creaţie, cu ajutorul rezultatelor experimentale şi a analizei de soluţii, care stimulează oportunităţi de extindere a capacităţilor proprii de receptare a lumii din jur, prin lentila unei realităţi schimbătoare. Un act al voinţei de a străpunge zidul gros al progresului, care te poate face stăpân pe tine însuţi, sub impulsul tendinţei de a-ţi testa şi depăşi propriile limite intelectuale.

Un lider care îşi evaluează abilităţile în lumina eşecurilor trecute, de natură ştiinţifică, dar optează pentru o schimbare de macaz, monitorizează efectele a ceea ce vrea să realizeze în funcţie de experienţa anterioară în munca de creaţie. Un fel de căutare a identităţii şi a unor răspunsuri care nu vor fi găsite foarte uşor, prin prisma a ceea ce îi oferă ştiinţa şi prin prisma a ceea ce el a acumulat de-a lungul experienței, întru lansarea unei versiuni noi de leadership.

O imagine care se comercializează este o rezultantă a experienţei anterioare în munca de creaţie atunci când regizorul scoate în prim plan subiectul propriei sale transformări de la statutul de simplu executant al unor sarcini repetitive, la cel de creator al unui "eveniment" unicat.

În timp ce „impulsul de valoare determinată la ieşire" este rodul a ceea ce ai experimentat printr-o nouă abordare a cunoaşterii. Sau mai exact, printr-o pragmatică a cunoaşterii ştiinţifice care, cu toată complexitatea structurii de date şi metodelor ei de reprezentare, reformează profund sistemul de gândire - acceptat ca un instrument de monitorizare şi autoevaluare a calităţii personale şi profesionale.

Exercitarea influenţei cu ajutorul ştiinţei asupra mentalităţii colectivităţii din care faci parte, pentru a asigura premisele unei noi direcţii de evoluţie, este posibilă numai dacă apelezi la experienţa ta anterioară în interacţiune cu forţa de creaţie şi valorile ei (mijloacele de exprimare, mesajul poetic, jocul liber al personajelor, bunul simţ al compoziţiei, simţul cromatic, descrerea, dialogul, monologul, naraţiunea, antiteza, paralela, povestirea, etc)

A aduce rod creaţiei viitoare, continuând folosirea ei în modul cel mai optim pentru activitatea profesională, este pasul cel mai dificil în procesul de materializare a unei viziuni rare care se ridică mult deasupra clişeelor şi prejudecăţilor vremii. Iar leadershipul nu poate fi perfecţionat decât dinăuntru, identificând noi variante de exprimare a propriei viziuni în acest domeniu, prin consolidarea modului de gândire şi a procesului de creaţie alocat unui nou spaţiu de afirmare personală şi profesională.

Secretul creaţiei unui artist este suma valorilor, convingerilor şi configuraţiei sale unice de personalitate transpuse într-un concept al visării, care marchează evadarea personală din planul real în cel ireal.

Leadershipul Autentic este mai degrabă un reper de profesionalism care trebuie realizat fără riscul generării unor vulnerabilităţi de ordin identitar, un experiment personal care poate aduce rezultate incredibile prin fixarea ca obiectiv principal dezvoltarea ştiinţei prin creaţie. Aşa cum artistul adaugă creaţiei o nouă creaţie, tot astfel liderul, analizând simetria dintre elementele care-i compun ştiinţa, adaugă mereu leadershipului noi opţiuni de personalizare a modelului său de performanţă prin creaţia de artă şi valoare.

Urmează-ţi vocea cu care devii celebru, fără să te pierzi navigând printre falsul adevărat, adevărul fals, adevărul adevărat şi falsul fals.

O carte interesantă este umplută cu multe flash-uri ale memoriei afective proprie unui om încărcat cu multe povestiri nespuse, din care ai ceva de învățat. Şi ea dezleagă un mister, o şaradă de genul: " Să te regăseşti navigând printre falsul adevărat, adevărul fals, adevărul adevărat şi falsul fals ", cu o intrigă provocatoare, multistratificată, înfăşurată intrinsec într-o viziune himerică, cu un rezultat imprevizibil.

Ea te face să te întrebi: "Cum naiba a reuşit el să facă toate astea". Pentru ca la final răspunsul să apară brusc: "Foarte simplu. Dar nu te-ai gândit la asta, nu-i aşa?" Interesant aici este faptul că, luând în considerare povestirea drept o prioritate în sprijinirea memoriei vieţii, putem ajunge la acele adevăruri nespuse şi neaflate de nimeni în accepţiunea că mai provocator este să creezi o viziune mai largă decât să o înveţi de la alţii, deci făcând parte din realitatea altora.

M-aş gândi la o carte ca la o tastatură: conţine multe litere, dar ordinea lor este complet diferită, şi totuşi ordinea lor are un sens foarte precis, dar nu se poate interpreta acest sens decât prin modul cum găsesc o asemănare între literatură şi computer. Cartea poate fi luată drept fundamentul metafizicii înseşi, pe care ne-o pretinde un om de ştiinţă, dar poate fi şi rezultatul consideraţiilor preliminare unei imaginaţii moderne, unei subiectivităţi mature sau ale unei ordini sociologice și lingvistice.

Asta este gândirea mea despre un subiect numit "carte" atunci când încerc să înţeleg legătura dintre cuvinte şi sensul lor, dintre vizualizarea lor şi formele lor în relaţie cu lucrurile din jur.

Leadership: Cum îţi propui să explici legătura dintre vizualizarea unei creaţii care te autentifică drept deţinător al unei cunoaşteri sofisticate şi imaginea permanentă a unei lumi în oglindă?

O lume în oglindă cuprinde amintirea unei poveşti trăită cândva şi necesitatea trăirii unei vieţi interesante prin intermediul unei aventuri de poveste, o reflecţie în două direcţii asemănătoare care propulsează autorul spre un final neaşteptat. Un final neaşteptat face ca povestea să devină nemuritoare, iar creaţia autorului să rămână o amintire vie despre ce reprezintă o imagine de mare impact.

Scriitorul român Emanuel Fântâneanu a nuanţat poveştile marilor escrocherii ale lumii, făcând comparaţie cu povestea lui Robin Hood, mai ales modul cum acest personaj de legendă şi-a găsit sfârșitul. Ucis prin înşelăciune de cine se aştepta el mai puţin: de o călugăriţă milostivă.

Întotdeauna escrocheriile cele mai reuşite au avut la bază 7 elemente: curajul, inteligenţa, fantezia, magia dublei identităţi, ascunderea parţială a adevărului, interpretarea faptelor şi deznodământul.

El îşi încheie minunată carte cu următoarea concluzie ce stabileşte legătura subtilă care uneşte toate marile escrocherii din lumea afacerilor:

Leadership: Abordezi acele expediţii de neuitat în care poţi pleca singur, fără să pui în pericol siguranţa propriei tale nebunii?

Autorul unei cărţi îşi urmăreşte întotdeauna personajul de-a lungul capitolelor regăsite în viața reală, în prezenţa propriei sale totalităţi, identificându-se cu acea ineluctabilă parte a umbrei sale care se manifestă în special prin absenţa efectelor care urmează să se producă în viitor. Adevărată nebunie începe atunci când personajul şi autorul se întâlnesc în aceeaşi creaţie, suferă împreună şi sfârşesc în acelaşi mod.

Iar dacă o carte îl reprezintă pe autorul ei atunci când el se privește din alte puncte de vedere, din afara unei zone protejate de imaginea sa (de faptele sale, de temerile sale), atunci tematica pe care el o abordează poate să surprindă ipostaza lui de „temut". Nebunia de a fi un autor poate un caracter exclusiv negativ, chiar dacă el suplimentează printr-un limbaj deosebit metoda obişnuită de a caracteriza o mare cunoaştere. Mai ales în cazul în care maniera în care este prezentat personajul principal este aceeaşi manieră în care trăieşte şi acţionează autorul în viaţa reală. Nu orice adevăr este binevenit pentru informarea publicului.

A spune totul despre tine, aducând argumente în favoarea oricărei ipostaze, este ținta unei expediţii în care pleci singur, fără să pui în pericol siguranţa propriei tale nebunii. Fiindcă destăinuirea este stâlpul adevărului, iar consecinţa "nebuniei" tale este transmiterea acelor mărturii care îţi întăresc în aşa fel puterea interioară încât să te faci remarcat doar acolo unde nu caută nimeni.

Leadership: Poţi să negi acea parte conceptului de sine care derivă din apartenența la o opţiune a adevărului, lăsând să se întrevadă doar o umbră a ceea ce rămâne dintr-o amintire, dintr-un joc numit „nebunie" sau „putere" ?

Nebunia este acea parte a conceptului de sine care derivă din apartenența la o opţiune a adevărului (greu de ascuns sub semnul realităţii ultime), fie din apartenenţa la opţiunea neantului izvorât din reducerea personajului la o "mai multă percepție fără interioritate". Ca atare, nebunia aduce argumente în favoarea ipostazei de om care trăieşte experienţa de a se confrunta cu imaginile şi semnificaţiile unui personaj ce nu permite identificarea şi analiza personală decât până la punctul care marchează acea cotitură ce ţine de mobilizarea capacităţilor sale.

Leadershipul este un demers integrat aferent celor două strategii: o strategie a spusului care seduce inevitabil prin idei îndrăzneţe şi clar conturate, și o strategie a nespusului care seduce tocmai prin faptul că omul este inaccesibil, lăsând să se întrevadă doar o umbră a ceea ce rămâne dintr-o amintire, dintr-un joc numit „nebunie" sau „putere".

Reiese din acest punct de vedere că leadershipul este o mare escrocherie, pentru că în esenţă este vorba doar de un singur om care ține lucrurile sub control și vorbeşte dozat despre el, atât cât i se pare necesar. Dar un om cu două voci, cu două dependenţe, cu două identităţi, cu două modalităţi de a face trimitere la el însuşi. Dar tu nu vei ști niciodată care este calea pe care el o urmează, nu-i aşa?

De asemenea, leadershipul se compune din aceleași 7 elemente: curajul, inteligenţa, fantezia, magia dublei identităţi, ascunderea parţială a adevărului, interpretarea faptelor şi deznodământul.

Conceptul de sine, referitor la jocul nebuniei, poate fi prezentat ca o incursiune în lumea unui Creator care se consideră şi personaj şi stăpân pe situaţie (în acelaşi timp). Trebuie să iei în considerare faptul că tot ceea ce crezi este cumva supus încercării de a fi dependent de acele legi ale realităţii care convin întru crearea unei lumi care seamănă cu a ta, dar nu e.

P.S. Întreabă-l pe Dumnezeu cum a creat lumea, dar mai întâi află cine este El. De ce își asumă puterea să ne conducă? De ce nu se arată adevărul din umbră? Iar dacă s-ar afla, care ar fi efectul? Cum naiba a reuşit el să facă toate astea?

Poate că într-un final răspunsul o să apară brusc: "Foarte simplu. Dar nu te-ai gândit la asta, nu-i aşa?"

Leadershipul de Aur se produce atunci când cantitatea spuselor tale, confecţionate din realităţi care convin mai puțin restului lumii, este egală cu valoarea ta de nespusuri care - și acum - așteaptă o lămurire.

Acest gen de leadership este utilizat de cei care ştiu să-şi consolideze avansul în jurul valorii numită “potenţial de dublă putere” sau “poziţie dominantă”.

Leadership de înalt nivel mistic

Alătură-te eroilor curajoşi într-o experienţă de mare însemnătate pentru omenire, cu convingerea că tot ceea ce se întâmplă în viaţa ta se întâmplă spre a te conduce către un viitor al schimbărilor spirituale.

Toate dificultăţile şi obstacolele pe care le-au născocit forţele obscure, prin legile aspre ale naturii care nu-şi mărturiseşte gândurile, m-au călit şi mi-au redirecţionat atenția de la ceea ce se numeşte "o răscolire a nebuniei", ca simptom al unei societăţi în derivă. Nimic din jurul meu nu mai era acelaşi ca înainte, nimic nu era altceva mai mult decât un plan machiavelic pus la cale de un Prinţ al Întunericului, căruia Apocalipsa îi era singura operă de artă pe care o putea zămisli în mijlocul unei lumi firave.

Iar mie, Gerry Lane, om de ştiinţă, mi-a revenit sarcina să descopăr mijlocul de prevenire a răspândirii virusului care a îngenunchiat lumea în faţa unei epidemii cum nu s-a mai întâlnit, a cărei origine nu putea fi stabilită prin efectuarea de analize şi teste posibile prin examinarea cadavrelor. Viaţa bate filmele, iar aceşti Zombie care apăreau tot mai mult de peste tot, băteau orice închipuire, mai ceva ca într-un horror care îţi îngheaţă sângele în vene, reușind să atingă niște frici foarte puternice - și să-l coboare pe om (la propriu) în infern.

Trecutul este opera prezentului, căci şi acum trăiesc într-o ficţiune numită: "O chemare de dincolo de necunoscut". Cu maturitatea interpretării experienței care mă recomandă pentru orice rol de acţiune, de aici o întreagă orânduire de imagini şi idei tot mai năstruşnice, privesc tot ce se petrece în umbra unei desăvârşite enigme care te incită să o descoperi, ca fiind numai a ta, spre a ajunge la obiectivitatea unei cunoaşteri de care laşitatea se ferește. Laşitatea neputinţei de a înţelege moartea printr-o boală îngrozitoare.

Leadership: Experienţele prin care treci îţi furnizează claritatea existenţei motivului pentru care crezi într-o realitate ce îţi dă speranţa că ceea ce vezi ar putea fi şi altfel?

Mistica de care eram înconjurat tot mai mult părea să fie o formă de trăire prin care omenirea era redusă la un tip de ordine inexplicabilă, care părea prin ea însăși inatacabilă prin mijloacele ştiute ale ştiinţei. Răbdător, tolerant, disciplinat, trebuia să mă mulţumesc cu trăirea distanţată ce mi-o putea oferi participarea la derularea evenimentelor din ipostaza unui observator care mai degrabă caută să înțeleagă sensul subtil al lucrurilor, în loc să le transforme în catastrofe mai mari decât sunt.

Însăşi experienţa mistică pe care o trăiam în faţa acestei boli incurabile, în faţa acestor monştri creaţi parcă în laborator, îmi furniza claritatea existenţei motivului pentru care încă mai credeam într-o salvare: ştiu de ce cred, ştiu în cine încă mai cred, ştiu că dacă mă încred în Dumnezeu, voi fi capabil să găsesc o logică în tot ceea ce se întâmplă în jurul meu. Aşadar, mistica este un act de transfer de la imaginar la real, şi invers, un act de conversiune în dublu sens - de la aparenţă la esenţă, de la simpla comparare a fenomenelor individuale la înţelegerea amplă a identităţii omului şi a realităţii lumii în care trăieşte.

Orice epidemie ascunde un înţeles tainic, fiindcă în spatele oricărei boli se ascunde planul ascuns al unei forţe spirituale, tăcute, supranaturale, care doreşte cu orice preţ să fie înţeleasă doar de cei aleşi. Continuu, mă simt atras de tot ceea ce constituie o provocare, o curiozitate a naturii, dincolo de forma psihologică a resentimentului faţă de această fatalitate invincibilă care se universalizează, faţă de acest determinism de tip viral care își joacă asul ameninţător chiar în clipa în care crezi că ai înțeles totul.

Ficţiunea este viaţa mea, în timp ce viaţa mea este viaţa unui personaj aflat în căutarea destinului, dar aflat și el în permanență între ficțiune și realitate.

De asemenea, sunt un supravieţuitor. Iar singurul motiv pentru care încă mai cred într-o realitate ce îmi dă speranţa că ceea ce văd ar putea fi şi altfel, este că trebuie să-mi dovedesc mie însumi că există un Dumnezeu şi că sunt în stare să trăiesc şi fără ajutorul lui, doar prin certitudinile raţionale ale ştiinţei. Şi, oare, acest Dumnezeu nu este tot o fiinţă umană care a găsit cheia înţelegerii tuturor lucrurilor?

Leadership: Această tranziţie a ştiinţei spre consecinţele acţiunilor pe care le întreprinzi este rezultatul unui realism care sfidează limitele verosimilului, mai ales din perspectiva unei credinţe plasată în zona ficţiunii?

Există o legătură subtilă între mistică şi ficţiune, prima scoate în evidenţă un plan ascuns în spatele tuturor evenimentelor (şi acesta serveşte evoluţiei omenirii), iar cealaltă transformă planul ascuns într-un fapt auxiliar care duce realitatea până la ruperea totală de concret. Atât mistica, cât şi ficţiunea, pot simula realitatea cu noi valenţe de unknown, de paranormal, de thriller, de calvar al supravieţuirii, până la punctul în care o persoană nu şi-ar putea da seama de diferenţa dintre o realitate generată în mod aleatoriu şi cea adevărată.

Mă simt eliberat de constrângerile "realismului", fiind programat de un plan divin greu de înţeles. Prestaţia mea de cercetător se plasează sub semnul unei ignoranţe destinale, sub semnul formei de revoltă împotriva unei cauze care nu poate fi nici prevăzută, nici înlăturată. Fără nici cea mai mică remuşcare, sunt adesea tentat să ucid ca să îmi salvez viaţa, şi astfel să descopăr noi indicii cu privire la victime. Poate că însăşi virusul a apărut doar ca să descrie acea parte a omului care continuă să existe după moarte? Nu ştiu exact, nu înţeleg prea bine mecanismul biologic al organismului infectat cu virusul năucitor, dar ştiu că eu însumi încep să devin tot mai lipsit de scrupule. Acesta este un efect colateral, bineînţeles.

O percepţie a unei minţi deschise către miracole, asta îmi lipseşte ca să-mi reîntregesc spiritul cu o altă forţă invizibilă: credinţa în ceva care mă depăşeşte, dar care este codat în genele mele, imboldul de a mă întreba, din când în când: a fi sau a nu fi interzis să-ţi laşi sufletul în vâltoarea vieţii? Căci aşa cum artistul trebuie să-şi caute nevoia de originalitate pentru a se plasa în spaţiul extraordinarului, tot astfel eu trebuie să-mi caut nevoia de a acţiona conform credinţei că un om de ştiinţă îşi va găsi puterea şi voinţa de a continua cercetările chiar şi atunci când crede că nu mai are resurse de explicare a evoluţiei lumi.

Misticul se combină cu realitatea numai într-un film plin de acţiune şi suspans, unde totul este regizat pentru mine, ca să-mi dau seama că unii pot să-l joace, iar alţii nu pot. Ei bine, nu-l înţeleg pe Dumnezeu, dar sper că El mă înţelege pe mine, sper că trece şi el odată cu mine prin ceea ce trece întreaga lume. Sper să simtă şi El ceea ce simt eu când mă aflu în mijlocul unei realităţi care cultivă mai multe îndoieli decât visuri. Sper ca Dumnezeu să fie cu mine atunci când voi muri, şi să-mi câştig viaţa veşnică prin încercarea de a mă fi transformat într-un erou al filmelor Horror.

Calea misticii este o experienţă de mare fineţe în interpretarea unei realităţi plină de semnificaţie, despre însemnătatea pe care o are transformarea lumii la nivel de "amprentă" personală pe care ţi-o laşi în numele a ceea ce este pieritor sau nepieritor.

Leadershipul de înalt nivel mistic se referă la oportunitatea de a trăi într-o realitate care nu te lasă să înţelegi adevărul evoluţiei ei. Este şi cazul unui om de ştiinţă care încearcă să găsească explicaţia unui fenomen atipic, dus la extrem pe alocuri, ca într-un final să înţeleagă că el este subiectul cel mai dificil şi exemplarul cel mai ilustrativ al experimentului numit: VIAŢĂ, din puzzelul capodoperei lui Dumnezeu.

Leadership Essentials

Învaţă să priveşti din acele puncte de vedere deosebite care se formează în jurul tău, pe baza experienţelor proprii îmbogăţite permanent cu semnificaţiile profunde ale subiectelor analizate.

Odată ajuns în Tashkent, regizorul Serghei Eisenstein cercetează cu aviditate locurile înainte de pregătirea scenariului pentru filmul "Alexander Nevsky". Miniaturile iraniene i se păreau, fireşte, totdeauna interesante, dar mult stilizate. Acum, aici, pe baza unor experienţe proprii, descoperă că miniaturiştii - care nu şi-au deformat ochiul cu o altă pictură - ştiau să privească din acele puncte de vedere deosebite care se formează în jurul lor. Ascultă relatarea unor întâmplări, legende, basme. Toate acestea se tasează în materialul documentar şi emoţional din care se va naşte scenariul.

Viziunea regizorală se dezvoltă în paralel cu ideile literare. Eisenstein nu se împiedică de clasicismul construcţiei scenaristice... Aşa cum chiar el spunea la un moment dat: "Regizorul trebuie să spargă sfânta sfintelor elementelor specifice ale scenariului literar." Doar asta a făcut el toată viaţa. *****

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri o îmbinare armonioasă între puterea cunoaşterii pe care ţi-o oferă viziunea şi posibilităţile de reînnoire ale artei cu noi cadre de orientare?

Concepţia despre artă şi idealul de stăpânire a mijloacelor ei de expresie se definitivează ca formă pură de manifestare a ideilor într-o multitudine de sensuri, prin adoptarea unui principium individuationis , favorizând o depăşire a limitelor potenţialului creator. Toate ideile se nasc şi se modifică pe tot parcursul poziţionării tale într-un spaţiu de analiză şi reflecţie, considerat un factor esenţial de expansiune a funcţionalităţii proprii, un catalizator al procesului de inovare.

Pentru a putea accesa toate funcţiile ştiinţei care returnează valori cu tendințe exponențiale de creştere, calculate pentru o anumită proporţie de raţionament şi cunoaştere (întemeiate pe observaţie şi pe întrebări) în care se găseşte amestecul de subiectiv şi obiectiv, trebuie să fii capabil să recunoşti esenţialul. Acel esenţial care cel mai adesea scapă oricărei logici, oricărei încercări de etichetare, oricărei aprecieri sau previziuni.

Esenţialul este un măsurător foarte fin al sublimului, pentru că dă sens mai larg sau mai puţin forţat unor înţelesuri favorabile care zugrăvesc regulile creaţiei. Esenţialul este ceea ce surprinzi nou la un moment dat în timp ce se derulează. Dacă vrei să-ţi dezvolţi potenţialul creativ trebuie să aranjezi totul încât să surprinzi "noul" într-un fel la care nimeni nu se aşteaptă.

Cunoaşterea îţi este oferită de viziune atunci când reuşeşti să formezi conturul unei imagini al cărei conţinut este sugerat de acea intuiţie care te ajută să extragi esenţa din aglomeraţia de date înconjurătoare, conducând la conceperea unui proiect cu miză interesantă.

Dacă vrem să descoperim noi abordări ale leadershipului cu aceeaşi precizie şi meticulozitate cu care analizăm arta, atunci creaţia trebuie să se conformeze conceptului de „scenariu viu” – iar pentru aceasta este primordială formularea unor noţiuni decisive pentru procesul de iniţiere în tainele regiei de film.

Datorită eficienţei sale, leadershipul se remarcă printr-o utilizare tot mai frecventă a resurselor care pot să favorizeze declanşarea unor noi abordări de subiect, pe baza experienţei de exploatare a surselor de inspiraţie. Subiectele analizate reprezintă acele puncte de interes care contribuie la dezvoltarea unei viziuni aparte asupra conţinutului creaţiei, în evoluţia raportului dintre imaginaţie şi realitate, sub presiunea unei anumite tensiuni de cunoaştere.

Leadership: Încerci să eviţi condiţia de consistenţă a unei singure idei de luat în considerare chiar dacă ea îşi arogă meritul de a deturna firescul către ceva aparte?

Liderii focalizaţi asupra dezvoltării şi utilizării cunoştinţelor ştiu să privească acel potenţial de forme de conţinuturi care promovează un ideal al autenticităţii, din acele puncte de vedere deosebite care se formează în jurul lor, pe baza experienţelor proprii îmbogăţite permanent cu semnificaţiile profunde ale subiectelor analizate.

Cadrele de orientare, care satisfac posibilităţile de reînnoire ale artei, sunt de fapt conceptele de impact major care pot fi folosite în creaţia autentică, a căror înţelegere şi sferă de cuprindere este direct legată de aptitudinea de a discerne realitatea exterioară în modul cel mai obiectiv posibil. Dar totodată într-un mod care să te determine să îţi doreşti să afli mai multe lucruri despre subiectul abordat.

O idee îşi arogă meritul de a deturna firescul către ceva aparte atunci când subiectul real pe care îl abordezi se raportează la o actualitate continuă care nu constă într-o simplă suită de fapte şi de evenimente, ci în ecourile pe care acestea le produc în spaţiul public, în sfera culturală, în viaţa şi în conştiinţele oamenilor.

Leadership Essentials vizează în principal toate acele demersuri desfășurate în vederea promovării și menținerii unei stări adecvate a științei, la nivel optim, prin căutare de noi semnificaţii şi extensii ale conceptelor abordate, prin schimbare de stil şi prin însăşi varietatea creaţiei. Aici trebuie luată în calcul capacitatea liderului de a fi mereu în actualitate, îmbogăţindu-şi ştiinţa „în pas cu vremurile", dar şi ridicând-o la nivel de artă.

Leadership Existenţial

Descoperă toate efectele cumulate ale unei schimbări de sine, retrăind acele senzaţii de tipul "Sunt viu, plin".

N-am altă cale de a mă înrudi cu fiinţa pe care mi-am ales-o ca purtătoare a puterii mele de autodepăşire, decât lansându-mă într-o căutare a artisticului, privind înspre un dincolo de aici şi acum, căruia trebuie să îi trec numaidecât hotarul. E şi asta un fel de a mă înţelege cu timpul în privinţa a ceea ce trebuie să trăiesc ca să pot recunoaşte dimensiunea detaliului care face din însăşi viaţa mea o opera de artă, un ecoul al sentimentului de frumos investit cu funcţia de schiţare iniţială a unui tablou sau a diverselor lui detalii într-un rămas bun de la vechile idei şi obişnuinţe.

Nu am cui să mă spovedesc, când timpurile îşi desfac întreaga lor recoltă pe tărâmurile fermecate ale spiritualităţii pe care mulţi au uitat să mai umble, decât hârtiei dreptunghiulare în care scrisul sincer – ca o pedeapsă uşoară – va răsuna puternic peste veacuri.

Continui să înşir rânduri, cu acel exces de pozitivitate care face ca problemele omenești să pară mai puţin tenebroase, tot aşa cum Napoleon îşi aşternea pe hârtie gândurile victorioase cu o zi înaintea bătăliei de la Austerlitz, între prăpastia unei margini de siguranţă şi nebunia unei clipe oarbe.

Şirurile lungi de gânduri, împrăştiate pe harta unei lumi închipuite dintr-o altă ecuaţie a sublimului, între coordonatele întrebărilor şi răspunsurilor, rămân laudă, mărturie şi învinuire. Depinde de ziua ce urmează să vie.

Leadership: Eşti dispus să experimentezi cele mai înalte standarde de rafinament şi o meticuloasă măiestrie a unei capodopere prin unificarea contrariilor dintre esenţa vieţii şi aparenţa din imaginarul povestirii ei?

Nu pot cu niciun chip să-mi dau seama cine sunt, între atâtea spaţii, goluri şi plinuri ce stabilesc aria hârtiei. Neaşteptat, intru în legătură directă cu influenţa unei fascinaţii stranii. Simt că devin parte a unui univers în care este conţinut un potenţial infinit de modelare şi remodelare a realităţii. Cum să fugi din calea un Austerlitz al minţii, între atâtea momente, cadre şi episoade mişcătoare, prezente în perimetrul mirific al unei existenţe ce încă nu și-a consumat liniştile şi neliniştile?

Îmi amintesc de lucrătorul acela epuizat dintr-o fabrică, care după dureroasa experienţă a solitudinii se înapoiază la ţară, acolo unde simte că îşi are rădăcinile. Contactul cu pământul îi prilejuieşte revelaţia vocaţiei sale, ajutându-l să umple vidul interior.

Ceea ce mă face și pe mine să mă întreb: Oare foaia de hârtie, cu ale ei cuvinte desprinse direct din sufletul unei chemări către ceea ce este autentic, va umple oare și ceea ce încă nu știu despre mine? Sunt dispus să experimentez cele mai înalte standarde de rafinament şi o meticuloasă măiestrie a unei capodopere, prin unificarea contrariilor dintre esenţa vieţii şi aparenţa din imaginarul povestirii ei, cu o singura conditie: de a nu deveni sclavul unei ratiuni suprasolicitate de efortul urmăririi neîncetate a propriilor viziuni şi ambiţii.

Leadership: Contactul cu ceea ce contează să împlineşti prilejuieşte revelaţia vocaţiei tale în lupta dintre ceea ce se vede şi ceea ce se ascunde, dintre realitatea exterioară şi imaginaţia de basm?

Imperiul unui intelect fără reguli cuprinde cuvintele, iar cuvintele, chiar împrăştiate şi aglomerate, pot învinge lumea. Cine ştie să citească urmele lor va vedea o aşteptare în umbra unui timp care se scurge, în bătaia unei rafale puternice de trăiri contradictorii.

Numai un anumit număr de reprezentări imaginare pot deveni realitate, într-un anumit moment al timpului, în îngustimea sau generozitatea conştiinţei. Încearcă să explici, dacă poţi, lupta dintre stări şi refularea sau admiterea acestora în conştiinţă. Nu-ţi poţi închipui câte sensuri îţi rezervă singularitatea, uşoare de manevrat ca un vis frumos, sau grele de pătruns ca un stejar cu mii şi mii de rădăcini înfipte într-un pământ de "cumpănă".

Ca să înțelegem leadershipul trebuie să surprindem temporar imaginea omului prins într-o realitate a cărei constantă este interpretarea într-o anume cheie a povestirii vieţii sale, formată dintr-o succesiune de atitudini, momente emoţionale, reacţii, care pătrund în jos pe calea principiului de cauză şi efect. Apoi să ne întoarcem busola spre omul nou, evoluat într-o unitate de timp măsurată prin filtrarea convingerilor pe care el le nutreşte cu privire la realitatea acestei schimbări de imagine, de sine.

Vocaţia este acea predispoziție pentru un anumit domeniu de activitate sau pentru o anumită profesiune, dar care este întreţinută de creşterea treptată a acceptării de sine. Ar trebui să facă înconjurul lumii cuvintele scriitorului român George Sbârcea: „Contactul cu ceea ce contează de fapt prilejuieşte revelaţia vocaţiei tale, ajutându-te să travesteşti vidul interior în conştiinţa împăcată a omului care îşi află propriile tipare."

Ceea ce contează să împlineşti în viaţă este rostul unei povestiri care are un anumit sens pentru cel ce o parcurge din perspectiva eroului care îşi împlineşte destinul prin vocaţia, mereu reconfirmată, a definirii de sine în relaţie cu o nouă realitate.

Un portret sugestiv este reflectat printr-o analiză introspectivă de mare acuitate. Să te descoperi prin întoarcerea la tine, la starea de bine, la credința că poți reconfigura harta despre lume și viață, să prilejuieşti alte alegeri care să favorizeze plinătatea ta în lumina a ceea ce ai mai bun și mai durabil, sunt niște procese care intră în alcătuirea rostului vieții.

Leadershipul Existenţial se referă la putinţa acceptării de sine, încadrată într-o formă afectivă de interes real îndreptat spre o anumită direcţie de tipul " Sunt viu, plin ". Oamenii de mare valoare și-au dobândit capacitatea de a-şi evalua viața și de a o trăi altfel, prin prisma a ceea ce rezultă din formele de exercitare a profesiei, în special din procesul de creaţie.

Nu este de ajuns să fii înzestrat cu viziune pentru a întruni cerinţele leadershipului existenţial. Ci este necesar, pentru a evolua din punct de vedere al orientării pe care o are concepţia ta despre lume, să asimilezi acea capacitate de receptare a semnalelor interne: emoţii şi senzaţii, care te ajuta să devii o fiinţă umană spirituală înaltă.

Leadership în numele evenimentelor Urmăreşte traiectoria plină de neprevăzut a evenimentelor, poziţionându-te pe traiectoria unor reuşite de rezonanţă care pun la încercare valoarea variabilei „challenge".

Sunt Gerry Lane. Un instinct al supravieţuirii mă favorizează în lupta pentru existenţă, prea aducător de sacrificii într-un proces menţinut al hazardului, în timp ce privesc agresivitatea drept o patologie a firii care nu s-a încrezut niciodată în pericol şi apoi a descoperit brusc că era unul iminent şi mortal.

Nu cumva există o secvenţă de ADN în natura cronică a infecţiilor cu risc de producere a leziunilor cerebrale, generând deteriorarea violentă a funcţiilor de coordonare motorie ce culminează cu apariţia tulburărilor de comportament? Ce anume face atât de agresivă această secvenţă de ADN care controlează exprimarea unor gene bacteriene de rezistenţă la orice antibiotic, producând mutaţii genetice grave capabile să transforme radical fiinţa umană?

Ritmul gândirii mele articulat pe date neconvingătoare, poziţia constantei mele de determinare a unei noţiuni prin eliminarea a ceea ce o neagă, corelat cu indicele de coroziune a zonelor afectate de une maladie qui produit tant de noms , corespunde organic cu temperatura stresului pe care îl resimt înaintea unui meci cu moartea. Viaţa mea, care coincide cu „naşterea tragediei", deschide o primă galerie secretă în sânul viitorului trecut prin lovitura dată prezentului numită: "Survive the Zombie hordes alone" ca şi consecinţă a inevitabilelor inadvertenţe genetice.

Pentru a ameliora manifestările agresive şi pentru a contracara efectele distrugătoare ale mutaţiilor asupra celulelor, organismul trebuie să dezvolte mecanisme de reparare a ADN-ului. În ce fel trebuie să mă expun pericolului, cum să îmi poziţionez mai bine competenţele în faţa unui eveniment atât de improbabil care să asigure găsirea unui remediu, proces atât de mult condiţionat de hazard – fundamental asemănător cu ceva din mine care caută doar senzaţionalul?

Leadership: Care este urmarea evenimentului singular condiţionat de slujirea unui scop de tipul „This is impossible. Unless…" din care rezida măreţia fiinţei tale?

Geneticianul francez Francois Jacob spunea că cea mai importantă reuşită în domeniul ştiinţei pleacă de la observaţie: să priveşti unirea a două celule germinale, a două microuniversuri ce ascund destinul unui viitor individ, să vezi formarea primei celule şi să-i urmăreşti traiectoria plină de neprevăzut, supusă capriciilor mediului, oricând victima unei erori genetice.

Meditez prin instrucțiunile puse la dispoziție de natura înconjurătoare. Iar meandrele meditaţiei sunt urmărite de o singură întrebare: după felul cum se prezintă lucrurile, din anumite acţiuni care contrazic tot ceea ce cunosc despre viață din perspectiva medicinii, pot oare să extrag o informație cheie?

Tot timpul a fost la vedere boala. De ce nu m-am gândit să folosesc însăşi boala împotriva acestor Zombies? Fiinţele astea au o slăbiciune. Și acea slăbiciune este chiar slăbiciunea. Slăbiciunea noastră. Există şi un precedent. Prădătorii înfometați evită cadavrele infestate datorită unui patogen pe care acestea îl răspândesc.

Din urmarea evenimentului singular condiţionat de scopul „This is impossible, unless.." poate să rezide măreţia fiinţei mele. Dar un asemenea eveniment, rezultat al unui experiment nebunesc, cere o misiune de sacrificiu care să aducă imediat informații preţioase. Trebuie să mă infectez din proprie vointă cu un agent patogen cu risc ridicat de manifestare, ca Tifos, H1N1 sau Sars, și apoi să mă întâlnesc faţă în faţă cu un Zombie.

Ţipătul unic al victoriei rezidă dintr-o realitate de tip "I can't believe I did it" , din corelaţia scurtelor fragmente dintre anumite întâmplări accidentale la care sunt constrâns să meditez. El se zbate în imediata apropiere a câmpului de observaţie printr-un proces de inferenţă de tip deductiv. Totodată, el este un răspuns la proverbul "Niciodată nu e prea târziu să mă sacrific eu însumi"

Măreția în leadership nu se naște din dorinţa de a te poziţiona superior faţă de ceilalți oameni, ci din capacitatea de a te poziţiona mai presus de cursul evenimentelor oferind o nouă versiune a lor prin activarea motivaţiei de sacrificiu.

Natura umană se înscrie, dincolo de experienţele și lecțiile momentelor care marchează viața, în structurile de concepție ale unei probe psihologice prin care se măsoară nu doar aptitudinile cognitive sau fizice, ci mai ales superba sinceritate a curajului de a te auto-motiva să aduci schimbarea printr-o acceptare a ceea ce ești dispus să renunți: uneori la tine.

Activarea și predominanţa unei motivaţii puternice, care conduce la obţinerea de performanțe unice, ia în considerare unicitatea pe care o imprimi în eternitatea clipei de cumpănă care punctează istoria și schimbă mersul lumii.

Leadershipul în numele evenimentelor are ca punct de plecare însăşi condiţia omului de a se consacra slujirii unui ţel nobil în vremuri neprielnice.

Leadership în numele vieții

Concentrează-te asupra riscului pe care ți-l asumi pe cont propriu atunci când imaginea ta pendulează între seninul pe care-l ştii bine preţui și întunecosul pe care ești constrâns să-l suporţi.

Simţeam că am făcut ceva îngrozitor, o lucrare a minţii într-un loc neașteptat, la ora la care o zi se sfârşeşte şi cealaltă e la început. La ora la care timpul rămâne suspendat între reflexia unei realități ascunse în care eram doar un muritor, cu plusurile și cu minusurile specifice unui personaj principal dintr-un science fiction captivant, şi reflexia unei formule de emancipare autentice care eliberează și totodată asuprește.

Nu din teamă sau din vreo complexitate nebănuită îmi refuzam încărcătura morală a unui nou început, dreptul la vinovăție, ispăşirea pedepsei de a rămâne unicul supraviețuitor, nefiind capabil să trec într-o faza matură de revelație. Ci pur și simplu senzaţia de a fi făcut ceva peste limitele normalului ajută mereu învingătorii să se bucure de victorie, retrăgându-se paşnic în locuri pustii, dar fertile unei reconsiderări a fragilităţii existenţei.

Ca un hoţ care intră prin uşa din dos și tot pe-acolo iese, prin aplicarea principiilor unei noi descoperiri a geneticii, la capătul fiecărei tentative de a mă lăsa prins în ghearele unui sfârşit care îşi anunţa tot mai mult sosirea, mi-am continuat incursiunea spre necunoscutul unor ipoteze de evoluţie a bolii tot mai răspândite, dintre numeroasele capitole ale patologiei secundare. Întrebându-mă pe un ton obiectiv: "De ce am rămas în viaţă? De ce tocmai eu?"

Leadership: Îți găseşti puterea voinţei de a te reprezenta singur în cadrul unei lumi a cărei schimbare ireversibilă o poți percepe numai prin reproducerea tiparelor unei predeterminări?

Eu însumi, cu propria-mi conştiinţă, spre împăcarea cu sine, cu destinul meu la fel de ameninţător ca un rege supărat pe supuşii săi, care în dramă şi tragedie este întotdeauna implacabil, vădeam în sentimentele pe care le exprimam - frică, frustrare, îndoială, mânie - o întoarcere la credința într-o lume în care numai ştiinţa şi tehnica deschid orizonturi inimaginabile. La umanitatea văzută prin raza de soare a unei minuni numită: „Inspiraţie".

Adevărata biruinţă a omului se vădeşte în receptarea adecvată a unei imagini de sine din care ia naștere reflexia unei forme de emancipare. A supravieţui într-o lume sfârșită reprezintă diagnosticul motivului parcurgerii unei faze spirituale de la cel mai de jos nivel la cel mai înalt. Sau invers.

Parcă maestrul Botticelli era cel care a spus că poţi arunca un burete îmbibat cu vopsea pe un perete şi să vezi o mulţime de imagini diferite în petele produse, veritabile puncte de plecare pentru idei.

În același fel, mintea mea suprapunea pe motivele și sursele pline de inspiraţie extrase din tiparele unei predeterminări, posibilitatea sensului unei săgeți divine, unei lucrări de artă veritabilă compusă din forța atotputernică a medicinii și istorisirea unui nou început de drum.

Puterea personală este rezultatul conştientizării riscului pe care ți-l asumi pe cont propriu atunci când imaginea ta pendulează între seninul pe care-l ştii bine preţui și întunecosul pe care ești constrâns să-l suporţi.

Cu neputinţă de explicat, chinuindu-mă să înţeleg firul logic al concluziilor ce trebuiau înţelese printr-o asumare a ascunsului unui regret absolut, comparat cu trăirile complexe ale unui fugitiv şi condamnat la moarte, ştiinţa pe care o consideram călăuza acestui joc mortal era doar un prim pas spre o uniune mai strânsă cu impulsul agresiv al virusului care infectase omenirea.

Senzaţia de a sta permanent la pândă, într-o continuă activare a conexiunii cu opţiunile unei morfologii plină de contraste, prin asocierea unui decor al absurdului vieţii, enigmatic ca un fel de cheie a unui poem dintr-o altă limbă, devenind un aspect central al filozofiei chimiei, era semnul unei emancipări individuale autentice, prima mea experienţă într-un escape room.

Adevărata putere care se ascunde în spatele autenticităţii se manifesta atunci când intri într-o cameră ce se află într-o lume, și ieși afară într-alta.

Adevărata putere care-ţi onorează statutul de promotor al conducerii prin valori și puncte tari este să te găseşti pe tine însuți în prezenţa originalităţii unei opere încărcate cu reflexivitate atunci când imaginea din jur devine tot mai ştearsă.

Leadershipul în numele vieţii are ca punct de coincidenţă însăşi condiţia omului de a se consacra în roluri pozitive, slujirii unui ideal înalt numit: credință.

Credința este fidelitatea faţă de ceea ce se câștigă prin inspiraţie atunci când pierzi tot ceea ce ai investit în tine. Înseamnă să câştigi prin autenticitate și revelaţie singurul lucru care contează cu adevărat: sensul existenței într-o lume dură, complexă şi tot mai neînţeleasă.

Leadership în ritm de tango

Întreţine cât mai bine „motorul" care permite funcţionarea oamenilor, pentru ca ei să se încadreze în ritmul exact al leadershipului tău.

În filmul „ Parfum de femeie (1982) " există o scenă de neuitat în care orbul - locotenentul colonel în rezervă, Frank Slade, pradă unui zbucium interior care nu-i mai dădea pace, vrea să-şi pună definitiv capăt zilelor. Charlie Simms, care trebuia să aibă grijă de el, încearcă să-l oprească, spunându-i cu teamă în suflet să-şi continue viaţa.

- Ce viaţă? Eu n-am viaţă. Trăiesc în întuneric. Pricepi? Trăiesc în întuneric... Dă-mi un motiv pentru care să nu mor !

Atunci, Charlie, care era pe punctul de a-şi pierde nădejdea, îi răspunde:

- Vă dau două motive. Dansaţi tango şi conduceţi Ferrari mai bine ca oricine... În viaţă, dacă te încurci, continuă să dansezi !

Leadership: Îţi antrenezi capacitatea de a surprinde nuanţele unor contexte aparent imposibile de gestionat din care să extragi acea însuşire a raţiunii de a produce efecte cu ajutorul virtuţii?

Charlie Simms a înţeles foarte bine ce simte locotenentul şi a ştiut unde să bată, a ştiut pe ce buton să apese ca să-i schimbe acestuia atitudinea negativă şi auto-distrugătoare. Ştiind că una din pasiunile cele mai mari ale locotenentului era dansul, Charlie i-a spus: „ În viaţă, dacă te încurci, continuă să dansezi. " Frumos !

Charlie a găsit pârghia potrivită prin care să controleze emoţiile locotenentului, acea pârghie care transmite energia propulsoare necesară refacerii forţelor sale. A identificat foarte bine acel element puternic care putea să-i stimuleze lui Frank dorinţa de viaţă.

Ca lider, trebuie să găseşti pârghia potrivită pentru a ajunge la nivelul la care poţi schimba ceva în viaţa oamenilor, trebuie să găseşti acel „ceva" prin care să păstrezi lucid şi viu în oameni spiritul care îi animă, să recunoşti acea esenţă unică de energie din ei care să poată să reînvie speranţa lor.

Însuşirea dominantă a caracterului tău se măsoară prin demonstrarea abilităţii de a te ridica la un înalt nivel de înţelegere şi simţire, trecând de la o etapă de obligaţie la cea de necesitate. Virtutea se prezintă ca un fond fără forme dacă nu este ridicată la rang de spirit civic: "dacă altul nu face, fii pregătit să faci tocmai tu".

Leadershipul se sprijină pe utilitatea individuală şi totală "TU" care corespunde motivaţiei de a lămuri scopul şi motivul existenţei omului.

Nicio operă - fie ea un leadership necesar bunei cunoaşteri de sine, fie o mască nefirească a unei dorinţi de ascundere a sentimentelor - nu poate fi interpretată în afara contextului în care omul se regăseşte. Leadershipul reprezintă, în trecerea de la planul extern (material) la cel intern (emoţional), doar o parte dintr-un imens flux de impresii de mare forţă, care ajung să influenţeze şi să definească omul în ansamblul factorilor de motivare care sunt în măsură să influenţeze comportamentul său în situaţiile în care nu este sigur pe sine.

Leadershipul tău este o datorie de împlinit apărută ca urmare a unor experienţe de viaţă trecute şi a interpretării pe care o acorzi acelor experienţe?

Un mediu realist, care nu oferă echilibrul necesar între puterea absolută şi manevrabilitatea simţirilor care-l învăluie pe om, testându-i tăria de caracter, devine deosebit de solicitant, neregulat şi tot mai greu de acceptat. Astfel, ne este tot mai greu să înţelegem şi să gestionăm în mod diferit raţiunea care stă în spatele deciziilor de atingere a unui nivel de conştiinţă mai înalt, în care suferinţele dispar.

Ne este greu să surprindem modelele cuprinzătoare de gândire şi de relaţionare cu mediul social şi cu propria individualitate a liderului, dacă ceea ce rămâne dincolo de rutină sau tranziţie, apropiindu-ne cu repeziciune de frontierele înţelegerii omeneşti, nu este mai întâi o încercare de a trăi continuu perfecţiunea, în baza unei vocaţii interioare, a unui ideal de împlinire lăuntrică, prin ceilalţi.

Aşa este. Leadershipul nu este constant în diferitele ecuaţii ale existenţei, dar merită atributul de autentic în măsura în care se întâlneşte cu necunoscute de orice fel, încurajatoare, dar mai ales descurajante. Leadershipul este doar unul din multele canale de comunicaţie cu propriul sine, prin care circulă imaginea unor versiuni a ceea ce ai devenit ca urmare a unor experienţe de viaţă trecute şi a interpretării pe care o acorzi acelor experienţe.

Leadership: Te impui ca un moment important din viaţa omului, mai ales prin conţinutul pe care îl creezi şi care reflectă plenar concepţia ta despre Sinele tău?

Un sentiment de neputinţă bate deseori în inimile tuturor oamenilor în momentele dificile ale vieţii lor. Este acel sentiment care le întunecă mintea, care le scade randamentul, care le aduce numai tristeţe şi regrete, este acel sentiment care le grăbeşte „sfârşitul". Motivaţia lor scade, motorul care le antrenează toate simţurile, acel motor care le dă speranţă, care le oferă energia şi dorinţa de a munci şi de a se bucura de fiecare moment al vieţii nu-şi mai îndeplineşte cum trebuie funcţiile sale, îşi pierde din capacitatea de funcţionare.

Ca lider, datoria ta este să înţelegi foarte bine limitările motorului care permite funcţionarea în mod eficient a acelor zone care guvernează mentalitatea şi atitudinea oamenilor. Trebuie să fii capabil să ajungi la componentele vitale ale motorului şi să optimizezi performanţele sale, ca în final să produci mai multă putere. Şi, în acelaşi timp, trebuie să speculezi orice eroare care ar putea să producă oprirea motorului.

Felul cum experimentezi leadershipul reflectă plenar concepţia ta despre Sinele tău: cu cât îţi dai seama mai bine ce eşti gata să dai celuilalt, cu atât eşti mai pregătit să îţi accepţi propria viaţă. Iar cu cât eşti mai capabil să îţi înţelegi şi să-ţi exprimi emoţiile pe care le încerci faţă de cineva, cu atât se va amplifica puterea lor de a se reinventa.

Leadership în ritm de tango sugerează echilibrul armonios şi susţinut între tine şi cei din jurul tău. Leadershipul este asemenea unui dans producător de energie ale cărui mişcări se produc pe un anumit ritm. Dar trebuie să ştii toţi paşii şi să faci mişcările la timpul potrivit, trebuie să-ţi păstrezi o anumită atitudine, un anumit mod de gândire, să înţelegi toate dedesubturile bine conturate ale artei de a conduce, trebuie să creezi unitate găsind un mod constructiv de a întări simţămintele celorlalţi, trebuie să ştii să activezi acea caracteristică a oamenilor care îi determină să-şi continue dezvoltarea personală.

Aşa cum puterea de convingere şi de emoţionare a unui tablou se datorează în primul rând vibraţiei sufleteşti pe care artistul o transmite prin intermediul imaginii - tot aşa puterea ta de influenţă se datorează în primul rând intensităţii emoţiei pe care le-o transmiţi oamenilor în clipele grele. Numai prin intermediul atitudinii tale şi a capacităţii tale de a induce motivaţia, numai prin impulsul plin de entuziasm şi de energie pe care oamenii îl primesc de la tine îţi vei putea desăvârşi influenţa.

Dă-le oamenilor un impuls puternic de schimbare a atitudinii trezind înăuntru lor un sentiment de putinţă care să zdruncine din temelii orice urmă de îndoială faţă de Eul lor. Întreţine cât mai bine „motorul" care permite funcţionarea oamenilor, pentru ca ei să se încadreze în ritmul exact al leadershipului tău.

Concluzie: Tango-ul este un dans cu un ritm aparte, care se potriveşte numai anumitor temperamente şi care impune o perfectă concordanţă a celor doi parteneri. Pentru un tango reuşit, unul dintre parteneri trebuie să conducă stabilind ritmul, iar celălalt partener trebuie să adopte acel ritm.

În leadership trebuie să adopţi acest ritm de tango, iar modul în care îl impui depinde de tine – liderul. Găseşte căile adecvate de a creşte motivaţia oamenilor, dar şi de a creşte performanţele lor. Doar aşa cei doi parteneri (tu şi oamenii) se vor apropia de ţelul comun prin îmbunătăţirea performanţelor, prin adoptarea unei atitudini potrivite şi proactive faţă de schimbare (inclusiv comportamentală), şi prin alinierea la ritmul accelerat impus de vremurile actuale.

Leadership în vederea stabilirii scopului grandios

On Mai 29, 2020

Fii pregătit să concepi semnificaţia esenţială a existenţei tale din perspectiva unei priviri care ghiceşte suferinţele ce te aşteaptă, fiind hotărât să le înduri în numele unui destin care îşi asumă o istorie.

Columb şi Magellan ne-au învăţat că mult mai important decât să-ţi stabileşti scopuri îndrăzneţe este să pluteşti drept înainte chiar dacă nu vezi nimic în faţa ta.

Şi nu doar să înaintezi, ci să te smulgi din ghearele imposibilului, să faci faţă obstacolelor, să fii sărac, să te loveşti de neîncrederea tuturor oamenilor, să fii părăsit de toţi prietenii, de familie, să fii urmărit numai de primejdii, să întreprinzi nenumărate călătorii absurde şi fără rezultat, să fii de cel puţin 20 de ori la un pas mic de moarte, dar să ai noroc de fiecare dată. Să ai răbdare vreo 25 de ani plini de încercări, şi abia atunci când nu mai e nicio speranţă, abia atunci poate, doar poate, ţi se va arăta ceva la orizont.

Când nu mai ai niciun prieten, când toţi din jur sunt împotriva ta, când eşti singurul care mai crede într-o himeră, când pluteşti tot timpul în derivă cu o navă complet avariată, mai trebuie să ştii să improvizezi şi să foloseşti multe trucuri…doar ca să supravieţuieşti.

Ajungi la un moment dat să nu mai crezi în nimeni şi nimic, mai rămâne doar să-ţi legi câte o ghiulea de fiecare picior şi să te arunci în ocean, înainte să fii omorât cu bestialitate de echipajul tău atât de plin de furie. Şi chiar atunci când eşti decis să faci acest pas, cu câteva clipe înainte, să primeşti o veste salvatoare: iată ţărmul.

Abia atunci ajungi să-l cunoşti pe Dumnezeu. Tu şi doar tu. Iar Dumnezeu se ascunde în dosul faptelor cu adevărat grandioase, făcute să arate diferenţa dintre ce este trecător şi ce este durabil, dintre ceea ce suntem ca simpli muritori şi ceea ce ar fi trebuit să devenim într-un plan superior al destinului, într-un periplu spiritual mai amplu. Bineînţeles, fără să ne mustrăm pe noi înşine pentru a fi comis "păcatul" de a ne fi ridicat la înălţimea unor pretenţii prea înalte.

Cam aşa stau lucrurile cu stabilirea scopurilor grandioase. Ele sunt aproape inutile în faţa a ceea ce te aşteaptă în viitor. Aşadar, înainte să-ţi stabileşti scopuri îndrăzneţe, ar fi bine să te înarmezi cu încă vreo 25-30 de ani de tortură fizică, psihică şi emoţională.

Ar fi bine să fii foarte puternic. Şi, mai mult decât atât, ar fi bine să ai mult noroc, căci pericolele şi moartea vor fi permanent lângă tine. Aşteptând…să renunţi.

Există, oare, Dumnezeu? Şi dacă există, va fi oare lângă tine?

Leadership: Unicitatea vieţii pe care o traversezi îţi pune motivaţia sub semnul îndoielii din perspectiva unui destin uimitor care se prezintă drept ştiinţă şi viziune despre lume, fără să fie nici una nici cealaltă?

Totul se întâmplă în urma stabilirii scopului care te motivează, dar până în punctul în care motivaţia nu mai poate să sprijine realizarea scopului urmărit. Observăm aici, pe de o parte un fel de ambiţie nemăsurată care îi ajută pe unii oameni să se avânte în necunoscut, cât mai departe de realitatea lumii, pe de altă parte un soi de fierbere interioară care duce omul până la limitele insuportabilităţii, atunci când viaţa devine oglinda morţii ştearsă de Dumnezeu cu preţul uitării de sine.

Prin consideraţiile pe care tocmai le-am făcut, am intenţionat să realizez, măcar într-un chip provizoriu, o caracterizare a demersului victorios văzut drept gândire atotcuprinzătoare a unui singur personaj, a unui vizionar încăpăţânat aflat în "marea căutare" a sensului vieţii şi a voii lui Dumnezeu.

Acest demers vizează întregul unei viziuni impuse de cursul istoriei, de momentele ei grele, prin fiecare abordare destinată eşecului, nu doar măsurarea rezultatelor finale, glorioase sau deznădăjduitoare. Fiecare demers ce vizează finalitatea întregului context de călătorie, de la un loc la altul, îl cuprinde în sine pe omul care se sacrifică, punându-l sub semnul îndoielii din perspectiva a ceea ce poate să îndure şi din perspectiva a ceea ce el poate să descopere.

Am încercat să caracterizez întregul destin al omului dintr-o perspectivă care pare a fi una psihologică, de vreme ce am vorbit de atâtea ori despre ambiguitatea unei realități exigente (concomitent cu îndepărtarea sau apropierea ei de o descoperire fulminantă). Iar acest destin uimitor, adesea greu de înţeles, poartă urmele unei dureri învinse, a sacrificiului acceptat fără crâcnire, plăcut doar lui Dumnezeu, în numele unei idei ce nu ţine seama de unicitatea vieţii individuale a învingătorului şi a semenilor lui. Este însemnătatea "ducerii crucii".

Ducerea crucii este o reconstituire a traseului parcurs cu mari dificultăţi, prin sacrificiul acceptat în numele unei idei ce ţine seama de unicitatea vieţii individuale a învingătorului care îşi exercită providenţa în faţa unei descoperiri măreţe.

Această ducere a crucii se prezintă drept ştiinţă şi viziune despre lume, fără să fie nici una nici cealaltă, mai degrabă punând în evidenţă un sentiment tragic în faţa existenţei, mai ales suferinţele ce trebuiesc îndurate, o tresărire covârşitoare a inimii, un zbucium al vieţii plin de un sens profund tragic. Ea ne aduce într-o stare de incertitudine în care nu mai ştim dacă destinul este sau nu ştiinţă şi viziune despre lume.

Pentru sufletul unui învingător, important este deznodământul suprem, nu drumul plin de suferinţă şi de primejdii, pe care trebuie să-l parcurgă sub îndrumarea unui Dumnezeu care oferă nemurirea doar celui ce sacrifică totul pentru El. Tocmai din acest unghi trebuie să concepem problema existenţei, adică din această aventură riscantă şi dureroasă a "ducerii crucii", o fărâmă eternă din suferinţa unui Dumnezeu care nu aparţine de nimeni, dar şi din perspectiva împlinirii existenţei supreme, prin finalizarea unei călătorii pe care nimeni nu o poate face în locul tău.

Mai trebuie să recunoaştem că trăsăturile esenţiale ale unui învingător sunt expresia firească a unui suflet agitat de conflicte foarte mari, de neconciliat, care îşi găseşte izbăvirea abia la finalul călătoriei. Aşadar, deosebirea dintre un învingător şi un pierzător are legătură cu acea privire aruncată în nowhere care parcă ghiceşte suferinţele ce-l aşteaptă, fiind totuşi hotărât să le îndure, fiindcă acesta îi este destinul dinainte ales de Dumnezeu. Învingătorul acceptă de bună voia, fără revoltă, a unui destin plin de încercări şi riscuri, prin împlinirea sacrificiului. Pe când pierzătorul îi opune o rezistenţă viguroasă.

Leadershipul este tăria de a te ridica la înălţimea şi responsabilitatea poziţiei pe care o deţii sub povara unui destin hotărât dinainte de Dumnezeu, ce-şi are suişul şi coborâşul, înălţările şi cufundările de nivel, într-un ciclu de faptă şi răspuns care în loc să fie un sfârşit, este un început continuu de revelaţie.

Leadershipul care se impune în vederea stabilirii unui scop grandios poartă urmele unei dureri adânci, acceptată de bună voie, fără revoltă, fiindcă aceasta este împlinirea supremă a unui Destin unic, hotărât dinainte de Dumnezeu.

Ideea lui Columb era promisiunea unei lumi noi, în timp ce ideea lui Magellan era găsirea unui drum nou spre lumea nouă. Ceva s-a manifestat în sufletul lor ca un dar venit din altă lume. Amândoi s-au ridicat deasupra clipelor trecătoare, spre clipa duratei eterne. Ai impresia că amândoi sunt creaţia spontană a unei singure puteri, prezentată într-un spectacol despre captivitatea unui singur suflet aflat la graniţa dintre două lumi, acolo unde realul şi irealul devin imposibil de despărţit.

Vederea cu care îţi poţi instrui voința în privinţa a ce este urgent de înfăptuit în numele evoluţiei lumii este tocmai vederea cu care te-a înzestrat Dumnezeu ca să apreciezi distanţa dintre ceea ce e trecător şi ceea de durează în marea devenire a omenirii. Scopul poartă semnul stabilirii unei comparaţii între spiritele puternice şi cele slabe, călcând pe urmele unui personaj care influenţează opera divină, acceptând un destin care parcă se repetă la fiecare generaţie, în altă versiune.

Încearcă să obții un rezultat al răspunsului pe care o altă formă de cunoaştere o dă nevoilor tale, ca urmare a experienţelor trăite în cadrul procesului de observare.

În sală trebuie să domnească o linişte desăvârşită. Chiar şi în pauzele necesare pentru reîncărcarea filmului în aparatul de proiecţie. Vai de cel ce i se adresează în timpul acesta. Dacă întrebarea e pusă cu voce joasă şi nu-l întrerupe pe compozitor în vizionare, se aude doar un mârâit în loc de răspuns. Dacă însă este întrerupt de stridenţa întrebării, Prokofiev se uită fioros la cel ce vorbeşte, sau scapă chiar o înjurătură.

După fiecare vizionare Prokofiev este obosit, dar totdeauna mulţumit, satisfăcut. Poate pentru că, de fapt, compune în timpul acesta muzica pentru fragmentul văzut. În timpul vizionării degetele compozitorului bat ritmic pe braţul fotoliului.

Regizorul rus, Eisenstein, îl urmăreşte, curios să găsească răspunsul la întrebarea pe care şi-o pusese şi şoferul lui isteţ. El intuieşte că Prokofiev, bătând toba cu degetele, scandează structura prin care în acest montaj se încrucişează duratele şi ritmurile fragmentelor prin care se împletesc cu ele acţiunile şi intonaţiile actorilor.

Odată, Eisenstein exclamă bucuros: "Straşnic ! " Acesta a fost fragmentul de montaj în care, remarca el: "este abil împletit un contrapunct cu trei mişcări diferite ca ritm, cadenţa şi direcţia. Protagonistul, grupul care alcătuieşte fundalul şi coloanele de oameni care taie în primul plan câmpul aparatului aflat în mişcare". *****

Leadership: Poți să surprinzi acele puncte de vedere accentuate într-un construct analitic unificat care să deznoade toate abordările la care nu te-ai gândit?

Criticul unei lucrări de îmbinare a mai multor cadre, făcând o ancoră între vizionare și analiză, devine partizanul unui punct de vedere unitar. Cu referinţă la afirmarea necesităţii de a surprinde totalitatea unei viziuni mai largi prin intermediul unui „DA" aflat în spatele său, tradus pe limba sa, care se cere accentuat. Oare ar fi mai bine să lucrăm mai întâi la ceea ce se poate afla prin intermediul celorlalţi, pentru a ne putea evalua pe noi înşine?

El se vede obligat să-și formuleze un punct de vedere, o legătură între diverse fragmente insuficient de consistente sau insuficient consolidate pentru a se constitui într-o operă, în folosul unui alt „proprietar de cunoaştere" aflat în preajma lui. Ca să fie satisfăcut de munca sa de creaţie, regizorul trebuie să încrucişeze acţiunile, vorbele şi trăirile actorilor, interacţiunile şi rolurilor acestora într-un construct vizual care să-i confere o abordare mai largă asupra subiectului în cauză. O doză de culoare şi personalitate, atribuită fiecărui actor în parte, devine centrul de greutate al unui fundal care, fiind subordonat subiectului, trebuie să dea o notă de naturaleţe filmului.

Procesul de intuiție - să intuieşti ceea ce-şi dorește acest proprietar de cunoaştere, ceea ce-i place, ceea ce vrea să spună, ceea ce este în interiorul său, ceea ce i se potrivește dar nu se vede - ţine mai degrabă de acel „Da" care transformă toate „Nu-urile" (provenite din convingerea că are întotdeauna dreptate) în schimbări de necontestat. Nimeni nu ştie ce este în mintea regizorului până ce nu pune cap la cap toate elementele de scenografie şi toate reprezentaţiile actorilor.

Un construct analitic unificat este un montaj care te poate trece din realitate în iluzie, şi din iluzie în realitate, punând în valoare multilateralitatea şi talentul regizorului printr-o inspecţie vizuală amănunţită şi printr-o abordare amănunţită a unei problematici actuale.

Leadership: Justeţea imaginii pe care o reflectă montajul tău constituie răspunsul unei cunoaşteri a experienţelor de observare trăite în cadrul de procesului evaluare a unei fiinţe devorate de sine însăşi?

A viziona un film înseamnă să pătrunzi în esenţa imaginii ideale pe care o poartă în suflet regizorul. Arta regizorului se constituie în primul rând într-un rezultat al răspunsului pe care o altă formă de cunoaştere o dă nevoilor tale, mai ales ca urmare a experienţelor trăite în cadrul procesului de observare şi evaluare a conexiunilor dintre imagine, sunet si jocul actoricesc.Toate acestea îţi dezvoltă intuiţia de a personifica o idee sau un mesaj.

La nivel subtil, „Da"-urile sunt acele puncte de vedere accentuate într-un construct analitic unificat, care deznoadă toate abordările la care nu te-ai gândit. Ele sunt lămurite prin ascultarea și observarea acelor persoane, pregătirea, cunoştinţele şi abilitatea lor într-un anumit domeniu. Arta regizorului este experienţa "Da"-urilor care dau curs mulţumirii de sine în ceea ce priveşte împlinirea viziunii din care se constituie fundamentul montajului. Dar este şi experienţa "Nu"-urilor derivate din „greșelile" actorilor, din gesturile lor parazitate, pe care mereu trebuie să le redea în alt context.

În leadership urmărim un dublu scop care introduce un nou model al progresului bazat pe observaţii și pe noutatea impusă ca valoare, al cărui raport de cauzalitate se reflectă în exclamaţia" Straşnic ! "

Mai întâi surprinderea surselor de confirmare a unei cunoaşteri și a unei dimensiuni pe care nu o considerăm „cucerire" ci „unire". Apoi, valorificarea elementelor de contrast dintre ceea ce știm şi reprezentarea pe care ne-am format-o despre o altă formă de cunoaştere, relevantă pentru înţelegerea şi prelucrarea unei noi experienţe de învăţare.

O fiinţă devorată de sine însăşi este imaginea unui creator care se manifestă sub trei forme: observator, evaluator şi critic în ceea ce priveşte modalitatea în care se raportează la acea formă de cunoaştere menită să realizeze sinteza dintre real şi ideal.

Leadership-ul Inspiraţional relevă o trăire, o impresie puternică, o convingere, ceva mai presus de emoţie şi care dă naştere la pasiunea acelui consumator de cunoaştere, niciodată obosit, ci întotdeauna mulțumit de felul în care abordează ceilalți anumite subiecte, marile idei, marile provocări, marile întrebări ale artei.

Răspunsul la aceste considerente, având ca suport stabilirea unui „DA" categoric în urma procesului de observare şi evaluare, întotdeauna se finalizează în lumina unei exclamaţii: „Straşnic" !

Leadership într-o miriadă de percepţii

On Martie 19, 2009

Acordă un punctaj ridicat influenţei tale, transformându-ţi leadershipul într-un teren de întâlnire între percepţiile tale şi ale celorlalţi.

Psihiatrul întreabă de pacient:

- Spune-mi, se întâmplă să auzi voci dar să nu ştii cine vorbeşte şi de unde?

- Desigur.

- Şi când se întâmpla asta?

- Când răspund la telefon.

Leadership: Urmăreşti întotdeauna esenţialul percepţiei unei realităţi inerente din care a fost omisă viziunea şi influenţa ta asupra ei, luând în calcul faptul că nicio realitate nu este mai esenţială pentru propria ta confirmare ca ceea ce încerci să susţii cu tărie?

Marea majoritate a liderilor, indiferent cum i-ai organiza în segmente cu o anumită mentalitate, cu o anumită viziune, cu o anumită cultură şi pregătire profesională, se aşteaptă ca modelul percepţiei lor să fie asigurat, adică să fie acceptat de restul lumii. Diferenţa dintre un lider şi ceilalţi oameni este de multe ori exact ceea ce desparte gândirea unui psihiatru de cea a pacientului: unul vede totul prin prisma unor boli psihice sau handicapuri mentale, iar celălalt vede totul aşa cum e de fapt.

Însă numai prin realizarea unei diferenţieri care contează, care influenţează pozitiv viaţa şi gândirea celorlalţi, liderul va putea să adauge o valoare substanţială leadershipului său. Ia în calcul acest aspect fiindcă este de bază, şi în general este mai bine apreciat decât orice alt element particular legat de leadership.

Aşa cum magia este o prelungire a fizicii, tot astfel capacitatea ta de a-i influenţa pe oameni este o prelungire a gândirii tale pe care o transmiţi celorlalţi, şi care dacă nu este profundă, dacă nu surprinde aspectul esenţial al lucrurilor, al sistemului de convingeri al oamenilor şi al modalităţii lor de a vedea lucrurile, nu va putea să asigure niciodată o coerenţă întregului proces de schimbare dorit. Gândirea ta complicată şi bazată pe performanţă, axată pe analiză şi evaluare poate să nu concorde cu gândirea simplă a celorlalţi oameni, iar în acest caz legătura dintre tine şi ei se va produce foarte greu, sau chiar deloc.

Leadership: Ceea ce comunici din alt unghi al realităţii poate fi acceptat drept ceea ce nu se poate determina pe cale directă, fără să tinzi spre o explicaţie logică în direcţia asta?

Tu iei foarte în serios orientarea către percepţiile oamenilor? Îţi fixezi ca obiectiv acela de a înţelege aspectele care contează cel mai mult pentru ei? Laşi la o parte gândirea tipică unui psihiatru care gândeşte strict prin prisma profesiunii sale şi urmăreşti întotdeauna esenţialul în ceea ce priveşte rezultatele pe care vrei să le obţii de la oameni? Ce aspecte trebuie să iei în calcul atunci când relaţionezi cu oamenii?

În marketing există o vorbă: "Clienţii îşi doresc, mai presus de toate, tipul de ciment potrivit, la timpul potrivit, în locul dorit." Succesul tău în leadership va fi atribuit unei multitudini de factori. Dar un singur lucru este cert. Nu poţi să devii valoros decât dacă satisfaci şi tu nişte condiţii, asemănătoare cu cele din marketing. Anume să le oferi oamenilor, mai presus de toate, tipul potrivit de gândire care să se potrivească cu propriile lor percepţii, cu propriile lor viziuni şi convingeri. Cu alte cuvinte, mai întâi trebuie să vezi tu ceea ce văd ei, iar abia apoi ei vor vedea lucrurile aşa cum le percepi tu.

Leadershipul este vocea din spatele telefonului care te anunţă că ai greşit numărul pe care l-ai format, fiindcă te-ai obişnuit ca toată lumea să te sune pe tine.

Leadership într-o miriadă de percepţii aduce în atenţie importanţa pe care liderii trebuie să o acorde mentalităţii celorlalţi oameni. Ca să fii bine cotat de ceilalţi oameni, concentrează-te asupra unui singur aspect: modul în care ei abordează lucrurile, modul în care simt şi modul în care îşi folosesc mintea. Succesul tău poate fi atribuit unei multitudini de factori, dar cel mai important este să te asiguri că percepi punctul lor de vedere.

Acordă un punctaj ridicat influenţei tale, transformându-ţi leadershipul într-un teren de întâlnire între percepţiile tale şi ale celorlalţi.

Concluzie: Comunicarea este esenţială în leadership. Modul în care comunici şi-ţi expui ideile şi viziunile trebuie să fie pe înţelesul tuturor şi percepute adecvat în unanimitate. Nivelul de percepţie, de înţelegere şi conformare sunt diferite de ceea ce trebuie să creezi tu – o punte de comunicare solidă şi inteligibilă pentru toţi, într-un limbaj adecvat pe înţelesul tuturor, deoarece ceea ce gândeşti şi percepi tu poate fi departe de gândirea şi percepţiile celorlalţi.

Leadership între creaţie şi tehnologie

Importanţa ta reflectă modul în care îţi asumi reuşita actului de creaţie asumat de la înălţimea nevoii de a te şti surprins într-un cadru de referinţă a memoriei lumii.

- Ai picat la ţanc. Tocmai mă gândeam azi dimineaţă la fotografie... Când m-am trezit şi m-am văzut în oglindă cu părul vâlvoi, ştii ce mi-a venit în minte? Ei bine, mi-a părut rău că nu sunt fotograf. E cu totul altceva cum te văd alţii şi cum te vezi tu singur în oglindă în anumite momente. De mai multe ori în viaţă mi s-a întâmplat să surprind o expresie a feţei pe care nu am putut-o regăsi în nici unul din portretele mele. Erau poate expresiile mele cele mai veridice. Ar trebui făcută o gaură în oglindă pentru ca obiectivul să-ţi poată prinde pe neaşteptate expresia cea mai intimă a feţei..

- Ceea ce se face acum nu mai e artă, îi spuse Henri Cartier-Bresson lui Tournier. E, dacă vrei, industrie fotografică. *

Leadership: Cauţi o confirmare sinceră a răspunsului pe care îl oferi unei realităţi cât se poate de prezente într-o experienţă de tipul: "Dacă nu eşti acolo atunci când trebuie, degeaba eşti altădată" ?

Vorbim aici despre posibilitatea omului de a oferi propriei lumi un alt tip de experienţă, pornind de la analogia cu tabloul realităţii creat de alte ştiinţe, pentru a fi părtaş la o nouă pagină a propriei sale poveşti în filele istoriei. În sfârșit, pentru a oferi propriei imaginații mai multă libertate şi un orizont mai larg, omul trebuie să se apropie de înțelegerea tradițională a cuvântului "oglindă" și de rolul acestuia în lumea ştiinţei: important aici este combinația armonioasă a tututor detaliilor exterioare dispuse într-o unitate interioară.

Leadershipul se concretizează nu atât prin folosirea elementelor de originalitate, încadrate în formule de regândire a viziunii şi a rolului de "agent al schimbării". Ci mai degrabă prin valorificarea potenţialului noilor descoperiri cu ajutorul resurselor tehnologice, puse în sprijinul unui curent de gândire, considerat revoluţionar, care respectă proporţia muncă-răsplată.

Pot exista direcţii noi de construcţie a unei noi unităţi de producere a unui bun ştiinţific, constituind un aport preţios şi indispensabil la capitalul de cunoaştere - de exemplu un model abstract de reprezentare a unor idei şi a unor zone de referinţă pentru mediul de dezvoltare. Iar în acest caz tendinţa generală este spre diferenţiere, diversitate. Şi ea este evident influenţată de percepţia vizavi de funcţiile şi performanţele pe care integrează "produsul ştiinţific" rezultat.

Părţile stabile ale mecanismului care defineşte evoluţia leadershipului, în relaţie strânsă cu poziţia ta faţă de fenomenul "creaţie intelectuală", ar trebui să fie date de o dezvoltare complexă, pornind de la posibilităţile de flexibilitate între aspectele de interes şi cele de fond, care să-ţi permită un control sporit asupra încercării de a-ţi impune modelul de gândire.

O creaţie intelectuală aleasă este exemplul unei realităţi aflată dincolo de cea vizibilă imediat, dintr-o industrie care ia tot mai mult amploare.

Referitor la acest lucru, iată ce scrie pe site-ul legeaz.net: "O asemenea activitate de durată sau chiar ca o sclipire a geniului uman se poate concretiza în opere literar-artistice sau ştiinţifice. Mai întâi, autorul unei opere literar-artistice are drepturi personal-nepatrimoniale legate de creaţia sa: dreptul de a fi recunoscut ca autor al operei, dreptul de a decide publicarea ei, dreptul de a cere ca opera sa să nu îi fie atinsă de terţi."

Este adevărat că liderul-creator vede arta într-un mod foarte personal, acceptând noutatea ca model de reprezentare a unor concepţii, care pot să aibă un corespondent direct în realitatea obiectivă. De aceea el se angajează, prin experimente, într-o formă de manevrare a ştiinţei, de organizare şi răspândire a ei. Şi această manevrare a ştiinţei este atât de puternică, de folositoare, încât necesită un act de revoluţie interioară - care modifică într-un anumit grad valorile pe care liderul le-a apreciat de-a lungul timpului.

Fac aici referire la acea formulă complexă de achiziţie a noilor mijloace de creaţie, obţinută printr-un efort ştiinţific constant şi laborios care este dominat de felul în care gândeşti, de experienţele pe care alegi să le foloseşti ca repere pentru elaborarea unor explicaţii, concepte şi modele de impact cuprinzătoare, fundamentate ştiinţific.

Artistul genial este autorul unei creaţii care depăşeşte puterea de cuprindere a minţii omeneşti, fiindcă face referire la o realitate care nu s-a mai văzut şi care continuă să fascineze.

Leadershipul între creaţie şi tehnologie este în strânsă legătură cu realitatea din care îţi construieşti lumea, aceeaşi realitate fiind menită să lărgească orizontul de cunoaştere al lumii din jur. Apelând la o realitate proprie, văzută precum o fotografie care nu are nevoie de cuvinte pentru a transmite emoţii, sub sigla unui nume ivit din creaţia proprie, vei putea mai uşor să produci o mutaţie esenţială în artă, chiar dacă mulţi oameni nu te-ar înţelege:

"Arta este viaţa mea într-o coajă de nucă".

Leadership Providers

On August 07, 2014

Transformă-ţi leadershipul într-un instrument flexibil de recepţionare a tendinţelor de evoluţie, prin reglarea posibilităţilor de amplificare a ştiinţei furnizate de către o autoritate străină.

Montajul filmului este realizat sub influenţa puternică pe care au avut-o asupra lui Eisenstein spectacolele teatrului Kabuki, arta actorilor japonezi pe care îi văzuse cu prilejul turneului lor din Moscova, în anul 1928. Eisenstein, fascinat de trupa actorilor Kabuki, scrise atunci un articol elogios şi metoda lor deveni baza montajului filmului său.

Geneza ideilor, a metodei inedite din filmele sale, mai ales din „Vechiul şi Noul", îşi are aici una din principalele sale surse. Lucrurile se ordonează însă organic, ideile născându-se una dintr-alta şi căpătând astfel suită, păstrându-se perfecta consecvenţă. La teatrul Kabuki, Eisenstein întâlneşte existenţa în practică a principiilor la care se gândise cu ani în urmă, realizate aici, intuitiv, prin ceea ce el numeşte acum „ansamblul monistic". În acest teatru viitorul regizor „auzi mişcare" şi „văzu sunetul". *****

Leadership: Poţi să identifici prezenţa unei noi autorităţi care să clarifice adevăratele intenţii ale celui ce vrei să devii, în încercarea de a reprezenta o nouă Unitate a operei de artă?

Prin condiţiile sale de conexiune selectivă între influenţe şi realizări, în ritmul unei noi cunoaşteri care participă involuntar la determinarea unei ştiinţe superioare, situată la convergenţa unor domenii variate, resursa umană de calitate deţine un rol esenţial. Această entitate complexă, numită model de urmat , cu rol de identificare a unor noi posibilităţi de obţinere a rezultatelor dorite, constituie cheia unui număr unic de variabile, de tip factor suplimentar. Ea sporeşte reputaţia unei profesiuni.

Ori de câte ori vei încerca să-ţi perfecţionezi leadershipul, analizând mai pe larg interesantele alternative de folosire a unor noi practici, idei sau tehnici, te vei afla în prezenţa unei noi autorităţi care poate să clarifice, direct sau indirect, adevăratele intenţii ale celui ce vrei să devii. Această autoritate nu este altceva decât o mult așteptată premieră, o parte a provocării de a fi prezent la o manifestare spontană în cadrul căreia artiștii creează pe loc, în funcţie de spaţiu şi dispoziţia generată de context, un montaj care pune diverse poveşti de viaţă într-un nou context.

Ceea ce devii în procesul atingerii succesului este un gest de solidaritate artistică, ca un joc artistic şi intelectual între artişti şi spectatori, o dezvoltare intelectuală mai înaintată în care interesul îl constituie atenţia voluntară ce se naşte din simbioza vechiului cu noul, cu care apreciezi o muncă care dă semnficaţie unui un elogiu al minţii, o pasiune copleşitoare pentru nobleţea gândului înalt.

O nouă Unitate a operei de artă poate fi reprezentată prin conjuncţia dintre ceea ce are specific un artist, o anumită putere de transfigurare a eroului dintr-un personaj dominat de frică şi umilință, într-o fiinţă inteligentă şi un conducător, şi ceea ce îşi imaginează fiecare dintre noi că este: un personaj creat de un geniu care se individualizează.

Leadership: Poţi să stabileşti clar tendinţa de evoluţie a conţinutului artei tale în corelare cu fenomenul de extindere a unei zone de interes, în ceea ce priveşte fluxurile acumulărilor succesive de formă şi conţinut?

Abordarea serioasă a tot ceea ce ţine de dezvoltarea profesională este un prilej de a te deconecta de la un sistem de gândire limitat şi de a stabili o conexiune cu un nou „provider" de idei şi scheme de gândire, adică cu un intermediar al schimbării. Iar această conexiune nu trebuie să facă obiectul unei „banări" de la accesul la un nivel superior de evoluţie.

Deseori, leadershipul nu se poate aplica principiului extinderii „ cu cât înaintezi mai mult, cu atât funcţionezi mai bine ", decât prin schimbare de provider, pentru a evita efectul de încetinire a erodării şi pentru acumulări succesive de potenţial de inovaţie.

Influenţa exercitată de prezenţa unei noi surse de autoritate poate să contribuie la asigurarea unor noi cuceriri ştiinţifice, numai dacă ea îţi furnizează noi resurse de inspiraţie. Apoi trebuie să întâlneşti existenţa în practică a acestor resurse şi a principiilor pe care se întemeiază opiniile sau ideile ce ţi-au fost transmise.

Poţi transforma leadershipul într-un instrument flexibil de recepţionare a tendinţelor de evoluţie numai prin reglarea posibilităţilor de amplificare a ştiinţei, care îşi au sursa în arta celorlalţi de a transmite un nou impuls de dezvoltare. Zona ta de interes trebuie să fie fortificată de exprimarea trăirilor personale printr-o metodă inedită de a pune în scenă o reprezentație memorabilă, longevivă, ca o creaţie ce primeşte admiraţia întregii lumi.

Experienţa de leadership nu porneşte doar din analiza pe care ţi-o aplici ţie însuţi pe parcursul procesului de dezvoltare, ci reprezintă cristalizarea unei noi forme de putere, în încercarea de a edifica o nouă construcţie ştiinţifică printr-o formă de reprezentare a artei corespunzătoare propriei tale viziuni.

Tendinţa de evoluţie a conţinutului artei pe care o creezi este dată de specificiul unei interpretări de excepţie, corelat la un mesaj de mare anvergură: sporeşte-ţi însemnătatea spre împlinirea destinului protagoniştilor pe care îi reprezinţi !

Leadership Providers sunt acei cutezători minunaţi care înarmaţi cu cele mai noi cuceriri ale ştiinţei, şi înzestraţi cu idei novatoare şi cu capacitate mare de convingere, oferă şi induc un trend ascendent, calitativ superior, devenind astfel o „autoritate" în acest domeniu. Ei au responsabilitatea de a înțelege ceea ce este disponibil, care s-ar putea potrivi nevoilor sau preferințelor de accesibilitate la un nivel mai înalt de dezvoltare a unei persoane, punându-i la îndemână toate resursele de inspiraţie necesare îmbunătăţirii şi promovării artei sale.

Ca să sesizezi schimbarea şi să o accepţi ca pe o constantă a evoluţiei, mai întâi trebuie să găseşti pe cineva care să-ţi furnizeze o viziune, o cale de urmat şi o motivaţie puternică.

Leadership situaţional

Încearcă să combaţi senzaţia de insuficienţă a funcţionării prin forţa de caracter, punându-ţi la bătaie abilitatea de a te impune în mod direct în orice situaţie.

Regizorului Serghei Eisenstein i se propune o ecranizare după romanul lui H. G. Wells, „Războiul lumilor”, proiect care va fi însă abandonat ulterior ca fiind prea costisitor. Tratativele se prelungesc însă, deoarece este necesar şi acordul Sovkino-ului şi permisiunea pentru Eisenstein de a-şi prelungi şederea în afara graniţelor patriei sale. Între timp Eisenstein discută şi condiţiile materiale ale contractului: Lasky doreşte numai colaborarea lui, oferindu-i un onorariu de 500 dolari săptămânal în perioada alegerii subiectului filmului şi apoi, din momentul începerii realizării, 3000 dolari pe săptămână.

Însă Eisenstein refuză categoric să accepte orice contract fără participarea lui Tisse şi Alexandrov, a căror prezenţă nu-l interesează însă pe Lasky. Condiţia lui Eisenstein duce aproape la ruperea tratativelor, până când, în sfârşit, Paramount îi oferă pentru început 900 dolari săptămânal, urmând ca din această sumă el singur să-şi plătească colaboratorii. Este o superbă dovadă de solidaritate prietenească. *

Leadership: Îţi manifeşti receptivitatea faţă de cerinţele de confirmare a unui conţinut pe care nu-l poţi duce la îndeplinire decât prin utilizarea unei surse externe de conţinut?

Un lider niciodată nu va accepta să ducă la îndeplinire un proiect, dacă acel proiect nu este conceput sub forma unui mecanism cu două viteze: o muncă de propagare a pulsurilor arbitrare (judecata proprie) şi o regrupare a forţelor de intervenţie pentru optimizarea ofertelor de răspuns (judecata altora).

Situaţia când eşti expus unei mulţimi de orientări, cu multe colectări de feedback, stimulează receptivitatea faţă de cerinţele de confirmare a unui conţinut pe care nu-l poţi duce la îndeplinire decât prin utilizarea unei surse externe de conţinut. O sursă externă de conţinut poate fi o minte strălucită care merge până dincolo de aparenţa lucrurilor, un purtători de mari valori şi de calităţi, un spirit de prim rang artistic, un exemplu unic de virtuozitate, un scriitor plin de forţă sau un om a cărui poveste te-a impresionat enorm.

Situaţia în care te raportezi la o varietate de experienţe de parteneriat, expuse la condiţiile de aprobare ale unor modificări şi completări aduse în favoarea unui produs personalizat, reflectă nu doar o dependenţă de realizări înscrise în linia unui ownership asumat. Ci mai ales dependenţa de o sursă externă de control a modului în care te autoevaluezi în totalitatea unei lucrări de la stadiul zero până la etapa de finalizare.

Eşti posesorul unei cunoaşteri care depinde de natura materialului ei, provenită din experienţă şi din imaginile care îţi populează simţurile şi inteligenţa? Sau eşti posesorul unei cunoaşteri care depinde de stimularea oferită de hrănirea cu o altă viziune?

Leadership: Poţi da o notă mai pronunţată de autenticitate experienţei tale de creaţie în funcţie de calităţile şi evoluţia unui model al statutului tău care şi-a cucerit audienţa prin simplitatea şi carisma cu care a abordat valorile în care crede cu tărie?

Omul care impune respect prin experienţă şi cunoaştere se distinge întotdeauna ca factor marcant al deciziei finale, în victoriile obţinute în luptele cu diferitele situaţii de orientare profesională. El dă o ripostă pe măsură acelora care cred că au dreptul să-i saboteze autoritatea.

Valoarea de bază a unui asemenea om, al cărui statut de recunoaştere largă funcţionează după criteriul "eu ştiu cel mai bine ce înseamnă performanţa", nu este de dată de utilitatea cunoaşterii vaste pe care o deţine, ci mai cu seamă de aportul constant de empatie şi hotărâre pe care îl aduce la întregirea unui punct de vedere care îi clarifică şi susţine poziţia faţă de influenţele din jur.

Aceasta este un fel de autosusţinere faţă de potenţialul de a schimba toate variabilele de interes ale celorlalţi, impunând noi cerinţe, solicitări sau reguli, în favoarea unei alianţe care să-ţi garanteze independenţa de a alege modalităţile proprii de înfăptuire a obiectivelor. Senzaţia de insuficienţă a funcţionării, în faţa unor factori agresivi de influenţă, poate fi combătută numai prin forţa de caracter care impune respect, admiraţie, recunoştinţă, profesionalism.

Leadershipul este o demonstraţie a diferenţei dintre ceea ce reuşeşti să sădeşti în sufletul oamenilor din jurul tău şi ceea ce descoperă ei în tine. Tot timpul vei plăti contribuţia individuală de „asigurări" la progresul profesional în contul viziunii tale despre lume şi business, într-un mod care să nu încalce drepturile nimănui, dar care să-ţi aducă un plus de libertate de acţiune. Aceasta este singura cale de a te ridica mai sus de condiţia de „limitat".

O dovadă supremă de solidaritate poate fi acceptată ca un semn că cel care se face înţeles în termenii de "eu controlez întregul proiect" este pe punctul de a-şi recunoaşte valoarea. Cum? Prin asimilarea unor experienţe provenite din exigenţa de a restabili cât mai curând deplina unitate între ceea ce se dă într-o manieră originară (un conţinut personal) şi maniera ca atare în care acel ceva (conţinutul respectiv) se prezintă în forma altor conştiinţe.

Conţinutul care dă valoare solidarităţii tale este legat de ceea ce reuşeşti să înfăptuieşti atunci când ceilalţi se abat de la cursul viziunii tale (stabilită împreună şi de comun acord), fără să le micşorezi meritele care ţi-au asigurat mijloacele de validare a creaţiei numită reprezentativ: REPUTAŢIE.

Leadershipul situaţional este legat de trăsăturile sau abilităţile liderului în raport cu diferiți factori de interes. Se referă în principal la etapele de dezvoltare profesională în care eşti implicat, înscriindu-se mai mult sub forma unor demersuri de afirmare directe sau prin intermediul „terţilor contractanţi" în vederea realizării unor scopuri comune.

Este vorba despre gestionarea situaţiilor diverse la care eşti expus pe tot parcursul carierei, care ar putea determina independenţa ta profesională, sau dimpotrivă, dependenţa ta de o abordare particulară, de un mod de gândire străin, de o altă autoritate.

În diverse circumstanţe de business poţi dobândi un sentiment de apartenență la o cauză comună, sau poţi dobândi un sentiment de apartenenţă la o gândire exterioară, autoritară, care pune mai presus de orice controlul, egoismul şi constrângerile. De multe ori o facem fără să ne dăm seama, şi ne întrebăm de ce nu merg lucrurile.

Leadership sus, jos

On Martie 23, 2009

Capacitatea ta de a te adapta la fiecare situaţie în parte îţi pune la încercare abilitatea de a-i conduce pe oameni prin instinctul de a discerne trăsăturile definitorii ale unei situaţii de tipul: "nu poţi deţine controlul fără să devii una cu ei".

Instrucţie din zori şi până-n noapte. Nu o întreagă armată, ci numai câţiva camarazi de arme, care din proprie iniţiativă au hotărât să i se alăture colonelului Cal Rhodes în primejdioasa misiune de salvare a prizonierilor dintr-un lagăr din Vietnam.

Dar la un moment dat Cal era pe punctul de a se lăsa păgubaş, se simţea obosit şi fără tragere de inimă. Observase că toţi acei camarazi de arme păreau să nu mai fie trup şi suflet alături de el, gata să-l slujească plini de avânt. Nu era uşor pentru un om de vârsta lui să ţină zilnic antrenamente atât de dure şi grele. Părea obosit nu doar fizic, ci şi psihic.

În ce chip să le sporească Cal entuziasmul oamenilor? Sufletul lui era cuprins de tristeţe, simţea că nu este în stare să facă faţă sarcinii pe care singur şi-o impusese. Drept urmare l-a delegat pe Kevin Scott, fost ofiţer în marina militară, să se ocupe de instrucţie în locul lui.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să fixezi destinaţia la care vrei să ajungi, dar nu deţii controlul asupra a ceea ce se întâmplă în jurul tău şi asupra a ceea ce va urma după atingerea scopului propus?

Cheia în leadership este să deții controlul asupra a ceea ce se prezintă ca o situație scăpată de sub control. Adică, trebuie să deţii controlul asupra a ceea ce se întâmplă atunci când eşti departe de oameni şi de scopul propus. Fiindcă, într-un anumit moment al vieții poţi pierde controlul asupra a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă și, astfel, viața ta va ajunge la voia sorții.

Nu uita că dacă nu deţii controlul asupra a ceea ce gândeşti, nu poţi să-ţi controlezi nici acţiunile, iar incercarea de a controla ceea ce nu poţi influența poate fi nuanţa tragică a unui sentiment de frustrare în faţa consecinţelor pe care evenimentele neasteptate le poate avea asupra poziţiei tale.

A-i conduce pe oameni, a-i controla si a-i îndruma în direcţia dorită de tine este un test pe care, la fel ca cei mai mulți lideri, îl poţi pica şi tu la un moment dat. Desigur modul în care îţi testezi abilitatea de a-i conduce pe oameni îţi schimbă foarte mult starea interioară.

Leadership: Cum te simţi şi cum te comporţi în privinţa a ceea ce nu te favorizează la nivelul destinaţiei la care ai ajuns, prin prisma controlului pe care îl exerciţi în cazul în care te confrunţi cu propria ta rezistenţă?

A-i conduce pe oameni este ca şi cum ai urca într-un lift. Intri în lift cunoscând perfect destinaţia, dar nu deţii niciun control asupra a ceea ce se poate întâmpla în timpul călătoriei, fiind dominat de incertitudini. La fel cum nu cunoşti exteriorul liftului şi nu ai o certitudine clară a deplasării – tot aşa se poate întâmpla şi în relaţia ta cu oamenii: să nu cunoşti toate acele simţăminte care îi animă, să nu ai o certitudine clară a motivaţiei lor, a potenţialului lor de dezvoltare la nivel personal şi profesional, şi, deci, să nu ştii direcţia în care se va îndrepta leadershipul tău.

Practic, colonelul Cal Rhodes, din filmul „Uncommon Valor (1983)”, a rămas suspendat în timp şi în spaţiu din punct de vedere fizic şi emoţional. Pur şi simplu nu ştia ce şi cum să facă să îndrepte situaţia în care se găsea. Era ca şi cum s-ar fi aflat într-un lift ce urcă, fără să poată stabili contact vizual sau tactil cu cineva din exterior, şi fără să ştie încotro se îndreaptă.

Un om care se confruntă cu propria lui rezistenţă, adică care îşi înţelege rolul ca fiind o etapă din viaţă care pur şi simplu îl poate transforma în altcineva, mai prejos de îndatoriile sale, şi care încearcă din răsputeri să lupte pentru a-şi recâştiga poziţia pierdută, este un om care ştie să se consoleze singur, un om care ştie să se motiveze dincolo de dureri şi care priveşte dincolo de aparenţa unei lumi cunoscute.

Dă o şansă leadershipului tău dacă vrei să-ţi menţii poziţia mai mult timp. Pentru asta trebuie să pătrunzi în lumea interioară a celorlalţi oameni, să te apropii fizic şi emoţional de ei, revelându-le semnificaţia misiunii, importanţa ei şi motivele pentru care ei trebuie să se implice în continuare, cu un avânt tot mai mare. Atitudinea şi capacitatea ta de a te adapta la fiecare situaţie în parte este cheia întregului proces de finisare a leadershipului tău.

În leadership trebuie să preiei controlul asupra a ceea ce este posibil să controlezi, dar fii în acelaşi timp dispus să te ierţi, fiindcă nu ai cum să controlezi prin prisma a ceea ce nu ai prevăzut să se întâmple.

Leadership sus, jos sugerează stadiul evoluţiei tale în raport cu factorii şi situaţiile dificile, stresante, care îţi pot afecta calităţile şi aptitudinile. Ca lider, poţi să te ridici la cel mai înalt nivel de încredere în faţa oamenilor, sau te poţi coborî la cel mai de jos nivel în funcţie de cum acţionezi, în funcţie de modul în care eşti perceput şi în funcţie de capacitatea ta de a te adapta la fiecare situaţie în parte.

Leadership Sustenabil

Străduieşte-te să generezi în permanenţă noi cadre din mai multe unghiuri, printr-o speculaţie a propriei minţi.

Eisenstein priveşte cinematografia nu ca pe o continuare a teatrului, ci ca o negare a lui. Intră în cinematografie socotindu-l domeniu încă inexistent. Marele regizor îşi amintea mai târziu:

"Veneam ca beduinii sau căutătorii de aur spre un loc cu posibilităţi neînchipuit de mari, din care doar un mic sector fusese tocmai dezvoltat. Ne-am fixat corturile şi am introdus în tabără experienţele noastre în diferite domenii. Preocupări intime, profesiuni accidentale din trecut, îndemânări nepresupuse, erudiţii nebănuite – toate erau canalizate spre a construi ceva care nu avea încă nici tradiţii scrise, nici forme stilistice precise, nici măcar cerinţe formulate."

Mai târziu intoleranţa asta se va stinge. Vom constata, în afara unei puternice influenţe a teatrului în arta sa cinematografică, chiar şi o revenire târzie la prima sa dragoste: teatrul. Iar în activitatea sa pedagogică va declara: „Studiul cinematografiei trebuie să înceapă neapărat cu studiul teatrului." *****

Leadership: Priveşti fuziunea dintre ştiinţă şi artă ca pe o continuare a demersului de a experimenta noi direcţii de orientare, sau ca pe o negare a oricărui conţinut exprimabil prin efecte vizuale?

Capacitatea de producţie a unor linii noi de montaj, frecvent întâlnite pe parcursul perioadei de raportare la un ideal care trebuie asumat şi afirmat, desigur într-o formă care permite ulterior substanţiale îmbunătăţiri, este o trăsătură importantă a regizorului. Cine caută şi observă această trăsătură la un om de mare cultură, nu va obiecta niciodată procedeelor stilistice ce ţin de aspectul veridic al operei sale, dar va calcula informaţia transmisă pe plan de criterii de evaluare a unui continut experimental rezultat din evenimente, atitudini, situaţii contrastante, care creează surpriza unor suprapuneri de planuri vizuale.

A nega un conţinut exprimabil prin efecte vizuale înseamnă să nu dispui de momente memorabile folosite ca spaţiu de spectacol pentru a produce efecte de noutate. Iar a experimenta noi direcţii de orientare în film sau teatru înseamnă să continui o poveste de la momentul anterior experienţei pe care vrei să o transmiţi lumii – ca să o poţi retrăi mereu.

Montajul este un procedeu de alăturare a mai multor cadre din cât mai multe unghiuri, dominate de tematici complexe ale unor cercetări finalizate într-un produs de referinţă – un excelent suport al informaţiei adunate de-a lungul timpului. Dar materialul informaţional ce formează conţinutul diferitelor cadre nu are nicicum pretenţia epuizării problematicii, atât de ample, în faţa căreia se afla astăzi iniţiativele înnoitoare. Căci întotdeauna se vor găsi modalităţi noi de transmitere a experienţei si cunoaşterii.

Aceste cadre sunt de fapt nişte ţinte ce trebuiesc atinse, nişte prelungiri ale orizontului tău intelectual şi cultural, cuprinzând concepţia despre lume şi viaţă, care îi invită pe ceilalţi să te cunoască. Sunt nişte răspunsuri la întrebările pe care ţi le pui, sintetizate într-o viziune proprie.

Leadership: Poţi susţine emoţii cu suportul unei reprezentări de imagine care să nu fie repetiţie a unei viziuni desprinsă din interiorul unei realităţi simulată de o ecranizare excepţională?

Conţinutul exprimabil integrează tot ceea ce eşti dispus să arăţi lumii prin propria viziune. Cine nu-şi dezvăluie viziunea într-un mod care să inspire, nu va primi niciodată feedback, astfel nereuşind să-şi clarifice îndoielile cu privire la ce a îndeplinit, a dobândit şi a obţinut prin intermediul cunoaşterii şi auto-investigaţiei.

Dar în leadership, viziunea nu trebuie să fie desprinsă din interiorul unei realităţi simulată de o ecranizare excepţională, ci trebuie să se potrivească dialogului dintre logic, ingenios şi plauzibil. Filmul nu este un reper bătut în cuie, iar viziunea nu trebuie să fie neapărat ceva "wow" pentru lume. Ceea ce contează este emoţia transpusă într-o imagine ideală care să îndeplinească condiţia de bază a atingerii unui anumit scop.

În aceste cadre sunt inserate tot ceea ce cuprinde o gândire reformatoare, sub formă de oameni, lucruri, procese, idei, situaţii, relaţii între diferite entităţi şi aşa mai departe. Cu referinţă la leadership, putem considera aceste cadre drept născociri ale spiritului creator, drept patternuri de cogniţie, interpretare şi prezentare, de selecţie, accentuare a unor direcţii de orientare îndreptate spre o câştigare a îndemânării în manipularea anumitor aspecte ale realităţii.

Fără îndoială, unele dintre elementele supuse discuţiei comportă şi alte posibilităţi de interpretare decât cele găsite aici.

Un lider care priveşte fuziunea dintre ştiinţă şi artă ca pe o continuare a demersului de a experimenta noi direcţii de orientare, va descoperi sau va genera în permanenţă noi astfel de cadre, printr-o speculaţie a propriei sale minţi. Mai ales printr-o strânsă împletire a propriei vieţi cu înţelesurile subiective pe care le asociază lumii şi întregii societăţi.

Leadershipul este imaginea pe care o transmiţi lumii rezultată din experienţele de viaţă cu care ţi-ai îmbogăţit emoţiile şi din ştiinţa cu care ai ştiut să pui în valoare frumuseţea lor.

Leadership devine Sustenabil prin cadrele produse de artist prin auto-investigaţie. Adică, atunci când el îşi canalizează toate preocupările intime, profesiunile accidentale din trecut, îndemânări nepresupuse, erudiţiile nebănuite - spre a construi ceva original, un concept, un produs, un activ unic care să-i exprime ideile, viziunea, şi care să dăinuiască în timp.

Leadership Transformaţional

Creează noi versiuni de transformare personală, clarificând sensurile ascunse ale gândurilor şi faptelor născute din efervescenţa creaţiei.

Filmările se fac acum într-o mare încordare. Se filmează câte douăsprezece ore pe zi şi uneori cu câte cinci aparate simultan pentru a se face economie de timp. Exterioarele se termină în august 1928 când echipa se întoarce la Moscova pentru filmările de studio. În această perioadă de muncă intensă, Eisenstein începe paralel uriaşa să activitate teoretică. Scrie acum mult analizându-şi opera din punct de vedere ştiinţific şi estetic.

Scopul acestor numeroase scrieri era să găsească, să clarifice sensurile ascunse ale gândurilor şi faptelor născute din efervescenţa creaţiei, să se pregătească pentru următoarele etape. *

Leadership: Acţionezi ca un instrument de stimulare a creaţiei intelectuale care stă la baza producerii unei ştiinţe alternative, cu referire la maniera teoretică de a clarifica rolul unui nou nivel de gândire şi prioritate a valorii?

Un lider care luptă pentru cucerirea unei noi competiţii cu el însuşi îşi poate găsi unitatea de sens şi potenţialul de performanţă, dar şi mobilul tuturor aspiraţiilor sale spre înalt, în procesul de preluare şi constituire a unui nou conţinut de „particular" intelectual, puternic susţinut ştiinţific. Particularul este o formă de măsurare a complexităţii unui proiect din perspectiva efectului de expansivitate al unui subiect palpitant ce constituie intriga unei scrieri inspirate.

Cine posedă originalitate încearcă permanent să creeze noi versiuni de transformare personală, clarificând sensurile ascunse ale gândurilor şi faptelor născute în înfierbântarea creaţiei. Cum? Prin sporirea capacităţilor de absorbţie şi transmitere a cunoaşterii, prin sporirea capacităţilor de analiză şi înţelegere a impactului ştiinţei sale, actualizate de calitatea ireproşabilă a gândirii desfăşurate pe cont propriu prin intermediul activităţii teoretice.

Progresul liniar al valorii personale, păstrând acea proprietate de continuitate în sensul realizării unor noi performanţe de ordin intelectual, prin implementarea rezultatelor cercetării ştiinţifice, nu trebuie să eludeze studiul atent, sistematic şi aprofundat al acestui component al operei de creaţie, pe care eu l-am denumit generic: „Partialis Creatium".

Sau, altfel spus, „Partialis Creatium" este vectorul veritabil de înnoire a ceea ce reprezintă liderul în lumea artei şi a modului cum se integrează într-o versiune de a fi, aferentă unei noi evoluţii mai accentuate, spre asimilarea de cunoştinţe şi formarea unei structurii de personalitate cu aptitudini intelectuale aparte.

Leadership: Iei parte la activitatea unui subiect de creaţie care se modelează pe sine în accord cu obişnuitul unei linii de gândire care nu trăieşte decât prin forma fixă?

Artistul extrage câteva impresii personale din ceea ce a văzut şi auzit, şi spune: "iată, aşa este". Iar prin perspectivele de viitor pe care le creează, în realitatea şi în viaţa altora, ca premise de dezvoltare a mijloacelor de expresie, el extrage acest component de optimizare a evaluării personale din sursa ştiinţei acumulate în timp, pentru a obţine o nouă schimbare de stil. Şi spune: „iată ceea ce am făcut, cum am făcut şi acest lucru a fost rezultatul."

Leadershipul este rezultatul continuei cizelări, prin preluarea şi optimizarea a ceea ce este mai bun în gândirea inovatorului, putând fi plasat sub semnul excepţionalităţii numai atunci când devine un instrument de stimulare a creaţiei intelectuale care stă la baza producerii unei ştiinţe alternative.

O linie de gândire care nu trăieşte decât prin forma fixă este o modalitate de abordare a unui subiect foarte interesant din prisma unei singure concepţii despre artă, ştiinţă, lume şi viaţă, prin care fondul folosirii mijloacelor de expresie (scenariul, montajul, decoruri, efecte) devine promisiunea confirmării identităţii care te separă de ceilalţi.

Leadershipul Transformaţional se referă la găsirea unei versiuni de dezvoltare şi perfecţionare, cât mai calitative şi mai avansate, prin îmbunătăţirea standardelor personale obţinute în urma unei analize minuţioase a gândurilor şi faptelor născute din efervescenţa creaţiei.

Leadership Unleashed

Contribuie la crearea unei noi identităţi de sine, printr-o reînnoire permanentă a „adevărului" care te defineşte.

Filmările se desfăşoară, în genere, în condiţii bune. Tisse caută compoziţii cât mai expresive, biciuit de imaginaţia plastică a regizorului. Dar preocuparea lui Serghei Eisenstein pentru actor este, se pare, unilaterală. Venind la locul de filmare, actorii nu ştiau ce se va filma în acea zi. Îi folosea ca un element al plasticii cadrului, fără a se ocupa prea mult de interpretare. De aceea regizorul întâmpina mari dificultăţi în munca cu actorii. Pentru rezolvarea lor acceptă ajutorul Elisabetei Telesova, care va rămâne şi mai departe consiliera lui în această privinţă şi bună prietenă totodată.

Problema va rămâne însă în picioare şi mai târziu se va vorbi adeseori despre faptul că Eisenstein distruge personalitatea actorilor, suprimându-le interpretarea în scopul obţinerii expresivităţii plastice, doar, şi va fi condamnat pentru că nu suportă nicio critică în acest sens. *

Leadership: Poţi să dai credibilitate unei creaţii care intră în opoziţie cu ceea ce se întâmplă într-un context al receptării autentice?

Să creezi noi forme de artă prin delimitare de orientări şi puncte de vedere, dar în măsura unei eventuale înţelegeri intervenite între părţi, înseamnă să distingi şi să sortezi între ceea ce îţi aparţine în mod autentic şi ceea ce ai împrumutat de la alţii. Sau mai bine zis, înseamnă să intri în contact cu un anumit adevăr despre tine însuţi pentru a folosi ceea ce este mai bun din ceilalţi, invocând o aşa zisă autoritate de judecată – ce are forţă de respingere.

Adevărul despre tine este similar aparenţei luată drept esenţă, o funcție de distanță care se autoapelează prin nevoia stringentă de a te impune într-un mod care îi forţează pe ceilalţi să renunţe sau să se considere nişte paria din motive care nu ţin în primul rând de ei. Asta înseamnă să dai credibilitate unei creaţii personale care intră în opoziţie cu ceea ce se întâmplă într-un context al receptării autentice.

Dar aceste creaţii personale autentice, în care noţiunile de „formă" şi „substanţă" cedează unei anumite tentaţii venite din lumea exterioară, prin intermediul subiecţilor de test şi de cercetare, receptivi la orice tip ce cerinţe, vor trebui să aibă trăsăturile artei.

Acest lucru este posibil doar dacă fantezia artistică nu-şi ia lua zborul de pe terenurile umanului şi dacă nu intră într-un spaţiu restrictionar, domeniu exclusiv al ştiinţei, tehnicii, inspiraţiei şi experienţei lipsite de căldura sufletească – în vederea obţinerii expresivităţii care să te individualizeze pe scena marilor înfăptuiri.

Leadership: Care este greutatea pe care o resimţi percepându-te pe tine gândind într-o lume care îţi scapă?

Ne amintim aici de mitul maşinii care gândeşte, în viziunea filosofului francez Mikel Dufrenne, simbolizând boala secolului, înţelegând prin aceasta greutatea pe care o resimte omul percepându-se pe sine gândind şi dorind, într-o lume care îi scapă, în care se alienează şi unde nu-şi mai găseşte rădăcinile. Un soi de cunoaştere apriorică, sădită în adâncimile conştiinţei, pe care omul nu doar că o subevaluează, ba chiar o ignoră, pentru a se putea concentra doar asupra chestiunilor esenţiale ce-l interesează.

Iar această greutate resimţită cu forţa unei dependenţe de exprimare şi de expansiune a cunoaşterii, în condiţiile unor exigenţe de abordare şi utilizare a artei pentru care „subiecţii de test” nu au suficientă pregătire, are rezonanţă în delimitarea propriei individualităţi de statutul de persoană tolerată.

Pentru a atinge acel nivel al leadershipului care îţi oferă şansa de “a reconfigura” identitatea după placul celorlalţi, trebuie să lupţi împotriva acestei tendinţe de a organiza creaţia ca o „totalitate închisă” în care ceilalţi reprezintă doar „ elemente ale plasticii cadrului ”.

A distruge personalitatea celor care te susţin în demersurile de promovare a artei autentice, suprimându-le interpretarea în scopul obţinerii expresivităţii plastice, este echivalentul condamnării tale la neputinţa de a te face înţeles, înaintând vertiginos până la neputinţa de a te mai accepta şi suporta tu însuţi.

Adevărul care definește motivul regizorului de a se focaliza mai mult pe conținut decât pe formă, este o oglindire fidelă a realității în gândire privind aprobarea sau dezaprobarea interpretării unor roluri care nu sunt ale lui.

Leadership Unleashed evidenţiază acele porniri spre perfecţionarea artei, puse la comanda unei identităţi de sine continui care îşi exagerează importanţa, manifestându-se cu putere într-o direcţie de sens contrar conduitei de deschidere şi toleranţă faţă de ceilalţi.

Delimitarea propriei perspective asupra artei peste care se clădeşte viitorul profesional, traversată de viziuni şi de pasiunea detaliului, nu au ca punct de referinţă calitatea de a fi empatic - dar exact aceasta stă la baza recunoaşterii propriei tale superiorităţi sau inferiorităţi.

Leadership: Unu la Unu

Stabileşte relaţii cât mai bune cu oamenii din jurul tău, ancorându-i la gândirea şi la convingerile tale adevărate.

Deseori am discutat în articolele mele despre celebrul actor de comedie român Puiu Călinescu. Şi voi vorbi despre el mereu. Fiindcă, pe de o parte este unul dintre actorii care mi-au plăcut cel mai mult, dar pe de alta, fiindcă este un om mare – un om a cărui valoare nu a fost egalată decât de foarte puţini actori, un om a cărui putere de înţelegere a naturii umane nu poate fi pusă la îndoială.

La un moment dat, el a spus într-un interviu ceva ce nu voi uita niciodată:

- Să nu confundăm un saltimbanc cu un actor. Dacă nu te încadrezi într-o disciplină, dacă nu ai un respect pentru stăpânul tău care este publicul - el este tata, el este mama, el dă banii pentru ca tu să-ţi iei pantofi...atunci nu te poţi simţi realizat. Nu m-am simţit niciodată decepţionat sau trădat de public. Nuuu ! De ce? Fiindcă noi suntem întotdeauna unu la unu: Îl iubesc, şi mă iubeşte.

Cred că aceste cuvinte reprezintă "vraja" apropierii dintre oameni, în ele stă tot secretul unui lider. În aceste cuvinte se poate recunoaşte valoarea adevărată a celui care ştie să construiască relaţii solide şi de durată. Mare dreptate avea expertul în materie de conducere, John Maxwell, atunci când a afirmat: "Există posibilitatea să îţi placă oamenii fără să îi şi conduci, dar nu poţi conduce oamenii fără să îi placi."

Leadership: Apartenenţa ta la condiţia de "prezenţă dublă" poate fi judecată prin prisma a ceea ce cunoşti din afara scenei, iar nu pe baza ideilor pe care le-ai căpătat din experienţa de a fi faţă în faţă cu publicul?

Actorul are o prezenţă dublă: formală sau necesară, în funcţie de rolul pe care îl interpretează pe scenă. Iar leadershipul rămâne în grija acelora care l-au înţeles şi l-au aprobat ca fiind o scenă de manifestare a comportamentelor şi atitudinilor actoriceşti. De regulă leadershipul este înţeles şi acceptat pe deplin de un gen sau o categorie anume de indivizi – ca mod de orientare a oamenilor prin manipulare şi control. Leadershipul, de asemenea, te recomandă ca fiind un om veritabil ce prezintă un echilibru remarcabil de calităţi şi virtuţi.

Leadershipul nu este doar un indicator al orientării oamenilor perseverenţi către un anumit scop, ci este şi un indicator al valorii lor etice. Îţi aminteşti de Evanghelistul Matei? El povestea că fariseii, vrând să-i întindă lui Iisus o cursă şi să-l îndemne la nesupunere faţă de stăpânirea romană, l-ar fi întrebat dacă trebuie să plătească impozit Cezarului. Dar Iisus, simţind capcana care i se întinde, le-a cerut moneda, le-a arătat efigia împăratului şi le-a spus: "Daţi Cezarului cei a-l Cezarului". Aceste cuvinte servesc pentru a recomanda să i se recunoască fiecăruia meritele, atribuţia, rolul său şi realizările sale.

Ca să ţi se recunoască meritele, atribuţia, rolul tău, atunci oamenii trebuie să te considere demn de a-i reprezenta şi să te accepte ca un om competent care ştie să preţuiască ceea ce primeşte de la ei: stima, respectul şi motivaţia de a-şi continua misiunea. Ca şi actorul de comedie român Puiu Călinescu, trebuie să te conformezi publicului, să recunoşti că el are dreptate. Idealurile tale trebuie să fie de admirat, viabile şi trebuie să fie urmate. Dar eforturile pe care le faci în împlinirea acestora pot fi încetinite datorită criticii pe care ţi-o faci singur dacă leadershipul tău nu se ridică la un nivel superior de influenţă.

Leadership: Ca să-i câştigi pe oameni de partea ta trebuie mai întâi să treci de partea lor ştiind că ceea ce ai de zis prin forţa sugestivă a imaginii tale reprezentative merită orice transformare conjuncturală şi orice recunoştinţă?

1. Tu cum te transformi într-un agent al schimbării?

2. Poţi lua decizii dificile care vor face o diferenţă în lumea din jurul tău?

3. Eşti tentat să te opreşti într-un anumit punct? Sau continui să-ţi măreşti puterea de influenţă? Dacă da, cum?

4.Moralul oamenilor se îmbunătăţeşte atunci când te afli în mijlocul lor? Cum construieşti relaţii solide şi de durată? Evoluezi alături de oameni, generând acea vibraţie, acea atracţie care să-i determine să se unească în jurul tău? Îţi creezi o imagine consistenţă şi constantă despre tine – aceea a unui om care îşi colorează existenţa după de nişte idealuri înalte?

Oamenii simt că au în tine un aliat pe care se pot baza? Poetul şi dramaturgul german Johann Christoph Friedrich von Schiller spunea că lumea nu-ţi poate dărui ceea ce nu primeşte de la tine. Adică, fii un om de calitate şi ei îţi vor dărui ataşamentul. Ca să-i câştigi pe oameni de partea ta, mai întâi trebuie să treci tu de partea lor. Te vei bucura de atâta trecere câtă îţi vor arăta ceilalţi, iar pentru a-i determina să ţi-o arate, va trebui să le câştigi încrederea - prin atitudinea ta, prin felul tău de-a fi, prin ce ştii, prin sinceritatea ta, prin autenticitate, prin felul cum jonglezi cu regulile.

Nicio vrajă nu-i mai puternică decât aceasta. Lumea simte un fel de repulsie (sau nu simte nimic) faţă de omul străin de simţămintele lor, şi care nu are capacitatea de a-şi exprima sentimentele în virtutea rolului său, prin felul cum se foloseşte de oricare din elemente leadershipului şi prin cristalizarea lor simultană. Ştii cum se numeşte asta? Carismă.

Leadership: Poţi să adaptezi expresia concretizată a modului în care te vezi, la felul cum îţi percepi caracteristicile fizice, emoţionale, spirituale şi sociale într-un context ideal de interferență scenică?

Când îi ajuţi pe cei din jur, indirect te ajuţi pe tine. Dacă vrei să te bucuri de o atenţie corespunzătoare din partea oamenilor, atunci trebuie să fii pe aceeaşi lungime de undă cu aspiraţiile lor. Leadershipul tău trebuie să exprime aceeaşi armonie pe care ei o prevăd. Sau parafrazându-l pe scriitorul Alexandre Dumas, trebuie să creezi o lume în jurul lor peste care să stăpânească gândirea şi simţirea ta.

Capacitatea ta de conducere este afectată de modul în care îţi dezvolţi propriul potenţial, de nivelul exigenţelor tale în autoevaluarea şi valorificarea personală. Numai dezvoltându-ţi competenţele, crescând exigenţele faţă de tine şi faţă de ştiinţa ta de a conduce, te vei putea apropia de nivelul maxim al potenţialului tău. Nu uita că excelenţa în leadership se obţine depunând eforturi serioase de perfecţionare şi dezvoltare a competenţelor, abilităţilor, concomitent cu creşterea exigenţelor faţă de tine – liderul.

Aşa cum un pictor dozează culoarea cu mai multă intensitate, fără a ştirbi câtuşi de puţin perspectiva în care se situează componentele – tot aşa şi personalitatea ta, ca să fie recunoscută şi înţeleasă, trebuie să-ţi impui cu multă prudenţă, diplomaţie şi tact, cu multă ambiţie, cu simţ de răspundere, cu mult echilibru, un anumit ritm de leadership prin care să-ţi comunici emoţiile, fără să te îndepărtezi de realitatea concretă pe care o împarţi cu ceilalţi. Şi fără să ştirbeşti câtuşi de puţin impresia de continuitate în felul în care te raportezi la ei, la aşteptările lor, la ceea ce poţi face tu pentru a-i uni în jurul unui scop comun care să-ţi asigure recunoaşterea superiorităţii.

A-ţi pune în evidenţă personalitatea într-un context ideal de interferenţă scenică înseamnă să te comporţi ca un actor: să acţionezi firesc, adevărat, necesar, în funcţie de situaţia în care te afli, aducând la suprafaţă reacţii organice, reuşind astfel "sensibilizarea" spectatorilor.

Leadership: Unu la Unu desemnează imaginea pozitivă a liderului în viziunea oamenilor, desemnează acea remarcabilă personalitate, acea autentică autoritate morală, emoţională, profesională care îl reprezintă în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni. Foarte multe lucruri pozitive încep să se întâmple atunci când un lider îşi demonstrează capacitatea de a empatiza cu ceilalţi oameni – moralul lor se îmbunătăţeşte, în timp ce el obţine influenţă şi credibilitate. Cu alte cuvinte, dacă oamenii te urmează pentru ceea ce eşti şi pentru ceea ce reprezinţi, adică necondiţionat, atunci te poţi considera un Rege.

Obţinerea performanţei în leadership necesită timp şi o muncă de Sisif cu oamenii. Liderul trebuie să-şi dea silinţa să se facă înţeles căci numai astfel va putea câştiga oamenii de partea ta – devenind veritabili aliaţi în obţinerea scopului propus şi în ultimă instanţă pentru obţinerea recunoaşterii şi chiar a bunăstării materiale şi emoţionale a tuturor.

În această luptă permanentă dusă de lider, el trebuie să aibă aliaţi de nădejde, fiindcă nu este un "Atlas" care să poată suporta pe umerii săi munca şi toate responsabilităţile echipei. Un bun lider va găsi căile, mijloacele şi tactul adecvat ca să ajungă un "Rege" pentru fiecare din echipă.

La jocul de şah, pentru a putea efectua rocada mică trebuie ca regele să nu fie în şah, iar spaţiul dintre el şi turn să fie liber. Tot aşa şi în leadership, pentru ca liderul să aibă o mare înrâurire asupra oamenilor, el nu trebuie să se afle în opoziţie cu ei. Ci trebuie să fie liber să-şi exprime sincer şi deschis orice sentiment, să-şi etaleze personalitatea transmiţându-şi în mod pozitiv convingerile, idealurile, şi totodată să le modifice acestora, după propriile sale reguli şi principii de conducere, emoţiile, gândirea şi percepţia despre sine.

Loteria leadershipului

On August 19, 2009

Diferenţiază-ţi „brandul" printr-o ofertă singulară, pentru ca poziţionarea ta în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni să ia altitudine.

Umbreluţe, umbreluţe ! Poftiţi la umbreluţe ! Umbreluţe la 5 lei, umbreluţe la 10 lei ! Numai acum şi numai de la mine vă puteţi procura umbreluţe de soare la cele mai mici preţuri ! Nu mai staţi pe gânduri şi cumpăraţi chiar azi o umbreluţă ! Poftiţi la umbreluţe ! Poftiţi la umbreluţe ! …

În fiecare zi, timp de aproape două săptămâni şi jumătate – cât timp a durat sejurul meu la mare, am trecut cel puţin de două ori pe zi pe lângă acest vânzător de umbreluţe, ce stătea chiar lângă plajă, care, prin cuvintele şi sintagmele folosite precum: "cele mai mici preţuri" sau "numai acum şi numai de la mine", încerca să-şi vândă marfa mult lăudată şi atât de ieftină celor care doreau să se protejeze de razele puternice ale soarelui. De dimineaţă, cred că de la ora 7, până noaptea târziu tânărul vânzător repeta obsedant în acelaşi ritm lent acelaşi refren arhicunoscut şi amuzant: „Umbreluţe, umbreluţe ! Poftiţi la umbreluţe ! …"

Oare ce se petrecea în mintea oamenilor care treceau zilnic pe lângă vânzător şi ascultau ce spune acesta? Erau ei atât de fascinaţi de cuvintele lui ademenitoare şi de umbreluţele sale de soare, încât să fie tentaţi să cumpere de la el fără să regrete în nici un fel alegerea făcută?

Leadership: Te limitezi la noţiunea de "cealaltă parte de context" graţie utilizării îndelungate a unui produs care se poziţionează mai aproape de o zonă de "sharing" care nu a fost supusă percepţiei utilizatorilor faţă de Brandul pe care îl reprezinţi?

Cred că atunci când cineva îşi organizează singur munca încât să fie apreciat de potenţialii clienţi, nu trebuie să se limiteze la noţiunea de "autoritate" care produce un folos material pentru sine. Ci mai degrabă la noţiunea de "cealaltă parte de context" , adică dincolo de ceea ce poate fi apreciat şi acceptat ca produs de valoare.

Şi ce altceva se află dincolo de ceea ce este perceptibil şi tangibil, decât ireproşabilitatea rezultatului final, astfel încât oamenii să se bucure de toate calităţile unui lucru bine făcut. Un produs care se poziţionează mai aproape de o zonă de "sharing" care nu a fost supusă percepţiei utilizatorilor faţă de Brandul pe care îl reprezinţi poate reprezenta un rezultat palpabil pe teren scurt datorita reclamei foarte bune. Dar asta nu inseamna neaparat ca reprezinta certitudinea unui fapt pe termen lung: este suficient sa experimentezi capacitatile sale incat sa nu mai poti renunta la el?

A te limita la noţiunea de "cealaltă parte de context" înseamnă să prestezi un serviciu, ca unic în domeniul afacerii respective, dar care să fie perceput şi accesibil mai rapid decât eşti tu pregătit să-l exploatezi la adevărata lui valoare. Nu întotdeauna ce vinzi este direct proporţional cu ceea ce aştepţi să obţii. Fiindcă percepţia utilizatorilor faţă de Brandul pe care îl reprezinţi este dependentă de reputaţia unui produs care ştie să fie special fără să epateze cu nimic.

Există diferite genuri de marketeri, cei care ştiu să-şi definească oferta şi cei care transformă ideea de "autentic" într-o abilitate (de a te descurca singur în crearea de noi oportunităţi şi orizonturi) şi intr-o virtute (de a reinventa modelul de business pentru a nu-si pierde calitatea de a fi brand).

Garanţia este ceea ce poţi admite ca certitudine a valorii tale vizavi de ceea ce te stimulează după ce s-a ales praful de produsul sau serviciul tău.

Şi există diferite tipuri de abordare, definind structura demersurilor de punere în valoare a unui bun sau serviciu, ori promovarea însemnătăţii alegerii voluntare a unei poziţionări adecvate pentru un produs. Iar această abordare, apropiată de fenomenul numit "consumism", deducând care sunt nevoile şi dorinţele oamenilor şi cum să le îndeplineşti, din năzuinţa spre inovaţie şi accesibilitate, trebuie să evolueze în direcţia unui context de socializare autentic.

Contextul acesta trebuie să faciliteze dialogul, să favorizeze performanţa investiţională, să dea şanse de afirmare, permiţând previzibilitate şi continuitatea serviciilor, facând un anume brand mai relevant decât celelalte. Ca indicator al rentabilităţii, marketingul se poate manifesta mai ales în contextul luării deciziei de a introduce o valoare de factor de răspândire a serviciilor şi produselor, pentru a îmbunătăţi procesul de cultivare a unui nou model de business. Asta prin crearea şi extinderea permanentă a unui portofoliu reprezentativ de clienţi.

Leadership: Îţi judeci rezultatele propriei evaluări de Brand prin prisma a ceea ce pretinzi ca fundament al unei noi orientări?

Leadershipul, la fel ca şi domeniul vânzărilor şi celelalte domenii de activitate, este ca o loterie unde, nimic nu este sigur. Indiferent cât de mult efort depui, indiferent cât de mult te implici în această zonă, indiferent cât de bun şi de renumit ai fi, nu poţi şti cu certitudine că oamenii nu te vor refuza şi nu îşi vor căuta o altă "ofertă".

Asemenea unui vânzător a cărui scop principal este acela de a-i convinge pe oameni să apeleze la serviciile sale de calitate ireproşabilă şi să se reîntoarcă la el cu plăcere, marketerul are de îndeplinit, la rândul său, o misiune foarte grea. Trebuie să fie îndeajuns de abil încât să nu lase să se întrevadă niciodată ce gândeşte cu adevărat despre "garanţia" produsului.

Fundamentul unei noi orientări în marketing este similar cu ascensiunea unui vârf de stâncă neexploatat ce oferă vizibilitate perfectă de jur împrejur. Mai întâi trebuie să te caţeri pe o poziţie relevantă şi dominantă pentru ceea ce ţinteşti a obţine, apoi să decizi că e al tău şi de acolo poţi vedea că lumea îţi aparţine. Loialitatea ta faţă de produsul pe care îl promovezi trebuie să fie frânghia pe care doar tu te-ai urcat deja şi ai tras-o după tine, care să stea întinsă și să formeze o linie dreaptă.

Dacă nu vrei să cazi de pe stâncă în timp ce admiri priveliştea magnifică trebuie să te uiţi într-un singur punct care, în combinaţie cu altele, formează o imagine.

Leadership: Priveşti lumea prin intermediul senzaţiei imediate pe care o generează specificitatea produsului, pentru că numai aşa poţi vedea realitatea în esenţa unei exigenţe care se situează deasupra calităţii percepute şi a valorii ofertei?

Îţi alimentezi modul de a vinde cu o senzaţie de tipul: "Cine sunt eu în faţa produsului?" Un erou cocoţat pe un vârf de stâncă sau un stăpân responsabil?

Pentru a intra în cursa pentru tragerea la sorţi trebuie să rezolvi jocul de puzzle cu imaginea propriului tău „brand” – brand care se bazează pe exemplul calităţii şi autenticităţii tale, pe abilităţile tale, pe caracterul şi personalitatea care îţi definesc leadershipul. Trebuie să strângi acel minim de puncte care să te propulsezi în topul preferinţelor.

Dacă reuşeşti să-i convingi pe oameni că ajutorul tău este indispensabil, printr-o atitudine deschisă şi pozitivă, printr-un comportament exemplar, prin acţiunile pe care le desfăşori, prin profesionalismul de care dai dovadă, atunci cu siguranţă aceştia vor fi dispuşi să-ţi acorde un punctaj pozitiv.

Vei putea spune că eşti un număr câştigător numai dacă te-ai calificat în cursă şi dacă ai reuşit să câştigi cele mai mult puncte.

Tu ţi-ai confirmat participarea la tombola pentru câştigarea poziţiei de lider? Beneficiile specifice stilul de leadership pe care l-ai dezvoltat sunt pline sau lipsite de consistenţă? Îţi diferenţiezi „brandul" printr-o ofertă singulară? Pe ce se bazează poziţionarea ta în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni? Care sunt principiile de bază după care se conduce poziţionarea ta în mintea posibililor tăi alegători?

Diferenţiază-ţi „brandul" printr-o ofertă singulară, pentru ca poziţionarea ta în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oamenii să ia altitudine.

Leadeshipul este oferta de nerefuzat pe care o lansezi pe piaţă, fără să transmiţi preţul pe care îl are decât după achiziţionarea ei.

Leadershipul de doi bani din România

Măsoară-te cu tine însuţi fără să accepţi ca formă de oglindire alternativa unor observatori care exclud o puternică corecţie a propriilor exagerări de imagine.

Și uite de aia merg lucrurile în România, așa cum merg ele de multă vreme: prost şi tot înapoi. Adevărata ciumă care a izbucnit de două secole încoace la noi în ţară este corupţia, acea orientare spre "înapoi" datorată falşilor profeţi, adică acelora care nu ştiu nimic, dar pretind a cunoaşte totul. Nu-i de mirare că prea multe pile și relații în interiorul instituţiilor au adunat oameni fără nicio pregătire solidă în toate domeniile de activitate. Oameni toxici la interior, dar la exterior foarte rafinaţi.

În toate instituțiile de stat, îi găsim pe tata, mama, fiica, fiul, nepoții, socrii, bunicii, verișorii, prietenii și restul rudelor, toţi sub același acoperiș. Toți fiind mari doctoranzi, cu studii prin străinătate, având diplome adunate și tot adunate, de parcă ar fi fost la cules ciuperci după ploaie. Toți multipolari, cu talente într-o mie de direcții. Tot atât de bine se orientează în filozofie cât şi în contabilitate. Și profesor, și politician, și psiholog, și artist, și cântăreț, când doctor, când avocat, când consultant, când prezentator, când la discotecă, când piscină, când la festivități. Toți mari cunoscători. Cu funcții înalte. Cu mașini scumpe. Și toți se trezesc afaceriști imediat ce pun mâna pe-un post important. Toți și-au asigurat pensia, dar nu și nemurirea…

Nici măcar unul singur nu are un fundament științific. Cele trei mari calități ale omului de știință (invenție, creație, descoperire) lipsesc cu desăvârșire la absolut toți eroii noștri. În fond, niciunul nu știe nimic despre nimic. Știința lor este "știința copitelor fără potcoave". Genul ăla de indivizi care se abia reușesc să copieze din cărți sute de paragrafe pentru doctorat, dar habar nu au ce este un blog/vlog în secolul 21.

Leadership: Ai început să mergi înapoi ca să iei o distanţă mai mare faţă de punctul de vedere al unor observatori ce participă la derularea evenimentelor, dar nu pot să se detaşeze de desfătările rutinare în care se simt blocaţi?

Ar mai avea oamenii aceştia ceva important de spus în vreun domeniu al științei, în afară de ceea ce au plagiat? Dottore Genshin, ce-ai putea tu să mai scrii pe un blog? Măcar de-ai scana o carte (scrisă de alţii) şi ai pune-o pe Scribd, atâta lucru să faci pentru oamenii care vor să înveţe ceva.

Oamenii ăştia îmi amintesc de acel vizir Sams-ud-Davla, de pe timpul lui Avicenna, care îşi însuşea fără ruşine o parte importantă din veniturile statului, sporindu-şi averea şi aşa enorm de mare. Rudelor şi prietenilor le împărţea cu dărnicie moşii bogate. În divane domnea mita şi delapidările. Cadiii-judecători hotărau procesele în favoarea celor care plăteau mai mult. Comandanţii foloseau banii armatei în scopuri personale. Toţi oamenii aceştia erau asemenea unor semidocţi fără mari posibilităţi de expresie intelectuală, sau asemenea unor observatori care excludeau o puternică corecţie a propriilor exagerări de imagine.

Și după ce ți-ai adus toate catrafusele în guvern și ai diminuat valoarea fiecărei instituții în parte, măcar fă un bine și pune în fiecare sector, în funcţiile cheie, pe cineva realmente foarte bine pregătit în domeniu. Cât timp mai eşti în stare să îţi faci loc la evenimentele sociale sau istorice, abuzând de puterea pe care o deţii?

Da, aduci pe unul tobă de talent, un inovator, îl plătești de 10-20 de ori mai bine decât catrafusele alea care oricum nu fac nimic, și poate în acest fel se vor mișca mai bine lucrurile în fiecare instituție.

Însă, în România se întâmplă fix pe dos. Toate ridichile stricate ajung șefi și directori, iar cei cu adevărat specialiști pleacă din țară, eventual încheie contract cu diverse companii private.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să recunoşti existenţa reală a unei "interferenţe" exterioare care te ţine departe de eventualele abuzuri datorate prea plinului unei puteri neasumate şi negarantate ce s-a format din îmbinarea efectelor de contrast negativ?

Și normal că totul se duce de râpă. O țară plină de trădători, e o țară plină de pile și de slabi profesioniști. Pentru ca o ţară să fie subjugată uşor, trebuie să o destabilizezi, adică trebuie să slăbeşti soliditatea instituţiilor, să minimalizezi funcţionalitatea lor. Şi cum faci asta? Simplu. Înlocuieşti profesioniştii cu nişte mediocri. Sau, aduci numai mediocri care habar n-au ce este ştiinţa, iar cei cu adevărat valoroşi şi inovatori îşi vor găsi chiar în străinătate recompensa financiară, independenţa şi statutul pe care munca li-l oferă. Din cauza asta România este la cheremul marilor puteri.

Tocmai pe acest principiu s-a dezvoltat America în ultimii 80 de ani. Au ajuns acolo cei mai buni specialiști din toate colțurile lumii, fiindcă acolo sunt bine remunerați pentru talentul lor, și apreciați la adevărata valoare.

Nimeni cu adevărat talentat nu va accepta să facă munca incompetenților (mai ales pe bani puțini). Pe aceeaşi linie de argumentaţie a slăbirii premisei "perfecţiunii", o observaţie de asemenea demnă de remarcat a făcut-o Avicenna în urmă cu câteva secole:

"Fluviul ştiinţei, care acum curge numai pentru cei aleşi, cu timpul se va revărsa peste întreaga lume, până în cele mai îndepărtate colţuri ale pământului, şi toţi vor şti despre învăţătorul nostru, după cum se va afla despre toate minţile mari şi luminate, despre toţi "zeii" omenirii !

Falşii profeţi, aceia pe care întâmplarea sau privilegiile nemeritate i-a cocoţat în anumite locuri de pe vârf, şi care fălindu-se cu rangul lor reuşesc să prostească mulţimea, oricât de mult şi-ar dori, ei nu vor fi niciodată capabili să producă înăuntrul ştiinţei acea convieţuire strânsă între virtute şi frumuseţe căreia îi este îngăduită să rodească recolta cerească."

Leadershipul este privilegiul oamenilor învăţaţi capabil să îşi promoveze o imagine care nu se construieşte pe dimensiunile şi rezoluţia altei imagini (a cărui fundal este acceptat pentru a fi "multitasking").

Leadershipul de doi bani din România este asemenea unei căruţe trase de boi, acolo unde ar fi trebuit să se constate existenţa unei maşini Tesla. Aş putea să continui să vorbesc despre ce se întâmplă în România, la ora actuală, dar mă voi opri aici. Nu ştiu de ce. Poate fiindcă m-am săturat de falşii profeţi care se afişează în haine de miel, dar care pe dedesubt sunt... sunt lupi înfometaţi !

Leadershipul de moment

Îndepărtează-te de ceea te afectează, fără să te rupi de ceea ce te aștepți să se întâmple.

Mă gândeam cu amărăciune la zilele care treceau în tăcerea unei priviri parţiale, ştiinţifică şi artistică în acelaşi timp, cuprinzând doar fenomenele stranii ale naturii, ultimele maşinării ale morţii create sub regimul infecţios al unui agent agresiv, ca fiind o anomalie a unor gene rezistente la orice antibiotic. Transpunând acest agent agresiv într-o expresie mai plastică, din perimetrul scrierii autentice, m-aş putea apleca asupra acelui scenariu apocaliptic care începe cu "m-am îmbolnăvit de moarte, dar moartea vrea să mă ţină în viaţă ca exponent al animalismului."

Aceşti zombies de care sunt înconjurat, de care moartea însăşi pare că se teme, nu poate fi transformat într-un simbol al martirilor dedicaţi medicinii, în niciun caz, ci sunt un eşec al lipsei capacităţii de observaţie a cercetătorilor din medicină. Plin de nădejde, ca o ultimă scăpare din infernul ţesut din măruntaiele unei condamnări la moarte, am încercat să mă delimitez de tot ce nu-mi era prezentat de intuiție ca o cunoaştere clară și distinctă, în vederea reproducerii creatoare a unei realităţi care te provoacă să te întrebi: Așadar, totul e sortit să se întâmple?

Luminat de selectarea unei semnificaţii potenţiale, particulare şi întâmplătoare a acestei condamnări, ridicată la rang de perlă a conştiinţei care se voia neapărat personalizată cu adaosurile unei erijări deasupra condiţiei existenţiale, mi-am fixat principiile de moment ca într-un tablou unic realizat de un mare artist – nu puteam să-mi pronunţ verdictul decât la adresa unei obligații specific epistemice. Momentul când am văzut totul în perspectivă, atunci am ales să înaintez spre drumul meu. Sunt Gerry Lane, iar creionul care prinde acum viaţă în mâna mea aparţine cercetătorului care încearcă să observe ceva ce tuturor celorlalţi medici le scapă: leacul.

Păream încadrat într-un trailer numit "live for today for tomorrow never comes" în care arta supravieţuirii, ghicită de raţiune și produsă de imaginaţie, căpăta accente de thriller psihologic. Eram parcă desprins dintr-o pictură de o fantezie extravagantă, tulburătoare până la stupefacţie, precum "Visage of War" a lui Salvador Dali, unde elementele constitutive - priveliştea macabră şi întinsul de nisip - se amestecau într-o combinaţie iraţională a raporturilor dintre real şi ireal.

Leadership: Poţi să te delimitezi de tot ce nu îți este prezentat de intuiție ca o cunoaştere clară și distinctă, în vederea reproducerii creatoare a unei realităţi bazate pe aparenţe?

O realitate bazată pe aparenţe este rezultatul unei imagini care te fascinează neîncetat prin doza de fantezie pe care o conţine, dar care totodată te face să îți pierzi puterea de a abstractiza, puterea de înţelege prin reflecție, şi nu-ţi dă posibilitatea de a formula opinii bazate pe argumente solide, în conformitate cu responsabilităţile ce îţi revin. În ce fel toate teoriile și schemele mele intelectuale, puse în aplicare cu rezultate în curs de acumulare, mă ajutau să anulez o realitate atât de contrară oricărui mijloc de apărare și să percep un trend de gândire pozitivă fără limite?

Negreşit. Mă obişnuiam cu suma adevărurilor ultime ale unei experienţe singulare, tipice unui "self made man" ivit din mijlocul unei sălbaticii necruţătoare. Ceream de la Dumnezeu, de la acest maestru al întorsăturilor neprevăzute, îngăduinţa de a mă despărţi de cele sfinte prin inducerea unor noi efecte biologice precum și reducerea celor adverse, în solicitudinea exagerată a unei manifestări de introvertism sortită unei activități de cercetare.

Asemenea unui hidalgo rătăcitor, înduram greutatea explorării unui pustiu din care nu era scăpare, din care îşi trăgeau seva formele indubitabile ale unui rău care se numeşte sfârşitul lumii, a unei pecingini groteşti generatoare de haos, ce umileşte şi murdăreşte, sufocă şi copleşeşte cu forţa de-a ruina nevoia de ordine specifică spiritului vieţii.

Primul principiu de prudenţă ce vine în întâmpinarea leadershipului sună în felul următor: "Îndepărtează-te de ceea te afectează, fără să te rupi de ceea ce te aștepți să se întâmple."

Simţul unei puteri superioare, de la accepţiunea cuprinzătoare a ideii de cauzalitate la analiza lucidă și neiertătoare a stării de transformare a existenţei în totalitatea ei, părea să izvorască din adâncurile unei trăiri, dincolo de orizontul pe care ochii și mintea mea îl întrezăreau.

Începeam să-mi văd existența, valoarea, reacţiile, prin prisma dorinţei de a înainta într-un joc de acţiune, împărţită în durere şi plăcere, just şi fals, interior şi exterior. Bineînţeles, luam în considerare varianta conform căreia mă lăsam doar în compania imprevizibilului pentru a mă testa și descoperi.

În leadership, ceea ce aştepţi să se întâmple într-o altă lumină decât cea cu care eşti obişnuit, seamănă cu tentativa de a face incredibilul credibil: trebuie să fii pregătit să te aştepţi la o minune din partea unei experienţe diferite de cea cu care te-ai obişnuit deja.

Leadershipul de moment este o viziune reflexivă a cărei primă însuşire este o enormă stricteţe şi o apropiere creativă faţa de misiunea pe care ți-o dai singur într-o scurtă retrospectivă a situaţiilor neobişnuite prin care ai trecut.

Această misiune va atrage unităţile de informaţie cu care lucrezi: imagini, forme, simboluri, abilităţi de sortare, de reunire a părţilor dintr-un întreg, de însuşire, de stabilire a asemănărilor şi a diferenţelor pe baza comparaţiilor dintre ceea ce ți se întâmplă și ceea ce scot în prim plan cele două forme ale existenței: viața și moartea.

Totodată, această misiune vine ca o confirmare a unei singure dorințe: aceea de a-ți testa nivelul de încredere în tine însuți și de a te descoperi ca un tablou ce are nevoie de o oarecare nuanţare de la luminos către întunecat pentru a-i fi înțeleasă imaginea.

Leadershipul întemeiat pe o structură obiectivă

Încearcă să trezeşti în oameni gândul schimbător, convertindu-i spre acea realitate benefică menţinerii unei variabile de tipul "perspectivă de lungă durată".

Vreau să încep acest webinar prin a vă spune povestea tâmplarului cel sărac din Hingham, Massachusetts, redată de celebrul scriitor Russel H. Conwell. Ei bine acest om sărac, neavând de lucru, pierdea mereu timpul pe lângă casă. Într-o zi soţia lui i-a spus să se ducă şi să-şi găsească o ocupaţie. Aşa că s-a dus pe ţărmul golfului, s-a aşezat şi a cioplit un lanţ de lemn dintr-o bucată de şindrilă udă. În seara aceea, copiii lui s-au luat la ceartă pentru lanţul de lemn, aşa că a mai făcut unul, ca să-i împace. În timp ce cioplea, a venit un vecin şi i-a spus: "Dacă ştii să cioplești aşa de bine, de ce nu faci nişte jucării?"

- O, n-aş şti ce anume să fac, a răspuns tâmplarul.

Atunci de ce nu-i întrebi pe copiii tăi? i-a sugerat vecinul.

- La ce bun? Copiii mei sunt altfel decât copiii altor oameni.

Totuşi, a doua zi dimineaţă, a întrebat-o pe fiica lui: "Ce jucărie ţi-ai dori?" Copila i-a spus că şi-ar dori un cărucior pentru păpuşă, o umbrelă, şi a continuat cu o listă nesfârşită. Pentru tot restul vieţii, tâmplarul ştia ce jucării să-i dea fiicei lui. Astfel că, după ce s-a consultat cu proprii copii, în propria casă, a luat lemnul de foc, fiindcă n-avea bani să cumpere cherestea, şi a început să cioplească acele jucării Hingham solide, nevopsite, care sunt cunoscute de ani de zile pretutindeni în lume. Iar el a ajuns unul dintre cei mai bogaţi oameni din Massachusetts.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi autentifici competenţele de întreprinzător apelând la funcţia "Get Your Own Unique Hand-Made" care să returneze o valoarea TRUE în procesul obţinerii unei performanţe de poveste?

Îţi poţi autentifica competenţele numai dacă îţi înzestrezi leadershipul cu noi puteri, aşa cum un magician îşi măreşte influenţa asupra publicului cu noi "numere de magie", numai dacă reuşeşti să te raportezi la fiecare dintre ei prin propria ta percepţie şi mentalitate.

Dar mai întâi de toate, pentru a-ţi dezvolta însuşirile, trebuie să-i lămureşti pe cei din jurul tău asupra intereselor comune. Fii în acelaşi timp deschis la sugestiile şi dorinţele lor, fără a condamna raţiunea lor. Căci ei acceptul de a te afla în fruntea lor şi de a-i conduce, făcându-şi loc în gândirea şi în simţămintele tale, te va ajuta să navighezi pe parcursul procesului tău de dezvoltare şi să urci pe scara leadershipului.

Este o cerinţă a performanţei în leadership să te autoevaluezi, să-ţi pui în valoare însuşirile, să-ţi amplifici impactul pozitiv asupra celorlalţi, să nu te îndepărtezi de ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce poţi fi – dincolo de orice bariere impuse sau autoimpuse, dincolo de orice formă de îndoială. Fă-ţi un aliat din orice om care îţi sare în ajutor, tratându-l ca pe un posibil colaborator pe termen lung.

În sprijinul afirmaţiilor mele, pe care le consider verosimile, stă însuşi tâmplarul din Hingham, Massachusetts. Ce s-ar fi întâmplat dacă nu l-ar fi îmboldit soţia lui să-şi găsească o ocupaţie? Ce s-ar fi întâmplat dacă nu ar fi ascultat sfatul vecinului său? Ce s-ar fi întâmplat dacă el nu ar fi fost dispus să îndeplinească dorinţele copiilor lui? Nu-i aşa? Probabil n-ar fi ajuns niciodată prea departe.

Prin urmare, îţi poţi perfecţiona abilităţile de leadership, într-un mod cât mai eficient, într-un mod în care tu însuşi să ai numai de câştigat, fără să regreţi şi fără să ai de pierdut, numai dacă ceilalţi acceptă schimbarea impusă de o realitate benefică. Însăşi oamenii din jurul tău vor găsi modalitatea potrivită de a-ţi conferi un stimul pentru a continua, sporindu-ţi astfel valoarea.

Leadership: Ceea ce te face să fii diferit este chiar motivul pentru care ai ales să dai feedback propriei experienţe de viaţă, în contextul în care tot ceea ce te face să fii tu însuţi este un rezultat a ceea ce altcineva ar putea face în locul tău?

Un lider sesizează acele semnale ce apar în jurul său şi le ia în considerare – căci ele pot duce la succesul dorit, ele pot umple acel gol din ştiinţa şi din experienţa sa, care se interpune între performanţă şi mediocritate. El poate face asta printr-o regăsire a acelei părţi din sine care se doreşte a fi corectată – de la cel mai mic, la cel mai mare detaliu.

Un lider care ţine la prestigiul său şi care se vrea a fi un ghid de excepţie, nu trebuie să vicieze impactul pe care îl are esenţa leadershipul său prin "secţionarea" acelor puncte de sprijin, a acelor conexiuni cu cei din jurul său. Relaţiile sale cu ceilalţi oameni se cer a fi întemeiate pe o cunoaştere concretă, iar cele mai valoroase relaţii sunt cele care se stabilesc şi se dezvoltă ca atare.

Poţi privi relaţiile pe care le stabileşti cu oamenii precum casa în care locuieşti, care îţi poate deveni străină, respingătoare, dacă nu te acomodezi cu ea, dacă nu reuşeşti să o decorezi şi să o înzestrezi după nevoile tale, sau dacă nu este luminată.

Dintr-o dată de trezeşti singur, părăsit în propriul tău cămin, însingurat, lipsit de orice susţinere, lucru care va influenţa enorm viaţa, sănătatea şi sentimentul de siguranţă. Relaţiile sunt ca o lampă solară, ca o sursă de lumină care ajută leadershipul tău să strălucească în funcţie de felul cum o alimentezi. Lapma aceasta arde atâta timp cât oamenii, în urma unei evaluări continue, acceptă să fii în fruntea lor.

Leadership: Singura cale de a-ţi creşte încrederea în sine este să te gândeşti la acel moment din viaţă în care te-ai simţit cel mai mult iubit, fără să te culpabilizezi pentru ceea ce ai fi putut deveni înainte de a te încrede în alţii?

Pentru ca leadershipul să fie întemeiat pe o structură obiectivă, se impune ca liderul să interpreteze bine modalităţile de exteriorizare a celorlalţi oameni, modul lor de funcţionare, aşa cum doctorul interpretează radiografiile şi spune verdictul pacientului. Abia pe urmă trebuie să-şi reevalueze capacitatea de a conduce şi să se străduiască să dezvolte ca un meşteşugar iscusit mai mult acea latură personală, acele resurse personale, acele direcţii, acele zone, competenţe, abilităţi, care îmbunătăţesc performanţa lui şi a grupului pe care-l conduce.

Aşa cum laudele ori încurajările, criticile sau dezaprobarea spectatorilor din tribună fac ca o echipă să prindă aripi sau să cadă, tot astfel impactul pozitiv sau negativ pe care îl ai asupra leadershipului tău (prin desăvârşirea relaţiilor cu ceilalţi oameni) face ca performanţa ta să crească sau să se stingă treptat şi sigur, ca un băţ de chibrit.

Este leadershipul tău întemeiat pe o structură obiectivă? Cum interpretezi modalităţile de exteriorizare a celorlalţi oameni? Relaţiile tale cu ceilalţi oameni sunt întemeiate pe o cunoaştere concretă? Te simţi confortabil vizavi de ideea că toţi ceilalţi îţi urmează exemplul? Este leadershipul tău unul de substanţă? Ai sisteme şi rutine care te ajută să performezi la nivel înalt? Personalizezi modul în care îi instruieşti şi îi dezvolţi pe oameni? Eşti un mentor pentru ceilalţi lideri? Îi ajuţi pe oameni să descopere ce li se potriveşte? Le oferi tot timpul un feedback?

Leadershipul scoate în evidenţă acel moment din viaţă care îţi schimbă traiectoria şi percepţia asupra lucrurilor pe care le faci cu plăcerea de a le trăi ca să te descoperi într-un ecou de amintire nestinsă.

Leadershipul întemeiat pe o structură obiectivă are ca şi considerent de bază acele lucruri pe care le poţi face atât de bine încât ele să conteze pentru ceea ce laşi ca amintire generaţiilor viitoare. Iar în baza amintirilor pentru care te străduieşti să creezi un impact prin intermediul lucrurilor făcute întâmplător şi lipsite de o determinare exterioară, trebuie să-ţi imaginezi şi să prezinţi o experienţă de neuitat.

Leadershipul între creaţie și nuanţele gândirii

On Septembrie 14, 2016

Nicio creație nu poate merge mai departe, dacă nu are perspectivele unei înnoiri a receptării critice moderne și necondiţionate.

Eisenstein continuă colaborarea cu Prokofiev. Compozitorul lucrase şi el intens încă de la Alma-Ata. Primul lucru pe care îl ceruse Eisenstein compozitorului era muzica pentru secvenţa "Jurământul opricinilor", secvenţa pe care o dorea filmată - suntem încă la Alma-Ata - pe baza muzicii.

Eisenstein încă nu concretizează felul în care trebuie construită secvenţa. Muzica lui Prokofiev nu-i place. Compozitorul se aprinde şi declară că nu va mai scrie muzică fără "fiţuici", adică fără desene, căci numai astfel poate urmări toate nuanţele gândirii regizorului. Eisenstein îi face o serie de schiţe, pe baza cărora Prokofiev scrie un nou "Jurământ".

Apoi compozitorul scrie cântecul doicii "Ocean mare", iar după aceea cântecul de leagăn pe care Staritkaia îl cântă fiului ei ucis, lui Vladimir. Acum intenţiile regizorului îi sunt atât de clare compozitorului, încât Serafina Birman constată uşurinţa cu care ea poate filma scena datorită faptului că Prokofiev a ghicit, a înţeles ce se întâmplă în sufletul zbuciumat al Eufrosinei Staritkaia.

Leadership: Reușești să concretizezi felul în care trebuie construită o secvenţă de deschidere spre universul creaţiei dintr-un puternic cadru al reciprocității, prin intermediul relației dintre „margine" și „necuprins"?

Nu vei reuși să stabileşti o afinitate faţă de un domeniu, numărându-te totodată printre precursorii unei întregi dezvoltări care apropie analiza unor puncte de vedere diferite de fundamentarea unei concepţii unitare asupra a ceea ce înseamnă „compoziţie artistică", ca regulă de bază pentru evoluţia ideilor, dacă nu concretizezi felul în care se realizează transmiterea lor.

Secvența nu reprezintă doar un şir de imagini sau de scene dintr-un film, care formează un anumit episod. Ci mai mult decât atât, ea este o rezultantă a compoziţiei unui proiect în echipă, în funcţie de toanele şi imaginația fiecăruia. Reprezintă un şir ordonat de operaţiuni de bază efectuate asupra unei zone de utilizare a rezultatelor pentru satisfacerea unei anumite relații între ceea ce se numește „margine" și „necuprins".

Marginea este ceea ce se întâmplă "offline": nu ai putere de decizie, dar contribui indirect prin sfaturi și recomandări profesioniste, sugestii și intuiţii. Necuprinsul, direct legat de montajul unei interpretări a diferitelor experiențe sau viziuni, este un catalizator de explorare a unei linii de gândire neîntrerupte. Altfel spus, regizorul trebuie să fie umbra compozitorului, iar compozitorul trebuie să fie soarele unei noi realităţi ce răsare deasupra orizontului artistic.

Ca să înţelegi mai bine o personalitate artistică, trebuie să dobândeşti o altă deschidere asupra creaţiei sale artistice.

Combinaţia dintre un fundament al cunoaşterii, situat înăuntrul unui concept dat, şi o cauză eficientă externă, de alăturare a unei gândiri reprezentative, are loc atunci numai când părţile contribuabile la dezvoltarea proiectului îşi intensifică acţiunile de urmărire a scopurilor lor. Asta înseamnă să saluţi iniţiativa de a determina un anumit înțeles printr-o observare din exterior. Ceea ce în leadership se numește să întăreşti perspectivele de extindere a viziunii printr-un „like” la opinia celorlalți.

O prietenă a scris pe facebook cu ceva timp în urmă: „ Inventează ceea ce nu există... pentru că ceea ce există aparţine tuturor. ” Un regizor îşi sporeşte pregnanţa autenticităţii prin capacitatea de a da oricărui lucru din jur o altă conotaţie, o importanţă suplimentară, o vibraţie mai înaltă, încât realitatea pe care o transformă în spectacol să pluseze farmec prin contrastul dintre "formă şi fond", dintre „margine și necuprins”.

Din păcate nicio creație nu poate merge mai departe fără existența unei evaluări de impact externe, dacă nu are perspectivele unei înnoiri a receptării critice moderne și necondiţionate. Capacitatea de creație merge mâna în mână cu evaluărea realităţii din prisma valorii intrinseci a lucrurilor scoase în evidenţă, ceea ce face din existența externă rodul unei perspective de impact asupra receptării "înnoirii" realităţii din prisma capacităţii de idealizare a relaţiei dintre Ego şi Totul din Jur.

Leadershipul este ceea ce se întâmplă în sufletul regizorului atunci când personajele sale sunt redate prin prisma echivalenţei dintre reproducerea realităţii cu o obiectivitate perfectă (sub toate aspectele sale) şi altă variantă a realităţii, "aşa cum este ea în autonomia fiinţei lui".

Leadershipul între creaţie și nuanţele gândirii se face vizibil numai în prezenţa unei originalităţi confruntate cu criterii de evaluare care permit un anumit grad de implicare, şi totodată în măsură să genereze un sentiment de recunoștință și împlinire.

Leadershipul lui Moş Crăciun

On Octombrie 16, 2010

Permite-le celorlalţi oameni să se conecteze cât mai repede la tine, ca să-ţi poţi realiza intenţiile cât mai uşor.

Meşterul vânduse toate jucăriile şi se întorcea spre casă. La marginea oraşului s-a oprit să privească o fereastră. Ştia că acolo locuieşte o familie săracă şi se întreba ce jucării or fi primit copiii din această casă.

Trei copii visau cu voce tare:

- Dacă am avea un soldăţel de plumb, numai unul, ne-ar fi de ajuns…

- Ne-am juca împreună şi nu ne-am certa nicio dată pentru el. Bătrânul ştia că nu mai avea nicio jucărie şi tare ar fi vrut să le dăruiască măcar una. Dar ce minune ! Tocmai un soldăţel de plumb rămăsese, nu se ştie cum, în fundului sacului. Şi, astfel, dorinţa celor trei fraţi sărmani s-a îndeplinit.

În drum spre casă, bătrânul gândea: "Aş vrea să fac atât de multe jucării, încât să dăruiesc câte una fiecărui copil din lume dar mai ales celor sărmani, cărora n-are cine să le cumpere" . Şi mergând aşa, pe gânduri, văzu în zăpadă un pui de căprioară rănit la un picior. Bătrânul îi legă rana cu ce avu la îndemână şi îl ajută să se ridice.

Ceea ce vrei sa primesti de la viaţă este urmarea firească a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă când eşti dispus să faci o faptă care din start se mulează pe valorile tale.

Atunci făptura aceea gingaşă i-a vorbit cu glas limpede ca şi de copil:

- Acum văd că ai o inimă bună. Dorinţa ţi se va îndeplini.

Ca din pământ a apărut o sanie fermecată purtată în zbor de nişte reni minunaţi. A fost dus într-un ţinut înzăpezit unde îl aştepta o căsuţă cu ferestre luminate. O mulţime de pitici ca şi cei din povesti l-au întâmpinat bucuroşi.

Piticii erau harnici şi îndemânatici, gata să se apuce de treabă. Materialele se găseau din belşug, căci, nu se ştie cum, se înmulţeau mereu şi nu se terminau niciodată. Iar bătrânul meşter priceput îi îndruma pe pitici şi împreună făceau jucării, mereu mai multe şi mai frumoase - pentru fiecare copil din lume, jucăria pe care şi-o dorea.

Seara de Ajun este noaptea în care visele copiilor se împlinesc. A doua zi, în dimineaţa de Crăciun în jurul bradului împodobit, bucuria nu mai are margini. Niciunul dintre ei n-a fost uitat. Iar după numele sărbătorii, copiii i-au pus numele Moş Crăciun şi aşa a rămas până astăzi. *****

Tendinţa de a crea o "legendă" din propriile tale tipare de conducere le poate împlini oamenilor anumite nevoi sau aşteptări, mai ales dacă exigenţele lor vizavi de eficacitatea practicilor aplicate de tine vor creşte mereu?

Aşa cum povestea lui Moş Crăciun prinde întotdeauna la public, situându-se în acel segment cheie pe care aproape toate business-urile încă îl mai studiază şi promovează cu seriozitate – tot aşa şi tu, apelând la o campanie de conştientizare a importanţei leadershipului tău îţi vei îmbunătăţi vertiginos întreaga capacitate de relaţionare cu ceilalţi oameni. Tendinţa de a crea o "legendă" din propriile tale tipare de conducere le poate împlini oamenilor anumite nevoi sau aşteptări, mai ales că exigenţele lor vizavi de eficacitatea practicilor aplicate de tine vor creşte mereu.

Înţelegerea cât mai corectă, mai profundă şi mai cuprinzătoare a leadershipul tău este cheia care îţi deschide poarta recunoştinţei oamenilor. Dar mai întâi trebuie să nivelezi terenul care îţi convine cel mai mult pentru a-i câştiga pe oameni de partea ta, trebuie să te încadrezi în acel spaţiu prin care poţi să îţi controlezi în totalitatea aria de influenţă. Poţi marca fundamental calitatea impactului tău doar dacă oamenii vor conştientiza valorile pe care se sprijină leadershipul tău şi dacă îi vor acorda o importanţă care să nu poată fi contestată – tot aşa cum venirea lui Moş Crăciun este obligatorie pentru ca copiii să fie emoţionaţi.

Permite-le celorlalţi oameni să se conecteze cât mai repede la tine, ca să-ţi poţi realiza intenţiile cât mai uşor. Dar ca să se conecteze la tine ei trebuie să ia în considerare importanţa leadershipului tău. Întreabă-te: care este tiparul de conducere care le poate îndeplini oamenilor anumite nevoi sau aşteptări? Leadershipul tău poate să reprezinte un tipar de genul "Toată lumea primeşte un dar", sau un tipar de genul "believe in something more more than miracles"?

Leadership: Înţelesul pe care îl dai aşteptărilor tale depinde de felul cum îţi doreşti să arate imaginea ta într-un context de creştere a angajamentelor faţă de ceea ce poţi controla când îţi cunoşti nivelul de automotivare?

Leadershipul practicat de tine va reprezenta întotdeauna obiectul cercetării pragmatice, spirituale, dar şi un criteriu relevant de evaluare a impactului său – tot aşa cum dărnicia lui Moş Crăciun este evaluată de copii după cadourile pe care le aduce. Desigur, nu e suficient să doreşti dezvoltarea unui mit într-o direcţie anume, pentru ca leadershipul tău să se realizeze mai uşor, mai ales dacă evoluţia respectivă ar contrazice adevărata realitate. Însă impactul major pe care îl are campania de conştientizare a leadershipului tău asupra rezultatelor este hotărâtor pentru succesului tău.

Tu îţi poţi crea o legendă prin care leadershipul tău să capete o semnificaţie aparte şi îndrăgită de toată lumea? Poţi impune prin intermediul acestuia o senzaţie de sărbătoare care să genereze o atmosfera de bucurie?

O astfel de practică reprezintă exact contrariul modului de gândire dominant în leadership, însă s-ar putea să fie tocmai strategia de care este nevoie pentru a te ridica la un nivel mai înalt, bazată pe diferenţierea necesară. Eu te încurajez ca măcar să iei în considerare această opţiune.

Este leadershipul tău unanim acceptat? Dragul nostru Moş Crăciun, bătrânelul cu plete şi barbă albă, cu haine roşii şi sacul plin de daruri este un lider unanim acceptat, niciodată contestat chiar dacă şi el a instituit o regulă: după faptă şi răsplată. Este un lider în domeniu, nu are concurenţă, toată lumea îl acceptă aşa cum este. De la originile sale şi până astăzi el a fost şi este aşteptat cu bucurie de oamenii din diferite părţi ale pământului. Se pune întrebarea de ce este atât de persistent în timp şi acceptat pe tot globul? Aproape toate ţările l-au adoptat ca atare sau ca echivalente.

Ce simbolizează leadershipul tău? Simbolizează prosperitatea şi autoritatea? Îţi lărgeşti treptat mijloacele de influenţă, profitând din plin de acceptul pe care ţi-l dau oamenii de a pătrunde în sufletul lor? Ţii pasul cu nevoile şi aşteptările lor? Eşti un lider unanim acceptat?

Leadershipul este semnificaţia pe care o dai unei fapte bune săvârşite cu intenţia de a-ţi autoevalua calităţile sub o formă diferită de centrare a atenției în momentul prezent, când tot ceea ce te înconjoară este atât de ferm ancorat într-o viziune nouă asupra lumii.

Spirit sau credinţă? Nimeni nu se revoltă împotriva deciziilor lui Moş Crăciun, nimeni nu-l renegă, nimeni nu face grevă din cauza lui, nimeni nu cere înlocuirea lui - chiar dacă el nu este la fel de darnic cu toţi, aducând daruri mai consistente la cei cu dare de mână şi daruri mai puţine, mai ieftine la cei săraci; sau nu aduce nimic material, ci doar speranţe pentru cei necăjiţi.

De ce Moş Crăciun ne face pe majoritatea să fim mai buni, să fim mai analitici cu noi înşine şi pe cei mai mulţi dintre noi ne ajută să găsim căi mai adecvate de găsire a prosperităţii în anul ce urmează?

Spirit sau credinţă, leadershipul lui Moş Crăciun poate servi ca model pentru toţi.

Leadershipul Receptiv

On Februarie 22, 2013

Omul de ştiinţă parcurge un drum care oricând poate rămâne captiv în timp, fără a se pierde el însuşi într-un neant al neputinţei de a concepe "fiinţa supremă".

Umberto Eco scrie în cartea sa "De la arbore spre labirint", următoarele:

Labirintul este un tip de reţea, în care orice punct poate fi în legătură cu orice alt punct. Orice punct al său poate fi legat cu orice alt punct, iar procesul de conexiune este şi un proces continuu de corectare a conexiunilor, structura lui ar fi întotdeauna diferită de cea care era cu o clipă mai devreme, iar de fiecare dată l-am parcurge urmând nişte linii diferite.

Aşadar cine călătoreşte prin el trebuie să şi înveţe să-şi corecteze continuu imaginea pe care şi-o face despre el, fie aceasta o imagine concretă a unei secţiuni (locale), fie o imagine ordonatoare şi ipotetică ce priveşte structura lui globală (imposibil de cunoscut, atât din motive sincronice, cât şi din motive diacronice).

O reţea este un arbore plus infinite coridoare care-i leagă nodurile unele de altele. Arborele poate deveni (în plan multidimensional) un poligon, un sistem de poligoane interconexe, un imens megaedru. Dar această comparaţie este încă înşelătoare: un poligon are limite exterioare, pe care modelul abstract al reţelei nu are.

…Acestea sunt atributele în căutarea cărora trebuie să mergem "până acolo unde, chiar dacă fiecare dintre ele are o extindere mai largă decât propru-i subiect, toate la un loc să aibă aceeaşi extindere cu a subiectului: iar aceasta va fi esenţa lucrului".

Leadership: Deţii capacitatea de a integra potenţialul esenţei tale într-o nouă unitate, prin sporirea receptivităţii faţă de ceea ce vine din afara ta?

Ceea ce cauţi te va găsi în cele din urmă, cu condiţia ca ceea ce urmează să asimilezi (un alt tip de informaţie, o altă doză de fantastic, o nouă cantitate de cunoştinţe) să-ţi ofere posibilitatea de a depăşi imediatul unei subiectivităţi încurcate. Imaginea mentală a ceea ce se află în afara ta poate deveni o nouă realitate, pe de o parte virtuală, care trebuie înţeleasă într-un sens mai larg decât eşti dispus să accepţi.

Această realitate reprezintă un amestec în cantităţi variabile dintre "adevăr" şi "proiecţiile" imaginaţiei tale. Este un concept important care ar putea să valorifice ceea ce poate fi evidenţiat în abordările pro şi contra ale ideii de superlativ, adică condiţia absolută de neasemănare.

Leadershipul receptiv intervine în contextul evoluţiei ştiinţei prin observaţiile pe care le faci în legătură cu orice, dând un nou sens evenimentelor, dar mai ales prin întrebările pline de relevanţă pe care le pui despre natura lucrurilor şi a condiţiilor lor de existenţă, întrebări care au potenţialul de a surprinde pe toată lumea.

A integra potenţialul esenţei tale într-o nouă unitate, prin sporirea receptivităţii faţă de ceea ce vine din afara ta, înseamnă să te rătăceşti într-un labirint care conţine toată ştiinţa lumii, a cărui cale de ieşire trebuie să o descoperi prin detaliile ascunse în fiecare lucru din jur. Este vorba de acea unitate a cunoaşterii ce slujeşte la a apropia pe cât posibil experienţa de utilizare a amănuntelor şi a circumstanţelor dintr-o realitate obiectivă schimbătoare, de imperativul "gândirii în imagini" care duce spre aprofundarea unor metode de evidenţiere a verosimilului de care depinde însăşi progresul unei discipline.

Leadership: Poţi să oferi o nouă revelaţie asupra filosofiei ştiinţei pe care o slujeşti, găsind corelaţii între percepţia vizuală a stimulilor de transmitere a informaţiei şi capacitatea de a produce o noutate în domeniu?

Esenţa determinării tale în ceea ce priveşte găsirea unor noi forme de interacţiune între ştiinţă şi intuiţie, între progres şi inovaţie, cuprinde o secvenţă de acţiuni şi luări de poziţie în faţa a ceea ce se numeşte: "să ştii să personalizezi evenimentele şi schimbările cu noi semnificaţii şi conotaţii, în funcţie de ceea ce te intrigă la ele”.

La un alt nivel de dezvoltare şi de flexibilitate a gândirii, suprapunerea unei realităţi virtuale peste un mediu real, mergând dincolo de tărâmul posibilului şi al evidenţei, creează premizele unei puteri avansate de cunoaştere şi stimulare a raţiunii. Puterea de a fi totul într-un nou peisaj, într-un alt moment, în scopul eliminării convenţionalului. Prin aceasta se produce inovaţie, originalitate, revelaţie.

Revelaţia, compusă din semnificaţii atribuite unor circumstanţe create, reprezentări particulare a unor forme noi de informaţie, adică unei realităţi subiective, este o cale de a aduce la suprafaţă lucruri pe care le porţi în tine şi de care nu eşti conştient. Aici, facem referire la infinitele coridoare ale labirintului cunoaşterii care se sprijină pe linia ideii că "tot ceea nu există poate fi închipuit, şi că ceea ce poate fi închipuit poate fi transpus într-un nou univers lingvistiv, ştiinţific, cultural.

Labirintul este rezultatul unor abordări sistemice și complexe ale acțiunilor necesare pentru asigurarea unei bune corelări între ceea ce se numeşte ordinea naturală şi ceea ce se poate numi ordinea "supranaturală", între orginea celestă şi cea terestră. Ceva mistic, nu-i aşa?

Poţi găsi calea de ieşire cu ajutorul stimulilor de transmitere a informaţiei, precum comparaţiile, conotaţiile, metaforele, analogiile, care sunt influenţate de puterea vizualului - în funcţie de perceperea, sub mai multe aspecte, a spaţiului şi a elementelor din jur.

A produce o noutate în domeniu înseamnă să reprezinţi în planul unei superioare aşteptări despre viaţă şi despre lume o realitate surprinzătoare, sub formă de plăsmuiri, care poate exista chiar şi atunci când tu nu mai eşti. Noutatea este chiar povestea ta rămasă neterminată...

Leadershipul receptiv se referă la modalitatea de a alcătui şi a expune un mesaj provenit din observarea şi cunoaşterea lumii din jur, dar cu menţiunea că trebuie să trăieşti experiența de a-ți împinge mintea până la limitele ei și a o forța să sară dincolo de cunoscutul imediat, spre o realitate care se dovedeşte mai fascinantă şi mai copleşitoare decât orice tenebră.

Leadershipul receptiv mai este cunoscut drept "Proba Labirintului." Iar fiinţa supremă care ţine sub control toate misterele labirintului este simbolul continuităţii în evoluţia ştiinţei.

Leadershipul şi Arta

On Iulie 21, 2016

Lărgeşte-ţi orizontul în ceea ce priveşte viziunea asupra artei, susţinând poziția pe care o manifeşti față de încercările de conturare a unui nou profil al ei.

Înainte de a se începe filmările, regizorul Boris Mihin, grijuliu, văzând lipsa de cunoştinţe tehnice ale lui Eisenstein în domeniul cinematografiei, îl introduce în ambianţa studioului, îi alege colaboratori dintre specialişti. În primul rând, un operator. Pe Eduard Tisse. Mihin îi şi explică motivul acestei alegeri:

- La dumneata, teatrul se pasionează pentru acrobaţie. Deci, probabil şi în cinematografie vei fi imprudent. Însă Eduard posedă o strălucită experienţă de cronicar şi mai este şi un excelent sportiv. Fără îndoială că o să vă potriviţi bine.

Profeţia aceasta a fost confirmată printr-una din cele mai desăvârşite colaborări artistice. Prima lor întâlnire avu loc în grădina însorită a vilei Morozov, sediul teatrului. Întâlnirea între doi oameni net diferiţi, între două caractere, două temperamente opuse. *

Leadership: Poţi să stabileşti sensul creator al unirii a două reprezentări distincte ale valorii, sub raportul dintre gândire și realitatea unui "extra-output" în tranziţie?

Rezultatul muncii este asemenea unui brand care dă o notă de prestigiu produsului oferit: are o esenţă (a conceptului pe care îl promovează) și o identitate care îl face recunoscut. Dar pentru ca acest rezultat să fie definitoriu pentru un leadership profitabil, el trebuie să-și construiască propria identitate dintr-o experiență comună de dezvoltare şi multiplicare, sub auspiciul a două reprezentări diferite ale valorii.

Mai întâi, o valoare care impresionează printr-un act de receptare a experienței de raportare la o cunoaştere axată pe mânuirea puterii de creaţie și aprecierea ei, ceea ce fundamentează dorinţa de implicare şi împinge spre acțiune. O asemenea valoare se afirma în mod unic într-o carieră artistică, lărgită prin deschiderea către noi moduri de a percepe trecerea spre un nivel înalt de măiestrie.

Și o valoare menită încurajării deprinderii și promovării unei atitudini etico-estetice faţă de opera în cauză. Aceasta integrează crezul (totalitatea principiilor după care te conduci) pentru o anumită direcție de determinare a apartenenței tale la acea aspirație de explorare, mai profundă şi mai largă, a elementelor care îți pot conferi statutul de artist.

Sensul creator al unirii celor două reprezentări distincte ale valorii este acela de a acumula o cât mai mare dependenţă de contribuţie la alcătuirea profilului artei, fără să simţi acea "constrângere" impusă de o oarecare apreciere a scopului și funcţiei ei. Pe acest considerent, putem afirma că arta este întâlnirea dintre două lumi, materială şi spirituală, este întâlnirea dintre două caractere opuse care se manifestă ca un tot unitar, evidenţiindu-se simbolic şi artistic prin raportul dintre umbră şi lumină.

Leadership: Poţi să dai o măsură nouă revitalizării expresiei artistice prin optimizarea experienţei de creaţie ce intră în raza de rezonanţă a unor minţi care au înţeles că "puţinul spune mult" ?

Elanul spre noi înălţimi ale acestor două valori privește într-adevăr creația, dar nu o împlinește ca dragoste faţă de virtuțile artei decât prin rezultatele experienței de a te aşeza pe poziția unui artist. O poziţie în care, de regulă, se conturează două caractere, două temperamente opuse. Din care unul este dominant.

După cum știm deja, caracterul şi temperamentul constituie ansamblul trăsăturilor care condiționează capacitatea de lucru, echilibrul și stăpânirea de sine a unei persoane. În exercitarea leadershipul este vitală deprinderea acelei variante de caracter + temperament care poate fi responsabilă de dependenţa persoanei de a se conecta mai profund la acea experiență artistică care mobilizează spre atingerea unui nivel mai înalt de afirmare.

Extra-outputul este determinat de îmbinarea valorilor cu poziția pe care o manifeşti faţă de încercările de conturare a unui nou profil al artei. Şi se află în tranziţie atunci când ești în faza de încadrare într-o anumită variantă de caracter + temperament, încât rezultatul creaţiei finale să capete sensul de revelaţie continuă, de raţiune profundă şi de valoare absolută.

În leadership, la fel ca în artă, se poate spune că "puţinul spune mult" atunci când rezultatul creaţiei finale se împlineşte prin valoarea acordată gloriei înfăptuitorilor ei de a fi mai mult decât unici, de a fi nişte privilegiaţi ai ştiinţei şi progresului.

Leadershipul şi Arta au ca numitor comun valoarea pe care o sugerează sub raportul dintre experienţa de stăpânire a creaţiei și realitatea unui extra-output în tranziţie. Iar ele două pot forma legături, se pot transforma una în alta atunci când omul îşi deschide noi orizonturi în faţa gândirii axată pe afirmare.

Leadershipul şi generaţia "Copy-Paste"

Fii pregătit să dai creaţiei tale un impuls care să-ţi restarteze conexiunea cu universul interior, căutând o asemănare între aspectul material şi cel însufleţitor care poate crea efectul de "Întreg".

Așa era pe vremuri. Era o muncă de gazetar peste tot: literaţii extrăgeau bucățele de text din diverse surse străine, le traduceau, le amestecau și le aruncau aproape de-a gata într-un buletin săptămânal cultural, fără ca ele să denote vreo pronunțată originalitate, ci doar o minimă încărcătură conotativă. Altfel spus, era un fel de treabă făcută de papagali. Copy-Paste la greu. Dar era o practică legală, fiindcă apăreau la bibliografie sursele originale de inspiraţie.

Când cineva deschidea o carte, şi prima oară se uita la bibliografie, putea să vedă pagini întregi numai cu surse de inspiraţie. Şi cu cât erau mai multe surse biografice, cu atât era mai mult Copy-Paste.

Dar, până la urmă, toate somitățile de acest fel nu veneau cu nimic nou, nu exprimau nicio idee deosebită, nimic care să denote o implicare în actul de creație. Măcar de-ar fi inserat un sens de l'humour très subtil printre textele lor, dar chiar și pentru asta trebuia să scotocești bine prin operele scrise de alţi autori străini. Căci, la majoritatea scriitorilor şi gazetarilor, mintea nu mergea mai repede decât inspiraţia.

Și în continuare la fel. Suntem în secolul programării, unde instrumente precum Python, C++ și Go găsesc răspunsuri la întrebările adresate tehnologiei. Iar aici, aceeași indivizi, îmbătrâniți de vreme, în continuare insistă să sclipească cu aceeași muncă de gazetar obosit, cu același tip de activitate: traducere și Copy-Paste de prin diverse surse străine. Irațional, nu-i așa?

Și ce lecție se desprinde de aici? Să nu fii niciodată bătrân și ramolit ! De fapt, mulți au fost dintotdeauna bătrâni și ramoliți, fără să-și de-a seama de neputința lor jalnică. Norocul mare este că știința nu evoluează datorită acestor intelectuali de ocazie, prea bătrâni ca să mai facă distincția între originalitate și banalitate, între artă și kitsch.

Somnoroase păsărele... Domnilor, nu visați să ajungeți printre stele... Căci sclipirea fără nicio vrajă este doar o rugăciune fără orizont.

Leadership: Poţi să fii creativ fără a genera de fapt inovaţie reală în mod proporţional, ştiind că ceea ce scoţi la lumină din gândurile tale este pe jumătate real şi pe jumătate fals?

Este oare posibil să înţelegem în mod raţional practicile foarte comode, dar fără a genera de fapt inovaţie reală în mod proporţional? Logica spune că nu, dar faptele spun da. Aceste practici rituale, fără acoperire ştiinţifică, ale unor oameni - asemănători acelor soldaţi care fac tot timpul manevre fără să intre vreodată în luptă, nu pot fi înțelese dacă sunt privite în calitate de comportamente izolate, nu pot fi susţinute de calităţile de căpătâi ale leadershipului: sinceritatea, dreptatea şi măreţia.

Rămâne să formulăm o înţelegere raţională a influenţei reciproce dintre cunoaştere şi înţelepciune, pe fondul exerciţiului mintal şi sufletesc, adică dintre aspectul material şi cel însufleţitor, ceva ce poate fi înţeles ca aspecte ale unui act de creaţie unic. Sondând chiar mai adânc în dimensiunea gândurilor noastre, ca să scoatem la iveală o logică comună, vom descoperi că sunt atâtea lucruri pe care le-am omis, şi pe care le putem aşterne pe o bucată de hârtie.

De ce trebuie să apelăm la gândurile altora, dacă avem deja în noi înşine reţetele unor idei alternative, adevăruri ştiinţifice nescoase la iveală, ale preţiozităţii exprimării libere şi creative, productive în ceea ce priveşte organizarea pragmatică reală a unui discurs sau a unei compoziții de proză care comunică în mod eficient cu publicul dorit?

Ei bine, aşa cum adăugarea unui nou brand la un produs fără elemente de inovaţie nu va genera companiei creşteri reale pe termen lung, tot aşa practica Copy-Paste nu va putea scoate la iveală adevăratele valori pe care se clădesc caracterele creative. Gândiţi astfel: trăiri afective, mobilizări de voinţă, succese sau insuccese care clădesc germenii viitoarei personalităţi, toate acestea sunt paginile rupte ale poveştii voastre, fiindcă nu încercaţi să le scoateţi la iveală. Simţiţi cum inima vi se rupe (sau ce a mai rămas din ea) atunci când nu aveţi nimic a spune despre ceea ce vă doare?

Cred că v-aţi dat seama. Originalitatea se bazează pe generarea de experienţe, ele fiind o arie generoasă, fără graniţe de creativitate, inovaţie, oportunităţi. Or această străduinţă de a copia din alte părţi informaţii, utilă temporar doar pentru a extinde aria de informare a populaţiei, chiar şi fără a avea neapărat experienţă într-un domeniu, va conduce la mari semne de întrebare şi mister vizavi de practicile actualului sau viitorului lider.

Leadershipul are ca fundament următorul principiu: "Să cunoşti partea care lipseşte din propria ta fiinţă este metoda cea mai bună de a înfrunta partea care lipseşte din alţii."

Leadership şi generaţia "Copy-Paste" categoric nu se pot învecina prin metodele care sporesc capitalul de idei trebuincios susţinerii dezvoltării unui domeniu ştiinţific. Leadershipul nu are ca fundament principiul "ce este al altora, poate fi şi al nostru", deoarece ştiinţa trebuie să-şi dovedească diversitatea, printr-un gest de măreţie şi frumos care să nu fie considerat demn de imitat.

Numai inovaţia este în stare să trezească admiraţie.

Legea adăpostului sigur

On Martie 05, 2011

Cel ce nu dezvoltă în conştiinţa oamenilor senzaţia de congruenţă, nu va găsi niciodată un adăpost bine protejat în inima lor.

Conceptul de leadership îl asociez mereu unor întâmplări sau situaţii de viaţă, unor poveşti sau unor personaje, momente, fapte sau experienţe trăite cândva de alţi oameni. Aşa se face că, dorind să-mi extind cunoştinţele şi înţelegerea a ceea ce înseamnă să fii lider, am recitit ieri biografia celebrului scriitor irlandez Oscar Wilde, a cărui opere au făcut înconjurul lumii.

Wilde a fost o persoană foarte respectată în înalta societate, o persoană a cărui influenţă s-a exercitat asupra tuturor celor cu care venea în contact, câştigându-le simpatia cu manierele sale rafinate şi cu modul său elegant de a fi. Operele i-au fost admirate, a câştigat numeroase premii literare. La vârsta de 30 de ani devenise atât de popular încât toate cercurile londoneze auziseră numele de "Wilde". Atitudinea oamenilor faţă de el era foarte favorabilă, încât a ajuns singur să se supranumească: "Regele vieţii"sau "Simbolul artelor şi culturii epocii sale".

Dar geniul care îşi ridică în slăvi propria-i genialitate îşi pierde în cele din urmă norocul şi reputaţia. Acuzat de imoralitate, "Regele vieţii" a căzut în dizgraţie la fel de uşor precum le câştigase anterior tuturor simpatia. Succesul l-a incitat prea mult, bucuria lăuntrică ce o simţea îndeplinindu-i-se una câte una dorinţele, l-au împins tot mai mult spre fundul abisului. Din cauza individualismului şi a egoismului său exagerat, de care tot mai des dădea dovadă, oamenii s-au distanţat tot mai mult de el.

În timpul detenţiei sale, Wilde a dat viaţă ultimei sale creaţii "De profundis" (Glasul din adâncuri), în care recunoştea chinuit de o aprigă războire interioară: " Obosit de viaţa la înălţimi, am alunecat cu bună ştiinţă în abis, în căutare de senzaţii noi. Am devenit nepăsător faţă de existenţa celorlalţi. Am aflat plăcerea acolo unde am vrut, şi am plecat mai departe. Am încetat să mai fiu căpetenia propriului meu suflet, am îngăduit plăcerii să mă domine. Am sfârşit într-o batjocură fără margini. "

Leadershipul defectuos se aseamănă foarte mult cu o casă foarte mare, cu etaj, dar în care soarele nu pătrunde decât de câteva ori pe an, şi în care locuiesc doar două fiinţe: tu şi cu tine însuţi. E ca şi cum te-ai afla noaptea într-un ţinut izolat, azvârlit departe de lume.

Leadershipul de calitate nu este o casă cu un singur locatar. A avea succes sau a eşua depinde în mare parte de abilitatea ta de a clădi relaţii strânse cu ceilalţi oameni şi de a le menţine într-o stare bună. Un leadership de calitate presupune să-i găzduieşti şi pe ceilalţi în sufletul tău, să proiectezi în conştiinţa lor un sentiment de potrivire perfectă, ca, la rândul tău, să găseşti un adăpost bine protejat în sufletul lor. Numai şi numai calda prietenie ce te leagă de ceilalţi oameni, va conferi valoare leadershipului tău.

Leadership: Te manifeşti ca un ecou ce răspândeşte o stare de împăcare cu sufletul în încercarea de a experimenta esenţa propriei conştiinţe?

Aşa cum un pictor observă cu măiestrie firescul atitudinilor modelelor sale, tot aşa şi oamenii observă cu uşurinţă ceea ce este caracteristic la tine, care sunt înclinaţiile tale, ce sentimente nutreşti pentru viaţă, pentru ei şi pentru propria ta persoana. Ancorează-ţi gândirea într-un fel de a înţelege sentimentele, perspectivele şi valorile oamenilor, oferind un exemplu valabil şi demn de luat în seamă.

O gândire bazată pe negarea principiilor celorlalţi, va face din tine un individualist absolut: nu te vor mai interesa părerile celorlalţi şi îi vei trata pe toţi cu indiferenţă, aşa cum a făcut-o Oscar Wilde. Ce pierdere pentru virtute !

Concepţiile pe care ţi le faci despre rolul tău în societate, despre atitudinea ta faţă de tine însuţi şi faţă de ceilalţi din jurul tău, despre scopul ce se cuvine să-l ai şi mijloacele prin care să-l realizezi te îndepărtează sau te apropie de ceilalţi. În lipsa unei gândiri bazate pe principii solide, precum principiile onoarei, respectului reciproc şi încrederii, în lipsa unor valori comune cu a celorlalţi succesul tău, ca lider, este imposibil de realizat.

Leadershipul este accentul pus pe crearea şi exteriorizarea unor trăiri care nu depăşesc puterea celorlalţi de a se afilia la ele.

A fi un factor determinant al demnităţii înseamnă să te încarci cu valoarea inteligenţei de a transmite tuturor oamenilor cu care te întâlneşti faptul că "aici" în prezent şi "acolo" în viitor eşti pregătit să accepţi cauzele şi efectele unor trăiri defectuoase care nu au voie să existe în afara ta.

Concluzie: Cei care poartă în sufletul lor senzaţia de congruenţă, mai ales cu liderul lor, se vor alătura acestuia, vor rupe rândurile şi astfel vor “constitui” un adăpost sigur pentru toţi, adăpost ce va rezista în faţa marilor furtuni.

Transformă-ţi leadershipul într-un adăpost de care să beneficiezi atât tu, cat şi restul lumii.

Legea alpinismului

Nu încerca să escaladezi un versant abrupt, fără să te asiguri că cineva experimentat îţi ţine coarda.

Viaţa este scurtă şi fragilă, iar Peter ştia foarte bine acest lucru. În urma unei avalanşe sora lui, Annie, împreună cu alţi doi alpinişti rămăseseră izolaţi sub un perete de gheaţă pe muntele K2 din Himalaya. Nelăsându-se pradă tristeţilor şi gândurilor negre, el s-a hotărât să plece în căutarea lor. Dar să urce până la aproape opt mii de metri, pe o vreme capricioasă cu temperaturi sub zero grade şi cu ninsoare, era sinucidere curată. Acolo sus nu se moare, acolo eşti mort.

Peter, fiind el însuşi un alpinist, a strâns de urgenţă o echipă de salvare, formată din cinci persoane, cu ajutorul cărora a pornit în căutarea celor dispăruţi. Problema şi mai mare era că nu ştia exact locul în care dispăruseră cei trei. Prin urmare au fost cu toţii nevoiţi să meargă prin gheaţă, printre stânci. Şi cum niciunul dintre ei nu cunoştea muntele îndeajuns de bine, şansele de reuşită erau minime.

Leadership: Îţi asumi o identitate care să-ţi permită să accesezi o nouă formă de a oferi încredere, fără să pui sub semnul întrebării valabilitatea misiunii tale?

Orice om e pregătit să pornească o acţiune, dar nu orice om e pregătit să fie lider.

Identitatea este ceea ce te face diferit de ceilalţi oameni. Dar nu orice identitate care se diferenţiază prin curaj, responsabilitate, creativitate, ca rezultat al experienţei dobândite pe parcursul unor îndelungate încercări, poate să ofere un cadrul în care se dezvoltă majoritatea situaţiilor de acţiune colectivă. Ci numai o identitate care, pe lângă toate atributele unei bune poziţionări în mijlocul provocărilor cele mai dure, reuşeşte să se manifeste printr-un viu sentiment de apartenenţă la condiţia de erou şi se exprime prin intermediul şanselor de salvare pe care le reprezintă.

Dacă ai urmărit filmul „ Vertical Limit (2000) ", atunci îţi aminteşti precis că salvarea lor, ajutorul lor numărul unu, omul de bază – cel pe care s-a sprijinit toată acţiunea, a fost nimeni altul decât Montgomery Wick.

Acesta era un alpinist desăvârşit, mai în vârstă ce-i drept, având însă la activ numeroase escaladări. Mai salvase în alte rânduri oameni pe munte, fiind singurul alpinist care cunoştea foarte bine traseele montane, singurul în măsură să hotărască, să gândească, să decidă ce e bine şi ce e rău, pentru ca această misiune de salvare să nu fie un fiasco total. Privirea puternică şi statura impunătoare, competenţele sale deosebite obţinute de-a lungul unei cariere foarte lungi, făceau din el un adevărat luptător, un adevărat supravieţuitor, un profesionist şi singurul furnizor de speranţe. Toţi au ascultat cu sfinţenie de el, fără a pune semnul întrebării valabilitatea lui.

Îţi poţi verifica nivelul de leadership atunci când reuşeşti să faci deosebirea între şansele de salvare pe care le reprezinţi şi preţioasa energie pe care o iroseşti în lupta cu morile de vânt.

Toate reuşitele şi eşecurile unei echipe sunt rezultatul direct al acţiunilor liderului. Montgomery Wick l-a ajutat pe Peter să poarte mai uşor povoara îndatoririlor sale, salvându-l chiar de două ori de la moarte. Totodată el a fost cel care mobilizat întreaga echipă, împărţind-o în grupuri de câte două persoane astfel încât căutarea să se facă cât mai uşor şi să fie cât mai precisă, el a fost cel care a stabilit o oarecare ordine, el a fost cel care a dat tonul echipei motivându-i pe fiecare să se implice serios în această acţiune.

Peter, deşi foarte curajos şi cu o tărie de caracter rar întâlnită, nu era un alpinist de talia lui Montgomery Wick. Hotărârea lui de a porni în căutarea surorii sale s-a manifestat de la început într-o formă vădită şi impulsivă, era atât de hotărât s-o găsească încât nu s-ar fi oprit până ce nu desăvârşea tot ce şi-a pus în minte, nu şi-ar fi găsit liniştea până ce nu şi-ar fi atins scopul, s-ar fi avântat cu un curaj imperios în cele mai riscante acţiuni.

Însă, din păcate, această voinţă de fier, acest curaj nebun ce-i caracterizează în general pe cei ce sunt prizonieri ai unei singure idei, l-ar fi condus direct la moarte - în cel mai bun caz şi-ar fi irosit preţioasa energie în lupta cu morile de vânt ca Don Quijote.

Leadership: Mărturia puterii de a-ţi accepta eşecul misiunii este o cauză a accesului limitat la o formă superioară de percepţie a vulnerabilităţii personale ce se manifestată la depăşirea unor experienţe dificile?

El nu ar fi putut duce la bun sfârşit misiunea de salvare, nu pentru că nu s-ar fi dedicat timp şi suflet ei, ci pentru că îi lipsea experienţa atât de necesară unor acţiuni de amploare şi mai ales fiindcă, aşa cum spuneam şi mai devreme, nu cunoştea traseele montane, ceea ce era un lucru vital. El a fost pregătit să pornească acţiunea, dar nu şi să o ducă până la capăt. Fără Montgomery Wick ar fi eşuat.

Tu cum te percepi ca urmare a vulnerabilităţii personale ce se manifestă la depăşirea unor experienţe dificile: ca un om mărginit sau ca un factor determinant al credibilităţii?

Leadershipul este deschiderea ta în faţa a ceea ce meriţi să primeşti de la viaţă atunci când tot ce ţi-ai dorit este să fii în frunte, fără să ştii că te aşteaptă o cursă mult mai lungă şi mai grea decât ţi-ai putut imagina.

P.S. Uneori cunoştinţele nu sunt suficiente dacă nu există şi experienţa îndelungată. De aceea proverbul „ cine nu are bătrâni, să-şi cumpere " exprimă o realitate des întâlnită, chiar şi referitor la liderii mai tineri.

Legea artei cuprinsă în orizontul larg al ştiinţei

Descătuşează-ţi latura artistică şi dă frâu liber imaginaţiei, croindu-ţi o existenţă care se pierde în nelimitatul unui moment din care poate răsări oricând o mare revelaţie.

Singura formă de rezistenţă a omului pe termen lung este capacitatea de creaţie, o pendulare între mai multe culori complementare care privită din perspectiva apartenenţei la conduita artistică a unui pictor aduce mai mult cu maniera unică de a regândi limitele unei lumi simbolice. Ea atinge bolta absolutului prin intermediul cuvintelor și respirațiilor sufletului, existând astfel pericolul confundării universal-valabilul cu universal-cunoscutul.

Nu voi înţelege niciodată noţiunea de predestinare a comorilor universului decât prin plasma vie a cuvintelor care cuprinde şi exprimă un "înafară" dinspre interiorul fiinţei. Cine încearcă să se raporteze la mine, aşa cum procedează pictorii când îşi aleg modelele de inspiraţie, printr-un soi de echivalare a valorii, va trebui mai întâi să înlocuiască cunoaşterea intelectuală cu trăirea intensă rezervată apropierii de tainele sfinte.

Fiind în posesia unei cunoaşteri pe care nimeni n-o poate pătrunde doar cu mintea, ci prin mecanismul de acţiune al unei pasiuni venită din partea unui îndrăgostit de frumos, ca trăitor personal al scenelor captate "in a stylized neverending story" dintre opera de artă şi acea parte a vieţii trăită cu ochii deschişi, îmi spuneam că nu aveam să mai ies vreodată din capcana aspiraţiilor cele mai avântate. Şi n-am ieşit.

Fără îndoială, am învăţat foarte multe de la impresionişti nu doar sub raport vizual al aplicării principiilor producătoare de efecte de ecleraj, ci mai sub forma unui intelectualism al vederii lărgite asupra universului ce poate fi cuprins numai prin mijloacele Marii Ştiinţe, suişuri şi coborâşuri ale unei suite de concepţii vizionare care fecundează sub ideea de Living Art . Exprimarea folosită pentru a atinge corzile sensibile ale corazonului, tainica ei vibraţie, introduce valoarea absolută de a vedea dincolo de iluzie, prin puterea raţiunii de a elibera conceptul "reflection" de limitările inevitabile ale unei experienţe de viaţă inepuizabile.

Înaintea mea, pictori precum Rembrandt, Delacroix, sau scriitori precum Hugo sau Dumas, s-au raportat la dimensiunile artei privită ca act de comunicare a unei cunoaşteri izvorâtă din experienţa personală cu prilejul utilizării anumitor ipostaze ale spiritului, prin reunificarea cu MATERIA PRIMA, simbolizând credinţa în Dumnezeu şi în forţele vii ale creaţiei.

Leadership: Poţi maximiza valoarea de unicat pe care ţi-o acorzi din poziţia unui participant activ la elaborarea unei arte inegalabile care promovează trăirea intensă rezervată apropierii de tainele de nepătruns ale experienţei vieţii?

Arta subtilă a înţelegerii celor sfinte este acea ramură a ştiinţei care se ocupă de identificarea, localizarea, definirea şi cunoaşterea traiectoriei numită "vibraţie", puritate expresivă, cu care este impregnată experienţa vieţii. Iar a te juca cu ştiinţa este similar cu a construi propriul oraş din piese lego. Deci, încă de mic trebuie să-ţi formezi gândirea inginerului înzestrat cu duhul moralităţii, al bunului simţ, al gustului pentru frumos şi al respectului faţă de natură.

Apoi totul e atât de uşor şi antrenant în acelaşi timp, să îmbraci dialogul viu al culorilor primare cu fervoarea pasională a conflictelor existenţei reale, să investeşti prin contemplare orice obiect cu acea calitate durabilă a conjuncturilor cosmice. Dar atât de uşor ! Şi cu toate astea, doar o mână mică de oameni reuşesc treaba asta.

Ştiinţa îţi răspunde fix după cum vrei tu, ca raporturi de forţe simbolice, de elanuri şi calităţi emoţionale. Indiferent cum aranjezi piesele, în ce ordine doreşti, chiar şi în somn, în mijlocul viselor, dacă eşti inginer iese întotdeauna ceva frumos la lumină. Iar dacă ai în suflet o aripă de înger poţi să conferi o aură poetică întregii tale creaţii.

Dacă vezi pe trotuar o biată frunză desprinsă din copac şi nu ştii să faci din ea un concept nou de locuinţă, atunci nu te poţi numi inginer. Un inginer reuşeşte să proiecteze întotdeauna şi la nesfârşit, din orice nimic o adevărată capodoperă. Dar numai pictorul îi dă puţină viaţă când experimentează atingerea nemărginirii, iluminării, prin acea forţă de sugestie plină de afecțiune, de compasiune, de puritate.

Să ordoni ştiinţei să se supună voinţei tale, ca şi când ai fi tu stăpânul ei, cel care îi dă viaţă, iată măreţia lui Diderot. Să sprijini baza sensibilă a construcţiei picturale pe un joc al interacţiunilor dintre stări emoţionale şi situaţii de viaţă atipice, iată sensibilitatea de a fi autentic care îl distinge pe Tiziano Vecellio.

Leadership: Îţi actualizezi în permanenţă demersul artistic analizând realitățile lumii contemporane prin mijlocirea unui parcurs vizual ce ia în considerație trecutul și se proiectează în viitor?

Ştiinţa şi arta au ca element comun corespondenţa plină de tâlc parcursă printr-o aparentă asemănare, de la scrierile lui Diderot până la celebrele lucrări ale lui Fulcanelli, în zig-zag-urile unei literaturi care cunoaşte oscilaţii sau exagerări prin intermediul artei ca instrument de investigare a realităţii. Ele dezvăluie o gândire axată pe logos, pe existența unor posibilități nelimitate de analogie, unde intervenţia lui Dumnezeu pare trebuincioasă atunci când trebuie întreprinsă consolidarea adevărului izvorât din diversitatea unei lumi pline de senzaţii şi aparenţe.

Prin mijlocirea unui parcurs vizual ce ia în considerație trecutul și se proiectează în viitor se realizează apropierea de o nouă dimensiune de percepţie a esteticului şi a profunzimii raportate la spiritul epocii, prin îmbinarea noului cu vechiul într-o manieră elegantă şi de bun gust.

Victor Hugo, maestrul patimilor care lega omul de prezenţa duhului lui Dumnezeu, îşi încheia socoteala cu simţul datoriei morale chiar în ultima păgină din romanul Mizerabilii: "Fac şi eu ce pot, sufăr de suferinţa universală şi încerc s-o uşurez. N-am decat puterile şubrede ale unui om şi strig tuturor: Ajutaţi-mă ! "

Titanii scriu istorie atunci când meditează, dar îşi recunosc neputinţa deprimantă care îşi aşteaptă reînsufleţirea într-un acompaniament cu un partener puternic. Uneori se întâmplă să nu ştiu prea multe despre expresia diferitelor stări sufleteşti care caracterizează modelele mele de inspiraţie, la fel cum se întâmplă cu o carte înainte să mă apuc să o citesc, la o anumită distanţă de cuceririle unor noi termeni de înaltă expresivitate. Dar e mai bine aşa, decât să strig mereu după ajutor.

Şi mă surprinde să îmi dau seama că viziunea în termenii unui dialog al culorilor nu e deloc ceea ce mi-am imaginat la o primă vedere, de unde şi plămada unei neaşteptate coerenţe şi lucidităţi demne de invidiat. Totodată, sunt conştient că partea mea de poveste urmează să fie pusă sub impresia unei prezenţe excesive de simboluri cu conţinut ocult, dar trebuie să-mi asum apartenenţa la un demers artistic care poate schimba pentru totdeauna percepţia despre puterea de transformare a materiei după modelul de evoluţie al universului.

În artă, sincronizarea dintre exprimare şi expresie se efectuează prin constatarea pe care o faci în legătură cu ceea ce simţi, admis exclusiv ca pe un fel de bibliotecă ambulantă, în acele momente de creaţie parcurse prin credinţă, într-o relaţie specială între Viaţă şi Univers.

Legea artei cuprinsă în orizontul larg al ştiinţei s-ar putea formula astfel: reglează-ţi viziunea în funcţie de mărturisirile pe care le conţine viaţa ta, în termenii unui armistiţiu semnat cu destinul al cărui scenariu este scris cu materia şi energiile universului.

Legea ascensiunii limitate

Orice ascensiune are o limită. Cel care nu-şi cunoaşte limita ascensiunii sale, se va prăbuşi.

Omul cel mai puternic e întotdeauna omul stăpânit de un singur gând, căci toată forţa pe care o posedă, energia, inteligenţa şi voinţa, sunt folosite numai şi numai într-o singură direcţie pe care o urmează cu sfinţenie.

Qin Shi Huang a fost un astfel de om. Încă de la vârsta de 13 ani, când a urcat pe tron, el a avut o singură ambiţie: să aducă glorie regatului său şi să unifice China. La vârsta de 29 de ani a hotărât să-şi pună planul în aplicare, obsesia lui de-o viaţă, să devină conducătorul absolut. Nu putea face acest lucru decât pe calea armelor. Regat după regat, armatele lui au nimicit totul în calea lor. Nimeni nu s-a putut împotrivi voinţei sale puternice. Iar cine a încercat să se împotrivească a avut parte de o soartă groaznică.

Leadership: Îţi faci remarcată latura valorică a personalităţii tale după constatarea că cel care are o putere peste măsură de mare, simte continuu nevoia să şi-o sporească?

În anul 221 I.C. Qin Shi Huang ajunge stăpânul absolut al Chinei. Puterea sa pare nelimitată. Este stăpân peste milioane de oameni. Este împărat a Toate, până la Ceruri. Dar cel care are o putere peste măsură de mare, simte continuu nevoia să şi-o sporească. Qin Shi Huang nu se poate mulţumi doar cu ce are, cu puterea pământeană, ci ca orice om avid de putere el vrea mai mult, întotdeauna mai mult. Şi ce poate fi mai mult, mai de preţ, mai presus de orice decât o putere căreia să nu-i poată rezista chiar nimeni: puterea de a fi nemuritor? Ca împărat, el simte că are dreptul la puterile şi nemurirea zeilor.

Prin urmare doar unui singur duşman mai trebuie să-i facă faţă, dar un duşman de care se teme mai mult decât orice: moartea însăşi. Are prea multe de făcut într-o singură viaţă, de ce să şi-o piardă la fel ca ceilalţi muritori? Aşa că porneşte o amplă campanie în căutarea secretului vieţii veşnice. Pentru că e hotărât să cheltuiască oricât ca să păcălească moartea investeşte averi în tot felul de alchimişti din toate colţurile imperiului, care mai de care mai sofisticaţi, cu diverse reţete proprii, care îi promit elixirul vieţii alături de alte vrăji dincolo de limitele imaginaţiei, menite să-i redea nemurirea.

Leadership: Eşti în măsură să te constitui drept parte a unei înţelegeri plasată într-un context de vinovăţie, ghidându-te după premisa că cel ce posedă ceva este întotdeauna bântuit de teama să nu piardă ce posedă?

Un singur gând îl macină pe împărat: leacul dătător de viaţă, fluidul fermecat care-l poate face nemuritor. Nu se mai poate gândi la altceva, nu mai poate spera la altceva. Ani de zile stăruie în căutarea lui. Dar starea lui de sănătate începe să se agraveze din cauza stresului, a supărării, a grijilor care-l frământă neîncetat, şi cu toate licorile primite de la aşa zişii alchimişti, nimic nu îi poate opri îmbătrânirea.

Întocmai ca un bolnav aflat pe patul de moarte, a cărui stare de sănătate devine tot mai precară, împăratul, obosit psihic, mai speră totuşi la o minune. Orice boală, orice durere, orice suferinţă se poate vindeca dacă găseşte la timp elixirul !

Leadership: Te sprijini în lupta cu destinul propriei opere după argumentul că atunci când începi să cazi într-o fântână, n-ai cum să te mai întorci?

O ultimă şansă de salvare mai are bolnavul aflat în ultima fază a bolii. Unul dintre alchimiştii care se înfăţişează la împărat, sau poate chiar unul din doctorii săi, îi dă un lichid misterios care sigur îl poate vindeca: mercurul (o substanţă foarte toxică). Câteva grame administrate cu grijă îi pot garanta pacientului nemurirea. Aşa că împăratul, nerăbdător, plin de speranţă, înghite câteva astfel de pilule conţinând fluidul menit să-l facă nemuritor. Şi, în mod ironic, moare.

Opera unui lider nu se construieşte pe estimarea vulnerabilităţii forţelor proprii în faţa drumului pe care şi-l făureşte singur, ci pe fondul modificării conştiinţei de sine care afectează asumarea rolului său în societate. Încă o dată se adevereşte vorba „de ce te temi, de aia nu scapi". Nu te poţi lupta cu destinul. Te va ajunge din urmă, orice ai face. În faţa morţii de neînlăturat deseori oamenii se amăgesc cu cele mai imposibile gânduri şi speranţe, dar la fel cum nimeni nu poate împiedica noaptea să coboare, niciun om nu poate fugi din faţa destinului implacabil.

Leadership: Care este limita până la care poţi accede prin mijloacele acceptate de putere şi glorie, luând în considerare varianta unei imagini de sine care nu urmează alte criterii decât cele de "valoare dusă la superlativ" ?

Strateg strălucit, ambiţios până la capăt, Qin Shi Huang a cucerit toată China care îi poartă şi azi numele. În inima lui a zăcut o dorinţă de viaţă ieşită din comun, amplificată de o imensă dorinţă de putere şi de glorie, pe care a dorit să şi le satisfacă la nesfârşit. Însă după atâtea cuceriri, el a căzut într-o adâncă stare de depresie. Căci atunci când un om posedă ceva foarte preţios este întotdeauna bântuit de teama să nu piardă ce posedă. Şi nimic nu rămâne mai trist pentru un astfel de om decât simţământul că moartea îl va despărţi de visele sale.

De-a lungul vieţii sale împăratul a obţinut tot ceea ce a vrut, putere şi bogăţii şi glorie. Dar toate acestea nu l-au făcut mai liber, ci dimpotrivă, l-au încătuşat. El a devenit prizonierul neputinţei sale de a obţine şi mai mult decât putea avea - la fel ca un alpinist care după multe osteneli ajunge în vârful celui mai înalt munte şi, absorbit de priveliştea nemaipomenită ce i se înfăţişează în faţa ochilor nu mai vrea să coboare, ci să se înalţe şi mai sus. Dar mai sus nu se poate ! Ori împăratul, încercând să atingă nemurirea a vrut să depăşească limitele omeneşti, ceea ce nu este posibil, iar „ elixirele vieţii veşnice " nu au făcut altceva decât să-i grăbească prăbuşirea. Aşa este, când o dorinţă puternică îl orbeşte pe un om, nimeni nu-i mai poate deschide ochii.

Orice urcuş îşi are coborâşul său, asta e ceea ce n-a vrut să accepte cu niciun chip împăratul Qin Shi Huang. Din momentul în care a început să se hrănească cu iluzia că poate păcăli destinul, înverşunându-se să trăiască veşnic, totul s-a schimbat. Iar drumul spre eşec a fost tot mai scurt.

Limita până la care poţi accede prin mijloacele acceptate de putere şi glorie este dată de punctul în care se întâlnesc conştiinţa unei căderi de la înălţime şi acceptarea unei realităţi care există dincolo de ceea ce crezi tu că este realitatea.

Concluzie: Orice om îşi are limitele sale. Iar orice om inteligent îşi cunoaşte limitele, iar atunci când realizează că a atins limita maximă, se mulţumeşte cu ce a obţinut. A tânji şi a acţiona pentru a depăşi nişte limite posibile nu va atrage beneficii ci va determina declinul său rapid, şi chiar prăbuşirea.

Legea aspră a bătrânilor (II)

On Ianuarie 04, 2013

Găseşte modalitatea potrivită prin care să-ţi poţi exprima atitudinea de învingător, fără să-ţi pierzi simţul finitudinii.

Aproape totul se schimbă şi dispare în această vijelie turbată de la răscrucea timpului. Numai un singur om rămâne, mereu în acelaşi punct, în toate demersurile pe care le desfăşoară şi cu toate convingerile pe care le are: Tom Bell. Iar asasinul, Anton Chigurh, continuă să ucidă şi este de negăsit.

Lumea întreagă pare că se prăbuşeşte, e limpede că viaţa din acele locuri însemna tot mai mult un drum rapid spre moarte. Bell rămâne, continuă să traseze consecvent noi orizonturi ambiţiei sale. Numai el, graţie rafinatei sale atitudini responsabile şi cutezanţei sale de a fi cu totul vrednic de chemarea lui, de jobul său, pare că se înţelege cu destinul.

Mereu se agaţă de o altă himeră, de un nou fir foarte fin de speranţă. Nu vrea să renunţe. Un fior nemărginit îi străbate fiinţa. Tot mai mult îşi biciuieşte demonul pentru a-i reaminti de scopul său, pentru a-i da avântul necesar izbânzii. Dar tot nu-l poate prinde pe Chigurh, mereu rămâne în urmă, tot mai în urma acestuia.

Leadership: Îți menții viziunea, chiar și în fața înfrângerii iminente, acceptând că nu poți controla realitatea?

Bătrâneţea nu-i smulge credinţa dintr-însul, aşa cum ai rupe din calendar foaia zilei trecute, dimpotrivă, îi întăreşte scopurile şi îi oţeleşte voinţa de a le atinge. Dar până când? Până când demonul însuşi se va învrednici să-i părăsească trupul.

Parcă din respect pentru imensa lui voinţă, soarta îi mai aruncă, dar aşa, din milă, o momeală, câte un indiciu - şi acela derutant, dar numai ca să-l despartă şi mai mult de adevărata realitate. Acea realitate pe care abia într-un sfârşit o acceptă pe deplin. Înfrângerea. Recunoaşterea neputinţei. Abandonarea falsei identităţi. Moartea eroului din el. Revenirea la acea valoare universală: măsura.

"Am ştiut mereu că trebuie să fii dispus să mori ca să-ţi faci datoria. Dar nu vreau să mai risc şi să mă întâlnesc cu ceva ce nu înţeleg. Sunt depăşit de situaţie. "

Leadership: E timpul să te eliberezi de adversarul din tine, prin definirea unei variabile de testare care sa te reprezinte in cuprinderea unei imagini de sine realiste?

Scriitorul francez, Anatole France, trăgea un semnal de alarmă pentru liderii de azi şi de mâine: " Bătrânii ţin prea mult la ideile lor. De aceea băştinaşii din insulele Fiji îşi ucid părinţii când îmbătrânesc. În felul acesta uşurează mersul evoluţiei. "

Ai înţelepciunea să iei decizia renunţării? Îţi poţi înfrâna pornirile şi excesele, sau îţi biciuieşti în continuare demonul din tine pentru a realiza imposibilul? Te hrăneşti cu iluzia că ai putea reveni la statutul eroului care ai fost? Cum îţi evaluezi progresul – în funcţie de necazurile şi dezamăgirile care se ţin lanţ în jurul tău?

Adversarul din tine este iluzia obţinerii unei reuşite care să-ţi întărească poziţia de autoritate, atunci când eşti trecut de vreme. A evolua nu înseamnă să-ţi devalorizezi identitatea printr-un avânt nemăsurat spre senzaţionale reuşite. Ci înseamnă să te redescoperi, a te deschide cu adevărat către schimbare, a fi mai înţelept. Un drum care îşi are rostul lui, chiar dacă asta înseamnă să abandonezi toate celelalte. Drumul retragerii, acceptarea adevărului: " Nu vreau să mai risc şi să mă întâlnesc cu ceva ce nu înţeleg. Sunt depăşit de situaţie ."

Chiar şi retragerea este o virtute. Iar ca variabilă de testare a raţionamentului care stă în spatele motivului real al evitării unei acţiuni cu consecinţe negative, restragerea devine un soi de identificator al resurselor proprii de a rămâne pe scena lumii sau în backstage. Retragerea este libera exprimare a adevărului care te eliberează de orice apăsare, de orice ezitare, de orice presiune pshică care te poate îndesa mai rău în lucrurile nasoale care ţi se întâmplau înainte.

Leadershipul este o retragere bine meritată din lumea superioară a idealului absolut, din care are de câştigat imaginea propriei tale constituții fizice și morale.

Leadership: Ce se întâmplă când tragi câteva gloanţe în propria ta imagine?

Parafrazând un scriitor celebru, a te menţine agăţat de iluzia perfecţiunii, printr-o încordare forţată a potenţialului, este ca şi când ai trage câteva gloanţe în propria ta imagine reflectată în oglindă: în cazul acesta dispare numai imaginea ameninţătoare, nu însă şi adversarul, care continuă să stea la pândă mai departe în tine.

Seducătorul avânt spre noi înălţimi, toate pornirile tale spre acţiuni ce aparent duc la succes, dar de fapt îngustează sau amplifică orizontul până la absurd, împiedicându-ţi paşii, conturează acea reflexie opusă adevăratei direcţii pe care trebuie s-o urmezi. Acea reflexie din oglindă care ar putea contrasta cu personalitatea ta dacă nu ai fi ceea ce ai acceptat să devii – un sclav al "demonului.

Factorul care te ajută să previi o eventuală rătăcire - acea fină deconectare de la realitate, elementul care intră să definească în mod esenţial identitatea ta, este controlul, înfrânarea demonului din tine, acest triumf asupra propriilor limite.

Înfruntă demonul din tine, fără să te menţii ancorat în iluzia evoluţiei pe care el ţi-o impune insistent. În leadership, atitudinea de învingător se manifestă uneori printr-o retragere din "culoarul campionilor" pentru a face loc onoarei şi respectului faţă de sine să se plaseze pe piedestalul triumfului.

Imaginea pe care ţi-o asumi într-o etapă a vieţii privită prin prisma fatalităţii sugerează dorinţa ta de a evada din realitate şi a te refugia într-o lume care încearcă în mod constant să te facă să devii altcineva, mai mult decât eşti capabil să fii.

Legea aspră a bătrânilor se poate formula astfel: "Găseşte modalitatea potrivită prin care să-ţi poţi exprima atitudinea de învingător, fără să-ţi pierzi simţul finitudinii".

Legea aspră a bătrânilor (I)

On Ianuarie 04, 2013

Înfruntă demonul din tine, fără să te menţii ancorat în iluzia evoluţiei pe care el ţi-o impune insistent.

Era într-un perpetuu delir. Dintre toate iluziile ce se puteau naşte în creierul acestui bătrân şerif din Desert Aire, cea mai ridicolă era ambiţia de a nu renunţa la scopul său. O lumină de nemurire, o odisee a spiritului se înălţa peste relativitatea şi contingenţa întâmplărilor fatale ce trăgeau palme banalului cotidian.

Numele lui era Ed Tom Bell. Scopul vieţii lui, tot mai aprig, mai apăsător, mai înrobitor, devenise destul de clar pe măsură ce evenimentele căpătaseră proporţii: prinderea şi arestarea lui Anton Chigurh, nemilosul asasin, această fantomă blestemată, un soi de Hector Barbossa care împrăştia spaima numai cu numele şi pe care întunericul îl ascundea foarte bine în corabia fatalităţii.

Dar prinderea unei fantome şi descâlcirea misterului care o înconjura, nu era deloc o sarcină uşoară pentru Tom Bell. Gândurile sale, tot mai bântuite de această formă de existenţă inumană care apărea şi dispărea, mereu în alt loc, hrănindu-se numai cu sânge nevinovat, se revoltau împotriva propriei sale legi, a asprei sale legi care abia eclozase din conştiinţa sa şi încă nu-şi încordase muşchii. Când oare va fi ea aprobată pe deplin?

În luptă cu demonul. Chinuit de acel gând care-i întreţinea flacăra insistenţei, şeriful Tom Bell se lasă înşfăcat de demonul speranţei şi al încrederii în sine, şi se azvârle cu toată energia în necunoscut. Un zbor spre absolut care se termină întotdeauna la fel – o nouă victimă, o nouă izbândă a „fantomei”. Iar el îşi închipuia că va reuşi până la urmă imposibilul, s-o prindă.

Anton Chigurh este întotdeauna de negăsit. Tom Bell dă mai departe ascultare demonului din el, rămâne pe poziţii, continuă urmărirea. Dar, ca o cruzime a sorţii, tot mai mulţi oameni sunt ucişi, tot mai mulţi bătrâni. Un fel de avertisment dat propriei sale slăbiciuni? Semnalul unei involuţii?

Leadership: Ambiţia ta de a evolua se bazează pe o filosofie centrată exclusiv pe ideea: "Am făcut din întunericul vieţii mele o misiune imposibilă" ?

În tine stăpâneşte demonul excesului? Cazi în plasa unei false identităţi? Cât de mult trebuie să se schimbe evenimentele pentru ca tu să te adaptezi la realitate? Te azvârli în necunoscut şi continui să rătăceşti într-o goană nebună după “fantome”? Te confrunţi cu un Alter-Ego autoimpus? Dai ascultare demonului din tine, continui o urmărire fără rost care îţi deformează percepţia asupra posibilităţilor de schimbare şi asupra propriului tău rol?

O decizie neinspirată, centrată exclusiv pe ideea "Am făcut din întunericul vieţii mele o misiune imposibilă", este să continui să trasezi noi orizonturi ambiţiei tale chiar şi atunci când te deplasezi în direcţia opusă evoluţiei tale. Potenţialul formei de a fi constant într-o situaţie de autoevaluare şi potenţialul formei de a satisface cerinţele unei conştiinţe care vrea să înfrunte lumea, depinde de latura dependenţei de sine.

Dependenţa de sine este reflectarea imaginii unei realităţi subiective care ia naştere prin concepţia că lumea a fost creată după tiparele impuse de jocul destinului, totul raportându-se la timp. Este echivalentul selectării unui crez în care pulsează permanent contestarea propriei capacităţi de a face faţă cerinţelor unui rol măreţ. Aşadar, la crearea dependenţei de sine participă tendinţa de a te hrăni neîncetat cu iluzii de autorealizare, autoputere şi de autopromovare, în încercarea de a accede acolo unde zarurile nu-ţi sunt favorabile.

Leadershipul este rezultatul unei opţiuni ferme ce corespunde unui scenariu în două etape: mai întâi îţi analizezi motivele pentru care te-ai potrivi unui rol major, apoi revii pe drumul tău normal. Altfel vei suporta consecinţele vulnerabilităţii tale în faţa neprevăzutului şi a paradoxurilor.

Această opţiune poate aduce un plus de valoare caracteristicilor tale de bază, sau poate activa acea parte din tine, acel "demon" - un alt fel de Ego, care îţi poate deforma percepţia asupra realităţii şi asupra a ceea ce eşti capabil să faci.

Un dezacord între " a fi " şi "a nu fi " prea bătrân pentru o nouă experienţă, poate merge prea departe, până la antagonismul dintre realitate şi iluzie. Este o stare de degradare a identităţii acordate ţie datorită locului, funcţiei, rolurilor, statutului care îţi revin în societate – dar care nu face cinste leadershipului.

A te încrede în tine însuţi este calea către succesul suprem, şi oricine poate să îmbine curajul, integritatea, capacitatea şi ambiţia pentru a schimba evenimentele prin propriul exemplu. Însă pentru a te califica pentru statutul de lider, trebuie să eviţi efectul de "prea încărcat" asupra zonei tale de dezvoltare. Acel efect nedorit de topire a propriei individualităţi relaţionale, a cărei primă realitate este de a te ţine constant în şah.

Cred că urmatoarea zicală se referă la aşteptările prea înalte ale fiecărui lider depăşit de propriile limite: " Dacă îţi schimbi poziţia faţă de soare, nu înseamnă că lumea se învârte în jurul tău. "

Abţine-te să culegi roadele propriului tău demon care îţi cere cu încăpăţânare să fii mai mult decât îţi permit limitele.

Abţine-te să-ţi lărgeşti orizontul dincolo de graniţa cu echilibrul. Nu-ţi schimba poziţia faţă de reperele cele mai înalte ale leadershipului, unicele valide, adânc înfipte în terenul uman-socio-profesional, ce pot fi identificate şi descrise printr-un singur efort de virtute: " Să te înfrânezi de la excesul de a fi în orice ai întreprinde ".

Este momentul să te retragi din viaţa profesională? Continui să încerci să te adaptezi la un mediu ostil, indiferent de consecinţele pe care le atrage după sine refuzul tău?

Şeriful Tom Bell este materializarea unei metafore care poată fi înţeleasă în felul următor: toţi suntem mânaţi de o forţă invizibilă să ne aşternem un drum plin de reuşite, dar asta nu înseamnă să fim întru-totul de acord cu ea.

Când încerci să-ţi urmezi scopul vieţii şi, o dată cu el, dobândirea unei noi înţelegeri a lucrurilor, aminteşte-ţi că ceea ce te poate doborî este deprinderea voinţei tale de a funcţiona după regulile condiţionate de evenimentele pe care nu le poţi împiedica să se întâmple.

Legea aspră a bătrânilor exprimă urmatoarea realitate: pe măsură ce înaintezi în vârstă, chiar dacă voinţa ţi-e puternică, randamentul scade. Şi astfel ţelurile înalţe spre care aspiri nu mai pot fi îndeplinite. În acest context, trebuie să ştii când să pui punct. Iar de vrei s-o iei de la capăt, trebuie să-ţi alegi calea adecvată.

Îngenunchezi în faţa unei voinţe smintite? Adopţi o linie sceptică în legătură cu posibilitatea depăşirii situaţiei în care te afli? Adopţi un comportament stereotip, egocentric, în acele circumstanţe pe care nu le controlezi? Rămâi mereu în acelaşi punct, în toate demersurile pe care le desfăşori şi cu toate convingerile pe care le ai?

Legea asului din mânecă

On Martie 13, 2010

La masa de joc, o partidă nu poate fi considerată pierdută câtă vreme mai ai o carte la îndemână.

Un singur vis, o singură dorinţă mistuitoare a avut Mahomed al II-lea: să întreacă cu mult faptele bunicului său Baiazid şi pe ale tatălui său, Murad, care au dovedit pentru prima dată Europei superioritatea militară a naţiunii turce. Şi, pentru a-şi putea dovedi calităţile reale de bun conducător, fapt ce l-ar fi putut propulsa rapid printre cei mai populari şi mai iubiţi sultani, s-a decis să cucerească cu orice preţ Bizanţul, ultimul giuvaier al împărăţiei lui Constantin Dragases (Constantin al XI-lea Paleologul).

Orbit de ambiţie, ahtiat după putere, după faima, el îşi construieşte o armată de aproape 150.000 de soldaţi, chemând sub arme toţi bărbaţii valizi din toate cele patru colţuri ale Imperiului otoman. Dar Bizanţul, ale cărui ziduri circulare de apărare erau extraordinar de rezistente, prevăzute cu creneluri şi deschideri, protejate cu şanţuri de apă, păzite de masive turnuri pătrate, nu poate fi cucerit deloc uşor. Niciun oraş din Europa nu era mai bine şi mai puternic apărat ca Bizanţul, acele blocuri masive de piatră sfidaseră toate maşinile de război cunoscute. Loviturile de berbece, proiectilele azvârlite de cele mai puternice mortiere şi culevrine ale vremii, rămâneau neputincioase în faţa acelor ziduri abrupte. Pe lângă asta, Constantin, ştiind foarte bine ce plănuieşte Mahomed, în ciuda mesajelor lui necontenite despre pace, ceru imediat ajutor lumii creştine din Europa.

Leadership: Ţi-ai exersat abilităţile în experiența de utilizare a "întâmplării destinului" pentru a birui o provocare măreaţă, în încercarea de a te defini în termeni de "creator al unei lumi noi" ?

La ziduri puternice, tunuri puternice. Datorită celui mai ingenios şi mai experimentat turnător de tunuri din lume de la acea vreme, un român pe nume Orban, sunt construite la ordinul lui Mahomed, într-un timp foarte scurt, nişte tunuri imense, cu bătaie foarte lungă, ale căror proiectile enorme din piatră au puterea să dărâme zidurile dintr-o singură lovitură. O întreagă armată, un întreg popor, timp de două luni târăşte 20-30 astfel de coloşi spre Bizanţ. Bătălia începe. Zilnic zidurile sunt zguduite de o mulţime de proiectile, fortificaţiile ciuruite. Starea de spirit a bizantinilor e în suferinţă.

Dar speranţa nu se lasă niciodată prea mult aşteptată, ci se întrezăreşte chiar atunci când ai mai multă nevoie de ea. Ajutoarele din Europa îşi fac apariţia. Patru corăbii imense, bine înarmate, cu un echipaj destul de mare, încărcate cu tot felul de provizii, reuşeşte să pătrundă în portul sigur al Bizanţului. În acest moment Mahomed realizează că şansele lui încep să se reducă tot mai mult. Căci în sprijinul Bizanţului vor veni şi alte ajutoare în următoarele săptămâni, şi altele, şi altele, iar el va întâmpina tot mai multe oprelişti şi cine ştie, poate că nu va mai reuşi să cucerească oraşul, iar visul său va rămâne la stadiul de vis.

Dincolo de mâinile de start stă voinţa neclintită a unui individ neînfricat de a da o lovitură de graţie regulilor stricte ale istoriei.

Leadership: Felul în care interpretezi sensul lumii şi al vieţii poate influenţa modul în care te raportezi la o imagine a puterii care se lasă condusă numai de noroc şi nu se lasă înfrântă decât de minunea unui fapt reprezentat prin semnul divin?

Când potul este imens, ori ai cărţi bune şi control asupra lor, şi mergi mai departe, ori dacă nu te retragi. Iar Mahomed ştie să interprezeze o minune atunci când ea se arată tocmai prin disperarea locuitorilor cetăţii Bizanţului de a ascunde dezastrul în care se află, prin disperarea lor de a găsi ajutor în marile puteri din Europa. Dar nimeni nu mai aruncă o privire încărcată de milă celui aflat în preajma morţii, nimeni nu ridică mâna să salveze o relicvă, o fantomă a trecutului. Semnul divin îl favorizează doar pe El.

Un om puternic, ambiţios până la capăt ca Mahomed, nu poate fi înduplecat şi nici intimidat de nimeni şi de nimic. O dată ce şi-a propus un scop, oricât ar fi de greu de atins, el nu se lasă cu una cu două, atitudinea lui fiind tot mai dârză, dorinţa lui tot mai acerbă. Pentru Mahomed, cu cât potul e mai mare, cu atât tentaţia de a merge mai departe este mai mare, cu atât e nevoit să-şi pună la bătaie tot ce are el mai de preţ, cu atât se îndârjeşte mai mult să câştige, chiar dacă riscurile sunt prea multe şi prea mari.

Stăpânit de exaltare ca un jucător de pocker care ştie că nu-i lipseşte decât o singură carte pentru a câştiga partida, Mahomed nu mai stă pe gânduri şi intervine imediat energic. El trebuie să fie Creatorul Lumii Noi, fidel unei viziuni pur materialiste, personale, deci mai puţin religioase, gata oricând să se sacrifice pentru idealul său de superioritate, astfel dând o lovitură de graţie regulilor stricte ale istoriei care garantau stabilitatea Bizanţului pentru o lungă perioadă de timp.

Asta îi caracterizează pe conducătorii cel mai de temuţi - ei nu prea obişnuiesc să se împovăreze cu niciun fel de ezitări, ci trec la acţiune, lovind direct în inimă, pe neaşteptate, fără reţineri, toţi adversarii, anihilându-le orice urmă de rezistenţă.

Leadership: Fundaţia vieţii tale se distinge prin abordarea temelor legate de reușită, de înfruntare a destinului, de a-ți depăși propriile limite și de a reuși în ceea ce-ți dorești într-un context de tipul "Aminteşte-ţi mereu de măreţia ta"?

Check-Raise. Nimic nu e mai greşit decât să judeci în mod greşit un om neînfricat şi abil, un adevărat jucător, care se pricepe cum să întoarcă în favoarea lui rezultatul.

Mahomed ştia că are o singură şansă să cucerească Bizanţul, dacă şi numai dacă cele patru vase creştine ar fi distruse şi scufundate imediat. Dar flota sa nu putea să pătrundă direct în golf, căci oraşul genovez Galata, a cărui neutralitate trebuia s-o respecte, stătea de strajă la intrare. Vasele creştine puteau fi atacate doar din bazinul interior, aflat dincolo de teritoriul genovez. Cum să aducă el oare flota în acest ochi de apă interior?

În timp ce în inimile asediaţilor plutesc bucuria şi speranţa, Mahomed a născocit un plan de-o îndrăzneală atât de fantastică încât ar merita pe deplin să figureze în istoria războaielor, alături de cele mai curajoase fapte ale lui Hannibal şi Napoleon.

Măreţia este şansa omului de a se distinge în istorie drept un maestru în domeniul hazardului, un maestru al teoriei probabilităţilor care aruncă un joker pe masa legilor de modificare a cursului lumii: "Fii pregătit să acţionezi fără limite atunci când a venit vremea să-ţi împlineşti menirea".

Planul său genial, acela de a-şi transporta flota, sutele de vase peste pământul muntos, în interiorul golfului, a fost perfect realizat şi încununat de succes. Într-o singur noapte, în mai puţin de 10 ore, şaptezeci de vase au fost trecute dintr-o mare în alta peste munţi şi vai, prin vii, câmpii şi păduri.

A doua zi în zori, bizantinii, care n-au luat în considerare în planurile lor o idee atât de absurdă şi irealizabilă, au rămas stupefiaţi, nu înţelegeau cum s-a petrecut minunea.

Iar abia în acel moment de cumpănă, amândoi jucătorii, şi Constantin şi Mohamed, au ştiut precis care dintre ei este câştigător la „masa de joc" – acela care şi-a jucat cel mai bine ultima carte, acela care a fost mai chibzuit şi mai eficient, mai abil şi mai agil - adică Mahomed.

Câştigător nu e acela care are cărţile cele mai bune, ci acela care ştie să joace cel mai bine ultima carte !

Victoria nu este obţinută de acela care are cărţile cele mai bune, ci de acela care ştie să le joace foarte bine pe cele pe care le are. Cred că istoria cuceririi Bizanţului de către Mahomed întăreşte acest lucru.

Mahomed nu s-a bazat doar pe hazard ci a riscat, întocmai ca un jucător de poker profesionist. Căci riscul, dublat de tenacitate şi abilitate, este cel mai mare atu al unui jucător. El a avut un as în mânecă, constând într-o idee genială de a ieşi din impas şi o strategie nemaipomenită de a o aplica. Numai datorită manevrei sale speciale din ultimul moment a reuşit să facă ceea ce nimeni altcineva nu mai reuşise – cucerirea Bizanţului.

Leadershipul înseamnă să produci un impact colosal asupra activităților tale de prelucrare a trecutului şi de rescriere a istoriei, într-o încercare a destinului de Creator care îşi joacă cartea expansionistă la nivel de glorie şi posteritate.

Fără îndoială un conducător adevărat nu-şi doreşte să cunoască gustul amar al înfrângerii, ci numai extazul victoriei. Tenacitatea şi efortul, capacitatea de răspuns rapid, isteţimea şi abilitatea, sunt trăsăturile lui cele mai folositoare. Cel care însă nu e îmboldit de o ambiţie puternică şi nu are o minte trează nu va putea să ajungă câştigător în jocul numit Leadership.

A avea un as în mânecă înseamnă să dispui de capacitatea de analiză a situaţiilor şi de capacitatea de răspuns rapid adecvat, să ai întotdeauna alte alternative chiar dacă în aparenţă sunt nebuneşti şi par imposibile, să ai îndrăzneala şi curajul să le aplici în ciuda piedicilor aparente. Asul din mânecă este totdeauna elementul surpriză pentru adversari şi deci trebuie să te asiguri că-l ai întotdeauna la îndemână.

Legea ataşamentului

Ataşează-te de oamenii care te pot face mai bun, şi vei găsi permanent un sprijin emoţional în ei.

Un pasaj din filmul "The Count of Monte Cristo (2002)" , pe care l-am revăzut seara trecută, mi-a rămas întipărit bine în minte. Contele rămâne singur cu Jacopo, camaradul lui credincios, în caleaşca sa aurită, după ce o renegă pe Mercedes, fosta lui iubită. Îl apucă pe acesta de haină, îl priveşte în ochi şi îi spune cu hotărârea omului pe care nimeni şi nimic nu-l poate abate de la ţelul său:

- Dacă mai intenţionezi o singură dată să-mi încurci afacerile, promit, jur că te voi ucide.

Jacopo nu reacţionează. Îl priveşte pe conte cu amărăciune. I-a înţeles vorbele ce trădau o conştiinţă încărcată, ştie bine ce se întâmplă în sufletul lui. Apoi îi spune neputându-şi stăpâni emoţia:

- Ai o avere, o femeie frumoasă care te iubeşte. Ia banii, ia femeia şi trăieşte-ţi viaţa. Lasă planul ăsta de răzbunare. Ia ce ai câştigat... Încă mai sunt omul tău. Am jurat că te voi proteja. Şi te voi proteja, chiar dacă va trebui să te protejez de tine însuţi.

Leadership: Contezi pe ce se execută în background-ul tău pentru a ţi se recunoaşte meritul de a fi dat o interpretare originală rolului pe care-l ai în asigurarea unei poziţii dominante?

Poziţia dominantă pe care o adopţi într-un schimb de păreri şi impresii inegale, bazată pe optimizarea relaţiei experienţă-cunoaştere, permite evaluarea unui termen de naştere a unei viziuni cuprins între feedback-ul pe care îl transmiţi că să observi de ce ai într-adevăr nevoie ca să te schimbi şi feedback-ul pe care îl primeşti ca să nu uiţi să reflectezi la ceea ce nu te-ai aşteptat să vezi la tine.

În background-ul tău se execută o comandă de tipul: "Nu trebuie să ascult de nimeni ! " sau o comandă de tipul: "Trebuie să aflu adevărul care mă poate elibera de mine însumi ! " ?

O inimă ferecată de ceilalţi oameni, se deschide numai faţă de un prieten adevărat. Contele de Monte Cristo, deşi era tot timpul înconjurat de oamenii din lumea bună, nu avea încredere decât într-un singur om, în Jacopo. Vorbele acestuia, spuse cu intenţii bune, i-au străpuns inima oţelită, alungându-i mâhnirea din suflet şi acel gust amar al răzbunării şi al suferinţei.

Nivelul tău de leadership este continuat de răspunsul la feedback-ul primit, din care derivă recunoaşterea imediată a autorităţii tale de a acţiona în numele propriului adevăr?

Nivelul tău de leadership poate să implice o interpretare a unei concluzii exploratorii, bazate pe fapte şi ipoteze, din care derivă ori recunoaşterea imediată a autorităţii tale de a acţiona în numele propriului adevăr, ori contestarea capacităţii tale de a face faţă cerinţelor unui rol de garant al schimbării.

Numai un prieten adevărat ia parte din toată inima la nenorocirea ce te loveşte şi îţi stă la dispoziţie pentru orice nevoie. Numai o fiinţă pe care ai plasat-o mai sus decât pe celelalte fiinţe omeneşti poate reuşi, folosindu-se de toate mijloacele posibile, să dea sens vieţii tale.

Celebrul Abate Prevost avea mare dreptate atunci când a precizat: " Nimic nu-i mai de admirat şi nu dă mai mult preţ virtuţii decât încrederea cu care baţi la poarta inimii unui om al cărui caracter sincer îl cunoşti. "

Îndemnul creştinesc al lui Jacopo, sau poate blânda lui milă, ori sfatul lui convingător i-au redus contelui gândurile de răzbunare, i-au înviorat puţin inima îngheţată făcând ca acel simţământ de gol şi durere de care era cuprins până în măduva oaselor să dispară. Cuvintele călduroase ale lui Jacopo au avut o influenţă notabilă în viaţa contelui, care, în finalul filmului, s-a împăcat cu Mercedes şi şi-a reluat viaţa după rânduiala ei iniţială.

Dezvoltarea personală are ca temei virtutea de a nu deveni criteriul hotărâtor al adevărului care nu te izbăveşte de gloria deşertăciunii - definită ca sumă a tuturor regretelor şi a intenţiilor duşmănoase.

Ataşamentul faţă de cineva care îţi este drag îţi lărgeşte orizontul şi îţi redă optimismul. Totul în leadership este strâns legat de relaţia pe care o ai cu ceilalţi oameni. E dovada cea mai de preţ a unui prieten adevărat căldura sentimentelor lui. Prezenţă continuă a lui Jacopo în preajma sa, dar şi dragostea ce o simţea pentru Mercedes, i-au îndepărtat contelui intenţiile duşmănoase. Mare nevoie a avut contele de omul ăsta care i-a dat un sfat preţios la momentul potrivit, o ultimă resursă a vieţii, vindecându-i rănile sufletului.

Ataşamentul faţă de cineva izvorăşte din adâncul tău şi îţi amplifică acea aură care te protejează de tine însuţi şi de obstacolele vieţii. Nimic nu te poate împiedica să te schimbi în afară de tine însuţi, însă un prieten care se îngrijeşte de tine şi de care te-ai ataşat mult îţi poate citi în adâncul sufletului şi îţi poate da acel impuls nedefinit de care ai neapărată nevoie pentru a-ţi consolida moralul şi pentru a-ţi lumina perspectiva vieţii.

Leadershipul este temperamentul pe care îl manifeşti în mijlocul unor sentimente tumultoase, abordat din prisma disponibilităţii de a reacţiona contra a tot ceea ce este incompatibil cu valorile, convingerile şi aspiraţiile tale cele mai înalte.

Concluzie: Liderul este şi el un om cu gânduri şi simţăminte. Şi ca orice om, are nevoie să fie sprijinit emoţional şi ascultat, are nevoie să-şi împărtăşească cuiva neliniştile, temerile şi speranţele.

Cine oare ar fi mai potrivit pentru acest rol? Cu siguranţă numai un prieten adevărat. Iar, aşa cum spunea un mare doctor român, " prieten adevărat de ţi-ai găsit, cu căngi de oţel de suflet să ţi-l ţii ! "

Legea celor chemați să recreeze viața

On Aprilie 16, 2017

Încearcă să atingi perfecţiunea, fără să te îndepărtezi de responsabilitatea care trebuie asumată prin refuzarea condiţiei de fiinţă efemeră și prin dobândirea statutului de „judecător al vieţii".

Aveam impresia că aceşti oameni trecuţi prin acţiunea nemilosului virus, comportându-se ca nişte programe informatice ce dau peste cap orice ad blocker, prin sugestia unei fatalităţi de tip naturalist care apăsa pe destinul unei agonii zbuciumate, erau greşeli grave de manifestare a voinţei înverşunate a naturii ce voia să se răbune cu orice preţ.

Privilegiul bogăţiei şi diversităţii naturii, un fenomen de canibalizare ca un simbol al renaşterii în miezul un joc plin de cruzime, pus la cale de un factor necunoscut, era acela de a combina viaţa cu moartea. Strălucită evoluţie biologică !

În această imagine a fatalităţii rodul predominant al geneticii era indirect un afluent al fluviului existenţei mult încercate. Îmi amintea de acele minunate versuri de la începutul Ecleziastului, din care am selectat doar cuvintele: "Deşertăciunea deşertăciunilor" puse pe seama haosului general, care, paradoxal, mi se păruseră revelatoare şi reconfortante.

Decât să accept un stupid fatalism animalic, să mor în durere doar ca să ajung la o viaţă sălbatică impusă de hotarele geneticii avansate, un Zombie, un hibrid performant într-un cadru pestilenţial al terorii, mai bine era să urmez sfatul lui Nietzsche: „Cel care are un de ce pentru care să trăiască poate să suporte aproape orice."

Şi nu doar să suport teroarea, s-o înţeleg cumva, ci să creez din ea condiţiile elementare ale unei vieţi noi, momente de început mai active, mai libere, s-o controlez prin mijloace specifice teoriei evoluţiei faţă de legile mendeliene ale geneticii. Nimic şi nimeni nu mă împiedica să promit că voi transforma lumea, electrizat ca un curent coborât din spațiul unei mistici abstracte de contactul cu diverşi purtători ai virusului, demonstrând că în adâncurile vieții există o intensă activitate revoluţionară.

Leadership: Te impulsionezi să împlineşti menirea vieții prin trecerea de la o stare de acceptare a unei viziuni fataliste la o poziție de curiozitate sinceră în a vedea cine ești cu adevărat?

Cu vădită atenţie, îmi dau seama că în interiorul meu exista un fond de răutate, o cruzime a conştiinţei şi a gustului intelectual, realist-naturalistă dacă vreți, o imoralitate absolută comisă din raţiuni pur machiavelice. Dar, în acelaşi timp, exista şi teama de o molipsire funestă. Ele mă făceau să vreau să pedepsesc orice greşeală, orice abatere de la normalul unanim acceptat de regulile de aur ale medicinii. Puteam oare să abandonez căutarea unui leac doar ca să mă delectez cu priveliștea morţii?

Dacă voiam să trec examenul experimental al geneticii, neatins ca un Zeu de marea urgie a naturii la care asistam cu uimire şi interes, cu sufletul neînvins de marele fast al unei biochimii care a luat-o razna, trebuia să mă conformez unui mesaj straniu, provenit din îndrăzneala ştiinţelor interzise: "Qualcosa è assolutamente non vero".

Una din aspiraţiile omului de ştiinţă, în viziunea marelui doctor Constantin Maximilian, este să creeze viaţa. „Să o controlezi, să devii demiurgul unui univers - universul genetic - ivit din întâmplare, pornit pe drumuri necunoscute spre hotare impuse de hazard şi de necesitate, într-un joc continuu, fără reguli aparent statornice, mi se pare cea mai cutremurătoare responsabilitate care trebuie asumată. Noi, o specie animală profund ancorată în istoria Pământului, vrem să depăşim condiţia animală pentru a deveni judecătorii vieţii."

Una din căile de a înțelege ceea ce viața încearcă să-ți comunice este să-ţi proiectezi o nouă varianta a ta în contextul străduinţei de a porni pe drumuri necunoscute, fără să abandonezi căutarea unui ideal înalt de perfecţiune.

Crearea unui „scut" din știința observării și aplicării legilor vieţii și explorarea sinelui pe fondul mişcării de reflectare asupra realităţii imediate, este cea mai bună metodă de protecţie împotriva cerinţelor raţiunii bazate pe discriminare care întărește dimensiunea individualistă a propriei fiinţe.

Liderul trebuie să fie, mai întâi de toate, reprezentantul strălucit al umanismului pornind de la mottoul: Omul dorește să știe tot ce se poate ști; deci să cercetăm, să căutăm, să aflăm, să știm, să atingem perfecţiunea... fără să ne îndepărtăm de responsabilitatea care trebuie asumată prin refuzarea condiţiei de fiinţă efemeră și prin dobândirea statutului de „judecător al vieţii".

Cine ești cu adevărat? Ești un om care suportă teroarea în scopul de a-şi extinde cercetările asupra unor condiții noi de susținere a vieții? Ești un om care judecă viața prin prisma sondării naturii înconjurătoare care își demonstrează superioritatea? Ești un om care promite să transforme lumea într-o cumpănă a vieţii, îmboldit de presimțirea sfârșitului ultim? Sau ești un om care studiază efectele experienţelor sale de evoluţie într-o oglindă prin care Creatorul se priveşte pe sine?

Interpretarea pe care o dai evenimentelor care ţi se întâmplă reflectă nivelul de suportabilitate pe care îl tolerezi în căutarea unei vieţi care poate face din tine un învingător sau un învins.

Legea celor chemați să recreeze viața poate fi definită în conformitate cu răspunsul la întrebările de mai sus. Ea se aplică acelor care, cu un singur simţ al datoriei faţă de ştiinţă, unul pretenţios, și prin obsesia de a înregistra tot ce se întâmpla în mijlocul furtunilor vieții, încearcă să-și făurească o judecată finală care să-i ridice la rang de Creator.

Ei ar trebui totuși să-și reamintească că însăşi la cârma corăbiei lor se află altcineva mult mai puternic. Dumnezeu.

Legea clăditorului

On Martie 15, 2010

Un lider nu poate clădi o lume mai bună dacă nu este hotărât să pună umărul în mod constant la edificarea ei.

Acolo unde este nedreptate, neadevăr sau neînţelegere, este şi Zorro. Acesta este mesajul filmului „ The legend of Zorro (2005) ”, pe care poate l-aţi urmărit şi tu cu aceeaşi plăcere ca şi mine.

La un moment dat, pe la începutul filmului, după ce-şi îndeplineşte misiunea pe care şi-a asumat-o singur, aceea de a recupera cutia cu voturi ale cetăţenilor din San Mateo din mâinile unei bande de răufăcători, Zorro se reîntoarce acasă la familia lui.

Seniora Elena de la Vega, bucuroasă că soţul ei şi-a încheiat misiunea, ultima lui misiune, aşa cum îi promisese nu demult, îi propune să-l ducă pe Joaquin, fiul lor, într-o călătorie în Spania, apoi la New York.

Zorro se gândeşte ce se gândeşte, oftează din greu şi până la urma spune:

- Nu. Oamenii au încă nevoie de mine. Nu este acum momentul să-i părăsesc.

Şi, ca întotdeauna, cum se întâmplă şi în realitate, atunci când soţul promite ceva şi nu se ţine de promisiune, soţia enervată la culme îi dă un ultimatum. De data aceasta unul foarte serios:

- Dacă ieşi pe uşa aceea, nu mai dormi aici la noapte. Cu alte cuvinte, dacă Zorro nu-şi respectă promisiunea făcută, ea îl va părăsi. Ceea ce s-a şi întâmplat.

Totuşi, în finalul filmului, după ce amândoi trec prin numeroase încercări şi prin multe pericole, se recăsătoresc, iar Elena consimte ca de fiecare dată când poporul va avea nevoie de Zorro acesta să revină şi să intre în acţiune. Şi este mândră de acest lucru.

Leadership: Eşti caracterizat de un viu sentiment de apartenenţă la un întreg al manifestării iubirii din totalul libertăţii de a aparţine unui ideal mai înalt?

Tu ai luat hotărârea de a îndeplini o datorie în mod constant? Cea mai importantă sarcină a unui lider este să-şi manifeste iubirea ca parte distinctă din totalul libertăţii de a aparţine unui ideal mai înalt, de tipul: "merg pe calea unei acţiuni de drept comun."

O dată ce un lider are o viziune, el trebuie să aibă şi puterea de a o duce la îndeplinire. El nu poate să clădească o lume fără să se mişte, fără să facă niciun efort, nutrind numai gânduri bune şi senine. Nu, el trebuie să se implice până la capăt. Ceea ce-l caracterizează pe un lider adevărat este faptul că are capacitatea de a-şi duce misiunea la bun sfârşit.

Oamenii aveau o încredere absolută în ajutorul lui Zorro, iar el, conştientizând foarte bine lucrul acesta, a refuzat să-şi îngrădească propriul potenţial. Ar fi putut foarte bine să se retragă din „activitate” pentru totdeauna, să caute puţină uşurare pentru sine şi să se mute definitiv din California. Iar pentru că era un Don, adică un om înstărit, n-avea să ducă lipsă de nimic.

Dar ce s-ar fi întâmplat cu oamenii, cu oraşul, cu speranţele lor? Cine i-ar fi ajutat? Ar fi îndrăznit altcineva, un alt Zorro, să-şi pună viaţa în pericol pentru ei, să lupte pentru dreptate şi adevăr cu o înflăcărare atât de mare?

În leadership, dovada existenţei unei acţiuni de drept comun creează un întreg al cărui rezultat înseamnă mai mult decât suma părţilor sale componente.

Iar acest întreg se incrementează cu un segment de emancipare a raţiunii, înţeleasă ca şi capacitate de dominare a unor contexte de tensiune, la recepţionarea fiecărei forme de încălcare a demnităţii umane.

Aşa că, decât să se usuce inutil ca o plantă ţinută la umbră, Zorro şi-a adunat din nou toată energia şi s-a dedicat unei cauze mãreţe. Ca orice om responsabil care nu se poate despărţi de lumea reală, el a preluat întru totul controlul a ceea ce se afla în subconştientul său şi, înflăcărat de marele lui scop: de a le recâştiga oamenilor libertatea, a pus piciorul pe acceleraţia propriului său potenţial mobilizându-se către realizarea lucrurilor care erau cu adevărat importante.

Iar soţia lui a fost mult mai fericită în final că are un soţ curajos şi hotărât, care reuşeşte să înfăptuiască lucruri mari, demne de laudă.

Leadership: Cum îţi este afectat scorul de importanţă când faci trecerea de la cunoaşterea morală a raţiunii comune la dezvoltarea conştientă a unui comportament radical care scapă de cele două limite?

Nu te poţi numi lider dacă nu preiei frâiele ori de câte ori este necesar. Cel ce nu face nimic altceva decât să aştepte şi să aştepte, simţind cum se scurg în juru-i orele, se uzează şi îmbătrâneşte zi cu zi. Însă cel ce are o minte deschisă şi este ambiţios ca un copil arde de nerăbdare să lupte pentru un anumit ideal, şi de aceea se avântă cu încredere, mereu şi mereu, în mijlocul acţiunii.

O parte importantă a artei de a conduce presupune să ştii ce vrei şi să te dedici acelui lucru în mod constant.

Nu te poţi numi lider dacă nu preiei frâiele cu toată puterea sufletului şi nu intri în acţiune ori de câte ori este nevoie de tine. Sau dacă nu eşti îndeajuns de hotărât să pui umărul în mod sistematic la realizarea scopului propus. Ca să câştigi acceptul celorlalţi trebuie să modelezi lumea din jur. Iar dacă laşi totul în voia sorţii, mai ales atunci când oamenii depind de tine şi se încred în ajutorul tău, vei distruge, vei înlătura sau abandona orice relaţie cu ei.

Importanţa pe care o are leadershipul în viaţa omului rezidă din forţa păstrării conştiinţei curate şi din susţinerea unei idei clare cu privire la modul de gestionare a vieţii. Acestea sunt cele două limite care de mute ori alterează starea de spirit şi percepţia asupra rolului pe care îl joci în dinamica dezvoltării personale, în dinamica relaţiilor şi în dinamica propriei reprezentări pe scena lumii. Limite care susţin trecerea de la cunoaşterea morală a raţiunii comune la o cunoaştere radicală.

Clăditorul este omul condus de satisfacţia eventuală ce izvorăşte din ţinerea de cuvânt şi din specificul obligaţiei morale de recunoştinţă pe care o datorează în mod continuu lumii, în temeiul gestului de a împărtăşi necondiţionat propria sa aventură de legendă.

Concluzie: Nu poţi construi nimic cu intenţii şi idei bune, ci numai implicându-te personal, cât mai des, acţionând cu tot mai multă abnegaţie. Nu vei clădi nimic şi nu vei obţine nimic dacă te piteşti în umbra comodităţii aşteptând ca ceilalţi să facă ceva eventual şi în favoarea ta.

Legea clipei atotcuprinzătoare

"Cine a privit prezentul a privit toate lucrurile: cele care s-au petrecut în trecutul nepătruns, precum şi cele care se vor petrece în viitor." (Marcus Aurelius)

Stau la soare, pe iarbă, la munte. În fața mea este hotelul la care mă reîntorc an de an. Iarba știe prea bine obiceiul meu, acela de a mă regăsi în mijlocul naturii, dar hotelul nu știe acest lucru. Hotelul mă vrea înăuntrul lui, ceea ce mă face să mă simt într-o captivitate asumată, exact ca atunci când nu mai ai scăpare dintr-un loc în care timpul se scurge domol, oamenii sunt similari, şi nu există niciun fel de pornire spre mulţumirea de sine. Cu toate astea sufletul mă conduce pe dealul din spatele hotelului, acolo unde culorile vii se îmbină cu mirosul de munte, lângă care curge un izvor.

Natura mă îmbie să mă apropii de puritatea ei, de tainele ei, de paleta ei cromatică, cu linişte şi multă lumină. Poate că e mai bine să stau la soare, simțind iarba verde cum mă transpune în vechiul ținut al eroilor, Avalon, deci încercând să trăiesc ceva uitat nu doar de mine, ci de întreaga civilizație. Iarba minunată, plină de floricele sălbatice, atât de fină la atingere, fiind o parte din această totalitate pierdută, nu-și schimbă niciodată aspectul.

Dar nimeni nu se gândește la iarba plină de floricele vesele, nimeni nu conștientizează puterea ei care te face să te recunoști tu însuţi același peste rigorile timpului.

După cum se observă, m-am recunoscut într-o legendă care îşi are originea în timpuri străvechi. Am recunoscut în prezența firelor de iarbă însăși prezența simbolismului, acea pornire spre mireasma unor vremuri de legendă și am ajuns să apreciez în totalitate dimensiunile și semnificațiile unui mit în care Camelot din Avalon este însăși hotelul care îmi pictează acum zarea.

Chiar și culorile din natură au rezistat rigorilor timpului. Și ele sunt tot la fel, nemuritoare. Oare cavalerul Lancelot gândea asemănător în momentele sale de liniște?

Leadership: Accepţiunea unei succesiuni de trăiri, senzaţii şi gânduri este un model după care îţi făureşti imaginea unei durate anterioare şi a unei durate posterioare?

Mulţumirea de sine nu o vom găsi într-un loc plin de oameni, unde totul este similar prin nevoie şi aspiraţii. Mai degrabă, cred că ajungem s-o cunoaştem dacă simţim satisfacţia împlinirii unui moment unic din viaţa noastră, pe care ni l-am imaginat venind din altă viaţă, din alte timpuri, din locurile în care ne-am dori să rămânem. La urma urmei, poate că adevăratul sentiment al mulţumirii de sine este acela că am existat într-un timp dinaintea timpului.

Mai bine să fii prizonierul iremediabil al mulţumirii de sine, lipsit de orice contact cu rutina zilnică a oamenilor, decât să-ţi trădezi amintirea propriei măreţii obţinută în alt timp, în altă viaţă. De aceea, prefer un miracol survenit din imaginaţia unei poziţionări în sfera înaltă a unei viziuni care sfidează timpul.

Da, sunt acelaşi cavaler Lancelot care, peste ani şi ani, va fi recunoscut ca şi cavaler Jedi, sub înfăţişarea unui Luke Skywalker. În orice timp aş trăi, natura mă va ajuta să-mi sporesc forţa interioară, să-mi înfrâng îndoiala de sine, lăsându-mă călăuzit de o amintire care persistă printr-un fel de stări calde, aşezate, aerisite.

Fericirea se poate obţine şi prin lucruri simple, aparent minore, pe care le poţi face zi de zi, în orice moment când stai singur pe iarba plăcut mirositoare. La fel de bine, reîntregirea sinelui este un strop dintr-un loc în care sunt estompate senzaţiile de banalitate, scoase de sub presiunea concretului, acestea fiind desluşite de amintirea ce-o lasă ideea spaţiului pe care-l străbaţi în timp, prin discreţie şi înţelepciune, doar ca să ajungi în acelaşi loc în care altădată ai fost un cavaler sau un rege.

Marea revelaţie a sinelui constă în amintirea unui moment dincolo de care să nu-ţi pot închipui altele, aşa încât să ţi se pară că locul regăsirii tale cuprinde veşnicia.

Trebuie să descoperim analogia, nu identitatea nenumăratelor destine individuale care şi-au lăsat amprenta asupra timpului, dacă vrem să conştientizăm ceea ce Jorge Luis Borges exprima demult într-o singură idee: "Universul fizic s-a oprit în loc pentru că un singur om s-a reconectat cu natura și cu însăși esența ei,într-un decurs fără timp şi fără ceas."

Şi, îmi îngădui încă o traversare a cunoaşterii naturii şi universului, ţinând cont de ceea ce avea de spus Marcus Aurelius: "Chiar dacă anii vieţii tale ar fi trei mii sau zece ori trei mii, adu-ţi aminte că nimeni nu pierde altă viaţă decât cea pe care o trăieşte acum, nici nu trăieşte alta decât cea pe care o pierde. Termenul cel mai lung şi termenul cel mai scurt sunt, prin urmare, egale. Aminteşte-ţi că toate lucrurile se rotesc şi iarăşi se rotesc pe aceleaşi orbite şi că pentru privitor este totuna dacă le vede un veac, sau două, sau la nesfârşit."

Iată concluzia: Omul care nu reuşeşte să-şi închipuie nimic dincolo de spaţiul pe care-l descoperă în jurul său, necrezând că mai există un altul, este un om care nu recunoaşte imensitatea unei alte sfere: Meta-Universul.

Marea revelaţie a sinelui cuprinde sensul şi emoţia din spatele unei priviri îndreptată spre un moment în care ceea ce te surprinde este transformarea ta într-o persoană care ştie să treacă de la un prezent stagnant la un prezent durabil.

Legea clipei atotcuprinzătoare subliniază necesitatea surprinderii unei realităţi care din alt unghi ar putea să pară o ocazie de evadare în altă lume, cu totul alta decât viaţa reală. Tu esti o persoana care recompune, recreează trecutul, selectând, uneori adăugând ficţiuni pe care le crede reale, adevărate?

Şi dacă tot am ajuns aici, iată nişte cuvinte care ajung direct la inimă, cineva le împărtăşea pe o pagină web:

"Uneori, simţim că acea atmosferă magică pe care ne-o amintim cu toţii din basmele copilăriei şi care ne făcea lumea mai frumoasă, a dispărut din viaţa noastră. Cu toate acestea, din când în când, avem nevoie să retrăim acel sentiment sublim, să ne lăsăm purtaţi pe aripile imaginaţiei într-un loc în care totul este posibil. Şi, mai presus de toate, să ne deschidem ochii către lumea din jurul nostru, deoarece marile mistere sunt întotdeauna ascunse în faţa noastră, în starea noastră de moment, în senzaţia de a fi una cu natura. Depinde doar de noi dacă suntem capabili să le descoperim."

Legea cutezanţei

Numai cel care este devotat cu tot sufletul unei idei şi acţionează imediat pentru a o pune în practică, poate să realizeze maximum posibil.

Unii oameni, a căror unică trăsătură de caracter este aceea de a se vedea la un nivel mai înalt, se autoinspiră şi întreprind din propria lor iniţiativă, rareori la sugestia altora, toţi paşii necesari îndeplinirii scopurilor propuse. Ei reuşesc să se autodepăşească pentru că sunt mânaţi permanent de acel imbold interior care îi îndeamnă la înfăptuirea unor scopuri măreţe.

Leadership: Ai curajul să te desprinzi de trecut ca să-ţi câştigi valabilitatea din punct de vedere al costului maxim de conectare la consecinţele unei iluzii?

Pentru un om care doreşte cu orice chip să iasă din anonimat, şansa răsare de acolo de unde se aşteaptă mai puţin. Studiind arhivele secrete ale regelui Portugaliei, registrele cu însemnările căpitanilor, hârtiile şi portulanele, Magellan găsi pe neaşteptate o foaie mai veche scrisă în limba germană, şi intitulată „Copia der Newe Zeytung aus Presillg Landt”.

Această foaie era de fapt un raport care afirma lămurit că cele două oceane, Atlantic şi Pacific, ar comunica între ele printr-o strâmtoare. Şi cum încă de mult Magellan intrase în posesia unei hărţi inexacte a celebrului cosmograf Martin Behaim, care indica locul unde s-ar fi aflat strâmtoarea, din acel moment el s-a decis să înfăptuiască imposibilul. Ceea ce au încercat, dar fără succes, Columb, Cortez, Cortereal, Cabot, Vespuci sau Juan de Solis, el va reuşi cu siguranţă.

Cea mai interesantă parte a leadershipului vizează asumarea unui parcurs ce are ca punct de finalitate găsirea unei "strâmtori" care îţi poartă numele.

Pentru Magellan, din partea reuşitei care felicită leadershipul de valori şi de scop, strâmtoarea a reprezentat punctul de trecere între momentul care precede debutul unei nebunii misterioase şi momentul care a schimbat perspectiva asupra lumii.

Acea hartă, locul unde se afla strâmtoarea, şi raportul care confirma existenţa acesteia, au fost adevăratul secret al lui Magellan. Proiectul său nu era, deci, nicidecum original. Totuşi el, pe temeiul hărţii şi a raportului, întocmi în cel mai scurt timp un plan de a ocoli pământul.

Dar, stupoare ! Magellan a căzut victimă unei confuzii frapante. Fusese înşelat, datele furnizate de acea hartă şi de raportul respectiv erau cu totul greşite, fanteziste. Prin urmare el s-a devotat cu tot sufletul unei iluzii trecătoare. A pornit în căutarea unei himere. Strâmtoarea nu se afla nicidecum acolo unde şi-a imaginat el că este. Însă tot răul spre bine. Dacă n-ar fi preluat şi acceptat cu bună ştiinţă o greşeală, Magellan n-ar fi cutezat niciodată să se avânte pe valurile imensului ocean, să conducă o expediţie în jurul lumii, şi în final să descopere adevăratul „paso”, adevărata strâmtoare care îi poartă şi azi numele.

Leadership: Te poţi ridica din anonimatul existenţei tale acţionând ca factor determinant al afirmării într-o buclă de cauzalitate al unui nesfârşit şir de eşecuri?

Ad impossibilia nemo obligatur. Nimeni nu este obligat să facă imposibilul. Nimeni nu-l poate obliga pe un om să întreprindă o călătorie în care şansele de izbândă sunt foarte mici, să-şi facă foarte mulţi duşmani, să-şi pună deseori sănătatea şi viaţa în pericol, doar pentru îndeplinirea unei dorinţe personale, nu-i aşa?

Ceea ce-l determină pe un om să întreprindă acţiuni riscante şi periculoase este fără îndoială hotărârea fermă, izvorâtă dintr-un puternic imbold interior, de a se consacra unei idei remarcabile şi viabile. Doar nebunii pleacă într-o călătorie ca nişte roboţi teleghidaţi fără să se gândească la ce fac, punându-şi viaţa în pericol, sau aceia care se decid să înfăptuiască ceva măreţ, având o idee clară despre locul în care trebuie să ajungă şi sunt ferm convinşi că-l vor găsi.

Slujitorul a devenit un lider excepţional. Magellan a devenit dintr-un simplu sobresaliente un conducător excepţional pentru că a îmbrăţişat schimbarea şi a ştiut să se folosească de leadership în chip genial. Nimeni nu l-a împins de la spate, nimeni nu l-a încurajat, nimeni nu i-a ţinut partea şi a întâmpinat cele mai mari şi mai dificile obstacole. Totuşi, în străfundul fiinţei sale a simţit că poate fi mai mult decât era, că poate împlini imposibilul şi, dominat de o puternică inspiraţie, s-a mobilizat singur pentru a-şi atinge scopul propus. El împotriva tuturor. Şi a câştigat. A reuşit cu foarte mare greutate să strângă o flotă, împotriva voinţei regelui, şi a ţinut piept răscoalelor echipajului său.

Leadership: Prin confruntarea cu durata lungă a unei călătorii beneficiezi de o esenţializare favorabilă unei înţelegeri de ansamblu, din care nu absentează contribuţiile specifice unei conştiinţe a valorii personale?

Cei născuţi într-un leagăn de purpură, cei care nu şi-au dorit niciodată nimic de la viaţă, aceia nu vor putea înfăptui niciun miracol. Cel ce nu nutreşte acea ambiţie grozavă care să-i roadă cu adevărat inima, care să-l înarmeze sufleteşte pentru încercările viitoare, va rămâne un om de rând, un călător neîmplinit, neadmirat de nimeni, neobservat de nimeni.

Magellan este cunoscut ca unul dintre cei mai mari conquistadori din istorie şi un lider cu calităţi native de conducere. El a simţit că are un destin de împlinit şi, într-un tempo foarte rapid, s-a mobilizat în direcţia cea mai bună, în ciuda tuturor greutăţilor. Nimeni şi nimic nu l-a împiedicat să-şi îndeplinească dorinţa – aceea de a găsi un canal de legătură între Oceanul Atlantic şi Marea de Sud.

Bine a remarcat scriitorul Ştefan Sweig: „ Magellan a arătat că un singur om, cu scurtă şi trecătoarea sa viaţă, poate transforma într-o realitate şi într-un adevăr nepieritor ceea ce fusese numai o dorinţă, numai un vis pentru sute de generaţii. "

Cutezanţa este testul pe care ţi-l propui tu însuţi să-l treci atunci când înţelegi că ceea ce face dificilă continuarea călătoriei este umbra unui vis care se îndepărtează pe măsură ce te apropii de punctul de schimbare al direcției de mers.

P.S. Liderii sunt orientaţi către acţiune. Atunci când găsesc o idee bună, acţionează imediat pentru a o pune în practică. Folosindu-şi judecata, priceperea şi puterea, încercând mereu lucruri noi, ei reuşesc întotdeauna să avanseze spre ţelurile propuse. Ei îşi ating adevăratul potenţial asumându-şi riscuri şi crezând în ei înşişi până la capăt, pentru că sunt nişte cutezători.

Legea dintre Extremele Sinelui

Măsura în care reușești să navighezi între contrastele sinelui și să exprimi o viziune autentică, îmbinând libertatea de exprimare cu disciplina formei, definește esența parcursului străbătut.

Alergarea pe crestele montane este o călătorie între limite, fiecare vârf cucerit chemând inevitabil și coborârea. Pentru sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, alergarea pe munte este o metaforă vie a dualității existenței, deoarece fiecare extremă își găsește echilibrul în opusul său. În ritmul pașilor ei, fiecare ascensiune deschide drumul către o coborâre, ca și cum fiecare victorie ar cere propria umilință.

Dar, totodată, această călătorie este o construcție a unui spațiu intim, un fel de „proximitate a posibilului", ce marchează marginea limitelor personale, dar și un spațiu al expresiei artistice pure, ce marchează transcendența limitelor fizice. Fiecare urcuș reprezintă o încercare de "Afiryhs Etfqiuaj", un concept ce simbolizează contopirea adâncă între ascensiune, introspecție și exprimare artistică, unde Oana se simte una cu panta muntelui, spiritul ei găsindu-şi ecoul în ritmul etern al artei de a transforma efortul în grație.

Actul artistic, pentru o alergătoare, este o exprimare a forței de a transcende limitele fizice, prin contopirea efortului cu grația. Alergarea devine astfel o măsură a forței și vulnerabilității sale, iar ascensiunea, această artă în mișcare, este un desen ce înalță, prin fiecare pas, o linie pe pânza muntelui. Când Oana ajunge în vârful muntelui, abia atunci se dezvăluie sculptura continuă a spiritului, ce o modelează în ritmul propriei evoluții, redefinindu-i limitele. În contextul acesta, ascensiunea Oanei devine simbolul unei poziții obținute cu greu, ce poate fi risipită într-o clipă de neatenție.

Leadership: Caracteristicile experienței tale artistice sunt determinate cauzal, sau finalist, în sensul că scopul urmărit trebuie să ia forma unei viziuni care să ofere direcție și coerență întregului parcurs străbătut?

Oana spunea la un moment dat: "Simt că trăiesc între două extreme, într-o tensiune permanentă, precum o creație a unui pictor care jonglează cu lumină și umbră, formând un echilibru fragil. Din acest motiv starea de prezență a ființei mele în spațiul artistic, reprezentând echilibrul între forță și fragilitate, mă face să cred că arta și alergarea sunt inseparabile. Și dacă simt enorm o chemare către înălțimi, asta se datorează viziunii care cuprinde spiritul meu într-o formă de atașament față de puritatea naturii, cu precizarea că fiecare pas devine o expresie a acestei conexiuni profunde."

Am mai observat ceva. Căci mai există o extremă, mai dificil de infruntat, prin faptul că pune la încercare limitele interioare, ceea ce presupune acceptarea vulnerabilității. E vorba de o dualitate inevitabilă între ascensiune și cădere, între cele două extreme ale fiecărei încercări, asemenea unei „lumi dublate." Comme un éclair dans la nuit de l'âme, fiecare urcuș devine o străfulgerare de conștiință, o deschidere deopotrivă spre sine și spre exterior.

Pentru Oana, muntele este o scenă unde echilibrul dintre forța fizică și cea interioară devine vital. La fiecare pas, ea găsește un punct de sprijin, un moment de liniște, în care își aude inima pulsând cu ritmul profund al muntelui. Dar, în același timp, ea simte tensiunea contrastelor, fiindcă dedublarea înseamnă traversarea unui spațiu fragil între efort și renunțare, dincolo de limitele obișnuite ale rezistenței, dincolo de orice control pe care și-l poate impune.

Leadership: Cum poţi transforma polaritățile vieții într-o călătorie a echilibrului profund și durabil, recunoscând caracterul trecător al fiecărei înălțări?

La fel, romanul „Muntele vrăjit" de Thomas Mann îmi amintește, la fiecare pas, de urcușul ca o formă de contemplație. În acele momente, realizez că ascensiunea nu e doar o simplă mișcare fizică – e un proces de transformare profundă. Fiecare vârf devine un altar al introspecției, iar coborârea e o lecție în acceptare, un soi de resemnare senină, sub forma unei revenirii la sine. Ca un "Yosseber Hiersadne", un moment efemer de claritate, urcușul îmi revelează o întreagă filosofie a echilibrului. Nu e doar despre a atinge vârful, ci despre a înțelege că trebuie să-l părăsesc cu umilință, recunoscând caracterul trecător al fiecărei înălțări.

Un pasaj potrivit din romanul "Muntele vrăjit" de Thomas Mann, care exprimă ideea de transformare interioară prin experiența ascensiunii și a introspecției, este acesta:

Ca într-un desen în contraste, această experiență montană este un balans fragil între lumini și umbre, între extreme aflate în echilibru. Sau, cum bine spunea chiar Oana: "Urcarea pe aceste drumuri abrupte mi-a arătat că prețuirea înălțării devine cu atât mai adâncă îndată ce accept provocarea coborârii, mai ales că aici pot să învăț adevărata măsură a forței. Până la urmă, alergarea este o călătorie perpetuă a înțelegerii faptului că atât vârful cât și valea sunt părți din același peisaj. Mă definesc prin ambele, fiindcă înălțimea îmi dă scop, iar valea îmi amintește să rămân ancorată în adevăruri mai profunde."

În alergare îți găsești echilibrul, un fel de „proximitate a extremelor" în care îți definești locul în universul mișcării. Cu fiecare urcuș îți descoperi limitele, dar și adâncurile coborârii. Este ca o „pânză a echilibrului" ce te ține între cele două extreme, modelându-te precum o operă de artă ce se bazează pe contrastul dintre lumină și umbră. În această călătorie, îți poți găsi propria formă de leadership – un leadership al acceptării faptului că atât vârfurile, cât și văile, atât urcuşurile cât şi coborârile sunt necesare pentru ca sinele tău să se desăvârșească prin transformare.

Aşadar, succesul unui parcurs fulminant se măsoară prin gradul în care forma alergării și determinarea ta se îmbină într-un tot unitar, reflectând un echilibru între libertate și disciplină. Din acest punct de vedere, esența parcursului străbătut se poate defini ca o călătorie spre autenticitate, adiacent unei armonii între extreme, prin contrast cu limitările impuse de gândirea convențională.

Leadershipul se manifestă atunci când transformi extremele vieții într-un exercițiu al echilibrului, recunoscând că fiecare urcare necesită, totodată, și acceptarea coborârii.

Oare sinele tău reflectă esența unui echilibru născut din contrast? Cum reușești să menții echilibrul perfect între ambiția de a atinge noi culmi și înțelepciunea de a respecta ritmul interior?

Legea dintre Extremele Sinelui se aplică în cazul căutării autenticității, fiind exclusă de aici orice tentativă de compromis superficial, mai ales pe plan artistic. Ceea ce simți, ceea ce trăiești, ceea ce vezi în timpul parcursului străbătut devine o lecție de auto-cunoaștere, din care înveți constant, dincolo de limitele impuse de exterior. Sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, de atâtea ori campioană la semimaratoanele montane din România, ne amintește tuturor că adevărata putere constă în a îmbrățișa ambele extreme, regăsind esența echilibrului între ele.

În această abordare, "Legea dintre Extremele Sinelui" devine o invitație de a ne descoperi și a naviga cu grație între polaritățile ființei noastre, găsind echilibrul dinamic dintre voință și vulnerabilitate, între ambiție și artă. Aceasta se aplică atât alergătorului montan, care se confruntă cu propriile sale limite și își caută forța interioară, cât și artistului, care jonglează între haos și rafinament pentru a crea o operă autentică. Prin acest echilibru se manifestă potențialul creator al fiecăruia, arătând că adevărata măiestrie vine din îmbinarea contrastelor într-o expresie unitară, în care sinele se afirmă liber și armonios.

Tu cum poţi integra lecția muntelui în viața ta – că fiecare ascensiune necesită o coborâre pentru a atinge adevăratul echilibru?

Cu cât ţii mai mult mingea în mişcare în terenul advers, cu atât influenţa ta va fi mai pronunţată.

Fie binecuvântată ziua în care ai jurat că îţi vei atinge scopurile. Fie binecuvântat momentul în care te-ai înarmat cu voinţă, cu perseverenţă şi nădejde, pentru a-ţi duce la bun sfârşit planurile. Dar şi aşa, nu vei avea nicio garanţie de succes în demersurile tale. Şi să-ţi spun de ce:

În filmul "Forever Mine (1999)" , personajul principal, Alan Riply, se îndrăgosteşte de Ella Brice, soţia reputatului politician Mark Brice, o femeie extraordinar de atrăgătoare şi deosebit de sufletistă. Mark, un om corupt şi fără scrupule, află de relaţia lor amoroasă şi, din gelozie şi invidie, pune la cale asasinarea lui Alan. Zis şi făcut. Numai că Alan nu murise, ci fusese grav rănit - lucru pe care Mark şi acoliţii săi nu-l ştiau.

Anii au trecut. Între timp Alan, cu ajutorul bunului său prieten Javier, şi-a creat o nouă identitate şi a ajuns un mare bancher (Manuel Esquema), având relaţii de afaceri cu persoane sus puse. Aflând de problemele cu care se confrunta Mark Brice, căruia îi purta o ură imensă în suflet, a hotărât că acesta este momentul cel mai prielnic pentru a se răzbuna. Dar dorinţa de răzbunare, ambiţia şi nădejdea, nu erau nicidecum factorul hotărâtor pentru reuşita sa. Trebuia să-şi surprindă adversarul, să-şi creeze cât mai multe ocazii reale de a "înscrie".

Leadership: Nevoia ta de a compune conştiinţa unor intenţii ascunse este conţinută de o încadrare exactă a dependenţei de a-ţi demonstra prioritatea într-un joc al împăcării cu propria natură?

Natura omului, din perspectiva procesului de luare a deciziilor, se dovedeşte a fi de multe ori o falsificare a motivelor pentru care se îndeplinesc condiţiile unor schimbări semnificative. Ea nu este direct răspunzătoare de liniştea sufletească sau de furtuna vieţii trăită la cea mai înaltă tensiune, printr-un accept al conştiinţei de a realiza o acţiune din datorie, dar are instinct de supravieţuire şi putere creatoare.

Nimic nu te apropie mai mult de succes în leadership, decât imensa putere pe care o exerciţi asupra celorlalţi, dar mai ales asupra duşmanilor tăi. Cea mai mică imprudenţă te poate conduce la eşec. Deci, devine imperios necesar ca prin strategiile pe care le adopţi să câştigi timpul de partea ta, şi să demonstrezi că eşti în orice moment stăpân pe situaţie. Aceasta este puterea jocului dominant.

O echipă de fotbal valoroasă reuşeşte să domine o partidă încă din prima repriză – şi este singura cale prin care îşi poate învinge rapid rivala. Tot aşa a procedat şi Alan. Şi de aceea puterea lui de influenţă s-a extins rapid în cercul oamenilor de afaceri al lui Mark Brice, reuşind să-i strice acestuia toate planurile şi toate relaţiile.

Jocul pe care l-a făcut Alan a fost unul imprevizibil, bazat atât pe intuiţie cât şi pe strategie, acelaşi joc pe care îl adoptă de obicei echipele mari de fotbal: jocul defensiv, purtat cu inteligenţă, nu doar cu viteză, în jumătatea terenului echipei adverse. El a demonstrat atât prudenţă, cât şi iscusinţă, descurcându-se foarte bine încă din primul moment de când a intrat în legătură cu Mark Brice şi s-a oferit, chipurile, să-l ajute. Nu s-a lăsat niciun moment fermecat de propriile puteri, şi nu şi-a pierdut nicio clipă din vedere prioritatea.

Leadership: În ce poziţie te regăseşti atunci când natura ta se dezlănţuie fără oprelişti, din punctul de vedere al necesitaţii de a face apel la realitatea faptelor care se întâmplă pentru că nimeni nu-ţi cere socoteală pentru ele?

Când natura fiinţei tale se dezlănţuie într-un lung şir de înfruntări, provocări, efecte adverse ale influenţei şi manipulării, constituind o încălcare a regulilor de aur ale conştiinţei, înseamnă că ai devenit ce nu ai dorit niciodată: o realitate incomprehensibilă din care nu te poţi salva decât ascunzându-te. Sau fugind şi rezistând.

Nu avansezi şi nu câştigi un meci dacă ţii mingea numai în terenul propriu. Am folosit povestea din filmul "Forever Mine" pentru a vă oferi o imagine vie a unei legi de leadership cât se poate de serioase - "Cu cât ţii mai mult mingea în mişcare în terenul advers, cu atât influenţa ta va fi mai pronunţată."

Liderii cei mai buni ştiu că singura cale prin care îşi pot menţine şi extinde puterea de influenţa este să domine cât mai mult orice "partidă". Iar atunci când spun leadership nu mă refer doar la sport şi la mediul de afaceri, ci la toate domeniile de activitate, căci în toate există şi va exista mereu o reală competiţie.

Realitatea este întotdeauna de preferat: n-ai cum să te afli într-o poziţie avantajoasă dacă joci în retragere, tot aşa cum o echipă de fotbal nu poate câştiga niciun meci dacă ţine mingea numai în terenul propriu. Ci trebuie să avansezi în jumătatea adversă de joc, să-ţi creezi ocazii şi să marchezi.

Întrebarea care se pune e următoarea: atunci când avansezi în terenul advers te regăseşti într-o poziţie de deviaţie de la esenţa propriei conştiinţe sau într-o poziţie de construire a inteligenţei?

Adevărată valoare a leadershipului se obţine atunci când nu mai trebuie să demonstrezi că eşti puternic ca să oferi o imagine reală exploziei de inteligenţă.

Pentru ca leadershipul tău să aibă valoare, trebuie să ai o influenţă dominanta asupra celorlalţi oameni. Sau, altfel spus, înseamnă "să ţii cât mai mult timp mingea în terenul advers". Iar supremaţia în leadership presupune să câştigi cât mai multe meciuri împotriva cât mai multor adversari. Lucru greu de făcut, şi uneori chiar foarte primejdios.

În leadership trebuie să înveţi să-ţi cunoşti şi rivalii sau potenţialii duşmani, căci totdeauna vei avea şi din aceştia, nu doar prieteni şi susţinători. Acest lucru este posibil numai printr-o atentă observare a celora care te înconjoară şi cu care interrelaţionezi permanent. Vigilenţa te va scuti de probleme.

Înainte de a fi în conformitate cu ştiinţa conducerii pune-ţi întrebarea:

Înţelegi scopul pe care urmăreşti să-l atingi din punctul de vedere al necesităţii de a privilegia o poziţie intelectuală care nu-ţi poate oferi emoţional protecţie?

Legea dominanţei se referă la capacitatea ta de a-ţi ţine "în şah" duşmanii până la a le da un "mat" decisiv. Dar fără să-ţi alterezi adevărata natură, firescul şi calităţile umane care îi fac pe ceilalţi oameni să te aprecieze, să te placă şi să te admire.

Legea experienţei temporale

Găseşte semnificaţia unei ştiinţe care să îndeplinească funcţia de superioritate, în încercarea de a da sens unei experienţe netrăite.

Voiam să divizez fiecare presupunere asupra funcţionării unei lumi aparte în noi condiţii de reprezentare, să descompun totul în mici fragmente care să scoată în evidenţă aspecte mai puţin evidente ale relaţiei dintre ştiinţă şi înţeles. O constatare cheie datorată reflecţiilor existenţiale, înainte de a lămuri noţiunile artei de a modifica scurgerea timpului, era necesară pentru a defini unitatea de măsură a cantităţii de informaţie care trebuia prelucrată pentru verificarea unei ipoteze experimentale.

Rezultatul, bogat în reprezentări ale percepţiilor complexe supuse efectelor distorsionate ale adevărurilor unanim acceptate, servind drept element de comparaţie între două structuri de gândire total opuse, dar cu aceeaşi destinaţie, ar fi putut să elimine uşor evoluţia necorespunzătoare a factorului numit obiectivitate. Un lucru folositor materiei şi capacităţii ei de a se aduna în unităţi cvasi-independente, dar care să interacţioneze între ele, creând o nouă configuraţie a spaţiului-timp care dădea sens unei experienţe netrăite, era direct legat de rădăcinile mele.

Conştient, mă expuneam riscului de a rămâne captiv într-o subiectivitate absolută. Neîncetat, eram stăpânit de un sentiment inexplicabil, ca şi când aş fi mărşăluit prin pustiul alb al absenţei de orice formă de viaţă, izolat într-un câmp nematerial care se extindea spre infinit. Timpul îşi avea originea în mine, constanta lui fiind o călătorie continuă spre tărâmul înțelegerii profunde.

În toată această nebuloasă a reflecţiilor din care se înfiripa viitorul, pe care o simţeam că există şi creşte exponenţial, îmi răsunau în minte cuvintele poetului scoţian din secolul al 17-lea, William Drumond: „ Dacă te plângi că va fi un Timp în care tu nu vei fi, de ce nu regreţi de asemenea că a fost un timp în care tu nu erai, şi de asemenea că nu eşti la fel de bătrân ca această însufleţitoare Planetă a Timpului? Aceea va fi după noi, care, cu mult înainte ca noi să fi existat, a fost."

Leadership: Poţi să dezvolţi o versiune originală a experienţei de sine, printr-o utilizare corespunzătoare a timpului în alte perioade?

Toate dovezile privind întreaga viziune asupra lumii şi realităţii ei, în afara duratei normale a timpului care se scurge apăsând pe trăgaciul nebuniei, atunci când faci saltul în imaginar, în numele unei superiorităţi ireductibile, porneşte de la ideea de „accesibilitate" într-un spaţiu lărgit de gândire. Timpul, consacrat accesării unor repere de referinţă cum ar fi tendinţa de evoluţie într-un cadru propice împlinirii creatoare şi punerii în valoare a potenţialului de cunoaştere, devine o componentă a realităţii în universul imaginar propriu.

Pentru a înţelege leadershipul din perspectiva accesării unui nivel superior de cunoaştere, greu de cuantificat, dar care este necesar să devină parte a unei componente ştiinţifice revelatoare de noi profunzimi şi semnificaţii, trebuie să plecăm de la premiza că adevărul este relativ şi interpretabil. Subiectivitate versus obiectivitate. Ceea ce tu crezi că dă formă realităţii în schimbare, valorificând-o printr-o înţelegere ce ţine de un raţionament complex, ceilalţi pot avea convingerea opusă – că realitatea este o simplă umbră a sentimentelor şi senzaţiilor trăite.

Informaţiile neaflate la îndemâna tuturor, într-un fel în care experienţele cele mai variate din trecut influenţează modul de interpretare a lumii în prezent, se adună laolaltă pentru a da naştere la ceea ce în mod inconştient ai căutat dintotdeauna. La un nou „Yourself” utilizat sub forma conştiinţei de sine care pare să umple un întreg univers şi să-i dea sens.

Dar oare acest univers poate funcţiona şi în lipsa ta? În acest caz leadershipul devine un mijloc de reprezentare a unei realităţi superioare, căci nu se mai reduce la experienţele relaţiei tale cu ceilalţi oameni, nici la modul în care percepi lumea din jur, ci doar la examinarea experienţelor din plan ştiinţific, ocult.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri o corectă înţelegere a distincţiei între ce este esenţial şi important, de ceea ce este secundar şi minor, într-un parcurs al reflecţiilor despre rolul experienţei trăite printr-o contra-definiţie a realităţii?

O versiune originală a experienţei de sine se realizează uneori printr-o respingere a ideilor care pot fi etichetate drept utopii, ce se vor întoarce împotriva ta, exact ca un bumerang, pe care ai apucat să îl arunci din naivitate. Însă utopiile sunt foarte reale și foarte prezente în viața ta pe tot parcursul timpului, ele reușind, într-adevăr, să aducă în atenţie acele idealuri atât de înalte care lărgesc orizonturile în moduri pe care nu ţi le-ai imaginat vreodată.

Punctul de plecare a ceea ce va fi concretizat într-o formă superioară de abordare a orientării tale spre un viitor al inovaţiei extreme, răspunzând nevoii de exprimare a creativităţii prin arta fragmentarii tuturor aspectelor mai puţin evidente a relaţiei dintre ştiinţă şi utopie, indiferent de natura lor, poate să fie amplificat prin activitatea de gândire rămasă neinfluenţată de proba realităţii efective.

O contra-definiţie a realităţii se realizează printr-o asumare a ideilor care nu cunosc oprelişti şi nu sunt limitate de o anumită reţinere faţă de opinia publică, în măsura în care imaginea pe care ţi-o construieşti despre tine are ca prim argument acea nevoie de transcendenţă, de a da un sens care să depăşească “eul” existenţei şi conflictele de ordin identitar ale fiinţei gânditoare ce îşi revendică prezenţa în lumea plăsmuirii.

O gândire care se regândeşte este terenul de automodelare a omului într-o lume a plăsmuirii de idei şi viziuni, dirijate de o subiectivitate la rândul ei purtătoare de sens şi valoare, în care totul este schimbător, dar totodată apropiat unei puteri de creaţie care îşi întinde iţele pretutindeni în cadrul realităţii.

Legea experienţei temporale vizează încercarea de a dezvolta o versiune originală a experienţei de sine, aferentă creatiei, printr-o utilizare corespunzătoare a timpului în alte perioade. Însemnând prin aceasta să te transpui în situaţia altei fiinţe, din trecut sau viitor, şi sa o înţelegi prin prisma propriilor idei, a imaginaţiei, dar mai ales prin prisma paradoxului: cu cât eşti mai dependent de o ştiinţă superioară, cu atât eşti mai dependent de cheia relaţiei spaţiu-timp.

Iar leadershipul poate deveni o ştiinţă a absolutului, un produs al timpului existenţial care există în conştiinţa omului de geniu, luând în considerare valoarea parametrilor cunoaşterii care trebuie menţinuţi între limitele impuse de „subiectiv” şi „obiectiv”.

Legea ficţiunii ştiinţifice

Fă distincţie între ficţiune şi realitate, focusându-te asupra elementului dominant care impune noi standarde de exigenţă în aprobarea criteriilor de evaluare a identităţii tale.

Negreşit, mă îndreptam spre un undeva nedefinit. Spre un început de drum care se continua până la confluenţa dintre două lumi distincte, marcate de relativizarea adevărului şi de multiplicitatea conştiinţei. O lume a umbrelor invizibile şi una a semnelor izolate care dezvăluiau o privire interioară. Ele depăşeau cu mult puterea limitată de înţelegere a cunoaşterii directe, propulsându-mă spre o nouă posibilitate de abordare a fenomenului ambiguităţii - atât în relaţia cu mine însumi, cât şi mai ales în relaţia cu entitatea numită spaţiu-timp.

Totul se petrecea doar în imaginaţia mea? Era un joc încâlcit al propriei mele creaţii, o farsă pe care mi-o jucasem singur? Lumile nu erau deloc lumi, ci spaţii mute, uitate prin meandrele abstractului intelectual – care însemna o cunoaştere fără rest, a cărei relaţie cu existenţa corespundea unei realităţii vii sublimate în timp.

Le explorasem pentru că voiam să le schimb, înainte de a mă schimba ele pe mine. Şi chiar dacă asta se întâmpla, era o pură întâmplare. Întâmplarea şi consecinţele ei. Totul era întors pe dos, ca o oglindă suprapusă pe o altă oglindă – dar care totuşi stătea în picioare. Deşi poziţia ei era reglată în gol, în diferitele câmpuri de virtualităţi. Cred că mai mult făceam ficţiune ştiinţifică decât ştiinţă.

Galileo Galilei, cu ajutorul lunetei sale dotate cu lentile de numai câţiva cm în diametru, a zărit în anul 1612 un astru necunoscut în apropierea planetei Jupiter. Astru care de fapt nu exista, dar care era probabil planeta Neptun aflată în acea perioadă în conjuncţie cu Jupiter. Galilei nu a fost conştient de ceea ce descoperise, şi astfel planeta Neptun a fost recunoscută abia mai târziu.

Eu nu aveam de gând să mă las prins în capcana îndoielilor şi să mă simt dezamăgit de insuficienţa puterii de a face diferenţa între ficţiune şi realitate. Dar abia mai târziu am înţeles: nu poţi să crezi într-o lume nouă decât atunci când îi onorezi invitaţia de a fi descoperită şi acceptată ca adevărată.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi asiguri navigarea între ficţiune şi realitate în aşa fel încât specificul ştiinţei de tip "inferior" să se convertească spre tipul "superior?

Există întuneric şi lumină în tot ceea ce încercăm să dezlegăm, ca o validare a capacităţii noastre de a analiza din mai multe unghiuri posibile tot ceea ce alţii nu ştiu, nu văd sau nu înţeleg. Întunericul cuprinde totul, lumina relevă totul. Cine crede că se cunoaşte destul de bine, găseşte întotdeauna ceva nou şi diferit la el. Dar în acelasi timp poate ajunge să se îndoiască de sine. Un soi de paradox al devenirii care trebuie ţinut în balanţă, focusându-se asupra elementului dominant care impune noi standarde de exigenţă în aprobarea criteriilor de evaluare a identităţii, a convingerilor şi a capacităţilor de percepţie şi cunoaştere.

Iar acest element dominant, asociat experienţelor subiective, meritând totodată a fi corelat cu prezentul şi viitorul într-un cadru al lăuntricului şi a posibilităţilor lui de a se exterioriza prin puterea incontestabilă a gândurilor înlănţuite, curgând unele după altele, răspândite în orice direcţie, trebuie să aibă o valoare de origine non-nul.

Adică să nu se elimine prin dezvoltarea accelerată a ştiinţei, să nu împiedice revelarea unei imense realităţi, să prezinte garanţia – aprinzând o nouă lumină în om – că înţelegerea unor anumite idei presupune de la început existenţa unui sâmbure de adevăr care poate fi probat prin intermediul ficţiunii.

O ştiinţă de tip "inferior" reflectă tendinţa spre superifialitate în abordarea unei realităţi plină de incertitudini, care presupune o constrângere asupra capacităţii tale de a te adânci în aventura fiinţei tale.

Pe de altă parte, o ştiinţă de tip "superior", care te ajută să defineşti decupajul spaţial semnificativ pentru a te reprezenta simbolic într-un mod aparte, îşi ia ca etalon o urgenţă a descoperirii sau redescoperirii Eu-lui în puritatea intenţiilor de exprimare a unei raţiuni universalizate prin analogii cu fenomene şi acţiuni din viaţa obişnuită.

Leadership: Păstrezi un echilibru permanent între observarea atentă a realităţii şi impunerea unei plăsmuiri ajutătoare care te invită să parcurgi noi piste de interpretare a ceea ce înseamnă să fii un "eveniment" semnificativ?

Ficţiunea este începutul unui proces de diferenţiere a ştiinţei care nu se încheie niciodată, o profunzime a intelectului care depăşeşte cu siguranţă linia normalului unanim acceptat. Dar care asigură leadershipului o abordare superioară a concepţiilor tradiţionale vis-a-vis de o doctrină, faţă de ce îţi poate rezerva viitorul; o modalitate consistentă de accesare a unei realităţi după ce ai construit o parte din ea; o aliniere între convingerile care te limitează şi cele care îţi stabilesc reperele de orientare prin forţa vizualizării creatoare.

Leadershipul poate avansa spre o reconsiderare profundă a perspectivelor de ascensiune spre „superioritate" numai prin puterea de a-ţi controla gândurile. Sau, mai bine spus, împingând mai departe gândul spre o reconsiderare a temeiului şi a esenţei pe care se sprijină orizonturile cunoaşterii şi aşteptările excesive, prin interpretarea realităţii. A depăşi limita condiţiei tale de fiinţă raţională şi pragmatică, printr-o mixtură de ingeniozitate, inedit şi îndrăzneală, ieşite din comun, depinde în întregime de hrana ştiinţifică pe care o consumi.

A-ţi asigura navigarea între ficţiune şi realitate înseamnă să continui să funcţionezi în sfera unui ideal cât mai înalt, chiar dacă pare de neatins pentru ceilalţi. Asta te-ar plasa cu adevărat în frunte, cu riscul de a fi neînţeles. Căci a fi un "eveniment" semnificativ în prezenţa constantă a ficţiunii înseamnă să îţi pierzi reperele și să te trezești într-o realitate pe care nu o înțelegi și nu o poţi accepta ca fiind posibilă.

Iar cel care încearcă să înţeleagă o entitate superioară, mai întâi trebuie să-şi convertească specificul ştiinţei de tip "inferior" spre tipul "superior, adică să se conecteze la nivele de profunzime care depăşesc limita percepţiei de care majoritatea dispune. Ceea ce înseamnă să devină el însuşi captiv între realitate şi ficţiune. El ar fi un Stăpân al Creaţiei , capabil să-şi pună în aplicare viziunile inspirate de propriul sine, prin prisma relaţiei dintre spaţiu, timp şi materie.

Să-ţi confirmi identitatea într-un spaţiu mai larg înseamnă să te transpui într-un experiment numit ficţiune din care să tragi nişte concluzii care să te ajute să vezi utilitatea acelor viziuni care pot ţine în echilibru realitatea.

Legea ficţiunii ştiinţifice vizează acea „alunecare într-o direcţie ce-i scapă controlului". Dar care aduce, invariabil, bucuria unei forme avansate cunoaştere care te ajută să conştientizezi importanţa gândurilor în materializarea viziunii.

Ceea ce te poate diferenţia net de ceilalţi este viziunea - arta de a vedea lucruri invizibile, pe care apoi să le accepţi ca fiind adevărate, sa le conectezi la realitate şi să le valorifici în favoarea ta, în leadership. Iar asta te poate pune în postura de a-ţi redefini identitatea.

Legea guvernării

Ca să conduci trebuie să fii în frunte.

Numai într-un moment hotărâtor, când un om e nevoit să-şi pună în joc toate resursele fiinţei sale, se pot vedea însuşirile extraordinare ascunse în el. Abia atunci când un singur gând, o singură idee, un singur motiv frământă mintea unui om mânat de sentimente puternice, trăiri şi emoţii, faţă de cineva, faţă de ceva, abia atunci izbucneşte în el acea nemaipomenită sete de a înfăptui miracole, acel nebănuit curaj de a prelua frâiele şi de a arăta tuturor de ce este în stare. Cu siguranţă fiecare om, chiar şi cel mai simplu în aparenţă are un talent, pe care numai dacă i se va ivi ocazia prielnică va putea să şi-l etaleze.

Jake Sully, personajul principal din filmul „ Avatar (2009) ", un veteran de război paralizat, este adus pe planeta Pandora. El trebuie să lupte pentru a-şi găsi locul pe luxurianta planetă, să le câştige încrederea indigenilor Na'vi şi, apoi, pe cale diplomatică, să-i convingă să evacueze o anumită zonă, unde se găsea cel mai bogat depozit de unobtanium.

Povara suferinţei poate fi vindecată numai cu balsamul fericirii. Jake, de cum păşeşte în nouă lume complet schimbat, conducând un corp numit avatar, se îndrăgosteşte de Neytiri, o localnică, care vine în ajutorul său, îl scapă de pericole, îl însoţeşte şi îi oferă îndrumare. În acelaşi timp, în cele trei luni petrecute alături de clanul ei, cunoaşte experienţe pe care niciodată nu le-a avut. Se ataşează de poporul Na'vi, de obiceiurile lor, şi începe să preţuiască tot mai mult această lume.

Leadership: Modul tău de a te separa de lumea exterioară aparţine unei existenţe care te adevereşte în jocul intim al vieţii altora?

Cele trei luni se scurg, iar pentru că Jake nu a reuşit să-i convingă pe Na'vi să-şi părăsească teritoriul, oamenii au trecut la executarea lor silită. În acel moment hotărâtor, el are de luat o decizie, de partea cui să lupte? Şi, pentru că acordă o mare atenţie nevoilor indigenilor, alege: Na'vi. Astfel distruge, înlătură sau abandonează toate aspectele vieţii sale care existau înainte. Nu mai cunoaşte decât un singur simţământ: dragostea faţă de Neytiri, apropierea sufletească faţă de clanul Omaticaya. De aceea se alătură în lupta pentru apărarea pământului sacru al acestora.

La fel ca un om care-şi vâră singur mâna într-o scorbură plină cu miere de albine, Jake ştie de la bun început la ce să se aştepte dacă se va alătura poporului Na'vi. Dar, conştient că nimic nu poate fi lăsat la voia sorţii, el porneşte, cu hotărârea celui pe care nimeni şi nimic nu-l poate abate de la ţelul vieţii sale, pe drumul fără întoarcere.

Adevăratul leadership este dăruirea totală a propriei fiinţe pentru puterea de a te manifesta conştient de adevărata ta natură spirituală, într-o scenă în care te diferenţiezi de tot ceea ce însemi pentru o lume care pune accentul preponderent pe luptă.

Sigur pe sine, dând dovadă de fermitate, având o atitudine dinamică, activă, emanând tinereţe şi forţa, reuşeşte să atragă toată admiraţia poporului Na'vi sau, mai degrabă aş spune, toată recunoştinţa lui. Şi, stârnind în sufletul lor dorinţă, făcând să se nască în inima lor o nădejde neaşteptată, aceştia luptă cu mult curaj şi însufleţire, iar în cele din urmă, folosindu-se de avantajul terenului şi aplicând un plan tactic excelent, ies învingători. Iar Jake devine conducătorul clanului.

„Căci numai pentru voi şi pentru poporul meu doresc să mai trăiesc”

În fiecare fantezie exista un strop de realitate. Ca să conduci, trebuie să fii un Jake Sully. În prezent, dar şi în viitor, cei ce vor fi aleşi la conducerea unui stat vor fi aceia care vor lupta în numele valorii comunităţii lor şi nu se vor da bătuţi niciodată, care vor fi alături de poporul lor pentru o viaţă mai bună, pentru un scop nobil bine definit. Un om extraordinar, un lider adevărat, are întotdeauna însuşirea de a servi celorlalţi şi de a-i ajuta din toate puterile sale.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să faci pasul cel mare într-un prezent care îşi "însuşeşte" selectiv gândurile trecute ale unei fiinţe care nu-şi reneagă originile şi nici devenirea?

Cel care nu are capacitatea să-şi exprime viziunea, în aşa fel încât să-i facă pe oameni să acţioneze în spiritul ei, nu are ce căuta în fruntea lor. Cel care nu se declară gata de orice şi nu reuşeşte să energizeze oamenii în vederea atingerii unor scopuri imposibile, cel ce ezita să ia hotărâri importante atunci când este imperios necesar să o facă şi nu are capacitatea să le insufle celorlalţi încredere în ei înşişi şi în reuşită, nu-i este dat să simtă succesul în leadership.

Numai cel ce manifestă o preocupare autentică faţă de oameni făcându-i entuziasmaţi de ceea ce fac, care nu se teme să-şi suflece mâinile şi să se murdărească, punând mereu accentul pe găsirea soluţiilor şi rămânând neclintit în voinţa sa, numai acela va putea să-şi ducă la bun sfârşit misiunea asumată.

Mentalitatea unui lider este aceea a unui învingător, al unuia care respinge total posibilitatea unei înfrângeri, zidindu-şi orice cale de retragere şi dedicându-se cu însufleţire scopului propus. Având o minte deschisă, fiind decis şi curajos, el preia conducerea, determinându-i pe cei din jur să acţioneze şi să meargă înainte, numai înainte, către un viitor mai bun.

Leadershipul se produce atunci când mentalitatea ta se schimbă de la o poziţie de conflict către o poziţie în care poate forma o alianţă care funcţionează şi se menţine într-un teritoriu pozitiv.

E nevoie de multă îndemânare ca să conduci un grup, o comunitate de oameni. Totul în tine trebuie să inspire încredere în realizarea grandiosului tău plan. Iar dacă nu eşti persistent, curajos, tenace, extrem de interesat de realizări, dominant şi încrezător, înseamnă că nu ai capacitatea de a merge în fruntea lor.

Ca să conduci trebuie să fii în frunte.

Legea încrederii limitate

On Iunie 08, 2010

Atunci când în echipă există măcar un singur om necinstit, îţi pierzi încrederea în toată echipa.

Dintotdeauna mi-a plăcut sportul. Iar sportul meu preferat a fost, fără nicio îndoială, fotbalul. Dar am practicat şi sporturi de contact, şase ani de lupte libere şi aproape doi ani Taekwondo. Şi la fel ca fiecare om care trăieşte în mirajul dorinţelor sale, am vrut să ajung un mare campion.

La începutul clasei a 10-a am participat la campionatul naţional de Taekwondo de la Bucureşti. Eram foarte ambiţios, şi credeam în mine, dar trebuie să mărturisesc faptul că nu aveam deloc experienţă în ceea ce priveşte competiţiile de arte marţiale. La orice concurs de lupte libere m-aş fi descurcat precis foarte bine, dar asta e, atunci practicam arte marţiale, trebuia să dovedesc şi aici de ce sunt în stare.

Leadership: Îţi construieşti un fundament constant al ascensiunii spre îndeplinirea idealului de unitate, fără să iei în calcul efectele de plasare a propriei fiinţe într-un context de tip "Extinde-ţi garanţia"?

Îmi amintesc foarte bine că am câştigat prima luptă, dar am pierdut-o pe a doua. Prin urmare pot să spun că n-am avut o prestaţie prea bună, dar m-am consolat cu faptul că pentru un practicant de arte marţiale de nivel mediu m-am descurcat binişor.

Garanţia mea de calitate era declaraţia de loialitate în slujba echipei şi obligaţia de a mă reprezenta în totalitate ca şi caracter, temperament, stare de spirit în raport cu avantajul victoriei sau cu gustul amar al înfrângerii.

Ceea ce n-am să uit însă niciodată este ceea ce s-a întâmplat la sfârşitul campionatului. Trebuie să precizez faptul că îmi uitasem chimonoul acasă, iar antrenorul a fost bun şi mi l-a dat pe al său ca să intru în competiţie. Ei bine, după ultima mea luptă, cea în care am fost învins, l-am rugat pe antrenor să-mi dea voie să-i iau acasă chimonoul, să-l spăl, şi să i-l aduc curat la primul antrenament. A fost de-acord.

Dar atunci când am ajuns acasă, stupoare, chimonoul nu mai era în geanta sport. Abia atunci am înţeles că a fost furat. Dar de cine? Ei bine nu ştiu, dar cu siguranţă răspunzător era unul dintre colegii mei de la club, pentru că numai ei aveau acces la geanta mea din standul atribuit echipei noastre la competiţie. Plin de regrete, am fost măcinat de gânduri negre iar conştiinţa mea a fost cuprinsă de un profund sentiment de nemulţumire fiindcă am avut prea mare încredere în colegii mei, iar unul sau poate chiar mai mulţi din ei, mi-au înşelat-o.

Leadership: În ce punct al evoluţiei tale din angrenajul unor tendinţe de afirmare eşti dispus să laşi de la tine fără să te supui unei ordini care îţi încalcă drepturile şi opţiunea de onoare?

Când faci parte dintr-o echipă, crezi în ea. Dar până la o limită. Până când şansa ta de afirmare ta începe să se alinieze la nişte tendinţe greşite de integrare şi creştere în cadrul echipei.

N-am încercat să descopăr adevărul la momentul acela, să-l răsucesc pe toate feţele, să pun întrebări şi să încerc să aflu răspunsuri, faptul era consumat. Aşa că la primul antrenament din săptămâna ce-a urmat i-am plătit antrenorului contravaloarea chimonoului, fiindcă a fost responsabilitatea mea să am grijă de el. Dar apoi, după o scurtă discuţie cu antrenorul, în care i-am explicat cum s-a întâmplat totul (dar el nu a vrut să creadă cu niciun chip că unul din elevii săi mai vechi este vinovat), am convenit să mă mut la un alt club. Locul meu nu era acolo.

Acest incident a reprezentat moment de cotitură al vieţii mele şi m-a învăţat un lucru: nimic nu mă poate mulţumi atunci când, alăturându-mă unei echipe de la care mă aştept să fie eficientă, unită, organizată, competitivă, descopăr că, de fapt, nu pot conta pe nimeni. Căci întotdeauna un om care fură o dată şi nu este prins, va fură şi a doua oară. Aşa că, decât să încep să suspectez pe fiecare, mai bine să-mi caut o altă echipă, o echipă care să se bazeze pe principii de colegialitate, unitate şi integritate.

Leadershipul, menţinând coloratura unei anticipări creatoare de alte realităţi, se menţine în opţiunea de te retrage dintr-un acord care conţine doar "capitole de final".

Cine nu are o încredere mare în echipa sa, nu poate „funcţiona” la maxima capacitate. Dacă aş fi rămas la acel club ar fi trebuit să fiu mereu cu ochii în patru, să mă feresc mereu de un duşman nevăzut.

La fel cum un spectator ce asista la prezentarea unui truc, ştiind de la bun început că va fi păcălit, îşi creează anumite dispozitive de protecţie la nivel psihic încercând să observe care este momentul în care prestidigitatorul îl înşală - eu ar fi trebuit să-mi creez un scut psihologic care să mă apere de momentul neprevăzut când voi fi înşelat. Ceea ce ar fi fost stresant şi obositor. Sau ar fi trebuit să adopt o atitudine de neutralitate politicoasă, adică să vin la antrenamente şi să plec discret fără să am însă prea multe relaţii cu nimeni, ceea ce mi-ar fi creat alte probleme, căci nimeni nu tolerează excentricii. Iar dacă aş fi lăsat timpul să se scurgă sperând că lucrurile se vor îmbunătăţi, m-aş fi înşelat amarnic.

Ulterior, după vreun an, la o altă competiţie, am aflat cum s-a petrecut totul. Unul dintre colegii mei îmi luase chimonoul şi-l vânduse pentru un inel de aur unui alt practicant de arte marţiale de la un alt club din ţară. Prin urmare, s-a dovedit că suspiciunile mele au fost întemeiate. Şi deci am făcut bine că m-am mutat la un alt club.

Leadership: Nivelul tău de de onoare poate fi refăcut prin deosebita contribuţie adusă de promovarea valorilor care au definit misiunea de a te pune pe locul cel mai de sus în topul preferinţelor celorlalţi?

Valorile pe care am încercat să le promovez odată cu integrarea mea în echipă au fost disponibilitatea de a accepta să cred intr-un sport care mi se potrivea ca stare de spirit, disponibilitatea de a accepta să gândesc în spiritul unui ideal de cooperare si corectitudindea de a accepta orice compromis la vedere.

O echipă trainică, unită şi ambiţioasă, se naşte din colegialitate şi prietenie şi se păstrează cu grijă. Dacă măcar unul dintre colegii tăi e necinstit, şi mai ales dacă nu ştii care e acela, ajungi în cele din urmă să-i consideri pe toţi ceilalţi drept vinovaţi, ceea ce îţi scade încrederea în tine, căci ajungi să te simţi singur, înconjurat numai de oameni falşi. O echipă care are în componenţa ei un singur om necinstit este o echipă al cărei stindard nu este bunul simţ, deci care nu se bazează pe integritate şi respect.

Iar liderul unei astfel de echipe, în care există măcar o oaie neagră, şi care nu ia nicio măsură, înseamnă că ori nu-şi cunoaşte îndeajuns de bine oamenii din echipă, ori că-i acceptă cu toate defectele lor - şi în acest caz riscă să ajungă să fie manipulat de ei şi chiar să fie compromis.

Încrederea este unitatea de măsură a nivelului de aşteptare pe care îl ai legat de o persoană atunci când sentimentele pe care le nutreşti pentru ea sunt reciproce.

Concluzie: O echipă este puternică atunci când se bazează pe relaţii de colaborare, pe cinste, corectitudine şi fair-play. Este rolul liderului de a cultiva aceste relaţii atât prin exemplul său personal cât şi prin măsurile pe care le ia pentru păstrarea lor.

Un lider care acceptă abateri de la etică şi nu le sancţionează prompt este de fapt complicele celui care se abate de la principiile eticii ce trebuie să guverneze într-o echipă. Acest element negativ din echipă, nesancţionat la momentul potrivit, va continua să „saboteze" echipa.

Legea influenţei

On Martie 18, 2010

Vei fi gata să conduci numai atunci când vei avea puterea să vezi orizonturi frumos colorate în ochii cu care îţi citeşti singur jurnalul.

Curiozitatea a fost dintotdeauna o caracteristică a firii mele. Din curiozitate am început să scriu, să mă documentez, să învăţ cât mai multe lucruri despre ştiinţa conducerii şi să mă dedic dezvoltării celor din jurul meu. Am păşit pe acest drum cu stângul, făcând multe greşeli, dar a meritat tot efortul depus, iar acum cred că acest drum e tot mai uşor.

Scriu şi voi scrie mereu. Nu scriu pentru a ridica în slăvi pe cineva, nu scriu pentru a linguşi pe nimeni, nu scriu din dorinţa de a genera mai mult trafic pe site. Scriu pentru mă cunoaşte mai bine pe mine însumi. Dar poate că într-o bună zi, vorbele mele, mesajele pe care le transmit şi le presar printre simplele cuvinte şi fraze, vor ajunge să însemne ceva pentru cineva. Poate că peste cuvintele mele se va aşterne praful gros al timpului. Dar poate că ele vor stârni curiozitatea unora. Iar dacă vor rămâne întipărite în mintea multor oameni şi vor avea puterea să-i inspire, să-şi descopere şi să-şi folosească potenţialul la maxim, voi fi cu adevărat fericit.

Acesta este primul test pe care singur am hotărât să mi-l dau. Testul influenţei. În funcţie de rezultatele obţinute, punând în balanţă numărul de feedback-uri pozitive şi negative primite de la cititori, îmi voi da seama care este nivelul la care mă situez, care este de fapt măsura influenţei mele. Influenţa trebuie măsurată înainte de a i se determina calitatea.

Leadership: Încerci să accesezi destinaţia căutată prin atractivitatea pe care o inspiri celorlalţi, sau prin atractivitatea pe care o creezi în lupta cu ceea ce înseamnă să-ţi valorifici pasiunea?

Nu intenţionez să urmez nici masteratul, nici doctoratul pentru ca pregătirea mea profesională să fie luată în serios. Până la urmă acestea, dacă ar fi de ajutor, m-ar ajuta numai pe mine. Iar aşa cum remarca un mare scriitor, omul poate învăţa multe, dar învăţătura nu înseamnă cunoaştere. Pe lângă asta, nicio diplomă din lume nu mă va transforma într-o persoană cu influenţă şi nici prea multe uşi nu-mi vor deschide. Dar dacă mă perfecţionez îndeajuns de mult şi împărtăşesc şi altora ceea ce ştiu, ceea ce gândesc, ceea ce cred, gratuit, prin intermediul internetului, voi fi atât eu, cât şi alţii câştigaţi.

Leadershipul este un joc de echipă, un joc în care toată lumea trebuie să iasă în câştig. Dacă m-aş gândi numai la mine, mimând cu convingere interesul şi preocuparea, aş putea avea o influenţă de scurtă durată, şi în cele din urmă aş fi etichetat drept „spam", aşa cum sunt etichetaţi tot mai des din ce în ce mai mulţi politicieni care folosesc o mulţime de tehnici pentru a păcăli oamenii.

Dar în ce priveşte literatura, există o excepţie de la regulă: poţi câştiga de unul singur notorietatea de care dispune numai un artist care ştie să îmbine cuvintele ca să dea viaţă unei capodopere. Satisfacţia eventuală a unui scriitor nu izvorăşte din sentimentul că ceea ce exprimă poartă numele miraculozităţii, ci din miracolul cu care îşi acordează toate sentimentele atunci când cuvintele sale înfloresc şi schimbă realitatea.

El este condus de puterea cu care crede în ceva ce e mai presus de înţelegere, ca o experienţă pozitivă a unirii cu Unul pusă în evidenţă de puterea cu care știe să își deschidă inima și mintea. De fapt, trăieşte după ideea că întreaga cunoaştere acumulată nu-i aparţine lui însuşi, ci tuturor, şi că destinul lui depinde de preferinţele celor care le folosesc ca să ajungă la unirea cu Unul.

Vârful influenţei este atins atunci când ideea ce leagă sentimentul şi acţiunea este materializată într-un act scris ce încorporează decizia de a revoluţiona existenţa celor care te citesc cu fidelitate.

De aceea scriu, încercând să adaug mereu informaţii clare, cât mai de calitate, cât mai utile. Pentru ca tot ceea ce ştiu, toate cunoştinţele pe care le-am dobândit de-a lungul timpului, să ajungă la urechile tuturor. Nu pot păstra în străfundul fiinţei mele ceva ce altora le-ar putea fi de un real folos. Şi voi fi întotdeauna cât mai sincer, fără să încerc să epatez lumea doar din dorinţa de a mă face remarcat.

Valorificarea pasiunii se realizează o dată cu acea minunată exaltare a descoperirii unei exprimări prin care se întrezăreşte farmecul unei prietenii intense. O prietenie din care se naşte obligaţia de a transmite un conţinut nou de autenticitate în intepretarea rolului de facilitator al unor experienţe memorabile.

Leadership: Eşti dispus să accepţi toate unghiurile de abordare a materializării gândurilor tale pentru a găsi tehnica perfectă de consolidare a îndrumării oamenilor pe calea anevoioasă a ascensiunii?

Unghiurile de abordare a materializării gândurilor sunt spaţiile dintre noţiunile pe care le utilizezi cu scopul de a-ţi creşte valoarea reprezentativităţii în raport cu colectivitatea generală.

Martin Luther King Jr. a fost un preot baptist care şi-a dorit din tot sufletul împlinirea principiilor biblice de viaţă şi libertate. El a înţeles că americanii sunt norocoşi să se fi născut în acel ţinut măreţ, şi că nu mai există o a doua naţiune la fel pe pământ. Iată ce a spus în discursul de la 28 august 1963 cu ocazia marşului spre Washington:

„ Visez că cei patru copii ai mei să trăiască într-o zi într-o naţiune în care să nu fie judecaţi după culoarea pielii, ci după caracterul lor. "

Aceste cuvinte sunt aur curat. Ele au inspirat toată populaţia de culoare din America. Numai un om cu convingeri puternice, care are un vis şi se dedică cu desăvârşire împlinirii lui poate rosti nişte cuvinte cu o putere de influenţă atât de mare. Numai un om motivat să-şi îndeplinească idealul şi care caută căi de a construi punţi între oameni, îi poate îndruma pe aceştia pe calea anevoioasă a ascensiunii. Martin Luther King Jr. a fost cu siguranţă un lider cu o putere de influenţă incredibilă.

Leadershipul este un furnizor de top al spaţiilor de producţie şi stocare a efectelor "incantatorii" ale unei rostiri profetice.

Pe cine şi cum influenţezi tu? Leadershipul presupune mai întâi de toate influenţă, şi nu toţi oamenii au o capacitate de influenţă suficient de ridicată. Realitatea este că cu cât poziţia pe care un om o ocupă în societate este mai mare, cu atât nivelul său de influenţă creşte.

Ce ţi-ar plăcea mai mult: să conduci sau să fii condus? Dacă ambiţia ta cea mai mare este să ajungi într-o poziţie dominantă, atunci extinde-ţi nivelul de influenţă. Succesul tău va depinde în mare măsură de succesul oamenilor pe care îi conduci. Influenţa ta va fi cu atât mai mare cu cât succesul lor va fi mai mare.

La fel cum un profesor este întotdeauna judecat după rezultatele elevilor săi, tu vei fi judecat după rezultatele pe care le obţin oamenii pe care îi conduci.

Dacă ocupi o funcţie de conducere, nu uita că problemele cu care se confruntă oamenii sunt întotdeauna şi problema ta. Nu vei putea avea o influenţă pozitivă asupra oamenilor dacă nu te implici în soluţionarea problemelor cu care aceştia se confruntă, lăsând totul la voia întâmplării, gândindu-te că e numai treaba lor să le rezolve.

Singurul act scris care poate să confirme varianta unei noi conştiinţe de sine se caracterizează prin procesul de compunere a unei imagini care colorează pânza posibilităţii realităţii de a se autodepăşi, arătând ceva de dincolo de fiinţă, un altfel decât a fi.

Influenţa este ceea ce reuşeşti să schimbi la tine după ce ţi-ai recitit propria carte: începi să-ţi centrezi puterea de a crede într-o realitate virtuală care devine posibilă prin şansa de a aparţine unei lumi care te urmăreşte până la capăt.

Este o adevărată artă să ştii să te faci ascultat şi să fii urmat de oamenii din preajma ta. Dar asta se obţine prin muncă asiduă şi urmând uneori cai anevoioase. Feedback-ul din partea oamenilor te va ajuta să te autoevaluezi şi totodată să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti continuu relaţiile cu ei.

Cum îţi măsori influenţa? Cum eşti etichetat de ceilalţi oameni? Influenţa ta este de scurtă sau de lungă durată? Cum construieşti punţi între oameni? Ai convingeri puternice? Te dedici cu desăvârşire împlinirii unui ideal?

Legea Întregului Restrâns la Unu

On Septembrie 19, 2023

Conștientizarea faptului că eşti parte dintr-un întreg mai mare îţi poate oferi un sentimentul de conectare cu ceva mai mare decât tine însuţi.

De fiecare dată când ajung pe litoral senzaţia este aceeaşi: trăiesc sentimentul intens de "nou început", ShaUrtho, iar senzaţia ciudată de irealitate, o detaşare de lucruri şi o retragere într-o presupusă comuniune mistică cu divinitatea, că ceva se scurge parcă din mine, pornind dinspre piept şi ajungând la membre, este una pe care nu am mai trăit-o în niciun alt context. Cu certitudine, fiecare detaliu pe care vederea îl poate cuprinde este lucrarea Domnului, înainte ca eu să-i ofer prin desen sau pictură o semnificaţie aparte.

Numai din cauza perspectivei în planul real al diversității în unitate, luând în considerare tot ce este necesar sublimului pentru a se manifesta ca "una belleza que no existe en proporciones, sino en correspondencia con el alma y su resonancia con el universo", artistul reuşeşte să dea semnificație exclusiv estetică imaginii cu care ochiul său îşi lărgeşte orizontul. Pictura este în esență arta de a observa, de a te bucura de momentul potrivit, de a surprinde un moment într-o fracțiune de secundă. Odată cu fiecare lucru pe care vederea îl captează, cu fiecare experienţă pe care o trăieşti în fiecare amintire, îţi pictezi propria pânză de realitate, gând cu gând, alegere cu alegere.

Pașii cu care calc nisipul, pașii cu care las în urmă un semn al prezenței mele, o poveste despre mine, amprenta unei opere de artă efemere pe nisipul litoralului, unde marea și soarele devin muză și inspirație, mărturisesc călătoria mea prin timp și spațiu. Ei îmi conturează destinul printr-un soi de Inthensiodios Aspras, un moment care nu se va mai întoarce niciodată, și îmi țes povestea vieții în acelaşi mod în care pictorul își interpretează lumea din jurul său, plin de sensibilitate și compasiune, ca modalitate de a vedea frumusețea în lume, chiar și în locurile cele mai neașteptate.

Leadership: Cum se reflectă lupta interioară pe care trebuie s-o depăşeşti, în vederea evidenţierii legăturii dintre suflet și imaginea sa în exterior?

În filmul "Swimming Upstream" pe care l-am revăzut recent, exista o scenă în care Tony Fingleton înoată singur în piscină, după o altercație cu tatăl său. Această scenă este profund simbolică și reflectă dorința lui Tony de a scăpa de realitatea dură a vieții sale. Apa reprezintă un refugiu pentru Tony, un loc unde se poate retrage și unde se poate simți liber, neconstrâns de problemele sale. Şi cred că din punct de vedere artistic această scenă, filmată într-un mod care accentuează singurătatea și izolarea lui Tony, exprimă totodată esenţa existenţei lui prin frumusețea și puritatea apei, adevărate surse de reînnoire la nivel de sine. Ele îl ajută să se conecteze cu lumea din jurul său și să găsească un sens în viață.

La fel se întâmplă cu mine atunci când sunt pe litoral: marea nu este doar un splendid peisaj de vară, plin de albastrul infinitului, unde cerul se îmbrățișează cu adâncurile, ci devine un spațiu de reflecție și introspecție, spaţiu de identitate între suflet și reflecția lui în lumea exterioară, unde fiecare gând și emoție se întâlnește cu esența pură a ființei mele. Valurile mării, asemenea gândurilor și emoțiilor lui Tony, vin și pleacă, aducând cu ele amintiri, speranțe și vise, făcând ca modul de redare a unui tablou să fie accentuat de undele care se ciocnesc cu trupul înotătorului, simbolizând interacțiunea dintre om și natură, dar și căutarea introspectivă a esenței sale.

Arta este ca valurile, uneori puternice şi înfricoşătoare, alteori delicate şi liniştitoare.

Așa cum Tony își găsește liniștea în piscină, eu o găsesc în imensitatea mării, unde fiecare val pare să îmi șoptească povești nemaiauzite, linişti care calmează sufletul şi mintea, contrastând cu agitația vieții cotidiene, fapt ce îmi oferă o perspectivă nouă asupra vieții. Tony este un artist care experimentează prin simţire şi cugetare, nu neapărat prin voinţă şi ambiţie, introspecția și labirintul interiorității umane aşa cum este surprins într-un tablou de felul "The growing wave in Pourville" de Claude Monet, în contrastul dintre culorile reci şi cele calde. Valul este o forță puternică și imprevizibilă, iar cerul este calm și senin, contrast ce creează o tensiune vizuală amplificată de faptul că valul este mai aproape de privitor decât cerul.

Leadership: Aprecierea prezentului și ideea că eşti parte dintr-un întreg mai mare, poate să potenţeze conexiunea cu tine însuţi şi să-ţi dea sentimentul unui sens superior de existenţă?

Un artist poate folosi imaginea unei mări învolburate pentru a reprezenta o perioadă de agitație interioară. În ceea ce priveşte scena din film, apa era instrumentul de exprimare al lui Tony, iar înotul era procesul său creativ. Omul trebuie să fie calm chiar şi atunci când marea este zbuciumată. El şi-a pictat propria pânză de amintiri și emoții, colorând acel moment de interiorizare cu nuanțe unice ale vieții, anume: efemeritatea, sau contrastul dintre liniște și furtună, libertate şi conectare cu natura. Într-adevăr, valurile vin și pleacă, fiecare fiind unic în formă și mișcarea sa. Prin urmare acest flux constant creează ideea de tranzitorietate și reînnoire.

Aprecierea prezentului este doar o revizuire a ideii de moment efemer, parte dintr-un întreg mai mare, pentru că fiecare val, deși trecător, contribuie la ritmul și esența mării în ansamblu. Or ideea de a fi parte dintr-un întreg mai mare, rezonând cu imaginea reflectată de o senzaţie profundă, se referă în principal la sentimentul de conectare cu ceva mai măreţ decât noi înșine, cum este universul sau forța vitală a naturii. Acest lucru poate să denote o valoare spirituală vădită, o înrudire spirituală cu artiștii florentini de la Renașterea timpurie care se ghidau după ideea de "homo universalis", adică omul perceput ca microcosmos în raport cu macrocosmosul, văzând în om o reflectare a universului și a divinității.

Cât despre mine, despre mare, despre valuri şi despre înot, despre soarele care îmi luminează momentele de interiorizare, spre adâncirea conexiunii cu mine însămi, pot să spun că fac parte dintr-o imagine care nu este încarcerată în efemer, ci liberă în eternitate. Faptul că imaginea de ansamblu pe care am creat-o este legată de zona artisticului, dându-i o valoare aparte ca instrument de expresie şi comunicare a ideii de "transcendență și interconectare cu natura", subliniază puterea artei mele de a evoca și de a comunica transformări ale sufletului în contextul unei reacții la provocările și stimuli externi. Fie că este vorba de evenimente majore din viață, întâlniri semnificative sau simple momente de cotidian, acestea pot declanșa o serie de schimbări interioare.

Ca expresie a aspirațiilor de perfecționare, leadershipul se concentrează asupra acelor momente de interiorizare care catalizează creșterea personală în contextul unei reacții la provocările și stimuli externi.

Arta, în multe forme ale sale, poate captura aceste momente de introspecție și răspuns, reflectând luptele, bucuriile și revelațiile care vin odată cu ele. Prin aceasta, arta ne oferă o oglindă în care ne putem vedea propriile reacții și astfel să înțelegem mai bine complexitatea emoțională și spirituală a experienței umane. În cele din urmă, când ultima pensulă este pusă jos și ultima culoare se usucă pe pânză, rămâne un strigăt neaşteptat urcând spre noi - o operă de artă completă, o poveste spusă în culori și forme, un vast capitol al evoluţiei spiritului uman: explorarea şi cunoaşterea de sine.

Legea Întregului Restrâns la Unu se referă la capacitatea omului de a se conecta la vitalitatea naturii prin armonizarea cu sinele său interior, unde introspecția devine puntea dintre conștiința individuală și universalitatea existenței.

Legea jocului de echipă

On Martie 16, 2010

Probabilitatea ca un singur jucător să obţină rezultate excelente e direct proporţională cu calitatea şi nivelul de performanţă al celorlalţi coechipieri.

Îmi amintesc şi acum de o întâmplare petrecută cu mulţi ani în urmă, pe la începutul facultăţii. Eram la antrenamente împreună cu colegii mei. Aveam echipa noastră, jucam de ceva timp împreună, ne înţelegeam bine pe teren. Ca aproape de fiecare dată, la antrenamente participau mai mult echipe din facultate. Jucam prin rotaţie după regula: "zece minute sau două goluri".

La un moment dat, jucătorul de bază al uneia dintre echipele adverse s-a accidentat. Nemaiputând să continue, coechipierii săi au fost nevoiţi să împrumute un jucător de la o altă echipă de pe margine. Şi, cum ardeau de nerăbdare şi aveau acea intensă dorinţă de a câştiga, n-au ales la voia întâmplării. Ci l-au cooptat pe Dănuţ, căpitanul uneia dintre echipele de pe margine, un jucător excepţional, al cărui talent era recunoscut şi apreciat de noi toţi. Acum, credeau ei, vor câştiga meciul respectiv şi poate chiar şi cele ce vor urma.

Cine a zis că lucrurile pot merge bine doar dacă ai în echipă un jucător excepţional, s-a înşelat. În ziua aceea echipa respectivă a pierdut toate meciurile. Iar în fiecare meci în care a jucat la acea echipă, Dănuţ a făcut un joc slab, cu mult sub nivelul lui obişnuit, cu mult sub aşteptările coechipierilor săi. Şi atunci m-am întrebat: de ce?

Răspunsul era evident. Stilul de joc practicat de Dănuţ era mult diferit de cel al noilor săi coechipieri, şi la care aceştia nu s-au putut adapta deloc. Dănuţ juca mai cursiv şi mai pe atac, mai alert, cu pase scurte, dese, în viteză şi pe jos, puţine driblinguri, intrări pe la mijloc şi multe şuturi de la distanţă. În timp ce coechipierii lui practicau un joc de apărare prudent, mai primitiv, mai lent, cu pase înalte şi lungi, presărat rareori de contraatacuri curajoase, conservându-şi energia, nereuşind să construiască în niciun moment nimic interesant.

Un lider nu atrage atenţia doar prin golurile pe care le marchează, ci prin schimbările dese de ritm de pe parcursul jocului care se transformă într-un efort comun.

Atitudinea fiecărui jucător se schimbă în funcţie de performanţa întregii echipe. Niciun progres nu poate înregistra o echipă care nu are un stil de joc unic, închegat, dezvoltat în totalitate. Numai jucând cât mai des împreună jucătorii îşi vor putea forma un stil de joc comun, performant, bazat pe colaborare şi înţelegere, nu pe competiţie, un stil de joc care să impună un anumit ritm, defensiv sau ofensiv, care să-i avantajeze cel mai bine. Nu trebuie uitat faptul că atitudinea fiecărui jucător se schimbă în funcţie de performanţa întregii echipe. Pentru o echipă, ca şi pentru un singur jucător, nimic nu e mai greu de suportat decât nesiguranţa permanenta datorată lipsei de unitate pentru realizarea unui joc perfect.

Fără coechipieri foarte buni, un jucător, oricât de talentat ar fi el, e mereu lipsit de energie, de hotărâre şi joacă fără tragere de inimă. Nu mai e nicidecum la fel de sigur pe el, ceea ce-i determina şi pe ceilalţi să fie, la rândul lor, nesiguri de performanţele sale. Succesul unei echipe nu depinde doar de jucătorul cel mai bun, decât în cazul în care este o echipă unită. La drept vorbind, echipa înseamnă totul, iar dacă abilităţile şi priceperea celorlalţi coechipieri sunt sub nivelul lui, el nu va putea să exceleze şi să se perfecţioneze continuu.

Leadership: Îţi poţi convinge coechipierii să facă un joc ce pare la limita imposibilului în caz de depăşire a limitei de contribuţie adusă idealului de unitate?

Jocul poate ajunge la limita imposibilului atunci când coechipierii tăi deţin controlul total asupra balonului şi demonstrează că sunt foarte buni, dar nu reuşesc să înscrie niciun gol. Practic, ei au ajuns să depăşească limita de contribuţie adusă idealului de unitate, dar nu obţin nicio victorie.

În leadership, acest lucru reprezintă un efect al lipsei de consecvenţă în modul de a menţine atractivitatea şi temperatura destinaţiei finale. La destinaţie ajung cei obişnuiţi cu rezultatele unor curse terminate, nu cei care îşi supraevaluează atitudinea pe timpul parcursului plin de adrenalină.

Când o altă persoană vine la conducerea echipei, totul se reia de la zero. Atunci când Dănuţ a fost cooptat la noua echipă, întreg jocul ar fi trebuit să se schimbe. Nivelul său de performanţă fiind evident mult mai bun decât al celorlalţi jucători, ar fi trebuit să constituie un semnal de alarmă pentru aceştia, un semnal care să-i pună în gardă pe toţi, care să-i trezească, să-i rupă din lanţul rutinei, care să-i motiveze să joace mult mai bine şi să se muleze după jocul lui.

Dar el nu a reuşit, fiindcă nici nu era posibil într-un timp atât de scurt, să-i facă să conştientizeze beneficiile pe care le pot obţine dacă şi numai dacă vor practică stilul lui de joc. Dănuţ nu a putut garanta succesul noii sale echipe nu pentru că nu a reuşit să se integreze în ea, ci pentru că ai lui coechipieri, care erau net inferiori din punct de vedere al valorii, al calităţii jocului prestat, nu s-au putut adapta la ritmul alert pe care el l-a impus încă de la început.

Nu-ţi pune niciodată nădejdea în jucătorul cel mai bun, nu este obligatoriu ca prestaţia lui să aducă succesul echipei.

Experienţa este un zid invizibil care închide performanţa în mediocritate atunci când nu dispui decât de interesul de a te menţine la putere, fără să reuşeşti să faci din această putere manifestarea unei voinţe plină de temelie.

Coechipierii lui Dănuţ au simţit gustul reuşitei înainte de o avea, dar s-au lovit de un zid invizibil, numit experienţă. Ei au fost capabili să identifice un potenţial lider, dar n-au fost capabili să-i joace jocul, n-au fost capabili să-l urmeze în direcţia stabilită de el. Nivelul lor mediu de experienţă, aptitudinile lor practice insuficiente nu le-a permis să se adapteze din mers la jocul impus de Dănuţ. Iar de unul singur el nu a avut puterea să schimbe rezultatul final.

Performanţele şi reuşitele unei echipe depind atât de lider cât şi de membrii echipei. Toţi trebuie să formeze şi să acţioneze în tandem: degeaba un lider este foarte bun dacă nu are cu cine lucra. Inversul este, de asemenea, valabil: un lider slab degeaba are o echipă foarte bună. Orice dezacord sau discordanţă dintre ei se va solda cu un eşec, chiar dacă toţi au avut cele mai bune intenţii.

Una din căile de a te afirma ca jucător de bază într-o echipă unită, în aşteptarea victoriei mult dorite, este să sugerezi prin cele mai fine mijloace ale talentului de atacant că acţiunea are loc simultan într-un context al acumulării plus valorii şi unul al elitelor absolute care vor să ocupe un teren mai mare.

Legea judecăţii părtinitoare

On Martie 10, 2010

Când echipa pierde, de obicei singurul care are de pătimit este liderul, chiar dacă nu întotdeauna el este vinovat.

După părerea mea, cel mai bun antrenor român de fotbal al tuturor timpurilor este Victor Piţurcă. El a pregătit două din cele mai mari echipe de fotbal din România, Steaua Bucureşti şi Universitatea Craiova. A pregătit echipa naţională în 62 de partide obţinând numeroase victorii. A reuşit calificarea României la Campionatul European din 2000 şi din 2008. Fără îndoială reprezintă un adevărat exemplu pentru ceilalţi, este unul din acei antrenori care ştie pe ce buton să apese ca să se facă admirat şi lăudat.

Însă atunci când vine vorba de leadership, nimic nu rămâne bătut în cuie. Anul trecut, în 2009, Comitetul Executiv al FRF a hotărât să întrerupă colaborarea cu selecţionerul Victor Piţurcă, acesta fiind demis în urma rezultatelor slabe ale echipei naţionale a României la Cupa Mondială, în locul lui fiind numit Răzvan Lucescu.

Într-un fel mă aşteptam să fie demis, şi pot să spun că îmi pare rău. Fără îndoială Piţurcă a fost şi este în continuare un antrenor talentat. Dar, din păcate, eşecul echipei române de fotbal a reprezentat o dovadă grea împotriva lui. Greu s-ar fi putut scutura el de toate învinuirile ce i s-au adus. Căci atunci când te-apuci de-o treabă trebuie să o faci serios şi să obţii rezultate excepţionale. Pe oameni nu-i poţi amorţi cu cloroformul făgăduielilor, orice justificare fiind cu totul inutilă.

Leadership: Îţi studiezi parcursul plin de reuşite într-o oglindă prin care Creatorul se priveşte pe sine?

Ce avantaje credibile prezintă leadershipul tău? Prezintă avantajele materializării ideii conform căreia cheia succesului este să extinzi mereu ceea ce ai înfăptuit?

În leadership, creatorul este un permanent etalon al modului în care omul trebuie să-şi gestioneze procesele de luare a deciziilor dincolo de momentele de flux şi de reflux ale parcursului său. El îşi reprezintă triumful chiar şi după momentul ascensiunii lui, prin meritul de a-şi regăsi respectul de sine şi motivaţia de a se simţi util prin comparaţie cu rezultatele obţinute pe parcurs.

Realitatea e că oamenii te respectă şi te admiră atâta timp cât le satisfaci aşteptările, atâta timp cât oferi ce ai mai bun, atâta timp cât le asiguri succesul sau atâta timp cât prezinţi credibil suficiente avantaje pe care le-ar putea obţine avându-te pe tine în fruntea lor. Ei te susţin şi te iubesc deoarece cred că ai sânge în tine şi eşti capabil să faci faţă tuturor provocărilor poziţiei înalte pe care o ocupi.

Leadershipul este efectul unei culori intense (actualizată ca trăire interioară) dintr-o imagine imperfectă.

Trudesc cu toţii alături de tine sperând că vei putea obţine rezultate palpabile. Dar dacă pierd, în acel moment de criză, de furie oarbă, ei uită complet de tot ce-ai făcut pentru ei, de toate succesele pe care ţi le datorează, de toate strădaniile pe care le-ai depus în perioadă anterioară pentru binele lor. Şi nu-ţi mai acordă o altă şansă.

Oare Piţurcă şi-a meritat „pedeapsa" pentru eşecul naţionalei? Nu cred, jucătorii poartă şi ei o mare parte din vină. De fapt, din momentul în care meciul începe, soarta atârnă în mare măsură de voinţa jucătorilor şi talentul lor. Iar dacă, într-un meci decisiv, unul sau altul şutează în bară sau are ghinionul să-şi dea un autogol, ce vină are antrenorul? În fotbal ai nevoie întotdeauna de o doză mare de noroc.

Leadership: Ai puterea să mergi contra curentului pentru a arăta publicului ce ascunzi valoros în tine, nu ceea ce se vede in imaginea pe care o creeaza altii despre tine?

Întăreşte-ţi inima ca să înfrunţi adevărul. În leadership, dacă pierzi, rareori ai dreptul la revanşă. Rareori ai şansa să dovedeşti că eşti nevinovat şi că ai fost învinuit pe nedrept. În leadership poţi fi înălţat până la cer într-o clipă de oamenii din jur, ca apoi, tot aceştia să te coboare până în adâncurile cele mai negre.

Degeaba eşti ambiţios, degeaba deţii talentul, motivaţia şi energia pentru a conduce o echipă, dacă aceasta pierde - membrii ei, fiind dezamăgiţi de eşecul lor, vor da vina pe tine, pentru că tu i-ai condus. Iar pentru că n-ai făcut în aşa fel încât echipa să câştige, deşi ai avut autoritatea de a lua decizii, de a stabili strategii, de a face schimbările necesare, de a critica, de a organiza, de a judeca şi hotărî cu mintea şi cu sufletul, de unul singur, ce este mai bine pentru ea, trebuie să plăteşti.

În consecinţă ei vor strânge toate probele posibile ca să înceapă judecata - propria lor judecată - al cărei scop este înlăturarea ta rapidă de la conducerea echipei. Şi nu te poţi opune. Din păcate nu te poţi lupta cu slăbiciunea fiinţei umane, nu-i poţi convinge pe oameni că fac o mare greşeală atâta timp cât ai avut libertate totală în acţiuni, în alegerea jucătorilor şi în modul în care i-ai antrenat, iar ei te-au urmat şi te-au ascultat supuşi.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit pentru încercarea care te aşteaptă în cazul când piezi, în contextul în care psihologia responsabilităţii tale faţă de imaginea pe care o dobândeşti depinde de modul în care îţi exprimi angajamentul faţă de valorile unui anumit parametru de interes?

Înainte să ajungi lider pregăteşte-te pentru încercarea care te aşteaptă în cazul în care pierzi. Când miza e mare, nu există decât învingători şi învinşi. Dacă vrei să nu ajungi să fii privit cu duşmănie, dacă vrei să nu deştepţi în oameni o cumplită furie, dacă nu vrei să fii demis, atunci trebuie să dai dovadă de acea energie necesară unui lider, de tenacitatea care rezistă şi duce totul până la capăt. Numai dacă insişti asupra rezultatelor şi obţii mereu victorii îţi poţi păstra afinitatea faţă de oameni.

Abilităţile pe care le ai nu fac din tine un campion. Eşti campion numai atunci când câştigi admiraţia şi respectul oamenilor pentru o lungă perioadă de timp. S-ar putea să ai un succes fulminant, dar la un moment dat să te blochezi şi să eşuezi. Dacă doreşti din răsputeri să te menţii pe o poziţie înaltă, fă tot posibilul să nu dai greş. Căci o funcţie înaltă presupune multă responsabilitate şi din momentul în care ai obţinut-o te vei afla tot timpul pe muchie de cuţit. Totul va fi minunat până la primul mare eşec când, aproape sigur, poziţia ta se va nărui.

Valorile parametrului de risc al interesului pe care îl manifeşti pentru un anumit domeniu corespund cu modalitatea ta de ancorare la sentimentul de respect faţă de învinuirile ce ţi se aduc în caz de eşec. În fotbal nu ai dreptul să învinuieşti publicul pentru prestaţia echipei tale. Publicul cere doar victorie. De aceea, părerea "tensionată" a publicului despre performanţa echipei tale este un parametru de risc ce nu trebuie scăpat din vedere atunci când faci evaluarea factorilor de decizie asupra revizuirii statutului tău de antrenor.

Atitudinea de stimă faţă de sine este dată de abilitatea de a-i accepta şi înţelege pe ceilalţi oameni, în rimtul firesc al interesului acordat pentru menţinerea unităţii echipei pe care o formezi şi pe care pui preţ.

Concluzie: De cele mai multe ori oamenii judecă pe alţii după rezultatele palpabile ale activităţii lor având în mare măsură o componentă părtinitoare. La o analiză atentă, lucrurile s-ar putea să stea altfel decât la prima vedere. De aceea se impune periodic o evaluare competentă şi atentă şi chiar o analiză de situaţie. Ideal ar fi că însuşi liderul să iniţieze această evaluare şi neapărat să-şi facă o autoevaluare căci aşa cum spunea un poet anonim:

Nu ai fost zeu şi nu vei fi.

Şi nu-ţi închipui vreodată că eşti perfect,

Căci Dumnezeu nu a creat duplicate.

Legea mediului neprielnic

On Martie 01, 2010

Nu încerca să-ţi dovedeşti priceperea într-un loc care nu îţi întregeşte experienţa de a spune "Nu sunt de acord cu situaţia de faţă".

Ajuns în oraşul Lubeck, Mikael Karvajalka, care între timp îşi schimbase numele în Mikael Pelzfuss - doctor illustrissimus , fără să ceară autorizaţie de la primărie pentru dreptul de a practica medicina, a apelat la ajutorul unui crainic pentru a vesti în tot oraşul că el poate vindeca tot felul de bolnavi, chiar şi pe aceia pe care medicii din Lubeck nu-i pot tămădui.

Însă pe medicii din oraş, vestea că un necunoscut i-ar putea tămădui pe toţi bolnavii, nu-i bucură deloc. Bănuindu-l de intenţii viclene, îl chemară la primărie, în faţa consilierilor, ca să dea socoteală pentru încălcarea legii. Mikael le povesti despre studiile universitare, despre ţările prin care umblase, precum şi despre faptul că fusese învăţăcelul renumitului doctor Theophrastus Paracelsus. Medicii oraşului nedându-i deloc crezare, au rostit într-un singur glas că e prea tânăr ca să fi avut timp să-şi termine studiile, ba să mai fie şi discipolul renumitului doctor. Şi, drept urmare, l-au provocat la o dispută dialectica în limba latină, care nu prevestea însă nimic bun pentru el.

Mikael, adresându-se consilierilor primăriei, a spus:

- Nu limba latină este fundamentul medicinii, ci ştiinţa de a diminua suferinţele celor bolnavi şi de a-i vindeca. Sunt gata să-mi măsor talentul de medic cu toţi cei de aici. Lăsaţi-mă să văd şi să îngrijesc un bolnav pe care alţi medici l-au declarat nevindecabil, şi vă veţi convinge de ştiinţa mea.

Leadership: Cunoaşterea de care dispui cu prisosinţă îţi dă libertatea de a-ţi personaliza viziunea privind modul în care te construieşti ca subiect al unei înstrăinări de spiritualitatea care luminează profunzimile unei conştinţe curate?

Deşi consilierii primăriei înclinaseră în favoarea sa, doctorii oraşului au protestat cu vehemenţă, acuzându-l de şarlatanie şi impostură:

- Să-i preţuiţi oare atât de puţin pe bunii locuitori ai oraşului nostru, încât să nu vă pese de vor cădea în mâinile unui şarlatan? Prin mijloace diavoleşti uneori şi şarlatanii reuşesc să micşoreze durerile unui bolnav greu de vindecat, ce-i drept, dar asta-i doar o vindecare trecătoare. Ne întrebăm de nu cumva acest bărbat este eretic şi necromant.

Verdictul a fost pronunţat împotriva lui Mikael, căruia i s-a interzis să practice medicina în Lubeck. În felul acesta, doctorii oraşului au avut câştig de cauză, iar Mikael, căruia i s-a dus rapid faima, a fost nevoit în cele din urmă să părăsească oraşul acela nerecunoscător. El şi-a dat seama că întreaga lui cunoaştere nu face casă bună cu acele spirite neîncrezătoare în viziunea unei noi dimensiuni de gândire şi că întreaga spiritualitate care luminează profunzimile unei conştiinţe curate este negată întotdeauna când vine vorba de afirmarea individuală, adică fără propagandă, fără opulenţă, fără selecţie valorică.

Leadership: Ce însemnătate dai parcursului tău dacă faci o comparaţie între ceea ce întâlneşti la tine printr-o prezenţă a intenţiilor celorlalţi de a te defăima şi forma de refuz al unui destin care părea trasat dinainte?

S-a aflat într-un mediul neprielnic, care nu promova profesionalismul. Mikael Karvajalka, era un medic foarte bun, instruit şi educat, nu avea interese personale şi ambiţii de măsurat cu ale altora, nu râvnea la onoruri, la bogaţii sau la vreo răsplată publică. Ci, având o experienţă practică deosebită care i-a fost de folos în multe împrejurări grele, a venit deseori în întâmpinarea celor bolnavi, oferindu-le tratamente naturiste foarte eficace. O făcea din toată inima, iar atâta timp cât nu cerea plată, nicio lege nu-l putea împiedica să-i vindece pe oamenii bolnavi, şi nici pacienţilor nu le era interzis să-i ofere daruri dacă asta voiau.

Dar medicii din oraşul Lubeck, ce nu erau decât o mână de teoreticieni dar slab practicieni, şi mai mult avizi după bani, ca nu cumva să se facă de ruşine, ca nu cumva un străin să reuşească să-i facă bine pe acei bolnavi cărora ei nu le-au putut găsi un leac, ca nu cumva concurenţa să le fure clientela, l-au acuzat de tot felul de neadevăruri.

Mikael, nou în oraş, neştiind pe nimeni, neavând niciun sprijin din partea nimănui, n-a insistat să schimbe decizia medicilor şi a consilierilor. Ci a ales să părăsească oraşul, convins că şansele de a-şi profesa meseria acolo sunt minime. Să fi fost oare o greşeală din partea lui? Ce-ar fi fost dacă ar fi încercat să se lupte pentru drepturile sale într-un loc unde nimeni nu-l cunoştea, unde nu avea niciun aliat şi toţi erau împotriva lui? Iar atunci, pe timpul inchiziţiei, era o mare greşeală să intri în conflict cu autorităţile.

Ca o corabie rătăcită pe timp de furtună, noaptea, în mijlocul marii înspumate, Mikael risca să se piardă în vârtejurile ei. Dar, prudent din fire, având o viziune clară şi solidă asupra realităţii, a ales calea cea mai indicată în această situaţie: să părăsească oraşul Lubeck. Fără îndoială nu se afla la locul potrivit. Nu putea să se dezvolte într-un mediu care îi era total ostil.

Parcursul lui Mikael Karvajalka poate avea o singură însemnătate: el dovedeşte cât s-au răcit raporturile între datoria morală, autoritate și deontologie, şi cât de mult s-au slăbit legăturile dintre evoluţia societăţii şi raţionalitatea unei înţelegeri eficiente. Destinul lui în acea parte a lumii pare să fi fost trasat dinainte şi pus sub semnul unei grave interogaţii: să-şi asume pe ascuns obligaţia de a pune în practică cunoştinţele acumulate sau să-şi asume sarcina de a gestiona conflictele de interes în dauna prestaţii sale.

Leadership: Încerci să te regăseşti dincolo de fundalul zgomotos al unui destin care te transformă în proscris, luând în considerare imaginea de ansamblu a ceea ce înseamnă să fii "social"?

Nimeni nu-şi poate desfăşura activitatea într-un mediu ostil, ci într-unul stabil, sănătos, profitabil. De aceea e bine să ştii cine eşti şi cum eşti văzut de ceilalţi înainte să rătăceşti într-un mediu nou. E bine să te cunoşti pe tine însuţi dar şi pe ceilalţi din jur, fiind conştient de faptul că dacă eşti cu mult mai bun decât ei, mai îndemânatic şi mai eficient, sunt şanse să întâmpini multe obstacole. Se poate întâmpla ca atunci când intri într-un mediu nou, altcineva să trebuiască să-l părăsească, cineva mai slab ca tine. Şi cum, mai ales pe timp de criză, nimeni nu doreşte să fie îndepărtat din vreo poziţie, poţi fi sigur că nu vei fi văzut cu ochi prea buni de anumite persoane.

Ca să poţi profesa într-o companie ai nevoie de consimţământul celorlalţi. La fel ca un jucător de fotbal, nu vei putea să joci nemaipomenit fără să-ţi cunoşti foarte bine coechipierii, fără ca aceştia să te cunoască la fel de bine, fără să te înţelegi foarte bine cu ei şi fără să cunoşti îndeajuns de bine fiecare părticică de teren. Trebuie să te uiţi în oglindă, să afli cine eşti, cum eşti văzut de cei din jur şi apoi să-ţi pui în balanţă şansele reale de reuşită. Dacă şansele sunt mici, atunci schimbă echipa. Decât să accepţi să rămâi într-un mediu ale cărui valori nu se potrivesc cu ale tale şi în care nu-ţi sunt apreciate iniţiativele, mai bine îndreaptă-te către un alt mediu.

Aşa cum seminţele încolţesc şi dezvoltă mlădiţe doar într-un mediu prielnic, tot aşa şi tu vei depinde de colectivul în care intri. Dacă nu eşti acceptat, chiar dacă eşti mai bun profesionist decât ceilalţi vei avea de suferit. De vezi că orice strădanie de-a ta este inutilă din cauza mediului neprielnic, schimbă colectivul şi afirmă-te în alt loc.

Imaginea de ansamblu a ceea ce înseamnă să fii "social" surprinde acea combinaţie a calităţilor, a capacităţilor şi a puterilor tale sufleteşti şi intelectuale care au priză la public, dar care trebuiesc mereu protejate de factorul variabil al succesului: "Niciodată oamenii nu te vor iubi pentru ceea ce nu pot vedea la ei înşişi."

Leadershipul este argumentul central care susține ideea unei înțelegeri de jos în sus a ceea ce înseamnă să "cunoști" ceva mai presus de ceilalţi oameni, atunci când cerințele de cunoaștere sunt folosite drept criterii de superioritate într-un moment importanţă majoră.

Acest argument poate fi formulat astfel: "Dacă oamenii consideră că eşti dispus să te implici şi să mergi mai departe de ceea ce ei aşteaptă de la tine, înseamnă că nu vei fi niciodată dependent de ei, iar ei se vor simţi tot mai ameninţaţi în privinţa calităţii şi continuităţii activităţii lor.

Legea mediului neprielnic este valabilă numai în cazul celor care ajung într-un loc nepotrivit practicării meseriei lor, oricând putând fi denigraţi nu atât datorită intereselor ascunse ale persoanelor cu funcții de demnitate publică, ci datorită acelei invidii ascuțite pentru talentul şi priceperea de care dă dovadă un adevărat profesionist într-un domeniu.

Legea omului în furtună

On Noiembrie 18, 2012

Nu te arunca în valurile înspumate ale performanţei, fără să evaluezi anticipat intensitatea furtunii care îţi poate tulbura caracterul şi personalitatea.

Nu există mister care să nu fie dezlegat de valurile puternice, uriaşe, greu de combătut ale adevărului. Evenimentele pot favoriza şi netezi drumul spre punerea în evidenţă a personalităţii. Sau, dimpotrivă, pot să umbrească temporar această personalitate. Dar căutând şi acceptând adevărul, misterul, acest teritoriu de nestrăbătut, este dezlegat.

Mă îndreptam spre succesul profesional ca un actor ce se bizuie doar pe arta lui de a se deghiza pentru a putea intra mai bine în pielea altor personaje. Eram prins în propria mea cursă, cu mult mai strânsă şi mai dură decât mi-aş fi putut închipui. Dar o cursă antrenantă, orientată cumva spre performanţă. Aruncat între două oceane întinse: " a fi " şi " a nu fi ". Prins în mijlocul unei furtuni existenţiale care nu promitea nimic sigur.

Credeam că puterea de a mă ridica deasupra condiţiei de trecător prin lume şi de a deveni mult mai mult decât eram, ar putea fi stocată într-un fel acumulatoare speciale pentru a fi disponibilă la cererea mea şi utilizată oricând. Asta, pentru a face posibilă înfrângerea oricăror limite, precum şi păstrarea intactă a identităţii - care părea să ruginească în momentele hotărâtoare.

Leadership: Cum îţi defineşti realitatea atâta timp cât încerci să rămâi deosebit prin unicitatea absolută a libertăţii de a fi tu însuţi în preajma unei convingeri care îţi domină gândirea?

Mai exact, mă găseam în faţa unui fapt necunoscut. Între un absolut al realului şi un absolut al ficţiunii – în faţa unui adversar viclean pe care, probabil, nu-l bănuia nimeni. Ca un erou al lui Jules Verne, eram angajat într-o luptă cu o forţă nevăzută. O mână invizibilă mă urmărea peste tot ameninţându-mă cu sabia bine proptită în mijlocul realităţii mele, tăindu-mi toate drumurile în intenţia de a mă ralia unor convingeri "extremiste", opuse tuturor concepţiilor mele despre viaţă şi scopul ei. Fără să pot riposta. Fără ca nimeni să poată interveni.

Totul se desfăşura pe plan real, ca o preocupare care mă absorbea complet. O trezire incompletă în mijlocul declinului, dar o trezire de care ţineam cont. Singura convingere care îmi domina gândirea, în corespondenţă cu deprinderea voinţei de a funcţiona după norma talentului şi spiritului creator, era aceea că totul se putea termina printr-o izbândă a ideii de liber-arbitru în faţa predestinării de a aparţine unei lumi ce eşuează în a se reconstrui pe sine însăşi. O lume privită ca expresie a unei viziuni incomplete despre ceea ce reprezintă succesul sau eşecul.

Trăind în lumea propriilor valori mă încăpăţânam de fapt să trăiesc într-o lume izolată, străbătută de o existenţă plină de incertitudini. Puteam oare să fandez, să încerc o manevră de a mă îndepărta de această limită a perspectivelor mele, de această prăpastie a confuziei, oricare ar fi aia? Nu ştiu, nu cred. Nu puteam, nu aveam curajul să risc să mă cufund în nesiguranţă. În acel val-vârtej continuu care întâi te învârteşte până nu mai ştii unde eşti; pe urmă te zgâlţâie zdravăn, de colo până colo, pe loc, până nu mai ştii cine eşti.

Riscam să mă pierd definitiv pe mine însumi, să mă las exploatat de forţa incertitudinii. Eram în prins în mijlocul furtunii. Mă scufundam încet, încet, printre valurile înşelătoare ale vieţii. Îmi fabricasem mentalitatea de învins, prin lipsa capacităţii de reacţie. Mă îndoiam de mine însumi. Acesta era adevărul.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să te adânceşti în zvâcnirile unui sentiment de învingere a limitărilor, încât să te identifici cu valorile de căpătâi ale unui om care îşi reglează direcţia după felul lucrurilor de a se ancora într-o altă realitate?

În ceea ce mă priveşte, valorile de căpătâi care mă ghidau spre a înţelege fenomenul pe care îl trăiam printr-o continuă căutare de întrebări și răspunsuri, erau total diferite de ceilalţi oameni: preţuiam doar lucrurile care nu erau uşor de obţinut şi dădeam la o parte pe cele ştiute de toată lumea.

Drumul cunoaşterii de sine este esenţial în leadership. El porneşte din punctul în care te afli şi se termină acolo unde îţi doreşti să fii. Asumarea unei identităţi care îţi face cinste prin ceea ce eşti, ceea ce faci, felul în care te prezinţi în faţa celei mai înalte instanţe - conştiinţa ta. Iar conştiinţa înseamnă să filtrezi toate lucrurile cu acceptul tău lăuntric înainte de a acţiona şi să vezi ce reacţie primeşti de la viaţă.

Cunoaşterea de sine este ca un drum ce deschide alte drumuri. Dar la fel de bine, poate însemna un război necâştigat cu tine însuţi, împiedicându-te să te întregeşti, făcându-te să te simţi limitat într-un anumit domeniu ori într-un anumit segment al vieţii.

Numai evenimentele favorabile îţi pot prilejui punerea în valoare a bunului tău cel mai de preţ, personalitatea, care se formează şi se face remarcată exact în momentul trecerii line, dar uneori dură şi dureroasă, de la o stare existenţială la alta, printr-o asumare a curajului de a fi vulnerabil sau imperfect.

Adevărata lumină care te conectează la valoarea vieţii este consecinţa confruntării finale dintre decizia de a te abandona în faţa unui sentiment dezolant al zădărniciei şi puterea de a te ridica deasupra şi în afara limitelor de orice fel.

Unul din lucrurile pe care le înveţi şi accepţi pe parcursul derulării procesului de leadership este că puterea de a te ridica deasupra condiţiei de a fi un efect al unei cauze şi de a schimba lucrurile din jur pentru ajunge cât de sus poţi, se setează prin voinţa de a te elibera din scenariile unei lupte cu o forţă nevazută. Prin identificarea şi asumarea greşelilor. Întotdeauna îţi vei aminti de greşelile pe care le-ai făcut, dar care te-au propulsat spre o devenire constructivă, superioară.

În acest sens, punctul de vedere a expertului în materie de conducere, John Maxwell, este important de ţinut minte: "Încă mai simt înţepătura acelor lucruri foarte dureroase pe care le-am învăţat, atunci când încerc să le transmit. Totuşi, sunt şi încurajat, deoarece mă bucur să observ că astăzi sunt mai înţelept decât în trecut."

Caracterul şi personalitatea omului care îmbrăţişează ştiinţa conducerii, se formează mergând înainte, dar privind tot timpul în urmă, la greşelile pe care le-a săvârşit în lupta cu sine însuşi.

Leadership: Acorzi o valoare de unicat vieţii rezultate din interpretarea unui fapt necunoscut pe parcursul evaluării conştiinţei de sine?

Conştiinţa de sine, în misteriosul tablou al vieţii, se dezvăluie odată cu recunoaşterea acelor valori de sens care te fac mândru şi îţi aduc cinste, precum continuitatea, originalitatea şi înnoirea permanentă, din care trebuie să alegi doar opţiunea ta de adevăr. Acorzi parcursului tău un sens de urcare sau de coborâre? Adevărul îl afli când ajungi să-ţi conferi particularitatea de a funcţiona prin recunoaşterea şi acceptarea propriilor limite şi greşeli.

Singurul fapt necunoscut pe care trebuie să-l creionezi prin gânduri, atitudine şi iscusite abordări, prin linii de o mare sensibilitate, trase cu nerv, în acel val-vârtej continuu care întâi te învârteşte până nu mai ştii unde eşti, este libertatea de a fi tu însuşi şi de a te învinge pe tine însuţi.

În leadership nu-i de ajuns să fii la înălţime ca să străluceşti, ci trebuie să străluceşti prin prisma a ceea ce nu poţi duce, prin prisma constatării că nu eşti cine credeai că eşti, tot aşa cum soarele strălucește când e acoperit de nori.

Şi unora şi altora dintre aceia care răspund chemării leadershipului, şi debutanţilor şi artiştilor, li se cuvine întreaga recunoştinţă a alcătuirii corespunzătoare a planurilor de acţiune şi a nevoilor de dezvoltare personală. În special pentru bunăvoinţa şi promptitudinea cu care şi-au exprimat disponibilitatea de a contribui la compunerea unui "portret robot" al leadershipului viitor.

În posesia lor se află acea esenţă a diverselor puncte de vedere şi atitudini prospective asupra leadershipului, care constituie baza unui edificiu ce le reflectă personalitatea. Sub forma acelor impulsuri brute de a acţiona, de a deveni tot mai perfecţi, ei îşi stimulează imaginaţia, dorinţa, voinţa, gândurile, emoţiile – menţinându-le pe poziţii distincte pe tot parcursul procesului de evoluţie.

Numai cei dispuşi să ia în serios construirea şi menţinerea acestui edificiu, şi să se ocupe de viitorul leadershipului, vor ajunge să pună în picioare acel întreg, care se numeşte Succes.

Succesul sau eşecul unui om depinde de ceea ce îşi imaginează că reprezintă într-o realitate care nu mai este percepută ca întreg, ci ca fragmente separate ale personalităţii sale.

Legea omului în furtună scoate în evidenţă poziţia omului faţă de sine însuşi, responsabilitatea de a se consacra unei dezvoltări care îl poate propulsa înainte, spre reuşită, numai printr-o analiză a sacrificiilor şi eforturilor pe care le impune depăşirea obstacolelor. Numai prin înveşmântarea caracterului cu cele mai frumoase trăsături, se poate apropia cineva de perfecţiune.

Te afli în faţa unui adversar viclean: "Omul din tine"? Poţi oare să fandezi, să încerci o manevră de a te îndepărta, oricare ar fi aia, de ceea ce nu te defineşte, de ceea ce e toxic pentru devenirea ta?

Îţi fabrici mentalitatea de învins, prin lipsa capacităţii de reacţie în faţa greşelilor care le faci pe tot parcursul perioadei de probare a caracterului tău? Care sunt acele părţi din personalitatea ta care au rămas nematurizate, făcându-ţi imposibilă dezvoltarea?

Legea pe care Dumnezeu a pus-o în viața mea

On Noiembrie 16, 2023

Ceea ce simți reflectă ceea ce descoperi atunci când privești în adâncul sufletului tău și te întrebi dacă ești gata să devii reflectarea divinităţii în tine.

Poate că Dumnezeu a vrut să supună spiritul meu la o nouă încercare, pentru a vedea dacă se purifică sau nu. Acesta fiind scopul pentru care de-a lungul vieții mi-am dezvoltat anumite calități sufletești, precum compasiunea şi iertarea. Mi-am dat seama că pentru a-L convinge pe Dumnezeu de calităţile mele, trecute printr-o purificare cuprinzătoare, o reconvertire a simţurilor spre esenţa profundă, mai întâi trebuie să fiu eu însumi convins că faptele mele, tot ce am făcut nestingherit, fără vreo imixtiune din partea influențelor exterioare sau dogmelor religioase, au fost și sunt în deplină concordanță cu voia Lui.

Iar dacă un spirit ca al meu, liber şi vesel, direct corespondent cu planul astral, este încărcat cu două feluri de electricitate: voinţa de a învinge şi voinţa de a excela (care rezistă în timp), la care se adaugă disciplina și concentrarea pentru realizarea obiectivelor, atunci teritoriul vast al credinţei mele va avea ca formă de manifestare un soi de predestinare divină, un Icenach Haoserhis Uheontus, care face din succesul dobândit în această lume un semn al faptului că mă număr printre cei aleşi.

Înzestrat cu un fluid electric negativ și unul pozitiv, spiritul meu pământesc trebuie să fie predominant încărcat cu pasiune și entuziasm pentru a alimenta creativitatea și inspirația pe lungimea de undă a unei armonii netrecătoare, prin unirea unui sentiment de pace interioară cu o faptă bună.

Leadership: Ai o aură atât de puternică încât să experimentezi acea senzație de deschidere și conectare profundă cu universul, asemănătoare cu ceea ce omul evoluat atribuie corpului astral?

S-a întâmplat recent în viața mea atunci când am ajutat un prieten în nevoie: mai mult decât ascultător am devenit un aliat valoros în gestionarea momentelor grele. Atent, am ascultat cu empatie, prin identificarea mea cu un cristal care stimulează abilităţile precum curajul, forţa şi determinarea. Simțind că am putut aduce puțină pace și alinare în sufletul său, am experimentat o profunzime a satisfacției și liniștii interioare, ca și când Dumnezeu însuși ar fi aprobat și binecuvântat această faptă de compasiune și ajutor.

Bineînțeles, ca să se producă o descărcare electrică pozitivă din zona cerească spre lumea pământeană, încât să devin conștient de prezența lui Dumnezeu în mine, să fiu împăcat cu toate consecinţele faptelor mele, să simt acea senzație de fericire pe care omul evoluat o atribuie corpului astral, a trebuit mai întâi să cred în calitatea de care se foloseşte un medium: de a comunica cu lumea spirituală și de a transmite mesaje și informații de la aceasta.

Leadership: Trebuie să experimentezi momente speciale de introspecție care să declanșeze în tine o senzație de apropiere cu divinitatea, printr-un fel de oglindire a celuilalt în tine?

Interesant este faptul că la început am vrut să ignor orice comunicare, orice tentativă de apropiere cu o persoană "neliniştită", proces care ar fi putut să îmi perturbe Status Quo-ul, starea actuală de echilibru, calm şi seninătate. Totuşi, în cadrul marelui curent cosmic, a trebuit să fiu marcat de o anumită experiență de viață care să declanșeze în mine o senzaţie de apropiere cu divinitatea.

Când asculţi un om "rătăcit", tu însuţi începi să rătăceşti prin gânduri care nu-ţi aparţin, dar care ajung în univers şi acolo își găsesc propria rezonanță, contribuind la energia și vibrația acestuia. La modul cel mai profund, dacă ai o aură puternică, gândurile ar putea să răspundă la indicaţia lui Dumnezeu prin apariţia auzului spiritual: "privește-te pe tine însuți ca și cum ai privi o reflectare a celuilalt în tine."

În cer, la fel şi pe pământ, natura omului şi nemurirea sufletului îl însoţesc pe acela care, asemenea unui geniu protector, continuă să ghideze și să influențeze evoluția spirituală și materială, asigurându-se că toată lumea progresează pe calea sa, o cale a eliberării de orice resentiment sau sentiment de vină.

Leadership: Poți să acționezi în mod altruist, manifestându-ți spiritul și reflectând noblețea sufletească a dublului tău în lumea subtilă a energiilor și conștiințelor aflate dincolo de planul fizic?

Alteori, să acționezi în mod altruist pentru a aduce iertare și reconciliere înseamnă să înțelegi puterea asemănării spirituale, resimțită într-o altă circumstanță sau context, unde conexiunea dintre două suflete se dezvăluie într-un mod cu totul nou și semnificativ. Un fel de elibeaăre de resentimente, să lași trecutul în urmă și să contribui la vindecarea relațiilor cu generozitate și compasiune. Exact ca în cazul marelui conducător Ben-Hur:

Ben-Hur, un evreu bogat acuzat pe nedrept, devine sclav în Imperiul Roman. Este salvat de Messala, fostul său prieten care l-a trimis în robie, un exil tragic, plin de suferinţe. Iniţial vrea răzbunare, dar apoi înțelege că iertarea este calea spre pace. Când se întâlnesc din nou, Ben-Hur îl iartă pe Messala, demonstrând nobleţea sufletului său. Această poveste simbolizează căutarea dezvoltării spirituale prin iertare și purificare a sufletului.

Calea eliberării de suferința altor oameni este să practici compasiunea și empatia, să acționezi în mod altruist ca formă de manifestare a spiritului, trăind prezența constantă a dublului tău ca o oglindă a propriei tale nobleți sufletești, ca o reflecție în lumea subtilă a energiilor și conștiințelor aflate dincolo de planul fizic, în care se interacționează forțe, entități și experiențe spirituale.

Leadership: Poţi să te regăseşti într-un contrast al experiențelor, unde tu ai purtat lumina celuilalt, iar el a purtat întunericul tău, într-un joc al destinului care a dezvăluit adâncimea conexiunii voastre spirituale?

În altă viață, tu ai fost el, și el a fost tu. În altă circumstanță tu ai purtat povara lui, iar el a purtat povara ta, într-un joc al destinului care a revelat adâncimea conexiunii voastre spirituale. În altă perspectivă, tu ai fost imaginea lui, și el a fost imaginea ta. Într-un contrast al experiențelor, tu ai purtat lumina lui, iar el a purtat întunericul tău, într-un sistem de credinţă care pune în valoarea legătura dintre două lumi.

În stare de spirit liber și rătăcind prin spațiul unui dialog divin, nevăzut, dar intuibil, vei vedea cum la un anumit moment de conştienţă a "dublurii" tale vei face eforturi de a atinge un scop înalt, un alt nivel de trăire spirituală, ca şi când ai atinge un crucifix când se face un jurământ: o uniune spirituală profundă și o legătură neclintită în căutarea adevărului și a înălțării. Practic, devii oglinda celui de lângă tine dacă conştientizezi profunzimea și conectarea dintre sufletele voastre, reflectând la asemănări și diferențe, iar în acest proces continuu învăţaţi să creşteţi și să evoluați împreună în cadrul aceleiaşi conexiuni spirituale.

De aceea, reflectarea divinităţii în tine se explică prin capacitatea de sincronizare a gândurilor şi emoţiilor tale cu fluxul divin al armoniei și al compasiunii, care îţi eliberează inima de poverile resentimentelor, permiţându-ţi să trăieşti în pace, într-o lumină a înţelegerii binelui şi a răului care vă ghidează pe amândoi: tu care puteai să fii el, şi el care oricând poate fi tu.

Asta te conectează la divinitate și la esența ta spirituală. Ceea ce vezi la tine are ca pârghie de susținere potențialul de a trăi în armonie cu influenţele unor gânduri străine, dar totuși resimțite ca o parte a experienței tale spirituale?

Leadershipul, cu trimitere în planul astral în care se găseşte spiritul, se ghidează după următoarea regula: "ceea ce vezi la tine este ceea ce este oglindit în tine, o reflecție a conștiinței tale".

Legea pe care Dumnezeu a pus-o în viața mea se poate nuanţa astfel: "Sentimentele pe care la porţi altuia te pot ajuta să consolidezi reflectarea divinității în tine."

Altfel spus, ceea ce adăposteşte adâncul din tine se amplifică prin simțire, prin trăirea unui sentiment de conexiune cu divinitatea, fapt asociat cu reflectarea ta într-un spirit de înțelegere și compasiune, care permite să-ţi împărtășești lumina interioară cu ceilalți și să te conectezi cu esența divină a fiecărei ființe.

Legea Percepției Rafinate

On August 25, 2024

Ochiul antrenat poate detecta semnificații ascunse în detalii aparent nesemnificative.

Trecând prin cartierul Galala, am fost atras de o inscripție simplă, dar plină de înțeles, desenată pe una din extremitățile podului care străjuiește micul cartier: „Podul Dragostei: Petronel și Evelina."

Scrisul, gravat cu un marker negru, purta o poveste mai adâncă decât părea la prima vedere, o chemare tainică a nevăzutului, un soi de revelație cotidiană ascunsă în adâncul inimilor celor care treceau zilnic pe lângă această declarație. Căutarea sensului în viață se manifestă adesea prin gesturi creative sau neconvenționale.

Nu știu de ce cred asta, nu știu să explic rațional, pot doar să intuiesc o fărâmă din misterul ascuns. Căci acele cuvinte simple, mărunte, scrise cu un marker negru, păreau să poarte pe umeri povara unei povești mai vechi și mai adânci decât ar părea la prima vedere, sugerând acea eternitate a sentimentului din prelungirea unui destin împletit. Povestea se întinde ca o rețea subtilă, croită în inimile celor care trec pe lângă această mărturie de dragoste anonimă, devenind o punte nevăzută între cei ce iubesc și cei ce își păstrează tăcerea.

Leadership: Poţi să lași o amprentă a sufletului tău într-o reprezentare vizuală captivantă, încercând să păstrezi pentru eternitate ecoul sentimentelor tale într-o lume care trece rapid pe lângă tine?

M-am întrebat atunci, privind cu atenţie scrisul: poate o astfel de inscripție, instantaneul unui moment simplu și efemer, să dobândească măreția unei opere de artă capabile să sfideze timpul? Poate impactul fulgerător al unei revelații să se transforme într-un "Epedysasis Harrexhium", o chemare eternă a depășirii de sine? Poate cineva, în fața unei inscripții de acest fel, să simtă acel fior de nemurire pe care doar arta autentică o poate aduce în conștiința colectivă?

Şi oare atunci când ne gândim la impactul unei astfel de revelații, nu ne imaginăm că, la fel ca un tablou meticulos pictat de mâna unui maestru, fiecare detaliu devine un strop de eternitate?

Acolo, pe pod, în acea clipă fugace, am simțit pulsul unui adolescent care, prins în mrejele primei iubiri, încearcă să fure din curgerea timpului o fărâmă de eternitate. „Podul Dragostei" nu mai era doar o înșiruire de cuvinte gravate în trecere, ci devenea expresia discretă a unei aspirații universale: dorința de a păstra viu, chiar și într-un gest atât de simplu, ecoul unui sentiment. La fiecare privire aruncată acelei inscripții, tânărul își dorea ca lumea să își amintească de el și de iubirea sa pentru Evelina, un fir subțire de lumină între prezent și eternitate. „Podul Dragostei" nu este doar un titlu spontan, ci o chemare discretă spre imortalitate, comme un pont entre le visible et l'invisible.

Leadership: Cum influențează expresia ta artistică puntea dintre realitatea interioară și lumea exterioară, ținând cont de faptul că gesturile simple ascund adevăruri profunde?

Ochiul interior al creației poate discerne dimensiuni care transcend percepția obișnuită. Cu cât priveam mai mult la acea inscripție, cu atât mai limpede îmi devenea adevărul pe care încerca să-l comunice: o fărâmă de viață prinsă într-un moment trecător. Era ca și cum acele cuvinte aveau puterea să cristalizeze întreaga experiență a unui tânăr în căutarea unui loc în lume, asemenea unui tablou de Kandinsky unde fiecare punct și linie capătă o semnificație cosmică. Sau, precum în fragmentul din romanul "Pendulul lui Foucault" scris de Umberto Eco:

"Creația e un proces de inspirație și expirație divină, ca o răsuflare neliniștită sau ca acțiunea unor foale. Încearcă să creezi și tu ceva din nimic. E un lucru care se face o singură dată în viață. Or Dumnezeu, ca să sufle lumea cum sufli într-un glob de sticlă, are nevoie să se contracte în el însuși, pentru a căpăta suflu, și apoi emite lungul șuier luminos al celor zece sefiroți. Pentru asta e necesar ca luminile sefiroților să fie strânse în niște recipiente capabile să reziste strălucirii lor."

Leadership: Pot sentimentele tale intense să motiveze acțiuni neobișnuite, în timp ce vederea interioară oferă „insights" profunde asupra naturii umane și a universului?

Cu fiecare zi care trece, cu fiecare privire aruncată asupra acelei inscripții îmi dau seama de un lucru. Băiatul a căutat să transmită o bucățică din sufletul său, sperând ca universul să își amintească de el și de iubirea sa pentru Evelina. Sau poate ca în tăcerea simbolurilor se ascund strigătele unor inimi rănite de trecerea timpului. Oricare ar fi adevărul, este esențial să înțelegem că acest act aparent simplu este de fapt o manifestare a revelației misterului intangibil.

Inscripția lăsată de băiat pentru Evelina devine astfel o creație asemănătoare unui suflu divin, o încercare de a prinde eternitatea într-un moment efemer. Așa cum Dumnezeu își concentrează toată energia în cele zece sefiroți, acea gravură simplă, cuvinte mărunte, poartă în ele greutatea unei întregi lumi interioare, o lumină intensă și fragilă. Asemenea foalelor divine din „Pendulul lui Foucault", băiatul a adunat în el însuși forța de a-și exprima iubirea și, într-o explozie de inspirație, a lăsat această amprentă, sperând să reziste trecerii timpului.

Un sentiment, chiar și prins între câteva linii, poate deveni o punte între trecător și veșnic, între artist și privitor. Nu-i aşa?

Dumnezeu a suflat, și lumina s-a făcut. Poate că acest "Pod al Dragostei" va fi doar un desen trecător pentru unii, dar pentru cei capabili să vadă dincolo de aparențe, el va reprezenta o fereastră spre o lume plină de speranțe, visuri și dorințe nedeslușite. Și tu, cititorule, ce punți invizibile construiești între realitatea ta și infinitul posibilităților?

Leadershipul derivă din dorința de a transforma efemerul într-o creație durabilă, înrădăcinată în spiritualitate și motivație profundă.

Legea Percepției Rafinate se referă la capacitatea de a descifra semnificațiile subtile din jurul nostru, oferind fiecărui detaliu un sens adânc, ce depășește interpretarea obișnuită a realității. Deci, pentru ca percepția să devină un instrument de înțelegere profundă, trebuie să fim dispuși să ne deschidem mintea și inima către adevărurile ascunse în detalii aparent nesemnificative.

Cu cât contemplu mai adânc acele cuvinte, cu atât adevărul pe care încearcă să-l transmită devine mai clar: un moment suspendat între uitare și dorința arzătoare de a rămâne viu în amintire. Inscripția aceea, desenată cu neglijență dar cu pasiune, era ca o bucată din sufletul unui tânăr care încerca să strige lumii despre focul care-i ardea inima.

Legea personalităţii unice

On Noiembrie 26, 2012

Trasează coordonatele propriei tale identităţi, fără să te substitui altei personalităţi.

Mă găseam în faţa unor adevăruri pe care nu le bănuia nimeni, hrănindu-mi spiritul, aşteptările, cu impresia falsă creată de un mănunchi de gânduri nerevelate. Simple inovaţii, unităţi bazate pe un centru unic al profunzimii de a vedea, de a căuta şi de a găsi ceea ce nu este spus în cuvinte sau ce nu poate fi explicat raţional, ce ţinea de o altă realitate.

O uşă lăuntrică, ferecată cu mai multe zăvoare mari, mă despărţea de un alt spaţiu, de un alt om, de un alt fel de a fi, de un alt scop. De parcă aş fi satisfăcut în mod consecvent cerinţele unei noi conştiinţe, premisa unei noi deveniri, construită dintr-un strat dur de cunoaştere, ca un aşezământ ştiinţific şi cultural care funcţionează sub autoritatea unui consiliu suprem.

Cuvintele lui Alexandre Dumas îmi reveneau în minte, lin şi calculat, stârnind o îndoială însoţită de un tremur lăuntric resimţit atât de puternic încât încordarea delicată a energiilor mele creatoare, uneori dureroasă, persista minute în şir:

"Cercetează trecutul, cercetează prezentul, încearcă să ghiceşti viitorul şi vezi dacă nu cumva eşti o unealtă ", o unealtă a unei forţe create de un Alter-Ego, doar din nişte frânturi de imagini şi gânduri care o iau razna. Ai grijă să nu te îndepărtezi de tine însuţi, ai grijă să nu te pierzi în personalitatea altcuiva.

Dar cutia de viteze a conştiinţei, care avea rolul de amplificare a realităţii, părea desprinsă din peisaj.

Leadership: Acorzi o valoare de unicat situării tale în contextul unui Alter-Ego cuprins între ceea ce te izolează şi ceea ce te apropie de resorturile tale secrete de motivaţie?

Mă transformam tot mai mult într-un magician, dar într-un Wilhelm Storitz cu o sabie tăioasă care putea pătrunde în orice corp material, la fel de uşor ca şi în orice inimă. Prin fiecare picătură de sânge, prin fiecare ţesut, prin fiecare celulă, o forţă invizibilă se impunea tot mai mult, declanşând întrebări ce aşteptau răspuns. Un dernier spasme de la défaite. O rană profundă care se putea vindeca numai în mare taină.

Motivaţia mea secretă, dintr-un şir lung de căutări fără răspuns, era aceea de a mă cunoaşte prin studiul unei lumi diferite, prin abordarea unei tematici noi în domeniul psihologiei, prin asimilarea unei identităţi mai complexe şi mai ambigue, una în care întunericului i se acordă legitimitate în ordinea existenţei în loc de a fi negat în favoarea unei perfecţiuni împovărătoare.

O nouă personalitate, un altfel de a fi, un Wilhelm Storitz posedând toată complexitatea pasiunilor, sentimentelor şi credinţelor umane. Un personaj încărcat de mister şi deţinător al unor secrete demult îngropate - secretele unei stări misterioase, invizibile, dar sufocante ca un cordon bine strâns în jurul unei draperii.

Un val de sânge ţâşnea rece şi tăios, în timp ce un altul cald şi preţios se retrăgea din senin ca apa oceanului, lăsând în urma lui o plajă umedă. Un simţ acut al realităţii, orgoliul măsurat al metamorfozei caracterului meu.

Aceeași șoaptă, aprigă şi clocotitoare ca un strop de whisky în deșert, împinsă spre înapoi: "Cercetează ! Cercetează ! Cercetează ! ". Asemenea unui corp invizibil care începe să-şi recapete forma materială, apărând în supremele convulsii ale devenirii. În plăceri cumva categorice, făcându-şi loc în fiecare nerv din corpul meu. O nouă realitate. Ultima limită în întâmpinarea adversarului meu nevăzut: eu însumi.

Leadership: Te conectezi la cele două borne ale personalităţii tale pentru a-ţi induce o orientare spre Bine sau spre Rău?

Există un singur lucru mai dificil decât a te schimba, iar acesta este pariul făcut cu tine - de a nu te schimba.

O reorientare, posibilitatea unei renaşteri, o revigorare a calităţilor tale cele mai benefice şi mai importante, printr-un imbold al voinţei, dezvoltarea unei energii creatoare printr-o reînnoire a "Omului" din tine, toate acestea sunt doar nişte filamente care măsoară, pe un singur fir, acea bobină cu magneţi care dacă nu e întreruptă poate să dea un impuls mai mare leadershipului.

Dar o sursă simplă, cum este o baterie, are două borne, una pozitivă, iar cealaltă negativă, între ele existând o diferenţă de potenţial. Nu poţi fi şi relaxat şi încordat în acelaşi timp, nu poţi merge înainte cu încăpăţânare şi hotărâre, repetând mereu aceeaşi greşeală, sperând să obţii întotdeauna un alt rezultat – pozitiv.

Înainte de a ajunge la destinaţie, înainte de a îmbrăţişa leadershipul, trebuie să conectezi cele două borne ale personalităţii tale, " a te face nevăzut " şi " a te afişa în lumina realităţii " prin intermediul unui circuit mai cuprinzător şi mai deschis. Astfel încât să ia naştere un curent nou, bazat pe o configuraţie mai îndrăzneaţă, mai progresivă, de genul: " Sunt ceea ce trebuia să fiu ", sau " Voi face ceea ce trebuia să fac ", de la punctul cu potenţial mai scăzut, spre cel cu potenţial mai ridicat.

Când eşti nevăzut, orientarea ta se modifică spre rău, fiindcă aduni în tine adevăruri aflate dintr-o experienţă adversă care respinge incluziunea şi condiţia socială, bulversând întreaga ta structura psihică. Începi să vădeşti o atitudine intransigentă similară omului care se raportează la Dumnezeu, menţinându-şi adevărata identitate într-un context de securitate şi de alertă sau într-unul de ameninţare şi de intimidare.

Leadershipul, de la primul până la ultimul impuls de a se ridica la înălţime, are nevoie de un potenţial mare care să poată produce o schimbare. În primul rând este necesară străpungerea acelui izolator care împiedică capacitatea ta de a fi ceea ce trebuie să fii. O evadare din realitatea care nu convine, ostilă, dăunătoare, sau care nu te împlineşte suficient.

Leadership: Îţi depistezi sindromul "Wilhelm Storitz" numai atunci când conţinutul tău de valoare se termină sub asteptarile pe care le justifică neputinţa de a fi un reflex al măreţiei?

După ce îţi creezi o lume fabuloasă prin meritul de a te transforma în altcineva datorită puterii a te face nevăzut, dincolo de aspectele care ar putea fi ameliorate la nivelul construcţiei unui personaj măreţ, va trebui să-ţi pledezi convingerile în faţa lăcomiei, aroganţei, lipsei de respect, persecuţiei şi ostilităţii.

Bariera în calea transferului de energie creatoare care îţi poate pune în valoare incontestabil calităţile de lider, este dată de îndepărtarea de tine însuţi. Un fenomen des întâlnit care se produce în cazul descărcărilor de energie pozitivă, şi încărcarea cu energie negativă. Ai grijă să nu te pierzi în personalitatea altcuiva !

Cercetează ! Cercetează ! Cercetează ! Cercetează trecutul, cercetează prezentul, încearcă să ghiceşti viitorul şi vezi dacă nu cumva eşti creaţia unui Alter-Ego. Observă-te bine, şi vezi dacă nu cumva încep să apară unele note discordante între " cel ce eşti " şi " cel ce nu trebuie să fii ".

Un adversar nevăzut, tu însuţi schimbat la 180 de grade. Un Wilhelm Storitz care, posedând toată complexitatea pasiunilor, sentimentelor şi credinţelor umane, îţi poate acapara întregul conştient, transformându-te în persoana în care nu ai vrut să fii niciodată, în personalitatea care nu face cinste leadershipului de calitate.

Te găseşti în faţa unor adevăruri contradictorii firii tale adevărate? Prin acţiunile, prin sistemul tău de valori, prin gândurile pe care le aduni te transformi într-o altă personalitate - creată de un Alter-Ego? Îmbraci mantia unei personalităţi care marchează negativ leadershipul? Poţi să treci de acea ultimă limită, în întâmpinarea adversarului tău nevăzut: tu însuţi?

Leadership: Ce faci când te trezeşti blocat în lift, fără să ştii când şi cum vei ieşi de acolo?

A să te substitui altei personalităţi este ca şi cum te-ai trezi blocat în lift, fără să ştii când şi cum vei ieşi de acolo. Nu poţi decât să aştepţi sosirea vreunul ajutor, sau poţi suferi o reacţie fatală.

Sau poţi să iniţiezi propria ta salvare, dând la o parte perdeaua vulnerabilităţii şi distribuindu-te singur într-un rol de super-erou, în care trebuie să dai totul din tine. Un rol în care puterea de a fi tu însuţi, descoperirea caracteristicilor complete şi asumarea a tot ceea ce faci constituie atuul cel mai important pentru a te elibera de sub influenţa unui Alter-Ego, anihilând astfel simptomele sindromului " Wilhelm Storitz ".

Legea personalităţii unice evidenţiază incertitudinea pe care o resimţi atunci când eşti pe punctual de a te transforma în altcineva. În leadership nu trebuie să-ţi schimbi personalitatea, ci trebuie să o modelezi, să o cizelezi pentru a fi cât mai aproape de un ideal ale cărui coordonate sunt unanim acceptate.

Totodată evidenţiază sentimentul de vinovăţie faţă de tine însuţi, faţă de slăbiciunea ta – aceea că nu mai eşti cine trebuie să fii, că înţelegi lucrurile altfel decât stau în realitate, că priveşti totul cu mai puţină luciditate. Dar toată această presă nouă, înlocuind-o pe cea veche, tot acest amalgam de energii şi oscilaţii îndreptate în altă direcţie, se desfăşoară într-un cadru individual. Totul depinde de tine, să echipezi acest cadru cu un fel de "a fi" mai rezistent, care nu cedează la influenţe şi presiuni străine de leadershipul de calitate.

Trasează coordonatele propriei tale identităţi, fără să te substitui altei personalităţi.

Legea revelatoare a magicianului (II)

On Noiembrie 14, 2012

Modul cum îţi modelezi percepţiile privind realitatea obiectivă, determină modul în care abordezi leadershipul.

Ceea ce mă frământa mai mult decât orice era misterul. Misterul oricărei necunoscute, oricărei creaţii, oricărei existenţe, oricărei fiinţe umane. Forţa chemării înflăcărate, cu adevărat periculoasă prin însăşi efectul pe care-l producea, ce se opunea oricărei idei inoculate de alţii. Voiam să străpung misterul cunoaşterii şi să-l accept netăgăduit, indiferent de cost.

Ca un om curajos ce se aruncă în mare pe timp de furtună dintr-un exces de adrenalină, mă afundam în cercetări asupra existenţei şi însuşirilor ce defineau misterul. Prin cele mai întunecate cărări ale necunoscutului rătăceam numai ca să-mi liniştesc sufletul, dorinţa cea mai râvnită. Răspunsul la căutările mele, înlănţuindu-mă cu aripile sale largi în jurul unei realităţi contrafăcute în mod artificial, nu cumva făcea parte din acele stări pe care era mai bine să le trec sub tăcere?

Cât eram de orb ! Parcă-mi luase cineva minţile. O reacţie tot mai violentă împotriva vechilor tipare şi prejudecăţi. Făceam oare bine să continui să propag pur şi simplu idei neverificate de alţii, să las pornit non stop acceleratorul inspiraţional în căutare de noi provocări? Căci era o orbire ce nu vine de la aparatul optic, ci cealaltă, mai cumplită, care pune întrebări, caută răspunsuri, care face ca creierul să absoarbă inconştient toate informaţiile aşa cum marea ia cu sine micile mormane de nisip.

Nimic nu mai rămânea în urmă decât un mare gol, ştiinţa care nu-şi găsea raţiunea de a fi. Orbirea, rătăcirea, întunecarea minţii pe fondul acumulării cunoştinţelor şi elucidării misterelor. Astfel se ţesea fără încetare, fără să ştiu, propria mea identitate. Una care reflecta o imagine ce nu mai era în concordanţă cu realitatea pe care o ştiam, ci cu bogăţia misterului inefabil, al revelaţiei. Al unei confruntări destul de brutale cu ceva, de care nu mă puteam dezobişnui.

Leadership: Poţi să îţi definitivezi într-o notă de maxim efect imaginea unei personalităţi predestinate spre enigmă, astfel încât să lărgeşti semnificaţia conceptului din care îţi dezvolţi opera artistică?

Magicianul trăia un destin la fel de încurcat ca şi cel al marelui alchimist Bötger care, străduindu-se să fabrice aur, descoperi cu acest prilej porţelanul – de o mie de ori mai important. Şi la unul şi la celălalt, ideea de bază nu făcea decât să transmită un puternic imbold interior, o stăruinţă care excludea orice fel de compromis.

Era o esenţă în el care se schimba mai rar decât se crede. Un adevăr care ascundea un mister, un pretext, un joc încâlcit, o înlănţuire de revelaţii, în ritmul unor palpitaţii intense. Purtând în ele impulsul descoperirilor extraordinare care l-au condus spre o teorie, un simbol, o "piatră de hotar" cu largi semnificaţii.

Şi astfel, magicianul şi-a conturat în stilul lui personal vestitul "As" al magiei, mult controversatul " Hocus-Pocus ".

Leadership: Eşti în stare să creezi o experienţă vizuală memorabilă, făcând apel la raţiunea de a oferi o alternativă mai avantajoasă de a reprezenta misterul unei noi descoperiri?

Înainte de a încerca să-ţi faci o idee despre un magician, încearcă să-ţi faci o evaluare corectă a propriei tale persoane din perspectiva unui descoperitor de comori care îşi prezintă reuşitele sub forma unor enigme. Practic le dovedeşti că eşti în stare să provoci apariţia obiectului sau a faptului desemnat, dar în acelaşi timp trebuie să dai o definiţie acestui miracol. Nu poţi să faci o descoperire fără să o acoperi cu voalul gros al puterii tale creatoare.

Spectacolul de magie trebuie să fie un film despre tine însuţi, realizat în cea mai mare parte din însuşirile individuale ale celor mai importante elemente din structura ta, care să te surprindă cu adevărat. Un film care să dea identitate şi sens existenţei tale, cu acea temă dinamică şi valoroasă, cu acele secvenţe, repetiţii, efecte, sincronizate după tonul întrebării " Who I am ".

A înţelege leadershipul, trainicul firmament de care sunt suspendate ca nişte lămpi calităţile şi defectele tale, înseamnă să străpungi misterul unei cunoaşteri care construieşte realul şi să-l accepţi netăgăduit indiferent de cost. Înseamnă, uneori, să rătăceşti ca un pribeag prin cele mai întunecate cărări ale necunoscutului în căutarea acelei "bijuterii magice", cu ajutorul căreia să-ţi eliberezi resursele şi să-ţi reinventezi menirea de "a fi".

Leadership: Poţi realiza acel "Hocus-Pocus" care să scoată din umbră esenţa personalităţii tale, fără să te simţi prins în vraja unei minuni care te ia pur şi simplu în stăpânire?

Celebra actriţă, Oana Pellea, a pus punctul pe I în ceea ce priveşte evoluţia ei afirmând: "Nu cunosc voluptate mai mare decât acest proces de căutare de sine, de încercare de a mă cunoaşte, de depăşire de sine."

Şi tu, ca potenţial lider, ca om de succes, te afli într-un permanent proces de căutare de sine. Ca un joc amuzant, parcă lipsit de reguli, în care ai sau n-ai noroc, şi în care trebuie să te surprinzi pe tine însuţi. Obligat fiind să-l joci până la capăt.

Căutările tale, acest du-te-vino care te învie, te reînnoieşte, te ridică până acolo unde greu să ajungi, dar care la fel de bine încearcă să te deruteze şi chiar să te epuizeze psihic, stau la baza dezvoltării tale personale şi a leadershipului tău.

Aşa cum cititorul înrăit acceptă textul ca un joc unde el se întâlneşte cu sine, în care se identifică pe timpul lecturii cu anumite personaje, tot astfel omul care persistă în căutarea cunoaşterii de sine, ajunge în cele din urmă să-şi accepte cu mai multă uşurinţă personajul din povestea vieţii sale.

Acea esenţă din el, care se schimbă mai rar decât se crede, în sfârşit se solidifică şi se materializează într-un alt fel de a fi. Irigându-şi parcă întreaga lume cu un fluid misterios care-i pătrunde în tot trupul, în circuitul închis, restabilindu-i astfel armonia tulburată de percepţiile eronate ale realităţii.

Magia este produsul unei realităţi camuflată de estetica seducătoare a unei minuni de nepătruns.

Legea revelatoare a magicianului se referă la modalitatea de a înfăptui un miracol al cărui descoperire depinde de esenţa a ceea ce înseamnă să trăieşti o viaţă a pasiunii şi a autenticităţii.

Îţi faci periodic o evaluare corectă a propriei tale persoane? Îţi poţi materializa esenţa personalităţii într-un alt fel de a fi? Ascunde personalitatea ta un adevăr, un mister, un pretext de a nu aplica o schimbare majoră? Poţi realiza acel "Hocus-Pocus" care să scoată din umbră esenţa personalităţii tale?

Modul cum îţi modelezi percepţiile privind realitatea obiectivă, determină modul în care abordezi leadershipul.

Legea revelatoare a magicianului (III)

On Noiembrie 15, 2012

Învaţă să-ţi împărtăşeşti tainele pe placul celorlalţi oameni, asociind în mod direct rezultatele muncii tale cu atitudinea plină de grijă şi recunoştinţă faţă de valoarea vieţii.

Aveam un gând măreţ în viaţa mea, sau mai bine spus, gândul mă avea pe mine. Mă stăpânea în întregime cu puterea unei forţe necunoscute, discret exprimată, care avea să se menţină pe tot parcursul evoluţiei mele. O idee, un clişeu căreia mi-am închinat toată viaţa, timpul, frământările, întrebările, toate suişurile şi coborâşurile, toate acele momente revelatoare care mă aruncau parcă în altă dimensiune în care timpul şi spaţiul căpătau altă valoare.

Iar acest gând, cu toate adaosurile lui, cu toate acele pepite de conştiinţă care îl precedau, îmi oferise ocazia de a cerceta suprafaţa interioară a unui munte fără a-l escalada, o experienţă despre care nu ştiam cât de dificilă este. Tendinţa către originalitate cu orice preţ, dorinţa de a mă "stiliza" dincolo de limitele umane, ale imaginabilului, mă conduceau spre un univers secret.

Să caut, să pătrund ca un cercetător neînduplecat misterul acelui Perpetuum Mobile , al forţei ce pune în mişcare întregul potenţial uman, acea flacără ce se poate menţine constant aprinsă şi vie. Să împing limitele leadershipului undeva dincolo de limita inimaginabilului, dar fără să distrug principiile sănătoase pe care s-a constituit "Omul" din mine. Să continui să strecor diverse aspecte şi constatări într-un spectacol în care legile firii devin greu de ascuns, şi să plămădesc nişte mici asigurări împotriva oricăror dezacorduri care ar putea decurge din el.

Magia, marele eveniment sufletesc, adâncă chemare spre apropierea de centrul revelaţiilor de dincolo de purul act artistic, la rândul său extrem de captivant, era o creştere a nevoii de a mă exprima prin puterea actului de creaţie cu scopul de a influenţa realitatea propriei mele iluzii a vieţii.

Leadership: Motivaţia ta de obţine o imagine autentică apare ca o dimensiune diferită de trăire a vieţii, sau ca o dimensiune a felului de-a fi în virtutea căreia posezi trăsături singulare?

Când faci cunoştinţă cu o ştiinţă care ia forma capacităţii de a transforma ceva în altceva, împotriva legilor cunoscute şi acceptate unanim de restul lumii, îţi formezi o impresie mai amplă despre schimbarea produsă conform propriei voinţe. O dată formată, această impresie nu se poate schimba uşor.

Însă voinţa nu este o dovadă a înzestrării tale cu competenţele necesare pentru a participa mai activ în sferele vieţii sociale sau în sferele înalte ale conducerii. Aşadar, magia nu este neapărat o garanţie a succesului, dar cu siguranţă poate deveni o parte integrantă a vieţii, a propriei tale opere, a propriei tale gândiri.

În cadrul efortului de a explora învăţămintele unei experienţe de neuitat, care conţin perspective şi revelaţii susţinute de o gândire alternativă, oamenii încearcă să se bucurie de valoarea pe care o magicianul o creează şi o lasă în urma lui. De aceea, cred că este important - atât pentru propria lor realizare, cât şi pentru starea lor de bine, ca ei să-şi cultive o imagine a "omului perfect" care nu-şi ascunde frica de respingere, ci îşi alimentează poziţia de excepţionalitate cu noi detalii picante şi cu noi dorinţe de a trăi, ca pe o biruinţă asupra vieţii şi asupra propriilor sale limite.

Imaginea ta în lume este reflectată de modul cum îţi trăieşti viaţa conform mecanismelor aşa-ziselor taine ale magiei şi a diferitelor ei manifestări de forţă care probează originalitatea şi inspiraţia.

Magia şi imaginea lăsată în urmă, elaborate de o listă lungă de încercări de a prezenta faptele dintr-o realitate superioară, ţin de interiorul pe care îl dezvăluie magicianul prin intermediul exteriorului care poate fi controlat prin puterea de a da viaţă unei game complexe de stări şi sentimente.

Dar, în egală măsură, o atitudine adecvată, esenţială pentru dezvăluirea interiorului, ţine de frumuseţea cu care sunt redate sentimentele cele mai sincere. Cu toate acestea, cel mai adesea, imaginea magicianului se întemeiază doar pe trăsăturile ascunse ale personalităţii lui. Iată de ce am hotărât să abordez în toate scrierile mele ambele dimensiuni ale omului: o dimensiune a persoanei în virtutea căreia el posedă trăsături singulare şi o dimensiune a conştiinţei mult mai profundă decât gândirea.

Una din marile taine ale magiei are ca opţiune de bifare "Contestarea Autorităţii". Celebrul vrăjitor Oberon Zell-Ravenheart specifică următoarea atenţionare în grimoarul său:

"Ca ucenic trebuie să te întrebi permanent "de ce" se realizează ceva şi "de ce" acest lucru este făcut într-un anumit mod. A pricepe "de ce" conduce la o mai bună înţelegere a cauzelor. De fapt, ceea ce te va proteja împotriva artificialităţii create de marii iluzionişti este capacitatea de a întreba de ce ţi se cere, de ce se aşteaptă de la tine un anumit lucru. Trebuie să poţi întotdeauna să spui "NU" când cineva îţi dă o sarcină despre care ştii că este contrară interesului tău. Capacitatea de a pune întrebări te va proteja de cei care vor dori să te manipuleze."

Leadershipul este imaginea pe care trebuie s-o obţii de la tine în contextul unui grad înalt de asigurare a năzuinţei de "unitate în diversitate", fără să cazi în capcana de a-ţi forţa limitele spre finalizarea unei viziuni noi asupra realităţii.

Legea revelatoare a magicianului stă atât sub semnul cunoaşterii, dar mai ales sub semnul puterii şi libertăţii interioare, a valorilor şi a trăirilor la care se raportează întregul lui parcurs profesional.

Un magician ştie că leadershipul se învaţă din modul cum îşi împărtăşeşte tainele pe înţelesurile celorlalţi, asociind în mod direct rezultatele muncii sale cu atitudinea plină de grijă şi recunoştinţă faţă de valoarea vieţii.

Legea revelatoare a magicianului (I)

On Noiembrie 04, 2012

Împinge leadershipul dincolo de limita "inimaginabilului", fără să distrugi principiile sănătoase pe care s-a constituit "Omul" din tine.

Nimeni nu-i cunoştea adevărata identitate şi adevăratele intenţii. Magicianul era genul de om care ar merge destul de departe pentru a-şi proteja secretele. Practicile sale – un mozaic de subtilităţi şi profunzimi.

În creierul său era un fel de du-te vino întunecat, o pauză între trecut, prezent şi viitor. Amintiri nefireşti, viziuni stranii, imagini fugitive, interpretări din care unele mai realiste, altele mai fanteziste, porunci lăuntrice, prototipuri ale unor noi începuturi sau sfârşituri. Tot felul de schimbări care reflectau sau redirecţionau "întregul" omului. Roluri, măşti care compuneau mereu o altă prezenţă, apariţii ciudate ale unor personaje, fiecare din ele având şi antipodul său.

Toate pluteau amestecându-se şi încrucişându-se anapoda, pierzându-şi formele, crescând apoi peste măsură, apoi pierind dintr-o dată ca nişte gânduri răsfirate în obscurul îndepărtat.

Deodată, în mijlocul scenei magicianul făcu nişte semne ciudate, ca şi cum ar fi transmis nişte mesaje tainice. Spectatorii îl priveau cu o curiozitate nemărginită. El percepuse reacţia lor cu mult înainte să-şi facă numărul de magie.

Căci vedea în adâncul psihicului uman, până în ultimele ramificaţii ale simţirii lor, acolo unde se urzeau toate dorinţele şi aşteptările lor. Putea pătrunde în adâncul gândirii oamenilor, până la asimilarea percepţiilor şi trăirilor lor, cu aceeaşi viteză cu care sângele străbate venele în drumul lui spre inimă. Totul pe scenă se derula după voinţa sa.

Lumea spectatorilor era situată dedesubtul lumii lui. Ca şi cum el ar fi creat-o. One is the magic number that will do the trick.

Eşti dator leadershipului cu o "iluzie" care să modifice structura raţională şi emoţională a celorlalţi oameni, prin asociaţie cu rolul unui artist care se uimeşte pe sine cât de bine îşi joacă rolul?

Deseori numai conducătorii cei mai experimentaţi pot avea acces la resursele vitale care pun în funcţiune sistemul motivaţional, psihic şi emoţional al "Omului". Intervenţiile în acest sistem complicat de convingeri, în acest tot unitar de emoţii, valori şi principii, necesită de regulă o "anestezie locală" în zona sensibilă, care ticăie. Sau chiar o reasamblare completă a componentelor care-l fac să funcţioneze, cu mari riscuri bineînţeles.

Leadershipul este acel număr de magie care poate transforma raţionamentul şi trăirile oamenilor într-o nouă măsură a continuităţii unei limite de creaţie pe care puţini o pot depăşi. Creaţia vizează restaurarea imaginii unei lumi fabuloase, la limita dintre vis şi realitate, care confirmă apoi apariţia ta într-un rol principal la hotarul dintre viaţă şi moarte. Dacă vrei să fii un număr de creaţie pe care toată lumea să-l aplaude, raportat la ceva ispititor şi fascinant, trebuie să contribui la organizarea evadării tale dintr-un spaţiu paralel imaginar, dar în acelaşi timp foarte apropiat de perspectiva realităţii.

Importantă este întreţinerea unui foc secret, a unei făclii vii. Găsirea unui combustibil care s-o alimenteze, printr-un mozaic de subtilităţi şi profunzimi care să-i facă părtaşi pe oameni la spectacolul ce introduce conceptul "all-in-one-show" , unindu-le devotamentul în jurul unei atitudini substanţiale faţă de realitatea prezentă.

Leadership: Eşti prizonier al unei lumi pe care cu greu o poţi percepe, prin faptul că accepţi să te manifeşti într-un mod care nu-ţi este propriu, dar care te face să te simţi superior?

O parte foarte importantă a procesului de auto-evaluare a leadershipului este studiul "Omului" din tine. Să păşeşti în marea lume, în marele necunoscut al întregului tău Eu, care te poate inspira în crearea unei alternative autentice de sporire a influenţei, este precum uşa liftului care se deschide numai pentru câtva timp, apoi se închide fără să mai poată intra cineva.

Un fel de forţă de atracţie dintre polii contrastanţi ai propriei personalităţi care îţi susţin sau, dimpotrivă, îţi restricţionează dezvoltarea. O trecere de la " a fi " la " a nu fi ", care te ţine captiv în propria închisoare a minţii, transformându-te într-un rob al propriilor tale percepţii, idei, clişee cărora ţi-ai închinat toată viaţa, timpul.

Dacă vrei să-ţi ridici leadershipul la rang de "magie", dacă vrei să-l manevrezi foarte bine, atunci trebuie să înveţi să te descurci: să prinzi liftul la momentul potrivit şi să apeşi pe butonul care comandă urcarea spre etajul cel mai de sus, dar fără să te opreşti între etaje. Acest buton trebuie să aibă o siguranţă aparte, şi să nu provoace o blocare. Nimic nu trebuie să te menţină prizonier în spaţiul dintre real şi imaginar, dintre limite şi om, unde leadershipul nu se poate manifesta liber.

Leadership: Poţi să faci din splendoarea ta o sursă puternică de magie care comunică celorlalţi luciditatea de a nu deveni robul ei?

Splendoarea este motivul care te face să-ţi câştigi încrederea în tine, în încercarea de a contribui cu succes la finalizarea unui pariu cu tine însuţi: acela că eşti capabil să adopţi poziţia unui cuceritor şi să rămâi aşa timp îndelungat. Splendoarea nu poate fi atinsă printr-un simplu joc de-a v-aţi ascunselea dus până la extrem, nu poate fi pusă doar pe seama unei imaginaţii bogate, dar poate fi indusă prin multitudinea acordurilor ce îmbracă o poveste, prin multitudinea scenelor care alcătuiesc şi revoluţionează ideea de metamorfoză.

Magia trebuie să fie o mărturie a splendorii tale, o revelaţie a unui sentiment profund şi până atunci nebănuit, o revelaţie a unui beneficiu surpriză la finalul unei aventuri de neratat, dar în acelaşi timp trebuie să fie o apropiere de un adevăr dezvăluit progresiv care se numeşte: "Eu sunt o parte din voi ! "

Poţi cerceta suprafaţa interioară a unui munte fără a-l escalada? Cauţi să împingi leadershipul undeva dincolo de limita inimaginabilului? Din ce plămădeşti micile asigurări împotriva oricăror dezacorduri care ar putea decurge din relaţia Om-Lider? Te pierzi în propria ta închisoare? Te rătăceşti într-un spaţiu în care realitatea se îndepărtează treptat de ştiinţa conducerii? Încerci să creezi din leadership o lume care să se situeze dedesubtul lumii tale?

A fi un magician excepţional înseamnă să-ţi închini întreaga viaţă unei idei care sfidează limitele înţelegerii unanim acceptate, situându-ţi întreaga cunoaştere într-un cadru unic care îți dă ocazia să savurezi mai pe îndelete şi cu intensitate stupefacţia spectatorilor care nu ştiu ce să mai creadă.

Concluzie: Un lider este un model, care la rândul său generează modele. Pentru a avea o mare putere de influenţă asupra celorlalţi oameni trebuie în primul rând să fii recunoscut ca model demn de urmat. Trebuie să posezi acea capacitate de a nu te abate de la principiile sănătoase pozitive, pe care s-a constituit Eu-l tău, dar şi acea iscusinţă de a prevedea reacţiile oamenilor la acţiunile întreprinse de tine.

Nu, nu este magie şi nici iluzionism, este o muncă asiduă, permanentă, în primul rând cu tine însuţi.

Legea serviciului reciproc

On August 26, 2010

Ca să-ţi dezvolţi un Brand de mare impact trebuie să-i ajuţi pe oameni să-şi valorifice potenţialul prin identificarea unui numitor comun.

Aşa cum am menţionat şi în articolul precedent, Principiul dezvoltării accelerate , instrumentul Google Translate este la ora actuală cel mai bun şi mai cunoscut instrument de traducere. Acest instrument, care s-a îmbunătăţit vizibil în ultimii ani, se bazează în principal pe deschidere şi apropierea dintre oameni.

Google şi-a regândit orientarea către client, furnizând servicii mai bune decât ceilalţi competitori (yahoo, bing, msn, etc) şi continuă să inoveze. Strategia dezvoltată de Google s-a orientat într-o direcţie care satisface interesele generale ale oamenilor. Oferindu-le acest instrument gratuit de traducere, care s-a dezvoltat puternic în ultimii ani, cei de la Google s-au asigurat că afacerea lor nu va înregistra niciun declin. De aceea Google se detaşează cu mult de ceilalţi competitori în ceea ce priveşte performanţa, deoarece vine în întâmpinarea nevoilor oamenilor, sporindu-le eficienţa şi productivitatea cu instrumente şi servicii care mereu se îmbunătăţesc.

Leadership: Ceea ce transmite exact valorile din spatele brandului tău şi identitatea lui vizuală este povestea unei experienţe cu neputinţă de uitat sau de reprimat?

Durabilitatea succesului corporaţiei Google depinde de capacitatea ei de a oferi servicii unice. Şi, fără umbră de îndoială, unul dintre pilonii de bază ai afacerii sale a devenit în ultima perioadă instrumentul de traducere gratuită, Google Translate. Cu ajutorul acestui instrument, Google se aşteaptă ca nevoile elementare ale celor care navighează pe internet să fie asigurate – respectiv traducerea online a site-urilor şi articolelor de pe web din orice limbă în cel mai scurt timp.

În ceea ce priveşte instrumentul Google Translate, strategia adoptată de Google a fost să implice utilizatorii în îmbunătăţirea lui. Cu alte cuvinte, Google îţi oferă servicii de calitate, dar se aşteaptă ca şi tu să contribui la îmbunătăţirea acestor servicii. Oamenii trebuie să înţeleagă beneficiile unui asemenea serviciu şi apoi să implice cât mai mult, sporindu-şi eficienţa şi productivitatea, pentru a-i asigura o perfecţionare continuă.

Povestea succesului pe care îl astăzi google este povestea unei experienţe cu neputinţă de uitat sau de reprimat, fiindcă rolurile principale ale celor care fac parte din ea au putut şi pot fi interpretate de cu totul alţi actori decât cei care au devenit celebri ca urmare a dezvoltării acestui concept web.

Actorii nu sunt doar oamenii care dau nişte replici memorabile, ci sunt acele entităţi care populează sistemul, acei jucători care au un rol în avansarea, influenţarea sau gestionarea proceselor de integrare a unor noi cunoştinţe şi noţiuni, a unor noi credinţe, noi valori, noi experienţe.

Nu poţi dezvolta un proces de unul singur. Trebuie să colaborezi cu un număr mare de oameni. Tu ai nevoie de Google Translate, dar şi Google Translate are nevoie de tine pentru a se dezvolta. Fără acest serviciu reciproc şi susţinut nu se poate construi nimic durabil şi performant. Iar un efort scăzut aduce rezultate minime.

Leadership: Imaginea conceptului pe care îl dezvolţi prin investiţia într-un cod sursă menit să aleagă şi să afişeze în timp real informaţii de valoare, reprezintă o ilustrare a realităţii pe care o traieşti în viziunea unui artist care îşi exprimă în afară interioritatea?

Google Translate, la fel ca telefonul celular şi reţeaua de telefonie mobilă, a creat o nouă categorie de beneficii, permiţând utilizatorilor să comunice în voie. Şi, indirect, prin adăugarea textelor şi traducerea lor propriu zisă, se ajută reciproc. Când cineva traduce un text dintr-o limbă străină, iar traducerea nu este realizată perfect, are posibilitatea să contribuie la corectarea traducerii respective.

Timpul pe care îl aloci contribuind la îmbunătăţirea instrumentului Google Translate reprezintă o investiţie, atât pentru tine, cât şi pentru corporaţia Google. Când dai de la tine, este şi în folosul tău, dar şi în folosul celui care îl primeşte. Nu este deloc o pierdere de timp şi energie să-ţi aduci aportul la dezvoltarea unui instrument sau proces din care, la urma urmelor, ai şi tu la fel de mult de câştigat. Adoptând o atitudine constructivă, interacţionând cu ceilalţi utilizatori prin corectarea sau adăugarea de noi traduceri, îţi câştigi un merit în plus şi, pe lângă asta, ai satisfacţia că ţi-ai adus aportul pentru binele tuturor.

Artistul care îşi exprimă în afară interioritatea este actorul dintr-o piesă jucată în public care nu se lasă condus doar de convingerea "Am talent", ci munceşte în continuare, la fel de mult, la fel de atent la detalii, conştient de faptul că orice scurtă secvenţă pe care o filmează catalizează atenţia publicului.

Google a devenit lider mondial prin ideile novatoare cu implicaţii practice deosebite. Acest lucru a fost posibil având specialişti nu numai în informatică dar şi cu o creativitate deosebită care au gândit acest sistem astfel încât să implice cât mai mulţi oameni care să-şi aducă aportul pentru dezvoltarea şi perfecţionarea lui. Google a “speculat” în mare măsură dorinţa acelor oameni care vor să-şi aducă benevol aportul şi să ajute necondiţionat pe alţii. Este bine că există asemenea oameni !

Numitorul comun pe care oamenii trebuie să-l identifice ca să-şi valorifice potenţialul rezidă din efortul pe care sunt pregătiţi să-l depună atunci când scopul nu este să ajungă la o destinaţie, ci să facă din aceasta un reper pe harta criteriilor de apreciere a serviciilor de calitate.

Concluzie: Serviciul reciproc este o condiţie esenţială ce stă la baza progresului. Şi în leadership este nevoie de acest serviciu reciproc. Un lider, oricât de bun ar fi el, fără ajutorul şi susţinerea din partea echipei sau din partea “ierarhiilor superioare” nu poate să-şi atingă scopurile spre beneficiul tuturor.

Legea Spontaneității Ordonatoare

On Octombrie 20, 2023

Orice eveniment care se produce din întâmplare are șansa de a forma în mod spontan o nouă ordine.

Fiecare om, fiecare creier dispune de o anumită particularitate. Nu este vorba neapărat de ceva ereditar, cât mai degrabă de ceva care se dezvoltă în timp, prin experiențe sau prin observații, influențând modul în care percepi și apreciezi sursele de informaţii şi de cunoaştere. Chiar dacă nu păstrezi amintirea unei alte vieţi înmagazinată în spiritul tău, chiar dacă nu ai în cap niciun fel de hartă care să-ţi permită să ştii punctul de plecare şi punctul de sosire, sunt asigur că universul tratează fiecare om în mod egal, în funcţie de cele trei constante spirituale: credinţă, răbdare, perseverenţă.

S-ar putea să crezi că n-ai nicio aptitudine, că nu te pricepi la nimic, la absolut nimic, ești doar un nimeni. Dar la un moment dat, din întâmplare, o celulă din creierul tău va întâlni o celulă rătăcită din spațiul de jur. Și atunci se va face o conexiune la nivel neuronal, o sinapsă, locul de comunicare între două neuroni sau între un neuron și o altă celulă. Se va rescrie codul genetic, instinctul nefiind înscris în acest cod.

Sau poate că însăşi celula salvatoare va "inventa" un fenomen coincidențial prin care se va produce "întâmplarea" norocoasă. Iar dacă survine "întâmplarea", atunci toate mințile din jur, cele mai sclipitoare, nu vor putea înțelege mecanismul gândirii tale care, pornind de la o singură particularitate, a putut mișca o lume întreagă.

Din acel moment, toate capacitățile tale intelectuale vor reflecta o inteligență superioară, un Uthemish-Isfithes, un potențial intelectual și abilități cognitive deosebite, lucrul acesta fiind în armonie cu geneza din biblie unde citim că Dumnezeu a procedat la crearea omului după imaginea sa. Chiar dacă nu dispui de avantajele altor oameni, universul lucrează după reguli de egalitate dătătoare de circumstanțe favorabile, urmând următoarea regulă: "orice eveniment care se produce din întâmplare are șansa de a forma în mod spontan o nouă ordine".

Leadership: Poţi construi o imagine a propriei credințe prin intermediul metaforei vizuale, fără a o reprezenta figurativ, prin incitarea privitorului la imaginare?

Îmi amintesc de filmul "Rain Man (1988)". Raymond, care era un inadaptat, un autist, nimeni nu-i acorda atenție, nu știa să se descurce, era o pacoste pentru toată lumea. Dar la un moment dat, fratele lui îl duce la un cazino. Iar aici se întâmplă ceva cu totul miraculos. Abia în acest moment, cu totul neașteptat, se produce declicul. Ca de nicăieri, lui Raymond încep să i se învârtă rotițele, el vede dintr-o dată cărțile câștigătoare, pricepe mecanismul de joc cu o inteligență superioară. Și începe să câștige bani grei la Blackjack, așa mulți, până când este dat afară din cazino. Nu trișează, dar în mintea lui vede combinațiile de cărți câștigătoare, ceea ce nimeni altcineva nu putea să vadă.

Ei bine, asta se întâmplă când acea unică particularitate a creierului tău întâlnește fix mediul care o poate stimula.

Nimeni din lume nu te va întrece, și toți vor rămâne efectiv cu gura căscată. Toate mințile aşa zis "sclipitoare" nu vor înțelege niciodată cum a putut un singur om, banal, fără viitor, să facă niște calcule și conexiuni atât de imposibile.

Leadership: Poţi să experimentezi măreția propriei tale existențe, ca și cum miraculosul ar interveni în fiecare moment aparent banal?

Miraculosul intervine în viața fiecărui om care crede în miracole. Atât. Să crezi, să ai răbdare, și să nu renunți niciodată. Și într-o bună zi Dumnezeu ți se va arăta printr-o banală întâmplare. Și, totuși, atât de rare sunt cazurile astea când Dumnezeu se arată cuiva. Poate că, la urma urmelor, trebuie să fi fost tu cel din urmă. Căci, povestea lui Iisus este o pildă profetică care se repetă la fiecare generaţie: "Cel mai umil ajunge cel mai puternic, cel mort reînvie în spirit, ce este aparent imposibil devine realitate."

O pildă cu elemente ireale, fantastice, dar care devine o pildă de a răbdării, a dăruirii în aceste timpuri dominate de egoism şi de modelul "baietilor destepţi" care distrug ARMONIA SISTEMICĂ. O pildă care are menirea să ne țină trează datoria de a trăi permanent în Hristos.

Cei care nu-L au pe Hristos în suflet ajung repede la un oarecare succes, dar nu vor cunoaște niciodată cele divine, precum genialitatea creației şi măreţia universului. De fapt, geniul, scânteia dumnezeiască, constă în capacitatea extraordinară de a gândi, crea și produce idei într-un mod care depășește limitările obișnuite ale cunoașterii și imaginației umane.

Leadershipul explorează potențialul de transformare a omului obișnuit într-un lider remarcabil, mergând pe ideea că orice se poate realiza dacă omul este ancorat la resursele sale interioare și la încrederea în propria capacitate de a aduce la lumină talentele și abilitățile latente.

Legea Spontaneității Ordonatoare se referă la faptul că, uneori, evenimentele aparent întâmplătoare pot duce la momente miraculoase și la manifestarea unor capacități remarcabile la oameni care, la prima vedere, ar putea fi subestimați sau ignorați. Această lege sugerează că există un potențial neexploatat în fiecare individ, care poate fi eliberat în mod spontan, aducând o nouă ordine în viața lor.

Uneori evenimentele, deși pot părea haotice sau neprevăzute, pot avea un efect ordonator sau organizator în viața individului în sensul unei evoluții pozitive.

Cu siguranţă, oamenii cu abilități excepționale şi-au format o perspectivă aparte asupra lumii, având capacitatea de a vedea lucruri pe care alții nu le pot vedea și de a înțelege lucruri pe care alții nu le pot înțelege. Acest lucru le sporește încrederea în posibilitatea miracolelor.

Îndeosebi, manifestarea divină accentuează raritatea anumitor întâmplări și ideea că, în ciuda obstacolelor sau a dificultăților, există potențialul pentru miracole sau transformare, ţinând cont de faptul că evenimentele aparent întâmplătoare pot contribui la crearea unui nou tip de ordine sau structură în viața fiecăruia. Numai spiritualitatea are ca aspect central puterea vindecătoare și transformatoare a credinței și a umilinței în fața adversităților.

Legea sufletelor pereche situate în plan astral

Sufletele care au acelaşi vibraţie sau aceeaşi vechime astrală, sunt identice sau au o legătură intimă între ele.

Tot ceea ce privesc în jur suportă influenţa subtilă a privirii unui artist, poate mai măreţ decât orice monument şi decât orice vârf de munte prin însăşi perenitatea operelor sale, artist care promovează ideea unei arte create după modele de viaţă disponibile în tiparul unei poveşti pline de tâlc şi a unei coerenţe vizionare. Încă o dată, simt nevoia de a furniza un răspuns sufletului meu, atât de împins spre mirajul unei alte lumi, într-o călătorie inițiatică a imaginarului, cu privire la ceea ce grăiesc toate forţele creatoare ale naturii, expresiile acesteia fiind cuprinse într-un limbaj secret accesat doar cu suflet de copil, neprihănit.

Desigur, observaţiile mele atât de fin cântărite, aferente reprezentațiilor şi producţiilor artistice, privesc lărgirea orizontului unui conţinut sufletesc sesizabil doar prin Estuanprithes , un atribut al efectelor de iluminare a minţilor libere angajate în cartea destinului meu, în motivul creaţiilor mele, cum altfel decât prin desenul unui gând frumos ce îşi găseşte la timpul potrivit rima aleasă într-un cuvânt care cuprinde toate formele imaginare ale raportului dintre om şi natură. Şi cuvântul acesta, Estuanprithes, desemnează apropierea de un destin rupt din singurătatea nemuririi, din spatele întregii lucrări a lui Dumnezeu.

Lumea libertății și a artei, aici îmi deschid sufletul, gura, orizonturile, ca să dau răspuns unui alt suflet, conţinut de chipul unui trandafir atât de fin, atât de grozav la prima privire, pe care parcă acum îl ating şi îi simt toată puritatea, strălucirea, firescul, în interiorul meu. Şi ochii săi, cuprinşi într-un efect de oglindă, de iluminare, de mare picturalitate, asemeni perlelor care amintesc de splendoarea unor ape marine sau oceanice, îmi fură inima şi gândul, sorbindu-mi cuvintele ca nişte şoapte multicolore extrase dintr-o lume a visurilor.

Arta nu este o mulţumire sufletească decât atunci când pictorul redă cu fidelitate amănuntele unei capturi senzaţionale preluate din frumuseţile naturii, sub forma unei poveşti nemuritoare. Iată misterul esențial care este întotdeauna sursa artei adevărate: să fii designerul universului în înfăţişarea unei lumi pământene.

Leadership: Creaţia ta rezultă din intenţionalitatea originală a Eului care îşi scrutează neobosit condiţia de "autodefinire" integrată misterului esenţial, spre a descifra sensul unei înalte spiritualităţi şi spre a o exprima într-o formă de trăire concretă, durabilă?

Dacă sufletul meu ascultă de un trandafir, delicato come una farfalla , şi dacă inima lui este de acord cu mine, încât conversaţiile noastre să domolească orice furie a naturii, atunci el va fi fericit pentru că a primit un nume, şi pentru că orice altceva care abundă în capodoperele artei derivă de aici. Dintr-un nume, care simbolizează gândurile mele măreţe, emoţiile unei amintiri în forme, linii şi culori.

Aşa este, fericirea unui artist se trage din existenţa unei flori care trăieşte în locul său o altă realitate, într-o lume paralelă.

Un plan artistic mai înalt, dezvăluindu-se chiar şi atunci când desenul este făcut rapid, spontan, cu unicul scop de a înregistra fidel o anumită imagine, prilejuieşte asumarea unei experienţe de alteritate născută din acordul cu formele pure ale frumosului, ale sensibilităţii, ale fiinţării, prin corelarea cu alte mijloace expresive de redare a unei realităţi echivoce.

Trandafirul, iată, l-am însufleţit cu multă imaginaţie, cu ajutorul culorilor vibrante – roşu şi galben, iar el m-a însufleţit cu francheţea şi naturaleţea lui, cu acea glăsuire a unui faraon care şi-a scris pe tăbliţa de smarald: "Se cuvine ca sufletul meu să-mi facă plăcută viaţa din ţinutul dinspre Apus."

Sufletele care au acelaşi vibraţie sau aceeaşi vechime astrală, sunt identice sau au o legătură intimă între ele, uniformă pe orice plan al vieţii – spiritual, fizic, mental, emoţional, familial, dar şi pe orice plan al istoriei omeneşti. Nu e de mirare că relaţia dintre mine şi trandafirul "Double Delight", dialogul pornit din imbolul unor inimi simetrice care îşi ce varsă în jur acest balsam al sufletelor-ghid, evoluate spiritual, este o combinaţie imbatabilă dintre o formă de expresie subiectivă, un procedeu al unei imaginaţii creatoare, şi o puternică sursă de inspiraţie artistică, întărită în special cu energia astrală actuală.

Leadership: Atributul unic al artei pe care o practici atrage cu desăvârşire ideea existenţei unei instanțe interioare, a unui Sine Absolut care dă seama de o legătură unică şi coerentă dintre o minte ascuţită şi un suflet cu potenţial divin?

Artistul îşi duce creaţia la nivel de artă prin conturarea unui trandafir ce prinde viaţă într-o altă lume, într-o dimensiune cu totul nouă, el fiind un vizionar al fanteziei, al tărâmurilor astrale şi al artei sacre. Iar eu sunt un artist deosebit, autor al operei "Parole derivate dall'ascolto di un misterioso sussurro" , pentru că tot ceea ce am realizat în viaţa pământească, şi care a fost dinainte plănuit de o forţă astrală, empatizează cu simbolul unei asumări a naturii sub specia "interioritatis".

La rândul lui, trandafirul simbolizează destinul omului iluminat, hotărât în lumea astrală încă dinainte de se naşte, pentru a schimba ceva din rostul lumii pământene. Omul care are ceva de schimbat, să schimbe. Omul care nu are nimic de schimbat, să se schimbe, şi să se schimbe în bine. Iar trandafirul, ascultaţi-mă bine când vă zic, este bucuros când cineva îi recunoaşte originea, profunzimile, simbolurile, atrăgând cu desăvârşire ideea existenţei unei instanțe interioare, a unui Sine Absolut, a unei vieţi sufleteşti surprinsă în reproducerea unei picturi plein-air, în vraja unui alt timp, într-un ochi de zeu înconjurat de raze de lumină.

Şi sunt bucuros când vorbesc despre trandafir ca despre chipul unui Uomo Dell'Universo, frumos, de mare sensibilitate, atât de sincer, înzestrat cu ştiinţa tuturor înfăţişărilor naturii. Este, poate, aceeaşi bucurie cu care scriitoarea Mary Balogh îşi analizează personajele din perspectiva ataşamentului faţă de libertatea creaţiei artistice:

"Inspiraţia trebuia aşezată mai presus de orice. Artistul învăţase acest lucru în ultimii zece ani. Şi acum se simţea inspirat. Vedea fiecare fiinţă aşa cum era şi cum trebuia să apară pe pânză, şi nu putea să o picteze destul de repede, ca să nu piardă scânteia aceea din el care îi vedea toată frumuseţea. Cum să captezi lumina, speranţa şi vulnerabilitatea pe pânză, fără să pierzi echilibrul delicat dintre ele şi fără să cedezi ispitei de a picta doar aspectul de zi cu zi – în cazul ei, o fiinţă foarte drăguţă."

O formă de trăire concretă, durabilă, în vecinătatea artei, se poate reprezenta prin redarea frumuseţii unei prietenii trăite în lumina cuvintelor sfinte, dintre corp graţios al naturii şi un artist al timpului simultan.

Legea sufletelor pereche în plan astral pune în prim plan legătura intimă stabilită dintre natura spirituală a unui artist şi existenţa creată după chipul lui Dumnezeu exprimat prin delicateţea unei imagini care persistă în ideea de generare a unei stări de înţelegere şi acceptare universală a mesajului: "Sufletul de mare sfinţenie şi puritate îşi deschide singur orizonturile spre descoperirea altor lumi."

Cât despre atributul unic al artei mele, iată-l, vă rog să-l memoraţi ca pe strălucirea unui diamant care izvoărăşte din interior: este perfecţiunea cunoaşterii din perspectiva unei ştiinţe extensive – ştiinţa naturii.

Legea supremaţiei

On Noiembrie 19, 2010

Fii stăpân pe întreaga ta lume mică, înainte să fii stăpânul lumii întregi.

Contele de Monte Cristo, datorită înţelepciunii dobândite graţie abatelui Faria, de-a lungul celor treisprezece ani cât a fost întemniţat, a reuşit mai apoi nu doar să-şi construiască cu multă iscusinţă o imagine puternică şi un nume sonor, ci să se ridice deasupra tuturor exercitându-şi influenţa în societate, în sfera economicului, socialului şi mai ales politicului.

Dorind cu ardoare să-şi atingă scopul principal – de a-i pedepsi cu vârf şi îndesat pe cei ce l-au aruncat fără milă în închisoare – el a schimbat multe destine lăsate în voia sorţii. Monte Cristo a ajuns o persoană cu o influenţă atât de mare încât un singur gest de-al său, un singur cuvânt, putea să schimbe o viaţă.

Dar într-un final, după ce-a izbutit să-şi "rezolve" toate problemele sufletului, abia atunci contele şi-a dat seama că lumea plină de sublim pe care şi-o construise cu mult meşteşug, nu era deloc o lume perfectă, nu era nicidecum o lume care să-i exprime adevăratele valori, o lume care să-i vindece remuşcările care nu-i dădeau pace. El i-a scris bunului său prieten, Maximillien, o scrisoare de rămas bun:

"Spune-i îngerului care va veghea asupra vieţii dumitale, Maximillien, să se roage uneori pentru un om care, asemenea Satanei, s-a crezut o clipă egalul lui Dumnezeu şi care a recunoscut apoi – cu toată umilinţa unui creştin – că puterea supremă şi înţelepciunea nemărginită sunt numai în mâinile lui Dumnezeu. Rugăciunile iubitei tale Valentine vor îndulci poate remuşcările pe care el le poartă în fundul sufletului."

Leadership: Te preocupi de propria ta lume înainte să schimbi alte lumi?

Vorbele pline de învăţăminte şi reflecţii ale Contelui de Monte Cristo, în care se pot simţi pulsiuni, amintiri, dureri, îmi aduc aminte de ceea ce spunea odată marele scriitor englez Aldous Huxley: "Există doar un singur colţ din univers pe care poţi fi sigur că îl poţi îmbunătăţi, şi acela este chiar propria ta persoană."

Dacă te desprinzi de lumea ta, de propriile tale "metereze interioare" care te protejează de factorii negativi, pentru a-ţi croi drum prin teritorii neexplorate, având că scopul unic satisfacerea unor interese personale bazate pe sentimente, rişti să ajungi în aceeaşi situaţie ca a lui Monte Cristo - să cazi într-o adâncă stare de culpabilitate.

Drumul tău spre libertatea de a fi mai bun este o încercare de poziţionare a gândirii şi a idealurilor într-un context al explorării posibilităţilor de a repara cele întâmplate din mândria de a te crede Dumnezeu.

A-ţi învinge remuşcările, în loc să trăieşti cu ele, este o dovadă a validităţii progresului bazat pe o scădere a dependenţei de afirmare a superiorităţii, pe o cultură a uitării şi a iertării, care evidenţiază o profundă înălţare spirituală şi morală.

Ca lider fii convins că vei duce o luptă personală cu ceea ce este cu adevărat în tine şi cu ceea ce vrei să fii în ochii lumii. Vei fi de multe ori în postura de a alege: între a fi o victimă – propria ta victimă – şi a fi un om cu caracter care ştie să facă faţă tuturor emoţiilor, temerilor şi îngrijorărilor care apar în viaţa sa, şi tuturor dorinţelor care-i pot răni sufletul. Ceva în interiorul tău trebuie să fie atât de puternic, încât niciun eveniment să nu te poată dărâma psihic.

Poţi să-ţi reprezinţi leadershipul ca un mijloc de determinare a viitorului pe care ţi-l rezervă însăși forța simţămintelor de iertare şi recunoştinţă, în urma comuniunii cu Dumnezeu?

Un om cu mintea slabă stăruie cu ferocitate numai asupra atingerii unui scop, susţinându-şi cu tărie şi mândrie punctele de vedere, părerile, prin argumente deloc de neglijat. Dar din cauza felului în care interpretează lucrurile şi situaţiile, s-ar putea să fie tentat să creadă că lumea sa e singura care există. Iar aceasta este o izbândă înşelătoare, efectele negative se vor vedea mai târziu.

Leadership: Eşti cel mai mare duşman al tău?

Mare dreptatea avea Mohamed când a spus: "Omul puternic e cel care câştiga bătălia cu el însuşi." Acesta este un mare adevăr. Te poţi avânta spre înălţimi, poţi cuceri piscuri, dar te poţi prăbuşi în adâncurile cele mai întunecate dacă nu cucereşti bătălia cu tine însuţi.

Norocul de a întâlni fericirea va fi mai mic. Lumea ta se va nărui dacă nu-ţi aduni puterile, dacă nu te înarmezi cu răbdare, înţelegere, curaj, cu voinţă şi mai presus de toate cu înţelepciune – împotriva loviturilor vieţii care te pot face să te rătăceşti de la lumea ta la alta – fără ele e ca şi cum ai naviga pe o mare în care piraţii cutreieră nestingheriţi, fără să-ţi iei măsuri drastice de apărare.

Înclinaţia spre meşteşugul şlefuirii caracterului are ca principal fundament meritul omului de a fi adus victoria împotriva deşertăciunii atunci când are loc o progresivă accentuare a dependenţei de superioritate.

Legea supremaţiei se referă la abilitatea şi capacitatea liderului de a-şi stăpâni "lumea" din imediata sa vecinătate, inclusiv pe a lui însăşi - şi numai după ce ea "funcţionează" la capacitate maximă, el poate să aspire spre alte culmi. Adică, mai întâi de toate, liderul trebuie să fie stăpân pe lumea sa mică, înainte de a fi stăpânul lumii întregi.

Legea tămăduirii

On Aprilie 08, 2010

Fii un om de mare caracter prin plasarea propriilor practici în zona unui eveniment menit să intre în conştiinţa oamenilor drept un punct critic ce poate fi evitat.

Nu regret că m-am aflat în acea zi în locul nepotrivit, fiindcă atunci, din fericire, am învăţat o lecţie preţioasă. Dar fac oare bine povestindu-vă ce chestie ciudată mi s-a întâmplat? Cred că da, fiindcă acea întâmplare nu face parte din acele lucruri pe care este mai bine să le trec sub tăcere.

Mă aflam într-un spital alături de unul din colegii mei cei mai buni din timpul facultăţii. Aşteptam pe cineva. Aveam sentimentul că voi petrece toată ziua acolo, în sala de aşteptare. Şi dintr-o dată, în timp ce mă pierdeam în gânduri, dintr-o cameră alăturată se auzi strigătul unui om, a unui pacient în agonie, un strigăt disperat venit parcă din adâncul sufletului: „Mai bine m-ai lăsa să mor ! ”

Credeam că pacientul e pe cale să-şi dea viaţa, îmboldit de propria lui voinţă. Zeci de întrebări m-au covârşit, dintr-o dată, şi cred că şi pe colegul meu şi pe ceilalţi oameni din preajma noastră. Zeci de întrebări mi-au trecut prin minte, dar fără ca să le găsesc un răspuns.

Apoi, o linişte deplină s-a aşternut, ca şi cum pacientul şi-ar fi dat duhul, iar ultimele sale cuvinte, spuse cu un ton care, de ce să nu recunosc, a cam băgat spaima în mine, au sunat mai degrabă ca un avertisment: „Fugi cât încă mai ai timp”.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi reconsideri atitudinea faţă de sensul vieţii prin formularea unei condiţii de apartenenţă la o experienţă de tipul "expunere la o situaţie de care îţi e teamă nivelul tău de anxietate", încât să-ţi rezervi dreptul de a nu fi supus unei decizii automate cu caracter semnificativ?

O jumătate de ceas s-a scurs în aşteptare, o aşteptare terifiantă, în care nu am putut decât să-mi imaginez cele mai negre scenarii, apoi uşa camerei s-a deschis. Doctorul, cuprins de o stare de linişte interioară, ieşi din cameră şi căută cu privirea o anumită persoană.

Chiar în acel moment, o doamnă de vârstă mijlocie, prea adânc însufleţită de zelul credinţei, dar cu inima bătând să-i spargă pieptul, se ridică imediat în picioare. Starea în care se afla aruncă un văl de tristeţe asupra mea şi a celorlalţi din jur.

- Timp de două ore m-am rugat lui Dumnezeu, din adâncul inimii. Spuneţi-mi vă rog, în ce stare se află soţul meu?

Doctorul, observând zdruncinările sufleteşti ale femeii, simţind cum sângele îi clocotea în vene, se grăbi să-i răspundă, pentru a nu-i întuneca şi mai tare spaima ce-o resimţea în adâncul fiinţei ei:

- Nu aveţi de ce să vă faceţi griji. Soţul dumneavoastră este acum în afara oricărui pericol. Mâine se va putea întoarce acasă.

Vă mărturisesc sincer că niciodată n-am văzut un om mai fericit. Clipa aşteptării fu cea mai cumplită pentru inima acelei doamne, în care fiecare secundă o lovea ca un ciocan de plumb. Dar la aflarea veştii că soţul ei este bine, că a fost vindecat complet, totul în ea s-a trezit la viaţă. Sensul vieţii ei părea evident: voia să-şi trăiască fericirea alături de soţul ei.

Am reuşit să-mi rezerv dreptul de a nu mă arunca în vâltoarea unei decizii automate cu caracter semnificativ, deci nu am dat un verdict (moral) dur şi nefavorabil acestei situaţii, nu am etichetat cu rea voinţă termenul „îngrijire spitalicească”, prin faptul că am pus în prim planul conştiinţei virtutea de a nu pune degetul pe rană, virtutea de a pune în acord sensibilitatea cu raţiunea de a nu trage concluzii înainte de a avea toate răspunsurile.

Leadership: Adopţi o poziție de fragilitate faţă de impactul unor posibile "şocuri" externe, sub dominaţia aparenţei unor divergenţe în interpretarea unui rezultat care poate fi exprimat prin două moduri: ca un strigăt de disperare, sau ca un gest de influenţă?

Cel mai greu lucru pentru un doctor este să stabilească diagnosticul just al pacientului şi să definească boala de care acesta suferă. Iar odată ce a făcut acest lucru, esenţial este acordarea tratamentului corespunzător. Doctorul trebuie să consulte pacientul, să depisteze particularităţile bolii raportate la bolnav, căci nu există durere fără cauză. El poate da impresia de fragilitate în ce priveşte calitatea şi profesionalismul serviciilor de îngrijire pe care le furnizează dacă emite un răspuns de alertă în faţa unor situaţii incerte. Fapt ce poate fi perceput ca un fel de strigăt de disperare a omului care e pe cale de-a scăpa definitiv de tortura unor gânduri dureroase. În medicină, aşa ceva nu este admis.

Pe cine se sprijină toate nădejdile pacientului? Pe cine se sprijină speranţele unui bolnav? Evident pe priceperea doctorului. Rolul doctorului, misiunea lui cea mai importantă şi totodată cea mai dificilă, este să facă tot ce-i stă în putinţă ca să-l vindece pe pacient, şi nu să-l consoleze prin vorbe. Niciun om care suferă de o boală foarte gravă şi este cuprins de o durere infernală nu ajunge să se însănătoşească complet şi nici măcar parţial, doar dacă este consolat cu gândul că se va face bine.

Totodată, rezultatul pe care îl oferă medicul faţă de starea de sănătate a pacienţilor săi poate fi perceput ca un gest de influenţă dacă este exprimat ca o incertitudine privind diagnosticul sau tratamentul, fiindcă astfel el se pune în ipostaza de "eveniment major", dominând situaţia printr-o accentuare a stării de confuzie, de aşteptare, de tensiune. Este o probă psihologică. În acest moment oamenii devin tot mai nerăbdători, aşteaptă un răspuns pozitiv, dar în această stare de aşteptare plină de emoţii ei ar fi capabili să facă orice pentru ca vestea cea bună să ajungă la urechile lor. Este o luptă între puterea de "Dumnezeu" a doctorului şi sensibilitatea oamenilor de rând.

Un pacient este cu adevărat fericit numai şi numai atunci când ajunge să se bucure din nou de sănătate, nu atunci când doctorul îi insuflă gânduri pozitive. Degeaba încerci să încurajezi un pacient care suferă de dureri groaznice, acesta nu se va simţi mai bine datorită cuvintelor tale pline de optimism şi de speranţă. Când un pacient îi spune doctorului: „Mai bine m-ai lăsa să mor”, fii sigur că e cuprins de dureri atât de groaznice încât ori îl faci bine, ori nu. Încurajarea pacientului în momentele cele mai critice nu are nicidecum un efect spectaculos de vindecare totală. Totuşi nu trebuie să minimalizăm nici puterea cuvintelor care au de multe ori efect complementar terapiei.

Leadership: Ai puterea de a crea sentimentul de obligație faţă de cursul unui eveniment care devine tot mai presant, luând în considerare toate complicaţiile posibile ale unui "moment al adevărului"?

Rolul unui lider, misiunea lui cea mai importantă şi totodată cea mai dificilă, este de asemenea, să facă tot ce-i stă în putinţă ca să "însănătoşească" pe deplin traiul oamenilor, nu să-i consoleze cu vorbe încrezătoare şi pline de optimism, nu doar să le făgăduiască fericirea în locul deznădejdii de care sunt cuprinşi.

Oamenii urmează pe acel individ care are capacitatea să mânuiască lucrurile intangibile, adică pe acela care este capabil să caute în adâncul sufletelor lor, să simtă ceea ce simt ei şi reuşeşte să le redea fericirea. Numai cel care îi poate vindeca pe oameni, atât sufleteşte cât şi trupeşte, oferindu-le sprijin moral dar şi material, poate câştiga cu adevărat admiraţia, respectul şi încrederea lor. Iar aşa cum am spus de nenumărate ori, medicii sunt de departe singurii care au cea mai mare influenţă asupra oamenilor, de toate vârstele, de toate naţiile, în orice loc s-ar afla.

Dacă ar fi să-mi imaginez liderul ideal, el ar fi fără umbră de îndoială aidoma unui medic. Un medic care să-şi dea seama care este capacitatea de performanţă a oamenilor, starea lor de sănătate şi factorii care o influenţează. Un medic capabil să-i ţină pe oameni departe de orice fel de boală sau afecţiune (stresul, oboseala, lenea, insatisfacţia, anxietatea, nervozitatea, etc), şi să le redea vitalitatea. De asemenea cred că liderul ideal trebuie să aibă o capacitate analitică deosebită şi să dispună de metodele de „terapie” adecvate, inclusiv de „terapie verbală” ca mijloc complementar.

Dacă arunci o privire asupra istoriei recente, vei vedea că oamenii ca Bill Gates, John D. Rockefeller, Thomas Edison, Michael Dell, se află în capul listei celor mai buni „medici”. Ei au devenit giganţi financiari, clădind imperii fabuloase, „însănătoşind” cât mai mult traiul oamenilor.

Madonna, regina necontestată a muzicii pop, se implică intens în acte de caritate îndreptate spre regiunile sărace ale Africii. Datorită ei mulţi oameni sunt mai sănătoşi şi au o viaţă mai bună. Nu cred că Madonna a terminat facultatea de medicină, dar cu siguranţă are aptitudini de tămăduitor, pentru că, prin implicarea ei constantă în ajutorarea oamenilor, a salvat mulţi bolnavi de la moarte şi a îmbunătăţit traiul de viaţă al multor africani.

Momentul adevărului este sinonim cu acea forţă a caracterului obţinută numai prin experienţa de a vedea suferinţa celorlalţi drept un prilej de a-ţi etala latura morală a personalităţii, cunoştinţele avansate într-un domeniu, sarcina de a te purta cu multă afecţiune, şi capacitatea de a discerne situaţiile prin exercitarea discernământul autentic.

Legea tămăduirii se dezvăluie numai celor care ştiu să vindece sufletul omului înainte de a-i vindeca rănile trupului, considerând ca prim mijloc de comparaţie acel imperativ al devenirii: "Nu lua niciodată drept un afront la adresa propriilor convingeri ceea ce ţi se prezintă ca unică opţiune într-un context fragil, de mare însemnătate.”

Legea valorii

On Martie 03, 2010

Cu cât un jucător înregistrează mai multe performanţe, cu atât valoarea lui şi a echipei din care face parte este mai mare; iar cu cât o echipă are mai mulţi asemenea jucători, cu atât prestigiul ei creşte.

Una din pasiunile mele a fost fotbalul. În timpul facultăţii am jucat aproape zi de zi cu colegii mei de grupă. Având cu toţii aceeaşi viziune şi dorinţă de implicare, şi pentru că eram destul de buni, ne-am format rapid o echipă stabilă. Ne întâlneam pe terenul facultăţii de sport şi, ore în şir, deseori până noaptea târziu, jucam cu diverse echipe.

Dintre toţi, George Hahui, acum antrenor de fotbal la o echipă din SUA, s-a remarcat cel mai mult, era cel mai bun atacant pe care l-am cunoscut vreodată. Dădea gol după gol, cu capul, cu piciorul, din penalty, din centrări, pase de gol care mai de care mai bune, făcea driblinguri rapide şi fantastice, şi datorită lui meciul devenea un veritabil spectacol. El dădea tonul echipei, el dirija meciurile, el stabilea strategiile, el era căpitanul.

În mai puţin de un semestru, multă lume din facultate auzise de el. La un moment dat, într-o seară, unul din profesorii noştri de sport, văzându-l cum joacă, l-a întrebat dacă nu vrea să-şi înscrie echipa în campionatul universitar de fotbal. A acceptat fără să stea prea mult pe gânduri. Când ne-a dat vestea cea bună, n-a omis să ne atenţioneze: „ Trebuie să ne ţinem serios de antrenamente. Până acuma ne-am distrat, dar de mâine vom începe să jucăm cu toţii mult mai bine, şi să arătăm tot ce putem. "

Cel ce-şi manifestă cu mândrie atracţia faţă de ceea ce reprezintă un stil de tranziţie între nevoi prezente şi valori deschise spre viitor, va fi întotdeauna dispus să demonstreze că este cel mai bun model de urmat.

Din acel moment s-a schimbat tot. Antrenamentele intense conduse de George au fost destul de grele şi obositoare, dar am ţinut ritmul. Când a început campionatul universitar, echipa noastră, dintre zecile câte erau înscrise, nu era chiar atât de cunoscută. Însă cu fiecare meci pe care l-am câştigat, faima noastră a crescut tot mai mult. Am jucat cu toţii la maximă capacitate, toată lumea ne admira stilul de joc dinamic şi bine pus la punct. Înainte de finală eram cert echipa favorită la titlu, valoarea ei crescuse enorm.

Din păcate, am pierdut la loviturile de departajare. Am ieşit pe locul doi. Echipa adversă a fost de asemenea foarte bine organizată, cu mulţi jucători de valoare, dar din punct de vedere tehnic noi am fost mai înzestraţi ca ei.

Valoarea de referinţă a leadershipului este dată de jucătorul care reuşeşte să înscrie cele mai mult goluri chiar şi atunci când evoluează la echipe mici.

Succesul nu e un accident. Şi nici o chestiune de noroc. Nu e un miracol şi nu e un scop, ci o consecinţă. Dacă nu l-am fi avut pe George, al cărui talent l-am apreciat cu toţii, dacă el nu ne-ar fi motivat şi pregătit pentru victorie, cu siguranţă nu n-am fi calificat nici măcar în sferturi. George a fost omul cheie, de la el a pornit totul. Şi-a dovedit priceperea de nenumărate ori pe teren, a crescut în ochii tuturor, a devenit foarte repede cunoscut, ceea ce l-a determinat pe profesorul de sport să-i propună să-şi înscrie echipa în campionat.

Cu siguranţă talentul şi performanţele sale ne-au permis să ajungem atât de aproape de titlu.

El a format echipa, ne-a oferit speranţă şi instruirea necesară, ne-a susţinut şi ne-a inspirat, ne-a îmbunătăţit potenţialul şi ne-a încurajat până în ultimul moment, ştiind că numai imboldul, hotărârea, dorinţa şi talentul fiecărui jucător duce la succesul extraordinar al unei echipe. La rândul nostru, ne-am străduit din greu să evoluăm şi să ne situăm la aceeaşi nivel cu el. Iar echipa noastră, care la începutul campionatului era puţin cunoscută, a devenit în cele din urmă cea mai apreciată, cu un stil de joc dominant, foarte bine definit, cu jucători foarte valoroşi.

Leadership: Poţi să ridici la nivel înalt atitudinea ta faţă de ceea ce ai de înfăptuit printr-o delimitare de idealul de perfecţiune?

Un lider căruia îi place să facă o treabă cât mai bună şi vrea cu orice preţ să atingă succesul reuşeşte să adune în jurul lui oameni eficienţi şi extrem de motivaţi, iar apoi îi ajută să se dezvolte. El recunoaşte abilităţile celor pe care îi conduce, fixează tonul echipei şi, întocmai ca un navigator, caută traseul cel mai favorabil până la destinaţia finală.

O echipă câştigătoare are, fără umbră de îndoială, un lider care pune lucrurile în mişcare. Cu cât el e mai talentat, cu atât membrii echipei lui vor fi mai talentaţi. Cu cât el e mai valoros, cu atât echipa e mai valoroasă. Şi cu cât echipa e mai valoroasă, cu atât prestigiul ei creşte mai mult.

Perfecţiunea în fotbal nu înseamnă neapărat a înscrie cele mai multe goluri, ci să loveşti mingea cu atâta putere încât să dobori orice sentiment negativ prin care trece echipa.

Concluzie: Valoarea este greu de câştigat atunci când nu există voinţă de perfecţionare şi ne complăcem în mediocritate şi chiar indiferenţă, atunci când în loc să fim competitivi şi să „ ieşim la înaintare ” ne complăcem să rămânem nevăzuţi, necunoscuţi, pitiţi îndărătul altora mai buni ca noi. Şi mai ales valoarea e greu de atins când lipseşte un om care să pună lucrurile în mişcare, prin viziunea sa împărtăşită celorlalţi şi prin exemplul său personal.

Legea vederii care nu se pierde

On Noiembrie 28, 2022

Cu cât obiectul privirii se află la o distanţă mai redusă, cu atât percepţia importanţei sale se reduce la trăiri şi sentimente.

Scaunul pe care stau aşezat chiar acum la birou, acelaşi scaun pe care de atâtea ori sensibilitatea mea artistică l-a perceput drept o operă de artă, o realitate însufleţită cu care am legat o prietenie durabilă, nu a fost gândit doar ca structură de sine stătătoare, ci ca singularitate a unei teme pragmatice care invită la o călătorie labirintică unde simţi că intri în dialog cu spațiul și materia din care provin lucrările marii Creaţii.

Cuprinzându-l cu vederea care vine şi pleacă, în contradicţie cu orice reprezentare ştiinţifică, îmi dau seama că mă apropii cu respect, cu sfială, cu răbdare, de condiţia primordială a artei: construirea unei viziuni sincere care să inspire o poveste.

Să-i devin prieten, cel mai bun confessor, acum când prietenia este mai scumpă decât aurul şi mai puţin pură ca o culoare vie, acum când ridici din umeri ca răspuns la tot ceea ce ochiul vede, dar nu simte, şi totuşi să pretind c-am ajuns în acel prag al gândirii în care imaginația mi se concentrează doar asupra conținutului însufleţitor, fără să-i descopăr lumea misterioasă înfăţişată într-o amintire comunicată dincolo de cuvinte, este similar cu a surprinde mirajul unei lumi debusolate în care artistul se confundă cu propria lui creaţie.

Iar, dacă cumva aş schimba culoarea din backgroundul vederii mele, atunci obiectul privirii mi-ar părea la fel de semnificativ ca un portret pictural care cântăreşte în greutatea timpului deznădejdile, îndoiala, dezolarea unei existenţe cu totul imprevizibile. Da, este ceva emoțional, o legătură sufletească între noi doi, mai ales între obiectul privirii şi obiectul evaluării unei lumi oarbe, dar simţitoare, al cărei continuum nu este alcătuit din personaje recurente sau fire narative, ci mai degrabă este compatibil cu evoluția unei stări de spirit, a unei idei, a unui context al toleranţei reciproce în care distracţia şi voia bună sunt la ele acasă.

Leadership: Creaţia ta se orientează asupra noţiunii de simultaneitate afectivă cuprinsă între un Sine care transcende diversitatea obiectelor materiale şi un Sine care transcende realitatea din mintea observatorului?

Iată cât de departe m-a adus obiectul privirii mele, cât de mult s-a impus scaunul acesta asupra spiritului meu artistic, cu acea forţă magnetică, asemănătoare unui perpetuum mobile, dătătoare de simultaneitate într-un câmp de referinţă inerţial, constant în timp, care are atât influenţă cât şi memorie. Încă nu-mi dau seama dacă, văzându-l cu ochii supuşi regulilor de combinare ale culorilor şi de amestecarea nesăţioasă a principiilor contrare, sub pavăza frumosului, nu cumva îi lipsesc cele două abisuri: viaţa fără de moarte şi efectul creativ accentuat într-o artă simbolică.

Iar dacă l-aş descrie în culorile cele mai tari, ca pe-un prizonier al obsesiei pentru frumos, un pensiero prevalente che richiede attenzione e che provoca un lavoro mentale prolungato, abordând orice temă din perspectiva propriilor senzații și percepții, atunci probabil mi-aş găsi oglindirea stilului de interpretare a realităţii în resortul satisfacţiei de a pretinde că pictez doar ceea ce văd, fără să văd ceea ce este important de văzut.

Situându-mă parcă dincolo de prezent, într-un spaţiu al creaţiei, al reflecţiei şi visării, scaunul îmi cântăreşte memoria trecutului, încă de când l-am zărit cu ani în urmă la un "Mobilo Expo", şi coincidenţa este prea frapantă, prea revelatoare ca să alung ideea unui cadru de perspectivă pentru desenele şi picturile inspirate din dorinţa de a-mi crea un profil alternativ de utilizator al realităţii subiective. S-ar zice că îmi simte stările psihice dincolo de manifestările de creaţie, revendicându-şi locul eroului într-un roman al lui Paul Auster:

Este ideea de a fi acolo, de a se afla între cei patru pereţi, de a respira acelaşi aer ca şi scriitorul care vede în el un artist înainte de a deveni, propriu-zis, un artist. De acum înainte, îşi spune el, orice se va întâmpla va influenţa orice altceva. La un moment dat cineva o să bată la uşă. Artistul se va apropia de mine, luând locul scriitorului, şi dintr-o dată se vor şterge toate distanţele, lucrul şi gândul devenind unui şi acelaşi. Orice, numai să nu întrerupă curgerea cuvintelor pe o pânză a cărei lectură se desfăşoară sub forma unei descifrări, căci în acest fel restul fiinţei sale se poate bucura de libertatea de a se uita prin cameră, de a observa observabilul, de a gândi, fără ca în tot acest timp să-şi abată atenţia de la o identitate plină de: "Sunt lipsită de valoare".

Leadership: Creaţia ta face posibilă percepţia „lucrului" privit ca având multiple părţi sau determinaţii, în acord cu partea de suflet care îi lipseşte acelui lucru?

Trainic, recunoscut de existenţa unei singularităţi prea des dispreţuite, confirmat de realitatea unei vederi care nu-şi înşeală ochii atunci când trebuie percepută o construcţie stabilă şi predictibilă, scaunul meu de birou aşteaptă de la mine o atenţie numită Prelinahveh Gandattva (o expresie a solidarităţii faţă de stil şi formă, aliate cu senzaţia iluminări interioare) ca să se poată încadra în prim planul unei creaţii ce nu trebuie trecută cu vederea. Aşadar, mă simt recunoscător c-am făcut dintr-un lucru uzual o formă de conectare cu lumea mea interioară, fără să-mi trădez instinctul de a sorbi efectiv din instantaneele realităţii, căutând, găsind, alegând, unind toate forţele artei într-o singură viziune: Interserenza Asetothysion, that "nothing" can remain hidden.

Drag scaun, mai mult decât crezi că eşti, tu reprezinţi acea parte dintr-un personaj plin de sentiment, ce se face simţită doar prin text şi acţiuni. Ţie îţi datorez aceste rânduri, simţirii pe care ai degajat-o prin conexiunea minte-suflet, o simţire reflectată în forma unei trăiri subiective, proprii şi unice. Nu, n-am trecut cu vederea prezenţa ta întocmai ca mulţimea distrată şi nepăsătoare, întocmai ca oamenii aceia de vază care pozează în atotcunoscători, dar care nu pot atinge înălțimi spirituale prin activități creative. Te rog să ţii cont de asta, şi să-mi sporeşti confortul când lucrez la birou.

Iar tu, drag cititor, dacă n-ai văzut ce este înăuntrul scaunului pe care te aşezi zilnic, dacă n-ai simţit ce simte el când zorii îţi tulbură simţirea, dacă nu l-ai privit ca pe-o operă de artă recompusă în permanenţă din emoţii, dacă nu i-ai oferit partea de suflet care lui îi lipseşte, partea aia de suflet pe care o pui în câteva cuvinte cărora emoţiile să le dea aripi de Prometeu, atunci probabil n-ai înţeles că materia este energie transformată în ceva tangibil, fizic.

Te îndemn, deci, să priveşti fiecare lucru cu care interacţionezi, la fel cum îmi privesc eu scaunul de birou: ca o tentativă de depăşire a dilemei figurativ-nonfigurativ.

Trecerea de la viziune la creaţie poate lua în calcul ideea că leadershipul este o formă de conectare cu lumea ta interioară, pornind de la observarea unui lucru aparent neînsemnat, dar care facilitează conturarea imaginii de sine şi a imaginii despre lume, făcând ca imaginea pe care o promovezi să fie pe măsura simţirii care traversează și metamorfozează fiecare artist.

Legea vederii care nu se pierde se referă la capacitatea artistului de a percepe o realitate pe care ochiul nu o poate scăpa din vedere, acea realitate cuprinsă în dimensiunea lucrurilor despre care simţirea şi fantezia au întotdeauna ceva nou de spus.

Legea vederii înaintate

Rămâi cu tine însuţi, chiar şi atunci când te simţi departe de tine.

Noaptea. Nu-i aşa frig afară, un pic bate vântul, o boare se simte cu rece suflare. Te întorci spre casă, alene, cu ochii larg deschişi spre un cer acoperit de o perdea deasă de nori, într-un decor dominat de prezenţa lunii, atât de tăinuită. Plimbarea este o bună hrană pentru minte, o expunere enigmistică la cele ce te fac să te simţi vulnerabil, dar inclus într-un parcurs absolut imprevizibil, incitant. În vitrina unui magazin de anticariat, îţi sare în ochi o carte banală. O singură culoare, roşu, dar cu un scris închis. Te apropii încet, ca şi când ai vrea să desluşeşti ceva, cât de cât. Un scris cu cerneală neagră pe versoul unei cărţi mistice, exprimă următoarele:

"Credinţa este o stea luminoasă ce îl ajuta pe cercetător să dezlege misterele naturii. Trebuie să căutaţi centrul vostru de greutate în Dumnezeu şi să vă bazaţi încrederea pe o credinţă divină, sinceră, curatăşi puternică, şi să-i rămâneţi credincioşi cu toată inima, şi cu tot sufletul, cu toată simţirea şi cu tot cugetul. Dacă veţi avea o asemenea credinţă, înţelepciunea nu vă va ascunde adevărul Lui, ci vă va dezvălui Operele sale într-un mod neobişnuit, dar credibil şi consolator." (Paracelsus)

Continui să te plimbi în lumea ta, puţin debusolat, încâlcit în gândurile rebele de peste zi. Nevăzut şi tăinuit de toate privirile, începi să reflectezi la aceste cuvinte, ca şi când ar trebui să te interpui într-o lume aluzivă, simbolică, care să-ţi aline orice durere şi să vindece prin sugestie. Nu ai putut memora bine cuvintele, aşa că le-ai fotografiat cu telefonul. Chiar şi telefonul era parcă tot atât de curios să afle tâlcul lor. Le reciteşti în mers. Şi le reciteşti. Te întrebi de ce au venit aceste cuvinte tocmai acum, şi nu în alt moment? Apoi, începi să le înţelegi sensul:

Trebuie să-ţi îndrepţi privirea spre stele, chiar şi atunci când gândurile tale încep să zboare în altă parte. Şi chiar dacă este înnorat, să ştii că stelele sunt tot acolo. Şi chiar dacă ele nu se văd, niciodată să nu te înstrăinezi de ele…

Sunt minunate plimbările noaptea. Linişte. Multe lumini şi luminiţe…

Leadership: Caracterul tău determinativ devine semnificativ prin felul cum te raportezi la o altă esenţă a propriei fiinţe proiectată în alt timp şi alt spaţiu, spre care este orientată inteligenţa unui creator de metafore?

Mica plimbare este ca o revelaţie adâncă asupra a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă atunci când nu ştii ce este cu tine, poate atunci când te simţi paralizat de o temere, faţă de o circumstanţă pe care trebuie să o înfrunţi. Noaptea accentuează aria iluziilor de orice fel, în orice chip ţi le-ai alimenta cu sclipiri ale imaginaţiei. Cumva, ţi-a dori să fii o mică stea pe imensa bolta cerească, o mică strălucire într-o imensă constelaţie, pentru ca toate schimbările de pe acest pământ să nu ajungă până la tine.

Imaginează-ţi un simbol pe care să îl trasezi cu privirea dintr-un sens şi apoi din celălalt. Ştii că tu eşti acel simbol, pe care plimbarea nocturnă îl transformă într-un corp astral, spiritual sau energetic, dincolo de corpul fizic. Sau, poate că trucurile ochiului te îmbată cu mândria de a te şti prea vast în orientare…

Aşadar, plimbarea se poate interpreta ca o aventură a unui călător în astral, dacă şi numai dacă îţi alimentezi mintea cu cele tăinuite în punctul de focalizare unui observator astrologic care surprinde şi aduce la cunoştinţa muritorului de rând, configuraţia unui sine care face conexiunea cu Dumnezeu. Iar dacă plimbarea de seară reprezintă un simbol, evidenţiind imaginea unui sine care dă seama de o legătură unică şi coerentă dintre trup şi minte, atunci locul lui Dumnezeu este la mijloc: în felul cum inima simte lucruri pe care ochii nu le pot vedea şi ştie ceea ce mintea nu poate înţelege

"Numai un om pătruns de seninătatea universului poate să devină un vizionar."

Plimbarea nocturnă este momentul în care un om este trimis în astral şi devine automat un duh purtător de spirit, înfăşurat în suflet, lăsând liberă mintea şi plutind în lumea magică a simbolismului. Or în lumea materială, ştiinţa de a vedea caracteristicile hermeneutice ale raportului dintre astral şi efemer nu-i este de nici un folos omului în ceea ce priveşte starea de bine, de normalitate. Şi chiar dacă singurul lucru necesar este de a se cunoaşte pe sine însuşi, omul va căuta mereu să vadă doar ceea ce îi dictează ritmul evenimentelor pământeşti, atât de trecătoare.

Iată că plimbarea a ajuns în punctul în care se poate afirma că lumea se învârte în jurul unui naiv care încă mai crede în ceea ce vede. Şi, fără să o ştie, fără să se întrebe de ce, vede numai ceea ce stelele i-au scris pe cer, dar i-au dictat pe pământ: fii cu tine însuţi, chiar şi atunci când te simţi departe de tine.

Leadershipul se realizează prin prisma momentului în care apari drept altcineva din perspectiva inedită a traiectoriei unei creaţii: drept un vizionar care, ştiind să creeze neaşteptatul, face din propriul sine o transcendere a timpului şi spaţiului.

Sau, după cum bine spunea poetul Ioan Alexandru: "Numai un om pătruns de seninătatea universului poate să devină un vizionar."

Legea vederii înaintate aduce în prim plan gândirea vizionarului care ştie să înnobileze un moment relevant din viaţa lui în formele cuceritoare ale Creaţiei şi Transformării. Ceea ce contează aici este felul cum te raportezi la o altă esenţă a propriei fiinţe proiectată în alt timp şi alt spaţiu, spre care este orientată inteligenţa unui Creator chemat să însufleţească un corp muritor...

Legile găsite în incandescența creaţiei

On Iunie 14, 2014

Fii consecvent în dezvoltarea şi promovarea ştiinţei, încât oamenii să estimeze corect valoarea artei care merită o cunoaștere aprofundată.

Eisenstein se complăcea în afirmarea construcţiei riguros ştiinţifice, matematice, a operelor sale. Studiul perioadei de realizare a peliculei "Potemkin" dovedeşte spontaneitatea creaţiei marelui regizor, analiza lucidă, rece. În 1937, V. Visnevska îi scrie cu oarecare revolta lui Eisenstein:

"Am văzut această analiză şi mi s-a făcut rău: erau acolo şi proporţii matematice şi multe altele. Dar secvenţa însăşi era lucrată cu înflăcărare, cu pasiune, cu elan. Era vară, în sud. Era pasiune pentru mare, pentru temă, era tinereţe, oraşul fremăta retrăind evenimentele… Şi apoi… analiza – analiza rece: nu ne puteţi da o cheie nici nouă, nici altora…"

Cheia exista totuşi. Eisenstein a creat nu numai o anume operă de artă, ci prin aceasta şi legi generale ale artei cinematografice. Analiza ştiinţifică ulterioară nu este decât descoperirea acestor legi găsite în incandescenţa creaţiei. Faptele, vom vedea, contravin părerilor răutăcioase ale celor care îl vedeau pe Eisenstein nu ca pe un artist patetic, ci ca pe un inginer abil, care-şi construieşte filmul cu rigla de calcul şi cu formule abstracte compuse în prealabil… Să ne adresăm deci faptelor. *

Leadership: Relevanţa leadershipului tău este dată de caracterul creaţiilor tale ştiinţifice înzestrate cu o seamă de atribute exemplare?

Orientările profesionale care vizează găsirea unor forme noi de manifestare a artei nu au devenit inactuale, sau din ce în ce mai improbabile, în urma transformărilor structurale care au marcat evoluţia societăţii din ultimele decenii. Dimpotrivă, ele au ca punct de referinţă experienţa omului în relaţie cu progresele şi rigorile ştiinţei sale, însuşite corect prin experimentare şi cercetare.

Iar principiile acestei ştiinţe formează fundamentul puterii de a trage la o parte vălul care acoperă viitorul și condiţia principală a tuturor obligaţiilor de a descoperi tainele formulelor "magice" care pot determina o nouă apreciere a artei originale. Sau a unei arhitecturi de acorduri cu liniile fundamentale ale gândirii creative pe care nicio imitaţie nu o poate da.

Leadershipul devine, prin prisma acestei arhitecturi care se deschide pentru a întâmpina "noutatea", îmbinându-se cu întreg cadrul interpretărilor şi judecaţilor ivite în mintea prolifică, un integrator al autenticităţii evenimentelor care se integrează în criteriile unei estetici de profunzime, şi totodată de tip idealist.

Înainte de a se hotărî în privinţa calităţii liderului, oamenii estimează valoarea unei arte care merită o cunoaștere aprofundată. Această artă poate avea ca model de sprijin faptele de repetiție ale unor fragmente din evenimentele de actualitate, înscrise în planul expresiei pe care o atribuim valorii pe care o ia corelația dintre idee şi imagine în interesul construirii unei articulări organice a omului cu lumea.

Leadershipul tău oferă posibilitatea includerii creaţiei personale printre elementele suport ale unei arte care lasă urme?

Cheia există totuşi, şi asta au recunoscut-o în nenumărate rânduri continuatorii progresului. Artiştii cei mai de seamă creează nu numai o anume operă de artă, ci prin aceasta şi legi generale ale unei arte care luptă pentru a supravieţui îndelung, purtând în ea germenii percepţiei vizavi de valoare şi consecinţele gândirii vizavi de o orientare paralelă. Analiza ştiinţifică ulterioară nu reprezintă decât descoperirea acestor legi găsite în incandescenţa creaţiei.

Leadershipul oferă posibilitatea includerii creaţiei personale printre elementele suport ale unei arte care lasă urme, generatoare de imense teritorii de aplicativitate, prin care ceilalţi profesionişti pot să conştientizeze valoarea adaosurilor ştiinţifice care grăbesc procesul de formare a unei gândiri principiale, mai active şi mai inovatoare. De aici contingenţa om-artă-societate.

Rolul principal în dezvoltarea ta profesională îl au producţiile de elemente sine qua non pentru elaborarea unor norme sau tendinţe de aplicare a ştiinţei într-un cadru unic de leadership, prin regândirea acelor excepţii de la regulile impuse de precursorii şi întemeietorii fundaţiei acestuia.

Ca şi continuator al progresului, îţi revine rolul să faci utilă cercetarea de fond şi cercetarea aplicată, în baza experienţelor celorlalţi întemeietori ai ştiinţei, fie în totalitate, fie numai în parte, pentru a-ţi înzestra leadershipul cu noi tendinţe şi, mai ales, cu o seamă de calităţi exemplare.

O artă care lasă urme ne oferă sugestia sau echivalenţa unui prototip de gândire ce rămâne ancorat într-un traseu de evoluţie ce interesează prin atributele exemplare de a prevedea, a organiza, a comanda, a coordona şi a controla impactul pe care evenimentele le-au avut asupra ta.

Legile găsite în incandescenţa creaţiei evidenţiază efortul liderului de a dezvolta domeniul care stă la baza ştiinţei, ca model de artă unanim acceptat şi demn de urmat. Oamenii trebuie să urmeze şi să continue aceeaşi viziune ca şi creatorul ştiinţei propriu zise.

Les Valses De Vienne

Învaţă să spiritualizezi tot ce poate să impresioneze sufletul, în sensul ingeniozităţii execuţiei unei opere de artă care poate fi transpusă într-o poveste fascinantă de viaţă.

De fiecare dată când mă gândesc la viaţa mea, discretă şi răbdătoare ca un simptom al timpului cristalizat şi pus sub sticla amintirilor cele mai tainice, văd filmul unor întâmplări care au în mijlocul lor sufletul trandafirului, monologul unui artist talentat, viu şi liber, sceptrul unui rege tânăr şi frumos, transformarea unui actor care imită perfect o figură celebră, sau povestea unui dansator care încearcă să-și depășească condiţia burgheză pentru a-și putea urma visele.

Viaţa mea, o psihologie a văzului creator şi propagator de semnificaţii, e ceva cu mult mai mult decât ar fi cineva dispus să înţeleagă.

Dragul meu trandafir, mi-ai dat curaj să nu mă plâng de viaţă, chiar dacă ea a început cu o piesă de suflet intitulată „Portret al unui personaj feminin" şi încă continuă pe acordurile unui vals clasic, foarte lent, dar emoţionant. Am spus întotdeauna DA schimbărilor, am crescut coordonându-ne activitatea intuitivă a spiritului cu ciclurile unei culturi a cercetării în artă, am fost martori la toate transformările anotimpurilor. N-am plecat în locuri diferite, precum beduinii care cutreieră deşerturile în lung şi în lat, nu ne-am îndepărtat unul de celălalt aşa cum se împrăştie granulele de nisip de pe toate plajele lumii, iar fără tine aş şti cu greu cine sunt, cine vreau să fiu, cine mă recunosc într-un dublu al meu.

Ai fost mereu lângă mine, împărtăşindu-ţi gândurile de iubire, pace, mulţumire, puritate, perfecţiune, cel pe care îl vedeam de fiecare dată când îmi desprindeam privirea de la lucrurile ce încercau să mă robească prin forţa lor haotică. Expresivitatea de care ai dat dovadă într-o imagine plină de spirit, împletită într-o armonie cu vibraţiile sunetului şi tonalităţii clasice, romantice, specifice primei jumătăţi din secolul XIX, pare a fi investită cu eleganţa de neegalat a unui virtuoz care trebuie neapărat să exprime ceea ce dansează într-un colaj de excepţie: Les valses de Vienne…

Cultivarea sensibilităţii prin receptarea operei artistice se realizează prin aducerea în conştiinţa celor din jur a unei imaginii cu un impact emoţional puternic care simbolizează o realitate spirituală.

Elementul caracteristic al fragilităţii emoţionale, din perspectiva opţiunilor care guvernează manifestările artistului, constă în originalitatea operei pe care el se simte chemat să o înfăptuiască. Această operă, bazată pe idei şi aspiraţii care nu trebuie să se îndepărteze de regulile alianţei dintre integritate şi nobleţe, îmbină laturile constructive ale lucidităţii şi rigorii ce-l împiedică pe artist să se lase abandonat compromisurilor şi ambiţiilor condamnabile din punct de vedere etic şi social.

Trandafirul spiritualizează tot ce poate să impresioneze sufletul, chiar şi în studiul portretisticii unei epoci mai vechi, păstrând linia clasică, în sensul execuţiei lucrării unui artist care surprinde pe pânză un întreg univers emoţional. De la un dans care întreţine ambiguitatea relaţiilor dintre un pictor şi o balerină, se ajunge la povestea plină de romantism a doi oameni speciali a căror deplinătate artistică se contopeşte cu rodul inspiraţiei şi bucuriei lor: un îngeraş cu bucle blonde şi privire albastră care are nevoie de atracţia unui grad de libertate pentru a-şi revărsa vraja sufletului asupra înţelegerii lumii.

Legând două puncte prin asemănare, printr-un degradé elegant între diferitele nuanțe de roşu-cyclam şi prin suprapuneri de culori complementare cu alb-cenuşiu, artistul creează o reprezentare vizuală semnificativă. Opera lui îşi extrage sevele dintr-o realitate spirituală care evidenţiază sugestivitatea unei sincere confesiuni, prin descrierea unei frumoase etape a vieţii care nu-şi va consuma niciodată expresivitatea, puritatea unei experienţe emoţionante.

Desenul îşi începe activitatea cu schiţarea unei rochii lungi de mătase, copiind într-o oarecare măsură rochia de mireasă a unei tinere actriţe, apoi adăugă nişte pantofiori de cenuşăreasă în culoare contrastantă, îndulcind ţinuta de bal cu delicateţea unui evantai care se deschide. Micuţa domnişoară îşi ia puterea existenţei din sufletele părinţilor, exact ca şi trupurile lor surprinse în mijlocul ringului de dans, pe o pânză vie a cărei condiţie majoră de aderare la artă poate fi definită prin puterea timpului de a staţiona într-un culoar de lumină d'un château de province.

Leadership: Îţi faci din realitate o permanentă căutare a unui mijloc de exprimare a artei numai pentru a desăvârşi în ea opera imperfecta a naturii care măreşte sugestivitatea senzaţiei frapante de „renaştere"?

Trandafirul îmi supraveghează asocierile, amintindu-mi mereu de prietenia noastră ce parcă testează, în fundalul clar al unui dans grav și grațios, caracterul unui act autentic de căutare a desăvârşirii într-o fiinţă care ne încântă privirea şi ne oferă iubirea ei fără a cere nimic în schimb, o fiinţă care ne fascinează la auzul unei compoziţii muzicale ritmate, sugestive.

Educaţia plastică face o punte de armonie între minte-corp și emoții cu ajutorul unei forme de hrănire a sufletului cu un freamăt de sensibilitate şi luciditate care pătrunde, ca un fluid subtil şi înviorător, în coordonatele unei figuri coerente împărţită între cer şi rana unei inimi lovită de ambiţii.

Ambiţia fetiţei, aidoma Evei de Chazelay din romanul lui Dumas, este aceea de a capta un sunet al timpului, de a surprinde, prin artă şi joc, un chip al realității în mare măsură diferit de viaţa socială şi profesională. Ea trebuie să se arate vrednică de a cele trei daruri cu care natura a înzestrat-o: simţul, voinţa şi mişcarea, deci să găsească o modalitate de exprimare a gândurilor, a sentimentelor şi a libertăţii, prin mişcările corpului. Fără teama vreunor consecinţe. Cumva, ea trebuie să renască din propriile constrângeri, specifice timidităţii, complexelor şi fricilor pe care le dezvoltă provocările vârstei ei, trebuie să scape din mâinile unui destin care se arată capricios cu fiinţele plăpânde.

Valsul este felul în care firul vieţii începe să se tensioneze, anunţând abandonarea eului la orice sugestie venită din exterior, dar mărind revelaţia unui destin spiritual care îşi caută identitatea într-o poveste aparte.

Întâi de toate, fetiţei i se dezvoltă curiozitatea inimii, apoi curiozitatea privirii, vrând să-şi exprime prin mişcări simple, prin unduiri elegante ale şoldurilor şi ale braţelor, toate gândurile legănate prin auzul unui vals de Chopin. Calcă podeaua încetişor, desculţă, cu paşi mărunţi şi timizi, dar reinventaţi mereu, într-o atitudine de dăruire vecină cu senzualitatea, imaginându-se într-un spectacol live. Apoi, dintr-o dată, aleargă prin încăpere voioasă la chemarea unei ambiţii nobile, de a străluci în mijlocul reflectoarelor asemenea părinţilor ei, în ziua nunţii lor.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-şi găseşti o oglindire fidelă într-un instantaneu aparte și memorabil, prin modalitatea construirii unei imagini care apare în conştiinţa lumii sub forma aproape definitivă a unei emoţii care reflectă coordonatele unei gândiri stăpânitoare?

Trandafirul îmi duce gândurile mai departe: „şi nu numai că va fi o fată frumoasă, dar va avea şi un suflet bun”. Vorbele lui Dumas se interpun între povestea noastră şi micuţa dansatoare:

Trandafirul este oglindirea fidelă a unui instantaneu aparte și memorabil. El exprimă îndrăzneţ acţiunea unei fiinţe asupra altei fiinţe, irezistibila puterea a celui care creează asupra celui pentru care muzica îi este hrană, medicament, aer, tinzând să se plaseze psihologic şi estetic în legătură cu o experienţă de gingăşie, puritate, ceva de neuitat, staţionând în timp ca imagine de sine a unui visător care şi el s-a prefăcut în vis.

Ceea ce gândeşte unul, ghiceşte celălalt dând la o parte cortina sufletului care, chiar dacă uneori lăsa loc de umbre, întotdeauna lărgeşte orizonturile artistice.

Cine încearcă să deprindă arta spiritului animat de inteligenţa sensibilă, o face numai pentru a recunoaşte în el însuşi opera cea mai de seamă a naturii, prin asumarea unui destin spiritual care se revarsă din sfera viziunii unui artist în cursul vieţii altui artist.

Les Valses De Vienne redă întâlnirea dintre un artist şi aspiraţiile de înalt spre atingerea unei stări de bine, în simţiri şi în gânduri, prin crearea armoniei dintre trup şi suflet, în sensul exprimării senzualităţii şi rafinamentului unei opere de artă într-o ambianţă clasică.

Licoarea otrăvită

Protejează-ţi vulnerabilitatea în faţa constantei de a fi măreţ, fără să permiţi nimănui să se impună definitiv în sfera emoţiilor tale.

Thebes, oraşul celor vii. Faraonul Seti I se reîntoarce la palatul său somptuos de pe fluviul Nil. Dar când intră în uriaşul său dormitor, dă nas în nas cu slujitorii înaltului preot Imhotep, cel mai mare vraci al său. Nu-i lucru curat, îşi spune în sinea lui. Furios înaintează spre balcon. Acolo, lângă o frumoasă statuetă, îl aşteaptă singură Anck-su-namun, soţia sa, care-i zâmbeşte galeş. Îşi dă seama că cineva a atins-o. Iar nimeni în afară de el nu avea voie să se atingă de ea.

Se întoarce brusc. Dintr-o dată, preotul Imhotep, neînfricat şi dârz, îi smulge sabia din teacă. Apoi Anck-su-namun, chemându-şi în ajutor toată puterea, tot curajul inimii, înfige bucuroasă pumnalul în spatele faraonului. Un geamăt greu îi taie acestuia respiraţia, vocea sugrumată părea că nu mai poate să-i răzbată prin gâtlejul înţepenit. Apoi cu o sete de nedescris, cu o ură desăvârşită, Imhotep îi aplică lovitura fatală. S-a dus cu regele. Din el n-a mai rămas decât un simplu „A fost odată".

Leadership: Rămâi loial valorilor care dau semnificaţie şi amploare faptelor ce-ţi dezvăluie măreţia, fără să cedezi impulsului dat de sentimente?

Forţa împotriva forţei. E îngrozitor să fii faraon şi să simţi în sufletul tău, cu o înfiorare vădită, că clipa chinurilor tale a fost hotărâtă: iar ele vor avea loc imediat, şi n-ai cum să te împotriveşti deloc. Unindu-se într-un singur gând, într-o singură voinţă, devotaţi unei singure dorinţe, înaltul preot Imhotep şi iubita sa Anck-su-namun au format o singură putere care l-a dus pe faraon la pierzanie. „Zeul" s-a dovedit a fi mai prejos decât perfecţiunea, împărtăşind aceeaşi soartă cu cea a oamenilor de rând, dar într-un mod violent.

Se pune întrebarea cum a putut oare să se prefacă Anck-su-namun că-i este fidelă faraonului şi că-l iubeşte, şi în tot acest timp să-l înşele cu înaltul preot Imhotep. Fără îndoială isteţimea ei şi subtilitatea cu care a reuşit să-l manipuleze, au fost cele două arme cu care i-a înşelat vigilenţa. Căci faraonul, care cu certitudine a fost cucerit de farmecul ei irezistibil, n-ar fi permis niciodată să fie înşelat. Drept dovadă, atunci când şi-a dat seama de acest lucru, a fost omorât cu cruzime.

Deşi atât de puternic şi curajos, faraonul s-a lăsat înşelat de cea mai puternică pasiune omenească: dragostea, atractia faţă de Anck-su-namun. El ar fi trebuit să cerceteze mai bine cum stau lucrurile şi fie prevăzător, nu să-şi pună toată încrederea în ea. Această mare greşeală a devenit realitate de netăgăduit atunci când şi-a dat seama ce se ascunde în spatele aparenţelor, şi a plătit preţul suprem pentru asta.

Leadership: Poţi să vindeci o rană din iubire fără să o transformi într-o rană de moarte?

„ Dragostea femeii niciodată n-o ştii dacă-i adevărată ", remarca odată dramaturgul spaniol Francisco de Rojas Zorrilla. Şi nu se înşela.

Dacă faraonul ar fi putut citi în sufletul lui Anck-su-namun ca într-o carte deschisă, dacă ar fi putut să desluşească ce se ascunde în spatele aparenţelor, dacă şi-ar fi dat seama mai devreme de firea ei nestatornică şi înşelătoare, atunci lucrurile ar fi stat cu totul altfel. Însă faraonul, prea încrezător în forţele proprii, şi-a clădit întreagă filozofie de viaţă pe ideea că totul se întâmplă numai după cum doreşte el.

Ei bine, lucrurile n-au stat chiar aşa. În final el a fost învins de forţa acestei femei. Căci ea l-a dus la moarte, chiar dacă nu de una singură. Dar ea a fost principala vinovată.

În leadership, înainte de a fi supus amplificării unei trăiri desfăşurată pe o durată mai mare de timp, ar trebui să întâlneşti acea distanţă de siguranţă care te ajută să vezi mai bine ce este "culmea încrederii" în oameni, apropiindu-te mai mult de perspectiva din care priveşte Dumnezeu ceea ce intenţionează să înfăptuiască. O distanţă care să-ţi permită să te opreşti în condiţii de siguranţă chiar dacă inima continuă să bată a jale.

Leadership: Poţi ţine sub control rolul pe care îl joacă ceilalţi în viaţa ta, în momentele când te simţi încrezător într-un joc disputat sub semnul unui realism naiv?

Fiecare conducător are un punct slab. Punctul slab al faraonului a fost Anck-su-namun. Aşa cum Judith, văduva bogată israelită l-a cucerit pe generalul Holofernes - asediatorul - şi i-a tăiat capul în timp ce dormea pentru ca armata lui Nabucodonosor să nu asedieze oraşul Bethulia, aşa cum Jael l-a ucis pe canaanianul Sisera care conducea o armată împotriva izraeliţilor, bătându-i un piron prin tâmple - la fel Anck-su-namun l-a înjunghiat pe faraonul Seti I ca să-şi petreacă restul vieţii alături de înaltul preot Imhotep.

În consecinţă, putem trage o concluzie: conducătorul care se lasă cuprins de sentimente şi e lipsit de perspicacitate, dovedeşte naivitate, având toate şansele să fie minţit, înşelat şi trădat.

Nu orice licoare bună la gust îţi menţine puterea

Dragostea e oarbă. Ea este o licoare hrănitoare, bună la gust, care îţi poate da energie şi vitalitate, deci care îţi poate fi folositoare şi te poate scăpa de tot soiul de rele. Dar, în acelaşi timp, dragostea poate fi o licoare otrăvitoare care te poate face sensibil, vulnerabil la tot soiul de influenţe, la tot ce se întâmplă în jurul tău. Poate fi o băutură fină şi gustoasă care să-ţi zăpăcească minţile, care să-ţi înceţoşeze gândirea şi să te deruteze spiritual, şi în final să te conducă la eşec. Puterile devin slăbiciuni dacă sorbi din licoarea otrăvită.

Leadershipul de nivel inferior este o consecinţă a slăbiciunii de a te vedea tare atunci când puterea îţi hrăneşte emoţiile ascunse.

Concluzie: Orice lider are nevoie de susţinere morală, şi cea mai bună susţinere o poate avea de la persoana care-i este tovarăşă de viaţă şi care îi este alături şi la bine şi la rău. Ea este persoana pe care se poate baza în momentele de restrişte şi care nu va utiliza nicicând „licoarea otrăvită”.

Dar nu trebuie uitat faptul că orice lider are măcar un punct vulnerabil. Iar orice rival poate anihila un lider atacându-l în acest punct.

Protejează-ţi vulnerabilitatea în faţa constantei de "a fi", fără să permiţi nimănui să se impună definitiv în sfera emoţiilor tale.

Liderul poţi fi tu

On Octombrie 15, 2007

Dacă nu este în puterea ta să fii cine vrei să fii, atunci găseşte-ţi puterea să fii altcineva decât ai fi putut să fii.

- Lasă-mă să te privesc. Uitându-mă la tine, am impresia că-mi revăd tinereţea. Ia spune-mi, cu ce te ocupi? Ce-ai făcut atâţia amar de ani? Unde-ai dispărut de nu ne-am întâlnit niciodată? Haide, să vorbim. Te invit în faţa şemineului.

- De ce nu ne-am întâlnit? Pentru că acum şaptesprezece ani când am părăsit Germania, din pricina unui mare proiect nerealizat pe care orgoliul meu refuză să-l spună, şi pentru că, de atunci, reţinut în Paris, legat de un sentiment profund pe care inima mea vrea să-l ascundă, n-am mai plecat din Franţa, decât pentru a ieşi din Europa, acum cinci ani.

Ce-am făcut? răspunse Samuel. Ah ! Dumnezeule, am rămas ceea ce eram. Am neplăcerea să te informez că nu sunt nici rege, nici ambasador. Sunt, ca şi înainte, un biet savant preocupat mai mult de ştiinţa mea decât de averea mea. Am neglijat totul ca să-mi consolidez o poziţie şi nu am progresat cu nimic, în afara dispreţului pentru ceea ce bănuiesc că tu respecţi. În privinţa aceasta, mi-am urmărit ţelul: să-mi amplific forţa şi libertatea morală, să cunosc oamenii şi lucrurile, să ştiu. Medicina sau traducerile şi lucrările ştiinţifice m-au ajutat, cât de cât, să-mi câştig existenţa. Dar cea mai intensă preocupare a mea a fost de a-mi şlefui şi îmbogăţi intelectul. Am studiat, am călătorit, am cercetat. Am adus de acolo taine şi miracole care l-ar fi uimit chiar şi pe tatăl tău, ilustrul chimist şi baron d'Hermelinfeld. Vezi tu, natura este atotştiutoare şi când o interoghezi, îţi răspunde. *

Leadership: În condiţiile în care realitatea poate fi cunoscută prin mijloacele ştiinţei, personalitatea ta se poate întoarce asupra ei însăşi în încercarea de a-şi definitiva un privilegiu mai presus de ştiinţă care să devină expresiv în sine şi prin sine?

Leadershipul nu are subtitrare, ori îl înţelegi ori nu. Aşa cum organismele pluricelulare iau naştere dintr-o singură celulă, celula ou, tot astfel potenţialul tău de lider se va dezvolta din acea legătură singulară care se stabileşte între părţile care te definesc, garantându-ţi dreptul de a te impune în mod hotărât în procesul de schimbare a lucrurilor şi a acţiunilor (pe care le poţi schimba). Asta, spre obţinerea beneficiilor şi fructificarea rezultatelor obţinute pe termen lung.

A deveni lider nu este uşor, ci înseamnă să-ţi modelezi permanent pe tot parcursul vieţii gândirea, comportamentul şi chiar sentimentele aducându-le la "standardele" cele mai înalte ale normalului unanim acceptat. Cu alte cuvinte aspirantul la poziţia de lider trebuie să modeleze materialul brut din care a fost înzestrat la naştere prin educaţie şi autoeducaţie întreaga lui viaţă. Trebuie în primul rând să fie corect cu sine însuşi pentru a putea fi corect cu toţi ceilalţi, un om integru şi un model de integritate. Apoi, el trebuie să plece în căutarea Marii Ştiinţe, şi să îşi facă cunoscută ştiinţa.

A-ţi definitiva un privilegiu mai presus de ştiinţă care să devină expresiv în sine şi prin sine, nu înseamnă să-ţi dai cu părerea când nu ai cu ce produce una, ci înseamnă să-ţi exerciţi aptitudinile aplicându-le în interacţiunea dintre ceea ţi ce se întâmplă şi ceea ce urmează să se întâmple. Ştiinţa nu produce în sine lideri, ci construieşte o ipoteză care testează valabilitatea liderului atunci când ceea ce se întâmplă depinde de privilegiile sale.

Aşa cum nu poţi construi nimic pe nisipuri mişcătoare, tot astfel nu poţi construi nimic fără o structură sau o armătură solidă. Nu poţi aspira să devii un adevărat lider dacă ai "vicii ascunse" de caracter. Un leadership dezvoltat fără această armătură solidă se va dovedi o construcţie şubredă care se va prăbuşi rapid.

Ţi-ai modelat gândirea în aşa fel încât leadershipul tău să fie unanim acceptat în cazul în care ştiinţa pe care ai cercetat-o ţi-a orbit ochii sufletului, determinându-te să-ţi negi mândria de a fi un servitorul umil al realităţii care se află dincolo de experienţă?

Cum poţi să modelezi materialul brut din care este construit "omul"? Cum te impui în procesul de schimbare a lucrurilor? Oamenii îţi respectă experienţa? Devii mult mai productiv graţie influenţei tale? Oamenii recunosc faptul că au devenit mai productivi datorită leadershipului tău?

Construcţia şubredă a leadershipului accentuează ideea de decădere şi perimare a leadershipului, atunci când liderul nu-şi dă osteneala să fie onest, mai ales cu el însuşi, faţă de munca sa, apoi faţă de alţii şi munca lor. Căci oamenii sunt foarte prudenţi şi, în cele din urmă, vor observa felul de a fi a celui care îi conduce. Căci adevărul iese întotdeauna, mai devreme sau mai târziu, la iveală. Şi atunci s-a dus cu leadershipul, mai ales dacă acesta mai mult păgubeşte sau distruge adevăratele temelii pe care trebuie să se sprijine.

Desăvârşeşte-ţi menirea de lider, modelând materialul brut din care este constituită fiinţa ta. Desăvârşeşte-ţi integritatea, dă-ţi osteneala să câştigi inima celorlalţi prin muncă cinstită şi nimic ilegal, şi cât mai mult în interesul celorlalţi oameni, nu doar al tău. Oamenii vor fi bucuroşi să-ţi dea mâna, dacă nu eşti mânjit de rele.

Ajută-i pe oameni să te cunoască şi să te înţeleagă încotro te îndrepţi, fără să te afunzi în mlaştina foarte mare şi adâncă a celor mai necinstite practici, a celor mai puţin nobile valori. Fii un om mare, fii un om de mare caracter, fii gata să fii cinstit chiar şi atunci când eşti constrâns de alţii sau de împrejurări.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi negi propriile convingeri, doar pentru că mai sunt împărtăşite de altcineva la un anumit moment?

Orice relaţii bune dintre oameni şi lider începe cu leadershipul. Iar, aşa cum bine spunea cineva, una dintre cele mai bune căi de cunoaştere a liderului este să-l vezi în afara lumii afacerilor. Deci, în viaţa personală, felul cum se perfecţionează singur. Cum îşi realizează dezvoltarea? Îşi hrăneşte ştiinţa cu "plagiat"? Sau îşi pune mintea la bătaie şi încearcă de unul singur să găsească soluţii? Întreabă-te: "Omul singur îşi face munca, sau munca altora îl face pe om?"

Eşti de-acord că oamenii să contribuie la viziunea şi scopurile tale? Care sunt primele trei lucruri, ascunse, care ar ieşi la iveală despre tine? Eşti un mentor pentru oameni şi îi ajuţi să treacă printr-un proces de dezvoltare în urma căruia să devii tu însuţi un lider mai bun? Cum contribuie leadershipul tău la consolidarea relaţiilor interpersonale? Oamenii îţi sunt loiali şi îţi acordă tot timpul sprijin, pornind de la premisele corecte?

Excelenţa în leadership se obţine greu, iar dacă ai o altă părere te înşeli amarnic. Ca să ajungi în vârful topului în leadership trebuie să urci treptele profesionale obligatorii, să munceşti cu abnegaţie şi pasiune, cu tenacitate şi entuziasm, şi să-ţi iei un angajament faţă de tine însuţi de a nu renunţa, de a nu te lăsa doborât de eşecuri şi greutăţi, şi, în acelaşi timp, de a nu te entuziasma excesiv în faţa reuşitelor, care uneori pot fi efemere.

Leadershipul este progresul pe care îl faci ca să-ţi câştigi acea existenţă care depăşeşte graniţele efemerului, fără să-ţi condiţionezi existenţa la acele experienţe care au nevoie de atenţie.

Liderul poţi fi tu dacă ai înţeles în călătoria vieţii tale ceea ce exprima demult, cu atâta înţelepciune, Alexandre Dumas. "Totul se găseşte în puţin. Copilul este mic, dar include în el omul. Creierul este strâmt, dar adăposteşte gândirea. Ochiul nu este decât un punct, dar îmbrăţişează spaţiul."

Numai un om de mare ştiinţă poate rosti aceste cuvinte.

Liderul supradotat

On Martie 15, 2017

Fii capabil să dai refresh condiţiei tale de muritor, calificându-te în prima finală dintr-o lungă serie de certitudini izvorâte din scormonirea tainelor ţesute în jurul întâmplărilor neaşteptate.

Sunt Gerry Lane, evoluţionist prin intuiţie, chimist prin curiozitatea cu care abordez rezultatele neaşteptate ale experimentelor strict legate de mutaţiile genetice, umanist prin structura morală şi sufletească, având mereu respect pentru tot ceea ce înseamnă ştiinţele exacte. Datorită mie, penetrând cu un rar instinct de cercetător toate ariile pericolelor necunoscute, răul acestei lumi are în faţă un adversar abordabil pe care este obligat să-l învingă pentru a menţine distanţa faţă de un nou capitol al medicinii.

Supravieţuirea, lupta mea împotriva contactării virusului, este prima finală dintr-o lungă serie de certitudini izvorâte din scormonirea tainelor ţesute în jurul întâmplărilor neaşteptate. Partea dificilă este să văd firimiturile ca indicii. Ceea ce cred că am văzut - cel mai brutal aspect al virusului, se poate dovedi a fi tocmai fisura din armură.

Poezia mea aplicată unei medicine defensive, psihologizate, şi totuşi creștină, bazată pe iubirea milostivă a celui aflat în suferință, are un univers genetic propriu, unind mai multe celule şi mai multe afecţiuni într-un eveniment unic cu final unic. Iar condiţia mea de artist în ale găsirii fundamentului oferit de versurile enigmatice ale naturii, căci numai natura are leac pentru orice boală gravă şi pentru orice afecţiune severă, rezidă din viteza cu care se propagă virusul, acest magnific exemplu de creare a unei conexiuni cu cauzele tulburărilor neuro degenerative ale bolii ce afectează celelalte conexiuni ale sistemului nervos central.

Leadership: Concluziile cuvenite din lărgirea orizonturilor tale de cunoaştere pot să transpară în imaginea unei adevărate forţe a naturii, prin asociere cu speranţa de viaţă pe care ţi-o estimează interpretarea pozitivă a unui rol de grea şi aspră răspundere?

Oare din punct de vedere strict legat de capacităţile mele fizice şi intelectuale care e direcţia în care merg dacă nu aş putea explica legătura dintre afecţiunile complexe ale subiecţilor contaminaţi şi boala mortală datorate acestei bacterii înşelătoare, acestui cancer de tip invaziv?

Încă de acum îmi vărs amarul pasiunii mele pentru depistarea erorilor genetice din alternări ale momentelor dureroase şi efectele negative ale fenomenelor naturii, care creează nevoia adâncă de înălţare a şanselor de vieţuire după toate legile aspre ale ştiinţei. Nu voi asista ca martor la sfârşitul lumii, nici nu voi recurge la învinuire, nu voi admite să fiu mesager al celor petrecute. Ci voi juca rolul unui interpret al limbajului semnelor naturii.

A înţelege natura fenomenului înseamnă a-l şi explica. Aş fi tentat să cred că selecţia naturală m-a păstrat pe mine ca un sistem suplimentar de control al longevităţii acestei lumi şi al speranţei de viaţă. Maybe, I am the Legend. Şi, pesemne că rolul de mare răspundere care îmi revine, ca supravieţuitor, ca om de ştiinţă, este acela de a fi eu însumi mai puternic faţă de ceea ce mă poate înrobi: laşitatea de a mă lasă cuprins de menţinerea vie a aparenţelor.

Leadership: Atitudinea ta faţă de ceea ce ai de înfăptuit printr-o fază de forţare a limitelor de competenţă se cere a fi diagnosticată prin vestirea a ceea ce lași în urma ta?

Esenţa unei vieți autentice, prin asumarea conştientă a importanţei păstrării propriei verticalităţi, chiar dacă aceasta presupune o sfidare a ordinii unei lumi bazate pe realităţi secundare, este caracterizată de o predominanţă a emoţiilor de tipul „ voi face tot ce pot pe fondul a ceea ce sunt constrâns să schimb ”.

În natura acestei puteri de asumare a unei poziții clare de responsabilitate se prezintă de fapt structura de concepție a unei megastructuri de credință ce beneficiază de miracolul revelării unui nou sens de a fi şi a unui nou statut în lume.

Marea provocare a cunoaşterii, lăsând deoparte interpretarea diverselor adevăruri ştiinţifice, se poate evalua în măsura în care reușești să protejezi și să extinzi natura a ceea ce te particularizează prin prisma a ceea ce lași în urma ta ca descoperire.

Iar ceea ce lași în urma ta, axându-te pe construirea unei puteri de mare rezonanţă prin propria ta vieţuire, este o reflectare a experienței de a găsi noi modalități de a vesti tuturor „miracolul” unui nou început.

Cea mai avansată cunoaştere, dominată în mare măsură de credinţa în ceva care poate fi formulat printr-un control suplimentar al longevităţii, mai ales dacă se va ajunge la găsirea unui elixir al nemuririi, se poate identifica cu omul care reușește să se transforme dintr-un ostatic al supravieţuirii într-un maestru al supravieţuirii.

Înainte de a-ţi măsura evoluţia în cadrul leadershipului încearcă să supravieţuieşti ambiţiei de a te autodepăşi în faţa unui miracol care sfidează regulile ştiinţei, din care răzbate revelaţia unei realităţi nebănuite.

Liderul supradotat este un model al regândirii condiţiei de muritor într-un cadru de evoluție care conturează „miracolul” supravieţuirii.

Una din trăsăturile specifice leadershipului de nivel înalt este să dai refresh la condiţia ta de muritor printr-o vestire a miracolului supravieţuirii, până ce această condiţie devine un element indispensabil actului de a te releva celorlalți ca o mișcare a gândirii care înnoieşte şi regenerează speranța de viață.

Prezintă-te întregii lumi sub o identitate făurită după propria înfăţişare, lăsându-te condus de raţiunea de a întruni condiţia profunzimii operei tale.

Încercam să-mi clarific poziţia faţă de concepţia cu privire la intervenţia arbitrară a divinului în procesul creator al vieții, în comparație cu cel al compunerii unui univers personal, particular, în care totul era circumscris dimensiunii materiale a esteticii, prin intermediul unui proces de reîncarnare a sufletului în sânul unui organism nou născut. „What is on your mind? / Are your feelings gone?"

Datorită intervenţiei fanteziei, pentru care numai un artist simte adevărată plăcere, am ajuns în cele din urmă să capăt măiestria transformării materiei într-un mai amplul perimetru al viului, în numele regăsirii mele în eternitatea unei iubiri pure, înlănţuită în totalul puterii de atracție cu neputință de definit în cazul dimensiunii empirice a științei. „Time is getting cold / What is going on?"

Dintr-o dată, toate elementele formulei matrice ce calculau mai multe rezultate la parametrii unei entităţi gând-formă, atât de complexe şi infinite încât numai Dumnezeu le-ar înţelege, s-au adunat într-o îmbrățișare frăţească In…the name of love , manifestându-şi apartenența comună la un univers ce le împingea la marginile lui: „Need to see it clear / Life is changing."

Era nevoie să fiu posesorul unei concepţii estetice unitare, proprii şi originale, să realizez o situare istorică a acesteia la inovaţiile momentului în cazul unei densităţi mai mari de sarcină electrică distribuită pe o suprafaţă verticală, care să asigure posibilitatea de determinare raţională a distincţiei şi bunului gust. "Why are you doing things, All the things you do?"

Iar după multe încercări și eşuări, am reușit să-mi contruiesc cu minuţie propriul personaj, la limita dintre incredibil şi verosimil. O figură de stil în cadrul spectacolului plăsmuirii. O formă de energie supusă evoluţiei. O reprezentare umană închipuită în ipostaza unui humanoid. Un câmp de forţe electrice dotat cu calităţi sufleteşti. În sfârşit, el trebuia să reprezinte un simbol al seducţiei desăvârşite exersate virtuos prin experimentarea unor valori de dorinţă, fără de care nu se poate naşte tentaţia unei supremaţii absolute a tinereţii: "Everybody needs somebody to love, to love".

Leadership: Te recunoşti învins de tentaţia spiritului creator de a te regăsi într-o imagine a dedublării care împleteşte virtualul cu realul până la confundare?

Situându-mă la oarece apropiere de triumful mult aşteptat, desăvârşind producţia unei gene transformată cu ajutorul legilor fundamentale ale geneticii obţinute de Mendel, am avut privilegiul, să spunem, de a privi totul ca pe un tablou, mişcător prin ceea ce oferă văzului, simţindu-mă la fel de implicat afectiv întocmai ca artiştii ce îşi găsesc muza în propria lor creaţie.

Ideea de a construi un humanoid, cu toată grija extraordinară pe care şi-o pune un genetician în conducerea experienţelor, cântărind produsul format din utilizarea materialului proteic elastic şi energia rezultată din arderea materiei solide, era generată de tendinţa către unitatea dintre idee şi imagine. Devenind manifestări ale unui nou tip de voinţă, concretizată într-o desăvârşire a creaţiei, cu proiectarea omului în lumea pe care Dumnezeu i-a pregătit-o, dar nu i-a putut-o oferi până atunci: "Life will never be the same".

Opera de artă este o comparaţie între ficţiunea care pune un accent nefiresc de mare pe factorul abstract şi punctul de vedere al vieţii reale în care elementele de conştient şi afinităţile instinctive sunt întreţesute în relaţii de putere particulare.

Actul de Creaţie este o luptă interioară din care răzbat înstrăinarea omului de identitatea sa și ataşamentul de un model de lume virtuală bazat pe prototipul experimental al unei împliniri care nu e materială, ci spirituală.

Frumosul şi sublimul, la intersecţia dintre genetică, biochimie şi fizică, unde indicatorul de avertizare îl constituie doar garanţia artei, constituiau cauza apariţiei personajului legat indisolubil de creatorul său.

Pentru a înţelege mai bine ecuaţia unei existenţe împlinite, ele trebuiau cuprinse între focarul de imagine care nu provoacă orbirea, împietrirea totală a sufletului, iluzia unei măreţii vremelnice. Şi focarul unei corespondenţe cu divinul din care transpar viziunea unei mecanicități ce funcţionează în interiorul persoanei, viziunea unei noi condiţii de etern căutător a omului de geniu şi viziunea unei ordini strict raţionale a universului.

Ce anume răzbate din multitudinea de efecte ale tensiunilor de atingere dintre cele două dominanţe estetice, altceva decât o experienţă de dedublare? Cum bine remarca cineva pe net: "Robotul este o metaforă care desemnează trupul, iar Iubirea este ceea ce însufleţeşte trupul." Nu-i de mirare că destinul meu şi cel al creaţiei mele căpătau o temelie comună ce anunţa includerea mea în rândul unei lumi fantastice.

Dedublarea în leadership este la fel de remarcabilă ca actul de creație: privește concesia acordată artistului de a se prezenta întregii lumi sub o identitate făurită după propria înfăţişare, dar lăsându-se condus de raţiunea de a întruni condiţia profunzimii operei sale.

Iată-mă așa cum am devenit: artist, genetician, biochimist, fizician, inginer și arhitect, creând o nouă formă de viață în lumea informaţiei și a invenţiilor. Încearcă acum să ți-l imaginezi pe Dumnezeu. Oare nu este el egalul meu?

Existența lui Dumnezeu este mecanismul intim al actului de creație din care se naște iubirea faţă de extinderea fiinţei dincolo de marginile ei.

Life este pretenţia unui căutător al sensului vieţii de a se ridica la nivelul artistului excepţional. Ea se vădeşte a fi întemeiată atunci când încercările căutătorului de a se uni cu propria lui natură dumnezeiască, pentru a forma o adevărată fiinţă divino-umană, au ca finalitate o minune a creaţiei.

Light of Darkness

On Martie 25, 2016

Nu-ți dori niciodată să pleci, când ai de ce să rămâi.

Sunt un om mort întru reproşul şi lauda a ceea ce scriu, fiindcă de fiecare dată când mă exprim, cu pasiune, cu zel, cu poftă de noutate, ca și când aş rămâne singur în sfera unei ştiinţe alternative, când caut o idee prin întrepătrunderea cu un punct de vedere atotcuprinzător, simt că mă prăbuşesc în deriva unei crize, într-un abis fără sfârşit.

Asemenea unei inscripţii de pe scoarţa unui copac care creşte odată cu arborele, îmi amplific nefiresc de mult răbdarea de a însera în articole tot ceea ce, din punctul de vedere al unui realism extins, înţeles că imitare a trecerii mele prin timpul acestei lumi, trebuie să fie considerat semnificativ pentru cititori. Teama de a nu fi înţeles, este o moarte chinuitoare.

Se va păstra oare în mine, îndeajuns de mult, până în timpul unei deplasări spre alte situaţii care înlocuiesc realitatea, spre alte zone ale înţelegerii, capacitatea de a sluji, aşa cum se cuvine, unui stăpân credincios - această plăcere aparte în depanarea gândurilor, întărindu-mi credinţa că sunt deasupra lucrurilor - tu, umbră uriaşă, care-mi adresezi întrebările şi tot tu îmi furnizezi răspunsurile?

Şi tot mereu, mintea îmi livrează un impuls, în lumina unui apus parcă ireal: "Omul niciodată nu trebuie să plece, când are de ce să rămână."

Leadership: Îţi asumi consecințele practicării unei estetici a reflectării realităţii care te obligă la contrariu, ca expresie a năzuinţei tale de sincronizare cu trăirile cele mai adânci în contextul prelucrării materialului de prezentare al unei noi perspective de autocaracterizare?

Scormonind uşor într-un punct care se găseşte la o distanţă infinită de un calcul raţional diferenţial, pot să deduc expresia potenţialului datorat unei sarcini livreşti distribuite faţă de un alt punct, apărut clar în minte şi în suflet, apropiat chibzuinţei de a da viaţă unei idei care face înconjurul lumii.

Sunt propriul judecător, alături de rânduiala pe care o dau cuvintele pline de sens, calea spre putere, asemenea unui vârf de săgeată străpungând infinitul, sau precum lama de cuțit ce taie-n carne vie. Responsabil, îmi dau o sentinţă ce nu poate fi nici atenuată, nici agravată de vreo percepţie eronată a profunzimii infinite, ca atribut al realităţii transcendente.

Sunt mort în raport cu duritatea cu care îmi aleg modul de exprimare şi expresiile, prin contact cu posibilitatea de a fi perceput drept un punct fără dimensiuni ori drept o infinitate de goluri mici. Singura realitate care mă obligă la contrariu, ca un soi de interpretare greşită a experienţei de viaţă care mă roade pe dinăuntru şi ma consumă aproape total, este dată de tendinţa autojustificativă de a mă complace într-o stare de reflecţie tot mai evident şi mai asumat filosofică, încercând totodată a mă însenina printr-o formă de expresie artistică.

Cititorii mă privesc de multă vreme cu suspiciune şi se întreabă cel fel de lucruri se petrec în mintea mea, oare ce ascunde fiecare din colţurile ei, dacă nu altceva decât îngrozitoarea boală de a zdruncina adevărurile unei ştiinţe neînchipuit de stranii, la originea dintre "acolo unde ştii că nu va ajunge nimeni" şi "acolo unde totul se pierde".

O aventură destul de riscantă, aş zice, pe ritmurile Light of Darkness, din care răzbate mesajul triumfător, plin substanţă: „ He discovered the cure, this is his legend .”

În acest caz, materialului de prezentare al unei noi perspective de autocaracterizare, ca atribut al stărilor emoţionale care afectează decizia de a schimba atitudini în faţa vieţii, cuprinde iscusita punere în prim plan a ceea ce trebuie să fie experimentat într-o lume plină de angoase, faţă de ceea ce trebuie să fie învăţat ca o investiţie pentru viitor.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să excluzi golul din adâncul sufletului tău prin blurarea unei imagini într-o zonă de selecţie a propriilor valori, atitudini şi comportamente, încât să surprinzi valabilitatea unei concepţii “nobile" asupra virtuţii care îţi procură împlinirea?

Încă din 2006, când am luat scrisul în serios am fost cuprins de o teamă inexplicabilă - sub efectul unei forțe interne obsesionale, ameninţat de nelinişte, de culpabilitate, un fel de câmp de circulaţie conservativă, în acord cu relaţia dintre cuvinte şi înţelesurile lor. Ca şi când întregul lor ar fi fost un obiect făcător de minuni, care, odată ajuns pe mâini greşite, s-ar fi putut transforma într-un pericol.

Teama izvorăşte din neştiinţa modului cum îmi sunt interpretate cuvintele. O să încerc un descântec, o pastilă anti dureri de cap, pentru a mă proteja de ea, în semn de eliberare şi distanţare, prin recitarea unui pasaj regăsit în romanul "Dervişul şi Moartea" de Mesa Selimovic:

"N-am să te las să mă tulburi, nălucă. Rămâi mereu aici între aceste stânci, ca luna, ca râul acesta, ca semiluna în minaret, ca o vedenie luminoasă. Ai umplut locul acesta cu făptura ta, ca pe un aşternut l-ai îmbibat cu parfumul tău înşelător şi mortal. Am să plec în lume, în alte ţinuturi, acolo unde nu eşti, nici chipul tău n-o să-l mai port în mine."

Adesea, mi se pare că sunt asemenea unui proiect artistic ce-şi propune abordarea prin mijloacele artei a esenţei manifestării propriilor intenţii, lansându-mă în urmărirea dorinţei de a ajunge la o nouă expresie a identificării mele cu o anumită constantă care produce rezultate de fiecare dată. Aceasta admite ca potențial de referinţă interacțiunea dintre ceea ce cred că știu despre mine și ceea ce cred că merit să trăiesc prin ceea ce transmit.

Curajul de a folosi estetica - cea mai profundă expresie a creativităţii într-un sens mai larg, și astfel de a o îmbogăți sau de a o sărăci prin trăirile cele mai adânci, este de fapt acea voce neliniștită căreia uneori îți este greu să-i reziști, care îți spune la sfârșitul zilei: „Trăiește” sau „Mori”. Într-un sens concret, continuă să faci progrese sau lasă-te păgubaş.

Singura concepţie “nobilă" asupra virtuţii care îmi procură împlinirea poate fi exprimată astfel: “Asumă-ți riscul de a te confrunta cu trăirile tale, mai ales cu punctele de vedere expuse în opera ta, încât să diminuezi efectul care poate genera, simultan, o anumită forţă, ca şi o slăbiciune teribilă".

Blurarea unei imagini într-o zonă de selecţie a propriilor valori, atitudini şi comportamente, vizează un minim de privacy în condiţiile unei exteriorizări de personalitate care te obligă la sinceritate în dezvăluirea unor sensuri şi motivaţii ascunse care nu-ţi îngăduie să te regăseşti în scenariul realităţii pe care ţi-o doreşti.

Light of Darkness este curajul de a-ți învinge teama de a nu fi nivelul aşteptărilor altora, atribuindu-i valoarea de criteriu de existență a creației pe care o produci, în funcție de distanţarea sau apropierea de acel punct în care te întrebi ce anume te leagă de viață.

Iar întotdeauna curajul îl îndeamnă pe omul înzestrat cu multe virtuți: „Nu-ți dori niciodată să pleci, când ai de ce să rămâi.”

Lily Was Here

On Iunie 29, 2017

Asigură-ţi integrarea într-un mister care-ţi testează limitele între ceea ce te reprezintă ca artist și ceea te înalţă la cer.

Mă aflam în prezenţa unei noi diversiuni atipice, lansată de o aprofundare a sensului noţiunii de "afectare" în faţa absolutului în materie de întruchipare a perfecţiunii. Cumva, mi se părea că trăiesc într-un dispreţ vădit faţă de întunericul fără spaţiu şi fără timp, nefavorabil evadării personale din iadul unei utopii progresive. Iar ceva era în stare să mă energizeze cu asigurarea posibilităţii de revelare a misterului, mereu transformându-se în altul, intrând în obiectivul cunoaşterii şi oferindu-mi preţuire şi nemurire.

Emoţia pe care o resimţeam, ca un ecou de gong, pe care încercam s-o comunic în faţa misterului, se alimenta prin intermediul unei ficţiuni verosimile. Ca și când ar fi trebuit să descopăr faţa unui Dumnezeu mai adânc, aflat tot timpul în mine, testându-mi capacitatea deosebită de a realiza ideea și simţământul nu direct, prin faptă, ci printr-o redare poetică.

Forța care te inspiră este un triumf asupra mândriei de a te recunoaşte mulțumit de tine ca aparţinând unui mister mai înalt pe care nimeni nu este în stare să-l rezolve cu adevărat. Precum ascultarea unei muzici liniştitoare venite de dincolo de tine, din sfere necunoscute, care te înalţă şi te purifică în acelaşi timp.

Totuşi, pot să vă ofer măcar o impresie a ceea ce mă făcea mai creativ, alături de magnifica dovadă a unei autentice simţiri, ca fiind cea mai nouă teorie a misterului în planul fanteziei pe care o aveam atunci, cel mai intens suflu de viaţă care mă împingea tot mai mult înspre nemăsurat.

Şi o aveam nu de la un înfăptuitor de lumi care contribuie la conturarea unui spațiu misterios, nu de la un filozof al artei, nu de la un teoretician al simbolismului sau de la vreun mare critic de direcţie în prelungirea axului unei întregi existenţe. Ci de la o notă de originalitate, de la o operă de mare rafinament artistic, transpusă într-o notă de nebunie asumată, în care totul era posibil, chiar dacă ecoul se anunţa unul extrem de încins.

Leadership: Ai mai avea revelaţia unei noi identităţi dacă ai conştientiza că ceea ce te delimitează și te defineşte depinde în mare parte de ceea ce se găseşte în caracterul fragmentar al momentului?

Această stare plină de graţie, de înălţare, şi ambiţia de a avansa în această direcţie, veneau de la o combinaţie de saxofon şi chitară acustică, pe ritmurile unor versuri oarbe ce puteau fi înţelese numai prin raportare la un soi de zbor peste acoperişul lumii, la un strop de fericire pe aripile vântului sau la un divin care se autoexilează în lumea fizică. Sub o singură denumire "Lily Was Here".

Era tot ceea ce mă emoţiona în plan personal, precum sublimul unei forţe căreia nu îi poţi decât admira măreţia, dinspre care poţi simți veşnic o ciudată chemare cu acea luciditate care te face să te întrebi: cine ești? Completată de simţul artistului cu acel caracter fragmentar al momentului surprins între o călătorie memorabilă în timp și corolarul unei raţiuni abstracte cu posibilitate de transpunere în plan real.

Era expresia ritmică a nevoii de a mă situa la polul opus al existenţei imediate, pe refrenul adâncirii în mrejele seducătoare ale poftei de a gusta din gloria unui moment de genialitate, după care implicit apare dependenţa de un extaz infinit. Reflectându-se în felul cum un artist contopeşte şi prelucrează laturile diverse şi contradictorii ale realităţii în modul propriu de receptare generală a lumii.

O aveam în suflet, în deplinătatea unei libertăţi de spirit fermecătoare, cu un început şi parcă fără sfârşit, într-un replay continuu, deseori de neînţeles pentru gândirea logică, dezvăluindu-se doar privirilor inspirate ale artistului care-şi trasează noi perspective în funcţie de impulsul primit de la Univers. Era ambrozia pe care o beau doar zeii.

Leadership: Poți să-ţi vezi propria imagine oglindită în altcineva faţă de tot ceea ce te ridică într-o clipă la înălțimi nebănuite anterior?

Vechii cabalişti, vrând să-i dea lui Dumnezeu un merit în plus, spuneau că lumea a fost creată din dragoste. Însă pe ritmurile unor înălţimi de sunete auzite numai de EL, în variaţiunile pe tema relaţiei dintre delicateţea unei arii intense şi expresive, şi bogăţia creativă a improvizaţiilor.

Ori această voce universală care reînnoieşte înflăcărarea unei îndatoriri exagerate de a decide mişcările timpului pe lungimea de undă a sensibilităţii, a inteligenţei, a imaginaţiei şi purităţii, chiar dacă i-ai măsura intensitatea, tot ai mai avea destul de pătruns până în adâncul ei ca să-i recunoşti desăvârşirea.

Desăvârşirea este realitatea pe care ți-o ataşezi din tolba unei imaginaţii fără sfârșit ale cărei săgeți nu trebuie să-ţi rănească mândria de a reuși integrarea într-un mister care-ţi testează limitele între ceea ce te reprezintă ca artist și ceea te înalţă la cer. Pe această linie, identitatea mea părea mai degrabă o însuşire a unei voci care făcea posibilă auzirea melodiei universului, integrată în gama efectului de reverberaţie, sau a unui delay nesfârşit, ca o odisee a rememorării unei existenţe dedicate comuniunii dintre culturi şi mentalităţi, dincolo de timp şi prejudecăţi.

Ştiam din prima clipă când am urcat pe treptele scării spiralate ce duceau spre înălţimea sunetului şi ritmului ei seducător, ameţitor şi nemuritor, căutând în infinitul spaţiului din mine înţelesurile înrădăcinate de la începuturile lumii până în prezent, că-mi pot pierde orientarea. Mă îndrăgostisem de plămada vie a unei sensibilităţi adânci din ingeniozitatea unei creaţii pure, la fel cum Pygmalion s-a îndrăgostit de o statuie de marmură. Diferenţa constă în semnalul de înviorare și în mesajul pe care fiecare din ele îl amplifică eventual.

Şi ori de câte ori simt că vreau să mut munţii din loc, când încep să mă cufund într-un vis etern asemenea păsării care se roteşte, apoi se înalţă sus, desfăcându-şi puternicele aripi deasupra lumii, tot de atâtea ori inima, plină de misterul pe care numai Dumnezeu îl emană din prea plinul universului, se simte datoare să-mi răspundă pe notele unei arii pline de farmec: „Lily Was Here".

A-ţi vedea propria imagine oglindită în altcineva mai măreţ decât tine înseamnă să accesezi acea intensitate a sensibilităţii care te motivează să vezi în propria ta viaţă cum se reflectă o temă, o idee, o perspectivă care subliniază asocierea cu vocea universală a lui Dumnezeu.

Lily Was Here este momentul forțelor de inspiraţie ce se poate determina cu ajutorul expresiei: vis + simţire = artă , în practică fiind posibil de aplicat numai dacă adevărata lume a infinitului din tine este creaţia unui mare artist, Dumnezeu.

Limbajul mobilizator al leadershipului

On Martie 07, 2009

Orientează-ţi demersurile spre „o zonă cheie de rezistenţă" care să fie în măsură să te motiveze şi să-şi pună în valoare potenţialul.

Napoleon Bonaparte (1769-1821) este unul dintre cei mai mari conducători militari din toate timpurile. Şi-a depăşit condiţia militară şi a devenit împărat al Franţei, totodată a devenit cel mai puternic conducător din Europa. Dar n-ar fi putut niciodată să ajungă la un nivel înalt de leadership, n-ar fi reuşit niciodată să urce treptele ierarhice dacă nu s-ar fi hotărât să fie un lider cu un rol bine determinat în circumstanţele date.

El a făcut dovada măiestriei sale de a conduce prin inteligenţa sa tactica şi prin modul său carismatic de a interacţiona cu oamenii încă de pe vremea când era un simplu caporal. Porecla de „Micul caporal" (Napoleon avea doar 1,65 m înălţime) transformându-se într-un apelativ de simpatie şi admiraţie a soldaţilor faţă de geniul militar. Era posesorul unei minţi lucide şi penetrante, al unei imense puteri de concentrare şi al unei energii extraordinare, îi era foarte uşor să-şi impună punctul de vedere. Iar cumpătarea, moderaţia şi un liberalism social i-au întărit şansele la promovare.

Leadership: Sensul profund pe care îl atribui eroului din tine este legat de ceea ce surprinzi în timp ce totul trece, gândind şi făcând planuri prin prisma efectelor pe care le are mesajul tău asupra celorlalţi oameni?

Ca să ai succes trebuie să câştigi respectul oamenilor. Poţi exercita o puternică înrâurire asupra lor în funcţie de poziţia pe care te plasezi în categoria persoanelor cu grad crescut de influenţă, cu capacitate mare de convingere. Puterea ta de influenţă face parte din structura cea mai intimă a leadershipului tău care îţi pune în evidenţă culoarea personală a propriului tău Sine, mai ales trăsăturile „sculptate" cu profesionalism în propria ta persoana.

Aşa cum un pictor dozează culoarea cu mai multa intensitate, fără a ştirbi câtuşi de puţin perspectiva în care se situează componentele – tot aşa şi personalitatea ta, trebuie s-o dozezi cu multă intuiţie, diplomaţie şi tact, cu multă ambiţie, cu simţ de convingere, cu mult echilibru, fără să te îndepărtezi de realitatea concretă pe care împărţi cu ceilalţi şi fără să ştirbeşti câtuşi de puţin impresia de continuitate în felul în care te raportezi la ei, la aşteptările lor, la ceea ce poţi face tu pentru a-i uni în jurul unui scop comun care să-ţi asigure recunoaşterea superiorităţii.

Totul trece, dar lasă urme. Totul trece, dar nu totul se uită. Mesajul pe care ni l-a transmis Napoleon după ce-a ajuns la putere s-ar putea formula astfel: "Nu te lăsa condus de alţii, ci lasă-te condus numai de raţiune." Ceea ce vei deveni depinde de oportunităţile pe care situaţiile complicate ţi le oferă, încât să treci peste ceea ce te ţine în loc şi să chemi în ajutor acea simţire aparte a fiinţei netrucată de efectele civilizaţiei moderne. Mai trebuie luată în calcul şi acea simţire a faptului că te afli înaintea Domnului.

Sensul profund pe care îl atribui eroului din tine este legat de ceea ce surprinzi în timp ce totul trece, gândind şi făcând planuri prin prisma efectelor pe care le are mesajul tau asupra celorlalţi oameni. Deci încearcă să observi lucrurile în integritatea, unicitatea şi dinamica lor. Asta valorează mai mult decât imaginea pe care mintea ta o construieşte despre sine şi despre realitate.

Leadership: Ar trebui să te bazezi pe o abordare prin care eşti pus în faţa propriilor tale percepţii despre limitele tale, despre ce crezi că e posibil să obţii şi ce nu într-o situaţie în care trebuie să alegi între stimulul care te determină să acţionezi şi vulnerabilităţile la care vei fi expus?

Napoleon a ştiut să găsească o măsură justă, pe axa incoruptibilă şi bine determinată a personalităţii sale, pentru a făuri o forma de leadership reprezentativ – încă de pe vremea când era un simplu caporal. Şi tu trebuie să adopţi, în mod deplin şi definitiv o totală schimbare, o totală reînnoire a personalităţii tale ca să te diferenţiezi de ceilalţi – printr-o mentalitate sănătoasă şi un punct de vedere bine exprimat, care să prezinte valabilitate şi să fie acceptat.

Încercarea ta de a te raporta la ceilalţi e ca şi cum te-ai angaja pe un drum abia explorat de tine, dar pe care trebuie să-l străbaţi până la capăt, păşind pe el cu o siguranţă desăvârşită. Drumul pe care s-a angajat Napoleon la începutul carierei sale a fost unul aproape necunoscut, dar stabilindu-şi priorităţile şi modul de acţiune spre „o zonă cheie de rezistenţă" în măsură să-l motiveze şi să-i pună în valoare potenţialul, o zonă în care să predomine eficienţa şi rezultatele deosebite ale leadershipului său, a devenit ceea ce istoria aminteşte mereu: un mare conducător.

Este vorba, aşadar, în primul rând de o diferenţă de "conţinut" a personalităţii, de o diferenţă de mesaj pe care îl transmiţi prin intermediul leadershipului tău, apoi este vorba de acea disponibilitate de a-ţi cultiva acele capacităţi, puncte de vedere şi atitudini care sunt căutate de ceilalţi.

A fi un lider înseamnă să fii apreciat pentru întorsătura lucrurilor, înseamnă să ai conştiinţa directă a celor nevăzute, a celor trecute şi a celor viitoare, înainte să te ancorezi la realitatea lumii pe care ţi-a pregătit-o Dumnezeu.

Limbajul mobilizator al leadershipului scoate în evidenţă priceperea ta de a te face cunoscut prin intensitatea cu care acţionezi, din timp, pentru a-ţi asigura reuşita. Rolul hotărâtor în alegerea ta, ca lider, îl are modul în care îţi foloseşti cel mai bine potenţialul, modul în care îţi dezvolţi imaginea de sine şi valoarea personală - în aşa fel încât să răspunzi aşteptărilor oamenilor. Joacă-ţi rolul pe care l-ai acceptat liber şi neconstrâns de nimeni, pentru a străluci asemenea unui actor datorită căruia reprezentaţia capătă calificativul excelent şi impresionează publicul într-un fel deosebit şi memorabil.

Concluzie: În leadership, dacă intenţionezi să obţii succesul mult dorit, pregăteşte-te din timp, autodisciplinează-te şi nu te abate de la drumul şi scopul propus. Folosind un „limbaj interior" mobilizator, dar stabilit într-o „zonă cheie de rezistenţă" la oscilaţii emoţionale mai ales printr-o disciplinare permanentă, vei câştiga respectul şi aplauzele la scena deschisă.

Limbajul Secret al Leadershipului (II)

On Februarie 18, 2011

Obişnuieşte-ţi sufletul cu conştiinţa prezenţei ascunsului, învăţându-l să cunoască realitatea invizibilă după traversarea lucrurilor vizibile.

Ce transformare ! Îţi aminteşti finalul filmului " Pretty woman (1990) "? Atitudinea managerului s-a schimbat dupa ce Vivian si-a avansat transformarea de la o atitudine de prostituata la o atitudine de Lady. De data aceasta exprima mulţumire şi mândrie, fiind pătruns de acea admiraţie sinceră şi totală faţă de Vivian, găsind în ea una din persoanele cele mai interesante dintre toate pe care le-a cunoscut vreodată.

Managerul îi sărută mâna cu acea prudenţă delicată cu care atingi ceva gingaş şi privind-o în ochi plin de admiraţie sinceră, i se adresează cu voce caldă, pe un ton blând şi chiar tandru, şi cu o urmă de părere de rău în suflet:

- Vivian, a fost o plăcere să te cunosc. Vino şi vizitează-ne câteodată. Şi, mai mult decât atât, îi pune şi limuzina hotelului la dispoziţie s-o ducă oriunde vrea ea.

Aşa cum biserica are datoria să le mântuiască oamenilor sufletul, tot aşa leadershipul de calitate are menirea să-i transforme pe lideri în oameni mai buni. Calea cea mai sigură şi cea mai eficientă de a-i determina pe ceilalţi să nu te mai considere o persoană cu autoritate şi neprietenoasă este să te exprimi în acord cu propriile lor sentimente. Lăsându-i să se acomodeze cu prezenţa ta, cu leadershipul tău, mulţi dintre ei îşi vor schimba atitudinea si mentalitatea.

Leadership: Îndrăzneşti să dai o nouă dimensiune conceptului de "Calitate" prin originalitatea de a-ţi exprima poziţia faţă de mijloacele revelatoare de producere a expresiei numită "Valoare de resetare"?

Până la urmă managerul s-a îndrăgostit de ea. Toate la el afişau o expresie de fericire, atât de desăvârşită, atât de pură, fiind profund încântat că a cunoscut-o. Într-un fel chiar i-a părut rău că nu a comunicat mai mult cu ea pe timpul şederii ei acolo.

Managerul a perceput adevărata esenţă a tot ce exista bun în Vivian, a aflat adevăratele ei dorinţe. Şi-a dat seama ce fel de persoană era ea, care era firea ei adevărată, care erau aspiraţiile ei, a intuit care erau intenţiile ei – acelea de a-şi schimba traiul, şi astfel a ajuns să-şi reconsidere atitudinea faţă de ea. A îndrăgit-o mai mult decât pe oricare client.

Cel mai bun lucru pe care îl poţi face pentru leadershipul tău este să-l încarci cu sentiment. Ai tendinţa să-i ţii la distanţă pe toţi cei cu care interacţionezi? Dacă da, atunci rişti să fii rănit în orgoliul propriu, la fel ca managerul hotelului.

Dacă oamenii primesc din partea ta un anumit gen de acceptare, ei îţi vor acorda un pic mai multă încredere. Fii deschis la oferta lor de a înlătura întunericul dens din sufletul tău, şi astfel vei fi scutit de multe încurcături şi neînţelegeri.

Calitatea pe care doreşti s-o aibă un om este echivalentă cu valoarea pe care ţi-o dai tu în condiţiile unei forme de revelare a unor fragmente de sinceritate pură, acele grăunțe de realitate care dezvăluie sursa inconștientă a gândurilor altfel exprimate cu generozitate.

Valoarea de resetare a profilului unui om, numai în măsura în care afli în ce limite este posibilă influenţarea lui prin sugestie şi în ce măsură pot fi potenţate sugestiile care exercită influenţe negative, coincide cu încercările sale de a trece de limitele impuse de stereotipurile de "tânăr rebel" (tributar al unei gândiri materialiste ce are în centrul ei trăirea în mijlocul lumii, a întregului).

Leadership: Dozezi cu grijă factorii favorizanți ai apariției situațiilor-sugestie şi ai inducerii răspunsului sugerat?

Pentru a ieşi din situaţiile ambigue, când nu ţi se dă să afli nimic despre cele ascunse ale omului pe care-l ai în faţa ta, trebuie să optezi de multe ori pentru alternative de moment care nu satisfac exigenţele raportării la un sistem consistent de referinţe. O astfel de altenativă are obiectiv identificarea corectă a potrivirii dintre profilul omului și atribuțiile sale, dintre empatie si obiectivitate, sau dintre contextul lui de viaţă şi contextul lui de performare.

De exemplu, analizând activitatea şi atitudinea unui om din perspectiva experienţei personale, ceea ce poate să favorizeze apariția unei nevoi nesatisfăcute de autoritate, vom constata că acel ascuns nu are nimic rău în sine, dar reclamă o anumită dispoziție sufletească și mentală care facilitează un anumit tip de comunicare realizat prin gesturi, expresii faciale, obiceiuri, reacţii, replici, tendinţe, etc.

Detaliul ascuns pe care nimeni nu-l observă din prima la un om, având în vedere că necesita o analiză aprofundată a particularităților de temperament, caracter, cultură, vârstă, etc, se poate reconstitui din consumul lui de frustrări sau de favoruri. Ce anume îţi cere el aşa încât tu să nu-i desconsideri mândria, opiniile, valorile sau nevoile? Ce anume eşti capabil să-I oferi fără ca el să-şi dorească vreodată mai mult?

Factorii favorizanți ai apariției situațiilor-sugestie, în care apelezi la un comportament de enunţare apropiat de propunere, asumându-ţi o iniţiativă, un sfat, o observaţie, sunt reprezentaţi de modul de raportare a individului la experienţele trăite prin bucurii, nu prin necazuri.

În timp ce inducerea unui răspuns sugerat, ca expresie de impact asupra psihicului uman, depinde de cât de interesat a fost individul în a-şi cunoaşte rostul şi rolul vieţii. Acest răspuns echivalează de fapt cu o recunoaştere a eşecului pe plan sentimental / social, sau cu o recunoaştere a măreţiei de a fi păstrat în suflet doar ceea ce a fost frumos şi demn de preţuit.

Omul trebuie examinat din perspectiva consideraţiilor conform cărora cu cât raportul dintre rostul pe care şi-l conferă vieţii şi rolul pe care şi-l asumă în relaţia cu ceilalţi este mai realist, cu atât imaginea despre sine este mai clară.

Limbajul secret al leadershipului desemnează maniera în care reacţionezi la sentimentele şi nevoile celorlalţi, la tot ceea ce se întâmplă în jurul tău şi la modul în care te raportezi la ceilalţi.

Exprimă-ţi pozitivismul şi încrederea faţă de toată lumea. Foloseşte o manieră personală în care să te dezvălui oamenilor - prin felul în care comunici cu ei şi prin felul în care te raportezi la nevoile şi trăirile lor. Limbajul secret al leadershipului reflectă preocuparea ta pentru motivaţiile celor din jurul tău.

Felul în care îi percepi pe oameni, felul în care îi accepţi în preajma ta, felul în care îi “alegi”, felul în care le vorbeşti, toate acestea stabilesc dimensiunea leadershipului tău. Vei putea să te diferenţiezi de ceilalţi lideri doar dacă vei învăţa să-i asculţi pe oameni şi dacă vei lăsa timpul să-i schimbe.

Concluzie: Ca lider, trebuie să cunoşti sentimentele oamenilor, nevoile şi aspiraţiile lor. De aceea trebuie să fii apropiat lor şi alături de ei mai ales în momentele critice, şi să le dai posibilitatea să se schimbe.

Evaluează corect sentimentele celorlalţi oameni, pentru ca dimensiunea leadershipului tău să se dezvolte.

Limbajul Secret al Leadershipului (I)

On Februarie 18, 2011

Evaluează corect sentimentele celorlalţi oameni pentru ca dimensiunea leadershipului tău să se dezvolte.

Primul pas în direcţia cea mai favorabilă leadershipului este să-ţi reconsideri atitudinea şi părerea faţă de ceilalţi oameni. Lăsând timpul să treacă, cu siguranţă îţi vei forma o cu totul altă imagine despre cei ce te înconjoară. Am sa fac din nou referire la filmul " Pretty woman " pentru a scoate mai bine in evidenţă acest lucru.

Hotelul Regent Beverly Wilshire. La un moment dat, între managerul Barney Thompson si Vivian Ward, dama de companie a controversatului om de afaceri, Edward Lewis, are loc o discuţie. În ceea ce-l privea pe manager, era foarte hotărât să o expulzeze din hotel cât mai repede pe Vivian, care prin statutul ei de prostituată putea să afecteze reputaţia hotelului.

Fiind un om de bun simţ, cu un caracter pe măsură, managerul îi spune lui Vivian într-un mod subtil, dar folosind un ton milităresc, că va face o excepţie de la regulă şi o va accepta în hotelul său, datorită prezenţei domnului Lewis care era un client important. Însă, atunci când domnul Lewis va pleca, ea nu va mai avea ce căuta vreodată acolo.

Având statutul unui om care nu era recunoscut în acea lume "sofisticată" a luxului şi a bogăţiei, Vivian a încuviinţat din cap, întristată că din nou cineva o tratase cu dispreţ. Fusese avertizată ! Bine avertizată ! Trebuia să se supună.

Pronosticurile nu s-au adeverit. Şederea lui Vivian timp de o săptămână în acel hotel de lux nu a provocat niciun incident neplăcut, nicio controversă, niciun fel de inconvenient. Din contra, a însemnat o mare lovitură dată în special mândriei şi răcelii managerului. Căci a existat la ea o autentică voinţă care îşi trăgea seva din propriile ei aspiraţii, de a arăta că poate fi altcineva, că se poate ridica mai presus decât ceea ce era – o prostituată, şi că poate să devină o "lady". Ea a reuşit să se facă remarcată de toţi, trecând drept una din cele mai frumoase, mai elegante, mai manierate femei din acel hotel.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi găseşti motivaţia de a fi altcineva în cazul unei imagini căreia i se atribuie în mod curent semnificaţia de "experimentare riguroasă a vieţii" ?

Dacă stăm să scrutăm spaţiul reprezentativitatii omului în care există obligaţia pentru ridicarea particularului la rang de "subiect tolerat", concomitent cu nelimitata sursă de căldură numit suflet, şi dacă căutăm echilibrul dintre predictibilitate, maleabilitate şi responsabilitate, atunci cu siguranţă nu vom putea percepe simetria dintre valoare şi pret.

O imagine căreia i se atribuie în mod curent semnificaţia de "experimentare riguroasă a vieţii", are ca element unic de analiză acea intensificare a contrastului dintre aparenţă şi esenţă, adică între ceea ce eşti în pericol să pierzi şi ceea ce eşti în stare să câştigi.

Omul căruia îi sunt ocolite meritele şi onoarea gustă din amărăciunea vieţii la fel de intens precum pictorul ce captează atenţia prezentându-şi autoportretul: cu umilinţă şi cu revoltă.

Putem oare să punem semn de egalitate între semnificaţia pe care încercăm să o dăm celor ce ni se întâmplă, având ca efect o descărcare afectivă dureroasă, şi înţelesul pe care îl atribuim poveştii din spatele imaginii noastre, care eludează realitatea socială? Putem încerca să vedem oamenii ca nişte obiecte de care suntem înconjuraţi, provenind din sfera unui design neconvenţional?

Dacă privim oamenii ca pe nişte obiecte rare, posedând, de cele mai multe ori, o valoare utilă şi o valoare estetică în acelaşi timp, analizând rolul capacităţii noastre combinatorii în procesul de creaţie a unui model reuşit, vom putea să compunem frumosul sau sublimul în măsura în care ele fac parte din categoria valorilor ce depăşesc sfera esteticului. Iar esteticul, după cum preciza cineva, nu avem dreptul să îl absolutizăm, ci să-l dibuim în tensiunea menţinerii la cote înalte a unor principii morale, etice, care slujesc adevărul.

Leadership: Poţi să abordezi înţelesul unei anumite acţiuni a comportamentului uman, cercetând motivaţia din care provine aceasta?

O formulă derivată din ştiinţă, care nu vizează frumuseţea pe care o poţi admira si studia privind-o minute în şir fără să te saturi de ea, este următoarea: "Priveşte ceea ce nu ştii şi nu refuza cunoaşterea" . Nu este vorba despre acea frumuseţe greu percepibilă, care nu aduce o mulţumire aparte decât privind-o în mod critic, ci de acea cunoaştere din spatele imaginii pe care o oferi lumii care începe cu îndoiala deplină în privinţa a tot şi toate.

Oamenii nu sunt nişte obiecte ce pot fi întâlnite în aproape toate interioarele, cu acelaşi statut practic şi cu aceeaşi capacitate de a "place". Pe care, atunci când ne plictisim de ele, în condiţiile în care preţul lor este mai redus, le putem schimba.

Suntem un cumul de reflecţii care ne pot clarifica existenţa într-o lume plină de mister, plină de culori tot mai subtile şi mai insistente, care verifică configuraţia exactă a propriei noastre versiuni a frumuseţii: interioare sau exterioare.

Întrebarea pe care trebuie să ne-o punem, vine din partea unui internaut: "Avem totuşi tăria să privim în configuraţia propriei subiectivităţi şi să desprindem, de sub cenuşa îndoielii şi neîncrederii, germenii unor valori cândva dragi nouă, dar insuficient exprimate?"

Subiectivitatea este doar o încercare de a da experienței personale un sens care să-ţi consoleze mândria. Iar valorile insuficient exprimate ţin de ceea ce decizi de faci şi de rezultatul final pe care doreşti să-l atingi, în condiţiile unei duble forme de risc: nevoia de a-ţi exprima poziţia faţă de rezultatele negative din viaţa ta şi necesitatea de a-ţi apăra principiile în condiţiile unei lipse de interes.

Leadershipul vizează modul în care foloseşti realitatea astfel încât percepţia celorlalţi despre tine să fie identică cu reacţiile tale faţă de atitudinea lor.

Limbajul Secret al Leadershipului ţine de conexiunea care se creează între percepţia despre realitatea care ghidează acţiunile omului şi lucrurile văzute prin intermediul emoţiilor, unind elemente identitare distincte în anumite condiţii discursive. Aceste elemente pot fi rearticulate diferit în anumite circumstanţe de producere a impactului la nivel de conştiinţă.

Limita unui cercetător în spațiul complex al ştiinţei

On Ianuarie 02, 2014

Asigură o dezvoltare continuă leadershipului, creând noi fundamente ale ştiinţei care să fie în concordanţă cu personalitatea ta.

Mă aflam într-o tainică corespondenţă cu fundamentele unei metafizici complicate, dar splendide prin rigoarea ei, după specificul încercării de a-mi exercita dreptul de a conduce un imperiul universal. Neistovit, încercam să înţeleg efectele fizice și psihice ale gândurilor care străbat cu intensitate obligaţia de a fi Alesul unei facultăţi "mai pragmatice", folosind indicatori de măsurare a progresului meu în tranziţia dintre două stări: dezorientare şi trezire.

Acestea erau necesare pentru obiective subordonate, precum constatarea unei intensităţi superioare a dinamicii creaţiei, pe care aş fi putut să le stabilesc doar printr-o reunire a diverselor interpretări, care însă făceau obiectul unor severe contradicţii. Practic, ştiinţa cu care mă ocupam, acceptarea unei noi viziuni de interpretare şi de edificare a unei arte fără opreliști, abundenţa de detalii şi emoţii pusă sub semnul prelungirii vieţii, era reprezentarea unei realităţi filtrate prin intermediul unei sensibilităţi aparte faţă de ceea ce eram obişnuit să văd.

Cu subtilitate, cu îndrăzneala temerară a unui cercetător care nu se lasă furat de aparenţe, mă apropiam de acea lumină intensă a "Da-urilor" , imposibil de modificat, care puteau la fel de bine să însemne " Nu ". Rezultanta acestor două forţe de sens contrar era o forţă care, comportându-se ca o gaură neagră ce absoarbe inexorabil materia, acţionează asupra punctului de cotitură către o nouă înţelegere a ştiinţei. Era oare acesta începutul unei experienţe de întregire a cunoaşterii?

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi înţelegi experienţele de viaţă fără să iei o atitudine de respingere a convingerii conform căreia tot ce este redat ca exerciţiu de creaţie se concretizează într-un profund sentiment de putere?

Aidoma unui fizician care, luând două sfere de plumb încearcă să măsoare forța de atracție dintre ele, am încercat să pun cap la cap piesele unui puzzle neordonat, aşa încât să determin legătura cea mai puternică, permanentă și indisolubilă dintre om şi propriul lui sine. Pe această cale am preluat, în calitate de utilizator, controlul asupra "utilajului" cel mai performant care participă la construcția universului lăuntric al omului, la modul lui de a fi.

Utilajul acesta de mare randament, tradus prin capacitatea de înțelegere nelimitată, garanția singulară a unei pătrunderi complete și uniforme la rădăcina firii omenești, dacă era folosit corespunzător ar fi putut să distileze mentalitățile până la cote infinitezimale, până la transparență, până la esență. Puternicul instrument avea şi rol de facilitare a asimilării - prelua și transporta în condiții de siguranță spre un sistem complex de analiză orice tip de armament sau muniție, orice sentiment inflamabil, orice stare de neliniște. Orice gând șugubăț trecut prin minte și acceptat ca idee. Orice vibrație. Orice manifestare care, depășind dreapta măsură, plasa Omul într-un context tensionat.

Dar m-am înşelat în multe privinţe. Nu am putut să asigur caracterul permanent al acestui utilaj, nu am putut să măsor precis parametrii acţionabili şi predictibili de caracter ai omului. Căci am fost dat peste cap de fundamentul pe care se sprijinea întreaga filozofie a tânărul cercetător Rulie Karl Frantevici: " Faptele fără explicaţii nu pot fi socotite ştiinţă. dar nici teoria care nu este construită pe baza studiului faptelor nu se întemeiază pe experienţă, ci este pur speculativă - nici ea nu este ştiinţă. "

De atunci nu am mai fost acelaşi. Cercetătorul s-a dovedit a fi, la rândul său, un Om. Sensul puterii pe care mi-l conferise alchimia prin antrenamentul minţii la foc intens, prin intermediul actului de creaţie, a fost dintr-o dată anulat de acea normă a vieţii care spune: "vei avea întotdeauna îndoieli în privinţa a ceea ce vezi şi în modul cum percepi ceea ce vezi."

Leadership: Poţi să stabileşti necunoscutele din ecuaţiile realităţii în care puterea ta de creaţie se autosituează în raport cu o lume de concepte suficient de bine fixată în tine, prin referire la succesiunea temporală a fenomenelor implicate în transformarea fiinţei umane?

La limita dintre imaginar şi real care intră în componenţa ideilor şi a convingerilor susținute de puternice argumente combinatorii de TRUE sau FALSE, asigurând progresul cercetărilor aflate la baza elaborării teoriilor, se află dimensiunea creativă care articulează o nouă viziune asupra omului, ca rezultat al ştiinţei. Iar această viziune trebuie să fie întotdeauna condiţionată de dimensiunea practică.

De aici rezultă necesitatea unei evaluări cât mai pertinente, făcând ajustări considerabile la estimările şi ipotezele avute în vedere în efectuarea testului de apreciere sau depreciere a calităţii subiectului uman. Două necunoscute îmi alimentau frica de eşec în activitatea de creaţie: dovada practicii unei filosofii care să transforme, îmbogăţească şi să uşureze viaţa omului şi dovada unei gândiri lucide şi a unei intuiţii excepţionale care să se concretizeze în ceva cu frecvenţă înaltă, cu trimitere la Împărăţia Logosului Divin.

Rolul unei cercetări ştiinţifice, în intenţia de a urmări modul cum se reflectă gândirea la nivelul comportamentelor şi în intenţia de a evidenţia tiparele comune din structura psihologică a omului, nu este nici să falsifice adevărul, nici să dezamăgească prin lipsa de coeziune a ideilor dobândite şi enunţate. Ci se cuvine ca ea să ofere un fir al Ariadnei, ducând, într-un labirint al diverselor interpretări, măcar spre o ieşire. Spre un punct de reazem fix. Spre determinarea un model de concepţii care să prezinte o rezistenţă corespunzătoare a punctelor de vedere elaborate, potrivite cu ponderea lor în cadrul leadershipului.

Realitatea din care este alcătuit specificul creaţiei mele este o reflecţie profundă asupra tendinţelor de metamorfozare în "Omul Nou" ale actului de interpretare a informaţiilor acumulate într-un domeniu care nu înseamnă nu doar prezent, ci mai ales viitor.

Fenomenele implicate în transformarea fiinţei umane ţin de dezvoltarea unei mentalităţi axate pe acumularea de modalităţi de exprimare într-un cadru mai larg de creaţie configurat nu numai de libertatea de gândire, cât mai ales de modalitate de atestare a valorii vieţii şi de preţul plătit pentru ca viaţa să poată fi trăită şi să aibă sens. Un exemplu de fenomen ar fi "remind yourself of your goals but it's your big dream that can really help you work hard".

Prin dezvoltarea unor noi concepţii despre "Om", îmbrăţişând cu entuziasm ori, mai exact, cu o curiozitate constructivă orice necunoscute din ecuaţiile realităţii în care el se autosituează, încercând să le interpretezi raportându-te la ceea ce are el caracteristic, vei putea să urmăreşti modul în care se dezvoltă şi consolidează propria ta gândire.

Iar acest proces de cercetare, susținut de puternice argumente combinatorii de TRUE sau FALSE care dovedesc valabilitatea şi pregnanţa constatărilor, se reflectă în raporturile dintre leadership şi luciditatea psihologică.

Leadership: Poţi faci din tine un obiect de cercetare ştiinţifică în scopul dobândirii unor capacităţi de producere a realităţii capabile să netezească calea spre revelarea unui adevăr etern?

Dar a face din om un obiect de cercetare ştiinţifică, în mod sistematic, punându-l în ipostaza de "jucărie" pentru acele experimente ce vizează măsurarea cunoştinţelor şi a capacităţilor tale cele mai accentuate, poate reprezinta garanţia unei pătrunderi complete în spaţiul leadershipului. Acelei pătrunderi ghidate de o înţelegere matură a resorturilor psihologice şi motivaţionale care pot avea ca finalitate propria ta evoluţie.

Un obiect de cercetare ştiinţifică este destinat reprezentării unei realităţi filtrate prin intermediul spiritului de analiză pătrunzător, demn de un detectiv particular care trebuie să găsească o legătură unică între trăsăturile de personalitate ale omului şi logevitate, o legătură între un fapt ordonat şi un fapt aleator care poate produce o experienţă puternică de reflecţie despre sensul existenţei cuiva.

Căci aşa cum lemnul de esenţă tare provine numai din anumiţi arbori, tot astfel esenţa care te individualizează, varianta singulară a propriului tău eu, nu poate fi redefinită sau înlocuită, nu poate să se manifeste decât conform configuraţiei sale. Într-adevăr, poţi să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti anumite îndemânări accesând modul de gândire al altora, raportându-te la un nivel de conştiinţă mai înalt. Dar talentul nu-l vei putea mima sau cuantifica după anumite canoane.

Înainte de a fi superior celorlalţi prin aprofundarea ştiinţei, conştientizează care sunt propriile tale limite. Realizează cercetări asupra propriei tale persoane. Încearcă să pui cap la cap piesele acelui puzzle care te defineşte. Ia în calcul noi fundamente de triere a calităţilor proprii reevaluând relaţia cu experienţa acumulată în timp. Dacă vrei să asiguri o dezvoltare continuă leadershipului, încearcă să creezi noi fundamente ale ştiinţei care să fie în concordanţă cu personalitatea ta.

După tot ceea ce am învăţat de la viaţă, prin tot ceea ce am scris în decursul anilor, pot trage o singură concluzie, sub forma unui adevăr profund: "Cine nu este capabil să-și orienteze conștiința către o lume superioară, foarte avansată, acela se va adânci într-o beznă totală din care nu va mai ieşi niciodată."

Leadershipul este valoarea cognitivă a unei creaţii, fie ea estetică, fie ştiinţifică sau tehnică, care îmbracă personalitatea unui artist în utilizarea mijloacelor prin care un adevăr lăuntric poate să capete o formă comunicabilă.

Limita unui cercetător în spațiul complex al ştiinţei atrage atenţia asupra consecinţelor negative ale curiozităţii tale faţă de tot ceea ce te înconjoară, în special faţă de legile într-o stare continuă de schimbare care guvernează omul. Totodată pune în prim plan acel spaţiu de cercetare a specificului uman, mai larg sau mai îngust, care influenţează în cea mai mare măsură leadershipul.

Limitele unui rătăcitor în sfera întunericului

On Septembrie 21, 2012

Desăvârşeşte-ţi personalitatea printr-o apropiere mai strânsă de acele elemente ale unei realităţi benefice care conferă leadershipul tău profunzime şi creştere.

Întunericul mă învălui încet şi neaşteptat, ca o nălucă, ca o constantă din viaţa mea care rezona doar prin valoarea ce i-o atribuiam, înfierbântându-mi simţirile, punând la încercare latura sceptică şi vizionară a naturii mele.

Un glas tainic părea că porneşte dintr-o adâncime fără fund, şoptindu-mi în mod pătrunzător, sub forma unui ecou: "Apropie-te… şezi lângă mine… contribuie la existenţa mea ! " Îl simţeam aproape, nestingherit, superior, ca pe un punct de plecare într-o nouă aventură a cunoaşterii, ca pe un judecător gata să pronunţe o sentinţă, dar în acelaşi timp ca pe un tată iubitor, a cărui iubire pentru copilul lui este necondiţionată.

Ghiceam că ceva sălăşluia aproape de mine, o entitate care nu putea fi identificată în mod unic prin atributele sale, atrăgându-mă în propria ei cursă, întinsă cu o hotărâre ce nu putea fi îmblânzită.

Împins spre o înţelegere mai profundă, ca şi cum aş fi pus la îndoială raţiunea, substituind-o magiei, adulmecam urma unui teritoriu de mult pierdut. Devenisem şi eu un posibil teritoriu pierdut. O fiinţă prinsă într-un joc care se joacă cu formele cunoaşterii şi ale devenirii, un voyageur à d'autres sphères.

Leadership: Toată încărcătura ta psihică, spirituală şi emoţională din timpul unei adânciri în gândurile cele mai tainice se organizează în cuprinsul unei variabile de tip "reper"?

Ca un artist care concentrează idei ale ştiinţelor vremii în imaginile create de el, îmi menţineam vie energia, exploatându-mă pe mine însumi, atât de crunt, în lucruri pe care voiam să le valorific, dar pe care nu le controlam. Mă supuneam unui proces de evoluţie spre o dimensiune nebănuită, stabilind raporturi secrete şi matematice dintre lucruri, fără să înţeleg, totuşi, cum se aplică şi cum se întreţin toate aceste raporturi. Într-un moment în care premisele şi concluzia, fie adevărate, fie false, deveniseră foarte complexe.

Dar lumina se stinge atunci când nu te aştepţi. Voiam să fac ceva ca să ies din starea aceea, nu să mă ascund de mine însumi. E o prostie să suferi în tăcere, să tinzi spre un nespus ce-i dincolo de înţeles şi să te contopeşti cu el în ceaţa densă a întunericului.

Mă induceam singur în eroare pentru că mă profilam pe o mare în furtună, împins înspre contemplarea mai profundă a unei existenţe virtuale, în loc să înţeleg limitele propriei mele lumi. Trebuia să mă reinventez. Să-mi liniştesc covârşitorul zbucium al întregului meu univers. Să recunosc acea parte esenţială, reală, constantă, profundă din mine. Să-mi forţez maturizarea. Să-mi grăbesc transformarea.

Trebuia să-mi şlefuiesc felul de a aborda "întunericul", pentru a înţelege "lumina".

Reperul de care m-am agăţat în acele momente pline de confuzie şi agitaţie sufletească era dat de trecerea de la nivelul de a fi absorbit de mine însumi (defectul de a mă închide în propria lume de gânduri, idei şi emoţii) la un context al virtuţilor care rentează şi duc la desăvârşire. Virtutea de a aduce în faţa minţii nişte nuanţe pe care nici o altă unealtă, în afara cuvintelor, nu le poate naşte, virtutea caracterului de administrare a unor noi principii de creaţie în literatură, erau două din părţile răsfirate ale personalităţii mele.

Leadership: Termenii şi condiţiile de utilizare a "reperelor" de referinţă pot suferi o modificare prin dispoziţiile prezentului din care se dezvoltă modul în care abordezi partea din tine care se ascunde?

Prezentul din care se dezvoltă viitorul personalităţii tale poate include şi acest fenomen de "exploatare" a unei existenţe create din întunericul minţii, a propriilor incertitudini şi ambiguităţi, dacă se poate numi astfel, care domină calităţile tale în interacţiunea concretă sau posibilă cu latura sceptică şi vizionară a naturii tale. O operaţiune în care încolţesc variantele unei dezvoltări definitorii bazate pe concluziile dezvăluirii motivului ascuns de dincolo de toate dorințele, emoţiile şi gândurile tale, care progresează în direcţia asumării unui nou rol şi a unui nou tip de relaţie cu realitatea.

Un rol de remuşcare în care trebuie să te revanşezi pentru unele greşeli, crezând că eşti dator propriei conştiinţe să te ntrebi până unde te-ai avântat cu prea multă îndrăzneală, cu voia ta, cu consimţământul tău. Sau un rol de satisfacţie faţă de toate manifestările şi gesturile pline de străduinţă şi însemnătate ale pasiunii pornite din sentimentul de mulţumire că ai ajutat la îndeplinirea unei sarcini dificile care a solicitat ce este mai bun din tine.

Tipul de relaţie pe care doreşti s-o defineşti între cele două roluri de facturi diametral opuse depinde de modul cum răspunzi la dispoziţiile prezentului construit pe locul unui trecut destul de trist dacă te raportezi numai la acele lucruri pe care vrei să le valorifici, dar pe care nu le controlezi.

Anihilarea ipostazelor şi a efectelor nedorite ale personalităţii, trebuie să înceapă cu anihilarea acelei părţi din tine, a acelei raţiuni care îţi întunecă realitatea. Poţi adăuga o valoare uriaşă potenţialului tău, poţi pava o cale spre o înţelegere mai profundă a ceea ce eşti în culisele propriei aventuri existenţiale consumate, dacă îţi înţelegi reacţiile şi nu te ascunzi de tine însuţi.

Starea de spirit în care relaţionezi cu experienţa din fiecare moment rezultă din intersectarea tuturor perspectivelor subiective din care priveşti realitatea. Iar o realitate ce te lasă dezarmat în interior condiţionează valoarea pe care o ia nivelul de semnificaţie al comportamentului în autonomia personală, care poate deveni opoziţional sau de tip criză psiho-socială.

Leadership: Valoarea caracterului tău se diminuează cu fiecare încercare a ta de a tinde spre "Un nespus ce-i dincolo de înţeles"?

După cum "scriitorul pierde cu fiecare vis povestit câte un cititor", tot astfel valoarea caracterului tău se va diminua cu fiecare încercare de a tinde spre "Un nespus ce-i dincolo de înţeles", spre o formă falsă de a-ţi manifesta potenţialul, agățându-te ca un scaiete de o rațiune imatură care te servește necorespunzător.

Vei deveni un posibil "teritoriu pierdut" în care abundă rebuturile raţionale, superficialitatea, lanţul nesfârşit de bănuieli, presupuneri, confuzii de interpretare a realităţii.

Îţi grăbeşti "transformarea? Adulmeci urma unui teritoriu de mult pierdut? Îţi forţezi maturizarea lansându-te într-o aventură a unei cunoaşteri cauzative? Îţi înţelegi limitele propriei tale lumi? Îţi recunoşti acea parte esenţială, constantă, profundă din tine care te ghidează spre “lumină”, spre o înţelegere mai bună a ceea ce se află în spatele acelor ”discontinuităţi” reale de personalitate?

Mare dreptate avea scriitorul rus, Lev Tolstoi când a spus: “ Toţi se gândesc să schimbe lumea, dar nimeni se nu găseşte să se schimbe pe sine ! ”

Continuă să te dezvolţi şi să-ţi conturezi personalitatea, şi fă acest lucru fără încetare. Dar nu uita că felul cum abordezi realitatea poate să îţi ridice sau să îţi dărâme lumea interioară.

Efectul unei personalităţi care îşi împărtăşeşte experienţa devenirii într-un ritm "neauzit", dar persistent, se poate atribui unei aventuri a cunoaşterii care începe cu creşterea frecvenţei gândurilor de investigare a realităţii prin ambiguizarea limitei real-virtual şi se continuă cu schimbarea de viziune asupra sinelui.

Limitele unui rătăcitor în sfera întunericului se referă la acel proces de evaluare a propriei existenţe, a propriei identităţi, dar şi la limitele ”cercetării interioare”.

Să căutăm, să luptăm, să nu găsim, dar să nu ne abatem niciodată de la realitate. Acest adevăr pe care trebuie să-l recunoaştem în viaţa noastră se referă la procesul de autocunoaştere şi autoevaluare atât a părţilor noastre pozitive, cât şi a celor negative. Menţinerea în permanenţă a unui echilibru în tot ceea ce facem şi gândim, trebuie să fie ţelul nostru pentru a nu cădea în sfera patologicului.

Desăvârşeşte-ţi personalitatea printr-o apropiere mai strânsă de acele elemente ale unei realităţi benefice care conferă leadershipul tău profunzime şi creştere.

Linia aparent haotică a genezei operei

On Octombrie 30, 2014

Învaţă să domini tot ceea ce încerci să proiectezi asupra celorlalţi, optimizând fundamentul semnificării şi a analogiilor pe care le susţine cunoaşterea şi autenticitatea ta.

Paralel cu ideea subiectului - care se va contura cu limpezime abia pe parcurs, filmul "Ivan cel Groaznic" se naşte din cele mai neprevăzute părţi. Geneza operei urmează o linie aparent haotică, în care apar, ba succesiv, ba simultan, elemente ale fabulaţiei sau ale ideilor pe care le va ilustra, când fragmente disparate din viaţa eroului, când câte o intuiţie privind jocul actorului, sau muzica, sau tonalitatea de lumină a unei scene, când perceperea senzorială a unui fragment de montaj şi îndată viziunea unui colţ al decorului pentru o cu totul altă scenă.

Ideile, intuiţiile, viziunile apar dezordonat, episodic, începând cu un fragment de la sfârşitul viitorului film, urmat îndată de prolog, apoi, pe neaşteptate, o scenă din mijlocul povestirii.

Fantezia joacă pe toate instrumentele unei orchestre existente numai în universul interior al artistului: "O scenă ţi-o reprezinţi ca pe un fenomen viu al vieţii, pe cealaltă o joci, pe o a treia o auzi, pe a patra o vezi sub aspectul cadrului, pe a cincea o percepi ca sistem al îmbinărilor de montaj, pe a şasea - ca haos al petelor de lumină". *****

Leadership: Impulsul de căutare a autenticităţii poate fi pus pe seama unei noi reînnoiri a formei de expresie a actului creator?

Una din condiţiile atingerii unui înalt nivel de ştiinţă, apropiat de aşteptările subiective proiectate asupra creaţiei personale, este implicarea activă în realizarea "ineditului" prin interacţiunea simultană cu elemente lui de conţinut. Noţiunile de „formă" şi de „materie", venind în completarea şi îmbunătăţirea rezultatului final, cedează locul funcţiilor şi structurilor de percepţie şi de înţelegere care dau expresiei gândirii un caracter mai profund dar, în același timp, mai accesibil.

Pe această cale, facem referire la un tip de raţionament în care generalul este dedus din particular - informaţii individuale, aflate într-un flux neîntrerupt, aşteaptând să fie rânduite într-un ansamblu unitar. Un fel de continuare a creaţiei, dintr-un haos pre-semnificant, pusă pe seama elementelor cu substrat substanţial, în măsura în care eşti motivat diferit - adică recompensat cu noi înţelegeri care modelează interpretările inedite de natură compoziţională.

Să-i găseşti actului creator o nouă formă de expresie, ce implică un impact vizual incontestabil, înseamnă să combini cu bun gust imaginile proiectate în spatele scenei cu volumul mare de informaţii dintr-un fragment de poveste original, încât să finalizezi punerea în evidenţă a unei singure idei.

Numai în mijlocul haosului se pot identifica succesiv elementele, ideile, analogiile dintre concepte şi teorii, pe care le acceptă şi le inspiră modelul tău avansat de gândire. La fel, intuiţiile şi viziunile apar dezordonat, episodic, începând cu o anumită incoerenţă de gânduri şi de logică, dar care totodată abundă de noi puncte de reper, perspective, opţiuni şi caracteristici, într-un proces continuu de înlăturare a elementelor de exagerare sau a celor ipotetice.

Nimeni nu se poate vindeca de remediul valorii de sine, adusă de arta totală, înscrisă într-o orientare continuă axată pe intuiţie - clădită pe elemente ale fabulaţiei sau ale ideilor, din fragmente disparate din viaţa personală. Este mai degrabă o căutare pe tine însuţi, a autenticităţii de fond, pusă pe seama unei noi reînnoiri a formei de expresie a actului creator şi a unei noi modalități de înţelegere a artei, printr-un plonjon spectaculos în haos.

Fantezia înseamnă să pătrunzi în dedesubtul fiecărui fenomen al vieţii, concentrat în fragmente disparate de informație aleatorie, şi să făureşti din el o nouă formă de expresie.

Dedesubtul – partea cea mai adâncă a fiecărei experienţe, a fiecărei îmbinări de gânduri, a fiecărei teme de interes şi de studiu, ascunde noi aspecte de abordare, tot aşa cum în spatele fiecărei reţete se ascund o mulţime de ingrediente.

Leadershipul, în urma unui proces de cunoaştere şi autocunoaştere care înaintează de la simplu la complex, poate fi divizat în două mari etape: în prima avem de a face cu universul dominat de o mecanică a substituirii elementelor cu adevărat banale, alături de unul dominat de producere a rezultatelor. Apoi avem de a face cu un univers dominat de rutină, de parametri complementari ce închid drumul spre teoretizare.

Ideile, intuiţiile, viziunile apărute dezordonat sau episodic, aflate mereu la limita dintre informaţie şi derizoriu fiindcă nu toate se înfaptuesc şi nu toate se pot modela în acelaşi fel pentru a se concretiza într-o piesă de artă, capătă valenţe de "decor", nefiind destinate a fi împărtăşite decât dacă sunt influenţate de ingredientele unei poveşti deja în desfăşurare.

Sfatul unui internaut merită să fie luat în considerare: "Fiți sinceri și fermi cu convingerile voastre, nu vă așteptați ca alții să vă respecte ideile decât dacă ele își câștigă meritul de a fi reţinute și transformate într-un mesaj. Dar, mai ales, fiți întotdeauna deschiși la posibilitatea de a vă înșela.

Autenticitatea actului creator rezidă din amănuntele pe care ţi le oferă viaţa văzută sub aspectul cadrului, deci percepută ca sistem al îmbinărilor de montaj.

Linia aparent haotică a genezei operei vizează căutările continue a elementelor excepţionale de compoziţie, parte integrantă a procesului de creaţie, şi redarea lor într-o formă inteligibilă ce stau la baza unui model de leadership performant.

Linia subţire a leadershipului

On Aprilie 23, 2009

Sinceritatea în interacțiuni poate dezamorsa suspiciuni și consolida relații, chiar și în circumstanțe incerte.

Un film care merită văzut este „ Prinţul deşertului (1991) ". Echipa de comando condusă de Tom Burton are misiunea de a-l recupera pe Robert Sanders, fiul influentei femei de afaceri Catherine Sanders. Dându-se drept traficanţi de arme, Tom împreună cu câţiva membri ai echipei sale reuşesc să se infiltreze în oaza din deşertul Sahara în care se afla Robert. Dar ca să-l poată elibera de acolo, Tom trebuia să-i câştige mai întâi de toate încrederea puternicului emir Beni-Zair, al cărui curaj, înţelepciune şi abilităţi de conducere nu puteau fi puse la îndoială.

La un moment dat, în timp ce se plimbau prin oază discutând afaceri, emirul, simţind că ceva este în neregulă la Tom, se opreşte brusc, se întoarce către el, şi privindu-l în ochi cu o expresie pătrunzătoare îl întreabă: „De ce mă studiezi tot timpul?"

Privindu-l din ochi pe emir, conştientizând ca e absolut necesar să-i alunge toate bănuielile, Tom îi răspunde:

- Tot ce spui are înţelesuri profunde... Doar Allah ştie ce aduce ziua de mâine. Însă orice ne-ar fi pregătit, am onoarea să-l fi cunoscut pe emirul Beni-Zairilor, fie el prieten sau duşman.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi valorifici calitatea de a împărtăşi lumii din roadele experienţei tale de viaţă, în sensul existenţei unei valori acordate relaţiei directe dintre "liberul arbitru" şi "o încredinţare pornită din inimă" ?

Răspunsul lui Tom a fost categoric pe măsura aşteptărilor emirului care a avut amabilitatea şi plăcerea să-l creadă pe cuvânt. Un sentiment fără pereche a făcut să zguduie întreaga lui neîncredere şi îngrijorare din temelii, şi astfel să-i acorde lui Tom toată cinstea cuvenită. O valoare importantă care poate face cinste leadershipului este dată de acea opinie personală care arată cât de mult preţuieşte un considerent demn de luat în calcul atunci când ajungi la o anumită revelaţie ce îţi poate schimba viaţa.

Încrederea, respectul şi loialitatea sunt coordonatele esenţiale ale leadershipului şi creează premizele de la care pleacă stabilirea relaţiilor interumane de calitate. Ele îţi descriu caracterul, te responsabilizează, te pun faţă în faţă cu acea latură a personalităţii tale care te face plăcut celorlalţi, punând în evidenţă valorile tale reale. Vei putea să te transformi în persoana pe care şi-o doresc oamenii, sau te vei putea coborî la cel mai de jos nivel, în funcţie de efectul pe care îl au coordonatele leadershipului tău asupra lor.

Leadership: Capacitatea ta de a naviga prin situații delicate, prezentând argumente ce zdrobesc orice îndoială, reflectă abilitatea ta de a transmite o imagine clară și impresionantă a încrederii și colaborării cu ceilalți oameni?

Salvarea unei situaţii care poate să-ţi ameninţe poziţia este în mâinile tale. Dacă eşti îndeajuns de capabil să aduci argumente pertinente care să le zdrobească oamenilor orice urmă de îndoială, care să le întărească încrederea în tine, care să-i convingă de necesitatea stabilirii unei colaborări cât mai rapide şi echitabile, dacă le susţii interesele şi-ţi manifeşti aprobarea pentru ceea ce ei văd în tine, atunci cu siguranţă „linia" care desparte sentimentele tale de ale lor se va subţia tot mai mult şi în cele din urmă va dispărea.

Aşa cum la aparatele foto digitale toate valorile de măsurare şi de setare sunt reprezentate clar şi mare pe ecran prin mai multe culori sau prin diverse simboluri – tot aşa calităţile tale de om excepţional şi multitudinea capacităţilor existente în tine sunt reprezentate foarte bine pe „ecranul" aşteptărilor oamenilor în funcţie de percepţiile pe care şi le formează ei despre tine.

Leadershipul este o ocazie de învăţare a lecţiilor de viaţă pe care nu vrei să le uiţi în momentele dificile. Este o înţelegere adâncă a oamenilor, a lucrurilor, a evenimentelor sau situaţiilor, având ca rezultat abilitatea de a acţiona în aşa fel încât totdeauna urmarea faptelor tale să creeze impresia de inteligenţă şi maturitate.

Linia subţire a leadershipului te uneşte sau te separă de ceilalţi oameni în funcţie de convingerile şi sentimentele lor faţă de tine, în funcţie de cum reuşeşti să-ţi raportezi judecata şi deciziile la nivelul aşteptărilor lor. Vei putea să stabileşti legături solide cu ceilalţi oameni numai dacă găseşti puncte comune cu ei, numai dacă te concentrezi asupra tuturor aspectelor care prezintă importanţă pentru ei. Vei putea câştiga încrederea oamenilor numai dacă sădeşti în conştiinţa lor interesul tău viu faţă de adevăratele lor calităţi.

Concluzie: Oamenii sunt diferiţi. Zona de separaţie dintre ei poate fi mai îngustă sau mai largă. Ca lider câştigi teren în avantajul tău şi a leadershipului tău numai dacă faci tot posibilul ca această zonă să se îngusteze cât mai mult. Cum se poate obţine acest lucru? Prin câştigarea încrederii oamenilor, printr-o cunoaştere profundă reciprocă, sădind în conştiinţa lor interesul tău viu faţă de ei şi faţă de viitorul lor.

Să ştii să cunoşti oamenii, să-i înţelegi şi poate chiar să anticipezi reacţiile lor este o artă care mânuită cu îndemânare poate la rândul ei să-ţi „crească ranking-ul", respectiv să crească încrederea lor în tine. Sau, dimpotrivă, să ducă la diminuarea încrederii în tine, şi deci la manifestări şi reacţii nedorite.

Câştigă încrederea oamenilor sădind în conştiinţa lor interesul tău faţă de adevăratele lor calităţi. Recunoașterea meritelor celorlalți, în ciuda contextului nesigur, aduce claritate relației dintre voi.

Linie și Culoare

On Iulie 23, 2016

Compune un tablou din imagini succesive şi combină-le într-un foarte bun dozaj al efectelor, pentru a obţine o imagine panoramică reuşită despre propria ta natură.

Pe Eisenstein îl ameţeşte ascetismul sec al graficii, claritatea desenului, cruzimea chinuitoare a liniei smulsă cu sânge din trupul multicolor al naturii. Spunea la un moment dat:

Fenomenul acesta îl întâlneşte peste tot.

Printre stâncile aride din jurul Tasco-ului, pe tulpinile fără frunze creşte o floare purpurie. I se spune "sangre de toros" şi florile acestea par ca nişte pete de culoare iscate din jetul de sânge ce ţâşneşte din trupul negru al taurului când sabia matadorului se înfige în carne. *

Leadership: Creația ta reuneşte acea vigoare incisivă de expunere a noutăţii temei de interes artistic cu puterea de comunicare a unei părți importante a decorului care însoţeşte imaginea unei altfel de realităţi?

Opera unui regizor este tabloul compus din imagini succesive, combinate într-un foarte bun dozaj al efectelor, pentru a obţine o imagine panoramică reuşită ce face parte dintr-un tur al anatomiei viziunii sale creatoare. Iar întreaga artă a unui asemenea artist constă în modalitatea de expunere a conţinutului operei, surprins realist, aflat la granița dintre „linie" și „culoare".

Linia reprezintă totalitatea acelor acţiuni și fapte prin care mesajele regizorului, referitoare la viziunea sa, la realitatea lui de manifestare creativă, sunt transmise integral, dar la un anumit nivel, grupului ţintă de spectatori. Decorul, pe de altă parte, reprezintă suma tuturor elementelor evidenţei: se vede, se simte, se mişcă, se aude, sub aspectul posibilităţilor de transfer ale emoţiei şi ale viziunii spre o nouă modalitate de a susţine varietatea inconfundabilă a creaţiei regizorului în scenografie.

Culoarea, în succesiunea evoluţiei faptelor, prin pătrunderea realităţii exterioare, este forța vitală pe care se sprijină întreaga structură a decorului lumii conceptuale complexe. Culoarea însumează totalitatea acelor nuanţe, tonuri și unduiri ale sentimentelor, punctelor de vedere, ideilor, valorilor, credinţelor care pot fi împărtăşite prin intermediul unei varietăţi de efecte și puneri în scenă fondate pe mecanisme de limbaj pertinente.

Artistul care se străduieşte să cultive o lume proprie, cu un mesaj ce se transformă deseori într-un „zgomot" de trăsături smulse din gândirea, simţirea şi faptele oamenilor, intenționează să obţină prin convergenţa lor sugestia dorită. El se poate numi lider, om cu nişte idealuri reale pozitive, atunci când face posibilă influenţarea prin sugestie - în măsura în care pot fi potenţate sugestiile pozitive și diminuate cele care exercită influenţe negative.

Recunoaștem natura unui lider nu după concepţiile după care acţionează și se ghidează în cele mai importante decizii, ci după conţinutul sugestiilor pe care le introduce în opera sa și le administrează spectatorilor.

Liderul este, totodată, un căutător al esenţelor care se lasă "citit" pe îndelete în profunzimea mesajelor transmise de opera sa. El reuneşte acea vigoare incisivă de expunere a noutăţii temei cu puterea de comunicare a unei părți importante a decorului pe care-l gândeşte. Acest decor este însă un studiu pe viu despre minte, trăiri, spirit, experiențe, comportamente, atitudini, tipare de comunicare, aliniate - prin forța lucrurilor - la o anumită viziune, la un ideal construit din propria lui voință. După propria sa natură.

Natura proprie liderului este evidentă în modul cum este organizată varietatea expunerii ideilor sale, ceea ce reflectă pe deplin strădaniile şi munca perseverentă cu care proiectează viziunea unei realităţi numite: descoperire, vis sau libertate de exprimare.

Linie și Culoare sunt două forme principale de construcție a unui decor de film, la care apelează regizorul pentru a-şi pune în aplicare viziunea despre sine reflectată într-o anumită temă, într-un anumit scenariu.

Liniştea binecuvântată după febra haotică

On Mai 10, 2013

Evită alternativele la "a fi" care ar putea periclita sensul identităţii tale reale, eliminând nefirescul din desăvârşirea ta interioară.

Doi domni o iau de braţ pe Laura Quinn şi o conduc în imensul lăcaş al diamantelor. Şi, dintr-o dată, se întâmplă ! O tresărire ! Stupefacţie ! Angoasă ! Spaimă ! Pe dată se opreşte. I se tăie răsuflarea. Se uită în jur. La dreapta şi la stânga o vraişte totală, de parcă locul ar fi fost străbătut de o adevărată tornadă. Toate cutiile goale, diamantele nicăieri. Au dispărut cu totul !

Şi totuşi, această privelişte dezarmantă, neaşteptată, o ademeneşte pe Laura printr-o curiozitate care-i incită simţurile arzând de nerăbdare să vibreze, stârnind în ea instinctul posesiei misterului.

Pe chipul ei se poate citi adevărata stare lăuntrică, acel signalement al extazului, dar şi al decepţiei profunde, al mirării, al agoniei, al imposibilului. Prin sfera ei mentală vâjâie toate gândurile care înfioară, neputându-se materializa în cuvinte. Sentimente foarte diferite năvălesc spontan asupra creierului ei supraîncălzit creând o stare de febră artificială, haotică, ce urcă treptat spre valori tot mai înalte. Adevărate alternanţe de personalitate se produc instantaneu.

Leadership: Prezenţa ta în căutarea unei lumi mai bune te determină să te întrebi ce altceva ţi-a mai rămas din condensarea unor experienţe care te-au durut mai mult decât ai fi putut suporta?

Laura cade într-o dimensiune nesigură, plină de neprevăzut, simţindu-se tot mai inconfortabil. Gânduri negre îi zvâcnesc prin tâmple cu puterea unui taifun, generând o stare de deznădejde. O fantastică iritaţie a nervilor care atacă muşchii, ducând la o temporară paralizie. Printr-o combinaţie chimică instabilă, elementele care generează starea de încordare se aranjează într-o altă ordine, sporind probabilitatea de apariţie a altor efecte secundare.

Devine prizonieră într-o sufocantă tăcere de mormânt. Un fel de putere misterioasă pe care n-o cunoaştem îi împietreşte fiecare celulă, determinând-o să se prăvălească într-o agonizantă cascadă de energie - egală cu o cădere de tensiune care nu-i mai poate asigura un potenţial de bază capabil să deschidă joncţiunea dintre zona " True " şi zona " False ".

Practic, Laura intră în acea stare de cumplită incertitudine datorată marii enigme. Cum oare s-a putut întâmpla una ca asta? Un cuvânt stăruie în ea cu asprime, tot mai apăsat: Cum? Cum? Cum?

Toată adunarea internă de elemente definitorii se răzvrăteşte automat într-o formă de comunicare şi relaţionare, necesitând o anumită decodificare, o dezvăluire, o prezentare a unor stări de fapt. Totul devine nemăsurat de aglomerat în Laura. Tot ce este străin de cunoaşterea ei generează o curiozitate anormală.

Leadership: Trebuie să coexişti cu defectele şi calităţile tale pentru a putea să apreciezi toate părţile tale bune, luând în considerare acea stare a conştiinţei generată de realizarea propriilor valori?

O, numai să pătrund această curiozitate nepotolită, să ajung s-o stăpânesc întru totul. Acest mister al tuturor misterelor, care palpită şi care parcă îşi bate joc de mine, al cărei protagonist sunt chiar eu. Să mă simt legat de el, să-l îmblânzesc, şi în cele din urmă să-i comand !

Ceea ce-mi văd ochii, ceea ce-mi şopteşte conştiinţa, ceea ce inima mă imploră să aflu nu-mi este limpede nici mie. Sunt mică de tot, mă pierd într-un labirint de indicii şi interconexiuni, într-un vârtej năucitor al jocurilor de culise. Sunt aruncată într-un puzzle al jocurilor psihologice şi al nesiguranţei permanente. Tremur de nerăbdare, de incertitudine, de îngrijorare. Să aflu adevărul ! Haide, arată-te ! Arată-te, laşule, parazitule, sperietoare de oameni ! Hai să vorbim ! Unde eşti? Doar eu am pus la cale jaful, cum de mă poţi înşela, tocmai tu, adevărule?

Parfumul inexplicabilului o înconjoară pe Laura cu un strat amar de fragilitate şi neputinţă. Dar pe cine să-şi verse furia? Individualitatea ei incontestabilă se completează, se accentuează şi mai mult la contactul cu această nouă formă de simţire, cu acest nou cadran al neverosimilului care dezvăluie mecanica ei internă, splendida dualitate dintre vid şi materie, dintre known şi unknown , dintre adevărat şi fals.

O rândunică s-a lăsat o clipă în voia neprevăzutului, expunându-se unor curenţi potrivnici. Experimentând nesiguranţa, riscul şi temerile cele mai sumbre. O derută totală a despărţit-o de cele două constante primare: " a fi " şi " a nu fi ". Valorile ei rămân sterpe ca nişte ţăruşi nesfârşiţi. Minciuna, falsitatea, îngrijorarea sunt trăite ca nişte eşecuri care pun sub semnul întrebării consacrarea personală faţă de Dumnezeu, transformate într-o atitudine ambiguă față de ceea ce i se întâmplă, într-o atitudine neprivată de un abandon molatec.

Leadership: Te regăseşti într-o atitudine plină de înţelegere a unei experienţe de viaţă exemplară care se repetă spre iluzia că reprezinţi trofeul unei clipe de rămas bun de la ceea ce ai făcut înainte?

Nefirescul din desăvârşirea ta interioară confirmă prezenţa durerii sufleteşti în mijlocul evenimentelor care vin pe neaşteptate, determinându-te să continui să te încrezi într-o previziune de genul "dacă nu-i albă e neagră". Singura calitate puternică ce i-a mai rămas Laurei pare a fi ambiţia, ea munceşte şi se ocupă de un anumit lucru pe care vrea să îl realizeze fără să facă teorie din orice.

A vorbi despre leadership în aceste circumstanţe, de inutilitate, de gol interior şi de disperare, este similar cu a încerca să definesc fericirea prin nişte cuvinte foarte sărace în a exprima esenţa ei. Trebuie să iau in calcul starea pe care o trăieşte omul atunci când a simţit că fericirea nu îi este împărăşită şi de cealaltă jumătate a sa: conştiinţa.

La fel ca Laura Quinn, poate că te simţi prizonier în propria viaţă, probabil şi datorită unor alegeri greşite, găsind ca unică cale de scăpare apartenenţa la o serie de valori care nu sunt neapărat apanajul creştinismului, dar care sunt necesare pentru o dezvinovăţire de genul "am fost prost că nu am acceptat să mă schimb la timp". Totuşi, după ce ai trecut prin tot ce-ai trecut, ai învăţat să te debarasezi de gândurile care rulează în continuu, să fii mai conştient de ceea ce faci.

Dar să nu cazi în iluzia că reprezinţi trofeul unei clipe de rămas bun de la ceea ce ai făcut înainte, fiindcă nu vei putea uita niciodată ce te-a schimbat, la fel cum nu vei putea uita niciodată cum a început totul.

Leadershipul este ceea ce simţi că poţi să sacrifici pe plan sufletesc, fără să pui în primejdie acea stare a conştiinţei generată de realizarea valorilor de mare însemnătate în ceea ce reprezintă progresul în viaţă şi în profesie: deschidere la nou, toleranţă şi responsabilitate.

Liniştea binecuvântată după febra haotică desemnează acea stare complexă de " a fi ", care trebuie repusă în drepturi; condiţia esenţială a ameliorării fiinţei provocată de un delir nesistematizat al trăirilor, produs de o percepţie eronată a unei anumite situaţii sau a propriului Ego.

Dacă vrei să te înţelegi pe tine însuţi, evită alternativele la " a fi " care ar putea periclita sensul identităţii tale reale. Elimină nefirescul din desăvârşirea ta interioară.

Aşa cum celulele sunt unităţile vitale ale vieţii, tot astfel aspectele diverse, multiple, complexe ale situaţiei presante în care te afli, sunt unităţile vitale ale cursului procesului tău de autocunoaştere şi evoluţie spre un leadership conştient.

Lirismul viziunii artistului

Optimizează-ţi contribuţia la crearea unor noi modele de inspiraţie, pentru a contura într-un mod realist dimensiunea personalităţii pe care eşti dispus să o arăţi lumii.

În ianuarie 1941, Serghei Eisenstein aşterne pe hârtie câteva desene: viziuni proprii ale unor figuri mitologice. Avem în faţă patru desene din aceeaşi serie: Apollo, Dionysos, Poseidon şi un faun. Fiecare personaj tine în mână ceva: o şopârlă, un tirs, o sirenă, un flaut. Caracteristic este lirismul viziunii artistului, diafanul figurilor surprinse pe hârtie. Sunt patru trupuri de adolescenţi (până şi Poseidon are un trup adolescentin şi doar barbă, dar şi aceasta colorată, îi marchează prezenţa), patru figuri de o insolită transparenţă, una melancolică, alta candidă, o a treia ironic-meditativă… Sirena din mâinile candidului Poseidon, are înfăţişare de târfă rea, în timp ce şopârla preia în liniile corpului ei elegant-graţioase pe cele ale lui Apollo care o ţine în palmă.

O lume legendară, dezbrăcată de mister şi de orice urmă de forţă sau brutalitate, dominată de aerul pur, transparent pe care îl au personajele. Desenele poartă dată de 25 ianuarie. Următoarea zi, Eisenstein schiţează primele rânduri ale celebrului său scenariu de film "Ivan cel Groaznic". Acel măreţ Ivan care, ca şi operele anterioare, este atât de violent colorat de cruzime. *****

Leadership: Forţa prezentă şi viitoare a creaţiei tale stă în caracterul ei de reversibilitate, luând în considerare prezenţa totală şi desăvârşită a unui personaj care se include ca un protagonist omniprezent într-o temă majoră?

Forţa prezentă şi mai ales viitoare a unei creaţii, de care omul se poate servi în scopul implementării unor puncte de vedere asupra unui anumit subiect, stă în caracterul ei de reversibilitate. Adică, regizorul poate combina mai multe figuri, situaţii, viziuni, decoruri, scene, toate reunite într-un tot unitar, şi promovate mereu altă formă, astfel încât mesajul transmis să fie înţeles doar de către cei care deţin calitatea de a fi un catalizator pentru schimbare.

Nimic nu se pierde, totul se transformă, combinându-se în sensuri diferite, mai ales în ceea ce priveşte alegerea, probarea şi dimensionarea tuturor componentelor constitutive ale procesului de creaţie. Totul revine şi reinterpretează într-un context schimbător, căpătând relevanţă îndată ce se nasc noi modele de reprezentare a identităţii cu ajutorul unor adăugiri de ordin perceptual şi conceptual.

Dar să nu uităm că aceste transformări de sine, de imagine, de identitate, pot servi ca instrumente de măsurare ale sensibilităţii şi fineţii avansate, în continua înnoire a formelor de exprimare şi de autonomie, permiţând detectarea unor fenomene stilistice foarte variate. Pe care aprecierea şi valorificarea experienţei în munca cu sinele superior le resimte în mod susţinut.

Creaţia remarcabilă a unui regizor rezidă din viziunea cu care plăsmuieşte un personaj ale cărui fapte şi trăsături produc ecouri în prezentul unei conştiinţe dispusă să-şi regândească sensul vieţii.

Un aspect revelator al programului „ fii exact aşa cum îţi cere nevoia de transformare " este, de pildă, felul în care comunici cu ceea ce este dincolo de tine. În apropierea unei lumi inundate de noi simţiri şi reprezentaţiuni. Cu toate nuanţele, vibraţiunile, în care răsună în mod diferit chemările unei noi realităţi. Astfel, se poate recepţiona ecoul pretenţiilor de a institui un fel de supremaţie a raţiunii prin intermediul unor actualizări identitare care au impact asupra modului în care îţi proiectezi „îmbunătăţirile” asupra competenţelor tale de iniţiator al ineditului.

Inspiraţia se produce odată cu încercarea de reorientare a propriei deveniri prin intermediul unei creaţii care are ca bază de susţinere dimensiunea personalităţii pe care eşti dispus să o arăţi lumii. Cine demonstrează o stăpânire perfectă a metodei de a se actualiza prin resemnificare, adică prin referiri pertinente la alte identităţi, în problema de mare relevanţă a produsului finit – o nouă reprezentare a omului despre el însuşi, poate oricând să-şi demonstreze superioritatea în susţinerea unor noi modele de leadership.

Un protagonist omniprezent într-o temă majoră este un caracter complex, puternic, definit din mai multe perspective, dar în aşa fel încât să valideze statutul de "exemplu al unei realităţi care niciodată nu se va şterge din memoria lumii."

Tema majoră a unei creaţii care face cinste leadershipului este acceptarea unui destin de personaj scris cu ajutorul unei comparaţii între ceea ce ţi se întâmplă şi ceea ce eşti dispus să schimbi la realitate ca să dai un sens nou vieţii.

Lirismul viziunii artistului evidenţiază legătura dintre modelele de inspiraţie alese şi aspectele personalităţii tale, pe care eşti dispus să le arăţi lumii pentru a te putea face înţeles într-un alt sens decât cel comun, obişnuit. Reprezintă conţinutul a ceea ce încerci să comunici şi să induci prin intermediul inspiraţiei, fără o îndrumare avizată ce poate avea efecte total opuse, spre a ajunge la acea perfecţiune a leadershipului de a te exprima şi de a-ţi plasa mesajele prin redefinirea propriei fiinţe, a propriei realităţi şi a propriei creativităţi.

Living on my own (II)

On August 18, 2015

Adânceşte-te în ceea ce acumulezi prin cunoaştere şi în ceea ce imaginezi, încât să te transformi într-un argument de netăgăduit al propriilor tale compoziţii.

Exprimarea printr-un limbaj metaforic, construit numai din viziuni şi mesaje particularizate, la care mai curând mă îndeamnă nebunia decât raţiunea, reprezintă şansa de a mă pierde în lumea unui astru ascuns, care de fapt a murit, şi de a experimenta întreaga putere a nemaiîntâlnitului. „Sometimes I feel nobody gives me no warning / Find my head is always up in the clouds in a dreamworld."

Iar odată cu acest dreamworld, cu fiecare ostenire a elanului spre atingerea adevărului absolut al unei noi realităţi, în interiorul meu se produce o dezbinare, asemenea unor bucăţi de bazalt smulse de furia oceanului. În perimetrul rece al unui spaţiu excedentar, cu multe încăperi, conţinând complexe rezolvări ale unor necunoscute, sunt aruncat cu forţa unei revelaţii, ca și cum m-aş fi desprins de mine însumi...Deprimat, îmi dau seama că mă aflu în perimetrul celei de-a doua naşteri. Ce o fi cu mine? „Sometimes I feel I'm gonna break down and cry."

Un uomo universale , un creier adaptabil la necunoscut, un calculator dotat cu soft de modelare care funcţionează prin sunete, expresii şi conotaţiile lor, însetat de a cuprinde acea adâncime de neconceput a timpului, punând sub semnul întrebării ipoteza aşa numitei „ mici revizuiri ale identităţii ", începe să se încorporeze singur în spaţiul creaţiei, învăluindu-se în efluviile lirice izvorâte dintr-o dependenţă periculoasă, dintr-o sete enormă de contopire cu o artă mai puţin convenţională.

De invidiat. Dintr-o simplă viziune, Freddie Mercury devine, prin tonul distinctiv al rostirii sub efectul muzicii, o imagine reală a Dumnezeirii, însă o imagine creată şi eternă. „Got to be some good times ahead."

Un mare filosof a dovedit că totul este posibil, arătând cum pot să se unească fizic adevărurile fiecărei contradicţii, cum ar fi, de pildă, că albul este negru şi că negrul este alb. Că poţi fi şi nu fi în acelaşi timp, că neantul este un lucru, că poate exista un munte fără vale.

Dacă la rândul meu aş fi putut să dovedesc toate aceste paradoxuri fără niciun argument înşelător, axându-mă doar pe interpretarea unor legi imateriale, derivate din formulele unui limbaj de ordin întâi, atunci nu s-ar mai pierde nimic din ce îmi poate oferi imprecisul: „Dee do de de, dee do de de."

Leadership: Poţi să efectuezi eventuale revizuiri ale identităţii, încorporându-te în spaţiul unei creaţii a cărei expresivitate se opreşte la semnificaţia plauzibilă a cuvântului "contradicţie" ?

Leadershipul se derulează continuu punând sub semnul întrebării ipoteza aşa numitei „ mici revizuiri ale identităţii ", atunci când artistul începe să se încorporeze în spaţiul propriei lui creaţii prin efluviile de autenticitate izvorâte dintr-o dependentă periculoasă, dintr-o sete enormă de contopire cu o artă mai puţin convenţională.

Această artă, pe care nu o putem deduce pur şi simplu din formulele şi principiile teoriilor, este traversată de o paralelă numită „contradicţie", unde totul capătă sens prin raportare la alt sens. Poţi fi în acelaşi timp creator şi creaţie?

Contradicţia este produsul fatal al unei lupte interioare, între ceea ce poţi să accepţi în starea de a dărui o viziune, de a inventa imagini, şi ceea ce poţi să exprimi în starea de a fi mereu altceva (un „microcosmos" cu valoare simbolică, construit cu materia realităţii existente).

Leadershipul, care are ca premisă a unei dezvoltări sustenabile lumea văzută prin ochii unui artist, dobândeşte un soi de extensivitate, purtătoare a unui dinamism de auto-înțelegere care apare ca urmare a experienței de trăire într-un perimetru interpretativ. Interpretul unui rol mare nu este doar un efect al creaţiei personale, prin linia sobră a rostirii şi limpezimea expresiei, ci mai degrabă un amplificator al acestui efect.

Liderul este un artist ce lucrează la interpretarea unor concluzii şi abordări exploratorii. Un asemenea om se adânceşte în ceea ce acumulează prin cunoaştere şi în ceea ce imaginează, transformându-se el însuşi într-o „ştire estetică", într-un argument de netăgăduit al propriilor sale compoziţii.

Leadership: Poţi să dai viaţă unei cunoaşteri aparte cu ajutorul unui protocol de acces la instanţa unui orizont inexistent, fără să te desprinzi de zona apartenenţei tale la o formă superioară de spiritualitate?

Alegerea deciziei de a da viaţă unei cunoaşteri aparte, desprinse dintr-un „Dreamworld", se face cu ajutorul căutărilor subiective, cu ajutorul unui protocol de acces la instanţa unui orizont inexistent, procesând alte înţelesuri şi conotaţii ale lui, transformate în informaţii de livrare.

Un orizont inexistent este o deviere de la realitate care nu este nici prezentă nici anticipată, dar care întăreşte o regulă: "Nu contează încotro te îndrepţi atâta timp cât gândurile îţi suflă în pânze" sau "Atâta timp cât gândurile zboară libere, nu are rost să le opreşti intenționat."

Acest Dreamworld nu este atât un spaţiu imaginar, un element esenţial al laturii subiective, ci un produs al gândirii abstracte din care extragem sau deducem legături de potenţare sau cauzalitate între necunoscut şi cunoscut - pe care doar creatorii îl tranzitează.

Şi aici, apariţia unui fenomen de tip „val-vârtej al întâmplării", pentru că aşa cum s-a întâmplat în cazul multor artişti şi oameni de ştiinţă, ei au constatat noi reguli de traversare a frontierei dintre realitate şi ficţiune, cu scopul reprezentării produsului dintre ele, adâncindu-se într-un fel de savuraţie extatică, prin contemplaţie.

Ei bine, asta înseamnă să experimentezi întreaga putere a nemaiîntâlnitului, prin integrarea sinelui într-un plan de fond, într-un spaţiu de recunoaştere a informaţiei noi sub efectul trăirilor şi gândurilor puternice.

În acest caz, informaţia devine un corp de dimensiuni uriaşe, aflat sub efectul unei forţe interioare rezultante de valoare „primary key", utilă pentru a furniza o identificare a elementelor unei noi renaşteri.

O formă superioară de spiritualitate are ca mijloc de expresivitate acea mult râvnită capacitate de creaţie izvorâtă atât din comuniunea cu universul interior cât şi din semnificaţia pe care o acorzi experienţei tale de viaţă prin convertirea creaţiei la tine însuţi.

Living on my own evidenţiază trecerea omului spre un alt nivel de înțelegere și percepție a complexității acelei dimensiuni în care se autocreează.

Poţi să efectuezi eventuale revizuiri ale identităţii, încorporându-te în spaţiul creaţiei, doar dacă informaţia pe care o procesezi prin corelare cu revelaţiile pe care le aduce intrarea ta într-un anumit rol vine să îţi aducă un atu în plus în conturarea unui nou stil.

Living on my own (I)

On August 15, 2015

Asumă-ţi identitatea la care te raportezi prin forţa genialităţii, printr-o supremă renunţare la tot ceea ce te robeşte.

Motivul neîncetatului meu update interior este trădat de înfăptuirile acelui organ de percepţie care se dilată tot mai mult - mintea. Această componentă sublimă a naturii mele, putere a spiritului pur, pare tot mai ageră prin descoperirile ei proiectate în univers cu utilizarea maximă a energiilor cugetătoare, cauzând un Waterloo în care se încleştează toate forţele curiozităţii. O stare de "nu e destul", care este superioară sentimentului, poate să ordone conştiinţei să compună o epopee a genialităţii. „I get lonely so lonely living on my own."

Geniul, care aduce sclipire nebuniei, este un model exemplar al devenirii, format din substanţa densă a informaţiei inteligente, uneori sustrăgându-se prin intermediul mecanismului de interpretare a formulărilor confuze sau contradictorii de sub dominaţia principiilor de cunoaştere sociologic-existenţialiste. Ca un artist adevărat care imaginează noaptea, dar înfăptuieşte ziua, sper să reuşesc să stabilesc anumite contacte între ceea ce survine şi fiinţează în Absolut, printr-un "One goal, one golden glance of what should be".

Totul pare să se petreacă potrivit unei logici elementare, o constantă de reprezentare a sinelui în raport cu timpul scurs între două observări succesive: prima, a faptului că nimicul poate să însemne un scop suprem al vieţii, a doua, a faptului că diferitul, acest mod de exprimare prin metafore poate să ridice întotdeauna îndoieli. „Sometimes I feel I'm always walking too fast / And everything is coming down on me down on me."

Leadership: Îţi judeci propria creaţie pentru că trăieşti în ea, sau te judeci pe tine şi atragi răsplata pentru modul în care percepi şi reacţionezi la exigenţele realităţii?

Una din invenţiile geniale ale lui Thomas Mann nu a fost compozitorul Adrian Leverkuhn, ci călăul rafinat al omului din el. Ştiind că orice tentativă de întoarcere la paradisul pierdut al omenirii va eşua, Adrian întreprinde totuşi asemenea încercări de reinventare a sinelui. Iar scriitorul Ion Ianoşi oferea o explicaţie interpretabilă a acestui fapt: paharul amar trebuie golit până la fund, iar adevăratul curaj îl îndeamnă pe om să soarbă otrava, picătură cu picătură. „I go crazy, oh so crazy living on my own."

Creaţia cea mai de seamă a omului, ca şi componentă sublimă a naturii sale, este imaginea perfecţiunii la care nutreşte stabilită în raport cu o experienţă interioară mistuitoare ce devine oglindire în exterior. Identitatea la care te raportezi prin forţa genialităţii, facilitând o experienţă indirectă sau subiectivă, prin folosirea unei noi forme de exprimare în direcţia unui leadership artificial sau natural, dezvoltă o anumită afinitate pentru tot ce este out-of-the-box , printr-o supremă renunţare la tot ceea ce te robeşte.

Te laşi robit de idealul de a fi util societăţii prin eliminarea sau prin acceptarea constrângerilor genialităţii? Reuşeşti să satisfaci exigenţele realităţii, date de lărgirea posibilităţilor de accesare a unor aspecte de nemulţumire şi căutare de sine care cheamă la extinderea orizonturilor, într-un mod în care ceilalţi oameni te pot înţelege?

A-ţi judeca propria creaţie pentru că trăieşti în ea înseamnă să refuzi libertatea de a deveni părtaş la propria taină şi să ratezi formarea ta prin prisma a ceea ce îţi imaginezi că ştii deja despre tine. Această creaţie reprezintă suma tututor experienţelor tale, bogăţia spirituală pe care ai acumulat-o trăind viaţa la o altă intensitate, conturând profilul unei personalităţi reper şi model veridic pentru îndeplinirea obligaţiilor reflexive conform rănilor trecutului sau părţilor bune ale prezentului.

Leadership: Valorile tale variază în funcţie de conţinutul pe care doreşti să-l comunici şi de interpretarea corectă pe care o dai creaţiei personale în contextul unei meniri ce merge dincolo de imaginea pe care o transmiţi despre tine însuţi?

Leadershipul artificial se distinge printr-un conţinut nou de cunoaştere dedicat celor care au voinţa de a-şi imagina ceva de dincolo de înţelegerea lor şi a celorlalţi. Ceva care se poate implementa într-o existenţă controlabilă printr-o abordare ştiinţifică a fenomenului genialităţii şi a factorilor cu impact major. Cum bine preciza cineva pe web, artificialul este singurul capabil să reveleze natura ascunsă şi cea mai de preţ a omului.

În timp ce leadershipul natural, anume programarea proceselor de creaţie, receptarea varietăţilor artei şi modelarea lor cu ajutorul logicii elementare, abordează o înţelegere mai restrânsă a lucrurilor ce vine numai prin practică şi experienţă. Sau, citând un internaut, naturalul reprezintă în fapt convenţia umană a percepţiei înguste despre realitate.

Omul care este robit de păcatul de a fi genial, analizând câteva din consecinţele practice deosebit de importante ale elaborării unei ştiinţe informaţionale, se înveleşte de cele mai multe ori în pătura singurătăţii, suferind întotdeauna de acea dependenţă de adrenalină în a face totul pe cont propriu. La un asemenea fenomen social, la un asemenea instrument de descompunere a realităţii în ştiinţă, se derulează constant anumite experimente de detecţie a excepţiilor de la regulă.

Genialitatea, în direcţii moderne de cercetare a noului, echivalează oarecum cu trecerea de la concret la abstract, cu menţiunea ca ea încalcă toate acele structuri de cunoaştere care au fost setate să facă „sharing”. Genialitatea poate fi admisă ca fiind o chestiune de autoritate, o realitate care stârneşte controverse. O poţi mai uşor promova prin har, decât prin dezvoltarea facultăților creatoare.

Dacă leadershipul, asemenea genialităţii, devine o experienţă a singurătăţii, înseamnă că eşti pe cale să pierzi contactul cu ceea ce te face să aparţii celorlalţi. Dar te face să fii strălucitor în faţa lor.

Valorile care trebuiesc respectate la interpretarea corectă pe care o dai creaţiei personale ţin de capacitatea de a înţelege în profunzime esenţa lucrurilor, de calitatea de a gândi dincolo de tipare, cu menţiunea de a nu face din ele ceva distructiv pentru fiinţa ta.

Living on my own aduce în prim plan promovarea unui fel de a fi mai presus decât ceilalţi oameni, axat pe consecinţele unei vieţi raportate la simetria dintre autenticitate şi singurătate, construit mai mult pe baza beneficiilor oferite de fenomenologia creaţiei şi imaginaţiei, decât pe ştiinţa existentă.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul să nu se transforme într-un bumerang ce se poate întoarce împotriva ta, asumă-ţi identitatea la care te raportezi prin forţa genialităţii, printr-o supremă renunţare la tot ceea ce te robeşte.

Singurătatea este un rob folositor atunci când te lupți cu păcatul de a deveni cel mai bun, dar niciodată acest rob nu va putea să fie stăpân peste o împărăţie care aparţine altora.

Locul de întâlnire al capodoperelor muncii omeneşti

On Aprilie 13, 2013

Rămâi proeminent în profesia pe care o practici de-a lungul călătoriei spre tărâmul excelenţei, acţionând cu efecte mărite asupra acelei părţi individualizate din fondul propriu de formare.

Ceea ce urmează sunt câteva dintre amintirile acelea, pigmentate cu instantanee din zilele puţin mai coerente ale adolescenţei şi cele ale primei mele maturităţi. Aceasta nu e o autobiografie. Este mai degrabă un soi de curriculum vitae - încercarea mea de a arăta cum s-a format un scriitor. Nu cred că scriitorii pot primi o formare, nici din împrejurări, nici din proprie voinţă. Dotările sunt cuprinse în pachetul original. Dar nu e vorba de accesorii ieşite din comun.

Părerea mea e că sunt mulţi cei care au, fie şi numai în formă latentă, talent de scriitor şi povestitor. Şi acest talent poate fi consolidat şi rafinat. Dacă nu aş fi convins de asta, a scrie o carte ca aceasta ar fi o pierdere de timp.

Aşa mi-a mers mie, nici mai mult nici mai puţin. Un proces de creştere dezarticulat în care au jucat roluri diferite ambiţia, dorinţa, norocul şi puţinul talent. *****

Leadership: Poţi să atingi măreţia unui adevarat creator de universuri posibile, fără să strângi laolaltă o varietate de opţiuni de personalizare a modelului tău de gândire şi dezvoltare?

Cine este mai proeminent în profesia pe care o practică de-a lungul călătoriei spre tărâmul excelenţei: omul care aduce la lumină sensurile libertăţii de exprimare, în special sensul dat de interpretarea relaţiei "voinţă-împrejurări", sau omul care descoperă adevărata miză a vieţii şi acţionează cu efecte mărite asupra acelei părţi individualizate din fondul său propriu de formare?

Iată o dilemă mai mult decât utilă, care se repercutează asupra leadershipului, pe care o excludem din ecuaţia necesităţii de adaptare creativă la un ciclu de viaţă optim, a cărei necunoscută pe care dorim să o aflăm este amploarea pe care o ia capitalul intelectual uman. Nu trebuie să fii scriitor ca să te raportezi la "the source of all things that could be imagine în yourself" . Dar un lider lipsit de dorinţa de a strânge el însuşi laolaltă, în formă corectă, din propria voinţă, o varietate de opţiuni de personalizare a modelului său de gândire şi dezvoltare, nu va putea îndeplini lucruri măreţe.

Leadershipul este un proces de dezvoltare continuă în care esenţiale sunt ambiţia, dorinţa, norocul şi puţinul talent. Acestea sunt "dotările" cuprinse în pachetul de bază al unui om ce vrea să se desprindă din plutonul fruntaş al maratonului vieţii. Dar măreţia care face cinste leadershipului este acea scânteie de talent care stârneşte setea lăuntrică de a urmări până la sfârşit parcursul perspectivelor de abordare şi relatare a evenimentelor epice cerute de sentimentul de control asupra destinului tău.

Leadership: Eşti în măsură să recreezi adevăratul chip de bătălie al desăvârşirii omeneşti pentru a obţine performanţa cerută de forţa unui destin cuprins între "scriitor şi poveste" ?

Modelul de gândire şi dezvoltare specific regizorului se regăseşte în "felul cum foloseşte spaţiul, construindu-şi fiecare poveste într-o altă „încăpere" – ceea ce-i permite să-şi situeze personajele în cel mai potrivit loc posibil ca să crească în veridicitate (scenică), astfel încât, în ultima clipă, să întoarcă armele aproape pervers împotriva a tot ce construise până atunci." (https://yorick.ro).

De unde izvorăşte setea continuă de cunoaştere, sau inhibiţia omului în a-şi pune mulţime de întrebări? De unde se trage pasiunea pentru educaţie/ştiinţă, care provoacă dependenţa, promovată de lideri pentru oricine din jurul lor, de la mic la mare, pe de o parte, şi pentru formele spectaculare de exercitare a profesiei, pe de altă parte?

De unde provine dragostea liderului pentru arta de a se manifesta ca un mecanism de valorificare a propriei munci, ca o strategie firească de a repara propria existenţă? Care sunt izvoarele acestui fluviu gigantic de însuşiri care invadează lumea interioară, fertilizând întreaga artă a conducerii? Sensul lor este acela de a identifica, descrie şi evalua efectele potenţial semnificative asupra ascensiunii, rezultate dintr-o intensificare a activităţii de zi cu zi. Celebrul scriitor, Victor Hugo, a spus acest lucru în cuvinte mai simple: " Adevăratul chip de bătălie, iată-l. E acest loc de întâlnire al capodoperelor muncii omeneşti. "

Ceea ce întreţine şi dezvoltă leadershipul axat pe consolidarea temeinică a capacităţii de a "produce" ştiinţă, rezonează cu fundamentul indispensabil al oricărei cunoaşteri de sine şi de aceea întâmpină o considerabilă rezistenţă. Singurul punct de vedere valabil în a urma o cale de mijloc spre a te înţelege, spre a-ţi forma identitatea care îţi permite să te integrezi şi să te adaptezi tuturor încercărilor devenirii tale, este acela al unor experienţe de învăţare, de muncă, de creaţie care stimulează activitatea intelectuală.

Sentimentul de control asupra destinului poate fi abordat prin relatarea unui eveniment epic atunci când te plasezi in ipostaza de scriitor care îşi creează propria poveste.

Locul de întâlnire al capodoperelor muncii omeneşti vizează acele aspecte de ordin profesional care devin mai greoaie odată cu fiecare pas parcurs spre varianta optimă de utilizare a resurselor de evoluţie. Totodată vizează capacitatea de a comunica şi împărtăşi din experienţele proprii, dătătoare de elan creator, acelora care vor să iasă din anonimat şi să evolueze pe un traseu ascendent, ca unic scop al vieţii lor.

Locul întâi

On Mai 04, 2010

Demonstrează-ţi măreţia, reglându-ţi potenţialul de leadership în funcţie de capacitatea ta de a înţelege şi controla simţămintele celorlalţi.

Cu câteva luni în urmă am fost în vizită la un vechi coleg de liceu. Revederea a fost fantastică, plină de povestiri de tot felul. Dar cât timp discutam, povesteam, depanam amintiri, am fost atent şi la „ Jocul cu făina" pe care îl jucau copiii lui împreună cu alţi copii, în total şase suflete foarte hotărâte să câştige. Fără voie, mi-am plimbat discret privirea asupra lor, urmărind cum se desfăşoară acel joc.

Mai întâi au umplut o cană mare cu făină, au presat-o bine, după care au răsturnat-o pe o tavă şi au pus o monedă deasupra. Fiecare a tăiat cu multă grijă o felioară, în ordinea stabilită după tragerea la sorţi, în aşa fel încât să nu rostogolească moneda. Ultimul rămas în cursă, Matei, care se vedea de departe că era cel mai ambiţios dintre toţi, a câştigat, prin eliminarea rând pe rând a celorlalţi competitori.

Leadership: Exerciţi un permanent control asupra realităţii cu care trăieşti prin consolidarea eforturilor de răspuns la solicitările afective ale celorlalţi, astfel încât ei să poată atinge un nivel de excelenţă remarcabil?

O competiţie luase sfârşit, o bătălie se hotărâse. Îl urmăream din ochi pe micuţul câştigător cu acel simţământ de bucurie de care sunt cuprinşi spectatorii de la o gală de box când favoritul lor a câştigat marele meci. Dar, contrar oricăror aşteptări, citeam pe faţa lui regretul, poate acela că, obţinând victoria, ceilalţi copii care au pierdut nu-l vor mai aprecia la fel de mult sau, mai rău, vor căuta să se îndepărteze de el.

La „ Jocul cu făina" numai el a ieşit câştigător, ceea ce pe de o parte cred că i-a adus o mare satisfacţie, normal pentru că avea acel ceva care face diferenţa dintre oameni, acel spirit viu şi activ, foarte competitiv, specific celor îmboldiţi de o puternică dorinţă de a-şi dovedi valoarea în confruntarea cu cei mai bravi adversari; pe de altă parte i-a adus o mare tristeţe, o tristeţe apăsătoare şi profundă.

Sunt sigur că se gândea, în mica lui înţelepciune, să-şi împartă premiul cu ceilalţi copii. Părea cuprins de o puternică dorinţă de a-i sprijini pe aceştia, de a-şi manifesta interesul şi afectivitatea faţă de ei, de a-i recompensa cumva manevrând puţin situaţia. Dorea să atragă toată simpatia prietenilor lui, sau mai degrabă aş spune, toată recunoştinţa lor, înlăturând astfel orice semn de dispreţ sau invidie.

Dar premiul câştigat, o mică monedă de 50 de bani, cum să o împartă cu ceilalţi? Şi dacă ar putea-o împărţi, oare gestul acesta suprem de omenie va înlocui eventualele sentimentele de invidie, sau chiar de furie ale prietenilor lui? Poate dacă ar mai juca o dată şi, lăsând orgoliul la o parte, s-ar lăsa bătut, s-ar schimba cu ceva situaţia?

Din păcate, a trebuit să plec, nu ştiu cum a acţionat Matei, dar chiar m-ar fi ajutat să aflu.

Leadership: Încerci să-ţi construieşti o perspectivă promiţătoare de conectare la trăirile celorlalţi prin recunoaşterea unei superiorităţi care îşi contrazice esenţa de dincolo de ceea ce se poate vedea?

Dorinţa cea mai aprigă a unui om hotărât, însufleţit de idealuri măreţe, este să fie în frunte. El vădeşte o proeminentă trăsătură de caracter: să se distingă. Proiectându-se totdeauna mai sus decât ceilalţi, un astfel de om poate reuşi, dacă rămâne neclintit în voinţa lui, să-şi atingă scopurile propuse şi să se înalţe deasupra tuturor, să-i întreacă, să-i depăşească, să-i domine. Dar pentru cât timp?

Probabil că, ascuns adânc sub straturile conştientului, instinctul l-a îndemnat pe Matei să-şi îndrepte atenţia către simţămintele prietenilor săi. El a dovedit maturitate în gândire, atunci când, punându-se în poziţia prietenilor săi, s-a privit pe el însuşi cu alţi ochi.

Asta se numeşte empatie: să te preocupi de gândurile şi sentimentele altor persoane, punându-te în locul lor, încercând să gândeşti precum o fac ei. Doar astfel îi poţi înţelege pe ceilalţi din jurul tău. Dacă nu reuşeşti să intri în minţile oamenilor şi să afli ce gândesc, dacă nu intuieşti care sunt intenţiile lor, mai ales în momentele de cumpănă, atunci n-ai ce căuta în fruntea lor. Căci cel care nu are abilitatea de a-i înţelege pe cei din preajma sa nu va putea niciodată să comunice cu ei.

Care este trăsătura ta de caracter cea mai proeminentă? Instinctul de îndeamnă să-ţi îndrepţi atenţia către simţămintele celor mai puţin performanţi decât tine? Dovedeşti maturitate în gândire? Te priveşti pe tine însuţi cu ochii celorlalţi? Intuieşti care sunt intenţiile lor? Crezi că meriţi să fii in fruntea lor? Care este cea mai grea decizie pe care trebuie s-o iei atunci când câştigi, şi care este cea mai grea pe care trebuie s-o iei atunci când pierzi? Poţi să controlezi reacţia lor atunci când pierd?

Leadershipul este superioritatea pe care ţi-o câştigi prin aportul manifestării unei conştiinţe dobândite din recunoaşterea unei victorii care nu-şi dezvăluie sau îşi contestă în permanenţă dimensiunea individualistă.

Locul întâi nu este întotdeauna cel mai comod şi mai liniştit loc, dar este cel mai râvnit. Se pune însă întrebarea de ce au ajuns unii pe locul întâi, câştigând laurii victoriei, şi n-au ajuns alţii. Explicaţia e simplă, aceştia din urmă fie s-au implicat mai puţin sau deloc în cursa pentru locul întâi, fie le-a lipsit experienţa competiţională, fie n-au fost îndeajuns de perseverenţi. Interesant este că tot aceştia din urmă sunt, de multe ori, cei care invidiază, denigrează, sau mai rău, sabotează pe cel ajuns pe locul întâi.

Oricâtă empatie ar manifesta cel ajuns în frunte, mai ales dacă a ajuns acolo jucând corect şi dând dovadă de fair-play faţă de ceilalţi, să nu uite că: „viaţa e o luptă; deci te luptă". Oricât de amară este starea celui învins, mai ales dacă jocul a fost corect, să nu uite că a ajuns aşa datorită faptului că altul a fost mai bun, şi, la fel, să nu uite că: „viaţa e o lupta; deci te lupta". Caci în orice competiţie, de orice natură ar fi ea, nu există decât învingători şi învinşi.

Demonstrează-ţi măreţia, reglându-ţi potenţialul de leadership în funcţie de capacitatea ta de a înţelege şi controla simţămintele celorlalţi.

Locul ştiinţei în leadership

On Aprilie 10, 2008

"Mişcarea atrage întâi atenţia, abia apoi te gândeşti la ceea ce se mişcă."

Serghei Eisenstein nu învăţase desenul niciodată. Începuse să deseneze în urma unei impresii din copilărie: în aşteptarea începerii partidei, inginerul Afrosimov îi desena cu o cretă pe postavul albastru închis al mesei de joc contururi de animale. Eisenstein rămăsese fascinat de arabescul alb al liniei care se năştea sub ochii lui şi care în mişcarea sa făcea să apară câini, cerbi, pisici. Linia se mişca de-a lungul conturului invizibil al unui obiect căruia, printr-un miracol, îi dădea astfel existenţă pe postavul mesei. Dinamismul liniei era o senzaţie care-l pasiona ani de zile.

Inginerul Afrosimov îi inoculase plăcerea de a desena. Mai târziu, la Politehnică, materia aridă a geometriei analitice căpăta pentru tânărul student un farmec aparte pentru că traducea în misterioasele formule algebrice tocmai mişcarea liniilor. Dinamismul "devenirii", în opoziţie cu staticul, îl va pasiona toată viaţa, fie că e vorba de mişcarea liniei, ori de cea a fenomenelor. Era o fascinaţie pentru geneza lucrurilor care-şi are originea şi aici, în această impresie timpurie în legătură cu desenul.

A desenat, cum ştim, mult, în tinereţe. Mult şi prost, deoarece, abandonând inspiraţia primară, încărca desenul cu detalii sub influenţa şcolii ruse de pictură de gen. Caligrafierea şcolară după model nu-i reuşea nicicând. Maniera sa era aceea a desenului liniar. Apoi, abandonând desenul, a rămas în continuare pasionat, în primele sale filme, pentru puritatea matematică a montajului în mişcarea sa. Gustul pentru secvenţă apare mai târziu, şi-şi explica ciudăţenia acestei întârzieri, prin logica gândului lui Engels: "mişcarea atrage întâi atenţia, abia apoi te gândeşti la ceea ce se mişcă." *****

Leadership: Poţi să trasezi reperele unei viziuni atractive dacă le priveşti de pe acea poziţie de unde imaginea totală a omului se dovedeşte a fi aceea a unei entităţi creatoare ce se raportează direct calităţii de a fi sensibil?

Se dovedeşte sensibil omul cu valenţe sufleteşti şi artistice nebănuite, acela care studiază obiectele şi însuşirile lor, aplicând procedeul tot atât de concret al experimentului pentru a aprofunda înțelegerea teoriei și aplicării acesteia în lumina descoperirilor ştiinţifice. Un asemenea om se poate bucura de o operă de artă totală numai dacă ea cuprinde toate reperele unei schimbări care păstrează fondul vechilor reguli de compoziţie, şi dacă calităţile operei privesc imaginea unei noi realităţi, transfigurate.

Să însuflețești ceea ce vede mintea, spre satisfacţia ochiului care cuprinde frumosul şi bunul gust, aşa încât lucrurile pe care le acumulezi, încercând să le concentrezi în opere de artă, să pară mai puţin complicate decât se înfăţişează la o primă privire. Ochiul se strecoară în orice lucru perfectibil în plan artistic, atât cât să vadă în lume o schimbare și să-i slujească minții printr-o mare varietate de cunoştinţe. În acest caz regizorul Serghei Eisenstein devine un fel de oglindă a lumii, un fel de sursă de iluminare, de imagine arhetipală pentru acţiunea unei forţe de creaţie care provoacă uimire şi o impresie de neuitat.

Dacă pictura reprezintă culoare, rod al imaginației poetice, o formă de viaţă care îşi descoperă propria identitate, și se distinge prin calitatea de a recunoaște frumosul, sub toate formele lui, atunci Eisenstein adăposteşte o rară doza de talent care îi împrejmuieşte fiinţa cu calitatea de a fi sensibil.

El pare a trăi în spaţiul armonic gândit de un artist al formelor plastice, care îşi împărtăşeşte viziunea conform noilor curente impuse de circumstanţele schimbătoare ale societăţii şi de posibilităţile bugetare, dar cu amendamentul că trebuie să fie conştient de ce se află dincolo de coaja vizibilă a lucrurilor, dincolo de progresul lumii, dincolo de cuvinte, imagini sau tăceri.

Extindem un pic acest punct de vedere. Când spunem că "Mişcarea atrage întâi atenţie, abia apoi te gândeşti la ceea ce se mişcă", ne gândim la o activitate nelipsită din viaţa oricărui artist care doreşte să îşi menţină convingerile, sentimentele, intensitatea lor, nivelul de cunoştinţe, pe poziţiile unei concepţii originale despre lume, viaţă şi creaţie.

Leadershipul este maniera regizorului de a reda realitatea unei experienţe de viaţă pur personale cu ajutorul convingerilor şi sentimentelor care, generate prin sugestie şi prin imagine, pot să persiste ca un fundal al memoriei vizuale în subconştientul celor care s-au format intelectual sub regimul subiectivităţii.

Imaginea totală a omului se dovedeşte a fi aceea a unei entităţi creatoare ce se raportează direct la calitatea de a fi sensibil, atunci când devenirea sa ca artist se află în opoziţie cu staticul unui destin potrivnic, când el îşi manifestă afecţiunea în felul lui unic de a fi, în atmosfera unei povestiri de viaţă de la care nu ştii ce să te aştepţi. În această ordine de idei, reperele unei viziuni atractive sunt administrate unui subiect sensibil prezentat într-un mod inedit. Iar în ceea ce priveşte aplicarea rezultatelor descoperirilor noastre, amintim tematica căutării sensibilului ca o oportunitate care poate contribui la aspiraţiile de intelectualitate artistică.

Locul ştiinţei în leadership este un rezultat al culturii plastice şi al temperamentului regizoral, care are forţa să individualizeze forme de exprimare artistică, să supună întregul material imaginativ al operei la un fundament stilistic personal: "tot ceea ce creez trebuie să atragă mai întâi atenţia omului, apoi să-i direcţioneze gândirea spre ceea ce îl interesează mai mult."

Looking for the summer (II)

On Februarie 15, 2016

Întăreşte-ţi modelul de leadership, lăsând centrul de greutate al fiinţei tale să-şi găsească locul firesc într-o lume care îmbrăţişează altă lume.

Egiptenii credeau că soarele s-a născut dintr-o piatră, iar Regele Nimrod cunoscând forţa pietrei, ar fi vrut prin ea să ajungă până la cer. Ceea ce se totalizează pe linia sensului, în straturile adânci ale învierii plăsmuirilor umane, este nostalgia pentru ceva pierdut înainte de a-l avea, lupta pentru un ideal care depăşeşte limitele convenţionalului.

Aşa cum fiecare artă îşi are limbajul ei, soarele are modalitatea lui specifică de exprimare şi comunicare, prin căldură şi energie, tălmăcind gândurile slobode ale visătorilor. Nimeni nu a înțeles atât de exact și adecvat, conform impresiei unice pe care o produce un astfel de limbaj, esenţa unei stări de spirit autentice, transpuse într-o stare de creație. Look deep into the April face / A change has clearly taken place.

Linia unei conexiuni de bandă largă cu acest gigant reactor termonuclear conturează orizontul cristalin al speranţelor de viitor, producând sensul inspiraţiei, arderea intensă a focului sufletesc, alungirea unei porţiuni existente de înţelesuri atribuite podoabei de mare preț, numită profunzime.

Două fiinţe încântătoare aleargă pe o plajă pustie. O strângere de mână face diferenţa dintre un răspuns instinctiv şi emoţia dorinţei, prelungindu-se peste limitele timpului într-o îmbrăţişare pasională. Dăruire într-o supremă renunţare. Râsete de copii răsună printre ecourile vântului, acoperind orice suferinţe. O adormire în maşina unui vis de vară. O revedere de poveste. Aruncarea pietrei în mijlocul valurilor. O mică încercare de a opri timpul. Un vuiet din străfundul inimii ţâşnind spre ceruri ca într-o rugă disperată. I cannot leave behind the springtime days.

Întotdeauna în sufletul meu va rămâne amintirea acelor cuvinte scrise cu degetul în nisip, în căldura razelor îndrumătoare: Remember the love …

Leadership: Poți să te pui în valoare ţinând cont de acea predispoziţie lăuntrică a instanţei numită „Regăsire" care validează recunoaşterea participării tale la comiterea tentativei de a te substitui unei noi convingeri?

Încearcă să mergi până la capătul propriei tale deveniri, pe linia angajamentului faţă de simplismul firescului cu care receptezi, ca temei al unei virtuți deosebite, frumosul sau urâtul, speranţa sau deznădejdea. Descrierea și specificarea acestor constante viabile, obţinându-se prin efectuarea unui test de profunzime, nu au ca finalitate imitarea realităţii, ci recrearea ei.

Profunzimea reprezintă mai puţin o idee sau o atmosferă sumbră, ea reglementează acordul dintre frumos şi urât. Este mai degrabă este o predispoziţie lăuntrică a instanţei numită „Regăsire", un freamăt al dorinţei de a exista prin iubire, prin propriile convingeri şi puteri, prin căutări, prin creație, prin propriile calități, talente şi priceperi.

Profunzimea, pe care o recepţionezi integral și o proiectezi asupra celor mai realizate pagini ale vieții, dintr-un soi de afinitate faţă de un inductor (imboldul unei chemări inocente spre tot ceea ce pare imposibil de atins, imboldul unei iubiri care îți induce o anumită stare de spirit) prezintă un cadru întregitor bine conturat. De exemplu, imaginea de poveste a unei lumi care se vrea a fi oglinda, până în cele mai mici detalii, a unei conştiinţe care decide să-ți limiteze sau să-ţi extindă percepţia despre propria fiinţă.

A te regăsi înseamnă să afli cine eşti cu adevărat prin validarea şi dezvoltarea acelor sentimente pe care viaţa reală nu ţi le oferă, fiind uneori cauza reamintirii unor momente sau evenimente plăcute.

Profunzimea este o zonă încărcată cumulativ cu acel murmur de neînţeles care, însă, convinge asupra rostului pe care îl ai în lume.

Profunzimea surprinde cele mai variate stări ale omului aflat în ipostaza de agent purtător de sensuri nerevelate, într-o lume ambiguă, și ca urmare el se află mereu în dilemă: dăruire sau supremă renunţare. El își poate întări modelul de leadership în încercarea de a opri timpul asupra unui moment cheie, atunci când se întoarce către sine și constată că forţa lui interioară este singura care îl poate propulsa înainte.

Leadershipul este decorat de fragilitatea și cultura unei lumi total diferite de lumea ta, ale cărei granițe depind de profunzimea cu care pătrunzi esenţa ultimă a lucrurilor şi a fenomenelor, identificându-te perfect, în final, cu Supremul Absolut. Abia în acest punct îți suprapui imaginea peste imaginile iniţiale, și ajungi să te consideri o fiinţă foarte evoluată mental și spiritual.

Trăirea care hotărăşte contextul în care se desfăşoară viaţa ta este corespunzătoare stării de spirit autentice resimţită ca un adevărat izvor de fertilizare a conştiinţei, sau ca o zvâcnire de nostalgie care te umple de o linişte relaxantă sau de o preocupare care doare.

Looking for the summer aduce în prim plan profunzimea cu care tratezi propria lume în faţa întregii lumi. Sondând acele experienţe de gândire şi reflecţie de care sufletul are nevoie în încercarea de a privi dincolo de sens, te vei transforma într-o fiinţă superioară. Sufletul, vibrând la unison cu nemărginirea, poate să recupereze identitatea mai largă a ceea ce eşti cu adevărat.

Looking for the summer (I)

On Februarie 13, 2016

Recunoaşte ceea ce vezi şi ceea ce este ascuns de la tine ţi se va descoperi.

Soarele. Oare această super-putere atotluminatoare, bătrânul astru al universului, ascundea şi tâlcul vieţii mele? Oare din pricina lui simţeam osânda legării de un loc al meu, atât de familiar şi prietenos, un loc al stării de bine, acolo unde se face cunoscută energia aparte a viselor şi a lucrurilor măreţe care te poartă departe?

Doar tu îmi cunoşti orele dorului după măsura unei singure dorinţe, nemăsurata mulţumire sufletească, declanşând în mine pe durată extinsă acel ceva care lipseşte, strigând cu infinit avânt: "Să nu abandonezi în nici un fel visul." Doar tu îmi încălzeşti sufletul cu frumuseţile zilelor de vară, simţindu-mă ca şi când s-ar materializa comuniunea mea cu Dumnezeu printr-un ecou de tipul "Nu uita de speranţă".

Căci tu însemni mult mai mult decât cunoaşterea infinită ce o port în mine ca pe-un talisman cu semnificaţii profunde, doar tu reuşeşti să-mi oferi gradul înalt de conştientizare a unei experienţe de unire cu un fel de tandreţe plină de gingăşie pe care mulţi n-o pot accesa. Doar tu, fără întârziere, îmi trezeşti în fiecare dimineaţă dorul unei poveşti care la finalul zilei face înconjurul lumii. And still I stand this very day / With a burning wish to fly away.

Neîncetat, sunt târât într-un fel de rotire în jurul unui punct de pe pământ care face să aibă sens mişcarea aproape obsesivă de du-te vino, plecare şi întoarcere. Nu rătăcirile scurte spre tainicele sensuri ale liniştii, ci potolirea dorului după ceva care nu se mai termină. Aş fi probabil înţeles greşit dacă aş spune că sunt prins într-un proces de repetare a unei scene trăite în prealabil prin colaborarea dintre "Just Today" și „Leave behind”...

"Fără acest punct de care eşti legat n-ai iubi nici restul lumii, n-ai avea unde să te duci, căci n-ai fi nicăieri" , remarca unul din cei mai valoroşi romancieri pe care i-a dat literatura fostei Iugoslavii în secolul XX. Poate v-ați face astfel o idee cât de dificilă este transformarea unei fracţii finite dintr-un act de trăire impus de o forță intangibilă, într-un fenomen parametric exhaustiv. This ain't no game of kiss and tell !

Leadership: Poţi să te formezi în vecinătatea unui punct din care se elimină însuşi punctul, încât să reprezinţi un sens de creaţie diferit faţă de cel spre care te îndrepţi de obicei?

Noutatea în construcția dezvoltării personale constă în schimbarea perspectivei tradiţionale și totalizatoare asupra ideii de apartenență la un „punct de referinţă” care trece prin mijlocul segmentului existenţial. Punctul acesta nu este o încărcătură a expresiei de tip solar, de o stenică claritate a comunicării, nu este o expresie de gratitudine faţă de o călăuză spirituală, ci realitatea unei transformări ce trece prin luciditatea relației cu ceea ce ai creat până acum în viața ta.

Nu este o chestiune de atitudine, valori și curaj, ci mai mult o chestiune de prevenție a unor căderi „în gol” în corelație cu acceptarea unor stări de emoţie profundă.

În acest punct Eul fiinţei îşi rămâne sieşi loial, la confluenţa dintre nevoi și dorințe, în fondul de producere a demonstrabilităţii unui Adjusted-Life . Aici sunt surprinse toate aspectele unei înnoiri cuprinzătoare, toate aspectele fremătătoare ale unei lumi care se naște în virtutea unor valenţe de personalizare a cerinţelor de funcţionalitate proprii.

Cu alte cuvinte, funcţionezi atâta timp cât reușești să te lași în voia unei forţe depline din care să extragi o nouă imagine de sine. Această forță își poate avea corespondenţa în sinceritatea cu care zugrăveşti un nou tablou al lumii, în sinceritatea cu care îți deschizi inima în faţa propriei persoane sau în faţa unei iubiri adevărate, nu în desfătarea pe care ți-o produce un lucru sau altul. Numai în acest punct există frumosul și sublimul.

Leadership: Poţi să captezi un anumit moment din viaţa ta într-un complex unitar al personalităţii, ca raport de forţe între trăirea unui sentiment unic şi apartenenţa la o realitate care se oferă contemplării?

Leadershipul este o vecinătate oarecare a acestui punct din care se elimină însuşi punctul, rămânând o stare de claritate absolută, sau o stare de pace neîntreruptă și uniformă, trăită în prealabil prin colaborarea dintre "Just Today" și „Leave behind", în care poți manifesta o afinitate faţă de o singură configuraţie a realităţii.

O realitate în care tot ceea ce există este ceea ce spui tu că este, compusă prin expresia unor trăiri intense provocate de unirea cu o putere mai presus de tine, una închipuită sau una născută din contemplarea a ceea ce numai tu poți vedea. Aşa cum spune Iisus: "Recunoaşte ceea ce vezi, şi ceea ce este ascuns de la tine ţi se va descoperi."

O realitate care se oferă contemplării este prilejul unui moment de reflecţie în care te întorci la tine însuţi, trecutul revărsându-se în prezent, când înţelegi ce simţi faţă de lume, faţă de viaţă, şi începi să profiţi de această înţelegere pentru a-ţi contura şi defini acea latură a personalităţii care te împinge înainte.

Nu poţi accede la un nivel mai înalt de evoluţie dacă nu cunoşti măsura adâncirii tale într-o stare care te îndreptăţeşte să presupui că exişti în relaţie cu o entitate superioară de "lumină" şi supraveghere. Soarele este ochiul lui Dumnezeu, el te priveşte şi te ocroteşte numai dacă îţi impui comparaţia cu acea frumuseţe de caracter care este de mare preţ înaintea Sa.

Trăirea unui sentiment unic de grandoare în faţa unei surse imense de energie este strâns legat de izbânda conştiinţei de sine în spaţiul dialogului dintre existenţa trecătoare a muritorului şi eternitatea cosmosului.

Looking for the summer este încercarea de a descoperi frumosul şi sublimul în desăvârşirea unei clipe, câştigată cu preţul pierderii de sine într-un presupus absolut care are puterea să-ţi schimbe perspectivele asupra lumii.

Lost in a book

On Februarie 19, 2016

Concepe-ţi o nouă personalitate, menţinând paralelismul dintre mișcările sufleteşti și felul în care te raportezi la ipotezele de previziune a unei lungi călătorii de-a lungul „acceptabilului”.

Mă pierdusem în contextul unei proze nesfârşite. Voiam să mă îndepărtez cât mai repede de golul ascunsurilor umplut cu urmele întrebărilor care şi acum îşi caută răspunsurile, a tot ceea ce se biruieşte prin diminuarea certitudinii indusă de un însemnat şi închipuit "Lost in a book" . Pe care obişnuinţele minţii, închise în teama de a nu se pierde în agitaţia rutinei zilnice, mă determinau să-mi privesc cu atenţie acţiunile, deoarece exista probabilitatea de a le pune la îndoială.

Punându-mi la lucru imaginația, într-o sferă sugestivă numită "trezire", a cărei suprafaţă de undă era reflexia în oglinda dinamicii sociale, aş fi putut compensa cumva lipsa de perspicacitate în identificarea pasajelor care constituiau modalităţi indirecte de expunere a unor idei de care eram străin. În sens invers, riscam să devin un fel de Don Quijote luptându-se cu morile de vânt, împotriva răsturnării preferinţelor subiective legate de ceea ce se numește supraviețuirea prin cultură.

Cu fiecare întrerupere a ritmului dictat de vocea minţii în rândurile cărţii, slab evidenţiate de reflecţii şi îndemnuri, aşa că nu vedeam în ele niciun ajutor în orientare, mă adânceam tot mai mult într-o existenţă fictivă, cu intrigi şi răsturnări de situaţie. Un pumnal plin de îndoială părea să se înfigă în miezul acceptabilului. O năvală de repere nefamiliare îmi umpleau închipuirea. Eu eram posesorul cărţii, și tot eu personajul ei principal. A citit cineva cartea?

Cuvintele transformându-se la rândul lor într-un efect de multiplicare a înţelesurilor, din care mintea mea aprinsă ticluia cu uşurinţă imagini de tot felul, asigurau efectul de prindere în flux magnetic a unor varietăţi de sarcini de tip reproductiv-aplicativ. Miza era schimbarea modalităţii calculării unui nou profil de scriitor prin prisma interacţiunii dintre două câmpuri: unul de inducţie a stării de nelimitare, celălalt de determinare a efectului de totalitate.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi creezi un nou profil prin prisma interacţiunii dintre două câmpuri: unul de inducţie a stării de nelimitare şi celălalt de determinare a efectului de totalitate?

Continuând pe linia unei gândiri ce nu se poate mulțumi cu facultativul, deci care are ca rezultat final ideea de integrare într-o zonă de cunoaştere mai extinsă, putem urmări accepţiunile unei particularităţi de conţinut a personalităţii care, fiind supusă unor anumite închipuiri și revelaţii, pare a se naște a doua oară.

Acest tip de personalitate se concepe prin paralelismul dintre mișcările sufleteşti și felul în care se raportează la ipotezele de previziune a unei lungi călătorii de-a lungul unui teritoriu numit „ acceptabilul ”. Acest teritoriu separă faptul de a fi subiectul unei cărţi de ficţiune de şansa de a fi eroul unei evadări din ea, cu acceptul conştiinţei de a nu rămâne afectat de vulnerabilităţile unei subiectivităţi care poate scăpa uşor de sub control.

În ceea ce privește leadershipul, problema presupusă de instanţele unui acceptabil care elimină îndoielile unei lumi fără perspective, se raportează, în capitolul unei creaţii care denotă o altă realitate posibilă, la dimensiunea cristalizării unui profil personal fals, dar mult mai performant. Este cazul scriitorilor care își inserează prezenţa în propria lor lucrare, prin intermediul unui personaj cheie, pentru a facilita un tip de experiență și comunicare care nu se poate experimenta în viața reală.

Pentru a te constitui o imagine rară de poveste mai întâi trebuie să compari acceptabilul utilizării unei identităţi false prin efortul de a te desprinde de lumea reală, cu trăsăturile unui personaj care îşi extrage esenţa din memoria unei experienţe trăite într-un context real.

Acest gen de abordare, prin conţinutul unei lucrări care punctează faptele nescrise în contextul dimensiunii unui nou profil, se întemeiază pe funcţia de cunoaştere apriorică, pe de o parte. Şi, pe de altă parte, pe contrastul dintre expansiunea unei conştiinţe aflate într-o continuă descoperire a realului și expansiunea acelor stări care sunt tangibile după ascensiune, determinând efectul de totalitate.

Starea de nelimitare este atinsă atunci când simți că poți să acţionezi ca o autoritate asupra determinării unui orizont de referinţe transmisibil, atunci când dispui de toate fondurile din descoperitul autenticităţii, de toate răspunsurile la întrebarea „Cine sunt prin altcineva?", și astfel reușești să fii tu.

Omul de ştiinţă scoţian, James Clerk Maxwell, a descoperit undele electromagnetice şi presiunea luminii, formulând matematic legile electricităţii. El a ajuns să formuleze diverse ipoteze nu fiindcă previziunile sale s-au bazat pe structuri cunoscute, ci fiindcă a tratat ideile ca pe nişte fantezii.

Mintea omului de geniu, ca o piramidă răsturnată, se fundamentează pe prezenţa unui plin din care nu înţelegi nimic, din care reies mereu soluţii integrale ale unei matematici absurde, dar probabile.

Leadershipul are de făcut faţă simultan la exigenţele unei duble subordonări: de a te constitui drept un fir conducător al unei creaţii care uimeşte lumea întreagă prin însăşi tema ei şi de a rămâne fidel acelei chemări interioare care te-a îndemnat fără încetare să înfrunţi realitatea prin regândirea subiectivităţii din perspectiva dimensiunii sale temporale.

Lost in a book este prezenţa vie într-un mediu necunoscut, din care renaşte un prototip de tip abstract, o personalitate unică.

Dacă lumea se îndreaptă spre un impredictibil care nu conteneşte să vină cu noi oferte, prin indicaţiile date de restricţiile unei aşa zise acţionări în serie ale puzzle-urilor născute din rândurile cărţilor care-şi cer dreptul la fundamentarea unor orizonturi largi de cunoaştere, atunci minţilor luminate nu le rămâne altceva de făcut decât să le completeze cu noi plăsmuiri.

Adevărata ta măreţie începe acolo unde se termină cuvintele.

M-am trezit dintr-o dată într-o beznă totală, în stadiul ascunderii celor făptuite într-o manieră nepermisă a libertăţii totale. Psihologia mea nemaifiind a unei linii drepte, a unui singur drum, se adâncea, se ramifica într-un profund act de sondare, conceptual şi creator, aşa cum fiecare univers se ramifică în noi și noi universuri atunci când este făcută o măsurătoare cuantică.

Totul este permis într-o lume care îţi aparţine doar ţie, dar suprema entitate a acestei lumi lăuntrice, Uroshtyam , este percepută doar prin pătrunderea în domeniul spiritual. Probabil, în situaţia mea se afla şi scriitoarea Simona Popescu atunci când îşi exprima gândurile în romanul Exuvii: "Există strigăte intelectuale, strigăte care vin dintr-o măduvă delicată. E ceea ce eu numesc Carnal. Nu îmi separ gândirea de viață. Cu fiecare vibrație a limbii, parcurg din nou toate drumurile propriei mele gândiri pe dinăuntrul cărnii."

Lumea mea părea să fie memoria unei alte lumi. Trăiam extazul unei cunoaşteri determinată de prezenţa unei temeri existenţiale în faţa strigătului de triumf al întunericului cu care ochii mei se deprinseseră în încercarea de a explora o lume virtuală. Vibrant în tot acest act de revelare a sinelui într-un mediu inert, rece ca un mormânt fără sfârşit, într-un caz de anxietate, era acea unitate în diversitate, în folosul facultăţii raţiunii de a găsi, după analiza şi investigarea stării de fapt, răspunsurile la întrebarea: Îmi puteam oare debloca o perspectivă a imposibilului?

Leadership: Poţi să trăieşti în memoria unei alte lumi prin alimentarea Sinelui cu mereu alte gânduri care continuă să se confrunte cu nişte realităţi ce trebuiesc redenumite pentru a putea fi acceptate ca fiind obiective?

În centrul de greutate al ascunderii celor ce mi-au fost date a fi descoperite în surdina contradicţiilor, în vuietul unei nonexistenţe care îşi cerea cu insistenţă drepturile, totul înscriindu-se într-o dimensiune a interiorităţii şi pe tărâmul imediateţii, stătea însăşi faptul ascunderii voinţei ca reflex al neputinţei de a concepe o acţiune. Acea beţie neproductivă a aşteptării, a tânjirii după miracol. A nădejdii absurde că, dintr-o clipă în alta, mi s-ar fi putut întâmpla ceva neaşteptat de bun.

Întunericul devenea şi mai întunecos, pe întinderea orelor de insomnie, de obositoare staţionări într-un refuz acordat acţiunii. Retragerea în solitudine, senzația de prins în capcană, impusă, dar și dorită, pe drumul nălucilor rătăcite în valurile tremurate ale unei gândiri revoluţionare. O relație trăită cu nimicul. Era şi acesta unul din gândurile care trebuiau să alimenteze lumea din romanul "Exuvii", cel puţin într-o anumită măsură, fiindcă la fel ca scriitoarea Simona Popescu trăiam dificultatea unei lumi pline de posibilități, cu infinite direcții din care trebuia să aleg, sub presiunea constantă a imperativului de a fi sprijinit de iluzie.

Întotdeauna tensiunea creşte când intri într-o stare de expectativă totală, tăcută, când practic aştepţi să vezi ce urmează, încrezându-te în simţul unei compensaţii morale, pentru a şti cum să faci faţă situaţiei condiţionată de acest inefabil mister al lui EU SUNT. Realitatea mea trebuia redenumită în limitele interpretării unei alte lumi: "Sunt una din carcasele subţiri lăsate în urmă de fluturi atunci când ies din pupe, unul din învelişurile năpârlite ale vietăţilor care, crescând, se transformă cu totul."

Leadership: Poţi să dobândeşti o înţelegere mai profundă a ceea ce eşti prin intermediul experienţei trăită printr-o manifestare a neputinţei de a ieşi din perimetrul vidului?

Am traversat lumile până am ajuns să mă confrunt cu o identitate mai amplă, menită să-mi confere dintr-o dată mai mult prestigiu. Fluturele şi-a continuat firul gândirii în ipostaza unui artist mai complex. Transformare totală. Iată starea de confuzie pe care o experimenta Nicholas Urfe, eroul lui John Fowles, în singurătatea întunericului care încerca să-l înghită, în jurul vrajei unui magician ce-i punea la încercare răbdarea, convingerile și prejudecăţile:

"Apoi, tensiunea a crescut. Eram într-un fel de expectativă. Aşteptam, aşteptam ceva. Nu ştiam dacă era să fie auzit, ori văzut, ori altfel. Ştiam că vine, şi eu încercam să-i descopăr venirea. Parcă nu mai percepeam nicio stea. Poate magia mă făcuse să închid ochii. Nu era decât vidul. Mi-amintesc două cuvinte pe care Conchis probabil le-a spus: lucire, ascultare. Lucirea vidului în ascultare, întuneric şi aşteptare... Şi senzaţia asta mi s-a părut că durează la infinit."

Eliberarea de orice constrângere, de orice formă de limitare, este de fapt o călătorie în căutarea unui răspuns spre atingerea perfecţiunii creatoare, fundamentată printr-un răspuns la întrebarea: Îmi pot oare debloca o perspectivă a imposibilului?

Căci imposibilul, temperat de ideea filozofiei conform căreia „ Adevărata ta măreţie începe acolo unde se termină cuvintele" , este o venire a unei senzaţii de frică intensă care e acompaniată de acea "Voce a Conştiinţei" capabilă să declanşeze rularea în psihic a unei noi versiuni realiste de a te reprezenta pe axa autodepăşirii.

Liderul care conduce prin prisma potenţialului de cunoaştere înţeleaptă a fiinţei şi a vieţii umane este un om care experimentează, în momente unice de profundă emoție și însemnătate, mereu o nouă latură a sa, reprezentându-se drept o expresie a luptei interioare, o consecinţă a frământărilor prin care a trecut, însăşi unitatea sa în acord cu psihologia „aşteptării din întuneric", în condiţiile vidului.

Procesul de construire a unui Ego care vrea să crească tot timpul şi nemăsurat ţine de darul remarcabil al scriitorului de a surprinde foarte bine spațiul și timpul în care trăieşte, în autenticitatea unei lumi care rămâne extrem de actualitate chiar și după ce a trecut o anumită perioadă de la traversarea acesteia.

Lucirea vidului în ascultare este o parabolă a aşteptării care ia sfârşit o dată cu evoluţia omului. Această așteptare, pentru îndepărtarea de originea sa, de scopuri și anturaje, nu este doar o manifestare a prezenţei lucide a raţionalului asupra imaginaţiei, ci o contopire cu Eul suprem, cu ceea ce este nelimitat, inefabil, Divin.

Libertatea totală este rezultatul ascunderii, îndepărtării de lumea ştiută, într-o perioadă de așteptare, de analiză și investigare psihilogică, având ca specific descoperirea unei măsuri a dimensiunii umane în exprimarea unităţii de sine.

Iar această unitate de sine, această imensă încredere în posibilitățile de cunoaştere care succedă necunoscutul, vidul, întunericul, așteptarea, reprezintă de fapt coloana luminoasă din însăşi esenţa spiritului omenesc.

Lucrarea de întreţinere

On Februarie 15, 2011

Omul care este pe punctul de a face o schimbare pe plan profesional trebuie să aleagă opţiunea "fii stăpân pe tine însuţi", cu mult înainte de se pune pe primul plan în viziunea sa asupra viitorului.

Când eram mic, tatăl meu cel bogat mi-a dat o carte pentru copii, intitulată Supa de piatră , scrisă în 1947 de Marcia Brown şi disponibilă încă în marile librării. El m-a îndrumat să citesc această carte ca să-mi încep astfel ucenicia de conducător în afaceri.

Tatăl meu cel bogat, îmi spunea: "Calitatea de a fi lider este capacitatea de a scoate la iveală ce e mai bun în oameni." În consecinţă, mi-a transmis cunoştinţele necesare pentru a obţine succesul în afaceri, cunoştinţe de citire a documentelor financiare, marketing, vânzări, contabilitate, administraţie, producţie şi negocieri, accentuând de fiecare dată ideea că învăţăm cum să lucrăm cu oamenii şi cum să-i conducem. Tatăl meu cel bogat spunea mereu: "Cunoştinţele practice ale afacerilor sunt uşoare...partea grea este lucrul cu oamenii."

Ca memento, eu citesc şi azi Supa de Piatră , deoarece am tendinţa de a mă purta ca un tiran, şi nu ca un lider, atunci când lucrurile nu merg cum vreau eu. * (Robert T. Kiyosaki - Cadranul banilor)

Leadership: Poţi să răspunzi unui context mai larg de schimbare care accelerează expansiunea conştiinţei tale spre o zonă a puterii de decizie, fără să te pui pe tine şi business-ul tău pe primul loc?

Lucrarea de întreţinere a leadershipului poate fi pusă atât pe seama receptivităţii faţă de cerinţele de business ale celorlalţi cât şi pe seama receptivităţii faţă de cerinţele măreţiei de a susţine activ dezvoltarea altor oameni. Această lucrarese poate consolida de la înălţimea experienţei de perpetuu inovator care aduce în mijlocul acţiunii tenta unei atmosfere care întăreşte celorlalţi oameni mândria de a aparţine unei lumi mai înalte într-un film legendar.

Pentru că dincolo de justeţea oricărei judecăţi, se distinge acea permanentă nevoie de suport şi asistenţă, în şirul demersurilor de promovare pe scară ierarhică, puse în circulaţie de oportunităţile de afirmare. Iată de ce Robert T. Kiyosaki obişnuia să pună pe primul plan "coloana de cheltuieli" pe care le avea de făcut pentru a fi ocupa un loc mai sus în carieră, deoarece principala lui preocupare a fost (la început) imaginea, opţiunea de a se face remarcat, în loc de a se face plăcut. Pe scurt, dincolo de imaginea la care aspiri, trebuie să le oferi celor dragi din dorința ta de a te dezvolta și a deveni, pe zi ce trece, cea mai bună variantă a ta.

Solidaritatea este o cauză a expansiunii propriei conştiinţe până-ntr-acolo unde poţi descoperi din ce în ce mai multe despre tine, până într-acolo unde se anulează tendinţa de izolare în care te poate arunca implicarea într-un nou proiect de business. Şi de a ajunge la unitate.

Leadership: Preocuparea ta spre atingerea unor performanţe mai înalte se înscrie într-un context mai larg de orientare a activităţilor propriei satisfaceri de sine, fără să iei în calcul "plata" unei prestaţii care să compenseze în timp real deficienţele sau înzestrările care îţi lipsesc?

Personalitatea umană se cere abordată ca unitate nerepetabilă între trăsăturile intelectuale, ce se găsesc în legătură indestructibilă cu situaţia concretă a fronturilor pe care ea luptă, corelată cu capacitatea de a lua decizii şi de a evalua impactul acestora. Un front al negării realităților manipulate de forţe străine, un front al frustrării de a fi dependent de un context particular, un front al dorinţei de a pune valoare în munca prestată şi un front al libertăţii de a fi dependent de altcineva.

Singur îţi subminezi autoritatea dacă nu reuşeşti să răspunzi unui context mai larg care accelerează expansiunea propriei conştiinţe spre o zonă a puterii de decizie. Nu trebuie să pierzi pe niciun front, ci să străluceşti pe fiecare. Dacă nu vrei ca leadershipul să capete valenţe de decor, atunci dovedeşte-le celorlalţi că nu se pot pune cu tine pe niciun front, că eşti câştigător în orice confruntare.

Determinismul se manifestă mult mai complex în acele situaţii de interes, dependente de voinţa altora de dimensionare a nivelului de influenţă, când trebuie să-ţi extinzi, într-un fel sau altul, limitele de performanţă, dar mai ales experienţa într-un domeniu - ce instinctiv îţi dai seama că e unic, imprevizibil.

Plata pe care trebuie să o achiţi pentru a-ţi asigura o prestaţie în măsură să compenseze în timp deficienţele sau înzestrările care îţi lipsesc, este acea conștiință de sine, acel sâmbure inexprimabil în cuvinte, dar neschimbat de-a lungul vieții, pe care-l îmbracă convingerile tale legate de generozitate şi corectitudine.

Lucrarea de întreţinere este legată de sinceritatea cu tine însuţi atunci când ştii că ai întrecut măsura în anumite privinţe, şi eşti dator conştiinţei să îndrepţi lucrurile. Este un concurs cu tine însuţi pe care îl câştigi atunci când te cunoşti mai bine prin experienţele trăite. Este relaţia pe care o stabileşti cu tine însuţi înainte de a te implica în munca cu oamenii din jur.

Lucrarea unui artist aflat în constelaţia gemenilor

On Februarie 10, 2022

Un om care se vede constant printr-un alt om, într-o călătorie prin evoluția artei, începe să reacţioneze cu dublul său în virtutea unei mentalităţi de nivel superior.

Când doi artişti îşi adună puterile într-un singur Fitnedianh (aspectul vizibil al unei creaţii invizibile), abia atunci arta capătă grandoare. Mai ales dacă vorbim din perspectiva explorării unei realităţi care îşi găseşte forma corespunzătoare suprapusă pe conţinutul unei imagini a lui Dumnezeu care nu are ordin în universul creat de El. Iar o asemenea artă nu poate avea, doar aşa, pur şi simplu, o valoare decorativă, desprinsă din lumea religioasă a simbolurilor, a corespondenţelor, a ornamentelor din arhitectură sau a semnificaţiilor inversate.

Alteritatea, găsirea unui dublu al artistului în constelaţia gemenilor, aşa cum arată John Sanford în desenul său "Gemini the twins", nu este o simplă închipuire ivită din cugetare, o halucinaţie consensuală împărtăşită de vreo cauză externă prin conştientizarea existenţei a două forţe puternice unite într-o singură persoană. Nu este nici rezultanta a două forţe antagonice care însă nu se anulează, ci se atrag printr-o simpatie care te îmbie la o lume misterioasă cu reprezentare în plan ceresc.

În artă, alteritatea este înfăţişată ca o călătorie în altă lume, mai dezvoltată ca aceasta, în care dublul tău se datorează unei tehnici prin intermediul căreia o persoană devine vocea interioară a protagonistului pe care nu l-a trăit niciodată emoţional, dar care îi asigură invizibilitatea în plan spiritual. Într-adevăr, o asemenea artă a dublului nemuritor, fiind creată la nivel de "ecouri îndepărtate", capătă un anumit mesaj, dar ea ascunde înţelesuri pe care numai artistul le simte şi le dezvoltă prin culoare, contur şi fineţe, pe traiectoria unui cerc imaginar desenat cu nuanţă de galben-auriu peste un fundal obscur.

Leadership: Abordarea creaţiei tale porneşte de la premisa că forma optimă de constituire a unei individualităţi aparte se află la intersecţia dintre simetrie şi conştientizare, când forma şi imaginea apar neschimbate în acelaşi plan?

Mă întreb, cine ar fi dublul meu într-o imagine a cărui punct convergent este suprapus de profilul unei jumătăţi de elipsă secţionată de-a lungul unei axe lungi. Miza este de a decide dacă unele fenomene de recunoaştere a subiectivităţii pot să constituie una dintre cele mai frumoase şi temeinice dovezi ale gândirii prin contrastul dintre scopul esteticii și a logicii: prima urmărind frumosul, iar a doua adevărul.

Cu alte cuvinte, crezând că meditez asupra fiinţei mele, ajung de fapt să mă transpun prin oglindire într-un joc spațio-temporal care anulează logica aparentă a fizicii cunoscute, punând în lumină viziunea despre un univers care se extinde mult prea repede pentru ca materia să se condenseze în stele, galaxii şi planete. Încă o dată, mă recomandă capacitatea specifică artistului de a extrage din spațiu-timp secvențe și de a le transpune într-un alt spațiu-timp, într-un joc care se poate numi "imaginaţie".

Şi nu doar arta picturală mă aruncă într-un cerc exterior dedublat, al subiectivității, plasat la aceeași distanță de centru ca și posesivul meu, Alter-Ego-ul care trăieşte într-o lume virtuală, martorul meu credincios, ci şi bogăţia imaginativă a naraţiunii pe care o pun în circulatie, ca funcţie a imaginii mele proiectate într-o oglindă a metamorfozei spirituale. De exemplu, citeam ieri pe galaxia42.ro o recenzie a romanului „Piranesi" de Susanna Clarke.

"Povestea ne pune în pielea unui individ care, găsindu-se aproape singur pe lume, își face un scop al vieții sale din cercetarea camerelor care îl înconjoară. Asta, pentru că întreaga lume este o imensă construcție, cu camere, vestibule și curți interioare. Construcție în ale cărei camere inferioare există o mare, cu fluxuri și refluxuri, în ale cărei camere superioare se formează nori. „Casa”, pentru că așa o numește, întreține o faună, formată din păsări și pești, însă numai doi oameni locuiesc în ea. Pe protagonist și pe cel pe care acesta îl numește simplu „Celălalt Om”. Au mai existat oameni, încă treisprezece, mai exact, dar au murit. Acum, în lumea-casă trăiesc doar doi oameni. Iar în sălile ei enorme nu există nicio piesă de mobilier, în schimb există statui.”

Leadership: Creaţia ta dispune de constituirea unei noi identităţi în ceea ce priveşte mecanismul recunoaşterii de sine în evoluţia fenomenului de "oglindire omogenă", prin întrepătrunderea experienţei de menţinere a aparenţelor?

Aceeaşi doi oameni din romanul „Piranesi” corespund imaginii mele în constelaţia gemenilor, într-un tablou mişcător care dincolo de vizibil, dincolo de licărul felinarului şi chiar dincolo de întuneric, ascunde acea formă tăcută, timidă, dar nemărginită, de intuire a realității prin fenomenul de identificare afectivă care mă ajută să mă transpun în locul altcuiva și să simt bucurii și tristeți alături de el.

Se vede, deci, că reuşesc de fiecare dată să explorez o realitate perfect tangibilă în sfera viziunii spontane, holistice, armonice, şi să găsesc ceea ce corespunde formei de exprimare a artei prin transpunere mentală, deci experimentând o realiniere cu constituţia mea interioară. În sfârşit, ca într-o călătorie în altă lume, simt că fac parte dintr-un joc al dublurii ce contrapune, în aceeași structură figurativă, o imagine a includerii mele în universal şi o imagine vibrantă a unei lumi ideale.

O dreaptă este paralelă cu un plan dacă este paralelă cu o dreaptă conţinută în plan. Iar un om care se vede constant printr-un alt om, într-o călătorie prin evoluția artei, începe să reacţioneze cu dublul său în virtutea unei mentalităţi de nivel superior, dar supervizată de o întreagă constelaţie în care lucesc în nemurire numai stelele artiştilor reprezentativi. Spun asta deoarece materia are dispoziţia de a „atrage” forma într-un mod spontan, iar mijlocirea mea prin parametrii unei fizici superioare celei pământene îşi are ecoul, într-un mod transparent, dincolo de timpuri...

Potenţialul nelimitat al creaţiei mele constă în a experimenta o realitate perfect tangibilă în sfera viziunii spontane, acea realitate al cărei ecou răzbate până dincolo de infinit prin surprinderea aceluiaşi personaj în altă ipostază, în alte tablouri, în alte timpuri, dar mereu într-un plan al reflexiei.

Lucrarea unui artist aflat în constelaţia gemenilor este de fapt o ilustrare a ideii de a deveni la un moment dat suma celor trei variabile de extindere a orizontului de afirmare a personalităţii în domeniul artistic, atâta vreme va exista o realitate inspirată dintr-un proces de creaţie. Cele trei variabile sunt: "gradul de libertate permis de Alter Ego", "posibilitatea de a fi peste tot" şi "dorinţa de a fi mereu altcineva".

Înţelegeţi că tehnicile de pictură stimulează exprimarea prin creaţie a diferitelor problematici cu care vă veţi confrunta în diferite momente din viaţă. Multe din tehnicile acestea trebuie integrate în diverse forme de evaluare a personalităţii dumneavoastră în contextul procesului de dublă tranziție spre starea de conexiune cu momentul prezent.

Lucrarea unui imigrant în spaţiul alterităţii

On Ianuarie 31, 2015

Înscrie-te ca o conştiinţă a noului într-o serie de procese de transformare personală, setând graniţele certitudinii despre trăirea unei variante a realităţii care nu a mai fost selectată şi dezvăluită.

Adevărata încercare era să fiu nelocalizabil, precum o întoarcere în lumea personalizată a lui Philip K. Dick în care, după toate aparenţele dezvăluite de ştiinţa navigatorilor în necunoscut, nu mai trebuia să pun sub semnul întrebării sensul vieţii. Odată ce se întâmpla asta, aidoma creatorului care în faţa lucrării abia terminate încearcă un sentiment de nesiguranţă, urmam sensul de parcurs al raţiunii ieşite din polul pozitiv al generatorului de explicaţii şi preziceri.

Nefiresc. Eram înghesuit într-un soi de câmp al dualităţii, ca şi când odată ce izbuteam să mă fac nevăzut, aş fi primit sarcina de a mă găsi acolo unde nu căutam. O luptă aproape fanatică cu formele aparente ale gândurilor răsucite în direcţiile unei raţiuni care avea putere asupra pluralităţii lumilor ficţionale. Mintea-mi era străbătută de fiori necunoscuţi. Vibram puternic înspre un alt nivel de înţelegere.

Ineditul consta în metoda de cunoaştere a unui nou spaţiu de tranziţie between the "me" and "not me" . Mai degrabă, era o reînnoire integrală a sinelui direcţionat spre arta dedublării, predispunându-mă spre conlucrarea cu forţele nescrise ale nepătrunsului. Pe care gândurile acoperite de cele mai subtile convenţii ale irealului le descărcau în cortex cu acea energie uluitoare a misterului care trebuie trăit înainte de a răspândi dulcea otravă a falsei identităţi.

Doamna Winchester, văduva celebrului fabricant de arme, dorea să se protejeze de spiritele celor care fuseseră ucişi cu puştile făcute de soţul ei. Neîncetat, ea adăuga noi încăperi casei lor, creând un complex labirint de coridoare şi ascunzişuri, în aşa fel încât să poată dormi în fiecare noapte în alt loc. Dar în 1906, în timpul cutremurului din San Francisco a fost cât pe-aci să moară într-una din încăperile în care rămăsese blocată.

Leadership: Te preocupi de limitarea şi dependenţa conştiinţei de sine care se descoperă a fi în raport cu o realitate deghizată în ficţiune care te îndepărtează pentru o scurtă vreme de tine însuţi?

Citeam de curând pe internet următorul lucru: "Orice rupere, despărţire, distanţare de un loc este, de fapt, o strategie pentru o mai bună cunoaştere a locului respectiv, sau, mai exact, pentru recunoaşterea de sine în contextul indeniabil al spaţiului în care ai fost ursit."

Orice loc este asemenea oricărui lucru, imagine sau gând la care ne raportăm: reprezintă de fapt un transfer de energie realizat în momentele în care are loc o comunicare temporală între ceea ce considerăm ca fiind "finit" şi ceea ce considerăm ca fiind "alternativa" spre respingerea a ceea ce nu ar putea fi niciodată pe deplin revelat.

Atunci când gândurile întorc una câte una paginile vieţii, aşezându-le într-un chenar închis, plin de neînţelesuri şi complexităţi prin care se strecoară ipotezele implicite ce ţin de apariţia unei unităţi de informaţie imaterială, devii nemulţumit faţă de tot ce se întâmplă în realitate. Astfel, începi să tinzi către un nefiresc care îşi plasează activele într-o originalitate care nu poate fi negată, ci poate fi măsurată numai după efectele ei.

Omul care intenţionează să se redefinească în funcţie de noi tipare de gândire ştie că nu poate urca până în vârful unui munte fără să ia în calcul eventualitatea unei căderi în gol de la înălţime. Ca să se adapteze ascensiunii, el efectuează din mers măsurători relative ale înălţimii şi apoi încearcă să exploateze această înălţime, chiar cu riscul de a se „dezechilibra".

Leadershipul de mare putere poate începe să se contureze – paradoxal – de la trăirile tainice, de la tumultul de conflicte interioare, de la îndoieli. Un asemenea leadership se constituie prin abordarea sinelui dintr-un unghi imposibil, aproape paralel cu linia raţionalului, anulând erorile de interpretare ale realităţii printr-un flux al gândiri de tip cauză-efect.

Este etapa când gândurile acoperite de cele mai subtile convenţii ale irealului îşi descarcă forţele în cortex cu acea energie uluitoare a misterului care trebuie trăit înainte de a răspândi dulcea otravă a falsei identităţi.

Leadership: Poţi să recompui cheia primară a unei valori suplimentare de evoluţie, în încercarea de a te găsi acolo unde nu cauţi?

Prin limitarea certitudinii de a ști că nu mai reprezinţi un sistem închis (în care realitatea este percepută doar într-un mod obiectiv), începi devii o ştampilă a unei constante de autenticitate imprimate într-un soi de „lume a doua". Care, la rândul ei, te înscrie ca o conştiinţă a noului într-o serie de procese de transformare personală, cu rezultate imprevizibile, ale căror valori depăşesc pragurile impuse de restricţiile gestionării ineficiente a experienţelor trăite. Îngăduieşte-ţi experienţa unui nou orizont !

A recompune cheia primară a unei valori suplimentare de evoluţie, în încercarea de a te găsi acolo unde nu cauţi, înseamnă să tinzi spre un nou orizont al fiinţei tale prin setarea graniţelor certitudinii despre trăirea unei variante a realităţii care nu a mai fost selectată şi dezvăluită.

A seta aceste graniţe înseamnă să tinzi înspre un alt nivel de înţelegere, înseamnă să iei în calcul dimensiunea inconştienţei, lipsa unei atitudini raționale față de realitatea înconjurătoare. Este un risc asumat cu scopul de a construi şi consolida o nouă gândire pe linia unei noi interpretări ale experienţelor trăite în „lumea" ta.

Experiențele trăite în "lumea ta" sunt asemănătoare fructelor pe care toamna le oferă din belşug: ele păstrează urmele acelor stări de satisfacție încercate odată, nebăgate în seamă decât în momentul prezent.

Lucrarea unui imigrant în spaţiul alterităţii vizează încercarea anevoioasă de a te redefini într-o lume personalizată, urmând sensul unui raţionament abstract, aplicat pe modelul sinelui, din care poţi extrage noi concluzii şi constatări de valoare, necesare revizuirii gândirii. Această iniţiativă este similară ascensiunii unui vârf de munte.

Ia în calcul eventualitatea unei căderi în gol de la înălţimea propriei fiinţe !

Lucrurile (II)

On Aprilie 24, 2016

Alege să păşeşti pe căile progresului, întâmpinând propria ta realizare în lucrurile din jur.

Mă asociam ideii de a mă integra în începutul unei zile mari, din care, fără nicio explicaţie, se putea oricând scădea nimicul caracteristic unei clipe trecătoare în care numai lucrurile îşi arătau feţele ascunse, iar certitudinile proclamate păleau ca nişte lumânări care se sting dintr-o dată, fără a se sufla asupra lor. Era un fel de câştigare a încrederii într-o lume greu accesibilă, într-un spaţiul al conspiraţiilor subiective, în contextul libertăţii asocierii dintre elementele de sens şi cele de non-sen, astfel încât poziţia din jurul imensului ego şi munca mea cu el să nu poate fi modificată de jocul metamorfozelor ambigue ale simbolicului şi realului.

Ceea ce credeam că mi se întâmplă, la adăpostul unei conştiinţei care nu-şi putea explica realitatea decât în cheia unui timp devenit revelator al adevăratelor stări de lucruri, în ascunsul unei misterioase chemări spre o detaşare de tot ceea ce era inert, spre formele simbolice ale Necunoscutului, era de fapt continuarea unei călătorii spre o împlinire care-şi refuza absolutul.

Efectuarea unei schimbări în percepţia lucrurilor se face prin apariţia unei rupturi în ordinea lor firească. Un fel de pătrundere în esenţa unui întreg, vibrând la frecvenţe diferite de realism, cu multiple subînţelesuri atribuite erodărilor suferite de valorile care oferă sens vieții, printr-o utilizare abuzivă a tot ceea ce dă lumea din jur. Iar deosebirea dintre realitate şi iluzie, dintre lucrurile imaginate şi cele alegorizate, sub aspectul formal al asocierilor enigmatice, generatoare de sensuri multiple, stă în intensitatea exprimării unor trăiri care izbucnesc la suprafaţă prin cuvinte.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să-ţi creezi un spaţiu imaginativ, plin de vizual, etalând interpretări ale unei părţi din realitate care transmit emoţii din care nu poţi să mai ieşi?

La adăpostul secretului hermetist, în cercetările alchimice pe care le efectua în paralel cu cercetările fizice, Newton a pătruns într-o lume nouă. În faţa cuptoarelor sale, el contempla "naşterea" substanţelor, combinarea seminţelor masculine cu cele feminine, manifestările reciproce ale corpurilor. Prin intermediul Transformării, provocând o mulţime de reacţii, ceea ce constituia o supraofertă de informaţie, o asemenea combinare putea aduce un bonus Marii Ştiinţe. Dar totodată putea aduce o rază de lumină nouă propriei sale naturi, propriei sale realităţi.

Asta se întâmplă când ştiinţa se combină cu ezotericul: emoţiile descoperirii unor noi lucruri ce ar putea fi interzise publicului larg se intensifică până la nivelul la care te forţează să le acorzi atenţia cuvenită. Practic, emoţiile acestea se pot afla într-o vădită interacţiune cu jocul straniu al asocierilor dintre termenii concreţi şi abstracţi, putând fi influenţate de anumite non-emoţii, adică de un gând, de o amintire sau de o imagine.

Cercetările mele asupra manifestărilor reciproce ale corpurilor se subordonau ideii de a mă expune fără teamă unei alte forme de existență, corespunzând unei alte caracteristici a fiinţei mele: întotdeauna mă substituiam unei iniţiative private, aceea de a continua să caut ceea ce mereu uitam că se schimbă cu totul. S-ar spune că trăiam cu o intensitate ce depăşea puterea de percepţie a banalului. Tot mai greu îmi era să părăsesc emoţiile de "Evrika" ce îmi alimentau realitatea.

Leadership: Continui să cauţi ceea ce mereu uiţi că se schimbă cu totul, sau încerci să schimbi totul înainte să observi ceea ce îţi scapă?

Ceea ce se schimbă cu totul nu sunt lucrurile, cât mai ales starea pe care ele o declanşează. Aşezarea lucrurilor între Ego-ul ce are nevoie de provocări ocazional, definind în mod major ancorele identităţii tale în relaţie cu viaţa, şi contextul în care îți dai seama că depinzi de acea resursă limitată care te face să mergi mai departe. Aceasta resursă se numeşte: putere de selecție.

În loc să ne orientăm spre o împlinire a cărei primă esenţă cuprinde ideea de atingere a performanţei într-un anumit domeniu, ar trebui mai degrabă să observăm modurile în care putem împlini nevoia de a explora ceea ce ne înconjoară, după ideea că pentru infinita noastră realizare este neapărat necesară și infinita prezenţă a lucrurilor.

A încerca să faci o schimbare amplă în realitatea pe care o percepi din experienţele zilnice, înainte de a observa ce îţi scapă la ordinea în care sunt aşezate lucrurile, este similar cu a picta un pom cu mere fără să le fi analizat profund gustul. Înseamnă să fii preocupat de o idee care aparent este interesantă, dar în fond ea sărăcește din lipsă de subtilitate şi încărcătură emoţională.

Lucrurile sunt bunuri, corpuri, valori, produse ale unei lumi din care se creează universuri necunoscute, dacă te raportezi la ele prin starea de spirit pe care o creează, prin emoţia transmisă, prin curiozitatea stârnită, dovedindu-se un fel de mentori care te ajută în diverse situaţii, ghidându-te în procesul de creare a propriei tale lumi.

Sau, ca să-l cităm pe marele scriitor român, Alexandru Busuioceanu: „Lucrurile există. Realizarea lor este însă în mine, așa cum propria mea realizare este în ele. Din umbra lumii va ţâşni totdeauna identitatea și adversitatea aceasta, creatoare veșnic de identităţi noi: Eu și lucrurile. Iată, căci Universul Eu îl creez.

Nimic din tot ce e vizibil sau invizibil nu se naște altfel decât din contactul acesta dintre mine și ce nu sunt eu, totul resorbindu-se în halucinantul relativ al lucrurilor. Și dacă unul ar lipsi, ar lipsi cu siguranță și celălalt. Căci fiecare își întâmpină în celălalt propria lui realizare."

Leadership: Te afli de partea lucrurilor a căror valoare se pierde prin utilizare constantă, sau de partea lucrurilor a căror valoare o conştientizezi abia atunci când le pierzi?

Expansiunea înţelegerii existenţei, calea prin care se atinge o realizare îndrumătoare, se face prin forța invizibilă din spatele lucrurilor tangibile, care ancorându-se în corespondentul lumii lăuntrice conferă o mare doză de non-monotonie, de curiozitate.

Personalitatea ţine de ceea ce se reflectă în interior, reacţionând la ceea ce primești dinafară, fără a te lăsa copleșit sau înșelat de acele stări de spirit precare care te fac anormal de curios faţă de orice nimicuri.

Realizarea ta ca om de mare originalitate depinde nu doar de calitatea lucrurilor pe care le creezi, cât mai degrabă de ce parte a lucrurilor te afli.

Te afli de partea lucrurilor a căror stăpânire se-ndrăzneşte a fi refuzată? De partea acelor lucruri a căror frumusețe intensă te inspiră și te face să gândeşti? Sau de partea acelor lucruri pe care le vezi cu alţi ochi înainte de a le pune la locul lor?

În ce măsură lucrurile îți influenţează modul de manifestare a personalităţii?

Leadershipul este personalitatea pe care o poţi câştiga în contextul sortării lucrurilor care nu se dovedesc niciodată aceleaşi în timpul "mersului prin viaţă".

Lucrurile își pierd valoarea dacă sunt făcute prea ușor

On Martie 3, 2008

Chiar și în fața înțelepciunii universale, prejudecățile și barierele culturale pot obstrucționa calea spre înțelegere reciprocă și progres.

Începea să se facă frig, dar, chiar dacă am fi avut lemne, nu am fi îndrăznit să aprindem focul. Așa că ne-am înghesuit unul în altul și am vorbit, oferindu-ne unul altuia puţină consolare, împărtășindu-ne suferința pricinuită de disparițiile lui Talma și a lui Enoh și dându-ne ceva speranță în timp ce discutam despre un viitor vag; eu cu Astiza, iar Ash cu întregul Egipt.

– Mamelucii sunt exploatatori, este adevărat, a recunoscut el. Am putea învăţa unele lucruri de la savanții francezi, la fel cum şi ei învață de la noi. Dar Ethan, Egiptul trebuie condus de oameni care trăiesc aici, nu de rozaliui franci.

– Nu poate exista o colaborare?

– Nu cred. Ar dori Parisul un arab în consiliul orașului, chiar dacă imamul ar avea înțelepciunea lui Thot? Nu. Nu stă în firea lucrurilor. Să presupunem că un zeu ar coborî din cer cu răspunsuri la toate întrebările. L-am asculta sau l-am crucifica?

Leadership: Poţi să privești moartea ca pe ultima și cea mai grandioasă dintre sarcinile tale, reflectând importanța finalului pe care îl marchezi într-o operă de artă, unde punctul final adaugă cea mai profundă semnificație întregului tău parcurs existențial?

– Cu toții ştim răspunsul la întrebarea asta. Deci fiecare om la locul lui, nu-i așa Ash?

– Și înțelepciunea la locul ei. Cred că asta a încercat să facă Enoh, să țină încuiată înțelepciunea Egiptului: acolo unde trebuia și cum au hotărât anticii, chiar dacă puteau să facă pietrele să leviteze sau pe oameni să trăiască veşnic?

– Lucrurile își pierd valoarea dacă sunt făcute prea ușor. Dacă orice națiune sau om ar putea construi o piramidă prin magie, atunci nu ar mai fi ieșită din comun, decât ca un deal. Și să trăieşti o eternitate? Oricine are ochi poate vedea că acest lucru e împotriva naturii. Imaginează-ţi o lume plină de bătrâni, o lume cu puțini copii, o lume în care nu există nicio speranță de progres deoarece fiecare oficiu este plin cu bătrâni venerabili care sunt înaintea ta acolo de secole. Acesta nu ar fi paradisul, ar fi un iad al prudenţei și al conservatorismului, al ideilor învechite și al frazelor uzate, al vechilor ranchiune și al disprețului neuitat. Ne este teamă de moarte? Desigur. Dar moartea este cea care face loc nașterii, iar ciclul vieții este la fel de natural ca şi creșterea și descreşterea Nilului. Moartea este ultima noastră sarcină și cea mai măreaţă dintre toate.

Leadership: Contextul unei lumi dominate de bătrâni, corelat cu riscul unui conservatorism excesiv, poate fi echilibrat prin viziunea unui ciclu continuu de inovație și revitalizare, similar cu perpetuarea ciclului vieții?

În peisajul dezvoltării personale și culturale, conceptul de înțelepciune străveche, precum cea păstrată de vechii egipteni, reflectă un echilibru între păstrarea cunoștințelor și adaptarea la noi paradigme. Așa cum levitația pietrelor și veșnicia vieții sunt concepte care sfidează natura, simplificarea excesivă a proceselor de creație, cum ar fi construirea unei piramide prin

"magie", ar diminua valoarea și unicitatea acestora. Imaginând o lume dominată de bătrâni, vedem riscurile unui conservatorism excesiv, unde ideile învechite blochează progresul și inovația necesară revitalizării societății.

Moartea, deși temută, permite rejuvenarea continuă a societății, similar cu fluctuațiile Nilului, esențiale pentru regenerarea vieții. În acest context, moartea nu este doar o pierdere, ci o sarcină care deschide drumul spre noi începuturi, un element natural vital pentru perpetuarea ciclului vieții și a inovației culturale.

Leadership: În ideea că veșnicia vieții poate fi percepută ca un impuls asupra inovației, cum te raportezi la conceptul de moarte ca un element natural, văzut prin prisma unei reprezentări vizuale a renașterii?

În demersurile mele de a înţelege eternitatea și înțelepciunea păstrată de cultura egipteană, m-am confruntat cu aceleași dileme ca eroii literaturii clasice, care trebuiau să aleagă între dorința de nemurire și acceptarea ciclicității naturale a vieții și morții. Fiecare structură, fie că este vorba de o piramidă sau de un sistem de credințe, își pierde relevanța dacă este scutită de provocările schimbării. La fel ca în poveștile despre bătrâni care blochează progresul cu ideile lor învechite, lumea noastră ar suferi dacă ar refuza să permită moartea unor vechi moduri de gândire pentru a face loc nașterii de noi idei.

Moartea, cu teama și respectul pe care le impune, este esențială pentru dinamica culturală și personală; ea curăță peisajul uman de redundanțe, permițând evoluția și inovația să prospere. În acest sens, moartea nu este doar un final, ci un mijloc esențial pentru regenerare și progres.

Leadershipul se constituie ca un drum pavat proaspăt, un proces de receptare a unei imagini autentice asupra dezvoltării științei. în care sfârșitul este doar începutul unui alt capitol spiritual și cultural în societate.

Lucrurile își pierd valoarea dacă sunt făcute prea ușor, mai ales în situația în care provocarea științei și efortul necesar pentru a realiza schimbarea sunt esențiale pentru a cultiva o nouă perspectivă asupra lumii și a posibilităților ei de progres.

Lucrurile (I)

On Martie 19, 2016

Întoarce-te spre nordul unei priveliști care captivează atenția, schimbând cu exteriorul numai fluxuri de mister şi strălucire.

Manifestam o slăbiciune acută pentru lucrurile infailibile, variabile esenţiale pentru a performa, procese înnoitoare declanşate în mintea şi cugetul meu, despre care ar trebui să vorbesc zilnic. Dar, asemenea unui intrus plimbându-se prin creaţiile unei vrăji mereu active, le acceptam doar ca un efect al propriilor obsesii despre o realitate construită doar de dragul de a căpăta o altă identitate.

Lucrurile, depozite nesfârşite, suma tipurilor de informaţii reunite şi extinse într-un cadru compact, vizual captivant, sunt nişte eroi care înving în ciuda aparenţelor, oglinzi ale infinităţii accesibilizate doar prin vederea de ansamblu. Pune-ţi întrebări şi răspunde la ele sincer: cine oare le plămădeşte din haosul lumii, din frământarea sufletului, altcineva decât tu însuţi?

Dacă tu nu le vezi, nici ceilalţi nu le observă. Cel puţin aşa gândeşte un scriitor fermecat de lumea inversă, suflet pustnic între un sfârşit şi alt început, prins în lanţurile închisorii numită "Intervenție Atotstăpânitoare". Demers făcut spre a obține ceva cu neputinţă a fi văzut de alţi ochi decât cei ai omului aflat între două infinituri, între materie şi antimaterie, între pur şi impur.

În străfundul unei minţi unificatoare de informaţii, total pe dos faţă de cum ar trebui să fie în mod normal, există ideea că trebuie să te reîntorci mereu spre nordul unei priveliști care captivează atenția, schimbând cu exteriorul numai fluxuri de mister şi strălucire - aceste două puncte cardinale care domină lumea, inspiră sentimentele şi schimbarea de orice fel în jur.

Leadership: Deţii avantajul de a fi la înălțime prin unicitatea parcurgerii programului „Science" cu activarea opţiunii „Active Objects" prin comparaţie cu un întreg drum de parcurs de la tot ce te înconjoară la tot ce te ţine legat de nişte aşteptări imposibile?

Într-o carte a lui Edmond Nicolau ni se comunică faptul că în anul 1962 o rachetă lansată din SUA prevăzută cu dispozitive sensibile la razele X a dus la descoperirea unui fascicol de raze Roentgen de un milion de ori mai intens decât era de aşteptat şi care îşi avea originea nu în Soare, despre care se credea că emite raze X, ci dintr-un îndepărtat punct al universului, un astru din constelaţia Scorpionului, care nu emit în principal lumină.

Cu timpul, am început să privesc lucrurile ca pe nişte aşteptări împinse dincolo de imposibil, având-şi originea într-o lumină ascunsă dintr-un îndepărtat punct al lumii. Lucruri pe care le cuprindeam în vârtejul de formare a unei noi ordini, într-o călătorie fictivă livrescă, într-un univers al romanului unde începutul se confundă cu sfârşitul.

Practic, lucrurile au devenit obiectul unei ştiinţe aparte din care mi-am descoperit unghiurile de viziune ale unui alt mod de a mă raporta la situaţiile existenţiale, de a mă face auzit, de a mă exprima într-un limbaj academic, de a mă privi ca deținător al unei cunoașteri aparte. Leadershipul îşi putea începe drumul prin cunoaşterea unor lucruri, de la un cap la altul, prin intuiţie directă sau prin "vederea din interior", pentru că tot ce are formă constituie o cauză sau un efect ce trebuie luat în calcul pentru întemeierea unei psihologii imuabile.

Activarea opţiunii "Active Objects" în interiorul leadershipului presupune regândirea unor noţiuni fundamentale prin intermediul determinării diferenţelor dintre ceea ce vede şi ceea ce e acolo cu adevărat. Iar singura ştiinţă care poate contribui la acest demers este aceea de a aranja altfel realitatea, de a integra o lume de forme disparate în mari compoziţii unitare, cu o putere de ordonare pe care numai un spirit lucid o poate avea.

Leadership: Poţi să găseşti acele diferenţe dintre lucruri care reflectă unele dintre adevărurile universale ale vieţii, incluzându-le într-o fenomenologie ce are în centrul ei întrebarea: "ce anume manifeşti în realitatea ta? "

Constrângător, am sacrificat totul de dragul unor transformări vizual-conceptuale din perspectiva unui pas făcut înainte spre întemeierea unei cunoaşteri bazate pe amestecul dintre lucruri şi fizica avansată, chiar dacă nu eram un magician al formulelor matematice. Ţelul final era tot descoperirea adevărului, a corelaţiilor esenţiale şi a structurilor de adâncime ale fenomenelor.

Am comis păcate pe care numai ştiinţa mi le poate ierta, fiindcă am schimbat reperele tradiţionale despre leadership, univers, descoperire, magie şi efectele ei. Acum totul trebuie să iasă la iveală, căci oricum întreaga lume ştie deja.

Leadershipul, învecinându-se cu pasiunea pe care o aprinde în sufletul omului ideea de a vedea lumea doar prin experienţele de înțelegere și aranjare a lucrurilor pe un făgaş ales, și care tinde permanent spre această idee, se conformează unor judecăţi ce pornesc de la informaţii incomplete sau limitate ca număr. Judecăţi care includ însă reflecţii, închipuiri, sentimente, obsesii.

Acestea din urmă ascund de fapt adevărata şi profundă realitate ce sălăşluieşte îndărătul vieţii omului. A omului care vrea să garanteze revelaţia unor adevăruri unice, într-o formă sau alta, exprimându-şi funcţionalitatea gândirii prin scris, prin viu grai, prin mijloace artistice, etc.

Totodată, leadershipul poate să reflecte demersul făcut spre a obține ceva cu neputinţă a fi văzut de alţi ochi decât cei ai omului aflat între două infinituri, între materie şi antimaterie, între pur şi impur. Cele nevăzute sunt destinate „Intervenției Atotstăpânitoare” care deține capacitatea de concentrare a informaţiei în conștiința celorlalți.

Ceea ce manifeşti în realitatea ta ca formă de cunoaştere este asociat acelor lucruri pe care le controlezi din perspectiva a ceea ce doreşti ca ele să devină după ce te-ai ataşat emoţional de ele.

Lucrurile - pentru un scriitor sunt tot ceea ce poate fi perceput în jur ca fiind adevărat într-o dimensiune a ficţiunii. Pentru un om de ştiinţă ele sunt reperele unui nou tip de cunoaştere. Pentru un artist ele sunt semnele distinctive ale unei inteligenţe emoţionale puternice, în funcţie de cum le personalizează şi le însufleţeşte cu fiecare mişcare a pensulei. Pentru un lider lucrurile reprezintă cauza şi efectul unor alegeri făcute conştient.

Poţi să plămădeşti din haosul lumii, din frământarea sufletului, acele „Active Objects” care participă la schimbarea realităţii pe care o reprezinţi? Fii atent, căci ele pot să reprezinte o nouă identitate a ta sub forma unor principii care se imprimă în materie - în materia cuvintelor, a gândurilor, a faptelor, a creaţiei intelectuale.

Lumea care a apărut după ce s-a săvârşit misterul

Impune-ţi ideile prin adâncimea unei viziuni largi construite din versiuni succesive ale marilor descoperiri născute în jurul plusvalorii unei realităţi complexe.

Totul izvora din lucrurile aparent simple ale vieţii, dar din înclinaţia de a le privi cu acea putere de vrajă a magicianului care controlează neîncrederea spectatorilor prin teama amestecată cu fascinaţia pe care o trezeşte misterul, în jurul plusvalorii unei realităţi contradictorii şi independente.

Într-un fel, aveam nevoie de complexitate pentru a-mi tolera slăbiciunile, de conexiuni multiple între întregul şi pătrunzătorul ştiinţei, prin contactul nemijlocit al simţurilor cu un mediu care renaşte din lucrurile recompuse în întuneric, asemenea unei cutii prăfuite care ascunde nenumărate secrete uitate de timp. Amintirile mă rascoleau mereu, legându-mă de o altă identitate.

Inspiraţia se transformase într-un soi de durere cu puteri demiurgice, un statement al artei de a construi pe un teritoriu fragil un spaţiu imens, prin care pluteau împovărate de bizar ancore ale trecutului, distribuite în regiuni diferite de creier, declanşate de stimuli vizuali. Cele mai duioase rânduri pe care le-am subliniat în cartea vieţii, în lumea unei compoziţii pline de decoruri mistice prin care transpărea lumina interioară a unui secret indescifrabil, sfârşeau întotdeauna cu câteva momente de revelaţie.

Asta îşi dorea magicianul, ca publicul să creadă, dobândind certitudinea existenţei sale simultane, cel puţin în două ipostaze: în ipostaza de gând şi de cuvânt, aplicând metoda de determinare a nevăzutului, neajunsului, pururea fiind şi acelaşi fiind, cel împovărat cu veşnica aducere aminte a ceva ce s-a pierdut. Dar care s-a recâştigat prin împletirea dintre divin şi uman, dintre magie şi adevăr.

Balzac fusese la rândul lui un asemenea magician, se entuziasma, ajungea să creadă în propriul vis şi se vedea cel mai de seamă om din lume. O clipă mai târziu, revenind cu picioarele pe pământ, era obligat să străbată drumuri neexplorate în deriva existenţială. Şi totuşi, el este considerat ca fiind unul dintre cei mai mari scriitori ai lumii, stăpânind, ca nimeni altcineva, vraja cuvintelor. Geniul şi-a câştigat nemurirea.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să regizezi şi să controlezi spectacolul de aparenţe al lumii în care trăieşti, valorizându-te în ipostaza de facilitator al relaţiei dintre revelaţie şi iluzie?

Ansamblul pieselor de puzzle din compoziţia existenţei tale, construite prin versiuni succesive ale marilor descoperiri născute din elemente ale trecutului, din amintiri şi vise, menite să impună, prin introspecţie şi autocunoaştere o imagine nouă a lumii, ca subiecte generatoare de spectacol, stârnind astfel admiraţie, încântare, posedă statut diferit, în funcţie de succesiunile liniilor de producţie a noului.

Noul, constituind totalitatea reperelor de complexitate care deschid calea pentru abordarea unor perspective mai ample asupra continuităţii propriei tale poveşti de viaţă, respectiv a diferitelor trepte de contemplare a lumii în frumuseţea ei trecătoare pe care le poţi urca în procesul de percepere a unei experienţe particulare, are rolul de a provoca anumite sentimente, o puternică reacţie din partea celorlalţi oameni.

Întotdeauna în contextul noului se manifestă o idee, şi în aceeaşi măsură o invenţie de mare ajutor în fundamentarea unei interacţiuni autentice, o experienţă unică în a fi altcineva şi în a interpreta sensuri ascunse ale personalităţii, admiţând ca potenţial de valorificare a puterii de creaţie şi a resurselor personale de care înainte nu erai conştient.

Aşadar, conştientizarea a ceea ce contează cu adevărat să expui în faţa celorlalţi sau să le induci, prin folosirea eficientă a revelaţiilor şi iluziilor, prin reconstituiri ale trecutului, alcătuind vraja de a colinda pe acolo unde „mereu ceva e altfel decât credeai că poate fi", amplifică starea emoţională, slăbiciunea cât şi puternicia ta. Oare amintirile te determină să trăieşti puterea propriului adevăr sau a slăbiciunii iluziilor care te învaţă să fii altcineva?

Leadership: Măsura maximă a percepţiilor faţă de lumea pe care ţi-o construieşti este fundamentată de experienţele unei participări la o nouă etapă de potenţare a însemnătăţii conceptului de "versiune superioară a ta" într-o perspectivă de tipul iluziilor care te mişcă?

Omul care a atins stadiul în care realizează că are puterea de re-creare a realităţi, puterea de a-şi aminti şi valorifica ceea ce în mod aparent trece ca o notă de subsol în cartea vieţii, a dobândit în prealabil certitudinea unei existenţe simultane, cel puţin în două ipostaze: în ipostaza de gând şi de cuvânt, aplicând metoda de determinare a nevăzutului, neajunsului. El este un magician al aducerii-aminte, nu om care rămâne condamnat la uitare.

Leadershipul poate foarte uşor să capete sensul de rezultat al unui moment de revelaţie, în care realizezi că eşti altcineva prin intermediul bazei de gânduri aruncate în timp, sau a ideilor şi frânturilor de gânduri croşetate într-un stil de „lume nouă".

Atunci când mă gândesc la trecut, făcând o analogie cu leadershipul, ajung la cuvintele unui personaj dintr-un roman al lui Christopher Priest: „ Cugetând la toate acestea, am ajuns să mă întreb dacă există în educaţia mea ceva care m-ar putea pregăti pentru imaginea unei lumi modelate aşa cum mi se înfăţişează aceasta. "

O perspectivă de tipul iluziilor care te mişcă are ca principal punct de susţinere imaginea simbol a unei poveşti de viaţă care probabil ţi-a dat ceva de gândit atunci când ai observat cum din situaţii confuze sau contradictorii poţi învăţa lecţii profunde despre misteriosul aspect al realităţii, care a generat atâtea nelinişti.

Lumea care a apărut după ce s-a săvârşit misterul se referă în principal la universul de gânduri populat de aducerile aminte care nasc o diversitate de imagini ce învie mădularele omului celui vechi, ducând înspre un „acolo" unde tangibilul şi intangibilul se întrepătrund şi se influenţează reciproc, îmbinându-se într-o forţă care pune mişcare o versiune superioară a omului.

Misterul este o reminiscenţă a trecutului care cu timpul a devenit din ce în ce mai mult o ţară străină, dar adusă din nou în pas cu vremurile şi dezvoltată la maxim, ea capătă strălucirea unei noi transformări, oferind o bază de experienţe şi cunoştinţe pe care poţi conta în prezent.

În acest caz se poate spune că leadershipul este rodul „misterului".

Lumea văzută în prezenţa trandafirului

On Octombrie 30, 2019

Forma expresivă a unui sentiment de afecţiune este rezultatul recunoaşterii unei prezenţe ingenue într-o ipostază de dulce amintire.

În urmă cu câteva zile m-ai chemat lângă tine şi, după ce ţi-am inspirat parfumul şi ţi-am admirat frăţiorii, îmbobociţi de asemenea, mi-am dat seama că timpul pe care îl petrec alături de tine este într-adevăr un dar suprem, mai ales atunci când anunţă o binecuvântare. N-am avut ocazia să stau degeaba, ţi-am admirat zâmbetul în tăcere, într-o ipostază de pictor care ştie să descopere farmecul unor anonime colţuri de natură, căutând smerenia înălţătoare a unei relaţii sincere cu Dumnezeu.

Numele tău, Double Delight, face cinste unei lumi sacre, atemporale, camuflate în dosul aparenţelor, în forma unei atitudini de independenţă faţă de orice autoritate, de orice stăpânire lumească. Ca să generez puncte, linii, forme expresive, pete cromatice şi acromatice, mai întâi trebuie să mă îndrăgostesc de această lume prin vibraţia murmurată a unei sensibilităţi de excepţie raliată unei realităţi de neatins, pe care eu însumi o caut în lucrurile simple, dar investite cu o oarecare forță expresivă. O lume ce parcă trimite la o poveste dintr-o mie şi una de nopţi. Un alt temei de admiraţie faţă de înălţimea unei imagini artistice învăluită, prin vis, în aventura Șeherezadei.

În timp ce te stropesc cu soluţie nutritivă, mângâindu-ţi petalele delicate, observ ceva ce n-am mai văzut până acum, o construcţie pur subiectivă, cu toate că locuim în aceeaşi poveste şi ne întâlnim zilnic sub forma a două personaje care au o relaţie specială între ele. Observ acea interacţiune dintre determinările succesive ale naturii şi esenţa rară a unui suflet plin de speranţă, cu un bagaj de visuri măreţe, strâns legat de un proces de turnare a unei energii eterne într-o existenţă panteistă.

Leadership: Prezenţa ta într-o ipostază de dulce amintire atestă confirmarea unei entităţi conotative generate de un Creator care se percepe pe sine ca existând independent de orice stăpânire omenească?

Exprimarea unei admiraţii entuziaste faţă de o creaţie surprinzătoare în originalitatea ei organică, şi totuşi atât de complexă, încât poate da naştere la cele mai felurite interpretări, implică ideea unei relaţii mutuale, a unei acţiuni reciproce pe care o regăsim numai în lucrarea lui Dumnezeu. Entitatea generată de un asemenea Creator, cu orizonturi prea largi pentru a fi înţelese de mintea omenească la momentul prezent, se poate afla în una din cele două stări: o solemnitate a frumuseţii pururea vie, aprinsă peste lume, sau o solemnitate a gândirii exprimate printr-un limbaj expresiv ce creează imagini artistice sugestive.

Trandafirul veghează prin ochii artistului orice asemănare între două caractere expresive, căutând în sufletul lumii nu ştiu ce putere de atracţie sub înfăţişarea blândă a unui frumos decor, izvorât din mişcarea potolită şi ritmică a unui penel care a ştiut, anotimp de anotimp, să oprească pe loc, în şoaptă, farmecul unei magii care trece cu bucurie vizuală în direcţia unei opere de artă. El este prezent ca produs al finalităţii operei de artă în cuvintele pictorului Li Rihua, citat de Simona Popescu în romanul Exuvii:

Leadership: Îţi este uşor să te implici în demersul naturii prin extensia inteligenţei artistice, aliniindu-ţi „trăirea de sclipire" la conţinutul unei mesaj care îţi împlineşte cu adevărat sufletul?

Cu ce gând mă întâmpini ori de câte ori mi te adresezi cu atâta sinceritate, ca printr-o simplă aplicare a unei funcţii de cunoaştere şi revelaţie? Ecoul cuvintelor tale, le-am regăsit întâmplător, aşa cum se întâmplă când pictorul își mai trece o dată pensula peste amestecul de vopsele și atinge apoi cu delicateţe pânza plină de alegorii subtile, în vederea exprimării unui punct de vedere apropiat de mesajul lui Dumnezeu: „Fii impecabil în tot ceea ce ai mai generos de arătat ! "

Există în magia acestor cuvinte sensibile, atât de simple, dar care dezvăluie atât de multe, o anumită splendoare, posibilitatea vizualizării unei descrieri succinte a tonurilor unui pictor dăruit cu arta penelului. Tonuri liniştite, senzuale, calde, pentru ca atmosfera din jur să nu mă copleşească, precum roșu, portocaliu și galben. Combinaţia asta nu dă greş niciodată !

Nobleţea ta, remarcându-se prin simplitatea suprapusă unei fragilităţi trăită în mod genuin, ca la vederea unui tablou pictat cu duioşie, absoarbe o cantitate apreciabilă de spirit din imaginea unei fiinţe înzestrate cu o intensitate proustiană a simţurilor. Frumuseţea ei izbitoare, dincolo de convenţional, rezidă din efectul rememorării unei existenţe anterioare care revine mereu în atenţia mea. Un fel de manifestare a unei dorinţe nerostite prin intermediul unei game largi de sentimente, dar fără publicitate, pur şi simplu printr-o înţelegere a autenticităţii ca trăire pură.

Ori de câte ori visez la o viaţă nouă alături de cineva drag, care să-mi semene cu adevărat, cineva cu mare impact de imagine, nu uit să-mi decorez viziunea unei noi experienţe de pictură cu sentimentul frumuseţii inegalabile, independent de toate convenţiile pe care se întemeiază prejudecăţile în materie de tinereţe, de strălucire şi eleganţă.

Nobleţea este o descifrare a vieţii noastre prin graţioasa glosă a condiţiei de poet, de artist, de savant, aşadar o asumare a privilegiului de a aparţine destinului unui Creator care se percepe dependent de posibilitatea de a recupera eternul de dincolo de materie, prin spiritualizarea unei viziuni ideale.

În ultimele lucrări create cu dărnicia unei suite de momente de neuitat, par să reînvii spiritul unei eleganţe clasice în ceea ce priveşte folosirea comparaţiilor, simbolurilor şi metaforelor în interiorul unei mişcări a timpului, despre un produs viu, activ, acesta reușind să imprime propria sa personalitate creatoare, mereu în transformare, pe pânza amintirilor vii. Ochii aţintiţi asupra frumosului posedă dimensiunile unei obsesii misterioase, acolo unde alţii nu o văd: pura cunoaştere a unei fiinţe din afara timpului.

Dar am avut tot timpul lângă mine, binecuvântat cu toate cele de folos picturii, cu peisajele unei geografii interioare, simplitatea unui suflet atât de rar, vesel, dornic să arate lumii esenţa lui. Alteori find copleşit de tristeţi, de deznădejdi, învolburat. Cu toate astea, reuşind să trăiască în pace şi linişte. Rareori se întâmplă să-ţi cadă în inimă o conștiință atât de ingenuă.

Obiectivând ceea ce trăiesc de fiecare dată în interior şi transformându-mă într-un purtător de echilibru al spiritului şi al universului, de dincolo de rigorile timpului, încerc să redau o parte a lumii care, pe bună seamă, capătă proporţiile unei călătorii iniţiatice într-o poveste cu multă învăţătură, în care se ascunde şi o comoară nepreţuită.

Marea afirmare în lumea artei se cântăreşte prin ceea ce doreşti să te reprezinte în tot ceea ce te face unic, la nivel de simplitate suprapusă unei fragilităţi trăită în mod genuin.

Lumea văzută în prezenţa trandafirului este tot atât de largă precum lumea plămădită din ţărână la atingerea Creatorului, simbolizând unirea dintre două entităţi asemănătoare prin evoluţia artei ce are un parcurs sigur spre perfecţionism: o entitate numită continuu "spaţiu-timp", actualizată printr-un determinant The Traveller , şi o entitate numită "vitalitate a gândirii deschisă noului".

Lumina palidă a apusului

On Decembrie 08, 2010

Dedică-te dezvoltării depline a celor din jurul tău, ghidându-i spre o devenire superioară atunci când se află la apusul propriei lor "poveşti".

Nimeni nu poate să dobândească succesul deplin dintr-o dată. Vine un moment delicat în viaţa fiecărui om, un fel de test aş spune, în care îi este încercată credinţa în propriile capacităţi şi forţe, chemarea vocaţională, un fel de test care îi măsoară probabilitatea obţinerii succesului.

Cred că celebrul scriitor american Stephen King ştie mai bine ca oricine cum se obţine succesul, dar totodată cred că cunoaşte foarte bine şi reţeta pentru un eşec sigur. Încă de pe vremea când era copil a aspirat la o carieră de scriitor. A scris. Şi a tot scris. A creat. Şi a tot creat. Zilnic câte o poveste scurtă inspirată din viaţa sa de zi cu zi. Cariera lui urma o traiectorie ascendentă.

În cele din urmă el s-a hotărât să scrie un roman cu totul special, pe care mai apoi să-l trimită spre publicare, roman care – gândea el – avea să-l propulseze definitiv în rândul scriitorilor de valoare. L-a întitulat "Carrie" . Ideea era originală, era produsul minţii lui, nicidecum o prelucrare a ideilor altora.

Gândurile îi erau concentrate în întregime la succesul pe care l-ar putea avea dacă romanul lui va deveni cunoscut. Până în clipa când – fatalitate - s-a produs "deflagraţia". Fiindcă romanul nu avansa deloc, l-a aruncat la gunoi. Considera că era un pocal de speranţe deşarte.

Momentul acela delicat despre care am precizat la început, momentul acela în care simţi că nu mai poţi, că nu mai ai gaz, în care simţi că nu mai eşti tu, momentul acela în care, cuprins de un sentiment de tristeţe îţi spui că strădania ta este de prisos – a survenit şi în viaţa lui Stephen King.

"Carrie" era pe cale să rămână o amintire. Iar cariera lui era pe cale să apună.

Leadership: Îţi decizi traseul calitativ al propriilor performanţe din poziţia de a şti ce este cu adevărat valoros să păstrezi, sau din poziţia de a-ţi recunoaşte ignoranţa pentru ceea ce se ascunde în spatele aparenţelor?

Doamna Tabitha King (Tabby), soţia celebrului scriitor, a zărit manuscrisul aruncat la coşul de gunoi. Fiindcă nu se îndoia de talentul lui Stephen, l-a recuperat şi l-a citit. I-a plăcut atât de mult, încât l-a convins să-l ducă la bun sfârşit. Căci voia cu orice preţ să afle cum se termină. Şi, mai mult decât atât, s-a oferit să-l ajute.

I-a spus lui Stephen, zâmbind în felul ei atât de fermecător: "Ai ceva de valoare aici, vorbesc serios ! "

Este evident că Tabby ştia despre soţul ei mai mult decât ştia el însuşi despre sine, şi despre "pocalul de aur" care se ascundea în manuscrisul său. Căci, după ce Stephen a terminat de scris "Carrie" , concernul editorial Doubleday l-a acceptat spre publicare, iar New American Library a cumpărat drepturile ediţiei de buzunar cu suma record de 400.000 de dolari. Declicul s-a produs. Stephen şi Tabby King erau bogaţi. Dar adevărata recompensă a fost faptul că, de atunci înainte, Stephen şi-a putut consacra viaţa exclusiv creaţiei literare.

Leadership: Poţi să restabileşti echilibrul dintre realitatea pe care o dezaprobi şi idealul de perfecţiune pe care îl pot atinge?

Realitatea pe care o dezaprobi are ca referinţă nerecunoaşterea valorii lucrurilor de care te poţi lipsi cu uşurinţă. În raport cu această concluzie, problema spaţiului de investigaţie a unor bunuri neîntrebuinţate cu folos, dar cu valoare potenţială de a deveni emblema unei atitudini de deschidere faţă de schimbare, se rezumă la următoarea întrebare: ce ai de câştigat prin amintirea continuă a unui lucru care poate fi reactivat de o frază dintr-o carte, de o scenă dintr-un film sau, pur şi simplu, de un prieten?

Aptitudinea de creator se obţine din calitatea viziunii tale asupra spaţiului din jur şi din esenţa lucrurilor pe care îngădui să le dai statutul de "idee bună".

Adevărata artă pe care o surprinzi în fiecare zi, fără nimeni să știe, apare ca un mijloc de recunoaştere a "firimiturilor" de beneficii extrase din efectele unei idei părăsite. Să dai un plus de valoare creaţiei pe care o experimentezi înseamnă să înţelegi caracterul temporar al imaginii pe care ţi-o formezi despre un lucru până să ajungi să-l cunoşti.

Ideile sunt precum cuvintele: oricât de banale ar părea la prima vedere, pe atât de valoroase pot fi prin semnificaţia ce o conţin - atribuită anumitor fapte, stări sufleteşti sau situaţii de viaţă. De regulă scriitorii deţin o experienţă bogată izvorâtă din existenţa unei vaste arii de competenţe, ce-şi propun pătrunderea într-o zonă discretă, aceea de ataşament faţă de importanţa sau utilitatea acordată propriilor creaţii.

Idealul de perfecţiune pe care îl poţi atinge depinde de modul cum îţi revizuieşti ideile astfel încât intersecţia lor să se concretizeze într-o creaţie a cărei "valoare de asigurare" nu poate fi făcută publică decât cu ajutorul semnificaţiei pe care ea o îmbracă sub efectul cumulat al apartenenţei la o realitate mai profundă, mai înaltă şi mai durabilă. De regulă, această altă realitate este chiar literatura.

Leadership: Exploatezi efectele de profunzime ale propriei tale creaţii, asigurând accesul celorlalţi spre noi zone cu potenţial de dezvoltare?

Entuziasmul izvorăşte din tine însuţi sau trebuie ca cineva să ţi-l alimenteze? Eşti o persoană cheie în viaţa celorlalţi oameni?

Competentă, în stare să facă toate aranjamentele posibile cu eficienţă, şi înzestrată cu o mare putere de convingere şi influenţă. Într-un cuvânt, Tabby. Ea l-a determinat pe soţul ei să se simtă din nou avântat în demersurile sale. Ea a fost, şi încă mai este, partenerul lui numărului unu. Totdeauna când lui Stephen i se pare că timpul nu este de partea lui, sau că este un nimeni în lumea valorilor, Tabby este lângă el să-i amintească faptul că ceea ce simte el e doar o situaţie de moment, că nu e un capăt de lume, şi că totul va fi bine din nou.

Succesul lui Stephen se datorează faptului că este înconjurat de această imagine liniştitoare indusă de soţia lui, care are mare încredere în el şi îl susţine mereu.

Entuziasmul nu izvorăşte din tine însuţi – totdeauna trebuie ca cineva să ţi-l alimenteze. Este important să ai lângă tine o persoană care să vadă altfel lucrurile, mai clar, şi care să decidă să te ajute; o persoană care în adâncul sufletului crede în tine şi în cauza ta, şi care este dornică să te susţină. E o strategie foarte deşteaptă să ceri părerea unei persoane cheie, care într-adevăr este în măsură să ştie ce este mai bine pentru tine înainte să iei o decizie.

Să dai curs actului de creaţie înseamnă să faci din tine emblema permanentă a unei spiritualităţi care caută esența lucrurilor din punctul de vedere al altora.

Lumina palidă a apusului îl pătrunde la un moment dat pe fiecare om care munceşte, care are vise şi dorinţe de împlinit. Şi tu vei fi cuprins, într-o bună zi, de sentimentul că strădaniile tale au fost de prisos. Şi tu vei fi străbătut de acea misterioasă forţă care le pune la încercare tuturor oamenilor valoroşi voinţa şi tăria de caracter. De aceea este atât de important să ai în preajma ta un partener care să-ţi amintească de fiecare dată când te afli la ananghie: "Ai ceva de valoare aici, vorbesc serios ! "

Numai cel înzestrat cu calităţi de lider are capacitatea de a te susţine şi de a-ţi da imboldul necesar pentru a-ţi continua cariera atunci când te afli pe o traiectorie descendentă. El este un adevărat mentor pentru tine şi are puterea de a-ţi întârzia "lumina palidă a apusului".

Lupta îndoielilor împotriva convingerilor

On August 06, 2010

Câştigă votul de încredere al oamenilor, asigurând un echilibru între sentimentele lor cele mai profunde şi realitatea înconjurătoare.

O scenă neaşteptată se petrecu în camera bolnavei, încuiată cu atâta grijă. Valentine rămăsese singură. Din nou o cuprinse febra. Era pătrunsă fără încetare de aceleaşi gânduri şi presimţiri, că va muri. De aproape zece zile starea ei de sănătate era tot mai îngrijorătoare.

Deodată i se păru că aude un foşnet ciudat. De după uşă se ivi un chip omenesc. Dar în starea în care se afla nimic nu o mai putea mira. Era conştientă că toate nălucirile care o înconjurau se datorau delirului. Din pricina febrei se obişnuise pe deplin cu aceste apariţii. Îşi aminti că mijlocul cel mai bun pentru a face să dispară nălucirile supărătoare era să bea medicamentul.

Leadership: Poţi să dai un nou sens propriei creaţii, asumându-ţi rolul de protector necondiţionat după formula: "Fii la vedere fără să stârneşti suspiciuni" ?

Valentine îşi întinse mâna ca să ia paharul de pe vasul de cristal, unde ştia că se afla. Dar, în acest timp, apariţia făcu încă doi paşi spre pat, mai repezi, şi luă paharul înainte ca fata să se atingă de el. Fantoma privi băutura ca şi cum ar fi vrut să vadă cât e de străvezie şi de limpede.

- Nu striga si nu te teme, îi spuse Contele de Monte Cristo. Nu păstra nici măcar în fundul inimii vreo licărire de bănuială sau vreo umbră de nelinişte.

Valentine nu ştia ce să spună. Se temea de glasul nălucii, care era o realitate.

- Ascultă-mă bine. De patru zile veghez asupra dumitale şi te ocrotesc. Am stat ascuns în spatele uşii în fiecare noapte. Am văzut oamenii care veneau la dumneata, alimentele care ţi se pregăteau şi băuturile care ţi s-au dat. Când băuturile mi se păreau periculoase îţi goleam paharul şi înlocuiam otrava cu o băutură binefăcătoare, în stare să circule viaţa prin vine în locul morţii ce ţi se hărăzise.

Creaţia cea mai valoroasă a unui vrăjitor este misterul cu care poate învălui totul în încercarea de a schimba evenimentele prestabilite. El are putinţa de a se înălţa deasupra legilor destinului, într-o evidentă atitudine de aşteptare a momentului potrivit pentru a-şi impune starea de putere, reprezentată prin viziunea pe care o propune despre viaţă.

Leadership: Faci apel la cea mai atentă judecată de care eşti capabil ca să înconjuri ceea ce ţi se întâmplă într-un context de interacţiune directă cu tot ce există într-un orizont de semnificaţie mai larg?

Ora criminalilor. Pendulele sunară miezul nopţii. Contele de Monte Cristo ştia ce urma să se întâmple, aşa că îi spuse repede fetei, înainte de a se ascunde în spatele bibliotecii:

- Să nu faci niciun gest Valentine, să nu rosteşti niciun cuvânt. Trebuie să te creadă adormită. Altfel te va ucide înainte să-ţi vin în ajutor.

Clanţa scrâşni şi uşa se răsuci în balamale. Podeaua scârţâi în cealaltă parte a încăperii. Cineva se apropia de ea. Tremurând, neliniştită, cu inima strânsă de o groază nespusă, Valentine îşi adună toate puterile şi se prefăcu adormită. Dar atunci când auzi cum persoana necunoscută îi toarnă picăturile de otravă în pahar, a îndrăznit să întredeschidă pleoapele. Femeia, criminala, era chiar doamna de Villefort, mama sa vitregă.

Semnificaţia pe care o atribui evenimentelor care intervin în cursul vieţii tale este ancorată în apropierea efectelor de anvergură ale schimbului dintre ceea ce poţi păstra bun în lumea ta interioară şi cea exterioară, fără a o alimenta cu suferinţa imposibilităţii de a determina o nouă judecată pe fondul cauzei.

Leadership: Îndrăzneşti să scoţi la lumină ceea ce te defineşte cu adevărat, în încercarea de a te înfăţişa lumii că o reflexie a previziunii evenimentelor care ţi se desfăşoară în cale?

Există două feluri de oameni: cei care vor să ucidă, şi cei care vor să salveze, cei care vor să facă răul şi cei care vor binele. Tu din care categorie faci parte?

Contele de Monte Cristo a salvat-o pe Valentine de la moarte, veghind asupra ei ca un înger păzitor. Numai el o putea salva şi numai el a salvat-o. El a ştiut să prevadă toate comploturile, ghicind toate mişcările duşmanilor săi.

Ce au în comun toţi marii lideri? Au puterea de a prevedea evenimentele, de a le analiza şi de a le aborda într-un mod pragmatic și realist, într-un mod mai adecvat provocărilor viitoare. Dar nu numai atât. Ei sunt capabili să-i convingă pe oameni că sunt de partea lor, spulberându-le toate îndoielile.

Valentine a avut îndoieli la început cu privire la salvatorul ei, dar acestea au fost rapid spulberate. Prezenţa lui puternică i-a înlăturat neîncrederea pe care i-o insuflase iniţial prin apariţia lui misterioasă.

Cu minunata lui putere de pătrundere, Contele a înţeles tot ce se petrecea în sufletul fetei, dar a găsit metoda adecvata de a aprinde în ea o luminiţă de speranţă, determinând-o să creadă în devotamentul său. Avându-l alături pe conte, Valentine putea dormi cu încrederea unui înger culcat la picioarele Domnului.

Ceea ce defineşte un vrăjitor este că poate să repare drumul care uneşte emoţia izvorâtă din veridic cu imaginea izvorâtă dintr-o viziune extinsă dincolo de limita realului.

Sentimentele profunde pot ignora realitatea, iar realitatea poate să îngheţe orice sentiment.

În leadership contează să fii un factor de încredere nu numai din punct de vedere profesional şi comportamental, ci şi din punct de vedere emoţional şi spiritual.

Trebuie să asiguri un echilibru între sentimentele cele mai profunde ale oamenilor şi realitatea înconjurătoare. Adică să împiedici sentimentele lor să câştige teren în faţa realităţii, şi în acelaşi timp să te asiguri că realitatea nu-şi pune prea adânc amprenta asupra sentimentelor lor.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri un echilibru între realitate şi sentiment, în ciuda unor aparenţe dezarmant de dure care, în fapt, ascund o taină greu de tâlcuit?

Leadershipul ţine de capacitatea de a construi relaţii de calitate cu oamenii. Ca să-i inspire Valentinei un puternic sentiment de securitate Contele a trebuit să ia atitudine, s-o convingă de puterea lui, să o determine să-si păstreze o atitudine pozitivă. Şi numai tenacitatea şi curajul i-au fost aliaţi în acest demers. El a trebuit totodată să citească ce i se petrece fetei în adâncul inimii şi să-i înlăture orice fel de îndoială cu privire la persoana sa.

Liderul joacă un rol important în viaţă oamenilor, rolul salvatorului. Iar curajul său este, fără nicio îndoială, molipsitor. Dar în faţa celor mai mulţi ochi, liderul poate să pară rece, şi această răceală poate fi luată drept o expresie a ostilităţii, stârnind frica şi neîncrederea. Dimpotrivă, o atitudine proactivă cât şi un limbaj persuasiv pot influenţa în bine oamenii, care vor da un randament mai bun.

Dacă vei anticipa şi dacă vei reuşi să contracarezi efectele negative ale evenimentelor care se produc asupra persoanelor sau grupurilor vulnerabile, leadershipul tău va câştiga teren.

Ultima luptă a îndoielilor împotriva convingerilor se dă atunci când încerci să scoţi la iveală o realitate ascunsă în spatele unor aparenţe de normalitate.

Concluzie: Dacă vrei să ai succes în leadership, trebuie să faci două lucruri mai presus de orice: să îndepărtezi orice îndoială a oamenilor asupra capacităţii tale de a conduce şi să te asiguri că eşti recunoscut drept o resursă importantă de încredere.

Câştigă votul de încredere al oamenilor, asigurând un echilibru între sentimentele lor cele mai profunde şi realitatea înconjurătoare.

Lupta pentru a fi sau a nu fi

On Martie 11, 2011

Convinge-i pe oameni de valoarea ta, fǎra sǎ alterezi "muzica" pe care încerci sǎ o prezinţi.

Scriitorul George Sbârcea povestea că la un teatru muzical din ţară a fost organizată audiţia, în cerc restrâns, a unei opere originale, compusă de un tânăr maestru. Într-una din pauze, un dirijor mai vârstnic îi făcu autorului următoarea observaţie:

- Să ştii, maestre, că eşti un prost ţintaş !

- Cum aşa? se nedumeri compozitorul.

- Pai să vezi: muzica pe care ai scris-o trebuia să se adreseze în intenţia dumitale, inimii ascultătorilor, şi, cand colo, ea le răneşte urechea !

Leadership: În centrul atenţiei pe care o primeşti de la cei din jur este efectul unei atitudini şi a unei mentalităţi orientate spre calitate prin identificarea oportună a unor noi valenţe de expresivitate?

Aşa cum este vital ca orice organizaţie să creeze un mediu care sa atragă lideri, tot aşa este vital ca orice lider să creeze un mediu ideal pentru performanţa oamenilor, bazat pe incredere si colaborare, in care ei să muncească eficient şi să simtă cu adevarat că vor să aparţină de organizaţia respectivă şi să fie conduşi de către el. Întregul leadershipului tău poate să transmită o stare de spirit specială?

Cu alte cuvinte, leadershipul trebuie să corespundă lumii, preferinţelor oamenilor şi aşteptărilor lor. Daca leadershipul nu formează un întreg prin care să transmită o stare de spirit specială, o empatie puternică, o dorinţă arzătoare, un vis realizabil, atunci el nu va reuşi să-şi exprime niciodată ferm punctele de vedere, voinţa şi propriile convingeri.

Expresivitatea, ca latură importantă a procesului de creaţie, este aplicabilă modalităţii de a transmite cu forţă ideile şi sentimentele tale adaptându-le la trăsăturile tale pe care vrei să le scoţi în evidenţă. A fi "un prost ţintaş" este echivalent cu încercarea de a-ţi pune în valoare originalitatea fără să-ţi atribui rolul creatorului activ care dă lumii posibilitatea să se concentreze pe ceea ce este important.

Poţi să conferi leadershipului tau o "linie melodioasă" plăcută?

Aşa cum un muzician sensibilizează auditoriul prin intermediul muzicii sale creind o stare de liniste, calm sau vivacitate, tot aşa şi tu, ca lider, trebuie să sensibilizezi sufletul oamenilor cu ceea ce este în interiorul tău, prin propria ta "compoziţie". Încearcă să ajungi la oameni făcându-i să înţeleagă ceea ce exprimă leadershipul tău, adaptandu-te la realitatea lor. Pe urmă întreaga lor atitudine se va schimba, iar tu te vei poziţiona tot mai sus în rezultate.

O linie melodioasă este o combinaţie de sunete ale diferitelor instrumente şi voci, care prin înălţimea, durata şi succesiunea lor trebuie să formeze o compoziţie formidabilă care încântă şi stimulează auzul. Dar cu mici corecţii. Ea face parte din ciclul fenomenului "Or, ce implică aceasta?" lăsând să se descopere şi unele imperfecţiuni, lipsuri şi limite, uneori inducând în eroare pe ascultător.

Armonia pe care o ai de oferit prin îmbinarea creaţiei şi interpretării cu arta improvizaţiei, într-un mod foarte interesant, trebuie profilată pe livrarea unui puternic şi convingător apel la acţiune, lăsând să se descopere cealaltă faţă a personalităţii tale: una axată pe emoţii şi pe manifestarea lor.

Convinge-i pe oameni de valoarea ta, fără sa alterezi realitatea pe care încerci să o prezinţi. Conferă-i leadershipului tau o "linie melodioasă" plăcută care sa se armonizeze perfect cu gândurile, emoţiile şi sentimentele personale ale celor pe care îi conduci, fără să te abaţi prea mult de la concepţiile lor.

Ai grijă ce accent pui pe muzica pe care o compui pentru că nu orice ritm şi nu orice frecvenţă au acelaşi efect asupra minţii şi sentimentelor ascultătorilor.

Noţiunea de a fi "artist" nu înseamnă să creezi şi controlezi totul singur, ci înseamnă să ajustezi volumul şi muzica pe care o asculţi lăsând-o să te conducă spre noi răspunsuri şi noi rezultate.

Lupta pentru a fi sau a nu fi la înălţimea aşteptărilor oamenilor se dă în tine însuţi ori de câte ori compui o nouă "partitură" - care dacă nu sună bine îi va îndepărta pe toţi. Puţin câte puţin, munca ta se va îndeparta, se va împrăştia şi se va transforma în haos dacă "partitura" ta nu invadează sufletul vieţii oamenilor şi dacă nu-i apropie de tine.

Rezultatele unui leadership eficient depind atât de lider, care are şi rolul de a contribui la dezvoltarea unei culturi organizaţionale prin alegerea tonului potrivit care să creeze "muzica" acceptată de toţi, cât şi de colectivul de care se înconjoară ce trebuie să fie receptiv la nou, să perceapă nedistorsionat această muzică şi mai ales să fie capabil de adaptare.

Lupta pentru a fi sau a nu fi depinde de cele două componente – liderul şi colectivul. Dacă există o sincronizare bună, o acceptare reciprocă atunci conlucrarea este eficientă şi bătălia este câştigată. In caz contrar se pierd mai devreme sau mai târziu atât liderul, cât şi colectivul.

Lupta pentru un motiv de îndoială

On Martie 28, 2009

Dezvoltă-ţi abilităţile de conducere, susţinând drumul celorlalţi spre nivelul tău de performanţă.

Cine este cel care, îndrăzneţ, cu sânge rece, înzestrat cu o minte pătrunzătoare şi creatoare, reuşeşte să-şi impună autoritatea şi să se ridice deasupra tuturor oamenilor? Cine este cel care, prin puterile sale de invidiat, poate hotărî soarta fiecăruia după propria lui voinţă? Probabil că, aşa cum remarca Jules Verne, un astfel de om nu poate fi decât „Stăpânul Lumii".

Înzestrat cu nişte calităţi excepţionale de geniu, graţie formidabilei sale capacităţi de a inventa şi făuri aparate super-sofisticate, un astfel de om ar avea toate motivele să se considere stăpânul absolut. Cine să nu-l urmeze cu capul plecat pe omul superior în toate privinţele care, cu o puternică încredere de sine şi cu o siguranţă care stârneşte mai mult teama decât respectul, poate cu bună ştiinţă să nimicească pe oricine? În faţa unui asemenea om n-ai nicio putere, trebuie să i te supui fără să crâcneşti.

Leadership: Ai puterea să renunţi la lupta pentru obţinerea şi demonstrarea propriei superiorităţi, acceptând necesitatea eforturilor altora de a te face să crezi că o parte din lumea lor este mai bună decât a ta?

Cine a citit cartea "Robur Cuceritorul" ştie că, în final, oamenii nu s-au lăsat conduşi de autoritatea lui Robur, chiar dacă el era un splendid om de ştiinţă şi ar fi putut conduce uşor lumea numai prin puterea invenţiei sale, Albatrosul . Mai degrabă, Robur şi-a dat seama că nu are rost să conducă lumea atâta vreme cât oamenii nu sunt deschişi la schimbare. Iată ultimele cuvinte pe care Robur le adresează omenirii:

"Cetăţeni ai Statelor Unite, experienţa mea s-a încheiat şi pot să vă împărtăşesc de pe acum părerea ce mi-am format-o: cred că nu trebuie să precipităm niciodată lucrurile, nici chiar când este vorba de progres. Ştiinţa nu trebuie s-o ia înaintea moravurilor. Sunt pentru evoluţie, mai degrabă decât pentru revoluţii. Într-un cuvânt, fiecare lucru se cuvine făcut la vremea lui. Ar însemna să sosesc prea curând azi ca să pot birui atâtea interese deosebite contradictorii. Naţiunile nu sunt încă de ajuns de coapte pentru a realiza o unire.

Plec, aşadar, luând cu mine secretul descoperii mele. Secretul acesta însă nu va fi pierdut pentru omenire. Lumea îl va dobândi în ziua când va fi destul de luminată ca să tragă foloase de pe urma lui şi destul de înţeleaptă ca să nu abuzeze de el. Cetăţeni ai Statelor Unite, bun rămas !

Leadership: Superioritatea ta reprezintă punctul culminant al unei evoluții pornită de la o necunoaștere directă a lumii şi continuată cu încercarea viguroasă de a nega înapoierea ei, chiar dacă îţi impui să te împotriveşti curentului impus de o realitate care nu se poate întrerupe pentru că este deranjată?

Presupunând prin absurd că în viitorul îndepărtat un singur om, tu, ai deţine puterea absolută, ce s-ar întâmpla în acest caz? Va reuşi oare cineva să-ţi schimbe gândurile şi acţiunile absolutiste? Potenţialul tău de lider va continua să crească şi să înflorească? Vei fi un agent de schimbare care creează un climat propice creşterii celorlalţi, sau un climat restrictiv care îi va obliga să rămână mici şi nedezvoltaţi? Te vei concentra numai asupra puterilor tale personale ignorând leadershipul celorlalţi?

Adevărul este că nu vei putea să ceri de la ceilalţi ceea ce nu ceri de la tine însuţi. Dacă nu creezi un mediu în care şi succesul celorlalţi să devină uşor de obţinut, dacă prin puterea ta nu-i influenţezi în mod pozitiv, dacă nu-i conduci spre acel punct înalt de performanţă la care ai ajuns tu, şi dacă nu le permiţi să evolueze spre dezvoltarea durabilă, viitorul tău nu se va arăta luminos.

A-i conduce pe oameni într-un sens, după voinţa ta proprie, fără să le dai posibilitatea de a se dezvolta, îţi va diminua potenţialul de lider. E ca şi cum te-ai afla într-o mașină pe un drum cu un singur sens şi eşti prins de o ploaie torenţială, cu fulgere şi tunete. Vei fi mereu sub ameninţarea de a fi lovit de trăsnet.

Un lider nu-şi acceptă niciodată poziţia de spectator la drama lumii de a rămâne în urmă. Lumea din jur devine o realitate pe care nu o poate nega şi pe care el are obligaţia să o schimbe, chiar dacă mişcarea lumii nu este întâmplătoare, ci hotărâtă de un judecător competent, care este Dumnezeu.

Poţi să evaluezi "starea vremii" înainte de a-ţi continua urcuşul spre desăvârşire? Cauţi mai întâi să-ţi integrezi leadershipul în dezvoltarea oamenilor înainte de a-i îndruma? Dacă ei nu obţin rezultate foarte bune, nu vei putea să ocupi niciodată un loc deosebit în inima lor.

Aşa cum plantele fără apă nu au posibilitatea să crească, tot aşa nici tu nu ai posibilitatea să creşti dacă le restricţionezi celorlalţi oameni dreptul la performanţă. Dacă progresul lor rămâne pe loc, atunci şi capacitatea ta de conducere va stagna. Robur şi-a găsit puterea de a-şi sacrifica timpul preţios pentru luminarea celorlalţi, a "muritorilor" de rând, străduindu-se atât de tare să atingă un ideal care e aproape imposibil, un ideal care depăşeşte prezentul.

Napoleon Bonaparte este cunoscut ca unul dintre cei mai mari lideri din istorie. Cu toate acestea a eşuat lamentabil, fiindcă în ultima parte a vieţii s-a transformat într-un un lider absolutist, într-un tiran. Abilităţile lui de conducere se dezvoltau pe măsură ce se diminuau abilităţile celorlalţi. El nu a putut să estompeze efectul reacţiilor adverse ce-au apărut. Trădarea lui, şi în final exilarea, au fost o consecinţă a mentalităţii sale putrezite şi a lipsei unei atitudini de parteneriat pozitiv în rândul cetăţenilor. Ar fi trebuit să-şi dezvolte abilităţile de conducere, susţinând drumul celorlalţi spre acelaşi nivel înalt de performanţă şi succes ca al său.

Leadershipul este preţul pe care îl plăteşti pentru generarea unei versiuni total imprevizibile a lumii, uneori prin sacrificarea reputaţiei sau a bunăstării personale.

Orientarea spre viitor a cunoaşterii şi a acţiunii educative este nu numai posibilă, ci şi absolut necesară. În acest caz, liderul se exercită ca un act voluntar de liberă decizie, dar mai ales ca o conştiinţă colectivă care trăieşte deja viitorul.

Lupta pentru un motiv de îndoială este realitatea cu care te confrunţi atunci când te afli deasupra celorlalţi oameni. Eşti un om cu un suflet mare sau un tiran? Cultivi păcatul cel mai răspândit în leadership - de a te măsura numai cu tine însuţi şi de a-ţi crea numai ţie oportunităţi pentru dezvoltare? Dacă te afli într-un asemenea punct, eşti pe cale de a-ţi pierde valoarea.

Eşti orb până nu vezi că în plan uman nimic nu merită să faci dacă nu faci în aşa fel încât ceilalţi să fie mai buni decât tine. Arta ta de a conduce presupune şi receptivitate, sau numai rezistenţă?

Concluzie: Ca lider, trebuie să ştii să simţi când lucrurile stagnează şi să cauţi motivele şi cauzele acestei stagnări. Trebuie să ştii să analizezi şi să reevaluezi situaţia ori de câte ori lucrurile stau pe loc. Atunci când apar motive de îndoială trebuie să schimbi tactica şi metodele de conducere. Tu, ca lider, te dezvolţi în paralel cu echipa ta. Când aceasta stagnează, trebuie să-ţi reorientezi forţele pentru a sări în ajutorul ei, pentru a deveni le fel de performanţa ca şi tine, iar performanţa amândurora trebuie să fie mult superioară în comparaţie cu alţi competitori.

Mă bântuie oamenii

On Mai 25, 2017

Începe să adopţi o atitudine corespunzătoare faţă de întreaga creaţie numită reprezentativ viață, pentru a o apropia de receptarea unei opere de artă.

Oamenii. Oamenii buni, întăriţi de-a lungul încercărilor de a trece peste orice obstacole, obţinând rezultate maxime, îndrăzneală care, uneori, este "plătită" printr-o atitudine deschisă faţă de singurătate. Oamenii smulşi din clepsidra unui timp dublu oscilatoriu care modifică treptat fenomenele realităţii, ce corespund năzuinţelor împlinirii viitoare, în raport cu destinaţia şi funcţiile pe care le îndeplinesc rezistenţele unei forţe cenzuratoare în Eu.

Prin meşteşugul transcenderii spre o stare de echilibru interior, de supremă spiritualitate şi graţie, ei cedează căldura mediului ambiant pe toată lungimea unei trăiri înălţătoare, din care se compune conţinutul unor experienţe neobişnuite.

Arta de a pune o suflare de viaţă într-un deşert inevitabil, cu ale lui dune pline de restricţii de libertate, poate fi văzută numai prin oglinda unui suflet din care se pierde întotdeauna un minut sau două. Ţi-e dor de el, aşa cum îţi este dor de frumuseţea unui trandafir de culoarea cerului, reverii nebuloase ale unei fantezii active, stârnite de împrejurările oferite de ştiinţa plenitudinii prezenței lui Dumnezeu. Chiar şi atunci când dorul cade în păcatul de a purta cu el mesajul durerii.

Oamenii, poziţionaţi în situaţia unui Jean Valjean, strălucitori între o nuanţă a consecinţelor nedreptăţii lumii şi saturaţia aducerii aminte a motivului pentru care au fost aleşi de Dumnezeu. Peste care anii trec atât de uşor. Demonstrând că trebuie să fii cu adevărat mare ca să te înţelegi.

Deşi foarte încercat şi istovit de soartă, ca orice suflet întinerit de năzuinţele de mărire, dar ghidat de această infailibilă piatră de încercare a oricărei nenorociri, Jean Valjean salvează un om prins sub atelajul căruţei. Prin asta el săvârşeşte gestul suprem, un act de pietate, adevărata iertare care aduce eliberarea adevărată de povara greșelilor din trecut, demonstrând ce mult contribuie siguranţa conştiinţei la siguranţa izbânzii.

Leadership: Poți să-ţi vezi propria imagine în altcineva, faţă de tot ceea ce te ridică într-o lumină care întreţine starea de veghe?

Să locuieşti într-un loc netăgăduit – asta fiind scăparea, evadând din orbirea unei intimităţi clădite în anii de trai în paralel, atât din vânătăile, cât şi din exilul unui destin care îşi caută vindecările, în lunga tăcere care îţi descoperă temeri ascunse. Nu înseamnă oare să te asemeni cu un geniu ce scăpă din când în când câte-o vorbă de duh, iar în această genialitate, în această putere imperială ce se consideră a fi de sorginte divină, pe care refuzăm atât de des să o cunoaştem, nu se oglindeşte oare siguranţa celui ce se ştie preţuit de mărturia unei viziuni peste timpuri – căreia i se atribuie infinitul?

Amintiţi-vă de micuţa Cosette, o fiinţă fără apărare, cea de care se stabilesc cerinţele reale şi legitime ale naturii umane, cu un suflu reînnoit de visare, dar adânc izbită în circumstanţele unei lumi care şi-a pierdut busola. Este o parabolă a condiţiei de a juca tare cu destinul.

Ea îşi clădeşte viitorul, nervul unei vieţi noi, prin intermediul unei păpuşi primite în dar de la un înger. Reuşind mai apoi o evadare din iadul unei amintiri de care nu trebuie să rămânem fideli, o resuscitare din autenticele suferinţe suportate numai prin nădejdea neclintită că într-o zi totul se va transforma în linişte, pace, bucurie.

Gradul de desăvârşire al omului aparţine unei existenţe care se prepară din excesul unei emoții de care nici măcar nu te-ai fi crezut capabil și de care nu poți scăpa.

Cyrano de Bergerac, cu ale lui Statele Lunii şi Statele Soarelui, ne aminteşte că stelele sunt fixe, tot aşa cum legile şi principiile universului sunt de nezdruncinat, adică lumi pe care nu le vedem aici, din pricină că-s prea mici şi deoarece lumina lor de împrumut n-ar putea ajunge până la noi. Dar aşa cum Dumnezeu a putut face lumea infinită, dacă e adevărat că eternitatea nu e altceva decât o durată fără margini, iar infinitul - o întindere fără limite, tot aşa a putut face sufletul omului nemuritor.

Şi când mă gândesc la un spirit atât de înălţător, care spune întotdeauna DA universului, îmi amintesc de vocea din background din finalul filmului "The Book Thief":

„Am văzut foarte multe lucruri. Am asistat la cele mai groaznice dezastre ale lumii şi am lucrat pentru cei mai mari ticăloşi. Am văzut minunile lumii. Dar rămâne cum am spus. Nimeni nu trăieşte veşnic. Când am venit, în sfârşit, după Liesel, am simţit o plăcere egoistă să ştiu că-şi trăise cu chibzuinţă cei 90 de ani. Poveştile ei i-au emoţionat pe mulţi. Pe unii dintre ei i-am cunoscut în trecere. Pe Max, a cărui prietenie a durat aproape cât a trăit Liesel. Aproape. În ultimele gânduri, i-a revăzut pe toţi cei al căror drum s-a întretăiat cu al ei. Pe cei trei copii ai ei. Pe nepoţii ei. Pe soţul ei. Printre ei, ca nişte felinare, erau Hans şi Rosa, fratele ei şi băiatul al cărui păr rămăsese pe veci de culoarea lămâii.

Voiam să-i spun hoaţei de cărţi că a fost printre puţinele suflete care m-au făcut să mă întreb cum e să trăieşti. Dar, în cele din urmă, n-a mai fost niciun cuvânt. Doar pace. Singurul adevăr pe care îl ştiu cu adevărat este că mă bântuie oamenii."

Leadershipul este un criteriu hotărâtor al adevărului pe care nu trebuie niciodată să-l ratezi: nu poți să trăieşti veșnic, tot așa cum trebuie să știi că Dumnezeu nu e totul. Cum bine spunea cineva, minunea nu este să trăiești veșnic, ea se reflectă în ceea ce rămâi tu însuţi pe vecie.

Dacă am considerat potrivit să atrag atenţia asupra acestui aspect al dimensiunii umane, cu implicaţiile ei, am făcut-o numai pentru a sublinia acele elemente care, de obicei, se uită, sau pe care mulţi nu le-au observat. Pe baza exemplelor supuse propriilor aprecieri, am vrut să reliefez necesitatea prezentării totalităţii, a purităţi lăuntrice, a divinului care locuieşte în adâncimile oricărui om, manifestându-se progresiv prin forțele cugetătoare ale timpului și efectelor lui: durerea, îndurarea și fericirea supremă.

În acest fel ne va fi poate mai uşor să adoptăm o atitudine corespunzătoare faţă de întreaga creaţie numită reprezentativ viață. Să o ridicăm intenţionat şi conştient în ochii noştri printr-un „licăr de lumină" pe piedestalul unui vis de aur, al unui zid de sprijin și al unui zâmbet de copil, pentru a o apropia de receptarea unei opere de artă. Pe ritmul unei lecturi a melodiei: The color of love (by Yakuro).

Leadershipul înseamnă să ajungi la o înţelegere a menirii tale printr-un acord al forțelelor cugetătoare ale timpului și efectelor lui: durerea, îndurarea și fericirea supremă.

Mă bântuie oamenii este o incursiune în spațiul gândirii oferit de o lume neînţeleasă, în vecinătatea unei culori, a unei forme, a unei arome asemănătoare cu seminţele unei creaţii divine din care trebuie să extragem acea putere, acea energie pură, din care suntem ceea ce suntem. O stea, înlănţuită în trup.

Mă privesc fără ca ochiul să înceteze a privi punctul vizat

On Februarie 19, 2022

Imaginea de sine nu este doar un mijloc de expresie artistică, ea exprimă şi un punct de vedere al compromisului făcut între ceea ce se vede şi ceea ce nu se vede.

Arta este o lume în care predomină aspectele imaginare. Or înnoirea conceptuală a conţinutului de imagini care par a fi desprinse din altă lume presupune, în cazul creaţiei mele, o sincronizare cu întruchiparea unui personaj la scară mai mare, aşezat între ceea ce se revelă ca fiind real, puternic, bogat și semnificativ, şi ceea ce se relevă ca fiind imaginar, unde eu însumi sunt adăugat ca membru onorific într-un univers holografic.

Într-un fel pe care numai creaţia îl slăveşte şi îl materializează, am reuşit să mă introduc ca instanţă invizibilă într-o realitate care vorbeşte despre nevoia de a reda o nouă reprezentare a acestei lumi – ca pe una ambivalentă, în raportul dintre faţa ei exterioară şi cea interioară, sub forma unei alcătuiri de basm, organice, coezive, daimonice, care face legătura între divin şi uman.

Luaţi ca exemplu personajul Prospero, din piesa "Furtuna" scrisă de Shakespeare. Deşi este exilat pe o insulă timp de 12 ani, el reuşeşte prin intermediul puterilor magice şi a învăţăturilor esoterice să-şi transforme exilul într-un regat al lui Dumnezeu pe pământ. Dar și aici apar inerente ambiguităţi. Căci nu este vorba despre exilul într-un purgatoriu care te face să te judeci aspru şi să conştientizezi valoarea a ceea ce nu mai ai, ci este exilul unui artist într-un macrocosmos alcătuit din numeroase lumi autonome, reuşind să cuprindă în el tot spaţiul uman existenţial.

Iar artistul acesta, în loc de pensulă sau daltă, are la dispoziţie o sumedenie de scenarii cu înfăţişări diverse, care mai de care mai imposibile de cuprins cu mintea.

Leadership: Poţi să pui bazele unei viziuni care îţi inspiră transformarea interioară, cu condiția să răspunzi în faţa conștiinței de metafizician care îţi asigură expansiunea ființei într-un efect al efectelor de clarobscur?

În general arta are o amploare de conţinut magic care, luat ca atare, pare a fi susţinut de satisfacţia pe care o dă imaginaţia pe planul reprezentării consecutive a unei ilustraţii la o operă literară ce te transpune în alte lumi şi care, de asemenea, te face să reflectezi la întâmplările care se petrec în taină, fără ca ochiul să fie forţat de împrejurări să vadă o scenă pe care nu ţi-o doreşti.

S-o spun mai clar. Sunt un artist fiindcă ştiu să împrumut cel mai cuceritor farmec al viziunii spirituale, cu totul originale, dintr-un tablou care cu uşurinţă ar putea fi catalogat drept decor al unei lumi lăuntrice trăite la superlativul absolut. Ca, apoi, să mă întâlnesc cu mine însumi într-o complementaritate picturală vizuală, liniştitoare și răscolitoare în același timp.

Să recunoaştem. În reprezentările marilor maeştri ai picturii universale predomină clarobscurul enigmei, întrevăzut prin vălul unei dualităţi spaţio-temporale unitare, în care miracolul îşi are partea sa, făcând din realitatea obişnuită o altă faţă a lumii: Lumea lui Dumnezeu. Nu-i aşa că arta, la fel ca în "Metamorfozele" lui Ovidiu, cuprinde un amestec din cele mai eterogene elemente de decor, dar şi interminabile comparaţii disparate?

Nu degeaba, întreg ansamblul de trăsături al creaţiei mele dă impresia reprezentării unei scene narative articulate, fiind susţinut de ştiinţa fizicii şi a fenomenelor naturale menite să dovedească cu prisosinţă, voalat, insesizabil, valoarea inegalabilă a unei puteri superioare care, într-o anumită galerie de tablouri, ar putea fi compusă din fragmente disparate, convertite în informații simbolice.

Leadership: Te concentrezi asupra finalizării unei zone mai largi de reprezentare a "puterii de a fi la înălţime", prin adaptarea limitelor tale la un context în care viziunea ideală despre tine urmează multiple direcţii de interpretare a unei imagini mitice?

Artistul din mine îşi cere autoritatea de a stăpâni arta magiei, în ciuda intenţiei de a plasa cercetarea magiei pe o direcţie ştiinţifică. În acest sens, creaţia mea se manifestă, totodată, în jurul viziunii care face ca obiectele date să se vadă aidoma unor siluete umane al căror contur se profilează simbolic pe canavaua evenimentelor, cu formele cele mai neînchipuite. Ele sunt precum umbrele ce se profilează pe zidul de fundal al unor imaginii stranii. Sau, se văd ca nişte duhuri care lucrează prin chestiuni supranaturale ca să mă apere de orice rău.

Până la urmă, un creator nu se opreşte la o singură creaţie, ci continuă să creeze alte modele perfecţionate de aplicare a comparaţiilor dintre două sau mai multe entităţi distincte, şi totuşi aflate într-un raport de unitate organică.

Iar dacă vreodată îmi voi hrăni sufletul cu ideea că niciun creator nu va fi considerat genial dacă nu-şi creează propriul său "Absolut", atunci poate, doar poate, îmi voi recunoaşte vina de a fi puternic, protejat, ancestral şi nemuritor. Încet, încet, îmi voi camufla puterea în entitatea nepieritoare a unui duh care le leagă pe toate, prin care orice lucru creat este părtaş la ordinea lumii.

Apoi, voi permite personajului meu să vorbească de la sine. La fel ca Prospero, voi îngropa adânc în pământ cărţile mele de învăţături tainice, voi îngropa şi nuiaua fermecată, fiind hotărât să nu mă mai folosesc niciodată de ştiinţa magică. Mă voi îmbarca într-o altă călătorie plăcută, spre cele fireşti şi lumeşti, sub privegherea duhului cel bun, Ariel, care este şi el tot una din creaţiile mele...

Viziunea ideală pe care o am despre mine, în perimetrul leadershipului, are ca punct de tangenţă algoritmul de caracterizare a unui personaj care are curajul să-şi proclame arbitrariul voinţei individuale de autodepăşire, dar fără să fie un produs al voinţei de suveranitate egocentrică.

Mă privesc fără ca ochiul să înceteze a privi punctul vizat atunci când reuşesc să fiu un dublu al meu: mai întâi artist, apoi magician. Şi niciun magician nu se poate numi artist, fără ca arta lui să cuprindă atât pictura cât şi acea mică doză de nebunie care îl transformă dintr-un creator universal într-un Dumnezeu imanentist.

Mă voi recunoaşte când voi fi acelaşi

Încearcă să accesezi lumea ta interioară din oferta unei lumi exterioare de care eşti tentat să te îndepărtezi atunci când te recunoşti prizonierul ei.

Am venit din cartierul Tudor Vladimirescu pe jos până acasă, fără să fiu vizibil în toată lumea asta decât pentru mine însumi, pentru cel ce a fost schimbător şi a rămas neschimbat într-un fel de constantă a gândirii, a sensibilităţii, a credinţei unitare. Nu m-am gândit la nimic pe drum, nici măcar la ce simţeam, nici la ce voiam, nici la ceea ce eram. Da, sigur, de parcă dacă m-aş fi gândit intens la ceva anume aş fi descoperit ceva interesant…

Şi dacă tot nu mă gândeam la nimic, căci nimicul te prinde şi te surprinde atunci când eşti gol tare pe dinăuntru, mai ales când simţi că ai veritabile afinităţi cu vreun personaj rătăcitor extras din operele lui Mika Waltari, am privit totul în jur cu liniștea nimicului, când totul părea preluat dintr-o stare interioară, din nevoia de atenţie la ceva care se află pe plan secundar faţă de ceva principal. Ei bine, faţă de gândirea profundă nu se poate atinge golul nimicului, mai ales când în plan secundar stă afinitatea faţă de experienţa unei pierderi în mulţime ca anonim, singurătatea liniştitoare a sufletului, măsura întrinsecă a valorii umane.

Din când în când trecea câte o mașină, una a scos un zgomot de fond, înfundat, ca o huruială, care s-a accelerat la acceleraţie. Strada era luminată cu o lumină ca de veghe, fără strălucire, uşor difuză, părea şi ea la fel de posomorâtă ca şi vremea. Şi niciun zgomot nu mă îndepărta de liniştea mea, nicio lumină nu mă bucura, nu mă lăsa dus de mângâierea răcoroasă a unei nopţi care ar fi vrut să-şi caute stelele pe un cer plin de nemişcare, acelaşi cer din care cineva m-ar fi putut privi ca un punct neclintit în fuga fenomenelor vieţii.

Leadership: Mesajul lumii tale interioare poate să stabilească echilibrul în ceea ce priveşte raportul dintre permanenţă şi schimbare, în măsura în care împrejurările nu stabilesc o interpretare diferită a realităţii prezente?

Partea bună este că mintea îmi era tot acolo, inima tot acolo, chiar dacă starea mea de dispoziţie era departe de ceea ce mă aşteptam să văd, să simt, să întâlnesc. Mai curând, am fost ancorat într-un fond unitar adânc, adică m-am familiarizat cu trăsăturile esenţiale ale ecoului unei lumi care se găseşte la limita alegerii între o grămadă de necunoscute şi o grămadă de alternative, toate amorţite de un plictis costisitor, de un vânt rece, de o ieşire din timp cu valenţe de abandon.

Era nevoie de o ieşire din lanţurile strânse ale eului ca să mă simt un altul, mai apropiat de viziunea unei atitudini tolerante, deschise, de acceptare şi înţelegere firească a raporturilor dintre prezent şi absent. Era nevoie de o înrudire cu acest din urmă adevăr:

Tot ceea ce te înconjoară şi tot ceea ce te preocupă sunt expresia unei treceri de la gândire la conştiinţa prezenţei tale în punctul de intersecţie dintre permanenţă şi schimbare. Te afli tot timpul acolo unde te simţi tu însuţi, neconstrâns de nicio convenţie şi de nicio cutumă. Cred că aceasta este definiţia autenticităţii: să fii tu însuţi fără niciun efort, fără măşti, fără compromisuri, fără aprobarea altora. Să fii tu însuţi fără nicio impunere din partea exteriorului.

Până la urmă cred că liniştea este cea care mă caracterizează cu adevărat, mă ajută să rămân concentrat, să am o minte şi o viziune clară. Poate că în mintea mea sălăşluieşte o viziune care îmi concentrează gândurile și le curăță de impurități, o expresie a chemării dintr-un plan metafizic, sau un punct fix unde îmi concentrez întregul efort de înţelegere a vieţii.

Prin extrapolarea prezentului, contez eu şi numai eu. Liniştea încă se menţine în vigoare. De fapt, acesta este mesajul lumii mele interioare ce poate să stabilească echilibrul în ceea ce priveşte raportul dintre permanenţă şi schimbare:

Eu contez numai pentru potenţialul meu de a trăi oriunde acelaşi moment de luciditate, cu acelaşi elan de a respira fără oprire oxigenul curat, şi într-un acelaşi elan de gândire să cuprind deopotrivă abstractul şi concretul.

Mă voi recunoaşte când voi fi acelaşi, chiar dacă împrejurările mă vor determina să cred că sunt diferit, canalizându-mi gândurile spre recunoştinţa adusă unei schimbări care trebuie să continue doar ca să-mi pună la încercare răbdarea şi credinţa.

Doar aşa mă voi simţi bine, făcând tot ceea ce simţirea îmi dictează – şi ea îmi dictează să rămân acelaşi.

Mă voi reîntâlni cu mine

On Aprilie 08, 2021

Învaţă să te priveşti din perspectiva unei lecţii de viaţă formată din parcurgerea distanţei optime dintre ceea ce te împinge înainte şi ceea ce te caracterizează unanim.

Am fost la alergat cu prietenii mei, şi am parcurs vreo 10 km într-o alergare liniştită, fără vreo grijă, fără reguli. În mare, a fost doar o simplă alergare, şi nimic mai mult decât parcurgerea unei distanţe zilnice de 10 km, influenţată de dorinţa de a mă menţine în formă. Şi totuşi, la un moment dat am simţit că a fost mult mai mult decât o alergare, a fost o stare de spirit muncită la maxim cu parcurgerea distanţei dintre ceea ce mă împinge de obicei înainte şi ceea ce mă caracterizează unanim.

Şi, ca la orice alergare, când totul pare a sta pe loc în jurul tău, şi tu ai tendinţa să o iei cumva înaintea timpului, dintr-o dată te simţi pregătit să-ţi supui voinţa unei lumi care se relevă doar în anumite condiţii de observare a lecţiilor de viaţă, încât aceste lecţii de viaţă să te înveţe mai multe despre tine însuţi.

Am accelerat brusc. Am alergat doar alături de voinţa mea imensă de a întrece timpul, fiindcă nici timpul nu stă pe loc atunci când se întrece cu mine, ca şi când el s-ar întrece cu un foton de lumină care îi sfidează graniţele, legile şi logica. Iar dacă într-adevăr voinţa mea ar fi fost similară cu energia unui foton de lumină, probabil m-aş fi simţit mulţumit de acordul dintre superioritate şi îngrijorare.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să te regăseşti sub forma sensibilă a sentimentului de "sens individual", decât să te înrudeşti profund cu măsura unui timp care nu mai vrea să curgă în logica lui firească?

Şi, tot dintr-o dată, m-am oprit brusc. După vreo 800 metri de intensitate maximă, pur şi simplu am simţit că nu mai pot, nu mai puteam respira, şi astfel am luat-o din nou la pas liniştit. Şi numai pasul acesta liniştit, fără întreruperi, fără emisii de energie (care simţeam că se repetă din adâncurile Universului), fiind rezultatul depăşirii egoului vanitos, plin de ambiţie şi dorinţe, m-a învăţat o lecţie de viaţă. O strălucită lecţie de viaţă.

E mai bine să fii un restanţier al timpului, decât un hoţ al timpului. E mai bine să-ţi demonstrezi afinitatea faţă de un anumit grup de prieteni, decât să fii rezultatul depăşirii timpului. E mai bine să te regăseşti sub forma sensibilă a sentimentului de "sens individual", decât să te înrudeşti profund cu măsura ceasurilor care transmit și alerte critice.

Este mai bine să evoluezi ca o regăsire a propriei identităţi dincolo de deciziile şi proiecţile mentale ale altora, decât să evoluezi ca un indicator important al dinamismului intens pe care îl trăieşti din plin, dar fără să te simţi vitalizat pe dinăuntru.

Leadership: Măsura propriei revelaţii despre tine se înrudeşte profund cu măsura unui timp care nu mai vrea să curgă în logica lui firească, ci se torsionează în limita unei constante de tipul "o regăsire dincolo de proiecţiile altora"?

Astfel, am învăţat să mă simt bine cu mine însumi, mai profund conectat cu mine, mai împăcat cu mine. Am învăţat ca eu însumi sunt afirmarea intuitivă a unei extreme care se transformă în alta, cu precădere în cazul în care se evidenţiază încadrarea liberă a conştiinţei şi a viziunii mele în acele lecţii de viaţă pe care le-am învăţat numai înţelegându-mă, cultivându-mi liniştea sufletească, procurându-mi o imagine de sine mai individualizată, faţă de aceea a grupului.

Nu sunt doar un alergător de cursă lungă, un sprinter care se concentrează doar pe cursă, ci sunt versiunea probabilă a unui membru dintr-un grup întreg de alergători, care s-a învins pe sine însuşi. Mă voi reîntâlni cu mine la următorul antrenament. Iar timpul va avea mai multă răbdare cu mine...

De remarcat faptul că sentimentul de "sens individual" se formează la intersecţia dintre ceea ce mă aştept să se întâmple, ceea ce mă defineşte şi ceea ce trăiesc atunci când lumea mea se întrepătrunde cu lumea celorlalţi. Nu mai sunt omul care uimeşte o întreagă lume, ci omul care ascunde o întreagă lume subterană, învăluită adesea în mister.

Leadershipul este formularea idealistă a dualităţii dintre superioritatea viziunii înţeleasă ca expresie interioară şi exteriorizarea unei experienţe subiective privită ca fapt împlinit.

Mă voi reîntâlni cu mine ori de câte ori voi simţi că evenimentele la care iau parte nu au reuşit să mă schimbe, nici sufleteşte, nici fizic, ci mai mult au întărit în mine acea experienţă a cunoaşterii de sine prin interacţiunea cu ceilalţi. Căci ceea ce mă caracterizează unanim este legat nu doar de afirmarea intuitivă a funcţiunilor intelectuale, ci, până la un anumit grad, chiar de contribuţia hotărâtoare a experienţei de a avea propria lume.

Macro-Leadership

On Iulie 09, 2016

Învaţă să apreciezi rezultatul modului în care percepi relația dintre viziune și maniera de a promova gândirea pe care o instalezi în domeniul creaţiei.

Doream să le transmit tuturor celor ce stăteau înaintea mea, în faţa celor mai nobile intenţii de a pătrunde ştiinţele cele mai înalte, ca pe ceva nou, cu destulă grijă, toate acele prevederi ale acordului încheiat cu o viziune de tip "new world", care se potrivea felului meu personal de a reconstitui o metafizică a depăşirii de sine prin creaţie. Cel care îşi oferă servicile de invenţie, descoperire şi originalitate, în maniera unui artist al detaliului care îşi concentrează eforturile mai mult spre împlinirea tipului de ideal estetic căruia îi este credincios, acela un promotor al schimbării.

Dar numai în contextul unei arte fără egal, utilizând culori primare, creând un plus al ritmului optic, unde predominau elementele exterioare, un amestec de influenţe culturale, sau de natură profundă, şi folosind elementul artificial pe marginea unui subiect ocazional, se putea menţine echilibrul calculat al unei asemenea creaţii. Arta mea nu consta într-un amestec de fantezie şi discreţie rafinată pe fondul decorativ al unui tablou care dă impresia de adevăr, ci era făcută să evidenţieze coincidenţa dintre subiectiv şi obiectiv, dintre timp şi eternitate într-o plăsmuire lirică dominată de simplitate.

Senzaţiile subtile dobândite printr-o exprimare a artei de înaltă calitate şi plină de avânt, erau efecte ale unei concentrări a atenţiei asupra mesajului transmis, şi mai puţin asupra compoziţiei pe care aş situa-o, în mod voluntar, în jurul unei realităţi ce depăşea capacitatea omului de rând de a o înţelege. Cu anticipaţie, îmi întăream subtilităţile inserate în interpretarea mesajului, ca un Arsène Lupin plimbându-se în cadrul relativ restrâns al unui transatlantic, fără să fie recunoscut de nimeni.

Leadership: Poţi să scoţi la iveală acea parte din tine care este "una" şi poate să te lege la infinit, observând cât mai lucid lucrurile din jur, dar de fiecare dată ca o experienţă diferită de creaţie?

Condiţia de a fi un artist, prin actul de a-mi asuma mai întâi o altă calitate, ce mă ameninţa şi mă obseda cumplit, aceea de a străluci printr-un soi de vedere de sus, utilizată pentru a observa cu acurateţe nu numai acţiunile, ci şi sentimentele oamenilor, era un semnal al existenţei unei dominanţe în manifestarea tipului de inteligenţă pe care o posedam.

Puteam să pretind mult mai mult de la ceea ce numeam "calitatea de judeca lucrurile prin tehnicile și mijloacele artei" , mai mult sau mai puțin cubistă. Puteam să cer mai mult de la mine însumi prin manifestarea intenţiei de a construi şi edifica o nouă ştiinţă, unitară prin natura ei profundă, prin expresiile ultime ale subtilităţii artistice, a gândirii şi a simţirii de intensă spiritualitate.

Dar asta numai dacă aş fi fost un artist autentic, dornic să creez o operă de bună calitate în contextul unei societăţi care admiră construcţiile masive, frumuseţile arhitecturale, ridicate cu migală, şi nu doar un intelectual ajuns la succes. Încă mai domină în mine speranţa de mă redefini în întregime, şi de a deveni un mare artist.

Lucrurile din jur (şi emoţiile cu care le priveam) puteau oricând reprezenta o experienţă diferită de creaţie, drept mijloc de a mă apropia de alte lumi şi alte realităţi, fiind cu atât mai importante cu cât reuşeau să scoată la iveală acea parte din mine care este "una" şi putea să mă lege la infinit.

Căci, da, infinitul este un avânt în sensul înzestrării minţii tale cu o putere fără egal, cu o învăţătură de luat în seamă pentru viitoarele călătorii în alte timpuri, deci reprezintă oportunitatea imensă de a experimenta o situație de dedublare: eşti şi artist şi opera de artă în acelaşi timp.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi aduci creaţia la nivel de autenticitate făcând apel la o imagine care conţine mai multe nuanţe de semnificaţii atribuite unei realităţi care este accesibilă doar printr-o vedere unitară?

"Vreau ca întotdeauna cupa mea să fie plină". Acest mesaj gravat pe brăţară de aur de pe mâna lui Ptahor, medicul faraonului Akhenaton, are o mare însemnătate:

„Nu-i vorba despre vin, ci despre artă. Dacă doreşti să devii un artist bun, trebuie să pretinzi ca întotdeauna cupa ta să fie plină. În adevărata artă se manifestă însuşi creatorul şi constructorul lumii, zeul Ptah. Artistul nu-i doar o apă sau o oglindă, el este cu mult mai mult decât acestea. Prin urmare, pretinde cupa ta plină, nu te mulţumi cu ceea ce vor spune alţii şi încrede-te mai mult în ceea ce ochii tău văd clar.” *

Marea formulă a orientării omului spre săvârşirea unui ideal înalt, prin iniţiativa de a construi și edifica o nouă ştiinţă, cu care noile concepţii pătrund în spiritul utilizatorilor ei, se inspiră direct din această inedită combinaţie: a fi doar o apă sau o oglindă.

Această combinaţie pune în valoare, după multe dificultăţi de delimitare a artei de interpretările ei, o linie de dezvoltare compatibilă cu condiţia existenţei unei dominanţe în manifestarea tipului de inteligenţă pe care omul o posedă.

Apa, care curge necontenit, simbolizează puritatea a ceea ce suntem cu adevărat atunci când căutam să ne redefinim în întregime prin afirmarea calităţii de a judeca lucrurile clar, de a le înțelege în esenţa lor, prin tehnicile și mijloacele artei.

O vedere unitară se obţine prin aprecierea raportului dintre două sau mai multe elemente aflate în strânsă legătură, dar care se pot confunda, compensând lipsurile de ordin structural şi transformându-se într-un hibrid teoretic ce poate avea pretenţia de aplicabilitate.

Oglinda simbolizează adevărul a ceea ce conştientizezi că ești atunci când experimentezi nivelele superioare ale calităţii de a judeca lucrurile. Ea te ajută să apreciezi rezultatul modului în care percepi relația dintre viziunea de tip "new world" (care se potriveşte felului tău personal de a reconstitui o metafizică a depăşirii de sine prin creație) și maniera de a promova gândirea pe care o instalezi în domeniul creaţiei.

Omul care cere mai mult de la sine însuşi prin manifestarea intenţiei de a construi şi edifica o nouă știință, transformând observarea lucrurilor din jur în viziune, apreciindu-se sub raportul dintre „apă” și „oglindă”, se apropie de cerinţele de fond ale leadershipului (cunoaşterea şi autocunoaşterea), prin faptul că începe să-și asume o calitate specială.

Calitatea de a străluci printr-un soi de vedere de sus, utilizată pentru a observa cu acurateţe nu numai acţiunile, ci şi sentimentele oamenilor, transpusă apoi într-o creație obiectivă căreia i se poate atribui un identificator unic: „încrede-te mai mult în ceea ce ochii tău văd clar”. Astfel valenţele de artist se vor potrivi foarte bine cu cele ale unui lider.

Leadershipul are ca prim reper al originalităţii înzestrarea minţii cu acea putere de creaţie în stare să personalizeze realitatea din care se nasc experienţele, gândurile şi simţămintele faţă de frumosul unei teme care reuşeşte să nu-şi piardă actualitatea.

Macro Leadership cuprinde toate reperele de obligatorie referinţă, înțelese ca izvor al creaţiei, prin care poți identifica acea metafizică a depăşirii de sine - îmbunătăţind constanta calităţii de a străluci printr-un soi de vedere de sus, fapt ce te poziţionează mai avantajos nu doar în rolul de om care inspiră viziune, cât mai curând în rolul de artist.

Maestre, mulţumesc pentru Invictus

Dezvoltă-ţi identitatea în acord cu modelul sufletesc care te ridică spre o perspectivă spirituală mai largă, luând în considerare sentimentul de împlinire ce se regăseşte în comparaţia: splendoare-trăinicie.

Trandafirul. Mi-am petrecut toată dimineaţa vorbindu-i despre univers, cu trimitere la spaţiul unei opere picturale în care natura capătă nuanţe galben-roşiatice, iar el m-a ascultat fără să spună nimic, fără să bănuiască fantezia din mintea celui care îşi dedică întreaga viaţă îndeplinirii unui scop mai înalt decât înnobilarea unei scrieri literare.

Am vorbit despre simultaneitatea şi succesiunea fenomenelor în timp, a căror cauze necunoscute au sădit în mine seminţele înţelepciunii, ale speranţei şi ale încrederii nestrămutate într-o divinitate care, într-un fel neobişnuit, pare să-mi conducă paşii când într-o direcţie, când în alta, ca şi când aş fi fost înscris în cuprinsul unei cărţi ce se citeşte pe nerăsuflate. Discuţia noastră a rămas fixată în memoria timpului.

Trandafirul îmi zâmbea cu acea frumuseţe ciudată ce străluceşte pe feţele pictorilor excepţionali în mintea cărora se înfiripă câte o idee năstruşnică despre adâncimile din care ies la iveală creaţiile artistice cele mai reprezentative, având parcă un corespondent existenţial în Faust cel Căutător care se născuse în sufletul lui Goethe. Îl percepeam ca un ecou al unei istorii măsurate în veacuri, în timp ce el, probabil, se închipuia ca făcând parte dintr-un scenariu divin al cărui regizor construieşte tipare de viaţă în favoarea unei spontaneităţi cromatice subtile.

Umanismul ia în considerare sentimentul de împlinire adevărată ce se regăseşte în comparaţia: splendoare-trăinicie. Trandafirul, simbolul umanismului, conferă echilibru compoziţional unei lucrări artistice în care viaţa, structura internă a unui spaţiu plin de rezonanţe şi de ecouri emoţionale, capătă perceptual valoarea de centru al unui univers plin de fantezie şi sensibilitate a cărui întindere spaţială se situează între "Visul unei nopţi de vară" şi "Pendulul lui Foucault".

Leadership: Experienţa ta de viaţă este condensată cu ideea unei memorii universale concepute în vederea recunoaşterii unei trăiri esenţiale ce are caracterul unei creaţii dispusă să fie copia unei entităţi omnisciente?

Mărturia pentru orizontul vast de funcţionare al unei perspective căreia i s-a spus convenţional "artistică" stă în coordonatele fundamentale ale unei trăiri care se fixează în memoria culturală a lumii. Coordonate precum simţirea unei prezenţe unice, senzaţia unei fericiri aparte, proiecţia unei intrigi personale într-o naraţiune de mare forţă, sunt atributele unui artist care îşi continuă munca de creaţie prin folosirea unor dialoguri sub formă de memorii simbol:

- Să înţeleg că recunoşti în mine ceea ce eşti tu pentru eternitate? Să fiu eu însumi exemplul de unicitate la care te raportezi atunci când universul îşi alege corespondentul gândirii în care va exista totdeauna ca ființă? mă întreabă el ca un interlocutor spiritual, împingând în centrul atenţiei raţiunea de se subordona unei puteri exterioare lui, unei entităţi omnisciente.

Artistul din mine ar putea surprinde la acest trandafir următorul aspect al universului redat de o filosofie mai veche, întipărită în memoria timpului ca o formulă de sinteză între detaliu și general, o formulă de înfăptuire a unei gândiri luminate în care se încadrează ecoul unei mişcări materiale:

"Când privesc totalitatea lucrurilor ca formând o unitate, o unică natură, am ideea unei forţe. Dacă însă le privesc ca singuratice, am ideea mai multor forţe care se dezvoltă după legile lor interioare şi care trec prin toate întruchipările posibile de care sunt capabile. Toate cele din natură nu sunt altceva decât acele forţe aflate într-o anumită determinare."

Leadership: Tendința ta spre un simbolism superior aduce limbajul universal tot mai aproape de limbajul natural, sub forma unei creaţii plină de asemănări între "putere" şi "sensibilitate" care se poate perpetua oriunde, oricând şi cu oricine?

Trăsătura esenţială a unui artist este că ştie să reproducă o realitate plină de conţinut spiritual. Prin sugestie, prin detaliu, prin măiestrie, prin imaginaţie şi acurateţe artistică, încerc să proiectez cumpătarea mea în faţa tentaţiilor mărunte ale vremii, în afara oricăror reguli sau tipare definite de fenomenul multiplicării în masă, în care formele vechi de cunoaştere sau de performanţă artistică pot fi cu uşurinţă reproduse, manipulate, evocate, parodiate şi ironizate.

- Eşti tu oare în stare să-mi redai o veşnică amintire la care să mă reîntorc în fiecare dimineaţă? l-am întrebat cu sinceritatea artistului care îşi aşează ambiţia de a cuprinde lumea întreagă pe coordonata avântului sufletesc, unul care îşi aşează propria identitate în ipostaza comunicării cu un scriitor ce construieşte imaginea unei realităţi mai înalte peste una obişnuită.

Iar trandafirul mi-a răspuns cu emoţia pe care o are un pictor în faţa tabloului gata terminat, justificând expresia unică a conştiinţei universale:

- Fără tine eu n-aş putea exista decât ca un dat al naturii, ca o simplă experienţă trecătoare şi superficială, ca o simplă nostalgie sau ca o tristețe fără lacrimi. Nimeni nu-mi adresează un cuvânt de învăţătură, nimeni nu-mi vorbeşte ca unui om inteligent şi cult. Toată lumea mă vinde, tu mă păstrezi. Unii mă admiră în trecere, dar nu mă contemplă cu atenţia iubitoare a unui artist care ştie să livreze viziunea unei vieţi viitoare. Alţii îmi făgăduiesc un lucru şi pe urmă parcă nu-şi mai aduc aminte de nimic. Nimeni nu îmi însufleţeşte esenţa. Nimeni în afară de tine.

Apoi, se făcut linişte. O pauză care trebuie privită din aproape spre departe într-un plan orizontal larg deschis, încât să poţi sesiza conturul neîntrerupt al unei emoţii proeminente creată de visul unei fiinţe umane, potenţată de valenţele unei nostalgii afectate:

- Tu mă priveşti ca un mijloc perfect de comunicare cu obiectul unei experienţe directe, mă asemuieşti cu o forţă puternică din univers, cu un prelung poem organic, cu organicitatea trăirilor dispuse într-o descriere care străbate eonii Duhului Sfânt şi ai lui Dumnezeu-Tatăl. Pentru alţii sunt doar o stea care se îndepărtează, o floare care îşi pierde petalele, o culoare care se estompează. Dar pentru tine sunt puterea de creaţie care luminează şi încălzeşte constant sufletul. Datorită ţie mă simt nemuritor ca un zeu, asigurat spiritual de o simbolizare care primează între toate. Maestre, mulţumesc pentru Invictus !

Leadership: Imaginea pe care ţi-o formezi despre identitatea care te reprezintă poate să amplifice efectul densităţii vizuale a unei lumi create printr-o simbioză între artist şi subiectul picturii sale?

Trandafirul meu, Double Delight. Tu mă asculţi cu atenţia cu care copilul îşi ascultă părintele, aşa cum spiritul se apleacă înaintea amplitudinii unui astru, cu atât mai mult cu cât pari să posezi anumite atribute: cunoaşterea lucrurilor şi a ordinii lor, sentimente ca bucuria, pacea, libertatea şi voinţa de a decide ce atitudine să iei în faţa schimbării.

Spinii tăi sunt evantaiul interpretărilor încărcate cu multă doză de obiectivitate, o concepţie originală a îndurării vieţii, o manifestare a convingerii că totul poate fi personalizat cu un mesaj triumfător: fii ceea ce te consideră ceilalţi, dar întotdeauna ca un exemplul al lucrării lui Dumnezeu.

În raport cu caracterul configuraţiilor, închise sau deschise de efectul densităţii vizuale, poţi fi aşezat pe coordonata unei concepţii despre dezvoltarea armonioasă, ce sugerează, printr-un filtru mistic, profeţia legată de destinul excepţional al unui om de rând motivat de aspiraţia spre nemurire.

Plasându-te în centrul unei reflecţii mature asupra frumosului, sub solemnitatea unei picturi fine, pline de concepţii artistice, îmi inspiri o anumită înţelepciune despre felul cum Dumnezeu a creat universul, fapt ce ar trebui să mă ajute să apreciez mai bine minunăţia creaţiei. Şi, fără seamăn, în felul cum stai nemişcat în bătaia câte unei pale uşoare de vânt, se poate recunoaşte o puternică inspiraţie din filosofia unui Prospero sau a unui Merlin:

"Daţi-mi materia şi eu voi construi din ea lumea, adică daţi-mi materia şi am să vă arăt cum trebuie formată din ea lumea. Pentru că dacă există materie, care este înzestrată cu forţă de atracţie, nu este greu de stabilit cauzele care au contribuit la formarea sistemului mondial".

O creaţie dispusă să fie copia unei entităţi omnisciente este formula de înfăptuire a unui miracol ce poartă numele de "ecou al unei vieţi trăită în nemurire" printr-o experienţă sufletească, emoţionantă datorată semnificaţiilor adânci pe care le comportă.

Maestre, mulţumesc pentru Invictus evidenţiază sentimentul de apropiere dintre artist şi creaţia sa, o apropiere însufleţită de revelaţia unei conexiuni cu o inteligenţă mult superioară omului.

Maestrul desăvârşit al compoziţiei

On Octombrie 25, 2010

Ia în considerare obţinerea unor performanţe înalte, pentru a evita lipsa de „strălucire” care poate să diminueze calitatea leadershipului tău.

Primul lucru pe care regizor rus, Serghei Eisenstein, i-l ceruse marelui compozitor Prokofiev, cu care colaborase la realizarea numeroaselor filme, era muzica pentru secvenţa „Jurământul eroilor”, secvenţă pe care o dorea filmată pe baza muzicii. Eisenstein nu concretizase felul în care trebuia construită secvenţă. Iar de această dată muzica realizată de marele pianist nu i-a fost pe plac.

Atunci Prokofiev s-a aprins şi a declarat răspicat:

- Nu voi mai scrie muzică fără "fiţuici", adică fără desene, căci numai astfel pot urmări toate nuanţele gândirii regizorului.

Leadershp: Poţi să-ţi reprezinţi viziunea în cel mai bun mod posibil prin puterea de transfigurare dată artistului, una reală, capabilă să convertească ambiguitatea în factor funcţional şi durabil?

Dacă performanţele tale stau sub semnul măcar a unei singure îndoieli, atunci şi valoarea leadershipului tău este incertă, iar durata lui de funcţionare şi modalitatea prin care le transmiţi celorlalţi convingerile, scara de valori şi sentimentele care te leagă de ei, nu mai este sigură.

În tot ceea ce elaborezi trebuie să porneşti de la studiul foarte exact al realităţii celorlalţi şi al acceptabilităţii lor, în funcţie de idealul de profesionalism pe care îl poartă în ei înşişi şi de viziunea lor asupra perfecţiunii. Leadershipul tău trebuie să fie rezultatul unui proces de severă cumpănire a esenţei lor, a tendinţelor lor de a-şi „cosmetiza” activităţile şi rezultatele, fără să pui sub semnul îndoielii traiectoria ideală pe care ei doresc s-o urmeze.

De la producerea acelui mic incident, metoda de lucru a celor doi artişti a funcţionat perfect, fără divergenţe de opinii. De atunci colaborarea a urmat totdeauna opt momente succesive precise. Întâi Eisenstein îi arăta montajul secvenţei. Apoi secvenţa se cronometra, după care îşi expunea dorinţele faţă de muzică. Îşi exprima plastic aceste deziderate:

- Iată, aici trebuie să sune ca şi cum cineva i-ar smulge unei mame copilul din braţe…(sau)… Să faci să se audă aşa cum ai lovi un dop de o sticlă.

Prokofiev se arăta totdeauna încântat de asemenea indicaţii plastice. Iar odată fixate cu precizie cadrele compoziţiei, pe gustul lui Eisenstein, el compunea muzica ce se înscria în reţeaua de măsuri calculată prealabil.

Leadership: Pe marginea creaţiei tale se plasează orice dezbatere asupra înţelesurilor artei şi reprezentării vizuale (în sensul de judecăţi realiste) pe care le slujeşte conceptul de eficienţă dinamică?

De la cei doi artişti avem de învăţat ceva. Întotdeauna munca în echipa trebuie să se desfăşoare într-o armonie perfectă. Aşa cum între bătăile inimii şi respiraţie există o concordanţă, tot aşa trebuie să existe o concordanţă între nivelul tău de gândire şi al celorlalţi oameni cu care lucrezi, chiar dacă la prima vedere s-ar putea să nu fie evidentă. Iar creaţia căreia îi daţi viaţă împreună, trebuie să culmineze prin credibilitate, prin crearea unui profil de lider sau prin ceea ce sunteţi capabili să scoateţi dintr-o simplă eroare.

Pentru a evita lipsa de strălucire care poate să diminueze aspectul pur al leadershipului tău trebuie să iei în considerare obţinerea unor performanţe înalte. Cu cât performanţele tale vor străluci mai mult în ochii celorlalţi, cu atât ei vor deveni mai conştienţi de valoarea ta proprie şi se vor raporta mai uşor la interesele tale, la aşteptările tale, la competenţele tale şi la rezultatele tale.

Tot ceea ce creezi poate fi identificat în leadershipul pe care îl practici. Totul trebuie să fie îndelung şi precis chibzuit în raport cu capacitatea de expresie şi de sugestie a fiecărui element care îţi defineşte stilul de muncă şi de conducere, pentru a evita lipsa unor coordonări imprecise între percepţiile tale şi ale celorlalţi.

Aşa cum un pictor iscusit realizează compoziţii prin mânuirea culorilor, tot aşa şi tu trebuie să "mânuieşti" oamenii, pentru ca colaborarea dintre tine şi ei să se realizeze în mod optim; trebuie să-ţi transmiţi propriile gânduri, idei şi certitudini tot astfel cum îţi transmiţi disponibilitatea de a-i ajuta să se dezvolte, concentrându-ţi eforturile spre o îndeplinire optimă a rezultatelor stabilite şi, bineînţeles, luând în considerare factorul de timp.

Conceptul de eficienţă dinamică are ca prim considerent de luat în seamă acea capacitate a artiştilor de a se reinventa prin opţiunea "mix & match", dar şi acea capacitate comună de a scoate dintr-o simplă eroare o temă de mare interes.

Totodată, artiştii trebuie să perceapă critic realitatea şi să o extindă prin latura de cercetare şi investigare a aspectelor cele mai înalte de conştiinţă ale unui anumit arhetip de dăruire, voinţa şi determinare.

Maestrul desăvârşit al compoziţiei poate fi considerat orice lider care, pe baza contribuţiilor sale la buna funcţionare a activităţilor proprii şi ale celorlalţi colaboratori, reuşeşte să creeze un sentiment deosebit, de stabilitate la locul de muncă. Munca în echipa este o „compoziţie" de eforturi, analize şi realizări pe care un lider o poate modela după voia proprie. Dar ea trebuie să intre în rezonanţă cu realitatea celorlalţi, cu gândurile, sentimentele şi aşteptările lor, altfel contribuţia ta va fi considerată ineficientă şi nu va fi primită cum se cuvine.

Concluzie: Dacă vrei să fii un maestru desăvârşit al „compoziţiei" numite leadership, dacă vrei să devii acel factor la care să se raporteze toţi cei din jurul tău, atunci trebuie să depui o muncă susţinută, trebuie să fii acel exemplu pe care să-l urmeze toţi, trebuie să obţii acele performanţe profesionale care să eclateze şi să fie urmate de toţi.

Întăreşte-ţi relaţiile de colaborare şi determină-i pe oameni să înţeleagă importanţa şi calitatea muncii lor – de care depinde performanţa întregii echipe. Aşa cum tonul face muzica, tot aşa în munca cu oamenii trebuie să foloseşti tonul, tactul şi tactica potrivite care să fie înţelese şi acceptate de toţi.

Maestrul emerit al artei

On Octombrie 15, 2010

Fă primul pas spre adevărata performanţă, exprimându-ţi cu sinceritate şi adevăr intenţia de a te îndrepta spre o neîntrecută măiestrie.

Marele pictor român Theodor Pallady, rămâne fără îndoială unul din cei mai prestigioşi artişti moderni, păstrându-şi întreagă ambiţia de a fi un pictor "din toate timpurile". La împlinirea a 85 de ani, în 1956, a primit titlul de "Maestru emerit al artei", organizându-se expoziţia retrospectivă „Theodor Pallady". Curând după aceea, la 16 august 1956, a trecut în lumea umbrelor.

Dar, cu puţin timp înainte de a deceda, el a declarat un lucru deosebit de important, care i-a stimulat profesional pe toţi artiştii de după el, care i-au urmat exemplul:

"Până la 50 de ani pictura a fost aceea care m-a stăpânit pe mine; după ce am împlinit 50 de ani am izbutit s-o supun şi de atunci am fost eu acela care a stăpânit-o pe ea."

Leadership: Trebuie să oferi oamenilor sugestii provenite din conţinutul experienţei tale, încât performanţele individualităţii tale să fie trecute de ei prin filtrul informaţiilor ce pot favoriza dezvoltarea creaţiei lor?

Tu vei fi capabil să realizezi un leadership care prin calitatea lui să convingă şi să emoţioneze? Vei fi izbuti oare, la fel ca şi Pallady, să supui şi să stăpâneşti arta căreia îţi dedici întreaga viaţă?

Ceea ce joacă un rol atât de important în leadership este tocmai aceasta complexitate care îl caracterizează şi pe un artist, această poziţionare cât mai exactă a calităţii propriei activităţi în raport cu înaltele sale idealuri şi valori - de-a lungului propriului drum spre măreţie, respectiv spre succes.

Aşa cum în fotbal, un apărător îşi marchează îndeaproape adversarul aflat în zona lui de acţiune – tot aşa şi tu, ca să te situezi printre acei "artişti" ai leadershipului care influenţează enorm, care reuşesc să impresioneze prin creaţiile lor şi să se facă acceptaţi de către ceilalţi, trebuie să-ţi marchezi bine graniţele propriei tale competenţe şi să-ţi investeşti cunoştinţele în ceva concret care să aibă o semnificaţie aparte, care să te ajute să-ţi promovezi "arta".

Adversarul tău număr unu este lipsa de stăruinţă şi de pasiune, şi orientarea într-o direcţie nefavorabilă viziunii şi a scopurilor proprii. Pentru ca leadership-ul tău să capete stabilitate şi soliditate, pentru ca el să se dovedească a fi fertil şi substanţial în tot ceea ce exprimă, trebuie să-ţi serveşti cu o consecvenţă şi abnegaţie totală propriile idei şi concepţii, tot aşa cum un pictor se serveşte de pensulă şi de vopsele pentru a-şi realiza operele.

Pentru a te situa afectiv în orizontul unui suflet ce are nevoie de ajutor, trebuie să fii capabil să ieşi din propria interioritate şi să te expui unei emoţii care obligă la acţiune !

Pe pereţii biroului marelui industriaş american, Andrew Carnegie, stăteau toate motto-urile care l-au inspirat, dezvăluind puternica sa dorinţă de a deveni cel mai mare filantrop. Unul din ele sună cam aşa: "Frică să-ţi fie de propriile tale reproşuri".

Te simţi atras către leadership? Sau e doar o manifestare a unui sentiment faţă de ceva? Este o formă de a te descoperi şi de a te întrece pe tine însuţi pentru a creşte în ierarhie? Sau o formă de a te pune în slujba celorlalţi?

Oricum ai vedea lucrurile, un singur lucru e cert: dacă nu-ţi exprimi cu sinceritate şi adevăr intenţia de a te devota cu trup şi suflet unei arte foarte complexe şi dificile, dacă nu-ţi înfrunţi propriile reproşuri în faţa oricărui eşec, atunci nu vei putea să stăpâneşti arta căreia îţi dedici întreaga viaţă, nu ţi se va deschide niciodată drumul spre adevărata performanţă, spre propria ta măreţie.

Măiestria în leadership însumează rezultatul experienţei pe care ai acumulat-o şi al deciziilor pe care le-ai luat, într-un context în care gradul de emoţie este foarte ridicat datorită importanţei pe care o atribui caracterului aplicat şi inedit al creaţiei tale.

Maestru emerit al artei poate fi orice individ care aspiră la statutul de lider, cu condiţia să găsească mijloacele necesare finalizării cu succes a intenţiilor sale. Nu vei putea intra niciodată în graţia celor care te-au ales la conducerea lor, dacă nu-ţi serveşti cu loialitate idealurile înalte, dacă nu eşti consecvent în a creşte mereu calitatea leadershipului tău.

Fă primul pas spre adevărata performanţă, exprimându-ţi cu sinceritate şi adevăr intenţia de a te îndrepta spre o neîntrecută măiestrie. Apoi, continuă să-ţi cizelezi leadershipul până când îl vei transforma într-o operă de valoare care să merite în primul rând, preţuirea ta, apoi a celorlalţi.

Concluzie: Obţinerea titlului de "Maestru emerit al artei" este primul pas către obţinerea recunoaşterii generale pe plan naţional sau internaţional, a valorilor cuiva şi a aportului pe care l-a adus cineva într-un domeniu de activitate.

În leadership nu există încă astfel de distincţii, dar recunoaşterea generală a valorii unui lider se obţine în urma unor evaluări repetate a rezultatelor obţinute care trebuie să fie net superioare, în comparaţie cu a altora şi-n comparaţie cu nişte standarde bine definite.

Pentru orice aspirant la recunoaşterea generală în leadership este esenţială autoevaluarea performantă, corectă şi obiectivă. Atunci când în calitate de aspirant ai ce să-ţi reproşezi, înseamnă că mai ai de muncit mult, înseamnă că te situezi undeva între kitsch şi artă.

Maestrul tacticilor şi al strategiilor

On Noiembrie 25, 2009

Un conducător redutabil se ghidează după un singur criteriu: strategie, strategie, strategie.

Niciun geniu nu este geniu pe întreg parcursul celor douăzeci si patru de ore ale unei zile. Nimeni nu scapă de neprevăzut, de capcanele pe care viaţa le întinde prea adeseori în cale. Nimeni nu este capabil să pătrundă măreţia gândirii si acţiunii atât de bine încât să evite greşelile. Cine ar putea, oare, să intuiască în mod excepţional evenimentele? Oare există cineva înzestrat cu o mentalitate atât de calculată, atât de tenace, atât de amănunţită încât să se poată adapta, asemenea unui cameleon, oricărui mediu, să se poată dedubla, să interpreteze roluri diverse, să se mişte mereu pe noi coordonate bine stabilite, dar necunoscute de nimeni?

Toată lumea are puncte vulnerabile. Nimeni nu este Dumnezeu şi toţi suntem mai mult sau mai puţin imperfecţi. Nu-i aşa? Cu toate acestea, unii au învăţat să-şi ascundă slăbiciunile. Şi, mai mult decât atât, să le transforme în atuuri. Aceştia din urmă au îndrăznit să joace teribilul joc, atât de primejdios, cu ei înşişi, cu limitele lor, păstrând sub abisurile întunecate ale personalităţii lor calităţile şi defectele, şi alte atâtea contraste pe care le alternează mereu, mizând consecvent pe ideile şi idealurile lor.

Există în lume oameni care cred cu multă tărie, sau din naivitate, că ar putea sfida cu nonşalanţă, imposibilul. Se consideră invincibili, imbatabili, magnifici, fără greşeală şi chiar nemuritori. Un astfel de om, cu o încredere de sine ce dă impresia că poate mişca şi munţii din loc, este convins că poate răzbi în lupta cu soarta dacă şi numai dacă utilizează strategia cea mai potrivită.

El este Maestrul tacticilor şi al strategiilor. Veşnicul jucător talentat care nicidecum nu trebuie prins pe picior greşit, care sub nicio formă nu-şi poate permite să neglijeze ceea ce nu trebuie neglijat. Pentru el, lumea este ca o tablă de şah, poate cu mai multe piese şi mai multe pătrăţele. El împotriva unui adversar redutabil: soarta, care joacă cinstit dar foarte dur, după legile universale.

Leadership: Poţi să demonstrezi o asociere între jocul de rol și dezvoltarea psihică la nivel de "tablă de şah" care te face să prevezi fiecare răsturnare de situaţie?

Fără nici un dubiu, Maestrul tacticilor şi al strategiilor, ca un desăvârşit artist al disimulării, este un veritabil jucător de şah. Un jucător înrăit. Un jucător profesionist. Un jucător excepţional, înzestrat cu un calm impenetrabil. Care ia în calcul totul, fiecare situaţie particulară, fiecare abordare, fiecare risc: apărarea, mutarea şi capturarea pieselor, transformarea pionilor, legăturile, atacurile prin surprindere, deschiderile, închiderile, gambiturile, eliberarea câmpurilor, manevrele, etc. Este întotdeauna capabil să-şi dea seama când „toate acestea se vor sfârşi rău”.

Superioritatea lui constă în meticulozitate. Notează, cu o abilitate extraordinară, toate mutările pe care le face, dar şi pe cele ale adversarilor. Colectează noi strategii în timp ce le adaptează pe ale sale. Profită de împrejurări. Are o intuiţie formidabilă. Care îl face să prevadă fiecare răsturnare de situaţie. Cu mintea lui rapidă calculează dinainte toate loviturile posibile ale adversarului. Absolut fiecare mutare este combinată dinainte în vederea mai multor mişcări viitoare.

Dar are şi o experienţă vastă. Stăpâneşte toate tainele tehnicii şahului. Ştie pe dinafară toate partidele celor mai încercaţi maeştri, precum Alechim, Capablanca, Lasker, Tartakower, Bobby Fischer, Kasparov, Nakamura, fiindcă le-a repetat de zeci, poate chiar de sute de ori. Nimic nu ar trebui să fie imposibil pentru un atotştiutor şi cunoscător în ale şahului şi strategiilor, nu-i aşa?

Leadership: Profiţi întotdeauna de pe urma unei schimbări de poziţie în condiţiile interpretării unui rol care se suprapune cu Eul tău?

Însă Maestrul tacticilor şi al strategiilor este atât de obsedat de acest joc al inteligenţei, încât orice face, oriunde s-ar afla, chiar şi atunci când visează, are în cap un singur lucru: strategie, strategie, strategie. La el totul se reduce numai la strategie. Este ferm convins că viaţa în sine este o strategie, iar el, un strateg excepţional, o poate uşor păcăli. Tot ce mişcă, tot ce îi apare în faţa ochilor, tot ce atinge, tot ce se întâmplă în jurul său, absolut tot se rezumă numai la pioni, nebuni, ture, cai şi regine.

Să nu uităm niciodată că Maestrul tacticilor şi al strategiilor este regele. Iar regele trebuie protejat cât mai bine şi în cele din urmă trebuie să iasă, numaidecât, învingător. Indiferent de teren. Indiferent de obstacolele întâlnite. Indiferent de mijloacele folosite. Nu contează preţul care trebuie plătit. Pentru el nu contează natura sacrificiilor. Căci el trebuie să rămână întotdeauna „în picioare". El este „capul" care nu trebuie să cadă sub nicio formă. Altfel, întreg jocul pe care-l conduce se poate nărui.

Poziţia pe care o adopţi în condiţiile unui rol care se suprapune cu Eul tău este o atitudine de acceptare a autorităţii care, prin folosinţă, devine venerabilă. Să îţi reconsideri poziţia de "rege" este similar cu a-ţi accepta limitele în situaţia în care nu deţii controlul asupra consecinţelor unei "mutări "surpriză" făcută de adversar.

Leadership: Adaugi o valoare suplimentară experienței tale de finalizare a unei partide a cărei miză este remodelarea Egoului, prin reflecția conștientă și ghidată asupra caracterului puterii împotriva căreia acţionezi?

Conducerea este ca un joc de şah. Îmi este imposibil să nu recunosc faptul că în lume există astfel de oameni care reuşesc performanţa de a juca o nesfârşită partidă de şah cu soarta (lor şi a celorlalţi oameni), sperând s-o păcălească de-a binelea. Nu doar puţin, ci complet, fără jumătăţi de măsura. Pe şleau. Şi fără ezitare. Cum sunt, de exemplu, cei care se afla la conducerea unor companii, sau a unor ţări. În închipuirea lor egoistă (şi probabil bolnăvicioasă) sunt nişte maeştri ai tacticilor si strategiilor.

Eul este ceea ce rămâne neschimbat în mijlocul schimbărilor de situaţii pe care nu le poţi controla după îndelungi exerciţii şi antrenamente.

Bineînţeles că ei se identifică cu regele din jocul de şah care este cea mai importantă piesă. În mintea lor se joacă în permanenţă o partidă, iar singurele lucruri care le stârnesc cel mai mare interes sunt cuvintele: ŞAH ! şi MAT ! Aceşti extraordinari maeştri nu se pot gândi la nimic altceva decât la şah, văd peste tot numai mişcări şi tentative de şah. Şah cu pionul. Şah cu regina. Şah cu tura. Şah cu nebunul. Şah cu calul. Tot timpul o ţin numai în şah, având nesfârşita speranţă, enorma dorinţă de a încheia partida cu un MAT !

Leadership: Dacă nu reușești să pătrunzi înţelesul unei mutări făcute de adversar, mergi pe ideea că nu există niciun sens de a te situa deasupra limitelor care te fac să te simți controlat?

Nici prin gând nu le trece acestor maeştri ai tacticilor şi ai strategiilor că ar putea, cumva, printr-o întâmplare absurdă, să facă o mutare greşită care să le ameninţe poziţia de lider. În jocul pentru putere, nu se ajunge niciodată la o remiză. Deci o mutare greşită înseamnă automat pierderea poziţiei de lider. Care o dată pierdută, nu poate fi decât cu mare greutate recâştigată, pentru că soarta e nemiloasă şi nu permite oricui o revanşă.

O partidă de şah se poate câştiga făcând numai sacrificii de pioni, ture, nebuni, cai sau regine. Dar un adevărat maestru, care îşi respectă talentul, aspiră să câştige împotriva unui adversar pe măsură, dacă s-ar putea cu toate piesele pe tablă. Pare imposibil. Însă doar cine va reuşi această performanţă se va putea numi, fără umbră de îndoială, un desăvârşit maestru al tacticilor şi al strategiilor.

El nu uită niciodată că sensul unei mutări nu poate fi găsit în cuprinsul unei zone de siguranţă, ci în cuprinsul unei zone de "alertă" !

Dacă mergi pe ideea că nu există niciun sens în mutarea făcută de adversar înseamnă că încă nu ai deprins lecţia cea mai importantă în jocul de şah: arma fatală este aceea de a integra planul adversarului în faza de dezvoltare a propriului tău plan !

Magia leadershipului

On Noiembrie 09, 2010

Transformă-ţi leadershipul într-o capodoperă, astfel încât să rămână veşnic aninat în mintea şi în sufletul oamenilor.

Unele amintiri sunt prea vii, prea clare, şi îţi trezesc prea multe sentimente uitate. Nu, nu poţi să le încui într-o cutie grea, pe care apoi s-o arunci într-o fântână - asculţi cum face pleosc, şi apoi dispare. Unele amintiri nu dispar, nu mor niciodată, ci rămân adânc întipărite în memoria noastră.

Un singur tablou – înfăţişând un câmp cu flori de toate culorile, având în prim plan o floare de lotus de un violet luminos - spune multe despre pictorul care l-a pictat. Acest tablou îmi aminteşte de el, de maestrul meu, al cărui talent s-a dovedit a fi remarcabil. Tabloul, care reliefează talentul său pentru îmbinarea culorilor, mă duce cu gândul la trecut, atunci când rămâneam ceasuri întregi în preajma lui şi-l ascultam vorbind atât de frumos, uneori emoţionant, despre tâlcul artei şi despre marea taină a picturii. Acest tablou, a cărui execuţie a fost deosebit de meticuloasă, îmi aduce aminte de uşurinţa şi graţia cu care maestrul mişca penelul pe pânza bine întinsă pe şevalet, vădind pasiunea lui pentru pictură, izvorâtă din adâncul sufletului.

Nu există uitare. Când mă uit la acest splendid tablou mă gândesc la trecut, aud vorbele lui, îndrumările pe care mi le-a dăruit, căutând să-mi arate calea spre adevărata cunoaştere a artei. Stând de vorbă cu el, sau mai degrabă ascultându-l vorbind, totdeauna cu profunzime şi plin de înflăcărare, urmărindu-l cum pictează năzuind să-şi dezvolte simţurile, am pătruns multe din secretele artei. De la el am aflat despre procedeul umbrei figurilor proiectate pe un perete sau pe un ecran, pe care îl întrebuinţau vechii artişti ceramişti egipteni.

Leadership: Spiritul tău circulă liber printre oamenii fideli "creaţiei" tale?

Opera unui artist este viaţa lui. Nu poţi să te desprinzi cu totul de el, de opera lui, de arta pe care a creat-o. Când priveşti un tablou de-al său eşti adânc emoţionat, păstrezi tăcerea şi respectul. Artistul te învăluie cu prezenţa lui, pe care n-o poţi vedea, dar pe care o poţi simţi în interiorul tău, o simţi ca făcând parte din tine.

Unui singur om, unui singur om de pe pământul acesta, tocmai lui care nutrea o infinită pasiune pentru artă, numai lui, dintre toţi, îi datorez ştiinţa mea. Mulţi, prea mulţi ani am stat în preajma maestrului. Şi m-am bucurat de multă afecţiune din partea lui. Deseori când îmi vorbea despre ştiinţa sa, îşi ridica privirea spre mine cu bunăvoinţă, şi îmi spunea: "Nicu, cu cât o operă este mai desăvârşită, cu cât este mai originală." Măiestria lui era inconfundabilă. Realizez acest lucru de fiecare dată când îi privesc tabloul.

Un lider desăvârşit este o prezenţă vie şi continuă în mintea şi în sufletul oamenilor. El este asemenea unui pictor care, chiar şi atunci când nu se află lângă tine, are o mare influenţă asupra ta. Sau, este asemenea unui scriitor care rămâne multă vreme în mintea ta, după ce ai închis cartea şi ai pus-o înapoi pe raftul bibliotecii. Spiritul său circulă liber printre oamenii fideli "creaţiei" sale.

Leadership: Poţi să atingi un punct culminant prin măiestria de a reprezenta cu îndemânare ceea ce e mai important din punct de vedere expresiv într-un mod pregnant viu, de neuitat?

Numai cel ce are ambiţia unui stil mare şi original poate manifesta un interes deosebit pentru lucrurile spirituale. Numai un asemenea om poate să pătrundă marea taină a artei și să dea expresie celor mai înalte idealuri, valori si principii, prin intermediul operei sale. Numai un asemenea om, străbătut de o pasiune intensă, foarte instruit, înzestrat cu un simţ ascuţit de profesionalism şi tinzând către perfecţiune, poate avea o contribuţie substanţială la crearea unei opere de calitate, o operă care să rămână veşnic vie.

Un lider adevărat face din leadershipul său o capodoperă care se concentrează pe relaţia Tată-Fiu. Leadershipul e ca o pictură care rămâne întipărită în mintea oamenilor cu cât este mai bine realizată şi mai frumoasă. Şi el poate fi ridicat la rang de artă numai dacă cele două entităţi - mentorul şi ucenicul - se întâlnesc, se întrepătrund şi se completează reciproc, numai dacă aceste două entităţi se află într-o relaţie de tip "parte – întreg".

Ai găsit pe cineva foarte instruit care să ţi se alăture în călătoria ta spre performanţă şi cu care să poţi forma un întreg? Atingerea potenţialului său maxim creează o fundaţie, o sinergie din care şi tu să-ţi atingi potenţialul?

Atingi un punct culminant prin măiestria de a reprezenta cu îndemânare ceea ce e mai important din punct de vedere expresiv într-un mod pregnant viu, de neuitat, atunci când opera ta îşi vădeşte principala consecvenţă în puterea de a mişca inimi şi în dreptul de a pretinde apartenenţa la o entitate de tip asociativ cu personalitatea pe care o admiri.

Punctul culminant al drumului spre înţelegerea artei este reprezentat de ceea ce începi să apreciezi atunci când eşti nevoit să trăieşti senzaţia unui contact direct cu marii artişti care slujesc strălucit ideea de "Operă Vie".

Magia leadershipului nu este altceva decât ceea ce un leadership de calitate lasă în memoria şi-n sufletul oamenilor, chiar şi după ce liderul nu mai este, dar şi-a definitivat misiunea atingându-şi scopurile propuse. Este o mare performanţă ca leadershipul cuiva să rămână întipărit în memoria şi-n sufletul oamenilor, ceea ce denotă că a fost probabil de cea mai bună calitate şi deci, nu bun ci foarte bun, demn de urmat.

Ar fi absurd, şi este o imposibilitate ca oamenii să aibă o părere bună despre tine şi să-ţi accepte esenţa – interesele şi valorile – dacă nu stăpâneşti magia leadershipului.

Transformă-ţi leadershipul într-o capodoperă, astfel încât să rămână veşnic aninat în mintea şi în sufletul oamenilor.

Magia vrăjitorului (II)

On August 03, 2009

Pune-ţi în valoare iscusinţa de a modela caractere, reglându-ţi potenţialul de leadership în acord cu virtuţile tale.

În toate întâmplările petrecute pe insulă a existat un fir misterios, pe care nimeni nu l-a putut înţelege, totul a fost condus de o mână puternică, nevăzută, de mâna unui vrăjitor. Niciun suflet de pe corabie nu a bănuit că acel moşneag, tăcut, încărunţit, care şi-a pierdut tinereţea, era o fiinţă excepţională ce va uimi pe toată lumea cu înţelepciunea să deosebită şi care, folosindu-se de puterile sale magice, după bunul plac, îi va condamna pe vinovaţi la chinuri grele. Trecutul a fost răzbunat.

Prospero a reuşit să-i atragă pe cei doi vrăşmaşi ai săi în capcană, dominându-i şi ţinându-i în frâu prin puterea sa ascunsă, supunându-i la chinuri până ce s-au căit de nedreptatea ce i-o făcuseră. Cu lacrimi în ochi şi cuvinte pline de mâhnire şi adevărată căinţă, aceştia şi-au mărturisit în cele din urmă sincera remuşcare şi au implorat iertarea.

Dacă ai citit "Furtuna" de Shakespeare, ştii că finalul a fost unul fericit. Prospero s-a împăcat cu vrăjmaşii săi, s-a reîntors în ţara în care se născuse şi şi-a luat în stăpânire ducatul.

Prospero a făcut dovada abilităţilor sale strălucite de leadership prin puterea lui de a modela caracterul oamenilor după voia lui, utilizându-şi virtuţile căpătate prin credinţă şi cunoaştere.

Leadership: Ai puterea să te desprinzi de artificialul autoimpus care aduce cu sine o evadare din trecut?

Pentru Prospero, articifialul autoimpus era o imitaţie a puterii naturii impregnată cu nuanţe magice, pe care a integrat-o într-un proces de expansiune a propriei sale personalităţi, dincolo de barierele convenţionalului. Pe linia dependenţei de a oferi totului din jur o explicaţie plauzibilă printr-o figură de creator cu capacități de clarvedere, el a reuşit să lase trecutul în urmă, fiind totodată absorbit de singura motivaţie posibilă: răzbunarea.

Putem indica traiectoria leadershipului plecând de la ideea unei relative cunoaşteri a universului uman investigat, sau mai degrabă de la paralela dintre obiectivele şi rezultatele scontate ce participă la procesul de expansiune a personalităţii către o suprematie incontestabilă.

Pe baza caracteristicilor comune unor procese de natură identitară, dezvoltate la contactul cu o realitate complexă despre care omul obişnuit nu deţine informaţie şi pentru care este constrâns (de evoluţia nefirească a lucrurilor) să-şi asambleze rapid sieşi însuşi o imagine deformată, se poate determina acea forţă de impact care ascunde în ea sămânţa unei noi ordini.

Leadership: Trebuie să faci plauzibilul să devină real înainte ca realul şi irealul să fie despărţiţi de libertatea asocierii cu un fapt supraomenesc?

În contextul primei forme de producere a eficienţei, gestionând resursele de exprimare a personalităţii, se poate distinge un soi de asociere între ştiinţă şi virtuţi, care fac trecerea de la adevărul real care eliberează de orice constrângeri şi prejudecăţi, la adevărul relevat de o serie de factori externi care ar putea ieşi la iveală împotriva ta.

A doua formă de producere a eficienţei, calculată printr-un cumul de factori decizionali integraţi în aria intelectului care tânjeşte spre absolut, poate asigura pe termen lung incluziunea ta într-un status de dominare, modificând semnificaţia orizontului pe care îl poţi cuprinde numai de la o anumită altitudine.

De aici, se trage concluzia că procesul de evoluţie către un plan mai înalt, presupunând un oarecare grad de înţelepciune şi acumulare de cunoştinţe, este posibil atunci când se evită chestionarea ipotezelor de plauzibilitate. Prin acest procedeu se poate dezvălui adevărata ta identitate, răsturnând orice fel de valoare pe care ţi-ai promovat-o prin diversiuni de excepţie şi prin puterea de a induce impresia unui haos, sau a unui determinism rigid, predominat de aspecte neînţelese, care aproape fac imposibilă libertatea celorlalţi de manifestare.

Leadership: Îţi manifeşti fascinaţia pentru ceea ce te stăpâneşte, mergând pe premiza că toate elementele din jur îşi joacă în mod corect rolul în vederea atingerii scopului propus?

Leadershipul care oscilează de la o extremă la alta este rezultatul succesiunii mai multor etape de prelucrare a formelor de influenţă care, în contactul cu realitatea, nu se desprind de artificialul autoimpus care ia locul valorilor reale, aducând cu sine acea rigiditate în a recepta alte puncte de vedere, lipsa de generozitate, atitudini pur dominatoare.

Depinde de impulsul propriei tale naturi să te deschizi şi să alegi să ai încredere într-un Alter Ego superior, în ciuda durerilor şi nedreptăţilor din trecut, ţinând la distanță orice realitate care contrazice convingerile susţinute de zidul idealităţii pure, generatoare de valori.

Putere, asta îţi oferă magia. Un lider priceput se asigură că toate elementele din jur îşi joacă în mod corect rolul în vederea atingerii scopului propus. Tu ai puterea de a modela caracterul oamenilor după voia ta? Care sunt virtuţile de care ai nevoie pentru a facilita această transformare?

Ceea ce stăpâneşte un om aflat în avântul spre desăvârşire este tocmai principiul propriei persoane pe care trebuie să-l respecte fără să-l depăşească: "Fereşte-te să pierzi înăuntrul tău pentru ca să câştigi în afara ta."

Dacă un om ar avea darul prorociei şi ar cunoaşte toate tainele şi orice ştiinţă, ar şti să conducă lucrurile după propria lui voinţă. Ar şti să atragă sufletele, să le domine prin cunoaştere, iniţiativă şi creativitate, prin autoritate, prin persuasiune. Şi, îmbătat de sentimentul misiunii sale, el ar anihila voinţa tuturor celorlalţi, cerându-le ascultare în numele misiunii sale şi împlinirea celor mai îndrăzneţe pretenţii.

Prin această creştere a puterii, influenţa personalităţii sale ar spori de la o zi la alta, nemăsurat, ea îi va putea afirma imensa-i autoritate în faţa tuturor. Iar cine ar cuteza să se îndoiască de puterile sale, nu ar putea fi vrednic de EL – vrăjitorul - cel mai puternic om din lume, un lider desăvârşit, căruia toată lumea i se supune.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi asumi un rol mai presus decât forma vremelnică a existenţei, impunând la toate manifestările tale un anumit punct de vedere care este o formă de recunoştinţă faţă de Dumnezeu?

Ca să fii un om pe care toată lumea să-l urmeze, trebuie să fii una din fiinţele acelea excepţionale, pline de resurse, un Prospero, un om pătruns de simţământul dreptăţii, al corectitudinii şi al adevărului, şi având iscusinţa de a conduce lucrurile, de a atinge şi a vedea lucruri nevăzute.

Ca lider, trebuie să fii şi binefăcător, şi judecător, şi învăţător în acelaşi timp. Cu siguranţă, nimic nu este mai imperios în momentele critice decât să acţionezi ferm şi cu înţelepciune, ca să reuşeşti schimbarea totală.

Cel lipsit de eficienţă, cel căruia îi lipseşte fermitatea de a-i disciplina, de a-i sancţiona sau concedia pe oamenii care nu respectă etica şi deontologia meseriei, nu se va putea niciodată impune în faţa lor, şi deci, nu se va putea numi lider, ci o unealtă manipulată de cei din jur.

Oamenii nu trebuie să te considere nici ca ceva ce a coborât din lumi superioare, invizibile - deci ca ceva înălţător, un Dumnezeu, dar nici ca un cârmuitor de cârpă care nu cuteză niciodată să se impună.

A-ţi atribui o caracteristică de om superior înseamnă să validezi acea experienţă de supunere a lumii într-o realitate mai presus de înţelegerea lor, ca fiind o manifestare completă a naturi unui Creator supranatural.

Concluzie: Privind din exterior, unii lideri (cei mai iscusiţi) par a fi vrăjitori, deoarece tot ce-şi propun realizează, având performanţe recunoscute de către toţi cei din jurul lor. Secretul unul leadership eficient nu stă însă în „Magia vrăjitorului", ci într-o muncă perpetuă, în documentare continuă în vederea îmbunătăţirii performanţelor profesionale, în cunoaşterea firii umane, în cunoaşterea performanţelor profesionale individuale ale colaboratorilor cât şi a calităţilor şi defectelor acestora şi mai ales în respectarea adevărului.

Pune-ţi în valoare iscusinţa de a modela caractere, reglându-ţi potenţialul de leadership în acord cu virtuţile tale.

Magia vrăjitorului (I)

On August 03, 2009

Implică-te în actul magic de transformare individuală, în virtutea unui raţionament bine determinat care-ţi permite personalizarea a ceea ce eşti de fapt.

Prospero era ducele Milanului dar, pentru că îndrăgea tihna şi studiul temeinic, râvnind la îmbogăţirea minţii, a lăsat treburile cârmuirii fratelui său mai tânăr, pe nume Antonio, în care avea o încredere de nestrămutat. Retras, lăsând la o parte îndeletnicirile lumeşti, îngropat în mijlocul cărţilor sale, el n-a sesizat uneltirile fratelui său împotriva sa, care dorea cu tot dinadinsul să fie considerat duce adevărat.

Antonio a izbutit cu ajutorul regelui Neapolului - Alonso, un prinţ puternic, să ia în stăpânire ducatul lui Prospero.

Prospero, împreună cu fiica sa Miranda, au fost siliţi să urce pe o navă mică fără parâme, pânză şi catarg, şi au fost lăsaţi să moară în largul mării. Norocul lor a fost că un senior de la curte, Gonzalo, care era un om foarte bun la suflet, le-a pus în taină pe navă merinde, straie şi cărţile de învăţături vrăjitoreşti pe care Prospero le îndrăgea cel mai mult.

Leadership: Ce anume te împlineşte dacă îi laşi pe oameni să ghicească că eşti manifestarea unei puteri dincolo de orice capacitate de înţelegere?

Multă vreme după ce au fost aruncaţi de valuri pe ţărmul unei insule pustii, cea mai mare desfătare a lui Prospero era să-i dea învăţătură Mirandei, dezvăluindu-i mai multe decât ar fi putut învăţa orice prinţesă de la cei mai iscusiţi dascăli. Dar nu numai atât. Ci prin puterea cunoaşterii sale, căci reuşise să pătrundă toate tainele lumii, Prospero l-a eliberat pe Ariel, un duh care fusese întemniţat într-un copac şi supus la chinuri grele de către cumplita vrăjitoare Sycorax.

Duhurile, ca Ariel, rămâneau nevăzute pentru orice fiinţă omenească, în afară de Prospero care, înzestrat cu darul previziunii, a aflat că cei mai înverşunaţi şi mai haini dintre adversarii săi, Antonio şi Alonso, erau într-o călătorie pe mare. Atunci el îi porunci lui Ariel să stârnească o furtună atât de cumplită încât corabia să naufragieze pe insula pe care ajunsese şi el.

O făptură umană se preschimbă, încă din timpul vieţii sale, într-un mit, într-un personaj profetic, supraomenesc. Orice e cu putinţă unui vrăjitor care are puterea să poruncească fenomenelor naturii, care a reuşit să pătrundă toate tainele lumii, care şi-a dezvoltat darul de a materializa lumi şi capacitatea de a concretiza orice scop propus. Prospero hotărî să se folosească de ştiinţa sa magică pentru a-i pedepsi pe duşmanii săi pentru toate nedreptăţile comise.

Leadership: Recurgi la subterfugiile ştiinţei "preschimbării" în scopul reînnoirii identităţi proprii?

Omul conştient de subterfugiile ştiinţei "preschimbării" în scopul reînnoirii identităţi proprii, prin acreditarea parametrilor suplimentari ai unei lumi aparte de care se poate ataşa pur şi simplu de dragul atingerii unui ideal de perfecţiune, trebuie să facă o distincţie clară între două raţionamente.

Primul raţionament, mulat pe o gândire vizionară şi multidirecţională, încearcă explicarea principială a lumii concrete, dar prin alcătuirea ei într-un anume chip, trecând dincolo de orizontul experienţei sau al raţiunii. Al doilea raţionament, cu premise majore şi minore, este legat de evenimentele ce se petrec într-o lume imaginară după ce întemeierea ei este acceptată ca o aspiraţie spre înalt, spre desăvârşirea tuturor desăvârşirilor. Această lume este îmbătătoare prin vibraţiile produse, prin faptul că - paradoxal - te simţi şi te comporţi ca o fiinţă superioară.

Leadershipul este solidar orientării tale într-un sistem de referinţă particular, al cărui mobil este actul magic de transformare individuală. Nu atât în baza experienţei acumulate, ci în virtutea unui raţionament bine determinat care-ţi permite orientarea într-un câmp larg de posibilităţi de înţelegere şi personalizare a ceea ce eşti de fapt.

Deci în virtutea unui raţionament care observă, analizează şi înţelege în profunzime fenomenul de suprapunere a două identităţi, atât în detaliile lor cele mai intime cât şi în ansamblul existenţei lor. Totul este relativ în leadership, iar ceea ce ai de scos la iveală (o interioritate ce devine adevărata realitate sau o interioritate ce refuză implicit realul) este o continuă luptă a raţionamentelor, mai ales în poziţia ta de om superior.

Actul magic de transformare personală ţinteşte către atingerea unei perfecţiuni unice, aflată în centrul desfasurariii evenimentelor, care să nu creeze doar o fericire iluzorie, ci să absoarbă raţiunea semnificativă a înţelegerii puterii depline din perspectiva unui Dumnezeu.

Avântul spre noi cuceriri de culmi înalte, în care răbdarea este unitatea săvârşitoare a tuturor tainelor, constituie o dovadă că această formă de te declara unic (răsplătindu-te singur printr-o cunoaştere avansată şi printr-un prestigiu misterios care poate servi drept unealtă a unei genialităţi complexe) este un fenomen de modelare a experienţei de conducere, care poate fi stăpânit.

Magia vrăjitorului scoate în evidenţă fenomenul dedublării identităţii, pendularea între raţionamentele din perspectiva cărora acţionezi şi gândeşti în poziţia de om superior.

Forţa semnificativă necesară asigurării controlului total al identităţii definitorii, se clădeşte pe experienţa de a fi tu însuţi într-o lume care se străduieşte din răsputeri şi fără încetare să te transforme în altcineva. Aceasta, în raport cu experienţa de a fi tu însuţi într-un alt sine, superior, luând în posesie darul de a-ţi exercita facultăţile de raţionament printr-un subiectivism imprevizibil - echivalent cu înlocuirea prezentului real printr-un alt prezent, imaginar.

Magicianul (II)

On Noiembrie 16, 2010

Interpretează-ţi în mare taină rolul, astfel încât să te transformi dintr-o persoană insignifiantă într-una cu mari calităţi de lider.

Deseori când mergeam cu prietenii în oraş îmi plăcea să mă pierd în mulţime, să plec de lângă ei fără ca vreunul să-şi dea seama, să mă fac nevăzut scurtă vreme ascunzându-mă în cele mai retrase locuri, ori pornind-o pe străzile scurte, nepavate, fără nume, ca apoi să revin brusc lângă ei. Făceam totul cu mare discreţie, pentru a evita orice fel de neplăceri.

Aveam totul plănuit. Ştiam ce voiam, şi ştiam să manipulez lucrurile – le aranjam atât de bine, astfel încât să fie numai în avantajul meu. Uneori pierdeam ceasuri întregi încercând să intuiesc traseul din ziua următoare, bineînţeles plănuind cu discreție fiecare pas. Deseori, ca planul să iasă bine, chiar eu propuneam traseul pe care urma să-l parcurgem; în felul ăsta îmi asiguram o cale de dispariție fără prea mari dificultăţi.

E straniu cât de mult puteam să schimb o situaţie, având în vedere cât de puţin conta pentru prietenii mei absenţa mea, preţ de câteva momente. Felul foarte inspirat şi original în care acţionam, felul calculat în care plănuiam fiecare detaliu, oricât de mic, de la care pornea întreaga operaţiune şi până la finalizarea ei, toate astea mă făceau să mă simt mândru, împlinit dintr-un anumit punct de vedere, mă făceau să mă simt creativ şi îndemânatic.

Simţeam că mă depăşesc pe mine însumi, simţeam că sunt altfel decât ceilalţi, simţeam că mă situez cumva deasupra lor. Căci descoperisem secretul transformării – puteam să devin "invizibil" scurtă vreme – iar asta era o mare realizare pentru… un viitor magician.

Leadership: Poţi să interpretezi un rol de asociere cu ineditul unei abordări bazate pe confidenţialitate, care se află în relaţie cu rolul de "utilizator final" al unei autorităţi ireale?

Apoi totul amuţi. Nicio mişcare, niciun zgomot nu trăda prezenţa cuiva pe scena semi-întunecată. Pe chipurile spectatorilor, mai ales a celor din primele rânduri, era aşternută neliniștea şi tensiunea. Numai magicianul stătea nepăsător undeva, într-un colţ al scenei, în umbră, privind toată acea frământare din sufletul spectatorilor căreia i-a dat naştere cu bună ştiinţă, procedând ca un maestru care ştie în fiecare moment ce să facă.

Spectacolul atinsese punctul culminant. Magicianul se făcuse nevăzut, se transformase într-o fiinţă invizibilă, într-o fantomă pe care deşi nimeni nu o putea vedea, ea nu înceta cumva să existe. El putea vedea totul, dar nimeni nu-l putea vedea pe el, chiar nimeni, căci îşi regizase "dispariţia" cu mare discreţie. Era acolo, chiar în faţa spectatorilor, învăluit într-o umbră căreia nu-i scăpa nimic din ochi. Dispăruse într-un mod cu totul senzaţional, ascunzându-se în cel mai retras loc, iar acum trebuia să reapară.

Totul trebuia făcut în mare taină, cu mare prudenţă, pentru a evita orice fel de neplăceri. Era o chestiune de moment, de agerime a minţii, nu doar a trupului. Dar dacă pentru un magician totul este cât se poate de bine calculat, şi fiecare etapă a spectacolului minuţios pregătită, pentru majoritatea spectatorilor părea un mister. Un singur ochi poate vedea mai bine decât mai mulţi.

Leadership: Înainte să ajungi să interpretezi un rol mare, începe să dai viaţă unui personaj

Şi tu poţi fi un om deosebit, un magician, sau un lider, dacă reuşeşti să te diferenţiezi de ceilalţi oameni din jurul tău şi dacă găseşti o formulă prin care să te propulsezi în faţa lor. Dar pentru asta trebuie să aranjezi atât de bine lucrurile încât să fie numai în avantajul tău, plănuind fireşte fiecare mişcare strategică. Asta depinde de capacitatea ta de previziune şi de intuiţie, adică ţine de înţelegerea limpede şi chibzuită a acţiunilor pe care e necesar să le întreprinzi pentru a-ţi făuri propriul personaj care să te reprezinte şi pe care să-l dezvolţi până la punctul la care va putea oferi multă valoare lumii.

Leadershipul este ca un spectacol de magie: îl regizezi singur şi îl prezinţi singur (chiar dacă ai o echipă foarte bună în spate), punându-ţi în valoare propriile creaţii, propriile idei şi scenarii – spectacol care poate impresiona şi emoţiona la nivele diferite oamenii, în funcţie de "miracolele" pe care le produci.

Ca lider, tu interpretezi rolul principal în propriul tău "spectacol de magie" , un rol care poate fi pozitiv sau negativ, bun sau greu de suportat, creativ sau mai puţin creativ. Dar dacă nu impresionezi printr-un nivelul interpretativ superior atât din punct de vedere al calităţii cât şi al profesionalismului, şi dacă nu ai capacitatea să creezi miracole, atunci nu vei reuşi să dai leadershipului tău o valoare prea mare şi nu vei putea să te ridici la înălţimea rolului tău.

Leadership: Abilităţile tale din background îţi pot asigura un avantaj semnificativ în relaţia cu folosirea mijloacelor de expresie artistică considerate o variantă de conflict de rol?

Dacă crezi că nu eşti pregătit pentru un rol mare, te înşeli ! Dacă cei mai mulţi oameni nu văd în tine un viitor lider, arată-le că ochii tăi văd mai bine ca ai lor. Creează-ţi propriul tău personaj, şi propriul tău spectacol - eveniment care va marca o treaptă ascendentă în cariera ta.

Calităţile şi abilităţile tale din background (cele care nu sunt afişate în mod public sau în totalitate, ele putând fi doar interpretate subiectiv şi înţelese vag de ceilalţi) îţi vor asigura un avantaj asupra altora, fără să ai aceeaşi pregătire ca a lor. Însă trebuie să fii inspirat şi original, creativ şi îndemânatic şi să ai dorinţa să te depăşeşti pe tine însuţi. Trebuie să înveţi singur să manipulezi lucrurile – să le aranjezi atât de bine astfel încât să fie numai în avantajul tău.

Un lider îşi pune în practică abilităţile şi competenţele, influenţând puternic lucrurile. Şi devine apreciat după "nivelul interpretativ" la care se ridică.

Leadershipul are aceleaşi ingrediente ca şi un spectacol de magie – diferă doar scopul şi locul în care se îmbină ele. Între leadership şi un spectacol de magie nu există diferenţe prea mari, ele având în comun un lucru care le uneşte definitiv: miracolul unei prezenţe pline de sevă, de originalitate, de optimism şi energie pozitivă, de inspiraţie, o prezenţă captivantă prin felul în care îşi interpretează rolul.

Mijloacele de expresie artistice poate fi considerate o variantă de conflict de rol atunci când procesul creator care pune în prim plan natura individului sub forma unei anumite identităţi, alături de un subiect puternic, nu corespunde unei prestaţii care asigură controlul situaţiei sau a persoanei în cauză care întreţine atmosfera spectacolului.

Cât de complexă este magia pe care o produci încât să poată fi controlată fără efecte secundare la nivel de profunzime a trăsăturilor şi destinului personalității tale?

Concluzie: Se spune că în raniţa fiecărui soldat zace bastonul unui mareşal. Prin analogie se poate înţelege că oricine se poate transforma dintr-o persoană insignifiantă într-una cu mari calităţi de lider, şi putem asista la miracolul apariţiei unei prezenţe pline de sevă, la apariţia unui personaj deosebit care să pună lucrurile în mişcare pe drumul cel mai bun pentru realizarea scopurilor propuse.

Magicianul (III)

On Ianuarie 04, 2011

Odată ce deţii tehnica interpretării unui rol, vei putea să profiţi mereu de pe urma meşteşugului tău.

Magia. A fost singurul lucru pe care l-am priceput foarte bine, încă de la început. S-a întâmplat cu mai bine de zece ani în urmă, când am urmărit desenul animat "Sport Billy". Nu auzisem niciodată de Harry Houdini sau de David Copperfield. Însă Sport Billy îi întrecea pe amândoi în ceea ce priveşte arta de a-şi folosi resursele ca un mijloc de influenţare şi control. "Armamentul" său consta într-o gentuţă fermecată din care scotea tot felul de lucruri, care mai de care mai interesante şi mai surprinzătoare, care îl ajutau în cele mai grele momente.

Omul care sunt în prezent, plin de secrete, stăpânit de aspiraţii uriaşe, s-a născut atunci, în clipa în care am simţit ce poate face magia, în clipa în care am simţit că sunt în stare să ocup un loc aparte în mintea oamenilor dacă deţin "instrumentul" potrivit.

Aveam să devin sclavul pasiunii mele: magia, înclinaţia spre o sinceră recunoaştere a forţelor revendicate de un catalizator denumit generic: momentul total de a pune la îndoială ceea ce crezi. De atunci mă folosesc mereu de ea.

Leadership: Eşti congruent cu ceea ce transmiţi prin iluzie atunci când relevanţa poziţiei tale spre absolut este maximă?

Regizorul neîntrecut al spectacolului. Magicianul intră în scenă cu torba plină de reptile veninoase şi începu spectacolul. Se porni să răsucească şerpii, pe cei mai mari ca şi pe cei mici. Oricare din cele cinci reptile inspirau o frică teribilă în spectatori, care priveau cu nelinişte şi teamă jocul. Apoi, cu ajutorul unui clopoţel ce scotea un sunet ascuţit şi foarte enervant, magicianul întărâtă şerpii.

La un moment dat, şarpele cel mai mare se repezi la cel mai mic şi-l muşcă, apoi îl înghiţi. Semăna cu celebra scenă din Biblie, când şarpele lui Moise i-a înghiţit pe şerpii celorlalţi magi. Magicianul îl apucă de coadă cu o mână, iar cu cealaltă îl prinse de gât cu grijă, într-un anumit fel, încât şarpele îşi deschise larg gura. Atunci magicianul scoase din gura reptilei o eşarfă verde-albăstruie. Aruncă eşarfa în sus, cu boltă, iar aceasta pluti lin în jos. În momentul când atinse podeaua scenei, ea se transformă instantaneu într-un porumbel, care îşi luă brusc zborul.

Miracolul s-a produs. Spectatorii aplaudară cu admiraţie. Absolutul a fost atins prin extazul cu care ei se lăsau cuceriți de o nouă tentație. Relevanţa poziţiei mele spre absolut a fost maximă atunci când am realizat că sunt dependent de relația "tensiune crescută - răspuns" pe care spectatorii au trăit-o individual, trecând pe rând prin aceste momente de suspans şi spectaculoase întorsături de situaţie.

Leadership: Experimentezi în mod constant acea consecinţă a separării de "Cine eşti dincolo de ceea ce crezi că eşti de fapt"?

Îţi cunoşti rolul şi limitele de competenţă? Meritul principal al unui magician este acela că ştie să-şi interpreteze cu o măiestrie desăvârşită, cu o consecvenţă uimitoare şi cu o remarcabilă autenticitate rolul. Secretul spectacolului de magie constă în profunzimea cu care el abordează fiecare număr de magie, direcţionând atenţia publicului prin atitudinea sa, prin reacţiile sale, spre ceva anume.

Aşa cum un magician sparge repede gheaţa, făcându-i pe spectatori să stea cu sufletul la gură, apoi să se ridice şi să aplaude numărul său de magie, aşa cum un pictor delimitează obiectele prin culoare, oferind o treptată pierdere a contururilor, aşa cum o poveste îi ajută pe spectatori să empatizeze cu personajele - tot aşa şi liderul, în "spectacolul său de leadership" se remarcă deopotrivă prin profunzimea ideilor sale, dar şi printr-o desăvârşită măiestrie în zugrăvirea personajului său.

Consecinţa separării de "Cine eşti dincolo de ceea ce crezi că eşti de fapt?" este o revenire la identitatea care te-a consacrat ca artist individual – unul care a creat o operă unică a cărei valoare rezidă din expresia activităţii creatoare, nu o improvizație de mare efect care prelungeşte manipularea psiho-emotională a celor neavizaţi, starea de transă în care fiinţa umană este deconectată de la raţional.

Liderul este cel care pune bazele "spectacolului de leadership", este şi regizor şi scenarist, şi producător, şi interpret. El trebuie să ofere un spectacol de calitate, încât să fie acceptat pentru însuşirile sale creatoare.

"Spectacolul de leadership" este important pentru performanţa unui lider, pentru nivelul interpretării rolului său. Dacă el nu reuşeşte să transpună în realitate dorinţele generale ale oamenilor şi să păstreze viu interesul lor, dacă nu-şi joaca rolul ca la carte, cu o maturitate uluitoare şi dând dovadă de calităţi interpretative speciale, atunci spectacolul său nu va avea viaţă lungă. Iar publicul se va feri să asiste la următoarele sale reprezentaţii.

Ceea ce te reprezintă ca artist al scenei nu este performanţa cu care interpretezi rolul magicianului, ci magia cu care creezi un subiect de analiză: „Ce înseamnă asta pentru tine?” care stârneşte mai mult curiozitatea şi latura participativă a oamenilor.

Odată ce deţii tehnica interpretării unui rol, vei putea să profiţi mereu de pe urma meşteşugului tău. Aşa cum un magician, odată ce si-a însuşit secretele magiei le foloseşte din nou şi din nou în spectacolele sale, oriunde în lume, tot aşa şi liderul, îndată ce învaţă maniera de a-şi interpreta rolul, îl va putea interpreta oriunde şi oricând. Ia în considerare acest aspect dacă vrei să ai succes în leadership.

Şi tu eşti un artist. Ai idei şi competenţe suficient de adecvate ca să joci rolul unui "magician". În leadership, magia cu care îţi joci rolul îţi poate aduce succesul sperat. Pentru ca abilităţile tale să fie lăudate la scenă deschisă, imprimă oamenilor senzaţia de spectacol. Transformă-te într-o personalitate puternică, într-un regizor capabil să polarizeze interesul spectatorilor. Regizează o piesă în care să joci cu măiestrie un rol mare. Pregăteşte o scenă în care să străluceşti. Şi încearcă să profiţi cât poţi de pe urma meşteşugului tău.

Concluzie: Leadershipul poate uneori oferi un spectacol memorabil. Acest lucru se poate realiza de către un lider care are aptitudini, abilităţi şi competenţe adecvate, care are dorinţa permanentă de a-şi desăvârşi arta. Odată ce va deţine "tehnica" interpretării rolului pe care şi l-a impus să-l joace în "spectacolul leadershipului", va putea profita mereu de pe urma meşteşugului său şi va fi aplaudat la scenă deschisă.

Magicianul (IV)

On Martie 23, 2011

Dezvoltă-ţi acele aptitudini speciale prin care să-i determini pe ceilalţi să vadă lucrurile aşa cum vrei tu.

Într-o zi, pe când aveam 12 ani, am mers în curtea din spatele casei. M-am întins pe iarba foarte măruntă şi moale. Am aţipit. Şi deodată, în stânga mea, un zgomot ciudat mi-a atras atenţia. La numai cinci paşi de mine, lângă gard, am observat o sacoşă, plină cu ceva. Am fost mai puţin preocupat de conţinutul ei, ci mai degrabă de cum a ajuns ea acolo. Aş fi putut jura că nu era acolo cu zece minute mai devreme. Dar nu era absolut nimeni prin preajmă care s-o fi aruncat peste gard.

Şi atunci am înţeles. Sacoşa era acolo dinainte, numai că eu pur si simplu nu o observasem. Semnificaţia acestui lucru m-a lovit ca un trăsnet. Într-o clipă am desluşit un mare adevăr. Care a devenit unul din cele mai mari secrete ale mele: ideea iluziei este mai importantă decât iluzia însăşi.

Magia era chiar adevarată. Iar eu „învăţasem" cum se practică. Descoperisem cheia. Care era doar un subterfugiu, o metaforă la care apelaseră mulţi magicieni. Precum acea fantezie a lui Coleridge. Un om visează că străbate paradisul şi drept dovadă i se dă o floare. Când se trezeşte, floarea se află lângă el.

Magia este fantezia sau iluzia anume creată sub impulsul momentului şi care devine aparent realitate.

Leadership: Reuşeşti să te manifești sub impulsul unei false identităţi într-un joc de rol situat, uneori, la limita unor interpretări ce capătă valoarea de adevăr?

Se lăsă amurgul. Luminile îşi reduseseră puţin din intensitate. Magicianul îşi făcu din nou apariţia pe scenă. Se aşeză în faţa unei mese de lemn care se întindea pe jumătate din lungimea scenei. Apoi invită un spectator din public să i se alăture. Fără îndoială acesta era punctul culminant al reprezentaţiei.

Tânărul spectator, la îndemnul magicianului, se întinse pe masă. Într-o clipă se lăsă liniştea. Magicianul se apropie de el cu paşi decişi. Băiatul rămase tăcut, simţi cum îl cuprinde un val de mândrie, amestecată cu frică, la gândul că se află în centrul unei atenţii totale.

Magicianul îşi aplecă uşor capul spre el, ca şi cum ar fi ascultat atent ceva. Apoi încet, cu mişcările atente ale unui medic chirurg, scoase dintr-o cutiuţă magică un praf pe care i-l dădu să-l miroase. Îşi ţintui ochii cu o lucire nefirească într-un punct, undeva deasupra capului băiatului, şi rosti nişte cuvinte ciudate. Era ceva vrăjitoresc în ochii lui: ceva înşelător care te împingea să gândeşti, să te gândeşti la magie, la lucruri despre care citeşti numai în cărţi.

Era o fantezie. Băiatul simţea că face parte dintr-un joc. Magicianul reuşise. Îl fermecase. Literalmente. Îl învăluise cu o putere hipnotizantă până ce acesta nu se mai putu mişca. Într-o clipă, băiatul aţipi.

Când se trezi din transă, magicianul îi mulţumi pentru ajutor şi îl trimise înapoi la locul său din sală. Când ajunse acolo, băiatul înţepeni de uimire. Pe locul lui era o floare. Aceeaşi floare care îi apăruse în vis, în timp ce fusese adormit.

Adevărul este realitatea pe care nu poţi să o negi.

Îţi dai seama unde începe şi unde se termină leadershipul atunci când se termină realitatea şi începe iluzia?

Omul devotat propriei sale creaţii, jucând cu distincţie repertoriul unei zone mai puţin cunoscute publicului larg, este deosebit de receptiv la tentativele de înnoire a gamelor de emoţii pe care le transmite. În show-ul pe care îl conduce găseşte forţa şi curajul să stimuleze experienţe dintre cele mai îndrăzneţe, care dacă nu duc totdeauna către adevăratele culmi ale măiestriei de a modela realitatea, au meritul căutărilor sincere de senzaţional, pornite din dorinţa de a schimba o stare de lucruri sau starea de spirit a spectatorilor.

Leadership începe de acolo de unde artistul îşi promovează „dispariţia", şi se continuă acolo unde el îşi determină „apariţia". Leadershipul se termină atunci când lucrurile încetează să îi mai mire pe spectatori.

Când examinezi modul în care funcţionează leadershipul tău, te întrebi vreodată dacă ceilalţi privesc lucrurile din punctul tău de vedere?

Ca să reuşeşti să stabileşti o relatie la nivel emotional cu ceilalti oameni, pentru ca relationarea să devină mult mai uşoară, mai bună si mai sanatoasa la toate nivelurile, trebuie sa-i convingi că leadershipul începe şi se termină cu tine. Ei trebuie să simtă că fac parte din jocul tău, în care, la rândul lor, deţin un rol important. Trebuie să se simtă fermecaţi literalmente de imaginea jocului, de importanţa lui, de minuţiozitatea cu care acesta a fost realizat şi să-şi dorească să participe la el. Iar în final, să fie surprinşi în mod plăcut de performanţele obţinute.

Leadershipul înseamnă să fii dispus să foloseşti orice avantaj pe care îl ai, orice stratagemă şi orice metodă pentru a te concentra asupra celorlalţi. Numai aşa vei reuşi să ajungi la ei.

Aşa cum un magician îşi realizează în chip desăvârşit numerele de magie implicându-i pe spectatori în jocul său şi uimindu-i cu iluziile sale, tot aşa un lider, ca să le câştige oamenilor credibilitatea, trebuie să stabilească în chip desavarsit o punte de legatura cu ei, implicându-i cu mare grijă în „spectacolul" său. Dar pentru asta liderul trebuie să-si cultive niste calităţi personale speciale şi să le folosească pentru a-i determina pe oameni sa fie influenţaţi de el. Trebuie să-şi dezvolte acele aptitudini speciale prin care să-i determine să vadă lucrurile aşa cum vrea el.

Puterea de vrajă ţine de ceea ce transmiţi prin intermediul iluziei numită "transfer de personalitate" atunci când publicul veghează cu tărie asupra ta.

Poţi să creezi aparenţa unei magii prin puterea ta de vrajă?

Adevarata menire a unui lider constă în a încheia un acord nescris cu ceilalţi privitor la adoptarea unei perspective comune care să le îndeplinească acestora aşteptările. Aşa cum un pictor sensibilizează privitorii prin intermediul picturii sale creind impresia de natural, tot aşa liderul trebuie să-i sensibilizeze pe oamenii din jurul său prin calităţile lui deosebite şi prin „puterea lui de vrajă" - creind aparenţa unei magii.

Esti inventiv, inovator, spectaculos şi mai ales convingător. Asta trebuie să fie părerea oamenilor vizavi de tine dacă vrei ca „spectacolul" tău de leadership să fie considerat o reuşită deplină. Ca lider trebuie să fii capabil să intri în mintea oamenilor şi să le transmiţi ceva nou care să-i surprindă şi să le depăşească orice aşteptări.

Concluzie: „Magia" unui lider stă în puterea lui de a convinge şi de a obţine colaborarea celorlalţi oameni în vederea atingerii acelui viitor benefic tuturor. În leadership, aidoma unui spectacol de magie, efectele pot fi spectaculoase, dar îndărătul acestor efecte stă o muncă colosală cu resursele umane.

Magicianul (V)

On Martie 27, 2011

Performanţa în leadership este dată de ceea ce e dincolo de tine.

Încercam să văd partea bună a lucrurilor, dar în adâncul inimii mele ascundeam o teamă secretă. Că s-ar putea să nu izbutesc să mă transform într-o entitate invizibilă.

Unul din lucrurile care îmi rămăseseră în minte încă de la începutul iniţierii mele în magie, era acela că un artist adevărat ştie să-şi regizeze în chip desăvârşit propria moarte, apoi să „reînvie" şi să-şi continue spectacolul. Acesta avea să fie şi testul fundamental al definitivării mele ca magician - artist, scenarist şi regizor în acelaşi timp.

Trebuia să dispar, să nu mai exist, să mă teleportez dintr-un loc în altul, să creez o senzaţie de intensitate maximă. Ca apoi să reapar brusc de nicăieri. Pentru asta trebuia să modific percepţia realităţii. Trebuia să creez senzaţia unui fenomen inexplicabil, a unui univers magic şi imponderabil, a unui anumit tip de energie care se transformă, care poate traversa barierele timpului şi spaţiului. Şi să continui să exist dincolo de hotarele stabilite de oameni.

Dar pentru asta trebuia să încalc toate regulile fizicii şi ale naturii. Şi ale vieţii.

Leadership: Crezi că poţi să interpretezi un rol numai prin prisma a ceea ce vrea el să însemne într-un context de recunoaştere a propriei valori care se traduce printr-o mască a Eului superior?

Cortina se ridică. Luminile care dădeau culoare scenei se făcură roşii ca rubinele. Începu spectacolul. Magicianul îşi făcu apariţia. Era îmbrăcat numai în negru. Purta o mască care îi ascundea adevărata identitate.

Când ajunse în mijlocul scenei, magicianul făcu nişte semne ciudate cu mâinile, apoi scoase dintr-un săculeţ un pumn de pietricele mai mărişoare pe care le aruncă în stânga şi-n dreapta lui. Pietrele plouară cu un răpăit sacadat, hipnotic pe podeaua de lemn a scenei, slăbindu-le astfel vigilenţa spectatorilor. Vibraţiile şi sunete pe care le scoteau erau generatoare de confuzie şi contradicţii: nu transmiteau un mesaj clar pe care să-l poată desluşi cineva, dar distrăgeau atenţia publicului de la manevrele secrete.

Şi totul se întâmplă deodată. Magicianul nu mai era. Se evaporase. Pur şi simplu. Spectatorii nu ştiau ce să creadă. Nu puteau distinge nimic. Pentru o secundă rămaseră paralizaţi. Un lucru atât de improbabil nu putea fi decât opera unui maestru în ale magiei.

Era ca un joc de-a v-aţi ascunselea, sau mai mult, de-a baba oarba. Îţi învârţi capul, te uiţi în toate direcţiile până îţi pierzi propriile coordonate. Totul capătă dublu sens şi chiar triplu. Era o situaţie greu de urmărit. Spectatorii nu ştiau ce să creadă. Nimeni nu-l vedea. Magicianul ar fi putut să fie oriunde pe scenă, şi nimeni să nu ştie unde.

Recunoașterea valorii personale are ca principal efect stabilirea unor relaţii între ceea ce se întâmplă în interiorul propriului "teren de joc" şi ceea ce susţine modelul tău de urmat.

Această recunoaștere se traduce printr-o mască a Eului superior atunci când te apropii de o performanță în care “regulile de joc” sunt clare pentru toată lumea, o performanță care depune mărturie despre puterea lăuntrică care ține piept lumii întregi ce se poate oricând prăbuși peste ea.

Poţi să conferi o tentă luminoasă leadershipului prin materializarea universul tău interior?

Cred că e în firea lucrurilor ca un lider să fie o fiinţă dominatoare, de încredere, pe care să te bazezi. Cineva care să stea mereu la cârmă. Dar asta nu-i de-ajuns. Un lider trebuie să aibă şi capacitatea de a manevra emoţiile şi impulsurile oamenilor. Şi mai mult decât atât, el trebuie să aibă abilitatea de a-şi manevra propriul său „personaj” într-o direcţie constructivă şi avantajoasa. Totodată trebuie să ştie cum să-şi manevreze atuurile, forţele, fie superioare sau inferioare, în direcţia dorită de el, direcţie care să nu producă în mintea oamenilor confuzie şi contradicţii, dar care să le stârnească interesul.

Nu vei putea să conferi o tentă luminoasă leadershipului tău dacă nu-ţi materializezi universul interior, dominat de gânduri, idei, sentimente, pe care singur ţi-l creezi. Ignoră-ţi teama secretă din adâncul inimii tale şi nu te îndoi de puterile tale. Străduieşte-te să-ţi regizezi în chip desăvârşit propriul „spectacol de leadership”. Transformă-te în acea persoană specială care doreşti să fii cu ajutorul atuurilor tale, a pregătirii tale şi a experienţei pe care ai dobândit-o în timp.

Testul fundamental al definitivării tale ca lider este să-l învingi pe omul din spatele magicianului care te face să pleci de la spectacol cu multe semne de întrebare, care te transpune într-o altă lume unde totul este posibil, dar şi imprevizibil.

Pe acest om trebuie să-l provoci să facă primul pas pentru a avea impresia că este meritul lui să ajungă cât mai departe cu talentul de a aduce lumea în ireal, dar apoi să-l întrerupi prin urmărirea atingerii stării de sensibilitate, armonie şi iluminare care să-l îndemne să lase deoparte dorinţa de a face impresie, lăcomia de a stăpâni lumea şi de a se înfrupta din necunoaşterea de care dau dovadă ceilalţi oameni.

Spre deosebire de spectacolul de magie, trebuie să ţii cont de faptul că leadershipul nu este un joc de-a v-aţi ascunselea, sau mai mult, de-a baba oarba. Căci până la urmă s-ar putea ca tocmai tu să-ţi pierzi propriile coordonate şi s-o apuci într-o direcţie greşită.

Pe marea sorţii tale trebuie să manevrezi corabia cu un desăvârşit simţ al echilibrului şi al măsurii. Nu încerca să negi ceea ce este evident, şi nu încerca să transformi totul într-o ficţiune. Ci încearcă să prezinţi totul într-o lumină corectă şi pozitivă, fără să încalci regulile şi legile societăţii şi ale leadershipului.

Performanţa în leadership este dată de ceea ce e dincolo de tine. Iar dincolo de tine stau oameni care îţi urmăresc prestaţia, iar dacă aceasta nu le stârneşte emoţii şi empatie înseamnă că nu ţi-ai jucat bine rolul şi că mesajul pe care l-ai transmis nu a fost pe deplin înţeles. Şi în acest caz trebuie să-ţi regândeşti strategia de convingere a lor. Aşa cum un pictor îşi îmbogăţeşte conţinutul imaginilor cu teme noi, tot astfel tu trebuie să-ţi îmbogăţeşti leadershipul cu abordări noi.

Este o adevarată „magie” să ajungi pe piscurile performanţei împreună cu oamenii, ceea ce înseamnă că aceştia au consimţit să te însoţească, împărtăşind aceleaşi valori, idei, principii.

Magicianul (VI)

On Martie 29, 2011

Caută să pătrunzi cât mai adânc în mintea şi în sufletul oamenilor, pentru ca leadershipul tau să capete valenţe calitative superioare.

Sora mea se gândea la mine ca la un vrăjitor. Spera să înfăptuiesc într-o zi un miracol adevărat, sau ceva în genul ăsta. Numai ea ştia cât de obsesiv îmi ascundeam secretele, cu câtă sfinţenie le păstram doar pentru mine, cu câtă seriozitate le abordam. Ştia că dobândisem conştiinţa unei noi realităţi şi că învăţasem să mă folosesc în chip desăvârşit de acele forţe ascunse ale universului pentru a arăta lumii aspecte nebănuite.

Magia mi se părea provocatoare, avea un efect deosebit, o putere de convingere uluitoare. Nu se limita la o anumită perspectivă, puteam să-i dau oricând o interpretare aparte, metaforică, ezoterică, mai nuanţată şi mai bogată în semnificaţii. Era ca un joc de logică, îndemânare şi acţiune destul de greu, chiar dacă la prima vedere părea simplu. Era ca un joc de domino în care foloseşti mai multe seturi de piese, le aranjezi într-o anumită ordine şi succesiune, iar odată ce cade o piesă se prăbuşesc şi celelalte una după alta.

Magia provoacă reacţii în lanţ, poate genera rezultate controlabile sau incontrolabile. Trebuie să fii un profesionist, trebuie să stăpâneşti bine elementele ei constitutive ca să poţi realiza şi distribui cele mai bine definite iluzii şi trick-uri.

Leadership: Promovarea imaginii tale se adresează unei ţinte care face distincţia de fundal, cu scopul de a provoca o impulsionare sau o accelerare indirectă a cererii pentru o nouă "producţie" proprie?

În semiobscuritatea sălii, în mijlocul scenei, spectacolul atinse punctul culminant. Fata era întinsă pe o masă de aproximativ patru metri. Nu era speriată, dar avea emoţii, iar emoţiile îi erau influenţate de prezenţa apropiată a magicianului care parcă o sorbea din priviri încercând s-o aducă într-o stare de relaxare şi încredere. O tulbura aerul de liniştit mister. I se părea că magicianul o priveşte într-un anumit fel, ca şi cum ar fi dorit să-i destăinuie ceva, un secret puternic, o parte din misterul lui.

O vreme continuă acest schimb de priviri. O privire lipsită de zâmbet, dar hipnotizantă de la unul la celălalt. Şi, deodată, totul fu scăldat în întuneric. Era ca şi cum o entitate separată îşi stabilise oarecum domiciliul în creierul ei şi o determina să-şi închipuie că visează. Obligaţia ei evidentă era aceea de a accepta visul, tot aşa cum accepta faptul că s-a născut. Se simţea parcă în centrul unui cerc mişcător, care creştea la nesfârşit, îndepărtându-se mereu. Totul în jur era ca un cântec frumos care răsună limpede şi dulce, pe care îl asculţi iarăşi şi iarăşi, până ce îţi acaparează mintea şi sufletul.

Fata era sub puterea unei forţe magice, a lucrării magicianului, incapabilă să acţioneze conform propriei voinţe. Puterea lui aparent supranaturală îşi spuse din nou cuvântul. Era un neîntrecut maestru al persuasiunii, al enigmelor şi ambiguităţilor, al suspansului şi al dozării în crescendo a acţiunii, al improvizaţiei şi al metamorfozelor.

Cred că e de prisos să mai adaug că la sfârşitul acelui frumos număr de magie, spectatorii au fost profund impresionaţi de prestaţia sa. Ţinta care a făcut distincţia de fundal a fost obiectul de interes pe care l-au căutat oamenii, doza totală de izbutită teatralitate administrată de creşterea suspansului şi imprevizibilului, capacitatea de a ascunde detaliile în ferestrele secundare ale scenei.

Producţia pe care magicianul o pune în scenă este o lucrare artistică care defineşte cel mai bine conceptul de "reprezentare vizuală" a unor succesiuni de simboluri şi trăiri ce produc efecte în conştiinţa spectatorilor. În timp ce transformările complexe, efectele halucinante sau momente de revelaţie sunt elemente care asigură interacţiunea între identităţi diferite, o interacţiune în care nimeni nu poate fi sigur de realitatea celorlalţi.

Spun oamenii „Da” realităţii tale?

Un lider adevărat se aseamănă cu un magician: reuşeşte să creeze o atmosferă în care oamenii să spună „Da”, in care ei să se conformeze legilor şi principiilor lui, şi să accepte în unanimitate influenţa sa. Un lider priceput are şi mediul şi instrumentele cu care să reuşească să-şi ducă la bun sfârşit ideile, sarcinile şi planurile. „Spectacolul” lui atinge punctul culminant numai atunci când reuşeşte să le controleze oamenilor emoţiile şi sentimentele, făcându-i să se simtă în largul lor.

Poţi să conferi leadershipului tău o interpretare care să-ţi contureze cu putere identitatea?

Cu toţii gândim prin prisma emoţiilor şi a sentimentelor. Mintea ni se raportează întotdeauna la ceea ce simţim faţă de o persoană, faţă de un lucru sau faţă de împrejurările în care ne aflăm. Ceea ce gândim şi felul cum reacţionăm într-o anumită situaţie depinde de ceea ce e în sufletul nostru, depinde de felul în care percepem lumea din jur. Daca ne simţim în siguranţă, mintea ne va crea o imagine pozitivă şi ne va semnaliza că totul este în regulă, ne va crea o stare de bine, de destindere şi de plenitudine.

Aşa cum florile au nevoie de substanţe nutritive pentru se dezvolta şi pentru a rezista la intemperii, tot aşa oamenii au nevoie de o stare de spirit bună pentru a fi eficienţi.

Tu poţi să le transmiţi acea stare psihică şi emoţională foarte bună? Poti să le transmiţi acea stare deplină de siguranţă şi de control?

Dacă vrei ca oamenii să spună „Da” realităţii tale şi să o accepte pe deplin, trebuie să pătrunzi în conştiinţa lor, să le schimbi percepţiile şi comportamentul, atitudinile, aşteptările, emoţiile, gândurile şi să le deschizi noi orizonturi. Îi poţi îndemna să te accepte în universul lor, doar dacă ai o putere de convingere uluitoare. Caută să pătrunzi cât mai adânc în mintea şi în sufletul lor, pentru ca leadershipul tău să capete valenţe calitative superioare.

Oamenii sunt precum florile, dacă nu le acorzi atenţia necesară, ei nu vor „înflori” şi nu vor da „roade” niciodată. Trebuie să fii un profesionist, trebuie să stăpâneşti bine elementele constitutive ale leadershipului ca să poţi obţine cele mai bune performanţe.

Liderii cei mai buni înfăptuiesc miracole adevărate sub puterea unei „forţe magice”. Credinţa în potenţialul lor le dă puteri. Ei nu se limitează la o anumită perspectivă, ci conferă mereu leadershipului lor o interpretare aparte, mai nuanţată şi mai bogată în semnificaţii. În asta constă magia lor.

A fi un magician iscusit înseamnă să-ţi propui ca scop asumarea unor semnificații ascunse la care oamenii nu au acces decât prin memorarea acelor momente unice de iluzionism care continuă să existe şi după terminarea spectacolului.

Toate ţin aparent de miracol, dar miracolul de multe ori înspăimântă. Dacă oamenii se simt prinşi într-un mediu ostil, care nu le prieşte, dacă au impresia că rolul pe care îl joci este unul lipsit de conţinut, de sinceritate, de profunzime şi de intensitate, înseamnă că leadershipul tău este lipsit de valoare. Dacă nu a reuşeşti să-i entuziasmezi, sa-i determini să participe la „jocul” tău, atunci renunţă definitiv la „spectacol”, căci rişti să fii catalogat drept un maestru al dezinformării.

Leadershipul este constituit din piese de domino, în care o singură mişcare greşită sau o singură „piesă” instabilă poate provoca o reacţie în lanţ. Dacă rezultatele pe care le obţii nu sunt favorabile ţie şi celorlalţi oameni, sau dacă viziunea ta nu este compatibilă cu a lor, sau dacă atitudinea ta este greşită, atunci tot ce-ai construit se poate prăbuşi bucată cu bucată.

Magicianul (I)

On Aprilie 17, 2010

Gestionează cu maximum de eficienţă aşteptările oamenilor, fără să aplici sistematic principiile magiei.

O ambiţie grozavă îmi rodea cu adevărat inima, voiam să devin magician. În consecinţă, îmi făcusem obiceiul ca ori de câte ori mergeam la film cu prietenii, să dispar. Pur şi simplu, fără niciun motiv. Totul se întâmpla foarte repede. Într-o clipă eram lângă ei, în cealaltă nu mai eram.

Mergeam în întuneric prin sala de cinema, fără să fiu observat, fără să trezesc suspiciuni, ca şi cum toţi s-ar fi închis într-un somn adânc, sau ca şi cum ar fi fost hipnotizaţi, neînsufleţiţi – într-atât păreau de adânciţi în transă. Nimeni nu venea să mă caute, pentru că nimeni nu ştia c-am dispărut, pentru că toţi mă credeau la locul meu – întotdeauna cel de la margine. Şi mai ales, pentru că toţi erau absorbiţi de acţiunea filmului. Am învăţat să mă ascund în umbră, am învăţat să mă folosesc de întuneric, să fiu o fiinţă… nevăzută.

Nimeni nu-şi poate închipui câte eforturi depuneam pentru a deveni „invizibil". Manevrele mele, paşii care-i făceam, prevederile pe care le luam - se potriveau cu un suflet tânăr şi arzător. Odată am izbutit chiar s-o zbughesc din cinematograf, să mă întorc acasă, să-mi schimb hainele, să mă reîntorc la sfârşitul filmului, să mă reaşez la locul meu. Nimeni n-a observat schimbarea. Lucrurile acestea prea subtile trec de cele mai multe ori neobservate.

O grămadă de lucruri nu le ştiau prietenii mei. Tot felul de lucruri ciudate, cele mai multe greu de explicat - asta le făcea să fie cu atât mai mult ireale. Dar pentru mine nu erau ireale, căci eu eram creatorul lor.

Leadership: Abilităţile tale din background îţi pot asigura un avantaj semnificativ în relaţia cu o dimensiune a variaţiei ce are o evoluţie paralelă cu transformările conceptului de "totalitate"?

Se aşternu o clipă de tăcere, în timpul căreia spectatorii priveau cu ochii plini de incertitudine scena învăluită brusc în ceaţă. Rotocoalele de fum urcau în aer, gri şi desăvârşite; totul era liniştit, şi cu toate acestea în jur se simţea o mişcare subtilă, tainică, lunecătoare. O minge mică, roşie, se rostogoli răbufnind pe podeaua scenei, sporind astfel misterul şi curiozitatea publicului. Era un semn, un avertisment. Ceva urma să se întâmple. Dar totul trebuia să fie diferit de tot ceea ce-şi imaginau spectatorii.

Magicianul era acolo, pe scenă, chiar în faţa spectatorilor. Dar nimeni nu-l putea vedea. Pentru că atenţia tuturor era concentrată asupra mingii, pentru că toţi continuau să cerceteze cu privirea un anume punct al scenei. Dar şi pentru că era multa ceaţă, iar în toată această ceaţă se creaseră cumva mai multe umbre. Şi numai una singură era a magicianului.

Era exact acelaşi principiu pe care-l folosise demult în sala de cinema, doar că de data asta atenţia publicului era abătută spre un punct voit de el, asociat cu învăluirea în ceaţă a scenei. Magicianul putea trece dintr-o parte în alta a scenei, miraculos, fără să fie observat, putea să-şi schimbe hainele, putea să-şi facă repede montajele, putea să-şi aplice în voie trucurile - câtă vreme atenţia oamenilor le era distrasă.

Totalitatea este ceea ce intră în aria mea de acţiune, o înlănţuire de lucruri cunoscute, „montate" după regulile unui spectacol complex, având drept conţinut elemente de decor, sunete, mirosuri, costume, personaje, efecte speciale, condimentate cu gesturi şi jocuri de rol, aranjamente incredibile, care intră în compoziţia unică a imaginii de performanţă.

Leadership: Ai ajuns la nivelul de 100% performanţă încât să te poţi considera: „Stăpânul spectacolului"?

Liderul e o persoană uluitoare, care reuşeşte cu o uşurinţă remarcabilă să se interpună în mintea oamenilor. Puterea lui e atât de vădită în ochii tuturor încât toţi îl percep ca un magician. Dar el are această voinţă refulată de a se impune celor din jur. Iar în privinţa asta poate fi invidiat.

Oamenii îl privesc cu o expresie de adoraţie desăvârşită pe cel care, culegând cu privirea toate simţămintele ivite pe chipurile lor, le ghiceşte toate dorinţele şi aspiraţiile şi reuşeşte să le îndeplinească. Dar pentru asta el, liderul, trebuie să acţioneze în conformitate cu propriile sale atribuţii, şi nu trebuie să fie în nici într-un caz incert sau derutant, ca un magician.

Ideal, o organizaţie de succes trebuie să aibă un lider capabil să înţeleagă oamenii, să gestioneze simultan aşteptările lor, să-i ducă în punctul în care întrebarea: "Este real?" să le dispară din minte. Este însă greu de imaginat să ajungă cineva la acest nivel dacă nu este în acelaşi timp un magician, căci numai un magician este capabil să distingă cel mai bine irealul de real.

Performanţa este ceea ce obţii după ce se termină spectacolul. Poţi să obţii aplauze sau critici în funcţie de valoarea mărimii efectului de uimire pe care îl generezi.

Leadership: Sporeşti receptivitatea oamenilor ţinând seama de legile de "apariţie şi dispariţie" pe care le propui ca model absolut de urmat?

Oamenii sunt uşor de influenţat dacă le este distrasă atenţia. În fiecare spectacol de iluzionism spectatorii înţeleg şi nu prea înţeleg ce se petrece; ei sunt buimăciţi de atmosfera plină de mister creată de magician. De fapt, ceea ce face magicianul este să jongleze cu mai multe sarcini simultane – jocul de scenă, interpretarea replicilor cu multă convingere şi calm, etc., pentru a-i constrânge pe spectatori să accepte propria lui realitate.

Dar există o regulă de bază în magie, ca şi în leadership: să nu intri niciodată în conflict cu oamenii. Ca lider, sau ca magician, dacă încalci această regulă, vei eşua. De aceea trebuie să faci tot posibilul să iasă cât mai bine spectacolul pe care-l realizezi. Dacă eşti un magician sau un lider nepriceput, spectacolul va ieşi prost.

Luarea de poziţii întemeiate pe puterea de dominare are ca sursă de alimentare legile de apariţie şi dispariţie pe care le propriu ca model absolut de urmat. Dispariţia este ceea ce se prelungeşte prin ceea ce rulează în background. Apariţia - ceea ce este văzut și experimentat, sau ceea ce rămâne după ce s-au risipit iluziile şi s-au aflat adevărurile.

Concluzie: Leadershipul este un spectacol pe care-l pui la cale singur, pe răspunderea şi priceperea ta. Este însă o aparenţă de magie. Realitatea este că în leadership nu poţi să aplici sistematic „principiile magiei" – de a abate atenţia oamenilor şi de a-i induce în eroare.

Atenţia, perspicacitatea oamenilor poate fi diminuată un timp limitat, iar atunci când ei îţi „descoperă" trucurile... s-a zis cu leadershipul tău.

Magicul fluid al unei tainice alchimii

On Iunie 26, 2011

Insuflă-le oamenilor forţă morală, trezind în ei acele emoţii care să le scoată la suprafaţă calităţile.

În articolul precedent am povestit despre doctorul Jacques Mérey care a reuşit în circa patru ani s-o vindece pe micuţa Eva, care suferea de idioţie. Însă marea transformare a fetei s-a petrecut într-un moment neaşteptat, chiar atunci când Jacques era pe punctul de a-şi pierde încrederea.

Speranţa, cea mult aşteptată, a încolţit în sufletul doctorului atunci când a adus în casă o oglindă. Căci, pentru prima dată biata fată, nepăsătoare până atunci faţă de persoana ei, a fost cuprinsă de un sentiment de bucurie. În clipa când se privi în oglindă, din gura ei, care până atunci nu scosese decât sunete vagi şi hodorogite, se auzi ceva complet nou, inteligibil dar nearticulat, format din două silabe: „Be… elle…"

Adică: „ Je suis belle " ! (Sunt frumoasă !). *

Pentru primă dată în viaţa ei, micuţa Eva şi-a descoperit o calitate, dar ce calitate ! Una hotărâtoare, care îi va stimula toate celelalte simţuri, o calitate care o va urmări toată viaţa şi care o va face foarte fericită.

Leadership: Reprezinţi în particular un simbol al triumfului asupra manifestării sentimentului de zădărnicie, din care izvorăşte sensul unei alte realităţi?

Doctorul era convins că descoperise piatra filozofală. Eva se putea face bine. Căci un om cu o singură calitate, dar pe care o preţuieşte în mod deosebit, va manifesta întotdeauna voinţa de a se implica în propria lui evoluţie.

El trebuia să-i insufle fetei dorinţa de a visa, trebuia să-i stimuleze pofta de viaţă, să-i dezvolte curiozitatea inimii, trebuia să-i trezească senzaţiile morale, să o înveţe să-şi exprime prin cuvinte toate gândurile, să-i transmită inteligenţa subtilă a omului creator, să o înveţe să manifeste interes pentru lucrurile înconjurătoare. Dar cum?

În prima zi el a luat o haină de catifea din dulap şi a îndemnat-o pe Eva să o pipăie, să-şi plimbe încet mâinile de-a lungul materialului fin. În următoarele zile a dus-o în grădină, i-a arătat florile pentru ca ea să înceapă să simtă şi să absoarbă toate mirosurile. După câteva săptămâni a învăţat-o să cânte la pian. Apoi a învăţat-o să citească şi să scrie. Apoi a învăţat-o mai multe limbi străine. Apoi i-a oferit lucrările poeţilor germani şi englezi, pe care ea a dorit neapărat să le înţeleagă.

Astfel, Eva a învăţat să aprecieze lumea prin simţuri, şi-a dezvoltat firea romantică, a învăţat să fie plină de afecţiune şi de dragoste. Adică a învăţat să-şi dezvolte toate trăsăturile feminine, demne de o prinţesă a paradisului.

Leadership: Ai puterea să te ridici deasupra a ceva "de necuprins", prin sprijinirea şi includerea necuprinsului în propria ta fiinţă?

Ţinta unui lider nu este să epateze prin prezentarea unei realități cu care se poate identifica majoritatea, ci să realizeze prin cunoaştere experimentală, prin adoptarea unui anumit comportament, acea transcendere spre "Acolo" unde se manifestă neputinţa indivizilor de a se autoînţelege, autoevalua şi autodepăşi, în micile tranzacţii cu clipa şi soarta.

Necuprinsul este ceva căruia nu-i poţi găsi o explicaţie, dar căruia îi aparţii într-un anumit fel, perceput doar cu simţurile, în trăire sufletească. Este ceva care te depăşeşte, te împovărează, dar care te obligă să faci ceva în privinţa lui, să te implici în "lucrarea lui", şi să-i oferi o altă alternativă de manifestare. Este un dincolo de experienţa imediată, pe care doar îl presimţi, puţini îl înţeleg şi îl acceptă, din care trebuie să iei puţin câte puţin, alegând opţiunea "It's a true news story".

Un om de mare fineţe sufletească se ridică deasupra a ceva "de necuprins", prin sprijinirea şi includerea necuprinsului în propria lui fiinţă, devenind acea măsură a magiei vindecătoare care îmbrăţişează, ca un fel de "Bună dimineaţa" într-un colţ al paradisului, tot ceea ce oamenii experimentează în ecuaţia unei relaţii consumate cu viaţa.

În fiecare domeniu, dar mai cu seamă în leadership, unirea elementelor poate duce la ceva mai mult decât părţile lui componente. Leadershipul, prin anticiparea tendinţelor de dezvoltare sau regres al oamenilor, prin schiţarea sumară sau detaliată a vieţii lor interioare, tratează cauza stabilităţii sau instabilităţii lor, varianta funcţională sau nefuncţională a manifestării lor pe scena pasiunilor, trăirilor, năzuinţelor, într-o expresie a unicităţii şi valorii lor.

Aşa cum o floare, ca să poată supravieţui şi să se dezvolte armonios trebuie să-i dai apă, lumină şi soare – tot aşa şi oamenii, ca să poată să devină mai performanţi ei trebuie ajutaţi să-şi dezvolte amonios toate calităţile. Ca lider, tu trebuie să ai puterea şi dorinţa să pătrunzi în adâncul sufletului lor, să ajungi la fibrele care compun întreaga lor structură emoţională şi să generezi acel impuls fin, intens, care să-i provoace, care să-i energizeze, care să-i facă să-şi dorească să devină mai buni. Un lider adevărat stăpâneşte toate mijloacele capabile să-i transforme pe oameni.

Leadership: Poţi să vindeci o boală fără să cunoşti o serie întreagă de simptome?

Iar când e vorba de transformarea oamenilor în bine trebuie să dai dovadă de acelaşi interes, de aceeaşi ingeniozitate, de aceeaşi prezenţă de spirit, de aceeaşi acuitate a minţii, de aceleaşi iniţiative ca doctorul Jacques Mérey. Trebuie să găseşti acele stări spirituale profunde din care se compune fiinţa umană şi să generezi acel impuls mobilizator care să trezească în oameni curiozitatea, dorinţa de implicare, dorinţa de a crea, de a gândi şi de a-şi îmbunătăţi permanent performanţele actuale.

Dar pentru asta trebuie să te plasezi psihologic în relaţie cu ei, trebuie să cauzezi acel efect emoţional intens prin care să le înlături orice complex, orice îngrijorare, prin care să le pui in evidenţă potenţialul, valorile, personalitatea, dibăcia şi spiritul înnoitor.

Dar tu? Poţi să găseşti acea unică calitate a oamenilor care să le dea energia şi dispoziţia necesară dezvoltării lor? Poţi să-i ajuţi să-şi găsească acele puncte de sprijin prin care să-şi încarce bateriile sufleteşti şi care să trezească în ei acea senzaţie de forţă, de voioşie, acea atitudine motivantă, stimulativă, plină de inspiraţie?

Aşa cum pentru a vindeca o boală este adesea nevoie să cunoşti o serie întreagă de simptome - tot aşa pentru a întări legăturile cu ceilalţi oameni este nevoie să cunoşti o serie întreagă de particularităţi de exteriorizare a sentimentelor lor. Trebuie să exerciţi asupra lor acea influenţă prin care să-i poţi aduce în punctul în care să simtă nevoia de a se împlini moral şi profesional prin cunoaştere. Să nu uităm că forţa morală care defineşte puterile individului este dată de evoluţia sa.

A-ţi exterioriza sentimentele este echivalent cu a-ţi face o reprezentare mentală a ceva chiar inexistent, care trebuie mai întâi creat în interiorul tău, apoi salvat în conştiinţa continuităţii unui Ego plin de confuzie care îşi găseşte eliberarea în lucrarea lui Dumnezeu.

Magicul fluid al unei tainice alchimii este voinţa pe care o exerciţi asupra celorlalţi în vederea dezvoltării lor personale şi profesionale. Este ingeniozitatea şi prezenţa de spirit cu care identifici acea calitate unică ce se ascunde în ei şi pe care o poţi transforma într-un mare atu al lor. Nu există om care să nu aibă măcar o singură calitate. Ca lider, trebuie să te strădui să găseşti exact acea calitate şi să o scoţi în evidenţă. Fii perseverent, foloseşte-ţi imaginaţia, iscusinţa, pentru a găsi adevărata valoare a oamenilor care te înconjoară.

Aşa cum un pictor continuă să-şi hrănească arta din uimirea, mereu reînnoită, în faţa naturii şi a vieţii – tot aşa şi tu trebuie să-ţi hrăneşti propria fericire din dorinţa de fi folositor, concentrându-te exclusiv asupra muncii de a-i ajuta pe oameni să-şi depăşească slăbiciunile şi să-şi îmbunătăţească abilităţile.

Magicul secret al măiestriei

On Iulie 11, 2010

Ridică-te la înălţimea potenţialului tău, integrându-te în atmosfera leadershipului tău şi intrând în armonie cu el.

Ziua se sfârşea. Desenul, în care încercasem să redau chipul unei celebre actriţe hollywoodiene, nu era rău, dar îi lipsea cu siguranţă expresivitatea. Femeia din desen nu emana o frumuseţe irezistibilă ca cea din poza din care mă inspirasem, ci părea mai degrabă fără viaţă. Îi lipsea acea sclipire, acel "ceva" special care să te facă să stărui mai mult cu privirea asupra ei, care să te facă să simţi că este vie, care să te facă să strigi în gura mare „Uau ! ". Eram adânc dezamăgit de mine însumi, de neprofesionalismul meu.

Maestrul mă privea cu adânca şi deosebita lui indulgenţă. Privirea lui părea că-mi spune: „mai ai atât de multe de învăţat".

- Maestre, de ce nu mi-a ieşit bine tabloul? l-am întrebat cu un glas hotărât şi pătrunzător.

Maestrul şovăi, ca şi cum ar fi ezitat să dezvăluie un secret pe care-l ţinuse până atunci doar pentru el. Îşi turnă ceaiul verde şi parfumat într-un pahar de sticlă, după obiceiul oriental, dizolvă în el două pătrăţele de zahăr şi sorbi câteva înghiţituri, savurând băutura cu o bucurie indescriptibilă. Apoi buzele lui rostiră rar, cu un desăvârşit calm, următoarele cuvinte:

- Nicu, tu pictezi fără să simţi nimic pentru opera ta. Dar tabloul are şi el o viaţă, iar tu trebuie să-ţi raportezi sufletul la sufletul lui. Iar pentru ca tabloul tău să fie bine realizat, să prindă viaţă, trebuie să te transpui în cealaltă lume, în lumea tabloului, în peisajul şi între personajele redate de el. Dacă vrei să atingi perfecţiunea trebuie să te integrezi în atmosfera tabloului şi să intri în armonie cu el.

Leadership: Rămâi constant în urmărirea unui ideal de perfecţiune prin prisma menirii tale de a explora adâncul unui parcurs al sinelui văzut dintr-o dată ca totalitate a unei opera de artă?

Leadershipul se optimizează prin trecerea de la truda de a aduna material de construcţie pentru realizarea unei imagini de excepţie, cu intenţia de a o face cunoscută în marginile unui realism credibil, la realizarea unei capodopere de claritate şi pătrundere. Leadershipul, asemenea artei, îşi ordonează criteriile de selecţie ale "expresivităţii" în funcţie de decorul lumii interioare pe care îl transpui într-o viziune.

Ceea ce alcătuieşte decorul lumii tale interioare, frumuseţea de a transmite o idee într-o manieră artistică şi având un concept în spate, este dovada meritului de a purta o anumită trăire prin mai multe planuri. Un plan solicitat pentru a releva dimensiunea insondabilului creaţiei, prin încercarea de a scoate la iveală ceea ce nu poţi exprima prin cuvinte. Şi un plan solicitat pentru a releva acea dimensiune numită imaginaţie sau vis, determinând apariţia emoţiilor constructive.

Potenţialul de manifestare a autenticului în artă se fundamentează pe reacţia de cuplare dintre cele două planuri.

Pentru a realiza ceea ce nu ai realizat niciodată, trebuie să faci ceva ce nu ai făcut niciodată.

Trebuie să devii altcineva, să devii ceea ce nu ai fost nicicând. Trebuie să devii un maestru. Iar pentru asta trebuie să-ţi sporeşti valoarea, sporind calitatea operei pe care o creezi. Trebuie să faci acel salt cutezător peste sfera raţiunii tale, să începi să percepi cu sufletul dincolo de ceea ce creezi. Atunci când pictezi trebuie să simţi că faci parte din desen, să te transpui în atmosfera creată de tablou.

Cei mai mari pictori şi-au încordat cu pasiune puterile lor într-un nemăsurat efort intelectual dar mai ales spiritual pentru a izbuti să atingă eterna taină a perfecţiunii. Nu-i de-ajuns să pictezi pentru ca tabloul să fie viu, trebuie să încerci să te transpui în atmosfera tabloului cu toate simţurile, şi cu mintea şi cu sufletul, să încerci să simţi ceea ce simt personajele din opera pe care o creezi.

Această concentrare asupra realității exprimată atât de frumos de "trăirile sufletului" este forţa motrice a realizării unei picturi de succes.

Leadership: Eşti sigur că poţi gusta experienţa minunată de a te simţi integrat în plenitudinea unei forţe care izvorăște din adâncul unei copiii fidele a ta, fără să rămâi prizonierul unei idei obsesive?

Fără îndoială, marele secret al unei opere reuşite este să deţii o tehnică superioară de execuţie, dar şi arta integrării personale în atmosfera tabloului.

Succesul unui lider depinde de calitatea şi cantitatea rezultatelor sale, implicit ale echipei pe care o conduce. Tot ceea ce-l poate împiedica să-şi conducă echipa spre succes, tot ceea ce-i poate limita acţiunile reduce profunzimea şi calitatea „operei" sale. Iar opera unui lider nu este altceva decât întreaga activitate pe care o desfăşoară într-o deplină armonie cu el însuşi, cu spiritul şi personalitatea lui, pentru realizarea scopului propus.

La fel cum cheia pentru a realiza o pictură foarte bună este să deţii capacitatea de a te transpune în propria-ţi creaţie, tot aşa cheia pentru succesul în leadership constă în a deţine capacitatea de a te transpune în atmosfera „operei" pe care o creezi.

Cum ar putea oare un lider să împlinească aşteptările oamenilor şi să le mobilizeze energiile dacă nu este în stare să se transpună în adâncimile sufleteşti ale leadershipului pe care îl creează? Tot ceea ce creează liderul determină în mare parte succesul sau eşecul său. Daca el nu reuşeşte să intre în acea stare care să-l ajute să vadă altfel lucrurile şi să stabilească o relaţie aparte cu ele, atunci nu va da dovadă de eficienţă maximă în ceea ce întreprinde.

Ridică-te la înălţimea potenţialului tău, integrându-te în atmosfera leadershipului tău şi intrând în armonie cu el. Un lider adevărat îşi raportează sufletul la sufletul „operei" sale.

Prizonierul unei idei obsesive este omul care ştie să-şi integreze personalitatea într-o operă de artă valoroasă, dar neputând a se desprinde de imaginea care îl reprezintă în realitate.

Concluzie: Ca lider trebuie să te străduieşti să să-ţi raportezi sufletul la sufletul „operei" tale. Doar dacă vei reuşi să te transpui în opera ta şi vei face totul cu neistovită pasiune, abia atunci vei deţine controlul total asupra a ceea ce creezi.

La fel ca şi în pictură, există o măiestrie, o artă în leadership fără de care şansele de reuşită se reduc considerabil şi ţinta propusă se atinge greu. Dar această măiestrie se obţine numai după ani şi ani de muncă.

Mai multă aplecare pentru temeiurile minţii

On Iunie 04, 2013

Orientează gândurile omului spre ceva care este mai presus de exigenţele sale, deviind acea urmă de contrazicere care îi amplifică incoerenţa în gândire şi acţiune.

Numele ei este Laura Quinn. Ştiu că mă urăşte fiindcă are nevoie de mine, iar eu o urăsc fiindcă este plină de aroganţă atunci când ar fi trebuit să fie plină de bunăvoinţă. Trebuie să fi simţit ceva extrem de puternic, de vreme ce dă curs propriei sale temeri. Dar în acelaşi timp cred că a adulmecat un stimulent însufleţitor care îi potoleşte nemulţumirea adunată în ea de atâta amar de vreme, care îi potoleşte setea de a-şi satisface vanitatea.

O remuşcare intensă pare care-i dă forţa de a se angaja într-o depăşire de sine. O zvâcnire de rebeliune. O presiune puternică venită din afara propriei zone de confort material, subordonat unei etici profesionale. Iar în această clipă de maximă încordare, în care totul din ea depinde de rezultatul teribilei explozii de raţiune şi simţire, în această clipă în care încercarea de a se redresa după atâtea eşecuri devine o opţiune demnă de luat în seamă, are loc o inversiune de perspectivă.

O poftă cumplită de se înălţa deasupra ei însăşi, de a-şi depăşi limitele în care a fost constrânsă să trăiască, pare c-o năpădeşte. Deprinderea voinţei ei de a funcţiona după o normă condiţionată de conştiinţă şi imprimată de factorul înnăscut al inclinaţiilor spre mândrie, parte de factorul influenţelor educative provenite din şcoala vieţii, corespunde ambiţiilor de lărgire a perspectivelor de a face carieră, ceea ce o îngroapă încet într-o stare de depresie, de abandon, de neputinţă, pentru că nu există nimic bun de care să se poată agăţa.

Leadership: Realitatea în care te găseşti este o sumă a percepţiilor şi atitudinilor tale asupra a ceea ce ai de înfăptuit prin diverse extensii pe care le poţi adăuga calităţii vieţii?

În celebra carte "Excelenţa în afaceri", scriitorul american Jim Collins enunţa conceptul de Arici:

"Nu, aricii nu sunt nişte prostănaci. Ei au o perspicacitate pătrunzătoare, care le permite să vadă prin complexitate şi să discearnă modelele ascunse din spatele ei. Aricii văd ceea ce e esenţial şi ignoră restul..

Cei care conduceau companiile de referinţă aveau tendinţa să fie vulpi, fără să obţină vreodată avantajul clarităţii dat de conceptul de arici, fiind în schimb împrăştiaţi, difuzi şi inconstanţi."

Laura Quinn este o vulpe deşteaptă şi frumoasă, dar care nu suportă să-şi arate viclenia, fiind deja mult prea dezamăgită de drumul vieţii sale. Singura extensie pe care o poate adăuga vieţii sale pentru a-şi reveni puţin din zbuciumul captivităţii pe care i-o conferă cariera este o ieşire din rutină, provocarea de a se alătura unei inițiative riscante, îndrăzneala de a sfida lumea şi soarta.

Ea nu mai are de înfăptuit o multitudine de sarcini pentru marii acţionari ai băncii, ci doar una singură: un plan constructiv pentru a-şi revizui atitudinea radical faţă de suferinţă, faţă de semnificaţia acordată vieţii.

Sentimentul cel mai puternic și violent care îl poate copleși pe om, întunecându-i adesea dreapta judecată, se naşte din alunecarea sa într-o stare de visare care îl împiedică să-şi trăiască prezentul.

În ea se produce o reacţie. În care activitatea moleculelor reactante se realizează prin absorbţie de energie luminoasă. Ansamblul ei căpătă o altă nuanţă, flacăra deşteptării se aprinde. Glasul devine mai surescitat. O nesiguranţă îi dezvăluie intenţia. Căci tot mai mult se agaţă de acest cuvânt magic, flămând de răspunsuri: " Cum? ", care-i asigură un disconfort straniu, învăluind-o apoi într-o tăcere neînţeleasă.

Dar, vai, cum de nu mi-a trecut prin minte gândul acesta nebunesc, cum de am neglijat partea aceasta înălţată a punţii care ţine laolaltă elementele aparent disparate dintre noi? Gândul că trebuie să împărţim credinţa de a reuşi, palpită nestăpânit în mine. Iar în timp ce eu tremur de emoţie la acest gând, ea tremură de îndoială. Ceea ce este ascuns în mine se revede tot mai mult în ea însăşi. Eu, domnul Hobbs, nu am nicio remuşcare, şi nici Laura nu ar trebui să aibă, fiindcă remuşcarea este o condiţie de a ne lăsa înrobiţi de nişte "ei" împopoţănaţi cu titulatura de elite.

Leadership: Îţi îmbunătăţeşti experienţa de a deduce când cineva îţi acordă o atenţie mai mare decât cea cuvenită unui trecător care nu ştie la ce să se uite în drumul vieţii?

Am reuşit cu ajutorul Laurei să pătrund în camera diamantelor. Am reuşit împreună. Dar acum ea este cuprinsă de spaimă. Simt o remuşcare din partea ei, un sentiment de reţinere, o ezitare a conştiinţei. Trebuie să menţin răsuflarea acestei fiinţe vii, să completez neîntârziat acel ceva care simt că-i lipseşte, să schimb natura ei de a fi. Ea tot nu-mi intuieşte adevăratele intenţii, important este că latura ei psihică şi emoţională nu s-a deteriorat în urma impactului cu ieşirea din formatul vieţii cu care se obişnuise.

Mă întărâtă trufia şi laşitatea, frica ei de a-şi continua traseul pe care îl imaginasem împreună. Firea ei este stăpânită de pofta de a domina acest joc al contrariilor, de a mă birui printr-un comportament sfidător, alteori printr-un egoism exacerbat. Rezist destoinic reproşurilor ei. Simte, desigur, că dorinţa mea irefutabilă şi nestingherită de a duce la bun sfârşit planul nu porneşte din lăcomie de bani. E altceva la mijloc, mai presus decât diamantele.

Mă privesc pe mine însumi, îmi ascult cu atenţie inima, ceva mă frământă groaznic. Simt că am devenit contrariul a ceea ce-i spunea odată pastorul Gabriel Damours regelui Henric al IV-lea: " Izbuteşti să prinzi în plasă oamenii. " Acum, eu eram cel prins în plasă, în propria mea plasă - a neputinţei de a controla emoţiile complicei mele, care trebuie să recunosc, mă influenţau.

Produsul minţii pe care îl faci cunoscut prin acceptul de a lua parte la anumite evinimente se manifestă prin ataşamentul tău faţă de efectul vieţii pe care îl îmbrăţişezi atât de mult cât îţi pasă de lungimea ei.

Un trecător care nu ştie să se uite la drumul vieţii este un om care nu ştie să spună pe nume nemulţumirii de sine faţă de consecvenţa cu care trebuie fie capabil să ducă la bun sfârşit un proiect grandios. Din punct de vedere sufletesc, forma acestei individualităţi se distinge prin modul relativ constant de a răspunde activ la provocările lumii exterioare, deci prin modul de a se determina ca diferenţă între "ceea ce vrei să fii şi ceea ce eşti cu adevărat".

Produsul minţii ei trebuie să fie capacitatea de a-şi demonstra voinţa, motivaţia de a-şi învinge fricile şi suferinţa, capacitatea de a se adapta la diferite situaţii de fundătură, când nu are la dispoziţie vreo soluţie imediată. Domnul Hobbs rămâne destul de rezervat în privinţa variantei unui drum paralel cu una din laturile fundamentale a Laurei: instinctul de apărare.

Este extrem de dificil să separ semnalul cerebral care îi comandă închiderea în ea însăşi, de zgomotele de fond ale inimii care îi condiţionează deschiderea spre noi modalități de a fi conștientă și de a se deplasa prin lume - văzându-se printr-o altă lentilă. Chiar şi un super-expert în persuasiune ar trebui să muncească enorm pentru a devia acea urmă de contrazicere care face ca totul să fie incoerent la ea. Şi cu greu ar reuşi să-i orienteze acţiunile spre ceva ce este mai presus de exigenţele ei: gândirea şi urma de loialitate rămasă faţă de vechiul stil de viaţă.

Totuşi, sunt sigur că omul care i-a putut recunoaşte calităţile, singurul din toată lumea care a putut s-o înţeleagă, sunt eu. Femeia aceasta, chiar dacă ai sfărâma-o ca pe un ciob de sticlă, tot ar trebui să o admiri, căci totul în ea emană o strălucire aparte. Dar un astfel de om căruia i se încordează trăsăturile de la prima pală de vânt, dacă nu reuşeşti să-l schimbi, te schimbă el pe tine.

Leadershipul este ceea ce vrei să schimbi la tine ştiind că ceea ce văd ceilalţi la tine este o reflectare directă a personalităţii tale în conştiinţa unei lumi întregi.

Mai multă aplecare pentru temeiurile minţii priveşte necesitatea unei noi abordări a omului în conformitate cu o normă general acceptată de ceilalţi oameni din jur. La rândui ei, această abordare cere implicare şi participare, nu supunere oarbă în faţa cerinţelor de schimbare - care pot să perturbe temporar zona lui de confort.

Aşa cum un sistem, pentru a deveni cibernetic, trebuie să-şi organizeze elementele într-un subsistem de comandă şi într-un sistem de execuţie, tot astfel actul de transformare al omului, absolut necesar abordării leadershipului la nivele superioare, trebuie să se producă paşnic în el însuşi. Si se poate produce doar prin eliminarea confuziilor ce pot interveni ca factori demotivanţi în sistemul lui de funcţionare, deviind acea urmă de contrazicere care îi amplifică incoerenţa în gândire şi acţiune.

Cunoaşte omul şi frânează-i impulsurile care iniţiază procese nedorite, uneori chiar destructive.

Maiestatea sa Eisenstein îşi păstrează maiestatea

On Aprilie 07, 2008

Încearcă să dai sens unei experienţe de creaţie plină de "vederi" exterioare, înainte de a-ţi depăşi limitele.

Regizorului rus Serghei Eisenstein, căruia i s-au propus subiecte alese special astfel ca să fie nevoit a le refuza, este acum vehement atacat pentru că nu realizase de mult niciun film.

Nemulţumirile marelui regizor continuă însă. Invitat în continuare la serbarea de aniversare a 15 ani de existenţă a cinematografiei sovietice, Eisenstein primeşte o mai mică distincţie decât colegii săi, cărora li se acordă ordine şi titluri mai înalte. Printre ei se număra Podovkin, Dovjenko, foştii sale elevi, fraţii Vasiliev, sau chiar fostul său asistent Alexandrov.

*A doua zi, ca preşedinte al consfătuirii, rosteşte un discurs de închidere. Răspunde ponderat unor atacuri. Se angajează să reînceapă munca de creaţie. Peste câţiva ani îşi va aminti cu ironie atmosfera cenuşie...în anii de după 1930, care încerca să cuprindă pe toţi, uniformizând creaţia. Evident, aşadar, că supunerea sa conformistă de acum nu este reală. Nimeni nu ştie – şi nu trebuia să ştie – ce se petrece în sufletul său. Sfinx imperturbabil, Maiestatea sa Eisenstein îşi păstrează maiestatea. **

Leadership: Poţi să stabileşti o corespondenţă între interioritate şi subiectivitate, construindu-ţi o imagine solidă şi benefică din compoziţia unei opere de artă care mişca lumea cu plasticitatea unui sentiment de pace totală?

În final am înţeles că tot ceea ce noi percepem ca fiind important este doar iluzia unei biruinţe de-o clipă, este trăirea experienţei unei realităţi care transcende ceea ce este trecător şi care mişca doar ceea ce nu se vede, este radiografia unei normalităţi stabilită de ceilalţi. Şi, mai cred că nu vom reuși niciodată să ne atingem potențialul maxim dacă vom permite ca tot ceea ce percepem ca fiind important să depindă de aprobarea şi reacţiile celorlalţi, mai ales dacă conştientizam necesitatea unei libertăţi de exprimare necondiţionate.

Pe această cale trebuie să subliniem necesitatea unei corespondențe între artă și spiritul unei morale de tip "stăpân", nu sclav, care inventează forme noi de gândire, conturând natura unui început puternic în ce priveşte realizarea distincţiei dintre ceea ce este drept şi ceea ce este nedrept, dintre ceea ce e trecător şi ceea ce e definitiv. Tocmai în numele unei morale de acest tip va trebui să respingem sentimentul unei eventuale vinovăţii în cazul în care părerea celorlalţi nu coincide cu viziunea pe care dorim să o extindem în lume.

Când eşti atacat din toate părţile de critici dure şi ironii fine, este bine să fim ponderaţi în răspunsuri şi să ne construim o poziţie de Sfinx imperturbabil, lăsându-i pe ceilalţi să constate ei înşişi ca sunt nedrepţi în aprecieri. Aici intervine corespondenţa dintre interioritate şi subiectivitate.

Interioritatea este o dimensiune inerentă a creaţiei şi a creativităţii care nu se lasă redusă la tăcere, o îmbinare perfectă între fineţe şi forţă. Iar subiectivitatea este potenţialitatea de a produce o transformare la nivel de ceea ce livrezi într-un mod în care gândirea ta, minunatul dar al creaţiei tale, va lua prin surprindere auditoriul.

Îndrăgit este acela care a avut curajul să se supună rigorilor unui intelect care refuză orice convertire la un adevăr exterior, la statornicia sau neschimbabilitatea exterioară.

Un regizor autentic lucrează în spiritul unei noi viziuni asupra lumii, dintr-o năzuinţă spre certitudinea necondiţionată a unei exactităţi în interpretarea realităţii, ştiindu-se apt pentru a face bine diferenţa dintre ceea ce se dezvăluie ca real, puternic, real şi semnificativ, şi ceea ce e lipsit de aceste calităţi.

De multe ori, regizorul trăieşte limita interpretării unui subiect de viaţă în arta sa, acţionând ca un filtru pentru eliminarea contrastelor exterioare şi prelungirea lumii sale interioare, însă fără a limita percepţia asupra realităţii înconjurătoare.

Mai mult decât atât, un regizor are capacitatea să se definească drept un personaj caracterizat de plasticitatea unui sentiment de pace totală atunci când reuşeşte să pună în vibraţie, prin intermediul creaţiei sale, fenomenul numit rezonanţă: între ceea ce se evidenţiază prin imagine şi ceea ce se crede.

Un regizor ştie că sentimentele Ego-ului său sunt reacţiile la accidentele obişnuite ale vieţii, purificate de scopurile vitale ale unei demonstraţii de veridicitate, deci el nu este atins de remuşcarea unei vine pe care nu o poate compensa ori ispăşi datorată necunoaşterii realităţii.

Cunoaşterea cea mai aleasă coincide cu acea linişte imperturbabilă a spiritului pe care o caută oamenii dispuşi să înţeleagă faptul că tot ceea există în realitate, şi care poate fi transpus într-o operă de artă, nu trebuie să se supună rigorilor spiritului critic născut din conştiinţa unei limite care nu trebuie depăşită.

Cum spunea cineva pe o pagină de internet: "Am înţeles că fiecare om pe care îl întâlnesc este acolo pentru că are un rol şi un mesaj pentru mine, şi indiferent dacă îmi frânge inima sau îmi provoacă cea mai mare bucurie, trebuie să-i mulţumesc în egală măsură."

Maiestatea sa Eisenstein îşi păstrează maiestatea ştiind că tot ceea ce vine din exterior nu se poate repercuta asupra lumii sale interioare. Un regizor de acest fel rămâne devotat adevărului şi canalizării lui în interior, către sine însuşi, dar nici nu contestă intervenţia unor forţe exterioare de gândire.

Măiestria artei de a fi Moş Crăciun

On Decembrie 25, 2018

Interpretarea adusă unei imagini fabuloase se face în direcţia străduinţei de a defini imensul fecund al unei existenţe diferite.

Am preluat credinţa în Moş Crăciun ca pe o incursiune într-o ficţiune necesară exprimării artistice, printr-o întreagă derulare a simbolisticii spirituale care se regăseşte, cred, numai în concepţia existenţială a intelectualului care şi-a dedicat întreaga curiozitate şi independenţă de gândire descifrării unui univers alternativ. Un spaţiu al regândirii și reciclării informaţiilor, sub umbrela unui curent artistic vast pe care eu l-aş numi "Realism Magic", fiindcă îşi trage originea din operele lui Jorge Luis Borges sau Alejo Carpentier.

Iar acest Moş Crăciun, mai cunoscut pentru dărnicia împărţită celor ce şi-au demonstrat meritele sau bunătatea, poate fi sărbătorit şi de cineva care nu e neapărat religios, dar care este capabil să facă asocieri de gânduri, idei, imagini, fapte, lucruri, senzaţii, folosite interactiv şi veridic într-un colaj de imagini create prin intermediul comparaţiilor, metaforelor sau personificărilor.

Cât despre şansele de obţinere a unui răspuns diferit la întrebarea: "Unde îl poţi întâlni pe Moş Crăciun?" într-un timp în care totul, aproape totul, e tratat prin prisma impactului pe care îl generează expresia condiţiei primare a originalităţii (specifică fiinţei impregnate cu un spirit de aventură foarte ascuţit), mai întâi trebuie să luăm în considerare perindările de forme persistente sau trecătoare ale visului pe care pictorul îl trăiește de fiecare dată când se află în preajma tablourilor sale.

Arta nu trebuie impregnată cu expresia unei existenţe trecătoare sau cu mirajul unei lumi care aşteaptă să îşi pună în valoare nuanţa de dincolo de lucruri şi aparenţe, ci cu spaţialitatea suspendării unei poveşti în mișcare, fiindcă are loc o trecere între două cicluri de mare forţă sugestivă, între două întrebări. Cărei lumi aparţin: cea lăsată în urmă, sau cea în care sper şi pe care doresc să o revăd?

Leadership: Poţi să defineşti sensul traiectoriei artisticului după ideea stării de trecere de la sugestie la imagine, încât să conturezi existenţa unui model unic de expunere a unei teme de reflecţie asupra relaţiei dintre subiect şi spaţiu-timp?

Moş Crăciun nu s-a născut în Laponia fiindcă povestea lui trebuia să aparţină unui peisaj de iarnă adorabil, despre copii veseli şi sânii trase de reni, ci fiindcă trebuia asigurată prezenţa vie a unui erou cu circulaţie universală, exemplu promiţător al unei visări cu ochii deschişi, fără putinţă de stingere. Şi, astfel, să se releve tâlcul ascuns al unei viziuni spirituale esenţializată asupra binelui şi fericirilor ataşate diferitelor stări de spirit, grosiere sau rafinate.

În continuare, îmbrăţişez un subiect care îşi urmează evoluţia sub forma sugestiilor figurative, de obicei încărcate cu o sporită densitate expresivă, precum "Creatorul şi Bătrânul de dincolo de tablou", generând transformări la nivel epic. Există parcă un flux spiritual de energii care uneşte generaţiile de la începuturi şi până azi, mâine şi poimâine, un soi de necesitate psihologică care stabileşte relaţii directe între lucruri şi oameni, între iluzie şi realitate.

Aici, sensul experienţei de receptare a formelor de expresie produse de lira unui poet de mare adâncime nu cade asupra unui personaj înzestrat cu posibilităţi nelimitate de îndeplinire a aşteptărilor cele mai frecvente, cât mai curând asupra unui freamăt de nerăbdare lângă pomul cu luminiţe, echivalând cu amplificarea unei forme de sensibilitate stimulativă şi vizionară, magică în tehnica pensulaţiei.

Uimitor este faptul că interpretarea adusă unei imagini fabuloase, inspirată probabil dintr-un scenariu mitologic plin de încărcătură simbolică, se face în direcţia străduinţei de a defini imensul fecund al unei existenţe diferite. Una explorată din perspectiva artistică, deci cu potenţial de formare în jurul unei tendinţe de estetizare a descrierii de tip "Feel the unreal of a poetic vision".

Leadership: Poţi să măreşti impactul unor procedee minuţioase de extragere a emoţiilor artistice, în încercarea de a te substitui unei mentalităţi care străbate ficţiunea?

Încă o dată, simt că mă pierd în plăsmuirea unui orizont ce nu există în realitate, dinspre prezenţa unui artist care ştie să transforme cuvântul în imagine (şi invers), din dorinţa de a poseda o altă fiinţă care nu se încadrează în convingerile şi regulile limitate despre viaţă. Mai ales, din necesitatea de a da o interpretare nouă unui personaj controversat.

De obicei, prima senzaţie pe care o am despre Moş Crăciun când aud vorbindu-se despre el este cea de tresărire puternică ca în faţa unei reîntâlniri cu Dumnezeu, percepută ca motiv al influenţei de sfinţenie a unei învăţături de credinţă care a fost cât se poate de uşoară la început. Astfel, procedeul de extragere a emoţiilor artistice, precum sensibilitatea sau impresionabilitatea, se realizează prin raportare la un simbol vizual permanent, menit să evoce o trezire spirituală: "Moş Crăciun traversează cu renii zburători cerul instelat în noapte".

Nu mă opresc aici. Încerc mă apropii încet de Moş Crăciun, aşa cum m-aş apropia de un Zeu care bântuie visele celor ce se gândesc prea mult la ele, reapărând periodic sub vraja unei poveşti mereu mai surprinzătoare. În acest caz, arta care hrăneşte sentimentul de linişte şi împlinire sufletească trebuie să convingă de valabilitatea unei ficţiuni artistice care captivează prin visele mele transpuse pe pânză, cu ideea de a deveni visele privitorilor.

Pictorul nu-şi plasează eroul cel mai reprezentativ în mijlocul unei perspective misterioase asupra realităţii de dincolo de ce este palpabil, doar de dragul conturării unei noi teme de largă circulaţie. Ci încearcă să sugereze emoţia unei poveşti ilustrate sugestiv printr-o coloristică vie și un mesaj uimitor care să pună în valoare însăşi personalitatea lui în procesul desăvârşirii unei opere fără pereche în artă.

Leadership: Arta ta poate să realizeze adeziunea la un ideal imaginativ, printr-o ilustrare a realităţii interpretate numai în viziunea artistului care ştie să dea un sens mai larg emoţiilor sale prin abordarea unei teme care devine tot mai actuală?

Într-o scrisoare expediată către meşterul aurar Gaspare Ballini, devenită ulterior faimoasă, scriitorul italian Lodovico Dolce (1508/10–1568) menţiona: "Picturile trebuie să mişte sentimentele şi pasiunile sufletului astfel încât cel ce priveşte ori să se bucure, ori să fie tulburat pe măsura felului subiectului, aşa cum fac poeţii sau oratorii. Personajele trebuie să mişte sufletul privitorului fie tulburându-l, fie înveselindu-l, fie îndemnându-l la pioşenie sau la mânie, după cum e subiectul."

Întotdeauna mi-am pus problema sentimentului reflectat într-un cadru vizual, dar cu tentă de adaptare după o viaţă trăită prin puterea ficţiunii de a presăra şi în viitor elemente de expresivitate artistică, precum clopoţeii saniei trasă de reni.

Moş Crăciun aderă la alternanţa dăinuitoare a unui personaj din secolul XI prin pendularea dintre iluzie şi realitate, îndreptată pas cu pas spre metamorfoza continuă a formelor de reprezentare a unui ideal imaginativ menit să dea un sens mai larg emoţiilor prin intermediul unui joc al analogiilor fără sfârşit. Analogii nu doar cu anumiţi sfinţi sau cu diferite trăiri spirituale, ci mai ales cu noţiunile din teoria artei (ex. suprapunerea cadrelor) şi cu reprezentările figurative care reproduc „sintaxa" unui univers ficţional.

Trăsăturile cele mai apreciate ale Moş Crăciun nu mai penetrează arta prezentului doar prin formularea simbolului de înţelepciune şi credinţă, ci prin exagerarea unei formule estetice deja existente în domeniul artei. Frumosul nu este celebrat prin sensibilitatea aerului de sărbătoare, ci devine simbolul unei lumi care se leagă definitiv de alta. Aşadar, trăsăturile lui Moş Crăciun nu mai reprezintă doar imaginea în oglindă a sufletului care ştie să se veselească, să doinească, să dăruiască binele, ci scot în evidenţă nevoia de a vizualiza abstractul şi a transcende vizibilul.

Moş Crăciun este o trecere de la simbolismul articulat într-o manieră destul de primitivă, la imaginarul tributar unei amintiri pururi - dăinuitoare.

Măiestria artei de a fi Moş Crăciun este de fapt măiestria artei de a denatura varianta standard a unei teme cunoscute, spre a ajunge la o altă finalitate, reacţionând cu o concepţie vizibil metaforică asupra unei lumi care se cere permanent reanalizată pentru a-i reconstitui semnificaţiile şi a-i reinterpreta mesajele.

Mâine e deja departe

On Februarie 28, 2014

Dezvoltă-ţi o mai bună înţelegere de sine, care să întreţină maturitatea şi responsabilitatea pe care se construieşte leadershipul.

Mi se pare cu totul inexplicabil cât de greu îmi amintesc ceea ce a urmat. Vreau să spun înlănţuirea tuturor evenimentelor care au urmat. Nu eram deloc sigur de unde să încep, aici era totul. Dar de atunci simţeam că un cuţit mi-ar fi tăiat viaţa în două. Mi se părea a fi o viaţă pentru care nu fusesem pregătit. O înghesuială cumplită de oameni şi de întâmplări în care eu nu mai controlam nimic.

Lucrurile se învârteau în jurul meu fără ca eu să particip la evenimente. Aşa cel puţin mi se părea. Sunt o mulţime de lucruri ce ne şicanează, ne depravează, pe care trebuie să le îndurăm, la care nu ne gândim decât atunci când ne traversează viaţa. *

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi individualizezi experienţa de a vedea lucrurile așa cum sunt, nu așa cum par, ca unul dintre cele mai elocvente evenimente ce te pun în situaţia de a alege ce vrei tu să fii în vâltoarea vieţii?

A-ţi individualiza experienţa de a vedea lucrurile așa cum sunt, nu așa cum par, înseamnă să dai o notă de originalitate acelor aspecte care nu se şterg din memorie în ceea ce priveşte caracterul selectiv al întâmplărilor importante. Lucrurile pot desemna o realitate care se extinde pretutindeni prin prisma a ceea ce îţi amuză mintea, sau dimpotrivă, prin prisma a ceea ce îţi nelinişteşte mintea, astfel încât să poţi să fii mai bun în a descoperi cu acurateţe înclinaţia spre comparaţia cu un standard de viaţă anterior.

Cel mai adesea, când facem o analiză a propriei persoane, încercând treptat să amplificăm înţelegerea cauzelor şi a evoluţiei de la o etapă de viaţă la alta, uităm de reperele anteriorităţii şi ale devenirii. Iar pe parcursul demersurilor de realizare a modelului de lider, fiind din acest motiv obligaţi să verificăm ipotezele propriei gândiri, ne formăm în mare parte imaginea pe care o avem despre noi înşine. Imagine ce se distinge printr-o succesiune de tranziţii între stări, influenţate de evenimente care declanşează reacţii pozitive sau negative.

Ce vrei tu să fii în vâltoarea vieţii nu depinde de realizarea tuturor lucrurilor la perfecţie, ci de natura lucrurilor care se întipăresc în conştiinţa ta, a acelor lucruri care se manifestă ca gândire cunoscătoare de realităţi trăite prin experienţe captivante, tratate SÍNE QUA NON.

O reprezentare incompletă sau neclară despre cantitatea experienţei pe care o putem accepta pentru a avea șansa de a ne promova valorile, fundamentând o anumită concepţie despre lume şi viaţă, are dezavantajul de a ne condiţiona să fim altfel decât lumea din jurul nostru. Dar trebuie să fim pregătiţi să facem pasul decisiv spre dobândirea capacităţii de integrare a lucrurilor din apropierea noastră, într-o lume nouă, a experienţelor de ataşament faţă de valorile vieţii (inspiraţie, statut social, ambiţie, toleranta, spiritualitate, etc)

Relaţia pe care o ai cu lucrurile din jur decurge din evenimente importante pe care le conştientizezi ca pe situaţii limită în care se dezvăluie ceva, dincolo de aparenţa uneori ritualizată şi foarte monotonă a vieţii tale.

Cineva spunea bine: " Hotărăşte cum vrei să-ţi trăieşti viaţa – indiferent de felul cum ţi-o imaginezi – pentru că numai aşa vei avea răbdarea de a suporta "transpiraţia" de care sigur nu vei fi scutit în calea ta. "

Sunt o mulţime de lucruri pe care trebuie să le îndurăm, la care nu ne gândim decât atunci când ne traversează viaţa. Dar această "transpiraţie" stă la baza condiţiei esenţiale pentru obţinerea unei mai bune înţelegeri de sine care poate să întreţină maturitatea şi responsabilitatea pe care se construieşte leadershipul.

O situaţie limită poate dezvălui acea latură a personalităţii tale care nu te reprezintă şi nu te onorează, care spune: "dacă nu mă implic, nimic nu mă poate atinge".

Creşterea capacităţii de integrare a experienţei de viaţă în cadrul leadershipului se datorează puterii tale de a îndura şi de a controla evenimentele care ţi se întâmplă. Măsoară-ţi imaginea de sine odată cu determinarea acelei stări pregnante care îţi creează sau anulează bună dispoziţie, încât să faci posibila depăşirea barierelor care te opresc să vezi mai departe de aparenţe şi prejudecăţi.

Numai experienţa trăită şi asumată te învaţă să răspunzi la întrebările vieţii, şi cum să integrezi răspunsurile - adevărurile gândirii tale - în leadership.

Maturitatea şi responsabilitatea pe care se construieşte leadershipul rezultă din presiunea evenimentelor pe care trebuie să le înduri cu stoicism în vederea găsirii unui sens care să-ţi răscolească fiinţa şi care să alimenteze ideea autonomiei vieţii.

Mâine e deja departe scoate în evidenţă acea experienţă căpătată pe parcursul vieţii care contribuie la obţinerea unei mai bune înţelegeri de sine, a cărei valoare poate avea un impact major în consolidarea leadershipului.

Fii sigur că viaţa, ori de câte ori îţi umbreşte clipa prezentului de o aşteptare a unei realizări viitoare, de o frustrare a zilei de ieri sau de o emoţie pentru ceea ce va urma, te testează să vadă dacă eşti pregătit pentru examenul maturităţii.

Mâinile domnului Panaite

On Mai 19, 2010

Atribuie leadershipului tău proprietatea de echilibru, asigurând o compatibilitate psihologică între tine şi "mâinile" tale.

N-aş putea să uit niciodată ziua în care l-am întâlnit pe domnul Panaite, un doctor de vârsta mijlocie a cărui sublimă plăcere de a-şi practica meseria de chirurg i-a adus un mare succes. Era înzestrat cu un mănunchi de calităţi şi merite strălucite. Nu dăduse niciodată greş într-o operaţie.

Am stat de vorba cu el mai bine de o oră, timp în care mi-a împărtăşit câteva lucruri interesante vizavi de meseria de chirurg. El a subliniat pe această cale importanţa pe care o au „mâinile" sale, atât de preţioase unui chirurg în timpul operaţiei.

- Nicu, meseria mea e minunată, dar plină de riscuri. Ori de câte ori intru într-o operaţie mă chinuieşte o groază de moarte: ca nu cumva să-mi moară pacientul pe masa de operaţie. De asemenea, sunt îndreptăţit să mă tem şi de altceva: ca nu cumva familia pacientului să-mi ceară despăgubiri morale sau, şi mai rău, să mă dea în judecată pentru neglijenţă şi iresponsabilitate. Numai gândul că mi s-ar putea întâmpla toate acestea îmi stârneşte un sentiment sinistru. Sentimentul acesta face să mi se învârtă prin cap tot felul de gânduri care pe un om slab de fire îl pot arunca într-o deznădejde fără margini. Operaţia este un lucru primejdios Nicu, reuşita ei depinde nu numai de medicul chirurg, ci şi de mâinile întregii echipe.

Leadership: Îţi reconsideri poziţia asupra dimensiunii sentimentului acut al eşecului, printr-un demers de înţelegere a trăirilor tale care răzbat în conştiinţă sub formă de gând obsesiv foarte puternic?

Domnul Panaite mi-a explicat foarte clar:

- În cazul unei intervenţii chirurgicale echipa care intră în operaţie este formată din mai mulţi specialişti aleşi cu mare grijă de „şeful echipei", adică cum se spune în limbaj medical, de „mâna întâia". Acesta îşi alege în primul rând un ajutor de nădejde reprezentat de „mâna a doua". Amândoi chirurgii trebuie să formeze un tandem perfect în timpul intervenţiei chirurgicale şi sunt asistaţi; dar ei trebuie să conlucreze în egală măsură şi cu ceilalţi membri ai echipei: medicul anestezist şi asistenţii de la sala de operaţie, fiecare având roluri foarte bine stabilite. De asemenea, toţi trebuie să dea dovadă de o foarte bună stăpânire de sine, dar şi de o capacitate mare de reacţie rapidă.

- Aceste echipe, mi-a mai spus el, se constituie de regulă în timp, după o destul de lungă cunoaştere interumană. Un nou venit, un chirurg mai tânăr, este primit doar ca „mâna a treia". Şi doar după ce dovedeşte că se poate integra în echipă, că este compatibil din punct de vedere al personalităţii şi bineînţeles al profesionalismului, ajunge „mâna a doua". Succesul echipei şi implicit rezolvarea favorabilă a cazului chirurgical depinde de perfecta conlucrare a echipei, de sincronizarea membrilor ei, de profesionalismul lor, dar contează enorm şi compatibilitatea psihologică dintre ei.

Leadership: Accepţi recunoaşterea unei superiorităţi care îşi contrazice esenţa printr-o manifestare a conduitei profesionale care nu are valoare decât dacă pătrunde larg în conştiinţa şi simţirea celor care te asistă în obţinerea rezultatelor dorite?

O superioritate care îşi contrazice esenţa este un mijloc de afirmare personală care nu este străbătut de nicio poveste frumoasă, ceea ce echivalează cu prilejul împlinirii unei obligaţii majore fără să-ţi fi dezvoltat în prealabil o anumită convingere despre cauzele şi proporţiile situaţiilor neprevăzute.

Esenţial în leadership este echilibrul care se stabileşte în funcţie de anumite criterii şi situaţii, dar şi în funcţie de valorile tale şi de priceperea ta, şi de felurite aspecte care ţin de stadiul evoluţiei tale. Dacă reuşeşti să creezi acel echilibru perfect cu tine însăţi şi cu oamenii de încredere care te asistă în demersurile pe care le faci, între starea ta psihologică şi a lor pe toate palierele, în special relaţional, comportamental, intelectual şi aptitudinal – atunci poţi menţine acel echilibru benefic dezvoltării leadershipului tău.

Echilibrul stabileşte o anumită sincronizare între părţi: tu şi „mâinile" tale; el conduce la o întâlnire a minţilor voastre care se contopesc, conlucrează formând un tot unitar, imprimând astfel lucrului în echipă acea armonie care poartă amprenta performanţei.

Iar performanţa se bazează pe acuitatea psihică a fiecărui participant la procesul de dezvoltare a leadershipului – felul în care se raportează unul la celălalt, felul în care îşi ajustează caracteristicile şi trăsăturile de personalitate, felul în care îşi reconsideră gândirea prin prisma celorlalţi de a percepe lucrurile - constituie suportul capabil unei îmbunătăţiri a randamentului comun.

Atribuie leadershipului tău proprietatea de echilibru asigurând o compatibilitate psihologică între tine şi "mâinile" tale. Un lider fără „mâini" bune nu poate garanta succesul complet al demersurilor sale.

Leadership: Contribui la crearea unei reprezentări de sine care este suficient de cuprinzătoare şi detaliată pentru a capta aspectele relevante ale unei iniţiative asumate, fiind în același timp o proiecţie a tendinţei de reconfigurare a unei experienţe de Brand memorabile?

Crearea unei reprezentări de sine începe întotdeauna cu ceea ce te face preţios (reuşita unei activităţi foarte importante), dar se poate finaliza cu ceea ce te dezonorează serios (o dramă ascunsă de care nimeni habar nu are).

Niciun lider nu trebuie să fie singur în împrejurări speciale. În orice acţiune importantă pe care o întreprinde el trebuie să aibă în preajma lui, la fel ca un chirurg, una sau două „mâini" de încredere care să-l asiste în permanenţă şi care să-i ofere tot sprijinul necesar. De altfel, pe care om, oricât de bun profesionist ar fi el într-un domeniu nu l-ar ajuta prezenţa a una, a două sau chiar a mai multor „mâini" de încredere, cu o experienţă solidă în domeniu?

Urmările pot fi nespus de triste pentru liderul care încearcă să „opereze" fără să fie asistat de nişte „mâini" preţioase. Chiar dacă are nişte însuşiri de frunte şi o experienţă bogată, el nu va reuşi să facă totul de unul singur. Reuşita lui va depinde aproape întotdeauna de altcineva. A-şi găsi una sau două ajutoare însufleţite de râvna de a-i fi de folos, dar care, în acelaşi timp să fie îndemânatice, răbdătoare dar şi rapide, este un lucru vital pentru leadershipul său.

Toate nereuşitele unui lider se datorează lipsei de experienţă, dar şi lipsei unor „mâini" bune care să-l asiste şi să-i dea ajutor la nevoie. Dar trebuie ţinut cont şi de faptul că nu rar se întâlnesc cazurile când liderul este secondat în aparenţă de „mâini" dibaci, dar care îi pot cauza multe probleme.

O experienţă de Brand memorabilă este o armă în căutarea unei misiuni autoasumate care inspiră o nouă abordare cu scopul obţinerii unui efect de apreciere, dar care oricând poate să aibă caracterul unui efect advers nedorit.

Mâinile domnului Panaite sunt ajutorul acordat unei măsuri corective, într-un demers în care dimensiunea etică e dublată de valorizarea pozitivă a unei învăţări din experienţa altora superiori ţie.

Mâna dreaptă a hegemonului

On Ianuarie 12, 2010

Construieşte-ţi o personalitate foarte puternică pentru ca oamenii să se alinieze necondiţionat convingerilor, idealurilor şi acţiunilor tale, punându-te în ipostaza unui vultur ce îşi determină puii să privească soarele şi cere ca ei să nu fie orbiţi de lumina lui.

În faţa lui Dionysios, comandantul corăbiilor Foceei, s-a prezentat un viteaz pe nume Dorieus. Dorieus era un luptător extraordinar ce putea să înfrunte patru sau chiar cinci soldaţi odată şi să iasă învingător. Neînfricat, el se avânta mereu în lupta doar de dragul de a lupta. Era un luptător de temut. Însa nu avea aptitudini de lider. Prefera mai degrabă să slujească un comandant puternic decât să conducă el însuşi o armată. De aceea a insistat să fie primit în serviciul lui Dionysios pentru a lupta împotriva perşilor.

Dionysios l-a întrebat:

- De ce te oferi să-mi slujeşti mie, un amărât de comandant, care nici măcar o brăţară de aur nu are pe mână, care luptă doar pentru gloria oraşului său şi pentru propria lui glorie?

Dorieus, ştia că Dionysios era un bărbat aprig şi sever, care îşi forţa adesea echipajul să vâslească până la epuizare şi care, hipnotizat de propria ambiţie, era gata să lupte până la ultimul soldat. I-a spus:

- Dacă îţi cer să mă primeşti în echipajul tău, o fac doar pentru a-mi respecta principiile de luptător. Cu plată sau fără plată, prefer mai degrabă să lupt pe o corabie cu vâslaşi ce se supun ordinelor comandantului lor, decât pe una al cărei echipaj îşi alege sau îşi goneşte comandantul după cum bate vântul. Cred că tu eşti singurul comandant potrivit într-o luptă navală cu perşii.

Leadership: Eşti sincer în formularea unei cereri de afiliere la o comandă care poate fi onorată în orice circumstanță, dar care primește susținere extinsă într-o formă care nu respecta modelul de abordare a unei realităţi dificile prevăzute într-o chestiune de fond?

Dorieus, cel mai iscusit şi mai de temut luptător de la acea vreme, a fost în măsură să prevadă de partea cui va fi victoria şi de partea cui înfrângerea în bătălia cu perşii. El şi-a dat seama imediat că Dionysios era un om foarte ambiţios din fire, care ştia cum să folosească forţa echipajului său unit şi ştia cum să se angajeze într-o luptă. Nu ar fi încercat nicidecum să i se alăture dacă ar fi fost un om şovăielnic, fără tărie de caracter şi hotărâre de fier şi, mai ales, daca nu ar fi avut o minte luminată.

Poţi să "împingi" întreaga forţă a oamenilor spre careul leadershipului tău? Invincibilitatea unui echipaj depinde de comandant, vulnerabilitatea lui tot de el. Dionysios, la rândul lui, era un conducător atât de viteaz încât şi-ar fi dat viaţa pentru oricare dintre oamenii săi, chiar dacă era foarte server cu ei şi de foarte multe ori îi forţa să muncească până îi lăsau puterile.

Era genul de conducător care nu le spune niciodată oamenilor: „ Nădăjduiesc să câştig această bătălie ", ci pe un ton de siguranţă nestrămutată: „ Vom câştiga această bătălie ". Atât de sigur era de victorie, de abilităţile sale de conducător, încât inspira tuturor curaj şi încredere, inspira acea forţă impresionantă de care au oamenii mare nevoie pentru a se considera de neînvinşi.

Formularea unei cereri de afiliere la o comandă care poate fi onorată în orice circumstanță primeşte de obicei susținere extinsă într-o formă care nu respecta modelul de abordare a unei realităţi dificile prevăzute într-o chestiune de fond: ceea ce îţi aparţine ca şi responsabilitate, comportament, conţinut sau idee, nu trebuie să devină obiectul de negociere a celorlalţi.

Leadership: Îţi găseşti recunoaşterea care te face să te simţi complet şi superior exprimându-ţi drastic convingerea că ceea ce se poate întâmpla cu tine este în mod univoc îndreptat spre asigurarea condiţiilor pentru atingerea oricăreia din limitele unei "apărări proporţionale cu atacul"?

Nu de numărul oamenilor depinde soarta unei bătălii, ci de calităţile lor. Oamenii cu adevărat puternici vor să iasă întotdeauna învingători sau să facă parte din tagma învingătorilor. Dorieus era un astfel de om. Vroia să lupte împotriva perşilor – duşmanii săi cei mai vechi, dar avea nevoie de o forţă conducătoare.

Aşa că s-a aliat lui Dionysios, devenind imediat mâna lui dreaptă. Împreună au luat parte la mai multe bătălii, acţionând mereu în tandem. Dionysios era un extraordinar navigator, un excelent căpitan, era forţa motrice care furniza energiile necesare pentru reuşită, dar nicidecum un luptător fantastic ca Dorieus. La rândul său, Dorieus, prin calităţile sale excepţionale de luptător, era stâlpul de rezistenţă al lui Dionysios, temelia solidă, oferindu-i un motiv în plus de siguranţă în luptele cu perşii, ajutându-l să dăinuie şi să învingă.

Niciun conducător, oricât de iscusit ar fi, oricât de curajos şi de bine organizat ar fi, nu-şi va putea duce la îndeplinire planurile dacă nu va avea lângă el un om de bază, o mână dreaptă de nădejde, care să intervină atunci când situaţia se agravează, care să-i completeze lipsurile şi care să-i adauge valoare.

Prin urmare, cel ce doreşte să se ridice mai mult deasupra oamenilor şi să-şi atingă scopurile va fi nevoit să îşi caute o mână dreaptă care să-l urmeze de bunăvoie şi care să fie mereu lângă el, mai ales când merge pe căi bătătorite.

În negociere, atingerea oricăreia din limitele unei "apărări proporţionale cu atacul" înseamnă să stabileşti de la bun început toate detaliile unei afilieri benevole, dar astfel încât să fii perceput de cei ce te vor urma drept "Omul Rău" în cazul unei nesupuneri totale.

Concluzie: Totdeauna un lider trebuie să desemneze un adjunct sau un înlocuitor pentru situaţiile în care temporar lipseşte sau se află în incapacitatea de a-şi exercita atribuţiile (în prezent există această cerinţă precizată în diferite reglementări şi legi).

Acest înlocuitor trebuie astfel ales încât să continue strategia sau politica liderului, dar în acelaşi timp amândoi trebuie să aibă interese convergente. Dacă apar divergenţe între ei, acestea vor produce destabilizarea echipei şi alterarea coeziunii lor.

Prin urmare un conducător are absolută nevoie de „o mână dreaptă" şi în nici într-un caz de „un picior stâng" care sa-i pună beţe în roate.

Mâna lui Dumnezeu

On Ianuarie 19, 2020

Planul nemărginirii divine este o formă generală a termenului "Altoriesthru" îndreptat în favoarea unirii Creatorului cu Natura într-un singur criteriu: cel al sufletului zămislit în alt suflet.

Un simplu trandafir, tandru, iubitor, atrăgător, expunându-şi toată simplitatea în faţa reflectoarelor vieţii, a ochilor scrutători şi curioşi ai oamenilor de tot felul, îşi caută maturitatea expresivă în experienţa vizualizării unei lucrări de pictură dezvoltată în jurul unei teme de imaginaţie, numită: Pasotrarhis, sau misterul divinei înţelegeri. De aici a început totul…

Nicăieri în altă parte, nicăieri în alt loc din lume, nici în alte limbi, nici în alte glasuri, nu m-am simţit mai aproape de cerul sfânt al simbolurilor spirituale, în nicio grădină cu flori, în nicio altă realitate universală. Numai în acest fragment de suflet extras din memoriile ultimului cabalist în viaţă şi în nemurire, îmi pot exprima bucuria unei trăiri adânci, adevărate, pline de farmec, şi îmi pot întări mândria de a fi parte dintr-un plan mai mare. Trandafirul este simbolul potrivit cu starea mea de spirit.

Fără să alunec spre negrul unei denumiri goale, prin asociere cu forma impură a vizualizării unei figuri de contradicţie prezentate în antiteză cu fiinţa umană derizorie, muritoare, mi-am întărit voinţa de a mă lega prin cuvinte simple, generoase, eliberatoare, de lucrarea unui creator care ştie să-şi exprime ascunsul sufletului în totalitatea analogiilor cu alte lumi, tot aşa cum culorile cele mai avântate îşi amplifică rezonanţa cu care sunt înzestrate atunci când sunt expuse în imagini de vis.

Nu-i aşa că miracolul creaţiei divine începe cu înţelesul ascuns al unei dedublări intenţionate? Un trandafir trebuie să ia locul creatorului atunci când sufletul său se integrează în memoria unei imagini de-a dreptul splendide, aproape fantastice, încât acel „nu-mi rămâne decât să tac" să ia locul oricărei realităţi de necuprins.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi imortalizezi trăirile într-o imagine artistică plasată în contextul unei lumi de nepătruns, încât să sugerezi apropierea dintre existenţă şi etern, dintre Creator şi Dumnezeu?

Puţinul de care mă bucur este tocmai nemurirea de care niciodată nu mă satur. Trăirile din procesul creaţiei îmi sunt sprijin în rânduiala spaţiului artistic, ordonat şi armonios. Naturală, intensă, atât de vibrantă, culoarea îmi este mereu roşie, în memoria epocilor demult apuse, traversând galbenul fericirii de a trăi în visul unui creator de artă, de frumos, de sensibil. Pe această cale, fundalul îmi este încadrat în contextul unei lumi de nepătruns, în universul lui Averroes, tradus în limba tăinuită a construcţiilor reflexive: „Povestea mea este simbolul celui care am fost eu în timp ce o scriam."

Aşadar. o imagine artistică este consacrată revelării conţinutului vizual al unei metafore sau al unei personificări de care se foloseşte Creatorul ca să mijlocească o evocare spirituală, o stare de comuniune intensă între două entităţi asemănătoare prin însăşi natura lor. Universul se sprijină pe ideea că libertatea de a fi un Dumnezeu aparţine creatorului care se descoperă mereu într-o altă ipostază, dar totdeauna apropiată de cea a trandafirului roşu.

Nu degeaba sunt sensibil la fiecare detaliu, chiar şi atunci când ceva pare desprins din alte timpuri, din alte locuri, din alte tablouri, în corespondenţă cu conţinutul lucrărilor plastice pe care artiştii le asociază cu formele pure de reflecţie. Bineînţeles, sunt conştient de valoarea riscului pe care îl implică sublinierea „Artificiului Primar". Dar mă socot ca având suficientă autoritate în ce priveşte contopirea inefabilă cu spiritul iluminismului aflat în Gan-Eden, prin codurile extinse ale culorilor din preajma unei expuneri la infiltrarea frumosului în cultură, în codul semanticii cabalistice.

Mi-am trăit timpul, mereu un alt timp şi o altă viaţă, dar timpul niciodată nu a uitat de mine în viaţa visului etern. Poate de aceea, cunoscându-ne atât de bine din alte lumi şi din alte spectre stelare, Umberto Eco îmi lăuda raţionamentul, la fel cum creatorul îşi caută ficţiunea într-o scriere non-ficţională înainte de a-i da viaţă într-un timp care nu este al lui:

Leadership: Poţi să persişti în memoria unei imagini substituită unei viziuni a creaţiei dintr-un univers ontologic, suficient de mult pentru a nu-ţi mai justifica dublura în lumea reală?

Creatorul meu este artistul care îşi formulează singur realitatea, rămânând tot timpul în afara ei, dar strâns legat de ideea estetică pe care o dă profunzimea ei poetică. Şi cred că versiunea acestei realităţi imaculate, atât de deschisă lucrărilor din domeniul artei, dar adesea pusă la îndoială, chiar dacă este străbătută de puterea întâmplătorului, începe şi se termină cu mesajul din opera lui Mesa Selimovic: „Să nu ai taine de ascuns, în afară de cele pe care nimeni nu este în stare să şi le cunoască."

Din trandafir, dintr-un singur cuvânt pur, am fost transpus într-o compoziţie artistică cu un nume încântător: Double Delight, sau simbolul omului dublu. Creatorul meu avea pasiunea revelării mesajelor ascunse în lucruri lăsate la voia întâmplării: nu lăsa să-i scape niciun amănunt, niciun lucru cvasi-obisnuit ridicat la grad de eveniment, şi din greşeală am intrat amândoi pe aceeaşi frecvenţă de undă, în acel cadru al sensurilor superioare, animaţi de un curent alternativ numit: Altoriesthru (simţire pură într-o eternă întoarcere).

Trebuie doar să ştii să te transformi şi să acţionezi în numele altei lumi, căreia îi aparţii egalmente, pentru a descoperi adevarata identitate a lui Dumnezeu.

E un adevăr. De atâtea ori am încercat să mă preschimb într-un vis, ceva mai măreţ decât spaţiile universale prin care se întâlnesc spiritele alese, cum este cazul creatorului care îşi visează creaţia înainte de a-i da viaţă. Biruinţa artei în faţa oricărei lumi, în ciuda oricăror lumi posibile, este cât se poate de clară atunci când ceea ce se vede în lumină este culoarea roşie. O culoare proprie prin care devin vizibil, mereu în alta grădină cu flori. De altfel, mă încred în puterile creatorului meu, eu în ale lui, pentru a înfrumuseţa o lume care continuă să-şi schimbe viziunea despre artă. Şi cred că asta e de ajuns.

Bunul meu prieten, Umberto Eco, spunea la un moment dat că există margini dincolo de care nu este îngăduit să mergi. Dar a făcut o singură excepţie, pentru mine, atunci când m-a lăsat să înţeleg că o singură poartă rămâne întotdeauna deschisă în orice univers, în orice timp, în orice condiţii, doar pentru cine ştie să pătrundă această sfântă taină: „Eu am fost mâna lui Dumnezeu. Iar mâna lui Dumnezeu creează, nu ascunde."

Creaţia Artistică poate fi percepută ca o sublimă copie a realităţii dintr-un vis numit „viaţă", în care tot ceea ce se întâmplă are sensul superior de eternitate, sau de proiecţie a frumosului de dincolo de limitele lumii.

Mâna lui Dumnezeu este proiecţia voinţei inexorabile care a creat ori a scris lumea. Mai poate fi definită prin efortul creatorului de a prevedea visul Cuiva care s-a visat el însuşi autorul unei experienţe inegalabile care începe cu extensia revelatoare a sinelui surprins într-o formă de a fi a naturii, dintr-o grădină cu cărări ce se bifurcă, şi se continuă cu maximizarea unei Creaţii artistice percepută ca o transcendere de la uman către spiritual, şi invers.

Manifestarea exterioară a unei treziri la viaţă (II)

On Octombrie 19, 2013

Învaţă să ţii cont de ceea ce te avantajează spre o rapidă ascensiune, eliberându-te de ceea ce te amărăşte şi mergând mai departe spre acea împlinire care îţi spune că ceea ce faci este bine.

După ce-şi isprăvi misiunea pe care i-o încredinţase Dumnezeu, după ce răzbunarea – această mică pârghie divină îi permisese să învingă toate obstacolele, contele începea pentru prima oară să se îndoiască de sine. Avusese dreptul să facă atâta dreptate, mai neaşteptată decât ar fi cuvenit o judecată cumpătată? Avusese dreptul să poarte masca unei fiinţe superioare şi să vadă dincolo de ea?

Reîntorcându-se acasă, Monte Cristo îl întâlni pe Maximilien care rătăcea prin locuinţa din Champs-Elysees, tăcut ca o umbră care aşteaptă momentul fixat de Dumnezeu ca să reintre în mormânt.

- Pregăteşte-te, Maximilien – îi spuse el zâmbind. Mâine părăsim Parisul.

- Nu mai aveţi nimic de făcut aici? întrebă Morrel.

- Nu, răspunse Monte Cristo. Şi dea Domnul să nu fie prea mult ce am făcut.

Leadership: Aderi cu chibzuință doar la ceea ce adaugă avantaje cuantificabile demersurilor tale, fără să-ţi asumi înţelepciunea de a deosebi puterea cea mai înaltă a lui Dumnezeu de acea plăpândă şoaptă a conştiinţei care va continua să vibreze multă vreme în sufletul tău?

Dacă soarta se abate de la planul stabilit iniţial, generând ocolişuri nebănuite, atunci omul îşi poate recăpăta treptat elementele definitorii numai dacă este pătruns de harul care plasează sufletul în adevăr, numai printr-o înnobilare a caracterului, în intenţia de a-şi extinde puterea lăuntrică asupra lui şi asupra celorlalţi.

În acest caz, leadershipul poate fi comparat cu zborul spre înalt al unui vultur rănit, o redescoperire a învingătorului din însuşi omul care a avut puterea magică de a face o călătorie plină de învăţăminte şi încercări într-o lume necunoscută. Această lume poate fi explorată doar de cei puternici spiritual, dispuşi să îşi asume riscurile căutării de sine.

Leadershipul are ca principal pilon de susţinere o lume interioară guvernată de înălţimile ştiinţei şi înţelepciunii, clădită pe piloni a căror structură testează limitele fiinţei, gândirea, răbdarea şi imaginaţia. Puterea şi autoritatea. Care nu trebuie să devină nişte instrumente în mâna unui executant, sau o joacă în jurul axului central care se fixează la ambele extremităţi: a fi egalul lui Dumnezeu sau a fi doar o unealtă a Lui.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi consolidezi o cunoaştere fără durere şi remuşcări, în aşa fel încât destinul pe care ţi l-a pregătit Dumnezeu să rezoneze cu capacitatea conştiinţei de a descoperi esenţa unei lumi care trăieşte simultan un singur eveniment?

Nu poţi urca spre înălţimi dacă eşti lipsit de vitalitate în interior. Desfiinţarea zidului de rezistenţă pe două direcţii paralele: a busolei morale şi a hărţii sufleteşti, plutind în acea sferă a durerii pe care nici el n-o înţelegea, dar care parcă făcea parte dintr-un joc divin, l-a determinat pe Edmond Dantes, alias Contele de Monte Cristo, să-şi reorienteze strict forţa şi strategia pe termen lung către alte ţinte, tot mai înalte.

Trăind în mod sincer conflictul între două identităţi, între două personalităţi diferite, între două moduri de a privi lumea şi situaţiile de viaţă, el a plasat leadershipul sub o singură stea călăuzitoare: profunzimea şi sinceritatea. Ele formând caracteristica unei mentalităţi mature, orientate către deschidere, implicare şi responsabilizare.

Dacă vrei să înţelegi leadershipul, mai întâi trebuie să treci prin meandrele neprevăzute ale sorţii. Şi să găseşti singur calea "trezirii" la viaţă. Nu poţi urca spre înălţimi dacă eşti lipsit de vitalitate în interior, dacă interacţiunea dintre elementele pozitive şi negative nu acţionează asupra unui punct fix: schimbarea. Renaşterea. Pauza finală dintre acumulările succesive de durere, epuizare, compromisuri, sacrificii şi privaţiuni.

Transformă-te într-un model de credinţă puternic, remodelându-ţi viaţa în funcţie de propriile răni pe care trebuie să le accepţi ca pe realităţi existenţiale conţinute într-un plan nevăzut, chiar dacă sunt greu de înţeles şi adeseori greu de acceptat. Raportează-te la un model de "a fi", întemeiat pe reconstrucţia reţelei interioare de valori şi sentimente, care să aibă în centru o reflectare a unei cunoaşteri profunde şi înalte.

Prin esenţa unei lumi care trăieşte simultan un singur eveniment se înţelege acea morală sub al cărei imperiu firea umană încearcă să-şi prezerve vitalitatea conştiinţei, fără ca aceasta să fie schimbată de rememorarea anumitor episoade din experienţele trecute.

Întreaga sferă a conştiinţei se agaţă de încercarea de reperare al unui moment precis din evoluţia ta care poate fi fatal dacă nu devine o premiză a iertării.

Manifestarea exterioară a unei treziri la viaţă este şansa pe care ţi-o acorzi de a lua totul de la început, chiar dacă trebuie să duci în cârcă remuşcări şi durere, fiind plin de speranţa că tot ceea ce ţi s-a întâmplat a făcut parte din planul divin pe care nu l-ai prevăzut şi de la care nu ai putut să te abaţi.

Manifestarea exterioară a unei treziri la viaţă (I)

On Octombrie 19, 2013

Transformă-te într-un model de credinţă puternic, remodelându-ţi viaţa în jurul propriilor răni recunoscute de tine ca punţi spre leadership.

Spune-i îngerului care va veghea asupra vieţii dumitale, Maximilien, să se roage uneori pentru un om care, asemenea Satanei, s-a crezut o clipă egalul lui Dumnezeu. Şi care a recunoscut apoi – cu toată umilinţa unui creştin – că puterea supremă şi înţelepciunea nemărginită sunt numai în mâinile lui Dumnezeu. Rugăciunile Valentinei vor îndulci poate remuşcările pe care el le poartă în fundul sufletului.

În ceea ce te priveşte, Maximilien, iată tot secretul purtării mele faţă de dumneata: nu există nici fericire, nici nenorocire pe lume. Există doar compararea unei stări cu cealaltă şi – atâta tot. Doar cel care a simţit nefericirea cea mai cumplită e în stare să simtă cea mai mare fericire. Ca să-ţi dai seama cât de bine este să trăieşti, trebuie să fi dorit să mori.

Trăiţi deci şi fiţi fericiţi, copii dragi ai inimii mele. Nu uitaţi niciodată că până în ziua când Dumnezeu va binevoi să-i destăinuiască omului viitorul, toată înţelepciunea omenească va fi cuprinsă în aceste două cuvinte: "Aşteaptă şi nădăjduieşte ! "

Leadership: Aderi cu chibzuinţă la ceea ce adaugi experienţei tale în chip nefalsificat, astfel încât să redai începutul unei noi lumi din perspectiva a ceea ce te face să renunţi la regretele trecutului?

O asemenea trăire apărută parcă din neant, căinţă obositoare, trimiţând cu gândul la glasul de neuitat al disperării, trebuie să capete, neapărat, valoarea unui exemplu plin de învăţăminte. Omul adaugă valoare şi înţeles experienţei sale în chip nefalsificat atunci când se simte responsabil moraliceşte faţă de lume, faţă de tot ce-l înconjoară, ştiind exact ce are de făcut în virtutea acestei responsabilităţi. El se angajează să renunţe la trecut dintr-un singur motiv: să-şi impună superioritatea maturităţii asupra tinereţii.

Omul care a cântărit totul din întuneric, printr-o aprigă lovitură a destinului, omul înăuntrul căruia s-au născut tensiuni generatoare de deznădejdi crâncene, curenţi de necredinţă, goluri de identitate, perpetuate în jurul unui nucleu de rezistenţă, a avut puterea de a merge mai departe. Şi, astfel, el a putut aprecia adevărata fericire. Tot ce-a trăit, tot ce-a suportat cu acea îndârjire pe care nimic nu o poate destrăma şi pe care nu o întâlneşti altundeva, pentru prima oară s-a declanşat ca reacţie de răspuns la solicitările sufleteşti. Omul şi-a destăinuit durerea nestinsă, lăsând să se întrevadă valorile şi calităţile dobândite de pe urma ei.

Sufletul omului care a fost prădat şi golit de orice sentiment, ca un mormânt acoperit cu o lespede grea de piatră, s-a deschis printr-o mişcare de rotaţie a destinului. Şi odată cu mângâierea primei raze de soare, acest om şi-a descoperit puterea pe care o avea. A reînviat şi a urcat spre înălţimile absolutului.

Numai o minte ascuţită şi o forţă instinctuală chibzuită ar fi putut desluşi valenţele pozitive ale acestui suflet, a cărui esenţă se reflectă în versurile poetului Robert Service: "Avea o inimă de Viking şi credinţa simplă a unui copil".

Această imagine, a omului trecut de tinereţe, dar investit de Dumnezeu cu o mare putere de pătrundere (prin ruperea contactului cu realitatea exterioară şi prin trăirea excesivă a unei vieţi interioare), ne face să ne gândim la un vultur vindecat de răni chinuitoare, care se avântă din nou în înaltul cerului.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri o garanție privind autenticitatea ta în cazul apropierii de destinul unui artist care se relevă ca un şir de enumerări ale unor fapte şi atitudini reflexive în faţa întrebărilor vieţii?

Un artist nu ţine seama de condiţia intrinsecă a artei, şi anume trăirea şi înţelegerea suferinţei. El se relevă ca un şir de enumerări ale unor fapte şi atitudini reflexive în faţa întrebărilor vieţii, precum:

Cum te poţi iubi mai mult? Ce vrei să întruchipezi? De ce anume fugi cel mai mult în viaţă? De ce credinţe limitative te ţii agăţat? Te multumeşti cu mai puţin decat meriţi? Unde traiesti acum - în trecut, în viitor sau în prezent? Poţi deveni un alt tip de persoană pentru alţii?

Dorinta lui Edmond Dantes de a se înălţa spre un nivel superior de existenţă, a determinat creşterea rezistenţei în faţa deznădejdei, dublând speranţa. Ingredientele participante la reacţia de schimbare lăuntrică totală, numărul de moli ai fiecărei substanţe psihice şi sufleteşti ce conţinea agentul de accelerare a proceselor de dezvoltare, au dat naştere la o nouă lumină călăuzitoare. La o putere spirituală nemaiîntâlnită, nemărginită. Ca o contrapondere pentru durerea, pesimismul şi resemnarea surdă care i-au invadat sufletul - specifice autocunoaşterii şi dobândirii înţelepciunii.

Evaluarea personalităţii omului şi a structurii sufleteşti care o compune, plasată într-un cerc al forţelor de atracţie care îşi extinde diametrul printr-o focalizare consecventă asupra simţurilor şi gândurilor trecute sub tăcere, nu asigură o recunoaştere relevantă a valorii sau a responsabilităţi sale în caz de eşec.

Din acest punct de vedere leadershipul pierde din strălucire, capătă o nuanţă mai ştearsă, devine un factor slab de investigaţie a autorităţii omului. Nu mai poate furniza indicii majore privind existenţa unor valori care să favorizeze schimbarea totală a omului într-o entitate superioară care să poată funcţiona autonom.

Imaginea pe care ţi-o modelează schimbarea lăuntrică se relevă ca un ansamblu de asemănări, analogii între fenomenele reale din viaţă şi corespondentele lor emoţionale. Ea este inclusă în planul unei fiinţe inteligente care îşi exercită voinţa nu în funcţie de convingerile şi experienţele trecutului, ci în funcţie de uşurinţa cu care îşi iartă greşelile, rănile şi dramele sufleteşti.

Manifestarea exterioară a unei treziri la viaţă aduce in prim plan acea autodefinire din perspectiva căreia sensul vieţii capătă alte semnificaţii. Dar şi revenirea la jaloanele iniţiale stabilite pe parcursul vieţii ori de câte ori soarta nu respectă planul iniţial.

Aidoma unei păsări Phoenix, poţi să renaşti din propria-ţi cenuşă?

Manifestarea văzută a ceea ce nu se poate vedea

On Ianuarie 03, 2025

Ceea ce se naște din mișcare este ceea ce inima a cultivat în taină.

Anul trecut a fost unul plin de medalii pentru sora mea, Oana Fântânaru. Medalie după medalie, record după record, la fiecare semimaraton organizat în munții României. În oglinda timpului, în tot ceea ce consider a fi performanță autentică, am văzut cum fiecare potecă a devenit un capitol important din traseul existențial al Oanei. De parcă ar fi fost un arhitect al propriului ei destin, transformând obstacolele într-un soi de ritual înălțător, facilitând trecerea de la efort la artă. A fost atât de impresionant, declanșator de emoții pure, să o văd cum transformă fiecare pas înainte într-un triumf al voinței, mai mult decât o simplă victorie. De aici și ideea că la perfezione nasce dalla dedizione totale.

Nimic nu se compară cu senzația libertății absolute. Când ceața își așternea vălul mistic peste creștetele munților, Oana nu vedea în asta un impediment, ci o invitație la comuniune cu necunoscutul. Sufletul ei de artist, cu mare tragere spre frumosul etern, vibra în ritmul armoniei primordiale a înălțimilor, într-o simbioză perfectă cu forțele naturii. Era ca și cum fiecare cursă devenise un ritual de inițiere în misterele universului, dincolo de limitele fizice, în virtutea principiului conform căruia spiritul transcende materia. În momentele când clipele de respiro își șopteau tentațiile, când mușchii vădeau oboseala, spiritul ei părea să se ridice precum vulturul deasupra văilor, căutând mereu ce se ascunde dincolo de orizontul vizibilului.

Desigur, portalul sacru al muntelui se deschide doar celor care, asemenea Oanei, au curajul să pășească dincolo de limitele comune ale convențiilor și certitudinilor. În acest context, Oana a dovedit de atâtea ori, prin splendoarea cu care își depășește propriile limite, că fiecare chemare a muntelui este o ocazie de a învăța despre sine. Iar fiecare traseu este un altar personal, o călătorie spre esență, unde linia de sosire nu este altceva decât începutul unei noi experiențe spirituale denumită "Devotio Mornathis". În alergare, ea a găsit de fiecare dată un mod de a comunica cu natura, de a se încadra perfect în peisaj, transformând fiecare competiție într-o odisee simbolică, o poveste a rezilienței și a frumuseții în mișcare.

Leadership: Poți să abordezi o experiență de autodepășire ca pe un joc al minții, transformând-o într-un simbol al cunoașterii ascunse?

Parcă desprinsă din paginile romanului lui Umberto Eco, sora mea a abordat ultimul semimaraton montan din 2024 cu aceeași profunzime a eroului, Adso, încercând să descifreze misterele ascunse ale propriului parcurs, ca și cum fiecare pas ar fi fost un simbol de descifrat sau o enigmă de rezolvat.

Mirosul de pergament ars plutea încă în aer, învăluind zidurile reci ale abației. Adso își mușca buzele, tulburat de revelația recentă, în timp ce William privea liniștit ruinele bibliotecii. Umbrele serii se alungeau peste pietrele scorojite, iar liniștea părea să apese mai greu decât întrebările rămase fără răspuns.

- Dar cum de ați reușit, spuse Adso cu admirație, să lămuriți misterul bibliotecii privind-o din afară, și nu i-ați dat de rost când erați înăuntru?

William zâmbi abia perceptibil, ca și cum întreaga șaradă nu fusese decât un joc al minții. În ochii săi se oglindea acum nu doar priceperea logicii, ci și un respect tăcut pentru tainele inaccesibile rațiunii omenești.

- Așa cunoaște Dumnezeu lumea, pentru că a conceput-o în capul lui, ca din afară, înainte de a o crea. În timp ce noi nu-i cunoaștem regula, pentru că trăim în ea și o găsim gata făcută.

Leadership: Privirea ta focusată asupra detaliilor poate aduce claritate asupra întregului, deschizând noi perspective dincolo de iluzia concretului imediat?

Privirea atentă asupra detaliilor aduce claritate asupra întregului atunci când vedem în depărtare ceea ce ne scapă din apropiere. Sora mea a reușit să creeze o lume după tiparele de ritm și ordine interioară întâlnite pe parcurs, chiar dacă nu cunoștea regulile ascunse ale drumului. Perspectiva din exterior i-a dezvăluit adevăruri ascunse pe care apropierea directă le umbrea.

Asta se numește, de fapt, să fii artist: să stăpânești jocul minții din timpul fiecărei provocări, găsind acea înțelepciune tăcută care te face demn de tainele unei biblioteci.

Precum manuscrisele unei biblioteci străvechi, muntele își dezvăluie secretele doar celor care știu să privească dincolo de iluzia concretului imediat. În acest dialog tăcut între spirit și provocare, Oana a descoperit că adevărata măiestrie stă în capacitatea de a transforma efortul fizic într-o formă de cunoaștere superioară. Așa e. Un artist al alergării nu fuge de provocări, ci le invită în jocul său mental, recunoscând că răspunsurile apar nu în liniaritatea rațiunii, ci în misterul labirintic care îl înconjoară.

Într-un fel, biblioteca devine simbolul unui spirit deschis, iar alergarea devine actul descifrării dualității sacru-profan, în interpretarea unui parcurs ritualic și revelator.

Leadership: Mintea ta devine suficient de liberă pentru a pune sub semnul întrebării propriile convingeri, atunci când încetezi să mai privești limitele ca pe un final absolut?

Aș zice că imaginea Oanei, alergând pe munte, nu dezvăluie o lume închisă, ci fixează un punct, o situație în care se contopește efortul fizic cu spiritualitatea, ritmul pașilor ei devenind parte dintr-un ansamblu profund, aproape magic. Fiecare linie desenată de parcursul ei montan conturează, în același timp, o operă de artă ordonată, coerentă, pe care o putem admira ca pe un exemplu de forță creatoare, dus la extrem. Asemenea unui meșter vrăjitor, ea și-a asumat cele mai dificile provocări numai pentru a demonstra că poate transcende limitele aparent imposibile.

Evident, cunoașterea superioară rezidă din acel echilibru perfect între efort și inspirație, de care doar un artist poate să se folosească drept ghid, după un divin model. Iar dacă traseul străbătut de Oana pare un itinerar artistic, o călătorie spirituală către ceva cu totul dincolo de timp, atunci cunoașterea pe care ea o transmite miilor de admiratori este, de fapt, mărturia vie a transformării efortului în artă pură, nu doar o lecție despre curaj, perseverență și autodepășire. La urma urmelor, un artist adevărat, asemenea unui alergător de top, este un vizionar neobosit care își recunoaște menirea superioară prin faptul că transformă fiecare provocare într-o operă de artă vie.

Opera de artă vie reprezintă acea manifestare profundă a echilibrului dintre trup, minte și spirit, în care fiecare pas înainte devine o expresie autentică a conexiunii dintre om, natură și univers.

Manifestarea văzută a ceea ce nu se poate vedea amplifică ideea de spiritualitate în acțiune, în cazul în care efortul devine o cale de conectare cu energia divină din care emană Muntele. Fiecare potecă ascunde un simbol, așa cum fiecare bibliotecă poartă taine nedescifrate, iar alergătorul descifrează în ritmul pașilor săi limbajul secret al muntelui.

Mai mult decât atât. Simbolul, conceput numai într-un context ce dinamizează un anumit aspect al imaginii simbolice pe care Oana și-o proiectează, poate fi folosit ca o metaforă ce ilustrează legătura existentă în univers, între ritmul vieții și spirit. Asemenea unui scrib medieval, alergătorul lasă urme care povestesc despre o călătorie interioară: "Ceea ce se naște din mișcare este ceea ce inima a cultivat în taină".

Manifestul alb al solidarităţii

On Aprilie 18, 2009

Impune propriul tău model de urmat, transmiţându-le oamenilor un mesaj care să corespundă sistemului lor de credinţe şi valori.

Doctorul Jaques Merey, ştiindu-se responsabil de felul în care se vor desfăşura evenimentele din Franţa anului 1972, s-a adresat mulţimii adunate în piaţa primăriei, acolo unde consiliul de apărare delibera în permanenţă:

– Cetăţeni, ştiţi foarte bine că oraşul Verdun este cheia Franţei. M-aţi văzut în focul de astăzi, şi să ştiţi că nimeni nu m-a obligat să mă duc acolo; expunându-mi viaţa pentru acest oraş, mi s-a părut că voi fi mult mai îndreptăţit să vă spun ce aşteaptă Franţa de la voi.

Franţa aşteaptă de la voi un mare act de eroism; ţineţi piept duşmanului opt zile şi veţi da astfel timp Parisului să organizeze apărarea, şi veţi salva patria, şi veţi avea dreptul să puneţi următoarea inscripţie pe stema oraşului: „Franţa recunoscătoare Verdunului".

*Apăraţi-vă, eu voi fi în aceeaşi primejdie ca şi voi şi, dacă va fi nevoie, voi muri împreună cu voi. **

Leadership: Cât eşti de flexibil la nivel de implicare în atingerea unui ideal de echivalenţă între libertate şi asumare, când în locul voinţei tale se impune voinţa unei lumi care se prăbuşeşte?

Acest discurs simplu, dar admirabil prin stilul plin de fermitate şi de însufleţire, a dat roade demne de tot respectul, fiindcă le-a atras oamenilor atenţia asupra acelor lucruri elementare, dar esenţiale, pe care se sprijină şi se ghidează o naţiune. În marea lor majoritate oamenii pierduseră din vedere ceea ce era mai important: unitatea. Însă acest discurs plin de încredere şi vitalitate a sădit în ei un nobil sentiment de putinţă, de recunoştinţă pe care trebuie să o aducă ţării.

Ştii preţul a tot ce pierzi şi a tot ce câştigi prin încercarea de a le impune oamenilor acele convingeri care fac loc unei deschideri către un orizont diferit, mai apropiat de un ideal comun care să ducă la un parteneriat care să dureze, un parteneriat care să aibă drept scop derularea de acţiuni în beneficiul intereselor comune?

Leadershipul este precum o lumânare care arde între tine şi ceilalţi oameni, luminându-te într-o parte pe tine, dar în cealaltă parte pe ei. Pentru ca ea să lumineze şi să emane căldură trebuie reziste cât mai mult timp aprinsă.

Ca să creezi relaţii bune cu oamenii trebuie să te conectezi la ei şi să întreţii „lumina" care îţi reflectă convingerile sincere şi corecte, acea lumină dătătoare de speranţă, de curaj şi de energie după care aspiră toţi, şi să te concentrezi cât mai mult asupra ei, încât să o menţii întotdeauna vie, şi chiar să o sporeşti. În cuvinte mai simple, trebuie să-i determini pe oameni să conştientizeze necesitatea şi utilitatea acceptării viziunii tale şi a mesajul pe care îl transmiţi.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să-ţi supui voinţa unei lumi care se relevă doar în anumite condiţii de observaţie a lecţiilor de viaţă, încât aceste lecţii de viaţă să te înveţe mai multe despre tine însuţi?

Ai toate socotelile făcute? Singura cale de a micşora distanţa care te desparte de ceilalţi oameni este să-ţi exprimi ataşamentul şi admiraţia faţă de ei, prezentându-le adevărul prin prisma propriilor tale percepţii vizavi de ceea ce este urgent şi important de înfăptuit, oferind acea perspectivă unică, încurajatoare, care să le acapareze în cea mai mare măsură atenţia.

Dar trebuie să ai întotdeauna socotelile făcute pentru clipa în care trebuie să ieşi la rampă şi să te faci ascultat. Fii sigur că oamenii ştiu ce te mişcă, intuiesc ceea ce gândeşti şi ceea ce aştepţi de la ei, fii sigur că ei te cântăresc, cu măsura lor, neobişnuită, pe care e greu să o cunoşti. Dacă mesajul pe care îl exprimi cu însufleţire nu corespunde sistemului lor de credinţe şi valori, dacă el nu corespunde criteriilor după care ei îţi evaluează aptitudinile şi îţi măsoară caracterul, şi, în sfârşit, dacă mesajul tău nu se încadrează în zona lor de interes sau în zona lor de viziune, atunci vei da greş în încercarea ta de a impune model tău de urmat.

Ce trebuie să înveţi ca să te supui acelor lecţii de viaţă capabile să evidenţieze noi perspective despre tine însuţi? Ţi-ai pregătit spiritul şi voinţa încât să-ţi observi viaţa în condiţiile unei inegalităţi între şanse şi drepturi? Despre asta este vorba aici: despre atitudinea ta raţională de a te orienta spre valorile şi realităţile lumii din jur, care-ţi dau garanţia că vei rămâne ceea ce eşti şi vei evolua spre ceea ce trebuie să fii. Iată ce-a învăţat Jaques Merey de pe urma încercărilor întâmpinate în timpul vieţii:

Singurul mod de a te orienta spre ceea ce contează cu adevărat când vine vorba de tine însuți este să accepţi schimbarea pe care nu ai vrut s-o faci vreodată.

Manifestul alb al solidarităţii evocă motivaţia ta pentru a crea şi a dezvolta relaţii bune cu ceilalţi oameni pe baza convingerilor şi valorilor comune. Mesajul pe care îl transmiţi oamenilor este hotărâtor pentru reuşita ta, şi a lor. Dacă el nu este mobilizator, atunci nu are valoare, oamenii nu se vor solidariza cu tine în numele unui ideal măreţ.

Aşa cum prezentarea mărcii unui produs trebuie să fie creativă şi distinctivă pentru a putea atrage atenţia clienţilor – tot aşa mesajul pe care îl transmiţi oamenilor cu scopul de a-i uni pentru o cauză nobilă trebuie să fie distinctiv, să sune credibil, să nu fie contrar opiniilor lor şi să se conformeze, în măsura posibilului, adevăratelor lor valori şi aspiraţii, argumentând necesitatea implicării.

Concluzie: Liderul trebuie să fie un model de urmat şi în acest scop el trebuie să acorde o atenţie deosebită la tot ce înseamnă un model pentru ceilalţi. Pornind de la ţinută, moralitate, limbaj, compasiune, comportament, mod de comunicare şi până la exemplul personal în diferite acţiuni, totul este cântărit, măsurat şi evaluat, „unităţile de măsură” fiind diferite de la om la om.

Exemplul personal constituie de cele mai multe ori elementul esenţial care mobilizează oamenii, fără a omite însă şi puterea cuvintelor şi a mesajelor transmise acestora. Din îmbinarea lor armonioasă, liderul poate câştiga noi susţinători şi în acelaşi timp poate mobiliza masele de oameni spre atingerea ţelurilor.

Mânuitorul de suflete

On Februarie 15, 2010

Direcţionează cu precizie emoţiile oamenilor, astfel încât ei să perceapă caracteristicile leadershipului tău la o intensitate mai mare.

Sunt zile care veşnic îţi vor rămâne întipărite în memorie. Îmi voi aminti vreme îndelungată, cu mare limpezime şi plăcere, acea zi frumoasă din copilăria mea. Aveam vreo 13 ani, eram în vacanţa de vară, iar prietenii mă convinseseră să merg cu ei la un spectacol de iluzionism, spectacol care, vă mărturisesc cu toate sinceritatea, m-a fascinat în mod deosebit. Permiteţi-mi să vă povestesc pe scurt reprezentaţia cea mai reuşită a marelui iluzionist.

Magicianul îşi scoase mantia neagra şi-o lăsă jos. Îşi chemă asistenta, o tânără înăltuţă cu un trup suplu şi agil, o legă la ochi cu o eşarfă în aşa fel încât să nu poată vedea nimic, apoi o rugă să se întindă pe masa special pregătită. Magicianul închise masa într-un anume mod, transformând-o într-o ladă. Numai capul, mâinile şi vârful picioarelor i se puteau vedea.

Undeva în spatele scenei, în umbră, se zărea silueta unui bărbat al cărui chip întunecat era cu neputinţă de desluşit. După câteva momente acesta îşi făcu apariţia, aducând cu sine şase săbii de oţel foarte ascuţite. Magicianul luă una dintre săbii şi o ridică deasupra capului cu vârful în jos.

Leadership: Te confrunţi cu o realitate din care faci parte doar atunci când domneşte unitatea dintre ideea desprinsă dintr-o grandioasă expunere a experienţei şi imaginea din spatele a ceea ce comunici despre tine?

După cum lesne se poate înţelege, numărul acesta trezise în noi, spectatorii, un sentiment puternic de curiozitate. Dorinţa de a vedea situaţii cât mai bizare ni se îndeplini. Cuprinşi de agitaţie, eram gata pentru ceea ce trebuia să urmeze. Îmi dădusem seama privindu-l pe magician, înţelegând tăcerea întretăiată de trăsăturile sale nervoase, ca în el se petrecea un lucru ciudat. Probabil avea mari emoţii, sau poate asta dorea să ne facă pe noi să credem.

Magicianul stătea neclintit, triumfător, ca un înger al răului, cu sabia ridicată deasupra capului asistentei şi a lăzii în care ea era închisă. După o lungă pauză, cu putere şi cu o hotărâre neclintită, el implantă sabia într-una din găurile din dulap, special construite. Vârful sabiei păru că trece prin corpul fetei şi ieşi pe partea cealaltă a lăzii. Dar ea, cu faţa spre noi, zâmbea, fără ca pe chip să i se vadă cea mai mică urmă de emoţie, îşi mişcă mâinile ca şi cum nimic nu s-ar fi întâmplat. Noi, cei din public, dimpotrivă tremuram cu toţii.

În scurt timp şi celelalte cinci săbii fuseseră implantate în ladă şi aparent în trupul fetei, fără ca aceasta să păţească nimic. Mai apoi fata a fost eliberată din dulap. Am aplaudat cu toţii. A fost un număr de iluzionism spectaculos. Iar atunci când nu eşti obişnuit cu un asemenea spectacol, el îţi poate da emoţii puternice.

Autenticitatea o trăieşti în momentul când accepţi o provocare, dar este dată de imaginea pe care ţi-o asumi în taină, în spatele a ceea ce comunici despre tine.

Cheia succesului unui iluzionist stă în arta de a face spectacol, în puterea si în dexteritatea mâinilor sale, în felul în care îşi construieşte iluziile şi în îndemânarea cu care acestea sunt puse în scenă. Numai dacă reuşeşte să creeze o atmosferă de încordare, de emoţie şi sugestibilitate oamenii se vor putea bucura de misterele pe care el le creează. Interesul oamenilor de a viziona spectacolul este cu atât mai mare cu cât iluziile create sunt mai bine realizate.

Dominanţi, încrezători, hotărâţi să câştige, înţelegând foarte bine firea omenească, şi deţinând tehnicile ce stau la baza iluziilor optice, acustice dar şi psihologice, iluzioniştii reuşesc să creeze spectacole de neuitat inducând publicului o stare de inhibiţie ce afectează percepţia realităţii. Esti jumătate artist, jumătate maestru?

Făcând uz de şarmul personal, adoptând o atitudine curioasă dar şi jucăuşă în acelaşi timp, şi folosind metode numai de ei ştiute de inducere în eroare, reuşesc să-i atragă negreşit pe toţi oamenii de partea lor. Ei găsesc întotdeauna o cale de a obţine ce vor, creând acea atmosferă electrizantă de mister şi miracol. În termeni populari, ei au prăjitură pe care n-o găseşti oriunde şi din care oamenii doresc să se înfrupte cu nesaţ.

Leadership: Îţi iei riscul de a-ţi asculta instinctul și de a accepta o provocare fără a te limita doar la rolul de promotor al enigmelor din care te simţi a fi compus?

Cine este cu adevărat interesat să-şi dezvolte abilităţile de leadership poate învăţa nespus de multe lucruri de la un iluzionist, mai ales cum să atragă şi să reţină atenţia oamenilor. Şi asta pentru că iluzioniştii sunt singurii care reuşesc de fiecare dată sa capteze interesul şi emoţiile oamenilor, stabilind la nivel emoţional o legătură directă şi strânsă cu ei prin contactul vizual, făcându-i să trăiască totul la o intensitate mai mare.

Iluzioniştii domină complet situaţia, legătura cu oamenii, direcţionându-le cu precizie atenţia, percepţiile, emoţiile, gândurile cum doresc şi unde vor ei, spre realitatea pe care ei o creează. Ei sunt cei mai buni manipulatori din lume, singurii în stare să-i controleze şi să-i coordoneze totdeauna pe oameni după propria lor voinţă.

Pentru a atinge nivelul maxim de succes în leadership, trebuie să-ţi creşti nivelul de eficienţă, să vii în întâmpinarea nevoilor oamenilor, să răspunzi cât mai eficient dorinţelor acestora, făcând tot ceea ce e necesar pentru a obţine rezultatele dorite.

A accepta o provocare fără a te limita doar la rolul de promotor al enigmelor înseamnă să redefineşti modul în care eşti perceput ca unic conţinut al cunoaşterii cele mai înalte, când cauza reală a acestui fapt sălăşluieşte în distincţia precisă între "miracol " şi "impostură".

La fel cum un iluzionist talentat, executându-şi reprezentaţia impecabil reuşeşte să intre în mintea oamenilor şi să le stârnească interesul tot mai tare, tot mai mult – tot aşa şi tu, ca lider, trebuie să comunici viziunea ta celorlalţi, să-ţi pui amprenta asupra lor, dându-le de înţeles că eşti un om foarte creativ, că te gândeşti la viitorul lor şi al organizaţiei, impunându-ţi ideile, credinţele, viziunile, propriile puncte de vedere, dând leadershipului tău o nuanţă electrizantă, depăşind ceea ce pare imposibil, bucurându-i cu “magia” ta.

Dacă oamenii nu sunt eficienţi, înseamnă că nu ai reuşit să-ţi impui propriul model de leadership, înseamnă că nu ai reuşit să le captezi atenţia şi să te faci ascultat, înseamnă că nu ai reuşit să le direcţionezi cu precizie emoţiile astfel încât ei să perceapă caracteristicile leadershipului tău la o intensitate mai mare.

Un lider talentat se aseamănă în multe privinţe cu un iluzionist, dar nu trebuie confundat cu unul. Profesia unui iluzionist este înşelătoria, iar ca lider nu-i poţi duce pe oameni pe o pistă greşită, căci dacă o faci, vei fi în cele din urmă părăsit.

Leadershipul este numărul de magie care cucereşte nu prin suspans şi efecte bine construite, ci prin naturaleţea admirabilă cu care îţi afişezi poziţia dominantă şi ambiţia neîngrădită de a furniza senzaţii dinamice într-o atmosferă de neuitat.

Mânuitorul de suflete, în sensul bun al cuvântului, este acela care reuşeşte să strângă oamenii în jurul lui şi să-i orienteze în direcţia aleasă de el, captându-le întotdeauna atenţia, menţinându-le timp îndelungat interesul treaz, iar aceştia, conştientizând locul şi rolul lor în angrenajul care trebuie, să funcţioneze perfect pentru atingerea scopului propus.

Direcţionează cu precizie emoţiile oamenilor, astfel încât ei să perceapă caracteristicile leadershipului tău la o intensitate mai mare.

Mânuitorul perfect al metaforelor

On August 23, 2014

Autoevaluează-ţi experienţa regulat, exersând meticulozitatea necesară pentru materializarea viziunii tale.

Atunci când se filma scoaterea directorului fabricii pe un cărucior, Serghei Eisenstein a voit să folosească o metaforă, asemuind pe director cu o broască râioasă. Regizorul a cerut broasca, filmarea a fost oprită. Toată lumea a plecat într-o expediţie disperată spre iaz, în căutarea unei broaşte.

Un recuziter a fost nevoit să intre, în acea friguroasă zi de octombrie, până la brâu în apă. Totul se dovedi însă inutil, căci Eisenstein refuză toate broaştele care i se aduceau. Le găsea prea mici, ori nu-i plăcea cum arătau. Se aduceau broaşte după broaşte, dar refuzul erau categoric: „Nu merge ! E mică ! Prindeţi alta ! ”

Cineva plecă până la grădina zoologică, dar nici acolo nu se găsi nimic potrivit. Până la urmă broasca fu găsită. Dar prea târziu, se întunecase şi broasca trebui iar aruncată. Lumea se enerva, dar Eisenstein rămânea implacabil. Ceea ce-l interesa era realizarea ideii sale, nu dificultăţile ce se iveau în calea ei.

Întâmplările acestea evoca meticulozitatea regizorului atent la cel mai mic amănunt necesar pentru materializarea viziunii sale. *

Leadership: Creaţia ta îşi descoperă sensul şi veridicitatea prin intermediul unei viziuni care favorizează modelul „open science” atribuit nerăbdării de a experimenta o viziune ce include rodnicia contextelor de semnificare ale "purei vizualităţi"?

Motivele de dezvoltare a experienţei profesionale, în sprijinul procesului de identificare a noilor practici de creaţie, în sensul putinţei de a cere mai mult de la tine şi de la ceilalţi, sunt lesne de înţeles. La niveluri superioare de gestionare a mesajelor bine conturate, în termeni de folosire a unei vizualităţi de excepţie, puterea de dominaţie a ştiinţei este stimulată în special de patternurile de recunoaştere a unor noi "rarităţi" prin valorificarea "backgroundului" de resurse rare existent.

În ceea ce priveşte adeziunea la artă, rarităţile reprezintă ingredientele de tip „metaforă” sau orice alte forme de exprimare a ideilor, care dau puterea de startup în cadrul proiectelor de inovaţie, puse la dispoziţie de acele împrejurări care are atrag o sporire simţitoare a gradului de promovare a perspectivelor de valorificare a creaţiei. Iar leadershipul se poate materializa prin realizarea practică a unui montaj de excepţie, de tip prototip, cuprinzând ideile, concepţiile şi principiile care stau la baza creaţiei alimentate de viziune.

Vizualitatea pură a unei realităţi exterioare se obţine prin distribuirea elementelor vii care devin integrate într-o imagine artistică relevantă, mai profundă, plină de emorii, dătătoare de fascinaţie sau de fiori, de stupoare sau de melancolie. Cu alte cuvinte, vizualitatea pură se caracterizează prin obiectivitatea relatării unui eveniment întâmplat demult, dar explicat prin propria ta experienţă şi viziune asupra vieţii.

Leadership: Poţi să surprinzi realitatea care se configurează cu ajutorul unor sisteme simbolice corelate cu o viziune care nu se poate debarasa de emoții și inhibiții?

Ştiinţa, ca platformă de continuare a procesului de creaţie datorat în exclusivitate unei minţi luminate, depinde în exclusivitate de elementele noi în structurarea materialului de adaos şi de modalităţile de interacţiune cu factorii de mediu, ce trebuie introduse treptat într-o versiune avansată de evaluare a experienţei şi performanţelor individuale.

Se poate spune că te afli pe drumul de a atinge performanţa în leadership atunci când elementele noi sunt validate de o paletă largă de perspective la procesul de constituire a unei capodopere, a unui model viabil şi exemplar de artă.

Sistemele simbolice, corelate cu o viziune care nu se poate debarasa de emoții și inhibiții, cuprind acele elemente de background care pot însufleţi decorul unor evenimente reale. Iar în leadership, elemente precum "broasca râioasă" pot oferi o perspectivă amplă asupra trăsăturilor de caracter ca: îndrăzneală şi prudenţă, încredere şi îndoială, etc.

Modelul „open science” cuprinde practicile şi activităţile de cercetare, iniţiate şi întreţinute de cei care sunt demni de urmat prin grija care o arată faţă de orice formă de organizare, promovare, materializare a creaţiei impetuos novatoare. Creaţia acestor promotori - veritabili artizani – se bazează şi îşi sporeşte valoarea pe numeroase încercări şi tatonări, ce au menirea de a materializa acea viziune proprie asupra modelului „open science”. Aşadar, încercările contribuie eficient la punerea în practică a viziunii, într-o formă inteligibilă, plină de sens, care să fie adoptată de majoritate.

Conturarea unei viziuni este rezultatul curiozităţii de a şti şi de a pune în legătură acele evenimente din viaţa ta care îşi asumă rostul de mecanism de "trecere a vremii".

Mânuitorul perfect al metaforelor este liderul care posedă capacitatea extraordinară de a extrage esenţa a ceea ce creează cu ajutorul viziunii. El găseşte factorii care îi motivează cu adevărat pe oameni să contribuie la consolidarea eforturilor sale. Ceea ce-l interesează pe un asemenea lider este realizarea ideilor sale, nu dificultăţile ce se ivesc în calea lor.

Un lider performant şi ambiţios îşi autoevaluează metodele şi mijloacele de punere în practică a viziunii sale, care trebuie să fie îmbrăţişată şi adoptată de majoritatea susţinătorilor săi. Este un drum greu în care rolul esenţial îl au tatonările şi încercările sistematice care trebuie să fie convingătoare şi să vină în sprijinul unui model de tip „open science”.

Marca artizanală a intervenientului

Încearcă să anticipezi reacţiile dependente de sensibilitatea oamenilor, astfel încât să poţi interveni în desfăşurarea evoluţiei lor.

Niciun fel de trăire, nicio emoţie, niciun gând nu se agită atât de puternic în retorta existenţei Laurei Quinn pentru a-i reduce resentimentele şi frustrările. Pentru prima oară taifunul schimbării încearcă s-o smulgă din starea de cumpănă în care zăcea de ceva vreme. Relaţia în care este cuprinsă starea ei de funcţionalitate se poate scrie sub forma: sentiment de dispreţuire + stimuli negativi = reacţie adversă.

Adevărul care întristează omul este suferinţa pe care n-o poate accepta ca pe o fatalitate cu totul absurdă. Ştirea pe care i-o aduce domnul Hobbs, aceea că va fi concediată, azvârle o privire mai ascuţită în tenebrele care ascund adevărul, revelând acel dezechilibru, steagul negru al propriei ei deşertăciuni. Viteza reacţiilor de descompunere a materiei însufleţitoare, acţionând asupra energiei de activare a conductorului intrinsec, se accelerează. Într-o clipă zidul care îi conturează personalitatea începe să se clatine.

Laura primeşte cu vădită neplăcere ştirea că cei din conducerea companiei au în plan s-o concedieze. În ea se sfâşie ceva, ca şi cum un organism străin i-ar fi intrat în corp, celulele albe fiind incapabile să mai lupte cu agresiunea virală. Indecizia îi agravează starea psihică. Inima ei recunoaşte disperarea. Stăpânirea de sine, păstrată cu atâta greutate, ca o compresă sterilă pusă pe o rană deschisă adâncă, nu mai poate fi ţinută sub control. Povara demnităţii artificial menţinută îi alunecă de pe umeri. Ciocănelul din inimă se agită, bate tot mai puternic. Gongul care anunţă intrarea în criză se aude tot mai înfricoşător.

Un sistem chimic îşi menţine volumul constant până când se produce o reacţie de ardere. Laura nu-şi mai poate ascunde ura amplificată de vestea tulburătoare. Frământat, micul tiran din ea care le face şi le desface pe toate, nu mai poate să se stăpânească. Erupe cu un efect maxim, pe de o parte paralizant, pe de altă parte iritant şi răscolitor. "De unde ştii toate astea despre mine? Cum îţi permiţi..?"

Leadership: Întreaga măsură a valorii tale se axează pe construcţia unei imagini inedite despre sine, exprimată prin conştiinţa unei zguduiri sufleteşti care conţine o cugetare spirituală înaltă?

În acest moment nu o mai recunoaştem nicidecum pe Laura ca o entitate perfectă, ci mai mult ca o făptură de carne de sânge şi de nervi, creată pentru durere şi răzbunare. În ea se trezesc toate formele de protest, de neîncredere, de awareness, energia întregii ei fiinţe consumându-se vertiginos. Constantele ei caracteristice A+B, iubirea de sine şi respectul faţă de propria persoană, par că se pierd.

" Eu vreau doar să te ajut. Sunt singurul om în care poţi avea încredere. Iar tu eşti singura fiinţă pe care eu pot conta. Este în joc viitorul nostru. ", îi dă de înţeles domnul Hobbs - el care împleteşte firele prezentului şi viitorului, el care înţelege particularităţile cele mai semnificative ale fiinţei ei, legile de desfăşurare a evoluţiei ei, cu aceeaşi siguranţă de sine cu care un chimist stabileşte legile de desfăşurare în timp a reacţiilor chimice.

Cugetul ei neliniştit, dar totodată supus unei forţe spirituale înalte, are de-a face cu un soi de evadare dintr-o viaţă tristă şi pustie, continuând să o atenţioneze: "Fii mult mai mult decât eşti acum, fii mult mai deschisă la alternative şi dezvăluie-te ca un act de apărare în faţă oricăror suferinţe".

O conştiinţă spirituală înaltă este învelişul unei personalităţi hotărâte şi neînduplecate, care reuşeşte să facă posibile anumite lucruri, prin auto-actualizarea mentalităţii faţă de posibilităţile viitorului.

Leadership: Poţi să trăiești totul din uimirea faţă de victoria unei gândiri axată pe analiza destinului, în care Ego-ul se dezvăluie ca o tentativă de a aduce echilibru relaţia dintre ceea ce ţi se oferă şi ceea ce poţi lua singur?

Îndrăznind să acţioneze asupra ei cu o altă forţă de reacţie de aceeaşi mărime şi direcţie, dar de sens contrar, domnul Hobbs ridică un măreţ edificiu psihic şi emoţional, incomparabil cu nicio altă construcţie din structura ei existenţială. Pentru ca Laura să interacţioneze cu gruparea funcţională rămasă liberă în ea, neatinsă de fasciculul neliniştii absolute, el încearcă să-i reducă drastic suspendarea psihică condiţionată de conversia fiinţei ei de la valoarea true la false.

La mijloc e vocea cea mai profundă, lăuntrică, care-i şopteşte Laurei, arătându-i calea de mijloc. Acum, mai mult ca niciodată, ea trebuie să evadeze din starea imuabilă care o încearcă, înainte ca sufletul ei să se precipite în prăpăstiile cele mai întunecoase ale nepătrunsului. Să transforme total reactantul X în exces care în cursul reacţiei de nervozitate tinde să-i epuizeze resursele. Să se adapteze la noi stimuli antigenici, şi prin anticorpii produşi să se apere de propriile ei decizii şi gânduri negative. Să nu facă cumva ceva necugetat.

Păşeşte înainte, Laura ! Păşeşte fără nicio ezitare pe calea bucuriei şi a fericirii depline ! Victoria gândirii ei asupra destinului are ca reper contestarea oricărui regret pentru faptele ce urmau să vină, lipsa oricăror scuze, oricăror scrupule. Dar totodată, când domnul Hobbs îi întinde o mână de ajutor ca să-şi schimbe cursul destinului, ea acceptă orice risc, fiind conştientă că acţionând singură, sau fără să calce pe jarul unei idei pline de certitudine, nimeni nu-i poate garanta o anumită stabilitate necesară performanţei de a se autosusţine financiar.

Leadership: Îţi poţi face din scopul propriei dezvoltări personale garanţia unei dispoziţii sufleteşti care să conţină o cugetare spirituală, aşteptare şi speranţă, în concordanţă cu relaţia dintre consecinţe şi pedeapsă?

Schimbarea omului depinde în mare măsură de leadershipul pe care îl exercită intervenientul. Prin retuşuri şi adaosuri de elemente străine el poate modifica sensibil caracteristicile aliajelor din care e format omul, cu o scădere mică a rezistenţei lui. Aşa cum mărturisea oratorul profesionist John Fuhrman, " un leadership de succes vine din disponibilitatea de a face la început ceva incomplet sau incorect, a suporta consecinţele, apoi a ajusta şi a relua – până când faci totul bine ."

Aşadar, intervenientul trebuie să vadă omul nu ca pe o fiinţă de sine stătătoare, capricioasă şi dominatoare, nici ca pe un obiect de inventar dat spre folosinţă la preţul de achiziţie, ci mai degrabă ca pe o fiinţă formată dintr-un conglomerat de calităţi care trebuie scoase la iveală.

El poate să-şi lămurească propriile îndoieli în privinţa capacităţilor sale de producere a schimbării, îşi poate demonstra vulnerabilitatea speranţelor cu privire la rolul formativ al leadershipului practicat, în condiţiile în care se dovedeşte totuşi că, în realitate, oamenii nu resping incursiunea lui în viaţa lor.

Laura Quinn a avut nevoie de domnul Hobbs pentru a-şi construi o altă viaţă, un alt viitor. Dispoziţia ei sufletească conţinea o cugetare spirituală, aşteptare şi speranţă, în concordanţă cu relaţia dintre consecinţe şi pedeapsă: "Efortul omului de a măsura tăria caracterului său constă în depăşirea acelui moment în care regretul îşi lasă o amprentă grea asupra vieţii sale."

Adevărata încercare a voinţei omului de a se schimba este viaţa pe care o trăieşte între îndoială şi regret, cu rațiunea că singurul absolut al evoluţiei sale îl constituie motivul unei fapte din care are doar de profitat.

Marca artizanală a intervenientului are pretenţii de premium, fiindcă intră mai greu în faliment. Reprezintă emblema celui mai iscusit lider, fiind o valoare ce nu poate fi "copiată" sau "furată" de către competitori, o caracteristică suplimentară care îl ajută să înţeleagă particularităţile cele mai semnificative ale omului şi legile de desfăşurare a evoluţiei lui.

Ca să interveni în desfăşurarea evoluţiei oamenilor, încearcă să anticipezi reacţiile dependente de sensibilitatea lor. Străduieşte-te să transformi total reactantul X în exces care în cursul reacţiei negative tinde să epuizeze resursele acestora. Îndrăzneşte să acţionezi asupra oamenilor cu o altă forţă de reacţie de aceeaşi mărime şi direcţie, dar de sens contrar, încât să ridici un măreţ edificiu psihic şi emoţional, incomparabil cu nicio altă construcţie din structura lor existenţială.

Marea compoziţie a trăirii din priviri

Ceea ce trăieşti prin intermediul creaţiei tale este ceea ce priveşti la tine ca în urma trecerii fireşti în sânul naturii.

Toată arta mea constă în a vedea ceea ce nu se observă. Şi dacă ceea ce este preţios şi aflat la vedere nu se observă întotdeauna prea uşor, intrând mai amănunţit în analiza unei creaţii a naturii, unică prin delicateţe şi fineţe, ei bine acest lucru se datorează opticii false prin case se priveşte problema frumosului, de care n-aş putea să fac abstracţie niciodată.

Concomitent cu vederea vibrantă, plină de culoare, se instituie şi punctul de vedere, cu desăvârşire adevărat, al noţiunii catalizatoare de atenţie "Senzavisandhy", adică o adevărată măiestrie în imitarea Naturii Mame, de care trebuie să ţin cont când sunt prins sub efectul artei, adică în afara timpului şi a spaţiului finit.

Pentru mine, frumosul este expresia unei priviri aruncate asupra unui spirit întrupat al naturii, cum este trandafirul "Double Delight", acea privire cu care începi să înţelegi totul, pe care pictorul o numeşte Vissorthute şi pe care sculptorul o numeşte Atissdivheva , însemnând unul şi acelaşi lucru: transpunerea aspectului fizic într-o reflexie a universului meu interior.

Priveşte numai acest trandafir, admiră frumuseţea lui. Observă-l prin ochii artistului, cu acea sensibilitate a firii care-ţi îngăduie să trăieşti mai intens sentimentul de armonie, de împăcare cu tine însuţi şi cu tot ce te înconjoară. El pare să radieze acea neasemuită scânteie hărăzită de vraja artei care transformă orice punct dominant al privirii într-un cadru liber al formei şi al liniei.

Leadership: Felul în care înţelegi legătura dintre artă şi creaţie este o reflectare a stării tale lăuntrice în conştiinţa unei realități exterioare spiritului uman?

Pentru o clipă, trandafirul a dispărut din faţa ochilor mei. Pesemne este înzestrat de la natură cu puterea de a se face nevăzut. Ce înseamnă asta? Poate că arta îndeplineşte şi alte funcţii decât capacitatea de a observa, fiind totodată legată de simţul interiorităţii (cel mai mult luat în considerare de creatori), trecând peste realitatea imediată sub forma unei realităţi superioare. Spre deosebire de simțul ideal al depărtării, prin care dobândim un rezumat superficial al realității.

Când un element al naturii dispare din raza vizuală, abia atunci sfera interiorităţii noastre se lărgeşte, fiindcă nu ne mai rezumăm la partea materială, ci la partea spirituală. Aşa se explică faptul că i-am respectat întotdeauna dorinţa trandafirului de a rămâne nevăzut şi nu mi-am imaginat niciodată că ar fi avut vreun motiv anume să se ascundă de privirile mele curioase.

Învăţând arta de a rămâne nevăzut, ascuns în celelalte 180 de grade pe care oamenii nu le pot percepe vizual, el şi-a putut transforma absenţa într-un mod de a influenţa percepţia privitorului, nu doar de a fi plăcut din punct de vedere estetic, ci de a fi simţit din punct de vedere spiritual într-o retragere, departe de lume.

Iar o învățătură cheie a marii cunoaşteri este aceea de a-ţi educa acțiunile încât să rămâi nevăzut, omis din câmpul vederii lumii, precum un trandafir care îşi închide petalele pe timpul nopţii, pentru ca apoi să se deschidă şi să dea naştere unor senzaţii mult mai intense în timpul zilei. Tot ceea ce cunoaștem în privința ochilor, trebuie să cunoaștem și în privința privirii lor, căci ceea ce place privirii sunt ochii cunoscători.

Când privesc trandafirul, liber, stoic, plin de bună mireasmă tăinuită, încerc să privesc lumea prin ochii sinceri ai unui pictor care îşi redesenează cu îndrăzneală viaţa. Dar când trandafirul stă ascuns în întunericul unei vorbe care nu-şi simte menirea, în întunericul unei minţi ce nu tânjeşte după cunoaştere, în întunericul unei lumi însingurate şi fără credinţă, atunci ţi se deschid ochii îndeajuns de mult încât să cauţi mai mult în tine răspunsul la vechea întrebare: "Cine sunt eu cu adevărat?"

Leadership: Această remodelare a percepţiei sinelui transpus într-un simbol al fidelităţii faţă de cunoaştere, necesită transfigurarea minţii tale spre recunoaşterea creaţiei din perspectiva fundamentului ei spiritual?

Uită-te la ceva la care nu te poţi uita, şi încearcă să surprinzi ceea ce nu se poate surprinde. Te vei regăsi în universul meu, atât de îndepărtat de alte universuri, demn numai de o privire prudentă care îşi caută adevărata măsură în adâncimea unei tăceri infinite, a unei mărturisiri rămase fără glas.

Uită-te bine la ce vezi, şi chiar de nu vezi nimic, măcar fă-o ca şi când ai vedea. Sunt mereu asemenea unui roman în care eu sunt personajul principal. Uneori nu am milă faţă de mine însumi, mă pierd în uitare, alteori dovedesc o oarecare indulgenţă în înţelegerea faptului că uitarea nu este îngăduită unui creştin. Şi chiar dacă din tot acest naturalism se naşte un dramatism, ceva tot mă apropie de artă.

Da. Vorbesc cu mine însumi ca şi cum aş trece printr-o poartă strâmtă. În toate se află o decantare a trăirilor, ca într-o purificare a emoţiilor care modelează reprezentarea unei finalităţi a naturii în forma unui trandafir, finalitate care se află în relaţie subiectivă cu facultatea mea de cunoaştere a unui spirit întrupat al naturii.

Şi dacă tot nu mă poţi vedea, surprinzându-mi ochii aţintiţi spre cer, spre lună şi spre soare, atunci mai bine este să nu mă vezi deloc sau niciodată, pentru ca tăcerea mea să nu ajungă până la tine, şi nici să se reîntoarcă la mine.

Aşa este. La un moment dat, cu toţii privim spre universul creaţiei, toţi vrem să trecem prin viaţă ca un trandafir prin întunericul nopţii, nevăzuţi şi totuşi prezenţi într-o manifestare de anvergură, în ipostaza unui personaj fantastic care trece dintr-o realitate în alta, dintr-o minte în alta, dintr-o scenă în alta, dintr-o încarnare în alta, dintr-o atmosferă relaxată într-o expoziţie inedită.

Am ales un cuvânt foarte sonor legat de această experienţă: Quinthaoss , adică simțul inconștient al sentimentului de "EU SUNT", fără vreo îndoială.

Fundamentul spiritual al unei creaţii este dat în principal de un sentiment înălţător: "Eu sunt parte dintr-un întreg care a fost împărţit în părţi egale, şi din care trandafirul reprezintă unitatea de măsură a sufletului solidar cu fiinţa divină".

Marea compoziţie a trăirii din priviri este un mod de comunicare şi relaţionare dintre un activator emoţional şi un suprarealist de natură clasică. "Cred că ne vom înţelege de minune", mi-a spus trandafirul. Se vede clar că întreaga lui fiinţă nu emană indiferenţă...

Aşadar, când vorbesc despre conştiinţa unei realități exterioare spiritului uman, am în minte un exemplu excelent de empatie şi sensibilitate pe care natura mi-l pune la dispoziţie pentru a-mi reflecta personalitatea, diferitele stări, capriciile, sinele, dispoziţia..

Marea cunoaştere nu este pentru oricine bântuie fantomatic pe Google

On Martie 10, 2023

Judecă singur şi nu accepta pur şi simplu părerile altora, fără să le fi analizat cu discernământul propriu.

Să se înţeleagă bine un lucru. Cei care ştiu cu adevărat tehnologia web nu sunt utilizatorii de internet care realizează căutări pe Google. Mai vezi câte unul care, folosind operatori Google, reuşeşte să găsească informaţii diferite pentru realizarea vreunui amărât proiect de licenţă. Nu sunt nici aceia care au în minte doar Word şi Excel, şi li se pare că-s mari informaticieni, cu toate astea nu sunt în stare să realizeze cap-coadă un website.

Toţi aceştia se comportă ca nişte fantome fără sarcină electrică care au impresia c-au înţeles electricitatea. De fapt, marea cunoaştere nu este pentru oricine bântuie fantomatic pe Google în miez de noapte în căutarea unor "lumi de dincolo".

După părerea mea, cei cu adevărat cunoscători, cei care ştiu cu adevărat tehnologia web, sunt doar programatorii care ştiu să apeleze din cod funcţii API, cei ce ştiu să folosească în cod formatele specifice (JSON, XML), cei ce deţin cunoştinţe de advanced tracking, DataSocket, inspect elements, iframe, SDK, qR, js, etc. Aceştia sunt la nivel avansat în ceea ce priveşte realizarea propriilor aplicaţii în Python sau Go, Java, C++, Ruby, Kotlin, Swift, Erlang, Elixir, etc.

Important este să recunoşti dacă eşti un amator sau un profesionist, un debutant sau un expert. Şi până când nu reuşeşti să faci singur, cap-coadă, o amplă aplicaţie în cod care să funcţioneze bestial, nu te poţi numi informatician. Iar teoria este egală cu zero dacă nu ai realizat ceva practic de unul singur.

Leadership: Creaţia la care te raportezi poate să schimbe rezultatul progresului tehnico-ştiinţific într-un context care instituie o unitate și autonomie suficientă sieși și, totodată operativă prin sugestie?

Ieri după-amiază, domnul Răzvan A. T. a intervenit şi şi-a exprimat punctul de vedere, aproape în dezacord cu părerea mea:

"Fără niciun un atac la persoană dar ai aruncat cu denumiri ale unor tehnologii şi limbaje, unele neavând nicio legătură între ele sau cu topicul postării făcând o salată anapoda. Dacă ai vrut să impresionezi cu "dicţionarul" tău, poate reuşeşti să o faci doar în faţa celor care habar n-au despre tehnologii şi limbaje de programare.

În faţa celorlalţi care ştiu ce înseamnă tot ce ai înşirat, este absolut hilară postarea ta în contextul pe care ai vrut să îl creezi. Este patologică situaţia, aşa se pare. În mod normal aş râde dacă era un show, dar având în vedere cum stau treburile chiar mi se face milă şi realizez că era mai bine să nu comentez."

Neculai Fântânaru:

"Am precizat eu pe undeva că denumirile sau limbajele au legătură între ele? La modul general, ele au legătură cu tehnologia, dar între ele sunt diferite. Absolut diferite. Fiecare cu părticica lui.

Nu văd nimic impresionant la postarea mea, dar poate tu ai văzut ceva impresionant, eşti liber să zâmbeşti. Dar între timp, să ne spui dacă ai un website. Sunt curios ce aplicaţii ai făcut şi ne poţi arăta, încât să învăţăm mai multe de la tine."

Leadership: Trebuie să te confrunţi cu faptele brute ale realităţii înainte să te crezi mai mult decât eşti de fapt?

Aurel Vasilescu:

"Ce pot să spun. Am citit ceea ce a spus domnul Neculai Fântânaru. Cred că este o postare cu adevărat plină de inspiraţie, mind blowing, realizez acum cât de puţine ştiu despre internet, web, excel, şi cam atât..."

Neculai Fântânaru:

"Nu inspiraţia a fost intenţia postării mele. Ci o atenţionare. Trebuie să te confrunţi cu faptele brute ale realităţii înainte să te crezi mai mult decât eşti de fapt.

Ştii cum e cu inspiraţia, Aurel? De exemplu. Te uiţi la filmul Rocky, îl vezi pe Stallone iarna cu un buştean în spinare alergând zile, săptămâni întregi, la temperaturi de -10 grade. Şi spui c-ai să încerci şi tu, şi vei reuşi să ajungi ca el.

Acum, ghiceşte câţi au ajuns ca Rocky. Niciunul, nu-i aşa? Dar ai văzut vreodată pe cineva care aleargă cu un buştean în spinare în plină iarna, zilnic? Pe nimeni, nu-i aşa?

Asta-i treaba cu inspiraţia. În realitate, lucrurile stau complet diferit de cum le vezi prin filme. Trebuie să te confrunţi cu faptele brute ale realităţii înainte să te crezi mai mult decât eşti de fapt."

Leadership: Inspiraţia care îi motivează pe ceilalţi poate să fie în acord cu scopul sufletul tău, plecând de la premiza că ceea ce tu vezi la tine nu pot vedea alţii la ei înşişi?

Răzvan A. T:

Mi-am dat seama de ceea ce ai vrut să subliniezi încă din prima ta replica şi am ales să ignor până acum, dar de amorul artei îţi pot spune că nu ai găsit lucruri despre mine din cauza unuia dintre următoarele motive:

1. Nu am un destin legendar ca tine, but hey, cum ne-am mai diferenţia dacă am fi toţi legendări ca tine? În special în leadership. Mă gândesc că tu l-ai inspirat pe Elon Musk în decizia sa legendară să cumpere Twitter.

2. Nu am scris 1200 de "articole" şi 6 "cărţi" pe un blog personal şi este de notat faptul că absolut tot internetul s-a simţit eclipsat de lucrările tale, lucru care i-a făcut pe oameni să se abţină de la a face recomandări către articolele şi cărţile tale din sfera digital artistry cu referinţe către legendarul Rocky.

Invidia asta.. ne macină ca societate.. Dar cum ai zis şi tu, nu poţi fi legendar fără sacrificii.

3. Nu ţi-ai urmat propriul sfat din postarea de mai sus şi mai ai ceva până ajungi acolo.

Acum te rog să mă scuzi, mă duc să prind primul avion spre Laponia ca să alerg zile şi săptămâni la -10 C ca Rocky, aşa cum ai sfătuit mai devreme.

Îmi doresc să ajung ca Rocky. Sper să fiu ca Rocky. Dar oare au buşteni în Laponia? Sper să nu devin Moş Crăciun în schimb...

Leadershipul este distincţia absolută a unei creaţii concepută pentru a străluci, şi aceasta creaţie este reprezentată de accesul liber la informaţii. Menirea liderului este de a fi exponentul întregii creaţii.

Marea cunoaştere nu este pentru oricine bântuie fantomatic pe Google, ci pentru cine depune eforturi intense pentru a face o schimbare, mai mică sau mai mare, în marea lume a internetului. Până la sfârșitul anului se vor schimba atât de multe în sfera științei.

Unii vor fi cu un pas înaintea tuturor. Își vor intensifica eforturile pentru a inova în sfera științei, oferind constant noi perspective, noi abordări, noi creații. La alții nu se va vedea nimic. Nimic, nimic, nimic. Absolut nimic. The Nothing is everywhere...but You don't have to be Nothing.

Marea Împărăţie

On Ianuarie 15, 2017

Plutește drept înainte spre a întâlni ceea ce te împlineşte şi îţi dă un sens.

Am avut dintotdeauna un puternic sentiment de predestinare, din acela care te reprezintă până la punctul maxim al valorii absolute, însoţit de o eternă căutare – de la tentaţie la deznodământ – a ceea ce nu ştiam cum se împlineşte, dar pe care aşteptam cu nerăbdare să-l înfrunt. Nu puteam să continui să cred în întâmplare, mai ales că multe din viaţa mea păreau să depăşească măsura coincidenţelor dintre desfăşurarea evenimentelor şi scenariile atât de des închipuite. Era cazul să experimentez o nouă imagine, o abordare a conceptului: "Go Forward in the future, and never go back ! "

Certitudinea existenței mele, pe care o vânasem atât de frenetic de-a lungul anilor, şi sensul pe care încercam să îl dau acestei certitudini, era datorat conștiinței unei anumite superiorităţi, sub forma visului, care reuşea să revină în propria-mi responsabilitate de a acţiona fără teamă şi fără de prihană, asemenea sângelui care se întoarce la inimă prin vene, circulând fără niciun fel de obstacol.

În contextul vieţii celui ce cunoaşte totul şi compune totul, a maestrului alchimiei care compune şi descompune în magicul lui creuzet elementele aflate în fuziune, s-a dat mai întâi de toate proba ambiţiei de a conduce o expediţie ce se va păstra multă vreme în memoria timpului.

Expediţia, despărţirea de lume, făcută după toate regulile unui compromis semnat cu mine însumi, crezutul într-un Dumnezeu creator impersonal în timpul refugierii mele într-o stare de contradicţie, fără să ştiu încotro să-mi concentrez eforturile, era începutul unui refuz acordat temporarului, sarcinii de a rămâne neschimbat în faţa unei oglinzi rotunde that reflects the true visage of the perpetually youthful protagonist . Numai călătoria into the unknown of darkness a reuşit să mă maturizeze.

Mirror, mirror, on the wall ! Who's the overpowered playable character inside the vortex core of Life?

Leadership: Ești pregătit să învingi ceea ce ai fost nevoit să descoperi singur, pe măsura coincidenţelor dintre desfăşurarea evenimentelor şi scenariile atât de des închipuite de mintea ta şi ascunse înlăuntrul fiinţei tale?

Nu credeam că mă voi vedea străbătând calea plină de ridicol a lui Don Quijote, către marele vis, catapultat într-o lume a poveștilor unde totul devine verosimil şi autentic, lovindu-mă de şocul experienţei deciziilor pline de cutezanţă, ca un acrobat care sare fără plasă de siguranță în virtutea consecinţelor nefaste. Luptând cu irealităţi de genul morilor de vând, trecând prin ipostaza de înger căzut, agent al resentimentului şi al negaţiei, am reuşit să-mi mobilizez chiar ultima suflare de oboseală, pentru că și suferința are sens prin faptul că poate fi îndurată.

Să accept particularismul a ceea ce este doar permis, silit să fiu atent la distanţa care îl desparte pe rege de supus, without the strengh of nerve which forms a hero . Să îndur fluctuaţiile tensiunii vocii lăuntrice, ce-mi repeta într-una că lumea nu mai ascunde decât iluzii, în corelare cu frecvenţa lor de vibraţie, fără să caut să ascult sunetul timpului care trece prin materie. Asta a însemnat „să înving ceea ce am fost nevoit să descopăr singur ! ”

Era tot mai iritabilă prezenţa şocurilor slăbiciunii mele faţă de receptoarele acelor legi umane ce aveau ca rezultat constatarea contrarietăţii unei gândiri care încerca, involuntar, să apere puritatea unei noi părţi din viaţă. Toate suişurile şi coborâşurile, destinul mi le montase în paralel cu efortul de a le atribui un sens, fără posibilitatea compensării corespunzătoare a celor mai rapide variaţii de putere - puterea unei trăiri virtuoase, din perspectiva moralei care dublează orice act valoric şi specific, aprofundând însemnătatea manifestării superioare a voinţei.

Lumea este doar plată, gândeam eu. Ulterior am constatat că este rotundă, la fel ca oglinda care mă reflecta.

Leadershipul se înscrie în înfruntarea unei duble expuneri: mai întâi te expui unei experiențe care ți-ar putea complica viziunea asupra lumi și apoi te expui unei căderi în gol acolo unde ar trebui să fii mai tare.

Leadership: Eşti îndeajuns de ambiţios să duci prezentul în memoria viitorului, sub semnul gloriei de a fi mai mult decât o fiinţă trecătoare?

Închipuiţi-vă un om fără un viitor strălucit, an unknown being , dar care își descoperă pe la jumătatea vieţii puterea de a schimba viitorul prin exercitarea responsabilă a voinţei. Priviţi-l pe Magellan, şchiop şi împiedicându-se mereu, cu toate astea demonstrând lumii că fapta cutezătoare se împlineşte prin urmărirea constantă a unui ideal înscris în lozinca "Reuşeşti sau Mori" . Şi priviţi-l pe Columb, existând numai prin dorinţă, traversând Oceanul Atlantic, urmărind o himeră care părea să nu se materializeze niciodată.

După cum un pictor genial reușește să creeze din nimic o capodoperă, tot astfel ei au dat rostului căutării lor un sens gravat pe granitul istoriei lumii, ceva nobil, o şoaptă scurtă în tăcerea veşniciei: gloria descoperirii !

Şi să nu uităm felul în care celebrul scriitor, Ştefan Zweig, caracteriza ambiţiile puternice: "În adâncul unui suflet mare trăieşte dârz spiritul neliniştit de cercetare. Dacă a pus o dată un gând stăpânire pe un astfel de om, dacă îl obsedează până în ultima fibră a gândirii şi a simţirii sale, atunci se produce într-însul o neîncetată febră lăuntrică. Un gând viu nu vrea niciodată să trăiască şi să piară într-o singură fiinţă muritoare. El cere spaţiu, lume, libertate. De aceea bate pentru el ceasul în care ideea lui vitală încearcă să năvălească dinlăuntru în afară, asemeni unei aşchii dintr-un deget infectat de puroi, asemeni pruncului din trupul matern, asemeni fructului pârguit de coajă. Un om înzestrat cu patimă şi trufie nu va răbda în cele din urmă să gândească el singur ideea lui vitală. În mod irezistibil va trebui să ceară ca în sfârşit lumea toată s-o împărtăşească alături de el."

Leadershipul este o demonstrare a ideii despre cine ești în privința a ceea ce poți să înfăptuieşti, pe care toată lumea o împărtăşeşte alături de tine.

Şi amintiţi-vă cuvintele Domnului, care de 2000 de ani străbat inima marilor descoperitori: "Dacă vrei să ajungi la Marea Împărăţie, lasă totul şi urmează-mă pe mine ! " Căci, realmente, trebuie să porneşti într-o expediţie lungă, s-o înfrunţi cu îndârjire pentru a obţine victoria totală în lupta cu "diavolul fricii" şi să te ții cu dinții de ceea ce vrei să duci mai departe. Acesta este privilegiul Îngerilor, să existe în ambele dimensiuni: a vieţii şi a morţii, în faţa oricăror experienţe.

Marea Împărăţie este consecinţa directă a unei expediţii de succes. Este echivalentul marii revelaţii la care se ajunge numai prin eforturile Prometeice, este simbolul ambiţiei unui colos în înfruntarea unei lumi necunoscute și amenințătoare.

Ea corespunde Graal-ului găsit de Percival, această nestemată uitată care cuprinde tot ce-i mai bun din om, o formă de absolut, focul zeiesc, rolul unităţii de măsură pe care o ai de oferit universului. Este rezultatul căutarii profunde a aspectului satisfactiei vieţii, ce te aduce aproape de împlinirea la care tot timpul ai visat. Este simbolul exteriorizării manifestării voinţei, făcută cu intenţia de a crea, modifica sau stinge raporturile cu lumea. Având ecou spre însuşirile calităţilor omeneşti înăscute, dar trecute sub aripa proiectoare a clipei care se naşte şi se pierde totodată în "negura vremii".

Meritul fiecărui mare descoperitor, din orice domeniu, este că are curajul să se îndepărteze de lume și să pornească într-o călătorie în mijlocul unui ocean neexplorat. Şi fiecare astfel de cuceritor de noi teritorii, sub imperiul ambiţiei puternice ce se distinge prin statornicie, va fi permanent inspirat în călătoria sa de cuvintele pline de har pe care Regina Isabela i le-a adresat lui Cristofor Columb înainte de ultima lui expediţie, hotărâtoare:

"Pluteşte drept înainte, şi dacă pământul pe care îl cauţi nu există încă, fii sigur că Dumnezeu îl va crea într-adins pentru a-ţi răsplăti îndrăzneala."

Marea Provocare A Leadershipului

On August 11, 2018

Încearcă să introduci o nouă măsură a realităţii fără să te îndepărtezi de rolul pe care îl joci în susţinerea emancipării unei sfere alternative de influenţă.

Eram un idealist plin de vervă, mereu în căutare de lucruri noi şi interesante, pierdut într-o viziune complet puerilă și îndreptată în direcția complet opusă a ceea ce reprezintă realitatea. Într-un fel, păream a fi încadrat în spaţiul de creaţie al unui artist vinovat de refuzul de a accepta ceea ce este evident.

Asemănător figurii oarecum inversate a lui Hamlet, dar fiind tot rob al unor sentimente care nu-mi aduceau decât frământări şi un necontenit zbucium de-a lungul vieţii, începeam să văd lumea prin ochii unui magician care invocă duhul puterii nemărginite, dar nu mai reuşeşte să-l facă să dispară.

Aşadar, eram captivul propriei suferinţe izvorâtă din imaginaţia unui artist de a recrea o lume, dar unul privit din perspectiva unui magician al riscului sau a unui alchimist, aflat undeva între viaţă şi dispariţie. Era o suferinţă dulce, reflectată doar pe ecranul conştiinţei, una care dezvoltă abilităţile cele mai utile şi mai căutate la un om: luciditatea de a mă delimita de restul lumii şi capacitatea de a face show pe scenă prin conţinutul de stranietate tulburătoare, oferind experiența trăirii unui spectru larg de senzaţii.

Vă invit acum la deschiderea unui spectacol minunat. Intră 40 de tipi cool pe scenă, înghesuiţi într-un spaţiu destul de restrâns, şi exclamă cu entuziasm la unison: "Noi, actorii, facem jocurile ! "

Apoi, de nicăieri, apare un individ necunoscut, dar cu o strategie genială, demnă de un magician redutabil. Într-o secundă, el mută atenţia spectatorilor în altă direcţie, lăsându-i pe actori cu gura căscată în mijlocul scenei.

Leadership: Poţi să valorifici aspectele interpretative ale rolului tău prin acea exemplaritate a existenţei trăită prin mijlocirea unei vrăji care risipeşte orice putere de împotrivire?

Dacă încă nu v-aţi dat seama, prefer magia în locul actoriei, oricât de multă suferinţă implică acest demers. Trista separare de ceilalţi artişti învinsă de forţa miraculoasă de sugestie, de-a dreptul hipnotică, demnă de un veritabil showman.

Un singur adevăr impunându-se aici cu toată evidenţa: există un om suprarealist care nu are limite în ce privește asocierile elementelor compoziționale și oferă o libertate totală de expresie. El nu este un artist oarecare, în speță din specia expiraților care cu greu pot convinge publicul, ci este spectrul unei puteri de creaţii unice prin vigoarea ei susţinută şi prin multilateralitatea ei ameţitoare.

Mi-ar plăcea să-mi concep leadershipul ca o vizită inedită în universul unui intelectual al vizualului, lăsând imaginea unei fiinţe supranaturale şi atemporale să se manifeste în voie. Spectatorii mi-ar putea detecta prezenţa, dar numai în absenţa imaginii care mă reprezintă cu adevărat. Ei nu ar putea interfera cu mine decât printr-un “Who’s there?”, întrebarea cu care începe Hamlet, ce nu-şi va căpăta pe deplin înţelesul decât atunci când va fi reluată de un Horatio: “What are you?”

Leadership: Îţi rezervi dreptul de a-ţi judeca propria prestaţie în funcţie de imaginea pe care o compune realitatea unei forme de artă care îşi modifică abordarea în acord cu normele unei reprezentaţii de excepţie?

Frumuseţea şi importanţa magiei constă în faptul că nu trebuie să dai nimănui explicaţii vizavi de iniţiativele tale, chiar dacă toată lumea încearcă să-şi explice misterul apariţiei şi dispariţiei tale. Involuntar, spectatorii îşi vor arunca ochii spre cele ce se află imediat de partea cealaltă a scenei, acolo unde se află marea provocarea, acolo unde se ascunde formula unei parabole rupte parcă din universal unui labirint fără ieşire.

Îmi dau seama, scriind aceste rânduri, că v-am convins deja să vă formaţi o imagine despre mine. Dar niciunul din voi nu ştiţi, de fapt, cine sunt, cum arăt, şi unde mă aflu. Îmi voi proteja secretul cu o meticulozitate obsesivă, ca pe un atu în tehnica montajului unui eveniment secundar, sporind misterul unei puteri magice ce se proiectează în memoria voastră că o recunoaştere a unei realităţi imposibile.

Nu este absurd să se pretindă că o existenţă imaginară ar putea constitui o existenţă reală? Căci, nu este câtuşi de puţin vorba de a imagina o metodă lesnicioasă pentru a concepe o realitate aparte şi pentru a stabili o deosebire convenabilă, ci de a şti ce este realitatea aceasta din care descinde rolul omului în orizontul misterului.

Magia în leadership are ca avantaj principal libertatea de a decide în vederea păstrării sau nu a unei existenţe cuprinsă între "who's there" şi "who are you", concretizată într-o imagine care încinge imaginaţia, reproducând realitatea unei puteri superioare.

Marea Provocare A Leadershipului constă în a-ţi dezvălui adevărata identitate lăsând ca lucrurile să se releve în timp, fără să fii grăbit, precipitat sau neliniștit din cauza modalităţii mai puţin vizibilă de a te face cunoscut (ca şi autor al unei creaţii ce poate ocupa planul unei reprezentări "artistice" a realităţii).

Marea şaradă

Leadershipul este arta de a pătrunde în lumea lăuntrică a celorlalți, pentru a ghida transformările exterioare printr-o înțelegere profundă a trăirilor și emoțiilor lor.

În cărțile scrise de J.K. Rowling, există acest personaj Dumbledore, fiind portretizat ca un înțelept bătrân, cu o înțelegere profundă a naturii umane. El poate citi gândurile și emoțiile celor din jur, anticipând adesea evenimentele viitoare. De fapt, Dumbledore nu se limitează la a oferi sfaturi; el manipulează subtil evenimentele pentru a-i îndruma pe cei pe care îi iubește pe calea cea bună. De exemplu, ascunde adevărul despre trecutul lui Harry pentru a-l proteja de durere.

Fiecare om este o şaradă de dezlegat. De aceea trebuie să te autoînzestrezi cu darul celei de-a doua vederi, a vrăjitorului şi a vizionarului, a omului care nu poate ocoli sub nicio formă întreaga complexitate a sentimentelor şi emoţiilor pe care ceilalţi le trăiesc. Astfel încât să poţi să regularizezi orice schimbare în lumea lor lăuntrică, care precede schimbarea lor exterioară. Ca om înzestrat cu descrierea meşteşugită a trăirilor celorlalţi, vei putea să regularizezi orice schimbare în propria lor personalitate, plină de suişuri şi coborâşuri.

Etapele care preced întregul proces al schimbării lăuntrice şi psihice a omului, se succed într-o ordine firească, aproape aceeaşi. Indiferent de tipul, dimensiunea şi forma leadershipului practicat de tine. Însă, necontenit, ca un redactor care redă aidoma întâmplările, străduindu-se din răsputeri să nu adauge nimic, niciun element fals ştirii sale, trebuie să respecţi condiţia obiectivităţii, care, repet, exclude amăgirea provocată de o falsă sau superficială cunoaştere.

Leadershipul regularizează complexitatea sentimentelor interioare, printr-o viziune care anticipează și armonizează schimbările lăuntrice.

Acest lung proces de "dezlegare a marii şarade" îl ajută să-şi calculeze rapid aria de influenţă, cuibărindu-se mai uşor printre dealurile sterpe și mișcătoare, domoale sau abrupte, ale sufletului uman (care pentru cei mai mulţi, stă sub semnul întrebării).

Dar, nu orice râuri care se varsă în mare formează un sistem fluviatil. Nu orice înrâurire are şi un efect imediat, nu orice lider care îşi varsă idealurile, principiile, valorile în cupa sfântă, plină de neprevăzut a fiecărui tip uman, poate da amploare leadershipului.

Este meritul tău acela de a fi sesizat că oamenii au nevoie de tine, de resursele tale de cunoaştere, de capacitatea ta de a planta în existenţa lor seminţele unor valori care să le întregească personalitatea şi să-i împlinească pe cât mai multe planuri.

Dar pentru ca leadershipul tău să prindă contur, pentru că influenţa ta să aibă efect, trebuie să te bazezi pe tine însuţi în drumul tău spre cucerirea "magiei", tot aşa cum jocul de fotbal se bazează pe aplicarea tacticii. Şi, nu în ultimul rând, trebuie să fii capabil să delimitezi realitatea ta de acea realitate dinamică, în stare latentă sau manifestată de ceilalţi oameni.

Măiestria în leadership se reflectă în abilitatea de a crea un ecosistem în care fiecare individ își poate descoperi și manifesta potențialul maxim, contribuind astfel la o viziune mai amplă a progresului.

Construirea unei campanii de conştientizare a propriilor capacităţi, gestionarea acelei atitudinii care te menţine în contact cu tine însuti, apoi cu ceilalţi oameni, trebuie să facă parte din obiectivele tuturor orientărilor tale.

Un medic, după simptomele subiective, uneori vag definite, determină pe baza unor criterii obiective şi pe baza unui raţionament adecvat cauza bolii şi limita probabilă de viaţă a bolnavului. Tot astfel liderul, ca să se integreze mai uşor în realitatea celorlalţi oameni, ca să-şi facă loc printre ramurile cele mai fine şi mai subţiri ale existenţei lor, şi să poată produce schimbarea totală, sau măcar parţială, trebuie să scoată în evidenţă lumina unei raţiuni care să servească drept etalon al măiestriei sale de a conduce şi de a manevra orice situaţie cu maxim de rezultate.

În funcţie de acceptul sau refuzul lor de a-ţi acorda încrederea, de a-ţi pune sau nu la dispoziţie toate resursele necesare dezvoltării lor, îţi vei putea pune în lumină calităţile reale de lider. Nu uita că cei care şi-au desăvârşit leadershipul, aceia care au reuşit să urce pe culmile cele mai semeţe ale sufletului uman, şi care apoi au avut curajul să coboare în abisurile cele mai ascunse ale adevăratului caracter care defineşte esenţa morală a omului, numai aceia au atras suficiente ”bile albe”. Numai aceia au înţeles cum se creează, cum se controlează ”magia”.

Concepţia care stă la baza realizării "magiei" se bazează pe experienţa de a te recunoaşte dependent de dorinţa de exteriorizare a trăirilor interioare.

Marea șaradă se referă la descifrarea adevăratei naturi a omului. Asta, mai ales în cazul când întâmpinăm dificultăți în înțelegerea profundă a trăirilor celorlalți, deoarece fără această înțelegere, orice încercare de a ghida transformările lor exterioare rămâne superficială.

Statistica rece a celor mai fine emoţii, puternica voinţă de a percepe şi de a transmite cele mai fine subtilităţi, toate elementele declanşatoare emoţionale, mentale, psihologice - de la cel mai mic gest, de la cea mai mică frântură de idee morală, până la cele mai vii sentimente de recunoştinţă, de comuniune şi fidelitate - toate aceste etape creatoare, de descătuşare a potenţialului uman – sunt indispensabile liderilor.

Adevărata natură a omului nu poate fi probată, nici privită cu uşurinţă ori cu indiferenţă ca într-o oglindă, ca un scop final. Iar cunoaşterea sa, evoluţia sa în timp, în lunga perioadă de formare trebuie să fie simultană cu însuşi actul devenirii sale. Momentul când îşi ridică aripile iscusinţei şi destoiniciei spre înaltul cer al desăvârşirii. Sau momentul în care îşi renegă înaltele valori şi se pierde în spatele unui orizont lipsit de speranţă, ca un fum în zdrenţele de nori.

În cazul leadershipului, vom avea tot timpul de-a face cu "darul celei de-a doua vederi", adică, chiar dacă nu ne simțim complet pregătiți să ne conformăm cerințelor situației, nu vom putea ocoli sub nicio formă întreaga complexitate a sentimentelor și emoțiilor pe care ceilalți le trăiesc.

Marea ştiinţă a minţilor iscoditoare

Stăpâneşte bine materia din care se constituie leadershipul, stabilind noi punţi de legătură cu elementele principale care stau la baza implementării Marii Ştiinţe.

Trebuia să gândesc un lucru şi în acelaşi timp opusul lui. O lună întunecată peste care se suprapunea un soare de o luminozitate intensă şi stranie. Deci, o comparaţie. Acesta era singurul mijloc de a acţiona asupra materiei şi de a o plămădi în scopuri care mai de care mai diverse. Materia era ca un sistem diferenţial de ordin unu, dar cu mai multe ecuaţii, pe care doar ştiinţa le putea aduce la o formă finală şi completă, cât mai acceptabilă.

În exclusivitate, mă ocupam de tot ceea ce presupunea schimbul de gadget-uri şi informaţii necesare desfăşurării experimentelor ce stăteau la baza elaborării noilor formule de control a Marii Ştiinţe. Aveam senzaţia că îmi câştigasem autoritatea de a stăpâni materia care exista în jurul meu.

Formulele erau un fel de puncte de reper direcţionate strict într-un singur sens, ce ajutau la stabilirea unor noi punţi de legătură cu elementele principale care stăteau la baza implementării Marii Ştiinţe. Folosirea lor necesita cunoştinţe avansate de lucru cu mai multe limbaje de asamblare şi de descriere. Dintre care cel mai des folosit era limbajul schemelor logice şi a pseudocodurilor.

Modificarea lor pe direcţii prioritare, se încadra perfect în idealul generator de noi noţiuni şi adevăruri, cu ajutorul cărora puteam schimba principiile şi definiţiile prevăzute în varianta precedentă de prelucrare a informaţiei. În timp ce delimitarea strictă între două sau mai multe noţiuni, surprinzând diferenţele dintre ele, se concretiza într-un cod de transformare a coordonatelor care determinau apariţia şi funcţionarea unui nou sistem de gândire bazat pe relaţiile multiple cu diverse câmpuri de cunoaştere.

Elementul principal care stă la baza ştiinţei este efectul unei comparaţii care constituie extensia unui nou concept de care s-ar putea folosi Ego-ul pentru a se afirma ca unitate autonomă de reflecţie şi construcţie teoretică.

Am reuşit să dobândesc tiparul mental al celui care a reuşit să atingă numeroase culmi. Mi-am câştigat nebunia prin amuzamentul arătat faţă de formele nostime, multiple şi diverse pe care le producea armonizarea deliberată a gândurilor în relaţie cu informaţia.

În acelaşi timp am deprins însuşirea de a coagula şi de a asigura soliditatea formulelor, ce puteau asigura integrarea cât mai eficientă a informaţiilor într-o schemă cognitivă care putea să faciliteze inovaţia. Dar într-o formă care putea fi absorbită numai de către minţile iscoditoare.

Leadership: Poţi să acţionezi asupra materiei şi să o plămădeşti în scopuri care mai de care mai diverse, luând în considerare aspectul strict individual al blocajului pe care îl creează ştiinţa?

Poţi să gândeşti un lucru şi în acelaşi timp opusul lui? Modificarea cunoştinţelor pe direcţii prioritare se încadrează perfect în idealul generator de noi noţiuni şi adevăruri?

Ceea ce ne interesează pentru a putea arăta cum funcționează mai bine leadershipul, din perspectiva capacităţii omului de a se descoperi pe sine însuşi, este aspectul strict individual al blocajului pe care îl creează ştiinţa. În special atunci când ştiinţa, pentru realizarea mai bună a esenţialului care defineşte omul, nu poate aduce la o formă completă, funcţională şi acceptabilă produsul ei final: uşurarea pregătirii şi garantarea integrării în profunzime a experienţelor şi a tipului de gândire într-un nou context care să avantajeze leadershipul.

Practic, blocajul pe care îl creează ştiinţa are legătură cu modul în care reflectezi asupra unor teme majore din viaţa ta, fără să iei în considerare efectul negativ al folosirii lor într-o formă unitară de reprezentare a realităţii sau de exprimare a ideilor şi stărilor de fapt.

Alegerea stilului de leadership care să te reprezinte, transformându-l în alternative optime, într-un call-to-action eficient, este în acelaşi timp o sarcină dificilă dar şi o preocupare interesantă. Iar un reper important în alegerea stilului, implicit sau explicit, care să dovedească ceea ce poţi să realizezi cu ajutorul ştiinţei însuşite de-a lungul timpului, îl constituie "materia" pe care trebuie să o plămădeşti în scopuri care mai de care mai diverse.

Materia este o formă condensată a informaţiilor, datelor, ideilor, strategiilor, schemelor de conexiuni cu alte cunoştinţe dobândite anterior. A noţiunilor pe care le asimilezi sau le dezvolţi în legătură cu alte puncte de cercetare pe care le poţi obţine numai prin experiment. Dar trebuie să ştii să le foloseşti într-o formă convenţională, adecvată creării unui tip de autonomie care să te motiveze să-ţi realizezi vocaţia şi să-ţi creezi propriul tău stil de leadership.

De aceea modificarea cunoştinţelor pe direcţii prioritare trebuie să se încadreze perfect în standardul acceptat de ceilalţi oameni şi necesar înţelegerii, capabil de a genera noi adevăruri, noi idei sustenabile, noi modalităţi de abordare, noi trenduri, noi perspective, noi iniţiative.

Leadership: Poţi să faci un pas uriaş spre o nouă ştiinţă, plasându-te sub influenţa forţei de redefinire a identităţii personale rezultată din sugestia unei realităţi mult prea complexă pentru o înţelegere autentică?

Scriitorul american Kurt Vonnegut, scria într-o opera de ficţiune un lucru important pe care nu l-am putut uita: " În ciuda creierelor noastre enorme şi a bibliotecilor înţesate cu cărţi, nu ne poate cere nimeni să înţelegem absolut totul. "

Prin urmare o supraîncărcare cu noţiuni puţin înţelese va determina apariţia efectului de "prea plin", o insistentă semnalare a derutei care poate cuprinde minţile cele mai puţin educate şi formate din societate, ducând la o confuzie de valori, la raporturi antagoniste între cele două părţi "contractante": ştiinţa şi leadershipul.

Răspunsurile la întrebările ridicate de ştiinţă pot dezvălui insuficienta pregătire a individului de a mânui materia ori, poate, ştiinţa este prea sofisticată pentru nivelul lui de înţelegere. De aceea devine presant a se regla în aşa fel raporturile între cele două părţi "contractante", încât efortul să fie justificat şi efectele să fie vizibile şi benefice.

Dacă vrei să dobândeşti tiparul mental al celui care poate să atingă numeroase culmi, atunci străduieşte-te să stăpâneşti materia, stabilind unor noi punţi de legătură cu elementele principale care stau la baza implementării Marii Ştiinţe.

Materia pe care trebuie s-o stăpâneşti este informaţia de care te poţi folosi pentru a indica o comparaţie între un lucru şi opusul lui, cu scopul de a da viaţă unui concept inovativ.

Marea ştiinţă a minţilor iscoditoare nu este determinată genetic, ci se dobândeşte în timp prin antrenarea permanentă a neuronilor – micile celule cenuşii ale creierului nostru. Antrenamentul la care suntem supuşi presupune asimilarea de noi cunoştinţe, în doze mici progresive. Iar în paralel cu dezvoltarea neuropsihică corespunzătoare vârstei, trebuie să ne dezvoltăm funcţiile de analiză şi sinteză, dar şi capacitatea de înţelegere şi de abstractizare.

Trebuie reţinut că orice suprasolicitare prin volumul mare de cunoştinţe şi noţiuni, asimilat într-un timp scurt, nu are de obicei efecte benefice.

Marea ştiinţă din spatele ştiinţei

On Martie 14, 2014

Continuă să creşti cota de producţie a unităţilor tale de leadership, în încercarea de a da ştiinţei o altă orientare.

Cine ia o eprubetă plină cu hidrogen şi introduce înăuntru un chibrit sau o lumânare aprinsă, va observa că hidrogenul se aprinde şi arde cu o flacără albastră palidă, iar chibritul sau lumânarea se stinge.

Pentru un savant, o asemenea experienţă nu ar putea să constituie un fenomen enigmatic. Pentru mine, însă, constatările acestui experiment nu-mi acordau privilegiul de a fi pe deplin stăpânul propriei curiozităţi intelectuale. Era un supliciu al inteligenţei, o degringoladă de sensuri şi de înţelesuri. Căci totul se rezuma la cum interpretam experimentul, nu atât la partea lui practică.

Ştiinţa înseamnă să transformi informaţiile în acţiune după ce-ai reflectat asupra efectelor lor de lungă durată. Orientarea sistemului de distribuţie a sensurilor rezultate din ajustările experimentelor, teoriilor, ipotezelor şi ideilor exprimate de ceilalţi oameni de ştiinţă, axate pe crearea unor noi forme de gândire care să poată garanta instalarea unor noi cadre de cercetare, nu trebuia să blazeze sau să provoace şocuri în cadrul evoluţiei celui mai important factor de analiză: resursa umană.

A da ştiinţei o altă orientare înseamnă să-ţi îndrepţi atenţia spre o nouă modalitate de a aborda relaţia dintre ceea ce este omul şi acţiunea sa exterioară.

Neîncetat, sondând gândirea esenţială a savanţilor prin selecţia aleatorie şi analiza critică a rezultatelor experimentelor lor, fără a mă debranşa de la sistemul de gândire unanim acceptat, am încercat să prezint noi explicaţii şi să introduc noi concepte care ulterior să fie general acceptate în lumea ştiinţei. Practic, tot ce încercam să redau în scris, în cadrul unei literaturi, prin excelenţă, de sinteză, se referea la săvârşirea unor acte de creaţie constituite în memorabile modele demne de urmat de către toţi cei care voiau să îmbrăţişeze profesia de savant.

Dar nu puteam reuşi acest lucru fără a cunoaşte acel „ Cum? ” şi acel „ De ce? ” fundamentali în încercarea de a da ştiinţei o altă orientare. Puteam să suplimentez motivația profundă care dădea sens evoluţiei mele, numai valorificând descoperirile celorlalţi scientists . Capacitatea de a influenţa o serie de procese asociate cu descoperirile ştiinţifice, cele care fac pașii spre viitor, era în strânsă legătură cu capacitatea de a exprima prin noţiuni abstracte rezultatele obţinute în urma observaţiilor empirice.

Leadership: Maniera ta de a clarifica rolul unei ştiinţe poate să modifice în profunzime maniera de a descoperi o nouă abordare a puterii personale dar şi a puterii la nivelul întregii lumi?

Faptul de a progresa în rolul de descoperitor, în înţelegerea clasică a leadershipului ca o ştiinţă exclusiv cantitativă, dar şi calitativă, asigură avantajele unui status dobândit, nu atribuit, care adăugă ceva greutate la autonomia persoanei şi la confortul intelectual. Puterea personală a unui descoperitor ţine de capacitatea lui de a înțelege concepte abstracte, de a privi departe în viitor, de a extrage informaţii din orice domeniu, de a scoate în evidenţă detaliile cele mai mici ale obiectelor și fenomenelor, ca urmare a necesităţii de a se raporta la un model de gândire exclusivist.

De fapt, întreaga lume are de câştigat de pe urma unui descoperitor, fiindcă el aduce argumente în favoarea abordării unei metode de creaţie experimentală pe care o doreşte împărtăşită prin intermediul poveştii sale de succes. Sau, cum îmi place mie să cred, o poveste de succes este romanul unei creaţii în care ia naştere un univers inedit, o lume cu puternice trăsături reale de acţiune-aventură.

Mijlocul de formare a unei minţi deschise, care nu poate trăi în prezent, ci "aleargă" tot timpul spre viitor, are ca principală caracteristică flexibilitatea, adică posibilitatea de a se adapta fiecărui plan de investiţii în sistemul de producere al cunoaşterii. Sistem ce are ca scop optimizarea funcţionării individuale printr-o întreţinere corespunzătoare a activităţii de cercetare. Tot ceea ce investeşte liderul în munca lui ştiinţifică vine în sprijinul viziunii pe care o propune pentru schimbare.

Ca lider, poţi asigura o permanentă legătura între contribuţiile la progresul ştiinţei şi obligaţiile de plată la bugetul leadershipului, a cărui venit întrebuinţat în practică se îndreaptă spre "Privat", adică spre zona ta de interes, numai dacă încerci să dai ştiinţei o altă orientare. Iar rezultatul acestei orientări depinde numai de întrebuinţarea şi cunoaşterea acelui „ Cum? " şi acelui „ De ce? " fundamentali formei de control a creaţiei, care îţi stârnesc curiozitatea intelectuală.

Poţi asigura o permanentă legătură între contribuţiile la progresul ştiinţei şi obligaţiile de plată la bugetul leadershipului, ca modalitate de a căuta răspunsuri la întrebările care stârnesc curiozitatea intelectuală?

Bugetul leadershipului cuprinde nu doar convingerile profunde ale omului, ci şi toate acele născociri arbitrare ale minţii sale care analizează în mod raţional şi sistematic aşa-numitele teritorii de inspiraţie, foarte disputate intre candidaţii la trofeul de excelenţă, aprobate sau dezaprobate ca o încercare de a preveni declinul.

Numai o motivație profundă poate să dea sens evoluţiei tale, prin încercarea de a da ştiinţei o altă orientare. Acest lucru poate fi realizat prin valorificarea descoperirilor celorlalţi profesionişti din domeniu. Leadershipul, alimentat de cunoaşterea schimbărilor esenţiale ce au loc în însăşi orientarea şi structura ştiinţei pe care o cultivi, poate fi studiat şi contextualizat numai împreună cu tendinţa de a recepţiona şi a urma modul de gândire al celorlalţi, fără a te supune exigenţelor lor.

În acest caz, unităţile de leadership sunt date de acele cunoştinţe solide absorbite din contul experienţelor de creaţie şi cercetare care răspund la întrebările fundamentale ale naturii: " Cum? " şi " De ce? ". Ele joacă rolul unor cerinţe preliminare în aplicarea leadershipului transformaţional, caracterizat în principal prin existenţa viziunii unice asupra direcţiilor de dezvoltare.

Ştiinţa reprezintă calea de a te face util lumii prin intermediul învăţăturilor extrase din experienţele care ţi-au deschis mintea şi ţi-au răsturnat prejudecăţile.

Marea ştiinţă din spatele ştiinţei desemnează modalitatea particulară de întreţinere a unui leadership performant bazat pe acele features of content ale ştiinţei, produse de alţi cercetători în domeniu. Cunoaşterea profundă a trecutului şi prezentului ce oferă posibilităţi de prefigurare a viitorului, sunt necesare pentru a putea aborda ştiinţa într-o manieră creativă şi practică.

Marea Știință poartă o taină adâncă

On Ianuarie 04, 2023

„Ştiinţa a stabilit că nimic nu poate să dispară fără urmă. Natura nu cunoaşte nici o dispariţie ci numai transformări.”

Un prieten tocmai îmi spunea:

"Găsești pe toate drumurile intelectuali, oameni în sutană, elite și nenumărate speranțe. Unul mai răsărit ca celălalt. Dar cum vin, așa pleacă. Toţi. Nimeni nu știe de ei, nimeni nu-și amintește de ei, niciunul nu schimbă nimic peste timp, niciunul nu învinge rezistenţa tuturor formelor materiei (inclusiv moartea)."

Cu toate astea, un singur om (fiul unui dulgher) a rămas de neuitat de atâtea secole, şi încă mai trăieşte şi va trăi tot timpul în sufletul oamenilor drepţi. Cel ce a zis: "Cerul și pământul vor trece, dar cuvintele Mele vor rămâne."

Trecerea la viaţa veşnică se realizează nu atât printr-o continuă asceză şi dăruire de sine, ci printr-o declaraţie de renunţare la ceea ce este trecător sau fictiv. Da, este o metaforă la mijloc, iar această metaforă nu consacră neapărat o analogie între două fenomene, unul cunoscut şi altul necunoscut, ci are unele asemănări mai puţin vizibile cu un om obişnuit, fapt ce instituie tocmai această analogie.

Leadership: Actuala viziune care determină imaginea pentru noua ta viaţă vine ca o continuare a celor anterioare, având ca temă cercetarea sinelui prin prisma unei aspiraţii seculare ce leagă trecutul de viitor?

Tot ascunse sunt şi sugestiile de mare rafinament, inspirate de proiecţiile unei conştiinţe bine determinate care facilitează consolidarea dialogului dintre "ceea ce trece" şi "ceea ce rămâne", astfel încât să pară plauzibilă trecerea de la "ce vreau să fac" la "ce sunt dator să fac".

Acestea sunt şi adevăratele considerente care trebuie luate în calcul pentru a atinge un alt nivel de leadership care explorează în sens pozitiv sentimentul unităţii spiritualităţii: Keraos Aenigami Epocsed, căutarea sinelui prin prisma amintirilor, a reperelor vizuale, a faptelor rămase în ciurul trecerii veacurilor.

O singură aspiraţie seculară a avut Mântuitorul, raportată la o viziune care are şi azi puterea de a schimba traiectoria lumii. Şi nu este vorba de dorinţa de a obține privilegii, aspirația de a primi recunoașteri și altele. Mai degrabă, obiectivul lui a fost acela de a se impune ca mijloc de a învinge moartea. Sublim, nu-i aşa? Şi cum învingi moartea? Prin cele trei mari direcţii ale ştiinţei: creaţie, descoperire şi inventică. Căci numai prin intermediul ştiinţei se pot explica miracolele Mântuitorului, şi de fapt, acele miracole fac trimitere spre sute de ani de încercări menite să schimbe cursul firesc al lucrurilor şi să accelereze evoluţia lumii.

Marea Știință poartă o taină adâncă, și nu oricine o poate dezlega. Reușesc să se facă remarcaţi şi să-şi menţină statutul de "Mântuitor", doar cei cu adevărat merituoși, care au știut să vadă foarte bine ceea ce este foarte greu de văzut. Tot secretul este să știi să vezi ceea ce nu se află la vedere. De altfel, aceasta este cerința de bază în câștigarea credinței. Deci, credința înseamnă în primul rând știință, facultatea de a vedea ceea ce este uneşte invizibilul de vizibil.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi creezi o viziune centrată pe dualitatea "trece-rămâne" transpusă într-o imagine care nu se anulează de la sine, ci continuă să reprezinte trăirea vieţii din perspectiva unei dependenţe de natură imaterială?

Şi ce la ce se referă Marea Ştiinţă? La instinctul generic care a făcut cu putinţă facerea originală. Este agentul generator de viziuni, idei, perspective, interpretări ale unui intelect care a trăit la o putere superioară nevoia conexiunii cu o forţă universală, constantă.

Mai rămâne de experimentat o viziune centrată pe unitate valorică şi pluralism real, incluzând mai multe tipuri de existenţă, pentru a împărtăşi fundamentele unui raţionament de genul celui proclamat de scriitorul Arthur Ford: "Tot ceea ce m-a învăţat ştiinţa şi mă mai învaţă încă, îmi întăreşte credinţa într-o continuitate dincolo de moarte a existenţei noastre spirituale."

Îmi amintesc de finalul filmului, Quo Vadis (2001) când rabinul traversează timpul din vremea când încă romanii erau păgâni, şi ajunge în prezent pe aceleaşi cărări nemarcate, mai puțin cunoscute, rămase intacte de sute de ani.

Scena la care fac referire începe din trecutul Romei, de pe vremea lui Nero. La un moment dat rabinul se opreşte în mijlocul cărării, îngenunchează şi îşi întreabă tovarăşul de drum, uitându-se cu ochi înlăcrimaţi în zarea îndepărtată: "Vezi lumina aceea mergând în faţa noastră? Ea îmi transmite un mesaj. O să mă reîntorc la Roma pentru a fi crucificat din nou…"

Apoi, imaginea se mută în zilele noastre, unde, printre mii de clădiri şi locuinţe noi, abia se zăreşte Colosseumul.

Cred că la începutul fiecărei generaţii se va întoarce Mântuitorul, dar sub alt chip, având ca unică menire crearea unei legături spirituale între oameni, sub îndrumarea ştiinţei care cercetează şi cea a respectului care acceptă şi creează. El va fi un apărător al ştiinţei, şi în acelaşi timp un mesager al credinţei.

Şi chiar aceasta este taina marii ştiinţe: să dai consistenţă trăirii tale peste nemărginirea timpului, pornind de la considerentul că tot ceea ce te înconjoară este o plămădire a materiei din care eşti făcut tu însuţi. Căci după cum bine spunea Arthur Ford: „Ştiinţa a stabilit că nimic nu poate să dispară fără urmă. Natura nu cunoaşte nici o dispariţie, ci numai transformări."

Dacă vrei să te situezi în planul superior al leadershipului din zona spiritualităţii, trebuie să găseşti firului conducător care leagă trecutul de viitor, sau mai bine zis, încearcă să discerni firul conducător care există pe urmele fiecărei întâlniri cu tine însuţi din alt timp.

Taina Marii Științe vizează trecerea de la un stadiu al evoluţiei, la altul, fără ca omul să-şi piardă calitatea de a fi indivizibil şi unic. Ea se construieşte pe opera artistului, creatorul fiind luat ca un întreg autonom, într-o strânsă legătură cu locul unde îşi poate împlini menirea, unde îşi poate desăvârşi creaţia şi unde se va putea reîntoarce din nou, peste ani şi ani, peste toată frământarea veacurilor…

Simbolurile acestei traversări a timpului sunt în strânsă legătură cu dimensiunea spiritualităţii numai când este vorba de partea imaterială din noi, luând în considerare căutarea sinelui prin prisma amintirilor, a reperelor vizuale, a faptelor rămase în ciurul trecerii veacurilor.

Marea tragedie a secolului 21 cu precădere în România

On Iulie 19, 2023

Descoperă şi experimentează ce înseamnă cu adevărat să fii "avansat", reflectând asupra a ceea ce valorizezi ca şi capacităţi, nu ca şi deficienţe sau lipsuri.

Am încercat să accesez azi BARD (versiunea ChatGPT făcută de Google). Şi, în acest moment, din cele 180 de ţări care au acces la această aplicaţie foarte avansată, România nu are niciun drept de acces. A rămas ultima ţară din lume, ca de obicei, România.

https://lnkd.in/dN-faRKG

De fiecare dată când Google lansează o aplicaţie nouă şi foarte bună, bazată pe introducerea unei noi noţiuni, sunt cel puţin 180 de ţări cărora li se oferă dreptul de acces direct la ea. Iar România, nu doar că este pe ultima poziţie, dar nici măcar nu este băgată în seamă când vine vorba de ultimele tehnologii.

Oare de ce? Ce are ţara noastră plină de oameni culţi şi talentaţi, muncitori, şi cu credinţă în bunul Dumnezeu, de nu ne bagă nimeni în seamă? Au şi românii o grămadă de doctoranzi, toţi merg la biserică, toţi au internet. România are o grămadă de elevi premianţi şi o grămadă de aşa zis studenţi eminenţi, foarte mulţi cu studii în străinătate. Cu toate astea, ţara noastră este atât de departe de occident, mai exact suntem la nivel de "ultima căruţă". De ce ?

Leadership: Eşti ghidat de un sentiment de urgență datorat concentrării asupra viitorului, în încercarea de a te ridica deasupra viziunii limitate pe care o promovează societatea actuală?

Am să vă spun una dintre cauze. În primul rând corupţia de la toate nivelele: oameni dezinteresaţi şi, mai presus de toate, foarte slab pregătiţi în domeniul lor de activitate. Ca să nu mai spun că România este ultima ţară la capitolul informaţii adăugate pe internet. De fapt, românii obişnuiesc să ia de la alţii cât se poate de mult, absorb totul ca un burete, dar nu dau niciodată nimic în schimb.

În toate ţările dezvoltate, aproape toţi studenţii, oameni de afaceri, profesori, au un website cu blog. Zilnic postează lucruri noi. Cantitatea de informaţii este enormă şi nu se rezumă la ştirile din presă, occidentul merge cu mult mai departe de atât.

În timp ce în România, toţi cei care ocupă funcţii importante sunt deştepţi, toţi au diplome şi doctorate, dar habar nu au ce este un BLOG. Dacă iei pe rând orice premiant, orice student, orice cadru didactic, orice om cult, inteligent şi cu atâta experienţă în domeniu, veţi vedea ca 99% nu ştiu ce anume să arate, nu ştiu ce să spună într-un blog.

Leadership: Poţi să observi şi să înțelegi realitatea socială în toată complexitatea ei, fără să produci un sentiment de falsă siguranţă asupra capacitații tale de a rezolva problemele?

Sistemul de învăţământ este plin de parveniţi, indivizi lacomi care nu s-au angajat în instituţiile de învăţământ superior din pasiune, ci pentru beneficii. Niciodată asemenea indivizi nu vor pune accentul pe furnizarea şi propagarea informaţiilor personale, provenite din munca de creaţie, deoarece ei habar nu au ce este creaţia !

Dar avem plagiatori cu căruţa, adică "cercetători", indivizi care culeg informaţii de pe google, le amestecă şi le aruncă într-o lucrare numită Licenţă, Masterat sau Doctorat. Numai anul trecut, anul 2022, şapte miniștri ai Educației au fost acuzați sau dovediți ca fiind plagiatori, dintre cei 24 care au ocupat funcția după Revoluție. Nimeni nu-i cercetează pe ceilalţi miniştrii, pe ceilalţi profesori, deoarece 99% ar fi acuzați de plagiat, şi asta chiar că nu dă bine la imagine.

Este precum vorba, peştele de la cap se strică. Raportându-se la sine, omul se valorizează ca fiinţă morală al cărei scop este atingerea virtuţii. Dar se pune întrebare: oare conducătorii ţării noastre au înţeles ce este virtutea?

Iar Google şi celelalte mari corporaţii din lume care dezvoltă Internetul, au statistici foarte exacte în privinţa României. Degeaba se păcălesc românii unii pe alţii, căci nimeni nu păcăleşte Internetul. Mai ales dacă nu se vede nimic la tine pe internet...

Leadership: Poţi face un apel la introspecție și la o reconsiderare a modului în care te raportezi la aceste aspecte fundamentale ale societății, fără să-ți pui în primejdie integritatea morală și etică?

Marea tragedie a secolului 21, cu precădere în România, este ca 99% din cei aşa zis "profesionişti", nu au un website, nu au un blog personal. De 25 de ani avem internet. Cu toate astea, intri într-o facultate, în orice facultate, 99% din profesori nu au reuşit să adune câteva idei din experiența lor legate de cum poate fi dezvoltat un blog personal. Habar nu au ce să arate, habar nu au ce să spună, habar nu au ce-i cu viaţa lor. Doctoranzi şi post doctoranzi. Pile şi relaţii. Numai papagali şi papiţoi s-au cocoţaţi în tot felul de funcţii, dar rareori să găseşte un creator cu idei înaintate.

Nu v-ar fi ruşine, în secolul internetului, vouă, aşa zis specialişti, să nu reuşiţi să spuneţi câteva lucruri din experienţa voastră în domeniu? Chiar nu observaţi nimic în jur cum se schimbă?

Dacă te crezi profesionist, dar nu ai un website/blog personal acum, în secolul 21, poţi să te duci la culcare, fiindcă pe internet oricum nu exişti, şi nici pentru lumea ştiinţei nu reprezinţi nimic.

Şi ştiţi de ce spun aceste cuvinte, cu atâta amărăciune în suflet? Fiindcă îmi doresc ca ţara noastră să nu mai fie ultima căruţa din Europa. Numai moşnegi şi babe se află la conducerea ţării, la conducerea instituţiilor de stat. Sunt aceeaşi oameni complet învechiţi, epuizaţi, depăşiţi total de realitate. Falşi învăţători, falşi apostoli, falşi profeţi, ipocriţi până în măduva oaselor. Datorită unor asemenea indivizi, ţara noastră minunată este în urmă cu zeci de ani faţă de ce se întâmplă în alte ţări dezvoltate.

Speranţa noastră este că, de la un an la altul, peste îmbătrâniţii noştri (eroi) se lasă tot mai mult întunericul: unii ies la pensie şi sunt uitaţi complet de societate, alţii se duc într-o altă lume, la fel de învechită cum au învechit-o şi pe asta...

Un lider trebuie să fie atent nu doar la aspectele vizibile, ci și la cele ascunse sau ignorate de societate. El poate aduce aceste aspecte la lumină și le poate face vizibile pentru publicul larg, numai prin propria lui contribuţie la conturarea unei viziuni cuprinzătoare asupra dezvoltării durabile.

Într-adevăr, rolul liderului în studierea acestor aspecte de larg interes public, nu este de a observa, de a interpreta și a comunica realitatea socială în toată complexitatea ei, aşa cum face un creator care lucrează cu fragmente de realitate cotidiană. Ci, mai degrabă, el trebuie să contribuie la o mai bună înțelegere a lumii în care trăieşte și la schimbarea acesteia în bine.

Marea tragedie a secolului 21 cu precădere în România este că oamenii cu adevărat ştiutori şi avansaţ" în diferite domenii nu ajung în funcţiile importante care i-ar putea ajuta să schimbe direcţia (greşită) în care se îndreaptă ţara. Aşadar, înainte de a ajunge să ocupi un loc important într-o instituţie publică, te sfătuieşti să urmezi îndemnul acesta:

Descoperă şi experimentează ce înseamnă cu adevărat să fii "avansat", reflectând asupra a ceea ce valorizezi ca şi capacităţi, nu ca şi deficienţe sau lipsuri. Totodată, reflectează asupra modului în care aceste valori influențează progresul societăţii.

Marele Secret (II)

On Iunie 30, 2013

Extinde-ţi căutările pentru a descoperi elementele cheie care îţi condiţionează ştiinţa, fără să te îndepărtezi de propria ta identitate reală.

Desigur. Aspiram la o ştiinţă a inexistentului pur, care s-ar fi putut sfârşi înainte de a atinge culmile înalte ale maturităţii. Era mai mult o rătăcire într-un perpetuu sens giratoriu, atingând pe alocuri note discordante care se îngrămădeau şi creau un mănunchi de raze împletite, înţelesuri şi subînţelesuri imprecise care îmi bulversau mintea. Obligându-mă să iau deseori totul de la capăt, ca unul din acei oameni care încercând să controleze cât mai bine ceea ce transmit altora, se pierd brusc în ceaţă, şi sunt nevoiţi să-şi schimbe abordarea.

Dar, în acelaşi timp, odată cu revelarea misterelor pe care ştiinţa nefundamentată pe deplin, plasată în contextul unui proces alambicat de inovaţie, le recunoştea ca definitorii pentru existenţa secretului, totul căpăta un sens ireal. Totul părea întors într-un underground încâlcit, îmbâcsit de părticele infime, invizibile, de forme şi umbre, de intensităţi diferite. Un underground al unei întunecări a spectrului larg de viziuni şi valori.

Marele Secret se îndepărta de esenţa pe care o simboliza, pe măsură ce mă apropiam de el. Nu puteam lămuri fenomenul în sine, rămas şi astăzi nerezolvat în mare măsură. Concentraţia de esenţă pură, redată prin ecuaţia dublei reprezentări a elementelor care legau posibilul de imposibil, se înjumătăţea dacă teritoriul proaspăt cucerit al secretului nu era stabilizat. Iar eu eram, evident, ademenit de chemarea noutăţii, a senzaţionalului.

Leadership: Te pui în gardă în privinţa unei despărţiri de tine însuţi atunci când întregirea cunoştinţelor şi cristalizarea unei structuri particulare de înţelegere a unui mister surprinzător are ca simptom închiderea ta într-un "iad" privat?

Marele Secret consta mai ales în impresionanta intensitate a relaţiilor care uneau diferite puncte şi forţe de interacţiune, de atracţie sau de respingere, predominante în construcţia de noi produşi de reacţie. Noi adevăruri, noi valori, noi înţelesuri, noi întrebări, într-o formă fin divizată, pe baza unor constatări incomplete şi inexacte, care păreau a scăpa unei explicaţii logice şi plauzibile. Noi simboluri pe care Marele Secret le exploata pentru transmiterea unui mesaj, sau a unei părţi dintr-un mesaj, fără limită de timp.

Cum zicea detectivul Auguste Dupin: " O identificare a intelectului gânditorului, cu cel al oponentului său. " Eu şi Marele Secret. Eram responsabil de panoplia de mijloace pe care ştiinţa le furniza conceptelor din spatele tipului de configuraţie a secretului, care nu corespundea întru totul aşteptărilor mele. Instinctiv, sălăşluia în mine o mândrie ascunsă, o voinţă periculoasă care însă nu mă pregătea pentru şocul îngrozitor.

Dar niciun mister nu poate fi elucidat fără un sacrificiu de sine, care să meargă până acolo încât să renunţi la propriile prejudecăţi, lăsându-te invadat de emoţii tot mai intense şi mai greu de gestionat. Precum acel bărbat care s-a izolat în faţa unei lumi pe care nu a putut să o schimbe, eu riscam să nimeresc, pe negândite, în acel cerc de contradicţii care mă împiedicau să întrezăresc luminişul real al propriei mele identităţi.

O despărţire de mine însumi era consecinţa aflării adevărurilor din spatele secretului, fiindcă nu orice libertate de eliberează, fiindcă eforturile cele mai intense te epuizează şi te apropie de gândurile care îţi dau stări de îngrijorare sau frică. Marele secret reprezintă, totodată, forţa care te solicită cel mai mult din punct de vedere intelectual şi emoţional într-un context de experienţe greu de trecut cu vederea, făcându-te să devii sclavul propriei vanităţi, prizonierul propriilor dureri din timpul creaţiei.

Leadership: Poţi suporta un şah dat propriei tale deveniri care te face să nu mai ştii exact cine eşti, de unde ai plecat şi încotro te îndrepţi, atunci când excesul tău de inteligenţă depăşeşte o anumită limită?

Eşti ademenit de chemarea noutăţii, a senzaţionalului? Dai semne de o rătăcire într-un perpetuu sens giratoriu? Totul căpătă un sens ireal? Simţi că te pierzi într-un underground întunecat? Rişti să nimereşti, pe negândite, într-un cerc de contradicţii?

Marele secret te azvârle cu putere într-un context de apărare a propriei identităţi care se vede nevoită să facă o alegere importantă: ori să se lase ancorată într-un teritoriu lipsit de reguli, specific unei minţi creatoare, ori să se afunde în nepăsare şi, Doamne fereşte, în vicii de tot felul, transformându-se chiar într-un dispreţ pentru viaţă dintr-un exerciţiu natural de înţelepciune. Aici leadershipul se săvârşeşte prin renunţarea la orice pretenţie de despăgubire rezultată din vătămarea propriei integrităţi şi performanţe individuale.

Una din metodele folosite pentru a corecta eventualele defecte sau anormalităţi, minore sau majore, ale leadershipului este de a schimba tipul de configuraţie a ştiinţei tale, zugrăvind cu îndrăzneală o nouă ordine în relaţia dintre limitare şi exces. În urma căreia schimbarea strategiei de atingere a performanţei să nu forţeze atingerea nivelului înalt cu orice preţ.

Ştiinţa unui mânuitor de secrete trebuie să constituie momentul unei încordări a minţii spre a descoperi noi posibilităţi şi conexiuni între informaţii diverse, în niciun caz nu trebuie să lezeze capacitatea unei trăiri de a dărui momente de îndoială faţă de semnificaţia existenţei.

Pentru ca leadershipul să capete un avantaj competitiv în faţa altor modele de leadership, datorită ştiinţei pe care o îmbrăţişezi, trebuie să arăţi că poţi da "şah" propriei tale deveniri. Adică să-ţi limitezi accesul la ştiinţa care nu este în concordanţă cu criteriile de performanţă, în apărarea propriei tale identităţi.

Nu te îndepărta de esenţă, pe măsură ce te apropii de intersecţia cu contrariile materiei intelectuale. La această intersecţie n-ai voie să te opreşti, ci să acorzi prioritate mutărilor de cadre, de la " dark " la " light ", adică să te desprinzi din acel vârtej al gândirii laterale, dar dezordonate, care pare că te tot urmăreşte şi te trage tot mai în spate.

Leadership: Îţi însuşeşti o ştiinţă care nu se ocupă de relaţiile dintre cauză şi efect, luând în considerare superioritatea obţinută prin ideea de stimulare a minţii spre realizarea lucrurilor măreţe?

Spre a explica diferenţa dintre leadership şi ştiinţă, la modul că efectul negativ al combinaţiei lor poate să fie contrar scopului urmărit – atingerea excelenţei, fără a ţine seama de multiplicitatea determinărilor concrete în înlănţuirea reală a unor idei sau schimbări inovatoare, mai întâi trebuie să luăm în calcul orice mutare cu potenţial de reuşită ce poate ajuta la obţinerea unei superiorităţi în dezvoltarea personală.

O astfel de mutare ar însemna plasarea ştiinţei tale în contextul unui proces de inovaţie, fără să te îndepărtezi de esenţa durabilităţii şi a stabilităţii care te poate ajuta să obţii rezultatul dorit. Desigur, trebuie să fii extrem de sensibil şi prudent la valul de viziuni care trec dincolo de pragul imaginaţiei, deci dincolo de ceea ce îngăduie posibilul şi firescul. Altfel rişti să nimereşti, pe negândite, în acel cerc de contradicţii care te împiedică să întrezăreşti luminişul real al propriei identităţi.

Creaţia este un lucru măreţ, asemenea unui secret pe care îţi vine greu să-l destăinui. A-ţi însuşi o ştiinţă care nu se ocupă de relaţiile dintre cauză şi efect, deci care poate periclita grav efectul pozitiv al evoluţiei tale, dar şi efectul propriei opţiuni asupra modului în care ai înţeles să îţi susţii punctele de vedere, poate fi considerată nu doar o pierdere de tempo , ci mai degrabă factorul prim care condiţionează eşecul.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul să nu se deterioreze, atunci extinde-ţi căutările pentru a descoperi elementele cheie care îţi condiţionează ştiinţa, fără să te îndepărtezi de propria ta identitate reală. Elemente precum viziunea şi abordarea unitară, gândirea în imagini, adaosul de fantezie, mijloacele artistice, realităţile minţii, concepţia care prezidează construcţia imaginii, se pot foarte bine preta unei varietăți de reconstrucții și interpretări care pun într-o lumină nouă conceptul de leadership.

Leadershipul este ştiinţa pe care ţi-o însuşeşti ca să arăţi totul despre tine şi realităţile tale, altfel decât în mod tradiţional, încât semnificaţia pe care o dai creaţiei tale să fie aceea de "desăvârşire" sau de "cultură înaltă, elitistă".

Marele Secret constă în a-ţi desăvârşi drumul spre excelenţa în leadership, fără să te îndepărtezi de punctul terminus pe care ţi l-ai impus. Înseamnă a nu rătăci prin hăţişul de poteci colaterale care te pot îndepărta de tine şi de scopul tău autoimpus, în deplină concordanţă cu cel care eşti şi cu cei pe care-i reprezinţi.

Marele Secret (I)

On Iunie 28, 2013

Demonstrează-ţi capacitatea de a controla întru totul "superiorul", astfel încât autenticitatea ştiinţei tale să fie validată şi acceptată pe deplin.

Mă apropiam tot mai mult de Marele Secret, dând prioritate acelei forme noi, distincte şi particulare a imperceptibilului. Posibilitatea de a cuprinde într-o singură ţâşnire de gândire acea insesizabilă şi profundă unitate a creaţiei, într-o singură formulă disponibilă în mai multe variante de aplicare a ei, nu mi se mai părea imposibilă. Era oare nevoie să-mi imaginez totul şi să pornesc de la zero? Sau să modelez ideea deja existentă?

Sub acţiunea unor catalizatori de ardere a elementelor, viteza reacţiilor chimice pot creşte foarte mult. Marele Secret, legat de conceptul fundamental al tranziţiei dintre două forţe diferite, asociat materiei care devine lumină, perfect purificată şi redusă la o substanţă mercurială, trebuia să treacă printr-un proces de sublimare al cărei rezultat era cuvântul scris. Mare grijă să nu se evapore, să nu-şi piardă caracterul inefabil !

Dacă totul mergea bine, ar fi trebuit să fie chiar foarte simplu. Nu mă angajasem doar să înţeleg şi să-mi însuşesc codul sursă, să-l posed, să-l domin în întregime cu acea superioritate specifică spiritelor luminate, vizionare, care dau cu uşurinţă paginile timpului la o parte. Ci, într-un anumit fel, îmi rezervasem dreptul de a acţiona în conformitate cu legile şi principiile inexorabile pe care se întemeia Marele Secret. Şi să acţionez pe baza lor. Dar fără să devin sclavul unei încercări de a integra straniul în real.

Leadership: Poţi arăta că interpretarea pe care o dai Creaţiei personale are ca şi corespondent o trăsătură sau un rol important în devenirea ta ca artist al unei lumi nemărginite care se transformă prin tine şi datorită ţie?

Creaţia personală a unui artist este fuziunea între ceea ce ţi se relevă spaţiu vast de aplicare a cunoaşterii şi nevoia propriei filosofii de viaţă de a da un sens lucrurilor care te înconjoară. Trebuia să ţin cont de asta cu orice preţ. Căci probabilitatea de a mă descoperi întru totul şi de a evolua spre ceva superior, chintesenţa forţei din spatele succesului, activul esenţial, cel mai pretenţios al unei transformări de esenţă, care nu se pierde niciodată, era direct proporţională şi influenţată de măiestria de a apăra secretul.

Era un fapt, ceva care se petrecea cu adevărat. Nu mai are importanţă că a fost doar produsul imaginaţiei, o clipă efemeră a unui timp ce l-am experimentat aprioric sub imperiul creierului înfierbântat. Conta doar încercarea de a explica într-un fel inexplicabilul. Şi astfel să ating perfecţiunea. Acest lucru era echivalent cu pătrunderea într-o lume namărginită a fanteziei şi a informaţiilor care contribuie la actul de creaţie, la plăsmuirea unei realităţi paralele şi plauzibile, din care chimia şi fizică reprezentau doar un început de gândire specializată.

După descifrarea codului, care nu era întocmai un joc de scrabble pentru copii, Marele Secret trebuia setat să redea doar acele aspecte esenţiale care mă puteau avantaja, ce decurgeau dintr-o perspectivă singulară a abordării cunoaşterii transcendentale, completă şi obiectivă.

Trăsătura cheie a unui artist este cuprinsă în rezumatul unui roman scris de Umberto Eco: "Spiritul iscoditor cunoaște, găsește, vede (theorein) asemănări între lucruri îndepărtate." De fapt, prelungirea la nesfârşit a unei interpretări originale care să se aplice în mod specific unor înţelesuri subtile şi tainice, era dorinţa mea nemărturisită. Ea reprezenta cucerirea viitorului meu triumf în materie de artă, răsplata satisfacţiei maxime pe care o producea direct sau indirect posesiunea si utilitatea Marelui Secret.

Leadership: Mecanismul tău de ghidare spre excelenţă intră în congruenţă cu construcţia ştiinţei tale văzută drept sens major al unei existenţe care pendulează între cunoaşterea axată pe "ceea ce este ascuns" şi cunoaşterea axată pe revelaţia unei lumi pe care n-o credeai posibilă?

Acorzi prioritate acelei forme noi, distincte şi particulare a imperceptibilului? Devii sclavul unei încercări de a integra straniul în real? E nevoie să-ţi imaginezi totul şi să porneşti de la zero? Sau să modelezi ideea deja existenţă?

Ca să ajungi la nivel superior de leadership, mai întâi trebuie să-ţi aduci ştiinţa la un nivel adecvat, şi, de ce nu, la un nivel necunoscut până în acel moment. Forţa de a tinde spre deplina dezvoltare şi apoi spre excelenţă, asaltează zidurile groase ale incertitudinii care îţi încarcerează potenţialul de a deschide noi direcţii de gândire. Aceasta este forţa care fascinează şi atrage, stimulând orice viitor lider spre adevărata cunoaştere şi putere.

Un nivel superior al leadershipului se obţine prin producerea unei revelaţii despre om, despre adevărurile care îl condiţionează să se raporteze la cadrul general al unei lumi aparte, astfel încât el să înfăţişeze imaginea unei creaţii complexe şi sofisticate, care îşi doreşte răspândirea unei poveşti de viaţă de care nu te mai poţi despărţi.

Aşa cum şahul dublu se produce atunci când figura descoperitoare dă şah la rândul ei, tot astfel trezirea unei noi forme de „a fi” se produce prin descoperirea propriei valori, în călătoria spre triumful cunoaşterii care prilejuieşte trecerea spre excelenţă, un promiţător debut în arena lungă a evoluţiei.

Pentru ca identitatea şi raţiunea ta de a fi să fie găsite şi exploatate la maxim, mai întâi redirecţionează-ţi eforturile spre realizarea, într-un mod cât mai desăvârşit, şi în acelaşi timp cât mai fiabil, a unei anumite “superiorităţi” în ceea ce priveşte navigabilitatea prin intersecţiile cunoaşterii. A acelei cunoaşteri nesecate, necesare pentru a face faţă efectelor factorilor latenţi ai evoluţiei ce se acumulează în timp.

Creatorul care îşi duce opera la alt nivel este artistul unei fabuloase imaginaţii în baza căreia sunt posibile anumite "extended moments of true self" într-un demers de constituire a unei viziuni care ascunde realitatea vieţii de fiecare zi sub forma simbolică a unei realităţi misterioase.

Expertul internaţional în materie de leadership, John Maxwell, spunea într-o carte: “ Am învăţat cum să-mi păstrez atenţia asupra lucrului principal, şi asta mi-a schimbat cel mai mult viaţa. ”

Se observă, deci, această necesitate a liderilor de a se rezema pe un suport stabil, de a se sprijini pe un perete solid aidoma unei stânci. Adică de “lucrul principal” - Marele Secret - ştiinţa de care trebuie să ţii cont cu orice preţ. Căci probabilitatea de a te descoperi întru totul şi de a evolua spre ceva superior, chintesenţa forţei din spatele succesului, activul esenţial, cel mai pretenţios, care nu se pierde niciodată, este direct proporţională şi influenţată de nivelul cunoaşterii tale.

Tranziţia dintre vechi şi nou, din structura ştiinţei pe care trebuie s-o dezvolţi mai departe în toate direcţiile, dând naştere originalului, zugrăvind o nouă realitate, oferind o orientare clară şi coerentă pentru dezvoltarea viitoare a leadershipului, trebuie să fie lipsită de ambiguitate.

Momentele extinse ale sinelui adevărat scot în evidenţă acea parte a vieţii în care toată experienţa se întrevede în modul în care abordezi tema unei creaţii filosofice, sistematice şi originale, din perspectivă a ceea ce nu este observabil la prima vedere.

Aceasta este etapa iniţială, care te pregăteşte pentru trecerea la etapa următoare a procesului de evaluare, care să îţi fie favorabilă, şi care îţi poată permite accesul deplin la "codul sursă" al creaţiei tale.

Încercarea de a explica inexplicabilul, revizuirea înţelegerii bazate pe studiu şi reflecţie, născocirea unor răspunsuri, formarea unei alianţe neîntrerupte cu un fond precis de interpretări şi argumente facile, sunt câteva din formele de popularizare a ştiinţei. Care cauzează, bineînţeles, clădirea mai lesnicioasă a unei noi unităţi de producţie a gândirii, care o va înlocui pe cea veche, devenită prea strâmtă şi prea rigidă.

Dacă vrei ca autenticitatea ştiinţei tale să fie validată şi acceptată pe deplin de ceilalţi oameni, mai întâi demonstrează-ţi capacitatea de a controla întru totul realitatea pe care ei o trăiesc zilnic. Adică apropie-te pe zi ce trece de Marele Secret, dând prioritate acelei forme noi, distincte şi particulare de raportare la ştiinţa cea mai înaltă, şi care să fie aplicabilă în leadership.

Leadershipul este realitatea la care te raportezi prin forţa genialităţii atunci când încerci să-ţi testezi potenţialul de a fi creativ, fiind convins de faptul că orice idei şi concepte despre viaţă pot fi formulate în alt mod.

Marele Secret se referă la autoperfecţionarea continuă şi îmbogăţirea permanentă a cunoştinţelor, a strategiilor de aplicare în practică a acestora. Toate contribuind la crearea şi consolidarea suportului material al leadershipului.

Marile întrebări ale leadershipului

On Ianuarie 21, 2017

Personalizează-ţi imaginea în lume cu sigla unei meniri a cărei importanță o poți înțelege numai din dificultatea cu care Dumnezeu se lasă găsit.

Simţeam nevoia imperioasă de a-mi pune această întrebare, într-un context al negocierii cu mine însumi, şi mai derutantă decât o simplă cerere de informaţie "Ce-i de făcut?" al omului ăluia deştept, dar dezorientat, doctor Stephen Vincent Strange, ce trebuia să salveze lumea prin intermediul tainelor magiei și a puterii supranaturale, de care încă nu era pe deplin conştient că există.

Din compromisul iniţial al spusului şi al nespusului, totul înscriindu-se într-o dimensiune a magiei unde eram doar un străin, prea mult pentru raţiunea mea, prea adevărat ca să se întâmple, a ieşit la suprafaţă un produs unic, o mentalitate a siguranţei de sine, manifestată tendenţios într-un construct strict autentic şi incredibil: „Determinismul". Privirea pe care o aruncam cu grijă asupra unor lucruri delicate, pretenţioase, care mi se păreau extrem de importante pe moment, însă care la urma urmei nu durau prea mult în dimensiunea timpului, îmi dădea satisfacţia că făceam parte din „necunoscutele" simbolice ale unui Creator care înfrânează haosul.

Rând pe rând, toate uşile pe care le-am închis de-a lungul vieţii, s-au întredeschis de la sine datorită accesibilizării acestei forme de a mă menţine acelaşi, pretutindeni şi oricând, în starea ce mi-a fost pusă la dispoziţie, între două exigenţe contrare: una a lui Dumnezeu şi a valorii universale care trebuia respectată, iar cealaltă a necondiţionatului în acţiunea lumească a unei Ordini Nevăzute.

Leadership: Ai capacitatea să te înalţi deasupra nivelului de înţelegere a lucrurilor şi a vremurilor cu care eşti contemporan, încât să-ţi schimbi statutul de la un simplu muritor la un Creator care se gândeşte la toate atunci când pune parte din El în unicitatea totului din jur?

Ca să aibă magie, bagheta în posesia căreia am intrat datorită apropierii de nervul unei inteligenţe supreme şi nevăzute, trebuia folosită cu formula secretă "Împinge totul în afara limitelor" în voia unui joc ameţitor, dar bine controlat, al hazardului. Aceeaşi magie, distinsă printr-o verificare suplimentară a limitelor ce trebuia să le depăşesc cu ajutorul unei puteri supranaturale, deci printr-o o cercetare a naturii şi a țelurilor spre care tinde aceasta, ca reflexie a frumuseții divine, trebuia să mişte din loc orice orice înţelegere a realităţii prezentului şi să mă transpună într-un plan superior, de unde îmi privesc viaţa ca şi cum aş fi fost la cinema. Nu cu vederea unui spectator, ci cu vederea unui regizor.

Aproape de neconceput, cum nici nu bănuiam vreodată că se va petrece, întâlnirea cu un vrăjitor înțelept și foarte puternic, cunoscut ca Cel Străvechi, peste care plana misterul unei realităţi ascunse şi a relaţiilor cu divinul, a făcut posibilă acea combustie continuă şi perfect gestionabilă, necesară producţiei de noi diferenţe în calitatea vieţii mele şi a celorlalţi.

Tensiunile şi eforturile reprezentând forţele ascunse ale naturii şi ale fenomenelor lumii, aflate la baza crezurilor şi a practicilor legate de o presupusă "filozofie veşnică" secretă - derivată din alchimia sufletească a spaţiului şi timpului, se reprezentau în raport de cauzalitate cu tot ceea ce pe parcursul vieţii a fost identificat ca obligaţie sau interdicţie. Practic, tot ceea ce exista în jurul meu făcea parte dintr-o conştiinţă secretă la care nu puteam să am acces decât dacă mă vedeam eu însumi Creatorul Suprem, mai ales dacă înţelegerea fiecărui lucru în parte comporta o anumită putere de sugestie, vreun curent de sensuri subterane, oricât de nedefinite.

Condiţia neînvinsului acceptat de puterea unei algebre universale, îmblânzit de vraja unor legi pe care nici astăzi nu le înţeleg prea bine, era în sfârşit recunoscută drept "speranţă activă". Dar cu preţul libertăţii mele.

Leadership: Îți împlineşti menirea centrată pe destinul de excepție al unui super-erou, transformându-te în cel care se ţi se revelează prin numele „Eu sunt cel ce sunt, dincolo de regulile lumii?"

Doctorul Stephen Vincent Strange s-a dăruit trup şi suflet acţiunii de transformare a forţelor de respingere şi de atracţie declanşate între Omenire şi Univers, într-un exces de vitalitate, devenită ea însăşi spaţiul unei sfâşieri lăuntrice niciodată vindecate, în prezenţa altor scufundări de viaţă mai crâncene, într-un joc al măştilor, al energiilor, al evenimentelor profeţite şi scrise cu mult înainte ca acestea să se împlinească.

În tot acest gioco stupefacente codificat faţă de sine, o automistificare, între ceea ce simţea şi ce i se revela prin inserturi de elemente aparent fantastice, prin deschiderea cerurilor în faţa ieşirii din timp, s-a format alchimia nobilă a creaţiei spirituale culminând prin realizarea unui nou profil al identităţii sale, Alpha și Omega: „Eu sunt cel ce sunt, dincolo de regulile lumii și ale existenţei".

O condiție necesară în examinarea validității empirice a teoriilor în leadership, despre om şi societate în raport cu orice context şi conţinut metafizic, cu implicaţii în evoluţia și sensul existenţei, este să fii capabil să exişti prin prisma raţionamentului de a îndeplini un rol pe care nimeni nu-l va putea vreodată ocupa: acela de promotor al determinismului universal şi al ordonării evenimentelor.

A fi un creator înseamnă să trăieşti senzaţia unei lumi fantastice ca o formă de sugestie autoindusă în care îţi ghidezi propriile gânduri spre conceperea tuturor celor ce există în jur.

Să fii însoţit de senzația că ești conectat în mod cert la o lume care există în afara ta, prin extinderea termenul de valabilitate al unui super-erou, înseamnă să manifeşti sentimentul de a fi cuplat la o sursă superioară de energie, la Conștiința Universală.

Iar consolidarea Sinelui Superior, cu cele mai aspre legi, în sferele cele mai înalte ale raţiunii care îți dau accesul la o altă realitate, este o etapă personalizată cu sigla propriei meniri a cărei importanță o poți înțelege numai din dificultatea cu care Dumnezeu se lasă găsit.

Profilul super-eroului raportat la natura universului și la caracterul vieții, se poate întocmi prin intermediul întrebărilor preliminare: "Cum vezi lumea cu ochii unui Dumnezeu?" și "Cum poţi să recapeţi puterea concentrată în mâinile unei opoziţii puternice, în contextul unei Ordini Nevăzute?"

Acțiunea pe care o urmează răspunsul la aceste întrebări este consecinţa reacţiei prin care demonstrezi apropierea de nervul unei inteligenţe supreme şi nevăzute. Aceasta putând fi determinată prin folosirea formulei secrete "Împinge totul în afara limitelor, în afara tuturor celorlalte roluri pe care le ai, în afara tuturor schimbărilor din lucruri, în afara tuturor adăugirilor pe care le pot aduce tainele lumii”.

Fii tu determinantul ordinii în care se petrec aceste schimbări.

Marile întrebări ale leadershipului, înfrângând legile unanim acceptate în prezent, ale lumii şi ale existenţei, se îndreaptă către o explozie iminentă:

 Notă: Doctor Strange

Martorul tuturor vârstelor lumii

On August 06, 2013

Testează-ţi limitele de înţelegere a ştiinţei, astfel încât nivelul ideilor tale să nu afecteze tendinţa ta spre excelenţă.

Mă temeam să nu-mi pierd privilegiul asupra măreţei lumii, îndelung căutate şi abia descoperite, prin care dobândisem drepturi depline în a interacţiona cu fluxurile de energie şi forţe care gravitau în jurul unui singur punct central. Noul început. Necesitatea ineluctabilă de a cuprinde altă realitate, devenită conştientă, ce oferea minţii o grijă minuţioasă faţă de tot ceea ce mă înconjura. Una care nu putea fi cuprinsă de nicio descriere exactă, ci doar de o interpretare subiectivă.

Activitatea cerebrală intensificată în acel stadiu al conştiinţei care se exprima pe sine sub forma schimburilor dinamice de impulsuri inteligente între două conexiuni - superiorul şi inferiorul ideilor atinse, realizând o creştere a statusului psihic, îmi dădea posibilitatea de a încerca orice. De a trece orice barieră, de a experimenta ceea ce în lumea reală nu a mai fost încercat.

Totodată, activitatea cerebrală intensă era menţinută în intervalul de timp necesar pentru ducerea la bun sfârşit a procesului de conversie a realităţii şi de instalare a unei noi versiuni a acesteia. Mă dedicam acestei îndeletniciri plin de sârguinţă. Acest act al gândirii prin asocieri şi combinări de imagini, făcând ca totul să pară mai mult magie decât ştiinţă, aşa cum se întâmplă când vrei să afli ceva nou demn de un film ştiinţifico-fantastic, era specifică atitudinii căutătorului de enigme, de care aminteşte Umberto Eco în romanul "Numele Trandafirului":

"Am pornit-o hotărât spre labirint. Intram aici singur pentru prima oară, umbrele lungi aruncate de felinar pe pardoseală mă îngrozeau ca și nălucirile din noaptea dinainte. Mă temeam în orice clipă să nu mă pomenesc în fața altei oglinzi, pentru că în așa fel este magia oglinzilor încât chiar dacă știi că sunt oglinzi, ele nu încetează să te neliniștească."

Leadership: Îţi poţi schimba modul de a gândi prin transformarea imaginilor tale mentale într-o valoare de sine ridicată, încât realitatea pe care o percepi adevărată să fie aşezată la baza ideilor generale despre însemnătatea ştiinţei?

Capacitatea de a gândi prin transformarea imaginilor mentale îmi furniza un fel de entuziasm debordant, făcându-mă să mă simt mai împăcat cu mine însumi, mai flexibil, mai creativ, mai productiv. Pe lângă faptul că mă ţinea ocupat, asigurându-mi o anumită dispoziţie în a alege varianta de mutare optimă într-o realitate permanent în schimbare, mă ajuta să mă concentrez cu totul asupra repunerii pe picioare a absolutului. Acest efort intelectual îmi asigura şi o receptivitate plină de constatări esenţiale. Care determinau stabilirea unor obligaţii suplimentare de diseminare şi exploatare a rezultatelor preconizate.

Viaţa mi-a fost complet schimbată în urma acestei experienţe extreme: testarea propriilor limite de înţelegere a fenomenelor revoluţionare şi a mecanismelor de modificare a diferitelor proprietăţi ale materiei. Era un fel de explorare a ideilor, convingerilor şi experienţelor anterioare, în relaţie cu o infinită varietate de reprezentări ale sentimentelor care mă îndreptau spre elaborarea unei noi viziuni asupra ştiinţei.

Deprimant, dar şi motivant în acelaşi timp. De parcă aş fi fost plasat în interiorul unui câmp magnetic, capabil să atragă elemente materiale care aveau suficientă energie încât să formeze centrul productiv corespunzător unei noi traversări spre zona zero, spre poarta deschisă a absolutului. Astfel aş fi avut privilegiul de a fi stăpânul timpului, al vieţii şi al morţii, devenind singurul martor al tuturor vârstelor lumii.

Ştiinţa este ieşirea dintr-un labirint construit cu puterea minţii unui artist care percepe realitatea prin intermediul experienţei de gestionare a interpretărilor pe care le acordă situaţiilor diverse.

Leadership: Până la ce punct se poate stabili pulsul ştiinţei tale din punct de vedere al viziunii care se adresează unui intelect conceput astfel încât să cuprindă lumea în mod universal?

Viaţa ţi-a fost complet schimbată în urma unei experienţe extreme? Poţi experimenta ceea ce în lumea reală n-am mai fost încercat? Cum îţi testezi limitele de înţelegere a ştiinţei?

În spaţiul dintre axele principale ale leadershipului, viziunea şi realitatea curentă, se află libertatea ta de alegere. Unde, după cum observa un filozof, nimic nu trebuie să te obosească. Te poţi transforma într-un creator de viziuni fanteziste, sau te poţi limita la a confirma adevăruri descoperite în funcţie de realitatea de care te înconjori. Şi poţi evalua această realitate în funcţie de limitele libertăţii de experimentare pe care ţi le alegi pe tot parcursul dezvoltării ei.

Ca lider, scormonind în mărturiile timpului prin afirmarea puternică a imaginarului - un proces de mare importanţă pentru devenirea ta - vei simţi ceva palpitant care va face să vibreze aproape încontinuu acea coardă sensibilă ce te determină să vrei să afli mai mult, dând greutate avântului tău spre înălţimi de neatins. Asta este ceea ce îi defineşte în principal pe liderii din domeniul IT, marii inventatori, businessmenii de top ai lumii actuale, în aşteptarea rezultatelor eforturilor căutării lor.

Pulsul ştiinţei înalte la care poţi accede, ca lider, se poate măsura până la punctul dincolo de care nu mai poţi "vedea". Sau, mai rău, dincolo de care imaginarul se poate întoarce împotriva ta.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi remodelezi structura realităţii pe care o experimentezi ca valoare adăugată spre recunoaşterea creaţiei din perspectiva fundamentului raţional, într-un efort de reorientare a mersului înainte?

Dacă ţii mereu pregătite în conştiinţa ta ameninţările concrete ale descoperirilor tentante, populate şi denaturate de ficţiuni lipsite de orice dovadă sau logică, va trebui să ai în vedere că, încă din perioada începutului tău de drum spre a înţelege sensul creaţiei, leadershipul se va îndrepta în două direcţii.

Prima este cea a mutărilor intermediare prin care vei avansa pas cu pas menţinându-ţi vigilenţa şi capacitatea de concentrare mărită, evidenţiindu-te în mulţime prin dezvoltarea unui produs, a unei viziuni, a unei misiuni sau a unui sistem de valori aparte. Aici este vorba despre accentuarea creaţiei pe motive de apartenenţă la o cultură a curiozităţii, a informaţiei, a diversităţii.

A doua am putea-o numi a „înlocuitoarelor" de fundamente şi valori credibile, solide, practice, sănătoase, care îţi vor distrage atenţia de la ceea ce este important. Distrugându-ţi încetul cu încetul performanţa şi relaţia cu leadershipul. De exemplu, atunci când eşti pe cale să faci o mare descoperire, dar atenţia îţi este distrasă de la esenţial prin celelalte sarcini zilnice şi situaţii stresante cu care te confrunţi.

În leadership nu este acceptat întotdeauna imaginarul şi ambiguitatea. Mai mult sunt răsplătite unitatea şi continuitatea în spaţiu şi timp, în exploatarea imenselor izvoare de gândire care se încapsulează în reguli și norme riguroase, creând o anumită relevanţă pentru sectorul business.

Leadershipul este imaginea de sine pe care ţi-o formezi prin intermediul ştiinţei, încât direcţia în care te îndrepţi să fie una cu rezultatul eforturilor de căutare a unei noi identităţi care să te împlinească ca artist al unei lumi nemărginite.

Martorul tuturor vârstelor lumii aduce în prim plan limitele realului şi imaginarului în leadership. Un lider poate deveni un vizionar de succes. Sau poate ajunge un iluzionist care reuşeşte să impresioneze doar propriul său Eu, nu şi pe ceilalţi, pierzându-şi suporterii.

Îndepărtarea de la realitatea într-adevăr într-o permanentă schimbare, şi persistenţa în imaginar pot fi periculoase, îndepărtându-te de excelenţă.

Mărturia cheie a unei arte misterioase

On Iunie 17, 2018

O oglindă convexă plasată în centrul compoziţiei artistice poate face ca orice urmă de dezordine să dispară în spatele unei faţade frumoase.

Am căpătat o grămadă de deprinderi într-o multitudine de domenii, dar numai câtă vreme exista o enigmă de dezlegat într-un real proces de explorare a spaţialităţii unei alte lumi. Asemenea unui artist al visării şi al ficţiunii, îmi imaginam că nu făceam altceva decât să mă joc cu un puzzle intuitiv, un indicator al solidităţii construcţiei unui labirint ce ţinea de realităţile sufleteşti, culminând cu o fermecătoare rătăcire prin zonele picturii.

Asta echivala cu asumarea condiţiei celui ce şi-a dedicat toată atenţia, priceperea şi existenţa în crearea unui univers aflat în expansiune continuă.

Era ca şi când ar fi trebuit să descopăr un concept derivat din genetica moleculară, în urma unei întâmplări care îşi încearcă şansa de reuşită împreună cu acel "ceva" care așteaptă să iasă la iveală la momentul potrivit. Provocărilor care modelează viaţa le atribuiam valoarea de simbol într-o traducere de excepţie a unei scrieri identificată de cercetătorul Michael Finkenthal cu destinul secret al umanităţii, prezentând un caracter opac, ezoteric, în ciuda unei logici "nebuloase" în argumentaţie, care incită la reflecţie.

Pentru a te constitui tu însuți ca o știință în leadership, este necesar să pășești dincolo de certitudinile lumii tangibile, învățând să manipulezi cu măiestrie puzzle-ul complex al realității.

Un om care nu reuşeşte să pună bazele unei ştiinţe nu se va putea constitui niciodată el însuşi ca ştiinţă. Încă mă întreb dacă nu cumva în organizarea părţilor lipsă a acestui puzzle trebuie căutate diferenţele genetice dintre orice aspect al creației și Creator, cu care se deschid perspectivele inedite în evoluţionism. Hazardul ocupă din acest punct de vedere un loc determinant în a mă convinge de valoarea unei realităţi care nu aparţine acestei lumi.

Încet, închid uşa în urma mea şi păşesc pe drumul abrupt al unui sentiment ciudat: exist doar în imaginea unei oglinzi fermecate, obţinută prin utilizarea şi manipularea unui univers conceptual dominat exclusiv de instinct.

Acum mă întreb, cu nesfârşita dorinţă de creaţie a pictorului care foloseşte în operele sale modularea cromatică, dacă nu cumva m-am grăbit să generalizez puţinele certitudini pe care le aveam, pornind de la misterul greu de surprins ce sălăşluieşte în firescul unei imagini, de aparentă verosimilitate.

Leadership: Încerci să conferi formei tale de expresie accente de "efect al unui joc de-a suspansul", fără să argumentezi punctele de vedere specifice esteticienilor care conferă lecturii autenticitatea unei mari descoperiri?

Fluidul concentrat al ştiinţei pure, adevărate, în care cred cu toată fiinţa, se scurge printr-un orificiu dat într-un timp mai mare decât altul, într-un alt univers imaginar decât cel reprezentat printr-un fond cromatic de culoare albă, brăzdat de o porţiune mediană cu fond cenuşiu, ca al unei umbre care se culege doar din stele.

Întotdeauna o fiinţă enigmatică, un scriitor plin de forță, un artist încununat de spectaculozitate, îşi încadrează cunoaşterea într-un labirint verificat şi încercat de un spaţiu real, exterior anexat la spaţiul simbolic al unei opere cu adâncire hermeneutică, în atmosfera unui concurs de împrejurări care ridică numeroase semne de întrebare asupra unei existenţe ce îşi aşteaptă resorbţia în cosmic.

Fie şi în treacăt, am ajuns în punctul de maximă iluminare în care artistul utilizează umbra, jocul întunecat al culorilor alb-gri-negru sub forme multiple de manifestare a materiei cosmice, în ilustrarea contrastului dintre recurenţă şi diferenţă ca mijloc de vizualizare a sacrului pe parcursul întregii sale opere.

Leadershipul de succes este o creație unică, care îmbină viziunea asupra propriei evoluții cu dorința instinctivă de a descoperi verosimilitatea adevărurilor ascunse în universul tau interior.

O oglindă convexă plasată în centrul compoziţiei artistice, sub aspectul derulării unei retrospective a vieţii pentru a trage învăţăminte din trecut, bine plasată într-un microcosmos de obiecte, de atitudini și de relații, declarate sau sugerate, face ca orice urmă de dezordine să dispară în spatele unei faţade frumoase.

Nu poţi să conferi formei tale de expresie accente de "efect al unui joc de-a suspansul" fără să argumentezi punctele de vedere specifice esteticienilor care conferă lecturii autenticitatea unei mari descoperiri.

Încărcat cu semnificaţii simbolice venite din partea unei inteligenţe superioare, dar sensibilă în fiecare moment destinat lecturii atente şi profunde, făcându-mă "să ard mai departe", părând o provocare îmbrăţişată doar de spiritele alese, tabloul pe care îl conturez aici şi acum pare victima unei viziuni înşelătoare, sacrul manifestându-se printr-o atitudine ostilă faţă de principiile supraumane.

Astfel, am încălcat regula proporţionalităţii dintre forţe şi deformaţii ale construcţiilor logice de tipul explicaţiei, analogiei, deducţiei. Cu toate astea, reprezentarea pe care o capătă accepţiunea de substanţă-subiect pare reală.

Leadership: Autenticitatea operei tale conţine o expresie de tipul „concurs de împrejurări" care este foarte conţinătoare şi explicativă pentru ideea „în fiecare clipă mă definesc ca un spaţiu al misterului şi ca un loc al revelaţiei visate"?

O minte provenită din memoria universală, cunoscută drept autorul lui "Mizerabilii", spunea că singurele căi care se deschid în întuneric în faţa deznădejdii sunt ispititoare. Aici este pusă sub semnul întrebării o întreagă investigaţie în jurul reprezentării picturale a sacrului.

În acelaşi timp, artistul din mine porneşte în studierea culorii de la înţelegerea mecanismului percepţiei vizuale ca moment fundamental al existenţei şi al expresiei umane, având ca şi caracter experimental acel labirint al imaginarului în care se pierde omul printre atâtea jocuri de oglinzi, oferind un univers pictural feeric, spaţiu al efuziunilor emoţionale, dar şi al misterului.

Ştiu că sunt la dispoziţia unei argumentaţii care caută să aducă justificări de ordin raţional unor sentimente rămase active într-o zonă a realului neacceptat ca ipoteză de design. Iar un spirit de prim rang artistic, angajat în cercetarea laturii cel mai subtile a semnificaţiei întunericului, ştie să întocmească o întreagă listă de provocări la un dialog care nu are un plan stabilit „a priori", dar care se structurează pe măsură ce înaintează în discuţie.

Expresia unei culturi artistico-literare şi a unei apartenenţe spirituale la ceva mai măreţ decât marea, cerul sau munţii, este mâna care împinge leagănul unei istorii care se face tablou votiv, facilitând locuirea în universul unei povestiri despre o idee genială. Detaliul cel mai verosimil al anatomiei unui tablou rezidă tocmai din puterea de reflecţie a unei combinaţii dintre două sau mai multe culori secundare, din care rezultă o primară: convingerea unei experienţe interesante.

Adevărata ştiinţă se bazează pe reamintire, plecând de la tărâmul de poveste care merită înţeles şi redescoperit, inducând senzaţia intrării într-un spaţiu al misterului care oferă preţuirea şi nemurirea.

Mărturia cheie a unei arte misterioase este însăşi forma de expresie, energizantă şi eliberatoare, pe care o defineşti şi o utilizezi ca variantă de concept pentru elaborarea unei noi viziuni care face din tine nu doar un artist al ideilor, inspirat de ştiinţele oculte, ci şi un lider al ştiinţei dezvoltării personale.

Mărturia unui destin născut dintr-o configuraţie astrală

Mulţumeşte-te să consideri toate drumurile vieţii tale drept un fel de datorie a unei înalte învăţături spirituale care are să fie împlinită atunci când va sosi timpul unei resetări a lumii.

Nu-mi pot explica nici mie însumi mai clar de ce am făcut-o, decât dacă mă condamn la o rătăcire perpetuă în căutarea timpului trecut, forţând graniţele unanim acceptate ale adevărul izvorât din preaplinul Creatorului care este în mine şi peste tot. Mi-a invadat trupul, mintea, sufletul, cu vraja înflăcărării de a afla urmele unei totalităţi în care se regăsesc contrariile acestei lumi. O tăietură de katana a spintecat dintr-o singură lovitură reminiscenţa unui secret nemărturisit.

Cine ar simţi în maniera mea de a scrie o oarecare ostilitate faţă de orice mi-ar putea prejudicia superioritatea în oglinda timpului, ar simţi de asemenea rana rece a finitudinii unei existenţe care a fost precedată de neant.

Ştiu doar că trebuie să încerc încă o poveste metaforică, dar nu despre strategii, militari şi războaie, ci despre cultura impresionantă a unei lumi uitate, manifestare a unei realităţi dumnezeieşti ascunse, care imprimă realităţii unei civilizaţii pierdute culoarea fundamentală a principiului vital, culoarea focului şi a sângelui, ca într-o pictură de Adam Varga. Deja mă simt bine c-am fost o parte a acelei lumi, fără să uit de mine, fără să risc să mă pierd într-un scenariu regizat de altcineva cu dovezile nemuririi pe care universul le presară la fiecare act de imaginaţie.

Traversarea timpului seamănă cu ilustrarea realităţii pe care simţi c-o trăieşti numai în viziunea unui pictor. Câtă virtute există numai şi într-un singur motiv de a face parte dintr-un tablou mai mare al lucrurilor, prin modul de a concepe acordurile suprafeţei picturale cu exaltări trăitoare, hiperbolizări ale senzaţiilor de neuitat, revelaţii ale unei vechi şi enigmatice lumi, toate acestea pregătind calea spre o formă nouă de expresivitate.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi asiguri vizibilitatea în condiţiile unui salt deasupra nivelului de simplu muritor, fără să-ţi schimbi percepţia faţă de Eul tău în clipa în care nu te mai poţi defini ca un "trecător", ci ca parte din lungimea unui drum care curge fără întrerupere?

Eu, cel care călătoream clandestin între vieţi, cărţi şi tablouri, devenisem un altul decât acela care dansase pe vreme de furtună pe drumul ce ducea în Delphi, pe timpul când Jupiter avea să supravieţuiască şi să-şi doboare tatăl, cu sprijinul titanilor. Liga amficționilor mi-a refuzat dreptul de a zăbovi prea mult acolo. Când drumul nu era tocmai uşor de străbătut, când întregul meu trup şi muşchii îşi cereau dreptul la odihnă, priveam în zare şi mă gândeam la străvechii zei despre care singurul meu prieten, Hesiod, spunea că s-au retras la nord, pe nişte insule binecuvântate, după ce au fost înfrânţi de Zeus.

Trăirea şi contemplarea a ceva tangibil doar cu dorul de a cuprinde o nouă realitate în clepsidra timpului, miracolul unei existenţe invizibile privirilor neavizate, reflexele unei viziuni poematice, cu o nestăvilită sete de cunoaştere izvorâtă din însăşi substanţa celor anterior asimilate, făcea ca totul să pară mai puţin intimidant.

Cu regret dar şi cu bucurie, am părăsit Delphi, am ocolit Himera, doar pentru a traversa timpul în căutarea unui paradis tainic unde cerurile se roteau pe axul polar, pe care hiperboreenii îl proslăveau precum Stâlpul lui Atlas. Auzisem că poporul înţelept şi prosper din acest ţinut nu cunoştea boala, suferinţele şi bătrâneţea.

Era o încercare de a cădea la învoială cu viaţa. După ce-am trecut prin munţi greu de nestrăbătut şi prin pădurile din jurul Kios-ului, singurele pe care timpul nu le-a transformat într-un teren sterp, după ce-am petrecut momente minunate în locuri pline de poveşti misterioase, am ajuns într-o ţară unde imaginaţia era împărăteasă peste minţile oamenilor şi am fost întâmpinat de geniul creator al unei rase de statură medie.

Leadership: Poţi crea un eveniment din propria experienţă de viaţă care ţi-a trezit anumite sentimente, prin prisma a ceea ce el poate produce la nivel de schimbare de mentalitate în raport cu percepţia unei plăceri trecătoare care întreţine permanenţa unei viziuni idealiste?

O femeie deosebit de frumoasă, pe nume Electra, m-a luat de mână ca şi când ar fi făcut-o de-a lungul unei întregi vieţi, şi m-a condus în apropiere de Asgard, sanctuarul cel mai sfânt al lui Aesir. După ce am fost prezentat preoţilor atlanţi, aflaţi în fruntea unei confederaţii neînchegate a regatelor, ni s-a permis să participăm la ceremonia cuvenită sacrei împreunări dintre ceea ce păreau a fi o mare preoteasă şi un rege. Dealul pe care s-a desfăşurat ceremonia era înconjurat de cinci cercuri concentrice de apă şi uscat, la distanţă egală unul de celălalt.

Priveam în ochii ei, aşa cum pictorul îşi priveşte modelul pentru a-i surprinde blândeţea sufletească, pentru care nu ar putea exista nicio altă dovadă de măiestrie artistică. Îmi dădeam seama că şi ea se uita direct în ochii mei cu aceeaşi plăcere cu care citeşti o poezie dedicată zeilor. Forţa efectivă a unei înţelepciuni seculare nu ar fi fost în stare să creeze o profunzime în textura ce valoriza spaţiul spiritual dintre două lumi atât de semănătoare în esenţa lor şi totuşi atât de îndepărtate în comparaţie cu dimensiunile mult mai mari ale universului material.

Pentru a putea cuprinde o realitate pe care doar ficțiunea o poate exprima, este nevoie de suflarea unei adieri de vânt proaspete şi parfumate, de acel plâns care dă glas unui limbaj tăcut, de o îmbrăţişare caldă sub un cer înstelat, de parcă toate ar fi împletite din fire de argint închise sub razele unei lămpi din alte timpuri.

Leadership: Poţi să justifici circumstanţele credibilităţii care se aplică la recunoașterea statutului de "prezenţă plină de har în linia timpului" câştigată ca potenţiator de expresivitate a unei imagini care se repetă?

Trăiesc şi acum cu nostalgie acele timpuri de care prea puţin istoria îşi mai aminteşte, într-o altă viaţă care m-a însoţit în toată perioada de evoluţie a sufletului meu. Totul e trezire la ceea ce este etern şi indestructibil, un fel de reprezentare abstractă a unei memorii ancestrale, o reminiscenţă a unei perioade în care doar vântul şi croncănitul păsărilor spărgeau liniştea unei realităţi pustii.

Un filozof al Greciei antice și fondatorul Academiei din Atena, pe nume Platon, a relatat povestea legendarei Atlantida, dar a omis povestea mea şi a Electrei. Aşa sunt muritorii acestei lumi pe care, de altfel, nu i-am putut niciodată înţelege. Ei sunt atraşi de bogăţiile rare care îşi sporesc preţul, chibzuiesc doar asupra celor trecătoare, dar nu-şi permit niciodată luxul de a conferi clipei de faţă substanţa veşniciei.

În cele din urmă, înfuriaţi de continua amestecare a raselor care a însetat preoţii şi regii de putere, zeii au scufundat Atlantida într-un loc fără nume. Dar s-au înduplecat să-i atribuie acestui paradis nişte dimensiuni suplimentare de "legendă" datorită apropierii dintre mine şi Electra, ca un ecou de peste timpuri a iubirii neasemuite dintre Guinevere şi Lancelot, fără de care probabil s-ar fi uitat legenda regatului Camelot.

Totul este retrăit în alte timpuri sub altă formă, dar într-un context asemănător. Grecii ştiau că nu suntem altceva decât umbra unui vis. Potrivit doctrinei idealiste, verbele "a trăi" şi "a visa" sunt perfect sinonime.

Comorile şi bogăţiile pier, amintirile rămân înţepenite în clepsidra timpului. Dar, culorile vor sluji totdeauna drept expresii ale diferitelor stări sufleteşti. Nu mă gândesc nicio clipă la ce se întâmplă în jurul unei istorii suspendate în amintiri destul de vagi, ci mă mulţumesc să consider toate drumurile vieţii mele drept un fel de datorie a unei înalte învăţături spirituale care are să fie împlinită atunci când va sosi timpul unei resetări a lumii.

O imagine care se repetă de-a lungul timpului este o încercare de a cădea la învoială cu viaţa într-o lume pusă la îndoială de însăşi popularitatea ei care chiar dacă a rezistat şi a evoluat până la un punct, se poate oricând dovedi trecătoare.

Mărturia unui destin născut dintr-o configuraţie astrală se referă la puterea de a te integra într-o lume care oricând se poate destrăma, dar care la fel de bine poate fi reînviată prin fantezia cu care îi atribui o imagine reală, mai atrăgătoare şi convingătoare.

Mărturisirea unei priviri care îşi ascultă ochii

On Ianuarie 07, 2024

Atâta timp cât ochiul tău percepe un reper vizual deosebit, atenţia va rămâne concentrată pe acel reper un timp mai îndelungat.

Ochii mei, şi aşa destul de sensibili la lumină, au decis să se joace puţin cu abilităţile lor de fotograf împătimit şi cu frumuseţea naturii, doar pentru a obţine ceva deosebit, un Inthaeilodhis Amaliess Ompusisthe, un soi de formă de recunoaștere a detaliilor pentru împlinirea unei viziuni spectaculoase. Cu puterea lor de a se concentra asupra momentul prezent, ochii au îndrăznit să capteze dinamica vieţii, orizontul unei picturi în care fluxul valurilor este capturat într-un reflux infinit de culoare și formă, în aşa fel încât artistul genial, eu însumi, să reuşesc să-mi îmbrac ideile cu noi mijloace de exprimare, cu stil şi argument plastic.

Mă plimb pe litoralul turcesc. În continuare, privirea mea urmărește lucrurile ca într-o oglindă, retina absorbind doar părțile lor luminoase pe fondul deschis al percepției mele, încât pot să creez iluzia unei a treia dimensiuni pe care o dezvălui. Poate că îmi este dat să încerc să desluşesc sensurile în afara existenţei materiale, încât lucrurile, ieşite din sfera vederii directe, să fie tratate ca un simbol al misterului, acel voal subtil care acoperă înțelegerea obişnuită și care încurajează explorarea dincolo de ceea ce se poate observa și măsura în mod direct.

Este chemarea artistului de a căuta semnificații ascunse, conexiuni nevăzute și profunzimi pe care mintea obişnuită poate doar să le întrezărească pe linia unui parcurs filosofic care, printre griji, dezamăgiri şi deşertăciunile lumii, caută un refugiu sigur în interiorul sufletului. Astfel, misterul, o simultaneitate imaginară care se manifestă sub forma spaţiului pe care arta pictează, poate sălășlui în detaliile simple ale vieții, transformându-le în simboluri ale unei realități mai adânci și mai complexe.

Leadership: Percepția ta asupra lucrurilor poate să devină o sursă de salvare a sufletului, explorând sublimul cauzei unei viziuni atotcuprinzătoare prin stabilirea distincției între realitate și interpretare?

Nici să nu cădem în capcana de a crede că ochii pot să explice frumosul prin intermediul comparațiilor sau prin intermediul vreunei psihologii empirice tratată în manieră iluministă ca pe timpul lui Heidegger sau Kant. Niciodată ochii nu vor avea nevoie de vreo lămurire în privința configurației estetice a lucrurilor din jur, căci pentru ei este de ajuns să vadă în idealitatea lor absolută pura imitație a naturii. Spun asta fiindcă însăşi ochii sunt idei particulare intuite în chip real, primind în sine "Totalitatea", întregul caracter divin.

Implicaţia filozofiei în artă este evidentă. Tocmai din acest motiv, ideea privirii artistice a ochilor face trimitere la romanul "Numele Trandafirului" scrisă de Umberto Eco:

"Și cu atât mai mult aceste lucruri îmi sunt revelate cu cât materia pe care o privesc este prin natura sa prețioasă, și cu atât mai mult iese mai la lumină puterea creatoare a lui Dumnezeu cu cât, dacă trebuie să urc spre sublimul cauzei, inaccesibilă în totalitatea ei, pornind de la sublimul efectului, un efect miraculos ca al aurului sau al diamantului nu-mi spun nimic despre cauzalitate, dacă despre ea pot să-mi vorbească chiar şi bălegarul şi insecta! Şi, atunci când percep în aceste pietre asemenea lucruri superioare, inima plânge, tulburată de bucurie, şi nu din vanitate pământească sau din dragoste pentru bogăţie, ci din dragostea neîntinată pentru cauza primă, cea fără de cauză."

Se poate spune, deci, că arta privirii este însuşirea de a așeza lucrurile într-o manieră subiectivă, pe linia unei cereri efemere de a decodifica o realitate eternă (sau o realitate creată de ceva care este etern), prin intermediul metaforei şi comparaţiei. Adesea un Univers etern se confundă cu un Creator de lumi dacă scrierea despre spirit care însoţeşte lucrurile (netrecătoare prin amintirea ce-o lasă în urmă) devine mai mult decât o reflecţie a inimii, ci o reflecţie a divinităţii.

Leadership: Creaţia ta pe care înțelegerea realităţii o modelează, poate să insufle lucrurilor din jur un efect de perpetuitate astfel încât să le dăruiască "o viață fără de moarte" ?

Dar pentru a crea iluzia unei a treia dimensiuni în arta vizuală și pentru a o dezvălui, eu însumi amator de evidenţiere a contrastelor, folosesc adesea tehnici precum perspectiva, contrastul tonal, suprapunerea obiectelor și efectele de dimensiune și scală, încât să ghidez privirea observatorului prin utilizarea liniilor direcționale. Și creând cadrul potrivit, folosindu-mă de culori și detalii pentru a evidenția subiectele în prim-plan, contribui îndeosebi la percepția de profunzime și volum în lucrarea mea legată de realitatea lucrurilor.

De exemplu. Concepția generală asupra lucrurilor aflate pe o plajă plină de scoici este că acestea sunt entități naturale și fixe, determinate de factori naturali. Totuşi, artiștii care au abilități vizual-spațiale mai bune, dar și abilități matematice, se simt mult diferit captivați de lucrurile din jur, deoarece, ca modele pentru pictură, ele au o formă şi o mărime distinctă, fiecare având o poveste diferită de spus.

Prin urmare lucrurile, aflându-se într-o lumină pură, în aer liber, netulburate de niciun reflex, nu se află în interiorul unui spațiu închis, iar culorile se influențează una pe cealaltă, distrugând volumele. Probabil asta se referea Leonardo da Vinci când spunea: "orice corp își trimite imaginea în tot aerul înconjurător".

Într-un final, pot spune că eu, ca privitor însetat de minunățiile lucrurilor, mă simt onorat să fiu martorul acestor frumuseți și să pot experimenta o simțire profundă în calitate de participant la tabloul artistic al naturii. Ca orice artist, privesc acest peisaj cu recunoștință și admirație, Etielvie Athlessirin Larumor, ca o invitaţie la introspecţie, la meditaţie şi la cunoaşterea de sine, lăsându-mă purtat de magia artei și puterea ei de a transforma momentele efemere în amintiri veșnice. Dintr-un oarecare hazard, am înţeles că ceea ce face ca lucrurile să fie expresia artei este însăşi puterea mea (divină) de a le însufleţi.

Cu privire la minunățiile lucrurilor la care ne focusăm atenţia, liderul poate să experimenteze acea simţire profundă pe care Creatorul, privind în jur cu recunoștință și admirație, se reflectă într-un măreț tablou artistic al naturii.

Mărturisirea unei priviri care îşi ascultă ochii cuprinde toate emoțiile pe care le trăiește artistul în căutarea unui sens propriu, vizavi de felul cum conturează lucrurile cu puterea lui de a transforma momentele efemere în amintiri veșnice.

În privinţa mea, dacă este să adaug un ultim amănunt, într-un fel mă simt legat de lucruri printr-un secret comun, ca un complice al lor, acela că ele devin expresia autentică a fiinţei mele interioare și a capacității de a transpune emoțiile în forme tangibile.

Mărturisirea unui om aflat pe moarte

On Aprilie 02, 2009

Adevărata valoare a vieții se măsoară prin impactul pe care îl lăsăm în inimile altora, fără să uităm că suntem parte a unui întreg mai mare.

- Am de pe acum un plan bine stabilit; vă voi salva pe toţi. Voi închide ochii fără nelinişti. Vă voi lăsa mulţumiţi de mine; O să vedeţi. Ah! scumpa mea iubire reînviată, m-am târât atât de mult într-o viaţă inutilă şi găunoasă. Te rog, nu-mi respinge imensa bucurie de a o termina în mod folositor ! Eu care n-am lăsat în urma mea decât oameni nefericiţi, începând cu mine, lasă-mă să fac şi câţiva fericiţi în clipele ce mi-au mai rămas ! De-ai şti cât de pustiu răsunau sufletul şi viaţa mea în ultimii optsprezece ani; lasă-mă să umplu două inimi în care voi supravieţui şi în care voi trăi mai mult decât am trăit eu însumi.

Tu numeşti asta moarte? Moarte a fost când eram la Viena, când îmi amorţeam inima în tumultul simţurilor, când zvârleam la picioarele trecătorilor amorurile mele de-o noapte şi scandalurile mele vulgare, atunci da, eram cu adevărat mort şi îngropat în plodul orgiei. În schimb, acum, inima mea va trăi în iubire, în puritate şi în recunoştinţa acestor frumoşi copii, pe care îi voi salva şi căsători ! Christiane, te implor, pe dragostea pe care mi-ai păstrat-o, nu mă pizmui pentru această reînviere a trecutului nostru în viitorul lor.

- Bine, fie, zise ea; dar să plecăm împreună.

Leadership: Regretul unei vieți irosite poate fi persistent, dar niciodată nu e atât de intens încât să provoace o suferinţă profundă ca atunci când ştii că poţi face un bine?

Mărturisirea unui om aflat la finalul vieții sale, sau altfel spus, regretul unei vieți irosite și dorința de a face bine, sugerează o confesiune sinceră. Nu ştim prea bine dacă este un om bun sau un om rău. Totuşi, această mărturisire sinceră, având un caracter intim și personal, dezvăluie gândurile și sentimentele profunde ale unui personaj care a înţeles triumful vieţii – acela de a lăsa ceva în urma lui, trăind prin altcineva, reînviind trecutul în viitor.

Iar dacă regretul unei vieți irosite poate fi persistent, el niciodată nu e atât de intens încât să provoace o suferinţă profundă ca atunci când ştii că poţi face un bine, dar lumea nu- ţi este recunoscătoare. Până la urmă, adevărata valoare a vieții se măsoară prin impactul pe care îl lăsăm în inimile altora, relaţional cu ideea ca doar geniul poate atinge iubirea absolută, sau ca măsurile care le-ai luat au fi fost justificate și corecte.

Acest text evidențiază sentimentul de părere de rău al personajului, care consideră că și-a irosit viața, nerămânându-i altceva decât un fel de pioşenie, aşa cum se întâmplă de fiecare dată când ştii că păşeşti, la propriu, pe urmele unui sfânt care vrea să lase în urma lui un semn al existenţei bunătăţii divine. Cu atenţie, dacă vom explora motivele acestui regret, care pot fi diverse - alegeri greșite, oportunități ratate, timp pierdut inutil - vom găsi următoarea explicaţie: că tot ce e cu adevărat durabil se obţine prin sacrificiul dat de sinceritatea sufletească.

Leadership: Dialogurile tale interioare reflectă regretul adevărat și dorința de a face bine, afectând acțiunile prin care ceilalţi îşi pot schimba viaţa?

Omul rămâne om, cu greșeli și regrete, dar și cu capacitatea de a găsi un înțeles în bunătatea care transcende timpul. Iar aici îşi face loc dorința de a face bine, reprezentând triumful spiritului asupra materiei, un mic simbol al celor înfrânţi de cauzele vieţii, dar ajunşi nemuritori prin amprenta lăsată în urma lor.

În ciuda regretului, personajul manifestă o dorință puternică de a face bine în ultimele sale clipe, din perspectiva unei viziuni copleşitoare: "mai bine să mor cu gânduri bune, decât să trăiesc în continuare cu gânduri rele". Această dorință poate fi văzută ca o încercare de a- și remedia greșelile din trecut și de a lăsa o moștenire pozitivă.

Apoi, este vorba despre tensiunea dintre regret și speranță. Observăm o tensiune interesantă între regretul pentru o viață irosită aiurea, fără realizări majore, și speranța de a face bine în ultimele clipe, fapt perceput ca pe un fel de "îmi iau revanşa cu vârf şi îndesat, într-un fel sau altul". Această tensiune este clar explorată în text, dezvăluind lupta interioară a personajului cu un soi de tristeţe ascunsă, cu un demon mai negru decât prevede o conştiinţă sărăcită de conţinut.

Dedicarea nemăsurată față de propriile convingeri marchează granița dintre existența efemeră și nemurirea spirituală, indiferent de vârstă său statut.

El știa prea bine că o viață irosită prin moarte nu era onorabilă, așa că se alătură celor care se retrăgeau spre fortăreață spirituală numit Sosthieen Karsthis, adică scoate la iveală o tresărire de omenie, de lumină şi gânduri bune, o tresărire de bucurie crezând că, gata, criteriile aflate la originea răului au dat faliment. Într-adevăr, orice om îşi să se absolve de orice vină la un moment dat. De fapt, criteriile de bine şi rău reprezintă fuga de durere şi căutarea bucuriei.

Întotdeauna moartea este văzută ca un punct de cotitură: ceva determină personajul să reconsidere viața să și să ia o nouă direcție, chiar dacă triumful binelui asupra răului nu a fost încă atins, ci rămânând în aşteptare. Leadershipul, de asemenea, trebuie să exploreze felul cum această perspectivă iminentă a morții îi afectează pe cei "nobili", determinându-i să ia anumite decizii etice. Următoarele întrebări sunt importante:

Cine este omul aflat pe moarte? Care sunt motivele regretului său? Ce regretă exact, şi cât de mult? Tu poţi să explorezi motivele concrete ale regretului tău, oferind exemple specifice din viața ta? Ce te determină să doreşti să faci un bine măreţ? Care este motivația din spatele dorinței tale de a face bine? Este o dorință de iertare? De a- ţi remedia greșelile? De a lăsa o moștenire pozitivă?

Cum îţi pui în practică dorința de a face bine? Poţi să prezinţi acțiunile concrete pe care le iei pentru a face bine? Care este impactul acțiunilor tale? Cum afectează acțiunile tale pe cei din jur și cum îţi schimbă ele viaţa?

Leadershipul trebuie să cuprindă neapărat flashback-urile, acele momente care dezvăluie aspecte semnificative din viața ta și motivele regretelor tale pentru ceea ce ai putut să faci, dar nu ai făcut.

Mărturisirea unui om aflat pe moarte duce la o următoarea concluzie: "Stăpânirea activităţii noastre spirituale este un fapt istoric remarcabil care cere pioşenie, dar nu acceptă mila destinului."

Acest titlu puternic și evocator oferă o imagine clară a omului care nu- şi poate schimba destinul, dar are puterea de a schimba destinul altora. Explorând detaliat temele regretului, speranței și morții, oferind o poveste emoționantă și semnificativă despre un personaj care caută iertarea și mântuirea, înţelegem de fapt că viaţa este nu este neapărat un proces de învăţare, ci unul de reamintire.

Mărturisirea

On Martie 05, 2015

Priveşte înspre trecut şi înspre logica întâmplatului, încât să reuşeşti saltul peste prăpastia care desparte lumea aparenţelor de loialitate de lumea rolului asumat cu luciditate.

- Nu, nu te învinovăţesc Edmond, nu, nu te urăsc, prietene ! Pe mine mă învinovăţesc şi mă urăsc ! Nemernică ce sunt ! strigă Mercedes împreunându-şi mâinile şi înălţându-şi ochii spre cer. Am fost pedepsită. Aveam credinţă, dragoste, nevinovăţie, toate aceste trei haruri îngereşti şi, netrebnica de mine, m-am îndoit de Dumnezeu. Te-am lăsat să mori... N-ar fi trebuit să-mi salvez bărbatul, oricât de vinovat ar fi fost el? Şi totuşi, Doamne, am ajutat la moartea lui prin laşa mea lipsă de simţire, prin dispreţul meu, nevoind să-mi amintesc că pentru mine se făcuse el sperjur şi trădător !

Monte Cristo înaintă cu un pas şi îi întinse mâna tăcut.

- Nu, spuse Mercedes, retrăgându-şi mâna cu blândeţe, nu mă atinge. Eu am fost cea mai vinovată. Toţi ceilalţi au fost împboldiţi de ură, de lăcomie, de egoism, numai eu m-am purtat aşa din laşitate. Ei doreau, eu mă temeam. Nu, nu mă atinge Edmond. Te gândeşti să-mi spui un cuvânt de alinare, simt asta. Nu mi-l spune: păstrează-l pentru alta. Eu nu sunt vrednică de el. Iată...(ea îşi descoperi faţa pe deplin). Iată, suferinţa mi-a albit părul, ochii mei au vărsat atâtea lacrimi încât s-au înconjurat de cearcăne vinete, fruntea mi s-a brăzdat.

*Tu, dimpotrivă, Edmond, ai rămas tot tânăr, tot frumos, tot mândru. Şi asta din pricină că ţi-ai păstrat credinţa, că ai avut putere, că te-ai încrezut în Dumnezeu, iar Dumnezeu te-a sprijinit şi te-a apărat. Eu am fost laşă, mi-am renegat dragostea, iar Dumnezeu m-a părăsit, şi iată-mă ! **

Leadership: Judeci faptele potrivit unei perspective în care poţi să apari ca o realizare după care se poate pune punct, în condiţiile unei dualităţi între natura ta firească şi natura ta nevoită care este o consecinţă a căderii tale într-un sentimentalism perimat?

Întotdeauna este necesar să intervină o ruptură, o smulgere din matcă pentru ca oamenii să-şi arate adevăratul lor chip. Valoarea omului poate să rezide din depăşirea unei situaţii dificile, dar în urmă rămâne întotdeauna amintirea, golul acela nevăzut, dar palpabil, pe care nu îl poate umple decât o nouă conştiinţă de sine în acord cu o nouă perspectivă de viaţă.

Iar perspectiva care aşează viaţa în prim-plan seamănă cu o întoarcere la vechea iubire: îţi reprezinţi durerea inimii printr-o stimulare a interesului acordat dialogului dintre ceea ce te-a urcat până la un punct şi ceea ce te poate face mai puternic depăşind acel punct. Din acest unghi, leadershipul capătă valoarea de reper pentru evaluarea unei lecţii de viaţă: nu poţi să rămâi cantonat într-un trecut nostalgic fără să-ţi asumi riscul de a te compromite printr-o purtare care este în acord cu oboseala de a "trăi în virtutea inerţiei".

O anumită integritate a faptei, a consecinţelor şi a motivelor care pot determina luarea unor decizii, dincolo de ceea ce semnifică convenţia dintre o personalitate cu rol de „Cal Troian” şi o altă personalitate cu efect „Flamenco” (deziluzie), este cheia în marea confruntare între ceea ce te atrage (dar te destramă), şi ceea ce te alungă (dar te izbăveşte).

Există în colţul convenţiei dintre aceste două personalităţi o fuziune perfectă între cauzalitate şi faptă, pe care toleranţa şi actul de cumpătare nu pot zdruncina din temelii precaritatea rămasă în picioare.

Leadership: Începi să te pui pe primul plan în viaţa ta, fără să conştientizezi impactul pe care ţi-l oferă rememorarea unei experienţe deosebite care a gustat din înfrângerea morală a conştiinţei?

Cine vrea să reuşească saltul peste prăpastia care desparte cele două lumi, una a aparenţelor de loialitate şi cealaltă a rolului asumat cu luciditate şi responsabilitate, trebuie să privească înspre trecut şi înspre logica întâmplatului care nu poate fi dată înapoi.

Întâmplatul este contextul în care se produce ruptura, în care se resimte o oboseală de ordin emoţional sau mental, caracterizată prin aşteptări scăzute cu privire la evoluţia omului – atâta timp cât adevărul care duce la aşa-numita dovadă a slăbiciunii sale nu este considerat relativ, ci sălăşluieşte continuu în sufletul celui trădat şi renegat. Fapta incriminatorie faţă de care nu există nicio suspiciune, dă adevărului, chiar dacă doare, chiar dacă răscolește sufletul, puterea să lucreze în conştiinţă.

În ce priveşte leadershipul, se ţine cont de însemnătatea gestului de implicare care induce o valoare adăugată unică, dar în acelaşi timp reclamă o reflecţie mai largă, care poate fi dureroasă, în privinţa materializării necesităţii de a te regăsi, de a-ţi cunoaşte punctele tari şi slabe, făcând lucrurile să se mişte din nou în jurul tău.

Dacă ai înţeles leadershipul, atunci ştii că nu prea este posibil să fii prezent în două locuri: într-un timp în care să-i fi cântat cuiva în strună, în încercarea de a-l modela, fără să ajungi la niciun rezultat, deci un timp în care tu nu-i aparţii. Şi un timp în care să aşezi frumos în bagajele inimii acelui om un cristal strălucitor care să reflecte propria ta realitate.

Parafrazând ceea ce spunea evanghelistul scoţian Oswald Chambers, ar trebui reţinut: „Învaţă să distingi între ceea ce te izolează - protejându-te de ceilalţi oameni, şi ceea ce te menţine la înălţime - separându-te de ei".

Conştiinţa se manifestă ca o voinţă superioară atunci când trebuie să decizi cu puterea amintirii ce înseamnă fericirea pentru tine şi să trăieşti în acord cu vocea ta interioară, fără să faci din reperul "a te regăsi" reflecţia unei oglinzi murdare.

Mărturisirea evidenţiază acea înfăţişare a faptelor când devii conștient de adevărul cel mai înalt, pe care poţi să-l accepţi şi să rămâi neclintit în faţa lui. Sau poţi să-l maschezi puţin, să nu-ţi joci toate cărţile la o singură mână, sau chiar să-l ascunzi complet, riscând să ajungi în ipostaza de victimă.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul să nu tindă spre declin, rămâi tot timpul ceea ce ai fost înaintea faptei, înainte de a-ţi îndemna raţionamentul să găsească argumente prin care să favorizezi prescrierea ei. Nu tergiversa judecarea unei cauze până la prescrierea faptei, rişti să devii victima propriei tale bunăvoinţe sau a propriei viziuni defectuoase.

* Unii oameni dau randament sporit doar când sunt lăsați să-și facă singuri treaba. Pune-i lângă alți oameni, și vei vedea că nu mai fac nimic.

* Lasă un om să se descurce singur, și dacă va reuși, atunci el va conduce o lume. Pune același om în mijlocul lumii, și el va ajunge la fel ca toți ceilalți oameni.

* Toate înțelesurile acestei lumi sunt înțelesurile unor vieți luminate de același soare. Și dacă ai încerca să-ți târăşti înțelegerea până la lumina soarelui, poate ai înțelege viața ca o mândrie a luminii de a se strecura în ochii tuturor.

* Universul încurcă întotdeauna planurile celor care gândesc mult, dar simt prea puțin.

* Marea Ştiinţă este opera unui artist care se vede pe sine egalul lui Dumnezeu.

* De ştiinţă poţi profita numai prin ceea ce adevărul scoate la iveală prin nealterarea sa.

* Ştiinţa unui mare artist se înţelege prin ceea ce el este capabil să supună timpului de dincolo de lume.

* Ficţiunea este clipa luminoasă dintr-un vis trăit într-o creaţie care îşi promovează intens aprinderea emoţiilor furnizate de extinderea realităţii.

* Orice lucru pe care îl vezi încearcă să îl priveşti cu alţi ochi.

* Înţelegerea artei se face prin aducerea ştiinţei la nivel de sensibilitate.

* Perfecțiunea se deosebește de lucrurile materiale prin aceea că este legată de spirit, mai mult decât orice altceva.

* Putinţa ştiinţei de a devenit o artă este o validare a înţelegerii unei reacţii de propagare a sensibilităţii şi frumosului interior.

* Făcând ceea ce este important poţi mai uşor să dobândeşti încrederea în abilităţile tale.

* Creaţia artistului îşi câştigă măreţia la nivel de fiinţare a universului prin ceea natura are mai bun de oferit la nivel de "unitate" valabilă pe termen nelimitat.

* Cei care ştiu mult vor afla şi mai multe, iar cei care ştiu puţin vor uita totul şi vor fi uitaţi.

* Cel care se manifestă sub forma unei ştiinţe înalte se îndepărtează categoric de un non-cunoscător care pierde din vedere proprietăţile naturale ale formei substanţiale din actul creaţiei.

* Câştigat este artistul numai atunci când reuşeşte să se raporteze la consumul creaţiei sale în infinit, dând continuitate determinărilor ştiinţifice.

* Replicile idioate sunt pentru oamenii super-inteligenți, ca ei să învețe să coboare nasul un pic mai jos.

* Un sine care trăieşte prin asemănare îşi face simţită "puterea nelimitată" la nivel de creaţie care perpetuează multă vreme.

* Îți ia 20 de ani pentru a înțelege că un banal punct poate fi o linie continuă într-un cerc care își mărește la nesfârșit circumferința.

* Să ştii să te foloseşti de un punct oarecare ca să dai naştere unei linii care se îngroşează şi se lungeşte în interiorul unui glob de sticlă capabil a fi personalizat cu un număr nelimitat de upgradeuri şi funcţii.

* În perfecțiune se regăsesc lucrurile care nu-și află valoarea decât în timp, de unde și fapul că perfecțiunea înseamnă răbdare.

* Faptul care te indică drept atotcunoscător în ale secretelor lumii derivă din cuvântul "cunoaştere" prezentat în direcţia unei Divnitati perpetue.

* Perfecțiunea lucrurilor stă în momentul în care te-ai hotărât să nu faci din ele o așteptare prea mare.

* Vederea cu care distingi un obiect de altul face ca totul să fie unic într-o lume care se împarte în alb şi negru.

* Lucrul văzut prin oglindirea spiritului are mereu altă conformaţie decât cea originală.

* Deoarece în lucrarea vederii există două variante de a percepe obiectele: prin interpretare şi prin "make belief ".

* În direcţia în care te prezinţi atotştiutor, drept un mare iniţiat în secretele lumii, nu se mişcă decât semnificaţia unei ştiinţe care îşi caută necontenit autonomia.

* Faptul că te crezi important presupune a şti încotro să-ţi îndrepţi atenţia.

* Fiecare din lucrurile ce ne înconjoară poartă semnul unei alegeri de tipul "văzului dublu".

* Sacrul existent în Metamorfozele vieţi este dat de spiritul fiinţelor superioare care ştiu să se raporteze la infinit.

* Dacă te aștepți ca lucrurile să fie perfecte, probabil vor fi pe dos. Dacă le iei la timp, așa cum sunt, probabil în timp vor deveni perfecte.

* Ştiinţa de a cuprinde universul este nuanţată prin mărturisirea pe care o face cercetătorul în faţă provocării de a fi una cu Infinitul.

* Natura percepută prin asemănare cu universul se poate înţelege prin asemănarea sinelui artistului cu posibilitatea de dezvoltare a unui teritoriu nelimitat.

* Pune-ţi pe ochi degetul învoirii cu fericirea, fără să te înfrupți din gustul fraged al emoțiilor instinctive. Fii tu însuți, nu lăsa nimic să îți schimbe caracterul.

* Un trandafir este o privire senină aruncată atent într-un vis numit suflet. Iar sufletul, trandafiriu, are ochi doar pentru o înfățișare vrednică de fericire.

* Arta este starea fizică a omului transpusă într-o dimensiune a profunzimilor sufletului.

* Să trăieşti arta la fel cum ai trăi un eveniment artistic într-un mediu de puzzle. Încearcă să îţi ghiceşti realitatea într-o manifestare a sufletului care domină omenirea.

* Să faci din a ta viaţă o experienţă de neuitat înseamnă să îţi ghiceşti sufletul într-o manifestare a adoraţiei pentru miracolul realităţii.

* Artă: să te ştii înălţător la nivel de împlinire a destinului, în interiorul unei imagini care îşi modifică tot timpul aspectul.

* Leadershipul este ştiinţa cea mai înaltă şi mai interesantă. Cuprinde înţelepciune, profunzime, originalitate şi spiritualitate.

* "Careul de Aşi" îl defineşte numai pe cel ce se află în fruntea clasamentului !

* Idealul în leadership este să dispui de cărţile cele mai bune de joc şi totodată să fii cel mai bun jucător de la masa lumii !

* În leadership primează atât calitatea cât şi cantitatea de followers care sunt cu adevărat intersaţi de profilul tău.

* Timpul trece numai în favoarea celor ce ştiu să-l valorizeze cu adevărat. Dublează-ţi în fiecare zi valoarea personală !

* Să nu treacă nicio zi fără să aduci o completare mai interesantă ştiinţei care îţi atestă valoarea.

* Încrederea în propriile abilităţi conferă valoare leadershipului tău !

* Dacă există cel puţin o persoană în lume care poate face ce faci tu, înseamnă că nu eşti un model unicat.

* Leadershipul se măsoară în regim de unicat, nu în regim de producţie de serie !

* Viitorul nu aparţine celor silitori, ci acelora talentaţi care ştiu să folosească admirabil forţa expresivă a talentului lor.

* N-am fost niciodată un om violent. Mi-a plăcut să câştig fără să pornesc în vreo luptă.

* Ştiinţa de a cuprinde infinitul este nuanţată prin încercarea cercetătorului de a răspunde în faţa puterii date de la Dumnezeu în numele salvării lumii.

* A face o artă din ştiinţă este ca şi când ai pune în vibraţie sufletul uman cu ajutorul unei pensule care se mişcă singură.

* Încearcă să faci ceea ce este important îndreptându-ţi atenţia spre ceea ce crezi despre tine.

* Proprietăţile substanţiale ale creaţiei se manifestă sub actul de schimbare a formei de conţinut în mai multe feluri.

* Să visezi, să aprinzi lumina asupra unei clipe trăite intens în timpul unei creaţii care îşi extinde realitatea.

* Ca să înţelegi cu adevărat arta mai întâi trebuie să te inspire muzica şi imaginile care o însoţesc. Compoziţia care mă defineşte are ca prevedere trecerea de la o tehnică la alta.

* Să simţi şi să vezi ceea ce nimeni altcineva nu reuşeşte încât pictura artei tale să fie însufleţită de o vedere dincolo de tine însuţi.

* Partea proastă este că unii oameni nu se schimbă niciodată. Partea bună este că ştii la ce să te aştepţi de la ei.

* Singura modalitate de a-ţi îmbunătăţi continuu performanţa este să-ţi placă la nebunie ceea ce faci !

* Să faci ceea ce îţi place, iar dacă eşti potrivit pentru acea îndeletnicire atunci întreg universul te va susţine cu forţa uriaşă a infinitului.

* A-ţi întemeia un stil personal de a face artă înseamnă să urmăreşti 11 ani o ficţiune care poate face din tine oglinda realităţii.

* În fiecare zi trebuie să faci un drum cât mai departe de aglomeraţie, ca să-ţi limpezeşti gândurile. Cele mai bune idei le concepi atunci când comunici cu natura.

* Există oamenii care muncesc de dimineaţă până seara pregatesc totul de zor, mereu sarcini, responsabilitate, suprasolicitări, etc. Şi oamenii de ştiinţă care se trag cu bicicletă, iar în timp ce privesc totul în jur se întreabă: De ce oare? Care din ei este mai trebuincios universului?

* Nu judeca niciodată un om aflat la început de drum. Judecă-l la sfârşitul călătoriei sale.

* Chiar şi un nor, sau un trăsnet, poate să-ţi indice un mesaj important: fii prudent !

* Să fii atât de bun într-un domeniu, încât să nu trebuiască să te compari cu nimeni. Unicitatea e măsura leadershipului.

* Calitatea de a fi important izvoraste din felul in care iti construiesti increderea in ceea ce poti face.

* Să vorbeşti cu un trandafir într-o lume a veşniciei, iată ideea unui univers care se extinde la nesfârşit.

* Viitorul aparține celor care reușesc să activeze în sufletul lumii ideea de continuitate în evoluția științei.

* Schimbările cele mai importante se produc întotdeauna din direcţia la care nimeni nu se aşteaptă. Este un fel de magie.

* Un om care nu a facut niciodată nimic pentru ştinţă este un om care nu l-a cunoscut niciodată pe Dumnezeu, cu adevarat.

* Adevăratele descoperiri ale științei sunt pentru cei mai măreţi, nu pentru bătrâni.

On Februarie 17, 2021

Am organizat următoarele cuvinte, alese cu inimă bună din multele răgazuri ale creaţiilor mele artistice, presărate cu miljoace mărunte de expresie, încât fiecărui cititor să-i placă ceea ce citeşte, sau măcar să aibă un moment de linişte în tumultul lumii. Întreaga mea fiinţă respiră libertate în favoarea multor valori, nu doar prin prisma leadershipului, nu doar prin ochii artistului, nu doar privind de sus în jos la o realitate care pare atât de greu de atins şi de menţinut, ci prin faptul că orice cuvânt pare organizat pe temeiul unor experienţe de viaţă unice. Poate mă vei înţelege mai bine, poate nu, dar cu siguranţă vei regăsi ceva din tine în gândurile mele.

----

* Progresul nu a avut niciodată nevoie de tocilari, ci de creatori. Dacă aș putea să arunc o privire atentă asupra lumii, aș vedea mai multe măști decât chipuri alese.

* Un om care ştie şi nu arată ce ştie nu este un om care posedă ştiinţa în adevăratul sens al cuvântului.

* Să ştii să vezi în întuneric la fel cum ştii să vezi pe lumină, şi să ştii să vezi ca şi când n-ai vedea, ci ca şi când ai simţi.

* Cine face totul pentru știință și progres face totul pentru Dumnezeu. Iar mintea care nu pricepe acest adevăr nu va străluci niciodată.

* Mulți sunt cei care au dorit să primească totul de la viață, dar n-au fost în stare să-și lase mândria deoparte. Iar asta înseamnă că nu și-au dorit cu adevărat.

* Ceea ce altora li se pare enorm de greu de făcut, ţie trebuie să ţi se pară ridicol de uşor.

* Mulți oameni mari preferă să studieze tratatele filosofice în loc să priceapă tâlcurile ascunse în poveștile pentru copii. Iarăși spun, irațional.

* Un om de știință nu este mereu deasupra științei, cu toate astea zilnic își cizelează știința de a fi un om de știință.

* Nu contează cât de mult citești, ci ceea ce intuiești singular din când în când. Încearcă să comunici partea intuită a ceea ce nu cunoști.

* Într-o lume a schimbării nu mai ai timp să memorezi informații ca să te dai mare cunoscător, sau mare om de cultură. Dacă nu creezi constant, vei rămâne în urmă.

* Dacă ceea ce faci nu-l ajută pe altul și nu duce știința cu un pas mai departe, înseamnă că ceea ce faci...faci doar pentru tine.

* A fi bun într-un domeniu nu este același lucru cu a fi un om al schimbării. Cântărește-ți valoarea prin inovațiile prin care știința poate fi propulsată la alt nivel.

* Cine nu aduce o schimbare în folosul științei, să nu-și imagineze că este un om al progresului.

* Prietenii cei mai buni ți-i găsești acolo unde sunteți cu toții excepționali și, în același timp, foarte uniți.

* Să eternizezi simțirea declanșată de impulsul atingerii unei pânze de catifea, și poate vei înțelege ce implică manifestarea unei stări afective. Catifeaua e strict legată de starea afectivă, prin delicateţea ei, ea este ca o operă de artă care devine din vis realitate, realitatea în care ne oglindim sufletul ca într-o oglindă...

* Fii bun într-o singură direcţie, dar acolo fii excepţional !

* Pentru a fi excepţional trebuie să fii un infailibil judecător ...orice greşeală ai face, vrând să fii bun eşti mai mult subiectiv, ierarhizezi tot ce creezi şi duci totul spre latura ta sentimentală. Refuzi tot dacă în acel tot nu te regăseşti, sensibilităţile intră într-un joc al hazardului întrepătrunzându-se. Nicio capodoperă nu e sigură de destinul ei chiar dacă are norocul să fie reprezentativă. Tot ce se creează trebuie să aibă "norocul timpului", să devină mai bun, să corespundă vremurilor şi eventual să nu se demodeze niciodată. Cu toate acestea, orice operă sau creaţie depinde de capriciile subiective ale celor ce vin din urmă pentru a rămâne în atenţie, iar cu cât ne îndepărtăm de ea posibilitatea de înţelegere trebuie să fie din ce în ce mai apropiată de individ...(Ioana Sarah)

* A privi într-o oglindă este câteodată ca şi cum am fi pescuit fără undiţă. În acest caz, undiţa ţine de pescuitul sportiv, când eliberezi peştişorul. Dar la fel de bine, uneori oglinda ţine de fixaţia noastră pentru trecut. Fiecare din noi trebuie să fie propriul stilist când alege ce să şteargă, ce să uite şi mai ales ce să ţină minte ! (Ioana Sarah)

* Cu toţii privim spre spiritualitate, toţi vrem să o trecem prin viaţă. Adesea, cred că suntem asemenea unui roman în care noi suntem personajul principal. Uneori nu avem milă faţă de noi, alteori avem indulgenţă. Din tot acest naturalism se naşte un dramatism. Vorbim câteodată cu noi înşine ca şi cum am trece printr-o poartă strâmtă, e în toate o decantare a trăirilor că într-o purificare.. (Ioana Sarah)

* Citește-l pe Borges și ai să-l întâlnești pe Wilhelm Hauff. Citește-l pe Hauff și vei păși în 1001 nopți. Iar în 1001 nopți vei fi din nou Borges.

* Și nicio carte nu spune o poveste mai frumoasă decât un personaj care își trăiește povestea în lumea reală.

* Și dacă mintea ta ar fi o carte, iar sufletul tău altă carte, atunci ai avea două cărți care spun în mod diferit aceeași poveste.

* Și fiecare carte nouă ce o citești, imaginează-ți că face parte din acea unică carte ce îți instruieşte sufletul să-și facă o descriere distinctă.

* Și chiar dacă ai citi multe cărți, dacă nu trăiești cu adevărat viața personajelor, atunci nu vei simți niciodată vraja poveștilor fără sfârșit.

* Important nu este să citești multe cărți, ci să înveți să te integrezi în povestea personajului din cartea ta preferată.

* Acolo unde ai talent nu ai nevoie de profesor, nici de o mie de profesori. Dar acolo unde nu ai talent, nu-ți căuta profesor.

* Trei sunt părțile din care sunt alcătuit: cel ce vede, cel ce se obișnuiește cu ceea ce vede și cel ce simte conform a ceea ce vede. Doar că se întâmplă să văd prea târziu.

* Mulți sunt deștepți în lumea asta, dar prea deștepți ca să-și folosească inteligența și prea deștepți ca să-și recunoască deșertăciunea. Cât de destept poate fi cineva încât să ştie cum se distribuie deşteptaciunea, mai ales să cântărească deşertaciunea? A pune trei cuvinte în pagina nu inseamnă ştiinţă, artă sau mai ştiu eu ce... Încă sunt cărţi scrise pe care nu le răsfoieşte nimeni deşi accesul la cultură nu a fost interzis. Mai bine să lăsăm scriitorul să scrie, artistul să facă arta în mare fel, tăietorul de lemne să le taie, iar viaţa să îşi urmeze cursul .

* Întotdeauna afli ceva nou despre oameni, mai ales când te aştepţi mai puţin.

* Şi când afli, mai bine păstrează pentru tine ce-ai aflat.

* Să te joci cu ştiinţa până ce ea devine preferinţa ta pentru un anumit stil de gândire.

* Nimeni nu renunţă la o amintire care se păstrează în arta de a trăi frumos, cu eleganţă, cu simplitate.

* Universul îi vine ajutorul celui care ştie să folosească ştiinţa în folosul ei. Aş folosi întotdeauna PowerShell în combinaţie cu REGEX ca să folosesc prelucrarea datelor. Să ştii să foloseşti orice program informatic, atât cât ai nevoie. Nu trebuie să te pricepi mai mult decât trebuie, dar să ştii să foloseşti orice îţi este la îndemână.

* Un program bun este acela care poate rula orice funcţiuni din alte programe.

* Fericirea înseamnă să te observi zilnic într-o banală bucată de sticlă care nu permite reflecția. Astfel, nu vei mai purta grija vanității.

* Unii înaintează şi ajung tot mai departe, alţii sunt în urmă, şi rămân tot mai în urmă. (Orice inaintare presupune un plus , o scriere pe sufletul nostru in exclusivitate , cu siguranta ca vom avea mereu curajul sa o facem...ramanerea in urma nu este o necesitate , desi unii o fac pentru ca asa inteleg ca trebuie...Ioana Sarah)

* Ştiinţa este meritul lui Dumnezeu de a asigura condiții favorabile creării unei lumi perfecte.

* Nu-ţi fie teamă dacă eşti ultimul din lume, fie-ţi teamă să nu pierzi din vedere momentul astral care te poate trimite direct în fruntea lumii.

* Dacă nu ai produs nicio schimbare într-o ramură a științei, fii sigur că nu ești un om al schimbării, oricât de mult ai încerca să fii Cineva.

* Nu ajungi perfect, decât excelând în greşeli. Şi chiar dacă unele greşeli nu se iartă, cel puţin ele te-au dus departe.

* Nu există decât infinitul şi cei care au ridicat construcţia acestui infinit.

* Fii excelent numai acolo unde poți fi cel mai bun din lume !

Am organizat următoarele cuvinte, alese cu inimă bună din multele răgazuri ale creaţiilor mele artistice, presărate cu miljoace mărunte de expresie, încât fiecărui cititor să-i placă ceea ce citeşte, sau măcar să aibă un moment de linişte în tumultul lumii. Poate mă vei înţelege mai bine, poate nu, dar cu siguranţă vei regăsi ceva din tine în gândurile mele.

----

* Ştiinţa este codul secret prin care cel ce trece neobservat îi depăşeşte întotdeauna pe toţi cei care ies în evidenţă.

* Cel angajat permanent în rugăciune nu acționează niciodată. Credința este mereu oarbă pentru orbi.

* Vei ajunge la cunoaşterea absolută cu ajutorul spiritualităţii, numai crezând în posibilităţile de expresie ale universului artistic.

* Dacă nu ai produs nicio schimbare într-o ramură a științei, fii sigur că nu ești un om al schimbării, oricât de mult ai încerca să fii Cineva.

* Am încercat să fiu un univers, și am urmărit înlănțuirea abstractă a unor zone de conținut continuu-determinist tratate ca informații neconfidențiale.

* Și dacă i-ai spune unui trandafir toate secretele tale, el le-ar considera la fel de adevărate, ca și când ar fi fost spuse de el.

* Dacă lucrul pe care îl faci tu, l-a făcut şi altcineva înaintea ta, înseamnă că n-ai contribuit cu nimic la progresul care asigură perfecţionarea lucrului respectiv.

* Dacă lumea ar înțelege cu adevărat basmele lui Wilhelm Hauff, probabil ar rămâne mută de admirație în fața geniului acestui om.

* Niciun om nu este perfect, toţi fac greşeli. Cu toate acestea, unii ajung mari oameni de ştiinţă.

* Dacă lumea ar căuta să afle secretele științei, nu s-ar mira să afle că acestea sunt consemnate în lumea basmelor.

* Cerul nu-i ajută decât pe acei oameni care se dedică sută la sută Creației și progresului științei. Omul de știință trebuie să fie creatorul unei lumi sută la sută perfectă.

* Marea ştiinţă a scrisului se dezvoltă în spiritul cuvântului pe care îl laşi să preia controlul asupra vieţii tale, fără să faci din el o cruce sau o sursă de îmbogăţire.

* Frumusețea în artă înseamnă să știi să apreciezi frumosul. Frumusețea artistică este privirea artistului îndreptată spre modelul desăvârșit al naturii.

* Ochii verzi reflectaţi în verdele naturii sunt asemenea picturii reflectate într-o piatră verzuie de smarald: oricât ar fi de mult verde, arta va adăuga mereu expresiilor sale noi straturi de semnificație.

* Oricât de mult ai vrea să excelezi în orice domeniu, nu uita să te reîntorci acolo unde ai fost menit să fii cel mai bun din lume.

* În orice domeniu ar vrea cineva să exceleze, mai întâi trebuie să găsească calea pentru a intra în haos...Totul este în miscare. Suntem plini de griji şi frământări, desfăşurăm fenomene naturale şi ne plângem că plouă sau ninge, că vrem vara să existe continuu...Nimic nu este de mare ajutor...soarele este în raport cu stelele fixe...

* La fel cum noaptea precede dimineții, la fel cum dormitul precede visului, tot astfel trezitul precede realitatea dar nu o găsește conformă cu prevederile sale.

* Încearcă să adormi cu ochii deschiși ca să mă poți visa mai real. Să fiu eu realitatea visului tău.

* Privilegiul de a fi Creator dă sens poveştii unei vieţi trăită într-un moment în care trebuie să zbori departe şi fără încetare.

* Trăieşte-ţi viaţa ca şi când ai fi străbătut şi modelat de poezia sensibilă a poveştii înseşi.

* Şi dacă urmezi în mod firesc exemplul vieţii din povestea pe care o trăieşti cu ochii deschişi, vei înţelegere mai bine parcursul devenirii tale în aprecierea percepţiei şi empatiei din care se iveşte o legendă vie.

* Nu am ochi decât pentru mine, căci de ce-aș avea ochi pentru altcineva care nu este ca mine?

* A duce la bun sfârşit această privire este o încercare de a deştepta dispoziţia afectivă a ochilor care cuprind latura artistica a frumosului numai cu sufletul de sfant.

* De ce i s-a dat unui om de rând puterea nemăsurată de a mânui cea mai înaltă dintre științe, în timp ce majoritatea celor de vază nu va pricepe niciodată ce este Marea Știință?

* Te simți în largul tău acolo unde ai fost mereu tu însuți: pe pista de alergat. Te vei întoarce mereu la tine, la trecut, acolo de unde a început totul. În multe locuri ar trebui să ne simţim în largul nostru, chiar şi acolo unde nu am fost încă.

* Mai important este să fabricăm mereu noi locuri, nu să le contabilizăm mereu pe cele deja ştiute, asemeni unui funcţionar. Să ne întoarcem mereu la trecut e ca şi cum, stând la gura sobei într-un peisaj de vis, ne încăpăţânam să citim aceeaşi poveste, când multe altele aşteaptă să fie descoperite. Întoarcerea la trecut, oricât de frumos sau trist ar fi acest lucru, creează un sentiment sinistru, e ca şi cum am face asta din lipsă de activitate. În viaţă trebuie să păşim mereu ca şi cum am privi liniştiţi pe fereastră, când se derulează mereu alte imagini, să ne amintim mereu doar lucrurile netrăite încă şi să pornim în cautatea lor...(Ioana Sarah)

* Cu cât citești mai mult cu atât realizezi cât de multe ți-au scăpat din vedere. Cititul este un punct de vedere care se poate completa în timp.

* Verdele e întotdeauna asociat cu natura atunci când e privit prin culoarea unei flori de câmp purtată de o adiere lină înspre o vară tot mai vie.

* Tăcerea nu garantează niciodată întoarcerea timpului într-o clepsidră. Cuvintele puternice n-au grai într-o lume a nisipului.

* Devenim ceea ce armonizăm prin forța exemplului dinamic și creator. Armonia dintre exemplu și demonstrație este începutul procesului de creație.

* Dacă ochii ei ar fi mereu verzi ca iarba, şi dacă timpul nu le-ar usca strălucirea prin expunerea continuă la lumină, atunci ei ar fi prins cu privirea gândurile unui trecător grăbit, şi preţ de o clipă s-ar fi aprins la surâsul lui.

* Dintre eu şi tine, mai frumos eşti tu ca mine. Dar de eu n-aş fi ca tine, nici tu n-ai fi lângă mine. Aşa că eu şi cu tine, vorbind unei părţi din tine regăsită adânc în mine. Să ne întrecem frumuseţea prin această luminozitate: "Tu decizi cum mă iubeşti pe mine".

* Încearcă să-ți înțelegi menirea prin sensul pe care îl dai unui singur lucru. Însuși acest lucru trebuie să admită posibilitatea de reevaluare a existenței tale.

Nu te aștepta ca stelele să îți îndeplinească dorințele când vrei tu. Ar însemna ca Dumnezeu să se supună ție întru totul. Adică, bați din palme, și imediat Dumnezeu îți dă ascultare precum lampa lui Aladin? Chiar crezi că va da roade gândirea asta?

Dar așa sunt mulți oameni, supărăcioși, aroganți, fiindcă nu se îndeplinesc dorințele fix când doresc ei. Asta se întâmplă fiindcă se pun ei înșiși pe primul plan, și ignoră orice act divin. Egoismul este adevărată problemă a lumii.

Poate mă vei înţelege mai bine, poate nu, dar cu siguranţă vei regăsi ceva din tine în gândurile mele.

----

* Dacă nu ştii să vezi, n-o să reuşeşti niciodată să afli.

* Cine se priveşte pe sine încercând să se înţeleagă mai bine este cumva luminat de propria imagine în oglindă.

* Nu încerca să grăbeşti lucrurile. Învaţă să foloseşti încercările spre a atinge perfecţiunea. Rezistenţa purifică sufletul.

* Secretul nu este să le știi pe toate, ci să știi mult din ceea ce nu știe nimeni.

* De ce să lupți pentru ceva care pare tot mai departe de tine? E ca și când ai încerca să alergi după un tren demult plecat.

* Te-ai fi gândit că într-o bună zi vei intra în Casa lui Horus și vei face ordine în visele lui Oberon? DA, încă de pe atunci... !

* Cine n-a primit darul ştiinţei seamănă cu bătrânul pompos care a aşteptat până în utima clipă o veste bună. Vestea n-a mai venit.

* O minte aleasă va realiza într-un caminamino terestru trecerea mistică de la Alchimie la Leadership. Unu este un număr magic.

* La sfârşitul anului întreabă-te ce-ai făcut pentru ştiinţă, adică pentru Dumnezeu ! Cu ce-ai contribuit la extinderea Universului?

* Arată-mi un om care a schimbat şi inovat domeniul ştiinţei, şi îţi voi arăta un om care l-a cunoscut pe Dumnezeu.

* Să te joci cu marea ştiinţă ca şi când i-ai porunci unui vis grandios să se împlinească !

* Talentul nu are nevoie de profesori, ci de exerciţiu !

* Nu ceea ce arăţi lumii, ci ceea ce lucrezi în background este izvorul adevăratei arte, şi al Marii Ştiinţe.

* Să lași totdeauna trecutul în urmă, este primul pas al schimbării.

* Nu contează cine e departe de tine, ci numai cine e mereu aproape. Nu contează cine pleacă, important e cine rămâne.

* Să ştii să vezi...printr-o mulţime de legături, lucruri, situaţii şi stări.

* Cine se supără prea repede că nu eşti lângă el, probabil nici nu se poate bucura de surpriza revederii.

* De aia îmi plac pisicile. Ştiu să se strecoare printre paharele de cristal, fără să spargă nici măcar unul. Se numeşte rafinament.

* Din cărţile groase înveţi despre micile puncte culminante ale trecerii omului pe pământ, despre micile minuni ale existenţei.

* În chip aşa ciudat se aşează toate aspectele vieţii unora, încât să ajungă fără probleme primii în vârful muntelui !

* În leadership trebuie să ai toţi aşii câştigători în mână, plus un jocker în mânecă.

* Oamenii de ştiinţă cinstesc zilnic o singură sărbătoare: Încununarea operei de creaţie.

* Fii foarte atent la cele întâmplate de-a lungul zilei ca să intuieşti mai bine viitorul.

* Să fii tu însuţi o capodoperă înseamnă să te defineşti ca şi Creator al unei înfăptuiri fără seamăn.

* Să-ţi duci Creaţia la nivel de Artă înseamnă să produci o capodoperă !

* Singura cale de a comunica cu universul este prin Creaţie şi Artă.

* Privilegiul cunoaşterii înalte şi a marii ştiinţe aparţine numai alergătorilor de cursă lungă.

* Să nu-ți faci niciodată chip cioplit. Să crezi în tine mult mai mult decât cred toți ceilalți în ei înșiși.

* Un prieten îmi spunea aseară la alergat: "Să apeşi pe acceleraţie cu mult înainte ca ceilalţi să pornească."

* Arta înfăptuirii unei capodopere defineşte creaţia produsă prin oglindire în imaginea "celuilalt" din lăuntrul tău.

* Un singur om care schimbă cursul unei ştiinţe, este acelaşi om care schimbă o întreagă lume !

* Schimbarea lumii cu ajutorul unei ştiinţe înalte este o cristalizare a efortului şi înţelepciunii creatorului care posedă conştiinţa unicităţii sale.

* Să nu-ți faci niciodată chip cioplit. Să crezi în tine mult mai mult decât cred toți ceilalți în ei înșiși.

* Să înveţi să produci schimbarea în ştiinţă, nu să rămâi doar un martor ocular la efectele ei.

* La sfârşitul anului întreabă-te ce-ai făcut pentru ştiinţă, adică pentru Dumnezeu ! Cu ce-ai contribuit la extinderea Universului?

* Am găsit un mănunchi compact de iarbă. Raţiunea de a-l pune în pământ, înainte să se ofilească de tot, este aceea de a seta o abatere de la furia naturii la blândeţea şi bunătatea nemărginită care îl caracterizează pe omul sufletist.

* Să fii atât de bun într-un domeniu de activitate, încât să n-ai decât un singur egal: Dumnezeu.Acesta este tâlcul luptei dintre Iacov și Dumnezeu.

* Când eşti cel mai bun din lume într-un domeniu, iar lumea ştie că eşti cel mai bun.

* Și chiar atunci când crezi că ai aflat totul, apare ceva nou și diferit: "Uite, asta ți-a scăpat din vedere ! "

* Una este să înveți mult ca să-ți asiguri un viitor, alta este să pricepi îndeajuns ca să schimbi o întreagă știință.

* Ceea ce creezi este ceea ce eşti când te consideri cineva mai presus de tine.

* Fii întotdeauna un om bun. Și dacă se poate, fii mult mai bun decât toți ceilalți.

* Să te joci cu ştiinţa aşa cum pictezi un înger, fără să fi văzut vreodată o pictură. În asta constă toată magia cabalei !

* Mai important decât să ştii să vezi; este să ştii cum să vezi.

* Un om care acţionează este mult mai valoros decât unul care face planuri. Primul ajunge undeva, celălalt stă pe loc.

* Un singur om care visează este mult mai puternic decât toţi aceia care se roagă.

* Simţi o mare satisfacţie când vezi că valoarea ta creşte direct proporţional cu numărul tot mai mare al cititorilor tăi.

* Materia ascultă întotdeauna numai de creatorul ei. Este ca o stare emoţională amplificată de senzaţia unui vis împărtăşit de un singur om.

* Să nu treacă nicio zi fără să faci cel puţin 10 lucruri care te propulsează înainte. Abilitatea de a face progrese mai repede şi mai bine ca oricine este vectorul care te uneşte de performanţa care justifică leadershipul.

* Cea mai înaltă menire a omului pe pământ este să atingă desăvârşirea. Să găseşti fix lucrul pentru care te-ai născut şi să-l sculptezi în înaltul cerului cu mână de maestru.

* Cine are viziune citeşte cu uşurinţă viitorul. Cine ştie leadership, îşi creează singur contextul în care se îndreaptă viitorul.

* Marea ştiinţă nu are nevoie de profesori, ci de artişti fără seamăn.

* Cu cât eşti mai cunoscut în lume cu atât valoarea ta creşte mai mult. Viitorul aparţine celor ce ştiu să se promoveze BIG !

* Ştiinţa e ceea ce rămâne de aflat atunci când ceea ce vezi se pierde într-un gol de imagine.

* A-ţi îmbogăţi leadershipul cu noi resurse de înţelegere este ca atunci când te trezeşti, spui în gând "Bună dimineaţa", iar Marea Ştiinţă îţi răspunde de undeva din jur cu ecoul plin de speranţă: "Îmi pare bine să te revăd".

* Scrisul reprezintă doar o modalitate de a scoate la iveală talentul omului. Iar adevăratul talent este strâns legat de modalitatea de a crea, de a gândi, de a te exprima şi de a înfăptui o revoluţie în ştiinţă. A nu se confunda talentul cu mijloacele lui de expresie !

* Nu-i de-ajuns să studiezi pe cont propriu arta, mai trebuie să ai norocul să fii îndrumat la timp de un artist genial.

* Numai cel care a cercetat îndelung profunzimile artei poate ajunge la cea mai înaltă ştiinţă !

* Nu-i recomandat să fii mai bun decât ești, mai ales atunci când alții nu-și fixează ca etalon de urmat bunătatea.

* Unii oameni sunt precum un leagăn de metal: se încing la soare de atâta splendoare și măreție, dar scârție cumplit când bate vântul mai tare.

* Oamenii sunt de două feluri: cei buni care sunt răi, și cei răi care sunt buni.

* Când toată lumea fuge de Covid, noi am ajuns până în inima Covid și i-am provocat stop cardiac.

* Frica este asemenea unei sculpturi pe care o priveşti şi îţi intră în toate celule, este ca prima bătaie primită în copilărie pe care ţi-o aminteşti atât de mult încât te fereşti de o mângâiere ca de o palmă...Sabia taie câteodată doar capetele plecate care fără să vrea vor paşte iarbă, mai devreme sau mai târziu...Trecerea este o monografie, este ca o carte de referinţă. A trece peste toate duce la un "material" de dimensiuni variate.

* Dogmele sunt şi ele nişte adevăruri care se rezumă la credinţă. Vai, cum s-ar schimba sistemul prin asta. Atitudinea fiecăruia, dacă este minuţioasă, duce în timp la eliberare şi purificare...Este greşit să credem că schimbăm lumea prin stilou şi pensulă, lumea se schimbă prin cărţi pe care le citim singuri, prin felul cum ne lămurim toate întrebările şi răspunsurile fără să contestăm sistemul. Mai mult, ca să schimbi un sistem trebuie să analizezi dezvoltarea istorică. Toate trăirile unui sistem ţin de relaţiile dintre concepte, gradul de certitudine acordat contribuie la o structură care ţine de concepte. De fapt, într-o societate, orice sistem are o greutate atomică, o impunere care începe încetul cu încetul... Orice sistem se poate schimba, iar a spune că nu se poate schimba este ca şi cum ai sta într-o tipografie, ai consulta mai multe cărţi şi ai spune că unele aliniate nu pot fi tipărite pentru că formularea nu e precisă...(Ioana Sarah)

* Cine observă mișcarea planetelor, nu își observă și propria nemișcare. Pământul pe care calci se învârte fără ca tu să-l simți.

* Tot timpul mă asemăn cu un peşte într-un ocean zbuciumat: orice val vine, pe mine nu mă afectează. Mi-am amintit ce tu mi-ai spus / Despre mine când ne sărutam vioi în parc / Neuitând nicicum ceea ce sufletul tău mi-a adus /Senzaţia că pot rămâne mereu în amintirea ta ca un felinar vivant.

Mărul de aur

On August 08, 2017

Tot ceea ce însemni în planul lui Dumnezeu este o luptă cu tine însuţi din care învingătoare iese știința.

Era un fel de simptom al izolării aproape totale, din care nu mai reuşeam să ies. Un fenomen tot atât de greu de înţeles ca judecata lui Dumnezeu, o zonă în care nu aveam posibilitatea să evoluez decât prin comparaţie cu măsura şansei de a demonstra că pot folosi în avantajul meu capcanele anxietăţii, orice durere, orice emoţie, orice slăbiciune. Din care aveam atâtea de învăţat şi experimentat, mai ales starea mentală de rezistenţă pe o durată de viaţă cât mai extinsă.

Pasiunea pentru înţelegerea acestui experiment demn de un analist al psihologicului, complex și mai cu seamă original, era o expresie a setei de cunoaştere, aceeaşi pe care o experimentează un artist în căutarea unei impresii individualizate asupra legăturii dintre model şi atitudine, dintre omenesc şi valoarea artistică. Cică aşa ar fi vrut cel de sus, cică aşa e dat, să întorci spatele lumii ca să recunoşti marea încredere pe care o ai în tine şi pe care doar ştiinţa o potenţează.

Credeam că marile planuri ale lui Dumnezeu, create după un cod cu grad înalt de dificultate, sunt modelate după concepţia unui restaurator de artă care procedează după modelul sistemelor de operare ale gândirii precum analiza, sinteza, comparaţia, abstractizarea şi concretizarea. Dar la fel de bine ele puteau fi expresia unui determinism care acţionează predominant şi selectiv la nivelul intelectului, materializându-se în materia primă a Marii Opere.

Acest experiment al fiinţei care îşi educă psihicul să se adapteze la noi realităţi aminteşte de descrierea pe care Albert cel Mare şi-o făcea singur :

„Un alchimist trebuie să locuiască departe de lume, într-o casă specială, construită chiar de el însuşi cu măiestria şi priceperea zidarului, unde trebuie să existe cel puţin o încăpere secretă destinată în exclusivitate sublimărilor, soluţiilor şi distilărilor. El va trăi în singurătate, izolându-se de ceilalţi oameni, până la desăvârşirea Marii Opere. Trebuie să fie răbdător şi perseverent până în momentul când constelaţiile îi vor fi favorabile. Şi, în fine, va evita orice contact cu prinţii şi cârmuitorii."

Leadership: Efortul de a-ţi aprecia nivelul cunoaşterii este un moment decupat din segmentul unei lungi căutări şi concentrat pe pânza unei lucrări care îţi dezvăluie în mod adecvat profilul lăuntric?

Efectul de noutate în alb-negrul neiertător al unui timp care-şi uită mândria de a se scurge, în sensul şansei de a trăi o viaţă nemărturisită, într-o continuă criză de exprimare, reprezenta o formă de observaţie structurată, realizată în cadrul artificial al unui laborator intensiv de mai multe zile consecutive, dans ma chambre... qui est un endroit calme et loin de tout le monde.

Cu o amplificată sensibilitate faţă de lucrurile încă neştiute, nebănuite şi greu accesibile, am ajuns să mă comport ca un experiment al unei inteligenţe laborioase de care depind doar gândurile ascunse, îndoielile, temerile, reflectate parcă într-o oglindă care le deformează şi le accentuează şi mai mult.

Credeam că mă voi recunoaște superior celui ce-am fost, dincolo de ceea ce ştiam până atunci că este posibil, asemenea unui personaj care se rupe din lumea de poveste pentru a împărtăşi lumii reale din aventurile sale.

Alchimistul este un artist în ale cunoaşterii de sine şi a lui Dumnezeu din perspectiva unei evaluări pe termen lung a efectului de descoperire a unei lumi noi. Această descoperire se face prin atingerea consecventă a stării de rezistenţă pe parcursul aplicării consecvente a metodei experimentale de cunoaştere.

Un artist al substanţei şi al consecinţei se află într-o continuă confruntare cu estetica unei mărturisiri în alb-negru, din care transpare compromisul făcut pentru a-și păstra formula proprie de rezistență: aplicarea consecventă a metodei experimentale pentru aflarea unor adevăruri ascunse la care nimeni nu s-ar fi gândit. Este un rezultat al momentului de vârf al înfruntării propriului sine când supui evaluării impactul consumului de cunoaştere în scopul obţinerii unei noi filosofii de viaţă .

O incursiune într-o zonă mai profundă a psihicului este un joc al detaliului cu ansamblul care sfârşeşte prin a te emoţiona estetic, dovedind încă o dată că dragostea pentru ceea ce ţi se revelează în mod subtil, într-un context de tip „ Lost In Your Own Abyss ", este o luptă de o neîncetată nelinişte care te face să asculţi un glas. Ascultă acest glas, el va rosti întotdeauna noi adevăruri !

Eliberarea adusă de îndepărtarea de restul lumii este o cultivare în om a frumosului dumnezeiesc, a asemănării cu El, căruia i se pot atribui marile victorii ale ştiinţei.

Având la dispoziție o întreagă colecţie de amintiri şi lecții de viață, mii de trăiri și clipe de neuitat, ca să rezolv o grămadă de bătăi de cap, bug-uri de ordin filosofic şi identitar, mi-am construit o viziune nouă asupra realității cu care încă sunt în contact nemijlocit, deşi consistenţa ei pare mai degrabă una efemeră. Total invers în comparaţie cu sarcina unui pictor care rezidă tocmai în depăşirea cadrului atemporal al portretului, în a-l face dinamic, obligându-l să trăiască în timp.

Dacă stau bine şi mă gândesc, eram totuşi un artist prin faptul că întruchipam o imensă sumă de momente consecutive, comasate într-o luptă cu un sine care nu se lasă înţeles, nu se dă învins, într-o conjunctură temporară de esenţă spirituală. Pe această cale, am remarcat cu plăcere coincidenţa faptului că nonconformismul, pasiunea constantă şi setea pentru originalitate sunt formele de expresie ale sensului vieţii.

Adevărata capodoperă a creaţiei este fixarea pe pânză a unei trăiri din cele mai complexe şi nelimitată în timp, care dezvăluie în mod cu totul excepţional profilul lăuntric al celui portretizat.

În încercarea de a obţine imaginea răsturnată a sufletului, cu ajutorul unor elemente date de semnificaţiile profunde ale reflecţiilor şi meditaţiilor, o dată cu refugierea în spaţiul vag şi plin de paradoxuri al unei realităţi greu de exprimat în faza primară, am reuşit să construiesc o anumită figură cuprinsă între spiritualitate, artă, știință și inteligenţă.

Un portret psihologic al unui Alchimist care a înțeles că fundalul - căutarea de sine, faza în care au loc „digestia", coacerea, regenerarea puterilor interioare, în fapt materia primară a trăirilor cele mai complexe, analizate cu atenţie sub microscopul conştiinţei și presimţite de ochiul scrutător al artistului - este singura știință pură care corespunde părţii superioare a Marii Opere.

Mărul de aur este o continuare a gândirii: „Tot ceea ce însemni în planul lui Dumnezeu este o luptă cu tine însuţi din care învingătoare iese știința.”

Singurul izvor a tot ceea ce există, singurul secret pe care alchimiştii se tem să-l divulge şi pe care se simt datori să-l păstreze în contextul general al transformărilor pe care le trăiesc şi le suferă, asemenea metalelor supuse la temperaturi foarte înalte, este... lupta.

Mastering Inner Leadership

On Martie 11, 2017

Fii capabil să renaşti din propria cenuşă a suferinţei, condiţionându-te să crezi într-un adevăr autoimpus.

Îţi spun cu mândrie, Mercedes, că Dumnezeu avea nevoie de mine, şi am trăit. Cele mai groaznice nenorociri, cele mai cumplite suferinţe, părăsirea de către toţi cei ce mai iubeau, persecutarea din partea celor ce mai cunoşteau, iată care a fost prima parte a vieţii mele.

Apoi, pe neaşteptate, după captivitate, singurătate şi mizerie, au urmat aerul curat, libertatea, o avere atât de orbitoare, de uluitoare şi de nemărginită, încât numai dacă aş fi fost orb aş fi putut să nu-mi dau seama că Dumnezeu mi-o trimitea pentru nişte scopuri atât de măreţe.

De atunci bogăţia aceasta mi s-a părut că are o menire sfântă. De atunci nu m-am mai gândit nicio clipă la viaţă căreia tu, biata femeie, i-ai gustat uneori dulceaţa. N-am mai avut niciun ceas de linişte: mă simţeam mânat ca norul de foc coborând din cer ca să ardă cetăţile blestemate.

Asemenea căpitanilor aventuroşi ce se îmbarcă pentru o călătorie primejdioasă sau plănuiesc o expediţie fără întoarcere, îmi pregăteam merindele, îmi încărcam armele, îmi adunam mijloacele de atac şi de apărare, deprinzându-mi trupul cu încercările cele mai cumplite, deprinzându-mi sufletul cu loviturile cele mai aspre, obişnuindu-mi braţul să ucidă, ochii să privească suferinţa, gura să zâmbească la priveliştea cea mai îngrozitoare.

Din bun, încrezător şi uitător cum eram, m-am făcut răzbunător, prefăcut, rău, sau mai curând nepăsător ca surda şi oarba ursită. Atunci m-am năpustit pe calea ce-mi era deschisă, am străbătut spaţiul şi am ajuns la ţintă. Nenorocire celor întâlniţi în drum ! Nenorocire celor care m-au închis în bezna temniţei şi celor ce au uitat că mă aflam acolo !

Leadership: Îți măsori progresul în conștiința unui destin emanat din adâncul unei vieți greu încercate, în funcție de durata prezenţei tale în trailerul numit "Those who betrayed you"?

Adevărul pe care liderii îl ascund în interior nu este o adaptare la marea lovitură a vieții suportată cu stoicism, ci un răspuns la minunea pe care au trăit-o. Ei știu că viața este asemănătoare salciei la malul apei: înfloreşte doar dacă e udată cu suferinţa acestei lumi. Mult mai important, însă, ne apare faptul că dacă privim la viaţă ca la facerea unei minuni atribuită unui salt făcut deasupra tuturor vicisitudinilor destinului, atunci însăşi suferinţa capătă valenţele unei recompense care urmează să vină.

Mai mult decât atât. Dacă omul supus încercărilor vieții se măsoară după tăria sentimentelor pe care şi le stăpâneşte într-un decor al întunericului, spre a fi perceput conform condiţiilor în care ia naștere ura și chibzuinţa, mânia și încrederea într-un Dumnezeu nevăzut, atunci leadershipul se poate măsura în funcție de ceea ce omul reușește să împlinească prin miracolul creării unei noi reguli de intervenție în destinul celorlalți oameni.

Dintr-un martor al sensului vieții, neputându-şi stoca în memorie decât variaţiuni ale aceluiaşi îndemn lăuntric „aş vrea să mor", omul devine un capriciu al destinului într-un joc de-a „hai să văd dacă poți să te repari". Astfel, el se vede nevoit dea reply la toate încercările îndurate cu stoicism, nevoit să perceapă doar culoarea „roşie” a dorinţei de răzbunare situată la limita distanţei dintre ceea ce a fost şi ceea ce ar putea ajunge.

Un om puternic îşi compromite autoritatea dacă nu reuşeşte să răspundă unui context mai larg de tendinţe și provocări care accelerează expansiunea propriei conştiinţe spre o zonă a puterii de decizie. Dar, în același timp, el își compromite toate aspiraţiile de pace sufletească dacă uitarea pe care o invocă un nou statut nu este indusă de gama variată a unor valori de tip demn-nedemn, just-injust, echitabil-inechitabil.

Menirea omului de a se depărta de sursa primară a durerii se produce în momentul când el devine independent de ceea ce se petrece în interiorul lui.

Viscolul natural bate deşertul, iscând în urma lui nori ameninţători de praf. Însă omul care se conectează la un nou început de viață trebuie să satisfacă condiţiile obligatorii ale tranziţiei spre conștiința răspunderii faţă de modul cum trăieşte şi faţă de ceea ce decide că merită experimentat, fără a lăsa în urma lui un gol imens numit „vinovăţie” venit după faultul numit „răzbunare”.

Anulează-ţi golul, ai grijă cui aduci nenorocire ! În leadership, care include marea forță a caracterului, se punctează uneori mai bine încercările de a te pune în offside, decât golurile care aduc victoria.

Un lider nu-şi măsoară progresul în conștiința unui destin emanat din adâncul unei vieți greu încercate, în funcție de durata prezenţei sale în trailerul numit “Those who betrayed him”, ci după felul cum îşi recăpătă și îşi păstrează strălucirea virtuţilor sale de-a lungul timpului.

A deveni independent de ceea ce se petrece în interiorul tău seamănă cu o comoară ascunsă pe fundul oceanului care nu poate fi recuperată decât cu preţul scufundării tale într-un moment de descurajare: trebuie să îţi judeci acţiunile fără să te autocompătimeşti.

Mastering Inner Leadership se referă la continuarea luptei dusă împotriva unei rânduieli aprige a vieţii săvârşite prin durere, care încadrează omul într-un trend al înaintării spre o împlinire care îl dezleagă de limitările propriei firi, cu slăbiciunile și neajunsurile ei.

Dar în acest context este nevoie de o mișcare a hazardului, de o improbabilă graţie divină, de o sursă vastă de câștig, care să-l ajute să regăsească ceea ce a pierdut.

Liderii puternici în interior sunt capabili să renască din propria cenuşă a suferinţei. Ei sunt dispuși să-şi exploreze gândurile și atitudinile, le compară cu cele ale unui status mai vechi, și să le aleg pe cele care răspund cel mai bine obiectivelor durabile de valorificare a propriilor forţe de construcție a viitorului.

Măsurarea corectă a excelenţei

On Aprilie 08, 2009

Este nejust să-ţi fie pusă la îndoială excelenţa, câtă vreme nu eşti pus în situaţia de a demonstra ceea ce eşti în stare să dai.

Îngusta rutină academică, ce domnea în acel timp în învăţământul oficial, apăsa greu pe umerii tânărului sculptor Antoine Bourdelle, cu personalitate formată, deprins să lucreze independent. După cum a observat el însuşi, majoritatea celor care obţineau râvnitele premii, asigurându-şi promovarea, nu ştia să modeleze corect un nas, o gură sau o ureche.

Bourdelle a părăsit şcoala de bele-arte, unde fusese primit al doilea la concursul de admitere, căutându-şi calea mai departe. El a precizat: „Nu am timp. Eu la 30 de ani va trebui să-mi fi dat măsura. Lucrul meu se află în stradă, în viaţă."

Tu cum îţi alimentezi excelenţa? Am notat mai devreme că înţelegerea priorităţilor şi a proceselor prin care faci alegerile pe care le faci constituie elementele critice ale succesului tău. Punctul forte al concentrării tale îl constituie gândirea axată pe formă, nu doar pe conţinut, care trebuie să se concentreze asupra prezentului, asupra lucrurilor pe care le poţi controla, asupra accelerării pregătirii proprii.

Bourdelle ar fi vrut să poată ciopli imense catedrale, ca şi meşterii evului mediu, nu să modeleze numai chipurile umane cum i-ar fi cerut profesorii de artă. El a mai precizat: "Arta este întregul univers recreat într-un singur om."

Leadership: Poţi să recreezi întregul tău univers fără să-i modifici conţinutul, aşa încât arta pe care încerci s-o evidenţiezi să nu-ţi îngrădească potenţialul de a înfăptui ceea ce poate fi cu adevărat virtuos?

Universul tău propriu se poate recrea printr-o contopire a artei cu viaţa, iar a nu-i modifica conţinutul înseamnă să rămâi fidel unei idei, unui sentiment, unei certitudini care nu poate fi atacată în nicio instanţă a dreptului de a fi artist, deoarece convinge pe toată lumea prin însăşi personalitatea ta. Ca sa descoperi adevăratele beneficii ale artei pe care vrei să o evidenţiezi, mai întâi trebuie să stabileşti care sunt limitele pe care trebuie să le depăşeşti, şi să iei în considerare în mod activ alternativele şi paşii pe care trebuie să-i urmezi ca să-ţi desăvârşeşti măiestria, şi ca să devii cine vrei tu să fii.

Punctul de pornire sănătos în acest sens îl constituie debarasarea de acele "gunoaie", de absolut orice element, de orice fel de gândire – impusă de alţii, care îţi îngrădeşte potenţialul şi care nu prezintă nicio importanţă pentru dezvoltarea capacităţilor tale. Ca să generezi schimbarea în tine de la o treaptă inferioară spre o treaptă superioară, trebuie să-ţi sporeşti eficienţa şi productivitatea.

Productivitatea este ca o jucărie cu telecomandă pe care o poţi manevra numai atâta vreme cât o alimentezi cu baterii. Diferenţa dintre un meşter care lucrează pe cont propriu (aşa cum a visat să ajungă Bourdelle) şi unul care lucrează după tiparul altora, este că primul îşi auto-alimentează mereu propriul potenţial şi propria valoare, in timp ce al doilea este alimentat de ceilalţi până la un punct din propria evoluţie. Primul îşi asigură singur baza propriei evoluţii, în timp ce al doilea mai întâi trebuie să se străduiască să corespundă valorii pe care i-o atribuie ceilalţi, chiar dacă ideile şi viziunea acestora diferă cu mult de a lui.

Aşa cum oamenii de afaceri inovatori trebuie să aibă grijă ca beneficiile specifice mărcii pe care le dezvoltă să nu fie lipsite de consistenţă, periferice sau relevante doar pentru o mică parte a clienţilor - tot astfel tu trebuie să segmentezi pe cont propriu adevărata cunoaştere, să diferenţiezi ceea ce este important de ceea ce nu este important, adevărul de fals. Clarifică-ţi ideile şi validează-ţi ipotezele cu privire la efectele benefice sau nocive ale evoluţiei tale prin prisma influenţei exercitate de ceilalţi "maeştri", înainte de a-i urma.

A înfăptui ceea ce poate fi cu adevărat virtuos înseamnă să faci din gândirea ta o artă a cărei direcţie principală este constituirea unui univers al cărui înțeles este atașat de măsura lucrurilor pe care le poţi realiza singur.

Măsurarea corectă a excelenţei se poate efectua după un singur sistem de referinţă: tu însuţi. Ca să creezi o temelie solidă performanţei tale, mai întâi dovedeşte responsabilitate fata de alegerile pe care le faci: să-i urmezi pe alţii şi să te laşi influenţat de propriile lor modele de stil (deci să urmezi calea sugerată de ei) sau să-ţi urmezi calea pe care te simţi împlinit, pe care instinctul ţi-o propune – calea auto-dezvoltării personale. Ca să atingi cele mai înalte cote de măiestrie, trebuie să-ţi creezi singur arta proprie.

Este nejust să-ţi fie pusă la îndoială excelenţa, câtă vreme nu eşti pus în situaţia de a demonstra ceea ce eşti în stare să dai.

Concluzie: În orice domeniu excelenţa se obţine în timp. Foarte greu se obţine acea recunoaştere unanimă a capacităţilor "artei" unui lider. Evident că această evaluare externă se bazează pe fapte concrete ce trebuiesc demonstrate. Depinde de tenacitatea şi puterea liderului de a-şi demonstra excelenţa, depinde de evaluatori "măsurarea corectă a excelenţei" şi depinde de concepţia generală a societăţii la un moment dat. Şi-n leadership, "trierea grâului de neghină" se va face la un moment dat şi se va dovedi cui merită să i se atribuie excelenţa.

Materia se supune creatorului ei

Îți trebuie o viziune clară pentru a te concentra asupra a ceea ce creezi, dar în acelaşi timp trebuie să ai de partea ta imensa masă a materiei care poate să rămână cât mai mult timp în stare "stabilă".

Citeam demult o carte despre Alfred Nobel, considerat la un moment dat drept unul dintre cei mai îngrozitori criminali din istoria lumii. Uriaşa lui avere a fost adunată din fabricarea unui produs infernal, a dinamitei, care provoca un sentiment de groază tainică oricărui se apropia de casa lui. Milioane de oameni au fost ucişi cu dinamita lui. Dar se uită faptul că dinamita a fost creată nu pentru război, ci pentru alte scopuri: pentru lucrările miniere, portuare, pentru săparea de tuneluri şi alte lucrări care uşurează munca şi viaţa oamenilor.

Dar altceva îmi stârneşte o solidaritate cu domnia sa, un fel împletire a puterii de cuprindere a minţii cu redimensionarea unei realităţi care nu poate fi nici experimentată şi nici numită în mod imediat. Ei bine, Alfred Nobel, sub rezerva unei anumite confidenţialităţi şi a altor măsuri de protecţie, avea sute de substanţe în laboratorul personal din San Remo, Italia. Una mai inflamabilă ca cealaltă, ca un fel de obiecte magice trecute prin foc şi transformate în mod neaşteptat într-un model heliocentric al universului. Şi, evident, substanţele explozibile - printre care "Triazotatul de glicerină" - erau stocate în cantităţi diferite în recipiente destul de nesigure pentru vremea respectivă.

O singură picătură dacă s-ar fi vărsat pe masă ori pe podea, ar fi explodat totul - iar suflul exploziei s-ar fi propagat pe o rază de sute de metri pătraţi. Dar, în ciuda atâtor primejdii, omul de ştiinţă a fost ocolit toată viaţa de orice fel accident. Să fii înconjurat de moarte, şi moartea să stea departe de tine. Să fii protejat de viaţă în orice capcană a morţii. Şi dacă eu însumi aş fi un Creator, şi dacă un asemenea creator ar da măsura tuturor lucrurilor lumeşti printr-o durată a vieţii omului mult mai îndelungată decât cea medie, aş alege să mă angajez într-un maraton care sfidează moartea.

Într-adevăr, trebuie să-mi pun această întrebare: ce gândire poate duce la un rezultat care să mulţumească pe toată lumea, dar care să mă reprezinte şi să mă împlinească cel mai mult pe mine?

Leadership: Relaţia ta cu conţinutul creaţiei tale este adecvată unei gândiri superioare obţinute printr-o adâncire a cunoaşterii într-un sistem determinist ce facilitează parcurgerea unei traiectorii de tip "dublă legătură" ?

Materia se supune creatorului ei, asta este prima lege a ştiinţei. Şi nu oricine ajunge la această performanţă, ci doar de cei care au întreprins o lungă călătorie şi îndelungi căutări. Materia ascultă de cel care ştie s-o mânuiască cel mai bine, ţinând cont de măsura în care creatorul reuşeşte, apelând la ajutorul esenţial al vederii fenomenologice, să înţeleagă această tentativă a gândirii în cadrul filosofiei naturii. Fiinţele sunt formate dintr-o parte a materiei organice, iar viul rezultă dintr-o înaintare necesară materiei.

Acest fapt ne conduce la concluzia că cel ce crede într-un Creator al universului, crede totodată într-o energie omniprezentă, protectoare, tolerabilă, rezistentă. Iar cel care mişcă lucrurile în direcţia voinţei personale este cel care ştie să transforme materia pentru a obține un rezultatul fulminant în două lumi: spirituală şi materială.

Bineînţeles, aici intră în scena nivelul spiritual al puterii. "Bătălia se dă în ceruri", între lumea materiei şi cea a antimateriei, sau având corespondenţă directă între vibraţiile materiei şi ale conştiinţelor curate. Nu între corpuri, nu între proprietăţi fizice. Încearcă, de exemplu, să pătrunzi cu ochi de Creator fiecare lucrul din jur, să însufleţeşti şi să conduci materia din cuprinsul lucrurilor, asigurând parcurgerea unei traiectorii de tip "dublă legătură": între om şi Dumnezeu, între teorie şi cercetare, între suflet şi natură.

Încearcă să dai impuls lucrurilor ca acestea să funcţioneze după voia ta. Încearcă să însufleţeşti orice lucru atribuindu-i o anumită afinitate, investindu-l cu acea calitate de a fi "împăcat cu tine" în planul unei anumite omogenizări de factură spirituală, sau în planul unei dialectici care trebuie să conducă la o universalitate. Poţi?

Leadership: Personalitatea ta poate să-şi facă o dublură în faţa unui transfer de imagine de la creator la receptor, printr-o adecvare a esenţei tale la conţinutul unei existenţe care îşi manifestă măreţia într-o realitate subiectivă?

Este admisibil faptul că un creator se interpune între hazard şi descoperire, între viziune şi eforturi concrete, putând să schimbe deznodământul implacabil ce se conturează la cei ce nu au reuşit să se racordeze la Inteligenţa Materiei Universale. Ca s-o spun altfel, reuşita unui creator nu este doar o imagine a vreunei descoperiri, ci exprimă o realitate la scară microscopică, unde materia este doar exprimarea misterioasă a unei voinţe suverane.

Vă amintiţi de Prospero din opera lui Shakespeare, care fusese ducele Milanului? Prin mijlocirea vrăjilor şi a altor forme de magie, el putea să ordone materiei, putea să răpească oricui puterea de a i se împotrivi. Având supuse voinţei sale cele mai puternice duhuri, el putea să pornească după voie vânturile şi valurile mării. Din porunca sa, se stârni o furtună cumplită, în mijlocul căreia însăşi corabia duşmanilor săi a fost zdruncinată teribil, dar cu toate acestea el rânduise în aşa fel materia, încât nimeni de pe vas să nu fie vătămat. Planurile sale îndrăzneţe se puteau transforma oricând într-un angajament care sfida moartea. Aşadar, Prospero pătrundea în toate, însufleţea şi conducea orice lucru din cuprinsul materiei, formând în întreaga materie orice existenţă individuală.

Prospero nu este un simplu personaj de poveste, el reprezintă esenţa non-materială a unui creator desăvârşit.

Spunându-vă acestea, ţin să-mi recunosc o anumită realizare: ştiu să construiesc o imagine în care forţa lucrurilor, aşa cum este ea rânduită şi de neînţeles, se combină cu veşnica mişcare a materiei pe toată durata confruntării cu mine insumi, manifestându-se ca reprezentare a unei voinţe înalţe în credinţă.

O parte importantă a leadershipului este forma relativă a creaţiei pe care o experimentezi în "ascunsul" unei lumi care înfăţişează realitatea prin surprinderea esenţei non-materiale a unui creator desăvârşit.

Materia se supune creatorului ei, şi nu putem nicidecum hotărî întinderea ei decât luând ca punct de plecare reflecţia subiectivă asupra gândirii concepută în prealabil ca subiectivitate.

Materia şi adevărul

On Iulie 07, 2013

Respectă-ţi îndatoririle faţă de ştiinţa ta, chiar dacă ceilalţi nu sunt dispuşi să accepte adevărurile neştiute pe care ea le dezvăluie.

În timp ce încercam să înţeleg proprietăţile de bază ale materiei din care se compunea Secretul, distilând în mod corespunzător o mică cantitate din elixirul interminabil al energiei ce contribuia la crearea şi menţinerea unei viziuni aparte, simţeam cum un curent rece îmi străbate şi îmi acaparează mintea. Dacă vreun scriitor de ficţiune ar fi încercat să mă descrie într-un asemenea moment, printr-o linie orizontală a asocierilor libere, dilatate hipnotic într-o lume-imperiu, probabil aş fi fost văzut ca un fel de inventar de simboluri, pedante sau prezumţioase, apropiate de o neştiută treaptă ontologică a lumii.

Impulsuri defensive se succedau la un interval foarte scurt de timp în mintea mea, induse şi declanşate parcă de un semnal nevăzut care mă avertiza în privinţa repetării anumitor greşeli. Aceste stări de tensiune sunt frecvent întâlnite în rândul oamenilor de ştiinţă care încearcă în laboratoarele lor să dovedească anumite fenomene necunoscute şi inexplicabile, sucind toate adevărurile şi neadevărurile pentru a găsi o explicaţie acolo unde nu există niciuna cunoscută. Eram dominat parcă tot mai mult de o gândire restrictivă.

Ca un om dornic de senzaţii, nu mă gândeam decât la combinaţia aparent stabilă, în care elementele constitutive puteau să determine o nouă configuraţie a Secretului. În cataliza eterogenă, catalizatorul şi reactanţii formau faze diferite de purificare. Astfel, din conţinutul Secretului, la care cu greu aveam acces, puteam să extrag noi proprietăţi numai dacă reuşeam să reţin 55% din particulele pure de sensuri şi înţelesuri pe care el le emana la fiecare pas, înainte ca acestea să se împrăştie până la eliminare. Tehnica de prelucrare a conţinutului preţios era printre cele mai avansate la momentul respectiv.

Leadership: Ce rol eşti dispus să-ţi asumi în cadrul unei viziuni ce poate fi experimentată pe baza unor adevăruri care nu pot fi acceptate unanim, ştiind că ceea ce gândeşti este doar interpretarea ta asupra lucrurilor din jur?

Dar, cu toate acestea, ce anume destabiliza sistemul de particule declanşator de energii? De ce nu puteam să le stabilizez? Trebuia s-o iau de la capăt, precum chimistul acela din filmul "Darkman". Constant. Cu răbdare. Cu obiectivitate. Nu-mi păsa cât timp dura, ştiam că formula de săvârşire a tainei era acolo, aşteptându-mă s-o descopăr. Ah, puteam s-o simt, puteam s-o miros ! Din păcate aveam doar o singură piesă de puzzle. Şi mai erau atâtea mari semne de întrebare.

În mijlocul atâtor experienţe nereuşite, rămăsesem destul de lucid. Ştiam că sunt pe drumul cel bun, fiindu-mi indiferentă părerea celorlalţi. Fiindcă eram sigur că eu voi avea dreptate în cele din urmă şi nu aceia care îmi contestau sau îmi luau în derâdere activitatea de cercetare. Practic, îndeplineam rolul de căutător al enigmelor, de data aceasta ca o fiinţă compatibilă doar cu necesitatea de a controla rostul şi destinul propriu, fără a lua în seamă direcţiile impuse de punctul de vedere al celorlalţi oameni.

Chiar dacă răceala cu care mi-ar fi fost primite ideile ar fi prezentat motive de îngrijorare, chiar dacă ceilalţi oameni de ştiinţă, făcând anumite comparaţii cu a lor cunoaştere, ar fi avut să-mi facă măcar o obiecţiune sau m-ar fi provocat la o discuţie în contradictoriu, sau m-ar fi ironizat, ştiam că nimic nu mă va amărî.

Căci aceasta este soarta adevărului necunoscut, de a fi mai întâi respins tocmai de acele spirite vizionare care ar fi trebuit să-l accepte. Cu atât mai mult cu cât numai eu ajunsesem să experimentez adevărul, să-l cunosc în întregime, şi să-l transform în alte adevăruri, fără să relativizez principiile fundamentale pe care ele se conturează.

Leadership: Modul în care înţelegi şi manevrezi ştiinţa dezvoltă mai multe tipare ale unui nou val de deprecieri sau supraestimări a valorii personale, într-un context de tipul "abatere de la realismul unor obiective acceptate ca sine qua non a lumii sensibile" ?

Eşti dominat tot mai mult de o gândire restrictivă? În mijlocul experienţelor nereuşite rămâi totuşi destul de lucid? Eşti sigur de rodul ştiinţei tale, chiar dacă ceilalţi contestă sau îţi iau în derâdere munca şi ideile?

Nu vei putea niciodată să păstrezi distanţa faţă de ştiinţă, atâta vreme cât profesionalismul, cunoaşterea şi priceperea ta într-un domeniu ocupă un loc important în "meniul" tău zilnic. Calităţile tale reale de lider, vizibile cel mai bine prin modul de gândire şi prin prisma modului în care înţelegi şi manevrezi ştiinţa, dezvoltă mai multe tipare ale unui nou val de deprecieri sau supraestimări a valorii personale care pot scădea sau ridica rata de succes.

Secretul sau esenţa care stă în substanţialitatea noii cunoaşteri, aduce la un numitor comun o gamă întreagă de "funcţii de siguranţă activă". Acestea şi numai acestea îţi conferă puterea de a fi centrat, stabil în ceea ce priveşte relaţia cu tine însuşi în procesul devenirii. În cazul meu, obiectivele acceptate ca sine qua non a lumii sensibile, adică a unei lumi care nu este întru totul deschisă la nou, erau delimitate după efectele unei gândiri care, nerecunoscându-şi propriile limite, îşi ia eficacitatea sa operativă drept regulă absolută (de la care nu aveam de gând să fac vreo abatere).

"Funcţiile de siguranţă activă" sunt un grup de instrucţiuni pe care le urmezi pentru a îndeplini acele sarcini care te conduc la o înţelegere superioară a funcţionării leadershipului şi la un acces mai larg la acea ştiinţă pe care o posedă prin excelenţă numai minţile cele mai alese, mai cultivate şi mai talentate. Intructiuni precum: "Voi face tot ce pot pentru a sprijini parcursul dezvoltării ştiinţei" sau "Nu pot să mă îndepărtez de modelul ideal de om perfect spre care aspir", lasă loc de o credință exagerată în propriile abilități, o anume înfumurare deşartă în ce priveşte propria persoană.

Aceste funcţii îţi conferă, de asemenea, un plus de încredere şi siguranţă în utilizarea ştiinţei proprii în scopul dezvoltării capacităţilor eficiente, şi în scopul identificării de surse alternative de obţinere a unor noi adevăruri şi valorificarea acestora în practică.

Aşa cum la orice joc, un jucător îşi poate alege strategiile în funcţie de acţiunile adversarului, tot aşa şi tu, pentru ca leadershipul tău să poată fi actualizat într-o nouă configuraţie stabilă care să delimiteze cunoaşterea pură de cea empirică, trebuie să compui şi să înţelegi îndeajuns de bine "materia" pe care o încorporezi în ştiinţa ta. Încât ea să contribuie la crearea şi menţinerea unei viziuni aparte.

Leadership: Îţi iroseşti şansa de a-ţi pune în drepturi ştiinţa prin iniţiativa pe care o iei ca să-ţi manifeşti puterea personală şi controlul asupra unor descoperiri care pot prelungi coordonatele unei viziuni, dar nu o pot transpune într-un lucru fezabil?

Dacă ajungi să te faci într-adevăr vinovat de "conceptualizări a priori", de universalizări abstracte, este un semn că proprietăţile de bază ale materiei din care este constituită ştiinţa ta se manifestă succesiv la o solicitare continuu crescătoare de vizualizări şi reprezentări prea fanteziste. Ajuns la acest stadiu de evoluţie, inevitabil ceilalţi oameni din domeniu, făcând anumite comparaţii cu a lor cunoaştere, te vor ironiza şi îţi vor contesta cunoaşterea.

În acest caz, leadershipul tău trebuie să dispună de metode de luptă care definesc cele trei laturi ale sale: atacul, apărarea şi manevra. Ca să se nască şi să se dezvolte, ştiinţa trebuie pusă în drepturi, trebuie să lase posibilitatea excepţiei de la reguli, revizuită când este necesar, dar niciodată împiedicată să se manifeste efectiv.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul tău să-şi atingă scopurile cele mai înalte, respectă-ţi îndatoririle faţă de ştiinţa ta, chiar dacă ceilalţi nu sunt dispuşi să accepte adevărurile neştiute pe care ea le dezvăluie.

A transpune o viziune într-un lucru fezabil înseamnă să faci apel la elementele ştiinţei pentru a sugera un adevăr elocvent şi constructiv care poate fi înţeles şi acceptat de toţi oamenii, chiar dacă nu poate să influenţeze prea mult, chiar dacă nu poate fi considerat CAUZA PRIMA a evoluţiei.

Materia şi adevărul evidenţiază ansamblul de procese de analiză şi sinteză care vor dicta strategia adoptată în vederea recunoaşterii şi acceptării acelui modus operandi ales de lider. A convinge înseamnă a obţine recunoaşterea şi a câştiga aliaţi de nădejde, în scopul atingerii scopului comun.

Maturitatea este calea de ieşire din amăgirile copilăreşti

On Martie 21, 2008

Încearcă să redai o imagine vie despre ceea ce ai reprezentat în această viaţă, asumându-ţi responsabilitatea pentru propria creştere şi dezvoltare de dincolo de propria ta "sferă de origine".

Citind următorul fragment din cartea "Egiptologul" de Arthur Phillips, am înţeles de ce este important să reflectez asupra parcursului pe care trebuie să-l urmez în viaţă pentru a avea un viitor sigur și prosper. Este vorba despre un rege egiptean, Atum-Hadu.

Ţi se face milă când te gândeşti la el pe când era copil, cum îşi spunea poveşti ca să adoarmă, cum îşi crea visul despre un părinte celest. Analiza lui Atum-hadu beneficiază în mod evident de sociologia modernă: în aceste oribile cazuri moderne de care auzi acum, cercetările dezvăluie că există un moment critic tipic. Anume, vârsta la care copilul îşi dă seama pentru prima oară de situaţia sa jalnică, îşi înţelege în cele din urmă relaţia cu mama sa, de exemplu, şi astfel cu întreaga lume. Acest moment e prea lesne cufundat în patos retrospectiv, precum cel căruia i-am căzut victimă chiar acum, dar în realitate nu trebuie să-ţi fie milă de aceşti copii.

Dimpotrivă, trebuie să vezi aspectele frumoase şi eroice: un băiat de opt ani năvăleşte pentru ultima oară în casa sa dărăpănată (căci trebuie să fi existat o ultimă oară, indiferent că o ştia sau nu pe atunci) şi ţipă în gura mare mândru de cine ştie ce realizare, aşteptându-se încă (din pricina sedimentelor instinctelor sale copilăreşti de dragoste) să primească laude de la stăpâna casei. Strigă în gura mare, mândru că a învăţat să facă una sau alta, ceva academic sau atletic. Şi primeşte, ca simbol al indiferenţei ei definitive faţă de el, ori o scatoalcă, ori o înjurătură picantă, marinată în alcool, sau pur şi simplu o tăcere mucoasă, în timp ce noii fârtaţi vitregi scâncesc şi umblă de-a buşilea prin toată încăperea. De parcă aşa un moment, în mintea în floare a copilului, e neapărat tragic !

Leadership: Imaginea cu care îţi asociezi personalitatea poate să te avertizeze referitor la ceea ce ai simbolizat în această existență, luând în considerare acea prioritate de autoformare care nu se încheie niciodată?

Nici pomeneală: de ce să presupui că aşa un moment reprezintă o uşă ce se închide, şi nu sunetul la fel de scârţiitor al unei uşi ce se deschide? Cum le poate deosebi urechea neinstruită? Închide ochii şi, dacă, după acel scrâşnet de dinţi, simţi o briză de înţelegere sau de şansă, atunci îţi dai seama. După cum se pare că ştia Atum-hadu. Ceva se deschisese pentru el, ceva ce a ales să-şi amintească drept o vizită nocturnă de-a lui Seth. Sociologia modernă spune că semnificaţia acestui moment e înţeleasă de copiii deştepţi şi că adaptarea lor la el nu poate fi denumită altfel decât o a doua naştere: o naştere către independenţa totală, liberă de orice legături cu iluzia, liberă de orice iluzie a legăturilor. O naştere în care copilul devine ambii săi părinţi. El însuşi, singur se va construi de acum înainte.

Nu poate fi nici o îndoială ce i-a trecut marelui rege prin minte atunci când a ales numele sub care l-a cunoscut lumea mai târziu: va începe acum cel mai mare act al creaţiei, propria sa creaţie. Şi, desigur, numai după această a doua naştere chinuitoare poţi să îndrăzneşti, măcar să aspiri la cea de-a treia naştere, care îi eludează pe majoritatea oamenilor, chiar pe cei care s-au autoformat (să nu existe dubii despre probabilităţile monstruoase care sunt în joc aici). Cea de-a treia naştere este cea a nemuririi, în care, după o viaţă productivă condusă numai de instinctele tale autopărinteşti, numele tău e ţinut minte şi iubit pentru totdeauna, în lumea de dincolo sau pur şi simplu în gloria preamăritoare.

Leadership: Impactul pe care l-au avut alţii asupra ta spune totul despre ce ai întruchipat în acest traseu al vieții, dar în acelaşi timp te determină să fii mai vulnerabil la percepţiile despre o imagine ideală?

Dar, dacă nu eşti în stare să-ţi găseşti calea de ieşire din amăgirile copilăreşti, dacă bâjbâi în continuare, bazându-te pe dragostea unei mame, pe interesul ferm al preotului sau al profesorului sau al iubitului ori al ofiţerului, pe grija generoasă a bogaţilor pentru săraci, pe compania agreabilă şi loialitatea din vremuri de cumpănă a prietenilor de nădejde, atunci eşti condamnat la o viaţă de copilărie. N-o să ajungi la maturitate şi n-o să ai nicio şansă să faci vreo realizare demnă de atenţia permanentă.

Toate acestea fac din Atum-hadu un model demn de studiat. Căci dacă e clar un lucru din Catrenul 80 (numai în Fragmentul C), acesta este cât de fidel ilustrează viaţa regelui principiile pe care tocmai le-am conturat: Inima mamei se închide faţă de copilul ei, de-acum esye zidită. Nu-i dar mai de preţ pe care să i-l poată da, deşi ea plânge şi se tânguie, Aşa cum plângem pe patul de moarte ca o fecioară pângărită. Dar când e închisă uşa mormântului nostru, abia atunci sufletul biruie.

Leadership: Poţi să te dezvolți ca lider printr-un temperament puternic şi echilibrat, încât să reuşeşti să te bazezi pe resursele tale interioare pentru a aduce o energie mai inspirată, mai grijulie și mai motivantă în munca ta?

Leadershipul este o evoluţie spre stadiul adaptării la profesie, dar începe cu trecerea de la adolescenţă la maturitate, aceasta reprezentând o fază de dezvoltare care este mai lungă şi mai complexă decât pare la prima vedere, şi numai părinţii o pot facilita. Este vorba despre un leadership foarte subţire, care urmăreşte să dezvolte sentimentul de apartenență la o „familie", pentru a obține un sprijin unanim.

Iar trecerea de la copil la om matur se specifică în leadership dându-şi un conținut separat, o lege nepieritoare: "ce am devenit este rodul a ceea ce-am fost". Conţinutul acesta izolează întreaga viaţă spirituală a omului într-un perimetru în care omul firav devine conștient de puterea sa interioară, de realitatea în care trăieşte, întrucât personalitatea sa devine nu numai energie inspirată, grijulie şi motivanta, ci chiar un mod de a se forma, ca un fel de un ghid care îi arată calea și, totodată, un formator care îi dezvoltă din timp calitățile pentru binele colectiv.

Ceea ce invită la depășirea nesfârşitei treceri de la copil la adult, căci în leadership spiritul este ghid iar ghidul este reprezentat de multe ori de influenţa mamei, fapt care îngăduie să se evite orice atac asupra noţiunii de "familie", este însuși felul de a contribui la schimbarea ta printr-o exprimare autentică a valorilor şi convingerilor realiste care te-au ajutat să treci mai ușor peste situațiile grele din viață.

Trebuie să părăseşti stadiul de influență datorat mamei, şi să începi să trăieşti autonom, bazându-te pe propriile resurse, dacă vrei să te ridici la un alt nivel în viața ta. Îţi reflectă asta oare eforturile de auto-descoperire și maturizare? Dacă îţi dai seama de această necesitate, abia atunci vei putea să ieşi din cadrul oricărei dispute asupra poziţiei tale în societate, şi vei începe să te respecţi, să te simţi mai echilibrat, mai sigur, şi chiar să te simţi de neoprit în drumul tău spre succes.

Separarea de influenţa "mamei", și procesul de individualizare trebuie să fie indicatorii dorinței tale de a deveni un lider capabil să-şi asume şi să-şi înfrunte vulnerabilitatea, unul care își folosește energia fizică, emoţională şi intelectuală pentru a aduce o inspirație mai puternică, o grijă mai mare și o motivație mai mare în manifestarea propriei voinţe, mai ales în direcţia atingerii obiectivelor propuse.

Maturitatea este procesul prin care copilul "neajutorat" devine treptat o persoană conștientă de sine, cu referire la faptul că începe să-şi recunoască autonomia, aspiră să se depăşească, fiind capabil să manifeste (şi să-şi amplifice prin antrenament) capacitatea de a modela viziuni. Dar influenţa "mamei" îi permite să aducă o energie mai inspirată, mai grijulie și mai motivantă în munca sa.

Mea Culpa

On Iunie 13, 2017

Ridică-te din mijlocul unei lumi răscolitoare care se contractă sau se dilată simultan cu universul în care toate orizonturile sunt deschise.

Nu am cerut niciodată să mă pierd într-o atmosferă de început de lume din cartea creaţiei atotputernicului Dumnezeu, pe care dinamica gândului aşternut în continuarea unor întrebări anterioare experienţei o transmitea din aproape în aproape, de la înălţimea ecoului Universului.

Nu am ştiut niciodată să păstrez, să caut, să acaparez, să înţeleg cu acea graţie a mângâierii unei tăceri de dincolo de veacuri, sensul misterios al existenţei ce vrea să înşele aparenţele unei lumi aflată în opoziţie cu alte lumi. Cu grija de a nu le aşeza sub semnul unui realism compensatoriu. Lord have mercy !

Există şi un personaj, Marius Pontmercy, din opera lui Hugo, cu care parcă împărţeam aceeaşi învoială a minţii, de a nu ceda decât în faţa marilor întrebări universale.

Câteodată, acest spirit dezlănţuit, încurcat de atâtea idei, era atât de tulburat, se depărta atât de mult de ele, încât îi era greu să le mai găsească. Auzea vorbindu-se într-un chip neaşteptat despre filosofie, artă, istorie şi religie. Întrevedea aspecte ciudate şi, cum nu ştia să le privească în perspectivă, era sigur că are haosul în faţă. Unghiul sub care privea toate lucrurile începea să-şi schimbe constant locul.

Aşa am devenit prizonier al neantului personal, ciudată zvârcolire interioară, cu tristeţea sufletului unui artist hoinar ce-și sporeşte suferința tainică numai la auzul unor idei inconvenabile. Lumea mea, în lumina spirituală obţinută prin revelaţie, aparţine deseori unui moment în care, sub ploaia gravă a remușcărilor și a persistenței dubiilor, trăiesc sentimentul depărtării de esență. Mea Culpa.

Leadership: Încerci să depăşeşti dimensiunile unei înţelegeri care se constituie ca un joc de sensuri neclare tocmai pentru că ea nu se socoteşte aşezată în centrul pretenţiilor tale de om raţional?

Un întreg act de învoială cu o formă neadmisibilă de nebunie, prin segmentarea regulilor compoziţiei unui personaj misterios spre nuanţe mai deschise de conştiinţă, se derulează în faţa ochilor cu priviri tot mai vădite de stele înfrigurate şi nelinişti. Je veux aller au bout de me fantasmes. Je sais que c'est interdit. Je suis folle.

I am letting myself go într-un joc care generează parcă o utopie a eului și neantului ce mă caracterizează într-o existenţă apropiată contradicţiei dintre Dumnezeu şi omul înnoit prin trama compoziţională a creaţiei, din care legea atracţiei reprezintă doar o mică parte. Dau replica pe care o simt şi nu las nimic fără să încerc să înțeleg, chiar dacă înțelegerea este urmată de o distanţare de real.

Vă invit adesea în mijlocul povestirii unor întâmplări din alte vremuri, ca determinant al unor cuvinte ce exprimă diviziunea timpului, dansând cu eternitatea între mine şi o oglindă cu o infinitate de înţelesuri, pentru a descifra misterele și simbolurile unei deveniri de la înălţimile cerului pe care îl contemplu subiectiv. Words without a meaning, just fading away.

Din pricina dorinţei de a fi aici şi altundeva în acelaşi timp, je suis la et ailleurs , mă ridic adesea din mijlocul unei lumi vrăjite și răscolitoare care se contractă sau se dilată simultan cu universul în care toate orizonturile sunt deschise.

O simplă continuare a infinitului, ademenitor prin tendinţa de a mă pierde între simbolurile imprimate sensibilității și minții ce aparţin spiritualităţii concordante cu ştiinţa, mă zguduie ca un cutremur. Într-un fel care sugerează că s-ar putea să mă las în voia tendinţei de abandonare a modelului meu de artă. Je ne dors plus.

Momentul de cotitură al evoluţiei tale, pe care leadershipul trebuie să-l recunoască ca absolut necesar, constă în desprinderea mintală a determinărilor fundamentale ce decurg din încercarea de a te înțelege și de a înțelege lumea din perspectiva unui om trecut prin solicitarea nebuniei de a crede în ceva mai presus de limitele raţiunii pe care o posedă și o slăveşte.

Mea Culpa constituie, în fond, conţinutul reflexiv și filosofic al unei realităţi de dincolo de barierele fireşti ale înţelegerii unanim acceptate, de dincolo de frontierele cunoaşterii şi ale imaginaţiei, în care miracolul îl reprezintă chiar părăsirea ei.

Ca şi gânditor, vei fi urmat întotdeauna de un fel de Mea Culpa atunci când încerci să cunoști ceva care nu se supune legilor cunoscute sau legilor probabilistice ale rezultatelor pe care le aştepţi. Întreaga vină pe care ți-o asumi este că încerci să forţezi limitele unei cunoaşteri care, cel puțin dintr-un anumit punct de vedere, te depășește.

Mecanismul intim al creaţiei

Asumă-ți acea abordare a valorii care se înstăpâneşte într-un proces de descoperire, fără a epuiza premizele unei investiţii majore în ceea ce rămâne etern.

În jurnalele sale, Eisenstein ne oferă în acelaşi timp o cheie pentru a pătrunde în mecanismul gândirii sale, în intimitatea în care se nasc opere lui. Remarcăm cât de variat, de mobil este mecanismul acesta intim al creaţiei. Câte aparente contradicţii, câte ipoteze diferite nu i-am cunoscut şi nu-i vom cunoaşte încă ! Câte detalii revelatoare se pierd din lipsă de documente. Câte altele, aparent anodine, ca o plimbare prin New York sau o vizită la Sing Sing, ne pot deschide ferestre noi spre acest univers pe care-l urmărim.

Eisenstein o ştie şi de aceea scrie în legătură cu metodele unei biografii a creaţiei: "Detaliile anecdotice, surprize sau accidente aparente nu trebuie să distragă atenţia de la principiile de bază recunoscute ale unei munci artistice. Asemenea detalii fireşti ale biografiilor creatoare dau un sentiment de viaţă procesului de creaţie descris. Nu poate exista, sigur că nu, o schemă abstractă, aici, în cazul unui proces de creaţie pulsând de sânge" . *

Leadership: Cu ce agent călăuzitor se învârte în contact cheia funcţionării mecanismului gândirii tale, încât creaţia pe care o experimentezi să poată ajunge la revelaţia unui sentiment dublu, nemaiîncercat?

Cheia funcţionării mecanismului unei gândiri sofisticate, asigurând transformările ce se petrec sub conducerea impulsului de a săvârşi o lucrare excepţională, o introducere nouă în domeniul ştiinţei, se învârte în contact cu agentul călăuzitor: sentimentul de viaţă interioară, la răscrucea dintre cine ai fost şi cine vei fi.

Cheia nu se deschide oricând, ci în timp, cu trudă şi geniu, dobândindu-şi semnificaţia numai în cadrul unei triple relaţii, ale cărei elemente sunt: conştiinţa de a fi parte a unei cuprinderi mai mari, puterea de a merge mai departe într-o direcţie necunoscută şi abilitatea de a utiliza propriul sine pentru a răspunde chemării de artist.

Deci, avem de a face cu revelaţia unui sentiment dublu, nemaiîncercat, de uimire şi satisfacţie, sau de mândrie şi mirare, atunci când munca ta capătă valenţe de operă de artă, nu de o sarcină împovărătoare și repetitivă. Un sentiment privitor la atingerea unei senzaţii de identitate în trecerea timpului, un fel de unitate, o formă de existenţă a unei diversităţi care rezultă din considerarea mai multor lucruri ca unul singur.

Sentimentul de viaţă care dă startul procesului de creaţie se poate concretiza într-un principiu de bază al muncii artistice numai dacă devine atât de intens încât să fie perceput ca o câştigare a facultăţilor imaginative, drept o oportunitate de dezvoltare a mijloacelor de expresie și a abilităților de comunicare estetică, drept un model de dialog al elementelor de limbaj plastic coerent și bine armonizat într-un concept original.

Sentimentele de viaţă care caracterizează un artist, prin opera careia îi dăruieşte propriile bătăi ale inimii, sunt: simplitatea, delicateţea, aplecarea spre umilinţă, compasiunea, forţa imaginativă. Ele nu trebuie să-şi piardă însuşirile în cazul unei experienţe revelatoare capabilă să determine schimbarea personală, cum oferă adesea romanele lui Stephen King sau filmele lui Alfred Hitchcock.

O cuprindere mare este dată de acea abordare a valorii care se înstăpâneşte într-un proces de descoperire, sub înrâurirea unei impresii vii de real, senzația că a pășit, așa ca printr-un miracol, dincolo de ecran, fără a epuiza premizele unei investiţii majore în ceea ce rămâne etern. Iar pentru ca reproducerea unui subiect de cercetare să fie una de succes trebuie ca imaginea pozitivă a ceea ce încerci să sugerezi să se centreze pe „retina" existenței unei lumi deterministe.

La rândul ei, această lume intrată sub incidenţa mecanismului intim al creaţiei, poate fi expresia unor aparente contradicţii, ipoteze diferite referitoare la evoluție. Iar ceea ce poate deschide ferestre noi spre unitatea mistică a acestei lumi sunt detaliile anecdotice, surprizele sau accidente aparente. Acestea pot da un sentiment de viaţă procesului de creaţie descris.

Descoperirea drumului artistic, dinspre personaj spre eveniment, trebuie să asigure un maximum al experienței umane (de la aspectele sociale colective la cele mai intime), cu scopul de a oferi o adecvare a mijloacelor artistice la specificul vizual al subiectului abordat.

Mecanismul intim al creaţiei reprezintă interacţiunea dintre efectele de fond ale descoperirii unei lumi noi şi introducerea ei în domeniul ştiinţei, în contact cu agentul călăuzitor: sentimentul de viaţă interioară. Acest sentiment stă la baza muncii artistice.

Meleagurile tăcute ale puterii

Cântăreşte-ţi bine valoarea, fragmentând fiecare element al propriei tale personalităţi şi eliminând acei factori care îţi influenţează într-un mod negativ caracterul.

O veneraţie tot mai mare sporea în jurul lui Nizam care domnea alături de fratele său, regele persan Sharaman, după principiile loialităţii şi fraternităţii. Nimeni însă nu bănuia că, de fapt, Nizam era un fără nicio credinţă, dornic de putere, a cărui mai mare aspiraţie era să fie nu numai rege, ci şi cel mai puternic om din Persia.

Aflând că în oraşul sfânt Alamut exista un obiect magic, un pumnal sacru – a cărui mâner era umplut cu legendarul nisip al timpului, şi că eliberarea nisipului întorcea timpul înapoi putând schimba astfel evenimentele, Nizam, foarte bătrân şi înţelept, dar ticălos, şi-a pus în aplicare diabolicul plan.

Leadership: Căutarea sensului vieţii devine o prioritate de prim rang atunci când acorzi o atenţie neîncetată la tot ce gândeşti în preajma unei predestinări care te face iresposabil?

Arma cea mai eficientă. Pentru a reuşi în leadership trebuie să recurgi la puterea şarmului, a seducţiei pure, dar uneori trebuie să recurgi chiar la viclenie sau la "maşinaţiuni" de culise, şi să pătrunzi necontenit în mintea oamenilor, în conştiinţa maselor, să pătrunzi în sufletul lumii şi să-l modifici după voia ta.

Ca orice impostor, Nizam avea cel mai mare interes să-şi răspândească influenţa în cercuri cât mai largi, şi în special în cei trei nepoţi ai săi, care erau neîntrecuţi în vitejie şi curaj, spre a-şi spori posibilităţile de reuşită. Le-a câştigat acestora încrederea absolută, imprimând foarte clar în inima şi în mintea lor imaginea sa: a unui om nu doar înţelept, ci peste măsură de afectuos şi protector. Ce spunea el rămânea adevărat; ce făcea el era întotdeauna just.

Nu fusese deloc complicat să înşele vigilenţa nepoţilor lui şi totodată a celorlalţi persani. Cunoştea felul acesta de oameni: bine pregătiţi fizic, antrenaţi să lupte, să reacţioneze rapid şi precis, care scrutau fiecare chip, urmăreau orice mişcare şi chiar căutau pericolul.

Instinctul şi inclinaţia pentru răutate l-au înşelat foarte rar. În timp ce el a stat cu ochii pe toţi, nimeni n-a stat cu ochii pe el. Aşa a putut să-şi ia toate măsurile de prevedere ca să treacă nevinovat după ce l-a ucis pe fratele său, regele Sharaman, şi după ce a pus în primejdie un regat întreg.

Leadership: Îţi poţi îngădui să distrugi o lume, ca s-o reconstruieşti pe a ta?

Valoarea pe care o ia nivelul de semnificaţie al hotărârii de a fi la înălţimea aşteptărilor celorlalţi, colerelată cu anticiparea oricărei devieri de la normal, se apropie de principiul judecăţii subiective în chestiuni de credinţă. A fi vertical înseamnă să-ţi pierzi "nebunia" de a crede într-o realitate care se exprimă doar prin schimbări de dispoziţie, imagini dezorganizate şi gânduri intruzive ireal de efemere.

Nimeni nu a observat ce se petrecea în jurul lor, în afară de prinţul Dastan. În finalul filmului "Prince of Persia: The Sands of Time (2010)" , Dastan, cu ajutorul frumoasei şi curajoasei prinţese Tamina, au reuşit să "modifice timpul" şi să-l împiedice pe Nizam să-şi atingă scopurile meschine.

Dar, întrebarea ce se impune a fi pusă din capul locului este: ce s-ar fi întâmplat dacă planurile diabolice ale lui Nizam ar fi fost puse în aplicare? Un om care distruge o lume ar fi în stare de orice, inclusiv să distrugă universuri, dar oare merită? Nu ştiu. Dar sunt ferm convins că un om care îşi hrăneşte sufletul numai cu dorinţa înflăcărată de a avea puterea absolută, care nu poate fi determinat să renunţe la planurile sale diabolice, care crede mai mult în valorile materiale decât în cele spirituale, are întotdeauna motive serioase să o facă.

Dacă ai avea posibilitatea, ţi-ai îngădui să distrugi o lume, ca s-o reconstruieşti pe a ta? Sau ai avea puterea să-ţi accepţi destinul şi să laşi ca lucrurile să-şi urmeze cursul firesc, chiar dacă nu sunt pe voia ta?

Leadership: Subtilitatea cu care maschezi tensiunea puternică a vieţii interioare, coincide cu abilitatea ta de a manifesta ceea ce îţi doreşti într-o stare de incertitudine faţă de propria identitate?

Puterea se află in mâini bune, atunci când cel ce conduce e mai mult iubit decât temut !

Cineva spunea: "Cine slujeşte la un om rău, cerşetor va rămâne." Puterea, daca se află in mâinile unui om fără scrupule, ambiţios, nemilos şi lacom, devine o problema serioasă – căci toţi oamenii vor avea de suferit. Un om de temut estecapabil să distrugă nu doar o lume, ci un întreg univers şi, în consecinţă, el va avea parte de acelaşi răspuns: adică nimeni nu-şi va deschide sufletul în faţa lui.

Dacă, pe de altă parte, conducătorul este simţitor faţă de oameni şi nevoie lor, atunci toţi îl vor servi cu credinţă. Nu vor exista revolte, proteste, nemulţumiri, şi astfel puterea liderului va fi în siguranţă.

După cum două elemente eterogene ca salpetrul şi cărbunele, amestecate în proporţii cuvenite, ne dau pulberea din care se poate desprinde o imensă energie explozivă - tot astfel conlucrarea dintre oameni şi liderul lor poate da o putere utilă mult mare decât ar putea s-o aibă liderul de unul singur.

A manifesta o preocupare pentru acapararea şi maximizarea puterii, într-o stare de incertitudine faţă de propria identitate, indică faptul că nu eşti sigur de ceea ce ţi se potriveşte şi că nu eşti sigur de ceea ce pretinzi că poţi face atunci când nu ai acces la adevăratele valori şi virtuţi pe care trebuie să le reprezinţi.

Pe meleagurile tăcute ale puterii lucrurile nu sunt întotdeauna roz, şi nu există niciun marcaj care să indice adevărata natură a celor care vor să conducă şi manevrele pe care aceştia le întreprind pentru a-şi însuşi şi menţine puterea.

Însă "meleagurile tăcute ale puterii" se află pe nisipuri mişcătoare, iar cel ce intră în această zonă şi rămâne fidel unor principii şi idealuri nesănătoase, inechitabile şi neetice, utilizând viclenia, manipularea, îndoctrinarea în scopul creării propriei lumi, nu-şi va găsi niciodată echilibrul şi nimeni nu-i va întinde o mână ca să-l ajute. Şi cu cât se va zbate mai mult să-şi atingă scopurile ticăloase, cu atât se va afunda mai repede...

Cântăreşte-ţi bine valoarea, fragmentând fiecare element al propriei tale personalităţi şi eliminând acei factori care îţi influenţează într-un mod negativ caracterul.

P.S. A deţine puterea prin orice mijloace nu trebuie să fie un deziderat al niciunui lider.

Memoria unei gândiri prăfuite

Ceea ce vezi la un om devine un mod de explorare a vizibilității de dincolo de aparențe, dacă ești conștient de adâncimile care îi definesc ființa.

În urmă cu vreo săptămână, cu totul întâmplător, am revăzut unul din profesorii mei din facultate. Părul cărunt, tuns periuță, cu vreo 20 kg în plus peste media bunului simţ, mergând cu paşi greoi, cu ochii veseli, dar care trădau o anumită îndoială, ca și când omul ar fi fost conștient de propriile sale nedreptăți, dar încerca să le ascundă cu un zâmbet fără griji. Mă uit la el, îl cercetez din ochi, şi observ că are multe probleme de ordin medical, mai ales ştiind că a suferit vreo două AVC-uri. Deci cu capul sigur nu stă bine.

Bun, dar ce spune privirea lui neliniştită, bine ascunsă în spatele unui zâmbet delicat, amabil, zâmbet care de multe ori ia naştere din umorul savuros şi se termină într-o apoteoză lamentabilă? Citiţi mai departe !

I-am spus că vremea profesorilor universitari a trecut. Inteligenţa artificială precum ChatGPT sau BARD sunt instrumente absolut necesare pentru a învăţa singur, despre orice, fără să mai urmezi vreo facultate. Deja elevii din liceu preferă să înveţe singuri cu ajutorul pluginului CK-12 Flexi din versiunea ChatGPT4, decât să mai plătească meditaţiile exorbitante, intense şi deloc lămuritoare. Studenţii nici nu mai merg la cursuri, învaţă totul singuri cu ChatGPT. Pur și simplu, explicaţiile și modul de organizare a învățării oferite de Inteligența Artificială sunt mult superioare față de orice sistem școlar sau universitar tradițional.

Zdruncinat, înmărmurit, aproape cu lacrimi în ochi, domnul profesor ştie prea bine că generaţia lui, ultima de profesori, este în declin. Totuşi, îmi răspunde, cu capul puţin plecat, ca şi când ar fi vrut să ascundă realitatea: "Nu prea te ajută AI, mai trebuie să gândeşti." Şi ştiţi cum a spus-o? Cu un ton din acela de mândrie, demn de strigătul eroului din război, care lasă să se înţeleagă că, la o adică, el este un mare gânditor şi mare cunoscător.

Leadership: Ai avut vreodată parte de o experiență în care o imagine, aparent fără conținut, a devenit dovada clară a existenței unei lucrări de la care nu se aşteaptă răspuns?

M-au frapat îndeosebi cuvintele "trebuie să gândeşti", ca şi când ar fi fost spuse de un geniu, ceva strâns legat de săvârşirea unui fapt măreţ, culminând cu vreo realizare dincolo de orice aşteptări. Tocmai din acest motiv, cuprins de curiozitate, am căutat pe Google numele domnului profesor, poate găsesc ceva interesant. Şi, ce-am găsit? Ei bine, primele 3 rezultate afişează CV-ul domului profesor. Deci, s-ar spune că CV-ul e cel mai important lucru care iese în evidentă despre domnul profesor. Apoi, următoarele câteva rezultate afişează titlurile unor cărţi învechite, dar, atenţie, nu şi conţinutul lor.

Iată, deci, un gânditor fără conţinut.

Citind CV-ul măreţ al domnului profesor, pe webcache Google, unde nu se şterge nimic, aflăm că este posesorul unui doctorat. Dar, Hocus Pocus, unde este doctoratul? Internetul nu ştie nimic despre lucrarea marelui gânditor, lucrare care totuşi l-a ridicat în funcţie, oferindu-i atâtea beneficii de-a lungul timpului. Practic, existenţa acestei lucrări este pusă sub semnul îndoielii.

Şi ştiţi cu ce seamănă lipsa dovezii existenţei acestei lucrări de doctorat? Este ca şi când ai promova examenul de bacalaureat, fără să te prezinţi la examen. Cu alte cuvinte, marele dottore ar trebui să dea socoteală pentru cel puţin o fraudă colosală, un plagiat sau o teză fără valoare, poate chiar una inexistentă, de care se fac vinovaţi şi alţii profesori, care nu şi-au publicat nicăieri lucrările.

Leadership: Imaginea pe care ți-ai construit-o devine dovada clară a existenței unei creații care provoacă o simțire profundă, dar nu stimulează conștientizarea virtuților tale?

Atenţie mare: acesta este modelul de profesor care rosteşte cuvinte de genul "trebuie să gândeşti", dar care nu are absolut nimic de arătat ! Or ca să ajungi un mare gânditor, trebuie să urmezi sfatul lui Goethe care îi declara unui prieten de-al său: "Ca tu să devii un compozitor, trebuie să fi studiat armonia şi contrapunctul timp de 11 ani, încât să ajungi să supui spiritul inventiv, regulelor, când se vor deştepta imaginaţia şi sentimentul."

Ţi-aş da nota 1 domnule profesor, cu indulgenţă, dacă ai fi publicat "minunea" minţii tale pe internet, deci doar pentru prezenţă te-aş puncta. Însă pentru că îţi este ruşine de fapta ta, şi o ascunzi de atât amar de vreme, atunci eşti elev de repetenţie. Da, eşti doar un repetent fără valoare în lume, la fel de insipid şi necunoscut ca şi lucrarea ta, la fel cum sunt aproape toţi ceilalţi profesori universitari care nu şi-au publicat doctoratele. Prea mulţi escroci şi profani sunt în universităţile din România.

Leadership: Poți surprinde într-o singură imagine, prin aspectul vizual, emoțiile omului prinse în vulnerabilitatea care însoțește un Ego supraestimat?

Acum, continuându-şi spusele şi încercând să argumenteze ceva, el simţea parcă nevoia unei justificări a acestei reluări de opinie, făcând parcă un efort să-şi amintească ceva, cât de puţin, din realizările sale. Memoria nu-l trădase, oare câte evenimente a trăit el în acest timp, ce fapte, ce experiențe, ce realități s-au suprapus peste imaginile profunde, ascunzându-le în suflet?

Totul a devenit dintr-o dată, din nou mai viu, clar şi nebulos, ca amintire îndepărtată, printre care mai apare, miraculos ca o speranţă, soarele. Eu însumi, încercând să trăiesc ceea ce profesorul retrăia în gând, printre amintiri şi poveşti de viaţă, am fost cuprins de febra ciudată a neputinţei de a şti, de a egala, de a înţelege totul, pentru că aşa începe incursiunea într-o lume enigmatică. Cu întrebarea: "Cine sunt eu cu adevărat?"

Oamenii vorbesc adesea din memorie, depanând experiențe și reflecţii, așa încât să nu mai repete greşelile, sau poate ca să se dezvinovățească, să se justifice, încât să găsească o scuză, să-și mascheze greșelile pe linia unei retrageri strategice. Repetându-și întruna, ei învață să creadă în cuvintele salvatoare, care cumva îi disculpă, nu le trădează lipsa de înțelegere. Iar când memoria îi trădează, și se întâmplă asta des la o vârstă, în momentele de neclaritate, atunci ei își compun imagini reconfortante de învingători.

Leadership: Ai experimentat vreodată o simțire profundă în fața unei imagini ce scoate în evidență relațiile cauză-efect ale acțiunilor care nu sunt în favoarea dezvoltării calităților personale?

Majoritatea profesorilor universitari habar nu au ce este de fapt ştiinţa, sau de ce ar putea deveni ea act de gândire. Căci primul pas ca să înţelegi cunoaşterea este s-o salvezi. Al doilea pas este s-o faci cunoscută. Apoi să te foloseşti de ea în mod chibzuit, în acord cu ce-ai învăţat de la alţi, la egalitate cu ce-ai deprins din experienţele tale.

Iar exprimări de genul "trebuie să gândeşti" sunt uşor pripite, căci pentru cine este cu adevărat cunoscător ele reprezintă nişte drumuri lungi, marşuri făcute pe ploaie sau pe cărări troienite şi bântuite de viscol. Numai creierele îndobitocite în direcţia unui Ego supraestimat nu ştiu să facă distincţia între adevăr şi îndoială.

În timp ce-mi vorbea, cu atâta fervoare, ceva în mine înregistra un soi de enigmă. Şi totuşi, habar nu aveam de toate lucrurile astea, le-am înregistrat, am rămas câteva secunde impresionat, dar...oh ! nu se poate, nu am cum să rămân în permanenţă impresionat.

O parte a memoriei îl trădase pe domnul profesor, o parte a gândirii sale a dat din umeri, nestingherit şi, ca şi când ar fi vrut să ocolească un zid greu de trecut. Din acest motiv, nu are rost să caut vreun supravieţuitor al luptei dintre cunoaştere şi necunoaştere, dintre adevăr şi iluzie.

Lumea are la fel de mulţi gânditori pe cât are şi muşte care trag la tot ce înseamnă mizerie. Eroi necunoscuţi printre miile de martiri care sunt acum ţărână. Eroi care n-au înţeles lupta, care habar n-au avut ce-i ăla război, pentru că tot ce-au întreprins au fost doar nişte fărâme de interes nesincer, o aparență, lipsiţi fiind de conținut autentic sau de o înțelegere aprofundată a ceea ce implică cu adevărat un război. Tot ce-am scris aici este o critică la adresa superficialității sau falsității angajamentului lor.

Leadership: Creaţia căreia îi dai viață poate să trăiască în umbră, fără a-și dezvălui adevărata esență?

Din dorinţa de a fi cât mai autentic, domnul profesor, marele filozof, a sfârşit prin a deveni propriul său regizor, interpret şi spectator unic. Vorbea cu chip de atotștiutor, fără să ofere dovada propriei expertize. La urma urmei, cunoaşterea este o aventură devenită datorie pioasă, un soi de călătorie sacrală care dezvăluie tainele ascunse ale înțelegerii profunde. Şi apoi, senzaţia aia ciudată, dureroasă, a reconstituirii unei fărâme de adevăr, fie ea şi fragilă. Ca să înţelegi ceva, trebuie să fi participat la vreun război, să auzi realmente bubuitul tunurile, şuierul gloanţelor, tot infernul de zgomot, fum, foc, groaza şi moartea.

Asta i-a lipsit domnului profesor toată viaţa: curajul de a trece, cu adevărat, prin foc şi sabie. Totuşi, când l-am revăzut, părea bântuit de obsesii napoleoniene, schilodit sufleteşte de tendinţa măreţiei, dominat de dorinţa de a părea mai mult decât este cu adevărat. Impostoare, înşelătoare, intrigantă, gândirea nu i-a permis să conştientizeze faptul că în marea ecuaţie a lumii el este la fel de mic şi de neînsemnat, total necunoscut ca şi propria lui teză de doctorat, creaţie de care nimeni nu ştie nimic.

De atâţia ani, supravieţuitorul unei conştiinţe halucinante poartă cu el, zi de zi, umbra unei obsesii: memoria unei stime de sine înalte, pe care eu am încercat s-o răscolesc prea mult. Da, am rememorat aici întâlnirea cu eroul lui Cervantes în lupta cu morile de vânt, şi nu-mi pare rău că morile de vânt au rămas doar nişte simple iluzii. Şi cunoaşterea unora este tot o mare iluzie, la fel ca şi existenţa lor.

Chiar în acest moment încerc să trag o concluzie, un fel de filozofie susţinută cu bună cunoaştere, pe care o fac cunoscută lumii:

"Bat la poarta unei case şi nu răspunde nimeni. Strig, apăs pe clanţă, poarta nu e încuiată, înseamnă că o fi cineva acasă? Sau este doar o locuinţă goală, părăsită, lăsată în lumea ei măruntă şi trecătoare? Ce are ea atât de interesant să-mi povestească? N-am considerat că merită să-mi spună ceva precis, aşa c-am plecat mai departe..."

O creație care nu se dezvăluie ascunde esența falsă a creatorului său, adesea ascunzându-se din cauza plagiarii sau escrocheriei. Mai bine zis, un creator care își ascunde creația este sabotorul unei imagini care ar putea să dezvăluie adevărul propriei inutilități și a lipsei de valoare.

Memoria unei gândiri prăfuite lasă în urma ei amintiri uitate, ignorate, care nu se mai întorc. Ea aparţine omului gol pe dinăuntru, lipsit de conţinut, dar cu pretenţii de mare cunoscător şi gânditor, care nu a reuşit să anime propriile realizări cu "o viață fără de moarte".

Memoriile unei vieţi care se repetă

Leadershipul este deosebirea pe care o faci între o realitate care se zbate în mijlocul unui "mă repet din nou" şi o realitate care "se întâmplă" deja.

Am fost mereu interesant de vizualizarea unei poveşti adevărate, legate strict de un dublu al meu, ca exemplu al unei experienţe artistice unde se poate atinge libertatea maximă de exprimare şi se poate imagina la infinit posibilul unei existenţe clădită pe ideea de a defini formal un conţinut obiectual şi prezentându-l ca variantă de continuare a realităţii.

Premisele unui compromis raţional dintre caracterul emoţional al lucrării şi logica precisă a construcţiei compoziţionale, ce aminteşte de arta renaşterii timpurii din Florenţa, îşi fac loc într-o imagine care încântă privirile oricărui iubitor de frumos. Se ridică aici problema conştiinţei, pe care adesea mi-o închipuiesc ca fiind calitatea unei fiinţe umane setată să caute adevărul din spatele imaginii, într-un destin nemuritor.

Arta este o izbândă a pământului fertil, a florilor care îl acoperă şi al aerului curat. Nu ştiu cât de mult timp am investit, cu migală şi răbdare, doar ca să aleg corect între variantele de cristalizare a unei vederi din apropiere, o formă de sensibilitate specială, ca să ridic acea schelărie conceptuală şi experimentală menită să plaseze subiectul uman în coerenţă cu expresia unei realităţi decorate cu contururi fragile.

Trandafirul încă este acolo, înflorit cu mulţi bujori încălziţi de razele soarelui, exprimând măreţia artistului care îşi expune sentimentele în aşa fel încât cel ce îi vede creaţia o simte ca fiind o parte din sine. Povestea trandafirului, ca de altfel sarcina lui principală, este de a întruchipa într-o formă artistică, adecvată, o idee de realism total sub o oarecare doză de expresivitate şi superioritate.

Iar de aici, viaţa mea a început să capete o semnificaţie aparte, constituind tot atâtea calităţi specifice pentru stilul unei arte care înseamnă atât continuitate cât și evoluţie.

Leadership: Poţi să îţi exteriorizezi personalitatea prin expresia activităţii creatoare înfăptuită cu ajutorul concretului din planul naturii, aşa încât să surprinzi esenţialul unei imagini de ansamblu asupra vieţii?

Pe linia imaginii pe care o redau mai jos, dedicată unei teme de maximă actualitate, se recondiţionează materialul din care este făcută viaţa mea, începutul unei noi pagini de memorie care peste ani va trezi nostalgie. Nu încerc să par mai mult decât ce sunt, la fel cum nici trandafirul nu-şi schimbă locul într-o grădină magnifică pe care artistul o încorporează într-un tablou semnat: "Admiraţie pentru frumuseţea naturii".

Tot ce simte un trandafir și-l face uman într-un tablou care începe de la un simplu joc de linii şi cromatici variate, poate fi redat cu mână de artist într-o mărturisire pe care scriitorul român Alexandru Vlahuţă o face despre pictorul Nicolae Grigorescu, cu acel farmec al puterii ascunse care dă eleganţa unei sincerităţi expresive cuceritoare:

"Veşnic nemulţumit de lucrul lui, răzând de zece ori o pânză, plecând şi întorcându-se de câte zece ori în acelaşi colţişor din natură, care mereu tot altceva-i spunea din marele mister, şi el mereu întrebând, simţind că, dincolo de liniile şi de culorile care se văd, mai e ceva care nu se vede, şi care totuşi trebuie să se vadă. Trebuie. Căci aceasta şi este chemarea unui artist pe lume – să te facă să vezi în vecii vecilor ceea ce natura nu arată decât o dată, la fulgerarea unei clipe, o singură dată, în toată necuprinsa şi înspăimântătoarea veşnicie a vremii.”

Trandafirul încă mai există ca atribuit al sufletului de a concepe o nouă realitate, de a merge mai departe, de a evolua şi mai mult, de a se regăsi pe Sine în experienţa de veacuri a fiinţei umane.

O imagine de ansamblu asupra vieţii se poate obţine din uimirea pe care o ai în faţa unui tablou a cărui temă surprinde orizontul de definire a naturii şi frumuseţilor ei, din timpul unui moment memorabil.

Iată ce-l mulţumeşte pe un trandafir, dornic a fi imortalizat într-un tablou plin de culoare şi nostalgie. Mi-l închipuiesc sublim şi fascinant, drept autorul unei creaţii artistice care amestecă voit registrul miraculosului cu cel al supranaturalului, într-un joc magic al efectelor de compoziţie:

Să fiu o culoare frumoasă, strălucind în realizarea unui vis măreţ care e mai interesant din perspectiva unei mărturii de artă. Să fiu o poveste de auto-reflecție pe care artistul o foloseşte pentru a transmite o mare învăţătură lumii, în aşa măsură încât să nu exist decât ca întrupare a unui spirit desăvârşit care, de-a lungul vieţii sale, preferă să experimenteze particularul unei personalităţi izolate privită în oglinda unei raţiuni universale invariabile.

Să descopăr calităţile unei pensule speciale care să imprime portretului meu, în timp, eleganţă şi supleţe, asigurând un contur perfect. Să îmi construiesc singur lumea, ca alternativă a unei comunicări cu Dumnezeu în care să difere doar nuanţa de luminozitate şi de mister. Să nu dispar după moarte.

Trandafirul este spiritul unei fiinţe complexe, acceptată de rânduiala unor taine care se lasă uşor înveşmântate în haina cuvântului, ca o replică a imaginaţiei unui artist care descrie o viziune a naturii spre aprofundarea subiectului unei lumi fabuloase, perfect alcătuite, dar uneori greu de înţeles.

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate da acea impresie de realitate în care predomină senzația de mister și fabulos, încât să capeţi acces la o altfel de percepţie vizavi de complexitatea unui "ceva care lipseşte din viaţa ta"?

Ceea ce lipseşte din viaţa mea este însăşi mesajul pe care trandafirul îl transmite sub formă de nostalgie, melancolie, atracţie, consolare, dovada dragostei, pentru că de fiecare dată când îl privesc în stropii ploii de vară simt că sunt introdus în episoadele marcante ale unei poveşti de spirit.

“Însăşi speranţa este uneori o formă de durere.”

Sunt doar un trandafir. Vă rog, încetaţi să mă înţelegeţi printr-o multitudine de priviri, sub toate culorile mele, ci eventual încadraţi-mă sub un clopot de sticlă şi contemplaţi-mă din adâncimile profunde ale unui destin tulburător, scris cu cerneala sângelui curs din rănile unor muritori de rând. Încercaţi să mă exploraţi cu un singur ochi, fără să pierdeţi din varietatea şi complexitatea unui "ceva care lipseşte din viaţa voastră".

Trăiesc momente de nedumerire, repetate adesea, ca un joc stereotip, mereu în acelaşi fel. Un fel de senzaţie de abandon în faţa unei puteri transcendente, neputinţa de a controla pe deplin ceea ce se întâmplă în treburile lumeşti. Îmi lipseşte acea încredere care să-mi permită să depăşesc momentele de mare intensitate emoţională, dar cu toate acestea înfloresc mai firesc decât în cazul altor flori, chiar dacă însăşi spinii mă blochează într-o realitate mai aspră, mai presus de aceea care cade sub simţuri. Sono fuori su una nuova strada alla ricerca di una terra senza nome.

Trandafirul denotă încrederea în trăirile unei alte fiinţe cu care rezonezi în armonie cu TOTUL, având acces la o lume expusă interpretării şi înţeleasă printr-o sesizare artistică, printr-o metaforă: "Tema vieţii, ca într-un vis".

Deseori, îmi închipui că sunt spiritul unei fiinţe care traversează nemurirea în alte roluri, alte reguli, cu alte motive de captivitate, cu alte activităţi artistice, dar întotdeauna însărcinat cu aceeaşi misiune: "È tempo di girare la pagina e iniziare un nuovo capitolo."

Leadershipul, ca tendinţă de a înţelege personalitatea artistică, vizează trăirea de moment, irepetabilă şi inestimabilă, pe care o abordezi într-un context de "similitudine vizuală" când eşti pe cale să-ţi asumi o identitate din care nu mai poţi să te desprinzi, tocmai pentru că te complaci în postura de personaj aflat în centrul atenţiei.

Memoriile unei vieţi care se repetă ia în considerare acea sursă de expunere a ideilor, a emoţiilor, a amprentei, percepției și a experienței personale, într-o creaţie a cărei principală trăsătură este puterea de împlinire a unui destin consacrat artei. Un destin care sfidează efemerul inerent printr-o viziune interpretativă asupra unei fiinţe asemănătoare ţie, percepută ca simbol al unei realităţi spirituale mai vaste.

Important este cum te raportezi la această fiinţă prin intermediul unei comparaţii revelatoare de adevăruri, frumuseţe, divin, trăinicie, emoţii, potenţial artistic, încât s-o faci accesibilă publicului larg sub diferite semnificaţii, într-o poveste surprinzătoare al cărei conţinut se repetă în alte timpuri şi alte locuri.

P.S. Expresia "mă repet din nou" seamănă a pleonasm. În cazul acestui articol, am folosit "din nou" pentru a întări o regulă care se aplică pe o perioadă mai lungă de timp. Dacă spui "mă repet" poate avea semnificaţia de "s-a mai întâmplat o singură dată". Eu am întărit o idee, o convingere, un fapt, prin semnificaţia de "se întâmplă de nenumărate ori", ca un fel de deja-vu.

Memory

On Ianuarie 02, 2020

Fii prelungirea unei imagini care nu-şi pierde niciodată semnificaţia şi calitatea, în demersul de dezvăluire a intimităţii actului artistic văzut ca un garant al recuperării trecutului în interesul strict al înţelegerii prezentului.

Povestea mea este mărturia unui act melancolic de relaţionare cu opera de artă şi cu profundele ei semnificaţii. Este spațiul de refugiu din fața unor timpuri în care viaţa mea, atat de specială, atât de sinceră, părea să nu aparțină decât unui singur muritor. Este o rămăşiţă de memorie a unor timpuri întemeiate în vecinătatea cuvântului Dermethisyum (cu criterii de puritate), timpuri greu de uitat, cu înclinări fragede spre visare, străbătute cu nostalgie de sentimente adânci şi reţinute, ca nişte simple păsări în zborul lor de rutină. De aici şi tentaţia de a mă preschimba într-o formă de existenţă după moarte, în surdina unei confesiuni discrete, pe ritmul unei muzici cu efect de calmare.

Dorinţa infinită de a iubi viaţa, cu toate celelalte sfere ale ei: adevăr epistemic, adevăr estetic şi adevărul religios, se strânge în jurul nevoii de a aparţine unei imagini plină de intensitate, plină de artă, de culoare, istorie şi frumuseţe, schimbând rostul meu (de a fi martorul unei lumi epuizate de atâtea frământări) cu opera unui artist genial care dă noi valenţe de oglindire transfigurată a naturii în regăsirea lui însuşi.

Nu fac nimic la întâmplare. Nu simt nimic fără să-mi las o maximă libertate a vorbirii cu mine însumi în ipostaza de artist, încât să mă pot preschimba oricând într-un "celălalt" din lumea veşniciei şi neuitării. The withered leaves collect at my feet, and the wind begins to moan.

Prima lecţie în priceperea artei este descrierea unei imagini. Priviţi-mă aşa cum aţi privi un trandafir care a trăit nenumărate vieţi, din nou şi din nou, fără ca nimic să nu-i scape din vedere. Iar acest Double Delight, modelul unei frumuseţi neînţelese şi fără egal, închipuiţi-vă că a avut privilegiul de a fi martorul unui profund act de slujire în viaţa unui alchimist, în atelierul unui pictor celebru, în jocul unui actor de teatru, sau în longevitatea muzicii unei senzuale şi romantice cântăreţe de operă.

Mare va fi răsplata lor în ceruri, veşnicã va fi slava lor, pentru că au făcut parte din fiecare moment al poveştii mele.

Un sentiment de identitate si continuitate poate fi cuprins în termenii "conştiinţei pure care priveşte asupra vechiului sine" din perspectiva unei realităţi al cărei unic sens este o imagine formată din doi vectori: ştiinţa de a fi altcineva şi puterea de a rămâne acelaşi.

Şi totuşi, trebuie să existe cineva care să mă descifreze cu toate tainele mele, care să mă poată contura viu şi plin de măreţie, fermecător ca un vis de tinereţe printre anii trecători, dincolo de mecanica complicată a actului de creaţie. Trandafirul simte, trăieşte, se emoţionează, se înţelege pe el însuşi conform cuvintelor lui Cella Serghi: „Trupul şi inima capătă deprinderi nefericite. Inima, negăsind ecoul pasiunilor sale în viaţa reală, se refugiază în ficţiune, iar corpul se obişnuieşte să despartă dorinţa de admiraţie."

Has the moon lost her memory? She is smiling alone, in the lamplight. Dacă trebuie să vă oblig la admiraţie, la o acordare a atenţiei faţă de frumos, simţire şi sensibilitate, încât să deschid cheia dublă a timpului veşnic, atunci încărcaţi-vă energia spirituală cu nuanţa de roş-gălbui a unei seri de toamnă petrecute în jurul focului, la ora asfinţitului. Este o imagine imortalizată de pictor pe chipul unei realităţi mai elevate, transfigurată, transmutată în valori etern umane. Asta înseamnă arta: transformare prin simţirea influenţei unei omniprezenţe.

Iar suprema forţă a artei create printr-un fulger al intuiţiei poetice, dusă ulterior la înţelesul suprem Seroderifesh (întruparea cuvântului pur din spaţiul frumosului), constă în puterea voastră de a mă introduce într-un cadru al aspiraţiei spre sublim, spre o artă autentică şi sinceră, sub forma descrierii unei prezenţe figurative întrepătrunse cu amintiri de neşters. Apoi, identificaţi-vă cu mine. Let the memory live again..

Aşa începe umanizarea artei, revoluţia ei. În condiţii de iradiere a veşniciei într-o clipă vie, plină de culoare şi sens. Cum se va termina? Prin ascuns, prin simbol...

Leadership: Ţi-ai găsit un spațiu de refugiu în fața unor timpuri în care viețile nu mai par să aparțină muritorilor, ci creatorilor care îşi etalează rafinamentul şi solemnitatea prin declanşarea unei trăiri artistice văzută din perspectiva absolutului?

Am ţinut întotdeauna în mână o cheiţă fermecată. Aproape de izvorul cristalin al marilor înclinaţii spre frumos, un loc minunat surprins în peisajul născocit de Sepher Yetzirah, unde locuisem primii ani din nemurire pe o singură şi neînsemnată palmă de pământ, am descoperit pentru prima oară libertatea, arta, dragostea, regretul şi compasiunea, îngrijorarea şi slăbiciunea. Aş fi dorit ca soarta voastră să fie cea meritată de mine, ca să vă pot include în acest peisaj de istorie, de nostalgie şi simplitate. Dar numai voi aveţi puterea asta, de a fi asemenea mie.

Atunci, printr-o străfulgerare a puterii divine, am răsucit cheia de două ori, sursa tuturor imaginilor şi corespondenţelor simbolice, doar pentru a sugera absența, uitarea mea, și a inspira oamenilor nevoia firească de afecţiune, de gingăşie, lăsându-le posibilitatea de a reflecta (în surdină) cum ar fi să trăiască fără mine, cât de greu le-ar fi viaţa fără artă, fără frumuseţe, fără perspectiva absolutului. It is so easy to leave me, all alone with the memory of my days in the sun..

Cella Serghi a fost, poate, singura scriitoare care a descifrat tainele florii căruia îi găzduiesc încă şi acum sufletul: „Cred că secretul tristeţii tale (căci eşti tristă) e că viaţa te-a împărţit, dragostea nu te-a dorit întreagă, ţi-a cerut să dai mai multora ceea ce ai vrut să dai unuia singur".

O trăire artistică văzută din perspectiva absolutului este capodopera artei de a readuce la viaţă spaţii uitate de lume, locuri cu istorie puternică, martori ale unor vremuri apuse, în compoziţia unei imagini care nu-şi pierde niciodată calitatea şi semnificaţia.

I must think of a new life, and I mustn't give in. Credeţi-mă, nu mai vreau să-mi fac iluzii, nu mai vreau să fiu doar o tentativă de manifestare a artei, fragilă ca orice multiplicare de răsfrângere a unei raze luminoase într-o conştiinţă vie, universală. În urma mea va rămâne, poate, fără mişcare, numai o dâră picturală pură, deşi dorinţa mea imensă, rutsineh alcisturnash (obţinută printr-un procedeu de asemănare), a fost să dau naştere unei noi deschideri spre frumos, spre bine, spre nebănuit.

Leadership: Universul creaţiei tale oferă celorlalţi oameni posibilitatea să se transforme într-un continuum expresiv şi melancolic care funcţionează ca evocare a deosebitei aprecieri pe care o dobândeşte unicitatea unui moment special în faţa unei deschideri spre alteritate?

Un veac trăit sub semnul amintirilor dă tot frumosul vieţii, scoţând la iveală tot ceea ce am mai bun în mine. Când artistul se retrage într-o chiliuţă la marginea lumii, unde are doar un pat de paie şi o masă din surcele de pin, cu nepăsarea senină în faţa trecerii vremii, trăind fără supunere în faţa întâmplărilor vieţii cotidiene, el ştie că doar astfel îşi poate anula impresia de lux, care de fapt este o limitare a efortului de trans-substanţializare a lumii în spaţii de suflet. E un capitol pe care l-aş putea intitula: reîntoarcere la origini. De aici a început totul...

I remember the time I knew what happiness was..

Iar când trandafirul îşi simte înălţarea construcţiei sale în templul genuin al frumosului care încununează creaţia artistului în vecinătatea absolutului, în spaţiul tăcerii de dincolo de sfera luminoasă a lui Ain Soph, tot mai aproape de idealitatea destinal-umană, abia atunci se confirmă veridicitatea cuvintelor lui Cella Serghi din romanul „Pe firul de păianjen al memoriei":

"Cred că adevărata experienţă a vieţii începe în momentul în care te vei simţi singur, nu numai neînţeles, ci realmente singur. Să petreci seri întregi de singurătate, după care va urma o zi de la care să nu aştepţi nimic. Pentru asta merită să trăieşti. Nu vorbesc de o voluptate a durerii, ci un fel de descoperire a ta, alături de tine, lucidă..

Uneori fericirea se află la capătul lumii. Aş vrea să simt iar cum simţeam într-unele zile când vedeam pe rând toate punţile dintre mine şi lumea exterioară dărâmându-se, când ascultam singurătatea cum asculţi marea, când totul părea desprins dintr-o poveste cu iz de veşnicie pe care ai vrea s-o schimbi doar prin lipsa personajului narator. Tonight will be a memory too..."

Măreţia unei creaţii constă în prezentarea unui moment special din peisajul unei vieţi care îşi asumă nemurirea printr-un ecou de emoţii: „merită să trăiesc în memoria unor timpuri care trec cu repeziciune, dar care nu-şi pierd din sens nici după anii de când au fost plăsmuite, cu pana sau cu pensula."

Memory este o fomă de întâlnire a operei de artă cu creatorul ei, a trandafirului cu muritorul de rând, văzută printr-un fior de taină, de dor, de emoţie necontrafăcută: „If you touch me, you'll understand what happiness is. Look, a new day has begun.."

Mene, mene, tekel upharsin

On Martie 05, 2017

Intuieşte ce vei deveni dacă îţi accepţi menirea de înfăptuitor al creaţiei, într-o conjunctură a realizării unui soi de iluzie cu implicaţii adiacente.

Îmi place să ating sfârşitul dăruit de valoarea unui puzzle matematic dintr-un joc al subtilităţii arbitrat de fantezie, cu un anume grad de conştientizare, construit ca un rezervor infinit din care mă umplu mereu şi mereu cu caracteristici specifice operei artistice, în încercarea de a explica ceea ce nimeni nu a crezut vreodată. Trebuie doar să iau conţinutul tabloului din realitate, cu caleidoscopul lui de consecinţe, fără să-l înfrumuseţez, ci să-l reorganizez şi să-l înfăţişez privindu-l cu ochii unui iluzionist care preţuieşte caracterul efemer al demonstraţiei de magie.

Ar putea să pară absurd, un soi de liber consimţită şi amăgitoare euforie care îmi distorsionează percepţiile despre lume, despre mine, insuportabile şi chinuitoare, în argumentarea unei născociri în care arta, ghicită de raţiune şi reprodusă de imaginaţie, ea însăşi personificată şi uluită de reuşita unei iluzii demnă de Houdini, se dezvăluie într-un maraton al aventurii, într-un clarobscur bine stăpânit, prin zone de lumină şi de umbră.

Este ca şi când aş dezvolta o concepţie personală a unei "Forţe Superioare" sau a unui "Dumnezeu" aşa cum nu-l înţelege nimeni: prin exerciţiul unei judecăţi sintetice a priori, servită cu o onestitate artistică fără compromisuri, care alcătuieşte materia şi instrumentele de construcţie ale metafizicii. La rândul ei, metafizica se sprijină pe superioritatea forţei cu care artistul se bazează pe credinţa într-un Dumnezeu invizibil, care în anumite feluri, este chiat dublura lui în altă realitate, în alt spaţiu şi alt timp.

Adevărata capodoperă a creaţiei este să fii un magician care îşi povesteşte iluziile în mod credibil, fără a explica şi modul în care acestea se realizează.

Orice schimbare a unei informaţii într-o imagine se transformă în revelaţia unui fenomen de creaţie, unde absolut fiecare acţiune, fiecare gând, fiecare lucru, începe să capete asemănare cu o bijuterie literară ce iese în evidenţă sub forma unui jurnal poetic. Bineînţeles, fiecare bijuterie are o imagine, tot aşa cum fiecare gând are o imagine proprie, fiind o verigă într-un lanţ nesfârşit de cauze şi efecte de care artistul se loveşte atunci când temporizează şi meditează asupra lui însuşi.

În această privinţă, asemenea unui Victor Hugo gândind doar în imagini, dau frâu liber spiritului meu ascuţit de observaţie chiar şi în cele mai mici amănunte, percepând în fiecare fenomen de mişcare a lucrurilor, luat izolat, sensul unei noi abateri de la normalul unanim acceptat. Din orice fenomen de schimbare a unei obişnuinţe, din fiecare revelaţie a unei relaţii de asemănare între imagine şi acţiune, extrag riguros concluziile cuvenite unei asocieri de aspecte ale fondului omenesc care transpare în interpretarea unei enigme.

Astfel, se adună un extrem de bogat material ce se pretează la exerciţiul judecăţii specifice unei tangente la misterul unei cutii magice de puzzle, presărat cu sensuri unice care funcționează ca o relație bazată pe un quid pro quo care îmi aduce reputația de iluzionist fără de seamăn.

Leadership: Menirea ta de înfăptuitor al creaţiei se cere a fi investigată şi aplaudată sub raportul dintre ceea ce expui și ceea ce ce ascunzi până la urmă?

La rugămintea marelui iluzionist Harry Houdini, scriitorul Arthur Conan Doyle alege la întâmplare câteva cuvinte pe care le scrie pe o hârtie: „Mene, mene, tekel upharsin”, aceleași cuvinte scrise de o mână nevăzută în faţa regelui Baltazar, legate de o profeţie despre căderea regatului Babilonului. Ele pot fi traduse prin: „Numărat, numărat, cântărit și împărțit.” Apoi hârtia este împăturită și pusă în buzunar, fără ca nimeni să nu-i știe conţinutul.

După câteva momente, Houdini scoate din sertar două plăcuţe, le depărtează una de cealaltă cu febrilitate. Stupoare, spiritism, iluzie ! Pe una din ele sunt scrise cuvintele: „Mene, mene, tekel upharsin”.

Întotdeauna când vorbesc despre leadership, sub extensiunea nevoii de a pune în valoarea unicitatea unei compoziţii de idei și inspiraţie, pun următoarea întrebare: ce vei deveni dacă îţi accepţi menirea de înfăptuitor al creaţiei într-o conjunctură a realizării unui soi de iluzie cu implicaţii adiacente?

Creaţia căreia îi dai întâietate pe drumul evoluţiei, spre atingerea statutului de dezvoltator de noi forme şi mijloace de expresie, depinde în general de ceea de ce ai în cap ca şi imagine finală, proiectată asupra fenomenului de tipul „reacţie-contrareacţie”.

Tot ce dezvolţi ca şi concepţie personală a unei “Forţe Superioare” are ca default o reacție a conştiinţei care te îndeamnă la reflectarea propriei identităţi. Iar tot ceea ce domină această concepție are ca și contrareacţie o reflectare asupra efectelor pe care le generezi prin sugestie și autosugestie.

Adevărul este că fiecare great artist, la fel ca orice iluzionist, se măsoară după următoarele coordonate: „You can hide your own tricks from the larger public, but not the fact that you like something that no one else could see.”

Pentru ca leadershipul să fie o formă viabilă a manifestării preponderenţei unei mari puteri, atunci ceea ce expui ca operă de artă trebuie să fie condiţia privilegiată a unei minți care doar ea singură înțelege ce se întâmplă într-un turn al unui joc de puzzle. În acest caz leadershipul trebuie să fie un factor al relaţiei dintre atenție, percepţie și proiecţia unei realităţi ascunse.

Mene, mene, tekel upharsin este rezultatul unor așteptări dincolo de imaginabil pe care oamenii și le formează în urma unui număr spectaculos de magie.

Lăsând la o parte orice teorie despre corectitudine și incorectitudine, leadershipul este un fenomen de modelare a realităţii care există doar prin susţinerea unei demonstraţii de magie subordonată unui concept particular numit „Hide”.

Iar efectul acestui fenomen se descoperă prin observaţia paralelă a unor serii de fapte distincte şi prin intuirea unei perspective egocentrice de abordare a cunoaşterii.

Mentorul de aur

On Aprilie 16, 2009

Călăuzeşte-i pe oameni spre ceea ce e mai bun şi mai luminos în ei înşişi, concentrându-te mai mult asupra hărţii lor sufleteşti.

Un film despre care am mai vorbit este "Gattaca (1997)" . Există o scenă, chiar la început, care mi-a rămas bine întipărită în minte.

Acţiunea filmului se desfăşoară undeva în viitorul nu prea îndepărtat, un viitor în care specialiştii puteau afla în numai câteva secunde, timpul exact şi cauza morţii unui nou născut. Iar lui Vincent i s-a preconizat că va muri în jurul vârstei de 30 de ani, din cauza inimii lui destul de slăbită.

Mama băiatului, întinsă pe patul de spital, aştepta cu multa nerăbdare, dar şi cu mari emoţii, verdictul doctorilor. După ce doctorii i-au dat verdictul, comunicându-i speranţa de viaţă a lui Vincent, ea şi-a privit totuşi copilul cu o expresie atât de bucuroasă şi plină de afecţiune şi, sigură pe ea, fără să se lase deloc descurajată, a exclamat cu mândrie şi cu o delicateţe sufletească: „ Ştiu că va face de toate. Vei face ceva, Vincent. "

Adică, gândea ea: „ Eu ştiu că poţi. Ştiu că vei ajunge cineva. Vei reuşi să faci ceva important în viaţă, indiferent de ce spun specialiştii. "

Neîndoielnic mama lui Vincent a avut mai multă încredere în el decât în geneticieni. Iar încrederea ei s-a concretizat în timp. Vincent a reuşit până la urmă, deşi nu era menit pentru acea lume, deşi nimeni nu i-a dat nicio şansă, să ajungă navigator la Gattaca şi să zboare în spaţiu.

Leadership: Te-ai hotărât că vrei să trăieşti miracolul unei lumi imposibil de explorat pentru a da sens tendinţei de a te percepe că nu exişti decât în minţile celor care reinventează propria ta poveste?

Afecţiunea acordată celor din jur, de care sunt strâns legate hotărârea, voinţa şi angajamentul faţă de tine însuţi, are ca finalitate nevoia de a păstra în memorie doar punctele de reper care te ridică în ochii lor.

Empatia nu stă neapărat în grija ta de a potrivi o anumita formă de darnicie sau o doză de exceptionalism la o realitate care poate fi negată. Ci în tendinţele tale de a aşeza într-o relaţie corectă poziţia de vulnerabilitate a omului cu starea de har si fascinaţie pe care el o simte când descoperă minunile lumii, pentru a nu induce schimbări nefaste în rîndul celei din urmă.

„Ştiu că poţi, ştiu că vei face ceva”. Cuvintele acestea simple, dar pline de viaţă şi de speranţă, pline de dorinţă şi credinţă, spuse de o persoana cu adevărat interesată de tine, te fac să te simţi mai bine, mai puternic, să fii mai încrezător în viitorul tău, mai creativ, mai doritor şi mai motivat să faci parte din spectacolul vieţii.

Fiind convins de intenţiile ei bune, nu te vei închide în tine însuţi, nu te vei umple de tristeţe ci, mai mult ca sigur, vei deveni un alt om. Însă poţi să fii demotivat foarte uşor de către cineva care îţi spune cu convingere că nu deţii potenţialul necesar pentru a produce rezultate, că ai o perspectiva limitată asupra domeniului tău de activitate sau criticându-te cu orice ocazie.

Tu porţi semnul unei personalităţi unitară şi consecventă în tendinţele sale de prevenire şi combatere a oricăror alţi factori defavorabili ce se manifestă de-a lungul încercării celorlalţi de a te autodepăşi?

A reinventa o poveste înseamnă să produci o nouă versiune a realităţii disponibilă numai în forma şi conţinutul mesajului pe care îl poţi integra direct în fundalul unei manifestări emoţionale care îl predispune pe om la visare.

Cred cu tărie că foarte puţini manageri, respectivi lideri, sunt în stare să joace impecabil rolul de mamă iubitoare şi ocrotitoare, care să fie mereu alături de oameni cu un suflet mare, cu speranţă, cu o preocupare sinceră şi accentuată, care să facă tot ce se poate pentru a-i determina să-şi aleagă calea cea mai bună spre evoluţie. Paşii oamenilor nu pot fi călăuziţi decât de o persoană cu o voinţă puternică, cu o viziune optimistă asupra vieţii, asupra prezentului şi a viitorului, care ştie să citească în profunzimile sufletelor oamenilor, permiţându-le să întrevadă o sclipire de speranţă.

Doar un avânt puternic, un suflu de viaţă sănătos, intens, şi un moral excelent, te poate ajuta să dobori orice obstacol, chiar dacă în tine nu curge acel sânge fierbinte propriu învingătorilor, chiar dacă îţi lipseşte atitudinea specifică oamenilor superiori. Atitudinea ţi se poate schimba dacă ai în preajma ta, aproape, ori de câte ori simţi nevoia, o persoana care, punându-şi toate speranţele în tine, crezând în potenţialul tău, te încurajează şi îţi insuflă o anumita doză de curaj şi de imaginaţie.

Leadership: Amprenta spiritului tău de om capabil de rezonanțe sublime este vizibilă pretutindeni în tendinţa de a prelua orice emoţie şi de a o transforma într-un nou reper şi imbold pentru viaţă?

Viaţa trebuie să fie glorioasă, un triumf desăvârşit, în nici într-un caz o „ partitură " dificilă sau nepromiţătoare, iar dacă n-ai de partea ta pe cineva care, prin cuvinte de laudă, prin încurajări periodice, să-ţi întipărească în minte faptul că eşti capabil să preiei iniţiativa ori de câte ori este necesar şi că eşti în stare să te descurci în orice situaţie, nu vei reuşi să te ridici deasupra tuturor aşteptărilor.

Aşa cum sângele are o circulaţie concentrată pe inimă, mai degrabă decât pe ficat – tot aşa şi tu, ca lider, trebuie să te concentrezi mai mult asupra frumuseţii interioare a oamenilor, asupra hărţii lor sufleteşti, asupra calităţilor şi aptitudinilor lor, mai degrabă decât pe disponibilitatea lor de a se aduna în jurul tău.

Ajută-i pe oameni să respire, nu să se înăbuşe !

Ce bine ar fi dacă orice companie ar avea la conducerea ei o "mamă" ocrotitoare şi iubitoare, demnă de a fi ascultată şi urmată, care să le insufle oamenilor o anumită linişte sufletească, o mama care să nu împiedice minţile slabe să-şi clădească un viitor trainic, care să-i ajute pe oameni în loc să le dea un brânci, care să le ofere încredere, iar ei, sprijinindu-se pe această încredere, să-şi uite toate temerile, să se debaraseze de gândurile şi sentimentele nesănătoase, şi să abordeze viaţa cu un elan nemaipomenit, aşa cum a făcut-o Vincent.

Imboldul pentru viaţă are ca esenţă insuflarea unui sentiment de apartenenţă la un spaţiu definit printr-un sistem de valori bazat pe o promisiune şi o certitudine de care să te ţii.

Vei fi tot timpul evaluat în funcţie de capacitatea de te identifica cu o realitate în care poţi acţiona, experimenta, evalua şi decide asupra consecinţelor care te responsabilizează.

Fiecare om deţine o hartă pe care sunt evidenţiate valorile lor cele mai de preţ. Trebuie numai să înţelegi foarte bine harta lor şi apoi să le dai nişte coordonate exacte care să-i mulţumească sufleteşte şi care să le deschidă un orizont mai cuprinzător. Călăuzeşte-i pe oameni spre ceea ce e mai bun şi mai luminos în ei înşişi, concentrându-te mai mult asupra hărţii lor sufleteşti.

Concluzie: Desigur, este foarte important să ai un mentor chiar şi spiritual care să te susţină şi să-ţi ridice moralul măcar la vremuri de restrişte, după cum la fel de adevărat este că uneori timpul nu trece în favoarea ta şi eşti zorit să obţii rezultate palpabile rapid, ceea ce bineînţeles constituie cel mai bun imbold pentru tine.

Meridianele tuturor lumilor tainice

On Ianuarie 19, 2014

Atribuie ştiinţei tale o arhitectură plină de originalitate, ca să fii capabil să manipulezi elementele de fond ale unei realităţi mai adânci.

Mergeam în linie dreaptă pe drumul plin de serpentine al incognoscibilului, în care şerpuiau cu repeziciune tot felul de presupuneri și interpretări. Mintea-mi funcționa ca o torță care nu se stinge, strălucind chiar și în întunericul cel mai de nepătruns, chiar în lumea ce vine de dincolo de acele accepţiuni, maiestuos manevrate, ce mă puneau în contact cu alte zone de cunoaştere.

Pentru a-mi satisface marea pasiune a căutărilor și cristalizărilor în zona experimentului, păstrând aceleași ingrediente și sintagme alchimice disponibile pe alocuri doar în învăţăturile lui Paracelsus, am fost nevoit să recurg la abordări profunde şi detaliate. Am recurs la utilizări inovative ale conceptelor şi ideilor fundamentale pe care se sprijineau cu nonşalanţă misterele ştiinţei, reperele cele mai puţin sesizabile ale renaşterii sublimului. În acest sens, am fost nevoit să modific codul de dispersie al elementelor: apă, foc, pământ şi aer, înglobându-le în ceea ce se numeşte materia prima.

Dacă voiam să ofer un bogat material pentru clasificarea legăturilor tăinuite dintre cele patru elemente, purificând aşa cum numai eu ştiam catalizatorul care asigura atracţia dintre ele, nu trebuia să mă pierd în succesiunea de procedee necesare confecţionării Marii Opere.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi exprimi direcţia şi intenţiile ca persoană ce tinde spre generalizare, în căutarea numitorului comun al unei ştiinţe subiective care îşi formulează "prin derivare" semnificaţiile acordate ideii de "Materie a Marii Opere"?

Materia Marii Opere se cere exprimentată prin intermediul comparaţiilor dintre ideile care stârnesc controverse şi elementele compoziţionale ale unui tablou cu subiect enigmatic, având întotdeauna determinații conceptuale particulare. Uneori materia tinde spre generalitate, ca atunci când vorbeşti despre spaţiul cosmic care cuprinde miliarde de stele, având rolul de a obţine o imagine de ansamblu a unei creaţii de o remarcabilă originalitate.

Reuşita, în ceea ce priveşte purificarea materiei, depindea de intensitatea reacţiilor chimice pe care cele patru elemente le puteau suferi. Iar în funcţie de descărcările lor constante de energie puteam să determin, independent de orice condiţii şi relaţii, compoziţia în timp a neînţelesului. Mă simţeam de parcă aş fi încheiat un Legământ cu universul, fiind investit cu puterea de a porunci însăşi elementelor să se armonizeze cursiv într-un ansamblu unic de sensuri şi semnificaţii. Dotate cu proprietatea de a străbate maiestuos toate meridianele acelor lumi tainice, sigilate de magie.

Acest treptat proces de pătrundere, sub presiune, în tainele uimitor de precise ale formulelor echilibrelor şi dezechilibrelor, valori ale semnelor trecute cu vederea de ignoranţi, dar pe care fiecare, în intimitatea sufletului său le cunoştea, mă făceau capabil să manipulez, cu talent de alchimist, elementele Activ și Pasiv din structura materiei vii. Iar să însuflețesc această materie prezentând-o cu profesionalism într-o formulă neobișnuită, anecdotică și inspirațională în același timp, devenise un tipar al producerii noi combinaţii şi interogări de natura epistemologică.

Alchimia este unealta cea mai accesibilă pentru manevrarea incomensurabilul, în marele labirint al proporţiilor de timp nedefinite de nicio lege. Numai cine izbuteşte să descopere firul Ariadnei, în felul lui cel mai propriu, îşi poate însuşi Marea Învăţătură.

Leadership: Poţi sa creezi un „high-standard" în înţelegerea resorturilor activatoare de noi deschideri ale artei „de a nu pierde ceea ce fals crezi că poţi poseda", încât să îţi atingi potenţialul maxim de a trăi într-un univers aparte?

O persoană care tinde spre generalizarea conţinutului anumitor noţiuni şi principii ale acestuia poate să adopte mai uşor o viziune "spaţială" care-i permite în mod automat să ocolească regulile normale ale vieţii, ale timpului, ale cauzalităţii, poate sesiza şi planifica singură o mulţime de rute, dar şi variante alternative, care să asigure legătura dintre ceea ce se vede şi ceea ce nu se vede din realitatea de acum şi dintotdeuna.

Prin evaluarea tendinţelor şi perspectivelor de aderare la un nou mod de gândire, pus în slujba leadershipului, se poate obţine contrastul dintre aparență şi esenţa a ceea ce eşti, a ceea ce cunoşti, a ceea ce slujeşti, a ceea ce defineşti şi a ceea ce creezi. Prin aceasta vreau să spun că nu este greu să-ţi cauţi un nou refugiu în apropierea unei surse noi de conţinut, care să-ţi asigure o mai mare legătură cu tot ceea ce există în universul plin de mistere care te cuprinde.

Această sursă nouă de conţinut, îmbinând presupuneri şi interpretări ale unei realităţi mai adânci, repartizând just "dividendele" obţinute din activitatea ta de cercetare, poate crea ceea se numeşte a high-standard în înţelegerea acelor resorturi activatoare de noi deschideri şi posibilităţi. Faţă de utilizarea cunoştinţelor şi informaţiei în sprijinul inovaţiei şi experimentării.

Subaprecierea posibilităţii cunoaşterii pe cale raţională a unei noi lumi pline de perspective, neluând în considerare exigenţele privind experienţa şi nivelul de dezvoltare, pare să sugereze un fel de minus-valoare care se accentuează pe măsură ce înaintezi spre un "mai departe" delimitat de reguli şi rutină. În acest caz nu poate vorbi de o intersectare a mai multor feluri de a te conecta la serverul plin de coduri ale ştiinţei neexplorate, trebuincioase dezvoltării unor abordări profunde şi coerente ale imaginarului care diferenţiază gândirea mediocră de gândirea rentabilă.

Leadership: Poţi să evidenţiezi componenta dinamică a unei ştiinţe purtătoare de semnificaţii care îşi accentuează mai mult contribuţia determinantă la progresul unei idei capabilă să schimbe decisiv viziunea despre lume?

Componenta dinamică a ştiinţei purtătoare de semnificaţii, ce poate conduce la formarea unor noi deschideri faţă de provocările evoluţiei, satisfăcând marea pasiune a căutărilor şi cristalizărilor în zona cunoaşterii, se activează printr-un treptat proces de pătrundere în lumea minunată, dar complicată, a cercetărilor ştiinţifice. Ştiinţa se desfăşoară printr-o conlucrare directă cu elementele de fond ale unei realităţi mai adânci.

Imaginile care se succed potrivit unei tehnici anticipative de transformare a realităţii, jocul perspectivelor (de la apropiat la depărtat, de la terestru la cosmic), sau permanentul efort de transfigurare a omului obişnuit într-un om superior, sunt câteva din componentele dinamice ale unei ştiinţe purtătoare de semnificaţii care îşi accentuează mai mult contribuţia determinantă la progresul unei idei capabilă să schimbe decisiv viziunea despre lume.

Ideea care mă exalta era aceea de a demonstra că exista o altă realitate care păstra absolut totul într-o memorie universală, în care tot ce a fost, ce este şi ce va fi putea să dobândească semnificaţia de atribut al Fiinţei care se transformă într-un soi de instrument al Creaţiei, al Întâmplării, al Evoluţiei, al Dumnezeirii.

Obţinută prin experiment, această realitate, nedistorsionată de o cultură a suspiciunii, prezintă caracterele unei donaţii de noi particularităţi şi construcţiuni renovate treptat printr-un proces de pătrundere în tainele formulelor ajustate de o mulţime de variabile modificate aleator. Scopul este de a crea o nouă fundaţie pentru existenţa unei realităţi ascendente. Folositoare la crearea unor noi perspective de leadership.

Acest treptat proces de pătrundere, sub presiune, în tainele uimitor de precise ale formulelor trecute cu vederea de ignoranţi, te fac capabil să manipulezi cu talent de alchimist elementele Activ și Pasiv din structura materiei care, prin însăşi natura sa, nu “stă niciodată pe loc”. Ci se cere a fi, în tot mai mare măsură, dezvoltată şi întregită.

Scopul intrinsec al artei este necesitatea de a uni toate domeniile ştiinţei într-o singură concepţie despre lume, încât universul pe care ţi-l creezi să corespundă exact ideilor tale iniţiale despre valoarea personalităţi care te îndeamnă la realism.

Meridianele tuturor lumilor tainice scoate în evidenţă aspectele tainice ale leadershipului, supus transformării care implică lucrul cu sinele. Cunoaşterea ta profundă şi a felului în care funcţionezi în contact cu zonele de cunoaştere aprofundate, este esenţială pentru a neutraliza orice ieşire din perimetrul marii fortăreţe numite: realitate.

Merită modelul tău de lider să fie luat ca exemplu?

On Iunie 06, 2009

Una dintre poverile cu care te vei confrunta ca şi lider nu este doar direcţia în care mergi şi în care o apucă ceilalţi oameni, ci felul cum te poziţionezi faţă de schimbare şi faţă de progres.

Luaţi aminte la aceste exemple. Exact în perioada în care fraţii Wright inventau avionul, oameni de ştiinţă făceau studii prin care demonstrau că un corp cu o greutate mai mare decât a aerului nu poate zbura. Prietenii lui Ray Kroc i-au spus acestuia că intenţia sa de a vinde hamburgeri ieftini era o nebunie curată, dar el nu a ascultat de ei. Deci, este important să ne cultivăm capacitatea de a vedea posibilităţi acolo unde alţii nu văd decât dificultăţi, sau chiar lucruri imposibile. Sam Walton, fondatorul şi preşedintele lanţului de magazine Wal-Mart, explica în cartea sa, "Made în America", faptul că la baza succesului său fenomenal a stat capacitatea sa de a recunoaşte oportunităţile din pură necesitate. *

Aflăm din aceste exemple că oamenii care au reuşit în viaţă şi-au găsit geniul creator într-un anumit punct al vieţii. Succesul lor nu a depins de influenţele altor oameni, ci de propria lor intuiţie, creativitate, viziune şi perseverenţă.

Relaţiile îţi împiedică sau îţi facilitează dezvoltarea? Ca să-ţi menţii constant caracterul nobil, trebuie să faci apel la acele idealuri, valori şi convingeri care îţi conferă stabilitate în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni. Căci este întotdeauna foarte greu (şi totodată riscant) să ai încredere în oameni ale căror valori şi convingeri diferă mult de ale tale, sau dacă acestea se îndepărtează de la etica pe care tu o respecţi, o urmezi şi o promovezi.

Căutând cât mai multe zone de interes comun, nerămânând în mod nejustificat la jumătatea drumului tău spre progres şi realizare (aşa cum deseori se întâmplă cu aspiranţii la succesul rapid şi imediat), vei putea să avansezi constant şi sigur spre atingerea ţelului comun. Este important ca raportul lider-oameni (o realitate obiectivă) să se completeze printr-o judecată de valoare, prin înţelegere, prin caracteristici comune, prin tot ce înseamnă leadership. Leadershipul reflectă propria ta valoare umană, emoţională şi intelectuală, nu este un stâlp de beton care nu simte şi nu cunoaşte nimic.

Leadership: Evoluţia vieţii tale reflectă încercarea ta de a face mari schimbări faţă de "stadiul anterior" cauzei pe care o slujeşti, din punct de vedere al unei situări în zona unui nivel mai înalt de comparaţie cu tine însuţi?

Un lider se compară doar cu sine însuţi, din două puncte de vedere: al conştiinţei şi al preţului pe care trebuie să-l plătească ca să ajungă mai departe decât ceilalţi oameni. Acceptare sau refuz, admiraţie sau antipatie, sunt atribute ale personalităţii liderului.

Se impune ca o condiţie prealabilă pentru buna funcţionare a leadershipului tău, ca aceste atribute să fie, la scară mai mare, precedate de o cunoaştere reciprocă. Spaţiul restrâns dintre tine şi oameni nu-ţi va îngădui să fii un creator, să găseşti noi oportunităţi, noi moduri de dezvoltare prin care să dobândeşti puterea deplină, sau prin care să administrezi eficient şi integrat potenţialul de care dispui.

Una dintre poverile cu care te confrunţi, ca şi lider, nu este doar direcţia în care mergi şi în care o apucă oamenii, ci felul cum te poziţionezi faţă de schimbare, faţă de progres – în această epocă de transformări cum nu s-a mai pomenit vreodată. Mai important este felul în care trăieşti şi abordezi consecinţele eventualelor erori de leadership. Ca să îţi atingi potenţialul maxim, ca să evoluezi tot mai mult, trebuie să faci un permanent schimb de experienţe, de cunoştinţe şi informaţii cu ceilalţi profesionişti în domeniu, aşa cum celula face un permanent schimb de substanţe, de energie şi de informaţie cu mediul în care se află. Iar dacă ei vor fi dispuşi să aleagă perfecţionarea şi să îşi schimbe atitudinea, atunci nu vei mai întâlni obstacole în cale.

Nu uita că leadershipul înseamnă în primul rând influenţă. Aşa cum o piesă lego o poţi lega numai de o altă piesă lego ca să poţi construi ceva, tot aşa cunoştinţele tale trebuie mai întâi să se lege de cele ale oamenilor din jurul tău ca să poţi, apoi, să-ţi dezvolţi capacitatea de conducere.

Celebrul performer în domeniul conducerii, John Maxwell, spunea la un moment dat: "Dacă ai un talent înnăscut pentru leadership, probabil ai şi pasiune pentru dezvoltare. Îţi place să vezi cum se construiesc diverse lucruri, Face parte din tine. Continuă tot aşa ! Dacă nu eşti foarte talentat, nu-ţi pierde totuşi speranţă. Poţi avea foarte mult de câştigat dacă începi să înveţi, profitând la maximum de fiecare oportunitate. Aşa că munceşte asiduu, ca să treci peste nivelul la care te afli acum. Doar aşa vei fi pregătit pentru viitor."

Leadership: Merită modelul tău de viziune să fie luat ca exemplu din punct de vedere al acelui tot unitar al caracterului tău care dezvăluie antiteza dintre ceea ce eşti cu adevărat şi ceea te face mai predispus la reacţii care te surprind?

Oliver Goldsmith, un scriitor din secolul al XVIII-lea, a spus odată: "Oamenii rareori se perfecţionează atunci când nu au un alt model pe care să-l urmeze în afară de propria lor persoană."

Tu vei ajunge oare să fii modelul de lider pe care oamenii îl vor urma? Ai vreun defect de caracter care ţi-ar putea încetini creşterea? Ori de câte ori ceva îi deranjează pe oameni la tine, te întrebi ce anume din atitudinea ta a declanşat acea reacţie de repulsie în ei?

Puterea desăvârşită a influenţei tale poate fi atât benefică, cât şi nocivă. Este crucială abilitatea ta de a obţine un răspuns pozitiv de la oameni - constând în modificarea şi reorientarea gândirii şi sentimentelor lor spre (şi în concordanţă) cu o realitate obiectivă. Procentul care îţi garantează accesul la sistemul lor de valori şi convingeri, şi care îţi conferă autoritate asupra lor, va creşte simţitor numai dacă reuşeşti să-i convingi că deciziile tale le va aduce speranţa de mai bine, liniştea sufletească şi succesul profesional. Nu le îngădui oamenilor să se lase biruiţi de o gândire bazată pe nişte sentimente care se vor evapora în timp, ci insuflă-le un nou spirit învingător într-un mod în care să te avantajeze şi pe tine.

La ce nivel de afli în relaţie cu oamenii din jurul tău? Cum determină influenţa ta modul în care îi conduci pe oameni? Îi conduci pe toţi oamenii la fel? Te afli la acelaşi nivel cu fiecare dintre ei? Ai capacitatea de a recunoaşte potenţialul fiecărui om de a trece la un nivel înalt de leadership? Accepţi provocările de leadership? Care este modalitatea cea mai potrivită prin care îţi poţi amplifica impactul pozitiv asupra celorlalţi?

Leadership: Revelaţia de a şti cine eşti şi cum eşti, poate să fie cuantificată prin efectul de oglindire al unei situaţii din viitor, în cursul unor evenimente catalizatoare pentru reacţia de tip "crede în ceva mai mult decât poți vedea" ?

Aşa cum precizam şi în secţiunea "Membership", puterea influenţei este o adevărată ştiinţă a manipulării emoţiilor şi a intereselor oamenilor. Ea presupune însă o bună cunoaştere şi o bună comunicare interumană a oamenilor cu care interacţionezi. Concentrându-te asupra rezultatelor pozitive, punând în prim plan propria ta dezvoltare în scopul înlesnirii evoluţiei celor din jurul tău, creând o temelie profesională şi emoţională solidă pentru cei care au potenţial de lider, vei deveni un model pentru arta de a conduce, vei servi drept etalon pentru modelele viitoare de lider care îţi vor continua leadershipul.

Tu eşti primul răspunzător pentru găsirea modelului bun de leadership, cu trăsăturile cele mai valoroase, cu calităţile cele mai alese, cu caracterul cel mai bun, aliniat la convingerile şi valorile cele mai nobile. Dar înainte de a ajunge la această etapă, ai tu însuţi de respectat o axiomă: "Menţine-ţi constant caracterul nobil, făcând apel la acele idealuri, valori şi convingeri care îţi conferă stabilitate în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni."

Succesul leadershipului este dat de mulţimea oamenilor aflaţi pe aceeaşi treaptă (a unei scări rulante). Aceştia vor ajunge primii şi simultan la un nivel superior. Este important ca pe această treaptă mulţimea să fie mai mare decât cele aflate pe treptele inferioare şi acest lucru depinde de lider, de puterea lui de influenţare şi de convingere pe de-o parte, iar pe de altă parte de oamenii din jurul liderului care trebuie să fie dispuşi să se angajeze în lupta pentru obţinerea performanţei.

Leadershipul este o metodă eficientă de a-ţi materializa viziunea într-un proces de interacţiune între "o introspecţie care ajută persoana să fie atentă la aspecte pe care le credea neimportante" şi "o introspecţie care îţi dă posibilitatea să acţionezi cu adevărat responsabil".

Merită modelul tău de lider să fie luat ca exemplu numai dacă ştii să iei deciziile care trebuie în momentul când toţi ceilalţi oameni îţi contestă deciziile.

Un lider adevărat creează o viziune inspiraţională a viitorului şi îi motivează pe oameni să se dezvolte cu această viziune. Liderul oferă o imagine bogată a felului în care va arata viitorul atunci când viziunile oamenilor nu sunt neapărat compatibile cu a lui.

Metafizica unei priviri pline de tentaţie

On Aprilie 23, 2012

Avem nevoie de ispita timpului oprit în loc ca să navigăm tot mai departe, cu spiritul, spre gloria măreției divine.

În ziua în care ochii lor se întîlniră şi îşi spuseră deodată primele lucruri nelămurite şi de nerostit pe care le îngînă ochii, Cosette la început nu înţelese. Se întoarse gînditoare acasă, în strada Ouest, unde Jean Valjean venise, după obiceiul lui, ca să petreacă şase săptămîni. A doua zi, cînd se trezi, se gîndi la tînărul acela necunoscut atîta timp nepăsător şi glacial, care părea că acum o ia în seamă şi nu i se păru de fel că această atenţie i-ar fi făcut plăcere. Mai curînd era puţin mînioasă pe omul acesta dispreţuitor şi frumos. Se răzvrătea împotriva lui. I se părea că avea să se răzbune o dată, şi se bucura copilăreşte. Se ştia frumoasă şi simţea nelămurit că avea o armă. Femeile se joacă uneori cu frumuseţea lor, aşa cum copiii se joacă cu bricegele. Şi se rănesc cu ea.

Cititorul îşi aduce aminte de şovăielile lui Marius, de tulburarea lui, de temerile lui. Rămînea pe bancă şi nu se apropia. Asta o înciuda pe Cosette. Într-o zi ea îi spuse lui Jean Valjean:

– Tată, hai să ne plimbăm pînă colo.

Văzînd că Marius nu venea spre ea, se duse ea la el. În asemenea împrejurări toate femeile se aseamănă cu Mahomet. Lucru ciudat, primul semn al iubirii adevărate la un bărbat tînăr este sfiala şi la o fată e îndrăzneala. E de mirare, şi totuşi nimic nu e mai firesc. Cele două sexe încearcă să se apropie şi îmbracă unul însuşirile celuilalt.

În ziua aceea privirea Cosettei îl înnebuni pe Marius, privirea lui Marius o tulbură pe Cosette. Marius se depărtă plin de încredere, pe cînd Cosette se depărta neliniştită. Din ziua aceea se iubiră. *****

Leadership: Modul tău de a-ți exprima sentimentele este o privire aruncată în depărtare, spre învăţarea unei lecţii de viaţă (mereu prezentă prin rememorare) care produce o potrivire între ce este în tine şi ce este afara ta?

O privire aruncată în direcţia dragostei, căutând astfel sensul vieţii, poate reprezenta o dovadă a strădiunţei omeneşti de a cunoaşte o altă parte a naturii umane, îndreptată spre visare, spre poveste, spre împărtăşirea unor experienţe de viaţă truditoare, dar pline de satisfacţii. Trebuie mers şi mai departe de atât, şi voi spune că sensul vieţii, asemenea frumosului la care ne raportăm prin trăirile experimentate în momentele de visare, se află în interiorul relaţiei dintre sentimentul unei stări de linişte interioară şi sentimentul unei datorii faţă de valorile spirituale, precum: răbdarea, fidelitatea, adevărul, compasiunea şi virtutea.

Iubirea este, totodată, şi fapta unei Dumnezeiri care aranjează laolaltă tot ce se petrece conform unei raţiuni pline de mister şi de înţelepciune. Suntem sau nu capabili să conştientizăm iubirea ca pe o deschidere a vieţii în faţa măreţiei şi bunătăţii divine, plină de îndurare, în funcţie de disponibilitatea noastră spirituală de a ne transforma lăuntric, de a ne dărui în totalitate deplin, divin, clipei ce trece, ce vine, dinspre ieri spre azi şi mai departe în mâine.

Frumos şi rezonabil, nu-i aşa? Poate că însuşi Dumnezeu sta în detaliile clipei care parcă nu mai trece, în hotărârea clipei de a fi o sămânţă pentru nişte planuri roditoare, mult mai mari.

Dar mai ales în funcţie de determinarea de a ne apleca cu o deschidere mai mare asupra unor lucruri sau oameni care se înscriu în universul nostru, putem să ne raportăm la Dumnezeu, integrand trăirile şi aspectele care circumscriu vieţii noastre într-o lumină a sensului pe care îl dăm evenimentelor în care suntem implicaţi. Din aceste evenimente reiese conținutul esențial al unei spiritualităţi bazate pe dezvoltarea personalităţii la nivel de "rol însemnat" pe care îl ocupăm într-o lume a pluralităţii, a schimbărilor neaşteptate.

Nimic nu trece prin faţa schimbării întâmplător. Cum bine spunea cineva, probabil că din punct de vedere al ofertei de frumos nimeni nu este născut sub o stea nefastă; trebuie doar să ştim să citim cerul.

O lecţie de viaţă (mereu prezentă prin rememorare) care produce o potrivire între ce este în tine şi ce este afara ta, poate fi fi formulată astfel: "Niciodată să nu încerci să te faci înţeles, mai înainte de a-i cere cuiva să te asculte cu credincioşie de Dumnezeu."

Ce este iubirea, mai întâi de toate, decât privirea aruncată în direcţia unui Dumnezeu care se îngrijeşte de omenire, care continuă să ofere iertare, până la sfârşitul timpului. Iubirea este răsplata iertării şi salvării sufletului din faţa ameninţării, acţiunii sau stăpânirii răului.

Măreţia divină în asta constă: în iertarea păcatelor, şi obţinerea fericirii, acelora care îndeplinesc planurile lui Dumnezeu.

Metafizica unei priviri pline de tentaţie se referă la sentimentul apropierii de Dumnezeu prin câştigarea iubirii desăvârşite. Aici, cred că este bine să ne reamintim mesajul lui Alexandre Dumas, ultima frază din finalul romanului, "Contele de Monte Cristo":

"Nu uitaţi că până în ziua când Dumnezeu va binevoi să-i destăinuiască omului viitorul, toată înţelepciunea omenească va fi cuprinsă în aceste două cuvinte: aşteaptă şi nădăjduieşte."

Metamorfoza operei în reconsiderări continue de principii

On Iulie 18, 2010

Leadershipul creativ înseamnă să îmbini calculul riguros cu spontaneitatea, transformând planurile teoretice în acțiuni vizionare.

Au fost toate acestea dinainte stabilite, calculate rece și aprioric? Odată, Eisenstein mărturisește felul în care lucrează la pregătirea unui film. "Lucrez foarte profesional. Ridicând valuri de erudiție. Dezbătând cu mine însumi principii și programe. Acumulând calcule, ecuații, concluzii. Îmi place să potrivesc melodia la mersul filmului. Uneori depășindu-l. Atunci, deodată, melodia nu se mai potrivește. Se scufundă în sertarele considerațiilor doctrinale. Scenariul rămâne în pană. În locul lui se umflă dosarele cu pagini de manuscrise ale unor cercetări teoretice... Această metamorfoză a operei în reconsiderări continue de principii constituie adesea nenorocirea mea. Adesea, lămurind principiul, pierd interesul pentru aplicarea lui."

Alteori însă reușește. Ca în cazul filmului Alexander Nevsky. Atunci însă calculele, ecuațiile, concluziile nu sunt decât premisele creației. Scenariul regizoral nu este decât o primă etapă în procesul creator. În timpul creației, Eisenstein nu se mai gândește la acești "de ce" și "cum". În perioada muncii, soluția de bază este transformată nu în evaluări logice, ci în acțiune directă. Gândurile nu mai sunt exprimate prin deducții, ci proiectate nemijlocit în imagini, ele nu sunt descrise în formule, ci prin forme. Desigur, creația spontană străbate zonele conștiinței, dar aceasta nu o oprește pentru analiză, ci o lasă să gonească mai departe. "Actul creației are loc în febră."

Creativitatea autentică se naște atunci când gândurile nu mai sunt exprimate prin formule, ci prin imagini care dau viață unei viziuni.

Manoperele tehnice sunt aceleași ca și în cazul pregătirii unui film, dar trebuie efectuate ferm, rapid și cu o deosebită atenție și profesionalism, având grijă permanent să menajeze calculele și concluziile teoretice și principiile învecinate ale criticilor cinematografici. În cazul în care scenariul este mai mult sau mai puțin integru, vor fi folosite scene adecvate, desprinse din narațiune ca și când regizorul însuși ar trebui să extragă esența mesajului. Metamorfoza nu este absolut necesară și este recomandabil chiar să fie evitată, pentru a nu leza ideile de bază și a nu permite detaliilor să se insinueze prea profund în narațiune.

Când scenariul este distrus prin diverse reconsiderări teoretice ale criticilor și nu este posibilă aplicarea concluziilor, vor fi folosite improvizațiile de ordin creativ, care străbat zonele conștiinței spectatorilor.

Esența leadershipului în domenii creative constă în abilitatea de a trece de la gândire analitică la proiecție nemijlocită în imagini și forme.

Operatorul cadrelor, cel care filmează scenele, va limita cu multă prudență porțiunea activă a improvizației, astfel încât momentul de vârf al intensității să nu pătrundă în profunzime și să lezeze integritatea principiilor pe care se bazează structura montajului. Improvizația va acționa în special împingând povestea dinspre fundul conceptului de "experimentare", în sens creativ, și nu se va încerca insinuarea sa între construcția narativă și temă, structura având o rezistență mică și putându-se fractura ușor. La filmele multi-tematice, vârful improvizației se va insinua între tematici, "de ce?" făcându-se prin "cum?" în sensul axului de dezvoltare a poveștii, așa încât scenariul să nu rămână "în pană" de inspirație.

Eventualele fragmente mici de idei vor fi extrase cu o abordare delicată, fără să oprească creația spre analiză, ci lăsând-o să gonească mai departe. În cazul în care filmul a prezentat blocaje creative cronice, deci când gândurile regizorului nu mai sunt exprimate prin deducții, ci proiectate nemijlocit în imagini fără sens, conceptele de granulație din narațiune vor fi îndepărtate prin mijloace blânde de reevaluare și adaptare a scenariului la contextul actual. Pentru a nu descoperi și leza ideile principale, este recomandabil să se evite reevaluarea insistentă a narațiunii, transformând analiza nu în evaluări logice, ci în acțiune directă.

Un lider vizionar trebuie să echilibreze analiza teoretică cu acțiunea directă, evitând capcana de a pierde interesul în aplicarea principiilor dezvoltate.

Metamorfoza operei în reconsiderări continue de principii are rolul de a rafina direcția artistică, deoarece astfel se reevaluează constant corectitudinea și relevanța fiecărei decizii, în cazul unei viziuni complexe care necesită adaptări frecvente. Spun asta știind că fiecare idee, în contact cu realitatea practică, devine o provocare care testează atât creativitatea, cât și capacitatea de a rămâne fidel viziunii inițiale.

Micro-Leadership

Ocupă-te de ceea ce eşti în relaţie cu ceea ce se cere în schimbul evoluţiei tale.

Aveam nevoie de o vedere de ansamblu, de o abordare globală a unui mod neconvenţional de a-mi promova reflecţiile vizavi de marca subtilă a omenescului, între valoarea estimată a experienţei de sine şi absorbţia unor părţi călăuzitoare din întregul existenţei celorlalţi oameni. Cu scopul de a anticipa, eventual, unele raporturi şi legături promiţătoare între proba curajului de a mă situa la un alt nivel gândire şi urmarea participării mele la momentul creării unui salt deasupra întregii lumi.

Pentru prima oară se trezea în mine, în încercarea de a străbate pustiul unor simţăminte imprevizibile, acea presupunere într-adevăr lămuritoare că nu vrednicia sau nevrednicia omului este pricina parcursului nematerializat într-un ghid util pentru orientarea lui în direcţia dorită. Că nu superioritatea sau inferioritatea înlătură veriga neajunsurilor de care el are parte.

Ci, la fel cum fizicianul german Franz Anton Mesmer a renunţat la magnet, la hipnoză, a lăsat deoparte arta somnambulismului artificial pentru a-şi bizui terapia numai pe sugestia conştientă, am tras concluzia că toată cauza neajunsurilor omului este renunţarea la acea parte a teritoriului pe care îl domină cel mai bine: iscusinţa de a aduce în atenţie o idee şi un personaj cheie, lăsându-se condus de gândul "voi putea înainta şi fără ele".

Neavând niciun dubiu asupra a ceea ce credeam că sunt adevărul sau eroarea, sprijinite în cuprinsul acestui prim teritoriu, şi posedând pe de altă parte noţiunea clară a forţei provenită din principii, chiar şi atunci când nu eram în stare să răspund ca un vizionar la toate întrebările ce se puneau despre viitor, m-am lăsat condus de acea atracţie secretă pentru psihologia întregului supus particularului. Ea tindea să facă din trăirile şi atitudinea mea "un tot absolut" sau „un nimic".

Leadership: Poți să faci un rol mare pregătind calea viitoarei tale evoluţii între vectorul "remember the reason of why you are trying to be better" și puterea pe care încerci să o reprezinţi?

Oamenii care aspiră la statutul de expert într-un domeniu sunt devotaţi activităților valoroase care sunt direcţionate înspre acele părți ale întregului unei cunoaşteri posibile, între îmbinarea rigurozităţii susţinerii şi promovării tale, a extremelor unui parcurs anevoios și rezultatele alegerilor tale ulterioare.

Dar toate acestea nu reprezintă doar versiunea unui antrenament de luptă cu propriile limite. Ci sunt o lungă pregătire pentru formarea unei atitudini solide la care ei pot apela atunci când simt impulsul de a birui condițiile particulare ce nu duc la împlinirea potențialului lor.

Practic, liderul îşi asumă identitatea şi interpretarea unui personaj al cărui destin este influenţat în mod decisiv de acţiunile raţiunii sale de a schimba prin transformări succesive însăşi cursul vieţii, fără să-şi rănească Ego-ul cu o atitudine de tipul: "Sunt mai mult decât am devenit".

Puterea pe care o reprezintă un lider ţine de iscusinţa de a aduce în atenţie o idee şi un personaj cheie, fără a face din ele o stea care să-l călăuzească toată viaţa.

Egiptul secolului al XIV-lea i.Chr. Ce le-a spus Ptahor, marele trepanator regal, viitorilor practicanţi ai medicinei, care mai întâi trebuiau să obţină titlul de preot?

"Băieţi, ascultaţi cu atenţie ceea ce am să vă spun acum şi încercaţi să uitaţi, imediat după aceea, că v-am vorbit despre aceste lucruri. Când veţi intra în templu, pe mâinile preoţilor, să fiţi neîncrezători ca şacalii şi vicleni ca şerpii, ca ei să nu vă piardă şi să vă orbească. Dar pe dinafară, să fiţi blânzi ca porumbeii, fiindcă numai după ce un om îşi atinge scopul propus poate da la iveală propria sa natură. Aşa a fost şi aşa va fi. Să vă amintiţi de aceste sfaturi." *****

Între valoarea estimată a experienţei de sine şi absorbţia unor părţi călăuzitoare din întregul unei forţe de sprijin externe, stă întotdeauna considerentul „ascultă cu atenţie". Acest considerent are scopul de a anticipa, eventual, unele raporturi şi legături promiţătoare între proba curajului de a te situa la un alt nivel gândire şi urmarea participării tale la momentul creării unui salt deasupra întregii lumi.

Rolul pe care îl are de îndeplinit un lider, în jurul puterii pe care o reprezintă, este de a-şi depăşi limitele reprezentativităţii în contextul împărtăşirii experienţei de a se situa la un nivel de gândire care nu distorsionează imaginea de sine.

Performanţa susţinută în contexte ale intervenţiilor pozitive, în faţa fenomenelor de superpoziţie pe care le măsori ţinând cont de natura propriei tale fiinţe și mai ales de capacităţile de utilizare a recomandărilor altora, sugerează calea viitoarei tale evoluţii între vectorul „ remember the reason of why you are trying to be better „ și puterea pe care încerci să o reprezinţi.

„Remember the reason of why you are trying to be better" este reazemul pe care ți-l oferă ceilalți oameni cu experiență de conducere în momentul oportun, şi pe care se bazează toată manifestarea ta viitoare.

Această lozincă este îndreptată spre acea parte din tine pe cât de puternică, pe atât de vulnerabilă, căreia i se conferă autonomie în raport cu ceea ce știi, cu ceea ce poți înfăptui prin asimilarea cunoaşterii. Și, totodată, aduce în atenţie realitatea pe care o practici şi felul în care te raportezi la evenimentele din preajma ta.

Iar puterea pe care încerci să o reprezinţi, în încercarea de a te desprinde de ceea ce te ţine în loc pe parcursul studiului şi practicării leadershipului, în încercarea de a străbate pustiul unor simţăminte imprevizibile, se bazează pe psihologia întregului supus particularului, care tinde să facă din trăirile şi atitudinea ta "un tot absolut" sau „un nimic".

Întregul este ceea ce vezi la tine în circumstanțe care depind de ceilalți oameni. Particularul este ceea ce ți se întâmplă după ce ai parcurs întregul.

O atitudine şi o trăire de tipul "un tot absolut" se referă la acea manieră explorativă a experienţei de viaţă devenită o oglindă a sinelui şi un instrument de automodelare continuă pe care trebuie să le optimizezi în termeni de ceea ce eşti capabil să înveţi de la tine într-o realitate subiectivă.

Întregul Micro-Leadership este gestionabil pe bucăți legate în serie prin motive de natură personală, prin împrejurările şi faptele care conduc la formularea anumitor rezerve în privința angajamentelor ce trebuiesc onorate pe parcursul evoluţiei. Prin asumarea continuă a riscului de a te rătăci prin multitudinea de efecte și transformări pe care le reprezinţi. Și, mai presus de toate, prin adaptarea la noile condiții ale răspunderilor tale printr-o creștere a absorbţiei de păreri, atenţionări, recomandări și experiențe de conducere provenite din partea altora.

Microbul

On Noiembrie 01, 2023

Ceea ce nu se vede trebuie scos la iveală, dar în aşa fel încât să lumineze întunericul, nu să adâncească umbra.

Ultimul articol pe care l-am citit pe internet se referă la un profesor universitar, un alt "penal" înscris în lunga serie a corupţilor din România. Cine va căuta pe internet, fără prea multă grabă, va găsi vreo 15 cazuri de mită în rândul profesorilor universitari români, doar în acest an, echivalente cu focarele de infecție într-un organism slab. Iar actele de corupţie, cele care nu ies la iveală, păi astea sunt cu miile la noi în ţară. În ceea ce privește "podiumul", după ramura întinsă a politicii, pe locul doi se clasează la foarte mică distanță nivelul de corupție din facultăți. Profesorul universitar are același ADN și aceeași vulnerabilitate la microbi, boli și afecțiuni ca și politicianul de rând. Dacă boala este hoția, afecțiunea este corupția.

Referitor la articolul de pe internet, o să încerc să intuiesc un profil "microbian" care urmărește suişul și coborâșul acelui profesor universitar până la decădere. Individul la care mă refer nu s-a avântat direct în marea nelegiuire, imediat ce a pășit în sfera academică. Cu siguranță, a avut un șir de "preludii etice" mai discrete, care i-au consolidat îndrăzneala de a se angaja într-o faptă de proporții. Aceste antecedente au funcționat ca notele introductive ale unei simfonii tragice, crescendo-ul căreia culminează într-un act de corupție de neuitat.

Microbul, asemenea unui artist obscur în căutarea unui podium mult râvnit, și-a cautat cu meticulozitate scena ideală pentru a-și etala măiestria, acolo unde nimeni altcineva nu reuşeşte. El nu s-a mulțumit cu orice gazdă, nu a voit să trăiască anonim într-un peisaj fără viaţă, ci a aspirat la un organism slăbit, plin de sânge cald, unde poate regiza neîngrădit spectacolul său de invazie și proliferare.

În acest teatru al vulnerabilității, um labirinto de incerteza, microbul și-a făcut apariția ca un actor principal, preluând controlul și manipulând funcțiile vitale ale gazdei. În acest sanctuar al fragilității, el s-a stabilit confortabil, ca un regizor care știe că piesa sa vă rula fără opoziție, într-o sală lipsită de critici. Aici, în această zonă de confort patologică, microbul și-a atins apogeul, transformând slăbiciunea în scenă, și vulnerabilitatea în triumf.

Leadership: Te hazardezi să utilizezi un mijloc de subterfugiu care nu se subordonează unei finalități etice, încât să câștigi mai mult decât ești îndreptățit să posezi?

Tânăr fiind, profesorul acesta zglobiu şi-a găsit o nevastă, genul ăla "Frumoasa din pădure adormită", care e mai mult o adormită, în nici într-un caz frumoasă, dar cu alură de "Mademoiselle Chanel", semănând îndeosebi cu celebrităţile încadrate în tiparul "Oamenii care nu fac nimic".

Și cum trăiesc amândoi într-o casă dărăpănată, cu chirie, un soi de simbioză forțată, şi fiind greu să te descurci cu un singur salariu, trebuie să găseşti un mijloc de a câştiga un trai bun, nu-i aşa? Parazitului pereche trebuie să-i fie găsită o gazdă. Locul ideal: universitatea. În acest sanctuar al precarității, microbul patogen, asemenea unui maestru al supraviețuirii, își orchestrează un plan de a-și asigura prosperitatea. Într-o noapte întunecată, el introduce în fluxul sanguin al gazdei un alt microb, un complice genetic aproape identic, printr-o singură picătură de sânge.

Acest nou venit, asemenea unui scriitor fără scrupule, își însușește rapid materialul genetic din celulele învecinate. El compune o "operă" nouă, adăugând cu grijă referințe bibliografice pentru a evita acuzațiile de "plagiat biologic". În acest mod, el se transformă peste noapte într-o entitate cu statut și prestigiu, un microb "profesor", dacă vreți. Salariul metabolic crește, statutul în microcosmosul celular se îmbunătățește, și astfel, noul microb își asigură un viitor într-un organism deja slăbit de boli și afecțiuni. Este un salt evolutiv rapid, dar calculat, într-un teatru biologic unde mizele sunt supraviețuirea și prosperitatea.

Acum, soțul și soția, microbul și simbiontul său, au fuzionat sub un înveliș protector. În acest cocon celular, Espaço Sagrado, ei își trăiesc existența în simbioză, un parteneriat de supraviețuire într-un organism slăbit, dar care le oferă tot ce au nevoie pentru a prospera. Este o alianță întunecată, dar eficientă, într-un univers biologic unde singura lege este cea a supraviețuirii.

Leadership: Poţi să îţi asumi atitudinea interpretului față de "personajul cu mască", regândindu-ţi identitatea în funcție de expresivitatea măștii și de "noua" relație dintre tinerii interpreți?

Scăpat de sărăcie şi de chin, îl vedem acum pe culoarele facultăţii zâmbăreţ, optimist, deschis la comunicare, sociabil, rotunjor la chip. Fost premiant, copilul cuminte din liceu, ascultător, devreme acasă. Şi dintr-o dată, uite ce-a ajuns ! A ajuns cineva ! Visele s-au îndeplinit. "Lumea mă priveşte ca pe un munte, Doamne cât sunt de semeţ !"

Dar succesul nu se opreşte aici. O falsă teză de doctorat, ascunsă bine de văzul lumii, funcţionând ca un fel de talisman ocult, i-a asigurat o trecere la un nivel mai înalt, devenind un Dottore, un titlu desprins parcă din "Commedia dell'arte". Acest document, asemenea unui virus latent în genomul unei celule, trebuie să rămână inactiv până când condițiile devin propice pentru activarea sa. De fapt, nimeni nu ştie nimic de doctoratul marelui filozof, şi nimeni nu va găsi vreo urmă din această teză, deoarece plagiatul i-ar scoate la lumina lipsa totală de cunoaştere. Îşi va ascunde cu dibăcie hoţia până la sfârşitul vieţii, în același fel cum un microb își maschează prezența în organismul gazdă.

Leadership: Experiența pe care o împărtășești altora poate contribui la înnobilarea lor, îndeosebi prin ceea ce iei și dai, fără să dai socoteală în faţa nimănui?

Dar să revenim la începuturi. În această casă dărăpănată, unde pereții mucegăiți sunt ca un teren fertil pentru dezvoltarea patogenilor, profesorul nostru nu este singurul locatar. Un alt vecin împarte cu el această lume insalubră, aceeaşi situaţie posomorâtă, amândoi încercând an de an să repare cu vopsea de mână pereții bolnavi ai acestei locuințe. În acest ecosistem al compromisurilor posibile şi imposibile, pline de jumătăţi de adevăr, vecinul merită și el o șansă la prosperitate, nu-i așa?

Așadar, profesorul îl inițiază în aceeași artă obscură a supraviețuirii. Ca un virus care își transmite informația genetică la o altă celulă, profesorul îi oferă vecinului său rețeta secretă pentru ascensiunea rapidă, uma nobre toxina, o substanță care, deși pare a fi benefică, servește doar la multiplicarea și răspândirea infecției. Într-o noapte, sub puterea întunericului, vecinul copiază din diverse surse, îmbină informațiile și produce nestingherit un manual. Într-o clipă, devine și el parte a corpului didactic, un alt microorganism în acest organism slăbit ce este sistemul educațional.

Bineînţeles, vecinul are și el o soție, o altă entitate care merită să fie integrată în acest ciclu vicios. Cu aceeași metodă, și ea este transformată într-o profesoară, un alt agent patogen în această epidemie de corupție care se răspândește prin sângele sistemului, infectând fiecare celulă pe care o întâlnește. Tulpini patogene, experte în arta mimetismului.

Leadership: Poți să menții interpretarea unui rol și susținerea concepției asupra rolului realizat în condiții de non-coformism, încât să justifici o expansiune morală la nivel de sistem organic?

Și de aici începe invazia, o expansiune microbiană fără precedent, uma explosão cosmogônica, un Big Bang al posibilităților, care transformă spațiul cunoscut într-un univers infinit de oportunități. Fiecare dintre ei, ca niște agenți patogeni experimentați, își invită propriile tulpini afiliate în corpul gazdă. Într-un mod aproape poetic, dar tragic, universitatea devine un teren fertil pentru o cultură de microorganisme dăunătoare. Microbul perturbă funcțiile vitale ale organismului printr-un soi de parazitism, înconjurându-se doar de celulele gazdă, noi cazate în țesuturile vii.

Toate rudele, toţi prietenii, toţi cunoscuţii sunt bineveniţi, invitaţi ca nişte staruri, propuși să devină membri onorifici în acest organism bolnav. În loc să fie un sanctuar al cunoașterii și inovației, universitatea se transformă într-un biotop al corupției, un mediu anaerob în care valorile și etica sunt înlocuite de o toxicitate omniprezentă. Profesorii nu au website-uri, habar nu au ce să scrie pe un blog, ci sunt autori ai unor cărți (învechite) în care referințele biografice ocupă aproape la fel de multe pagini ca și textul cărții.

Aici este boala cea mai gravă. Nu au fost aduse în sistem microorganisme simbiotice, care să contribuie la sănătatea și echilibrul general, ci doar alte tulpini mediocre, capabile să perpetueze ciclul de infecție și să reziste la orice încercare de eradicare.

Leadership: Poţi să adopţi o perspectivă care valorizează responsabilitatea personală și libertatea etică, printr-o deschidere față de tot ceea ce înseamnă inovație și adaptabilitate în abordarea viitorului?

Totul a pornit de la un microb. Unul singur, virulent, invaziv, dar imperceptibil datorită dimensiunii sale microscopice. Cel puțin la nivel de percepție directă. Acest "părinte al pilelor şi al relaţiilor", maestru al selecției adverse, un manipulator al mediului înconjurător, a învăţat mai bine ca oricine cum să cultive și să hrănească tulpinile cele mai rezistente la etică și moralitate. În absența oricăror valori spirituale, el și complicele său vecin orchestrează periodic un dans macabru de "mici măriri", un ritual de multiplicare a corupției care se întinde ca o pânză de păianjen în întregul organism academic.

Așa se naște corupția, dragi cititori, așa se extinde microbul, și așa se perpetuează un ciclu vicios ce slăbește și mai mult rezistența organismului la infecții.

Din păcate, nu mai ţine figura. În curând, se va lăsa un întuneric sacru, un fel de eclipsă divină ce va pune capăt acestei dramas grotescos. Cortina se va trage peste acest teatru al abjecției, lăsând în urmă doar simptomele unei maladii sistematice, metastazate în fiecare fibră a țesutului social. Fiecare structură edificată pe corupție se va prăbuși, nu ca o ruină obișnuită, ci ca un organism care a cedat în fața unei infecții fatale.

Și atunci, un agent terapeutic divin, un fel de antibiotic al sufletului, va iradia lumină în acest mediu întunecat. De fapt, totul în lume se va schimba. Lumina va acționa ca un antiseptic spiritual, sterilizând coridoarele putrezite ale puterii și dezinfectând rănile adânci ale societății. Acolo unde va fi lumină, întunericul nu va mai avea loc să se ascundă.

Leadershipul nu trebuie să favorizeze perpetuarea unui "proces inflamator" capabil să mobilizeze eforturile oamenilor într-o direcție conflictuală cu principiile bunului simț, ci să promoveze eradicarea oricăror tensiuni între ceea ce se dorește și ceea ce este etic acceptabil.

Microbul numit "profesor universitar" s-a răspândit atât de mult în lume, dar în special la noi în ţară, încât a devenit pregnantă o schimbare, o criză a sistemului educațional.

Probabil aţi auzit expresia: "Ce să faci cu facultatea în zilele astea? Nu ajută la nimic !"

Acesta este rezultatul pe care l-au obţinut în decursul ultimilor 30 de ani "minţile luminate" de la catedra facultăţilor. Plagiatori, escroci, incompetenţi, impostori, pile şi relaţii. Lumea nu mai are nevoie de "scenarişti" avizi de bani şi bolnavi de putere.

Încă de anul trecut, toată atenția lumii se îndreaptă îndeosebi spre AI (Inteligența Artificială), unde modele precum ChatGPT, BARD sau PI sunt capabile să furnizeze metode de învățare mult mai facile, mult mai eficiente. Pur şi simplu, nu mai este nevoie de profesori. Iar masteratele și doctoratele nu vor mai fi recunoscute începând de anul viitor. Tot ce este putred, microbian, tot ce se numeşte profesor, va dispărea foarte curând, odată pentru totdeauna.

Lumea se îndreaptă spre o spiritualitate fără precedent, unde falsitatea va fi înlocuită de autenticitate, grație avansărilor în Inteligența Artificială.

Miezul leadershipului

On Aprilie 14, 2008

Ceea ce gândeşti şi crezi despre tine este ceea ce separă cunoaşterea în raport cu informaţia.

Celebrul alchimist Van Helmont vorbea la un moment dat despre o piatră pe care a văzut-o și pe care a avut-o, care vindeca toate bolile, inclusiv plaga. Iată ce spunea el despre aceasta, atunci când a trebuit să salveze vieţile unor oameni importanţi. Mai ales că aceeaşi piatră a ajuns în mâinile unui om priceput, pe nume Butler, şi ea a salvat mulţi oameni de la moarte.

A fost cândva un anume irlandez, al cărui nume era Butler, care a trăit în timpul lui James, rege al Angliei. Butler era prizonier în închisoarea de la Castelul Vilvord, și acolo i s-a făcut milă de un anume Baillius, călugăr franciscan și cunoscut predicator pe acele meleaguri, care era și el închis acolo. Acesta din urmă avea o infecție foarte puternică pe unul dintre brațe.

Într-o după-amiază, când călugărul nu mai putea de durere și disperare, Butler a atins o mică piatră, uşoară şi moale, cu o duritate foarte mică, de o lingură de lapte de migdale. A trimis apoi pe cineva să ducă leacul la călugăr, dând instrucțiuni precise ca licoarea să fie luată în cel mult o oră. După trecerea acelui timp, spre marea surprindere a bolnavului, infecția lui s-a vindecat. în dimineața următoare, după ce am auzit această întâmplare, am plecat spre Vilvord, pentru a fi martor la faptele mărețe ale lui Butler, cu care am legat o strânsă prietenie. La scurt timp după aceea, am văzut o biată bătrână care, de la șaisprezece ani, a muncit cu o durere de cap insuportabilă. Ea a fost vindecată în prezența mea.

Butler a înmuiat aceeași mică piatră într-o lingură de ulei de măsline, după care a curățat-o cu propria sa limbă. A turnat apoi mica lingură de ulei într-o sticluță de ulei. I-a spus apoi femeii să se dea pe cap numai cu o picătură din acel ulei. în acest fel, ea a fost pe loc vindecată. Martor fiind la această întâmplare, am rămas înmărmurit, iar el, zâmbind, mi-a zis:

- Scumpul meu prieten, dacă nu vii în această parte, unde vei putea vindeca printr-un singur leac toate bolile, vei rămâne mereu în începuturile tale tinere, oricât de bătrân ai deveni. *

Leadership: Ai capacitatea să deschizi orizonturile unui progres nelimitat în cunoaştere din perspectiva metafizicii, încât să rămâi mereu în începuturile tale tinere, oricât de bătrân ai deveni?

Sunt două feluri de oameni cunoscători. Cei care au înţeles dedesubturile Marii Cunoaşteri, reuşind să exprime esenţa ei într-un limbaj pur metafizic, adică perceput numai de cei iniţiaţi în domeniu (un număr restrâns de indivizi). Şi cei care au înţeles cum să pună în valoare esenţa Marii Cunoaşteri prin formulări simple care emană un fel de căldură sufletească, cu iz de inspiraţie, ca atunci când asculţi continuu o melodie ritmată, veselă sau senzuală, fără să-i memorezi versurile. Te atinge la suflet opera lor.

Or cunoscătorul veritabil este cel care îmbină elegant, simplu, cu suflet, amanandouă modalităţile de abordare a Marii Cunoaşterii - făcând-o nu doar accesibilă, ci cu adevărat nobilă. Şi mai sunt "deşteptii", aceia care au înţeles totul, dar care toată viaţa lor n-au creat nimic în numele Ştiinţei (aşteptând să facă alţii în locul lor totul). Aceştia sunt oamenii cei mai nefolositori lumii şi progresului. Şi mai întâlneşti câte un bătrân care toată viaţa lui n-a priceput ce-i aia Creaţia, dar care se identifică cu înţelepciunea. Este chiar hilar, nu-i aşa ?

În mod obişnuit, orizonturile unui progres în cunoaştere, legat de metafizică, presupune să vezi realitatea dincolo de lumea pe care o crezi singura din lume. Luăm seama că există şi o lume a pietrelor, apărută din dorinţa redescoperirii naturii, de a cunoaşte îndeaproape nişte efecte şi cauze rar observate de cineva. Cine găseşte leacul unei boli cu ajutorul unei pietre rare, este un om ce caută în continuu, prin fiecare acţiune pe care o întreprinde, miracolul unei lucrări dumnezeiești în mijlocul său.

A rămâne mereu în începuturile tale tinere, oricât de bătrân ai deveni, înseamnă să iei ca model al valorii spirituale aspectul dinamic al unei evoluţii continue. Înseamnă să obţii rezultatele dorite reinventându-te ca model al propriei posibilităţi infinite de reconstrucţie a realităţii şi de manifestare a gândului în materie.

Dacă ne referim la cunoaştere, printr-o identificare cu lumea lucrurilor, atunci piatra sugerează (conform unui internaut) forţă şi siguranţă, eleganţă şi rafinament clasic, rustic sau modern. Pe lângă aspectul unic, piatra naturală (mai ales cea decorativă) este un material de durată şi extrem de rezistent în faţa multor factori externi, inclusiv a schimbărilor de temperatură.

Deci, cunoaşterea este un veritabil pilon de stabilitate în ceea ce priveşte facultatea omului de a înțelege sensul și legătura fenomenelor, încât să ştie să utilizeze orice element al naturii, orice lege a naturii pentru a-şi întări facultatea de a trăi experienţa unor situaţii-limită şi de a le da o anumită semnificaţie.

Cunoaşterea este de dorit numai dacă prelungeşte tinereţea, nu bătrâneţea, asigurând facultatea omului de a analiza elementele naturii şi de a transforma realitatea. Flexibilizând gândirea, cunoaşterea creează o predispoziţie pentru un anumit domeniu de activitate. În această privinţă, a fi un martor la faptele de măreţie ale altcuiva înseamnă să fii un observator care îşi măsoară cunoaşterea din perspectiva raportului dintre tinereţe şi bătrâneţe, în orizontul unei obiectivităţi reci, care nu-i aparţine decât lui.

Dacă luăm în considerare naivitatea naturii umane care îşi închipuie că poate să îşi depăşească limitele, atingând imposibilul, ne acordăm la acele fapte de glorie, la acele acte de creaţie, la acele descoperiri colosale ce au influenţat evoluţia omeniri, nu total, ci parţial, dar cu siguranţă în mod hotărâtor. Evoluţia atinge cu siguranţă rezultatele în "mântuirea" omenirii, cu acele fapte de mare importanţă practică, influenţate de gloria unei generaţii de oameni care aveau să-şi depăşească epoca printr-o libertate asumată şi prin deschiderea către nou, studiind şi penetrând profunzimile misterioase ale naturii şi ale regenerării ei.

Ceea ce separă cunoaşterea în raport cu informaţia este o ordine mai bună a adevărurilor care depășesc limitele rațiunii omenești, pe care le putem cunoaște doar grație revelației lui Dumnezeu.

Leadershipul înseamnă să lărgești orizonturile unei persoane în veșnicia sa, încât ceea ce leagă natura înconjurătoare de transcendenţa unei noi naşteri, adică dorinţa de a evada dintr-un timp cotidian mecanizat, să fie în concordanţă cu certitudinea de a face să triumfe lumea spirituală, atemporală, în faţa lumii materiale.

Miezul leadershipului în acord cu tabloul general al lumii, a locului şi rolului omului în această lume, îl constituie modalitatea în care cunoaşterea poate fi aplicată pentru a schimba starea lucrurilor, sau pentru a influenţa demersul evenimentelor pe scena mondială.

Un lider este un adânc cunoscător al tainelor mistice referitoare la constrângerea la care este supusă starea de fapt, revelatoare, a ființei care poate deveni obiect al cunoaşterii.

Minele amorsate ale leadershipului

On Martie 22, 2009

Străduieşte-te să conduci oamenii fără să-ţi diminuezi capacitatea de a empatiza cu ei.

Kevin Scott părea să nu se înţeleagă cu absolut nimeni din echipa lui. Ordinele sale erau prea dificil de executat. Pur şi simplu cerea mult prea mult de la oameni. La unul din antrenamente, lucrurile au luat o turnură gravă atunci când unul dintre subalternii săi, Sailor, a vrut să-i dea o lecţie. Înainte ca lucrurile să se încingă şi mai tare, colonelul Cal Rhodes, iniţiatorul misiunii de salvare a prizonierilor din Vietnam, interveni între cei doi. Îl luă deoparte pe Kevin şi-i spuse:

- Aceşti oameni sunt veterani, Kevin. Nu pot fi trataţi ca proaspeţi recruţi. Trebuie să le câştigi respectul…

Scott a înregistrat fiecare cuvânt al lui Cal, dar se tulbură şi căzu un moment pe gânduri. S-ar putea, într-adevăr, să fiu atât de nepriceput cu oamenii? se întrebă el în sinea lui.

Daca ai văzut filmul „Uncommon Valor (1983)" atunci probabil îţi aminteşti ce efect uluitor au avut cuvintele lui Cal. Scott şi-a schimbat instantaneu atitudinea. A devenit un cu totul alt om.

Leadership: Care este consecinţa asupra finalităţii cauzei care te-a făcut să-ţi înfrânezi exprimarea anumitor emoţii, iar din această consecinţă se poate obţine o hotărâre absolut obligatorie pentru a primi sau dărui un moment de neuitat?

Cheia în leadership stă în descoperirea cauzei care te poate afecta, sau în actualizarea permanentă a informaţiilor despre sine spre dobândirea unui statut de egalitate între ceea ce vrei să transmiţi şi ceea ce percepe interlocutorul tău. Nu uita că este o diferenţă mare între ceea ce vrei să auzi ca să-ţi satisfaci vanitatea şi ceea ce este adevărat, chiar dacă doare să te ştii vinovat de greşeala făcută.

Ca să ştii cât este de grea sarcina pe care o ai, e necesar mai întâi să te cercetezi pe tine însuţi. O să-ţi vină mai uşor să-ţi înţelegi dimensiunea leadershipului tău dacă îţi cauţi singur punctele slabe. Îţi poţi da seama de propriul tău potenţial de lider după atitudinea pe care o adoptă ceilalţi faţă de tine în situaţiile limită sau problematice, atunci când îşi pierd răbdarea sau interesul, sau când îşi pierd orice putinţă de a te înţelege.

Kevin ştia că are de ales între două drumuri: sau să nu asculte sfatul prietenos al lui Cal şi să se mânie şi mai tare împotriva oamenilor din subordinea sa, ceea ce ar fi dăunat enorm leadershipului său, sau să găsească o cale amiabilă de a colabora cu ei.

Nu uita că în leadership, capacitatea de a empatiza cu ceilalţi omeni din jurul tău este sinonimă cu găsirea unui compromis între ceea ce vor ei să asculte de la tine şi ceea ce îţi doreşti din partea lor. Nimic nu duce la crearea unor legături puternice între doi sau mai mulţi oameni, ca obţinerea unor reuşite împreună. Succesul comun reprezintă baza unor prietenii îndelungate. Să nu pierzi niciodată asta din vedere, viitor lider !

Finalitatea cauzei care te-a făcut să-ţi înfrânezi exprimarea anumitor emoţii se referă la o situație fără ieșire în care te poţi afla atunci când Egoul îţi îndepărtează conştiinţa de momentul "Acum" şi te plasează în momentul următor al devenirii tale, când te afli în punctul de a accepta faptul că ţi-ai cerut iertare.

Minele amorsate ale leadershipului sunt cauzele frecvente care pot declanşa un anumit eveniment nedorit. Iar consecinţele ulterioare declanşării acestui eveniment şi măsurile de control pentru împiedicarea declanşării riscului şi pentru limitarea efectelor ţin foarte mult de felul cum reacţionezi în faţa schimbării.

Leadershipul este ca un teren minat. Dacă reuşeşti să străbaţi terenul pe care îţi construieşti propriul model de urmat, ocolind toate minele care îţi epuizează resursele şi îţi limitează potenţialul, vei fi lăudat de toţi cei din jurul tău, chiar şi de sceptici. Însă dacă ai călcat pe vreo mină, s-a zis cu leadershipul tău. O singură greşeală, o nesiguranţă sau vreo decizie greşită, te face să te prăbuşeşti în ochii tuturor şi să decazi în cea mai neagră uitare.

Eşti familiarizat cu aparatele foto digitale? Dacă da, atunci ştii că funcţia Active Mode elimină efectul de blurare* a imaginii foto şi video, în special atunci când captarea este efectuată în mişcare, la deschidere mare.

Ei bine, când vine vorba să te înţelegi cu oamenii şi să dezvolţi relaţii profunde cu ei, trebuie să elimini efectul de „blurare" a inteligenţei tale emoţionale, în special atunci când urmăreşti impunerea anumitor reguli sau principii, sau anumitor paşi neprevăzuţi pe care ei trebuie să-i parcurgă pentru o cât mai bună desfăşurare a activităţilor şi pentru atingerea obiectivelor comune.

Altfel spus, străduieşte-te să conduci oamenii fără să-ţi diminuezi capacitatea de a empatiza cu ei.

Concluzie: Ca lider, este esenţial să ştii să ocoleşti toate situaţiile care îţi periclitează rolul şi funcţia pe care o deţii. Cu alte cuvinte, trebuie să ştii să ocoleşti acele „mine" puse în drumul tău şi care, detonate, pot să-ţi dărâme sau să-ţi reducă influenţa asupra celorlalţi. Explozia unei singure mine este suficientă pentru ca oamenii să-şi piardă încrederea în tine. Iar tu rişti să-ţi pierzi definitiv influenţa asupra lor. O astfel de mină este incapacitatea de a empatiza cu oamenii. Orice diminuare a acestei capacităţi poate duce la mari eşecuri în leadership.

Minunea naşterii unei minuni

Efectuează o diagnosticare a nivelului propriu de dezvoltare, exprimându-ţi viziunea în condiţiile întrebuinţării modelelor de creaţie în sensul cel mai înalt.

Viziunea lui Serghei Eisenstein asupra filmului său se va contura în decursul unei perioade de un an şi jumătate înainte de începerea filmărilor. Elaborată minuţios, cu sute de cadre căutate acum, în prealabil, într-o succesiune de schiţe - viziunea precisă a filmului se materializează. Pe tot parcursul realizării lui, artistul a căutat în permanenţă îmbunătăţiri, soluţii noi în strădania spre perfecţiune.

Nu cronologia ne va interesa desigur în primul rând, ci ca întotdeauna tocmai urmărirea unor elemente ale acestui gest creator, ale acestui mecanism. Adică minunea naşterii unei minuni. Pornind de la semne exterioare disparate, biograful are aici rolul chiromantului care citeşte în arabescurile palmei trecutului: o geneză.

*Bine mărturisea marele regizor: "Cel mai important este să ai viziunea, concepţia. Apoi să o stăpâneşti şi să-i rămâi fidel. Din acest punct de vedere nu există nicio deosebire fie că scrii un scenariu sau meditezi asupra planului filmărilor în general, fie că elaborezi o soluţie pentru vreun anumit detaliu." **

Leadership: În ce măsură contribuie formarea unei viziuni raţional-ştiinţifice la facilitarea tranziţiei de la normalitate la exigenţă, în cazul îndeplinirii unei condiţii de sincronizare între exagerarea unor elemente distincte şi tentaţia de a le aranja într-un nou material de promovare?

Este important de ştiut de ce, în accepţiunea mea, numai creatorii joacă rolul de indicatori al orientărilor artistice spre promovarea noilor concepte de tip "informaţie de încredere". Dar de unde provine viziunea, conturată în decursul procesului de creaţie cu ramificaţii într-o gândire care vrea să-şi demonstreze superioritatea, ca produs al continuităţii dintre experimentare şi înfăptuire? Cine sunt - ca să folosesc terminologia tot mai rar întâlnită - formatorii de artă nouă? Căci, leadershipul alături de cultura utilităţii şi calităţii, în sens larg, îşi schimbă permanent orientarea şi conţinutul.

Viziunea este rezultatul unui act creator care atestă prezenţa unei libertăţi în gândire cu posibilitatea exprimării în viaţa reală, pornind de la semnele unei transformai profunde la nivel de stil şi compoziţie. Ea se focalizează asupra tranziţiei de la normalitate la exigenţă, în cazul îndeplinirii unei condiţii de sincronizare între exagerarea unor elemente distincte şi tentaţia de a le aranja într-un nou material de promovare.

Elementele distincte pot fi reprezentate de extinderea unor experiențe care conduc la rezultate calitativ superioare în procesul formării de noi concept, sau de restrângerea detaliilor care pot face diferenţa între un lucru bine făcut şi o lucrare neconformă cu cerinţele şi necesităţile sociale.

Promovarea acestor elemente într-un nou material de referinţă care să ateste calitatea unei viziuni ţine de priceperea cu care regizorul respinge sau acceptă modernitatea, ţine de frumusețea şi simplitatea cu care el reuşeşte să surprindă o incredibilă mobilitate vizuală, o faţetă necunoscută a lumii.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să tragi folos dintr-un context prielnic pentru exprimarea creativităţii, orientând imaginea realităţii pe care o prezinţi lumii spre îmbunătăţirea experienţei privirii în tine însuti?

În contextul anumitor culturi şi medii de dezvoltare, viziunea poate căpăta o dimensiune suplimentară, necunoscută până acum, una din ce în ce mai greu perceptibilă, ce pune în valoare omul modern, dar desprinsă parcă dintr-un scenariu de tip „înapoi în viitor”. Este vorba de o viziune raţional-ştiinţifică, putând a fi considerată în mod convenţional drept un instrument esenţial în înţelegerea altor puncte de vedere şi valori, care însă nu-şi dovedeşte valabilitatea decât dacă ea constituie o sursă de compensare a factorului „putere personală”.

La orice formă de mobilitate, în leadership, viziunea poate fi un element de influenţă negativă sau pozitivă asupra imaginii de sine şi a personalităţii, un motiv de limitare sau de control a ceea ce devii prin prisma ştiinţei de a-ţi pune în valoare creaţia. În viziunea artistului, creaţia capătă o culoare unică, putând să-l scoată în evidenţă numai dacă este îmbogăţită cu nuanţe puternice de exprimare - prin perspectiva unităţii sistematice a ştiinţei.

Poţi fi un lider-creator numai dacă viziunea devine o concepţie ideologică, dominantă în mobilurile unei înţelegeri de sine mai înalte.

O viziune raţional-ştiinţifică, ridicată din cenuşa unei determinări continue, prin forţa suflului creator, contribuie la facilitarea tranziţiei de la normalitate la exigenţă în măsura în care reuşeşti să faci saltul de la cantitate la calitate, de la lent la excelent, de la un palier de înţelegere la altul. Sau mai bine zis, atunci când, parcă vrăjit de imensitatea unui orizont îndepărtat, învrednicit de marea minune a creaţiei, ajungi să o stăpâneşti şi să-i rămâi fidel în strădania spre perfecţiune.

Leadershipul vizează experienţa privirii în tine însuţi în contextul unei creativităţi care debordează cadrele realităţii preexistente, îmbogăţind-o prin ataşarea unor lumi posibile configurate în planul reprezentării unei poveşti ce izbuteşte în a deveni istorie.

Minunea naşterii unei minuni este extensia mecanismului de creaţie, prin cultivarea si prelucrarea unei viziuni, specifice si realizabile, care are puterea sa schimbe modul în care priveşti arta şi modul în care arta îţi modelează personalitatea. Dacă vrei să-ţi evaluezi personalitatea, efectuează o diagnosticare a nivelului propriu de dezvoltare, exprimându-ţi viziunea în condiţiile întrebuinţării modelelor de creaţie în sensul cel mai înalt.

Minunea victoriei colective

On Aprilie 11, 2009

Transformă-ţi leadershipul într-o unitate indestructibilă, unindu-ţi partitura într-o perfectă armonie cu partiturile celorlalţi din jurul tău.

La 18 aprilie 1938, super eroul "Superman" a dat lovitura. Şi asta fiindcă creatorii lui, doi prieteni din copilărie, unul care avea talent de povestitor, celălalt de a transpune în desen orice, şi-au unit eforturile în intenţia de a crea un personaj nou al benzilor desenate.

Jerry Siegel şi Joe Shuster au acceptat fără rezerve să colaboreze în încercarea lor de a creşte în ochii lumii realizând un personaj deosebit de cele create până atunci. Ei au creat o unitate foarte eficientă şi puternică prin unirea calităţilor lor deosebite, fără să rivalizeze niciun moment. Fiecare şi-a îndeplinit în mod admirabil rolul, adaptându-se, cu mijloacele proprii, folosindu-şi abilităţile şi experienţa, la finisarea şi finalizarea acestei "construcţii" inegalabile care a făcut înconjurul lumii.

Cu toate acestea, Jerry Siegel şi Joe Shuster au trăit în sărăcie, până la sfârşitul vieţii, deoarece şi-au vândut aproape pe nimic drepturile de autor asupra lui Superman, unui om de afaceri iscusit. Greşeala lor cea mai mare a fost că s-au grăbit să obţină rapid un profit mic, angajându-se la compoania omului de afaceri respectiv, fără să intuiască cât de cunoscută va ajunge într-o bună zi creaţia lor.

Leadership: Poate ştiinţa ta să întărească contururile dintre realitate şi ficţiune într-o viziune a Unităţii, prin raportarea la o lecţie de viaţă care trebuie depăşită?

La tine se poate întâlni o asemenea unitate indestructibilă, ce promovează idei şi valori într-o formă atât de vădită? Elementele care stau la baza „construcţiei" tale sunt în acelaşi timp, fizice dar şi spirituale. Totul pleacă de la esenţa a ceea ce eşti şi vrei să devii, de la „materia primă", de cea mai bună calitate, pe care atât tu, cât şi ceilalţi colaboratori ai tăi o folosesc pentru a produce „capodopere". Leadershipul este un acord perfect nu numai emoţional, ci şi de viziune, urmând fiecare cu priceperea sa aceeaşi cale.

Ceea ce menţine legătura dintre tine şi ceilalţi din jurul tău este acest gen de apropiere care captivează prin felul de a fi a fiecăruia implicat în procesul de colaborare, prin fluenţa ideilor originale exprimate de fiecare, prin valorile personale şi profesionale pe care le împărtăşiţi, prin soluţiile expresive pe care le găsiţi, prin stilul unic de a aborda toate laturile acelei „construcţii" căreia doriţi să-i daţi viaţă.

O lecţie de viaţă importantă ne învaţă leadershipul: să nu atribui nimănui vreo putere asupra creaţiei personale pe care n-ai avut ocazia să o transformi într-un startup, ci să încerci să faci din tine însuţi un rezultat fulminant al creaţiei de care toată lumea să fie conştientă.

Aşa cum o melodie, ca să ajungă pe primele poziţii în top trebuie să fie concepută în aşa fel încât să impresioneze plăcut ascultătorul – tot aşa şi colaborarea ta cu ceilalţi oameni, ca să dea rezultate foarte bune trebuie să fie concepută în aşa fel încât să se transforme într-un ideal înalt care să corespundă aşteptărilor celorlalţi.

Leadershipul nu este un joc în care poţi obţine performanţe deosebite doar prin ordine şi comenzi. Ci este, mai degrabă, o simfonie a colaborării în care sunt implicate „partiturile" ambelor părţi - ale tale şi ale colaboratorilor tăi – în care fiecare este chemat să-şi aducă nota personală, şi în care totul este pus la punct până la ultimul detaliu.

Să fii povestea unei creaţii de zile mari înseamnă să stabileşti o relaţie bazată pe sinergie între compunere, proiectare şi interpretare, aşa încât reprezentarea ta pe scena lumii să fie percepută ca parte a unei viziuni colective care decupează în planul lumii o perspectivă unitară.

Minunea victoriei colective este rodul unui leadership performant. O colaborare trebuie fertilizată printr-un efort comun şi prin solidaritate în vederea realizării unui obiectiv comun.

Concluzie: Victoria colectivă este determinată de un leadership performant prin care s-a obţinut acea colaborare perfectă rezultată din unirea calităţilor şi adoptarea unei viziuni comune.

Minunea

On Martie 29, 2015

Raportează-te la ceea ce se schimbă, subordonându-te modelului unei autorităţi aflate sub cupola unei deveniri miraculoase.

- Dumneavoastră nu v-aţi pierdut decât libertatea, strigă Maximilien întrerupându-l pe conte. Tata nu-şi pierduse decât averea. Dar eu, eu am pierdut-o pe Valentine !

- Uită-te la mine, Maximilien, spuse Monte Cristo cu solemnitatea care uneori îl făcea atât de mare şi de convingător. Uită-te la mine: n-am nici lacrimi în ochi, nici febră şi nici bătăi de moarte în inima mea. Şi totuşi, te văd suferind Maximilien, pe tine care-mi eşti drag ca un fiu. Asta nu-ţi spune că durerea e ca viaţa şi că dincolo de ea rămâne totdeauna ceva necunoscut? Dacă te rog, dacă-ţi poruncesc să trăieşti, o fac numai cu convingerea că într-o bună zi îmi vei mulţumi că ţi-am păstrat viaţa.

- Conte, de aproape doi ani o iubesc, de aproape doi ani am putut citi virtuţile fetei şi ale femeii scrise de însuşi mâna lui Dumnezeu în inima ei deschisă pentru mine ca o carte. Cu Valentine aş fi putut avea o fericire nemărginită, uriaşă, necunoscută, o fericire prea mare, prea deplină, prea sfântă pentru lumea asta. Şi fiindcă lumea asta nu mi-a dat-o, conte, trebuie să vă spun că fără Valentine, pentru mine nu mai există pe pământ decât deznădejde şi dezolare.

- Inimă slabă ce eşti, aşadar n-ai putere să-i dai unui prieten puţin timp pentru proba pe care o încearcă ! Ştii tu câtor puteri pământeşti le porunceşte el? Ştii tu oare că are atâta credinţă în Dumnezeu încât poate să obţină minuni de la cel ce a spus că omul poate muta munţii din loc cu credinţa lui? Ei bine, minunea în care nădăjduiesc, aşteapt-o, sau… *****

Leadership: Cel mai nimerit rezumat al vieţii tale constă în predispoziţia de a te judeca pe tine într-un mod constructiv, în funcţie de modul cum te poţi face util în viaţa celor care cunosc deznădejdea unei aşteptări fără de sfârşit?

Leadershipul se formează ca urmare a înțelegerii jocului numit "Quo Vadis", prin măsurarea intensităţii afective și a înclinației de a rezolva situații problematice în care voinţa şi intenţia unei noi repartizări a puterii tale personale alcătuiesc părţile planului de răspuns la solicitările vieţii altora. Asta nu înseamnă să te pui în locul lor şi să treci prin "iadul" lor, înainte să te întrebi: Cum s-a produs în mintea Domnului planul acesta?

Leadershipul aşează stilul de joc al omului superior într-o combinaţie de coduri şi semnificaţii ascunse. Un joc supus continuu încercării de abordare raţională şi sufletească, printr-o apropiere nemijlocită de bunurile cele mai de preţ ale omului (pacea interioară şi bucuria de a trăi) ca model al unei autorităţi aflate sub cupola unei deveniri identitare care instituie o alianţă între credinţă şi faptele bune.

Aplicarea unei puteri protectoare sau a unui organism de cunoaştere desemnat în conformitate cu definiţia stării de bine, indiferent dacă aceasta este una raţională, instinctuală, intuitivă, reprezintă o predispoziţie a omului pentru afecţiune, căldură, preţuire şi finisare a caracterului. Această putere este capacitatea morală de a distinge între bine şi rău, urmărind să împlineşti binele, nu răul.

Indiferent de motivele care determină această putere să se implice în diverse cauze, trebuie mereu să te împaci cu ideea că vei fi dependent tot restul vieţii de ceea ce ţi-a provocat suferinţa în trecut, care poate fi însăşi suferinţa celorlalţi.

Să trăieşti şi să-ţi judeci propria viaţă înseamnă să te înarmezi cu dorinţa de a scăpa de tine însuţi, de suferinţa de a fi ceea simţi că eşti într-un moment definitoriu al vieţii altcuiva.

Prin intermediul conştiinţei, prin intermediul virtuţii de a avea intenţia potrivită şi de a nu ocoli reproşurile care par să aibă miez, ca lider începi să trăieşti o slăbiciune de caracter, o anumită distanţă faţă de ceea ce ţi-ai propus să fii datorită unei determinări superioare și a științei jocului vieţii. Jocul vieţii implică caracterul spontaneităţii involuntare în lucrarea combinatorică a imaginaţiei de a adăuga sau edita imaginea personajelor sau acţiunii, spulberând orice părere înşelătoare despre ce însemni tu în viziunea unei autorităţi supreme.

Iar leadershipul întruneşte condiţiile omului ideal prin influenţa sedativă transferată la nivel de conştiinţă, manifestată uneori printr-o intenţie de respingere a ceea ce el este îndemnat să fie de acord. De aici se explică puterea ce este transferată unui prieten pentru testul pe care trebuie să-l treacă: să obţină minunea, să mute munţii din loc.

Liderul devine o reflexie a omului care nu se poate rupe de trecut, dar care în acelaşi timp nu dovedeşte particularitatea unui jucător terminat, ci ajută la recreerea viitorului prin experienţa semnelor, printr-un soi de gândire a minunii transformatoare, bazată pe convingerea: „Pot muta munţii din loc".

E posibil ca realitatea ce urmează acestui plan să nu corespundă combinărilor solemnităţii, a aspiraţiilor către înalt şi a impulsurilor altruiste, ci să aibă ca deziderat prevenirea degradării unei anumite concepţii despre lume şi viaţă.

Leadership: Conotația pe care o dai testului vieţii reprezintă semnificaţia suplimentară a unui cuvânt care poate însemna "PUTERE" conform menirii sale de a ţine în echilibru trăirile de moment ale unui suflet pierdut în bezna lumii?

Bine spunea filosoful român Constantin Rădulescu Motru: „ Cu un cuvânt, toată seria de fenomene petrecute într-un sistem de corpuri poate fi considerată ca manifestarea unor puteri, care au proprietatea de a se suplini unele pe altele, după raporturi precise şi de a putea fi totdeauna dispuse într-un circuit de transformări parţiale ale unui singur tot. "

Cuvântul cuprinde în sine Totul - sensul, puterea, şi fapta. Cuvântul acesta transpus printr-o minune, taină a energiilor lui Dumnezeu, în care se zideşte toată credinţa în reuşită, în care domneşte putinţa de a aduce în manifestare un mare adevăr şi de a merge pe linia de forţă a destinului, trebuie să fie o prezenţă de înălţime spirituală, o forţă, o persoană cu calităţi de neatins. Un lider care, la rândul lui, îşi vindecă propria rană emoțională pe care o percepe la cei apropiaţi lui.

În leadership, cuvântul care poate indica "PUTEREA", având o mare valoare la nivel de impact emoţional, nu este sintetizat printr-un "Doamne, iartă-l" (conceput ca un fel de regret în ceea ce priveşte alegerile făcute în viaţă), ci este sintetizat printr-un "Nădăjduieşte până la sfârşit într-o minune".

Minunea este un fenomen ieșit din comun, surprinzător, atribuit unei forțe spirituale înalte. Ceea ce se schimbă la om este modul în care se oglindeşte în ochii celor superiori lui. Leadershipul cere putinţa de a trăi tu însuţi puterea unei noi vieţi cu sufletul altuia.

Minutul de înălţare sufletească

Fă o introspecţie amănunţită a Ego-ului tău, înainte de a schimba Ego-ul celorlalţi.

Un bărbat de 36 de ani împuşcat de două ori, se află în stare critică în ambulanţă. Numele lui este Alan Riply. Lângă el, paramedicul, păstrându-şi calmul, încearcă să-i oprească hemoragia ţinând strâns compresa sterilă pe rana deschisă de la gât. Dar nimic mai mult. Nu poate manifesta niciun fel de sensibilitate, nici un fel de zbucium interior. Îşi face doar meseria.

Pe când plasticitate şi expresivitate capătă numai fiinţa agitată, emoţionată, atinsă de fasciculul laser al sublimului care îndeamnă la luptă, străbătută de raza luminoasă a adevăratei iubiri ce poate pătrunde în spaţiul aparent imposibil. Numele ei este Ella Brice. Iar în această femeie de o sensibilitate delicată, cu voce foarte pătrunzătoare, pentru prima oară se dezlănţuie toate forţele de reacţie în favoarea iubitului ei.

Tot ceea ce o mişcă şi o ţine pe loc, pasiunea, măreţia, determinarea, afecţiunea, forţele particulare care nu se anulează, ci întotdeauna se află în slujba nobilă a durabilului, sunt încă o dată combinate, încă o dată sunt datoare să-şi aducă contribuţia. Iar când o asemenea Pandora închide capacul cutiei în care sunt adunate răutăţile şi greutăţile lumii, toată speranţa creşte, se dezvoltă în ea dându-i o forţă nebănuită în lupta pentru salvarea celui muribund.

Leadership: Poţi să adopţi acea înţelegere a realităţii capabilă să facă sinteza între un drum al vieţii transpus într-un "Forever Mine" şi o axă temporală a lumii în jurul căreia se realizează unificarea dintre material şi spiritual?

Explorarea unui câmp de intensitate într-un punct al său se face cu ajutorul unei forţe ce acţionează direct şi continuu. Substanţa esenţială şi fundamentală generatoare de viaţă se află în omul însuşi, în intimitatea lui cea mai secretă. Ego-ul lui putând fi stimulat numai prin maximizarea forţelor care se nasc din exces de sentiment, din exaltare, prin întrepătrunderea celor două spaţii - trecutul şi prezentul, albul şi negrul, clarobscurul.

Hotărâtă ca un miner, Ella intenţionează să extragă preţiosul zăcământul ascuns în Alan. Încordându-şi toată fibra sufletească, până ce căldura emoţională îi umezeşte ochii, îi vorbeşte deschis. Încă o dată vocea ei îndrăzneşte să exprime emoţiile necesare reacţiei de fuziune cu zona de subzistenţă care încă îl menţine conştient şi în viaţă. Cuvintele ei mângâietoare şi însufleţitoare îşi varsă tot conţinutul, bucuria din inima ei acompaniind acest acord invizibil de uniune sufletească:

"Alan, sunt Ella ! Haide, ajută-mă ! Te rog Alan ! Haide, aminteşte-ţi ! Fii atent la mine. Îţi aminteşti de Key Biscane? Haide, încearcă ! Hotelul era pe plajă. Era primăvară. Soarele strălucea în fiecare zi. Lucrai la hotel. Aveai 23 de ani. Eu eram în concediu cu soţul meu. El era mai în vârstă decât mine. Nu eram căsătoriţi decât de opt luni. Era băgat în politică... Te-am urmărit peste tot. N-am mai făcut asta niciodată. Nu am mai simţit asta niciodată..."

Şi tocmai când acest ceas de amintiri este pus în stare de funcţionare, începe marea reînviere. În starea de comă, Alan nu aude decât glasuri nelămurite, fără să ştie ale cui sunt. Dar apariţia acestor flash-uri din trecut dezlănţuie într-însul, ca o adevărată forţă de presiune, stimulii cei mai puternici care - uimitor - îl readuc la viaţă.

Unificarea dintre material şi spiritual se realizează în condiţiile unei poveşti care nu se termină niciodată, dar care la fel de bine se poate integra în spaţiul unei permanente stări de mare intensitate interioară desfăşurată sub tremurul unei amintiri care te marchează pe viaţă.

Subtilul fluid sufletesc ce stăruie cu îndârjire în el începe să răzbată, să radieze din spaţiul propriu interior. Încet, ochii lui se deschid, aprinzând acea licărire de fericire pe care niciodată eternitatea nu o va putea smulge:

"Lucram pe plajă. Sezonul abia începuse. Era al doilea meu an la hotel. Făceam cursuri. Javier era prietenul meu... Te-am văzut ieşind din ocean. Purtai un costum alb de baie. Jimmy Ruffin cânta la un post de radio. Ai comandat un pahar cu apă... Am realizat că nimic nu va mai fi la fel. Am realizat că viaţa mea s-a schimbat. Am realizat că va fi important. Am realizat că vei fi pentru totdeauna a mea..." *****

Îndrăzneşti să-ţi exprimi emoţiile necesare declanşării unor stimuli pozitivi? Neglijezi acea substanţă esenţială şi fundamentală generatoare de viaţă ce se află în tine însuţi? Care sunt forţele care pot declanşa scânteia însufleţitoare a Ego-ul tău? Cu ce parte a Ego-ului tău se identifică ceilalţi? Poţi să extragi ca un miner zăcământul ascuns în ei?

Ca să ai acces deplin la resursele leadershipului, trebuie mai întâi să urmezi tendinţele existenţei tale, în primul rând să ştii să asortezi nuanţele propriului design interior. Acest design capătă formă, se dezvoltă şi se adaptează prin experienţa trăită în interacţiunea cu ceilalţi oameni. El se axează pe noianul de stimulii care se interpun între tine şi altcineva - redat de acea sensibilitate, de acel zbucium care te provoacă şi de cele mai multe ori te aruncă în luptă.

Astfel tot ceea ce te urneşte şi te menţine "pe val", pasiunea, măreţia, determinarea, afecţiunea, forţele particulare care nu se anulează, ci întotdeauna se află în slujba nobilă a durabilului, se combină şi îşi aduc contribuţia la propria ta transformare. Leadershipul însuşi este o formă specială de comunicare, de interacţiune, nu doar la nivel de companie, ci mai ales la nivel de individ - prin al său conţinut, prin valorile intangibile pe care le deţine.

Leadership: Poţi să devii catalizatorul transformării pozitive extinzând vizibilitatea sentimentelor tale spre zona de interacţiune cu sensul pe care îl dai vieţii într-un context de incertitudine?

Ajungi într-un punct înalt de leadership numai după ce te dedici total unui moment cu adevărat înălţător, numai atunci când eşti pătruns de acel sentiment puternic de armonie, de unitate, care aduce lumină şi găseşte o rezonanţă corespunzătoare în fondul spiritual al celorlalţi.

Leadershipul depinde de scopul urmărit în procesul de interacţionare cu ceilalţi, de materia primă şi de catalizatorul folosit. Scopul trebuie să fie în concordanţă cu "bugetul lăuntric" - totalitatea simţămintelor şi emoţiilor pe care le generezi în rândul celor din jur, şi cele pe care le resimţi atunci când te raportezi la ei. Ideile, cunoştinţele, gândurile, imaginaţia constituie materia primă care asigură mediul prielnic dezvoltării.

Iar catalizatorul transformării folosit pentru a evolua ca sine, ca personalitate, gândire şi fiinţă umană, provine din însăşi experienţa de viaţă, din implicare, dar în special din starea de pozitivism pe care o transmiţi celorlalţi. Trezind în ei acea reacţie foarte puternică, revigorantă, care are puterea de a-i scoate uneori din "starea de şoc" în care se găsesc.

Această "injecţie" permanentă de pozitivism trebuie să o manifeşti în orice situaţie de viaţă.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să judeci calitatea însemnătăţii tale la nivelul unei situaţii de viaţă şi de moarte, printr-un "Think Back" care îţi permite să percepi o altă imagine a lumii?

Filozoful român, Constantin Noica, făcea o precizare, pe care o consider valabilă pentru toţi liderii de azi şi de mâine: "Cine nu simte tot ce e aspru, crud în spirit, nu trăieşte la nivelul lui. Oamenii mari nu sunt buni - iată adevărul. Nu spun că sunt răi, căci s-ar diminua atunci la fel de mult. Dar nu sunt buni. Căci nu sunt pentru ceilalţi. Sunt pentru spiritul din ei."

A fi cu adevărat un om mare este aproape o condiţie a vieţii, a unei nevoi proprii de a transmite celorlalţi din substanţa ta vitală. Viaţa însăşi pe care o trăieşti (pentru ceilalţi, pentru ceva înălţător) este un inepuizabil minereu din care se extrage metalul preţios de la baza leadershipului - Ego-ul, adevărata ta forţă de evoluţie, demonstrându-şi vitalitatea în relaţie cu realitatea exterioară.

Ego-ul, acest comandant al trăirilor proprii, te îndeamnă la luptă, fiind singurul care te poate ajuta să pătrunzi în acel spaţiu aparent de imposibil, singurul aliat al tău care dezlănţuie toate forţele de reacţie în favoarea cuiva sau a ceva.

Bineînţeles, cu obligaţia respectării unei condiţii care te defineşte, şi pe care trebuie să ţi-o impui cu fermitate, uneori greu de îndeplinit – şi pe care eu o consider superioară: niciodată să nu te abaţi de la ce eşti şi simţi. Fă o introspecţie amănunţită a Ego-ului tău, înainte de a schimba Ego-ului celorlalţi.

Nu uita că îţi poţi stimula Ego-ul numai prin maximizarea forţelor care se nasc din exces de sentiment, din exaltare, prin întrepătrunderea celor două spaţii - trecutul şi prezentul. Uneori numai printr-un think back vei putea să produci "reacţii chimice", prietenoase, binefăcătoare, în rândul celor din jur.

Imaginea lumii pe care o poţi percepe printr-un "Think Back", cu referire la rememorarea unor clipe dragi, reprezintă expresia tendinţei de a te adapta cât mai repede la tot ceea ce aduce o experienţă nouă de viaţă axată pe obţinerea unei senzaţii de "unire spirituală" cu persoana iubită.

Minutul de înălţare sufletească denotă acea însufleţire cu totul specială cu care trebuie să intri pe scena vieţii, într-un moment critic, singura cale de a comunica cu cineva dincolo de separaţiile datorate injusteţii vieţii.

Te înstrăinezi de Ego-ul tău atunci când trebuie să te raportezi cu adevărat la ceilalţi, sau îl urmezi în orice moment? Trăieşti condiţia autodepăşirii care impulsionează şi este de natură să dezvolte încrederea ta şi a celorlalţi în propriile forţe?

Mirajul descoperirii inimaginabilului

On Februarie 05, 2010

Nu poţi să atingi "inimaginabilul", fără să-ţi corectezi imperfecţiunile.

Aveam doar opt ani pe atunci, dar îmi amintesc foarte bine de ziua aceea însorită de vară, când stăteam în sufragerie şi mă uitam la mama mea cum pictează. Sunt conştient că memoria îi poate juca feste unui om, dar nu şi mie, amintirea acelei zile va rămâne întotdeauna vie.

Hobby-ul mamei mele a fost dintotdeauna să picteze, a manifestat întotdeauna un interes deosebit faţă de artă şi pictură, faţă de tot ceea ce este frumos şi plăcut. Are şi acum un simţ estetic deosebit. Având o imaginaţie bogată, adăuga întotdeauna ceva nou în tablourile sale: o lumină, o umbră, o sclipire, un luciu, sau un decor fascinant, ori un aspect misterios, păstrând însă întotdeauna proporţiile. Ştia să-şi transpună sentimentele în tablouri. Ştia să distingă esenţialul de neimportant, dar avea măsură în toate.

În orice caz, toată după-amiaza aceea a pictat neîntrerupt, până se întunecase aproape de tot. Îi priveam tabloul, la care lucrase de altfel toată săptămâna, ca pe al unei mari personalităţi. De parcă ar fi fost o poză din revistă, atât de reuşit era. Petalele de trandafir roşii ca focul, razele soarelui care se furişau printre petale, vaza de porţelan verde deschis pe care erau inscripţionate nişte litere mici chinezeşti, sub care se afla mileul alb în formă de triunghi, masa de lemn de stejar de un maro închis, toate adunate creau o imagine vie, foarte clară, splendidă, de înaltă calitate.

Leadership: Măsura capodoperei pe care o laşi în urma ta este determinată de modul cum reprezinţi forma exterioară a lucrurilor sau esenţa lor?

Mi-am dat seama, uitându-mă cu atenţie la tablou, că puţini ar fi putut picta ceva atât de frumos. Tabloul întrecea orice închipuire. Era extraordinar din toate punctele de vedere. M-am uitat cu uimire îndelung la el gândindu-mă cum de-a putut fi realizat atât de bine, cu atâta măiestrie şi delicateţe.

Văzându-mi reacţia de pe faţa mea, mama mi-a spus:

- Tabloul este frumos. Dar să ştii că are multe imperfecţiuni. Nu este atât de reuşit cum crezi tu, şi cum am sperat eu să fie. Mai am foarte mult de exersat. Uită-te la tulpinile de trandafir. Nu le-am făcut oare prea lungi?... Uită-te la vază. Nu e oare puţin cam mică pentru trandafirii aceştia?... Uită-te la petalele pe care le-am pictat. Sunt identice cu cele din vază? Nu sunt oare prea întinse şi prea cărnoase?... etc

Făcu o scurtă pauză, apoi continuă:

- Sunt destui pictori mult mai iscusiţi ca mine. Va mai trece ceva timp până să ajung un adevărat artist, până ce voi atinge inimaginabilul.

Leadership: Cât de mult te implici în "Jocul de-a cine eşti"?

Da ! Pot spune că trăim o revoluţie a inclinaţiilor spre senzaţional, ambalate într-un pachet de distincţie şi simplitate, plasate apoi într-un joc ce n-a beneficiat de asemenea promovare de când s-a inventat. Este vorba despre "Jocul de-a cine eşti", reprezentând esenţa reală a valorii tale, armonizată cu talentele proprii, aplicate în acţiuni concrete, realizate cu un anumit scop.

De ce e aşa captivant să găseşti adevărul a cine eşti cu adevărat? Cu ce anume cucereşte acest joc toţi oamenii din întreaga lume? De ce este mai palpitant decât pokerul sau banii? Fiindcă nu poţi câştiga oricum, fiindcă miza este dată de felul în care interpretezi realitatea. Aici totul depinde de felul cum te percepi atunci când întâlneşti un suflet care rezonează cu al tău şi, mai apoi, de felul cum te percepi atunci când interacţionezi cu propriul tău conţinut.

Leadershipul este experienţa de a trăi acea compoziţie de artă reprezentată în mod autentic în tonurile intense ale unei lucidităţi superioare asupra lumii pe care o priveşti cu alţi ochi decât cei ai omului obişnuit.

În momentul în care explorezi la maxim spaţiul propriu de exprimare a individualităţii, acordând atenţie acelor puncte de vedere şi maniere de abordare a evaluării activităţilor şi eficienţei acestora, îţi formezi anumite convingeri care se pot transforma mai târziu în virtuţi. Iar aceste virtuţi, care reflectă, în general, gradul de maturitate la care ai ajuns, configurează o legătură mult mai strânsă între cine ai fost, cine eşti şi cine vei fi.

Virtuţile scot în evidenţă tot ceea ce este mai bun în noi, fiind deosebit de importante pentru dezvoltarea durabilă a personalităţii, prevenind totodată răspândirea acelei infecţii puternice numite "supra-apreciere". Această supra-apreciere se reflectă în mod distorsionat în concepţiile de viaţă pe care realităţile actuale ale propriei fiinţe le reclamă cu prisosinţă.

Leadership: Trăieşti cu iluzia că eşti nemaipomenit în subordinea artei pe care o reprezinţi la un nivel avansat de integrare a contextelor de producere şi receptare a unor noi sensuri de adâncime a trăirii?

În ziua aceea am învăţat o lecţie preţioasă: că nu tot ceea ce pare extraordinar este şi foarte bine realizat. Ceea ce mie mi s-a părut a fi formidabil, pentru ochiul unui artist adevărat era doar o încercare, şi doar atât. Puţini sunt aceia care reuşesc să realizeze ceva cu totul deosebit, care să întreacă orice închipuire.

Totuşi foarte mulţi cad în capcana în care am căzut şi eu fiindcă ignoră cu desăvârşire detaliile şi fiindcă nu sunt buni cunoscători ai artei. Fiecare om poate „citi" o operă prin prisma cunoştinţelor sale, dar nu orice om este un expert în domeniu care să poată înţelege şi evalua cu adevărat o operă de artă.

Leadershipul, întocmai ca pictura, este o artă. Întrebarea mea este: câţi dintre cei care ocupă funcţii înalte au cu adevărat talent pentru a fi lideri? Câţi dintre ei se pricep cu adevărat să lucreze cu oamenii? Câţi dintre ei reuşesc să îi influenţeze pozitiv pe cei din subordinea lor, câţi au carisma, câţi deţin competenţe la un nivel avansat, câţi îşi asumă responsabilitatea pentru acţiunile lor?

Luciditatea este consecinţa trăirii pe care pe care ţi-o dă contemplaţia asupra operei de artă născută din dependenţa de a-ţi corecta imperfecţiunile.

Pentru că ceea ce îşi închipuie unii că sunt, buni profesionişti, poate să fie de fapt doar diletantism. Căci, din păcate, mulţi se înşală atunci când îşi închipuie că sunt excelenţi profesionişti, lideri talentaţi. Din acest motiv cred că e necesar ca unii să deschidă ochii mai bine către realitate, înainte să fie prea târziu.

Una dintre greşelile pe care le fac oamenii care se găsesc la niveluri înalte este că vor să atingă „inimaginabilul" foarte rapid, fără însă să-şi corecteze imperfecţiunile. Nu îşi cunosc slăbiciunile şi limitele, nu ştiu cum sunt percepuţi de cei din jur, nu acceptă critici (deşi la suprafaţă le admit) şi, cuprinşi de o teribilă dorinţă interioară de a fi tot mai admiraţi, îşi interpretează greşit performanţele. În loc să încerce să-şi schimbe mentalitatea şi să depună eforturi de a se perfecţiona cu adevărat, ei trăiesc mereu cu iluzia că sunt nemaipomeniţi.

Mirajul descoperirii inimaginabilului se poate interpreta astfel: există totdeauna loc de mai bine, ceea ce înseamnă multă muncă. A te lăsa amăgit de un miraj constituie o mare greşeală ce poate avea consecinţe nefaste.

P.S. Formează-ţi o imagine realistă despre tine însuţi.

Mişcarea atrage întâi atenţie, abia apoi te gândeşti la ceea ce se mişcă

On Decembrie 20, 2012

Descoperirea frumuseții în forme simple poate transforma perspectivele tale asupra lumii, pe linia unei pasiuni care persistă întreaga viață într-o necontenită odisee a creației.

Eisenstein nu învăţase desenul niciodată. Începuse să deseneze în urma unei impresii din copilărie: în aşteptarea începerii partidei, inginerul Afrosimov îi desenă cu o cretă pe postavul albastru închis al mesei de joc contururi de animale. Eisenstein rămăsese fascinat de arabescul alb al liniei care se năştea sub ochii lui şi care în mişcarea sa făcea să apară câini, cerbi, pisici. Linia se mişca de-a lungul conturului invizibil al unui obiect căruia, printr-un miracol, îi dădea astfel existenţă pe postavul mesei. Dinamismul liniei era o senzaţie care-l pasiona ani de zile.

Inginerul Afrosimov îi inoculase plăcerea de a desena. Mai târziu, la Politehnică, materia aridă a geometriei analitice căpăta pentru tânărul student un farmec aparte pentru că traducea în misterioasele formule algebrice tocmai mişcarea liniilor. Dinamismul "devenirii", în opoziţie cu staticul, îl va pasiona toată viaţa, fie că e vorba de mişcarea liniei, ori de cea a fenomenelor. Era o fascinaţie pentru geneza lucrurilor care-şi are originea şi aici, în această impresie timpurie în legătură cu desenul.

Leadership: Opera ta, ca o reprezentare completă și autentică a unei viziuni artistice, poate fi percepută ca o capodoperă a unei scene desprinse dintr-o simbioză artistică?

A desenat, cu o ştim, mult, în tinereţe. Mult şi prost, deoarece, abandonând inspiraţia primară, încarca desenul cu detalii sub influenţa şcolii ruse de pictură de gen. Caligrafierea şcolară după model nu-i reuşea nicicând. Maniera sa era aceea a desenului linear. Apoi, abandonând desenul, a rămas în continuare pasionat, în primele sale filme, pentru puritatea matematică a montajului în mişcarea sa. Gustul pentru secvenţa apare mai târziu, şi-şi explica ciudăţenia acestei întârzieri, prin logică gândului lui Engels: "mişcarea atrage întâi atenţie, abia apoi te gândeşti la ceea ce se mişcă."

O ființă organică a cinematografiei, de pildă, nu s-ar putea edifica ca o forță creativă fără a împrumuta ceva din elementele universale de expresie ale lucrurilor de care se înconjoară, ale artei, ale tehnicilor, sau ale științei constructive. Și, probabil, oricare din acestea nu ar avea decât o ființă trunchiată fără contribuția tuturor celorlalte, inclusiv a practicii coregrafice.

Ordinea în care precumpănesc în importanță și valoare aceste lucruri face loc unei diversități infinite de întruchipări sub care este văzut creatorul: drept un maestru, sau drept un vizionar. Așa cum o pictură de Rembrandt, de exemplu, model pentru ceea ce am putea numi simbioza artistică, include în chip armonios, în subsidiarul expresivității ei, anumite elemente de echilibru (culori, a linii, forme), tot astfel creația unui regizor trebuie să îmbine toate elementele. Prin aceasta, vreau să spun că opera unui regizor este incomparabil mai completă decât un kitsch în care una sau mai multe din aceste elemente constitutive ale unei expresii totale lipsesc cu desăvârșire.

Leadershipul pune accent pe abilitate de a îmbina în mod armonios toate elementele constitutive ale expresiei artistice - mișcare, culori, linii, forme - pentru a crea o operă completă și echilibrată, asemenea unei "simbioze artistice" remarcabile precum picturile lui Rembrandt.

În artele vizuale, leadershipul constă în viziunea și măiestria de a integra diverse componente expresive într-un întreg coerent și captivant, evitând astfel un "kitsch" care ar lipsi unele elemente esențiale ale expresiei totale.

Mişcarea atrage întâi atenţie, abia apoi te gândeşti la ceea ce se mişcă, fiindcă în cinematografie trebuie să ţii cont de acțiunea vizuală dinamică. Elementele în mișcare captează privirea spectatorului și contribuie la ritmul și energia peliculei. Un cadru static poate fi plictisitor, în timp ce mișcarea creează tensiune, suspans și implicare emoțională pentru privitor.

Misiune de supravieţuire

On Martie 11, 2009

Ajută-i pe oameni să exteriorizeze lucrurile pe care le ascund în ei înşişi, fără să cazi sub puterea lor.

În Ajunul Anului Nou, un bărbat stătea într-un bar uitându-se la paharul lui cu băutură. Stătea aşa de peste jumătate de oră când un şofer de tir mai scandalagiu vine lângă el, îi ia băutura şi o dă toată pe gât.

Bărbatul începe să plângă, iar şoferul îi spune:

- Ei, hai acuma, glumeam doar. Calmează-te, îţi cumpăr altă băutură. Pur şi simplu nu pot suferi să văd un bărbat plângând.

- Dar nu din cauza asta plâng. Asta e cea mai proastă zi din viaţa mea. În primul rând, am dormit prea mult şi am întârziat la lucru. Şeful s-a înfuriat şi m-a dat afară. Când am ieşit din clădire să-mi iau maşina, am descoperit că-mi era furată. Poliţia susţine că nu poate să facă nimic. Neavând de ales, am luat un taxi până acasă. După ce am coborât din taxi, mi-am dat seama că mi-am uitat în el portofelul şi cărţile de credit, dar era prea târziu. Am intrat în casă şi când am ajuns în dormitor, mi-am găsit soţia în pat cu grădinarul. Într-un final am plecat de acasă şi am intrat în barul ăsta. Şi tocmai când mă gândeam să-mi pun capăt zilelor, îţi faci tu apariţia şi-mi bei otrava.

Leadership: Imaginea cu care te prezinţi în lume îşi schimbă unghiul de vizualuare odată cu trecerea de la o persoana la alta, fără să iei în calcul nimic altceva în afara propriei indisponibilităţi de a te ataşa de ceva sortit să se schimbe?

Ţelul unul lider este să conducă oamenii, iar pentru asta el trebuie să producă o schimbare notabilă în viaţa lor. Impactul lui este cu atât mai mare cu cât schimbarea oamenilor este mai semnificativă. Problema cea mai mare este că, dacă nu ştii când şi cum să intervii în viaţa oamenilor, poţi avea o surpriză – să primeşti o lovitură puternică sub centură. Anume, în loc să-i schimbi tu pe ei, să te schimbe ei pe tine. Te poţi trezi brusc într-o postură de subordonare, când ceilalţi preiau controlul total al destinului tău.

Tu laşi garda jos atunci când îţi extinzi influenţa? Vrei să ajungi în ipostaza şoferului de tir care singur s-a „otrăvit" datorită implicării sale intempestive în viaţa oamenilor?

Când ţinteşti către esenţa oamenilor, când intervii în viaţa lor, ai grijă să nu laşi niciodată garda jos, ai grijă să nu te transformi într-o victimă a propriilor excese ridicole de incursiune în viaţa lor. Înainte de a le transmite propria ta viziune, mai întâi străduieşte-te să înţelegi profund esenţa lor. Cazi singur sub puterea lor dacă impactul leadershipului tău nu precede o foarte bună înţelegere a simţămintelor care le încarcă viaţa.

Ajută-i pe oameni să exteriorizeze lucrurile pe care le ascund în ei înşişi, fără să cazi sub puterea lor de influenţă. Unghiul de vizualizare al imaginii tale corespunde cu planurile oamenilor din jur atunci când ceea ce afişează personalitatea ta (mai ales fizionomia chipului tău) intră în acord cu aspiratiie lor, cu statutul lor, cu preferinţele lor pentru schimbare.

Aşa cum un doctor care se confruntă cu un pacient a cărui boală nu o poate sesiza, citeşte cu aviditate despre ea, căutând relatări de cazuri ale altora pacienţi cu manifestări similare – tot aşa şi tu, când te confrunţi cu oameni ale căror trăiri, gânduri, stări psihologice nu le poţi sesiza sau nu le-ai priceput foarte bine, trebuie să te împotriveşti dorinţei de a crea brusc un impact în viaţa lor.

Caută să-ţi stopezi pornirea de a intra intempestiv în viaţa oamenilor, până ce nu simţi că eşti suficient de sigur pe ceea ce simt ei.

Misiunea de supravieţuire exprimă metaforic dimensiunea leadershipului tău. A avea un impact în viaţa oamenilor, presupune să ştii să răspunzi la atacul lor, trebuie să-ţi camuflezi intenţia, iar alteori trebuie pur şi simplu să nu te implici deloc. Leadershipul tău se poate transforma într-o ameninţare chiar la adresa ta, şi te poate seca de toată puterea dacă urmezi acele hotărâri care au un caracter ofensator – cu efect de bumerang.

Concluzie: Superioritatea în leadership depinde în mare măsură pe de-o parte de tactul şi tactica liderului de a stabili relaţii, pe de altă parte de "calitatea" oamenilor în ceea ce priveşte nivelul lor de înţelegere, receptivitatea la schimbare şi de cât de mult sunt "ancoraţi" în realitate. Munca unui lider în ceea ce priveşte educarea adulţilor este uneori foarte grea. El trebuie să aibă metode adecvate de a modifica gândirea şi mentalitatea lor. Orice intervenţie intempestivă se poate solda cu un eşec total.

Misterul artei care îşi caută înţelesul

On Ianuarie 07, 2018

Reinventează-ţi modul de a face artă, lucrând în real prin puterea imaginaţiei care solicită aparenţele unei accesibilităţi directe.

Eram întâmpinat de lumea unor lucruri vii sau inerte, ca nişte elemente constitutive ale unui organism unitar, pe care le percepeam în mod direct ca nişte rezultate finite, dar în mod extensiv ca pe un spațiu autonom cu o anumită energie care, potrivit relativităţii generale, duceau la expansiunea universului.

E vorba de acel univers al închipuirilor şi al contrastelor, dominat numai de creatorii de geniu, încărcat de semnificații ce propun expresii tensionate cu energiile adânci ale vieții autentice, portrete transfigurate ale simțămintelor și gândurilor realizate cu sudoarea conștiinței, prin care gustul eternităţii sensurilor dezbracă formele de conţinut din spatele cuvintelor născute din materia primordială. Acestea se aliniază în perimetrul asocierii expresive îngăduit numai de hieroglifele enigmatice ale Marii Operei, dând legilor realităţii un răspuns întemeiat pe baza ghicitorilor: "Câmpul alb, oile negre / Cin-le vede nu le crede / Cin-le paşte le cunoaşte."

Marea revelaţie a artei este să vezi ceea ce toţi ceilalţi scapă din vedere, să conferi inertului un spaţiu propriu de existență, cu o arie de emanaţie a uraniului spiritual, şi să faci din el un loc de întâlnire cu Dumnezeu, să schimbi viziunea asupra lumii cu aceeaşi fior de vrajă cu care un seducător îşi pune la bătaie harul.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi accepţi latura creativă, fără să te îndepărtezi de responsabilitatea care trebuie asumată prin depăşirea condiţiei de „prizonier al creaţiei"?
